THIRTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT.

STANDING at the threshold of a new year, it has become customary with institutions, as with individuals, to stop, for a short space in the busy whirl of ordinary routine, and take a brief survey of the situation; to look back upon the past and see what has been achieved, noting mistakes and failures, not with a spirit of critical and dissatisfied retrospect, but in order to see clearly wherein the error lies, and to bring the benefit of the experience thus acquired to bear upon future action, thus making of our short-comings stepping-stones whereon to mount to higher things. The past can thus be made to serve us in the future, and help us to look forward with hopeful confidence.

We are glad that you have gathered with us this afternoon, for though, as Managers of this Home, the regulation of its affairs has been largely left in our hands, we are not unmindful of the fact that the Institution really belongs to the citizens of Toronto, more especially to those whose generous contributions have enabled us to keep it in the condition in which you find it to-day; and that we are but your appointees, to whom you have entrusted its management and oversight. We thank you for this confidence, and trust that, as you glance with us over the past year, and hear the prospects for the current one, you may feel satisfied that it has not been misplaced.

The demands for admission have been very great, much larger than our limited capacity would allow us to entertain, and the cases have been for the most part very pitiable and deserving.

There were 92 inmates on the first day of January, 1890, and 62 have been admitted during the year ; of these
 23 have been sent to service ;
 32 have been taken by relatives or friends ;
 1 was sent to the hospital for sick children ;
 1 has died, and there were still 97 children under the care of the Institution on the thirty-first of December, 1890.

This is probably the largest number that have been under our protection at one time for many years ; and there are other worthy people whose burdens we would be glad to ease, were the capacity of the Home large enough to permit of it ; but our dormitories are already overcrowded, so that the children we have do not get quite as pure air as they ought.

There is a scheme, however, at present under consideration, which it is hoped will not only enable us to decrease the number of occupants in each dormitory, but will also admit of our taking in all its larger number of children than we have at present. The school-room has long been felt inadequate for the needs of so many children, and our able teacher, Miss McKee, has been labouring at a great disadvantage ; so in order to somewhat obviate the difficulty, the School Board has very kindly furnished an assistant teacher, who conducts classes for the younger children in a temporary school that has been fitted up in one of the play-rooms. Such a condition of affairs could not, of course, be allowed to long continue, and our appeal to the School Board to build a new school-room, was very favourably entertained. In carrying out this project, however, a new difficulty arose, as the Board can only build upon their own ground ; and after considering several ways of overcoming this trouble, it was finally decided to accept their offer to allow us to erect a school, for the use of which they will pay a yearly rental. We, therefore, propose, as soon as the season is favourable, to add a wing to the east side of this building, which will contain, in addition to a two-roomed school with all modern improvements, another dormitory, and increased storage accommodation. To meet the cost of this, it is proposed to appropriate part of the legacy left by our late esteemed friend Mr. Wm. Gooderham.

Notwithstanding the vast amount of sickness there has been in the city during the past year, the health of the children has been remarkably good. This is largely attributable to the constant and particular attention of Dr. Wishart, and the unremitting care and watchfulness of Mrs. Bright, our Matron, of whose efficiency we cannot speak too highly. Their efforts too have been supplemented by sundry pleasant excursions given by the various ferry companies, and by the generosity of the Board of the Hospital for Sick Children, in affording the shelter of the Lakeside Home to those children whose constitutions would be benefited by such a change.

We have this year the sad duty to record the loss by death of one of our most interested workers, Mrs. John Leys, who has been for twenty-four years a member of this Board. In mentioning her name, we recall how she always made the comfort and happiness of the children her first consideration. To her we are largely indebted for the new Indenture, by which a small bank account is to the credit of each child who faithfully completes her term of service; and in order that this should not increase the work of the Treasurer, she herself undertook to invest and keep track of this special fund. She has often too spoken of another scheme for the children's welfare, the engaging of a traveller to visit periodically the homes out of town in which children have been placed, to make particular enquiries in the neighbourhood; and send in a statement of the results of his investigations. This would, of course, be a very great advantage, but as our means will not permit of it, we have to do what seems to us next best, and ascertain by correspondence the condition of the children. Some letters received in this way by the Corresponding Secretary, will be read at the close of this Report, and may serve as an index to the work we are striving to accomplish.

We have also lost another interested friend, one who a few years ago was a most earnest co-worker, but who, through sickness and old age, was obliged to retire from active service, though still allowing her name to appear on the list of honorary members. I refer to Mrs. Wm. Elliott, who lives in memory as one of those who assisted in the establishment of the Home.

Mrs. McGee still conducts the weekly Sunday School on Sunday afternoons, with an able staff of assistants, and several clergymen visit and talk with the children regularly.

The little ones had a bright and happy Christmas vacation, thanks to the many kind friends who, notwithstanding the additional calls which every one has to meet at this busy season, still found time to think of and provide for them, and among these we would not forget the ladies and gentlemen who furnished such a delightful entertainment on the evening of the Christmas tree.

We would like to enumerate particularly all the friends who have shown an interest in the Home, but it will be impossible to do so, still we do most heartily thank them all for the assistance and encouragement they have given, although we know that in the giving they have received ample reward.

So, with a new year before us, we will not falter, but will press ever onward and upward, trusting that heavenly guidance and blessing may still be ours as we proceed.

HENRIETTA E. HAMILTON,

Secretary, G. H.

MRS. FLETCHER.

Dear Madam,—Your kind letter to hand. Glad to hear from you, and in reply would say : Emilie is still with me, and has been going to school since September ; she is growing tall, and is strong and healthy. I will be pleased to hear from you at any time.

I remain, yours truly,

 MRS. F. H. C.

Dear Madam.—I should have written in answer to your letter, but was away from home. Mary has been quite well since she came to us. She has a very nice disposition, and my children all like her. She is getting along very nicely in her reading and writing, but grows so slowly, I don't think she will ever be any size. The country is the place for her, and I am glad she has a home in the fresh country air. She would like to hear how her little sister is. I do not think I have any more to say, with good wishes for the welfare of all in your admirable home.

 I remain, truly yours,

MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL MEETING.

The Annual Meeting of Managers and friends was held at the Home on the afternoon of Friday, January 16th, Dr. J. George Hodgins occupying the chair.

The various Reports were read, and were adopted on motion of Dr. Avison, seconded by Mr. R. S. Baird. The List of Officers followed, and their appointment was confirmed on motion of Mr. Jno. I. Davidson, seconded by Mr. Warring Kennedy.

Mr. J. J. Withrow then moved a vote of thanks to the contributors to the support of the Home, which was seconded by Mr. W. B. Hamilton, and Rev. T. C. Street-Macklem added a commendatory speech extending the resolution of thanks to the collectors.

Rev. John Hurst made a short address, and the meeting was closed with prayer, after which the guests were invited down stairs to hear the children sing.

MEDICAL REPORT.

January 16th, 1891.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,—

In presenting to you my Third Annual Report, it gives me great pleasure to say that the health of the Home has been, throughout 1890, wonderfully good. While the nursery children, and a few of those from the higher departments, have, from time to time, suffered from colds, eczematous attacks, and the ordinary run of infantile complaints, there has been no serious disease nor epidemic among the children, and even the grippe found no victims in the Home. The complaint among the nurseries, spoken of in last report, was entirely eradicated by the stringent measures taken.

The greatest care has been exercised to prevent the entrance of disease in the persons of the children admitted by the Board, and there is no doubt that in this way much disease is kept out of the Home.

During the year we have lost two of our inmates by death. In February last, Mamie Funstone, aged 13 years, who had been placed for — years in a home in Dundas, was brought to the Hospital for Sick Children in the last stages of Phthisis, and death soon closed the scene. In April, Eliza Speers, aged 14, who had long been in a delicate state of health from heart disease, gradually faded away, and was found dead in her chair, where she had been put to catch some of the spring sunshine that was streaming through the Infirmary windows.

While we are thus able to congratulate ourselves that our average health has been good, and that we have been providentially spared any serious illnesses, still we do not think that the children are as robust as they should be. Not long since I was forced to ask the Board to limit the number of their admissions, as the sleeping rooms were being overcrowded,—and now only one girl is allowed in a bed.

Mrs. Bright and Mrs. Bowers are most watchful, and never permit the slightest ailment to pass without prompt attention.

May the coming year have yet better things in store for us.

Yours respectfully,

D. J. GIBB WISHART.
