Manners, Customs, etc.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.
From the New York Evangelist.

This is a work possessing many novel and encommonly attractive features. Its appearance is beautiful. Its biographical sketches embrace the most interesting incidents and events in the lives of the principal personages of the Scripture History woven together in a pleasing and sprightly marrative, and fauthfully accompanied with excellent practical lessons. Its chief claim, however, to popularity, consists in its multitudinous pictorial embelsishments.

Samething like five hundred engravings on wood are contained in the volume, many of which are costly and elegant, and in a high style of art, and none discrediable to the theme or the work. These relate to numerous ancient and oriental customs, seenes, manners, history. &c.; and while they adopted the time of the work. the Scriptures, which add greatly to the value of the work, as designed for the instruction of youth and families.

From the United States Literary Advertiser—A work of considerable attraction and value has jost been published by Mr. Skans, of this city, entitled "Biography," comprising the history of the lives and characters of the leading personages mentoned in Holy Writ. This volume should unquestionably find a welcome at every freside throughout the country is contents are as interesting as they are important and instructive, and the publicious editor has, by the aid of numerous pictorial mobilishments, contrived to present us with one of the most attractive and at the same time useful books that have appeared this side the Atlantic. We trust the religious community at large will appear to the Publisher.

From the Boston Daily Mail.—" We contailly recommend this excellent book."

From the Boston Mercantile Journal.—" We can cherefully recommend it to the notice of every Christian Parent, as a beautiful gift book to present to his family."

From the Boston Daily Times.—" An elegan work of five hundred pages, and containing about 500 engravings. The contents of the tolum, appear to be sound, judicious and interesting. It this book meets with a circulation commensurate with its merits, it will be found in every dwsling in the Union."

From the (N. Y.) Baptist Advocate.— We cheer-fully commend the book to the readers of the Ad-vocate, as a work of much merit, fulnished at a very cheap rate."
