Debates of the House of Assembly, 1873.

THE COMMITTEE appointed to receive Tenders for reporting and publishing the DEBATES OF THE HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY during the next Session, and to conclude arrangements for carrying the same into effect by the acceptance of the lowest Tender, or otherwise, as the Committee may determine, announce that—

Sealed Tenders will be received at the office of Dr. Alward, Waterloo street, St. John, until noon on MONDAY, the twenty-third day of December, 1872.

1st. Tenders for publishing debates to state distinctly the rate per sheet for five or ten thousand copies, Imperial Quarto, with three columns to each page, solid columns, and otherwise in all respects similar to the Debates of 1870—the Debates to be published three times a week at least, from matter to be furnished by the Reporter, and to be delivered in some room in the House of Assembly Buildings, or mailed from the publishing Office.

2nd. Tenders for Reporting the Debates to state the sum per day—the Reporter to furnish promptly from day to day a full and accurate report of the Debates, and to prepare the manuscript in a proper manner for the printer, and to complete the same within three days after the close of the Session.

Tenders to be strictly in accordance with the requirements of this advertisement. Security will be required for the due performance of the Contract.

THE THIRD ACT.

Mr. Putnam to Mrs. Bowe.

MRS. PUT.—I was down to J. W. MONTGOMERY'S yesterday, and I bought a very fine Grebe Muff for $5.00,—it is a real beauty,—and a Collar to Match only $1.60. I am sure they could not be got in any store for double the amount.

MRS. BOWE—Why, yes, his very best Alpine Hats is only $2.00, and his best Black Silk, (new Black) is the cheapest I ever saw. Mrs. Childs, Mrs. Young and Mrs. Brown, and all the ladies around say—go to MONTGOMERY'S. [Enter Mrs. Fitchwater.]

MRS. FITCHWATER.—Good morning, ladies; I have come over in a great hurry to tell you I was in town on Tuesday. Well, going down King street, I seen Dry Goods stores out in the street. Well, looking for a door to go in, I went into MONTGOMERY'S. Well, do you know, he astonished me at his prices—all Wool Scarlet Flannels only 22 cents per yard, and very fine Dress Goods, New Greens and New Browns, only 12 cents per yard; in fact, all kinds of Wollen Goods cheap. I tell you he is the man. [Enter Mrs. Fultimer.]

MRS. FULT.—Good morning, ladies; you will please pardon me this morning for making such an early call, but I could not help telling you the news; if you want first-class Dry Goods of any kind go to MONTGOMERY'S. Do you know the ladies over where I live turned out that very stormy day, and three women came very near jumping in and swimming across the harbor.

MRS. BOWE—Let us act, and not talk. I am ready. Come, get up, ladies, and put on your Shawls and bring your monies.

MRS. PUTNAM—What is his number?

MRS. BURDENDELWICH—Mrs. Putnam, why you ought to be ashamed of yourself; there is very few but knows his store, in the country. It is 2 King street.

Nursery Rhymes--No. 19.

A BALLAD OF YE OLDEN CHRISTMAS TIME.

Long years have sped since Chaucer wrote and England's Wither sung,
And Edmund Spenser's voice is hushed, and silent is his tongue;
The blazing Yule no longer burns in palace or in hall,
And roundabout the wassail bowl is hung a darksome pal.

The good old days have passed away since England's Knights would dare
To brave the tilting tournament in 'fence of lady fair;
And genial Christmas is no more; St. Nicholas, too, is dead:
The olden time is of the Past—the merry days have fled.

There, side by side, the Druggist and Apothecary lies,
But here it is a Pharmacist, who, in their stead, would rise.
He vends not calomel and oil, nor salves to heal and cure,
But Murias Hydrargri and Zinci Sulphate pure.
He, Lubin's Perfumes does not sell for half their lawful price,
Nor Cleaver's Soaps below their cost, the simple to entice.
Our Xmas Stock has now arrived, selected with much care,
Embracing Choicest Fancy Goods, both costly, cheap and rare.

—MACAULAY.

THE Subscriber's Stock of SOAPS, Pomades, PERFUMES, Cut-glass and Fancy Cologne Bottles, IVORY TOILET SETS, Scent Battles, Tortoise-shell Back HAIR BRUSHES, Combs, Whisks, &c., &c., has now arrived, and to which an inspection by the afflicted public in search of Christmas novelties is invited.

" 10—Rev. G. M. Grant—"Our North West."
" 17—Rev. B. Shaw—Subject not yet given.
" 24— Do. Do.

The Reading Room is open daily (Sundays excepted) from 2 o'clock until 9.30 o'clock P. M. Leading newspapers and standard publications on fyle.

The School of Design is open from 7.30 o'clock to 8.30 o'clock, P. M., for Free-hand, Architectural and Mechanical Drawing, with Landscape and Figure. Ladies' Drawing Classes from 2 o'clock to 4 o'clock, P. M., for Pencil, Crayon, and Painting in Oil and Water Colors. Terms: $2.00 per quarter to members; non-members $3 per quarter.

The Library has been recently replenished, and is opened daily (Sundays excepted) from 3.30 o'clock to 4.30 o'clock, P. M., and every Monday and Friday evening from 7 o clock.

The Museum is open every Monday evening from 7 to 8 o clock.

The initiation fee for members is Two Dollars, which, with the payment of an annual subscription of Three Dollars, will entitle a member and two of his family to all the privileges of the Institute, including attending the Lectures, and the Library, Museum and Reading Room, when open.

☞ Tickets for a single Lecture will not be issued.

N. B.—In order to prevent unpleasantness and confusion at the door, the Directors have resolved to issue three tickets to each member, which must invariably be shown to the Doorkeepers; and owing to the limited capacity of the Hall, the rule providing admission to the holders of these tickets only, must be rigidly enforced. Members have the right to introduce Non-Residents to any of the Lectures—the name of the person introduced and of the Member introducing him being written on a card and handed to the Doorkeeper.

☞ Boys unaccompanied by their parents or guardians will not be admitted to the gallery.

Tickets, Programmes of the Concert and Course of Lectures, and all information concerning the Institute, may be obtained from the Curator at the Institute from 4 to 6 o'clock daily (Sundays excepted.)

☞ Doors open at 7 o'clock on Lecture evenings.

The Daily Tribune.

J. L. STEWART,.....EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1872.

The Custom House.

We give to-day an explanation from Mr. J. R. Ruel, correcting a statement made yesterday. We made the statement on what appeared to be the very highest authority. Mr. Ruel corrects it, and we willingly do our best to "set the matter straight before the public." That's just what THE TRIBUNE has been trying to do ever since the rumor ran that trouble existed. Our reporters interviewed everybody in authority, and we condensed the mass of charges and countercharges into a connected account. Later information has been used the same way, our wish being to let the public know just as much as we do. The venerable Standard, and some other journals nearer home, are in the habit of darkly hinting at depths of private information in their possession that would startle the world if put in type. That is not THE TRIBUNE's sty'e. When it gets what appear to be the facts of a matter of public interest it gives its readers the benefit of them. If there is any doubt about the authenticity of the supposed facts it gives its readers the benefit of the doubt, and lets them judge for themselves.

There have been so many contradictory statements made by those implicated, or interested, in this Custom House embroglio, and the truth seems so hard to find, that we have given up the task as too much, and have decided to throw the heavy burden upon our readers, giving them the information we get and the source from whence it comes. Therefore, judge ye, O people, for yourselves. If anybody wants to explain anything, if anybody desires to tell the people what he knows about the Custom House, let him come to THE TRIBUNE editorial rooms between four and seven, p. m., and the words that he may utter will be given to thousands of purchasers and borrowers of THE TRIBUNE on the following day. If the legal proceedings draw forth as much cross swearing as seems probable from the contradictory statements made by the interested parties in private and in the press, the Judge will probably take a few days to mature his judgment, and heartily wish that he could do as THE TRIBUNE does—leave judgment to the people.

The P. O. Inspectorship.

THE TRIBUNE's suggestion that, in case Mr. McMillan should resign the office of Post Office Inspector, Mr. Paisley should be advanced to the position, met with the approbation of everybody but a few politicians and the many candidates for the office. Public sentiment is strongly in favor of THE TRIBUNE's suggestion. If there is work to be done in an office give it to the man who knows how to do it. If there's no work abolish the office. A Post Office Inspectorship is not like the political offices whose occupants are supposed only to be responsible for the doings of their subordinates. It is an office altogether removed from politics—an office requiring preparation, activity, and intimate knowledge of the country comprised in the district. It should not be given as the reward for party services when there is a gent'eman in the regular line of promotion in every way qualified for the post—a gentleman who is better qualified than any other man in Canada. Should his claims be passed over it would be a great blow to the Civil Service of the country. It would be a warning to all courteous, zealous, untiring public servants that they need put forth no efforts to excel—that they need only keep in the usual routine of mediocrity—as there is no hope of promotion. Promotion is the life of any service. What would the army or navy be if the generals and admirals were appointed from the ranks of 'politicians? The Civil Service should witness the elevation of its deserving members. Every member should have the assurance that the highest office under the Government may be the reward of faithful services and genius for command. Gen. Grant set a noble example the other day when he refused to appoint the chosen of his party leaders to the Philadelphia postoffice over the head of the man who had been assistant for years. Gentlemen at Ottawa, follow it when occasion offers.

How Canada is Injured.

The Pacific Railway of Canada, which is to be undertaken by a company under the presidency of Sir Hugh Allan, is absolutely essential to the building up of our great North-West, and the general prosperity of Canada, and the continued opposition with which the scheme meets from men who profess to have the welfare of the country at heart is incomprehensible except on the supposition that their party feelings blind them to the aid and comfort their raven utterances give to the powerful influences at work to prevent emigration to our shores. The Halifax Reporter pertinently says:

This want of patriotism—this small, narrow pot-house style of political warfare indulged in by the Opposition, is a great harm to us. It is, in fact, the curse of Canada. The opposition of the English squires who hate emigration, because it takes away their laborers; of the manufacturers who hate emigration because it takes away their hands; of the monied people who hate emigration because they look upon the surplus population as a sort of providence in favor of their class; of the military people who hate emigration because they cannot get recruits—all these oppositions are as nothing till they have the instrument of execution put into their hands by our own public men and public journals. These, by their unpatriotic utterances, supply the headsman's axe, and it is used with fearful effect upon the population of the land. We here know how much deduction to make from the heated, partizan statement. It is different in England

If the union of all Protestants cannot be secured the next best thing is the union of the different members of its great families. Presbyterianism has made considerable progress in the work of consolidation, and now it is proposed that in this tercentenary year of John Knox a grand council of all the Presbyterian churches in the world be called. This new Ecumenical Council would represent twenty thousand congregations, or a population of thirty-four millions. By including the Luthuran and other kindred bodies the total population would be fifty-seven millions. Such an assemblage, representing so mighty a constituency—mighty in numbers, wealth, intellect, and traditionary glory—would be a grand ecclesiastical gathering, and great results might follow.

A New York Herald "special commissioner" to Canada writes to his paper:

I find there are two parties, the Conservative and Reform parties. The first is in power with Sir John A. Macdonald for Premier. The second, like the outside unfortunates everywhere, is seeking to get in. The points of difference between them are these:—The Conservatives, like the Tories of England, want strong government and stagnation. They are made up equally of French and English speaking people, and if they had their own way no turnpike roads would be built, no changes of administration would occur, offices would be hereditary and, like in the lotos eaters' island, all things would always seem the same.

Such stuff is the Herald satisfied to pay a special's expenses for. It could be turned out by the cord and forwarded to New York dirt cheap by local agencies.

MR. RUEL INTERVIEWS THE TRIBUNE.

What he knows about Warehouses—No Receipts given for the Brown-Oulton Notes—His Suspension a Shame—The Sworn Testimony will Vindicate Him

"I wish you would put me right in THE TRIBUNE to-morrow," said Mr. J. R. Ruel to a TRIBUNE reporter last evening.

"What's wrong, Mr. Ruel?"

"One of your writers says it now transpires that I held Brown and Oulton's notes at the time I was interviewed by one of your reporters."

"Well, didn't you?"

"Nothing of the kind. The statement I made to your reporter in the first place, and republished by you to-day, was the truth. I knew nothing of Mr. Brown's indebtedness for duty until a few days before the public exposure of the matter."

"Then you didn't accept Brown's notes for $32,000?"

"No. Mr. Tuck handed me the notes, but I gave no receipt for them, and handed them back when I found they were worthless."

"Then you did have the notes?"

"Yes; but not when I talked with THE TRIBUNE reporter. It was after that, about the time Mr. Johnson came, that Mr. Tuck gave them to me; Mr. Tuck will give the exact date. We were glad to take anything; were willing to accept any kind of security that promised to be any good; and took the notes and kept them till the meeting of creditors showed them to be worthless. I gave no receipt for them. They were handed to me by Mr. Tuck, and I handed them back, just as I would anything else of no value."

"We were given most distinctly to understand that the evidence taken at the late enquiry showed that you knew of Brown's deficit long ago."

"I had no knowledge of any deficit at all until the 26th of September. When the state of affairs was reported to me then I immediately ordered an excise lock to be put upon the warehouse. I did know that the warehouses may be entered and goods removed under the system that has prevailed for years. There's not a warehouse in the city safe from this. The private warehouses should be abolished; there should be three Government warehouses. The system is all wrong."

"Are you suspended yet, Mr. Ruel?"

"The order hasn't come yet, but we are preparing for its reception. I think it's a great shame to suspend me, considering the facts that were brought out on the investigation held by Mr. Johnson. The point is whether I knew of the way business was done at the warehouse No. 9—Mr. Brown's. Did Mr. J. notify me? No. Did Mr. B.? No. Was I notified one day before I took action in the case? No. This was sworn to at the investigation—my oath, of course—and this is the point that vindicates me."

"THE TRIBUNE is sorry if it has represented your position to be less favorable than is shown by the sworn testimony."

"Well, please put it straight to-morrow. My first statement to you—the one you quote to-day—was in accordance with what will be proved in court. I only want to be put fairly before the public, you know."

"THE TRIBUNE will be most happy to put you straight."

As the New York journals would say, Mr. Ruel, having no more explanations to make, bade the reporter a courteous good evening, which the reporter with equal courtesy returned, after which Mr. Ruel departed.

What the People Say to the Tribune's Nominee for the Inspectorship.

MR. PAISLEY DOES THE WORK.

To the Editor of the Tribune.

SIR: I am glad to find one journal in St. John that can speak out for the promotion of a deserving official who is without political or business influence to back him. Wm. Paisley has been the real P. O. I. ever since the office was established, i.e., he has done the work.

With respect,
M. E. C.

THE OFFICE BELONGS TO MR. PAISLEY.

To the Editor of the Tribune.

DEAR SIR: The man for the office of P. O. Inspector is Mr. Paisley, who has so long and ably acted as Mr. McMillan's first assistant. I don't want Mr. McM. to retire, but if he does the office belongs to Wm. Paisley.

Truly yours,
L. L. D.

THE DAWN OF A NEW ERA.

To the Editor of the Tribune.

RESPECTED SIR: Your advocacy of Mr. Paisley's advancement against all the schemes of politicians, and all the "claims" of party hacks, and all the influence of newspaper proprietors, is highly honorable to your able paper. Should the Government act on your timely suggestion it would mark the dawning of a new and brighter era in the country.

Hopefully yours,
P. P. M.

Horace Greeley's Will is Vigorously Contested.

NEW YORK, Dec 10.

At White Plains yesterday, the daughters of the late Mr. Greeley, with a few friends, accompanied by counsel, appeared before the Surrogate to offer for probate the will of their father. This was executed on November 29th, 1872. It had been written by Mr. Greeley some time ago, but was only presented him for execution a few hours before his death. It gave all his property to his two daughters. The instrument had been placed among his private papers by Mr. Greeley, and was only taken from among them at the time of his last attack, and at the first lucid interval thereafter, offered to him for acknowledgement.

At the same time counsel appeared before the surrogate to contest this will, and offering in its stead one dated January, 1871. The contestants are Samuel Sinclair, Richard H. Manning and Charles Storis,—the latter being named as executor. The counsel for the contestants then said that he hoped that the proponents of the will would acquiesce in the will of 1871. He thought that the will executed by Mr. Greeley before his death did great injustice, in as much as it gave all the property to Miss Ida, with the qualification that one-half of it was to be used by her at her own discretion in the support and education of her sister Gabrielle, and that some relations would be deprived of property intended for them. The counsel for the daughters thought that these remarks were uncalled for, and announced that Miss Ida had offered to assign to her sister one-half of the property; also to grant suitable annuities to relations.

The Misses Greeley then declined to consider any proposal for a compromese. Regular proceedings for a contest will ensue on the ground of the incapability of the testator to execute the will of 1872.

The first witness was Miss Lawson who testified that she became a witness to the will on the day Mr. Greeley died. Mr. Greeley was then a few hours before his death conscious and rational. After some further examination of this witness, adjournment followed.

The will of 1871 gives the property to his daughters; but in addition gives bequests to this relative and a legacy, equal to the value of a share of the Tribune, to the Children's Aid Society of New York.

Burned to Death.

[From the Cape Breton Herald]

On Tuesday, the 26th ult., a house owned and occupied by a Mr. McIver, at Hunters Mt., Victoria County, was destroyed by fire. The fire occurred during the day, and in the absence of Mr. McIver, and it was not until the neighbors saw the flames bursting through the roof and ran to inform her of it, that Mrs. McIver, who was in the house at the time, was aware of its existence. As soon as the alarming intelligence was imparted to her the poor mother became almost frantic, and was with difficulty restrained from rushing into the flames, in search of her eldest child, who was missing, and was believed to be in the burning house. Her fears proved too true, and the fire had gained such fearful headway that nothing could be done to save the child's life. What the feelings of the mother must have been to see her little boy of six summers literally burned to death before her eyes, we can better imagine than describe. The fire originated in the garret, where it is supposed the little fellow had gone to amuse himself burning matches.

Frosdick, who deserted from the 78th Highlanders three years ago, has been arrested at Halifax and sent to England.

NOTES AND NEWS.

The Germain Street Baptist Bazaar and Festival will continue this evening; Admission 10 cents.

In Halifax an Industrial School boy is awaiting trial for stealing.

Simon Perrior disappeared from the deck of the schooner Leander, lying at the wharf in Halifax, Monday morning before daylight, and is supposed to have fallen into the water, although no splash nor cry was heard by those who were working with him.

Between Sunday evening and Monday morning a water pipe in the upper story of Mr. Lawson's building, Halifax, flooded the auction room of Mr. Nicholas Wirell, which is on the ground floor. Mr. Wirell's whole stock was injured, more or less. The damage is estimated at from $1,500 to $2,000. The part of the building in which the burst occurred was unoccupied.

The Louisville Courier-Journal has a most obstinate way of meaning what it says and sticking to it. Hear it: "The Nashville Banner takes us to task for calling a Chicago editor a jackass. Inasmuch as the Chicago editor is a jackass, we would invite the attention of the Banner to the extreme impropriety of calling him anything else."

Suicide is sometimes a crime, but often it is the desperate act of a much abused and distracted creature driven to the wits' ends by the buffets of a cruel world. There is in this world no punishment for the wretched creature who is his or her own victim, but should there not be some penalty for those whose cruelty drives another to the desperate extremity of self slaughter? A woman hung herself the other day in Cincinnati, and the evidence is strong and abundant that the act was the result of abuse and cruelty of her husband. Had he killed her directly by his blows the law would take him in hand. Should he be allowed to go free because he chose a process of torture that drove her to do the desperate deed herself?

At about half-past ten o'clock on Saturday night a fire was discovered in the house of Mrs. Catherine Burns, at Rockville Centre, L. I. Mr. Stiner, a resident of the town, broke into the lady's apartments to extinguish the flames. When he had forced the door a heart-sickening and terrible sight met his gaze. There, on the floor, lay Mrs. Burns, enveloped in a mantle of flame and a broken kerosene lamp in one of her hands. He succeeded in extinguishing the fire, but not in time to save the woman's life. An inquest was held at which it was learned that the woman was subject to fits, and the general opinion is that she fell in a fit while she had the lighted lamp in her hand, and was thus burned to death.

Brevities.

The death of Mr. Howard B. Coyle, on Sunday last, has been received by his numerous friends in this city with deep feelings of regret. The deceased had for 15 years been in the employ of the International S. S. Company, and was one of the most gentlemanly and obliging employes on the line.

Mr. L. P. W. Desbrisay, formerly M. P. P. for Kent, died at Richibucto yesterday morning after a short illness.

The Westmorland County Court opened yesterday. Of five criminal cases entered, two were dismissed.

Last night was the coldest of the season and the air to-day is bracing.

Promotion.

The many friends of Geo. Travis, of the Customs Department, will be pleased to learn that he has been promoted to the office of Deputy Collector of Inland Revenue for the Province, a situation he is amply qualified to fill.

The Lyceum.

"Nobody's Daughter" at the Lyceum last evening was greeted with a good house. Miss Bidwell in her roles of Jennie Milsom, Lady Eversleigh and M'lle Brewer was fully up to the mark. She was ably supported by Miss Effie Keans, and Messrs. Pope and Budworth. Connolly and Hill as Black Malcom and Dennis Wyman amused the audience considerably. "East Lynne" is on the boards for this evening.

Young Men's Christian Association.

The fifth annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association was held last evening at their rooms on Charlotte street. The various reports were submitted and received. That of the Treasurer showed the receipts during the year to be $1,242 21 and the expenditures $1,247 93. The Visiting Committee showed that 3,500 indigent persons had been relieved. The Building Committee stated the cost of the new building at $31,000. Of this a part has been raised by subscription and a loan of $13,000 has been obtained. It was proposed to increase the annual subscription of members to $2 instead of $1—as formerly. For $3, members will also have the benefit of the gymnasium in the new building, and for $5, will have all the other privileges. Every member must pay his amount before receiving a registration ticket, and it was decided to allow the old members time until the first of April to take out their tickets.

Mr. Wm. Welsh was re-elected President, this being his fifth term of office. The other officers are as follows:

Vice President's J. E Irvine, W. H. Fairall, E. McLeod, Henry Kidd, G. M. Steeves, John Stewart, A. D. Robertson, Treas., E. T. C. Knowles, Rec. Secretary; Joshua Clawson, Corresponding Secretary.

Managing Committee—H. B. White, G. H. Burtis, Jas. Bostwick, H. P. Kerr, S. Welsh, J. A. White, J. S. Thorne, J. McA. Hutchings, H. J. Thorne, R. C. Quinn, P. Chisholm, J. A. Likely.

The thanks of the Association was tendered the daily press for their kind insertion of notices of meetings, &c.

An Interesting Occasion.

The Council of the Board of Trade held a very interesting meeting yesterday afternoon, the attendance being quite large. Among those present were the crew of the life boat and the Courtenay Bay crew, with the exception of one whose name could not be ascertained. The President of the Board, Mr. C. H. Fairweather, after some suitable remarks presented each of the Courtenay Bay crew with $20 in gold, the gift being accompanied by the following testimonial:—

ST. JOHN, N. B., Dec. 10, 1872.

To John Coholan, William Smith, Patrick McCarthy, and

The Board of Trade of St. John present their thanks to you for the timely aid you rendered the crew of the schooner Pioneer, at great labor and exposure to yourselves, on Saturday the 30th of November last, and request your acceptance of the sum of $80, as a small token of their appreciation of your services on that occasion, and the committee express the hope that you may be prospered and long spared to aid the distressed. Whilst thus publicly recognizing your active conduct on the above occasion, the Board are not unmindful of the assistance rendered by many others who were present and aided in procuring and launching the boat.

(Signed) C. H. FAIRWEATHER, President.
(L.S.) A. C. FAIRWEATHER, Secretary.

A brief response was made by Mr. Cobolan on behalf of the men, after which Mr. Fairweather presented the following testimonial, which was accompanied by $50 for each of the life-boat crew:

ST. JOHN, N. B., Dec. 10, 1872.

Messrs. John S. Thomas, Charles Bridges, George Doody, John Tole, Timothy Collins, Robert Murray and James O'Neill:

The Board of Trade of the port of St. John present to you their thanks, and express their admiration of your gallant services in voluntarily manning the life-boat and going, at the risk of your own lives, to the assistance of the crew of the brigantine Reward, wrecked on the Round Reef on Saturday, the 30th November last, and, under divine Providence, rescuing two of your fellow beings from destruction. They desire to mark their appreciation of your valued services by the presentation of a small testimonial, and now request your acceptance of the sum of $350, to be equally divided among you, and hope that in the day of prosperity God will bless you, and in the hour of danger His strong arm may rescue you, and that your example may long be remembered as an encouragement to others to aid and assist those who may be in peril and distress.

(Signed) C. H. FAIRWEATHER, President.
(L.S.) A. C. FAIRWEATHER, Secretary.

At the request of Mr. John Magee the men stood up as their names were called and all, except Mr. Thomas who was unable to be present, briefly expressed their thanks and their determination to continue in the good work they have commenced. Remarks were also made by Mr. Keans and Sheriff Harding.

Communications were read from the Dominion and Montreal Boards of Trade, the latter being in reference to some contemplated changes in the Insolvent Act. A committee was appointed to report, and the same committee will also consider the local bill in reference to legal procedure as affecting mercantile matters.

It was resolved that insufficiency of rolling stock on the Intercolonial be favorably represented to the Board of Works. A committee was also appointed to consider the improvement of the navigation of the Upper St. John and also to consider the matter of tariff and report.

The DAILY TRIBUNE is not excelled as a city advertising medium.

Sale of Crown Prince.

The New York Herald, of the 8th inst., says: "L. C. Chase has sold his grey gelding, Crown Prince, to Mr. Frank Ferguson. Crown Prince was a very successful horse during last summer, having won several capital races from good fields of horses. The price paid for him has not transpired, but it could not have been much less than $15,000."

We are informed that Crown Prince was owned by Messrs. T. B. Barker & Sons at the time of his sale, as above, Mr. Chase having merely charge of the horse. We are glad to learn that this first class trotter has realized a first-class price for his owners.

A Fleet Chase and a Long Chase.

About five o'clock last evening the chilly wind of winter blew its searching blast over the city and touched alike the rich and poor, honest and dishonest. At the hour mentioned it chanced that Mr. W. W. McFeters, clothier, had displayed a variety of warm ready made garments in front of his store on the Market Square. It chanced also that at that hour a shivering mariner passed by and feeling the cold and seeing the attractive display paused to consider the situation. The opportunity was tempting, the coat was handy, and the street was clear. The mariner, chilled with cold, forgot that it was naughty to steal the goods of his neighbor and with great discrimination selected a coat valued at about ten dollars and a half, and silently stole away. But the keen eye of Mr. McFeters had detected the fraud and forsaking his position in the store he gave chase to the abstractor. A stern chase is, it is said, a long one, and so it proved in this instance. The ground was icy and slippery and both the pursued and pursuer labored under great disadvantage. The thief essayed to speed like John who drove furiously but the ice seriously interfered with his agile motions. Mr. McFeters with the same disadvantage probably wished that he had wings like a dove to overtake the trespasser on his rights; and stimulated by the hope of victory he onward sped, crying "stop him!" The speed of both parties was so insignificant that persons on the wharf imagined that Mr. McFeters, bare-headed as he was, was engaged in a "tub race" with the other individual; and accordingly no one stopped the thief. When the pursued reached Thurgar's corner, on the North Wharf, he began to feel exhaustion and in order to increase his speed dropped the coat of contention. Mr. McFeters had been going at the rate of four miles an hour, but on seeing the coat he lessened his speed and to his great joy found the lost article. The pause was beneficial to the thief who profiting by the delay vanished into the shady retreat of York Point. Mr. McFeters continued the pursuit, but after going another block and not overtaking his depredator returned to his shop in triumph with the coat and will hereafter carefully watch his goods and stand a terror to evil doers.

Shipping Notes.

A fine barque of 800 tons register, called the Palermo, was launched on Friday afternoon at Granville Ferry. She was built by Mr. Lawrence Delap. The Palermo will proceed immediately to this port to load for Europe.

A ship of 100 tons is building near Annapolis by Mr. Brooks for account of a party in Yarmouth, and two more large ships have just been contracted for, to be built in the same vicinity for Yarmouth parties. Shipbuilding is growing to be an important branch of business on the Annapolis River, while the lumber trade with South America and the West Indies is also steadily increasing.

The brig Bessie of this port has been condemned and sold at Louisburg with cargo. W. H. Moore, Esq., of North Sydney, was the purchaser for $3,249.

The schooner which drifted ashore Mispec, bottom up, on the morning of Saturday the 30th ult., is not the Daniel York of Parraboro, N. S., as was before reported, as that vessel arrived at Salem, Mass., from Cheverie, on the 5th inst., all well.

The brig Harold has been hauled off West Quoddy and is now discharging her cargo of shooks at Eastport.

Sad Case of Drowning.

Between nine and ten o'clock this morning two men named Henry Bailey and Samuel Warren left the city in a small boat for the purpose of going to Little River to gather boughs to decorate the Duke Street Baptist Church. A very heavy sea was running at the time and the surf on the eastern shore of Courtenay Bay rendered any attempt to land in an ordinary boat perilous. It is supposed that Bailey and Warren, becoming alarmed, attempted to make a speedy landing without due caution and in the attempt the boat was upset by the heavy surf. The accident was witnessed by Albert Fulton, who was in the house of Mr. James Fox, and procuring the assistance of William Chisholm, James Fox and Alexander Fulton, he started to the rescue. At this time the boat was bottom up and quite near the shore, but as the waves were dashing eight or nine feet high and the rescuing party had no ropes to secure themselves when venturing in the only aid that could be rendered was by poles. Warren, being a good swimmer, succeeded in getting sufficiently near to grasp a pole and was dragged ashore alive. The last seen of Bailey he was struggling in the water, but the boat descended from a wave on which it had been raised, struck him on the back of the neck, and he disappeared. The body has been recovered. Bailey was about 30 years of age.

Circuit Court.

THE QUEEN VS. GEORGE SHERWOOD, JOHN SHERWOOD, JUDSON STEEVES AND JACOB BROWN.

Yesterday afternoon Acalus L. Palmer, Esq., was placed on the stand as a witness for the defence. His testimony chiefly related to the difficulty about the title to the land. Mr. Palmer appeared very weak and left the Court shortly after the close of his examination. David Shank Kerr, Esq., Q.C., was subpœnaed to bring with him certain papers relating to the title. The learned gentleman came, he saw, he conquered. He refused to deliver up the papers on two grounds; 1st, Professional confidence; 2nd, His having a lien on them to the amount of fifteen pounds. Under these circumstances the Judge thought Mr. Kerr was right in refusing to part with the papers. W. H. Tuck, Esq., Q. C., was examined this morning in regard to a former indictment. [illegible] the present prosecutor, Stackhouse. The case may be finished to-day but it is doubtful.

The Grand Jury presented a true bill against George Bedell charged with wounding the lad Joshua Corkery, yesterday. This case will probably be tried on Monday next.

Equity Court.

Yesterday Judge Weldon, having come from Fredericton for the purpose, commenced the hearing of the equity case of the Scovil Trustees vs. Major Robinson. The hearing will occupy some time. Messrs. Pugsley, Crawford & Pugsley for the plaintiffs, and Messrs. Duff & Barker for the defendants.

City Police Court.

The Magistrate found his time fully occupied this morning by the number of mixed cases which came under his cognizance. Six prisoners were in the dock and several arrested on warrants were on the floor.

The first case was that of John McDonald, the young Scotchman who has of late been so frequently before the Court. Yesterday he was among the prisoners and was let go to be again arrested for drunkenness on Union street. He admitted the offence, but faithfully promised, if let go, that he would take the pledge and reform. The Magistrate admonished him very seriously and reminded him that his mere resolution which had been so often broken was of little use unless he on his knees prayed for help from God to keep him from destruction. In view of all the circumstances the Magistrate fined him $6 with the alternative of two months in the Penitentiary, and trusted that his imprisonment would be means of his reformation.

James O'Connor, 36, Ireland, was before the Court yesterday for drunkenness, and on his reappearance this morning was fined $6, or two months Penitentiary.

Donald Gunn, the veteran, 55, Ireland, [illegible] like sentence for being drunk on [illegible]

[illegible] McGrath, 24, Ireland, was given [illegible] by his stepson, Thomas Pierce, assaulting him in a house on Main [illegible]et. He admitted the offence and was fined $10. The amount was paid by his wife, who is mother of the complainant.

John Sweeney, 18, N. B., one of a disorderly crowd, standing and swearing on Union street, pleaded it was his first offense. He was fined $6, and received a reproof for swearing.

Wm. Garey, 30, England, came to the station for protection. He was before the court under similar circumstances yesterday and is evidently of unsound mind. His lip showed marks of a blow which he said was received from some person at his former boarding house. The magistrate asked the prisoner, "What is your name?" "Some call me Garey and some McGarey. I don't know which is right, as I never was christened." "Where do you belong?" "I don't know." The magistrate then told him that the station was no place for him to lodge, and asked him if he had no way of doing something. "Well," was the reply, "if you could fix me up a bed at the station I would not mind wearing a policeman's coat. I think I could do as good service as most of them." The magistrate sent him to gaol for thirty days.

John Broderick, 59, Ireland, came to the station for protection. He was cautioned and let go.

John Perry lives or did live with his wife in the house of Mrs. Mary Holland, York Point. He appeared this morning with a doleful tale of abuse from Mrs. Holland who with force of arms and billets of wood went for him and his little daughter. It seems that he attempted to move his furniture, and that Mrs. Holland tried to hold it for a balance of rent due. After both parties had told the court their story the case was settled by Mrs. Holland agreeing to allow the removal of the furniture on condition that the rent was paid next Saturday night. Mrs. Holland left court, carrying with her a large stick of wood which she had brought to be used in evidence.

Silene Collins was fined $6 for calling Susan Brocklebank very naughty names.

BOSTON, Dec. 10, p. m.

Gold and exchange steady.

The safety of the steamship City of Bristol is announced; she had arrived off Queenstown with a broken shaft.

Consols and foreign markets generally are without change.

The political excitement in France is quieting down.

LONDON, Dec. 10

The gale continued yesterday, but not with such severity as Sunday. Despatches continue bringing intelligence of disasters both on sea and land. The damage in London is considerable. Six houses were blown down, and forty persons were injured by falling buildings.

An unknown brig foundered off the coast of the Isle of Wight, and every person on board perished.

The bark Strathand, from Hamburg for New York, was wrecked on Kemeridge Ledge. Crew saved.

The gasometer attached to the Royal Arsenal, of Woolwich, was damaged, and the hospital has been without gas two nights.

Telegraphic communication was very much impeded.

STRIKERS IMPRISONED.

LONDON, Dec 10.

Several striking gas stokers in London have been sentenced to six weeks imprisonment.

THE WIRES DOWN.

Telegraph wires in Ireland, prostrated by the gales, are not yet fully restored.

THIERS BOTH RIGHT AND WRONG

A deputation of moderate Republicans in the National Assembly called upon M. Thiers yesterday to express apprehensions that he was leaning too far towards the party of the Right. The President in response assured them that he would uphold the firm and unshaken policy announced in his message at the opening of the session.

TWENTY-TWO PERSONS ROASTED TO DEATH

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.

The Fifth Avenue hotel, New York, was damaged by fire last night to the extent of $100,000. The domestics who occupied the upper story were unable to escape owing to the burning of the staircase. Twenty-two dead bodies have been recovered; sixteen in one room, and six in another, which is probably all. Most of them are burned beyond recognition. Many guests had retired, and a great panic ensued when the alarm was given, which was a little past eleven.

At a Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, for the City and County of Saint John, held at the Court House, on Tuesday, the Tenth Day of December, A. D. 1872:

Resolved, That in the name of the inhabitants of the City and County of Saint John, this Board desires publicly to recognize the voluntary and ready services of the several persons hereinafter mentioned in connection with the rescue, from their perilous and hapless position, of the captain, mate and four seamen, of the schooner "Pioneer," driven ashore on the eastern side of Courtenay Bay, in the Parish of Simonds, by the gale which occurred on the morning of Saturday, November 30th, namely:

Of WILLIAM LENEY, ROBERT MURRAY, CHARLES BRIDGES, ISAAC MURRAY, JAMES DALY, and WILLIAM MORRISON, who, at the request of His Worship the Mayor, went from the City to Red Head for the purpose of rescuing the unfortunate seamen.

ALSO, of GEORGE RUDDOCK, WILLIAM SMITH AND ALBERT FULTON, ALEXANDER FULTON, AND WM. CRINKLOM, three of the crew of the schooner "Enterprise," (stranded by the same gale, about a-quarter of a mile from the "Pioneer,") who, at a great risk and with much labor, succeeded in laun hing from the "Enterprise" the boat in which the "Pioneer" crew were saved, and in dragging the same to the shore near where the "Pioneer" lay.

AND LASTLY, of JOHN CONOLAN, WILLIAM SMITH, PATRICK McCARTHY, and two other seamen, of the "Enterprise," (names unknown), by whom said boat was promptly manned and the rescue of all on board the "Pioneer" safely accomplished.

Resolved, That there be presented to the said John Conolan, and those with him in said boat, the sum of $10 each as a further memorial to them of the public approbation of their humane and skilful efforts and of the success by which they were attended; and further

Resolved, That the County Treasurer be directed to place at the disposal of (Justice Keans), the Chairman of the Committee, out of the contingent fund the sum necessary to meet this grant; and that a copy of these resolutions be inserted in each of the City papers.

(Extract from the Minutes.)

THE FAMILY CIRCLE

With a vast amount of interesting, entertaining and valuable information relating to what is going on in this busy world of ours.

By making up a club, a man can secure for THREE CENTS A WEEK, a

Thirty-Six Column Newspaper,

Which is filled with news, reports of markets, articles upon agriculture, business, trade, politics; essays, poetry, short stories, pen sketches of events in real life, and practical hints upon all topics of interest, which are carefully prepared for THE BOSTON WEEKLY JOURNAL, which is the CHEAPEST NEWSPAPER published in New England.

The Publishers call attention to

What the Reader Gains by the Recent Enlargement of the WEEKLY JOURNAL.

On the 1st of June the Publisher of THE WEEKLY JOURNAL increased the size of the paper, without increasing the price. This enlargement was equivalent to adding

OVER SEVEN COLUMNS OF READING MATTER

To each issue of THE WEEKLY JOURNAL. In fifty-two weeks the number of additional columns given is 364, which is equivalent to about twelve extra copies of THE WEEKLY JOURNAL of the old size. The subscribers therefore receive at THE SAME PRICE this large amount of additional reading matter.

We shall continue during the coming year all the old features which have given the WEEKLY the large and substantial support which it enjoys in New England, and we shall add such novelties as may strengthen its hold upon the reading masses.

Specimen copies sent upon application.

All Postmasters are requested to act as agents.

Though the enlargement adds materially to the cost of production, there will be

NO CHANGE IN THE RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION.

The success achieved by this weekly visitor to the free de ef thousands is owing less to the extremely low terms at which it is furnished, than to its excellence as a weekly companion of news and information, which is read by young and old with pleasure and gratification.

RITCHIE'S BUILDING, St. John, N.B.

OUR course of study is comprehensive, and adapted not only to such as have enjoyed the best educational advantages, but also to those whose education is deficient, from want or neglect of early opportunities or other causes. Those who desire to engage in Mercantile pursuits will receive that which is invaluable to them in the safety and despatch with which they will be able to conduct their own business or that of others. It gives the Mechanic an opportunity to take a front rank, by reason of superior ability to transact with correctness the business of his calling. To those engaging in Agricultural life it gives a practical knowledge and experience in business, which will enable them to meet the shrewd business man with confidence. And to that large class who are uncertain what course to pursue, it is not only the best stepping stone to lucrative and permanent business of their own, but also a ready means of commanding regular employment.

Ayer's

Sarsaparilla

Is widely known as one of the most effectual remedies ever discovered for cleansing the system and purifying the blood. It has stood the test of years, with a constantly growing reputation, based on its intrinsic virtues, and sustained by its remarkable cures. So mild as to be safe and beneficial to children, and yet so searching as to effectually purge out the great corruptions of the blood, such as the scrofulous and syphilitic contamination. Impurities, or diseases that have lurked in the system for years, soon yield to this powerful antidote and disappear. Hence its wonderful cures, many of which are publicly known, of Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Ulcers, Eruptions, and eruptive disorders of the skin, Tumors, Blotches, Boils, Pimples, Pustules, Sores, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, and internal Ulcerations of the Uterus, Stomach, and Liver. It also cures other complaints, to which it would not seem especially adapted, such as Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Fits, Neuralgia, Heart Disease, Female Weakness, Debility, and Leucorrhœa, when they are manifestations of the scrofulous poisons.

It is an excellent restorer of health and strength in the Spring. By renewing the appetite and vigor of the digestive organs, it dissipates the depression and listless languor of the season. Even when no disorder appears, people feel better, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. The system moves on with renewed vigor and a new lease of life.

For the Maritime Provinces.

Extracts of Roots and herbs which almost invariably cure the following complaints:—

Dyspepsia, Heart Burn, Liver Complaint, and Loss of Appetite cured by taking a few bottles.

Lassitude, Low Spirits and sinking Sensation cured at once.

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, and all impurities of the blood, bursting through the skin or otherwise, cured readily by following the directions on the bottle.

Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Derangement invariably cured. One bottle will convince the most skeptical.

Worms expelled from the system without the least difficulty. Patients suffering from this prevalent disease will see a marked change for the better in their condition after taking one bottle. Worm difficulties are more prevalent than is generally supposed in the young, and they will find the Quaker Bitters a sure remedy.

Nervous Difficulties, Neuralgia, &c., speedily relieved.

Rheumatism, Swelled Joints and all Scrofular Afflictions removed or greatly relieved by this invaluable medicine.

Bronchitis, Catarrh, Convulsions, and Hysterics cured or much relieved.

Difficult Breathing, Pain in the Lungs, Side and Chest almost invariably cured by taking a few bottles of the Quaker Bitters.

All Difficult Female Derangements, (almost invariably caused by a violation of the organic laws,) so prevalent to the American ladies yield readily to this invaluable medicine—the Quaker Bitters.

All Impurities of the Blood and diseases incident to the same always cured by the Quaker Bitters, if taken according to the directions.

The Aged find in the Quaker Bitters just the article they stand in need of in their declining years. It quickens the blood and cheers the mind, and paves the passage down the plane inclined.
