Fire Marshal for Ontario—Iceboat Accident on Toronto Bay—Inquiry Into Lakes Disasters—Quebec Scandal—War in Mexico

CURRENT PLAYED HAVOC WITH STEAMERS

Mysterious Body of Water in Lake Huron Swept Vessels From Their Course—Inquiry Into Wrecks of Last November Shows That It Was Impossible to Take Soundings.

That a mysterious current setting from southwest from Thunder Bay in the direction of Saginaw played havoc with the steamer Acadia, wrecked on Thunder Bay Island during the terrific storm of Nov. 9 last, was the evidence of Capt. John D. Persons, lighthouse keeper and captain of the life-saving crew, yesterday in the wreck enquiry being conducted by Capt. St. George Lindsay at the city hall. Capt. Persons stated that he sighted the Acadia laboring heavily in the afternoon. He knew of the current, which was so treacherous that it could not be charted because it varied with the weather. He had known vessels to try to approach in bad weather and find themselves three or four miles outside shelter when their captains thought they were inside.

Capt. Stevens of the Kaministiquia, the only Canadian vessel to weather the great storm, stated that on this occasion wind and weather were so heavy that he was driven 17 miles out of his course. In response to a question as to why soundings had not been taken in order to ascertain his position, he said that it was impossible to do so because any man who tried it would have been swept into the lake.

Capt. Hagen of the steamer Howard M. Hanna, which ran aground and became a total loss on the west shore, told his efforts to withstand the storm. Altho he had a full head of steam, he could make no progress against it, and finally his vessel fell into the trough of the sea and ran aground. He had kept his engines going all night in an endeavor to make her stay on the reef.

Capt. McIntyre of the Acadia told how he had tried to get in behind Thunder Bay Island for shelter, hauling his ship north by northwest, but it was of no avail. She struck and began to take water. The pumps were started, but he saw that they could not take the water out so the vessel was allowed to fill.

REDISTRIBUTION BILL TO COME BEFORE COMMONS NEXT WEEK BORDEN GAVE FORMAL NOTICE

Legislation Providing for Additional Senate Representation to Be Pressed—Lord Strathcona's Successor Not Chosen—Hon. Sam Hughes Target for Opposition.

(Special to The Toronto World) OTTAWA, Jan. 30.—In the house today Mr. Borden gave notice that on Tuesday next he would proceed with the legislation providing for additional senators for the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia. The prime minister also filed a formal notice with the clerk of the house tonight, respecting the bill which the government will bring down next week, redistributing the representation of the various provinces in the house of commons.

The greater part of the day was spent in committee of supply, civil government, and estimates were taken up, and thus nearly every department came under review. The Liberals were evidently in training for an assault upon the militia department, and made merry at the expense of the naval affairs department, which possessed everything except a navy.

There was some discussion respecting Lord Strathcona's successor and the Aldwych site, but little definite information was elicited, either as to who would be the next big commissioner or as to the location of the Canadian office.

Mr. Carroll (St. Cape Breton) read an article from The Sydney Record to show that the revenue cutter Alert had recently carried Conservative politicians including the candidate from Sydney in Victoria County, where a provincial by-election is imminent, and also some liquor, presumably for distribution in that dry constituency.

The prime minister said in reply that he had no information on the subject. He remembered, however, quite distinctly that government vessels had been used for such purposes during the lifetime of the late government.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier: "And there has been no improvement since then."

Mr. Borden: "I hope so, and there certainly should be."

Mr. Hughes (King's, P.E.I.) complained that freight rates had been increased on the Prince Edward Island railway 30 per cent, and some divisions as much as 100 per cent. He also complained that some men had been discharged.

Hon. Frank Cochrane said that even with the advanced freight rates the road was losing $100,000 a year. Some men were laid off to his regret, but all railway were laying off men at this time. He submitted that the true cost was allowed to fill.

Forty Drowned When Steamer Sank BRAVERY SHOWN BY CREW AND PASSENGERS

Nantucket Had Rammed and Sunk Other Steamer in Dense Fog—Passengers Roused From Sleep, Were Plunged Into Water.

(Special to The Toronto World) CHATHAM, Jan. 30.—The body of an unknown man was found floating down the river about 4 o'clock this afternoon. It was frozen to a cake of ice and had the appearance of having been in the water for some time. The man was probably 45 years of age, fairly well dressed, short and stocky.

It is thought that the man may be either Professor Lavelle or Mr. Channing, both of whom have been missing for some time, and who were said to have been in this locality.

While walking along the C. P. R. tracks at the foot of Bathurst street early yesterday morning, James Hucull, 38, of 4% Draper street, was knocked down and almost instantly killed by an eastbound freight train.

At the time of the accident, Hucull was accompanied by his brother. His brother, questioned later, failed to understand how the man was struck, because neither noticed the approach of the train. James, he said, hesitated until just too late, in stepping off the track.

The body was removed to the morgue, where an inquest will be held.

A FIRE MARSHAL FOR ONTARIO IS NEEDED

Delegates From Various Municipalities Asked the Government Immediately to Adopt a Bill Giving New Officer Wide Powers in Order to Prevent Fire Waste.

Ontario is seeking the appointment of a fire marshal. Since the government bill of last session, favoring such an officer, was introduced tentatively in the house, public opinion in all parts of the province has been stirred into discussion, and now the demand for legislation comes very strongly.

The Ontario Fire Prevention Association, in collaboration with the associated boards of trade, Canadian Manufacturers' Association, Association of Architects, of fire chiefs, of employers and of credit men assembled before the attorney-general yesterday afternoon to pledge their united support to the spirit of the bill, and to urge its immediate adoption when the legislature meets.

A host of delegates from Ontario municipalities, combining all interests in any way concerned with the annual fire losses, brought their appreciation of the bill and proffered suggestions. The most radical of the latter invited the marshal with the right to enter any house and see that proper care is taken to prevent combustion, to hold fire inquests on destroyed buildings as a corollary to cause insurance companies to be held, and to order precautions under penalty.

ASKS FOR RULING ON VEXED GAS QUESTION

Galt to Have Matter Laid Before Department at Ottawa—Board of Health Also Active.

(Special to The Toronto World) OTTAWA, Jan. 30.—Mayor Buchanan has written to Hon. Geo. A. Cairns, M.P., asking him to take up with the department at Ottawa, the matter of the Dominion Natural Gas Company's being allowed to distribute sulphurated gas. The ruling of the department will be awaited with interest, as it will decide a question in which many municipalities in Western Ontario are vitally interested.

The board of health has instructed Town Solicitor Daulton to notify the Dominion Natural Gas Co. that unless the company can give Galt some definite information as to what it is doing to remove the existing nuisance, action will be instituted in the police court to compel the company to cause its abatement.

The estimates tabled in the house of commons last night included a vote of $25,000 for Galt armory. This is an addition to the vote of last year of $40,000, making the total vote $65,000. As soon as the work of demolishing the old Dumfries mill, which now occupied the site on Ansonie street, is completed, the construction of the armory will commence.

ON ALERT FOR TRAMWAY BILL

Lorne McGibbon Financed Laying of Trap; Beck Testified—Will Protect Witnesses.

QUEBEC, Jan. 30.—(Special)—Appreciable progress was made this afternoon and tonight with the legislature's investigation into the charges of The Montreal Daily Mail that money had been accepted by J. Octave Mousseau, formerly member for Soulanges, and chairman of the private bills committee of the legislative assembly, for his support to the decoy bill of the Montreal Fair Association.

By a resolution adopted at a meeting of the legislative assembly this afternoon safe conduct and freedom from arrest was accorded to the witnesses of its charges, namely to Edward Beck, G. B. Biddinger, S. C. Malone, E. D. Keyes, G. F. Mart, Alex. Appleby and Miss Margaret E. Bailey, all except Mr. Beck being of the Burns detective agency, New York.

Premier Gouin proposed this resolution in order, he said, that no person might say that Quebec province, which occupies a unique position in the Dominion, was afraid of an enquiry.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING

Miss Mackenzie, Mrs. Bickford and Frank McCarthy Thrown Into the Bay When Iceboats Upset.

Four of the most prominent society people of Toronto had narrow escapes from drowning in the bay yesterday afternoon, when two iceboats in which they were sailing on the bay broke through the ice.

Three boats were used by the party, which consisted of the Count and Countess De Lesseps, Miss Ethel Mackenzie and Miss Bertha Mackenzie, Mrs. H. Bickford, Mrs. James Elmsley, Sydney Fellowes, Frank McCarthy and Jack Cawthra.

The party went out on the bay at 4 o'clock and the boats had made several circuits of the bay and were coming towards the C.C.Y.C. club house, when the ice cracked and two of the boats went into the water thru the hole in the ice. Miss Bertha Mackenzie, Mrs. Bickford and Mr. McCarthy were thrown into the icy waters of the bay and were immersed up to their necks.

GRAHAM CENSOR SAYS LE DEVOIR

Readers of Montreal Evening Papers, Published in English Language, Have No Choice.

OTTAWA, Jan. 30.—(Special)—Le Devoir today publishes a long editorial signed by Omer Heroux. All the evening and Sunday newspapers published in the English language in Montreal, it says, are controlled by Sir Hugh Graham, and as the police bulk of the people read only these papers they are dependent entirely upon this one man for all their knowledge of current events. He can decide of what they shall be informed and of what they shall be kept in ignorance. He will decide what shall be told to the Conservative thru The Star, and what shall be handed out to the Liberal thru The Herald.

After complimenting Mr. Fielding on the position he has now taken, it quotes from his statement that he was assured when he accepted the editorship of The Telegraph that Sir Hugh Graham owned but a small interest, and that the control was vested in a well-known Liberal. The comment is made that Mr. Fielding does not give the name of this well-known Liberal, and the question is asked: "Does he refer to Mr. E. A. Robert, Liberal deputy for Beauharnois and president of the Montreal Tramways?"

If Mr. Robert is the person referred to by Mr. Fielding, Le Devoir thinks it is up to Mr. Robert to explain. Le Patrie mentions the Fielding letter in a short editorial, giving the substance of the Fielding statement without comment. The Herald-Telegraph tonight contains several editorials, all of them of a strongly Liberal character.

GRIFFITHS WILL NOT RESIGN SEAT AT ONCE

Does Not Intend to Contest Riding in Next General Election.

(Special to The Toronto World) OTTAWA, Jan. 30.—(Special)—Griffiths, the English member of parliament who is reported by cable to be about to resign his seat in the British House, stated at the Chateau Laurier tonight that he did not intend to resign immediately. He was simply not fighting the next election. During the next two or three years Mr. Griffiths says he will be traveling constantly thru the countries of the British Empire. He considers that he can do better work in furthering the interests of the British Empire than by sitting in the house of commons. "Besides, when one is allied to a particular political party, he is apt to be suspected of serving his party more than his country," he said.

JOHN RICHARDS SAYS HE IS STILL ALIVE

According to a letter in the hands of the police from F. S. Robinson, at Lake Joseph P.O., the old couple found dead in a room in a dining room house on Jan. 21 were not Mr. and Mrs. John Richards, as was reported. Mr. Robinson makes the statement that he is in receipt of a letter from John Richards, who states he is still very much alive.

The matter is complicated by the fact that a will signed John Richards was found in the old couple's room, and how got there is a matter which is puzzling the police.

HOLLOWAY IS NOT PLACE OF TORTURE

Bishop of London Says Investigation Disproved Charges of Suffragettes.

"SHRIEKS AND MOANS"

Proved to Be Imaginary—Prisoner Was Apparently Quite Comfortable.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—(Can. Press.)—There is no truth in the allegations made by the militant suffragettes that three of their comrades, imprisoned in Holloway jail, are subjected to excruciating torture while being forcibly fed, according to the Bishop of London, the Right Rev. Arthur Foley Winnington Ingram.

The bishop, accompanied by another clergyman, visited Holloway jail at the request of a deputation of militant suffragettes, and with the consent of the home secretary. While there he spoke with Miss Rachel Peace, one of the suffragettes, and with Miss Ansell, who, after her release from Holloway, told a suffragette meeting that while she was incarcerated she had heard shrieks and moans twice daily proceeding from Miss Peace's cell.

The bishop in a letter to the Women's Social and Political Union says: "I found Miss Peace in the 'Remand Hospital,' which is 300 yards from the 'Convicted Hospital,' where Miss Ansell was lying. Miss Peace lay on a comfortable bed, fully dressed and in a well-warmed cell. Her face was fully rounded and she showed no signs of emaciation or distress."

Miss Peace informed Bishop Ingram that she had never shrieked and had never been put into a padded cell in the jail, where she is undergoing 18 months' imprisonment.

The only complaint Miss Peace made was that she had not been released like other suffragettes under the provisions of the "cat and mouse" act.

Bishop Ingram informed Miss Peace that he was authorized by the home secretary to tell her she would be released immediately if she would undertake to refrain from committing criminal acts of militancy, such as the burning of houses, for which she had been convicted.

Miss Peace, however, replied that she was unable conscientiously to give this promise.

The bishop's report on his visit concludes: "She said nothing to me about forcible feeding. If Miss Ansell hears shrieks they could not have been uttered by Miss Peace. The fears you express in regard to her are not borne out by facts."

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS ARE FULLY VINDICATED

Prosecution of Detractors of Order Will Not Be Pressed.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30.—(Can. Press.)—Pleas of nolle prosequere were entered into court here today by Charles McConigh and C. H. Stage, who had been indicted on charges of libel and conspiracy to libel the Knights of Columbus in printing and distributing what purported to be an oath taken by members of that organization.

James A. Flaherty, supreme knight of the order, told the court that the Knights of Columbus felt that they had been vindicated by the pleas entered and said the order would be satisfied if the court would discharge the defendants under a suspension of sentence. The court granted the request.

HEBERTS ONCE MORE DECLARED MARRIED

Quebec Appeal Court so Decides—Cause Celebrated Another Peg.

MONTREAL, Jan. 29.—(Can. Press.)—Judgment in the Hebert marriage annulment case setting aside as unnecessary that of Judge Charbonneau, was delivered by the reviewer appeal court of the Province of Quebec here today, composed of Justices Teller, Delorme and Greenfield.

The Heberts are thus legally married again and the parties are thus left civilly in exactly the same position as they were when the case came before Judge Laredeau and after the Catholic Church had pronounced their marriage as null and void.

The review court's judgment does not pass on the vital question as to whether Protestant ministers can legally marry Catholics.

EFFICIENT HOUSEKEEPING BY HENRIETTA D. GRAUEL DOMESTIC SCIENCE LECTURER

Boiled Dinners

THERE is a little hotel in a northern New York village that knights of the road travel miles out of their way to eat their Sunday dinners in. It does not serve a chicken dinner; an old-style, New England boiled dinner is what attracts the traveling men and makes the place famous.

Just what properly constitutes a boiled dinner housekeepers of today can scarcely decide, for there are so many foods cooked in the steamer or in the fireless cooker that a generation ago were hardly known and never served in the styles that we now have them.

In early days women had a hundred duties to one of ours. There was weaving, spinning, darning, care of chickens and the garden to call them away from the fire, so that there was a reason for putting all the food on together and cooking it in the quickest way possible.

Undoubtedly, too, it was the lack of utensils and the ever-present open fireplace that made the boiled dinner universal. In many a home, within the memory of our grandparents, the only cooking place was the open fire and the only utensil the hanging kettle.

In Old-town Poika we are told of the advent of the marvelous Franklin stove and many a colonial tale assures us that the meat was always cooked on a spit when Indian pudding was made, for the copper kettle was then needed for boiling the meal.

But whether necessity or good cookery produces that combination known to the French as a ragout, and to us as a vegetable stew, we joyfully admit it is good and pass our plates for more. To produce a boiled dinner in all its inviting fragrance, you must have a deep iron kettle with a lid that fits closely. Put the meat in first; any kind, corned beef, lean mutton, fresh beef, or a brace of rabbits or a fowl. Cover with cold water and add salt with a generous hand. When this is boiling briskly remove it to a place where it will just simmer and let it cook until the meat is almost tender; do not lift the lid often to investigate, for every time you do some of the good flavor and rich aroma escapes.

Now put in the vegetables in the following order: Turnips cut in quarters, cabbage cut in eighths, and after these have cooked twenty minutes, potatoes cut in half. Add a little more salt and cover, simmer for at least an hour longer, when there will be just enough liquor left in the kettle to prevent its contents sticking. Take the vegetables up on a great platter, with the meat in the centre, or dish each separately and pour the pot liquor over the cabbage.

It is a good idea to invert an old saucer or small plate in the bottom of the kettle before putting in the meat, as this keeps it from burning.

In mid-winter the vegetables should be pared and cut and placed in cold water to freshen while the meat is boiling; otherwise they may be strongly flavored. The cabbage let in first, as it requires longest to cook. Parsenips may be used with potatoes and the cabbage and turnips be omitted, but this would not be a New England boiled dinner.

THE GARDE CONDUCTED BY RACHEL R. TODD M.D.

A Last Word On Alpine Carpeters Myosotis and Phlox Subulata.

By the time the Alyssum are ready to retire from the public gaze, and indeed, long before, two other plants have been getting ready for exhibition purposes, as fast as ever they can do so. These are the Forget-me-not and the old-fashioned Scotch of Grass Pink.

The Forget-me-not is too well known to need description here. Besides we talked at length and in detail about this fairy plant last year some time. Suffice it to remind our gardeners once again that the Myosotis has wonderful possibilities. And it is the first real pale blue flower of the spring.

Nothing more delightfully restful than the dainty, wee blue flowers could be imagined as they gaze up to the sky, with sleepy yellow eyes, dreaming out of the mass of gray-green leaves.

After the purples and crimsons and lavenders of the Rock Cress, and the golden yellows and soft whites of the various Alyssum, the quiet, soft pale blues are wonderfully grateful.

The Myosotis or Forget-me-not is a prodigious feeder. Unlike most of the Alpine carpeters, the roots do not extend deeply into the earth. Indeed, these roots are but a tangle of short white threads, an inch or so in length.

Therefore it is very essential to the well-being of the plant to have a good supply of moisture. Especially so if the plants are sprawling over a wide surface of stationery, the long trailers will creep and creep and creep, stretching out after the necessary moisture, and finding this, will send out white roots at intervals. Indeed, one may lift the long creepers up from the stones and notice how the plant has sent out little white roots at intervals. These are hints of moisture that may have gathered upon the stones. I often think that the Forget-me-not is rather an ungrateful plant. It seems to me to take a little more of the human about it than most plants have.

Look up last year's talk upon this subject. One can always learn something new about a very old familiar friend.

Forget-me-not will go on blooming as long as you will permit it, if you take care to clip down the long wand of bloom occasionally.

A very pretty carpeter, better known as a "Tuffet" is Phlox subulata, the old-fashioned Scotch Pink. I am sure many know this plant. It is often called the "Moss Pink" also, and by this name may be better known to some.

Phlox subulata is a perennial, of matted or tufted stems, extremely variable, and prized for its abundant early bloom. This plant was described in detail last year, and so it will not be necessary to go into close details now.

The leaves are very narrow, sharp, stiff, branching out sharply from the waving, creeping stems. Gray-green in color.

The flowers are five-petaled, in small clusters, terminal, and from the leaf-angles. These flowers are an inch across, pink, white, occasionally pale blue, and sometimes marked with a little white eye. As a rule, however, the thick tufts of mossy gray-green are covered with bright pink that usually sets the rockery ablaze in early May.

Nothing prettier can be planted on your rockery than a row of Phlox subulata, close behind a row of Myosotis. Just as the Forget-me-nots are drawing away among their gray-green leaves, up behind them come the brilliant Pinks, peering bravely out from their tickets of gray spikes and nodding this way and that, seeming to laugh with joy at their lazy young friends asleep on the boulders.

The honest governors who will visit the Toronto General Hospital during the week commencing on Feb. 1, are: Messrs. John F. Ellis and G. T. Somers.

REGISTRATION BUREAU FOR UNEMPLOYED WOMEN

Very Latest Fancies of Fashion Evening Gown Models to Be Made at Home

By MADGE MARVEL

HERE are three evening gowns which the clever home seamstress should have no great difficulty in reproducing. Really, in the gowns of the season, the chief thing to remember is to have the lines right. They are far less difficult than in the days when the fit was the thing.

The gown at the left is more suited for the slender woman than for her sister who has to be careful of drapings which add to her size. It is of ivory white charmeuse with chiffon and a bit of the ever-present beading shown in the rhinestones which outline the bodice. The skirt is charmuse or velvet it may form the "standby" gown of the wardrobe. It is delightfully graceful in its long drapery, and will make any one appear fashionably long and narrow, as we are told is the present demand.

There is low drapery on each hip, and the skirt is slightly slashed in front, where it displays a pleating of chiffon. The bodice is draped close to the figure and rather out on the shoulders to give the breadth needed. There is an inner vestee of heavy lace embroidered in Oriental style. The sleeves, which do not reach the elbows, are of cream lace with tiny crystal buttons. There is the rarest grade of jewels fastened with a

Exercises for the Early Morning Hour

By MAGGIE TEYTE

Prima Donna of the Chicago-Philadelphia Opera Company.

Can you breathe? Perhaps not. But few women can—or do. Oh, yes, I know you think you do or you wouldn't be alive, but wait until you learn to really breathe with every bit of the lungs given you for the purpose, and you'll feel as if you had only been half-breathing. Naturally, all successful singers and actresses know how to breathe, and one of the reasons that some are not truly successful is because they do not know how to breathe.

Proper breathing is the first exercise you must learn. It is the second step toward beauty, as cleanliness is the first. Start to breathe the minute you open your eyes in the morning, having slept over the resolve to be beautiful. Jump out of bed, slip on a good warm robe, stick your toes into warm slippers, stand in front of an open window and BREATHE.

Empty your lungs of all that sleepy air. Clear the cobwebs out of your brain, set the blood racing through your body. I tell you, proper breathing completely makes one over, mentally and physically. It gives new energy, strength, ambition, and it changes the viewpoint of life.

The first thing to learn in breathing is rhythm. The regularity of one, two, three, on the intake of air and the same regularity in the exhalation. Then you will set your life in tune. And the great secret of life is to be in tune.

So! Stand erect like a soldier, hands on hips, shoulders square, head up, eyes to the front and BREATHE. Slowly and rhythmically fill every coil of your lungs, then, with unabated regularity, empty them. Rest a few counts and repeat. It may make you dizzy and your ears may feel like bursting. That's sure proof that you have not been in the habit of breathing. And if it does affect you this way, use judgment as to time and don't go too far at once.

Secrets of Health and Happiness

Sleep and Sunlit Air Cure for "Hollow" Eyes

By Dr. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG
A. B., M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins).
Copyright, 1914, by L. K. Hirschberg.

IF YOU were told that you possess two soft, elderdown beds, smaller than pigeon eggs, you might smile. If you were then told that these beds of roses are in your head, what would you say?

Furthermore, lying comfortably in those downy beds are your two most precious possessions. The twin cushions are your eye sockets; their proud occupants are your optical organs. In brief, the eye-cups in your head rest on bedding of the fluffiest fat. Your visual sensory apparatus lies in a feather bed of obese jelly.

Your eyes, in all their perfection, with all their fire, with all their capacity for teaching you of the external world, would be of little aid to you without the protective muscles and pads of adipose tissue which surround them. This flesh beneath, above and on the inner and outer side of the eyeball allows the eyes to move without friction, supports them nicely on an even keel, and does away in health with that "hollow-eyed," sunken-orbed appearance.

Whenever you liken the face of any one to a skull, you will discover that it is the withdrawal of the eyeball into the eye-cup or socket, which presents such an uncanny resemblance.

What is it which produces this wan, emaciated, senile idea? It is the loss of the adipose pillows and bedding around and beneath the eye. No hearty, strong or well-nourished person can ever look like a death's head. Why? Simply because the buxom masses of corpulent tissue keeps their eyes in a normal, good-looking position.

What "Hollowness" is

There is nothing which mars the symmetry and beauty of the features more than the loss of fat about the eyes, and their recession deep into the eye-cups. Yet any loss of weight from tuberculosis, cancer, fevers, or wasting ailments of any sort may show themselves first in a "hollowness around the eyes."

Next to these current scourges, excesses in work, play and loss of sleep are offending sources of sunken eyes. Another person has kept late hours or passed a sleepless vigil the night before. Moreover, it is not only those maladies that destroy roundly or cause loss of flesh which are to be blamed for wasted eye pads. Fatigue and physical shortcomings are also surpassed by mental disturbances. Worry, hysteria, envy, lack of food and a host of lesser irritations will give rise to the dugout-eye. A frightened look is often imitated by actors and others by causing their eyeballs to shrink into their sockets. This impression may be obtained by darkening the area just outside of and around the eyes.

There is nothing wrong with you. No one can feel his lungs taking in air, feel his stomach digesting food, or feel his brain thinking. If you felt any of these things you would then be sick.

W. T.—Is bicarbonate of soda harmful? I take a teaspoonful of it every morning.

It is inadvisable to take anything that is not food and drink too often. It will be better for you to discover some fruit or other food to take the place of this alkali.

Try apples, figs, grapefruit, dates, prunes, oranges, peaches, and any fruit that you can obtain. Take one each at night and another in the morning.

MRS. H.—Can anything be done for red veins on the nose?

Yes, have your stomach looked after. Digestive troubles due to sugar and spice and everything nice are often responsible.

Peter's Adventures in Matrimony

By LEONA DALRYMPLE

Author of the new novel, "Diane of the Green Van," awarded a prize of $10,000 by Ida M. Tarbell and S. S. McClure as judges.

"The truth, plain and unvarnished, about 'the girl in the case' distinguishes this new series by Miss Dalrymple. Her character studies will not appear unfamiliar to the majority of readers, who will follow the fortunes of 'Peter' with growing interest. Consulting with Mother.

XXXII.

WHENEVER a thing is being mephitically I like to get mother's viewpoint into it. Mother is the most sensible woman I've ever known, and moreover, she always knows what she thinks and tells it well.

"Mother," I said, "I'm wondering why all women detest housework so. They are always grumbling."

Mother smiled. "It isn't entirely the woman's fault," said mother unexpectedly. "I started. Now mother is always loyal to women, but she clearly sees a fault and admits it always and I was a little surprised. For the life of me I couldn't see her viewpoint. I insist that women inject into their work certain elements of discontent and therefore take nothing else from it."

"There's a side of the situation, son," said mother fairly. "That most people don't think of. It's accumulative, too, and has come down to us century by century."

"Yes," I encouraged.

Mother's kindly eyes twinkled. "It's the attitude of the man."

"But, mother," I protested, "the usually feels very guilty when his wife is airing her views on housework and very sorry that she has to do it. Isn't that so?"

"That isn't the side I mean," explained mother gently. "Men, Peter, began the despising." "Great Scott!" I exclaimed feebly, for the viewpoint was new.

From this immemorial, Peter," said mother, "men have smiled and turned up conspicuously superior noses at the work of women. We've heard so frequently that housekeeping doesn't take negligible form of the world's labor that we've grown resentful because all this inferior labor was put upon our shoulders. You'll hear a reflex of that attitude from the tiniest boy on. Didn't I hear a little fellow yesterday blurt to his mother, 'Aw, what do women want to vote for? They don't know how to no nuthin but cook!'"

"Men with their scornful smugness have robbed housework of all its dignity and the result was inevitable. Women echo it. You'll always hear a faint note of contempt in the man's careless, 'Oh, that woman's work' particularly if that work be in the home. The only sort of woman's work he honestly respects is when she deliberately encroaches upon his own line, and according to his standards."

"I—I believe you're right, mother. And naturally if men sneer women will begin to believe that the work isn't worth the doing. That's what you mean, isn't it?"

"Exactly," said mother. "And it isn't true. The work is tremendously worth the doing. Why, Peter, to make a home happy and bring up the children of the world to be useful citizens is the biggest job there is. The finest by-product of this sweep of feminism, to my thinking, is that men are waking up to the fact that there's another job or two in the world besides their own. And as men wake up, women follow. They always do."

"Watch the attitude of the business woman, Peter. She's comparatively new in the game and inclined to be a little superior with her sister who stays at home. It's imitation, Peter, of the male notion that the home-keeping woman hasn't brains enough to do anything else. A girl who hummers a typewriter every day in an utterly mechanical way smiles with sweet superiority at the girl who's merely helping her mother at home."

The home-helper, I think, has the bigger job of the two. It's more unselfish and she's not so well paid.

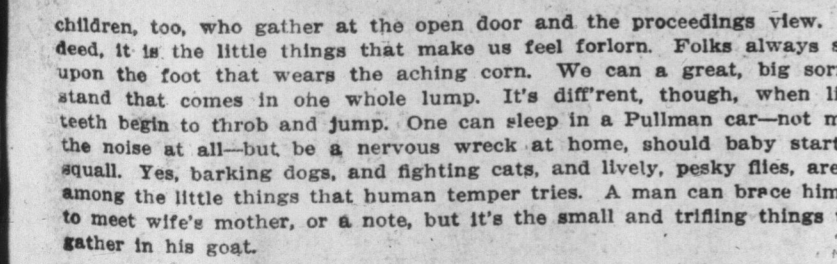

"By and by, Peter, when the millennium comes men and women will comprehend and respect each other's work. Then we'll have scientific housekeeping and happy women."

I have a guilty sense that mother's right.

Pesky Little Things

By Tom Jackson

THIS mostly trifling little things that vex us, and annoy, and often make us speak rude words, and rob our lives of joy. A little bolt upon the neck makes all the world look grim. So does a blow with hammer on a finger or a thumb. A carpet tack, with business end a-pointing in the air, will make one lose one's dignity, if one's feet should be bare. To get in contact with the same is carpet tack's delight, to see one dance the tango in pajamas late at night is also joy for carpet tack, and for the children, too, who gather at the open door and the proceedings view. Indeed, it is the little things that make us feel forlorn. Folks always step upon the foot that wears the aching corn. We can a great, big sorrow stand that comes in one whole lump. It's different, though, when little teeth begin to throb and jump. One can sleep in a Pullman car—not mind the noise at all—but be a nervous wreck at home, should baby start to squall. Yes, barking dogs, and fighting cats, and lively, pesky flies, are all among the little things that human temper tries. A man can brace himself to meet wife's mother, or a note, but it's the small and trifling things that gather in his goat.

Said by Wise Men

He that lives in perpetual suspicion lives the life of a sentinel never relieved. —Young.

No man is poor who does not think himself so; but if in a full fortune, he with impudence desires more, he proclaims his wants and his beggary condition. —Jeremy Taylor.

Seek not proud wealth; but such as thou mayest get justly, use soberly, distribute cheerfully, and leave contented. Yet have not any abstract or trifling contempt of it. —Bacon.

To behold is not necessarily to observe, and the power of comparing and combining is only to be obtained by education. It is much to be regretted that habits of exact observation are not cultivated in our schools. To this deficiency may be traced much of the fallacious reasoning and the false philosophy which prevail. —W. Humboldt.

VELOUTINE OF PHEASANT WILHEMINE.

CUT and roast slightly 12 chestnuts; take off the skin and put them in a pan, cover with broken stock, three stalks of celery, one bouquet garni and let boil slowly. Clean two pheasants, put them in a pan with sliced carrots, onions, a little salt, pork and thyme; let them take some color; then put them with the chestnuts and cook together.

Take off the breast of one of the pheasants and put it aside; pound the rest together with the chestnuts, pass through a fine sieve, adding chicken consommé. When ready to serve, mix a liaison of cream, butter, and yolks of eggs well beaten.

Put the supreme in small lozenges, carrots the same to be used as a garnishing.

CORN-FED CHICKEN SAUTE HOTELIERE.

Cut up and saute in butter; when cooked take off the pan, put a little chopped shallots and red wine, add some veal stock, let reduce, and finish with a piece of fresh butter.

In the mean time have ready Julienne of ham (the lean part), fresh mushrooms and cepes sautes Provencale.

Arrange the chicken on a platter, pour the sauce over, then pour the ragout Provencale over all, and sprinkle with a little chopped fine herbs.

STRAWBERRIES CZARINE.

Pick one pound fresh strawberries, put them in a bowl with four ounces of powdered sugar, two small glasses of cold water, same quantity of Curaçao, and one pinch of powdered cinnamon. Keep on ice, and before serving cover the strawberries with vanilla mousse.

LOBSTER EXCELSIOR.

Lobster in the shell, scalloped and saute, flaming with good brandy. In saute, flaming with good brandy. In saute, flaming with good brandy. In saute, flaming with good brandy.

Daddy's Good Night Story

By GEORGE HENRY SMITH

JUDGE BEAR awoke from his snooze one afternoon when he heard a squeaky voice talking.

"Be careful, please!" said the voice. Looking up Judge Bear saw Mr. Spider walking across his web.

"Are you talking to me?" asked the Judge.

"I am," replied Mr. Spider. "I took a long time to my web and I don't want it broken."

"I will try to be careful," said Judge Bear.

"Yes," replied Mr. Spider, "and when the web is done it is the strongest thing in the world for its weight."

"Is it stronger than the bridge over Honeyuckle creek?" asked the Judge.

"It is for its weight. You see how fine it is and yet it holds me. When a fly comes along it catches him and holds him."

"Suppose something heavy comes along, doesn't it tear your web all to pieces?" asked the big fellow.

"That is an interesting point," said Mr. Spider. "When I see a Mister Bumble Bee, who may sting me, or Mr. Grasshopper, who may tear my web with his jumpy legs, I destroy my web and make another."

"It must take a lot of patience," said Judge Bear.

"Indeed it does," replied Mr. Spider, as he came down his elevator and sat by Judge Bear. "I am the most patient of living things."

"It means good luck when a spider spins a web in front of you," said Judge Bear, as he started off.

"Good luck to you, then," said Mr. Spider as he started up in his private elevator.

SATURDAY MORNING, JAN. 31

A JUDGMENT ON FACTS.

It has been made a reproach to the board of trade and the Manufacturers' Association that they are opposed to the purchase plan, and some comment has been made about the appointment of Mr. J. W. Woods and Mr. Rhys Fairbairn as representatives on the mayor's proposed commission, because these gentlemen were understood to be opposed to public ownership.

The Telegram has attacked Ald. Wickert over his question to Controller O'Neill, "Would you keep out the radicals?"

Says The Telegram: "Controller O'Neill gave the only answer that should be given when he declared that he would never let the radicals come into the city on surface lines."

Controller O'Neill also asserted on the same occasion that surface entrance for radicals was entirely antiquated and worthless.

Everybody but The Telegram and its allies knew that when Mayor Hocken proposed a tube railway for Toronto three years ago, it was sufficient for The Telegram to know that The World supported the construction three years ago to decide it against the proposal.

If a commission be appointed to examine Mayor Hocken's agreement we shall expect to have an absolutely impartial and business-like verdict upon it with plain reasons and reliable figures for the statements made. It is not a question of policy but facts that the commission will have to settle.

THE MEXICAN POSITION.

President Wilson is said to contemplate the removal of the embargo which prevents citizens of the United States from supplying the Mexican revolutionaries with arms. This action appears to be imposed on him by desires to hasten the hour of Huerta's removal from the dictatorship he has assumed.

It is not a question of policy but facts that the commission will have to settle. If Huerta is undesirable as president of the Mexican Republic and has gained that position by methods which render him unworthy of recognition, Mexico's chaotic condition will continue, and the restoration of order be made more difficult of accomplishment should the constitutionalists be handicapped by the lack of the necessary munitions of war.

SCOTTISH EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM.

Attention was called the other day to the second volume, recently issued, of the report of the Canadian Royal Commission on Technical Education, of which Dr. James W. Robertson was chairman. The preliminary article chiefly concerned England. That now received deals with Scotland, the most advanced nation, educationally, of the United Kingdom. It is matter of history that the great reformer, John Knox, was long ahead of his time in his views of an educational system. His ideal was a school in every parish and the encouragement of every boy of parts to develop all the capabilities that were in him.

cal university for the learned professions only, but reaches from the primary school to industrial, technical and professional training for nearly all occupations.

Very remarkable progress in this direction has been made in Scotland within the last ten years, as is shown by the figures embodied in the report. In fact, it is full of suggestions for the betterment of the Canadian systems.

Not the least noteworthy is that of Sir John Struthers, head of the Scottish education department, who is quoted as remarking that Canada, having no state church, afforded a fine opportunity for what might be called an "established schoolmaster" in every township—not to be simply a teacher, but to take charge of the general education of a place and see that the standard of culture was kept up in that district. In other words, he thought—as has been strongly urged—that the schoolhouse might well be the centre of rural intellectual activity and do much more than it has yet done to revive interest in country life.

Only a small part of the interesting material contained in the review of Scottish education can be indicated, and it is to be hoped that the report itself will be carefully studied by all responsible in any way for Canadian schools.

AN IMMEDIATE REMEDY.

Says The Telegram: "Controller O'Neill gave the only answer that should be given when he declared that he would never let the radicals come into the city on surface lines."

IN MISERY AT MEAL TIME

Indigestion Can Be Cured by the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

If your digestion is weak you cannot derive proper nourishment from your food and you are in distress. It is then that you lose all your appetite, and you feel pain in the chest and other distressing symptoms.

You cannot cure indigestion by the use of laxatives, and pre-digested foods only make the stomach more sluggish. Indigestion can only be cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

Whatever present doubt may exist about the value of radium in the treatment of cancer, there can be none about the fact that its known properties warrant the belief that it has great curative possibilities. Just now the amount available for experimental purposes, whether in laboratories or hospitals, is limited, and progress is retarded for that reason.

BITTER ONSLAUGHT MADE ON GOMPERS

Official of Mine Workers Accused Labor Leader of Wild Carousing.

SCENE WAS STORMY Gompers Denied Charges and Hurlled Back Some Vigorous Epithets.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 30. (Can. Press.)—Scenes of the wildest disorder today's session of the convention of the United Mine Workers of America, which heard Duncan McDonald, secretary-treasurer of the Illinois president of the American Federation of Labor, was "glorious drunk" and on other occasions "glorious drunk" and "glorious drunk."

The delegates showed little sympathy for Gompers and he declared he was being tried "before a jury whose members were already poisoned," but every point made by Gompers and McDonald was widely applauded.

McDonald said: "Above the obscene language and maudlin song, I seemed to be trying to sing and to keep time by pounding on the table with a beer bottle. Let me tell you, they didn't have a tub, filled with bottled beer and cracked ice, and on the table were half a dozen bottles of whiskey."

Gompers flatly denied the charges in a short address, and was applauded when he left the platform.

Gompers had a snout fall at Atlanta, said McDonald. "He was told you a great friend he is of John Walker, our former president in Illinois. I was celebrating his birthday, and he had Delegate Groce Lawrence and threw his arms around his neck, saying, 'Johnny Walker, you are a brother.'"

In speaking further of the Seattle occasion, McDonald said: "Above the obscene language and maudlin song, I seemed to be trying to sing and to keep time by pounding on the table with a beer bottle. Let me tell you, they didn't have a tub, filled with bottled beer and cracked ice, and on the table were half a dozen bottles of whiskey."

Wright is committed on charge of fraud. Mrs. Sharpe Testifies in Police Court Against Theo. God in the Flesh.

That he put her under a spell by massaging her round the head and eyes in order to secure her property was the evidence of Mrs. Harriet Sharp in the police court yesterday.

Frances C. Wright, alias Frank Dumas Jackson, accused of fraud, Mrs. Harriet Sharp testified to Wright's declaration that he was immortal, that he was the incarnated Peter, and that he was his duty to usher in the New Era.

Wright was also in the habit of coming through with his brother immortals in the medium of dice, six, five and four, and one meant "no," Mrs. Sharp further narrated the circumstances of her marriage to the prisoner, Niagara Falls, and the signing over of her property. Wright was committed for trial.

COULDN'T IDENTIFY GAFFNEY AS MAN AT OSGOODE HALL

Attempt to Extort Big Political Contribution Had Been Alleged.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30. (Can. Press.)—James C. Stewart, confronted today in the office of District Attorney Whitman by James E. Gaffney, political associate of Charles F. Murphy, failed to identify him as the "Mr. Gaffney" who recently testified attempted to extort a political contribution of $150,000 from him as the price of obtaining a contract for the construction of a section of the state canal.

This identification was wanted by the district attorney to complete the case which he has presented against Gaffney before the grand jury. Stewart did say, however, according to Mr. Whitman, that he believed the man who came to him was James E. Gaffney, but he did not know him.

Murphy Negligent. He asserted further that Murphy had asked him "Till look into it." He waited ten days, he said, and then went to see Murphy again, but found the Tammany leader "not in."

Whitman admitted that he was still convinced that the "Mr. Gaffney" was none other than James E. Gaffney, but he did not know him.

Master's Chambers. Before Hon. C. Cameron, Master. Harper v. Hayes—G. T. Denison, for plaintiff, obtained order dismissing action without costs.

Before Hon. J. H. Bone, for client, moved for order for delivery and taxation of bill of costs. H. W. Shapley for solicitors. Motion dismissed. No costs.

Self-Locking C. Co. v. Rudd Paper Box Co.—M. H. Ludwig, K.C., for plaintiffs, moved for particulars of defence. H. Cassels, K.C., for defendant. Order made for cross-examination of plaintiffs on affidavits filed and for examination for discovery. This motion adjourned until examination completed.

Verbas v. Worhas—M. Grant, for defendant, moved for order dismissing action for want of prosecution. J. H. Spence, for plaintiff. A plaintiff's request motion adjourned until Feb. 6.

Shirala v. Canadian Stewart Co.—T. N. Phelan, for John A. Hendricks, Limited, moved for order requiring plaintiff to elect as to which of defendants he will proceed against. T. J. Lee for plaintiff. G. H. Sedgewick for Canadian Stewart Company and National Fire Proofing Company. Motion adjourned until defendants have pleaded and examinations for discovery completed.

Words v. McVish—G. F. Rooney, for plaintiff, obtained order for subpoena service upon defendant T. H. Reinhardt v. McDonald—E. W. Boyd, for plaintiff, moved under R. 54 for judgment. H. S. White for defendant. Judgment $75.00, part of claim, with costs and liberty to plaintiff to proceed for balance of claim with privilege of cross-examination on affidavits filed with appearance.

Judge's Chambers. Before Hon. J. H. Bone, for plaintiff, C. W. Kerr for defendant. Motion for order enlarging time for appeal. Time enlarged for ten days. If an appeal, appellant to expedite the hearing of it. Costs of motion to defendant in any event.

Re Benito—Lee (Hamilton), for the society, renewed motion for order for payment of insurance monies to mother as guardian. E. C. Cattaneach for defendant. Order may go appointing the guardian and her solicitor, MacPherson, trustees upon their giving security to the satisfaction of the official guardian otherwise payment into court. Costs out of the fund.

Re Percupine—Adam (Day & Co.), for plaintiff, moved for winding-up order. M. Grant, for the company, asked for two weeks, or if any other period, to be given to the company to bring their motion to come on again, the date to be fixed by notice of the court.

Mr. Grant to give notice to appear. Mr. Grant to give notice to appear. Mr. Grant to give notice to appear.

Re James Cummings, a supposed lunatic—R. McKay, K.C., for plaintiff, moved for order declaring lunacy, and appointing a committee. Usual order made.

Re Gordon and Casselman—Fisher (Lennox & L. for vendor, moved for order declaring that Ellen McCabe, devisee under will of Patrick Tranter, took an estate in fee simple and that she conveyed it to the defendant, J. H. Campbell, for vendor. Judgment: It seems to me plain enough that having regard to the present state of the evidence, the plaintiff is entitled to the land in question in restraint of alienation.

The title in question in this matter should not be forced upon the plaintiff unless first adjudged good in a proceeding in which a judgment upon the vendor's favor would be binding upon all parties.

Single Court. Before Hon. J. H. Bone, for plaintiff, S. H. Bradford, K.C., and T. H. Hishop for defendant. Motion by plaintiff in a mortgage action for foreclosure or sale and for judgment on the covenant for payment of the amount due. Judgment: The single question raised is whether the plaintiff is entitled now to enforce its mortgage security in the pleading set out. There remains now unpaid the last payments of $2500 each, the first of which is now overdue, each single defence raised now is that the plaintiff is not entitled to the mortgage money because it is not yet payable there can be no foreclosure or sale; upon principle there is no reason that I can perceive why that should be so. I find nothing substantial in the point made. The usual judgment will go—that is, for foreclosure or sale and for judgment under covenant for the amount due upon it, but not for possession, as that has not been claimed.

Trial. Before Hon. J. H. Bone, for plaintiff, S. H. Bradford, K.C., and T. H. Hishop for defendant. An action by widow of James W. Bilton, to recover $10,000 damages for his death, which occurred on Nov. 13, 1912, by reason of the defendant's negligence in permitting him to work on a building in course of construction.

ST MIKES AGAIN REACH THE FINALS

Beat Kingston Last Night and Have No Serious Opponents for Group Honors.

St. Michaels earned the right to once more contest the finals of the Senior C. H. A. last night when they defeated Kingston Frontenacs by the score of 8 to 3. The green shirts were relentless in their efforts and although the Kingstoners strove mightily and long to offset the locals, they failed to do so, as the result shows. On form St. Michaels look just about good enough to win the championship, as they are certainly stepping a very fast pace these days.

There was a great deal of unwarranted body checking and buttending which under the circumstances showed a lot of ill-feeling under the surface. Murphy and Reid took turns in decorating the fence. Both of these players started out to get the other one, and it was only a miracle that saved one of them from going to the hospital. Reid took a vicious swing at Murphy in the last half which if it had connected, would have put the big fellow cold. However, Reid was given a lot of provocation, as Murphy got away with a lot of raw stuff at that when the on-eye eye of Reid was not looking. The rip and tear game was very snappy on the boards, and the wing men were given many rough passages, both by the checks and the big defence men on both sides.

Considering it all in Kingston handed as much to the St. Michaels as they had given, and they split with honors even and no one severely injured. It will be a horse of a game in Kingston on the return fixture. The game started with a rush and both teams leaped into the fray with fire in their eyes. The scorching pace soon began to wane, and the game settled into a more conservative attitude. It took McCamus five minutes to grab the first one. He had rushed with Reid and the latter was carried behind the net. He retained possession, however, and executed a neat pass back to his partner, who found the net. This started the green shirts off on a goal hunting expedition, and Cook had one of the liveliest and most successful periods of his life. Scores of shots were directed upon him from every angle, but he brilliantly saved and cleared until finally Lafamme slipped over the net. The puck had been fed off parallel to the goal, but the wily centre man took possession and nice skating and stick-handling. The score at half-time was: St. Andrews 2, St. Michaels 1. The summary:

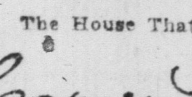

1. St. Andrews... 10.00

EATONS BEAT STRATFORD.
Eaton's defeated Stratford last night in an exhibition basketball match, by the score of 49 to 21. The teams lined up as follows:

Stratford—Stanley, Hunter, Meen, Hampton, Rankin, Carricks.
Eaton's—Stanley, Hunter, Meen, Hampton, Mitchell, McDonald.
West Toronto Vics and Markham clash tonight at Ravina Rink, and if Vics win they will be up on even terms again with Riversides for the group honors. The game will start at 8:15, and the locals will line up as follows: Goal, Klemmer; defence, McBurney and Bennett; rover, Smith; centre, McLean; right wing, Johnston; left wing, Joyce, Fred Wagner will referee the game.

ST. MIKES DOWN THE ST. ANDREWS

Junior Teams Stage Rattling Good Contest—Saints by Two Goals.

Altho Upper Canada have the preparatory group of the Junior O.H.A. nailed down, still, St. Andrews and St. Michaels staged another contest to decide the right to second place. It was a real lively struggle, with St. Michaels pulling out in the final minutes by the score of five to three. The game was full of ups and downs. First one team would go out in the lead; then the other would tie it up, only to see the other drop behind a few minutes later, and then come up on an even terms again.

The play at all times was very interesting, and the pace was no mean one at any stage. The last half was very fast, and the game never lagged for an instant. Broderick, Doyle and Hamilton were the individual stars for the winners, also every man on the team was good. Cantley, minus a lot of his rough stuff, showed up well, he could banish the rest of it and appear in the limelight of a defender. Hatgh and Rogers displayed some nice skating and stick-handling. The score at half-time was: St. Andrews 2, St. Michaels 1. The summary:

1. St. Andrews... 10.00
2. St. Michaels... 4.00
3. St. Andrews... 5.00
4. St. Michaels... 6.00

14 BARBERS, THE ONLY SHOP WITH ALL EXPERTS. OPPOSITE EATON'S.

Just before leaving for England, Mr. Charles Y. Knight, the inventor of the Knight engine, wired Mr. Russell, the general manager of the Russell Company, his heartfelt congratulations on the results of the test which has just been concluded at the Russell works. Canada has done her part in contributing to the world motor records, for the results of the 300 hour test just finished justify the claim that the Russell engine is the only one of its class unequalled anywhere in the world. This Russell Knight engine has established four world's records and Mr. Knight takes it as a matter of personal pride that he had something to do with the designing of this Russell Knight engine.

Trotting One Race At Ottawa

IN-AND-OUT RACING ON THE OTTAWA ICE

Prince Rupert Lays Up a Heat in Slow Time—Trudell Only Winner.

OTTAWA, Jan. 30.—(Special.)—The second day of the ice meeting of the Hull Driving Club was not as good from a racing standpoint as the opening. There were three races carded. In the 2:35 trot and pace stake, $1000, which had only four starters, and likely the cheapest field that ever started since the inception of the race, Trudell, owned by F. Westbrook of Bramford, and Nat Ray's string, stood out in a class by himself, the only contender being the Moose, in D. McEwen's string, who got second money. The final heat merely saw an upset, as Trudell was apparently winning easily at the half, but down the back stretch he was seen to falter, and Slidewell, who had been close in attendance during the last heat, caught Trudell on a break, passing him, but Nat gathered his mount together and just won in 2:24 1/2.

In the 2:15 trot and pace, Prince Rupert was made the favorite, selling for $50 and field $20. He won the first heat in 2:10. In the second heat, Pat Logan, who had not been prominent during the first mile, took the overland route, and finally got to Prince Rupert, and in a grueling drive thru the stretch was first at the wire in 2:16 1/2. Prince Rupert second. In the third heat, Prince Rupert was first to show, after the first turn. He and Pat Logan went the first half in 1:04 1/2. Down the back stretch they left the rest of the field well strung out. The pace was so fast it carried Logan off his feet, and before he settled he fell and was declared distanced. This race was carried over till Saturday.

The 2:05 pace had five starters, and the less said about the first heat the better. Anyone familiar with the performances of Hal B. Jr. knows that he has no license to be fourth in 2:19 1/2. He won the second heat pulled up in 2:16, and the third, finishing almost stone, in 2:19 1/2. This race was also carried over till Saturday. Summary: 2:35 trot and pace—New Russell Hotel Stake, purse $1000: Trudell, Nat Ray, Toronto, 1 1 1; The Moose; J. Cooke, London, Ont., 2 2 4; Blidwell, F. St. Amour, Ottawa, 3 2 2; Tom Thumb; C. Quinn, Aylmer, Que., 4 4 3.

2:05 trot and pace, purse $400 (unfined): Hal B. Jr.; Dan McEwen, London, Ont., 4 1 1; Charles Desormiers, Montreal, 1 2 2; Axeluit; F. Wideman, Malone, N.Y., 2 2 3; Leon; P. Burham, Malone, N.Y., 3 3 4; Tom Dillard; J. P. Brennan, Arnprior, Ont., 5 4 5; Time—2:19 1/2, 2:16, 2:19 1/2. 2:15 trot and pace, purse $400 (unfined): Prince Rupert; D. Peters, Blenheim, 1 2 1; Pat Logan; F. St. Amour, Ottawa, 2 1 2; Hal Chief; O. Coulombe, Calgary, Alberta, 2 2 2; Billy Gray; F. Wideman, Malone, N.Y., 2 2 2; Rosewood; Nat Ray, Toronto, 2 2 2; Miss Aycroy; A. Pattison, Toronto, 4 5 4; Eric Direct; W. Brakins, East Aurora, N.Y., 2 2 7; All Direct; J. Bell, Winnipeg, 7 7 6; Time—2:15 1/2, 2:17, 2:18.

U. OF T. BASKETBALL TEAM TAKE OPENER

Defeat Queens in Intercollegiate Fixture—Thompson in the Limelight. KINGSTON, Jan. 30.—(Special.)—Varsity put it over Queens in basketball this afternoon by the score of 23 to 19. Half-time score, 11 to 9 in Queens' favor. The game was exciting all the way thru, the score being tied three times. Queens had a shade the better of the game in the first half, but Varsity came on strong in the second half. Thompson, playing defence for Varsity, was the star, making six of the scores for his team. At the start-off he made two scores in quick succession. Queens had practically a new team, as Watson was the only man who had played on the team before. The teams lined up as follows: Varsity (23)—Forwards, E. H. Scott, Kennedy; centre, Cook; defence, C. B. Scott, Thompson. Queens (19)—Forwards, McKelvey and Hill; centre, Sutherland; defence, Watson and Buchanan. Referee—R. H. Rhines.

LABOR MEN ASK GOVERNMENT TO INTRODUCE LEGISLATION

Employment of Women by Asiatics, Eight Hour Day, Immigration Policy, Child Labor, Sanitation, Running Boards on Cars and Other Questions Were Discussed.

The Trades and Labor Congress of the province laid before the government yesterday afternoon a scroll of resolutions dealing with the eight-hour day, ventilation and heating of street cars, fair wages, elections on holidays, isolation hospitals, tax reform and other matters which have been under their observation during the year. All were backed up by special representatives from Ontario municipalities, and their embodiment in legislation at the coming session was urged upon the cabinet, which received them in force.

Allan Studholms, M.L.A. of Hamilton introduced the visitors and stated their desires as being for the general improvement of health and labor conditions in Ontario. The convention at Montreal had crystallized the opinion of the workers of the provinces into these requests.

A bill of last session relating to the employment of white women by Asiatics was revived, and it was urged that restrictive legislation be put into force this year because of the peril which is daily becoming more manifest in the larger towns and cities. It was further proposed that the Studholms measure of many years' standing, making an eight-hour day universal, be put into effect, especially upon public works.

Immigration Policy. An immigration policy by which the government would facilitate the placing of city people on provincial farms was also suggested. Workers in cities, they claimed, would be willing to enter agriculture if the government would assume some responsibility to prevent their failure to exist in comfort. The nature of the assistance would be left to the ministers to decide.

Child labor was the subject of another resolution, and the attention of the cabinet was called to some special conditions in factories under which it was not right for children to be employed. It was urged that the inspection staff might well be increased to see that some unscrupulous employers were not evading the newer regulations.

The same idea was broached with regard to the sanitary condition of workshops in special trades. It was stated that a great number of the larger factories considered the ventilation as of least importance in construction, and that the workmen were suffering in consequence. Further, the taking home of clothing to complete in a piece work system should hereafter be prohibited by legislation.

The Greatest Sale of Registered Clydes and Percherons That Ever Took Place in Canada.

We have been favored with instructions from DR. T. H. HASSARD MARKHAM, ONT.

to sell for him at a Special Sale WEDNESDAY NEXT, FEBRUARY 4th AT 1:30 P.M.

Forty Clydesdale and Percheron Mares and Stallions

The only reason for Dr. Hassard disposing of his grand stock is that he has decided to go out of the show end of the horse business for all time to come. The catalogue, a copy of which may be had on application to THE REPOSITORY, also includes Hackneys, Standard-breds, Ponies and other breeds. Dr. Hassard is selling ALL HIS SHOW STOCK, and will also sell all his Show Harnesses, double and single, light and heavy, Halters, Belts, Rollers, Housings and everything in connection with a high-class show stable.

Among the stock to be sold is: "MARY OF SILVERSPRINGS," Clyde mare, a first prize winner at the Dominion Fair, Brandon, Man., and at the Canadian National, Toronto. "LILY OF MURTON," Clyde mare, a prize winner at Brandon, Man., and at the Canadian National, Toronto, and Guelph Winter Fair. "KOCARDE," Percheron mare, first prize winner at Brandon, Man., and London, Ont. "LABEUVINIERE," Percheron filly, won first at the Canadian National, Toronto, and Western Fair, London, and second at Dominion Fair, Brandon, Man. The entire consignment will be on view at THE REPOSITORY on Wednesday morning next. Sale commences at 1:30 p.m. sharp. The terms of sale are: For mares, ponies, harness horses, show outfits, etc., cash; stallions, one-half cash, balance twelve months' credit on approved notes with six per cent., or six per cent. off for cash on credit amounts.

There will be Special Passenger Rates to Toronto next week, so Breeders and Farmers will have every opportunity of attending this sale. Catalogue will be mailed upon request to THE REPOSITORY.

Also for sale Wednesday next, February 4th. "DAVID GARRICK" THE WELL-KNOWN THOROUGHBRED STALLION "DAVID GARRICK" is by "Hanover," out of "Peg Woffington," and is one of the finest stallions of his size in Canada. A sure foal-getter and to be sold next Wednesday. C. A. BURNS, ISAAC WATSON, Proprietor, Auctioneer.

OWNERS OF PAPERS SHOULD BE KNOWN

Ottawa Journal Draws Conclusions From Graham Czardom in Montreal.

NOT LIKE BUSINESS
Molders of Public Opinion Different From Butchers or Grocers.

(Special to The Toronto World) OTTAWA, Jan. 30.—The Evening Journal, apropos of the newspaper situation in Montreal, says:

"The deal in the newspaper arena in Montreal, whereby The Herald (Conservative) and The Telegraph (Liberal) amalgamated into The Herald-Telegraph, under the alleged control of Sir Hugh Graham, proprietor of the Conservative Star, is certainly a curious one. An illustration is afforded of the desirability of the recently-enacted law in the United States, whereby every newspaper is required to publish the name of its owner, and the names of the members of the company which controls it. In one sense, newspapers are simply business concerns which look to make a profit by selling news and opinions just as a butcher sells tripe or sausages. From this point of view, no moral wrong exists in two newspapers amalgamating more than two firms of butchers or grocers. But, as a newspaper's opinions and news are not merely ordinary goods of consumption, but are things which may influence, justify or unjustify, the views of people about other persons' goods, it is proper that the public should know who produces the news and opinions.

EDMONTON'S MAYOR SUSPENDS DEPUTY

Toronto Ex-Detective Runs Foul of the Executive Over Prison Escapes.

EDMONTON, Alta., Jan. 30.—(Can. Press).—Deputy Chief of Police Wm. Davis, who several days ago tendered his resignation to take effect at the end of the month, was summarily suspended last night by Mayor McNamara, following the escape of two more prisoners yesterday from the police cells. This makes four escapes in three days. It is understood that another reason for the deputy chief's suspension was an interview in the press yesterday, in which he stated that he would not work with such a bunch as the present council. There promises to be a big shake-up in police circles in the next few days and it is expected that Chief Carpenter will be dismissed within the week and succeeded by ex-Chief of Police Lamoy.

Discussing the possible judicial investigation of the police department, Mayor McNamara said: "I see no more reason for a judicial investigation than into the police department simply because it is intended to remove the head of that department than I would to the council decided by the commissioners. I know the state of affairs in the police department is rotten. I need no further investigation to convince me of that fact. And I also know I am going to clean up the department and the city, and I am going to do it. If I and other commissioners believe that the man at the head of the department cannot clean up his own department, then I consider it my plain duty to put a man there that will exert his authority in the right direction."

Deputy Chief Davis comes from Toronto. For a time he was police chief of Lebride.

Chief Carpenter was formerly in Montreal.

The last two prisoners to escape were Robert Delmar, arrested on a charge of stealing $1500 worth of furs, and Harry Francis, arrested on a charge of stealing a quantity of goods from a grocery store on Alberta avenue. It is understood some one on the outside shoved an iron bar thru an open window and with this the prisoners managed to pry the bars apart.

Atlantic Ports Maintaining Their Commercial Supremacy at Expense of Western Portion of the Country—Adequate Canal System Means Lower Rail Rates—St. Lawrence Route Favored.

(Special to The Toronto World) WINDSOR, Jan. 30.—Speaking before the lake cities conference here tonight, J. Hunter Duthie, in dealing with the waterways and transportation problem, pointed out the great financial loss congestion of traffic each season at the head of the lakes. He said in part: "The opening of the Hudson Bay route, combined with a deep waterway route, will provide the necessary facilities for the movement of wheat from the west, but either one of these routes will afford the desired relief. FIRE MARSHAL URGENTLY NEEDED

Ontario Municipalities Ask Government to Appoint Official.

TO STOP MUCH WASTE

Wide Powers and Good Salary Proposed for Right Man.

of fine. To carry such a scheme into proper effect, the province should be divided into districts, the local officers of which would report to the marshal.

Comment invited.

Hon. Mr. Foy, on behalf of the government, stated that the bill had been brought down in a crude form to invite comment and suggestion. The source of the financial support of the new department would also demand consideration. Some of the recommendations were rather drastic, inasmuch as every man's house was still his castle, and interference might be resented by the public. The gaining of a magistrate's commission, however, might be made to serve. The bill would appear in the coming session for further consideration.

J. M. McKendrick of the Mutual Fire Underwriters urged the measure as a great advantage to the province. As to the cost of administration, the insurers should be the payers. Fire loss was as serious to the province as infant mortality. Canada's loss in 1912 was $28,000,000, and that of Ontario one-third of the sum. He urged also the reducing of the underwriters' tax to a minimum.

Penalties Proposed. This position was followed up by R. D. Fairbairn of the C.M.A. advocating the right of the marshal on complaint of an interested party to enter a building with a peace officer if necessary to make examination. On his order to remove combustible material or to remedy conditions, those refusing would be liable to a penalty of not less than $10 and not more than fifty for each day's default. Thereafter, these moneys could be withheld for not more than 60 days. Persons neglecting to make returns specified in the act would also be subject to penalty.

It was shown that in every town and city in Ontario the fire tax was too heavy, and that this would relieve it by lowering the losses. He recommended an efficient man at a salary of $5000.

Chief Ten Eyck of Hamilton stated that the average fire loss in Europe was $30, while Canada unfortunately led the world. The marshal system had cut fire and waste in two in Ohio, and one reason was the great power given to the official. He could order dangerous buildings torn down, and had the right of entering even private houses for inspection purposes.

The bill as it stood was proposed by Chief Thompson of Toronto. Fire departments would stand behind it. Education as to prevention should begin in the schools with "clean-up" weeks. Guelph felt that legislation was imperative because many places carried insurance, but no fire protection. Chief Finch argued that the great distress of fires fell on the poor man, who paid indirectly thru his rental. The new marshal should graduate from the ranks.

Fire Waste a Crime. The boards of trade, thru J. F. Ellis of Toronto, called the fire waste of Canada a crime, in that every man, woman and child nominally was taxed $4. The rate could be cut down enormously, and the marshal's power should not be curtailed.

Hon. Thos. Crawford, who introduced the deputation, declared that a great many who insured by mail should be called to account and made to share in the new rates. A record should be kept of their dealings. J. B. Laidlaw explained that the revenue to the government on insurance came thru a fee system and a premium percentage. This was a probable source of the financial support of the new arrangement.

the deck of the steamer. Lifeboat No. 1 was smashed up as she landed in the water and No. 2 supervised.

Saved by Life Rafts. Fourteen persons were saved by two boats from the Nantucket. One of the life rafts of the Monroe proved the means of saving the lives of six, while another saved four persons.

Second Officer J. E. Gately went below immediately after the collision to ascertain the extent of the damage done. He found most of the passengers on the promenade deck. He tried to get them on the boat deck, but did not succeed. When the Monroe went down he floated off on a ladder and was later picked up.

Operator's Heroic Death. The law of the sea that women and children must be saved first cost the chief wireless operator of the Monroe his life. He was standing by boat No. 3 when he saw a woman without a life belt, and promptly gave her for Mr. Walker's statement counts him among the dead. The woman was saved. One of the passengers, a mining engineer, followed the example of the chief wireless operator. What became of him has not yet been learned.

Nineteen passengers of the Monroe have so far not been accounted for, the statement adds. The list of those saved has been added, the statement says, the names of Mrs. J. M. Ray, E.

Quality Label
Every fur piece, garment, and article in our store bears the Sellers-Gough label of guaranteed quality, representing the highest merit and skill in fur production known to Europe and America.

Stupendous February Half-Price Sale Assumes Gigantic Proportions

The vast February Half-Price Clearance that is sweeping the entire Sellers-Gough collection of finest quality furs is incredible. No sale of its kind ever before reached such huge proportions—every single fur piece, garment and article in the store being clearly tagged at Half-Price.

Can you, then, resist the magnificence of this offer? Remember, never again probably will this chance be presented to you. We had looked for a record-breaking season and had produced an enormous stock to meet the demand. It is left on our hands to clear, and we have already taken the most drastic measures known to quality fur houses like our own. Our previous sales this season have been immense, but this February Half-Price Sale is launched on a scale of gigantic proportions. No reserve on anything in the store—everything Half-Price.

Only conditions such as this practically open winter could possibly induce a Sellers-Gough clearance. This, combined with our business policy to never carry over to another season any of our fur models, has brought about this amazing Half-Price Sale. The effect will startle the whole of Canada, because in every town and city in the Dominion a Sellers-Gough model is to be seen foremost in fashionable circles, because of its exclusive style, perfect workmanship and quality of skins.

An expert staff is here to give each individual every attention to insure a perfect fit and give absolute satisfaction in every detail of the purchase. If ever you intend to buy furs, buy them now, and save 50%—a gilt-edge investment seldom seen in furs. Make your first shopping trip here—early.

A 15% to 20% Investment Home Building in Toronto

Whether you are a large or small investor, the business of home building in Toronto will give you a good and immediate return on your money, together with absolute security.

Toronto cannot build houses quickly enough to accommodate her growing population.

Last year building permits amounted to $27,065,076, and will be more this year.

There is a greater and stronger demand for houses, especially small ones, which are in most cases sold before the roof is on.

Toronto Offers Absolute Security for Your Capital

A limited number of applications for shares will be considered in an established Home Building Business of Canadian Homes and Investments Company. These will be dealt with in rotation.

WARM ATTACK ON BOTHAS METHODS

Labor Members of Parliament Created Stormy Scene in House.

CAPE TOWN, Union of South Africa, Jan. 30.—Heated altercations today marked the opening session of the parliament of the Union of South Africa in the course of which General Louis Botha, the premier, and the cabinet ministers are to be called upon to justify to the country the iron-handed methods they adopted in dealing with the recent strike of workers, ten of whose leaders were this week deported secretly to England.

Viscount Gladstone, the governor-general, in his opening speech, said the declaration of martial law by the Government had been an "imperative duty" but he made no reference to the deportation of the labor leaders.

General Jan Christiaan Smuts, minister of defence, sprang to his feet at the earliest opportunity to give notice that he would on Monday move a bill to indemnify the government for all its acts under martial law and prohibiting the return of the deported man, thus raising an effective bar to the efforts of the representatives of the labor men to move the adjournment of the house in order to discuss the current deportation of citizens without trial.

Time after time the labor members in vehement language and amid a great uproar, tried to debate "the crime of kidnapping citizens," but the speaker refused to allow them to continue and finally while the vote was still in progress, and the labor members were shouting taunts and uttering cries of " shame," the house arose.

KAISER SEEKS TO PACIFY ALSATIANS

Prince Will Be Sent to Alsace as Mark of Royal Favor.

BERLIN, Jan. 30.—(Can. Press).—An attempt is to be made by Emperor William to win back the sympathies of the Alsatiens after their recent irruptions between the military and civilians at Zabern, by appointing a prince as viceroy in place of Count Charles Von Wedel, who has resigned. The Zeitung am Mittag, which announces this news today, says that Prince Albert of Prussia, son of the late Prince Albert of Prussia, who was regent of Brunswick until 1906, or some other Prussian prince, probably will be selected and sent to Alsace in order to show the people there a mark of royal favor. Prince Frederick William who has been trained in civil administration is now the chief official of the district of Camenz, Silesia, where he resides.

M. Deroulede who was at one time a deputy, was the founder of the League of Patriots and an ardent supporter of the late General Boulanger, whose attempted revolution in favor of the revision of the constitution in 1879 was a fiasco. M. Deroulede was noted throughout his life for his patriotic outbursts in the columns of the newspapers and his writings led him into many duels. He was banished from France in 1890 for trying to substitute a plebiscitary republic for the parliamentary republic and remained

TWENTY MILLIONS FOR PREVENTION OF FLOODS

Chinese Government Grants Sum to Control Rampages of Hwai River.

PEKIN, Jan. 30.—(Can. Press).—The American Red Cross Society has been granted by the Chinese Government $20,000,000 to carry out a project for controlling the River Hwai, whose overflows have hitherto caused every year great loss of life and damage to property.

A preliminary agreement to this effect was signed today by Paul S. Reinsch, U. S. minister to China, and representatives of the Chinese Government. The plan for obtaining the money is to float a five per cent. loan.

SIX POINT ADVANCE IN C. P. R. SHARES

Big Canadian Makes Another Demonstration on All Exchanges.

HELPS LOCAL MARKET

And Speculation in Domestic Gives Distinct Signs of Broadening.

C.P.R. by its action on the larger exchanges gave some zest to the local market, which was timely in sustaining the period of activity and buoyancy.

Brazilians, which were ex-dividend yesterday 1-1/2 points, almost made the dividend up. The opening was at 9 3/4 and about a point was added to this during the day.

TIMSKAMING ORE AT DEEP LEVELS

Big Strike Reported on McIntyre Property—Six Inch Vein.

Hamilton E. Wills in his weekly dispatch in referring to Timskaming, says: "Just as I am going to press my engine at Cobalt, I have been personally examined the underground development work at this mine and that conditions are much better than in several months."

In regard to McIntyre Mines, he says: "My engineer from Porcupine wires the most important article made in the McIntyre in over a year was made this week on the 300-foot level. This new vein shows a width of about six feet and values run from $17 to $50 to the ton."

The mine management are elated, as it is believed this to be the highest-grade ore body yet uncovered on the McIntyre. The annual meeting of this company will be held in New York on Feb. 9, at which a dividend will be declared.

NEW PARTNERS

Mr. G. M. Todd of Montreal and T. W. Lawson of Toronto have been admitted to partnership in the firm of J. and L. M. Wood, members of the Montreal Stock Exchange, with offices in Toronto and Montreal.

STOCKS RESUMED UPWARD SWING

Cheerfulness of Foreign Markets Exerted Influence on New York.

C. P. R.'S BIG ADVANCE

Gain of More Than Five Points in Late Trading.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Stocks rose buoyantly today. Beginning with a moderate advance at the opening, the market gathered strength steadily. In the last hour the movement became more pronounced and trading expanded to large proportions.

In today's market the price level rose in sympathy with European exchanges. The rapid rise of securities, particularly in London, signalled such a marked change in sentiment as to be of decided influence here.

C. P. R. DOMINATED MONTREAL MARI

Movement in International Leader Imparted Strength to General List.

MONTREAL, Jan. 30.—A sensational advance in C.P.R., a notable lag in recent strong movement, dominated the local situation today and gave new impetus to the forward movement of the market.

Power and Brazilian, selling ex-dividend, followed the C.P.R. advance, the former going from 218 1/2 to 219 1/4 in the afternoon, closing with the equivalent of a one point gain, while the latter rose from 20 1/2 to 21 1/4.

EUROPEAN BOURSES

PARIS, Jan. 30.—Prices were firm on the bourse today. Three per cent. rent, 3 1/2 per cent. for the fact of discount, exchange on London, 18 1/2 centimes for cheques; private rate of discount, 3 1/2 per cent.

WINNIPEG GRAIN MARKET.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 30.—Prices on the local grain exchange broke sharply today owing to the action of parliament on the wheat and unseasonable weather over the winter wheat area also affected prices.

COLD WAVE HAS NOT HURT WHEAT

Advices From Winter Crop Belt Reassuring—All Grains Lower.

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Belief that the winter crop had escaped any immediate danger from a cold wave had a bearish effect today on the price of wheat. The market closed steady, but at a decline of 1-4c to 3-8c net. Other grain, too, showed a loss for the day. Corn 3-8c to 1-3/4c and oats 1-8c to 1-1/4c provisions the outcome varied from a setback of 10c to 12-1/2c.

The absence of export demand was a constant incentive toward efforts to put prices on a lower level. Enlarged offerings of hard winter wheat from west of the Missouri River were taken to indicate a decided change of sentiment on the part of many producers.

Corn Declined. Prospects of continued saving of feed tended to weaken demand for shipment from Chicago appeared to have entirely ceased. Prices opened a shade off to 1-8c to 1-1/4c up and then showed a disposition to sag. Oats gave way with other grain. Selling pressure was not especially heavy. Support developed for provisions on account of hog supplies being restricted. First sales ranged from last night's level to an advance of 12-1/2c, but the gains failed to hold.

WORLD'S SHIPMENTS
Estimated weekly world's shipments, exclusive of North America at 4,000,000 bushels, against 7,240,000 bushels actual last week. Of this total Europe will take about 6,800,000 bushels.

LIVERPOOL CLOSE

PRUSSIAN LOAN GREAT SUCCESS

Ninety Millions of Treasury Notes Issued—Taken Up Rapidly.

BERLIN, Jan. 30.—The issue of the new Prussian loan of approximately $90,000,000 in the shape of treasury notes is said today to have been a success. It constitutes a new type of public security in Germany, as it is redeemable by annual drawings covering a period of years. The entire redemption will take sixteen years, but holders who do not wish to withdraw their money when their notes are drawn may be allowed to convert them into four per cent bonds. This lottery feature of the new financial transaction was adopted by the Government because of the failure of various public issues in 1913. As the treasury notes are redeemable at par and subscribers pay only 97 for them, it was thought probable that a further issue of about $50,000,000 will be made later this year. These large sums are for the expansion of the railroad and canal systems of Prussia and for other productive purposes.

ARGENTINES AND BRAZILS FEATURES
London Market Strong—Canadian Pacific Up Two Points.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—Money was abundant and discount rates were weak today. The stock market was strong and buoyant the greater part of the session under the lead of investment shares, which are still in vigorous demand. The issue of $2,000,000 New Zealand 4 per cent. bonds was over subscribed in an hour and a half. A. Watt, Elara, Ont., John Miller, Jr., Ashburton, Ont., and Capt. E. Robson, London, Ont., comprises the finest lot of Scotch Shortbros ever offered at any previous sale at these yards. Sales commences at 12 o'clock noon, sharp.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.
Market steady. Beves, $6.30 to $6.50; Texas steers, $5.50 to $5.75; cows and heifers, $5.40 to $5.50; calves, $7.50 to $10.50. Hogs—Receipts 13,000. Market weak. Light, $8.15 to $8.45; mixed, $8.15 to $8.45; heavy, $8.15 to $8.45; rough, $8.15 to $8.20; pigs, $6.25 to $8.15; bulk of sales, $8.30 to $8.46.

BUFFALO LIVE STOCK.
EAST BUFFALO, Jan. 30.—Cattle—Receipts, 200; fairly active and steady. Yields—Receipts, 50; active and steady; $16 to $17.

MINNEAPOLIS GRAIN MARKET.
MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 30.—Close: Wheat—May, 88 1/2c to 87 1/2c; July, 90 1/2c to 90 1/2c; No. 1 hard, 91 1/2c; No. 1 northern, 87 1/2c to 86 1/2c; No. 2 wheat, 82 1/2c to 84 1/2c; Corn—No. 3 yellow, 57c to 57 1/2c; Oats—No. 3 white, 34 1/2c to 35 1/2c. Flour and bran—Unchanged.

QUEST REB-HANDED.
Geo. Smith, Who Claims Toronto as His Home, Arrested While Jimmy-ing Store Door.

OWEN SOUND, Jan. 30.—About 3 o'clock P. C. Foster went into Buzzell jewelry store by the rear entrance and surprised a burglar in the act of jimmying thru a door. He was removed to the police office and gave his name as George Smith, and his home as Toronto.

THREE PERISH IN FIRE.
CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—(Can. Press.)—"Babes Row" a five-story apartment building on the south side, so-called because children swarmed its entrances, crumbled before the attack of flames driven by gale early today, and firemen are searching the ruins for an infant and two women, missing and thought to have perished. The total loss was $300,000. Three firemen were hurt.

FREE HAND, SAYS SIR HUGH GRAHAM

Declares Hon. W. S. Fielding Was Untrammelled on the Montreal Telegraph.

MONTREAL, Jan. 30.—(Can. Press.)—When asked this morning for a statement in regard to Hon. W. S. Fielding's withdrawal from the Montreal Telegraph, Sir Hugh Graham replied: "Over a year ago I was asked by some friends to value the Montreal Witness. This led to my being asked to negotiate for its purchase and later, to my taking a comparatively small financial interest therein. "Following this transaction, some months later, I was asked to value the Montreal Herald. My report led to my being asked to negotiate for its purchase with a view to its amalgamation with the Telegraph and Witness, and when the arrangement was found feasible I became similarly interested in it to a comparatively small extent. I was instrumental in purchasing the then proprietor's interest, and have handed it over to the Montreal Trust Company, which, when the organization is complete, will transfer it to the individual owners or their representatives. As far as I know, Mr. Fielding was given a perfectly free hand, untrammelled to the slightest extent and I have no doubt he would have been likewise free in the great concern as amalgamated. "Now, as to the very natural question so often asked, why I am interested in other newspapers, I have succeeded in convincing the managers of these papers of the wisdom of joining with me in assembling the original paper with a view to ultimately taking up a mill's whole output. This is a very simple business policy, which has commended itself to every newspaper man to whom I have presented it. Of not a single paper, the only paper I do not attempt to dictate the policy, I have now formed a purely business alliance with a sufficient number of papers to be able to say that in the near future an order will go to the largest paper mills in Canada for their entire output, aggregating millions of dollars per annum of uniform width of roll and at an advantageous price, which all the interested publishers will be equally benefited."

INSURANCE COMPANY WINDS UP BUSINESS
Traveler's Indemnity Co. of Canada Reinsures its Outstanding Policies.

OTTAWA, Jan. 30.—(Special.)—The Traveler's Indemnity Co. of Canada has ceased to transact business and has re-insured its outstanding policies with the Traveler's Indemnity of Hartford, Conn. Application is made to the finance minister for the release of its deposit.

C. N. R. CALGARY STATION WILL BE LONE VENTURE
D. B. Hanna Says Union Project With G. T. P. Has Not Been Considered.

From the stand taken by the Canadian Northern Railway, it would appear that the suggestion that the C.N.R. go in with the Grand Trunk Pacific in the erection of a joint station at Calgary would not be adopted. Asked regarding the Montreal report that the two roads would unite in the one station, D. B. Hanna, third vice-president of the Canadian Northern, stated to The World yesterday that the C.N.R. had already secured the site for the erection of its station at Calgary and were going ahead with the plans for building it.

ENLARGE ST. MICHAEL'S.
It was stated yesterday that St. Michael's Hospital will be enlarged during the coming summer at a cost of $150,000. Although the authorities are not yet in a position to discuss their plans, it is understood that the hospital will be continued south on Bond street and the nurses' home, which is to be built in conjunction with it, will front on Victoria street.

COMPULSORY VACCINATION.
NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Jan. 28.—(Can. Press.)—Mayor Laughlin today issued a compulsory vaccination order in the effort to stamp out the smallpox epidemic raging here. Conditions were somewhat improved today. Eight cases were discharged, leaving 125 cases now in quarantine.

Columbus at Salamanca

F. M. Dumond (Paris Salon, 1903).
Loaned by the Hon. John Wanamaker, Philadelphia.
The picture with a story will always grip the imagination, particularly when it is the strengthening of an impression already made by reading and study, while Columbus will always be a hero to us, because his life and adventures are bound up in the story of our country.
Come when you can, but in the morning if possible, when the crowd is least. And remember, that there is interest in the picture for the youngest child in school.

Ready for Our Biggest February Carpet Sale

A magnificent stock, including Linoleums, Rugs, Carpet, and Mats, priced so low that many items are cheaper than factory cost—that is the feast prepared for Monday's opening. Some of the outstanding values are here listed, many of them special for opening day, to be followed by others day by day. For each day there will be a special, whose price shall be the same in dollars as the month in business days, as $1.00 for Monday, the first day of sale, $2.00 for Tuesday, second day of sale; and so on up to $22.00 for the final day of February selling. Watch the date specials.

FIRST DAY SPECIAL VALUE AT $1.

THE OPENING BARGAIN

Special purchase of 2000 yards of beautiful Axminster Carpet, selling at less than manufacturer's list price—$1.19 yard. This quantity, although it sounds large, will not last very long, as many of our big hotel customers and others are watching for this February Sale announcement, and a few big orders soon cut into the quantity. We would suggest securing any that you need early, as this price is less than that of a medium grade of Brussels. The carpet offered is a rich, deep pile, hard-wearing Axminster, in the very best of designs and colors, Oriental and two-tone. February Sale, special, opening bargain, per yard..... 1.19
