THE CATASTROPHIC BRITISH ADVANCE BULGARIAN ALLIES TO FIGHT TITIKS

ALLIED FORCES CHASE ENEMY TOWARDS GERMAN FRONTIER

Three Hundred Drown When Japanese Vessel Goes to Bottom. INDESCRIBABLE SCENE American Destroyer Fired on While Picking Up the Survivors.

A British Port, October 10.—The Japanese steamer Hirono Maru, of 7985 tons gross, has been torpedoed and sunk. It is feared that 300 lives were lost.

The Hirono Maru was outward bound for Japan and carried about 300 passengers. The vessel was torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine early on Friday morning when about 300 miles south of Ireland.

The few survivors who were picked up by the American torpedo boat destroyer Sterrett have been brought here. They declare the torpedo struck the steamer in the forward engine room.

Nothing remained for those on board, including the women and children, but to plunge into the ocean. A large number, however, went down with the ship. The vessel disappeared completely within seven minutes after being struck by a torpedo.

The scene was indescribable. The weather was bad and rather hazy. The cries of the drowning were heartrending. Everybody had been supplied with lifebelts, but only the strongest were able to stand the buffeting waves and squalls.

Provisionally the commander of the American destroyer heard the explosion and steered his vessel for the point where the sound came. He found the ship had disappeared and he saw a mass of people struggling in the water.

There were no small boats available on the destroyer in the bad weather steamed about, picking up those who still were afloat. The warship picked up 20 persons, one of whom died while being brought ashore. About 22 members of the Japanese crew were rescued.

While the destroyer was engaged in the work of mercy and picking up the men and women struggling in the water, the German submarine fired two torpedoes at the warship. Both missed their mark.

After making a thorough search for survivors the Sterrett headed for the submarine firing several shots and dropping depth charges. The Hirono Maru was built at Nagasaki in 1908 and was owned by the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, Ltd., of Tokyo. The vessel was 465 feet long, 56 feet beam and had a depth of 34 feet.

REFUGEES BREAK WAY THRU TURKISH FRONT

London, Oct. 10.—Mesopotamian despatches received here report the arrival inside the British lines of 47,000 Assyrian, Armenian and Russian refugees from Urubiah. Persian refugees from Urubiah, Persia, Armenia, who broke thru the Turkish front and made their escape.

Another 10,000 refugees, according to the despatches, are distributed in Kurdish towns or in hiding in the hills. Turks pursued them, but were driven back by British cavalry.

Letter, Oct. 6, the enemy killed Urubiah and massacred 200 persons, mostly old men. It is reported that 600 Christian women have been distributed among the Turkish troops and the Moslem inhabitants of Urubiah.

ALLIES WIN SUCCESSSES ON ARCHANGEL FRONT

British Report Defeat of Bolsheviks on Dwina—Clearing Karelia of Enemy.

London, Oct. 10.—The war office tonight issued the following official communication from the Archangel front in North Russia:

IRISH MAIL BOAT SUNK; FOUR HUNDRED PERISH

Dublin Steamer Leinster is Attacked by German Submarine in St. George's Channel.

London, Oct. 10.—The Dublin mail boat Leinster has been torpedoed, according to the Exchange Telegraph Company. The steamer was making a trip from Dublin to Holyhead.

The reported torpedoing of the Leinster on her regular voyage from Dublin to Holyhead would indicate that the German U-boats have again succeeded in getting into St. George's Channel. Nothing has been reported of a U-boat in that water for a long time, and it was reported that extra-vigilance was being maintained with respect to this channel as well as the English Channel.

The gross tonnage of the Leinster was 2564 tons. The vessel was built at Birkenhead in 1896. Four hundred persons perished in the torpedoing of the Leinster, according to a report which has not yet been confirmed.

GERMANY REPLIES TO WILSON NOTE

Military Representatives Have a Hand in Drafting Answer.

Copenhagen, Oct. 10.—The German reply to President Wilson's note was drafted after a conference of the German chancellor, Vice-Chancellor Von Payer, the ministers and military representatives of the government.

This information is contained in a despatch received here from Berlin.

HAIG'S REPORT

London, Oct. 10.—Field Marshal Haig's report tonight says: "At dawn this morning our advance resumed along the whole front. At all points rapid progress was made, in spite of the efforts of the enemy's rear-guards to hold up the advance."

"Our troops, approaching the large woods east of Bohain, have entered the village of North of that place we have reached the new German line. The village of Selve River from Souppet to the neighborhood of Solesmes and have captured Cateau, Avesnes and Rieux, and then the village of Scheldt Canal we have taken Etrun. Our advance today included 2500 in the town of laury. Progress and have captured Rouvray."

TURKISH PEACE NOTE FAILS TO MATERIALIZE

New Government at Constantinople Probably Rescinds Proposal—Move at Salonica.

Washington, Oct. 10.—The non-appearance of the Turkish peace note, reported to have been sent simultaneously with that of Germany and Austria, and the report from London and Paris of impending and far-reaching events in Constantinople, have strengthened the view here that the situation in Turkey is desperate.

It is believed by officials in touch with Turkish affairs that the pro-German government faces total collapse, if indeed that has not already taken place, and that the new government will make a direct appeal to the allies for peace before any price is offered.

A LEAGUE OF NATIONS MUST INCLUDE GERMANY

Must Be Founded at Peace Conference After Germany Disarms, Says Viscount Grey.

London, Oct. 10.—Viscount Grey, the former secretary of foreign affairs, in the first speech he has made in two years, said he thought peace was within sight, but not without the wisdom of President Wilson's reply to the German note.

250 PEOPLE PERISH

Ticonderoga Caught in Mid-Ocean While on Way to France.

An Atlantic Port, Oct. 10.—Scores of American sailors and soldiers were killed or wounded by a German submarine after it had torpedoed the steamship Ticonderoga, 1700 miles off the Atlantic coast, according to the story told by 20 survivors, who arrived here today aboard a British freighter.

There were 240 men aboard the Ticonderoga, an American steamship of 3280 tons, and all but the 20 who arrive here today are believed to have perished. The survivors got away in the only boat which was not demolished by the shell fire from the submarine, they saved seventeen of the members of a detachment of soldiers detailed there for horses, which were being transported.

The Ticonderoga was attacked, presumably on Oct. 2, when she fell behind her convoy because of engine trouble. According to the story of the survivors, the submarine was not sighted until she had sent a torpedo crashing into the side of the ship. The torpedo did not strike vital spots, however, and the captain crowded on full steam in an effort to escape. At the same time ordering the gun crew into action against the submarine.

"Our gun crews did not fire more than five or six shots, one of the survivors said. "The forward gun was shot away almost at once. The aft gun crew was killed or wounded almost as quickly as they could get away to the boats, but it was no use. The firing shrapnel was spraying the deck and men fell in scores, either killed or badly wounded."

Another survivor declared that all of the Ticonderoga's eight lifeboats, with the exception of one, were launched. A number of men who tried to get into the eighth boat were killed by the waves, which clattered over the side of the vessel, he said.

"Finally," this survivor continued, "one of our men, in desperation, swam overboard and held on to the side of the ship, asking him, in God's name, to stop firing."

The lieutenant who answered him, did not answer, but he said that if he did not swim back he would shoot him.

"When our boat had only 20 men left, we were ordered to abandon the submarine and made to go up with the shelling of the dead and dying on the deck of the ship continued."

"The leader of our boat was asked some questions which he refused to answer, and suddenly the submarine submerged, and only the parting of the ropes which were tied to the deck, our going down with it."

One of the survivors said the submarine was of the cruiser type and had the largest guns he ever had seen on a submarine. One of the gunner officers, he said, whose room was pierced by a shell from the submarine, declared the shell was an eight-inch projectile. Hieretofore only six-inch guns have been reported on submarines. The survivors, who were picked up, said that five of the wounded men on it had put off from the Ticonderoga and that they had attempted to tow it with them, but that it was empty during the night and disappeared.

C.P.R. PRESIDENT RESIGNS OFFICE

Lord Shaughnessy Will, However, Remain Chairman of the Company.

Montreal, Oct. 10.—Lord Shaughnessy has resigned as president of the Canadian Pacific Railway and has succeeded in this office by E. W. Beatty, vice-president. Lord Shaughnessy will retain the position of chairman of the board of directors. Sir George Bury retires from his office of vice-president on account of ill health and is succeeded by Grant Hall, who has been vice-president in charge of western lines.

Lord Shaughnessy is one of the makers of modern Canada. He has been president of the Canadian Pacific Railway since June 12, 1896, and is one of the best known men in the British Empire. He joined the railway in 1882 as general purchasing agent.

Ever since the outbreak of the war he has rendered services of incalculable value to the empire and to the allies, for the whole vast organization of the Canadian Pacific Railway, with its wood-roads and its great fleet of ships, was under the personal direction of Lord Shaughnessy from the outset. He was born in Milwaukee, Wis., on Oct. 6, 1852.

C.P.R. PRESIDENT RESIGNS OFFICE

Lord Shaughnessy Will, However, Remain Chairman of the Company.

E. W. BEATTY SUCCEEDS

Sir George Bury Also Retires and Place Will Be Filled by Grant Hall.

Montreal, Oct. 10.—Lord Shaughnessy has resigned as president of the Canadian Pacific Railway and has succeeded in this office by E. W. Beatty, vice-president. Lord Shaughnessy will retain the position of chairman of the board of directors. Sir George Bury retires from his office of vice-president on account of ill health and is succeeded by Grant Hall, who has been vice-president in charge of western lines.

Lord Shaughnessy is one of the makers of modern Canada. He has been president of the Canadian Pacific Railway since June 12, 1896, and is one of the best known men in the British Empire. He joined the railway in 1882 as general purchasing agent.

THE LAST OF THE MAGNATES

Lord Shaughnessy, a man of great ability, has also the gift of being able to read the signs of the times; and he has chosen the very fair pretext of his resignation, but he will never be a magnate.

Never did the railway magnates in our country have a more fitting opportunity to resign than they have now. The day of the railway magnates is over in all North America, and his lordship sees it. Sir William Mackenzie and Sir Donald Mann went by another road, but Lord Shaughnessy is getting off at the same station.

Mr. E. W. Beatty, his successor, is a highly-trained young man in the magnate school under Van Horne and Shaughnessy and Oster, and comes fairly into the succession. But he will never be a magnate.

Some officers here regard these reports as highly significant. They give their particular weight because it now appears certain that the enemy will be forced far back all along the front in northern France and Belgium within the next few days. While the constant hammering is kept up in the north to the German armies there, it might be possible, it was said, to deliver a new stroke on the Alsace-Lorraine front that might swiftly develop into an invasion of Germany itself by way of the Rhine valley.

The wholly unexpected extent of the German collapse between St. Quentin and Cambrai, however, may upset any plans for a drive to the Rhine. Marshal Foch may have planned, as the enemy stands today, with a great gap torn in the centre of the lines that were already struggling to extricate themselves, and get back to a shorter front, there is even the possibility of a crushing and immediate military victory for the allies.

GERMAN PEOPLE UNLOAD IMPERIAL WAR BONDS

Extraordinarily Low Prices Being Taken, and Panic Seems Imminent in Some Towns.

Basel, Switzerland, Oct. 10.—There are persistent rumors among the working classes in Germany, according to advices received here, that Germany's imperial bonds may become valueless.

The rumors have their basis in the repeated enemy victories. The people of numerous towns are said to be unloading their war loans at extraordinarily low prices, and a panic seems imminent.

The German newspapers are publishing long appeals in endeavors to tranquilize public feeling.

GAIN OF FOUR MILES EAST OF ST. QUENTIN

French Take Many Villages in Pursuit of Fleeing Germans—Servais Falls.

Paris, Oct. 10.—French troops advancing east of St. Quentin have penetrated to a depth of nearly four miles, and occupied numerous villages, according to the war office statement tonight.

South of the Oise, in the St. Gobain region, Servais has been captured and prisoners have been taken. Between the Aisne and the Aisne-Franche and Italian troops, advancing on both sides of the Chemin des Dames, have forced the Germans back beyond the Oise Canal.

SERBIANS ENTER LESKOVATS

Pursuit of Defeated Austro-German Forces is Continued With Great Vigor.

Paris, Oct. 10.—Operations in the eastern theatre are reported in the official statement as follows: "On Oct. 8 the French and Serbian troops continued with great vigor their pursuit of the defeated Austro-German forces in southern Serbia. The Serbians have entered Leskovats, taking 500 prisoners."

Bulgaria to Fight Turkey

Will Send Troops to Join Expedition Planned By the Allies.

London, Oct. 10.—The Porte has been advised that Bulgaria is expected to send troops against Turkey in an expedition planned by the entente allies, according to a despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Constantinople, the advice adds. "It is probable the Bulgarian minister to Turkey will be handed his passports within 24 hours."

Crushing and Immediate Victory Now a Possibility

Military Situation on Western Front Has Almost Limitless Possibilities and Way is Paved for Early Invasion of Germany.

Washington, Oct. 10.—The victory of the Anglo-American forces north of St. Quentin may be paving the way for early invasion of Germany. Striking hints of a wholly new enterprise, declared to be at the upper Rhine valley, have come from unofficial quarters in France, and they follow reports from Switzerland that the civil population of the Rhine valley towns were being removed by the German authorities.

Some officers here regard these reports as highly significant. They give their particular weight because it now appears certain that the enemy will be forced far back all along the front in northern France and Belgium within the next few days. While the constant hammering is kept up in the north to the German armies there, it might be possible, it was said, to deliver a new stroke on the Alsace-Lorraine front that might swiftly develop into an invasion of Germany itself by way of the Rhine valley.

Past Two Days' Pursuit

Materially Decreases Distance To Go—Most Formidable of Kaiser's Armies Continue Retreat on Thirty-five Mile Front Before Victorious British.

New York, Oct. 10.—The Associated Press tonight issued the following: "The men of the once formidable German armies holding the Hindenburg line from north of Cambrai to St. Quentin are facing eastward, defeated and in retreat."

Their backs are the targets of the British, American and French troops, who bitterly fought them, step by step, out of supposedly impregnable defences, and now are harrying them across the open country toward the German border, nowhere is the enemy attempting a stand in force.

True, the German border is yet a long distance away; but the past two days of chase have materially increased the width of the area separating the invaders from their own Rhine lines.

Le Cateau, the important junction point 15 miles southeast of Cambrai, represented tonight, the point of decisive penetration by the allied forces. The British were the masters of it. In addition to the German line, the British, American and French have been steadily pressing forward their own forces, taking numerous towns and villages, while far in advance of them the host of German army units, intermingled with the staccato bursts of machine guns inside the moving forts. So fast has been the retreat of the enemy that at various points the allied forces almost lost contact with him.

Over Thirty-five Mile Front. The retreat, which is over a front of about 35 miles from the south of Douai to the region east of St. Quentin, had left in the hands of the allies in addition to the towns taken valuable lines of communication and strategic positions of high importance. The British, American and French have been steadily pressing forward their own forces, taking numerous towns and villages, while far in advance of them the host of German army units, intermingled with the staccato bursts of machine guns inside the moving forts. So fast has been the retreat of the enemy that at various points the allied forces almost lost contact with him.

Both in the Macedonia theatre and in Palestine the allied forces are pressing the enemy back. Albania is fast being cleared of the Austro-Hungarian troops, while in Serbia the enemy is nearing Nish, harassed by the Serbians. At last accounts Gen. Allenby was still driving the Ottoman troops northward in Palestine.

So lightning-like are the manoeuvres of the allied armies on the various fronts—that except to the war expert it is almost impossible to visualize the situation and realize the swift strides the allies are making in defeating the common enemy.

In France and Belgium in these weeks, five important cities which had been in German hands for four years have been recaptured. Dixmude, Arras, Valenciennes, Cambrai and St. Quentin are now in allied hands, while Lille, Douai and Valenciennes were also recaptured. Serbians, who have been recaptured, and the Turks soon will know the Holy Land no more.

Fires Burst Out Everywhere and Only Ruined Chancel of Cathedral is Left.

By J. F. B. Livesay.
With the Canadian Forces, Oct. 10.—The Hun has never perpetrated more ruthless nor more unprovoked vandalism than the destruction of Cambrai, now in progress.
"France can never forget nor forgive this," remarked a French officer, with tears in his eyes. "Torch in hand he comes offering us peace."
We stood early this afternoon in Place d'Armes, a great public square, when the Canadians entered today. It was practically intact. Now it is like unto Ypres. All of ruin. At 9 o'clock explosions began and have continued ever since. All day in every part of the town there were explosions of incendiary bombs with time fuses attached, and these were followed immediately by outbreaks of fire. In one short street a dozen houses simultaneously burst into flames. The Hotel de Ville, the Bishop's palace and other buildings were blown to pieces.
The cathedral still stands, but with the ruined chancel only. There is left the great bell tower out with fire lapping its base. As the hours went by the universal character of the holocaust developed. The sun was obscured and seemed like a fiery ball in the smoke and the thick dust of falling walls.
The Canadian engineers sought to penetrate the conflagration by dynamiting the buildings, but the flames broke out at their backs. Cambrai tonight is a smoking ruin. There remained in the city Father Theze, priest of the Church of St. Etienne. Two days ago he was ordered to evacuate. He refused because he had to attend to a dying woman. They threatened to shoot him, but he persevered, and today he was caring for civilians who had hid for 10 days in cellars.

PRaise AND BLAME FOR WILSON'S NOTE

Senator Lodge Attacked in Senate for Issuing Statement Criticizing It.

Washington, Oct. 10.—President Wilson's note of inquiry in response to the German peace proposal was praised and attacked today in the senate.
Senator Pittman of Nevada (Democrat) opened the debate that lasted several hours by criticizing Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, a Republican leader, for issuing a statement commending unfavorably upon the president's action. The Nevada senator agreed with Senator Lodge that the leaders in congress who have discussed the matter for publication in approving both the president's refusal to propose an armistice while the Germans are on invaded soil, and the inquiries addressed to the German chancellor. He said the criticism of the Republican leader would tend to destroy confidence in the president.
Senator Lodge replied, protesting his disappointment that the president did not reply that nothing short of unconditional surrender by the enemy would be accepted, and his belief that the note opens the way for negotiations with the German rulers, with whom the president has said the United States cannot deal. A similar view was taken by Senator Poindexter (Republican) of Washington, who expressed the hope that, if necessary, England and France would refuse to grant an armistice until Germany had surrendered.
No word came to the state department during the day indicating that the president's note had reached the German chancellor, but it was assumed that it was delivered thru the Swiss foreign office probably some time yesterday. The fact that the chancellor, Prince Maximilian, is to address the reichstag Sunday, led to the belief that the prince would have his reply ready by that time.
Evidences that Turkey is crumbling and already is almost, if not quite, out of the war, continued to appear in reports to the department. There was no confirmation, however, of rumors that the Ottoman government had proposed surrender nor any explanation of the delayed appearance of the Turkish note said to have been sent simultaneously with those of Germany and Austria.

REFUSES TO VARY NEWSPRINT ORDER

Commissioner Will Not Consent to Retroactive Clause Being Left Over.

Ottawa, Oct. 10.—Pending the decision of the newsprint appeal tribunal in the matter of the appeals of the publishers and also of the manufacturers from the recent order of Commissioner Pringle fixing new prices for newsprint, the order issued by the commissioner will not be varied. That is the feature of a judgment given by Commissioner Pringle this afternoon following a motion made by representatives of the publishers to have the increase in price stand in abeyance until the appeal tribunal has rendered a decision in regard to the retroactive clause of the order providing that the increased price shall date from July 1, the commissioner in his judgment today made a recommendation that the publishers desisting from their right to make their payments during a period extending over three months.
In the proceedings before the commissioner the publishers were represented by P. D. Ross of Ottawa and J. E. Atkinson of Toronto. Mr. Ross is requesting the commissioner to vary his order increasing the price of newsprint from $2.15 to $3.45 per hundred pounds, stated that it was the intention of the publishers to appeal and to pass their appeal with all possible speed. He said that this suggestion would be in accordance with ordinary judicial procedure. Apart from this, however, many publishers were finding it difficult to meet the situation. These difficulties would be lightened if they were given a longer period in which to take the necessary steps to increase their own revenues.
Manufacturers Opposed.
George Montgomery, K.C., on behalf of the manufacturers, opposed the request of the publishers. The manufacturers he said, were making newsprint at a price which yields them no profit. Some were selling at less than the cost of manufacture. He declared that the commissioner could not vary his order, because the order-in-council constituting the appeal tribunal provides that the commissioner's orders remain effective until appeals are disposed of.

J. F. Orde, K.C., on behalf of the P. B. Eddy Company, said that as the manufacturers as well as the publishers were entering appeals it would be advisable to let matters take their course.
In giving judgment, Commissioner Pringle said that no good purpose could be served in discussing the merits of the question because the order was an interim order, subject to appeal within 30 days. He agreed that the terms of the order-in-council provided that his orders should remain effective until appeals are disposed of. The commissioner stated that had he been supplying newsprint at an average cost of $52 per ton, which did not give them much profit. He referred to the judgment given by the appeal tribunal across the border, stating that evidence had been adduced to show that the increase in the cost of newsprint production had been anywhere from $4 to $10 per ton since April 1. In closing he made suggestions as to payments arising out of the retroactive feature of his order already referred to.

COME! AND COME EARLY!

AH! AUTUMN, how you breathe on us with a cheery air, a rugged, bracing air. How you hail us every morning with a heartiness, which, though sincere, is quite a little reminiscent of the more severe weather to come, and round about Thanksgiving the most of us have the purchasing of warmer things—newer things in mind; if those clothes can be obtained at a saving, so much the better. It is with the fact in view that a bargain isn't a bargain unless right in quality, appealing in style, reliable in workmanship. A suit a man would consider worth while at the regular price. It is with this thought in mind that these Suits and Coats are offered as a bargain. Some of the suits are of Scotch tweeds, some of English tweeds, fine worsteds, blue and black serges, black chevots and unfinished worsteds; perhaps only two or three of a kind, but there are about 35 different patterns and models to choose from. For young men and youths are single-breasted, form-fitting models, with slash pockets, notch, peak and roll lapels. For men are the good old reliable unassuming three-button sack styles. Suits for all in patterns and shades that should not be difficult to be pleased with. Mark well the price—$19.50. (Many would sell in the usual way at double the price).

THE DAY SATURDAY --- 8.30 THE TIME

So much for the Suits, now for the coats—coats that for the most part are of heavy tweed and durable overcoatings that you can feel assured will give satisfactory warmth and comfort right in the middle of winter. Shades and patterns are varied and should be all that the average man could desire. Many of the fall coats are lined throughout; others through sleeves and shoulders only. In fawn and brown tweed effects, with new mixed patterns. Sizes 35 to 42. "GO TO HELL," IS REPLY TO SURRENDER APPEAL

Lost Battalion Unanimously Rejects German Invitation to Give Up When Surrounded. With the American Forces Northwest of Verdun, Oct. 10.—The brightest spot in the heroic and amazing story of the now famous "lost battalion," which belonged to the 77th division, as yet untold, was the climax to the fourth day of the troops' beleaguering in the Argonne Forest. When the men were long footless and almost wholly without ammunition, and when many were weak from exhaustion but not one despairing, an American who had been taken prisoner by the Germans suddenly appeared at the little camp surrounded in the valley. The man had been sent blindfolded from the German headquarters with a typewritten note to Major Whittlesey, reading: "Americans—You are surrounded on all sides. Surrender in the name of humanity. You will be well treated." Major Whittlesey did not hesitate a fraction of a second. "Go to hell," he almost shouted. Then he read the note to those around him, and his men, despite their weariness and hunger, and in imminent danger every moment, cheered so loudly that the Germans heard them from their observation posts.

PRESIDENT APPEALS FOR LOAN SUBSCRIBERS

Washington, Oct. 10.—Over-subscription of the six billion Dollar Liberty Loan was declared tonight by President Wilson to be a matter of world importance at this critical time. "Recent events have enhanced, not lessened, the importance of this loan," said the president's statement. "The best thing that could happen would be that the loan should not only be fully subscribed, but very greatly over-subscribed." Two billions already have been raised—one-third of the minimum now sought. To touch the six billion mark, new subscriptions at the average rate of $500,000,000 a day are needed. Today's report added $223,000,000 to the national total, which stood tonight at $2,024,037,050, or 33.7 per cent. of the quota.

THREE HAMILTON MEN HELD IN BELLEVILLE

Belleville, Oct. 10.—S. Brasky, Maurice and Joseph Solid, three Hamiltonians, who are engaged in the junk trade, were brought to this city today charged with the theft of a portable engine, valued at over $500, the property of Ann Jane Thompson of this city. It is alleged that whilst procuring junk in Madoc Township the accused took the engine, which was in an unused mill belonging to the complainant. In the absence of the magistrate the case was enlarged for a few days and the three men were admitted to bail.

WEDDED AT BELLEVILLE.

Belleville, Oct. 10.—Capt. A. B. Coupl of the 52nd squadron, Camp Borden, and Miss Sybil Grant, youngest daughter of the late James Grant of this city, were this morning united in marriage at St. Michael's Church by Rev. Father Killen. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father the wedding was of a quiet nature. Robert MacAuley, son of Chief Justice MacAuley of the Yukon, a cousin of the bride, was groomsmen, and Miss Dorothy Grant, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. The couple left for New York and other places on a wedding trip.

SAYS HON. J. D. REID WILL GO TO SENATE

By Staff Reporter. Ottawa, Oct. 10.—The rumor remains persistent that Hon. J. D. Reid, minister of railways and canals, will soon relinquish his portfolio and seat in the house and be transferred to the senate. There is, however, no confirmation of the report that he is to be succeeded in the cabinet by Hon. G. Howard Ferguson. The general impression here is that Hon. F. B. Carvell will go to the railway department and be succeeded as minister of public works by F. F. Pardee, M.P. for West Laramie. Mr. Pardee was for years chief Liberal whip, but was returned to the house in the last Dominion election as a supporter of Union Government.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

LINK ASHBRIDGE'S BAY WITH TOWN OF LEASIDE

Questions of Transportation in East End Are Discussed by S. D. Durham.

S. D. Durham, ex-president of the Woodbine Heights Ratepayers' Association, points out what proper transportation would achieve in Toronto's eastern section, in an interview with a reporter for The World yesterday. Mr. Durham says:

"He who notes the great population of Toronto and observes that within a half-hour's ride by street car there are green fields and market gardens, with an area to be computed by mileage alone, wonders, and asks: 'How come these things?' Then, anyone familiar with conditions in the east end and the southeast corner of York Township, will readily explain that the cause of this striking fact lies in lack of transportation."

"Woodbine Heights Ratepayers' Association, at their last monthly meeting, recommended traction up Fape avenue, crossing the Don from Tomdorden, Leaside, and recommended street railway up Broadview avenue to Tomdorden, through Tomdorden, along Coburn street to Woodbine Heights, continued through Eastdale to Daves road. This parallel line north of Danforth avenue would not only bring accommodation to the eight thousand residents of the district, but it would bring thousands of new citizens to the locality, relieving the overcrowded sections of Toronto."

"To link Ashbridge's Bay with Leaside by proper street accommodation would mean that the distribution of the millions of dollars invested in these industrial districts would be largely spent in the east end, and new residential streets would arise where now green fields and market gardens dot the surface. If the City of Toronto and York Township Councils immediately after the war embarked upon a traction policy of this kind, a new city would arise upon the northeastern suburbs that would ultimately become one of the finest wards in Toronto."

"And, hand in hand with the traction, should a park be purchased, the ravine from the Don to the Massey farm has natural beauty unequaled around Toronto. Here artists come to pencil the windings of the meandering stream, and to catch the outlines of the trees; here teachers bring their pupils for lesson in nature study. Then it should be understood that they lay the foundations for a future congested city should also plan to procure a breathing and recreation ground for the generations yet unborn."

WAR SUMMARY

THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

In developing the great victory of the two preceding days, three British armies and an American division pushed on yesterday and captured Le Cateau. South of this point they approached the large woods east of Cambrai, and north of this point they reached the new general line of the Selle River, from Soupleux to a point near Solesmes. Their line thence runs thru Avesnes, Rieux and St. Martin. They also advanced east of the Scheldt Canal and seized Eboli. A feature of the day's work was the liberation of many French civilians. In Cauchy alone the British delivered 1,500. This news of the advance shows that the complete breaching of the front in this region came as a surprise to the German higher command, for it had been expected that the German advance would have had the French villages and townspeople far back in his rear. The chief point about yesterday's advance was the throwing forward of the British wings to bring them more in line with the centre. The new front occupied at nightfall runs thru a point about ten miles east of Cambrai. The British progress has now become strategic, for it is compelling a German retreat from the Scarpe to a point southeast of Lens. In this region the British gained Roubaix. Other parts of the German front on each side of the gap just made are also beginning to give way.

Nothing will do more to destroy the confidence of Germany in her army than the present complete piercing of the Hindenburg line. Germany, in the three years before Russia dropped out of the war, sustained many reverses on the western front, but the German higher command always contrived to conceal them. The people of Germany, because they were told it so many times, believed the Hindenburg line was impenetrable. Now it has gone to smash and no defensive system that Germany has devised until the present seems capable of stopping the allied advance. The enemy has just admitted the loss of Cambrai, but he has not yet broken the news of the disaster to the Hindenburg line. He cannot conceal it, for he had news travels rapidly. Certain significant things derived from recent dispatches have just happened in Germany. These include the complete breaking down of the Berlin stock market, the sudden unsalability of munition shares, including those of the Daimler works, the sudden doubt about Germany's ability to pay her war loans and the consequent rush of the holders to sell government bonds.

WOMEN ADMITTED TO EQUAL WITH MEN

But Methodist Church Shelves for Four Years Admission as Ministers.

THE MAIN ARGUMENTS

Prejudice to Church Union, the Home Life and No General Mandate Received.

Hamilton, Oct. 10.—Women have been admitted on an equality with men in all that affects their relations as members of the church. This was the unanimous decision of the Methodist general conference this afternoon, but it was quite another question when the proposal to admit the sex to the ranks of preachers and ordained ministers of the church came up for discussion. Unanimity then was conspicuous by its absence, and the first really hot debate of the conference took place, after motions by Rev. James S. Ross of Norwich, Ont., that the discussion be indefinitely postponed—and that the letter be laid upon the table had been declared by Mr. Justice McLaren of Toronto, ordering the matter referred to the official board of the church during the next quadrennium for consideration and report to the next general conference.

A point brought out by Rev. Dr. Chown, the general superintendent, was a suggestion by E. S. Caswell of Toronto was that under the grant of equality to women as members of the church they were rendered eligible for service as preachers. In fact at one point the assembly E. to disavow of the laymen had the right to become preachers and probationers had the right to become ministers, but the president of the conference told him that the law and logic were not always the same.

Three main arguments, apart from the question of Scriptural sanction, were urged by the opponents of the proposal that women's place in the home would be affected, that it would prejudice the cause of church union, and that there had been no clear mandate from the official board of the church during the next quadrennium for consideration and report to the next general conference.

In its buildings class distinctions are unknown—the gold of true manhood counting, and not the stamp it bore. It has been an agency of social education to those favored by high birth no less than to the humble. Its members know "How the other half lives," not in their homes but in their souls.

In its Railroad Department it unites the corporations and their men—the president and the fireman, the superintendent who gives orders, and the conductor who obeys them, meet on the plane of Brotherhood.

In industrial concerns employers and their employees are brought together for all sorts of social purposes. It is by far the most important agency working among university students. It reaches out into rural communities and socializes loneliness there.

It spreads to foreign lands, being a leading factor in Japan, Korea, China, Ceylon, India, and all Latin America. Its friendliness and brotherly attitude has given it large influence in most of the world's big centres.

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain. How to Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food acids, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead, Bisurated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bisurated Magnesia in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk—is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

FRIDAY MORNING, OCT. 11

Hurry Up the Chippawa Power.

Scarcity of power in Toronto has reached a stage of embarrassment that places the officials at their wits' end to keep the important plants which have contracts with the system. Munition plants are supposed to have a preference in all respects in the supply of power, but when there is not enough power to go round nothing can be done.

It is announced that Sir Henry Drayton, when he recovers from influenza, will come to Toronto to confer with Sir Adam Beck on the situation. It is a little late in the day to begin to take counsel, but the railway board and the Dominion Government itself has not gone out of its way so far to assist Ontario in the struggle she has had to supply power to the munition factories. There are other interests, too, looking for power, and it is understood that the electrification of all the street lines in the city in connection with the new Union Station is simply dependent on a supply of power.

The union of municipalities has done all it can, and the Ontario Government assisted in its capacity of trustee for the municipalities, in the inauguration of the Chippawa development scheme. This was started three years ago, and is one of the most urgent war measures afoot in the country. But the provincial government has no special authority to carry out war measures, and therefore the work has been subject to all the delays and obstructions to which any ordinary work is now liable.

It has been suggested that the Dominion Government, if it really means business, can place the Chippawa project on a war basis as an urgent war measure, as it undoubtedly is, and, through Sir Henry Drayton's board or otherwise, have the work rushed ahead. There need be no usurpation of the authority of the Hydro union of municipalities. All that is necessary is to give the work the status of a war measure under the act. A much more drastic action was taken by the United States Government recently at the Long Point, and if any precedent be needed this should furnish one.

The serious shortage of power, however, is quite sufficient reason for the Dominion Government to take any steps that may be necessary to rush the work along, and the municipalities should be empowered, or the provincial government as their trustee should be empowered for them, to do anything in the circumstances that will hasten the completion of the project.

And when this stage is reached then it is up to Sir Adam Beck and the Ontario Government to make a reasonable deal for the consolidation of the private-owned light, power and traction propositions in the province into the public service.

Some "Flu" Remarks.
As the influenza plague takes a firmer grip of the province it becomes Toronto, as the capital city, to deport itself as an example to the rest of Ontario and with the common sense and the coolness which the occasion demands.

There is no need for panic. Of course there are deaths. There are always deaths—every day—from some cause or another. We should be familiar with that fact. And we should be familiar also with the fact that most deaths, not the result of age, might be avoided, or to put it another way, are the result of neglecting the rules of health and the laws of life.

This is particularly true of influenza. It is a disease that seeks out and settles in the weak places. If one avoids the follies one need have little fear of it, whether Italian, French or Spanish. But the community has not reached the stage where every individual is able to take care of his health, to exercise common sense, to avoid folly. And this is why we have a health department, the more especially as the neglect and carelessness of one individual entails suffering on others.

Dr. Hastings, the medical officer of health, has made an exhaustive study of the whole situation. He has the knowledge, the experience, the executive ability to control it. He has made no mistakes so far, and in our judgment it is a poor policy to chatter to the man at the wheel, more especially when a sale is blowing. Dr. Hastings has the experience of the United States at his disposal, as well as his general knowledge. The attitude of the city hall and the city streets are about as competent to criticize him as they would be to advise General Haig on one of his campaigns. And this is a health campaign, with life and death results involved.

To take an example or two. The debate over closing the schools is not well advised. The scholars are in a much healthier atmosphere in the school than in the average home, or than they would be running about the streets mixing with all and sundry. They are under medical inspection in school, and any outbreak is at once noted and can be handled. The same is true of churches and theatres. The atmosphere of these places is usually more wholesome than the air in the average home. The street car is an unhealthy place, but not so much so as the railway day coach. Dr. Hastings has the street cars under surveillance. The average lodge room is an unhealthy place, ill-ventilated and full of people disseminating germs by constant exhalations from the mouth and nose. These places should be constantly sprayed and disinfected.

Another mistake is the rush for alcohol. The mortality, especially from pneumonia, is greater among those who treat themselves with alcohol than among those who refrain. It weakens the resisting power of the blood.

Everybody should use listerine or some other disinfectant for spraying or anointing the nose and throat, or for gargling. Oil of eucalyptus is excellent for the nose. Breathing thru the nose only is an effective preventive.

The Kaiser's Savage Hordes.

Language wholly fails to express the feelings of decent people before the acts of destruction of which the Germans have been guilty, in their retreat from the Hindenburg line and elsewhere in France and Belgium. The calculated devilry of the destruction of Cambrai, after the extreme care of the allied armies to avoid harming the beautiful old city, makes a record which only the Germans themselves can surpass. The most ancient, the most historic, the most beautiful buildings attract their hatred most. It is true that in the dark ages of Cromwell and previously men destroyed with a somewhat similar ruthlessness, but our civilized era had not expected to see such a recrudescence of savagery. What is the remedy?

Some are in favor of a quid pro quo retaliation. For Cambrai Heidelberg should be similarly plundered and laid in ruins. For Rheims, Cologne and its cathedral should be wrecked. For St. Quentin, Karlsruhe or Stuttgart should be a sacrifice. It is to be doubted if anything would be gained by such a policy. Those who carried it out would be degraded as much as those for whom the punishment was designed. We still adhere to our original proposal, believing that a lesson is needed for the whole German nation which thinks itself and its morals, its art and its architecture better worth preserving than anything else in the whole world, and believes that God thinks so, too. Nations and bodies of men are liable to such mad delusions, and they learn the truth with difficulty.

We do not think any good purpose would be served by the destruction of any beautiful things that the old German cities possess. They should certainly be compelled to disgorge their plunder; but the nation, as such, learns nothing from such a course.

A striking national example could be made of the mushroom city of Berlin, with Potsdam, the home of all the All Highest Villainy, by compelling the evacuation of these places, allowing the people to get out with all their belongings, and then reducing the city to the desolation of Nineveh or Babylon. Its location should be sown with salt, as its masters have caused the lands they have entered to be watered with salt tears and blood.

Their savage and insane project for the domination of the world has happily been frustrated by a confederation of the greater part of the human race. This fact must be established for the Germans, monumented in some unmistakable fashion, and the desolation of the site of Berlin is better calculated to impress the Huns, and especially the Prussians, than anything else.

REFUSE TO CONSENT TO CAR-FARE RAISE

Company Wants Straight Five Cents, But Controllers Say No.

With unusual unanimity the board of control yesterday promptly turned down the Toronto Railway Company's request that the city consent to a straight five-cent car fare. "The proposition is preposterous," said the mayor. "Increase of fares has led to riots in other cities, and would lead to riots in this city, and would lead to the destruction of the city."

The board also turned down the request to raise the fare to five cents, and the company has been plundered to build up all kinds of subsidiary companies. It is high time the government and railway board bring this company to book. The railway board should enforce the contract.

Controller McBride: "If the fares were increased the company's revenue would be no better."

"If the company had not used its profits to bolster up outside concerns it would be in a better shape," said Controller Maguire.

R. J. Fleming, general manager of the company, in the letter making the request, also refers to the employment of women as a solution of the curtailed service. There had been objection taken to this on the ground that it would be in a better shape for them, but the company had almost ready 50 new pay-as-you-enter cars, on which the work would be easier, but the men's union declined to consent to employing women even on the new cars.

Sir William Mackenzie said yesterday his union always resists to sell out, but he declined to say if an offer would be made to the city or not. In fact, nothing along this line had been discussed by the board of directors.

MY STAR.

I have a star up in the heavens high with which I'm content to reach but which I have no wish to climb to, and there find rest from earthly trouble and from care.

I simply wish to keep it as a thing to grow towards, and when I feel the sting of some dark bit of misery and rue to know 'tis there for me to look up to.

CHAPTER LIX.

"You must take me to some more of those quaint eating places," Brian said on the way home. "They are very entertaining."

"I thought you wouldn't like them, that they wouldn't be smart enough for you."

"Oh, but Brian! you must let me decide. Ask me when you want to go, and if I don't care to go along I'll tell you; but give me the chance to refuse."

"They both knew she had his lunch at home," Mollie King, of the day before, in mind; also it had not again been mentioned.

"I like meeting the people I know, like seeing them, talking to them. I just thought you didn't care for them."

"So a sort of flag of truce was fixed up. Neither mentioned anything disagreeable again. Yet both were thinking of the same thing, both wondering, in a way, how they were going to get along without constant friction. Ruth had no intention of giving up her position, but she had the intention of spending his time alone. He would cut out the lunches when Ruth was home, and when she was home she had been so decent. But when she left him, he would do as he pleased—she had no kick coming. This was the way his cogitations ended.

"What's this?" he asked, picking up the rent receipt.

"I had to go by the office this noon, and as I had the money, I ran in and paid it. I thought it would save an extra trip," she answered as unconcernedly as she could.

Brian made no remark.

"Your clients are so slow in paying that they owe you I will pay the house bills until you get your money in. What little they do give you, we need to sport with. I expect it is so with all professional men—that they have hard times collecting their bills. I know it is with doctors," she was talking to gain time, to take his mind from her offer to pay the bills. "O.D. Dr. Graham used to say that 'people expected a doctor to eat promises, and so 'people are slow in paying professional men.' Brian responded, "Yet I haven't so much out," he added honestly.

That was what she thought Ruth loved in Brian. His truthfulness. She had never known him to lie to her about the slightest thing. He might keep still, not tell her things, but if she asked him, she had the truth. It was a comfort, too, especially since she had found out about Mollie King.

Ruth was very busy at the store the next few days, very tired at night. Brian saw that she looked exhausted, and said nothing about going out in the evening, for which Ruth was grateful.

Kenyon Roberts and his wife came in one evening to play cards, he aside from that, they spent the time alone. Brian had quite recovered his good nature. Ruth would care to mention anything that might annoy him, and they had a quiet, happy week together.

Ruth had gone to bed right after night with a lighter heart than she had known for many days. She smiled in the dark as she thought of Brian, his boyish sulks, his irresponsibility. At times she felt almost as if she might be his mother. "I'd spank him, if I were," she said to herself. Her heart yearned over him. She loved him with every fibre of her being, and she was happy to see him happy. She loved to be happy herself—and there were so many things she had to consider.

No man could be more charming

SOLDIERS' INSURANCE LEFT TO THE PEOPLE

Board of Control Thus Deals With Question of City's Liability.

The vexed question of soldiers' insurance was dealt with by the board of control yesterday, and it was decided to vote Mayor Church's motion that a vote of the people be taken on the question of whether civic insurance be paid to dependents residing outside the city and country as well as to those residing in Toronto. The finance commissioner reported that there were 380 cases where, under the present policy, insurance claims had been refused. This would mean that an amount of $38,000 is involved in the board's decision. Finance Commissioner Bradshaw and City Solicitor Johnston will draft the question to be submitted to the people.

Mayor Church said the wisest of the deal be passed, except those included in the former resolution, and pay the insurance to parents, children, stepparents, in every case. The question would be voted upon by the property-owners only.

Cont. Maguire said that no conditions were attached to the insurance when issued, and none should be imposed now.

Cont. Nell's motion that no change be made was voted down, 4 to 1.

Cont. Maguire and Cont. Robbins voted for Church's resolution, while Cont. McBride said he was big enough to ask the council to rescind the former resolution, and pay the insurance to parents, children, stepparents, where they can show actual dependence.

The salary increase question came up when the mayor secured the passage of the following resolution: "That a bylaw be prepared providing for the annual estimates of the year shall any increases be granted."

In accordance with the recent order issued by the department of education regarding the changing and revision of all salaries at an early date, the members discussed the merits and demerits of each form, reader.

Proceedings will begin again at 9 o'clock this morning.

TEACHERS OF COUNTY ATTENDING CONVENTION

About 150 county school teachers are attending the annual convention of the North York Teachers' Institute in the county building. The convention opened yesterday. The president, Miss N. Holliday, Newmarket, welcomed the members, and the morning was mostly taken up with routine work. David White, Normal school, Toronto, read a paper on "Modern Methods in Geography."

In accordance with the recent order issued by the department of education regarding the changing and revision of all salaries at an early date, the members discussed the merits and demerits of each form, reader.

Proceedings will begin again at 9 o'clock this morning.

LIEUT. LUCAS COMING HOME.

OLDERS' INSURANCE LEFT TO THE PEOPLE

With Question of City's Liability.

The vexed question of soldiers' insurance was dealt with by the board of control yesterday, and it was decided to pass Mayor Church's motion at a vote of the people to be taken on the lives of Toronto soldiers paid to dependents residing outside the city and country. The finance commissioner reported that the insurance cases where, under the present policy, insurance had been refused. This would mean that an amount of $330,000 is involved in the city's decision. Finance Commissioner Bradshaw and City Solicitor Johnston will draft the question to be put to the people.

Mayor Church said the wishes of the insured soldiers should be carried out in every case. The question would be put upon by the property owners.

Mr. Maguire said that no conditions were attached to the insurance as issued, and none should be attached now. O'Neill's motion that the issue be made was voted down, 11-10.

Mr. Maguire and Cont. Robinson had for Church's resolution, while Mr. O'Neill said he was in favor of the former resolution, and that the insurance to parents, children, and brothers, where they can show financial dependence.

Salary Increases Again. The salary increase question came when the mayor secured the passage of the following resolution: "That the board be prepared to fix the salaries of officials of the corporation, providing that no increases of salaries be passed, except those included in the annual estimates of the year, and no other time of the year shall any increases be granted."

The resolution will take effect at the first of next year. The city has a mill and two-fifths on the city's overdraft this year, which is a mill and two-fifths on the city's overdraft, allowing for the city's overdraft as previously reported $89,537. The additions for interest in salaries and patriotic dues total $75,335.

That the enemy must be beaten in peace, that the end of the war was only and in every other way would be peace with the Hun would be less than an insult to the memory of nearly three million heroes who died for democracy and freedom.

PROFESSOR G. M. WRONG ON CANADIAN HISTORY

Professor G. M. Wrong was the speaker at the opening meeting for the season of the Women's Canadian Historical Society in the Sherbourne House Club yesterday afternoon. The speaker dealt with the history of Canada from a political and economic standpoint.

In its political aspects Canada had led the empire: Australia and others had followed Canadian precedent. Outstanding changes were the problems that had come out of the American revolution; next the question of self-government for Canada which was uppermost in the question as to the conditions upon which Canada became a partner in the conditions of the future, the place of Canada being pointed to by the fact that in the Dominion had placed next to Lloyd George.

History involves magnanimity, said Professor Wrong, who advised people to forget as well as to remember. With reference to the United States, he advised the warmest feeling, and pointed out that in the school books there all the references antagonistic to the British had been eliminated.

SUFFERINGS OF CHILDREN.

Fifty Per Cent. of Young Belgians Victims of Tuberculosis.

In the dispensaries and schools of Liege, Belgium, there are 17,000 children under 16 years of age stricken with tuberculosis. Fifty per cent. of the children out of schools suffer from this deadly disease, which has been brought on by malnutrition.

Most of the children are so debilitated that a mere blow or bruise, even when the skin is not broken, produces suppuration. Emaciation is general. For this awful physical condition of the children lack of meat and fat and the poor quality of the bread is responsible. It is difficult for the doctors to help the little ones, because medicines are lacking. Cod liver oil, for instance, costs $4 a quart. Veronal brings $28.50 an ounce. Tincture of iodine is practically unobtainable.

These appalling conditions are not found in Liege alone. They obtain in all parts of the occupied district. It is for the lives of these poor children that the Belgian relief fund is fighting to-day, and so long as the fund has the necessary financial resources at its disposal it can overcome even these terrible conditions. Where possible children are being removed to Holland and Switzerland, and there are being nursed back to normal health in the large sanitarium operated by the Belgian relief fund.

The need of financial support for the maintenance of these institutions is pressing, and for that reason the Belgian relief fund again appeals to the people of Canada for assistance. Contributions should be sent to the local committee of the Belgian relief fund or to the central committee at 91 St. Peter street, Montreal, Que.

TO HAVE PLANT FOR CANNING

That canning centres have not been launched in Toronto at an earlier period in the history of the war has been considered matter for wonder by many. To supply the lack a meeting was held at the quarters of the Women's Patriotic League yesterday morning, when Mrs. H. S. Strathy presided and interesting information on the success of canning in other parts of the country was given.

Miss Edna Sutherland of the women's institutes told of six centres where canning had been operated in Ontario, that of Parkhill setting no less than 10,000 chickens for its objective. The chief idea of the canning as carried on by the institutes and as proposed by the Toronto organizers, is to can fruit, vegetables and chickens for the men overseas.

Mrs. Crowe, who is head of the canning centre in Guelph, threw inspiration into the gathering when she told of many difficulties overcome and of huge quantities of apple butter, jelly, vegetables and chickens canned at her centre, no less than 27 working days of September.

Barrie, Grimby, Stapleton, Stratford, Niagara-on-the-Lake and Hamilton were mentioned for their good work in this connection. Mrs. A. Garnett told of an interesting visit paid to Detroit's community kitchen. The local centre, when established, will be under the Toronto and York County Women's Institute and Red Cross. A building is as good as promised and the equipment will be given by the agricultural department, while the Red Cross supplies the cans and sugar needed. Many societies and individuals are expected to co-operate.

Another link in the chain of good roads operated by the Toronto and York County Commission was forged yesterday in the opening for traffic of the new bridge running over the Rouge River at Locust Hill. The new bridge, which is of concrete, was built in place of an old wooden structure built some thirty years ago. The bridge is the third of its type in Canada.

About 17,000 yards of earth were used for filling in building the approaches to the bridge. The distance and time saved in the construction are unusually large, a 12 per cent. grade being reduced to 5 per cent. and the distance from the main road to the bridge is 100 feet.

Growing Old Together

THIS aged couple, mellowed by time and the experiences of life, are happily growing old together.

They are happy because they are healthy. Life is still full of interest to them, and they are wide awake to new ideas.

These are the kind of old people that everybody likes. For, in spite of the years, they are cheerful and optimistic.

It is only natural that the blood should get thin and vitality wane as age advances, but there are ways of keeping up the quality of the blood and maintaining health and vigor.

Very many men and women have found in Dr. Chase's Nerve Food exactly what they need to restore energy and strength and keep them healthy and happy.

As an example Mr. Stephen J. Leard, North Tryon, F.E.I., writes: "At seventy-five years of age my heart gave out and became very irregular and weak in action and would palpitate. My nerves also became weak, and I could do nothing but lie in bed in a languishing condition, losing strength and weight. In that condition I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and am cured. Had I not obtained this treatment I would now be in the hospital with the roof over my nose. At eighty-one I have an energy which means go, and I am writing this letter so that old people like myself may prolong their health and strength by using this great medicine."

There can be no doubt that this treatment contained exactly what was required to build up Mr. Leard's system.

We are constantly receiving so many letters of this kind that we can, with the greatest confidence, recommend people of advanced years to put Dr. Chase's Nerve Food on trial, as a means of restoring and maintaining health and vigor.

Here is another interesting letter. This time from a lady:

Mrs. Joseph Lalonde, Hydro Glen, Ont., writes: "I have to thank you very much for what your medicines have done for me, especially the Nerve Food and Kidney-Liver Pills. I was so run down and nervous last summer that I was in bed most of the time, unable to do any work. I have also been troubled with my kidneys for over twenty years, and tried every doctor I knew of without any permanent results, but I can say that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and Kidney-Liver Pills have made me feel quite different. Since taking this combined treatment I have been able to do my housework, and although I am now 74 years old, I feel better than I have for years."

("I know Mrs. Joseph Lalonde, and believe her statement regarding Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to be true."—W. F. Flannery, Postmaster.)

DUNK MUNRO RUNS WILD IN EXHIBITION

University Schools Defeat Upper Canada in Excellent Contest—Notes.

University Schools Junior O.R.F.U. team and Upper Canada's Little Big Four outfit staged an exhibition game at Upper Canada yesterday afternoon. Dunk Munro was never in better form, and the U.T.S. youngsters were victors 10 to 8 after an interesting tussle. It was grand rugby from the drop of the hat. Munro started early with his well-placed boots and broke thru for large gains many times during the afternoon. Gardner, at flying wing for the winners, was another that caught the ball for maul ground. Upper Canada were weak at outside wing, and Munro and Gardner soon noticed this falling and tore thru. Davis and Hyland, the U.C. middle wings, were the outstanding players for the losers. Both bucked for yards repeatedly. Upper Canada, showed that they are a well-drilled team and had the Marsden plays down to perfection.

The Dentials, senior O.R.F.U. entrants, had another good workout last evening. Dunk Munro held enough at the U.T.S. Upper Canada game, and did not appear at the east end tonight, and it is expected that he will be able to muster a team in each series.

The games today are: Senior—Humberdale at Oakwood. Technical at Harbord. Parkdale at Riverdale. North Toronto at Commerce.

Junior—Malvern at Jarvis. Technical at Harbord. Humberdale at Oakwood. Parkdale at Riverdale. North Toronto at Commerce.

Dutch Brophy, the good Dental player, is the latest to be laid low with the Spanish "flu." Dutch is a sick boy and will not be out to practice for a week at least.

pected that Muckle McLean will also be on the job.

The Collins brothers, formerly of the Petros Junior O.R.F.U. team, made their first appearance last night. They look like real good boys and will likely catch a place. Smilie, of hockey fame, was another newcomer. Norton, a Mulock Cup player, is also trying with the Dentials. Burns, Charlie Stewart, Broderick, Eastman, V. Long, V. Long, Roll, Box, Holmes were also on the job. Blatz, from the Meds, will also play today. U.T.S. are newcomers with the Dentials.

Oakwood and Humberdale meet for the second time today in the High School Rugby League. The wise ones are calling Oakwood as the team to beat for the honors this season. To give Toronto lovers of the game a chance to see this battle it has been arranged to play the game at Varsity Stadium today. The Juniors Squad will also play today. Several of the Oakwood players have been hit by the "flu," but it is expected that they will be able to muster a team in each series.

FLU PLAYS HAVOC WITH RUGBY GAMES

O.R.F.U. and City League Fixtures Are Postponed—Rugby Gossip.

The Spanish "flu" has caused a postponement of the opening of the O.R.F.U. senior patriots season. With Beaches practicing hard for their scheduled game with Niagara Camp M.G.S. at Hamilton, on Thanksgiving Day, and Lieut. Harry Fleming giving the finishing touches to his soldier boys, a quarantine is put on at Niagara and the khaki-clad players will be unable to get away for Monday's game. After a consultation, between Manager Box of the Dentials, Manager Burt of the Beaches and the O.R.F.U. officials, it was decided to play Monday's game later in the season, and to fire the league that it is absolutely impossible for them to continue in the same form.

The Arlington's senior fourteen, who last year cupped the 12-18 champions without a loss, and who this season gave promise of being up near the head of the list when the championship would be handed out, have officially notified the league that it is absolutely impossible for them to continue in the same form.

The league executive suggested that an arrangement be made to postpone Saturday's game and replay it at the end of the season should it be necessary to do so, but this was met with the official notification that the Arlington would have to call quits.

This action is very much to be regretted as it means that any player who played last Saturday with Arlington is ineligible for any other club, and the season having just commenced it will keep out of Rugby many lads who would not doubt like to join up with some other fourteen. However, this was no doubt considered carefully before taking the stand to default, but it is a matter that the O.R.F.U. cannot remedy unless with the consent of a full meeting of the respective clubs.

Arlingtons forced Central "Y" into overtime last week after being in the lead at the halfway station. This shows that they would have been contenders in the race had not their chances been interrupted by the "flu."

Park Commissioner Chambers is being asked by the Capital Club to install Rugby poles at Cottingham Square. Since the depletion of the playing field at Ketchum Park the "Caps" have had to look elsewhere for grounds and the only available space suitable for Rugby in the north end is the Matilda stadium ground. Failing the granting of this request, it will mean that Caps will have to play their home games either at lowvale or Riverdale Parks, each of which is miles from home, and they would thus be placed at a decided disadvantage as compared with the other teams in the league, whose grounds are still intact to them. Here's a warning that the Caps, who have done more for the fall pastime than any other club in the game, may have their request favorably entertained.

SOLDIERS' BOWLING WAS HUGE SUCCESS

Dominion Bowling Tournament Committee Tells of the Progress Made.

A meeting of the Dominion bowling tournament committee was held for the purpose of clearing up the season's business relating to the Dominion bowling tournament and the bowling for soldiers. Those present were: Sir John Willison, T. Rennie, chairman; Aid. Johnston, C. E. Boyd, W. M. Douglas, T. H. Lister, J. H. Evans, J. A. H. Burt, A. C. McPhee, C. H. Macdonald, R. T. McLean. Reports on the greens at the different hospitals were given by Messrs. Lister, Boyd, Evans and Macdonald. While this season the greens were not up to the mark, it is hoped that, with the work that has been done on them this fall, next season will see them in much better condition. It was decided that ditches be put in all greens.

Messrs. Douglas, McPhee, Henderson and Burt, convener of the different hospitals, made their reports, telling of the great interest the men had shown in the game, and of the progress they had made. Letters were read from the secretaries of the different hospital clubs telling of their appreciation of the efforts of the bowlers, and of the interest shown in the men. The clubs have greatly valued the invitations given by the city clubs to play in the different tournaments, and the wind-up of this season, the tournament for soldiers only.

The committee decided that the proceeds of the East-West game, which will be divided equally between the Home for Incurable Children and the soldiers' fund, and also that the surplus of the Dominion bowling tournament should go to the soldiers' fund. Mr. Sykes of the Victoria Club it was decided to hold a soldiers' day on the first Saturday in June. This will be somewhat after the style of the East-West game. The idea is to have all the clubs in the city play their entire membership and probably assess each player $1. The proceeds will go far towards the upkeep of the greens for the season. The clubs will be asked to reserve the date for this game.

A number of points were taken up in connection with the Blackman trophy, which will be played in the up-country cups until they are defeated. It was also decided that the club holding it at

INTERNED CANADIANS ARE WELL IN HOLLAND

Before leaving London Sir Edward Kemp, overseas minister of militia, sent Major James Blake and Colonel Birks, of the Y.M.C.A. to Holland for the purpose of reporting on the condition of Canadian prisoners interned there. These officers have now returned to England and state, in a cable to Sir Edward today, that, on the whole, the conditions are satisfactory. Practically all are very well and in good spirits. The food is reported to be remarkably good. Food conditions have been much improved on account of supplemented rations issued by the imperial authorities. Arrangements are made by Colonel Birks to open a Y.M.C.A. canteen, supplying the canteen, including Australians, New Zealanders and Canadians, also adjacent imperial groups.

Make a Will—Appoint an Executor

"If it is worth a man's while to spend a lifetime in building up a fortune or even a moderate competency, generally achieved for the sake of one's family, it is certainly more than worth while to spend a few hours in giving careful study to the use and best management of such fortune after one's death and to act on that study by executing a proper will to ensure the proper carrying out of one's plans."

Trust Companies are growing in popularity as executors because they are not subject to the unavoidable handicaps which make it hazardous to entrust property to an individual as executor.
