HARTLAND DOES THE GRAND

Town Council, Women's Institute and Citizens Generally Combined to Give Visiting Newspaper
Men and Tourists a
Good Time

Who says that Hartland cannot do the grand? The editor of the Observer has been busy for exactly one month promoting an excursion of the Maritime delegates to the convention of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association and of the New Brunswick Tourists Association. The former last on June 8, 9 and 10, and the Tourists its annual convention at Ottawa on Monday and Tuesday. A standard twelve section C. N. R. sleeper was attached to the morning train out of St. John and carried the delegates to Edmundston and to Ottawa.

The Observer man got in touch with the Town Council and they lived up in truly progressive manner. A dozen automobile owners volunteered for service, and by hasty arrangements made by wire the whole party consisting of about twenty was taken from the train at Woodstock station and conveyed through that town to Hartland by way of the west river road. The party expressed wonderment at the beauty of the scenery at the beauty of the scenery and surprise at the wonderful agricultural development. The only fly in the ointment was the awful condition of the road between Woodstock and Hartland.

At Hartland the party assembled on the station platform to await the coming of the train and during the wait Mayor Kelley and the Council extended civic greetings to the party, the Mayor making the following address: Members of the All New Brunswick Tourist Association and The Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association—

On behalf of the Town of Hartland, where you are making a short stop, I, Mayor Kelley and my friends the Aldermen, some of whom are here with us, desire to extend to you the felicitations of the people of this little town and the fine agricultural country surrounding us on every hand, which, we claim, is the Banner Agricultural County of the Province. This is the County of fine horses, big potatoes and lots of them, and here we have the head office of the largest potato exporting firm in Canada, of which Alderman Hatfield, who is here with us, is the President.

We have examined with interest your new booklet, and want to say that what it has to say for Hartland is true. Within one minute's walk of where we stand is the Salmon Pool described there. A little further up the line you will notice the current of the St. John River is very swift, and here the Becaguine empties its cool waters into the main river, forming the pool in which countless numbers of Salmon love to lie and rest in their journey to the spawning beds further up the river. During the present month the salmon go north to these spawning beds, and in September they return and stop at this same pool. Fishing is good in either month. The head waters of the South West Miramichi and the Ashwaik may be reached in an hour's motor ride. We would ask that Tourist Association do not forget or neglect Hartland, and we want to thank them for the publicity.

GOOD PROGRESS OF CEMETERY CO'Y

The committee of seven who have charge of the affair concerning the New Cemetery Association met last evening at the office of Hatfield & Co.

There were present: Chairman R. J. Potts, A. F. Campbell, J. E. McCollom, Fred H. Stevens, G. B. Nixon and H. H. Hatfield. Messrs Potts and McCollom reported that they had measured the Bradley land on the east side of the old road and found approximately 110 sq. rods, and about half an acre on the north side of the present burying ground, which two portions of land would nicely square up the cemetery and provide ample accommodation for years to come.

For this $14 acres Mr. Bradley asks $800. On motion of J. E. McCollom, seconded by H. H. Hatfield, the committee resolved to become incorporated under the Cemetery Companies Act, as Greenwood Cemetery Association Ltd., with a capital stock of $8000.

Moved by F. H. Stevens, seconded by G. B. Nixon that M. L. Hayward, Esq., be employed as solicitor to proceed with the business necessary to the incorporation of the company. Carried.

It was moved by A. F. Campbell, seconded by G. B. Nixon that R. J. Potts and H. H. Hatfield be the committee to purchase the whole of the Bradley property offered at $800 and the deed therefor be taken in trust by Potts and Hatfield, and to be transferred to the new corporation as soon as the charter is issued.

There was considerable discussion afterwards on ways and means and the committee feels that it has made rapid and substantial progress.

Another meeting will be held in a few days.

TOWN COUNCIL MONTHLY MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the Town Council postponed on June 5, on account of the day being observed as a public holiday, was held on Monday evening of this week.

The financial committee reported that in 1922 assessment was completed and that tax notices would be issued immediately.

The street committee reported that $500 had been expended on Rockland Road, Hillcrest Avenue and Main St. Two fires were reported by the water committee.

The police committee reported one arrest for fast driving.

The committee on by-laws reported progress.

Alderman W. B. Nixon was appointed

HYDRO-ELECTRIC POWER SURE

If The Energetic Men Now Behind the Proposition Carry Their Plans into Effect

At last Hartland is to really come on the map insofar as hydro-electric power is concerned. A number of men have investigated the possibilities available at the dam of Ernest McIlroy at Waterville and find that there is readily available, and running waste, from 50 to 80 horse power. The dam is complete and needs only the electric installation and transmission line to Hartland. The power can be purchased at a right price.

H. H. Hatfield is the chief man behind the enterprise and he has associated with him a number of other energetic citizens, and it looks as though the matter was a sure thing. One of the best features of the whole thing is not only that ample power is available, but there is immense storage capacity. The interested men went to Ashland, Me., last week and made examination of a similar plant and returned fully satisfied that the local scheme could be worked out on line similar to that employed at Ashland and that there would be ample power for all purposes for years to come, and that the current could be supplied at a really low price.

There is every prospect that the time elapsing before the town is supplied with an all day electric service for power, light and heat will be reckoned in weeks. An important industry using 30 horse power, will, it is understood, be brought here soon as there is electric power.

ed to the committee handling the affairs to the new Cemetery Association.

The matter of supplying electric power for the town was fully discussed. G. M. McLeod, C. R. DeWitt and H. A. Nixon were appointed the committee to investigate the electric light proposition.

A. E. Plummer was re-appointed Sec. Treas., at a salary of $500 per year.

The water committee was given the authority to purchase 300 feet of new hose and to hire a suitable chief of the fire department.

A petition was received largely signed asking that the town take some action to have the C. P. R. stock yards moved from the centre of the town.

The council resolved itself to the committee of the whole to petition the County Council for the adjustment and reappointment of the county taxes.

SCHOOL CLOSING

Hartland schools will this year elaborate upon their usual closing, or, as the Americans put it, their "Commencement" exercises. The main function will likely take place in Smith's hall. On Sunday, June 23, Rev. E. A. Trites will preach the Baccalaureate sermon—a new thing here, but a common and inspiring custom in other towns.

SO MANY PEOPLE ARE NERVOUS

"Fruit-a-tives" the Greatest of all Nerve Remedies

This Fruit Medicine Restores Health
The increase in the number of persons suffering from Nervousness is world-wide; due, in a measure, to the reaction following the war. Sleeplessness, Headaches, Mental Depression, Rheumatism, Nervous Dyspepsia, Bad Heart Action, are the results of a disturbed condition of the Nervous System.

The nerves and the blood are so intimately, so vitally, connected that the condition of one is bound to affect the condition of the other. If the blood is laden with impurities, it is impossible to have strong, steady nerves.

The first essential in treating nervous troubles is to purify and enrich the blood. This "FRUIT-A-TIVES" will do.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" stimulates the bowels, kidneys and skin and purifies the blood. "Fruit-a-tives" improves appetite and digestion and insures food being properly digested, thus enabling the blood to carry wholesome nourishment to build up the body, particularly the nerves.

Men and women who take "Fruit-a-tives" for some form of nervousness—because they cannot eat or sleep or work or enjoy life—say that this fruit medicine is simply marvellous in its action.

50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa Ont.

"All Aboard!"

At first glance, the origin of the phrase "going on board" a ship would appear to have some connection with the boards or planks with which ships are constructed. But when we remember that we also speak of "boarding" a train, it is obvious that the expression must have some additional derivation. The word "board," of itself, can be traced back to the Icelandic, and it was probably introduced into the Anglo-Saxon speech by some of the great adventurers from this little island in the North Atlantic. In the original tongue board was understood to mean the side of a ship, and it was in this sense that it was first employed.

When used in the connection of the supplying of food, the word "board" is simply a relic of the days when tables were made from a single plank, with rude supports at each end.

Is Friday Unlucky?

A great many people believe implicitly that Friday always brings misfortune, and they can always give plenty of facts to prove their belief. The following list shows, however, that Fridays are as often lucky as they are unlucky:

Shakespeare was born on a Friday. America was discovered on a Friday. Washington was born on a Friday. The Bastille was destroyed on a Friday. The Mayflower landed on a Friday. Queen Victoria was married on a Friday. Napoleon was born on a Friday. The Joke Editor of Tit-Bits was born on a Friday.—Tit-Bits.

Headache

Recurring headaches usually come from an exhaustion of the nervous system, and they do not disappear until the vigor of the nerve cells is restored by such up-building treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Temporary relief by use of powders is often obtained at an enormous expense to the nervous system and the general health.

Get the nerves right and the headaches will not return.

Mrs. W. J. Pearce, Nunn St., Cobourg, Ont., writes:

"My system became run-down and I suffered greatly with pain in my head. This was so severe that I would have to bind a cloth tightly about my head so that I could get my work done. A friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after taking the first box I found quite an improvement in my condition. I continued using them until I had taken about seven boxes, and they strengthened and built up my system splendidly, completely relieving the pain in my head."

Royal Honors Often Declined

It may be that when Mr. Balfour declined the offer of the King to make him a Knight of the Garter, he thereby opened the way for Viscount Lascelles to receive this honor, since the Garter Knights are limited to twenty-five, and it is not often that there is more than one vacancy at a time. If the only vacancy was that filled by the bestowal of the honor upon the viscount, the compliment proffered by King George is intensified, since the acceptance by Mr. Balfour would have made it impossible to confer this dignity upon his Majesty's son-in-law. The only royal honor Mr. Balfour has so far accepted is that of membership in the Order of Merit, and he chose this, perhaps, because it seemed to be a recognition of his scientific and literary labors, rather than those directly concerned with politics. That he should have declined a dukedom was not surprising, for at least twice before he refused a peerage, once from King Edward and again from King George. Being an unassailable bachelor, the hereditary character of the honor had no charm for Mr. Balfour, and in remaining a simple "Mister," he is surely in goodly company.

Thrice did Joseph Chamberlain refuse peerages, simply from pride in his own name, which he had made a household word throughout the Empire. He had plenty of money with which to support the rank and a family to inherit it, but he politely refused when asked by King Edward to accept a peerage. When he passed away, we learn, on the authority of E. Cutcliffe Owen, C.B.E., that a unique honor was paid to his widow, who was by birth an American. She was urged by King George to accept a peerage in her own right in recognition of her husband's great services, and also of her own loving care during the long period that he was as helpless as a child through infirmities which nevertheless left his mind keen to the last and his interest in public affairs unabated. But Mrs. Chamberlain declined again on the ground that, since her husband had declined this honor from three British sovereigns, she would be only deferring to his views by following his example. No doubt Mr. Austen Chamberlain can have an earldom any time he cares for one.

Though Queen Victoria had no great admiration for Mr. Gladstone, she twice offered him a peerage. The Queen was only following precedent in making the offer, since on each occasion the Grand Old Man resigned the Premiership and announced his intention of entering private life. The first offer, it is said, he accepted in principle and made it known that he purposed to assume the style of Earl of Liverpool because he had long family and political affiliations with that city. When this became known, to Lord Hawkesbury, who was at that time Lord Steward of the Royal Household and high in royal favor, he filed objections on the ground that this title belonged to his mother's father, and that through this relationship he had a lien upon it. Since it is an unwritten law that no peer should assume a title which has belonged to a family still in existence and which may therefore be revived for one of its members, Lord Hawkesbury prevailed. Since he could not have this title Mr. Gladstone would have no other.

A curious reason prompted Sir Edward Malet, for long British Ambassador at Berlin, to decline a peerage. His wife was a daughter of the former Duke of Bedford, and she retained her rank as a duke's daughter, since for purposes of etiquette, knights and baronets are considered commoners. Lady Malet, therefore, outranked the wife and daughters of all earls, viscounts and barons, whereas if her husband had become an earl, she would have lost this precedence and would have had to take a lowly position as the wife of a newly-begged earl. Sir Edward Malet could well afford to forego the honor for another reason. His family is one of the noblest in England, and he was able to show descent in the direct male line from Sir Robert Malet, cousin alike of William the Conqueror and King Harold. Peerages have been declined more than once, because those offered them did not have the money to maintain the dignity worthily, and doubted that they would be able to leave a sufficient fortune for their descendants to support a title. It is on this account that most of the great lawyers in England, who are raised to the House of Lords for their services as judges, accept only life peerages, in order that their descendants may not be burdened with great expense and be practically debarred from most money-making pursuits.

But to decline the Order of the Garter is much rarer than to decline a peerage, and the honor was a particular one in the case of Mr. Balfour, because he had just two other titles, he has only been bestowed upon two commoners, Robert Walpole being one and Sir Edward Grey the other. It is true that both were raised to the peerage shortly afterward. One notable instance is cited by Mr. Cunliffe Owen. It was offered to the Earl of Brownlow, a territorial magnate of great wealth and sense of public duty and usefulness. He asked to be excused on the ground that he had merely done his duty and that there were others of greater merit on whom it might more properly be bestowed.

Drill Sergeants of the Sky.

One thing must impress you as you watch a cloud of birds in flight, and that is the amazing way in which the whole flock turns, wheels, soars, or descends, as if by some common impulse.

Such a thing as a collision never occurs. Do they act upon a system of signals given by the leader of the flock, or have they some mysterious means of communicating drill commands? Certainly every bird is capable of becoming the leader, for the one which is for the moment at the head of the flock is followed by the rest whatever his movements may be. We find much the same kind of drill used by animals which live in herds. But here there is a difference, for the herd has always an acknowledged leader whose place is at its head. The old stallion who commands a herd of wild horses snorts to indicate danger, and gives a short sharp neigh to command flight. If his followers are scattered, he rallies them with a long shrill neigh, and when he wants the herd to stand and fight its pursuers he gives the signal with a squeal.

sie Welling and Miss Welling in Ottawa en route.

Avard Whitman of Wapke, the well known lumberman and mill man was a recent visitor in town.

The members of Benjamin Lodge tendered a banquet to their Fort Fairfield brethren last Tuesday evening.

A fine time is reported by all present. The annual meeting of the Andover water works was held at the house last Tuesday evening. The attendance was small, although this matter is of much importance to ratepayers.

Regarding the attendance of these meetings matters are left to the care of a very few. If those few did not attend and take some interest in the Andover water supply its purity, etc.—what then? Surely it behooves every rate payer in the village to rouse himself and take an interest in a matter of such vital importance.

Chancellor Cecil Jones of Fredericton visited his daughter, Miss Edith Jones a day or two of the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. McAlary.

DAUGHTER WAS WEAK AND NERVOUS

Mother Gave Her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with Happy Results

Cobourg, Ontario—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me for my daughter. She had trouble every month which left her in a weak and nervous condition with weak back and pain in her right side. She had these troubles for three years and frequently was unable to attend school. She has become regular and feels much better since she began taking the Vegetable Compound and attends school regularly.—Mrs. JOHN TOMS, Ball St., Cobourg, Ontario.

Every mother who has a daughter suffering from such symptoms should give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It is prepared from roots and herbs, and can be taken in safety by young or old. It has been used nearly fifty years, and many, many women owe their good health today to the timely use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

HE WALKED INTO THE RESTAURANT

Sat down, and gave his order. The soup was slow in coming so he started nibbling the bread.

It happened to be Robinson's Butter-Nut Bread. So he kept on eating it. Soon when the soup came he sent for another order of Robinson's Butter-Nut Bread.

And when he had eaten it he was so well satisfied he skipped the meat. And wasn't hungry till he went home for supper. And he brought home a loaf of Robinson's Butter-Nut Bread so he wasn't hungry long.

Appetising — satisfying — sanitary — ask for Robinson's Butter-Nut Bread at your dealer's.

HARTLAND DOES THE GRAND

Nitty they have already given us in their booklet.

I would further say that we have two large lumber mills in the Town with a number of others in the adjacent country; also we have a thriving wholesale drug business here as well as cement works and other industries.

To the C. W. N. A., I want to say that we are really proud of our own newspaper and its proprietor. He is apparently one of your live members, for we know that this present excursion to Grand Falls and Edmundston is his idea, and that he has spent much time and energy in carrying this idea through. To the Carleton Observer we owe much of the favorable publicity that the Town has had in the past, and we depend on it ever to be boosting for progress and the right. We know that a weekly paper is indispensable to any community that desires to thrive and grow, and that the united force of the Weekly Press is a mighty force in Canada.

To both organizations we wish a pleasant and profitable trip. May you at your different conventions have a helpful session and come back to serve your public better equipped with knowledge and power than ever before.

We thank you and feel honored that you have considered it worth your while to grant our Town even this short period of your time that we might have the opportunity to exchange greetings. We wish we were going with you.

On behalf of the Newspapermen and the Tourists J. L. Stewart, the dean of New Brunswick Journalism responded.
Then followed cheers for the town of Hartland and the C. N. R. and C. P. R. and the N. B. Tourists Association as the train started.

The party gave Editor Stevens three cheers for his successful promotion of the trip.

Up to this point the touring party had had no luncheon, but by lightning work of the Women's Institute and a number of other progressive ladies feared an army, and if they could have heard the words of appreciation expressed by the tourists they would have felt amply repaid for all their trouble.

BENNIE SWIM DECLARED INSANE

lin, superintendent of the Provincial Hospital at Fairville, an authority on insanity. Hon. J. P. Byrne, Attorney-General of New Brunswick, gave out this information.

Dr. Anglin's report was forwarded to Hon. H. A. McKeown, Chief Justice of the King's Bench division of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick, and by him to Ottawa where it is now under consideration by the Department of Justice.

PRESENTATION TO MRS. H. C. MULLEN

Last evening the young ladies of the Reformed Baptist Sunday school gave their teacher, Mrs. H. C. Mullen, bag. The presentation was made in a neat speech by Miss Agnes Belyea and Mrs. Mullen feelingly responded.

Mrs. Mullen has been the teacher of this class for about a year and she will be very greatly missed as she and Mr. Mullen are to take up their new circuit soon. At the close of the evening refreshments were served

If the weather, on Friday is fine there will be a basket ball game between Hartland High School and the lower school grades. The event will take place on the tennis court.

The Hartland Junior Base Ball team, feeling more or less ashamed at the lack of pep and energy on the part of the young men of the town too afflicted with weariness and ennui to get into base ball action, have decided to themselves open, the season on Saturday afternoon with a game with the Woodstock team on Hartland diamond. All hands should turn out and see good, clean sport.

Seven candidates were baptized at Cloydale on Sunday as a result of special meetings being held by Rev. H. V. Bragdon. Services will continue all the week and over Sunday. Large crowds are in attendance and a good interest is manifested both among old and young.

Hartland is coming. The street committee are doing some more good work; several houses are being built, others are adding improvements to buildings and premises; there is at last hope of a hydro-electric plant and a well-kept cemetery. And the spirit of the people is fine. Better times are just around the corner.

HAD THE FIRE GOT BEYOND CONTROL—

in the high wind which blew Friday, April 28—had the fire got beyond control—what would have been left of the wooden portion of the town of Hartland? Do you know that if the adjacent buildings had caught that the combined fire apparatus of two or three towns like Hartland could not have saved your home? Hartland's portion would have been that of Fairville on May 1. BE WARNED by these fearful Fire Devastations and make sure that your insurance is safe. Safe and solid is the insurance that I sell---and I insure anything that is insurable against any kind of loss whatsoever. Strong Companies at the usual rates and terms.

MRS. STOCKALL GAINS 12 POUNDS AND FEELS FINE

HALIFAX RESIDENT IS OVERJOYED AT REMARKABLE RESTORATION AFTER EIGHT YEARS OF SUFFERING—GIVES TANLAC FULL CREDIT.

"I am perfectly delighted with the results I have obtained from Tanlac. My general health has not been better in years," said Mrs. Blanche Stockall, 50½ Oxford St., Halifax, N. S.

"For the past seven or eight years I have been in a dreadfully run-down condition. I had an extremely poor appetite and never relished anything I ate, and always suffered from a distressing nauseated feeling after every meal. To make matters worse nearly every meal I would have a blinding headache and was so nervous I was almost a wreck.

"Tanlac has given me a keen appetite and put my stomach in such good condition that nothing disagrees with me now. I have gained twelve pounds in weight and feel fine all the time."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

Wealth From Fibre.

A wonderful new fibre that will bring vast wealth into Britain has been discovered by Sir Henry Wickham, the world's greatest authority on tropical forestry.

Since the failure of the Russian flax crops the British Government has been trying to discover a substitute for flax, and at last Sir Henry has succeeded. His new fibre, which is called "arghan," is superior to flax in appearance, strength, and water-resisting powers, and it is much cheaper to produce.

Although not naturally found in British Malaya, "arghan" is now thriving there. Enormous difficulties had to be overcome, and Sir Henry's reputation will be increased still more by his romantic achievement. This fibre promises to bring more wealth to England than almost any other discovery in history.

Largest Olive Tree.

What is held to be the largest olive tree in the United States as far as known has been discovered by Deputy City Marshal Lee McCune on the Roy Hill ranch, nine miles below Yuba City, Cal. The tree, which was planted about forty years ago, stands thirty-six feet in height, has a spread of twenty-six feet and two feet from the ground the trunk has a circumference of six feet six inches. The tree, which is of the Mission variety, is heavily laden with large olives.

LUMBERING ON THE ST. JOHN RIVER, PAST AND PRESENT

By J. Fraser Gregory, President of Murray and Gregory Ltd.

From here to the source of the river the St. John flows through the forest like an immense snake, winding in and out and at nearly uniform width, with the trees growing down to the water's edge. We have passed about all the interval farming lands excepting Seven Islands, which I will speak of later, but to get on up the river we pass the Little Black on our right hand flowing down from the Province of Quebec, through the Big Rapids—a hard place for the lumberman, but possible to navigate if the boat or canoe is in the hands of a good pilot. The Big Black on our right coming from Quebec and whose headwaters are about twenty miles from the St. Lawrence River. Then to Seven Islands, located in the main river, interval land growing a large crop of hay that finds ready sale to lumber operators. For fifty years it has been a lumbering headquarters and a road from there to St. Jean Joli Station on the Intercolonial Railway, a distance of fifty-seven miles via St. Pamphile, has been the way to get into this country since the Intercolonial Railway was opened about 1879. Now there is a telephone to St. Jean Port Joli and the lumbermen living there does not feel isolated from the world even if his nearest neighbor lives twenty-seven miles away.

But on we go past the North West Branch, coming from Quebec. The river again divides into the South West and Baker Branch coming from Baker Lake, one of the sources of the river. If we had gone up the North West and taken its westerly branch the Duquesne, about twenty miles back into Quebec, to St. Sabina, the end of the St. Francis branch of the Quebec Central Railway, we would have found our noble St. John a very ordinary brook flowing under the bridge on the highway road, not large enough to more than float a canoe at freshet height, and not more than fifty miles, as the crow flies from the city of Quebec. Note further, that there are no large tributaries flowing into St. Lawrence river on the south bank below the City of Quebec. The watershed separating the St. Lawrence from the St. John runs parallel with the St. Lawrence 20 to 30 miles distant.

The headwaters of our river overlap the Chaudiere in Quebec, the Penobscot in Maine, and the Restigouche and Miramichi in our own province. The territory drained nearly equals the area of our whole province. Like a great tree it is spread out, each of its branches contributing to the volume of water passing into our harbor under the Cantilever Bridge. Although we now have railways from the mouth of the river to the St. Francis river and at the source in Quebec where there are settlements, when you leave these settlements you have 90 or 100 miles of river in the forests without people or roads, excepting the tote roads of the lumbermen. All is as God made it.

The method of operating the Crown lands of Quebec and New Brunswick are very different, but it would take too much time to compare them. My own opinion is, Quebec has a much better system than New Brunswick.

With the building of the Intercolonial railway and later what is now the Canadian Pacific Railway from St. John to Fredericton and on up to Edmundston, and still later the Trans-Canada, and Baginor & Arcoosook, lumbering conditions changed. The increasing population up river has had its effect, also the establishing of branch banks or trust companies in every town or village. The changes are still going on and will continue until the last saw mill disappears from the City of St. John, but that will not be tomorrow for St. John is yet the best place in which to manufacture, even if it costs more to get the logs here. Here we have transportation facilities to all parts of the world by water, which is cheaper at all times than rail carriage, a good market for our by-products, good machine shops, well trained men, and a milling season fifty per cent longer than those up river. The lumbermen of the past were indeed the pioneers of the St. John river, and they were men that we cannot but admire when we look back at their achievements in spite of the tremendous odds against them. Their portage roads have become our highways, their depot camps and mill sites our towns and villages.

How can I make you better understand what I mean than to describe a lumber operation of the olden times and one to-day? The export of lumber from St. John to Great Britain did not commence in earnest until the date of the Crimean war, 1854, when the Baltic ports were closed to Great Britain and she had to look elsewhere for her timber, and masts and spars for her navy.

(To be continued next week. If anyone wishes to get the issues containing the previous articles of this series, he may obtain them of the Publisher in Hartland or the Editor in Edmundston.)

The Lumberman does not see the map divided into provinces, states, counties and parishes, but into hill and valleys that mean watersheds and streams. Don't you now see the St. John River as you never saw it before?

The St. John is an international and interprovincial river and the lumberman must understand the Crown land regulations in New Brunswick and Quebec, also the conditions in the State of Maine, where there are no state lands. The Legislature of that State decided in its wisdom fifty years ago that the wild lands were not worth the cost of caring for, sold them for a song to private individuals. The result has been a great loss of revenue to the State and the making of enormous wealth in some families.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

"Keeping up with Lizzie" on Wednesday evening gave people a good laugh and "The Girl from God's Country" on Saturday was a real thriller. These pictures are strictly up-to-date and anyone following the dates can see for themselves that we frequently have films two or three weeks previous to their showing in St. John. Anyone missing these are missing real shows. The present week's programs will be run according to advertising in the Opera House windows and in the columns of this issue.

S. A. Perkins and B. E. Clark spent Saturday in Woodstock and Houlton. E. J. Amer of Montreal spent the week-end in town.

A movement is on foot to organize a Tennis Club in town, or more properly to re-suscitate the former one. A consultation, to which all in the least interested are invited, will be held at S. W. Burditt's on Friday evening, when ways and means of organizing and carrying on will be considered.

The local banking quarters begin now to look like a real institution, as it nears completion and anyone not aware of the change would on entering think they were in the wrong pew. With new fixtures the place will look like a regular bank.

Miss Esther Weade, R. N., of Lawrence, Mass., after a month spent here in charge of a local case will return to the former town to resume her duties. On June 18, Rev. H. R. Bell will preach in Centreville at 11 a.m. and Bristol at 7.30 p.m.

Special services will be held in the United Baptist church, Lakerville, on June 18, at 11 a.m., 8 p.m., and 7.30 p.m., when it is expected several outside speakers will preach. It is the golden celebration of the building of the church.

Les there is the near future. The E. W. Gillette Co. had a booth arranged in Sherwood's store all last week, where one of their demonstrators, Miss MacDonald, verified the magic in Magic Baking Powder by tests both for the eye and palate. Many of the local ladies were interested in the wonderful things that a little Magic Baking Powder would do.

Mrs. T. Sawyer returned to Fredericton on Tuesday after a visit with relatives in town.

G. W. Bishop of Grand Falls was here on Tuesday.

Mrs. A. R. Lee received on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons of last week.

Mrs. J. E. Alexander and Miss Eva Alexander have returned home after a week with relatives in Jacksonstown and Woodstock.

Friends of E. A. Hoyt will be glad to learn that he is enjoying a slight change for the better in his condition.

L. A. Moore of Woodstock was in town on Monday.

Dr. F. M. Brown returned from Philadelphia on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. MacFarlane and Miss Mary Harold of Plaster Rock spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harold.

Amos White is visiting Dr. and Mrs. B. H. Field.

Joe Estabrooks went to St. John for that week-end.

H. J. McInerney left last week for his home in Richmond.

Mrs. A. R. Lee received friends on Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

East Florenceville

The Radio Concert given by Mr. Lee J. Bell at East Florenceville, last Friday evening, was a decided success from the standpoint of attendance at least, as the Hall was packed to the limit of its capacity and also many were turned away, being unable to get in at all.

Mr. Bell did not charge any admission as he was afraid he would be unable to give good results that evening, on account of the bad weather conditions. During the first concert from Schenectady, N. Y., the lightning and low clouds interfered considerably, but during the second concert from the same place, every word and every note could be plainly heard all over the Hall, and all those who remained were greatly pleased and surprised with the results.

Mr. Bell intends giving another Radio Concert here next Friday evening, June 16th. He guarantees satisfaction or will refund admission paid.

Mr. Bell announced that this is the only plant in this part of the country that would give results at so great a distance, and that he built it himself. It certainly is a marvel to be able to distinctly hear Concerts given nearly 1000 miles away, and the people of East Florenceville, the birth place of his mother, have great reason to be proud of the fact that Mr. Bell has given them the first opportunity to listen to his great performance.

Mr. Bell should have a full house again next Friday, as he gave the first Concert absolutely free and is under considerable expense in coming here to give these Concerts.

Middle Simonds

Dr. Budd from Aroostook Junction was calling on friends in this place Friday.

The many friends of Ernest Ebbett are sorry to hear of his illness, and hope for a speedy recovery.

Two weeks ago this place was plunged into gloom when it was announced that Mrs. Charles Ebbett was dead. She had been ill for about eight weeks, but her condition was not improving to her friends until Thursday morning. Dr. Hagkine was called in consultation with Dr. Macintosh, but nothing that they could do availed, and she passed away at eight o'clock on Friday evening. Mrs. Ebbett was noted for her kind disposition and for her splendid generosity where sickness or adversity brought need to anyone, and she will be missed from the community. We extend heart felt sympathy to the mourning ones.

BRISTOL BREVITIES

Mrs. Ernest Garland of Oak Hill is visiting Miss Mattie Giberson.

Mrs. Jane Phillips is ill at her home, the result of a bad fall down stairs.

Mrs. William Bell spent the week-end at Hartland attending the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Blackie at Upper Brighton.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. White and Paul Davis of Centreville spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Davis.

D. W. Rogers and family motored to Fort Fairfield on Thursday.

Mrs. Sida Giberson returned last week from Moncton after a month's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Simpson.

Mrs. Earl Dow spent the past week in Houlton.

Miss Mary Miller of Connell is the guest of Mrs. Guy Welch.

A number from here attended the Radio Concert given at East Florenceville Friday night, but were all disappointed as very little of the entertainment could be heard for some reason or other.

For Sale at Bargain

100 acre farm, about 80 acres cleared, balance in lumber land, situated in Greenfield, near the home of Mr. T. W. Caldwell, M. P. This farm has enough hardwood on it to pay full price asked for the farm. This is a real bargain. Also, choice of two nice residences on Maple Street in town here for sale at a low price. Reason for selling, personal. Also wish to sell my mill and lot at Stickney. This is a fine new mill, well located, including a large piece of ground for piling purposes. This mill contains Rotary, Edger, Lath Machine, Planer, Pulp Rossers and Saut Steam Feed. Can easily cut 20 to 25 M per day. This is offered at a great bargain. Part terms if necessary. My reason for selling is that I wish to devote my entire time and capital to my retail business.

THE REWARD OF CARELESSNESS

Many fine homes have been lost by lightning, merely because rodding was one of the things their owners were going to do "some day." Loss of your home may be the reward of similar carelessness.

The Dodd System of Lightning Protection makes loss by lightning IMPOSSIBLE and is GUARANTEED in writing.

THE COST? Nothing compared with the possible saving.

Call, write or telephone me about it at once and I will arrange to fix you up with the old and reliable Dodd & Struthers System.

Terms to suit you.
