Borden Issues a Manifesto To the People of Canada Pledging an Ideal Govt.

Conservative Leader Recites the Aims of the Party Policy and Calls for an Honest Administration.

UP TO THE YOUNG MEN TO PRESERVE THE FUTURE

The following manifesto has been issued by R. L. Borden:

WHAT IS THE AIM OF THE LIBERAL-CONSER-VATIVE POLICY?

To give to the farmers and producers better facilities and more favorable rates for transportation.

To keep our young men on the farm and to bring within their reach the comforts and conveniences of modern civilization; better postal facilities; free rural mail delivery; cheaper and wider use of the telegraph and telephone.

For the laboring men such application of the principle of protection as will justify and insure the payment of a fair living wage and will safeguard his interests against unfair and unjust competition, whether by means of undesirable immigration or pauper-ized labor in other countries.

For the fishermen better consideration of their interests and more favorable access to our own home markets.

For all the people honest administration of our public revenues and honest expenditure of public moneys for public purposes alone; a thorough reform of our civil service; decent appointments to public office; reformation of the election laws and their enforcement thereof; restitution to the people by all constitutional means of their pillaged public domain; thorough control of our public utilities; more careful selection of immigrants and exclusion of undesirables.

Non-partisan management of our state-owned railway; a fiscal policy which will develop all our great resources, including those of the forest, the mine and the fisheries; the development and improvement of our national waterways; the equipment of our national ports; the promotion of preferential trade within the empire; the unimpairment of provincial rights and liberties.

When plunder of the public domain and of the public revenues has been charged and specific instances given, Sir Wilfrid Laurier has replied in these words:
"I disdain to discuss these issues; my soul is turned toward greater events and questions."

Is not honest administration the greatest issue of all?

What are the greater events and questions toward which the prime minister's soul is turned?

Was Alexander Mackenzie's soul less lofty because he esteemed it his first duty to protect Canada's treasury against plundering of camp followers?

Surely the prime minister of Canada could not occupy himself with considerations of more transcendent importance than those which are concerned with the moral foundations upon which alone the permanency of democratic institutions can securely rest. In all recorded history no nation's greatness has ever proved enduring unless founded upon high public as well as private standards and ideals.

The destiny of our country is in the hands of the young men.
It will be more so in the years to come. Do they believe that the recent progress of Canada is due to the present government, or that the men who compose the present cabinet can alone be safely entrusted with the control of public affairs? Has prosperity come from the occupants of the treasury benches or from the industry, capacity and enterprise of our people employed in the development of our national resources?

The defeat of the present government will mean victory not for the Liberal-Conservative party alone, but for the honest rank and file of the Liberal party as well; in short, for the people of Canada.

To them I promise if returned to power a cabinet worthy of their highest ideals and truly representative of the great country which I shall serve.

RUNAWAY HORSE IN LONG, DANGEROUS DASH

Throws Two Riders, One of Whom Is Badly Hurt, and Gallops For Miles.

Frightened by an automobile, a horse belonging to Percy Clurine, 905 Yonge-street, threw its rider at the corner of Jarvis and Shuter-streets yesterday morning and started on a general rampage thru the city streets.

It toppled over a would-be captor at Wilton-avenue, unseating and injuring a real captor at Charles and Jarvis-streets and doing a record mile before it was brought to a final standstill by a policeman at the corner of Davenport and Avenue-roads.

BRYAN COUNTING ON CARRYING STATES

Reckons on 166 From a "Solid South," and Believes He Will Capture Ohio
From State's Favorite Son.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 18.—The prospect of his election to the presidency, as viewed from the standpoint of William J. Bryan, is here given for the first time.

It represents an ultra-conservative analysis of the actual situation as viewed from the Bryan standpoint to-day, and embodies the judgment of men here closest to the candidate. The forecast takes no account of the possibility of a Bryan landslide, which many of his intimates believe is impending.

The tabulation was submitted to two men with whom probably the candidate talks more freely and frankly than with any other men in the United States—Thomas S. Allen, Mr. Bryan's brother-in-law and chairman of the Nebraska Democratic state committee, and Richard L. Metcalfe, editor of Mr. Bryan's newspaper, The Commoner. Both of them approved this tabulation with only one reservation—the possibility of a landslide.

It will be observed that this "bedrock" estimate gives to Mr. Bryan considerably the 166 votes of the "solid south," which includes the eight votes of Maryland and the eighteen votes of Missouri. It also gives to him only nineteen electors west of the Missouri River, being those of Nebraska, eight; Colorado, five; Montana, three, and Nevada, three. Thus he is given, "iron clad," 185 of the 282 elector votes necessary for his election. This leaves the Democratic candidate fifty-seven votes shy of the goal. Beyond the shadow of a doubt, it is believed by his friends here, he will get both Wisconsin and Indiana, bringing his assured strength in the Electoral College up to the required number. Reduced to a table these figures show:

Certainly for Bryan—Solid South.....166 Wisconsin..... 12 Nebraska..... 8 Indiana..... 15 Colorado..... 5 Total..... 213 Nevada..... 3
Montana..... 3

Where Will They Come From?
Friends who have discussed the subject with Mr. Bryan within the last few days are divided in opinion as to where the needed twenty-nine votes are most sure to come from. All of them express a higher degree of confidence in Ohio than in New York. Should the state York and lose Ohio, holding to what has been given to him, the presidency would be his, with ten votes to spare; but should he lose the Empire State and carry Ohio he would still lack six votes. According to the matured judgment of some of the informed informants who themselves have carefully investigated the matter, he is as sure of carrying Kansas as he is of Nebraska. With Kansas ten votes added to Ohio's twenty-three there would be a surplus of four Bryan votes in the Electoral College. The weight of opinion here touching this combination of the chances are most favorable for Kansas joining Ohio in a revolt against the old alliance than there is in New York doing so.

Many of the candidate's closest friends in Nebraska, as elsewhere in the west, talk as if they would be pecuniarily gratified if he should win the contest this time without receiving a single electoral vote east of Maryland.
They contend that this would administer a salutary lesson to the east and would result in a rearrangement of what they allege to be alliances in that section between great financial interests and parties and factions that are unreasonably hostile to Mr. Bryan. Under the arrangement believed to be probable the Bryan vote is thus expressed in tabular form:

Solid South.....166 Indiana..... 15 West of Missouri..... 19 Ohio..... 23 Wisconsin..... 12 Kansas..... 10 Total..... 246

How Doubtful States Are Viewed.
Several buildings at Rainy Lake, near Huntsville, are said to have been destroyed by fires which spread from the bush and which last night threatened the destruction of more property.

Fires are raging north of Orillia and fragmentary reports tell of property damage running into the thousands in that vicinity.

All day long a heavy pall of smoke has hung over the entire northern district and drifting in clouds south to Lake Ontario, and fairly stifling people in northern communities.

Rain was being prayed for in many churches yesterday to clarify the atmosphere, as well as to extinguish the fires.

At the Toronto Observatory last evening smoke and fog were reported general thruout the province.

EVERYTHING READY.

GUY FAWKES BORDEN—We purpose setting 'er off a week from to-night.

Bush Fires in North Have Broken Out Again Damage is Extensive

Around Barrie, Orillia and Huntsville Flames Are Making Progress—Dense Pall of Smoke Envelops Towns.

Last evening there was a distinct appearance and odor of smoke in the city streets, so much so that a number of telephone enquiries were received by The World for information as to where the fire was. One man from North Toronto declared he could see a reflection to the far north.

An army of men are fighting day and night the bush fires that have been raging for the past two or three days in the vicinity of Barrie, Orillia and Huntsville, and which have already destroyed thousands of dollars' worth of property and momentarily threaten to get beyond control.

Near Barrie, all the outbuildings on the farm of Mr. Waide and those of Mr. Kearns are reported burned, while fences and buildings on other nearby farms are said to be in flames.

A swamp 20 miles in length, the southern border of which is but four miles out of Barrie, is in desultory fire, sending great clouds of smoke into the town, fairly choking the citizens at times.

At the Longford Chemical Works, five miles out of Huntsville, 500 cords of wood are reported burning.

Cheer Up; Good Times Are Here.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The National Association of Manufacturers announced to-day that every branch of industry is showing marked increases of business and that during the past three months trade conditions have taken on new activity.

In an exhaustive canvass among 3000 members of the association, the returns bear out the prediction that practically every manufacturing business will be upon a normal basis of production during 1909.

TURKEY NOT MOBILIZING

Assurances That Germany and Britain Will Maintain Peace Avert Another
Crisis.

BUT FRENCH OFFICES
JUST AVERTED FIGHT

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 18.—The report that the mobilization of the Turkish troops had been ordered is unfounded.

Presumably it arose thru the fact that certain battalions of the Anatolian reserves, attached to the Salonika and Adrianople army corps, were collected for the manoeuvres in the native districts, and that three battalions were ordered to Constantinople from Macedonia for police service in the capital, these being replaced by an equal number of redifs from Smyrna.

Reservists Ordered Back.
SOFIA, Oct. 18.—Sir George Buchanan, the British diplomatic agent, and Baron Von Romberg, the German consul-general, called upon M. Poprikoff, the minister of foreign affairs, to give assurances that the military measures undertaken by Turkey were only precautionary in character, and that the Porte had informed Great Britain and Germany that Turkey had no intention of flouting the peace.

M. Poprikoff in reply said that Bulgaria was willing to send the reservists to their homes if Great Britain and Germany would guarantee the preservation of peace.

50 DEAD IN MICHIGAN HUNDREDS HOMELESS

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 18.—Despatches from Alpena, Mich., indicate that the number of deaths in the forest fires of Presque Isle and Alpena Counties will exceed 50, and may run well up towards 100.

In the vicinity of Metz, Bolton and Posen, the fires have burned sufficiently to leave several hundred women and children camping with comparative safety in the open fields, but near the city of Alpena last night the fires were so threatening that Mayor Mc-Knight called out a volunteer force of several hundred men with shovels to stem the progress of the flames in the direction of the city.

LAURIER DEFENDS THE TIMBER POLICY

Addressing 10,000 People at Ottawa, Explains Fraser Deal—Deplores the
"Petty, Picaune"
Campaign.

OTTAWA, Oct. 18.—(Special.)—Sir Wilfrid Laurier got a tremendous reception in Ottawa Saturday evening, when he made his first appearance before the electors as their candidate, along with H. B. McGeever. There were probably 10,000 people present in the skating arena, which is by far the largest audience which has ever gathered under cover in the capital.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier was supported by Hon. W. Paterson and Hon. Charles Murphy, dealt principally with the charges of maladministration regarding the sale of timber limits, of which much has been made in Ottawa owing to the fact that A. W. Fraser, one of the former Liberal candidates, had been forced out of the candidature as a result of the notoriety his dealings with the interior department had brought him.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that this was the easiest campaign he had had to fight. The opposition had made his sole issue that of scandal. It was small politics. These scandals did not hurt the government, but seemed to please the opposition. Those scandals were one after another exploded. The question of the Ross rifle had occupied many months of discussion in parliament and the Conservatives had condemned the rifle, yet now it was proved that it was the best weapon within the British Empire.

As regards the Robins irrigation matter, they had simply followed the plan laid down by the late Conservative government. The opposition had attacked it. Now, however, there came the city council of Medicine Hat to say that they approved of the scheme and the position taken by the government. Mr. McGrath was the Conservative candidate in Medicine Hat, which town was in the district concerned.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier briefly defended the Crow's Nest Pass deal, but spent most of his time discussing the limits question. He replied at length to H.
B. Ames, who lectured in Ottawa on Friday, and whose references to A. W.
Fraser, the former Liberal candidate, occupied considerable attention in the local newspapers to-day. Sir Wilfrid declared that, contrary to the opinion made, there had been an examination into the manner of disposing of timber limits. There was an investigation by the public accounts committee of the Conservative cabinet not say that there had been a scandal or corruption. They simply stated that, purely there had been a scandalous neglect of the public interest, and that the Conservative regime, land had been given away for no return whatever.

Suppose there had been neglect of the public interest, it was possible that there had been mistakes, for they were all liable to human weaknesses. In such a case, what was their duty? To correct the error, and to have the administration where there were weaknesses. This was what the Liberal government had done. The moment

THE PULPIT CONDEMNS DREDGE CONTRACT GRIFT

One of Dr. Pugsley's Posters Is Also Criticized by St. John Preacher.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Oct. 18.—(Special.)— Strong sermons were preached in several churches this evening denouncing the grift and corruption existing in the administration of public affairs, as indicated by recent exposures in connection with the dredging contracts in St. John harbor.

Rev. Dr. Flanders, pastor of Centenary Methodist Church, the largest in the maritime provinces, called upon the electorate of this constituency to show that they are against this sort of thing.
The preacher referred to the poster Dr.
Pugsley has had stuck up all over the city, saying, "St. John must be ready, and, with God's help and mine, it will be."

BARREL OPEN IN NORTH $25 OFFERED FOR VOTE

Libs. Said to Have a Campaign Fund—Attorney-General Promises Strict Law Enforcement

"I have heard that the barrel is open in Toronto, and that $25 has been offered for a vote in North Toronto against Mr. Foster. My advice to you is that you don't take less than $100, and then vote for Mr. Foster."

W. K. McNaught, M.L.A., addressed these words of shrewd counsel to a gathering which overflowed the accommodation of Douglas's Hall, Bloor and Bathurst-streets, Saturday night. Electors crowded the aisle and platform, and were packed close together in the corridor outside. Enthusiasm was always on tap, and there was a solitary hostile interruption during the speech. Mr. Foster, on arriving about 9.15 p.m., had difficulty in forcing the blockade, but with friendly assistance did so, and was given a great ovation.

Speaking of Mr. Shaw's profession of a keen sense of honor, Mr. McNaught said that the character of the campaign literature being circulated on his behalf showed that his committee was without the first instincts of honor. He said also that arrant hypocrisy was being shown in the distribution of a circular bearing a forgery of The News trademark.

The speaker wished Mr. Shaw to answer a number of questions asked to him, whether among other things, he approved of graft, encroachment on provincial rights, bribing of constituencies by public works, building of useless canals.

W. D. McPherson started out on his usual oratorical marathon, and finished fresh and strong in about fifteen minutes, during which time he drove home charges of government maladministration and highly commended Mr. Foster's usefulness.

Law Will Be Enforced. Hon. Mr. Poy delighted the audience by giving solemn warnings of severe punishment to be visited upon election crooks. Said he: "There is an administration in power in this province that will not stand for anything of that kind. Ballot-switching or peroration will find the strong arm of the law shall to the fullest extent bring the wrong-doers to justice. It is the duty of the poor man who hands out the money who will suffer alone. We will go further and find out where the money comes from, and the big men who pocket out the money, and these will be brought to justice, too."

Hon. Mr. Foster was cheered to the echo by the many of the audience leaping to their feet in enthusiasm, and waving hats and handkerchiefs.

The candidate showed mastery of the details of the Mayne Pursey charges, which he recited at length. A British minister against whom such charges were made would resign at once.

"We have enough knowledge to know that the system of rackets has been the general system of the government," said Mr. Foster, who was coming to remark about the government's promises of public works. He avowed a willingness to bet his bottom dollar that Mr. Armstrong's plan for the abort canal scheme in North York.

The speaker said that his fear as to the future of the C.P.R. was that it would ever had to be the greatest elephant it ever had to be. The C.P.R. charges were only $50 a mile, while the C.P.R.'s charges were only $50 a mile.

Conscience is clean. Mr. Foster said that printed matter being scattered about by his opponent's lieutenants contained statements absolutely untrue, and that he would ask Mr. Shaw at the nomination what he knew about them. As to the "reverend gentleman," he couldn't use a much harder word than that he had already used, and that word was on record until he had proved his case or made retraction. The speaker was on trial for the matter, and he had managed for five years the intracacies of a private business in their very midst. Whether he was dishonest or not had to be taken up in the election, but it must first be proved that he had been dishonest, and the proper way to make the charge was not behind doors or around street corners.

"Unless my own conscience told me I stood before my electors without stain, I couldn't in justice to myself, and still more in justice to my party, and still more in justice to my country, my candidature before you," he declared.

"Knowing what I do, I am not going to be robbed of my candidature, and I have little of the world's goods, but I have my candidature, and, by Jingo, I'll fight for it."

The meeting dispersed after cheers for the candidate.

DANGER THREATENS MUSEUM

Fate of First Public Institution of Its Kind in Ontario in Doubt.

On Oct. 23 the inhabitants of Berne will be called upon to decide the fate of the well-known old historical museum standing near the famous Zeitloekenturm and easily recognized by its noble and beautiful facade, it forms with this celebrated clock tower, a very interesting and quaint picture.

But modern life has entered into this picturesque part of the city. The ground on which this museum stands has been bought by the town with some other old buildings, which, however, were of no artistic value, and in their place the latter a handsome casino with lofty rooms and modern appointments has already risen. During the period of creation all the numerous lovers of antiquities raised a protest against the destruction of the old historical museum. They demand that the contract with the town should be altered and spare no effort to save this precious souvenir of olden times. Plans and estimates have been made after which the venerable and interesting former days would form a most delightful contrast to the modern surroundings. The plans have been passed on and the necessary credit has also been granted by the council of the burghers of Berne, but it is being a protracted one, and the question of the alteration of the contract has to be submitted to the people, viz. the inhabitants of the town, who will then decide the fate of the old historical museum by their voting.

Built by the architect, N. Sprungli in the years 1778-1775, the building formed the storied place of the museum and various curiosities and book-treasures, which up to that time were kept in the library. It was therefore the first public museum known in Europe. And now on Oct. 23, the question will be settled whether it has to remain in its present construction of former days, or whether it will have to fall a prey to the masons' hammers.

Induction To-Night. The Rev. S. De K. Swenman will be inducted into the rectorship of St. John's Church this evening at 8 o'clock.

GOLDEN RULE POLICEMEN. There are tricks in all trades, and the police business is no exception. Somehow, the admission the other day that the police of Toronto cannot even control the actions of a body of students acting riotously in broad daylight on the city's main thoroughfare has made people wonder what sort of system controls the movements of the department. The students' parade is an annual affair, but its lessons seem not to be remembered from year to year. It is the same in the direction of parades where the street railway is interfered with.

In Cleveland, Ohio, it is different. Chief Kohler seems to be a young man with some ideas of his own in police work. Cleveland's police control the streets, and there are no conflicts. They are doing more. They are now acting in a minor way as magistrates, for there is a "golden rule" regulation which demands that the patrolmen shall use their judgment and common sense in dealing with offences which are merely a violation of city ordinances and punishable by a small fine. The object is to dispose of trivial misdemeanors without arrest and prevent the humiliation and disgrace of persons who in a momentary lapse violate the law. As a result in eight months there has been a decrease of 65 per cent. in the number of arrests. A record is, however, kept of all persons released or warned.

In Toronto it is different. A policeman who does not show a number of arrests or cases in a certain time has to walk the carpet and explain. It doesn't matter that his beat has been free of disorder. Lack of arrests indicates a lapse of duty. And perhaps this is the reason why there are so many clashes between citizens and police that in the police court end in the dismissal of the persons accused.

It is not the policy of the police department to trust the people, and it is not given the policy of the superiors to trust their subordinates. In spite of the bundle of references as to good character, which an applicant for the constabulary must have, no sooner is he appointed than he is subjected to a system of espionage that would try the temper of a saint. He is spied upon night and day. He can't talk to a person on his beat without being prepared to be called upon to satisfy an officer that he hasn't been guilty of the crime of "gossiping"—a crime which is encouraged in United States departments for the information it brings to the police department. In short, the policeman is not even trusted to do his sworn duty, but it is expected that he must be compelled to do it, by detection of and penalties for remissness.

A "golden rule" in the workings, in and out of the Toronto police department might result, in the adoption of Chief Kohler's view, that "the best offenders against the law with the least show of authority and with the greatest sense of human justice."

AN INTERNATIONAL LABOR CONFERENCE. In the closing weeks of September a conference took place at Lucerne, Switzerland, of international labor. It was the regular biennial meeting of the International Association for labor legislation, an organization which is constantly at work thru its central office at Basle and its affiliated national sections. The association has been described as "the international laboratory in which treaties are prepared for the consideration of governments." Two years ago at the convention of Bern the first international labor treaty was signed by the official delegates and as a result over a dozen nations established a certain definite standard of regulation in specified branches of industry for the purpose of bringing the more backward countries up to the level of the more advanced in the matter of industrial regulation. The permanent office by working thru the national sections keeps continuously in touch with the industrial position and can thus lay a sound basis for the proposals that are ultimately made.

For the conference of this year many reports were prepared and among the subjects discussed were the advisability of an international treaty limiting the night work of young persons, industrial prisons, child labor, limitation of hours of labor and the problem of the home worker. The delegations attending were much larger in number than before, and curiously enough of the twelve national sections, Britain alone was without an official government representative. Most of the work, as formerly, was done in the various committees, and during the conference a pronouncement was made in favor of an eight-hour day for miners, further enquiry being required in the cases of metal works, iron and steel foundries and glass works. Another recommendation proposed that wages boards should be taken into consideration as a remedy for sweating.

Professor Oliver, president of the British section, announced that his government had introduced a bill prohibiting the manufacture and sale of matches made with white phosphorus, thus rendering possible the much desired adherence of Great Britain to the phosphorus treaty of Bern. Along the same line was the appointment of a special commission of three experts to examine and report upon the use of lead in the manufacture of china and earthenware. This was done by the committee that considered the question of industrial poisons, while another committee had in hand a treaty relating to accident insurance. The committee on child labor unanimously agreed to fix the school age at 14, and to recommend the prohibition of employment up to the fourteenth birthday without exception, save in agricultural work, where thirteen was suggested as the minimum age. Harmony and good-will are reported to have marked the whole of the debates, and the voluntary efforts of so many able and earnest men in all ranks of life to promote the welfare of the working masses is a striking sign of the times and full of promise for the twentieth century.

THE ARTFUL DODGER. How Rev. J. A. Macdonald practices the suggestive falsi and attacks by insinuation rather than by straight accusation may be gathered from an extract from The Globe report of Oct. 7. It will be observed in the passage about to be quoted, that Mr. Macdonald does not anywhere charge Mr. Foster with writing the alleged letters, concerning which he speaks: "Does Mr. Foster call it a 'lie' to say that his letters as manager of the Union Trust Company to the late Dr. Oronchaytelka and Supreme Secretary Mackgillivray (sic) of the Foresters, demanding more funds for speculation, were 'cold-blooded, stand-and-deliver letters'? How does one like this sound?" It will be observed that Mr. Macdonald does not state that the letter referred to is a genuine one, but merely asks hypothetically how such a letter would sound. After quoting the alleged letters, the speaker appears again to prevaricate by evading the making of any direct charge. "Now, sir," Mr. Macdonald is reported to have said, "would any man call it a 'lie'—to say that Mr. Foster wrote these letters? Not at all—would any man call it a 'lie' to describe such letters and his other demands for the trust funds of the Foresters 'cold-blooded, stand-and-deliver letters'?" "IF SUCH WAS HIS CORRESPONDENCE," Mr. Macdonald proceeds, again hypothetically and not for a moment stating that it was, "if he persecuted those two trusted officials of the great order of Foresters, appointed, were the words of Hon. Elliott G. Stevenson, when AS CURRENTLY REPORTED, he said, after reading Mr. Foster's letters: 'Is it any wonder one of those men is in his grave and the other an invalid for life?'"

Rev. Mr. Macdonald is reputed to be the most effective speaker in the Liberal ranks. When analyzed, the form and character of his assertions do not give them the stamp of straight-forwardness and candor. As the situation now stands, if this is not considered a fair criticism by Mr. Macdonald and his friends, it is up to Rev. J. A. Macdonald to produce the alleged letters.

THE CANADA SCOTSMAN. Toronto has just had an addition to the number of its periodicals in the shape of The Canada Scotsman, a semi-monthly journal devoted to the interests of Scottish life in Canada. It is an enterprise promoted by Mr. John Cowan, who, as its responsible editor, takes for his motto: "Not that we love Scotland less, but that we love the land of our adoption more." It is a good motto, and it embodies one of the leading characteristics that have enabled Scotsmen to win their way in every quarter of the globe, and nowhere more markedly than in our great Dominion. Names dear to the land of the mountain and the flood are found in all parts of Canada, and is really a second home-land for the Scot to a degree predictable of no other of the British states.

In his introductory editorial Mr. Cowan explains that the aim of The Canada Scotsman is to come into touch with the larger Scottish life in the Dominion. There are thousands to whom this object will appeal, and the new journal should certainly find a place for itself if its first promise is maintained. This initial number is attractive in appearance and still more in the quality of its contents. Interesting articles illustrative of Scotland and its people, a special letter on home events, contributed by Mr. Andrew Rae Duncan of Glasgow, which fully selected news, both from Scotland and concerning matters Scottish of Canadian happening, all combine to give The Canada Scotsman an excellent send off. The World commends it heartily to the attention of all halting from the land of cakes or born into its glamor and romance.

DULL MIND SAVES FORGER. Belleville Judge Takes Merciful View of Lad's Mental Status.

BELLEVILLE, Oct. 18.—(Special.)—Joseph Godfrey, the 17-year-old Bancroft boy, who was charged with passing two Doroche suspended sentence because he thought the lad was not mentally fit to be kept in custody, was found guilty and sentenced to a term of 18 months in the reformatory. The judge, however, in his mercy, took into consideration the lad's mental condition and reduced the term to 12 months.

POLITICAL INTELLIGENCE

The Beaverston Express, hitherto a Liberal paper, has come out strongly against a return of the Laurier government. It says in its last issue that "it is not a pleasure for one to break away from ideals and opinions formed by convictions of their value and truth, nor is it pleasant to have to acknowledge the confidence of years in persons or parties as misplaced. Such, however, is the position The Express is forced to assume towards the government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier."

The Express proceeds to say that it fought for years against the ministers of the Conservative party, and that its efforts "a new spirit of independent nationalism was induced which would not stand for falsehood either in Grit or Tory."

The Express assisted in the triumph of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and believed in his policy. "We believed," it says, "that we would honestly endeavor to put into practice, if given the opportunity, the propositions they had so vigorously championed on our behalf." "We have been waiting—patiently waiting to see these things carried into effect—but have been disappointed to see them dropped one by one from the party policy as either untenable or inconvenient. We felt that where the Liberal party has in many respects failed to its promises to the electors, and upon which promises it was placed in power in 1896, with the exception of the repeal of the Dominion franchise bill."

The Express continues: "The progressive policy of the Liberal party has evidently been abandoned, and its interests are now being sacrificed to interests other than those which tend to the welfare of the country. Hence we decline to find it further." "The Conservative party," it says, "we find a succession of progressive proposals—both economic and political, which, if carried out, would result largely to the benefit of the country." "That they will be so carried out if the Conservative party is in power, the past history of that party gives ample proof."

Sam Sharpe, the Conservative candidate in North Ontario against George D. Grant, ex-M.P., has a progressive platform, comprising these planks: (1) Abolition of the steel, iron and railway tariff where feasible; (2) protection of railway crossings at expense of telephone and telegraph system should be operated by government with postal, oil or timber lands to be sold, but at 10 per cent. of value; (3) abolition of the steel, iron and oil bounties; (4) no cash or land subsidies to railways, except in very special circumstances; (5) no special city council, except on constitutional questions; (6) no bonuses for immigration; (7) no coal, oil or timber lands to be sold, but administered for the public benefit; (8) Bell and other telephone companies should interchange traffic on reasonable terms; (9) no special city council; (10) similar to savings bank department; (11) lower duties on farm implements.

The Beaverston Express reports that at Wilfrid on Oct. 2 two boxes of ten-cent cigars were distributed at a meeting in the interests of George D. Grant. This would appear to be contrary to the Dominion Elections Act.

Sam Landers, Labor candidate in East Hamilton, was in the city on Saturday afternoon and addressed a meeting in the interests of J. G. O'Donoghue.

Asked by a World man what the outlook in East Hamilton was, he replied: "It is a little better, but it still looks gloomy. The Barker people are a little leary and are bringing their work out from the west riding, feeling that it is not safe to do so. or authority, is unfair, unjust and unprofessional, as well as inaccurate. "Nothing that has appeared in The Times from me in the campaign has any particular bias; on the contrary, I have endeavored to discharge my duty as Times' correspondent in an impartial manner, my aim being to present the views of both political parties fairly." "I am not in a position to prevent you from making ingenious interpretations of The Times' articles, but I am in a position, being fairly well known to the public and the press in Canada, to protest against the deductions you have drawn from articles and despatches in The Times which you do not reproduce and which I feel reasonably certain will not bear the meaning you have placed on them." CENTRE TORONTO PROSPECTS. How the Politicians Are Attracting Public Attention.

"Albert Hacker has certainly created a sensation this time," said Secretary W. J. O'Reilly of the Toronto Reform Association, "with the monster pictures on King-street and the corner of Yonge and Shuter-streets in which he has T. C. Robinette, the next member for Centre Toronto, smiling down with confidence of victory on the passers by who are going to elect him on Oct. 26."

"We have certainly been having a little campaign," continued Mr. O'Reilly, "and Mr. J. Hubbard, Hacker, has organized a campaign to command the attention and enlist the support of the electors of Centre Toronto, such as has never before been known in the political history of Toronto. In consequence the name or portrait of Mr. Robinette is to be seen everywhere."

A Chamberlain, president of the British Welcome League, says that he understands from conservative sources that Mr. Robinette's election is practically conceded.

The Liberal candidate in Centre Toronto, when spoken to respecting the prospects of the campaign on Saturday night, said: "I have just been to a meeting saying a word for my friend, the Liberal candidate in North Toronto. This is in addition to three meetings at which I had previously spoken to-day in Centre Toronto. I am absolutely confident of having a majority, and tomorrow I shall have a hard week's work picking up the odds and ends of the campaign work in Centre Toronto to make my mark on a grand jury in the issues of the election, and the opposition has failed to make its case good against the government. This is in the history of Toronto, and especially in Centre Toronto, an glad to say that the canvassers' reports, which have been carefully verified, assure me of a victory at the polls. I am now impressing upon the committees that they must concentrate their efforts to get out our full strength on election day."

H. S. CLEMENTS DROPS SUIT. CHATHAM, Ont., Oct. 18.—(Special.)—As in the opinion of the parties concerned, Magistrate M. Houston has no jurisdiction to try the case of alleged scandal brought by H. S. Clements, Conservative candidate for West Kent, against Dr. Oliver of Merlin, and as it is realized that enquiry into the matter complained of could result in no judgment by the magistrate, that in any case the binding on any of the parties, the complaint has been dismissed.

eration was that we, too, must have an original relation to the universe. The appeal to experience prevailed everywhere, and this was the distinct gift of modern science. Science was giving Christianity a new interpretation. He might call it a clumsy phrase, a biological interpretation. Henry Drummond's book on "Natural Law" might be placed beside the parables of Jesus, and was a companion to chapter xiii. of St. Luke. Science was so opening our eyes that the text of Christianity was clearer today than in the commentaries of the past. The truth was that Jesus was coming into His own at last. It was just as religious to discuss sanitation or forestry as to discuss the distinctions of the persons of the Trinity. Not more so, but just as much so, said the preacher. Science and Christianity were both setting themselves to a reconstruction of the social order, and both of them recognized that there was a divine order. Men were now looking to science for a scientific conception of the religious life.

The accepted maxim in modern Christianity in its attitude towards superstition and tradition was that what was true could be proved to be true. What could be shaken out of its way. The dominant note of the generation was that we, too, must have an original relation to the universe. The appeal to experience prevailed everywhere, and this was the distinct gift of modern science. Science was giving Christianity a new interpretation. He might call it a clumsy phrase, a biological interpretation. JEWISH FACTIONS RIOT IN SYNAGOGUE Opposition to Minority's Candidate For Presidency Leads to Bloodshed.

Iron pokers, claw-hammers, clubs and chairs were brought into free and indiscriminate use in a perceptible Donnybrook melee which occurred between two warring Jewish factions in the House of Jacob Synagogue last night.

Many heads were broken and several wounds are likely to be issued to-day for the arrest of certain offenders of "the ward" who are alleged to have entered the sanctuary with weapons in their hands, and then proceeded to assault or inflict bodily harm, or both.

Use Clubs and Pokers. According to an inmate of Rothstein's house, the Wilnerites brought in about a dozen outsiders armed with clubs and pokers. Their first onslaught dropped several of the Rothsteinites to the floor, and chairs being the handiest weapons of defence at hand, they were used. Before the police arrived they were all over. The heavy casualties on both sides took the gimp out of the survivors, and they expressed content to call the election off.

Scalp Cut, Ear Torn. M. Vaughan, 138 Chestnut-street, had his scalp cut and his ear torn by a knuckleduster; David Grinstein, 486 West Wellington-street, had his head cut with a chair and one of his ears partly torn off, while several others whose names could not be ascertained were cut about the head and face.

Were on the Verge. PARIS, Oct. 18.—Bulgaria has backed down, according to Nasser Pasha, the Turkish ambassador, and not only has the probability of war which appeared imminent last night been eliminated, but an understanding between Bulgaria and Turkey is in sight.

The ambassador to-day practically admitted that yesterday's three countries were on the verge of war, and explained that while his denial of the mobilization of the Turkish troops was literally true, it was not the case that mobilization had been previously ordered and then suspended.

To France largely belongs the honor of opening the door to peace, and it is believed that the Turkish cabinet will be summoned.

MANIAC IN WOODS SHOOTS AT TWO YOUTHS

One, a Son of Col. Patterson of Montreal, is Probably Fatally Wounded.

MONTREAL, Oct. 18.—(Special.)—Two young boys from Montreal were fired upon, and one of them seriously wounded, by an unknown man in the woods at Longueuil to-day.

Harold Patterson, aged 17, and Gordon West, aged 18, were shooting a mile east of Longueuil to-day, when a man, having the appearance of a maniac, approached them, and when within a few yards pulled a revolver and shot young Patterson in the back. He then turned his weapon upon West, shooting him in the hip, and then ran into the bushes.

Both boys were brought to the General Hospital, where little hope is entertained for Patterson. West was not seriously wounded. The dying boy is a son of Lieut.-Col. H. T. Patterson. It is thought the man must be insane.

YOUTH DROWNS. Arthur Henning, English, Upsets From a Gravel Canal. W. H. SHAW, Liberal Candidate For North Toronto.

PETERBORO, Oct. 18.—(Special.)—Arthur Henning, 18 years old, and an Englishman, was drowned in the river here at 5 o'clock to-day, the body being recovered three hours later in eight feet of water.

Henning, who was a farm laborer, and had been working in the country near here for the past three years, went out on the river in an eight-foot canvas canoe, in company with a well-known local character named Bill Bailey.

From some unknown cause the frail craft upset, and Henning sank to the bottom. Bailey reached shore in safety. There will be no inquest.

The "Wine of Barley"

Ale, the wine of barley, is said to have originally been made by the ancient Egyptians. It was the favorite beverage of the Anglo-Saxons and the Danes, and before their conversion to Christianity they believed that drinking it formed one of the chief felicities which those heroes enjoyed who were admitted into the hall of Odin, the great patron of bravery and culture.

Through all the ages ale has been used. The unconquerable Briton, the hardy, sturdy Anglo-Saxon and Dane—they all recognized its worth—the "wine of barley" was their favorite beverage.

To-day the same can be said. Ale—that is, pure ale—is the favorite beverage of the masses as well as the classes. It is wholesome, pleasing to the taste and, when brewed in the good old-fashioned way, as "East Kent" ale is brewed, it is "foaming deliciousness."

For three generations the Holiday family have been brewing "East Kent" ale in the quaint, little brewery, which is one of the best known landmarks in Guelph.

They brew it as it should be brewed—as it was brewed in "the good old days." They use water which flows icy cold from a deep, clear spring; they use the very choicest of malt and hops, and they bring to bear years of experience, with the result that "East Kent" ale is pronounced by those who are competent to judge to be the perfect ale—the Bass' ale of Canada.

In Toronto "East Kent" is bottled by T. H. George, 709 Yonge Street, and every household into which it has once been introduced invariably welcome it as an old friend.

Pinched Between Cars. John Cummings, 11 Blevins Place, narrowly escapes death on the rail.

John Cummings, 11 Blevins Place, was badly squeezed between two cars at the corner of Queen and Yonge-streets at 8:30 o'clock Saturday night. A Parliament car was facing east and a Queen-street car was facing west on the east side of Yonge. In some way Cummings got between them and had the breath squeezed out of him. He was taken to St. Michael's Hospital in the police ambulance, but was soon revived and sent to his home.

ELECTION NOTICES

The Humor of It.

Toronto has in the past seemingly taken a huge delight in being solidly against the government. A small boy doesn't mind getting "licked" in a fight if he can glory in a pair of black eyes. And the blacker they are the greater the glory—to his way of thinking.

There is a good deal of small boy about this "agin-the-government" idea. Just imagine a cabinet meeting at Ottawa. Around the table are the twelve or more men who control the destinies of Canada, and Toronto—the second city in the Dominion—hasn't a man there, hasn't even a man who is a friend of a man there.

The signs show that North Toronto sees this thing in the right light. A vote for Shaw puts you in the class who can laugh at others instead of having the laugh on you. A vote for Shaw gives you a victory to crow over—not a black eye.

THE REAL ISSUE is the endorsement or the condemnation of a government steeped in corruption and convicted of incapacity.

He was impressing on the congregation the need of extending a warm welcome to strangers, and he told of having on two Sundays observed a woman come to Elm-street Church after the service and beg and leave before it was ended. Shoes for Men, Women and Children on Sale Tuesday

ANOTHER SURPRISE IN SHOES

THE rush for half-price shoes two weeks ago was a revelation, even to ourselves. A thousand pair was sold in a few hours and a thousand men have been talking about it ever since. Is it any wonder we wanted more "specials" of the same sort and took pains to get more? The shoe buyer made a quick trip to many of the best known factories and "clenred up" all the surplus stocks he could find at a bargain, with the distinct purpose of giving customers the benefit. He bought exactly 8311 pairs. Four different purchases—in a wide range of sizes and styles for men, women and children. Many of them are sample lines, made extra fine and good for show purposes, while others represent odd lines and broken assortments that always come with big business. The particular fact is that styles are all new and qualities high-grade, including many well known makes seldom offered at a reduction. We share our surprising good fortune with you, with the reminder that these are extraordinary values, and under no circumstances will they last long. Commencing to-morrow morning we start

ARMY HONORED ITS DEAD AND WELCOMED LIVING

Salvationists Held Impressive Services in Massey Hall Afternoon and Evening.

The Salvation Army held two notable services in Massey Hall yesterday, one in the afternoon being dedicated to active members who have passed away during the year, and a public welcome being extended to Commissioner Howard and Mrs. Howard, London, Eng., and other visitors, including Brigadier Roberts and Major and Mrs. Platt, London, Eng., and Col. Bramble and Capt. Cook, New York. The music of the Salvation Army rendered inspiring music on both occasions, and the audiences were large. The platform was tastefully decorated with palms. The afternoon service, which was conducted by Commissioner Howard and Commissioner Coombs of Toronto, introduced effective choruses by a white-robed choir of female voices. Commissioner Howard, who is the Army's foreign secretary, spoke eloquently of its work in Great Britain. The memorial address by Commissioner Coombs was of the platform there blazed forth in staccato production on canvas of the departing messages of "promoted comrades." "The Dead March" was given with striking effect by the massed bands.

while a steady beam of light made clear the message on canvas above the platform, "Welcome to Commissioner and Mrs. Howard and visiting officers." The ceremony of dedicating the other visiting officers to special service in different parts of Canada was conducted by Commissioner Howard. The commissioner leaves for home to-morrow, and a procession to the train in his honor will take place this afternoon. It was announced that the Army has secured Massey Hall for Sunday evenings for the next six months.
