

POLITICS AND THE HALTER

HOSTILITY TO THE FORMER HELPER MRS. MARRICK

The pressure brought to bear on Home Secretary Matthews—The Queen at West-

London, Aug. 25.—It is the judgment of the leading Liverpool journal on Mr. Matthews' decision in the Maybrick case that if Liverpool is satisfied London ought to be. The London is not. It has taken to much confidence in the London press that it has clamored hardest for Mrs. Maybrick's pardon might be described as a shaking of the ground. The note is familiar throughout. It is a familiar note part of the English press depicts the agitation of the last few days, which undoubtedly does tend to lessen public confidence in the administration of justice by the courts of law. The Home Secretary has had to face a outcry of which argument and appeal to reason formed the smallest part. All the anti-hanging people joined in it, of course.

So did sentimentalists who, while ready to men suffer, would let women go free because they are women. And yet the class who thought the verdict wrong because Mrs. Maybrick was young and rather pretty, and a third with whom hostility to the present Government was the real motivation. For an attack it has been, and politicians had a great deal to do with the whole business. There is, of course, a large and respectable body who fully think the evidence against Mrs. Maybrick incomplete, and urged that she was entitled to the benefit of the doubt. But they are not the noisy band who wrote to or in the papers.

Perhaps never has any Home Secretary had to meet such a pressure as was put upon Mr. Matthews in this case.

It came from across his own colleagues. "If he hangs Mrs. Maybrick it will cost as a hundred thousand votes," said one of them. Hanging is not a Cabinet question, but Mrs. Maybrick is a Cabinet question. The Cabinet thought. He has done his best to decide according to the law and the evidence, but he is, after all, human, and he decided not to hang her, not to pardon, but to commute to penal servitude for life, it is to him a compromise. The Home Secretary public good would be to hang, but it is doubtful whether any Ministry or any Home Secretary ever lived who have had to contend with a pressure like that in the presence of the angry opposition which this simple solution of allowing Mrs. Matthews to take his course would provoke. Mr.

Matthews believes that Mrs. Maybrick tried to poison her husband. He is not quite sure whether she did or not. He thinks she did. He is not quite sure whether she did or not. He thinks she did.

FLOODS AND EARTHQUAKES.

Late Advice from the Orient—Too Many Victims to be Counted.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—The steamer Oceanic, which arrived today from Hong-Kong and Yokohama, brings advice of Aug. 10 further details of the bursting of the Yellow River embankments in the Province of Shantung July 25. The destruction is widespread. The breach in the river is over 2000 feet in length, and a swift current swept through, flooding to a depth of 12 feet a large extent of country lying adjacent to the river. It is estimated that the number of persons drowned is too great to be counted. The district are already submerged and it is feared many more in the low lying country south will suffer a similar fate.

The latest advice concerning the earthquake at Kumamoto, July 28, places the number of killed at 18 and the wounded at 30. Fifty-two dwellings were demolished.

A telegram received on July 30 states that 50 schools had been experienced and that they continued to be felt. The inhabitants were sleeping in the open air. The same earthquake was felt in the province of Chikugo. Considerable loss of life is reported, but no particulars have been received. Sudden Death at West. J. L. Dun, member of the School Board, died suddenly Friday night. During the day he was away attending an excursion, and was engaged in considerable dancing. He was seen on the streets during the evening and seemed to be in the best of spirits, returning to his home about 9 o'clock. A short time after he retired his wife was awakened by his heavy breathing, and ran to get some of the neighbors, but he had returned he was dead. It is supposed that he had been suffering from a heart disease which carried off so suddenly, caused notably by the excitement of the day's sport. The deceased had been a resident for the last 55 years, and about 8 years ago he purchased the Victoria Hotel, which he
