JEALOUS BOY MURDERS RIVAL Schoolboy Quarrel Over a Girl Proves Fatal. One Boy Cut the Other Out—That Started Feud Which Ended in Shooting.

CHICAGO, April 6.—A quarrel over a girl, their companion at school, has culminated in the killing of one sixteen year old boy by another. The victim was Paul Jellick, and the slayer was Henry Schaze. He was arrested and confessed the killing but declares he shot in self defence. The boys became enemies when Schaze escorted a girl pupil from school a year ago. The youth fought when Jellick declared the other had tried to "cut him out" as other pupils said, and in a fist battle behind the school building Schaze was victorious over Jellick. After that it was said the boys would quarrel every time they met, until Schaze organized his companions into a bodyguard and the feud spread throughout the school. Both boys would often be accompanied by bands of supporters and challenges were frequent. The clash finally came when, after quarrelling for several minutes, Jellick struck the other in the face and threw him to the ground. Schaze then drew a revolver and shot Jellick, who died almost instantly.

A MISER REFORMS Decides it is a Disgrace to Be Rich and is Giving His Wealth Away.

NEW YORK, April 6.—A despatch to the World from New Bedford, Mass., says, Clark Ridley, who describes himself as "a miser" has announced that he will give away all his property before his death. He has reached the conclusion that it is a mistake to die rich. Thus far this week he has given away three houses and lots. Ridley owns six or seven houses and is reported to be worth $15,000. The news of his action has spread and there was such a throng surrounding his home waiting to put in an application for a share of the property that a policeman was required to keep the crowd away. Agents of the local charitable societies were among the applicants for property from Ridley.

NEW YORK, April 6.—A protracted conference of the general arbitration boards of the building trades, representing the employers and the associations of skilled workers, has resulted in the adoption of resolutions likely to end the tie-up which has existed for some weeks in the building trades. Representatives of the bricklayers whose strike participated the trouble, concurred in the resolutions recommending that the strikers return to work without overtime pending the settlement of the entire matter by arbitration with agreements of a similar character previously entered into by representatives of the bricklayers. Mr. Hill believed they will take favorable action. More than 10,000 men are idle.

FIGHTING ON YALU RIVER. Skirmishing Parties Have a Sharp Encounter.

RUSSIANS CLAIM THE BEST OF IT—Japanese Take Stern Measures Against Korean Bandits. ST. PETERSBURG, April 6.—"All is quiet on the Yalu," is the report which Gen. Kaikochin telegraphs Gen. Kurupkin, who forwarded the message to the emperor. The report added that an exchange of shots occurred between Russian cavalry and Japanese skirmishers near Wiju. The Russians sustained no losses. Seven Japanese were killed. The number wounded is not known. The stores of a Russian village, near Yonampo, (south of Wiju on the Yalu River), Korea, have been wrecked and burned by a detachment of Japanese infantry, numbering 300 men.

SAKS TAKE SHARP ACTION. SEOUL, Korea, Tuesday, April 6.—It is reported that the Japanese have killed two Tonghak bandits near Gensin. The province of Chulla, in South Korea, where the Tonghaks precipitated the Chinese-Japanese war, is being overrun by armed bands and an official report has been made of troops to subdue them. RUSSIANS WAITING THE ATTACK. PARIS, April 6.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Echo de Paris says that the Russian general staff is convinced that the Russians will await a Japanese attack on the right bank of the Yalu, which they are busily fortifying at its mouth. A remarkable bridge has been constructed on the prolongation of the Wiju line connecting it with Pin Hu Jan. The correspondent says the Russians are seeking to draw the Japanese on by sending small groups across the river.

WOUNDED RUSSIANS. VLADIVOSTOK, April 6.—Many wounded men from Port Arthur have been brought here. They are receiving the greatest attention from the numerous volunteers of mercy.

HEAVY TAXATION. ST. PETERSBURG, April 6.—The reduction of the regular tax by $27,000,000, which will go to swell the war fund, falls the heaviest on the railroad system, which loses altogether $30,000,000 including $25,000,000 for new roads. The church loses at least $11,000,000, including $7,750 for the Orthodox church at Seoul, Korea. The education department is a loser by $53,833 and the foreign office loses $76,352, of which $24,240 was for the purchase of an embassy building at Washington. The liquor monopoly effects an economy of over $4,000,000, mostly by cancelling the indemnity to liquor dealers. Agricultural and mining losses $1,500,000. The new departmental accounts show a loss of $2,000,000, and the non-participation of Russia in the St. Louis exposition saves $10,000.

B., April 6.—Mr. Purdy introduced the bank assessment bill again before the committee this morning, stating that the St. John council had agreed to accept the amendments proposed. Mr. Purdy saying he would do his best to get the bill through. Mr. Hill intimated that those who opposed the measure must have received retainers. This was volunteered by Messrs. Copp and Hazen, who indignantly denounced Mr. Hill for such insinuations. Messrs. Purdy and Hazen maintained that the bill had no right to be brought up again, as it had been decided upon yesterday. BOUGHT A WIFE ON INSTALLMENT PLAN. KOKOMO IND., April 3.—San Lam, an almond eyed Celestial of Kokomo, has just bought a wife on the installment plan. San Lam came to America as a boy and until he was eighteen years old lived in "the quarter" in San Francisco. Then he came East and located in Kokomo. But life was lonesome and San longed for a wife. He knew that there were plenty of wives to be found in San Francisco, but he had been there and there was only one girl to his mind. Pitti Lung was only fifteen, but her eyes were like stars and her hair like jet. San Lam longed for Pitti Lung. Pitti Lung longed not for San, so San went to her guardian, a wrinkled old Chinaman, with huge spectacles. "How much for Pitti Lung?" asked San. "So and so and so and so," said the wrinkled old guardian. So and so in Chinese meant $100 in United States money. "I pay thee old devil week!" said San, who had read the advertisements in the newspapers. The wrinkled old Chinaman nodded. They killed a white chicken and the bargain was sealed. Every week San Lam bought a three dollar money order at the Kokomo post office and mailed it in an envelope to the wrinkled old Chinaman. One hundred and two Kokomo money orders went to San Francisco, and last San Lam went himself to claim his bride. He bought her on the installment plan and if he is entertaining he may furnish a home on the installment plan, but he will have to pay cash for shark fin and birds' nest soup.

ST. JOHN WOMAN'S AWFUL DEATH. Run Over and Horribly Mangled by Train.

She Was Margaret Johnson, Who Left This City About a Year Ago. Margaret Johnson, aged 40, was killed five miles from Calais by the Washington County railroad express which arrived here at 10:46 Saturday night. Engineer Stayer of the express saw a dark object upon the track just after rounding the curve, but thinking it to be merely a porcupine which someone else had killed, he did not attempt to stop the train. The woman was found lying between the rails, that the tragedy became known, the body being found by the woman's husband, Peter. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson came here from St. John a year ago and took up their abode in an old hut on the Charlotte road, six miles from the city. They were frequent visitors to Calais, walking all the way to and from their home and it now appears to be the habit of drinking together. They came into town Saturday for the purpose of buying supplies and when they started homewards at a late hour in the afternoon, they both were considerably under the influence of liquor. From the time they were seen at the Meadows crossing by passengers on the west-bound train leaving here at 5:30 p. m., nothing further was known of their actions until 7 o'clock Sunday morning, when the husband appeared at the residence of Marshall Crossman and informed the officer that his wife, Margaret Johnson, had been killed by the train near their home. From him the police learned that the couple had started to walk to their home by the way of the railroad and that on several occasions the man had to go back after the woman, who showed a tendency to lag behind. After reaching the spot where the remains were found, the woman again stopped and it was not until the husband had almost reached home that she was missed, when he turned back to look for her, but could not find her. Thinking further as he had no wife was hiding from him, Johnson proceeded to his home with his load of provisions and it is supposed succumbed to the stupor which his many and deep potations had induced. This lasted until 2 o'clock in the morning, when he was obliged to succumb to the effects of the city marshal with the story of the tragedy, although the intervening distance is not more than five miles. Mrs. Johnson was native of Dublin, Ireland. It is said, while her husband is a Dane.

CARCASSES SOLD.

The carcasses of twenty-six cattle killed in the railway smash-up at Rosedale on Sunday were sold at public auction this morning at the sliding near Drury Lane crossing, about a mile from the city. The carcasses were brought to the city on flat cars and will be placed on the stage, and these doubtless will be sold first, as the price is very low indeed, being the same as standing room in the main floor. Then a limited number of gallery tickets will be offered, which represents the lowest price at which it is possible to hear the great event of next Monday. Seats still remain in the main body of the house, together with boxes, so that there is no occasion for any in the city or vicinity for missing this grand opportunity of hearing the peerless Lillian Nordica. The box office will be opened at sharp ten Friday.

There will be an emergency meeting of the common council this afternoon to consider what will be the course of action to follow in the matter of the bank assessment act now before the local legislature. AQUITTED OF THEFT.

W. J. Cole Accused of Stealing $300 Makes a Satisfactory Explanation and Goes Clear.

His Honor Police Magistrate Ritchie this morning pointed out strongly to one, William J. Cole, the evils of drink showing him how near it came to sending him to Dorchester.

Cole, who was the bookkeeper at the camp of Wm. J. Nobles, an operator for Andre Cushing Co. on the Allagash river, in the State of Maine, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Deputy Chief Jenkins and Detective Hillen as he stepped off the express from Halifax. It seems that Mr. Nobles went away from the camp, leaving a charge and with him some four hundred dollars. Cole had a row with the foreman and started for Fredericton to find Mr. Nobles and get matters settled. He got drunk on the way and the first intimation Mr. Nobles had that anything was wrong was a report that Cole was in Chatham. He at once notified Messrs. Cushing and Cole's arrest followed.

In court this morning he told his story, which was corroborated by Mr. Nobles and Alexander Wilson, accountant for Messrs. Cushing. He had the money on his person when arrested and made no claim to it. Mr. Nobles said Cole had been in his employ for some time and that his former position was open for him and that he accepted Cole's statement as satisfactory. Cole agreed to the money being paid over to Mr. Nobles and the trio went away happy.

$2,000 TO THAW PIPES.

Cold Snap Cost St. John that Much Extra.

The additional cost to which the city will be put by reason of the trouble in the water works system during the months of February and March will be slightly over $2,000. This was made necessary by the hire of extra boilers and the employment of an increased force of men. During the two months over which the thawing operations extended there were employed, in addition to the water works department's regular force, about twenty-five men. Half of these were kept working during the day while the other half did the night work. The men in charge of the boilers were paid for a day's work $3 and for a night's work $4. The working at night were allowed a free meal at midnight.

MERRITT LORD BACK AGAIN.

But He Left the City Before the Police Saw Him.

Merritt Lord, who has been absent from the city for some time, in fact since he stepped his bail in a case the crown had against him, paid this city a flying visit yesterday. He came in quietly on the train and left hurriedly on the next. Lord's old friends who were privileged to see him were astonished at the magnificence of his retinue. His raiment is likened unto that of Beau Brummel or a ten-twenty, thirty cent actor. The Carletons were not of long duration as he was given a tip that the police were working at night and he quietly stole away.

EXPORT LUMBER SCARCE.

Local Ship Brokers Report Dull Business Lately.

Local ship brokers report matters very quiet in their business and do not look for increased business for some time to come. The last charter reported made by Scammell & Co., was for the bark Northern Light, from Fuxton to Buenos Ayres, lumber, at eight dollars. It seems that the local market is bare of lumber and the shippers do not expect any query to be offered before July. One prominent shipper remarked to the Star this morning that all the stuff on the market last fall had been carried away by the winter port steamers.

A GREAT MELODRAMA.

Tonight the last performance of Arras-Foreux will be given by the Dalley Company and all who have not seen this splendid performance should do so tonight. Commencing Thursday, the company will present the splendid melo-drama The Fatal Card. This is one of the greatest melo-dramas ever written and its superior has never been seen in this city. The Fatal Card has never been seen in St. John, therefore our local theatre goers can attend with the assurance that the piece is one that they have never seen. Seats are now on sale, and a number are already taken.

POLICE COURT.

Lavinia Bantry Holds Her Job—A Plane Matter that is Very Mixed-Up.

Three drunks were fined four dollars or ten days in the police court this morning. Lavinia Bantry has filled many positions in this life, but her latest job has been as cook at James Brennan's hotel on Union street. Yesterday Lavinia went to the north end for a walk. The stimulants over there did not agree with her, as Officer Sample found her reposing on the sidewalk very much intoxicated. This morning she pleaded guilty and was sentenced to a fine of $3 or two months with hard labor. Mr. Brennan was on hand anxious to get his cook back to work, as good cooks are cheap even at eight dollars. Thomas Andrews, who was arrested on suspicion of stealing a plane from James Myles last December, told a roundabout story of borrowing the plane from a man named McKenzie. Both men at the time the plane was stolen worked for Mr. Myles, who identified the tool as the one taken from his shop. McKenzie said he had loaned a plane to Andrews, but not that one. Andrews admitted selling a plane for forty cents, but claimed he did not steal it. The affair was rather mixed up and as Mr. Myles would not press the charge, it was settled by him taking home his property.

Victoria Hotel Loses its Clerk and Band-leader.

There has been quite a shake-up in the staff of the Victoria Hotel during the last day or so, with the result that the pair of this house will miss two men that have been for many years connected with the hotel. At noon yesterday Philip Richardson, who has been in Mr. McCormick's employ since a boy, severed his connection with the house and about the same time John Fraser, the wine clerk, also left. In response to enquiry made by the Star, Mr. Richardson said that the report that he was shortly to go west was not true. Mr. Richardson said that he had many friends all over the world who had been so long in St. John that it was the only place he would care to live in and here he intended to remain.
