

SIX EXECUTED IN MOUNT JOY PRISON

Convicted of Killing Members of British Forces

Twenty Thousand People Gathered During Hours of Execution, Praying for the Condemned—All Work in Dublin Stopped.

Dublin, March 14—Six prisoners convicted of complicity with the murder of British intelligence officers and members of the crown forces in Ireland were executed in Mount Joy prison, this city, today.

Some 20,000 people gathered outside the prison during the hour the executions were going on, and all work in the city stopped until 11 o'clock.

Not since the executions following the 1916 uprising, with the possible exception of the hanging of Kevin Barry, in November last for an attack on a military escort, have the Sinn Fein sympathizers been more profoundly stirred.

Although six o'clock had been fixed for the execution of the first pair, it was not until 8:30 that the crowd knew the fate of the prisoners.

At that time the following notice was posted outside the jail gates: "The sentence of the law passed on Thom Whelan and Patrick Moran, found guilty of murder, and on Thomas Bryan, Patrick Doyle, Frank Flood and Bernard Ryan, found guilty of high treason in leaving war, has been carried into effect."

No hint reached the watching multitude of the grim proceedings going on in a distant wing of the big prison, but hourly, beginning at six o'clock, the rosary was recited. But for a number of reverent voices and the occasional sob of a woman, profound silence was maintained.

Soon after posting of the notice that the execution had been carried out, the vast gathering dispersed silently, many later attending the funeral of Patrick Doyle's twin baby, Mrs. Doyle, with the other twin in her arm, visited her husband yesterday to say good-bye.

Mr. Bryan, who was executed suddenly, left before her husband's sentence was confirmed, was not told until yesterday that he was to be executed.

She was conveyed to the prison on Sunday afternoon for a farewell visit. Her church was crowded at mass celebrated after the executions for the repose of the six men's souls.

The atmosphere of the city is one of anxiety and expectations of fearful developments to follow the hangings. Except for a few lorry loads of coal, the street with rifles at the ready, there was a conspicuous absence of crowd forces in the streets today and not a shot was fired.

The crowd began assembling in front of the prison at dawn and by six o'clock the prison yards were packed. An hour later the crowd had filled the roadway leading to the prison and all the streets near the prison doors, and on the walls and trees in the prison yards were placed images and pictures.

Everywhere candles were burning, scores of persons in the heart of the dense throng holding them aloft through out the long vigil. Here and there priests or women led in prayers or hymns in which everyone joined earnestly.

Hundreds kneeling in the roadway were obliged to rise when an armored car forced its way through. From five o'clock this morning it had paraded up and down in front of the prison. On the roof of the jail, overlooking the entrance, a cast iron sentry box had been erected overnight, and from it a soldier kept careful watch on the crowd.

Two of the men executed, Patrick Moran and Thomas Whelan, were found guilty of complicity in the killing of intelligence officers in Dublin on Nov. 21. The other four, Frank Flood, Bernard Ryan, Thomas Bryan and Patrick Doyle, were convicted of participation in an ambush near here in January, in which one member of the attacking party was killed.

Relief Proposed. London, March 14—A delegation representing the American committee for relief in Ireland stated last night that it had called on General Sir Nevill Macready, military commander, and the Castle authorities, informing them that they had decided upon recommending the reconstruction of destroyed premises and office buildings in order to re-establish industries and give employment to those made idle.

The delegation said further that it had suggested that a body of Irish business men and engineers undertake the work in conjunction with a similar body from the United States.

It recommended that a campaign be inaugurated for $30,000,000, which should not be sent to Ireland as an outright gift but be advanced as a loan under proper security.

The statement did not indicate whether General Macready or the Castle officials had approved the plan.

RUSSIAN REPORTS. Copenhagen, March 14—Advices from Helsinki today state that Krasnyaya Gorka, has been recaptured from the Russian revolutionaries by Soviet troops and the garrison now consists of a cadet corps.

Advices say that Leon Trotsky, Soviet war minister, has ordered big howitzers to Oranienbaum on the Gulf of Finland, opposite Kronstadt, after executing the chief officer of the flying station, M. Kolosov, and forty-four other revolts.

The Moscow rising is reported to have been quelled after severe street fighting. Conditions in Kronstadt are said to be serious owing to the lack of food. Because of the large civilian population, which includes 700 children, the garrison's rations are extremely scanty.

British Naval Estimates On 'One Power Standard'

London, March 14—The British naval estimates for 1921-22 amount to £91,186,667 sterling gross, and £82,479,000 net, so it was announced by Lord Lee of Fareham, first lord of the admiralty today.

In a statement explaining the estimates, Lord Lee said they were based on the government's policy of maintaining a "one-power standard."

Lord Lee pointed out that the estimates included a reduction in the number of capital ships, in full commission, from twenty to sixteen, compared with thirty-eight in 1914. "This is the smallest number that will enable the essential sea-going technical training of officers and men to be carried out properly," said the statement.

DEFENCE OF ST. PIERRE GOES ON THREE HOMERS FOR BABE RUTH

One Witness on the Stand This Morning

Companion of Girls Who Testified on Saturday—Much Stress Being Laid on What the Clock Said.

(Special to The Times). Edmundston, N. B., March 14—The second week of the St. Pierre murder trial being held here was opened this morning with the placing of Frank Carter on the stand by the defence.

The witness, who is twenty years old and employed at the Transcontinental Hotel, said he was with the first two witnesses for the defence when they met St. Pierre on the night of the murder.

He said they left the house between 9 and 9:30. It was a little after nine, he said, that he saw St. Pierre in the street.

He said he first saw St. Pierre near Michael's fence, and met him in front of Joe Sedro's house. The girls passed first. He asked St. Pierre if he danced and he said yes.

He said Max was there and he passed on his right (changed it to left). He did not see anything on his face.

They met Madame Saclere and Willie Pearson in front of Dr. Heber's house, turned down Canada street, met the five that the others had named in front of the police office.

On cross-examination he said it was the two Misses Leblanc and another in front of the police office. The girl who was wearing a green dress, generally showed at 9. He had got into a car when the train was late. He and the two girls went on Vancouver's drug store.

The new Harry Delaney but did not mention. Met nobody from the post office when time the clock showed. He was in the house about forty-five minutes; he had never spoken about it. He swore positively that he had not thought about the time until last Saturday.

He looked at the clock before leaving the house. He could not swear it was not ten minutes to nine. He could not remember what time the clock showed. He was in the house about forty-five minutes; he had never spoken about it. He swore positively that he had not thought about the time until last Saturday.

IS AN ELECTION COMING SOON? Standard Quotes Senator Thorne as Saying Government May Go to the Country 'Within a Few Months'

According to a Standard interview with Senator Thorne, a Dominion general election is to be expected "within a few months." The Standard prints the following:

"Mr. Wignome has made a very grievous mistake; if he had consulted his political friends he would never have got into this position." Such is the view of Senator Thorne of this city, who arrived home on Saturday from his senatorial duties at Ottawa.

"Believing, as I do," he continued, "that party government is in the best interests of the people of Canada, and that one should not sacrifice one's party's interests because of any feeling that exists against the present government, I should do nothing to play into the hands of our political enemies. The matter is entirely local and does not affect the province, because, no doubt, we will have a general election within a few months. Individual interests under the present government are not to be considered, but what is in the best interests of the party in New Brunswick and its principles in the whole of the Dominion."

Senator Thorne is a firm believer in the old two-party system for Canada. The best interests of all, he is satisfied, are not served by legislatures, either federal or provincial, in which there are groups or class parties. A return to the Conservative and Liberal camps as of old would give better results than the present situation with its various classes of membership he is confident.

He is confident that the present government is not serving the best interests of the people of Canada, and that a general election is inevitable.

BAR "PUSSYFOOT" FROM THE ARMORIES IN WINDSOR, ONT.

Canadian or English Speakers Welcome, But Not "Foreign Agitators."

Windsor, Ont., March 14—"Pussyfoot" Johnson, prohibition speaker, will not be permitted to make a speech on April 14, in the Windsor armories.

Lieut.-Col. S. C. Robinson of the 21st Regiment, who must authorize all permits for the use of the armories here, has informed the referendum committee, under whose auspices Mr. Johnson was to speak, that he will not give a permit.

"The referendum committee is welcome to use the armory for meetings, as it has in the past, but I will not countenance bringing foreign agitators from the United States to Canada," said Lieut.-Col. Robinson. "We have trouble enough without them. England did not want Johnson, and Canada does not want him. Canadian or English speakers will be welcome."

Police Checked Disorder in Anti-Jewish Demonstration—Trouble Started at Congress of Anti-Semitic Association.

Vienna, Mar. 14—Anti-Jewish disorders which broke out here last night threatened for a time to develop into a serious situation, but the police late in the evening succeeded in scattering crowds in the streets and in preventing loss of life.

The disorder began at a congress of the Austrian anti-Semitic Association, which has been in session here for several days. During a sitting late yesterday, the congress, which is being attended by delegates from sixty-two chapters of the organization in Austria, and a few representatives of Bavarian and Hungarian anti-Jewish societies, were addressed by speakers who urged radical measures. They advocated pogroms, and the organization of Christians in Austria.

While this meeting was going on, large crowds assembled in the Rathaus Square, where similar addresses were given, speakers declaring that the Jews constituted a menace because of profligate living. Two Jewish students were found in a crowd, and were beaten and driven away.

At dusk the meeting broke up and a great crowd swept through the streets, singing German songs and shouting "Away with the Jews!" Now and then a tinkle of glass tinsels being thrown through a window. The crowd moved steadily toward a Jewish quarter of the city, but large forces of police had been summoned to bridges across the canal, over which the crowds must move to reach the Ghetto of Vienna. The rioters were turned back, but there was more or less rowdyism and street fighting before the police succeeded in dispersing the mob.

Police and Students In Montreal Fight

Montreal, March 14—The bon entente which has existed between the French-Canadian students and the police was broken off Saturday evening when about 200 of the former engaged a squad of police at the corner of St. Catherine and St. Denis streets. The students who were on their way to a theatre stopped a street car, and invited it to leave the car, and invited it to leave the car.

When the sergeant seized one of the students and hit him in the face, the battle was on. Clinging to his captive, the sergeant fought his way out of the crowd, followed by an

AVOID THE WASTE

And the wear and tear caused by undigested food that exhausts your digestive organs, does not nourish your blood, and weakens instead of giving strength.

Take Hood's Pills for a gentle laxative (small dose) or an active cathartic (large dose).

OFFERS HIS SEAT TO BEATEN MINISTER

Coalition in England Not Yet Decided on Course as to Taunton Suggestion.

London, March 14.—(Canadian Associated Press)—Colonel Dennis Boles has offered to resign as member of parliament for the division of Taunton in order to give Sir Arthur Griffiths Boswell, recently appointed minister of agriculture, who lost the by-election in Dudley, another opportunity to find a seat.

The coalition caucus has not yet, however, accepted the proposition of trying to elect the new minister in Taunton. Jas. Lunnion, organizing secretary of the Agricultural Workers' Union, has already been selected to contest Taunton under the banner of the Labor party, and if the new minister opposed him the embargo on Canadian cattle again will be a big issue in the contest.

In the last election in Taunton, Col. Boles polled 12,919 votes and Rev. G. Woods, Labor, 4,816.

NO INQUEST INTO MR. GLYNN'S DEATH

Mr. Ross of C. N. R. Holds Inquiry

Now Thought Coachman Left Train at Coldbrook and Fell From Near Trestle While Walking Track Home.

In an effort to clear up the mystery surrounding the serious injury and subsequent death of John Glynn, a well-known coachman, L. R. Ross, terminal agent of the C. N. R., held an inquiry this morning.

William McGourty, yardmaster of the C. N. R., and James Ryan, special agent of the C. N. R., told what they know. Conductor Gillespie was in charge of the train going out Friday night, and he is not due back here until tomorrow.

It is presumed that Mr. Glynn stopped to talk to someone and while doing so the train started. Being familiar with the track, it is felt that he would not make a rash jump off but wait until the train stopped at Coldbrook. It is thought that he was walking on the trestle when he fell over into the creek. On the western side of the creek a short distance from the trestle, there was a considerable ice and a part of it was broken, indicating that he might have struck the ice, which he would not have seen.

Coroner Horace Porter held an investigation this morning, and after considering the evidence elicited by Mr. Ross, decided that an inquest was not necessary. The inquest is expected to be held on Wednesday.

Three sons, Frederick, John and Raymond; seven daughters, Kathleen, Clara, Josephine, Gertrude, Geraldine and Irene, all at home. Besides these, he leaves one brother, William Glynn, and one sister, Mrs. Mary A. Allen, both of this city. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock from his late residence to the Cathedral for requiem high mass.

SAYS INDIAN WAS BURIED ALIVE

Heard Smallpox Victim Kicking in Coffin but Feared Health Officers if They Opened It.

Bedding, March 14.—Charges that Wm. Taylor, an Indian afflicted with smallpox, was buried alive at Hat Creek, two weeks ago, have been presented to the district attorney for investigation.

The allegation was made by Chief Samson of the Hat Creek Indians, who said that he received information from his daughter, Mrs. Lela Rhodes.

Mrs. Rhodes, who is vowed for her father that two Indians buried Taylor after night. Before they took the coffin to the grave, the letter said, they heard Taylor kicking, but were afraid to open the box, fearing the wrath of the health officers.

SOME LOSSES IN WALL STREET. New York, March 14.—(10:30)—The week opened on the stock exchange with prices variously changed. Heavy speculative selling soon began, however, which forced some important issues to a parity with last week's lowest figures.

Presure was most pronounced against the oil, steel, railroads, Baldwin and Sears Roebuck. Mexican Petroleum dropped 33-4, Pan-American 21-4 and General Asphalt 1 point. Crucible fell 1-2, Atlantic Gulf, Central Leather, American Smelting and Ray Copper 1-2 to 8-4. Chesapeake and Ohio, and Baltimore and Ohio 1-2 to 8-4.

Chicago, Northwestern referred opened the oil, steel, railroads, Baldwin and Utah Copper and Norfolk and Western 1-2, and American Can, American Smelting and Ray Copper 1-2 to 8-4. These gains were shaded when the weakness elsewhere became acute.

Noon Reports. Oils rallied during the morning on reassuring advices. Mexican Petroleum recouping two and a half points and Pan American two points. The rebound was further sustained by short covering in Atlantic Gulf, Central Leather, American Tobacco, Strohbecker and specialties, notably Strohbecker Carburetor and Farmus Players, common and preferred. These issues rose a point or more over last Saturday's final prices.

Rails were dull, but stood for the most part, although reports submitted over the week-end disclosed further reductions of tonnage and earnings. Conditions in the money market were unaltered, call loans opening at seven per cent. and exchange on London were firm.

Entries for the eight early closing races of the Cleveland Grand Circuit were made public this week. One hundred and twenty-eight horses have been named, the Ohio purse of $5,000 for 2:08 trotters having thirty-two entries, the Tavern "steak" for 2:14 trotters thirty-one entries, the Edwards for 2:08 pacers seven entries, the Pasig for three-year-old trotters thirty entries, the 2:06 trotting race eleven entries, and the free-for-all race seven entries.

The body of little Lily Manning, who fell into a Montreal power, had not been found up to last night.

AT OTTAWA.

That usually excellent journal, the Kingston Standard, says that as the Meighen government has the confidence of the House of Commons it therefore has the confidence of the country. It doesn't follow. If the House of Commons has the confidence of the country, which it has not, the Kingston Journal's logic would be better. If the members of the House had recently received a mandate from their constituents, it would be of confidence in Mr. Meighen and his cabinet would be quite another matter. The Union government had a majority of seventy-one. Mr. Meighen had twenty-five. By-elections usually favor the administration. In the case of the present government the reverse has been the case. The Toronto Globe, in a deadly analysis of the by-elections, shows how little confidence the country has in the Meighen administration and how far the present House of Commons falls short of representing the public opinion of the day. It says:—

"The people have not been allowed to express their opinion in a general election, but so far as they could do so in by-elections they have voted want of confidence in the government in the plainest possible way. Out of thirteen by-elections held since the general election of 1917 they have lost seven, held six and gained none. Applying the same proportion to a general election they would lose more than half the constituencies they now hold, and be placed in a helpless minority. But, it may be asked, are these by-elections a fair test of the general public opinion of Canada? In one respect they are not, and this only strengthens the argument against the government. Nearly all the seats which they retained are constituencies chosen by themselves as being safe. But where the vacancy occurred through causes over which the government had no control the government met with disaster. Particularly was this the case in Ontario, a former stronghold of Conservatism. In Timiskaming a general election candidate in 1917 polled 7,025 votes in a total of 11,893. In the by-election the Conservative candidate polled 2,996 votes in a total of 12,203, and was at the foot of the poll. In West Petcher the government candidate polled 6,892 votes out of 9,846 in the general election, and only 2,697 out of 12,900 in the by-election—the real figures are unflattering, but approximately correct. In East Elgin the vote for the government candidate in 1917 was 4,874; in the by-election it was only 2,850, although the number of persons voting was increased by nearly a thousand. They lost also Glangarry and Ontario North. When such things happen in a province where the Union government carried all but a handful of seats, as the Conservatives did also in 1911, in spite of the immense prestige of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the by-elections point not merely to a defeat but to a rout."

The government's majority in the House of Commons today, the Globe adds, "is composed largely of persons who are afraid to vote against the government because they know that if a general election were brought about by their votes they would have no more chance of election than if they presented themselves as candidates for the new Legislature of Ulster."

GOING TO LONDON.

Some of these newspaper fellows do get on. Mr. Harding used to be a newspaper man, and now he is going to make Colonel George Harvey Ambassador to Great Britain. Colonel Harvey, before he got rich, was for a while managing editor of the New York World. He was not a Colonel then. He took that lower rank later on, and not as a result of experience on the unenviable field of battle. He was a sort of Democrat once, but he found Woodrow Wilson not willing to accept the Harvey ideas, and so became a Republican.

He goes to London to fill a post occupied in the past by many distinguished Americans. Joseph H. Choate among them, and if he is guided by the example of most of his predecessors he will be an advocate of Anglo-American good will. He succeeds Ambassador Davis, who has worked hard and steadily for harmony and co-operation. Just before he left London, Mr. Davis told the Pilgrims' Society Britain and the United States would always settle their disputes amicably. He said:—

"What legitimate aim has Great Britain that United States co-operation will not be prompt to assist? What lawful end does the United States contemplate which British support will not help us to attain? . . . The British Empire and the United States are rather large vessels and neither can hope to manoeuvre without taking account of the other's whereabouts. They may have to take time sometimes to watch each other's wake, but God pity the statesman of either who brings them into collision if ever his passengers and crew set their hands on him! It is not in open disputes that the danger lies. There are enemies who would undermine us, if they could, the foundations of our friendship. They fight only in the dark and the sunlight is our best weapon against them."

If Colonel Harvey is guided by the spirit shown in the words of Mr. Davis, he will do much to strengthen friendship among the English-speaking peoples, in which friendship lies the world's best hope for lasting peace, justice and security. The enemies who fight in the dark, the men who would serve their hatred of Britain by seeking to promote a war which would be the supreme crime of all the centuries, are a small but poisonous minority in the United States and in the United Kingdom. To expose them and bring them into contempt is the duty of all good citizens, British or American.

Senator Thorne is quoted by The Standard this morning as saying that there should be a convention of New Brunswick Conservatives as early as a date as possible for organization, "because, no doubt, we will have a general election within a few months." Senator Thorne says in the interview that Mr. Wigmore made a very grave mistake in regard to the recent senatorial appointment, but that there is nothing that the people of New Brunswick or the Senate can now do "that will rectify the wrong that has been done." The Standard calls upon the Conservative party to hold a convention and organize "for the general election that must come in the not distant future." Liberals should be interested in these indications that an election is expected in government circles, evidently during the summer.

"Conservative candidates in this province are not going to be elected by acclamation," says The Standard, "and it would be as well for their supporters not to forget this fact." They certainly will not be elected by acclamation; and while The Standard professes anxiety about party prospects now, it is just as well to recall that it has said repeatedly of late that Mr. Wigmore and Premier Meighen have destroyed whatever chances of success their party might otherwise have had in this province. Nothing has yet happened to change the hopeless situation which The Standard exposed only a few days ago. Mr. Wigmore has neither explained satisfactorily nor resigned. Is he going to do either? ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦

Speaking of present day atrocities, the Manitoba Free Press says:—"Lord Beaverbrook is threatened with expulsion from the Carlton club in London as a result of his opposition to the minister of agriculture at the recent by-election. Is there no limit to the savagery of reprisals in Europe?" ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦

The Maritime Provinces have had a tragic winter and spring. Between suicides, suspected murders, fatal accidents and other serious affairs the record is an uncommonly shocking one for this law-abiding territory. ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦

VETERAN OF WHITE STAR RETIRES

Capt. M. Smith of Halifax, Has Had 43 Years of Continuous Service.

New York, March 14.—(Canadian Press).—Captain M. Smith, port captain at New York for the White Star Line, a native of Halifax, N. S., will retire this week after forty-three years of continuous service for the line, afloat and ashore. His last official act for the line will be to dispatch the Olympic on March 19 for Cherbourg and Southampton.

Captain Smith was born in 1850, the son of an officer in the British army. He began his sea service in 1868, and served his apprenticeship on sailing ships engaged in the East Indian and Cape Horn trades.

In 1878 he was appointed fourth officer of the White Star liner Britannic, on the Liverpool-New York run. He has commanded the Arabie, Faure, Teutonic and Majestic at various times, and also also served on the Pacific. In 1899 he was appointed marine superintendent at New York of the White Star Line.

GREAT LOT OF GRAIN AWAITING WATER CARRIAGE

Port Arthur, Ont., March 14.—There are said to be more than 85,000 cars of grain on the C. P. R. and C. N. R. between Winnipeg and the elevators of Port Arthur and Port William. All but three elevators in the two ports are closed, not to re-open until their bursting bins can be relieved at the opening of navigation.

Newfoundland Elections.

St. Johns, Nfld., March 14.—Elections for two members of the Newfoundland legislature for the district of Harbour Main were held on Saturday. It is expected that the results will be known to-day.

TEARS.

When I consider life and its few years—
A wisp of fog between us and the sun;
A call to battle, and the battle done;
Ere the last echo dies within our ears;
A rose chucked in the grass; an hour of tears;
The gusts that past a darkening shore do beat;
The burst of music down an unlistened-by street;
I wonder at the idleness of tears.
Ye old dead, and ye of yesterday,
Coffinmen, and barbers, and keepers of the sheep,
By every cup of sorrow that you had,
Loose me from tears, and make me see aright.
How each hath back what once he stayed—
Homer's sight, David his little lad!
—Lizette Woodworth Reese.

LIGHTER VEIN.

This earth is frequently designated as "she" because no man knows the age thereof.
Many an octogenarian can attribute his longevity to the fact that he never called a man a liar.

Practical Kindness.

Fond Mother—And so my little angel joined the Little Defenders today, and will always be kind to dumb animals!
Little Angel—Yes, ma. Conin' home I met a man with a bag full of kittens he was goin' to drown, and he promised to bring them here for us to be kind to.

The Result.

"Say, I was fool enough to tell that dentist that you sent me to him, 'But the paper said Sunday.'" "Oh, not much! He just made me pay cash in advance."

Usual!

The other morning Mrs. Blank was talking to her husband. "I noticed in the Daily Hoodoo that Mr. Bilkins died on Sunday." "It's a mistake, my dear," replied the husband; "he died on Monday." "I know it, but it was an error in the print." "I thought so, too, at first, but I got a half-dozen copies of the paper, and it was the same in all of them. They certainly couldn't have made the same mistake over and over again."

Rattles Him, Too.

"The average lawyer fills me with admiration." "In what way?" "On account of the confident way he examines a man who subject he has barely heard of, when the man has made it a life study."—Minneapolis Journal.

Interrupted.

"Here is a letter it would hardly do for us to publish," said the patent-medicine quack. "A man writes 'I have just taken the first bottle of your medicine.'"

Reflector of Scottish Glory.

All Scotsmen take pride in their native land, but none more than an old gardener. "A man writes 'I have just taken the first bottle of your medicine.'"

INCREASING USE OF AIR SERVICE IN OLD LAND

New York, March 14.—Official statistics of the British air ministry show that arrivals and departures of aircraft in the British-continent air service totalled 4,133 in the sixteen months from the inception of the service on August 26, 1919, to the end of 1920. Detailed figures received by the Bankers' Trust Company, of New York, from its English information service, indicate that 4,821 arrivals and departures were of British machines, 721 were French, 104 Belgian and seven of other nationalities. The air traffic in the last quarter of 1920 exceeded that of the preceding half year. In the last quarter of 1920, there were 812 arrivals and departures compared with 734 in the previous six months. This service was principally with Paris. The value of imports and exports by air during 1920 was $1,016,153.

According to air ministry returns, British aircraft engaged in all branches of civil aviation had flown 1,356,000 miles, up to December 31, 1920, and had carried 106,712 passengers.

COW HAS TRIPLETS.

Nova Scotia Agricultural Crops Are Excited.
Springhill, N. S., March 14.—A Durham of few will be good family tree, belonging to Rupert S. Boss, dairyman and milk dealer of Rodney, has given birth to triplets, and agricultural circles in this neighborhood are quite excited over the event. All three calves are doing well and the experts are of opinion that they will live to a ripe old age. Mr. Boss intends to rear the calves for breeding purposes this year.

James R. Black, aged sixty-five, of St. Martins, was found by his wife on Friday night with his throat cut. He died before medical aid could reach him and the coroner's jury rendered a verdict of suicide while temporarily insane. He has been in failing health for the last several months ago.

COME PROBLEMS OF EMIGRATION

Report of Overseas Settlement Committee Published by the British Government.

London, Feb. 29.—(By Mail).—The shortage of house servants in Canada is pronounced as a national danger in a report of the Overseas Settlement committee, which has just been published as a white (parliamentary) paper. The committee thinks the servant situation in Canada quite as bad as in Australia and New Zealand, where the birth rate is affected by the lack of women. Dealing with the question of emigration generally, the committee, after stating that it learns with satisfaction that His Majesty's government has decided to hold in the immediate future a conference with the dominion governments principally concerned on the possibility of initiating a policy of state aided settlement within the empire, proceeds to review the shipping situation. It remarks that complaints as to accommodation for third-class passengers on ocean liners are more numerous than before the war.

Dealing with overseas settlement, the report remarks that the fact that numerous ex-service men in Great Britain are unemployed justifies the adoption of special measures for their relief. It observes, however, that it is clearly impossible for the self-governing dominions to receive the unemployed of the mother country, even if they are ex-service men who have fought for the empire, except in cases where these governments are satisfied that the men will find suitable work. The government scheme for the grant of free passages has worked well, and the government has decided to extend it for another year. Though five or six men have returned to this country disappointed, and some of them letters have been received from emigrants who have failed to find employment, such letters are few. Some of the letters from overseas ask for further assistance in the shape of loans or grants, but the report states that it is believed that the majority of these applicants will be able to settle successfully without help. It is felt, however, that some assistance should be afforded the applicants. Hitherto this assistance was possible from the National Relief Fund, but this fund is approaching exhaustion.

The committee adheres to the view expressed last year, that there are special reasons for granting state aid for the settlement of women overseas. A well organized system of juvenile settlement exists in Canada, and a similar system is to be introduced in Australia. Western Australia is negotiating for the settlement of boys from Dr. Barnardo's Homes.

A policy of empire settlement, it is pointed out, cannot be successful unless it serves the needs of the empire as a whole, and develops the overseas dominions by introducing into them settlers British by birth and tradition. There is a tendency in some quarters of this country to ignore the fact that the reports, unless they are carefully selected, are not likely to succeed, and to view the question of emigration as a means of relieving unemployment or distress, and not as a means of building up the British overseas. On the other hand there is a tendency to regard the subject too much in terms of the object of meeting local requirements.

The committee believes that unless these emigrants meet with a cordial reception from the people among whom they are sent, and a similar system of settlement upon land should be effected under an organized system of groups.

The committee draws attention to the risks of unemployment and destitution to which British subjects are liable in South America.

RECALLS HALIFAX DISASTER

Halifax, N. S., March 14.—A distant echo of the thunderous explosion that resulted in the deaths of hundreds of people and laid a part of Halifax in ruins in December, 1917, is the announcement that the name of the Belgian Relief boat that collided with the French munition ship Mont Blanc, and this immediately contributed to the disaster, has been changed from Ino to Governore. She has several aliases, she was the Runic while she sailed for twenty-four years under the White Star flag. Later she was the Tampacan.

Rev. H. A. Cody returned yesterday from Montreal where he attended the first convention of Canadian authors and where he was elected one of the vice-presidents. He said it was emphasized by Sir Arthur Currie that Canadian literature found its greatest gem alike in English and French and it was particularly fitting that Montreal should have been chosen as the place of meeting since there the French and English-speaking Canadians were equally at home.

BABY FOUND DEAD IN HIS FATHER'S ARMS

Infant Victim of Diphtheria When Parents Were Returning to Russia.

(Montreal Gazette.)
The return to his country of a Russian and his family was saddened yesterday by the death from diphtheria of the two-year-old son of Basia Schwenlowich in his arms as he was taking him to the Children's Memorial Hospital. The child, who was slightly ill when the family left Detroit en route to Halifax to sail for Europe, became so ill on the way to Montreal that on advice of a doctor at a station near Montreal it was decided to take him to a hospital. The child died in the ambulance. The body was buried yesterday afternoon after an inquest had been held by Coroner McMahon, and the father and mother of the child were referred to the health authorities, who saw that they were properly disinfected before continuing on their trip. According to the evidence given to Coroner McMahon by the father yesterday, he was returning to Russia from Detroit with his family. When Schwenlowich, with his wife and child, left Detroit, the baby was slightly ill, but a doctor said the child was suffering from a cold and the trip could be undertaken. On the way, however, the boy became worse and at a station near Montreal, which he could not remember, the agent in charge of the party summoned a doctor, who advised the removal of the child to the hospital on arrival at Montreal. It was arranged to have an ambulance at the station and the father and child started for the hospital. On arrival there the baby was found dead in the father's arms. It was discovered that he had died from diphtheria and the morgue authorities were notified. The health authorities were communicated with and took the father and mother in charge. After all precautions had been

Miss Brayden was well known, and her bright, cheery disposition and many kindly acts endeared her to all those who knew her. John E. Dean passed away in Montreal yesterday. He was born in Lorneville and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dean. For a number of years he taught school in Millisville, Millford, Salmon River and other places in the province. After retiring from the teaching profession he was engaged in the insurance business. His wife, formerly Miss Buchanan of Fairville, two sons and one daughter survive; also three brothers and two sisters. The body is to be brought to St. John for interment and there will be service in the Central Baptist church on Tuesday afternoon at 8 o'clock.

H. Priestly Chapman died at his home at Mount Middleton on Saturday at the age of seventy-eight years. He leaves his wife, two daughters, one son, two brothers and two sisters.

Rev. Robert Campbell, M. A., D. D., a well known Presbyterian minister of Montreal, died at his home yesterday morning at the age of eighty-six years. His death was caused by pneumonia, following injuries sustained in a fall from a street car in February. He is survived by three sons and two daughters.

The death of James Frederick Allison, postmaster at Sackville for twenty-four years, occurred at his home on Saturday evening. About two years ago Mr. Allison was stricken with paralysis and never recovered. He was a nephew of the late Charles Allison, founder of Mount Allison University, and a cousin of Joseph Allison of the firm of Manchester, Robertson & Allison. J. Walter Allison of Dartmouth, N. S., is a cousin. He leaves to mourn his wife, a daughter of the late Major William Beverly Robinson of this city, and one daughter, Gretchen.

NAPOLEON'S TABLE SOLD AT AUCTION

Bismarck's Portrait Sold for 800,000 Kronen, Which, However, is Only £450.

Vienna, March 14.—Bidding in millions was the chief excitement at the art sale in Vienna. The contents of the Palace Palfy, in Vienna, famed for its collection of art treasures, particularly of the Empire period, are being sold, and art dealers from many countries have been attracted.

The piece de resistance sold this afternoon was a mahogany writing table used by Napoleon Bonaparte, for which the French bidding was very keen on behalf, it is said, of the French government. The bidding started at 4,000,000 kronen and the French purchasers continued the struggle until the apparently huge figure of 12,000,000 kronen was reached. Here they dropped out, but the exciting struggle was continued until the writing table was finally knocked down to the Viennese banker, Boran Blettner, at the price of 13,000,000 kronen. (At the present rate of exchange, this would be about $26,000.)

Another high figure in kronen recorded was that for a portrait of Bismarck, by the German painter Lantack, which fetched some 800,000 kronen. Bismarck stayed in the Palace Palfy during his son's wedding festivities in Vienna. These art treasures were bequeathed to the Austrian state by Count Palfy on condition that the state should use them for the purpose of founding an empire museum, but the Austrian government is too much burdened financially to undertake the upkeep of the museum, and found itself compelled to allow the count's heirs to sell their collection, retaining for the national collections only the most precious pieces.

That part of the collection now being sold is valued at over 88,000,000 kronen, but the catalogue estimates have been far exceeded.

At present rate of exchange in Vienna 1,000 kronen represented a pound sterling. The price paid for Napoleon's table was, therefore, less than £7,500, and for Bismarck's portrait about £450.

WOMEN MUST FIGHT TO RETAIN STATUS

Lady Astor Says a Reaction Has Set In—Reforms Must Be Made.

London, March 14.—Lady Astor was the chief guest at a luncheon given by the National Union of Societies for Equal Citizenship, one of the objects of which is to induce women to stand for parliament.

In a speech she expressed the view that a reaction had set in against women. She said there was a type of man, a rampant type, who wanted to reserve the fair for the brave, who agitated against temperance reform, sex equality, everything.

She urged all women's societies to form a flying column, so that when the members of parliament opposed the reforms that women wanted they might receive a "Black Hand" notice reading: "All right, my man, your time is up."

After watching all the parties carefully, she said, she found that all were alike, they all expected women to behave like perfect ladies. So they would, she added, when he had taught men to share their views.

Men had yet to learn, she went on, that women stood for things that were just, clean, pure and of good report. It was still necessary to ginger up lethargic men and women to recognize the fitness of the things that women were fighting for. The time would come, she concluded, when people would cry, "Thank God for the old suffragettes."

Harry F. Bennett of the public works department left for Ottawa on Saturday to attend the annual meeting of the Civil Service Federation. He expected to be absent from the city for about ten days.

SMASHES WINDOW, FLEES WITH GEMS

Robber, in Pouring Rain, Huris Brick from Street and Grabs $2,500 Jewelry—Fires on Pursuers.

New York, March 12.—During a heavy rain at dusk on Wednesday a well-dressed young man, holding an umbrella well over his face, hurled a brick wrapped in newspapers, through the window of the jewelry store of Samuel Winokur at 395 Fulton street, Jamaica, and, grabbing a box from the window containing diamond-set jewelry valued at $2,500, escaped after firing two shots at the proprietor and one of the salesmen who pursued him.

The robbery was effected in the view of several hundred men, women and children coming out of a motion picture theatre almost directly across the street from the jewelry store, and more than a dozen women in the crowd became hysterical when the robber ran behind them and attempted to continue his pistol attack on his pursuers with the women as a shield.

Half a dozen men tried to seize him as he fled through Fulton street to New York avenue, about 800 feet away, and finally dodged through an alley and disappeared in Union Hall street.

From statements made to detectives that he was aided by a confederate who joined him immediately after the robbery broke from the crowd with the box of jewelry under his arm.

The proprietor, who led the pursuit, noticed that the bandit did not attempt to shoot the second man, who kept running at a distance of about fifteen feet in his rear.

Some of those who joined in the chase told the police that he was gaining on the fugitive the second man put his right hand in his overcoat pocket and seemed to clutch a pistol there. Whether he followed the robber through the alley none of the pursuers were able to say, for an automobile shut him out of sight.

Winokur told Captain Wohlforth that one of his salesmen noticed a man standing in front of the window of the jewelry store shortly after five o'clock.

"That fellow doesn't seem to mind the heavy rain," said the salesman as he walked toward the window. He remarked later that he noticed the man pull the umbrella well down in front of him when he observed that he was being watched.

The salesman had just turned his back on the street when there was a crash,

Five Quick Effects

When you brush teeth in this way

This new way of tooth brushing brings five desired effects. Some are immediate, all are quick. A ten-day test, which costs you nothing, will clearly show you what they mean to you.

Leading dentists everywhere advise this new-day method. Millions now employ it. You see the results in glistening teeth wherever people gather. Now let your own teeth show them.

You must fight film

Brushing does not save the teeth if you leave the film. That's why well-brushed teeth so often discolor and decay.

Film is that viscous coat you feel. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. The ordinary tooth paste does not end it, so very few people have escaped its dr'w'ce.

It is the film-coat that discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. So dental science has in late years sought ways to fight that film.

Scientific methods

Efficient methods have been found. Able authorities have proved them by many careful tests. The best dental opinion endorses them.

These methods are combined in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. And to let all know its benefits a 10-Day Tube is being sent to everyone who asks.

A 10-day test is free

Pepsodent quickly proves itself. The results are unique and conspicuous. And a book we send tells what each one means.

One ingredient is pepsin. Another multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva, to digest starch deposits that cling. The saliva's alkalinity is multiplied also. That to neutralize the acids which cause tooth decay.

Two factors directly attack the film. One of them keeps teeth so highly polished that film cannot easily adhere.

Pepsodent, twice daily, attacks the teeth's chief enemies.

Send the coupon for this 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear.

The results in ten days will amaze and delight you. Make this test now. Cut out the coupon so you won't forget.

"We're being robbed!" declared Winokur to his salesmen and started toward the door. As he turned the knob he saw the man reach into the window and take the box. By the time that Winokur and a salesman had bolted out the door after him he was running across the street toward the picture theatre. When he reached the sidewalk he threw aside his umbrella and, drawing a pistol from his pocket, he took careful aim and fired two shots at Winokur, both of which missed.

Policeman Whiteside of the Jamaica Station was in a dentist's chair in a building opposite the jewelry store when he heard the shots. He jumped from the chair to join the pursuit. It was said he managed to give a good description of the thief and the man believed to be his confederate.

FAKE SHELL SHOCK
TO OBTAIN MONEY

Berlin, Feb. 2-3 (A. P. by mail)—Disbanded beggars, seeking to excite public sympathy, have developed a "school of shell-shock here," according to physicians who have had an opportunity to examine some of the men who have been suddenly taken with terrible fits of trembling on the crowded streets.

The graduates have learned the technique of shaking as if suffering from chronic ague. They walk along, shaking the while, and frequently they fall down in front of or near persons who look as though they had some spare money, tremble a moment, and become rigid, the eyes fixed, the face purpling.

Policemen rush up, give the man a quick examination, and if they think he is not faking, they give him first aid, and permit those who wish to give him some money.

One of the first things done, however, is to examine the eyes. If they flicker or the eyeballs move the case is usually pronounced a fake. Some fakery has learned the business so well that they puzzle the doctors.

Discussing these alleged shell-shock cases, a physician said some of them had absolutely no injuries from their war service and were simply "mimicking men who really had been hurt, and so cheating them out of the sympathy which they deserved."

JUDGE FLIPPED COIN.

Lawyers representing Mr. Allegeyer and Mrs. Allegeyer staged a race for the office of the clerk of the court that resulted in an even break. Clerk John O'Neil was puzzled; so was Judge Fred B. King. Both attorneys claimed to be emand for Accommodation Shows No Indication of Dull Season—The Lines Operating.

(Montreal Gazette)

Every available foot of docking space the harbor of Montreal has now been leased for the 1921 season, according to statement yesterday by Mr. M. P. P. secretary-treasurer of the Harbor Commission, who added that the spaces by the pessimistic of a dull season were not borne out by the demand for shed accommodation. The two sheds at Victoria Pier, Nos. 18, and completed at the end of last season, are now being definitely leased to the Canada Steamship Lines, while Nos. 16 and 17 adjoining will be used by the Messageries Maritimes and the Lines of the Messageries Maritimes. No. 17, which is also a new shed, was used by the Messageries Maritimes during the closing months of last year's navigation. These sheds are of the most modern type and possess many unusual features while loading platforms, cargo attachments, electric floors and lighting arrangements are said to be the equal of any in the world. Shed 19, the last to be completed, is 600 feet long, 100 feet wide and two stories high, with a floor load on the first story of 600 lbs. per square foot, and a flat roof for cargo and other purposes, the floor load of which is 250 lbs. per square foot. Shed 16, which will be used by the Hudson's Bay Company, is being used by the Elder Dempster Company for its West and South African service, shed 17 by the New Zealand Shipping Company for its vessels running to Australia and New Zealand, and shed 18 by the Elder and Bucknall Steamship Company for its service to India, Java, the latter service from Canada inaugurated from this port last month. Monthly sailings out of Montreal are maintained until the close of the winter from St. John, at which the city of Colombo, one of the main-Bucknall vessels, is due to arrive from Dundee. The Canadian agents for the British firm are the Elder and Bucknall Steamship Co., whose manager, Mr. E. W. Foulds, said yesterday that the first sailings on this service of Montreal this season will take place about the middle of May, with monthly sailings again thereafter. Elder and Bucknall were unable to lease a shed last year, none being vacant, and are compelled to use shed accommodation as opportunity offered. Of the other sheds, the Robert Redd Company will again have Nos. 2, 3 and 5 for the Canadian and Anchor Line and No. 11 for the Canadian Dominion Line. The White Star Line will use sheds 4 and 6 (Alexandra Pier), and the Canadian Pacific Ocean Service sheds 7, 8, 9 and 10 (King Edward Pier). Sheds 12 and 14 (Jacques Cartier Pier) and 24 and 25 (Jacques Cartier Pier) have been allotted to the Canadian Government Merchant Marine, while the Messageries Maritimes will have Nos. 13 and 15 (Jacques Cartier Pier) for their lead Line and Houston Line steamers.

MISSING IN WAR MOURNED AS DEAD; FOUND IN SCOTLAND

(F. N., in Vancouver World)
It is an intensely dramatic and moving story of Sgt. Alfred McKay, a popular member of the Western Irish Battalion, who, buried only in the tomb of his own lost memory instead of under the sod of France, and mourned as lost for the last three and three-quarter years, may perhaps by spring time be back in Vancouver to receive from his wide circle of friends a welcome home such as falls to the lot of few to experience. The story has aroused general interest and prompted a correspondent to send me a most interesting letter.

Last seen on April 9, 1916, by his comrades in the course of the great Vimy Ridge struggle administering aid to a wounded officer, Sgt. McKay was, in due course, reported to the War Office as killed in action on that date, and a certificate of death to that effect, together with his war medals and other effects, is in the possession of his widowed mother, and probate of his will in the settlement of some Vancouver property was duly granted by the Vancouver courts.

Now, according to a letter from his overjoyed mother to her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKay, of 1912 Second Avenue West, he who was "dead" is alive, found only ten miles away from his birthplace, Johnshaven, Scotland, in the famous mental institution of Sunnydale, Montreal.

"The Lord has spared my son to me," writes the thankful mother, "and I am weeping every hour of the day to see him. He has been very bad with his memory, and also very run down in body, but is improving every day. It has been marvellous what the short time at Sunnydale has done. We are getting him home. It hardly seems true. How proud many mothers would have been to share my feelings, and I thank God for His goodness. I couldn't be convinced for a long time, thinking it impossible."
What great shock caused the psychic upheaval that resulted in Sgt. McKay's "death" is alive, found only ten miles away from his birthplace, Johnshaven, Scotland, in the famous mental institution of Sunnydale, Montreal.

Or was he picked up by some British private party to whom he was unknown and sent to a British hospital? These and other speculations that will readily occur to all are agitating the curiosity of his brothers and many friends here.

AMAZING STORY OF MYSTERY SOLUTION

Hypnotized Medium Told Precise Story of Crime and Murderer Confessed.

Berlin, March 14.—From Bernbourg, a large town in the province of Anhalt, comes an amazing story of combined hypnotism and clairvoyance as a means of bringing a murderer to justice. Some days ago the wife of a shoemaker was found dead in her bedroom with marks on the neck and breast, indicating that she had been strangled. Her husband was arrested on suspicion, but denied that he was at home when his wife died, and disclaimed all knowledge of how his wife met her end.

A post-mortem examination failed to produce complete proof of the cause of death and the authorities were at a loss until the mystery was solved in the following remarkable manner. The police commissioner called in an amateur hypnotist who already had achieved local fame by successful experiments. The hypnotist employed as a medium a young man, and both in company with the commissioner went into the room where the body was found. Holding in his hands one or two small articles used by the husband, the medium was duly hypnotized, and while in a trance told the story of a sordid, midnight drama. The husband and wife, he said, quarrelled and the man seized the woman by the throat, threw her half-conscious on the bed, from which her head fell forward so that she choked to death.

Immediately the story ended the police commissioner, in order to satisfy himself, made an interesting and convincing test. Known only to himself, the position of the furniture and several other objects in the room had been changed, and he told the hypnotist to instruct the medium to arrange the room exactly as it was on the fatal night. Silently and without hesitation the medium restored all the moved objects to the exact positions in which they were when the commissioner first saw the room after the discovery of the body.

The sequel was even more terribly dramatic than the experiment. Accused of having committed the crime in the manner stated by the medium, the husband made a full confession. Some of the details as previously related by the medium were omitted by the commissioner when he challenged the husband, but later he gave them his own account of the deed. They corresponded exactly with every incident told by the medium, just as if he had witnessed the quarrel and tragic finale.

AUSTRIAN MONEY OF LITTLE VALUE

Country's Finances in Sad Condition—Deficit of Billions of Crowns.

Vienna, Feb. 17.—(A. P. by mail)—The financial plight of Austria is indicated in a supplementary budget brought in by the minister of finance, estimating the deficit for the current fiscal year at 42,000,000,444 crowns. This is nearly double the figure given by his predecessor in the autumn, and even now does not take into consideration certain factors such as new demands on the part of the federal civil servants and that just made by the provinces, that the federal government shall increase their appropriation one-half of the salaries of provincial civil servants, including school teachers. It is reported that the money presses are now turning out paper crowns at the rate of 8,000,000,000 a month for Austria alone, the government apparently having adopted this as the expedient way of meeting the never-ending demands of its own servants, the workmen and of all classes of people for increased pay to enable them to meet the equally never-ending increase in cost of living.

"The Austrian crown no longer has any value outside the country," said a member of the government to the correspondent today, "and soon will have none within."
As a matter of fact, money is the cheapest thing in the country. No one attaches any value to it, and the result is a general effort to convert the currency into foreign values or something of intrinsic value.
This has created a mad market for dollars, pounds sterling and other stable money, causing fluctuations of as much as 200 crowns to the dollar within a period of one week. The same condition is reflected in the stock market, while precious stones, jewelry, works of art, fine rugs and similar articles find ready sale at fair values. It is said the banks are financing art dealers who are scouring the country for pictures and selling them outside for foreign values, the money either being left there in the shape of credits against a collapse here,

WILL ENFORCE NEW GOLF RULES Balls Used in Tournaments Must Not Weigh More Than 1.62 Ounces Nor Have a Diameter of Less Than 1.62 Inches.

(Associated Press.) London, Feb. 21.-In the wake of recent newspaper discussions by English golfers on the wisdom of players in the United States abolishing the stymie, the press is now publishing contributed letters on the advisability of the ball favored as "standard" by American devotees of the game.

Standardization was decided upon at a meeting here last year of the rules committee of the Royal and Ancient Club of St. Andrews with delegates from the United States and Western Golf Associations. It was voted that, beginning May 1, 1921, a ball used in a tournament play must not weigh more than 1.62 ounces, nor have a diameter of less than 1.62 inches.

The effect of the ruling was to retain the size of the small, heavy ball popular in England, but to reduce the weight slightly. It rendered what is known in the United States as the "big" eligible to competition, but barred the thirty-one pennyweight ball used in England.

English players had used nothing between the twenty-nine and thirty-one pennyweight balls in their home play. In a letter to the Times, George Duncan of Hanger Hill, British open champion, records his satisfaction with the lighter ball and predicts better championship figures as a result.

"I am glad that the ball is to be lighter," writes Duncan, "as the game will be easier to play for every one, in that the 'all-air route' the correct way to the green-will not be so difficult as with the heavy ball. I will risk a prophecy and say that the championship figures of 1921 will be better than those of 1920, or any previous year. Not because the ball will go farther than it did, but for the reason that the lighter ball will be much more easily controlled."

The title-holder commends the attitude held by the Americans at last year's conference, when his suggestion for standardization of the present "29" was being considered.

"The Royal and Ancient Club took the matter up," he writes, "and decided not only to have a ball limited in size and weight for the championship, but to apply it to the game generally. A committee was appointed, and they decided upon a flosser, a very useful ball for a player of more than mature age. Fortunately for the game, America had to be consulted on the matter, and her delegates rightly stood out for legislation for the coming generation of golfers. America was on a common sense argument, which was that her open champion and her amateur champion knew nothing about a flosser, owing to the fact that America's best golfers had learned their golf since the advent of a modern ball."

Duncan expresses a conviction that the popular ball of the future will be as near as possible to that known in England as the "29," which is slightly lighter than the present standard. The championship committee of the Royal and Ancient Golf Club, St. Andrews, having decided that all handicaps in the United Kingdom should be put on a uniform basis, is now in communication with clubs on the subject. The R. and A. points out that, in order to arrive at uniformity: 1. All sympathetic handicapping should be discontinued. 2. A scratch score for all courses should be fixed by the championship committee. 3. The handicaps of all players should be arrived at from this scratch score. By sympathetic handicapping is meant the custom of leaving a player at his handicap, although his play has ceased to justify it, rather than hurt his feelings. This, though a natural thing to do, makes any reliable system impossible. As regards the second and third proposals, the championship committee considers (a) that the scratch score of a course if the only sound basis of handicapping; (b) that this scratch score should be founded on the par score of the course; (c) that in order to obtain uniformity the par and scratch scores should be fixed in each case by a member or representative of the championship committee. Any such representative would, of course, rely to a considerable extent on the advice of loyal players.

How She Told It. The street car was swaying from side to side and a passenger who hadn't even a strap to hang to was suffering as a consequence.

Three times he landed on the lap of a stout matron, who finally lost her temper and inquired: "Here, what are you doing? What do you call yourself?"

"Well," came the smiling reply, "I think I must now describe myself as a lap-lander."

The joke appeared to the matron, who not only forgave him, but decided to retaliate his humor. She tried it first on her husband. "Yes, dear

U. S. CATHOLICS CAMPAIGN AGAINST UNCLEAN FILMS

Begun By National Catholic Welfare Council—Not "Blue Law" Advocate But For Purity.

Washington, D. C., March 14—Catholics of the United States are about to be enrolled in the campaign, which the National Catholic Welfare Council has begun for the elimination of indecencies from motion pictures and the stage.

In announcing the council's program, which is an organization established by the 101 Archbishops and Bishops of the United States, has prepared a Better Motion Picture Programme that Catholic organizations will be asked to carry out in their respective communities.

Drafts of this programme, with instructions for its execution, are being forwarded this week to pastors of parishes. Heads of Catholic educational institutions and officers of all the Catholic bodies affiliated with the Welfare Council. To assist these men and women's associations in furthering the campaign against objectionable pictures and plays, the Welfare Council is soon to add to its present activities its own Bureau of Review, which will furnish criticism and information to Catholics concerning the screen and the stage for the purpose of effecting concerted Catholic action against the same.

The Welfare Council is endeavoring to bring about a general reformation of morals. The Bureau will also collaborate with other civic and religious agencies having the same object.

In announcing the council's programme "Meals of the organization disclaimed any intent to advocate or encourage building of a remiter depends on the moving pictures or legitimate entertainment on Sundays. No resort to legal censorship of the screen or the stage is urged by the Welfare Council, its officials say, unless the producers, distributors and exhibitors of motion pictures and the proprietors and managers of theatrical enterprises refuse to cooperate with the Bishops' organization in their campaign for a cleaner house."

Charles A. McMahon, Director of the National Catholic Welfare Council's Motion Picture Department, made the following statement: "In this campaign the National Catholic Welfare Council is endeavoring to bring about a general reformation of morals. The Bureau will also collaborate with other civic and religious agencies having the same object."

WANTS MEETING OF QUEBEC PUBLIC ACCOUNTS BODY

First in Ten Years, at Instance of Opposition Leader—His Resolution re Legislative Council.

Quebec, March 14—Arthur Savare, leader of the opposition in the legislative assembly, intends this week to call for a meeting of the public accounts committee.

This means that the committee must meet, and it will be the first time in at least ten years that it has done so. The motion is supported by Mr. Savare, a member of this committee.

The motion of the leader of the opposition in regard to the reform of the legislative council, which he will present this week declares that the council was created by the fathers confederation as a truly independent body, free of political influence, and effectively to watch the work of the legislative assembly in which the party principle, nominate, and that as now composed, it does not meet the spirit responsible for its creation, and has not the necessary characteristics of independence to justify its existence. He asks that it be resolved that the house wishes that in future, nominations of legislative councillors be made independently of political interests, and in such a way that the different classes of society be equitably represented.

LIFE WAS A MISERY TO HER

Says this Woman Until Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Owen Sound, Ont.—"I suffered for ten years with female organic trouble, neuralgia and indigestion, and would not sleep at night, and would wander around the house half the time. I tried everything but nothing did me any good, and the last doctor I had told me to never expect to be on my feet again or able to do a day's work. One day one of your little books was left at my door and my husband said I should try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I thank God I did, for it relieved me, and I am now well and strong. I think there is no remedy like the vegetable Compound for anyone who has my troubles, and have recommended it to my neighbors. You can publish my letter for the benefit of those I can't reach."

—Mrs. HENRY A. MITCHELL, 1767 7th Ave., East, Owen Sound, Ont.

If you have any symptom about which you would like to know write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for helpful advice given free of charge.

BLACK LAKE ASBESTOS.

Toronto, Mar. 14—Major Robert F. Massey of this city, chairman of the bondholders' committee of the Black Lake Asbestos and Chrome Co. Ltd., has issued a circular to Black Lake bondholders in which he refers to J. A. Jacobs and his New York associates having purchased the shares that, pending an investigation of the company's affairs and prospects, the purchase of any large amount of bonds may not be undertaken, but asks the bondholders to advise him by March 29 if they are prepared to dispose of their bonds, at a figure, set, not exceeding 45. Chairman Massey does not express an opinion as to the advisability of accepting 45, but states that personally he is not disposed to sell his bonds at this figure.

The circular refers to the withdrawal of an application for a winding up order on behalf of some of the bondholders, and concludes as follows:—"Under the present circumstances it is not necessary to continue the pooling arrangement, and the bondholders are at liberty to deal with their bonds as they see fit."

Had An Annoying Hacking Cough

GOT NO REST AT NIGHT

Hacking coughs are very wearing on the system. The constant coughing disturbs the rest, and keeps the lungs and bronchial tubes in such an irritated and inflamed condition that unless you get immediate relief the cough may become settled and serious lung trouble ensue. There is no better remedy than Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup for relieving all kinds of coughs or colds, coming as it does from the lung-healing and healing properties of other excellent herbs and barks.

Mrs. E. J. Ross, Pembold, Alta., writes: "About three years ago I caught a very bad cold, accompanied with a sore throat and hoarseness. I was so hoarse you could not hear me speak. I could get no rest at night with the terrible hacking cough. I tried several remedies, but they did me no good. I finally saw that Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup advertised so I got a bottle. It at once gave me relief, and after using four of them my cough and all gone. Now I always keep it in the house."

"Dr. Wood's" is put up in a yellow wrapper, three size bottles, the trade mark price 50c and 60c a bottle. Manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Toronto, Ont.

ENJOYS HEALTH FIRST TIME IN FIFTEEN YEARS

Montreal Man Ached From
Head to Foot With Rheumatism—Troubles Entirely Overcome by Tanlac.

"In now a well man, for the first time in fifteen years," said Edmond St. Pierre, 209 St. X. Christophe St., Montreal, in relating his experience with Tanlac, recently. Mr. St. Pierre is a well-known tailor, having followed his trade for the past thirty years.
"Some fifteen years or more ago my stomach commenced bothering me. Then I got to having rheumatism, and at the time I got Tanlac I had been in bed for four weeks, scarcely able to move, and my whole body ached and pained me all the time. I think I had indigestion about as bad as a person can and live. I had no appetite at all, and for days at a time my stomach was so upset I couldn't eat a mouthful. When I did force down a little something, it soured and bloated me until I thought my heart would quit beating, and I could hardly get my breath. Many a night I spent sitting in a chair, just gasping for breath and suffering agony. My arms, legs and shoulders swelled terribly with rheumatism, and my wrists and fingers got so stiff I couldn't use them at all, and often couldn't raise my hands to my face.

"Well, this was the fix I was in when I started taking Tanlac, and I was so glad it took a little time for me to feel much benefit. However, I stuck to Tanlac, and it certainly has made a clean sweep of my troubles. Now my appetite is almost enormous, and everything agrees with me so well I've picked up several pounds in weight. In fact, my stomach trouble and rheumatism are entirely gone, and I can work with satisfaction and really enjoy life. My remarks about my rheumatism and Tanlac gets all the credit for it."
Tanlac is sold by F. W. Munro, and the Ross Drug Co., L. C. Allingham, Campbell, N. B.; T. H. Wilson, Fairville, N. B. (Advt.)

Montreal, March 14—Lowwood Topper, probably the last English bulldog in Canada, so far as show specimens are concerned, is dead here. The dog had been ill for some time, but died suddenly from congestion.

Lowwood Topper was owned by W. W. Marchall and S. Aliman, and was imported about a year ago. Shown twice he was awarded winners on both occasions, at Ottawa and at the winter show of the English Bulldog Club of Canada. Topper was one of the best-headed specimens of the breed ever seen here, with tremendous underjaw, large flat skull, splendid lay-back and well broken-up face. He leaves behind him a number of promising litters, notably one ex W. W. Marshall's Reclaim Blaz, seven of which are living. Lowwood Topper was valued at $2,000.

A BIG YEAR IN COLLEGE CONTESTS

Planning Ambitious Season for the Oarsmen

American Invitation to Winners of Oxford-Cambridge Regatta to Cross Ocean and Row the U. S. College Men.

New York, March 12.—(The Associated Press)—Plans for the most ambitious rowing season ever undertaken by eastern college crews have been virtually completed and the next three months will witness an unprecedented number of such contests. The details for the dual and triangular regattas so far as dates and distances are concerned, have been well worked out but the intercollegiate regatta, scheduled for Poughkeepsie, is still subject to possible changes.

The season will open with a race between the University of California and Washington on the Oakland Estuary on April 9, and while this contest is being outside the domain of eastern collegiate rowing, the result will be watched with interest. It is generally understood that the winning varsity eight will journey east to complete and the advent of Pacific Coast crews in eastern waters always adds a touch to the picturesque, giving inter-sectional flavor and snap to the Hudson River regatta.

In the past, Washington, California and Stanford have met annually at Oakland in a race for the Pacific Coast championship. This year Stanford

Both the Washington and California shells this year will have about half their crews filled by veterans. At California, it is thought, four men including Captain John Rogers will be available.

To Be Troubled With Constipation
THE CAUSE OF MANY ILLS

If you do not feel well and go to your family physician, one of the first things he will do is ask you to hold out your tongue. The reason for this is that the condition of the tongue shows the condition of the stomach and bowels.
If you allow your bowels to become constipated you will have bilious attacks, sick headaches, coated tongue, ulcers, breath, heartburn, water brash, etc., and those troublesome piles, which cause much annoyance and misery.
Keep your bowels moving regularly and you won't be sick.
In Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills you will find just the remedy you require for this purpose. They are purely vegetable and not gripe, weaken or sicken.
Mr. Jas. S. Harris, Box 294, Halifax, N. S., writes: "For two years I suffered with constipation. I could not get anything to cure me, and hardly any temporary relief. I was even taken to the hospital by the Laxa-Liver Pills, and even though I tried them with every care, they did not seem to be doing me good, and after using the second vial I was relieved of my ailment."
Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c. a bottle, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., limited, Toronto, Ont.

RACING SEASON
IN ENGLAND OPENS

Successful Beginning on Lincoln Course Today

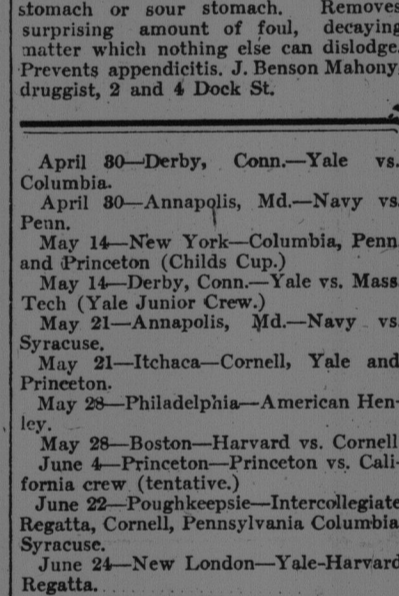

Big Event of the Week the Grand National Steeplechase at Liverpool—Entry List Large—Hard to Pick Winner.

London, March 14.—(By Canadian Press).—The flat racing season got away to a brilliant start today at Lincoln on the picturesque Carlisle and anticipation that both in number of entrants and in number of contestants all records would be passed was amply fulfilled. Now and then a spring meeting however, owes its popularity more to its being first of the season than to its intrinsic importance. Now and then a young steed is introduced in the Brookley stakes run tomorrow, but many centers prefer to keep their more promising two-year-olds until later in the season, and some of the best indeed are not seen in public until Ascot.
The feature of the meeting of course is the Lincolnshire Handicap, run on Wednesday, which brings out some handicappers of class and more often than not is won by an animal which comes to hand early. River since the acceptance of the Lincolnshire Handicap, which is a very short odds. But this getting has on several occasions failed to do what was confidently expected of him, although it is in his favor that the straight race of the Lincoln course suits him admirably, and he is weighted favorably at 11 lb. Last year he started a three to one favorite for the Kempton Park Jubilee and ran extremely well until near home, when he swerved because a spectator leaning over the fence waved an umbrella in his face. He was favorite on two other occasions in 1920 and each time failed for the Royal Hunt Cup at Ascot and in the Marketon handicap at Derby.
Second favorites are Walter Raphael, Poltava, a four-year-old at the top of the handicap with 126 lbs. and J. B. Joel's Corn Sack, 119 lbs., both of them good performers, and provided they can be brought to the post in condition, bound to win. An original strong favorite, though since eased in the market, was Donald Fraser's six-year-old Parma, which, because she has done so little for a long time past, gets off with the light weight of 110 lbs. But for a mare to win this race is extremely rare.
Among others that have figured in the meeting are Valentine Vox, a four-year-old, that seems in light at ninety-three lbs.; Effertion, a six-year-old, 122 lbs.; and Clarion, 111 lbs.

AMENDMENTS TO ELECTRICAL LAW

Proposed Changes Submitted to Council by Commissioner of Safety This Morning—Will Make Department Self-Sustaining.

Proposed amendments to the electrical laws by the city, with a view to making this department self-sustaining and also to make the law more effective, were presented to the council this morning by Commissioner Thornton. It was decided to postpone discussion of the amendments until the Thursday meeting, each of the commissioners having been furnished with a copy in the meantime.

The amendments provide for the approval of the city electrician of all material used in electric installation; for an increase in the scale of fees charged for permits and inspections; for all fees to be paid to the city electrician instead of the city chamberlain; for more stringent rules in the installation of electric wires and switches to ensure increased safety. TELL OF FINDING GUY NORTHRUP HIDDEN IN SHOP

Evidence in Police Court About Early Morning Call at Byron Bros. Grocery.

On suspicion of breaking and entering the grocery store of Byron Bros., 71 Stanley street, and stealing $284, Guy Northrup was in the police court this morning. He did not plead guilty. Byron said that in consequence of a call about two o'clock yesterday morning he went to the store and found the basement window broken. He found the cash register open and some cents missing. He missed nothing except the money from the register. Policeman H. C. Hatt told of going to the store with Inspector Caples and Harry Hawkhurst, patrol driver, and said they found the basement window broken. He said Northrup was found hidden by a barrel. Harry Hawkhurst and Inspector Caples corroborated this evidence, and the inspector told of searching the accused and finding the money. Mr. Byron identified one of the coins as one of those he had seen in the register the night before by reason of its peculiar color. The case was postponed to the register. Tony Crisco, an Italian, charged with creating a disturbance and using profane language, pleaded not guilty. Policeman McNeil gave evidence. J. A. Barry, counsel for the defence argued that the accused was arrested wrongfully, but the case was postponed until tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. The accused was allowed out on putting up a deposit of $100, but this he refused.

Louis Dancy, charged with being drunk, violently resisting the police, and assaulting Policeman Downing, while in the discharge of his duties, pleaded guilty, and was remanded for another hearing. A horse case against S. Dunham was again postponed for witnesses. Two men charged with drunkenness pleaded guilty and were also remanded.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT TO WOMEN'S COUNCIL

Matter of Return of Grant and Drinking Fountain Before the Common Council—Indiscriminate Tearing Up of Streets—Paving for Douglas Avenue.

Acknowledgement of the return of $500 from the local council of women and of the presentation to the city by the local council of a drinking fountain for horses were among the matters taken up at this morning's committee meeting of the common council. In the absence of Mayor Schofield, Commissioner Frink presided. On motion of Commissioner Thornton it was decided to acknowledge receipts of the grant, if it was found that it had already been done. Mr. Bullock brought up the matter of the application of H. A. Porter on behalf of Wm. Lewis and George Dick for the fee simple to property in Britain street for $50 in lieu of an annual payment of $1. He said that the recorder had expressed the opinion that the procedure was in order. On Mr. Bullock's motion, it was recommended that on payment of $50 the annual rental of $1 be released.

Docks for South End?

Dr. Frink said that this action would facilitate the transfer of this property to the dominion government for proposed docks in Lower Cove. On Commissioner Bullock's motion it was decided to sell to George McPherson at $85 in Park Place, Lunenburg, instead of lot 854 or 585 as decided at a previous meeting.

Mr. Bullock moved that a lot in Elliot Row near Crown street, now under lease to T. E. Bishop at $20 a year, be sold for $500 to his wife, Margaret Bishop, Carried. Acknowledgment to Women's Council. Commissioner Thornton referred to remarks in the press regarding the city not acknowledging the return of a $500 grant by the Women's Council and also the installation of a drinking fountain in Union Park. He said that if it had not already been done, he moved that a motion of appropriation be sent to the Women's Council for the return of the $500. The motion carried.

Regarding the fountain, Mr. Thornton said he did not remember any official presentation to the city. It was decided to grant permission to P. M. Levine to erect an electric sign before his store in King street. Commissioner Frink was authorized to dispose of an old Ford touring car belonging to the public works department.

Tenders for asphalt, referred to Commissioner Frink, were left over until the return of the mayor tomorrow. Commissioner Thornton was authorized to dispose of several old wagons belonging to the public safety department.

Retaining Walls.

Commissioner Frink said, regarding retaining walls, that he thought the small walls built during the year should be grouped together and made the subject of one bond issue. He presented a request from J. H. Robson, 58 Albert street, West, for the renewal of a wall on his property, agreeing to pay part of the cost.

On Commissioner Frink's motion, it was decided to build the wall, the city to pay half the cost, $104, the amount to be covered by bond issue. Dr. Frink said that there would likely be other walls to be built in Main street and Burpee avenue.

Replying to Mr. Bullock, Dr. Frink said the total interest charges on city bond issues was now about $250,000. Streets and Paving. Commissioner Thornton reported that Smythe street was being badly torn up. Mr. Jones said that this was for water control.

Mr. Thornton said that Germain street had a couple of bad holes in it, resulting from cuts made by the N. B. Power Co. for gas mains. Commissioner Frink said that he did not hope there would ever be a finality to the tearing up for paved streets for underground services. He said the city was forestalling the breaks by preparing in advance the work in Douglas avenue and Brussels street. Unfortunately, conditions were such that it was never to be known when the gas company or telephone company would start to tear up streets without notifying the public works department. He said the companies were working under an act of the legislature over which the city had no control.

Mr. Jones suggested that it be ascertained if the gas people wanted to put down pipes before the paving was started. Commissioner Frink reported that plans and specifications for the paving of Douglas avenue had been completed and would be presented to the council in the near future.
