TUESDAY EVENING, AUG. 10, 1878.

Mr. Anglin threatens those who make demonstrations in honor of the Governor General with counter demonstrations. A great many people, including the Chief of Police, are anxious to know what counter demonstrations Mr. Anglin has planned and who are to carry them into effect.

Welcome to the Viceroys.
His Excellency the Governor General comes to St. John as the representative of Her Majesty the Queen, and as such he has been received and will be entertained. He is the Viceroys of British North America, and this is one of the most important moments in his life. In honoring him we honor the Queen who sent him here as her representative. It is not as the leader of a political party, not as the champion of free trade or protection or any other particular tenet of political economy, not as the impetuous or political creed that we make demonstrations in honor of His Excellency. He is above the squabbles of all parties, above the dissensions of all sects, above the jealousies of political and business classes, and it is because he is above all these things that he is so highly respected. One man, or two men, may, through ignorance, from dilatory to the Crown, personal spite towards fellow citizens, or for the promotion of political aims, persist in regarding His Excellency as being identified with the party in power and as in some sense the representative of the Ministry of Canada. They need not be noticed, however, and the less they are noticed the better. The leaders of all parties, the chiefs of all professions, the clergy of all denominations, the representatives of every class, will unite in doing honor to the Earl of Dufferin with the same feeling with which they would honor his Royal Mistress.

Personally, Lord and Lady Dufferin would, we suppose, prefer to have no demonstrations made in their honor—they would prefer to be left to enjoy themselves in peace and quietness. Receptions, addresses, salutes, guards of honor, serenades, can add nothing to their personal comfort. They have "supped full" of honors like they would not accept hospitalities of this kind if they came as fellow subjects only. But coming to us from the Queen, visiting us in her name, they expect and graciously accept, even as Her Majesty would do under similar circumstances.

The funds for the reception, being provided by private munificence, there will not even be an opportunity for a tax-payer's growl, as nobody can object to gentlemen of wealth, like John W. Nicholson and Senator Dever giving $100 each for civic hospitalities. These gentlemen pay the bills and the city gets the credit. The subscribers are content and the mass of the citizens must be content also. The ball must and will be a great success. There has not been a fashionable ball in St. John, ago, and everybody and his wife (his wife particularly) must be "dying" to go to one. Waiting on parlor carpets, to piano music, has become monotonous. The time is short, but the dress-makers and milliners have nothing to do but assist in the work of preparation. Now is the time for ball dresses and ball-dress materials to be displayed in shop windows and advertised in the papers. The ladies must go to the ball; therefore new robes must be prepared for them. Fathers of daughters will groan, but the girls, and the young men who have only to pay a guinea for a ticket and another for eatables, will be happy.

Welcome to the representative of Queen Victoria, the Viceroys of British North America, the Governor General of Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific! Welcome, Lord and Lady Dufferin, to the City of St. John!

The Partisan Press on Two Constitutional Law Cases.
When the Earl of Mulgrave was Governor of Nova Scotia, some dozen years ago, a majority of the voters of the Province petitioned him to dissolve the House of Assembly. Mr. Howe, the Premier, advised a majority of the voters in the Assembly—a majority composed of men who had been elected to turn him out of office. The Governor decided that the principles of Responsible Government required him to act on the advice of Ministers supported by Parliament, and he refused to dissolve. The Secretary of State for the Colonies, the Duke of Newcastle, in reply to a memorial from the petitioners, wrote a despatch conveying the approval of Her Majesty's Government to the Governor. The Halifax papers that have become fronts in their rage at the refusal of the Governor General to neglect the advice of his Ministers cordially approved of the course of the Earl of Mulgrave and the dispatch of the Duke of Newcastle. The Reporter purposes republishing their articles. Such is partisan journalism.

All the dissatisfied declare that the prorogation of Parliament (by His Excellency, in accordance with the advice of his Ministry, was constitutional. Well, then, if he had taken the contrary course of refusing the advice of his Ministry, wouldn't his action have been unconstitutional? Does anyone doubt that a Parliament, in which the Ministry has a majority, would have declared such conduct?

Mr. Alex. Macpherson has gone to Halifax. He was ashamed of the utterances of some of his friends here, and left for fear he would be identified with them.

THE GOVERNOR GENERAL.
The Citizens Meeting—A Ball—Arrival of the Countess of Dufferin—The Serenade—Lord Dufferin Arrives—The Reception—The Programme for the Week Arranged To-day.
THE MEETING IN THE COURT HOUSE.
At the call of the High Sheriff, published in yesterday's Tribune, at four o'clock a large number of citizens met in the Court House to decide on the reception to their Excellency the Lord and Lady Dufferin. The meeting was an enthusiastic one. It seemed as if all were determined to do what could be done after the idiotic failure of the Common Council to do anything. The Sheriff was called to the chair, and J. Gordon Forbes appointed Secretary. Business was then commenced, and speeches were made by A. L. Palmer, Esq., The Attorney General, Hon. John Robertson, and several others, all agreeing that there should be no expense spared to make the reception of the City and County of St. John and the County of St. John, the most magnificent that has ever been witnessed in this Province. The Sheriff stated that, before the meeting, he had telegraphed to Lt. Col. Fletcher for his views on the subject of a ball. A telegram was received from Col. Fletcher announcing that a suitable reception be pleased, if necessary, to remain a day longer in St. John, to meet the views of the citizens in regard to a ball. The following resolution was then moved by John W. Nicholson, Esq., and seconded by John W. Nicholson, Esq., and W. H. A. Keane, Esq., and passed unanimously:
Resolved, In the opinion of this meeting, that a suitable reception be tendered His Excellency the Governor General and the Countess of Dufferin on their first visit to the City and County of St. John, and that a Committee be appointed to arrange for a Citizens' Ball, and for such other arrangements as the limited time will permit.
A General Committee was then appointed, who, after adjournment were divided into sub-committees as follows:
To make arrangements for Ball—Sheriff Harding, W. H. Tuck, Thos. R. Jones, F. E. Barker, Luke Stewart, Jas. Dever, Chris. Armstrong, and G. F. Smith.
Refreshments—Alex. Jardine, Mayor Reed, Thos. R. Jones, James Dever, and John W. Nicholson.
Printing—Sheriff Harding, James G. Forbes, and John W. Nicholson.
Finance—W. H. A. Keane, Edward Willis, Arthur Everett and W. H. Tuck.
Reception Committee—Hon. Attorney General Robertson, Edward Willis, Hon. James Dever, Sheriff Harding, Isaac Burpee, M. P., A. L. Palmer, Esq., and John W. Nicholson, Esq., and His Worship the Mayor.
A ball has, therefore, been decided on, and no doubt the Committee having the honor in hand will make it a grand success.

ARRIVAL OF THE VICEROYS.
About 8 o'clock last evening the Empress steamed to the wharf having on board the Countess of Dufferin and her party, consisting of Lady Harriet Fletcher, Lt. Col. F. R. Hamilton, A. D. C., and Capt. E. B. Condon of the 60th Rifles. The Empress was illuminated with lamps hung in the rigging in honor of the distinguished passenger on board. As soon as she was made fast the Reception Committee, consisting of gentlemen representing the Civil, Local and General Governments, and Capt. John Tilton of the Governor General's Guards, went on board. Capt. Tilton presented the party to the Countess and they landed, Lady Dufferin being escorted by Mayor Reed, and Lady Fletcher by Sheriff Harding to their carriages, and were at once driven to the Victoria Hotel. Three ringing cheers greeted the party as they landed, and from the large crowd that had gathered to do them honor.

THE SERENADE.
Dinner was served about 9 o'clock and the band, that had been engaged, at the request of the committee, by John Boyd, played a number of choice selections, opposite the windows in Duke St. Before leaving the band moved to the front of the hotel, and Countess Dufferin appeared at the parlor window. Her appearance was the signal for three rousing cheers, which she graciously acknowledged. Then the band played God Save the Queen and retired.

THE GOVERNOR GENERAL'S ARRIVAL.
The pealing of the canon, this morning, from Carleton heights, Fort Howe, King and Barrack Squares, announced to the citizens the arrival of the train bearing His Excellency the Governor General and his party. The Governor General, accompanied by the Mayor and several members of the reception committee, and came over in one of Blackall's barouches. His Worship the Mayor and Lieutenant Colonel Ostry as representatives of the civil and military authorities, were also in the carriage. They were driven to the Victoria Hotel, through Water, King and Germain streets. At the Victoria Hotel a guard of honor, consisting of about one hundred men of the 62nd Battalion, under command of Major Sullivan, received the party with the customary salute. Lord Dufferin alighted, and passed up and down through the ranks inspecting the men and giving all an excellent opportunity of seeing him. He then entered the Victoria, the people standing near lifting their hats as he passed.

Meeting of the Citizens' Committee.
The general committee met this morning in the Mayor's office, Sheriff Harding in the chair.
On motion Oliver T. Stone was made treasurer of the committee.
A BALL IN THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC.
The room committee reported that they had arranged with the directors of Academy of Music for that building, the floor to be laid level with the stage, which will give a floor for dancing about 40 by 70 feet, and a supper room 40 by 45 ft.

After some discussion, and reports from other committees, the following programme was announced:
To-morrow at 12 o'clock the Corporation will present a "Farewell Procession" to His Excellency in the Council Chamber. In the evening there will be a DRAWING ROOM RECEPTION by the Governor General and the Countess of Dufferin, at the Victoria Hotel, commencing at 9 o'clock. The visitors will, of course, be in evening dress. The reception committee will have charge. Thursday morning there will be a BREGIATTA in the harbor. The sum of $400 was set aside for the expenses of this regatta. Mr. W. H. Tuck, Howard Troop, A. C. Smith, D. McLellan, of Indianstone, and George Harding, of Carleton, were appointed a Committee to make arrangements for it.
In the afternoon carriages will be provided and a drive taken by the Vice-regal party. On their return home, the children of the Public Schools of the City and Portland, if it is possible to get both together, will be arranged in front of the Hotel and will sing God save the Queen. The Trustees of Schools have charge of the regatta, and a meeting of the teachers, called by the Chairman of the Board of School Trustees, it was arranged that the children of the Public Schools assemble in King Square at 4 o'clock, p. m., Tuesday, and march in procession down King street, through Germain street, and form in front of the Victoria Hotel at 5 o'clock. Seven young ladies dressed in white, chosen from the High School, will be surrounded by twelve children of 6 or 7 years of age, also dressed in white. It is reported 6,000 children will be present. Thursday evening there will be a TORCH LIGHT PROCESSION. The entire Fire Department will turn out and Portland department has been asked to join with the city and will no doubt do so with pleasure. Friday morning and afternoon has been left open to be filled up by anything that may suggest itself to the committee. Friday evening is to be the event of the visit.

THE BALL IN THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC.
A Decoration Committee, of which H. D. Trapp, J. Burpee, M. P., Dr. Bayard, O. T. Stone, W. H. Thorne, J. W. Lanegan, W. F. Bunting and J. Knowles, was appointed. This committee will have entire charge of the room until it is ready for the ball, which will be held on the 14th of May. The room will be appointed. Owing to the short time at the disposal of the committee, it was found to be impossible to issue invitations, and each gentleman was to take notice to those in the room. It was decided to invite Governor Wilton, Lady and suite, to visit St. John and take part in the various festivities, and also to invite Gen. Warner and lady to the ball.

The Music Committee reported that they had telegraphed to Halifax about a Band, and were awaiting a reply, and that they also had a proposition of Prof. Muller before them. The price of the tickets was on motion of Hon. T. R. Jones, fixed at $5 for a gentleman and two ladies, and $1 for every additional lady.

In order to have a head for the various sub-committees and to prevent the confusion which would be caused by the meeting of the General Committee together, Sheriff Harding, Mayor Reed and Burpee, Hon. T. R. Jones and Hon. G. E. King, were appointed an Executive Committee. This Committee will meet every Tuesday at 8 o'clock and have reports from sub-committees, and decide any disputed points.

A Jesuit Priest Killed in Pernambuco.
From the Pall Mall Gazette.
Some serious disturbances have taken place at Pernambuco in consequence of the measures adopted by the Brazilian bishops against the Freemasons. Nearly the whole of the more prosperous inhabitants of the town are Liberals, and on the 14th of May they got up a demonstration against the Jesuit priests, and the Jesuits in return took to the streets to express their disapproval of a decree of excommunication which had been issued against the Freemasons and their sympathy for the late dean of Orléans. Dr. Joachim Francisco de Faria, who had been removed from that appointment because he had joined the Freemasons' society. A thousand of the inhabitants, led by a moderate and liberal citizen named Baron de Villa Bolla, went in procession through the streets and then entered the college, where a number of speeches were delivered against the Jesuits with great applause. So far all was quiet; but as soon as it grew dark the people assembled from the lower quarters of the town, and the Jesuit college and the office of the Bishop's newspaper, União, All the printing materials were destroyed, and the paper was thrown out of the window to feed a bonfire which was kept burning four hours in the street. In the Jesuit college not only were the rooms plundered and defaced, but four of the fathers were all treated that one of them, who was ill, died of the blows he received. The college chapel was broken into, the sacred pictures shattered, and the confessionals destroyed to pieces. The following day passed quietly; but on the afternoon of the 16th crowds again collected in the principal squares and the young authors and professors made revolutionary speeches. At last it was found necessary to send for a detachment of cavalry, which soon dispersed the mob. According to the latest accounts, dated 21st of May, President Pereira de Lucena was about to resign, and the Jesuits had determined to leave the province.

Godley's Ladies' Book for September has been received by Mr. T. H. Jones, as interesting as usual—to the ladies.

The Latest Yankee Raid—The Man with the Black Carpet Bag—The Fiend makes Demons of the Sunday School Children.
It is astonishing with what rapidity Yankee ingenuity and genius send out new inventions to tax the patience and prey on the pockets of the long suffering, but he is not content with that, he is bad enough to overrun our fine country with vendors of patent rap traps, stick-em-fast fly paper, hickory cement, female lightning rods and other notions, but there is a point beyond which even our proverbial meekness is put to rout. When the great American war between North and South was at its height, and it was a matter of speculation which would win, and while the resources of both sides were taxed to their utmost in raising men and material, patriotic Northerners who believed it better to die in a struggle than die fighting at home, stockaded 'down East.' Their coming was of little account to us, for while they ate and drank of the plenty which abounded here and breathed the free air—as free to them as those to whom they overran everything. Our natives became producers as well, and on the whole our city was, perhaps, enriched to some extent. But in packing up their little moiety of "household goods" they neglected to shake out the vermin. Soon our city was flooded with roaches, which became known as "Yankee settlers," and these settlers were terribly prolific, so much so, indeed, that soon, like the frogs and other vermin of the days of Pharaoh, they overran everything. Our natives meekly bore the plague, however, and by the free application of "Paris green" eventually wiped them out. Since then we have had the potato bug, the potato beetle, the spinal-meningitis, small-pox, slight attacks of Tammany Rings, and, some even believe, the Credit Mobilier. Yet all these Yankee inventions and innovations are no comparison to the latest visitor, which we will explain. Any of our readers who were at Reed's Point on Saturday, when the passengers were landing from the American boat, may have noticed a man of the cadaverous making his way to a hotel. Doubtless many wondered, but none knew, who the stranger in solemn black, or what his business to St. John might be. On Sunday the same stranger, with the same black satchel, visited the Sunday schools of this city. At each he left samples of his primer and several blank forms, each long enough to write the Moral Law on, unbraggedly. Monday morning, bright and early, some three thousand boys and girls, from six to fourteen years of age, were turned loose on the street to beg, not for food to stay their hunger—not for raiment to clothe themselves—not for money that the poor of this Province might have the gospel preached unto them, but for money to present to the stranger with the black satchel that he might take it "away down South" and with it teach the millions of uneducated, emancipated blacks "to read the New York Tribune." This last straw on the camel's back was too much, the patience of our business men who had to face the importuning from behind the counters and their wives, who were annoyed by the constant tinkle, tinkle of the door bells at home, finally broke down, and the innocent causes of the annoyance saved themselves from the wrath excited by aposty flight. We hope wiser heads will, to-day, abate the nuisance described and that the fiend with the black satchel will take his departure for pastures new.

Mrs. Wm. Lawrence, writing Mr. Fellows, says: "I cannot tell you how many have called to see me, to inquire if I really had been as ill as reported, and [it was the Syrup alone which so wonderfully restored me (a consumptive) to such good health. With gladness I tell them all that my recovery is due to Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, with the blessing of God upon it." Fellows' Hypophosphites being peculiar in its effect and composition, no other preparation is a substitute for it.
The Family Disturbance—Lately to be tried for Assault—He Denies ever Striking his Wife.
The trouble between Alfred Lordly and his wife is still unsettled. Dr. Berryman examined Mrs. Lordly and reported to the Magistrate that he found her limbs badly bruised in several places. The Magistrate, therefore, sent for Lordly and the boy Gillis, both of whom Mrs. Lordly charges with the assault, and they appeared in the Police Court yesterday afternoon. It was found that Mrs. Lordly was quite willing to drop the suit if a final separation could be arranged. A. Ballentine, Esq., endeavored to arrange the terms of such separation, and a division of the property. On this subject they could not agree. Lordly considering that his wife claimed too much. She, on her part, claims just what she thinks she has worked for and earned.
