KING LIKELY TO POSTPONE IRISH VISIT

Ghastly Murder of Aged Clergyman in Belfast and Three Other Citizens.

SAVAGERY UNEQUALED BY PREVIOUS KILLINGS

Riots Break Out in City and Police Fire Into the Mob.

Belfast, June 12.—The question is being widely asked as to whether the killings here over this week-end will interfere with the visit of King George to participate in the state opening of the Ulster parliament on June 22. The series of tragedies during the week-end eclipsed in savagery any previous shootings.

Clergyman Murdered

The victims included an aged clergyman and three young business men, the latter being found dead in the northern section of the city. The Very Rev. James Finlay, of Bawnbrary, County Carlow, 80 years old and former dean of Leighlin, who has been a clergyman since 1867, on answering a knock at his door last night was confronted by a number of masked men. Without pausing they took him outside, shot him dead, then battered his head to pulp and burned his residence. The other three men killed were William Kerr, a barber; Michael Halpin, a postman, and Alexander McBride, a saloon-keeper at Leander Street.

Were They Reprisals?

As their deaths occurred during the curfew hours, the killings are generally believed to have been in reprisal for the shooting of a police sergeant and two constables Friday. Many men, mainly Protestants, were concerned in the grim episodes. In each instance the assassins arrived in a motor car, took the intended victim from bed, and rode him to a public house outside his house. Then the body was placed in the car and removed to the northern heights of the city, where it was placed in lonely fields. The relatives of the murdered men were told they were wanted for identification purposes and would be allowed to return to their homes. Kerr and Halpin were released and infant children. Halpin was unmarried.

Riots in York Street

Sharp rioting occurred in the York street area here today, resulting in one man being shot in the stomach and thirteen others otherwise wounded. The disturbance began yesterday evening between a few people and rapidly spread until both factions received reinforcements. During the rioting many bricks were thrown and revolver shots were common. A bomb thrown by one of the rioters blew a man's head and seriously wounded a woman.

Police Used Fire

The police then fired a volley of shots among the rioters, finally dispersing the mob into the streets and dispersing them. When the curfew was rung fourteen persons had been treated in a hospital.

Claim Letter Forgery

Dublin, June 12.—The publicity department of the Daily Freeman yesterday denied that the "Irish Republican Army" was responsible for the letter received by the British Embassy in London last Friday morning warning them that observance of the annual athletic festival week of the college would entail danger to the public. Such a letter was received in the name of the "Irish Republican Army," it was a forgery, the denial says.

Outbreak of Arson

Dublin, June 12.—An outbreak of arson occurred in the Scariff district, County Clare, Saturday. Several private residences, and the Scariff workhouse and the gally head and King Bar coast guard stations were burned to the ground. The damage exceeded £100,000.

Three Killed in Cork

Cork, June 12.—John Lacey was shot dead by Crown forces here last night for failing to answer a challenge after the curfew hour. Head Constable McEhlin was shot on his way to church at Killeggan, West Meath today. He died within an hour.

The loss is placed at fifty thousand dollars. Fortunately the wind was in the right quarter to avert a general conflagration. Had the wind been in any other quarter, nearly the whole village of Rexton would probably have been wiped out.

GERMANS SURE BRITISH WILL CALM SILESIA

Claim Troubled Area Will be Under Control Within Next Ten Days.

NO REPRISALS FOR NON-COM'S DEATH

Rifles and Machine Guns to be Used in Cities if Poles Offer Resistance.

Berlin, June 11.—The British General, Henniker, in command of British troops in Upper Silesia, has assumed the responsibility for clearing the region of insurgents and is operating without official sanction of the French head of the inter-Allied Commission, General Lerond, but has the co-operation of the Italian forces, according to advices printed in Berlin newspapers. The advices state that the entire area is expected again to be under Allied control within ten days.

No Reprisals Coming

The killing of a British Sergeant by Polish insurgents is not expected to affect in any way the British plans to pacify the country with the least possible bloodshed and no reprisals will be permitted. It is understood that General Henniker does not contemplate a direct effort at disarmament of the district, but merely intends to re-establish Allied prestige by dissolution of the organized rebel forces. It is hoped this may be accomplished without the actual use of force although it is understood that in the event of the Poles offering resistance the inter-Allied districts, particularly in Katowitz, where they are strongest, the British are prepared to quell them with rifles and machine guns.

Baby Had Been Missing Since May 24 and Demand Made for Ransom.

New York, June 12.—The body of a seven-year-old boy found floating in the Hudson River yesterday off Piermont, N. Y., was identified last night as that of Giuseppe Varotta, kidnapped May 24 and held for ransom. The identification was made by the boy's father, Salvatore Varotta, who went to Piermont, with relatives, as soon as the New York police were notified. The boy disappeared while at play before his home and his parents believed he had been lost. After the police had searched the city for two days, the child's mother received a letter, demanding $2,500 for the safe return of her son. The letter threatened the child and the other members of the family with death if the money was not paid.

Captured Five Men

A woman detective, posing as a cousin of Mrs. Varotta, a few days later trapped five men who came in response to a letter from the mother offering $500 for the return of her child. The police believe that the arrests of these five men would frighten the others into returning Giuseppe. They continued their search, aided by private detectives and prominent wealthy persons who became interested in the case, but no trace of the missing boy could be found. The five men are now in prison awaiting trial under $25,000 bail on indictments charging them with being implicated in the attempted extortion of money from Varotta.

Little Giuseppe was the prize baby of the block in which he lived. His mother has been in a state of collapse since the little fellow's disappearance.

FREE GOLD FOUND IN LARGE QUANTITY

Said to be the Richest Vein Ever Uncovered on American Continent.

The Pas, Man., June 12.—Additional information received here concerning the gold strike at Elbow Lake leads to the belief that from the surface showings the "largest gold ore body on the continent has been uncovered.

The dyke has been stripped of overburden for 350 feet in length and for fifty feet in width without encountering the walls in which the gold is freely deposited throughout. The outcropping near the water's edge, where the discovery was made, has developed into a rich pocket of gold ore, the width of the dyke starting back to the discovery post, 350 feet away, where the body disappears under a heavier overburden.

Much Free Gold

The body is in a green stone formation and the mineral is in porphyry with quartz stringers. An attractive feature about this strike is the evident continuity of free gold for the length and width of the dyke starting from the discovery post. The dyke, as uncovered revealed small specks of gold fairly regularly all along. A few shots were dug out with a gold vane of fifty per cent. ## MANY PREDICT ELECTION FOR BRITAIN SOON

Loss of Two Contests Last Week by Lloyd George May Lead to Appeal.

DEFEAT ANTICIPATED IN GENERAL VOTE

But Heavy Burdens Left Upon Successors Expected to Result in Return to Power.

London, June 12.—Even in quarters not unfavorably disposed towards the coalition government the result of last week's by-elections and the general industrial and economic situation has aroused wide speculation concerning the possibility of an appeal to the country.

Premier Lloyd George is rumored as contemplating a general election at least before the introduction of the next budget. Even if defeated, it is suggested he would leave to his successors such a hotbed of unavoidable expenditures and other legacies of the aftermath of the war as to ensure them an ignominious exit with the triumphant return of the then recently discarded leader.

What Will Premier Do?

The question, however, is whether the Premier will consider it good strategy to take the present electoral rebuffs as an indication that the time has arrived for action in the country as a whole or whether he will ignore them, believing the Liberals and the Labor party in a position impossible to recover from their present divisions.

PHILADELPHIA BOOZE PUTS 28 IN A HOSPITAL

Soldiers Patrol Streets to Stop Sale of Weird Concoctions.

CITY POLICE AID MILITARY BROTHERS

Have Given Valuable Aid in Getting the Men Who Sell Knockout Stuff.

Philadelphia, June 12.—Twenty-eight soldiers from Camp Dix, on leave in Philadelphia, have been sent to the Cooper Hospital, Camden, since February 5 as the result of drinking bootleg liquor purchased in the central part of the city north of Market street, according to members of the two squads of military police now patrolling Race, Vine and Calow streets. Opium, cocaine and a weird mixture of alcohol and benzine have also contributed to the "casualty list," they say.

Soldiers First Victims

Despite the vigilance of the M. P.'s and the police traffic in "synthetic booze" is as yet unchecked, and the men in uniform are among the first to suffer when a new brand is tried out by the inventors of such concoctions.

Activities of the military police are directed by Corporal Leslie Oakley, of the First Military Police Company, Camp Dix, who has his headquarters near where his men operate. Private John Goodwin, who was temporarily in command yesterday, spoke highly of the assistance his men received from the Philadelphia police department.

Cannot Arrest Civilians

"We have no power to arrest civilians detected selling liquor to men in uniform," he said, "but I want to say that the Philadelphia police have never failed us in such an emergency. Very often they furnish us with valuable information, which helps to keep the men from camp out of trouble. Our business here is to arrest any soldier who is drunk or disorderly and ship him back to camp as quickly as possible. If the stuff has made him ill, we take him to Cooper Hospital in Camden, for treatment."

West End Church Is Free From Debt

Interesting Ceremony in Charlotte St. Church When the Last Note Was Burned.

An interesting ceremony occurred at the Charlotte Street Baptist Church, W. E., last evening when the last note outstanding against the church was burnt with due ceremony before a large congregation, and the church declared free from all indebtedness.

Cause of Indebtedness

Pervious to the burning of the note, the pastor of the church, Rev. J. E. Jenner, gave a brief account of the cause of the indebtedness. He stated that about four years ago a concrete addition was built to the rear of the church, the basement was renovated, hardwood floors, a furnace and furnace room put in, and steam heating installed. The total outlay amounted to $5,000, of which sum $2,000 was paid off the first year. The trustees of the church gave their note for the balance left unpaid. This amount was gradually reduced until up to two years ago there remained but $1,000 to be paid. G. N. Mott, superintendent of the Sunday School then suggested the Sunday School children raising a mile of pennies for the fund, and one third of a mile, $300 was thus secured.

The women of the church came to the rescue and augmented the sum to $600. Recently a personal appeal was made, and the entire balance was secured plus $100 to the good. Mr. Jenner expressed a hearty appreciation of the efforts of those who had made the securing of the sum possible.

He was followed by Deacon J. R. Webb, who read the names of those whose signatures appeared on the note, and expressed the gratitude of the trustees of the church and of the finance committee.

Ernest Brown, whose signature was one of those on the note, then placed the note on a copper tray and burnt it before the congregation.

Interesting Reminiscence

Deacon D. C. Clarke was heard in an interesting reminiscence of the financing of the church in its early days. His story went back over three score years to the day he was first brought to the church by his father, while a child of but three years.

Deacon Clarke stated that the first pastor had been paid a salary of $300 per annum, that was forty years ago, the pastor's salary, which had been raised from year to year amounted to $700.

At the conclusion of his address, Rev. Mr. Jenner after thanking all for their good work in ridding the church of its indebtedness, congratulated the congregation on the splendid precedent they had set in raising the pastor's salary each year. He urged them to keep up the good work.

Special Music

Special music befitting the occasion was rendered by the choir. Mrs. Paterson sang a pleasing solo, and the choir an anthem of jubilation.

Lively Ball Is Hurting Game

Pilot Johnny Evers of the Chicago Cubs is convinced that the ball used this year in the national game is fatter, livelier than ever before and that it is hurting the game. He believes it should be changed at once.

"Not only is there great danger of a pitcher or infielder getting seriously injured," says John, "but the game is being spoiled because of the way the infielders handle the balls. They are turning and playing the ball on the side, which is a bad habit. One can't blame them, though, for they are in danger."

"It is almost suicide now to put the infielders in to cut a run off at the plate. They can't handle the ball if it is hit right at them. I suppose the fans like to see hard hitting, but there is too much of it now."

In the art of keeping we take on our hats to the Scotch. Ay coorse, they have a goal in sight.

WOMEN ARE BARRED ON MURDER JURY

Prosecutor Asks Veniemen if Beauty and Tears Will Prejudice Verdict.

SELF-DEFENCE PLEA IS SET UP

Defendant Accused of Killing Herbert P. Ziegler as Result of Jealous Rage.

Chicago, June 12.—After four delays in two weeks Mrs. Isabelle Corn Orthwein, charged with the murder of Herbert P. Ziegler in her apartment following a midnight quarrel, went to trial today before Judge Wilson in Criminal Court.

Four jurors were accepted by both sides. The court room was crowded with women volunteers, who wished to serve on the jury. They were disappointed when Assistant State's Attorney Lloyd Roth announced that it was impossible to impanel a jury of women or even a mixed jury. Instead, he said he will endeavor to select twelve men who typify the average, solid, home-loving, law-abiding citizen.

Self-Defence Plea

The fact that Mrs. Orthwein's counsel probably will pin their hopes for an acquittal on a plea of self-defence was discovered in the woman's lawyers' questioning of the veniremen. Of each he asked the same question: "If you believe yourself to be in danger, or apparently in danger, would you take means to defend yourself?"

Mr. Heth in questioning the prospective jurors included inquiries concerning responses to a woman's tears and what constituted chivalry. Other questions were:

"Can you withstand a copious flow of tears, or will it interfere with your verdict?"

Mr. Heth announced that the veniremen asserted that they followed the case in the newspapers and that their opinions were formed. One man, who was excused immediately by Judge Wilson, said he thought Ziegler had got "just what was coming to him."

Mr. Heth announced that Mrs. Elaine Ziegler, wife of the murdered man, will be called as one of many witnesses, including cab drivers, police men, gamblers, chorus girls, singers, men about town and frequenters of night life resorts. Mrs. Ziegler, it is expected, will testify to efforts made by her husband to get away from Mrs. Orthwein.

Mrs. Orthwein appeared in court early, accompanied by her sister and brother-in-law. She was in view of Peter Ziegler, the aged father of the man she killed, the State's attorney contends, in a jealous rage.

Sackville Youth Could Not Compete

Ralph MacCreedy Informed by Committee They Did Not Consider Him Eligible.

Shortly before the opening of the track meet at Redberry, Saturday, Ralph MacCreedy, the young Sackville High School athlete, who after training for a number of weeks, and who had complied with all the regulations sent him by the Redberry Collegiate School's captain, was informed by a committee composed of Messrs. Black and Scammell of Redberry College, and Wilson and Fraser of St. John High, that they did not consider him eligible, because the meet was open to two schools only, and furthermore, because he did not constitute a team. The committee did not offer any reasons as to what sources they had gone to secure the definition of what constituted a "team."

Mr. MacCreedy stated that as he had no alternative he would have to bow to the committee's decision. He asked if he might at least, in view of the period he had devoted to training and the expense he had been put to in attending the meet, be given an opportunity to compete, any points which he might make not to count against the scoring of the men of either of the two schools. His request was refused.

Rev. W. D. Wilson On Liquor Question

Took for His Subject "Responsibility"—Dealt With Situation in N. B.

The Rev. W. D. Wilson spoke in the Tabernacle Church last evening and took as his subject "Our Responsibility." He dealt with the temperance situation in New Brunswick and of the different phases of the temperance work showing that the province was at least three laps behind the other provinces in the Dominion, excepting Quebec.

Coming Referendum

Nearly all the veniremen of the coming referendum and the question attaching to the administration and the enforcement of the Prohibition Act and showed that it was every man's responsibility and that lawlessness cannot be cured by leaving law enforcement to the officers alone. It needs the co-operation of a Christian citizen to achieve success. He also discussed on the establishing of different liquor houses in the province under the protection of the courts and to him it looked like if it was law, it didn't appear to be justice after the vote of New Brunswick had been decided on prohibition by a majority exceeding 24,000 not later than last July.

Tragedy Near Fredericton

He also dealt with the tragedy enacted in Fredericton of the car running liquor through from St. John, where one innocent man was panicking his life away while the two accomplices who owned the liquor and the car left him.

This showed the nature of the liquor business as it is being carried on in St. John today. He said this district province is an awakened conscience.

This is how we safeguard the health of your children!

Children are the greatest consumers of ice cream, and they should be for it is the finest food they can eat. But the ice cream you give them must be the best.

To make it 100 per cent. safe for you, and your children, we are spending thousands of dollars manufacturing ice cream under the patented Heathmade Carbonated method, science's newest and greatest contribution to food sanitation. We consider the added cost worth while because it makes it 100 per cent. safe for you and your children.

Heathmade Ice Cream is always the purest

Prof. W. P. Heath, a specialist in food purity, discovered that he could increase the purity of ice cream to an infinite degree by freezing it in a sterile, germ-proof atmosphere instead of with air, which is never perfectly pure.

We have secured the rights to manufacture our ice cream under the Heath patents. This super-pure ice cream is what we offer you.

Do you know what makes Ice Cream smooth?

If you examine ice cream under a microscope you'll find it is full of tiny air cells, or bubbles. It is these minute cells of air which make ice cream eatable instead of being frozen hard like ice. Ordinary ice cream is frozen with air. Air is always dangerous in food. When you put up fruit you fill the jars full, then you sterilize them to drive out all air and seal them tightly with rubber rings to exclude all air. If you don't you know they will spoil.

The air which will spoil canned fruits or vegetables should not be used in making ice cream. So we freeze our ice cream in a sterile atmosphere of pure, germ-proof gas. We substitute carbonation for aeration. So we add a final safeguard around this delicious product.

Purity Ice Cream is Carbonated

Carbonating ice cream increases its flavor and richness. You may have noticed how carbonated water brings out the flavor of fruit juices and syrups in your ice cream soda. Carbonating ice cream has the same effect.

It makes a richer, more appetizing, smoother ice cream. An ice cream you will like much better and which the kiddies will love. Give them all they want of this wonderful ice cream. It is splendid food for their growing young bodies. It will make them ruddy with health and strength.

NOT ALL AGREED

In referring to Church Union between the Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational Churches in our last issue, we expressed the view that there would doubtless be many dying in view of the necessity of ministers, and of the duplication of work which the existence of two or three different denominations entails in the smaller communities, it is to be regretted that opposition to Union should arise. In any case where there are fundamental differences in belief, it may be difficult to work out some common ground on which all can stand; but in the case of the three churches concerned in the proposed Union there are not any differences of such a nature as to prevent any insuperable obstacles to Union.

BOLSHEVISM, AS RUSSIA HAS IT

A lurid light is thrown upon Bolshevism and the situation it has created in Russia, by Mr. E. A. MacMillan, who was of the British railway mission sent to aid Admiral Kolchak in his ill-fated attempt to overthrow the Bolshevist forces and who spent three months in jail and seven months in "open arrest" in Siberia. Mr. MacMillan describes Bolshevism as "beastly in theory and vile in operation."

THE STATISTICAL FIEND

Nobody has yet arrived to advance the idea of the total prohibition of statistics. They are useful enough in their way, but taken to excess, they are the darling vice of the higher order of intelligence.

regard to which men as such make any showing at all are, 36 per cent. of newspapers, 28 per cent. of dogs, 34 per cent. of phonographs and 60 per cent. of boxed candy, which is usually not for their own consumption.

Whether then goes the greater portion of the very large incomes of which men possess control? To answer this question, this statistical fiend need not spend laborious hours over census tabulations and trade returns. The Winnipeg Tribune somewhat unkindly suggests that she can find the correct answer at once by consulting a looking glass, and can use such ingenuity as she possesses in afterward reducing to a uniform percentage the variability of the factors displayed.

TALAA'S ASSASSIN ACQUITTED

When Salomon Tellirian, the Armenian student, killed the former Turkish Grand Vizier, Talat Pasha, at Charlottenburg, Berlin suburb, it was the general belief, founded largely upon the early German comments, that the young assassin's appeals for sympathy upon the ground of Talat's persecution of his race would avail him little.

The testimony of the defendant that he had been moved to kill Talat by his mother, a victim of one of the Armenian massacres, appearing to him in a dream, and that he himself had undergone great sufferings from Turkish persecution, no doubt had its bearing in winning the favorable verdict. The incident of the trial, however, which gave it its greatest significance was the testimony of Professor Johannes Lepsius. He revealed to the Germans facts regarding the treatment of the Armenians of which they seem to have had little knowledge.

Protestant Church Union. The time is certainly ripe for union, and all forward-looking Canadians are anxious for the step. Spiritually, practically and economically, there can be no question as to the immense gain which would result from such a co-ordination of religious effort and the pooling of the resources at the back of that effort. The times urgently demand readaptations, in order to remedy the dissipation of energies and waste of effort which are resulting in an apathy on the part of the public which is likely to increase rather than diminish unless effective steps are taken to counteract it—Hamilton Spectator.

Examinations For Teachers This Week To Be Held at Fredericton, Chatham and St. John—Fewer Writing Them.

Fredericton, N. B., June 12.—The license examinations conducted by the department of education for qualifying of teachers for schools of the province, will begin on next Tuesday morning. The examining stations will be in Fredericton, Chatham and St. John. The greater number of candidates will write in Fredericton because of the normal school and U. N. B. being located here.

The total number is 239, which is smaller than usual, as the attendance at the normal school is less than for many years. Fewer than 200 completed the courses for class 1 and 2. In former years there have been upwards of 300.

The classification of the candidates at the three stations is as follows: Fredericton—Grammar school, two; Superior, two; class 1, eighty-one; class 2, 102; total 196.

Chatham—Grammar school, two; Superior, one; class 2, six, total thirteen.

St. John—Grammar school, five; Superior, three; class 1, six; class 2, six, total 20.

The large number of candidates writing for grammar school licenses at Fredericton is accounted for by the fact that a considerable number of graduates and undergraduates of the U. N. B. are writing the papers in this city.

Pleads For Husband After He Shot Her

Woman Telephones for Aid for Would-be Suicide After He Attempted Murder.

Philadelphia, June 12.—While she was asleep in her home in Westfield avenue, Camden, yesterday, Mrs. Mabel Simon, 29 years old, was shot in the head by her husband, who then turned the pistol upon himself in an attempt to end his life. Both are in a critical condition, but the woman may recover.

No reason is known for the shooting, except that given by his wife, that Simon had been suffering from nervous depression. She said they had never had a quarrel.

Mrs. Simon, after the shooting, walked to the floor below to telephone the police. While she was doing this, her husband shot himself.

Both Simon and his wife were conscious when the police arrived.

Two small children were with their wounded parents, having been awakened by the shots.

Mrs. Simon urged that first attention be given her husband, and declared he should not be held accountable, as he was mentally impaired.

Sunday School Held 93rd Anniversary

Excellent Programme Carried Out in Portland St. Methodist Church Last Evening.

A programme of great excellence was heard last evening at Portland street Methodist church on the occasion of the ninety-third anniversary of the Sunday school. Very high praise must be given H. W. Bromfield, who trained the scholars. The singing in choruses was peculiarly sweet, while the distinct speeches given during recitations in the clever exercises presented was most favorably commented upon. Mention should be made of these exercises which were very beautiful and contained lessons of great helpfulness.

The pastor, Rev. Harry B. Clarke, presided and on the platform were Honorary Superintendent R. T. Hayes, M. L. A. J. Hayes and Mrs. F. J. Hayes, McConnell, assistant superintendents, and A. C. Powers. Assisting in the music were Miss E. Huey, Mrs. J. Howe, A. G. Powers and Mrs. F. J. Hayes. Lillian Bromfield presided very capably at the organ. The absence of S. A. Kirk, superintendent, who was confined to his home by illness, was regretted.

Outragged The Yankee Visitor

Roman Cab Driver Puts One Over on Boastful American Tourist.

Rome, June 12.—They are telling a story in the Roman cafes of how an American visitor to Rome came off second best in a boasting contest with a Roman cab driver.

The American undertook to see Rome in a day and used the cab driver as a guide. The American was driven to all the great Roman monuments and took great interest in the buildings, always asking how long each took to build.

At St. Peter's the cab driver confessed that it took 50 years to complete that structure. The American did not think that that was such a great feat for he was certain such a building could be built in America in two years. Other large churches, like St. John Lateran, the visitor said, could be built in a year or even six months.

Finally, they were passing the new massive buildings occupying several city blocks containing the Italian law courts.

"What's that?" inquired the American.

"I don't know," retorted the driver, "it wasn't there last night."

Want Journalism Taught In College

Weekly Newspaper Association Favor This Step—Halifax Next Place of Meeting

Vancouver, B. C., June 12.—The Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association adopted a resolution at the closing session of its convention here Friday, urging that provincial governments take steps to add journalism to the curriculum of the universities.

The resolution expressed commendation of Manitoba and Ontario as the pioneer provinces in this respect.

Other resolutions oppose any move at present for the reduction of hours of labor; urge the necessity for better publicity campaign and urge members of the association to pay their license fees as job printers and collect the sales tax as manufacturers.

This point was hotly debated, but the resolution carried.

Halifax was chosen as the next meeting place.

The convention opened yesterday in Victoria.

Granted Respite On Eve of Death

Raving Maniac Receives Notice of Ten Days' Delay 3 Hours Before Time to Die.

Ossining, N. Y., June 12.—Less than three hours before he was to have been put to death in the electric chair, Paul LaGudice, sentenced from Monroe County for the murder of Mrs. Sophia Pichera, received a ten days' respite from Governor Miller. Although no official announcement as to the grounds for the respite was made at Sing Sing prison, it is understood that it was for the purpose of further investigating the condemned man's sanity.

Guidice, in the opinion of many of the prison officials and keepers, is a hopeless maniac. He has been put into a straight jacket to prevent him from killing himself and the keepers. Three weeks ago a board headed by Dr. Charles W. Pilgrim, of Poughkeepsie, examined him, but during the examination his actions were normal. For ten days since he has raved continually in his cell and keepers have been unable to keep any clothing on him.

Governor Miller's attitude at the time of a recent plea for executive clemency was that LaGudice's crime was such that no clemency should be shown, even commuted to life in prison. LaGudice asserted that he stabbed Mrs. Pichera to death as the result of threats by her husband, who was driving a life sentence in Auburn, that he would be killed if he did not do it.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary E. Porter

The sudden death of Mrs. Mary E. Porter, wife of James S. Porter, which occurred suddenly at her residence, 197 Millidge Avenue, yesterday afternoon, will be learned with much regret by a large circle of friends in the city, as well as at White Head, where she was well and favorably known.

Mrs. Porter's death was a great surprise and a distinct shock to her family, as she had been apparently enjoying the best of health.

She was a member of St. Luke's church, a woman who was devoted to her family, and whose kind disposition had made her many friends. She was the youngest daughter of Mary and the late David White of White Head, Kings county, where the body will be taken for interment Tuesday.

She is survived by her husband, three sons, George B., Charles A. and Russell W., and two daughters, Mary R. and Andrew, all at home; four brothers, Benjamin A. and Robert J. of this city; Anissa S. of White Head, and Leonard D., of British Columbia, and two sisters, Mrs. J. E. Foster, of this city, and Mrs. Robert Wade, of White's Mills, Kings county.

NEURASTHENIA--- NERVE STARVATION

A Disease of the Down Hearted—Practical advice on what to do.

Many a man is broken down and discouraged without having any actual disease in his organs and tissues—he has lost his grip, feels weak and nervous and everything looks dark. He is suffering from the great American disease—Neurasthenia or nerve starvation, due to over-work, worry, continual hurry and nervous strain. The only way to cure this is to get the product brought to the attention of the French Academy of Medicine by the celebrated Doctor Robin, which represents the principal chemical constituent of active living nerve force. It also contains genuine organic iron like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. Nuxated iron may therefore be said to be a real nerve and blood food since it supplies the principal ingredients demanded by your nerves and blood to give you strength, energy, force and endurance. It often increases the bodily and mental vigor of weak, worn-out, down hearted, and nervous folks in two weeks' time. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturer if it does not produce perfectly satisfactory results. For sale by all druggists.

GOSSIP AROUND THE MARKETS

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Maple Leaf Milling Co. Ltd., was an affair of routine. The board of directors was increased by two, namely: W. L. Shaw, of Toronto and A. R. Macdonald of Winnipeg.

German Bandit Kills American Soldiers

Coblenz, June 12.—Two American soldiers have died as a result of wounds inflicted by a German high wayman Wednesday. Private S. H. Shiffhauser, Company C, Fifth Infantry, was shot dead and private Clarence Leavell of the same company succumbed to his wound in a hospital Thursday.

According to the military police the men were stopped at midnight Wednesday on a road by the bandit, who demanded money. Shiffhauser refused to comply and was shot through the heart. Leavell then handed over his money to the bandit and asked to be permitted to bring aid to his comrade. The bandit, without replying, shot Leavell through the body.

Army detectives are investigating the shooting. Thus far no arrest has been made.

Russia's New Coins Have Czar's Image

No Other Dies Are Available for Soviets' Proposed Silver Currency.

Reval, June 12.—After having attempted to abolish money, the Soviet Government is going to use coins again. Paper money it has never been able to get rid of, though Lenin made it nearly worthless in his deliberate attempt to destroy the capitalist system by debauching the currency and by a continued process of inflation which enabled him to confiscate security and unobserved an important part of the private wealth of Russia.

The great Government mint in the fortress of St. Peter and Paul, Petrograd, will soon be at work again striking the coins. The whole scheme of work has already been mapped out; the machinery has all been put in order and 1,240 workmen will be employed.

This is one of the most striking evidences so far that Lenin has abandoned Communism. Silver money will first be used and the rubles and smaller coin will bear the effigy of Nicholas the Second, as no other models are available. Lenin came to the conclusion that no other sort of money would induce the peasants to part with their produce.

Booze Car Wrecked But Owner Escapes

Police Find Only Gin Odor and Debris, But Get License Number.

Waynesboro, Pa., June 12.—One hundred and fifty quarts of genuine gin went into the earth or ran down into the Antietam at 2:30 this afternoon, when a bootlegger's car balked going down a steep hill on the state road, a half mile south of this city, crashed through a fence and landed upside up in a field.

Every one of the 150 quart bottles was smashed and there was not a drop left to reward the police. The bootlegger jumped as the car hit the fence and escaped.

A car coming along thought to be that of a pal, soon after picked him up and made a dash out the state road into Maryland, where the trail was lost. His identity is unknown.

Motorcycle Patrolman Thompson found only the odor of the gin and the wreck of a car, but the local police expect to identify the man from the license number and other evidence.

Wheat Market

Winnipeg, June 11.—Today's short session on the local wheat market was not featured by any special tendency, business being of a levelling-up character, but the undertone was fairly steady and although prices seemed to be going weaker during the first hour, renewed buying came into the pit from seaboard interests which caused a recovery. ## Berlin Mystery IS CLEARED UP BY WIFE'S NOTE

Family of Three Found Dead With Arteries Cut—Drugs Responsible.

WIFE RESPONSIBLE FOR AWFUL DEED

Both Man and Woman Were Addicted to the Use of Morphine.

Winnipeg, June 12.—"I know my dear husband's illness is incurable so I determined we shall all depart this life together." A note containing these words, discovered late last night, cleared up the mystery surrounding the tragedy which caused great sensation in Berlin during the week-end. On Saturday Harry Walden, one of the most famous actors in Germany, his wife and stepson were found at home in a dying condition, all with cut arteries, and under in England. He is most famous as the creator of the role of "The Prince" in that most popular play "Hedda Gabler," and in Oscar Wilde's "An Ideal Husband." He is most famous as the creator of the role of "The Prince" in that most popular play "Hedda Gabler," and in Oscar Wilde's "An Ideal Husband."

Under Morphine. It was believed Walden attacked his wife and stepson and then turned the razor on himself. All three died in the hospital soon after admission. The above mentioned note, written by Frau Walden, shortly before the crime, makes it clear it was the wife who attacked the three men. At the time she was clearly under the influence of heavy doses of morphine and it was to that, more than the cruelty, that the blame was due. Before committing the crime she administered strong doses to her husband and son, presumably their sleep.

St. John, June 12.—"I know my dear husband's illness is incurable so I am determined we shall all depart this life together. A note containing these words, discovered late yesterday, cleared up the mystery surrounding the tragedy which caused a great sensation in Berlin during the week-end. On Saturday Harry Walden, one of the most famous actors in Germany, his wife and stepson were found at home in a dying condition, all with cut arteries. Walden, who for many years had been in the hands of the most famous doctors in Germany and Austria, a reputation similar to that of George Alexander in England. He is most famous as the creator of the role of the Prince in that most popular play "Old Heidelberg," and in Oscar Wilde parts are scored many successes.

Under Morphine. It was believed Walden attacked his wife and stepson and then turned the razor on himself. All three died in the hospital soon after admittance. The above mentioned note, written by Frau Walden, shortly before the crime, makes it clear it was the wife who attacked the two men. At the time she was clearly under the influence of the most potent of morphine and it was to that, more than the cut artery, that her death was due. Before committing the crime she administered strong doses to her husband and son, presumably in their sleep.

Story a Tragic One.

A tragic story is now told of the relations between the actor and his wife. She was a former actress, she first married an opium eating count, from whom she acquired the morphine habit. Walden, in turn, acquired it from her, though he must have inherited it to overcome it. Doctors and friends endeavored to persuade the couple to separate. He left her several times. Divorce proceedings were begun more than once, but he was unable to resist the extraordinary influence she exercised over him and, after short periods apart, they came together again. Lately Walden cleared he could show 100,000 morphine injection marks and during the past few months he could only avoid the influence of the drug. A few days ago a doctor persuaded him to take a long holiday with a view to breaking "the morphine habit, and it was because his wife thought he might be cured as a result and leave her that she is supposed to have committed the terrible crime.

Thief Kills Farmer And Wounds Sister

Woman Obtains Aid by Tapping on Window to Attract Passerby.

Winsted, Conn., June 12.—Joseph M. Parsons, 46, a farmer, was shot to death, and his sister Mary, 40, seriously wounded early today at South Norfolk by a tramp or burglar, who afterward ransacked the house and escaped without leaving a clue. The crime was discovered this morning by Fred Riggs, a neighbor, who called at the Parsons place and found the wounded woman, her face swathed in bandages. She was tapping on a window to attract his attention. Parsons was lying on his bed, dressed in working clothes, with a bullet wound near the corner of his right eye. Miss Parsons told I. L. Hamant, medical examiner of Norfolk, that she had been awakened about 1 o'clock this morning by a pistol shot and had gone to the door of her brother's room, where she met a roughly dressed man with a grayish beard, who had a lantern and a revolver. He fired at her, the bullet striking her in the mouth and knocking out several teeth. She staggered back to her room and remained there until Riggs arrived. A lighted lantern was found at the foot of Parsons's bed. No weapon of any kind was found in the house. It is thought that Parsons had lain down to rest after his work from the position of his body it was believed that he had been shot while sleeping.

Wanted in On It. He was seen avaricious person who had never failed to claim indemnity on the slightest pretext. One day as he approached a railroad crossing, he noticed that a lot of car-parts were lying about. Among them he discovered a human who was all but unconscious. "Was there an accident?" "Yes," was the whispered reply. "Did the engineer blow the whistle?" "The head feebly wagged a negative. "Has the claim agent been here?" "Another negative. "Let me lie down beside you, won't you?"

DEATH COMES BY HAND OF FORMER WIFE

Tragedy in Parisian Home When Jealous Divorcee Attacked His Successor.

ENTERED HOME AND ASSAULTED HUSBAND

Police Notified of What Took Place—Man and Woman Both at Liberty.

Paris June 12.—Shortly after ten o'clock last night the police station in the fashionable district of the Parc Monceau was rung up on the telephone and a quiet voice asked for the inspector in charge. "I am M. Jean Sturel, advocate of the court of appeal," said the voice. "I have just killed a man at my home, 4 Rue de Courcelles, and would be obliged if you would come and take all necessary legal steps."

When the police arrived they found M. Sturel sitting with his wife on a sofa, while in the hall lay the body of a man. Together husband and wife told the story of what had happened. The dead man was Marcel Hure, the divorced husband of Madame Sturel. She divorced him three years ago and a year later married M. Sturel.

Had Threatened Sturel. Since that time, according to M. Sturel's statement, Hure has constantly sent threatening messages to both husband and wife and recently Sturel began proceedings against him for threatening to kill him.

Last evening, just before 10 o'clock, while the two were sitting alone in their apartment, after dinner, Hure came to the door. He had driven up in a taxicab and, according to the driver, took a long drink from a flask before entering the house. Sturel answered the bell. Later Madame Sturel came out from the drawing room, having heard the noise of a struggle and a shot.

Fires Fatal Shots. Knowing that the visitor must be her former husband, she had armed herself with an old revolver of heavy pattern. When she stepped into the hall she saw Hure in the act of running on her husband, whose small pocket revolver had jammed. Without hesitation, she raised her arm and fired three times. The man who had been her husband fell dead. Sturel's first act was to attend to her. Immediately after she had recovered he telephoned the police. Both the husband and the wife have been left at liberty.

Desired Love Letters Burned

U. S. Naval Officer's Will Contained Compassionate Requests to Former Flames.

Washington, June 12.—Lieut. Joseph N. Wheatley, U. S. N., who died at his home here June 1, remained faithful until the very day of his death, according to the will filed for probate today.

The instrument, which disposes of an estate valued at in excess of $30,000, directed Ralph E. Wheatley, brother of the deceased and executor of the estate, to burn "all private notes, papers, miscellany, journals and photographs of ladies other than relatives as well as any souvenirs bearing thereon."

To offset the destruction of the tender missives and photographs of his women friends, Lieut. Wheatley makes cash bequests to certain of these acquaintances, both in this country and abroad.

"To My Dear and good friend, Susanne Declere, of Antwerp, Belgium," the testator leaves $1,000. "To my little friend, Elizabeth Carey, of Washington," the naval officer leaves $2,000. The testator also directs his brother to spend $500 for a gift to Miss Violet Davies, of London, England, and $250 for a gift to Miss Gertrude Rasmussen, of Washington, "in the hope that they will always remember me as one who entertained for them sentiments most profound, pure, to the dying day."

The balance of the estate is given to relatives. WELCOME JAP PRINCE Brussels, June 10.—Crown Prince Hirohito, of Japan, was welcomed at the Brussels station today on his arrival from Paris by King Albert, Prince Leopold, the Japanese ambassador and civil and military authorities. The prince was driven to the royal palace, through cheering crowds, accompanied by a military escort.

APPLE BLOSSOM TIME. I would go home in apple blossom time When all the air is vibrant with the tune Of bird and bee song, when the river is as a tender and melodious rhyme. And when the far hills which, majestic climb. To reach the smiling heavens, almost swoon Beneath the golden glory of the sun, When nature is akin to the sublime. The filmy pink and white with fragrance rare Would shroud the valley, on the distant slope The shimmering, iridescent trees would cling; I faint would stay a while, and rest, I faint would stay a while, and rest, Close in the heart of that sweet land of hope, Hark to the soft persuasion of the spring! —Elizabeth Scollard.

Papers were also found, implicating 400 Bolsheviks staying in Sweden who will be arrested and expelled from the country, it is said. The records of the Stockholm police show the arrest of five Finlanders, former members of the Finnish "red guard" and one Swede in connection with the movement.

Young Girl Struck By An Automobile

Alma Ring Had Right Shoulder Broken When Run Over by Car on City Road.

A sad and most unfortunate accident occurred on the sidewalk near No. 4 Fire Station, City road, at 7.40 last evening, when Alma Ring, fourteen year old daughter of Frederick Ring, 69 Acadia street, was knocked down and run over by motor car No. 3187 driven by Frank McHugh of 114 Somerset street.

Loat Control

According to a bystander the car came down Garden street at a moderate rate and turned up City road. McHugh seemed to lose control of the car which after describing an arc of some thirty feet struck the curb and running over it knocked down the little Ring girl, the front wheel of the car running over her.

Found Three Revolvers

In the meantime the 38 was found, and Nelson said it was all he was carrying. Detective Biddiscombe had noticed the bulge on the man's coat later he was proceeding to investigate when Nelson quickly offered to produce the evidence; his offer was politely but firmly refused and a second later the two 45's fully loaded were brought to light.

CHARGED WITH BURGLARY

Three arrests were made by the police Saturday. Lewis J. Nelson was arrested on a burglary charge, and two drunks were taken into custody. No arrests were made Sunday. One protectionist slumbered the first hours of the Sabbath away in a cell.

Rev. J. A. MacKeigan Tells Congregation of Reasons for United Church Action.

At St. David's Presbyterian church, Sunday morning, the pastor, Rev. J. A. MacKeigan, who attended the General Assembly of the church, recently held at Toronto, gave his congregation a review of the discussion, both pro and con, on church union which was carried by a large majority of the General Assembly vote.

First Move in St. John

He said the first move on matters pertaining to a union with the Methodist and Congregational churches was made when the General Assembly met in this city in 1904. Committees were then appointed to enter into negotiations with the Methodist and Congregational churches. Referendums on the question was taken in 1911 and again in 1915, the last referendum favoring church union by a vote in the proportion of 3 to 2. The General Assembly of 1916, he said, decided to take steps to consummate union which carried by 406 to 90. When the Assembly of 1917 met, with its difficulties it was decided to stay proceedings until the second Assembly after the war, and that Assembly held at Toronto, voted for union by a vote of 414 to 167.

Logic of eccecity.

The speaker said the question of union has been an insistent one because of the inability of the church to discharge their home and foreign mission duties, and that it is only by an united front that they can hope to do successful work in these fields. The union, he declared, is the logic of necessity. The war, and the experience of the church chaplains overseas have had a speeding up effect, and evidence from these sources have shown the great possibilities for work by a union. Divisions have proven a stumbling block. "How can we ask nations to form a League of Nations if we cannot heal our own division?" he asked.

The real difficulties are those of sentiment and religious pride, but, he declared, the minds of men are broadening and time will heal all difficulties. No church will be forced into union, and each will be protected. The goal is union and it must be found as quickly as possible that the work of the church may not suffer, and its accomplishment become greater than ever.

American Gunman Taken in Custody

Lewis J. Nelson on Suspicion of Breaking into Store Carried 3 Loaded Revolvers.

An American gunman, packing two big .45 Smith & Wesson revolvers, and sporting a 28 Iver Johnson, as a chaser, was rounded up by Detectives Biddiscombe and Donahue Saturday at noon in Lampert's second-hand store on Main street.

Suspected of Burglary

He is now lodged in the central police station charged with carrying concealed weapons on his person and also on suspicion of breaking into and entering the store of Jacob Tanman, 25 Brussels street, on May 26 and stealing five suits of men's clothes and a quantity of women's garments to the value of $100.

The man gives his name as Lewis J. Nelson, a Swede by birth, but who has been living in the States for a number of years.

According to the detectives the man arrived in St. John about the 16th of May and disappeared around the last of the month. When he was arrested Saturday he was dressed like a railroad worker, and stated he had been down in Nova Scotia as far as Sydney.

He had been placed under suspicion before he left the city, but got away before he could be secured. On seeing him in the shop Saturday the officers immediately placed him under arrest for the burglary charge. Detective Biddiscombe proceeded to search him, and Nelson, demurring, requested that the search be made at the station.

Found Three Revolvers

In the meantime the 38 was found, and Nelson said it was all he was carrying. Detective Biddiscombe had noticed the bulge on the man's coat later he was proceeding to investigate when Nelson quickly offered to produce the evidence; his offer was politely but firmly refused and a second later the two 45's fully loaded were brought to light. The guns are in the best of trim, real six-shooters and look like an army issue.

Previous to the Nova Scotian tour, and immediately on his arrival in the city, Nelson disposed of a quantity of cheap American jewelry, some fountain pens and other articles which the officers suspect formed part of a haul pulled off over the line.
