The people of Ontario yesterday set the stamp of their disapproval upon machine misgovernment by returning Mr. Whitney to power with the largest majority ever given any Premier in the history of the Province.

The public condemnation has been signified by the defeat of five cabinet ministers, the reduction of the majorities of the others, and the increasing of Conservative majorities far beyond all previous records.

The following is the list:--
HON. G. W. ROSS, Premier, elected in West Middlesex in 1902 by a majority of 604. In 1905 he is probably elected by a majority of 30, but still a majority.

HON. JOHN DRYDEN, Minister of Agriculture, elected in South Ontario in 1902 by a majority of 132. In 1905 he is defeated by Calder, who has a majority of 74.

SERLIN HON. RICHARD HARCOURT, Minister of Education, elected in Monck, 1902, by a majority of 350. In 1905 he is re-elected by a majority of 50.

HON. W. A. CHARLTON, Minister of Public Works, elected in South Ontario in 1902 by a majority of 75. In 1905 he is defeated by A. C. Pratt,

BOWYER GRANDLY REDEEMS EAST KENT

Ridgetown's Popular and Esteemed Son Transfers the Old Liberal Hive--Magnificent Demonstration in His Honor--Telephones His Thanks to The Planet.

Ridgetown, Jan. 25, 9:30 p. m. -- Phil. H. Bowyer is elected by a majority of 105, full returns being in. The town has simply gone wild with excitement over the result of the election here and in the whole Province. The torchlight procession has possession of the town by storm, notwithstanding the stormy night.

Philip Bowyer, M. P. P., is unable to take part in the universal rejoicings, being confined to his home, quite ill, no doubt as a result of probably the most tireless and energetic campaign a candidate ever put up. The only regret--and it is almost blotted out by the splendid successes throughout the Province--is that that good man, James Clancy, in our neighboring riding has been defeated.

Hurray for BOWYER, WHITNEY and a Clean Government.

At ten o'clock last night Secretary Roy Hunter, of the East Kent Liberal-Conservatives, called up this office on behalf of Mr. Bowyer, M. P. P. for East Kent, and thanked The Planet for what it had done for him. Mr. Bowyer was ill in bed, but he requested Mr. Hunter to call up The Planet. This tribute from the new member for East Kent was much appreciated.

The following are the totalled and corrected majorities:--

Majority for Bowyer--105.

The splendid triumph of Mr. Whitney means much for the progress, welfare and good Government of the Province. First and foremost it means that Ontario, and the Liberal party have signally cleared themselves of all complicity in the crimes of the Government. It means an end to ballot box stuffing, ballot switching, ballot burning, bogus ballot boxes, and all the new and improved methods of electoral fraud never thought of till the Ross machine introduced them. It means the destruction of that machine. It means clean elections and honest Government. It means that henceforth justice is not to be prostituted, as in the Callaghan case, to serve the ends of any party. It means the downfall of the school book monopoly, the revision of the present educational system upon modern lines, the proper administration of our mineral and timber resources, the efficient administration of the license system. It means law reform. Apart from the smashing of the machine, yesterday's magnificent victory means the inauguration in this Province of Mr. Whitney's Progressive Policy.

HON. G. P. GRAHAM, Provincial Treasurer, elected in Brockville in 1902 by a majority of 376. In 1905 he is re-elected by less than 200 majority.

HON. A. G. MACKAY, Commissioner of Crown Lands, elected in North Grey in 1902 by a majority of 269. In 1905 he is re-elected by a majority of 212.

HON. F. E. A. EVANTUREL, Minister without portfolio, elected in Prescott in 1902 by a majority of 748. In 1905 he is defeated by L. F. Labrosse.

HON. J. M. GIBSON, late Attorney-General, elected in East Wellington in 1902 by a majority of 454. In 1905 he was decisively defeated by Major Craig.

HON. F. R. LATCHFORD, Attorney-General, elected in South Renfrew in 1902 by a majority of 874. In 1905, he is defeated by T. W. McGarry by a majority of over 500.

HON. J. R. STRATTON, Provincial Secretary, elected in West Peterboro in 1902 by a majority of 1,194. In 1905 R. F. McWilliams, Liberal, in Stratton's constituency, is defeated by T. E. Bradburn, Conservative, by a majority of about one thousand--a turnover of over 2,000 votes.

By 6:30 a large crowd had collected in front of The Planet Office, from which the steepticon, in charge of Messrs. Bennett and Koloff, flashed the returns upon the wall opposite, as soon as they were received. A special wire had been was loudly cheered, as were those of James Clancy, H. S. Clements, M. P., and others.

As the McCoig procession passed by, the picture of the member-elect was flashed upon the canvas. The crowd lingered till the last bulletins were thrown, giving the standing in the house:--CONSERVATIVES, 74; LIBERALS, 24.

The following are the returns from all of the constituencies in detail:--

McCOIG CAPTURES CITY OF CHATHAM

Rural West Kent Gave James Clancy a Splendid Support--Wallaceburg, Dover and Chatham Tps. Make Remarkable Records--An Unfortunate Reverse in Town.

Chatham was the scene of wild and frenetic enthusiasm last evening when the election returns from West Kent became known.

To say that there were some awful surprises is putting it far too mildly. There were big surprises, and the amusement of the vast crowd. The crowd was especially enthusiastic when it was announced that Toronto again went solid Conservative. Gaimy was elected by a handsome majority, Adam Beck of London and Whitney were both returned by splendid majorities and many other splendid victories were gained. When it was finally announced on the canvas that the Government was so badly defeated, and thoroughly cleaned out, the air was rent with cheers and yells, showing the feeling of the people of West Kent, so far as the Government and Ross are concerned.

Through the efficient service of the C. P. R. Telegraph Company The Planet was, at half past nine o'clock, able to give the full returns of the elections all over the province. A special wire was installed in The Planet office and the returns were bulletined as they were received.

At the Oddfellow's Auditorium, where the Liberals received their returns there was a fairly large crowd in attendance. The hall was about half full of people listening to the returns as they came in. Each new batch told of great Conservative gains and not much enthusiasm was displayed when this news was announced. It was soon realized that the Government was a "goner" and things began to look very blue. Dr. Russell, who read out the despatches, kept up the enthusiasm by announcing the results in the city whenever there was any wait.

When the returns came in sufficiently to assure Mr. McCoig's election no more interest was taken in the country or the Government and the cry was "Hurray for Archie!" Dr. Russell announced that torches were all in readiness at Westman's store and advised all present to prepare for a grand torchlight procession and it was not long before the hall was empty.

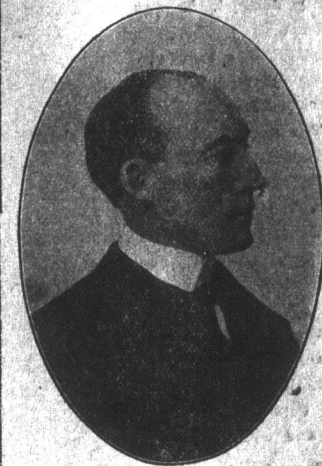

JAMES CLANCY CONGRATULATES ARCHIE McCOIG.

Shortly before the crowd left the hall James Clancy, the defeated candidate, made his appearance and personally congratulated Mr. McCoig on his evident victory. The action was a noble one and a fair sample of the manner of campaign which Mr. Clancy has conducted. Mr. McCoig realized this and stopping to the platform he thus addressed the crowd:

"Gentlemen, we have with us Mr. James Clancy. Mr. Clancy has fought a good fight and an honorable fight, and on no occasion has he reason to regret anything he has done. On a number of occasions during the campaign we have met face to face and on such occasions he has always proven himself a gentleman and a true type of a man, just and honorable. I propose three cheers for Mr. Clancy!"

And the three cheers were given and given with a will which showed the high esteem in which Mr. Clancy is held by Liberals and Conservatives alike. A number went so far as to call for a speech from Mr. Clancy.

The torchlight procession was then formed, starting from the Oddfellow's Temple and rounding up at the Rankin House after parading several times up and down King street. The procession consisted of three carriages filled with prominent Liberals, the 24th Regiment Band, and a large crowd of rooters and supporters carrying torches and yelling at the tops of their voices. The Lethbridge cab drawn by a team of white horses carried the member-elect, Mr. McCoig, accompanied by Will Jahnke and a few other Liberals, while Frank Tschirhart, J. W. Aitken, Mort Sheldon and other young Liberals occupied seats in the other carriages.

After parading several times down King street the cab carrying Mr. McCoig stopped in front of the Auditorium and Mr. McCoig prepared to alight and enter the hall to proceed with the speaking, but the young Liberals would not allow this and he had no sooner got out of the carriage than they lifted him on the shoulders of six of his sturdy rooters and proceeded to carry him up the street again. They carried him the full length of King street and landed him at the Rankin House, where the crowd demanded a speech.

McCOIG SPEAKS.

Mr. McCoig mounted up to the balcony of the hotel and delivered a short address to the howling mass below.

"I thank you," said he, "for electing me by such a handsome majority. I thank you for the noble fight you have put up. There is a snowstorm coming down from the heavens tonight, but it is nothing to the storm that swept over West Kent to-day. I thank those who have stood so loyally beside me. You have done all you could. I want to thank especially the young men and the boys from one end of the riding to the other for the handsome majority that they have rolled up for me.

"There is one thing, I shall always try to do the very best for my constituency--the people of West Kent. I have nothing to say against the opposition. They put up as strong a fight as they could, but we were too much for them. When Liberals and Conservatives join together there can be no question as to the result.

"The city of Chatham has done handsomely. The laboring men have stood loyally by me. The Conservatives brought Ned Clarke here. I they were not successful. I may say that I think Ned Clarke's appeal here made lots of votes for me.

"I thank you heartily for your kindness and in return I shall do all I can for West Kent."

When Mr. McCoig concluded his speech the crowd sent up a series of yells and cheers and the band struck up and everything was in a hubbub for the balance of the parade.

Mr. McCoig and his supporters who were with him then repaired to the Auditorium to hear the balance of the returns from the province and to listen to speeches from some of the prominent Liberal workers. The reports from the country were not in the least encouraging to the assembled Liberals and much disappointment at the terrible defeat of Ross was expressed both in the countenance of those present and also in the speeches that were given. They rejoiced greatly at the victory of Mr. McCoig, but the far-sweeping ones mourned deeply the sad defeat of the Government, and it was hard to distinguish which was the stronger feeling. The non-return of Ross cast

ONTARIO'S TRIUMPH

The People have Triumphed!

Ontario spoke yesterday with no uncertain sound for honesty, integrity and higher standards of public morality; she spoke for a provincial house-cleaning; she spoke for the advent of new, clean and progressive government.

Rossam—with its inglorious record, with its low ideals, with its blemishes and hangovers—was signally doomed. It was the magnificent victory of the people. It inaugurates a new era for our Province. Ontario's good name has been vindicated.

The advent of Mr. Whitney's government, after 33 years of Liberal rule, will be watched with interest. Mr. Whitney must adhere strictly and honestly to his ante-election pledges. He must give the people the honest and progressive government he promised. He must carry out a thorough overhauling and cleansing, a complete removal of barnacles and corruption. And we believe he will do these things—do them efficiently and well.

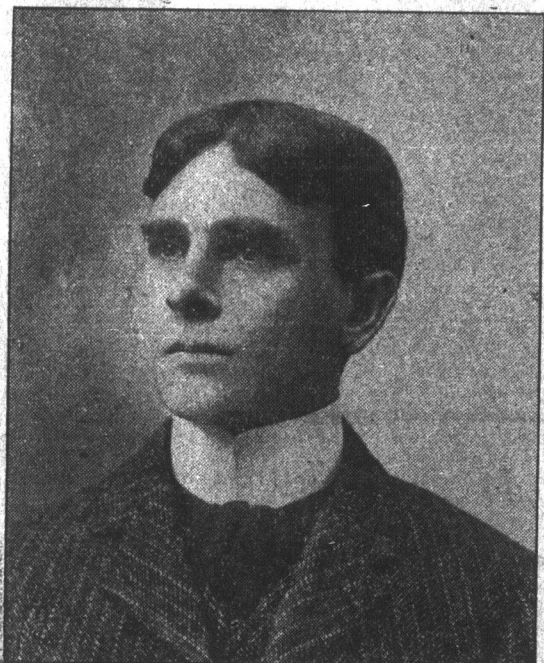

The advent to power must also be fraught with serious thought and honest judgment. Emphatically is The Planet opposed to the pernicious spoils system. Let responsibility and exaltation be coupled, a true sense of obligation to the whole people and a righteous humility. The people have chosen Mr. Whitney and his colleagues to serve. It will be their aim to faithfully and uprightly perform their service. Thus—and thus only—can they continue in the public confidence and escape the stern and just penalty meted out yesterday to their unworthy predecessors.

Again, while yesterday's victory placed the Conservatives in power, it was not alone a Conservative victory. It was, perhaps, infinitely more a Liberal victory. It requires much less moral stamina to stand for the right when the right serves our ends and desires, than to conscientiously take that position against natural impulse and personal feeling. The Liberal who yesterday voted for the punishment of wrongdoing in his own party won a greater victory than the Conservative who zealously contributed to the success of his own leaders. And the Conservative party in the forthcoming administration of provincial government will, we believe, gratefully observe a trust which they asked and received from the people of Ontario irrespective of party affiliations.

The best and truest way to answer the criticism by the late exponents of Rossam that Mr. Whitney and his colleagues were incapable of assuming the responsibilities of office—and the way we believe they will now resolutely adopt—is to give to the people of this Province just what we promised—a new, clean, honest and progressive government.

The people did their part magnificently yesterday. Let the new Government proceed diligently to do theirs to-day.

H. S. CLEMENTS, M. P.

A Living Evidence of the Fact That West Kent Doesn't Always Go Astray.

THE TWO KENTS

When one remembers that East Kent has always elected a Liberal since confederation, and that the majority of the late Robert Ferguson ranged around 550, an adequate estimate of yesterday's magnificent victory of Philip H. Bowyer can be formed.

Never was there a more phenomenal or popular victory. Liberals and Conservatives alike were proud to unite on a clean, worthy and progressive man standing for a splendid cause. The wild and enthusiastic cheering which the news of his victory evoked here showed the strong sentiment was universal. Most heartily does The Planet extend congratulations to its journalistic colleague, Philip H. Bowyer, M. P. P. It regretted last night that he was ill in bed and so could not enjoy the triumph his townsmen prepared for him, but this journal hopes he will soon be sufficiently recovered to visit Chatham and receive the warm handshake we have awaiting him.

West Kent, it is useless to deny, was a severe disappointment. To many women consider it a neck highly respectable.

the only constituency in the West to further tolerate a Rossam is a distinction we did not covet. The rural districts did splendidly, but of the city the least said the better. If the city's vote was the result of Mr. McCoo's personal popularity then he deserves congratulations. He has worked earnestly and well and we heartily concede him credit for his triumph.

In the defeat of James Clancy, however, West Kent and the Province suffer an irreparable loss. A man among men, who would have taken a foremost part in the organization and conduct of the new Government, he will be much missed. If it was the will of the people honestly expressed then we bow, but we feel that West Kent's mistake will be West Kent's loss.

Why An Emulsion?

Because an emulsion (Scott's) of cod liver oil is agreeable to the taste, while the plain oil is repulsive. Because Scott's Emulsion is easily digested, while the plain oil is not. Because Scott's Emulsion enters the system quickly and without effort, while the plain oil is a burden and a tax on the stomach. Because Scott's Emulsion remains sweet after entering the system, while the plain oil is likely to ferment because of its slow action. Because contains not only the best of the pure oil but other valuable properties, while the plain oil offers nothing but the crude properties of the raw oil. Because Scott's Emulsion is always the same in purity, strength and composition, while the plain oil is apt to vary in all three of these particulars. Because Scott's Emulsion is a hundred times more beneficial and desirable than any plain oil could be.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

A PIOUS BOY.

The late Senator Hoar was a graduate of Harvard, and in the reminiscent mood that always fell upon him when he visited his old home in Concord, he would tell many amusing stories of the Harvard of the past.

One day in Concord the name of an eminent clergyman came up.

"A Harvard boy," said Senator Hoar. "And even in Harvard he showed himself to be religiously inclined."

"As a rule he was a good Greek scholar. Once, though, there was a passage in the Greek testament that he could not construe—a passage wherein the words could hardly have been more confused and jumbled if it had been intended to make a puzzle of them. Over this passage the boy labored a long time. Then, in despair, he got a Bible and commenced to use it as an orib."

"He sat at his desk with the Bible hidden in his lap, when an instructor tiptoed up and caught him at his cheating."

"What book have you there, young man?" said the instructor, touching him on the shoulder.

"Subterfuge would have been useless, and the pious boy replied: "A book, sir, of which no one need be ashamed."

SATCHEL OF THE SATELLITE

AT THE SAME OLD BUSINESS.

Harry Andrew was rejoicing.

It was a noble victory!

Jim Jenkins did his share.

Well, Archie has the seat for the time being, but Clancy has the rationage.

After all, as Archie said, what use will he be to his constituents in that Opposition back bench? Phil Bowyer and James Clancy will have to look out for the interests of the people of Kent.

Somebody whispered in my ear last night that there'd be one liquor shop less in the city shortly.

I don't believe Archie will be an Opposition back-bencher after all. There'll be plenty of room for them all in the front row.

Notice what the people thought of that "purified" cabinet.

You remember the Newsieitch kept telling us to watch Wallaceburg slaughter Clancy. I knew right then that Clancy would run well in the sugar beet town.

President Thornton and Treasurer Dunn deserve credit. They worked hard.

Three cheers for honest government.

It was really funny to see the different fellows flitting with the Ross machine yesterday.

I wonder how Archie will vote on the temperance question?

Did I hear the Bannerette say that Robinette assured it that Ross would have a majority of 12 in the house?

For the Hon. G. W. Ross—Honesty is the best policy.

Some of my friends had the cold chills last night, and it wasn't the weather or the fog that was the cause.

AN EXPLANATION.

Those Conservative cheera were for the success of the Hon. J. P. Whitney.

The Liberal-Conservatives, the Liberals and the Independents all over Ontario united against the Ross-Stratton-Sullivan Corruptionists.

Those few Liberals who will go way back and sit down will look like a corporal's guard.

W. H. Harper were a broad smile that wouldn't rub off.

Ward Stanworth (when the returns began to come in)—Gracious, there won't be any Opposition!

Keep your eyes peeled for a certain shoe man who will wear a new overcoat.

The Banner's circulation in the city, apparently, isn't as large as I

A MOTHER'S LOVE.

A mother's love is so divine that the roughest man cannot help but appreciate it as the crown of womanhood.

However, Motherhood is looked forward to with feelings of great dread by almost all women. At such times a woman is nervous, dyspeptic, irritable, and she is in need of a uterine tonic and nerve.

strength builder to fit her for the ordeal. No matter how healthy or strong a woman may be she cannot help but be benefited by taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to prepare for the event.

This is what one mother says:

"With a heart overflowing with gratitude I will endeavor to write you. It is nearly two years ago since I first wrote to you for advice regarding my health which was then very bad."

Writes Mrs. L. Moore, of Hinesdale, Ky., to Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting surgeon of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. "I have described my sufferings in other letters to you. After receiving your advice and the 'Common Sense Medical Adviser' I bought some of your 'Favorite Prescription' and to-day am a well woman and the proud mother of a dear little boy."

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Protrusion, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

Their financial responsibility is well known to every newspaper publisher and druggist in the United States, with most of whom they have done business for over a third of a century.

How to live in health and happiness is the general theme of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. This great work on medicine and hygiene, containing over 1,000 pages and more than 700 illustrations, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay postage and mailing only. Send 50 one-cent stamps for the cloth-bound volume, or only 25 stamps for the book in paper covers.

thought it was
I had plenty of chance to holler. That New Government looks good to me.

The result in the city was certainly a surprise. It broke my heart.

The way the city went was real heart-rendering.

West Kent was about the only consolation the Rossites had.

We couldn't help it, Archie.

Archie says The Planet helped him. We didn't do it on purpose.

The city is our sorrow.

Chatham, how could you hurt our feelings like that?

Ross' hour came all right.

We would have elected Clancy if the Newsieitch circulation had been just a little larger.

Mr. Clancy won a great personal victory in Wallaceburg. The Liberals were counting on a hundred there.

G. W. Sulman—Let me hear some more of the good news.

The election has left a few sore spots.

I'll bet Dr. McRitchie's walking on air over these in East Kent to-day. He contributed largely to P. H. Bowyer's victory.

"They say Cochrane is having a walk-over in East Kent." — The B. Mistake. The people told him to take it. This was the Ross organette's way of telling him to go chase himself.

Even Archie thanked The Planet, but he didn't mention the B. Mistake. And yet he thanked all his supporters.

Archie will occupy that Opposition back bench all right. He's far-sighted.

Archie had his card in The Planet. You see, it pays to advertise in this G. H. J.

It is very painful for the average Rossite to discuss Ganeysim now-a-days.

Archie certainly told the truth when he said, "The Ross Government is a Goner."

Ontario is the richer to-day by an honest government, and the glass factory by a decrepit and demolished steed.

Notice what Stratton's constituency did—then notice what Ganey's did.

It was a long time coming, but at last it came with a rush.

I'm inclined to think an airship of the Minnie M. type hovered over the city yesterday.

Judging from the way things went, the 22 year old warhouse didn't even bother to start.

Now other people know why Cochrane didn't want to run. I knew all along.

"Cochrane has things easy," murmured

Chatham did it.

Great town, that Wallaceburg!

Such a house-cleaning!

The city turned turtle.

Dover was true to the blue.

The city was a disappointment.

Wallaceburg, the Rossites' promised land, almost turned Archie down.

The result in West Kent is no story of the work done by the Conservatives.

The majority in the House is a record.

Tilbury and the west was expected; but not Chatham, no, not that.

The Planet's big circulation in the country was evidenced.

Now the iron hand will get to work on the barnacles.

It's some satisfaction to know that my friends, Robinette and Dewar, will be scraped off the ship of state.

The city disappointed me, but it didn't disappoint some other people.

I'm waiting to see the Globe's lament this afternoon.

The Barnacles' farewell would be a "touching" episode, only the machine has spent all its money.

Wallaceburg is almost as versatile a flopper as this city is, but it flops in a better direction.

Wonder whether Mac Gardiner, Irish Jack or The Pulverizer claims the most credit?

I'd advise Chatham to take a few lessons from Chatham township.

When I advised you to take your ear from the ground, I wanted you to listen to what the telegraph instruments were clicking off. 'Twas glorious news.

S. B. ARNOLD,

The Wide-Awake Secretary of the West Kent Conservative Association.

mured the B. Mistake. I wonder what they meant.

I'll be looking for Mac Gardiner's wild wheelbarrow ride.

ONCE RIGHT.

The Newsieitch was right when it said of Ross, "His Hour Has Come."

"They say Cochrane is having a walk-over in East Kent." — The B. Mistake. Didn't say who was doing the walking part and who served as grandchild.

Archie being elected was a mighty good thing for my rooster. If Clancy and Whitney had both got in the strain would have been too much for him.

My rooster is sufficiently overworked as it is, without having to crow over West Kent, too.

Next time I'll put all the voters on the Banner subscription list. That will elect my man sure.

The people in East Kent have been reading The Planet. The people in West Kent haven't been reading the Banner.

Wanted—A non-reversible Conservative majority in Chatham.

Cochrane withdrew yesterday for keeps.

Now the Ross candidate in East Kent wishes that he had stayed resigned.

Did I hear the Newsieitch spouting what Ganeysim was going to do to Dr. Reame in North Essex? He did it.

The more I think of it the more I realize what a wise man John Howatt was.

I'm sorry the solid west was broken by Archie McCoig, but fox Archie would hang on to The Planet.

Kent has lost a good Minister of Agriculture.

When I look at the result in the HON. G. W. ROSS

Ex-Premier of Ontario dismissed in disgrace by the people yesterday.

Chatham did it.

city, I'm reminded that too much money is an evil thing.

DR. W. R. HALL,

Who Did Energetic and Effective Work in Both the Kents.

Hurrah for Bowyer. That's no sore spot.

The Ross Cabinet Ministers fell by the wayside.

Won't the Hamilton Spec. man have his fun?

J. M. Pike spoke in East Kent. See the result?

I told you to take your ear away from the ground.

Outside of West Kent the machine has been put out of business.

"Liberalism expects every man to do his duty," was the cry of the B. Mistake. It was done and all Ontario was glad.

The honest electors of Ontario expressed their opinions in no measured terms.

The Government is ours. Let the Rossites have West Kent. We'd have liked it, too.

The bass flop over of the city forces on me the adage that money is the root of all evil.

George Heyward—Thank Goodness, the Province is saved for the first time in my experience.

The Liberal-Conservatives of West Kent fought nobly, but the machine was too strong.

We reduced the majority in West Kent. It was the best we could do. Archie's popularity and the machine were too much for us.

You must remember that The Planet has a large circulation in East Kent.

P. H. Bowyer realized how this G. H. J. assisted him. He sent from his sick bed a message of thanks, which we much appreciated.

I didn't know the Banner's circulation in North Essex was so much larger than it is here.

MISSING BALLOTS

Deputy Smith at No 5 Found No Ballots in His Case and was in Quandry

The Missing Package Turned up at No 14—Many Rumors were Rife—The Returning Officers Story

Yesterday when returning officer Ed. Smith opened up his ballot box at Division No. 5, he found that there were no ballots in his box. He at once sent a messenger to Sheriff Gemmill, who secured 10 ballots and sent them over. Sheriff Gemmill was seen this morning and he gave a statement of the facts. "I don't want to shirk any responsibility in the matter," said the Sheriff. "The mistake was mine. Owing to the registration court of appeal sitting so near election, the lists were late and I was compelled to delay getting the ballots bound as I did not know how many would be needed. Boxes five and fourteen were the last two and I put the ballots for five into the 14th division box by mistake. When the returning officer opened the box he found the two packages of ballots. Mr. Smith at No. 5, sent over here, and Mr. Beeston took over ten ballots that we had in the office. Then Mr. Beeston went to Division 10 and I went to Division 11 and secured some ballots at each of these divisions. Ward Stanworth told me that the missing ballots were at No. 14 and Mr. Beeston went over and got them and took the ballots to No. 5 division. The ballots secured from Divisions 10 and 11 were returned. Nobody handled any of the ballots except Mr. Beeston and myself."

SATCHEL OF THE SATELLITE

"The Ross government is a gon-er," Archie knew.

I hope you saw the B. Mistake's alleged morning edition.

The Ross government was "routed horse, foot and artillery."

I is very kind of the Conservatives to let Ross stay in and enjoy his defeat.

Down in North Essex there seems to be a big Conservative majority Resuming round.

No doubt the B. Mistake was proud of its morning edition. It wouldn't know any better.

The returns for Kent furnished by the B. Mistake this morning was a jumble of figures.

The B. Mistake has the plan for figuring up the returns from this riding. They stick the figures in a hat and then pick out a few.

Philip Westmore was the oldest man who voted yesterday. He is in his 98th year and w.n. in and marked his ballot at Division 13. He said that he had cast more Conservative votes than any other man in the riding. There is probably no man in Ontario who has his proud record. Then four of his sons and a grandson followed in the aged Conservative's footsteps. There was six good ballots cast at No. 13.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

People who live in stone houses can throw glasses.

A girl has an awful queer look in her eyes when men talk about building up their muscles.

No woman shakes the ballot to enforce her rights; she can do it with tears and a handkerchief.

If a man gets run over by a street car a woman is never sure that isn't his way of trying to flirt with her.

When a girl gets engaged she is nearly as hopeful of all she is going to get out of it as a man on his way to the races.—New York Press.

LARGE FAMILIES.

The physical and moral advantages of large well families are well recognized. Members of small families like only children, are poorly equipped for the struggle of life, and the avoidance of obligations and responsibilities on the part of the parent does away with a very powerful factor in the education of the individual.—Lancet.

A LETTER FROM MORRISBURG

The Hon. J. P. Whitney, the new Premier of Ontario, telegraphed The Mail-Empire from Morrisburg, as follows, last night, when the returns began to come in showing the big change in the political situation in the Province:—

Morrisburg, Ont., Jan. 25.—In the immediate presence of the great political upheaval in the province to-day, I can have out little to say. All must acknowledge the serious meaning of this emphatic expression of the people's will. I fully and gladly appreciate the fact that Liberals in large numbers joined in that expression.

J. P. WHITNEY

LADY WITH THE LAMP.

Florence Nightingale still With Us in the Twentieth Century, Fifty Years After Beginning Her Great Work.

Oct. 21 is not only Trafalgar Day. It is also on another account a day "worthy of a white stone." Fifty years ago Florence Nightingale and her band of thirty-eight nurses set forth on their mission to the Crimea. The immediate result was the conversion of the great Barrack Hospital at Scutari from "a hell on earth," where, as Sir William Russell wrote: "The sick appear to be tended by the sick, and the dying by the dying," into "a model of all that a hospital should be." But the effect of the one action was as the grain of mustard seed—from it sprang consequences which are seen and felt throughout the world to-day. In the wonderful municipal hospitals, the quiet cottage hospitals, the neat and self-trained nurse, while inwardly a power for good works side by side with external cleanliness and comfort. Hospital reform has not only achieved fewer deaths per thousands, less individual suffering, but it has also proved a powerful moral agent for good.

Within hospital walls are gathered a large percentage of men, women and children to whom dirt, disorder and ugliness are the chief factors of life. The hospital reveals to them a world of exquisite cleanliness, shining opaline walls, gleaming frelight, soft voices, gentle hands, flowers. On a certain number of these patients these new influences exercise a lasting impression. This testimony every sister will give. There are always many to deny hospital work to dwell on the faults of the system and to depreciate the virtues, but some will find more cause for rejoicing over the hospital work than for rejoicing to appreciate, however faintly, the joys of fair and pure surroundings, than over a class of hungry guttersnipes who have mastered a French verb and the Rule of Three.

The Lady with the Lamp—as Longfellow called her in memory of the long nights, when, lamp in hand, she passed along the Scutari wards—is still among us in this feverish twenty century world of ours. She has so strenuously avoided publicity, since she returned broken in health from her labors in the Crimea, that few realize her presence, save those who have profited by her advice and experience in the management and arrangement of our great institutions.

Yet, in spite of her retirement, public interest flames at the mere mention of her name. There clings about her—apart from the practical value of her great work—a halo of pure romance. Nothing that has been said or sung in praise of woman can rival the words, written by one of the many soldiers whom she tendered: "She would speak to one and another, and nod and smile to many more, but she could not do it to all; you know, for we lay there by hundreds, but we could kiss her shadow as it fell and lay our heads on our pillows again content." Save for a few women, born to the people, Florence has achieved the chief place in woman's roll of fame. In days, moreover, when "the frivolous work of polished idleness" was deemed all-sufficient for her sex.

A BELIEVER IN SPIRITS.

Rev. Dr. Robert Newton Declares They are Great the Living Chats That Men May Possess Halos

"Persons who have not studied carefully in the line of metaphysics," said the Rev. Dr. R. H. Newton of New York in an address before the American Institute for Scientific Research, "have no idea of the marvellousness of the findings which are being made in this new realm. The most striking feature of our present day is that one after another of the beliefs of the far past, spread wide among men, which have been supposed to be mere superstitions, have been strangely vindicating themselves before the bar of reason, at least giving ample cause to warrant a scientific investigation."

"A generation ago nobody but a fool would have been inclined to believe in the claims of the dowser. The plain people have persistently believed that certain men were gifted with a power of locating water, springs, and the like, by means of a string of water. Now the Psychological Research Society, after careful investigation, reports that there is little question as to the fact, though no theory has yet been advanced to explain it."

"The middle ages believed that the saints were surrounded by halos. Again the scientist laughed in his sleeve—if he was courteous enough not to laugh openly. Yet Baron Reichenbach showed that certain scientists recognized a luminousness in magnets, and since the earth is now known to be a great magnet, it may also be a good sized one."

"The middle ages also believed that saints received the imprint of the wounds of Jesus on their hands and feet—a beautiful superstition, said the scientist. Now medical scrutiny confesses that the stigmata are facts, though exceptional facts, to be explained naturally, of course, as every other marvel is to be explained."

"Clairvoyance was nothing but a will o' the wisp, but it also is now a confessed power of certain organizations. Mollie Fancher, over in Brooklyn, has proved stronger than the incredulity of our savants. Read that charming picture of Joan of Arc by Mark Twain, and you will admit with him that this peasant girl, with her powers of clairvoyance, hearing her mystic voices, is a fact which defies explanation by our knowledge up to date."

"I know a woman of fine culture and high character who will not deign her gift for commercial purposes, but who has the most remarkable power known as psychometry—the power of holding a sealed letter in her hand and giving a diagnosis of the physical condition of the writer, and, in some cases, of taking a bit of stone from an ancient villa of Cicero, for example, the nature of which is entirely unknown to her, and calling up a vision of the time and of its owner. She is incapable of fraud, and her case is but one of others which I know."

"Mesmerism was duly laughed out of court at the opening of our century, and, lo! it is back again, in good standing, under the alias of 'hypnotism.' So one may run through a list of strange, unaccountable, mysterious and most unbelievable and every possible hypothesis to that nightmare of the dogmatic scientist, spiritism. The belief in the existence of unseen spirits and of their power of communication with us in this life is the oldest, the most widespread and most insistent beliefs of man, and it has revived strangely in our day."

"For the first time in the history of man the powers have been scientifically investigated in our day. Already the result is that a considerable number of eminent men of science have had the courage to avow that, after allowing for illusion, fraud and every possible hypothesis of interpretation, they have been driven up to the ultimate solution of the problem—the belief in the actual communication of the spirits of those whom we call dead with the living."

"I make bold to say that there is no field for human investigation half so promising as this, none which should so appeal to educated, intelligent, philanthropic men to support and endorse."

"Any one who walks with his eyes open, ready to hear what men have to tell, will find stories pouring in upon him from men whom he cannot mistrust as liars and whom he knows to be sane and sensible, which will stagger him."

"Now, here is a dark continent demanding exploration, promising the richest finds. Already we find a new therapeutic agent at work in our midst—not now, but newly realized and working a revolutionizing change in modern medicine. The possibilities of mental medicines are only being opened. Its application to the most distressing form of human malady, insanity, is full of beneficent results. Its potency in character reform and the cure of the drink habit seems vast and benign. Philosophic idealism is receiving a vindication such as it never had before."

"Religious faith is finding its true foundations in the recognition of man as a spiritual being, a being given to him as the child of a vast spiritual being, the lord of all life. The one belief absolutely essential to ethics—immortality—is coming within the ken of a scientific demonstration. This is the potency and promise of psychic research."

Stationary Bicycle Races.
Bicycle races without leaving the starting place, which are said to be the latest craze in places of amusement in the U. S. are described in Popular Mechanics. The wheel is fixed in a frame fastened to the floor. When the rider begins to pedal a belt from the rear wheel drives a small electric generator. The current thus produced is conducted to a motor on wheels and carrying a flag. The track on which the motor travels is marked in distances, and each foot of track requires as much work by the rider as would have been carried the bicycle one mile had it been free to run as under ordinary conditions of use.

AFRAID TO EAT MANY THINGS

If you are Use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets—What They did for R. A. Barton.

Talking of the Christmas season and its accompaniment of turkey, plum pudding and other palatable but rather indigestible dishes it is of interest to at least seventy-five per cent. of the general public to know that the ill-effects that follow heavy dinners can be avoided. There are thousands of people in Canada who once faced a hearty dinner with fear and trembling who now eat what they like when they like and enjoy it too. They have used Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

One of these is Mr. R. A. Barton of 23 Tyndall avenue, Toronto, well known in Queen City business circles. "Yes," Mr. Barton says, "there was a time when I was afraid to eat many things that would have suited my taste. Now I can eat whatever is set before me asking no questions. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets did it after all the doctors I consulted had failed. It took perhaps a dozen boxes to fix up my stomach but it's all right now. If you're troubled that way try Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets."

THE ECONOMIST.
Dor—Why, Rose, dear, what have you done to your poodle? The last time I saw him his hair was white.
Rose—Yes, but it was such a nuisance to keep him washed, you know, so I just had him dyed brown!

Was Not Able To Walk For Three Months.

Was Given Up to Die. The Doctor Said So.

Burdock Blood Bitters Saved Her Life.

Read what Mrs. Wm. Castilious, Newport, Quebec, has to say about Burdock Blood Bitters:—"Last December I fell very sick after confinement. I was not able to walk for three months, and was given up to die by the doctor. My husband read of the many wonderful cures made by Burdock Blood Bitters, so procured me two bottles. After using it for about ten days, I was able to get around, and could mind my baby without help from anyone, and am now well, and able to do my own work. I told a lady friend of mine who was troubled in the same way, and she used it with equal success. I cannot too highly recommend your medicine, for I know just how good it is, and hope and wish that anyone suffering as I did will give it a trial."

FUTURE OF SOUTH AFRICA

Sir Gilbert Parker Tells an Interviewer What He Thinks—Result of His Travels.

Sir Gilbert Parker has been interviewed in Bulawayo on his impressions of his travels in the sub-continent, and according to The Central News has expressed himself strongly in favor of a federated South Africa. He had seen the birth of two confederations with the Empire, the Commonwealth and the Dominion, the said, and he could not believe that there were insuperable barriers to such a union. Everything would seem to point towards a natural anxiety for a confederated South Africa. He knew of the racial trouble in Cape Colony, but that would not be the first country that had racial troubles, nor would it be the first Empire that had gone to war over internal dissensions.

South Africa now had railway communication between all the colonies the products of one colony adding indirectly to the well-being of the other. Centralization for the general policy of sub-continent like South Africa must necessarily be beneficial and economical. The revenues would be pooled and the country would present a united nation to the world for commercial and political interests. The secret of the success of the United States was the divergent character of the resources of the different States. Sir Gilbert fore-shadowed a similar future for South Africa. Looking over the map of South Africa, he could not help but feel, he said, that the Cape Colony ought to be in political union with the Transvaal. The Transvaal had great mineral resources and Cape Colony great agricultural and pastoral resources. In South Africa he found much of the same elements which he might call consanguinity of interests that had been exhibited in Canada and Australia. As was the case in Canada, distances in South Africa had been annihilated. The coal of Rhodesia went to Kimberley now, and probably would soon go to the Cape. The time would come, he said, when the Transvaal and the Cape would supply Rhodesia, a great pastoral and agricultural country, with the natural exchange necessary for successful commercial union.

He could not but feel, he continued, that South Africa must be interested in the great principle of Imperial preference. The Cape wines that he himself had drunk justified the desire of Mr. Chamberlain to see a preference given to colonial products in the British market. Personally, he thought there was a tremendous future for Cape wines if they were produced on a large scale, and if special contracts were actively treated and handled. Rhodesia was going to have a good tobacco industry, and he considered that preference for Rhodesia tobacco in the English market might well be a consideration in the future. He knew of no advertisement that could be so magnificent as preference in the British market to begin with.

Continuing, Sir Gilbert said that his mind Rhodesia was a world wonder. Within years that could be counted on one's two hands, without a vast boom in mines, civilization had been got out of barbarism. He was of opinion that the name of Cecil Rhodes would be better judged and honored in the Empire fifty years hence than it was to-day. Sir Gilbert added that he had been immensely impressed by the agricultural and pastoral possibilities of the Orange Free Colony, especially during his trek from Bloemfontein across Paardeberg to Kimberley. He concluded by stating that the negotiations for his land settlement scheme were proceeding satisfactorily, and that he should soon be in a position to speak fully on the subject.

Genuine Elegance.

In my morning rambles a man sitting on the ground leaning his back against the wall attracted my attention by a look of equanimity in his appearance which I had rarely before observed even in Ireland. His clothes were ragged to indecency, and his face was pale and sickly. He did not address me, and I passed by, but, having gone a few paces, my heart smote me, and I turned back.

"If you are in want," said I, with some degree of peevishness, "why do you not beg?"

"Sure, it's begging I am," was the reply.

"You did not utter a word."

"Not I. It's jolking you are with me, sir? Look there!" holding up the tattered remnant of what had once been a coat. "Do you see how the skin is speaking through the holes in my trousers and the bones crying out through my skin? Look at my sunken cheeks and the famine that's staring in my eyes! Man alive, isn't it begging I am with a hundred tongues?" "Travels in Ireland."

DISTRICT DOINGS.

JEANNETTE'S CREEK.

Mrs. Draggio spent Sunday with Detroit friends.

James Ouellette, G. T. R. operator, is spending his holidays with his parents here.

Mrs. Fields of Chatham, was here on business last week.

Mrs. Forbes left on Monday for Detroit.

UP THE CREEK.

A very pleasant afternoon was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Everitt, on Monday, January 16th, the occasion being the 21st birthday of their daughter Pearl. Thirty of her girl friends were entertained in a very pretty manner with games of various kinds. Tea was beautifully served at seven, the table being tastefully set with silver and dainty china, and handsomely decorated with palms, ferns and pink and white carnations.

Each guest received as a souvenir a carnation prettily strapped with white satin baby ribbon, having a card with their name daintily written by the little hostess, neatly attached to each.

Miss Pearl is one of the most popular young ladies of our neighborhood and is greatly liked by all, as was shown by the many dainty presents she received.

Mrs. Harvey O'Loan wound up the season very agreeably by inviting the guests to her home to spend the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Robert McGavin, of California, who intend leaving for home in a week or so. She also invited a number of gentlemen to help along the entertainment, which was considered quite an improvement. A most enjoyable evening was spent, card playing and dancing being the principal amusement. A dainty lunch was served at twelve and the young people very reluctantly started for home at three, in Peter McGavin's large bob-sleigh and numerous other sleighs.

The Maple Leaf Debating Society held their annual dinner supper in the Patrons' Hall on Friday evening. A splendid supper and a pleasing program was provided. This society is one of the most successful of our kind in the district. Old-time customs and friendships are being revived and dormant talents are being awakened along debating lines.

Dick Hill did the duties of chef for the occasion and his skill in the mystic art of cooking the bivalves merited the complimentary comments heard from epicures.

A program of humorous and comical numbers ended the event. Following was the program:

DOVER CENTRE.

The Sunday School of the Dover Presbyterian church can be congratulated on having one of the best and most successful Christmas entertainments ever presented in this community. Although the time of preparation was short, every one gave their whole energy to the work. The planning of the program, and the training of the scholars devoted upon Mrs. (Rev.) Neilly, Mrs. McKnight, Rev. A. E. Neilly and Gordon Stewart, our teacher, and they deserve great praise for the wonderful success that crowned their efforts. Every number of the program was given in such a creditable manner that it would be a difficult matter to pick out the star.

The recitations were all well delivered. Miss Myrtle Kennedy and Miss Mae Rankin doing some especially fine elocutionary work. The duet by Master Cecil and Little Muriel Neilly was the delight of the audience and Miss McColl of Chatham contributed a couple of solos which were much appreciated. The dialogue "The Rehearsal" with its local hits, proved to be one of the stars of the evening. Earl Montgomery and John Bennie performed their parts in this dialogue in a masterly style. The doll drill by eight

THE RIVALS.

To Love's low voice she lent a careless ear.

Her hand within his rosy fingers lay.

A chilling weight. She would not turn or hear.

But with averted face went on her way.

But when pale Death, all featureless and grim,

Lifted his bony hand, and beckoning Held out his cypress-wreath, she followed him.

And Love was left forlorn and wondering.

That she who for his bidding would not stay,

At Death's first whisper rose and went away.

THE LATE ROSS GOVERNMENT AND THE MAN WHO SUPPORTED IT

(As amended by the people in Ontario and Kent County Jan. 25.)

Definitely and positively have nothing to do with the leasing of the best stand in Chatham for a Jewelry store. Couldn't it if they would and wouldn't if they could.

What use would it be to them as an empty store? And what use would it be to Chatham city?

You had better take your ear off the ground and keep your eye on G. O. Scott's clothing store (between the 2 drug stores, McLaren's and Radley's) for a jewelry store up-to-date and a credit to Chatham.

The whole store will be occupied by Von Gunten Bros. as a jewelry store and the two flats above will be rented for offices, etc.

No; we say honestly, we do not expect to occupy the new store before the 1st of March, but when we do we promise you a jewelry store and stock you will be proud of.—Von Gunten Bros.
