The annual meeting of the Kings County Liberal-Conservative Association was held at the Court House, Kentville, on Saturday last. The meeting was called to order at 1.30 o'clock by President Dr. DeWitt.

The election of officers for the year resulted as follows: Hon. President - Dr. DeWitt, Wolfville; President - J. W. Ryan, Kentville; Vice-President - G. R. Nichols, Waterville.

Secy.-Treas. - H. G. Harris, Kentville. Auditor - F. A. Masters, Kentville.

The President, Dr. DeWitt, addressed the gathering dealing with questions of the day the formation of a Union Government and the probability of the Union of the two parties being carried out in Kings Co. by a gathering together of all who were supporters of the present Union Government into a larger association. He referred to the services to the party of His Honor Judge Webster and expressed the hearty approval of all in his elevation to the bench.

The following resolutions were unanimously carried: Resolved that we express our gratification and approval of the course adopted by Sir Robert Borden and that his statesmanlike, persistent and patriotic efforts have resulted in the uniting of the loyal forces of this County in the formation of a Union Government. We herewith in our Association assembled pledge him and his Government our loyal support in their work of guiding the destinies of the Dominion during the remaining trying and critical period of the war and during the reconstruction period that will follow the return of peace.

Moved by H. G. Harris, seconded by C. R. Bitt.

Resolved that the members of this Association express their sincere gratitude to the heroic services of the men who have gone from this constituency to engage in the great struggle in Europe now taking place in behalf of justice and liberty and also our sincere sympathy to all the friends and relations of those who have fallen in the conflict.

Further we hereby record our steadfast determination to do every thing in our power to ensure our gallant defenders the necessary supply of comforts and the reinforcements they so urgently need.

TREACHERY OF CONSTANTINE

Wanted Kaiser to Attack Allies on Balkan Front.

Athens, Oct. 29—Among the messages exchanged between the royal palaces and the Berlin, and which have fallen into the hands of the Greek government was one in which King Constantine urged Emperor William to attack the Allies on the Balkan front promising that Greek forces would attack General Sarraill's army in the rear.

Three weeks ago in Washington the telephone had been applied to wireless, and a man in Arlington, just across the river from Washington, talked with a man on the Eiffel Tower in Paris by telephone without wires. But that is not all. A man in Honolulu heard the conversation. From Honolulu to the Eiffel Tower is 8,000 miles, one-third of the circumference of the globe. Does it not mean that we can talk from any part of the world to any other, and without the wire?

Why Does Canada Raise Money by Selling Bonds?

BONDS are issued payable in ten or twenty years, as the case may be. It means that repayment of the money will be spread over ten or twenty years instead of being raised by taxation to meet current expenditures.

To raise by taxation all the money as fast as it is needed to carry on Canada's share in winning the war, would be an unbearable burden upon the people.

It would mean that more than a million dollars a day would have to be raised right now.

But to raise money by selling Canada's Victory Bonds means that those of the next generation who will benefit by the sacrifices this generation is making;

—who will share in the freedom this generation is fighting for and largely paying for—will also pay their share.

And when you buy Canada's Victory Bonds you make a first-class business investment in a security that is absolutely safe, likely to enhance in value after the war, and bearing a good rate of interest.

You help the country by keeping open the British market for Canadian products and this helps the general welfare in which you share.

And again, every Canadian who buys a Victory Bond becomes a financial partner or backer of Canada in the war.

When you buy a Canada Victory Bond you give a personal pledge that you are going to help to win the war.

Every man and woman in Canada can help to win the war by buying Canada's Victory Bonds. And Canada wants the personal, individual interest and co-operation of every man and woman in the country.

The buying of Victory Bonds by the whole people unites them in a determination to win the war.

Every purchase of Canada's Victory Bonds is a blow for freedom against the tyranny of German Kultur.

Every bond sold is a new guarantee that Canada is in the war to the finish, until victory is with the Allies and the world has been made safe to live in.

Every bond you buy is a new pledge that Canada will remain true to herself, the Empire, the Allies and to freedom's cause.

So it is both patriotic and good business to

Buy Canada's Victory Bonds

Issued by Canada's Victory Loan Committee in co-operation with the Minister of Finance of the Dominion of Canada.

"This Union Victory Government is Formed for the Primary Purpose of Making Sure, at All Hazards and at any sacrifice, that the Husbands and Sons of Canada's Women Shall be Immediately Supported"

—Hon Arthur Meighen at Winnipeg Addressing 5,000 voters at the great Union-Victory meeting at Winnipeg. Hon. Arthur Meighen, said: "The government, on whose behalf this meeting is called, and whose elements the speakers represent, is the outcome of a great popular movement. That movement took its birth from the date when the need for selective military services first became manifest in Canada. If called for the submerging of the old party antipathies and the joining of our forces against the common foe, and from the very beginning of that movement to its consummation it had its mainpring in the city of Winnipeg. What more fitting than that we should hold the first Union-Victory meeting here? Our purpose is to present the principles and to show forth the spirit that had brought us together, and to sound the appeal of the new government in this province.

"What we ought to do is to create in this hall something of the atmosphere of war—sense of the realities of this day and hour. What we have to do, whether we like it or not, is to walk over and stand on the edge of events and take a look at what is going on. We are in the wild climax of a world-war-fighting, waiting, suffering, struggling—and the fourth winter is upon us. We are in death grips with a cruel, savage Colossus.

"Terrible is the plight of Europe at this moment; but we believe the plight of Germany is far worse than ours; but whether beaten or worse it is now or never for the Entente, it is now or never for British democracy, it is now or never for Canada.

"To hold the faith of our allies, to be honest with ourselves, we have to fight to the last ounce of our strength. We have got to the stage of this struggle where every atom counts.

"Those who really want to win the war and don't get together and pull together don't know what the war is. We cannot fight our best fight divided. If there had not been union among the people, the spirit of union wherever there was the spirit of war, there never could have been an end to Ottawa it was a consummation hard indeed to accomplish, hard on one side as on the other. The ties of old associates are strong. The subordination of political opinions even in matters of secondary consideration is a difficult task.

Mr. Meighen then went into a detailed argument of the need for reinforcements at the front showing since the beginning of this year the net loss to the Canadian Expeditionary Force had been 50,027. Mr. Meighen then expounded Sir Robert Borden's proposal for immediate action to meet the situation. He proceeded to discuss what he described as Sir Wilfrid Laurier's policy of delay as propounded in his letter to the Win-the-War League at Hamilton.

"This country must carefully guard against that delay and see that the men returned to the House of Commons are whole-hearted in their determination to prosecute this struggle to a victorious end. Every vote cast for a Laurier candidate will be a vote to delay that assistance," said Mr. Meighen. "No man or woman is asked to reverse or abrogate conviction on fiscal or other subjects. The accepted basis of union was the only basis on which union was possible under present conditions, and our appeal is that the people of Canada unite on the same basis on which the members of the government have united and get behind this union and stay behind it until it achieves its end.

"There will be political sacrifice to be made one way or the other in every constituency. We must on a fair principle, adopt the best candidate in every county, swing as in one body behind him, and never rest till he is elected." Mr. Meighen made an earnest call to the women of Manitoba; "General women's enfranchisement is promised after the war.

"The women who votes in this contest votes by the right of her sacrifice. She finds her right in the morning call of our regiments; she sees it on the honor roll of our churches; she traces her title overseas to the trench where her son defends her to the grave where her husband sleeps. I say to the enfranchised women of this province: This union government is formed for the primary purpose of making sure that those sons and husbands are at all hazards and at any sacrifice supported by the nation at home. Let the first woman's vote in Canada be a vote for Union, for Honor, for Fidelity, for Real and Victorious War."

In an eloquent peroration, Mr Meighen said: "We must be true to our own flesh and blood, to the three hundred thousand men overseas. That task the government is performing now, and intends to perform, and does not intend to be delayed an hour. Let the people of Canada give the prime minister the mission, and he will perform it to the full. Under Sir Robert Borden the homeland will not desert its defenders. The cry from the agony of the battlefield will be heard in sympathy and answered in honor."

EATING IN THE KITCHEN

Eating in the kitchen is being revived, and there are many of the people who have despised this who are now learning that there are pleasures which they did not appreciate because they had never tried.

One society writer tells us of a little booth put up in the kitchen holding a built in table just to accommodate four, and fitted with grills, toasters, etc., being close to the kitchen range and very comfy.

"We have a perfectly good dining room, but would rather have our morning meals in our cozy kitchen," she writes.

Letter from a Canning Boy

The following letter was received by Mrs. Amos B. Baxter, of Canning, from her grandson Amos.

Military Hospital,
Ward 1, Devonport,
England.
Oct. 13th, 1917.

Dear Grandmother:-
I received yours and aunt Maud's letter and photo a few days ago. It is a good one of you, and the house also, it looks so peaceful and quiet. I have written to auntie and will send it along with your letter, as I don't know her address so you can forward it to her in one of your letters. I am getting along quite well, and will soon be going to Convalescent Camp, will write again from there, I will go on pass probably to Scotland if I can arrange it, suppose there is mail on the way or me, I haven't received any of the parcels you sent me lately, the last one had the fountain pen enclosed, I suppose the rest are in France and it is doubtful if I get them. We are having a good deal of wet weather lately. I suppose it is getting a bit cold at home by this time. I would like very much to see you all, it seems such a long time since I left you, never mind it will be all the better when I come back after this war is over (the French say after la Guene Finer). I miss you all so much, but it can't be helped the only thing to do is make the best of it. I don't think it will last very much longer, you know the Germans are beat already, and they know it, that's the best part of it all. Well dear grandma I hope it won't be long before I will be back with you all again, don't worry a bit about me because the One above is taking care of us all. Tell Barry to write me often. I am glad aunt Maude was home to see you, her husband must be a great sailor, and has seen a good deal of service, sixteen years she told me. I have only seen two and it seems like twenty-two, of course I have seen one year of hard fighting, that's what made it so long to me, but I am good for another year if they want me. This time last fall I was in France standing up to my knees in mud and water, today I am in such a nice comfortable hospital setting in a nice arm chair writing to you. There is a good many changes in a year, even in France, we have taken over the best part of the Hindenburg line and put quite a number of Germans out of existence (A hem). I will close now for it is dinner time. With love to all, your affectionate grandson.

Amos.

WORK FOR LOCAL EXEMPTION BOARDS

The call is made for 100,000 additional men to be placed in training to reinforce our depleting ranks now on service overseas. It is expected that the full number will be obtained from this first draft called out by proclamation of Oct. 13th including young men unmarried and of the age from 20 to 35 years.

Of this one hundred thousand nearly all should come from the French population of Quebec and Ontario French adjoining, to make enlistments among that race on a par with the other provinces of the Dominion. The French in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick have had loyal leaders and they have responded nobly to the call of the Empire. By the neglect of the French in Quebec to arm to defend our country and save their former mother country France from annihilation, conscription has been obliged to be resorted to and the selective draft is now the law of the land. Whether all who are refused exemption are called upon for service will depend upon the needs of the military authorities for men. Many of this large number may never get overseas while if the war continues to drag out through next year into 1919, all these and more may be required.

Of the number to be called the Maritime Province will be asked to contribute ten thousand men and Nova Scotia about fifty-five hundred of that number. According to population Kings County should provide one-twentieth of Nova Scotia or about 275 men.

This number of our bravest, best and most physically fit young men will cause great hardships in many families and sorely deplete our already thinned ranks on productive energy in farming, fishing, mercantile, professional, shipbuilding, and other industries. Yet this war calls for great sacrifices and all must steel our hearts and thoughts to enduring such. Our farms and industries and safety of our daughters, wives, mothers and friends would count for naught if the enemy we are fighting was not held in check in Europe and prevented from peopling in Canada all the horrors atrocities and unheard of crimes which they have performed in the countries they have already overrun. So our young men are called to make sacrifices themselves in order that we all at home may have our liberties and honor inviolate.

We have made a basis of calculation that in Kings County up to November 10th there will probably be one hundred young men who will have made out applications for enlistment and about eight hundred who will apply for exemption. Of the 800, nearly one half will upon examination by the medical boards be placed in other classes than Class A, and not be liable to be called out for a time at least. So to raise about one hundred and seventy five men in Kings County out of four hundred men in Class A., calling for exemption means that nearly one half of that class will have to be refused exemption by the four boards in the county to place in the list for selective draft our proportion of the men required.

The Exemption Boards have a most difficult task to perform in doing their duty standing as they do between the military authorities of our country demanding that, and showing the necessity for a large number of strong, healthy young men to be placed in military training; and on the other hand the cry from the country that our farms and other industries are already too thinly manned to give the necessary production which our fertile acres can supply.

Young men who are physically fit who have been unduly indolent in the past three years or have been engaged in an occupation not considered vitally important to the country will find it most difficult to substantiate their claim for exemption. The young man who has toiled early and late on the farm and denied himself of many comforts and luxuries in order that he might contrib-

FRENCH DOWNED

TEN HUN PLANES

French war office statement says that German Attacks at Several Points were repulsed.

PARIS, November 2.—Ten German airplanes were brought down yesterday by the French or compelled to land in a damaged condition, the War Office announces. The artillery battle continues on the Aisne front. German attacks at several points were repulsed. The communication follows: "North of the Aisne there was intermittent artillery fighting. We dispersed enemy detachments which attempted to approach our lines in the region of Chevroux.

"Enemy attacks on our small posts at the Main de Massiges, near Tahure and north of St. Michiel were with one success. Patrol encounters on the left bank of the Meuse enabled us to take prisoners.

"November 1, two German airplanes were brought down by our pilots and a third by our special cannon. Furthermore seven enemy machines were compelled to land in a damaged condition.

"Our bombarding squadrons threw down many bombs on the railway station at Mulheim at the aviation grounds at Behlestas munitions depots at Ruffach and Weperceimth and the railway station at Thionville.

"In reprisal for the bombardments of Dunkirk, seventeen of our airplanes dropped 5.50 pounds of projectiles on the town of Offenburg, in the Grand Duchy of Baden."

MACHINERY IS WORKING WELL

Military Service Act Comes Smoothly into Operation Throughout the Country

Ottawa, Nov. 2.—Successful operation of the machinery placed throughout the country for the enforcement of the Military Service Act is reported from all points. The rush of the men in the first class to be medically examined and to get into touch with the authorities began as soon as the medical boards were established and has continued steadily ever since.

Since the proclamation was issued, on October 13th, the men have been going to the Post Offices in large numbers to comply with its requirements.

As was expected, a large number of men are seeking exemption. A comprehensive system of handling these exemption claims has been established and it is expected confidently that no trouble will be found in dealing with each case satisfactorily. The officials charged with putting the Act into operation—and, in this connection, the postmasters of the country are playing an important part will be exceedingly busy until November 10, the last day for answering the call.

LESS THAN THIRTY PER CENT REGISTER
 Out of 28,953 Men in This Province Coming Under the First Class, Only 8,020 Have Registered Thus Far

The report at Registrar E. H. Nichols' office Wednesday for military service were 60 and claims for exemption 613.

It is estimated that in the Province of Nova Scotia there are 28,953 men between the age of 20 and 34. Up to Thursday last approximately 8,020 men registered with the Provincial Registrar. Mr. Nichols, thus leaving 20,933 who have not yet registered out of the number who filed papers with the Registrar's approximately 7,660 claim exemption and the balance 964 are willing to serve.

Unless the 20,933 eligible in the Province of Nova Scotia register by the 10th of November they will have to pay the penalty provided under the Military Service Act. There is no reason to believe that those liable will not register, but as the limit is drawing near it is well to keep the obligation of registering before the public.

The local tribunals have made preparations for their quarters. According to exemption forms the tribunals are to commence sitting at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, except on the 8th, 9th and 10th, of November when the sittings will commence at 9 o'clock. On these three days those who have not previously reported for service or forwarded application for exemption through any Post Office may make applications in person for exemption from service to any of the Tribunals.

YE OLDE FIERME

If You've Shut any Rooms in Your House of Life

If you are only living in parts of the many roomed mansion that was given you to make the most of, you are missing something that makes life fuller and richer for others.

Throw open the doors—install a Heintzman, and you'll realize that music was what you dimly felt was lacking.

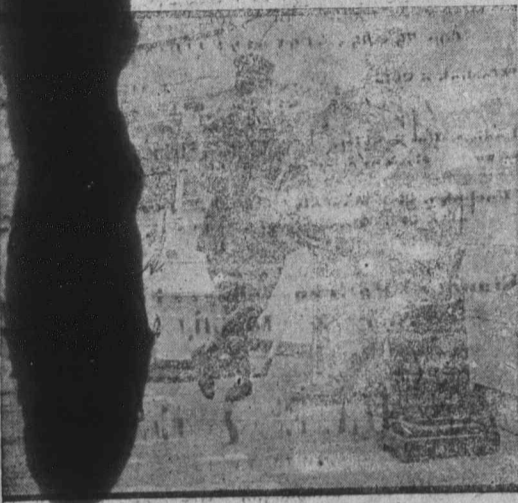

For playing, for singing, for artistic appearance, it is as much superior to the average piano as the organ of a great cathedral is superior to the average organ.

Yet it is not expensive in proportion. The seventy years experience of its manufacturers and the fact that they make more pianos by far than any firm in their field leads to large economies in operation.

Perhaps a Heintzman is just what you have been hungering for—you can tell if you come in and see it.

American Red Cross Mission To Russia

American Red Cross Mission on the "Empress of Asia" en route to Russia. Dr. Frank Billings on left.

A DISTINGUISHED party of physicians, surgeons, bacteriologists, professors of food chemistry, sanitation experts and dentists, making up the first unit of the United States Red Cross mission to Russia, numbering twenty-nine in all, left Vancouver the other day on the "Empress of Asia," en route to the eastern front.

Dr. Frank Billings, professor of medicine in the University of Chicago, is in charge of the party and is taking to Russia over $100,000 worth of medical supplies, surgical instruments, dressings, water sterilizers and other necessary articles, including vaccine for the prevention of typhoid, smallpox, cholera, diphtheria, bubonic plague, meningitis and other diseases. A heavy task lies before them in Russia, and they are going abundantly prepared to go immediately to work.

The mission is being sent out by the United States Government, and the United States Red Cross Society will see that they are kept fully supplied in order to meet all demands for alleviating the suffering among the Russian soldiers and people. The mission has been gratefully welcomed by the present Russian Government as an expression of the friendship of the people of the United States for Russia.

During the past month the United States Red Cross has raised over $125,000, and while the work has been going on in France, Italy, Serbia and Belgium, the present is but the first of similar units to be sent to Russia. The present party will investigate and report on Russia's needs and upon this report the United States Red Cross headquarters will decide the equipment and numbers of subsequent units. Steps are now being taken to get together complete equipment, including motor ambulances.

Col. Billings and the other members of the mission are a sturdy and able-bodied group and are fitted in uniform for service to their work in the field. The colonel is conducting a course of instruction in the use of the machine gun, and the present party will be equipped with such arms as are needed. "Every man who was approached to go on this mission," says Col. Billings, "has been offered their services," and Col. Billings "they dropped their work right there and got ready in four days, leaving their families behind them, to undertake this work, which is held to be of such tremendous importance to the Russian nation and to the military in particular."

These men are leaders of their professions and are the heads of the largest universities in the United States, but they did not hesitate a moment when the call reached them. Several of the party have already seen active service in the present war. Major M. Grow spent twenty months on the Russian-Mauritanian front, and he has received the Military Order of Saint George for services in the Russian campaign, as well as being honored in other ways. Major (Dr.) H. McCarthy has been in France making a survey of the prison camps in that country before the break between Germany and the United States; while Colonel Billings has been in Russia several times. Some of the members of the party took occasion to obtain several motion pictures of various points of interest, and, as they have already a large supply of film, they will be able to produce before the Russian people graphic pictures of interesting events and things on this continent.

Mr. G. M. Bosworth, Vice-President of the C. P. R., has received a letter of appreciation for the very many courtesies the delegation received on their trip to the coast. It was under the instruction of Lt. Col. Billings. The names of the mission are as follows:

- Lieut. Col. Frank Billings (chairman), professor medicine, University of Chicago; Lieut. Col. W. B. Thompson, director of the Federal Reserve Bank, New York; Major B. W. Andrews, auditor, St. Louis, Mo.; Major W. E. Thayer, professor of dental medicine, Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore; Major D. J. McCarty, fellow of Phi Kappa Phi, Philadelphia; Major H. G. Shuman, professor of food chemistry, Columbia University; Major H. E. Swift, of the Army Engineers; Major S. C. Whelan, professor sanitary engineering, Harvard University; Major C. E. A. Winslow, professor bacteriology and hygiene, Yale Medical College; Major F. P. Cook, general president of the American Society of Civil Engineers; Major Robins, Chicago; H. J. Neer, transportation expert, Chicago; Major S. Wightman, professor clinical medicine, New York Polyclinic Hospital; Capt. H. Brewer, publicist's Corp., N. S.; Lieut. Col. W. W. E. G. Grier, vice-president Chase Securities Company, New York; Capt. W. Cochran, Capt. Grov, of the Medical Officers Reserve Corps, Washington; Capt. George, drill instructor, New York; Lieut. C. K. Baker, attaché; Lieut. H. B. Redfield, law secretary of Brooks, attaché; Lieut. W. C. Nicholson, of the Swift Company, Chicago, and Lieut. S. D. Hardy, H. M. Wyckoff and W. C. Davis.

BRITISH CAVALRY HELD BACK TURKS Though Outnumbered, They Held Their Position. LONDON, Nov. 1.—An official statement on the operations in Egypt says: "On Saturday our lines of cavalry posts thrown out in advance of our main position were attacked by about three thousand Turks with twelve guns. Though outnumbered, and enveloped on both flanks, detachments of the London Yeomanry fought with great gallantry holding their positions for six hours until assistance arrived and thereby rendering great service to their infantry comrades. Repeated charges by the Turkish cavalry resulted in only slight gain of ground at the expense of heavy losses."

Rev. Brigg D. Knott, of Mahana Bay, Lunenburg Co., N. S., has accepted the call to the Immanuel Church Trust. He will commence his pastoral work there the first Sunday in January 1918.

Fertilizer

It is hard to make most of the farmers realize that there is a great possibility of them not being able to get what commercial fertilizer they will require this spring. But never the less it is an absolute fact and the wise farmer will take home his fertilizer soon. As if you wait till spring you may not be able to get any. As even now it is very hard to get what you want as transportation is so bad we have only a few more cars of Basic Slag to sell.

LITTLE SIDELIGHTS ON THE BIG WAR

How Value of German Red Dye Has Increased.

Denmark is suffering from an enormous increase of taxes as one result of the war.

London has supplied steel helmets to the special constables on duty during the air raids.

Fireworks, fire balloons, etc., have been prohibited in England since the commencement of the war.

The "holed" shirt and the glazed collar are now rarities in England, owing to the government ban on starch.

Blue is worn by the wounded soldiers and by nurses, because, according to the scientists, blue is a "healing" color.

Great Britain assumed the entire railway control of the United Kingdom within ten hours after issuing her first declaration of war.

The National Society of Scotland has distributed four million copies of the Scriptures among the soldiers of the British and allied armies.

No fewer than ten thousand French, English and Belgian women carpenters have engaged in the work of building butts for the soldiers on the Western front.

The German forces since the commencement of the war have usually been divided between the two fronts in the proportion of two men on the Western front to one on the Eastern.

Simultaneously with the outbreak of the war the Kaiser's special train was adapted to war-time travelling. The cars are all armed, and the locomotive is designed to withstand even bomb and shell attacks.

A barrel of German red dye, hidden away in a stock room of a paper company in Lincoln, N. H., since its purchase three years ago for $80, while war conditions boosted its value, has been sold to a New York concern for $5,000.

To aid in the conservation of the country's meat supply, poultry raisers have decided that the killing and dressing of turkeys for the holiday trade this year shall be postponed later than usual, so that the turkeys may attain full growth.

The Kaiser has no settled headquarters. Since the outbreak of the war he has kept continually on the move, rarely staying more than a week at any place, and often only a day. But the place wherever he may chance to be is the official German headquarters.

English troops protected the Canadian flank.

That they were able to move forward at all through the morasses is an amazing thing. It is reported that some were drowned in the shell holes and ponds which cover the region.

Many of the troops got so tangled up in the mud and water that they had to be hauled out with ropes. But they stuck to their task, for word had gone forward that the Canadian flank must be protected.

In one section it took the Canadians a solid hour to push ahead one hundred yards, so deeply did they sink into the bog at every step. An officer who returned from the advanced line was one hour and a half covering one hundred and fifty yards, with no equipment to be had.

At one farm a young English lieutenant, after being wounded eight times, still led his little band of men until they were all killed and wounded.

London, November 1.—The military correspondent of the Times says of the Italian operations:

"The fact that General Von Buelow, with a considerable force of German troops, has burst through the Julian front and that Austrian columns have found other badly defended points in the Carnic Alps is certainly very fortunate and we have need to minimize the gravity of the situation. Italy's eastern frontier temporarily is lost."

The correspondent adds a silver lining to the cloud in that although the season approaches for the operations in France and Flanders to die down, there

WEST IS "SOLID" FOR UNION GOVERNMENT.

Apportionment of Constituencies in Ontario Not Easy

(Toronto Telegram, Ltd. Conservative.)

OTTAWA, Oct. 27.—Cabinet Ministers who have been in the West, opposing the political campaign and attending to the organization, will be back in Ottawa next week. The full Union Government will then reassemble, debate the writs for the election, attend to whatever calls for immediate attention and "go to the country."

In Ontario, the Union organization will be directed mainly by Hon. Dr. Reid and Hon. Frank Cochrane; in Quebec by Hon. Messrs. Doherty, Balfour and Severyn; in the West by Messrs. Sifton, Calder and Meighen, and down East by Messrs. Caryell and Macdonald.

Arrangements are already advanced for a process of public enlightenment, to be on the platform but by literature expressive of the altered conditions of things and by a press campaign.

Any difficulties attendant upon the working out of the Union plans promise to be more pronounced in Ontario than in the East than in the West. In the prairie provinces, the influences which benefit the Government, what ever may have been the exact Spanish point in their development, is a large following, and the basis of a strong organization, now made stronger by union with Conservative workers. Another most favorable influence is the Wartime Elections Act, applying particularly to the West, and debarring from the vote, during the war, that big alien element which certainly would vote against the Government were the polls open to them.

Typical in Ontario

In Ontario there may be some trouble over candidates, for in the late House, out of 86 members, only 14 were Liberals. There are 82 Ontario seats in the new Parliament and most of the Conservatives who held them are proposing to run again.

To do so they must have the endorsement of the Union Government and the Liberals in it are understood to be suggesting a more equal "divvy" and the endorsement of a number of their faith favorable to compulsory service. This proposal naturally is resisted on the outside, because it is contended that those members who stood by the Government for selective conscription and, for the most part, favored union should have the first call by the new Government.

Has Long Been a Leading Lawyer and Reformer

Newton Wesley Rowell, leader of the Liberal party in the Province of Ontario, who, as President of the Privy Council, will sit in the coalition cabinet which Sir Robert Borden has assembled for the governing of Canada, celebrated his 50th birthday anniversary, having been born in Middlesex County, Ontario, Nov. 4, 1867. Mr. Rowell has long been a leading lawyer reformer and religious leader of Toronto. He stands out among the younger Canadian statesmen as a man much more interested in getting a certain social program carried out for the benefit of the people than in the ordinary political controversies of Dominion life. He has been a leading figure in the fight against prohibitory legislation in Ontario and in the Dominion. Workmen's compensation, factory laws, reduced hours of labor for women and children, better housing, and sound methods of taxation have all been urged by him. On the issue of conscription, Mr. Rowell broke with Sir Wilfrid, the Liberal party leader, and decided without any reservations to stand with Premier Borden in a "win-the-war" policy.

Using Gas on a Large Scale

New Trenchment Gas Utilized by Trenches on Italian Front

TORONTO, Oct. 29.—A London cable to the Mail and Empire says:

"A despatch to the Times from the Italian front says the feature of the Anglo-German attack has been the use of gas on a large scale. It is a type of gas which causes a terrible itching on the shoulders, faces even through masks. The hope apparently being that they will remove their masks and then succumb to the gas. Details of this sort, mist as it is called, are not available."

Should You Be Exempt?

Every facility is afforded those who have reasons for applying for exemption under the Military Service Act. A man's case will be considered by a local civil board, locally where he lives, and will be decided as in the national interest.

The idea behind the Military Service Act is to get only those whose absence from civilian occupations would cause least disturbance to the country's economic and social life. Those whose services are essential to the war effort are under the Act.

Cases of Exemption

Over 1,250 civic tribunals have been organized throughout Canada, known as Exemption Tribunals. These Boards are comprised of 2 members, one appointed by the county judge and one by a joint committee of Parliament. It will be seen that these tribunals are non-military and independent. The members are men closely acquainted with conditions in the places where they sit and will be able to give each case sympathetic attention.

National Interest Will Govern Exemptions

Consideration will be given to applications for exemption received from men engaged in the production or manufacture of commodities necessary to the conduct of the war and the support of those at home, and cases in which real hardship would be caused by the withdrawal. Not all men who register their claims will be exempted, but such claims will receive careful attention. National interest must govern.

Promptness is Essential

Prompt application for exemption is strongly urged upon all who, being included in the first class, believe they deserve exemption. But first visit a Medical Board and find out if any further action is required. Unless the Medical examination places you in Category A, you will have no immediate obligation for service.

COST OF LIVING

London, Nov. 2—The following official communication was issued this evening concerning the operations in Arabia:

It is reported that Arab troops of the King of Mecca raided the Hedjaz Railway recently, killing or capturing the Turkish guards and destroying a considerable proportion of the railway.

TOOK 1800 TURKS

LONDON, November 2—An additional official statement issued last evening on the Palestine campaign, says: "In the Beersheba operations, we captured 1,800 prisoners and nine guns. Our losses were slight in comparison to the results obtained."

89,000 CANADIANS AT THE FRONT.
 More Infantrymen Are Needed.
 OTTAWA, Nov. 1—A statement issued by the Department of Militia shows that General Sir Arthur Currie's fighting force in France is made up as follows: Four divisions and cavalry brigades, 78,000; fighting corps troops, 11,000. Total fighting troops, 89,000. Army Service corps and medical services, 8,000 railway, forestry, labor, etc., services, 28,000. Total lines of communication, 36,000. Grand total 125,000.

The troops in England may be divided into the following categories: The 5th Division; reserve units of the other four divisions; administrative troops; men in hospitals. At present the Fifth Division numbers only some 12,000 or 13,000 men, of whom some 10,000 are infantry. Here is a clear example of the way in which the uneven flow of recruiting, more gunners than were needed, fewer foot soldiers, frustrated a project of increasing our forces at the front.

In hospital there were on a certain day recently some 15,000. These vary, of course, from the helplessly ill to convalescents.

The administrative services absorb some 15,000 to 16,000 men.

Coming to Canada, it may be stated that, in round figures, there are some 20,000 officers and men of the Canadian expeditionary force of whom only 6,000 to 8,000 are infantry. Here we see the weakness, to remedy which the Military Service Act was needed.

CANADA HAS ONLY 31

BLINDED SOLDIERS
 Sir Frederick Fraser Plans to Publish Daily Newspaper and Monthly Magazine for Blind.

It is interesting to note in the face of general horror of blindness that the assumption in many quarters—that the war will turn back into Canada hundreds of sightless men into Canada foundation. The records of the Military Hospitals Commission, under whose direction all disabled soldiers come when they return to this country show that of the 400,000 Canadians sent overseas, only 31 have been blinded to date.

Nine Returned to Canada
 Nine of these men have been returned to Canada ready to carry on in professions which they learned at St. Dunstan's School for the Blind, in London, England, and are making good; the rest are in England, still in training.

There have been several cases in which their return to Canada, and proper their return to Canada, and provisions for their re-education has been made in the School for the Blind at Halifax, under the direction of Sir Frederick Fraser.

Sir Frederick is planning a new institution now which will accommodate any further cases of this kind, and rival the St. Dunstan's School, and the Light House established by Miss Winifred Holt in Paris, for the re-education of the blinded soldiers in France.

WARNING TO ALL WHO HAVE BEEN CALLED OUT FOR SERVICE

The registrations at the different Post Offices in the County certainly gave the impression that but a portion of the young men liable for service have registered as yet, probably not much more than one half. We desire to issue this warning that it is not possible for anyone to evade the law. All must register or suffer the consequence of being called for service later without any chance of asking for exemption or may be treated as a deserter. No one can employ a young man who is liable in this first call without running the risk of paying a heavy fine.

Be sure to register at once at your local post office or apply for registration with one of the local boards on November 8th, 9th or 10th. After the 10th will be too late.
 Don't delay and prove a Deserter.
