HAZELTON STRUCK IN SKEENA RIVER

STEAMER KEPT AFLOAT BY HER BULKHEADS

Four Planks Knocked Out of Hull on Her Last Down Voyage-Along the Waterfront.

News is brought by Aaron Lewis, one of the arrivals on the steamer Nell from the North on Saturday, that the steamer Hazelton on her last down trip from the rock about 60 miles up stream, a week water at the entrance to the river. Subago, and, owing to the high rate of speed in which she was travelling at the speed in which she was travelling at the fined with buoys, etc. A request for a time, sustained considerable injury. She struck bow on on the port side, carrying P. N. company, and is believed to have away four planks in her hull and one of the three rudders with which she is provided. Fortunately she rebounded with vided. Fortunately she rebounded with the impact, and having bulkheads was able to complete the remainder of the trip without further misadventure, although owing to the amount of water in her hold she was sunk deep by the bow.

The little steamer Mocking Bird, which had been brought down from the Naas for the purpose of carrying ore from the Oxstal to the mouth of the Skeena, and which after her arrival was found to be unsuited for the service because of her large draught, was seized at Port Simpson on Friday last. She had failed to comply with the customs regulations in clearing from Essington, and when the Mayor Scott said in opening that the meeting had been called to give Mr.

Brown an opportunity to explain his position, and was not intended as a partizan gathering in any respect.
Mr. Brown, as first speaker, cited eulogistic references in a newspaper to the action taken by Mr. McBride, which gave that gentleman credit for the concessions secured to his (Mr. Brown's) constituency. He did not object personally to Mr. McBride, but thought when he, as a member for the district, had worked conscientiously in its behalf, that he should receive a joint share of credit. Referring to the Westminster bridge, he said that that Westminster bridge, he said that that he had urged then the construction of work was not due to Mr. McBride's the bridge across the Fraser, which traduction of party lines was necessary exertions, but that the first Mr. Mc-Bride had known of the enterprise was when he had spoken to him about it. took the subject into consideration, If the Dunsmuir government was de- and a few days after, in conversation, Cigar and umbrella race—A. PRESIDENT M'KINLEY STILL IMPROVING

HE IS CHEERFUL AND CONFIDENT OF RECOVERY

The Opinions of the Doctors-Another Alleged Anarchist Arrested-No Clue to a Plot.

Buffalo, Sept. 9.—Dr. McBurney, the famous New York surgeon, said to a Associated Press reporter after the is sue of the 3 o'clock bulletin, that all th indications continued favorable.

"No bad symptoms have appeared said he. "No one can say now that th President is out of danger, and for week, still the possibility of complications may exist. At the end of that time, if all goes well, we may be able. say that he is convalescent."

"But I have known cases," put in Di

Mann, who was with the noted surgeon "to go well for ten days and then chang for the worse. "That is true, perhaps," said Dr. Me Burney, somewhat depreciatingly, "bd it is entirely unusual. If the Presiden continues to improve for a week," ontinued, "we may safely say that is convalescent. It will probably three weeks before it will be safe move him. We must wait until the bu er wound is healed and strong. The in her wounds through the stomach properties will be strong before the exterior wound is. How long it will be before he wi be able to sit up will depend upon the lapidity of his improvement, and I make y to you further that his improvement if it continues, promises to be rapid," Turning to the Associated Press of respondent, Dr. McBurney said: can assure your clientele that all go well. The President's condition cou hardly be more satisfactory. Furthe more, you can impress and emphasize fact that the bulletins issued state

Dr. Mann said that the President wa not out of danger. He said that son nourishment had been administered t day through the rectum, and he had ta en water in the stomach.
