COUNCIL PASSED BY-LAWS AT SESSION LAST NIGHT

Fixed Assessment for New Factory in Eagle Place—Ald. McFarland Would Abolish Fire-Crackers as Form of Amusement for Children—Other Notes.

The City Council had a real business session last night. It was both with and without fireworks. Ald. McFarland, in the report of the fire and light committee, expressed the intention of prohibiting pyrotechnical street displays in future. Inasmuch as Victoria Day and King's Birthday are over, Ald. McFarland's resolution looked like an attempt to lock the barn after the horse got out. In many respects the Council proceedings were interesting. To chronicle the details of the evening in summary form it is necessary to refer to: (1) The granting of a fixed assessment to the new sporting goods firm, which will employ not less than 25 hands in Eagle Place. (2) Appointment of W. B. Scace to succeed the late John P. Pitcher on the Collegiate Board. (3) A by-law authorizing local improvement, during the discussion on which it was charged that Brantford's system re public work construction had been in times past loose and extravagant. Ald. Spence made the charge, which brought forth a defence by Ald. Suddaby. (4) A by-law passed to raise $8,000 for road machinery, including a steam shovel and traction engine. (5) It was decided to try Ald. Broadbent's experiment to oil part of the market square. (6) Action will be launched against the Westrumite Paving Company for failure to repair pavements. (7) Hydro-Electric expenditures were ordered on new materials, and a big saving effected. The reports of the various committees follow: (Continued on Page 10)

EVELYN IS BACK IN MUSICAL SHOW

Harry Thaw's Wife is Earning Her Living in London Show.

LONDON, June 10.—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw slipped quietly into the cast of "Come Over Here" at the Hippodrome. Her name was not even on the program. She did one dance and then danced the tango and the monkey foot with Jack Clifford. Although obviously nervous, she went through her performance surprisingly well. As a matter of fact, not a dozen people in the theatre knew her identity. Her performance in the evening was an even greater success. She was warmly received and enthusiastically applauded purely on her merits. The attacks on her performance here which have been made in certain London newspapers have evoked considerable sympathy among prominent people. The chaplain of the Chapel Royal Savoy appeared in her behalf, Ethel Levey, saying: "I hope you will be kind to her. If she is seeking a legitimate livelihood on the stage give her all the help you can."

Similar feelings have been expressed by Lady Bathurst and others. Her story is naturally familiar to Londoners, and the impression is spread that she has suffered nobly. After the performance she wrote to a correspondent: "I feel, I've gone on the stage simply to earn my living. After the trial I've been offered several offers to go on the stage simply because I declined to be a freak of myself. Furthermore it was a matter of common sense."

I have observed that those who are conspicuous through some phase and then went on the stage again very quickly. Coming to England I felt I could go on the stage without raising great comment. I am working hard and I am anxious to succeed. If I win success I can return to the United States and reap the reward on the stage as a genuine artist and be judged upon my merits as an artist."

Where Is Star Witness?

[Canadian Press Despatch] WHITBY, Ont., June 10.—The case against W. J. Watson, police magistrate of Oshawa, on the charge of bigamy, is set down for hearing at 2 o'clock this afternoon. It was confidently stated this morning that the witness, the woman who laid the charge, who was a Miss Annie Long, and who claimed to be Watson's first wife, has disappeared, and would not be present when the case is called. If it turns out so, the Crown will probably ask for an adjournment, which can only be arranged with the consent of the other party.

By automobile and train the throng started early to-day for West-

Hydro Estimate The Utilities

TO the Doubling Thomases around the Council Board in regard to Hydro-Electric disbursements, the purchase of 2900 street lighting brackets, which was authorized last night on recommendation of Ald. McFarland's committee, came as a distinct Davi. In the original estimates these brackets were supposed to cost $3.50 each, but by good work in Engineer Ireland's department the city was able to make the purchase of the brackets at $2.60 each. A saving on this item alone of $2600 is effected.

FEDERAL MINISTER LIKELY TO RETIRE

Work Too Heavy for Hon. Dr. Roche in Spite of His Convalescence.

[Canadian Press Despatch] OTTAWA, June 10.—Word has been received from Hon. Dr. Roche, Minister of the Interior, that he expects to sail from England for Canada on June 20.

The doctor is considerably improved as a result of his trip, but it is considered very doubtful whether he will be able to undertake again the strain of administering such a heavy department as that of the Interior. He may not resign at once, but it is thought likely that unless the department can be lightened he will be compelled to do so within the next year.

Arthur Meighen, of Portage la Prairie, and R. H. Bennett, of Calgary are regarded as the most likely successors to the doctor if his health is such that he is compelled to drop out of politics. It is stated that Hon. Dr. Roche will succeed the Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba when the latter's term expires.

LIGHTNING HIT DRAGOONS AT NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE

The Brant Squadron Had a Terrible Time of It—Horses Reared and Broke Away—Officers, Sergeants and Men Called Out For Halter Duty.

An officer who returned from Niagara camp on a day's leave, advised the Courier reporter that the storm which passed over Niagara Friday night was one of the worst which had struck Niagara in years. The Cavalry officers fearing a stampede of horses summoned the officers, sergeants and privates to the lines. The storm was so bad that the horses had to be held by the halter on Friday night from 9 o'clock until 4 o'clock next morning. Lightning struck barns all round the camp, many of which were burned but luckily none of the soldiers were hurt. At times the parade grounds were vivid with lightning. It seems a miracle that no man or animal was killed. Tens were blown down but the men stood by their (guns) horses. Next morning the 2nd Barford Dragoons had to move their lines as the horses were up to their knees in water as a result of the heavy rain. Everybody was drenched to the skin. Colonel Hall, P. V. O., complimented the officers of the 25th Brant Dragoons and the 2nd Dragoons, on the splendid class of horses that they took to camp. Colonel Hall said they were the finest lot of horses in camp and a credit to Brant County.

Under Strength. The brigades at camp are away under strength. Brant Dragoons, 2nd Dragoons and G. G. Body Guards are away under strength. Only two squadrons are up to strength, the lucky ones being D Squadron, 25th Brant Dragoons, Maj. H. F. Leonard, commanding and C Squadron, 2nd Dragoons.

Good Food. "The food for man and beast are the best I have ever seen at camp and I have attended for the last 20 years," said a cavalry officer to a Courier reporter this morning.

Allowances. The men are allowed per day: 1 1/4 pounds of fresh beef; six ounces of bacon, 2 ounces of cheese, 2 ounces of butter, 6 ounces of vegetables, 1 pound of bread, tea, coffee, milk and sugar.

King George Said To Have Lost Heavily

[Canadian Press Despatch] NEW YORK, June 10.—A cable to The Tribune from London says: Heavy losses suffered by King George in recent big slump of the Stock Market, were the occasion for a prolonged audience which Sir George had with the King the morning after Derby Day. The consultation was to arrange for the realization on certain securities held in trust for the King by Lord Stamfordham and another member of the household. The King's losses are understood to have resulted from extensive operations undertaken on his behalf in Canadian Pacific. Last week that stock declined 14 points in the London market and the King's loss is stated to be $700,000. Lord Revelstoke is the King's private adviser, but the operations in Canadian Pacific were taken contrary to that banker's advice.

TWENTY-NINE YEARS IN JAIL

That is the Record of Joseph Gillies—He Got Another Year.

Joseph Gillies was this morning sentenced to serve twelve months in Central prison for housebreaking and theft. Two charges were lodged against the defendant one by Edwin Gibbens and the other by Joseph Saggese and for each he was sentenced to serve 6 months. Both charges were proven beyond a doubt and the Magistrate's decision against the defendant was clearly a just one. The defendant pleaded not guilty to the charge when it was read to him but later he practically confessed and pleaded for mercy. Gillies said, "Your Worship, this is the last time that I will ever appear in any court."

"How old are you?" asked the magistrate. "I am 63" said Gillies. "I am sorry for you" continued the magistrate, "do you want to spend all your life in prison. You seem to be an inveterate, you no sooner get out of prison than you commit some new crime. As it is you have been in the penitentiary 29 or 30 years."

Joseph Gillies' Record. Gillies has been sentenced at several courts, some of his local commitments are: Feb. 29th, 1907, sentenced to six months in the Central for housebreaking.

1908—Chas. Mason, alias Joseph Gillies, charged with vagrancy, ordered to leave the city.

Later, he received four years before Judge Hardy for housebreaking and theft was lodged against Joseph Gillies this morning. Yesterday Edwin Gibbens, a farmer from Mt. Pleasant, charged the prisoner with having broken into his house on Sunday and having stolen clothes and jewelry valued at $50.

Joseph Saggese, an Italian, residing in Echo Place charged that Gillies had broken into his house on last Tuesday and had stolen a suit of clothes, $37 in money, a hat, a fountain pen, a comb, a razor and several other small articles. G. Galbraith, a neighbor of the complainant told of having seen Gillies near Saggese's house on the day of the alleged theft.

Detective Chapman gave evidence of having found the coat, the pen and the empty purse on Gillies. The defendant swore that he had bought the coat from an unknown man on the market last Saturday.

We are glad to report that to date sales are considerably in advance of last year, which was the best in our history. During the month of May sales have been made of valuable residential properties on Brant Ave., Lorne Crescent, on Brock St., in the East Ward, valuable block on Colborne St., and good property on Oxford St. Besides, a number of lots have been disposed of in the Jos. Robinson Estate Survey, on the Hamilton Road, and in Prospect Park. It will be seen from the above that selling has been general, and not confined to any one locality. We are looking forward to a very active movement in Elliott Park properties in the near future. Elliott Park is bound to become one of the most popular sub-divisions in the near future. So soon as the Lake Erie and Northern Railway complete their line prices will advance rapidly in Elliott Park, and to all those who may be desirous of purchasing lots for investment, or for homes in the future we say buy now. Do not wait until the Fall, and pay higher prices. This is the time to buy Elliott Park lots, and the sooner you close for an office and get plans, or we will drive you over and show you the lots. They are on the line adjoining city limits, on Mt. Pleasant St., and on the proposed line of the Lake Erie & Northern Railway from Brantford to Port Dover. BUY NOW!

THE WORK OF THE POST-MASTER GENERAL.

The work of Hon. Mr. Pelletier, as Postmaster General, is bearing good fruit. When the Laurierites held office, postal facilities, like most other public facilities during the Liberal regime, were neglected to a very large extent.

Take the Brantford post office. We were short on letter carriers and short on clerks, and the constantly increasing volume of business was expected to get through on time with inadequate help.

That which was true of this community was equally true of just about all others. Mr. Pelletier, since his acquisition of office, in 1911, has made an earnest and successful effort to build up the service in accordance with the necessary public requirements.

He has greatly improved the cable facilities; he has increased the pay of the letter carriers; he has greatly extended the free rural mail system, and he has in hand a comprehensive parcel post delivery.

That which is true of the Post Office Department of the Administration, is equally true with reference to the Customs and other branches.

As to the parcel post proposal, the scheme will provide for such a system in Canada. There has for years been an agitation for such a measure, but it has always been turned down by the old Government and the passing of this measure is a great step in advance.

Mr. Pelletier, in introducing the bill explained the plan of the Government. It has been decided to fix the weight limit of parcels at eleven pounds, and 72 inches would be the maximum of length and girth combined. It has been decided to introduce the zone system but on simpler and less complicated lines than in the United States. Each of the Provinces would be regarded as a zone but the three Maritime Provinces would be combined to form one zone.

The first zone of all would be within a radius of twenty miles of the point where the parcel is posted irrespective of provincial boundaries. That would give protection to local dealers and country merchants against the departmental stores in the larger cities.

The second zone will be outside the twenty mile radius but within the boundary of the province. The other zones will be constituted by the various provinces the Maritimes being combined.

The Government intends to establish as cheap rates as possible, although it is the intention to make the system self sustaining and to put it on a business basis. It is the intention to put the system into force by January 1, 1914, and perhaps before.

The Borden administration is one of plain and efficient duty on behalf of the people.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

About the best thing to do with the Canadian Senators would be to make them all ship on the Rainbow.

Flag Day was certainly turned by the Ladies Hospital Aid into a bag day. Good luck to them.

There was talk during the recent session at Ottawa of trying to get the sessional indemnity raised from $2,500 to $3,500. Without discussing the merits or otherwise of that demand, it may be affirmed that the man in Parliament quite often finds that it is necessary to have private means to stay in the game. There is not only the loss of time at business, but the expense of many months at the capital, while the house is kept up in the riding from whence the member comes, the many private and party calls, election expenses and so on. The letters M. P. as much as anything else stand in relation to the purse strings for Many Pulls.

There is not much use crying peace to those Balkan States when there is no peace. What each of them seems to be most in need of is a sound spanking at the hands of the powers.

Mr. Andrew Carnegie is credited with the statement that if Jap forces ever succeeded in entering the United States they could never get out again. Well, isn't that just what some of them are after and is causing the entire hubbub?

The editor of the Parry Sound North Star suggests that a barber's charge should be graduated according to the quantity of hair taken off. "You may depend!"—Orillia Packet.

And perhaps a barber might claim it worth the full price to hunt for the hair.

There is one hero in the States who is not quite so sure about the benefits of the Carnegie fund for the recognition of plucky deeds. He was awarded $1,000 on condition that he place the money in a house. He did so, and so much more of it that he now finds himself a bankrupt when before he was living in contentment.

The city has made well out of the sale of some more of its property. This added to the prices received from the old Waterous properties, makes several thousands of dollars so added to the civic treasury. Buying land in a live community, if it is located right, is always good business. Not apt to get away from you like speculative stocks and about nine and three quarter tenths of mining propositions.

The Pittsburg Despatch is quite right when it says in referring to the death of Miss Davidson, the Suffragette, "What explanation can there be for such a freak, except that of epidemic and acute monomania? The reasoning that stopping a race horse has some bearing on votes for women, that it will 'produce an effect,' and the utter regardlessness of consequences are the symptoms of mental aberration. It is history that hysterical, nervous conditions may be epidemic."

That the voluntary death of that benighted woman will help the cause is altogether improbable—rather the reverse.

It would have been better far if Mr Borden had stood on his own feet as Prime Minister of Canada and worked out a Canadian policy—and there is no policy half as useful to Britain's ultimate interests as a sound Canadian policy for Canada.—Toronto Star, (Liberal).

Under the circumstances, the above is sheer nonsense. The emergency is now and not several years hence. At this juncture, even taking it from the mere selfish standpoint, Canada can best help herself by strengthening the strong right arm which has without a cent of previous cost, guarded our coasts and our commerce with such faithful and complete service. It is sheer and arrant poltroonery to pretend anything else.

Lightning at Camp

The Horses. An allowance of 14 pounds of hay and 12 pounds of oats is made for each horse.

Qualified officers are detailed to inspect the food for man and beast.

Shooting Good. Most all the men have been to the "butts" and the shooting this year is good. Nearly every man has qualified for his efficiency pay.

No Accidents. Fortunately no serious accidents have occurred so far at camp and the men are having a jolly good outing. The usual camp festivities are held on the commons every evening when the men are at leisure.

KELVIN ITEMS

A good shower of rain would be very much appreciated at present as the ground is getting rather dry.

Mrs. J. Soners spent Monday with friends east of the village.

Quite a number from here attended the garden party on Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. Adrian Smith of Northfield Centre.

Mrs. P. Boroman, this place, was called away to attend her daughter, Mrs. C. Mitchell, who is quite seriously ill.

Mr. G. Gill is laid up at present. He had the misfortune to injure one of his knees a short time ago. We hope soon to see him around again all right.

Mrs. George Huffman's auction sale of household effects was quite largely attended and good prices were realized throughout.

We are sorry to report the serious illness of Mrs. Lewis and hope for her speedy recovery.

Mrs. R. McCombs is also quite poorly at the time of writing.

We had quite a heavy frost here on Wednesday night, but hope it did not do much damage.

What the Other Fellow Thinks.

Canada in Good Shape.

Monetary Times: The New York financial mind has a reputation for quick action. On the Canadian situation, however, it is working about two months behind time, having only just discovered that matters generally are quiet in Canada. In order to counterbalance belated thought, exciting stories come weekly from Wall Street as to "the impending Canadian crash," "the coming Canadian panic" and "Canada's trade balance running wild." As a matter of fact, what may be truly termed a period of rest is being experienced in the Dominion, and the banks prepared some time ago to adjust matters. That is far removed from a crash, a panic or trade balance instability and at the same time it is a good thing for the country.

One on Pugsley.

London Free Press: Hon. Dr. Pugsley noted, he said, that the Government has "taken many unnecessary millions in undue customs taxation." And yet the revision of the tariff that Dr. Pugsley supported for 15 years has been downward.

Rank Condition in Port Dover.

Port Dover Mail: In the Junior Division of our Public School there are at present forty one children who can only attend school half a day simply because there is no room for them. It is our bounden duty to provide this accommodation and not willfully deprive them of their inalienable right to all the education they are capable of taking at this critical period of their existence. If they don't get it now they will never get it. The other half of the day they are in great danger of getting a "street education" universally acknowledged to be the very worst that can be given.

The Duke Made Good.

Toronto Star: There were many in Canada—and we were among the number—who felt and expressed misgivings when it was suggested that the Duke Connaught, a leading member of the royal family, might be appointed governor-general. What we feared was that those who are that way inclined would seek to utilize the office of governor-general at the expense of our own government and parliament. While we are unable to say that no such inclination has been manifested in some quarters, we are free to admit that the Duke of Connaught has occupied a somewhat difficult office with such good sense and tact that we have not heard of a single critic who has had a fault to find.

With a wisdom gained in a wide and varied experience, the present governor-general moved everywhere in and about and across Canada, without being, as far as one could see, in any way affected by the hot politics of 1912.

Cremation.

Hamilton Herald: The remains of the late Alfred Austin, poet laureate, were cremated; also the remains of Mr. Wiggins, late manager of the Hamilton branch of the bank of Montreal. The substitution of cremation for inhumation is gradually but steadily growing. May it continue to grow! The Herald hopes that some day it will be able to record the opening of a crematorium.

Toronto Telegram: When the Prime Minister yesterday arose in the House of Commons at Ottawa and announced that the Government was coming to the relief of the distressed depositors of the Farmers Bank, many of whose little all had been engulfed in the wreck of that institution, his words spelled happiness to five thousand four hundred people throughout the country.

Of this number who had trusted their savings to the ill-fated stewardship of those who played fast and loose with the money, 200 of the total 5,400 depositors in Canada lived in Toronto. Many had long since sadly resigned themselves to a total loss of their cash.

"It may be of interest to know that at meetings of the depositors held all over the country it has been resolved that if the Government reimbursed them for the loss of their deposits, they would help out shareholders who have had to pay up under the double liability penalty. There were some seven hundred shareholders in the Farmers Bank, and they are out of pocket some $150,000 in this connection." "Should the Government pay in full, the shareholders would get their money back, but of course, the percentage are allowed, the shareholders reimbursement would necessarily be less."

The Gentle Cynic

Beauty is only skin deep, and yet the average woman is taken at her face value.

Many a man's conscience gets callous long before his hands do.

A hundred people are willing to lend their ears where one will lend a hand.

The line of least resistance demonstrates that the people who yield to temptation are generally looking for it.

Lots of marriages are based on the theory that it is easier for a woman to love a man than to let some other woman love him.

Virtue may be its own reward but some people try to make a trademark of it.

It's all right to speak well of the dead, but save a few kind words for the living.

NO WOMAN LAWYERS IN GREAT BRITAIN

Many Countries However, Admit Them to the Bar—Some Views on Both Sides of the Question

By an overwhelming majority a large meeting of British barristers, distinguished and otherwise, rejected, at the Inner Temple Hall a proposal that women should be permitted to practise at the Bar. In France, Russia, Switzerland, the United States, and many British dominions, including Canada, women are allowed to practise as barristers, and many of them have proved ornaments of the Bar in more senses than one. It seems to be purely owing to old-fashioned prejudice that ladies are not allowed to invade the legal profession in England in the manner in which they have invaded other professions hitherto deemed the prerogative of man. And it was this prejudice which aroused the indignation of Miss Christabel Paakhurst some years ago when, after taking the degree of bachelor of law with honors at the Victoria University, Manchester, in 1905, she was refused admission as a law student at Lincoln's Inn.

A Woman's Opinion

Curiously enough, at the time members of the English Bar were discussing whether women should be admitted to the legal profession, Mrs. Ethel de Costa, LL.B., a lady who practises as a lawyer and solicitor in the Supreme Court of New Zealand, arrived in England on a visit. Mrs. de Costa is convinced that the time will come when women will practise in the English Courts. She is sure that women are eminently fitted for certain classes of legal work, particularly matrimonial and separation cases, in many of which she has appeared for the woman, her clients being principally ladies, although her services are sought by a fair sprinkling of men.

Similar views are held by Mme. Rachel Vuille, who was admitted to the Bar in Geneva.

Brilliant Advocates

Mme. Vuille did not take up law from a financial point of view, but simply to help women, though she receives men clients. "I think," she says, "the woman lawyer can defend a woman prisoner, especially in penal cases, better than a man counsel because there is more sympathy between women, and in delicate cases a woman will confide more to a female lawyer than to a man."

On the other hand, Chief Justice Sir John Madden, of Australia, considers that ladies entering the legal profession are handicapped by nature and sex. "Women," said Chief Justice Madden when Miss Greta Flos Matilda Greig, the first lady barrister of the Commonwealth, was called to the Bar in Melbourne, "are naturally more sympathetic than judicial, more emotional than logical. Besides, knowledge of the world is quite as essential to success at the Bar as knowledge of the law."

At the present time there are over a dozen lady barristers in France, and in the States women have practised at the Bar for some thirty years, and altogether there are some forty women barristers appearing in the courts in that country.

HEADACHE MEDICINES

Serious Consequences Almost Sure to Follow Constant Taking

The headache medicine habit is a bad one! The powders, tablets and capsules so frequently taken to cure a severe headache often lead to the drug habit. The main argument against using headache medicines is that they harm the blood cells in such a way that they cannot properly carry oxygen to the cells of the body nor can they carry away body wastes. The consequence is self-evident. The body becomes clogged with poison. The individual gets flabby and soft-suboxidized, physically and mentally. The headache which was an occasional visitor becomes a frequent visitor. In stead of being cured by a small dose of headache medicine, it takes a much larger one to dull the pain. However a person may be justified in taking an occasional dose of headache medicine, but in such case the condition should be exceptional. Whenever you find yourself becoming a regular patron of the headache pellet pull yourself up. It's time to take time to find out the cause of the headache. Remedies that are needed frequently are of little use. It is far better to ascertain the underlying trouble and prevent the need of a cure.

A man may have an iron will and still his heirs may break it.

You can hurt some people more by laughing at them than by shooting at them.

A Suggestion

The Mayor states that he was spoken to by Mr. Kellett of the L.

suggestion that a Lorne bridge be widened in the future, it would be well now for the company to allow for under abutments now instead of having the city rip out a lot of expensive work later. His Worship is turning the matter over to the board of works whose members will probably have a conference with Mr.
Kellett.

requested to submit sketch designs for the consideration of the board.

Serious Charge.

WELLAND, Ont., June 10.—Robt.
Nugent, a bachelor of middle age, who was arrested the other day on a noninal charge of vagrancy, accompanied Provincial Detective Miller and Chief Mains of the Falls to a field yesterday and pointed out a spot where he had buried the body of an illegitimate child of which he acknowledged being the father. The mother is an Irish immigrant girl, who worked for him in his mother's house. He admitted the child died and was buried five hours after birth. Nugent will be charged with seduction and also concealing a birth.
An inquest will be held.

The Inquiry In Jail 29 Years

Into The Death of Max Keating Was of Brief Duration

An inquest was held at the police station last night to enquire into the death of the late Ray Keating, who was killed in front of the Grand Trunk station on Monday afternoon,
June the 22nd, Coroner Dr. C. C.
Fissette presiding.

The jury after being out about five minutes, brought in a verdict of accidental death. Only three witnesses were called.

Miss Cora Lemery, the first witness, swore that she was employed as waitress at the King's Hotel. She stated that she saw the young man killed. She said she was looking out of the window and saw Keating run alongside the moving train in an attempt to board it. She saw him fall under the moving train and the wheels pass over his body.

Charles Benwell, on being sworn stated that he was sitting on a truck on the platform at the station, and saw Keating make an effort to get on the train, which was moving out, and saw him fall under the wheels of a coach, which passed over his body.

John Spittal, proprietor of the King's Hotel, swore that Keating and two companions came into his place of business, and ordered somelunch.
Before they had time to eat what they had ordered, the train pulled out, and the three ran out of his place to catch the train. He followed them to the door and saw Keating fall under the train and the wheels pass over his body.

Dr. Fissette stated that in his opinion Keating came to his death by accident, due to his own carelessness and that nobody was to blame but himself.
The jury adjourned and came back in less than five minutes with the following verdict:

"We, the jury empanelled to enquire into the death of the late Ray Keating, find that he came to his death purely accidental in attempting to board a moving train."

The Coroner then dismissed the jury.

Crown Attorney A. J. Wilkes represented the Crown, and D. F. Mc-Grath appeared for the Grand Trunk Railway Company.

The Magistrate refused to believe the defendant's story as the case was perfectly clear against him and sentenced Gillies to six months in the Central prison.

Other Cases.

A score or so of Old Country people occupied the opposite side benches in the court this morning, all charged with being disorderly, a charge which resulted from a street fight which occurred yesterday afternoon. The men all pleaded self defence, which was a new departure to all in court. The evidence which was very contradictory, showed that two of the brothers were attacked by their two brothers and their brother-in-law. The men's wives were also mixed up in the fray and with stones, scissors and an axe, a regular battle took place. The factions sat on opposite sides of the room this morning and besides looking daggers at each other, indulged in various complimentary pet names. When a witness would score a point, those favorable would clap or cheer while those against whom the point was made would make derisive calls and shout "It's a lie" or "don't tell lies."

The mother attributed the trouble to one of her daughter's-in-law. The Magistrate mildly suggested that perhaps it was a case of too much mother-in-law, and while this comment was favorably received by one party, it was hoisted by the other.

The Chief had the greatest difficulty in maintaining order in the court and despite his vigilance the interested ones continued to break out in excited comments and gesticulations. One party in a deep awe-inspiring voice that echoed back and forth across the court room continually, cautioned the witnesses to "tell no lies." The other defendants although brothers, seemed very bitter against each other.

Magistrate Livingston ended the

FROM TORONTO TO EDMONTON WITH CANADIAN WOMEN'S PRESS CLUB

(Special to The Courier)

FRIDAY, June 6.—All was bustle and excitement at the Union Station, Toronto, on Thursday evening. C. W. P. C. came to join Mr. Ham and his party of newspaper women heading for their convention at Edmonton. The long train—ten cars in all—was surrounded by hundreds of sweethearts and friends. All of them were on hand to wish God-speed to the travellers. Pretty corsage bouquets showed their thoughtfulness in many cases, while all sorts of good-looking hampers, books and magazines were produced at time of parting—and we were off.

Two sleepers had been reserved for our party—all invitingly made up and awaiting occupancy—the berth one by one taken possession of by their rightful owners for the trip. Then introductions made, and after a short chat, the goodnight said, as it was by that time nearly midnight and all were ready to turn in. To my portion fell an upper berth—the climb was easy despite a few bumps en route—and every one slept like tops, to waken in the morning journeying between Sudbury and North Bay.

Three dressing rooms to each sleeper made the making of our toilet an easy matter and quick of accomplishment—then we were all ready for breakfast.

In the dining car, the tables with their snowy white drapery and dainty appointments, were, through the courtesy of the C. W. P. C., all centered with silver vases filled with fragrant pink roses (our special diner also) the waiters, anxious to serve, and once more we met with the unfeeling courtesy which seems to characterize all those in any way connected with this splendid railroad—and needless to say, ample justice was done to all the good things provided. In the meantime, we were covering the ground very rapidly, and in making our way to the observation car at the rear, found we were going through the rock and mountainous western country with its rising heights covered with naked trees, the lower, newer growth of greens below. Trees with full foliage—turbulent little rivers playing hide-and-go-seek beside us, with here and there a lake thrown in. Many construction camps and gangs of workers, all along the line of route, while overhead clouds chased us along but never overtook us—the old sun shining a burst of gladness every once in a while as if enjoying the by-play.

We spent the morning outside of camp stools, for the air was balmy and delightful—part of the time much interested in a fellow passenger—a poster celebrity now on the way to Vancouver in reference to the work she has taken up—the organizing of "acquaintance clubs for lonely women"—many matrimonial affairs having been the outcome of her efforts in various places—and of course we drew from her all the details.

One stipulation is that both parties have to procure authentic credentials as well as bank books and accounts before an introduction is effected—but that once attended to, its "up to them," as the small boys say.

The towns passed so far are all wee places—Pogina, Metagama, Bischof, Ramsay, Woman River, Wakami, Redout, Menegos, Devon—but at Chaplain we had a wait, so every one was off for a ten minutes walk—the time allowed before proceeding.

Now we have just finished luncheon, and one by one our people are settling themselves for an afternoon's enjoyment. The hearts and gratitude of all are with Mr. Ham, who with his daughter—in-law and small grandson, accompany us on the trip—as we are, thanks to his thoughtfulness, travelling like princes, nothing is left undone that can, even in the slightest measure, add to our comfort or happiness while on board.

Our first stop will be at Winnipeg, which we are due to arrive at 1:55 p.m. Saturday—from that point forward, our particulars will reach you. Our party from Toronto, numbers twenty-five, and we nearly all hope to go on to the Coast before returning. Travelling with us are several celebrities, but they are all just charming "women" on the trip and delightful to be with. E.V.N.

Hon. Geo. H. Perley, Acting Minister of Trade and Commerce, will on Wednesday next be married in Grace Church, Ottawa, to Miss Mildred White, a daughter of the late Hon. Thomas White; who was a member of the Cabinet of Sir John A. Macdonald. Last summer Mr. Perley was acting Prime Minister during the absence of Premier Borden in England, and for the past six months he has been looking after Hon. Geo. E. Foster's department. This summer Mr. Perley will spend with his bride touring in Europe. Later on he may become a sort of permanent Canadian Minister in London under Premier Borden's scheme of an advisory and consultative Imperial Council at the Imperial capital, pending the realization of the larger scheme of complete copartnership union. Miss White is very popular socially in Ottawa, and for the past year has been at the head of the May Court Club, the chief philanthropic and social organization of the young ladies of Ottawa. Hon. Perley's first wife died some three years ago and was a Miss Bowlby, well known here.

DR. JAMES M. MUNYON SEEKS TO BE FREE FROM HIS ACTRESS WIFE

Having decided after his third experiment that marriage is a failure, James M. Munyon, a manufacturer of patent medicines, filed an action for divorce against the actress to whom he was married in 1908, when he was sixty-two years old and she only twenty-four. The third Mrs. Munyon before her marriage was Pauline Neff Metzger.

Mr. Munyon's first wife was named Clayton. She conducted an employment agency in Philadelphia. A divorce decree ended that romance.

The second Mrs. Munyon was Miss Dora Harvey, sister of Dr. Charles H. Harvey, a Philadelphia physician. She obtained a divorce several years after the marriage.

The third Mrs. Munyon originally appeared in vaudeville as Pauline Neff. She went to Santa Fe, N. M., and was married there to Carl Metzger, a young engineer. After she obtained a divorce from him she returned to her father's home in Altoona, Pa., but soon went back to the stage. Mr. Munyon met her in 1907, and a year later they were married one night in Jersey City, N. J.

OLINSKEY—CROCKOCK.
A very happy event transpired this morning at 9 o'clock in St. Basil's church when Bertha Crockock, daughter of Mrs. Wm. Crockock, 68 Spring street was united in marriage to Mr. Frank Olinsky in the presence of friends and relatives by Rev. Dr. Brady. The bride gowned in white embroidery lawn and wearing a bridal veil with a wreath of orange blossoms and carrying white roses walked to the altar leaning on the arm of the groom's brother Mr. Philip Olinsky, who also acted as best man. Miss Maggie Doherty, who acted as bridesmaid was dressed in white embroidery lawn and carried pink roses. Miss Helen Hedley Pentland was gowned in white embroidery and carried a basket of pink and white carnations containing the wedding ring. After the ceremony the bridal party returned to the home of the bride's mother when the many guests sat down to a tasty dejeuner at which the happy young couple were the recipients of many hearty wishes for their future happiness.

The groom's present to the bride was a gold locket and chain set with diamonds and to the bridesmaid, an emerald ring and to the flower girl, a pearl ring. To the best man he gave gold cuff links.

Mr. and Mrs. Olinsky will leave tomorrow for New York City and other points. While in New York they will be the guests of Mrs. Battersby, sister of the bride.

They were the recipients of many beautiful presents, including a substantial cheque from the bride's mother. Many friends will join in extending congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Olinsky.

Miss Edna Burrell left today to visit relatives in London and Detroit.

Mrs. W. R. Abbey of St. Catharines is visiting Mrs. J. Cahill, Wilham street.

Mrs. W. H. Pearce and daughter Helen, after an enjoyable visit with Mrs. Trembier, Bedford street, have returned home.

On Monday night Mrs. J. Hawthorne, 27 Palmerston avenue, entertained about thirty girls in honor of the bride-elect, Miss Sadie Young, when a miscellaneous shower was given her.

Mrs. Barron and her daughter, Miss Alice, who have been residing in Germany for the past two years, are guests of Mrs. Barron's parents Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Webbing, 220 Nelson street.

The many friends of Mr. J. R. Cornelius, organist and choir leader at Park Baptist church, will be sorry to learn that owing to ill-health, his doctor has ordered him to take a rest. Mr. Cornelius will leave shortly for Eastern points.

A TEA PARTY AT ALEXANDRA

Real Old Fashioned Affair in Honor of Occasion of Having New Church.

A real old-fashioned tea meeting with speeches from several local ministers and a program after the supper was put on last night by the Ladies Aid of the Alexandra Presbyterian church.

Supper was served by the ladies of the Aid, assisted by an efficient corps of ladies of the church and several of the men, young and old. It is estimated that fully 900 were served, and that the receipts will total $300. After all had been well served, there were a number of pies and other lines of provisions left. After the concert the services of an auctioneer were secured, and pieces went out and money came in to the Ladies' Aid and all who in any way assisted them, great credit is due for the excellent supper and the efficient manner with which it was served.

Rev. D. T. McClintock, pastor of the church, who occupied the chair, made a pleasing address. He said that he was perhaps a little proud, not of himself, but of the new church and his congregation. He spoke of the congregation as being loyal, united and enthusiastic. The pastor spoke of the large attendance and of the good music and preaching on Sunday, and thanked all who had helped to make the Sunday services and the tea meeting and concert a success. He said that he did not believe there was ever a pastor that had worried less during the building of a church than himself. The speaker referred in highest terms to the building committee and its chairman, Dr. Wiley. Mention was made of the accessories necessary to the church which were gifts from members of the congregation.

Greetings Conveyed
Greetings were conveyed from several churches. Rev. Matthew Kelly conveyed greetings from the Congregational church, Rev. A. E. Lavell from Brant Avenue Methodist church, Rev. J. Llewellyn Brown from the First Baptist church and other Baptist churches of the city. Rev. H. A. Wright from St. Judes church, Rev. Gordon from St. Andrews, and Rev. Woodside from Zion Presbyterian. All expressed the wish that Alexandra would prosper and go on and do greater things in the future.

DAILY FASHION HINT

The first number was an organ solo by Mr. J. R. Cornelius, organist of Park Church. The piece he played was an arrangement of a Scotch melody, "Robin Adair." The piece is cleverly written and calls for a frequent change of stops, which showed the audience the beauty of the solo stops on the new organ. Mr. Cornelius is an artist who plays with perfect taste. For an encore he rendered Mascagni's "Cavalleria Rusticana" in a charming manner.

Miss Cornelius sang Elgar's Land of Hope and Glory. Miss Cornelius is no stranger to a Brantford audience. Her rendering last night maintained her high reputation in the musical circles of this city.

Mr. Roberts is a new addition to musical Brantford. The audience was agreeably surprised last night at his lovely voice, his rendering of Kilenner's "Wer't Thou a Slave," showed high culture, and deserved the hearty applause he received.

The organ solo rendered by Mr. F. C. Thomas, organist at Grace church, further showed the organ to be an excellent one, and showed the usual excellent work of Mr. Thomas to good advantage.

One of the very pretty numbers was a solo, "When the rain is on the river," by Miss Elsie Senn, contralto, accompanied by Mrs. George Cromar, organist at the church.

Miss Helen Fawkes, soprano, rendered in excellent voice and style the solo "Oh Promise Me," Mr. J. L. Dymond was the accompanist.

The very successful event was brought to a close by singing "O'ward Christian Soldiers," and prayer by the pastor.

The total receipts from the Sunday services and last night's event will amount to over $2,800.

Mrs. Alf. Stiles, of Hamilton, is visiting Miss Stiles, Alfred street.

Says the Hamilton Spectator—Among the out-of-towns who are playing in the tournament are Miss Jean Allen (London), a guest with Miss Marjorie Hillman; Miss Bess Dawson (Waterloo), and Miss Isabel Butler (Berlin), with Miss Jeannette Grantham; Miss Riorden (Toronto) with Miss Florence Howell; Miss Effie Nesbitt (Woodstock), with Miss Jean Haslett; Miss Muriel Laing (Galt), with Miss Reba Kittson.

COMEDY OF ERRORS WON BY RED SOX

Brantford Won, 8-5--Lefty Smith Injured Again and Had to Retire.

BERLIN.—Berlin failed to tie Brantford for seventh place yesterday by losing the first game of the series to the Red Sox by the score of 8 to 5 in a ragged game of ball. Bobby Auld was on the mound for the locals and outside of the fifth pitched fairly good ball. Seven runs were scored off of the Toronto recruit in the fifth, when he passed Coose which was followed by Burns dropping Ivers long hit. Getzie's wild throw to the plate, charity singles by Tesch and Brundage, Smith's triple and Wagner's double. After this period Auld held the visitors hitless and runless. Lefty Smith pitched for the Red Sox and outside of the second, kept the hits scattered although a trifle wild. In the ninth he collided with Getzie while covering second and cut his knee cap, and had to retire. He will be out of the game for a few days. Clermont finished the game. The score

Our Mail Bag Answers to Sport Queries

Massey-Harris—Runners on first and third; batsman hit to shortstop, who passes ball to second, forcing runner from first; batsman is safe; do you score batsman, and is it a Cincinnati base hit? Core Room

Batsman has merely forced a runner on a fielder's choice, and 'score' is made on the out; this sort of play has no connection with the Cincinnati base hit, which is credited where an out falls on a fielder's choice.

84 Erie Avenue.—Does batsman ever take his base on a balk with bases unoccupied? 2. Must runner return and touch base after foul batter? C. K.

1. Batsman does not take base unless balk is fourth ball, with bases unoccupied certain balks would be charged as a ball to the batter. 2. Yes, he can make no advance and construction of the rules is that he shall retouch his base.

Y.M.C.A.—What are the most important steps in preparing yourself for an umpire. H. L.

Getting a practical working knowledge of the game and its rules; filling your eyesight until it is sharp and longening your feelings to the point where no sort of slurs or insults will offend you or disturb your poise.

Marion, Sheridan St.—Who is the best looking ball player on the Brantford Club? Your question is difficult to answer. On the ball field, your favorite at times might look cheap. We hesitate to answer for fear we offend you. We're sure, however, that Kane doesn't think he's the best looking.

Core-maker, G.S. & M.—Is it a boneheaded play when the bases are all occupied for a fielder to throw to third base instead of home plate when he catches a fly ball? If the fielder sees he has but slight chance to cut the run off at the third and stop other runners advancing.

Moulder, Waterloo Shop—In your opinion, should Catcher English be released, as suggested in Expositor? We don't believe in anything Expositor says. This year is first time the staff has ever seen ball games. Any club must have two catchers. English looks like a good one to hold. At present he is very young.

Blacksmith Shop, Cookshutt's—What fault do you find with Brantford Club? Where can it be strengthened? If not, why not? One or two outfielders could be let go; a clean-up pitcher like Walter Johnson secured. In fact, if the club landed Johnson, it could cut expenses, no outfielders would be needed. Don't worry just now, the club is doing that, and it will come through this week.

Feminine Hand Writing.—How old are Amby Kane, Ivers and Wagner? Kane is around 18, Ivers is 18. Wagner a trifle over 16. If we are alive when they return to Brantford we'll try to get more accurate dope.

Lacrosse

In the game at London Saturday the locals were without the services of Eddie Campbell on the firing line and Harry Collins and Bill Nichol on the defense. This year were unable to participate in this game but will be in line, as well as Plowes and Huttoff on June 21, when London plays here. Even in their weakened condition the boys fought every inch of the game and they feel confident that when they play the next game in London with their full line up they will prove formidable rivals and return home victorious.

Shannon stopped many hot shots and his skillful coaching helped the defense out of many dangerous positions.

With Slattery knocked out and two Brantford players on the fence serving time London scored three goals. Eddie Slattery played a wonderful game for the locals, and is certainly the pride of his team mates. His effectual rushes were greatly responsible for the goal scored.

In the last quarter Mickey Ions made a brilliant rush with the ball from goal to goal only to receive an accidental crack on the head from Simons which required a couple of stitches. Mickey only regretted that he did not have a chance to shoot the ball first.

O'Connor made his first appearance with the locals this year and played a very steady game, working with Klersey and Martin. The team has a very good field.

With the full team out and a little more practice the championship is certain.

When a man talks about the good old days he generally means the nights.

Come on You Dubs!

"First in everything" shouts our contemporary even in baseball, when the Courier hurled a challenge at them yesterday to a real game. It took The Courier to hand out a challenge, and to save their last vestige of self respect the Cupola Corner had to accept it. We are ready!

Let there be no alibis! Don't let anyone say after the game—"Oh, well, we had to sit up all last night to keep even with The Courier."

Don't let anyone say: "We missed the malls to-day and had to work an hour overtime as a penalty; therefore, we were in no shape to play."

Don't blame the umpire, you star collection of bone-heads, if you get your blocks beaten off.

It is difficult to make a dint in ivory, that is why we're trying to use strong language.

Gather yourselves together, rally for all you're worth around the time-clock; punch it several times in very spite; get your strength—we don't want to beat dead ones. Get some oxygen injections, infuse some ambition into your head and veins, shake off the lethargy, forget there's a 1,000 majority against you in Brantford.

Get courage, be brave, get your families out to root for you, shake the lead out of your boots, trim your batting lamps, read your quack "ads," the next few days a little more carefully, buy some dope everyone of you.

AND come out to the Ball Park and MEET The Courier!

We want a game where we can finish scoring in time to get some supper.

Don't quit now, you Snodgrass deflators. If you get nervous, you'll never get us out of the first inning.

P.S.—Bring over the City Editor. We want to pitch.

Charpentier Boxed In a Floral Circle And is Challenged

LONDON, June 10.—Last night Georges Charpentier, who has been in turn the lightweight and middleweight boxing champion of Europe, and who now holds the heavyweight championship, made his English debut in a local theatre. He sparred three rounds in a circle of flowers held by show girls, and was given a tremendous ovation. Bombardier Wells, the British heavyweight champion, jumped out of a box onto the stage, where he challenged the Frenchman to another fight. Wells offered to post a side bet of $5,000. The challenge was not accepted, but an announcement of its acceptance is expected in the course of a few days.

Saints Finish Strong.—St. Thomas got one run in the 5th on a hit and an error and one in the sixth on a hit and an error. In the ninth they threatened to tie the score, when the first batter singled and tied to stretch it, but was out. The next two singled and Murphy threw to the plate to get the runner, but Donahue stepped in front of Fisher and got the ball throwing the runner out at second and retired the side. Score:

HAMILTON KOLTS BEAT ST. THOMAS

Murphy Threw Two Men Out at the Plate and Saved the Game.

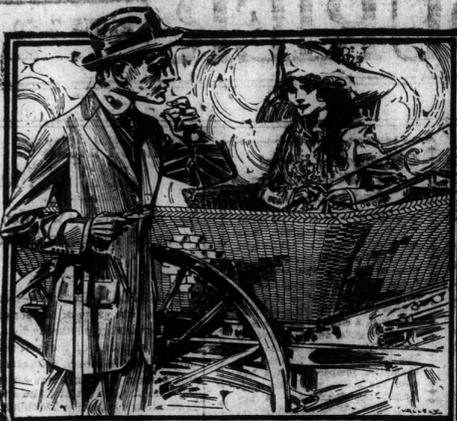

HAMILTON, June 10.—Hamilton took the first game of the series from St. Thomas here yesterday by a score of 4 to 3 in one of the best pitchers' battles that has been witnessed here this season. Clements was on the firing line for the Saints, and only allowed four hits, while Donahue, Lee's star pitcher, was serving up the slants for the locals, and allowed seven scattered hits. Donahue started off in the first by striking out two men, and the other was an easy out, but Clements passed Murphy, who stole second and went to third on Corn's sacrifice scoring a minute later on Killilea's long fly to Craven in right field.

Two More in Second. Hamilton came back in the second putting two more across the plate and by timely hitting succeeded in clearing away. Fisher got on an error by Wright and Needham and J. Murphy singled filling the sacks with no one out. Hartley was an easy out and Donahue was passed forcing in Fisher with the first run. C. Murphy flied to the outfield and Needham scored making the score 3 to 0.

Murphy Stole Home. This was all the scoring done until the fourth when J. Murphy, the first man up singled, and stole second and third and then stole home. At the time that Murphy started for the plate there was two out and two strikes on the batter. Clements threw the ball at the batter and Donahue stepped out of the way of the ball in such a manner as to swing his bat. Murphy scored. Manager Ort raised objection to the play and argued that the batter was out, but Black refused to listen and the run counted.

St. Thomas got one run in the 5th on a hit and an error and one in the sixth on a hit and an error. In the ninth they threatened to tie the score, when the first batter singled and tied to stretch it, but was out. The next two singled and Murphy threw to the plate to get the runner, but Donahue stepped in front of Fisher and got the ball throwing the runner out at second and retired the side. Score:

"The Mystery of Agatha Webb"

By KATHARINE GREEN

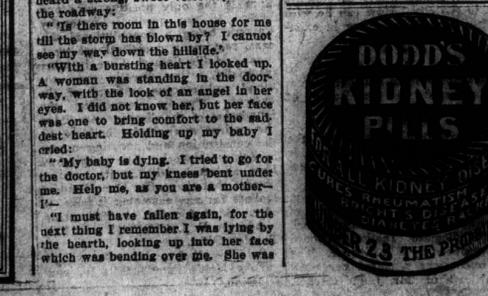

"So they say, I believe Widow Jones has taken him into her house."
"Do you think," asked a second daughter, with becoming hesitation, "that he had anything to do with her death? Some of the neighbors say he struck her while in one of his crazy fits, while others declare she was killed by some stranger equally odd and almost as insane."
"We won't discuss the subject," objected the deacon. "Time will show who robbed us of the greatest hearted and most capable woman in these parts."
"And will time show who killed Betsy?" It was a morsel of a girl who spoke, the least one of the family, but the brightest. "I'm sorry for Betsy, but she always gave me cookies when I went to see Mrs. Webb."
"Betsy was a good girl for a Swede," allowed the deacon's wife, who had not spoken till now. "When she first came into town on the spurs of the wrecked steamer between Agatha and me as to which of us should have her. But I didn't like the task of teaching her the name of every pot and pan she had to use in the kitchen, so I gave her up to Agatha. And it was fortunate for me that I've never been able to understand her talk to this day."
"I could talk with her right well," lisped the little one. "She never called things by their Swedish names unless she was worried, and I never worried her."
"I wonder if she would have worshipped me under your feet," asked the deacon, crying his wife with just the suspicion of a malicious twinkle in his eye.
"I am not the greatest hearted and most capable woman in town," retorted his wife, pinching her needles as she went on knitting.
In Mr. Sprague's house on the opposite side of the road Squire Fisher was relating some old tales of bygone Porchester days. "I knew Agatha when she was a girl," he avowed. "She had the greatest smile of any rich or poor man's daughter between the coast and Springfield. She did not dress in calico then. She wore the gayest clothes her father could buy her, and old Jacob was not without means to make his daughters the leading figures in town. How young fellows did adore her, and what lengths we went to win one of her glorious smiles. Two of us, John and Jacob Zabel, have lived bachelors for her sake to this very day, but I hadn't courage enough for that. I married and—" Something like a high and a chuckle filled out the sentence.
"What made Philemon carry off the bride? His good looks?"
"Yes, or his good luck. It wasn't his snip, of that you may be sure. James Zabel had the snip, and he was her first choice, too, but he got into some difficulty. I never knew just what it was, but it was regarded as serious at the time, and that match was broken off. Afterward she married Philemon. You see, I was out of it altogether, had never been in it perhaps, but there were three good years of my life in which I thought of little else than Agatha. I admired her spirit, you see. There was something more taking in her ways than in her beauty, wonderful as that was. She ruled us with a rod of iron, and yet we worshipped her. I have wondered to see her so meek of late. I never thought she would be satisfied with a brick floored cottage and a husband of falling wits. But no one, to my knowledge, has ever heard a complaint from her lips, and the dignity of her address and wifehood has far transcended the laughiness of those days when she had, but to smile to have all the youth of Porchester at her feet."
"I suppose it was the loss of so many children that reconciled her to a quiet life. A woman cannot close the eyes of six children, one after the other, without some moderation taking place in her character."
"Yes, she and Philemon have been unfortunate, but she was a splendid looking girl, boys. I never see such grand looking women now."

In a little one storied cottage on the hillside a woman was nursing a baby and talking at the same time of Agatha Webb.
"I shall never forget the night my first baby fell sick," she faltered. "I was just out of bed myself, and, having no nearer neighbors than than now, I was all alone on the hillside. Alec being at sea. I was too young to know much about sickness, but something told me that I must have help before morning or my baby would die. Though I could just walk across the floor, I threw a shawl around me, took my baby in my arms and opened the door. A blinding gust of rain blew in. A terrible storm was raging, and I had not noticed it. I was so taken up with the child.
"I could not face that gale. Indeed, I was so weak I fell on my knees as it struck me and became dripping wet before I could drag myself inside. The baby began to moan, and everything was turning dark before me when I heard a strong, sweet voice cry out in the roadway:
"If there room in this house for me till the storm has blown by? I cannot see my way down the hillside."
"With a burning hair, I looked up. A woman was standing in the doorway, with the look of an angel in her eyes. I did not know her, but her face was one to bring comfort to the saddest heart. Holding up my baby I cried:
"My baby is dying. I tried to go for the doctor, but my knees bent under me. Help me, as you are a mother—"

"I must have fallen again, for the next thing I remember I was lying by the hearth, looking up into her face which was bending over me. She was white as the rag I had tied about my baby's throat, and by the way, her breast heaved she was either very much frightened or very sorry.
"I wish you had the help of any one else," said she. "Babies perish in my arms and wither at my breast. I cannot touch it, much as I yearn to. But let me see its face. Perhaps I can tell you what is the matter with it."
"I showed her the baby's face, and she bent over it, trembling very much, almost as much indeed as myself.
"It's very sick," she said, "but if you will use the remedies I advise I think you can save it. And she told me what to do and helped me all she could, but she did not lay a finger on the little darling, though from the way she watched it I saw that her heart was in an hour he was sleeping peacefully, and the terrible weight was gone from my heart and from hers. When the storm stopped and she could leave the house, she gave me a kiss, but the look she gave him meant more than kisses. And must have forgotten her goodness to me that night when he let her die so pitiable a death."
At the minister's house they were commenting upon the look of serenity observable in her dead face.
"I have known her for 30 years," her pastor declared, "and never before have I seen her wear a look of real peace. It is wonderful, considering the circumstances. Do you think she was so weary of her life's long struggle that she hailed any release from it, even that of violence?"
A young man, a lawyer visiting them from New York, was the only one to answer.
"I never saw the woman you are talking about," said he, "and know nothing of the circumstances of her death beyond what you have told me. But from the very incongruity between her expression and the violent nature of her death I argue that there are depths to this crime which have not yet been sounded."
"What depths?" It is a simple case of murder, followed by theft. To be sure, we do not yet know the criminal, but money was his motive. That is clear enough."
"Are you ready to wager that that is all there is to it?"
"That was a startling proposition to the minister, and he said he would try to find out."
"You forget my cloth," said he.
"The young man smiled. "That is true. Pardon me, I was only anxious

"Is there room in the house for me?"
To show how strong my conviction was against any such explanation of a crime marked by such contradictory features.
Two children on the Porchester road were exchanging foolish confidences.
"Do you know what I think about it?" asked one.
"Naw. How should I?"
"Well, I think," said the other, "that it is the same old story. Webb got rid of that tired feeling by beginning to take Hood's Sarsaparilla to-day."
"Killed 'em, she?"
"Yes, I heard her, tell granny once all about it. She said there was a light on her house. I don't know what that is, but I guess it's something big and heavy, and that it fell on every one of her children as fast as they came and killed 'em."
"Then I'm glad I ain't her child."
Very different were the recollections interchanged between two middle aged Porchester women.
"She was drinking tea at my house when her sister Sarey came running in with the news that the baby she had left at home wasn't quite right. That was her first child, you know."
"Yes, yes, for I was with her when that baby came," broke in the other, and such joy as she showed when they told her it was alive and well I never saw. I do not know why she didn't expect it to be alive, but she didn't, and her happiness was just wonderful to see."

ANIMAL ACTS OF HIGH ORDER

Barnum and Bailey Introduce Many Wonderful Dumb Actors

When the Barnum and Bailey Greatest Show on Earth visits Brantford on Tuesday, June 17, local amusement-goers and those who live within a radius of a hundred miles will have an opportunity of seeing the best trained animals in the world.
Five new herds of trained elephants recently imported from Europe play brass band instruments tunes that the audience can easily recognize. Their repertoire comprises a half-dozen old songs that everybody knows. They play "Home Sweet Home" for an encore; not as skillfully, perhaps, as Sousa's band, but at least so that the merest child can recognize the air. They play a big march number with real glee. The drummer uses his tail instead of the conventional bukkin stick.
Another trained animal specialty that is making a strong appeal is presented by a company of Hungarian stallions trained to perfection. Europe calls it the greatest horse act in the world. They form brigades, pirouette and execute all the intricate figures of a horse-drawn comic opera chorus. At the conclusion of this the ring is set like a stage to represent a roadside inn. A big white animal is the landlord. Another horse arrives for supper and a night's lodging. The tavern keeper lays a smoking feast before him. The diner has recourse once to toilet to a big black bottle and goes to sleep in his chair. The landlord wakes him and helps him into his bed. Morning comes and Mine Host rings the breakfast bell. But the guest refuses to get up. The landlord then takes him by the ear and drags him out. The boarder starts a row and a third horse, dressed as a county constable, arrests the disturber.
Then there is a monkey and dog dramatic company, in a real old-fashioned melodrama with a fire scene and a rescue, and Berza's horse circus, while Winston's riding and juggling scale are a never-fading source of wonderment. Among the other performers are the Wirth family of German riders, the Schioganni family of Italian acrobats, Les Jardy and Les Doko families of French gymnasts, the Siegrist-Silbon family of German acrobats, Miss Bird Millman, high wire artist, and the Georgety family of French strong-armed jugglers.
The menagerie holds a wonderful attraction in the form of the only captive baby giraffe. The new parade is another big surprise. It is all new. There are three miles of it and every mile discloses a thousand novelties. Over 1200 people from every quarter of the globe participate. There are 700 horses in the line and half the elephants in America.
This is the circus that has amazed the inhabitants of every city in the world with its gorgeous displays. The performances to be given here will be the same as those which delighted New York City when the circus opened in Madison Square Garden last March. Not a detail has been changed since then. New York is the metropolitan home of the show. For fifty years the main offices have been located there, though agencies are also maintained in London, Liverpool, Paris, Berlin, St. Petersburg, The Hague, Vienna, Hamburg, Naples, Constantinople, Calcutta, Hong Kong, Cape Town, Melbourne and Buenos Ayres. The winter quarters are at Bridgeport, Conn., and the foreign workshops are located near Liverpool, England. The advertisement distributing depot is in Chicago.

A Warning—To feel tired before exertion is not laziness—it's a sign that the system lacks vitality, and needs the tonic effect of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sufferers should not delay. Get rid of that tired feeling by beginning to take Hood's Sarsaparilla to-day.

City Council In Session

Board of Works.

The Board of Works reported as follows:

1. That Lots 1, 2 and 1-2 of Lot 3 on the east side and Lots Nos. 1 and 2 on the west side of Yorkshire St. be sold to the Lake Erie and Northern Railway Co. for the sum of $800.

2. That your committee be authorized to sell the south half of Lot No. 3 and Lot 4 on the East side and Lots 3 and 4 on the west side of Yorkshire street, being the balance of the gravel pit property, for the sum of $500.

3. That the Council approve the purchase of Lots Nos. 12 and 11 on the East side of Elizabeth St., including House No. 34, for $1,675.00, and Lot No. 10 on the east side of Elizabeth street for $175.00, and that the money received from the sale of the gravel pit lot on Yorkshire street, be applied for this purpose.

4. That the council approve of an agreement between your committee and the Township council, under which each shall bear one-half the cost of a 5 foot concrete walk from Henry street to Mt. Hope cemetery, and half the cost of grading West St. from the city boundary on the west side West Street to a point one hundred yards north of Henry street.

5. That Samuel Harding be paid $25.00 in full of claim for damages from flooding on Rawdon Street.

6. That James O'Reilly be granted permission to build coal chute in the Dalhousie street walk to be constructed under the supervision of the City Overseer.

Ald. Charlton wanted to know why four lots on Yorkshire street sold for $800 and the remaining four for $500. Why did O'Reilly get a easement on Dalhousie street without paying for it?

Ald. Suddaby said Mr. O'Reilly did not touch the sidewalk. It was a case of shooting it in under and not interfering with traffic. In regard to the lots, the railway secured two 120 feet and two 150 feet. The lots being sold for $500 were right on the river and were less in frontage considerably.

Ald. Pitcher thought the lots were well sold. The price was a big one. Ald. Suddaby remarked that the city only gave $50 for the eight lots, and was now receiving $1,300.

Ald. Minshall said the purchaser was Dr. Palmer.

Ald. Minshall pointed out that if the Hydro conduit pipes were to be constructed under the sidewalk, there should be no coal cellars or chutes under the walks.

Ald. Spence suggested that Engineer Ireland be consulted and his suggestion was accepted.

Ald. Suddaby said the city had an offer of $500 for the balance of the lots on Yorkshire street. The lots on Elizabeth street were in reality a sand pit and the city needed sand. It looked like a good purchase. It was believed that the agreement with the Township Council was also a good one.

Fire and Light.

The Fire and Light committee report was as follows:

1. That the tender of A. H. Winter Joyner, Limited for 3,900 feet of lighting brackets at $2.60 each f.o.b. cars Brantford, be accepted.

2. It is the intention of your committee to introduce a by-law at the next regular meeting of this council to prohibit the sale of firecrackers within the municipality, the same to take effect 6 months after the passing thereof.

3. It is the intention of your committee to introduce a by-law at the next regular meeting of this council to install ornamental standards for lighting the business area of the following streets: Colborne, Market, Dalhousie, George and Queen; the same to be done on the local improvement plan as stated in petition which will be presented for same.

The report was adopted.

Manufacturers' Committee.

The committee on Manufacturers reported that on June 5th they met Mr. Gamble of Philadelphia, in Commissioner Emerson's office. The company had practically settled on a site on Gordon street in Eagle Place, and asked for a fixed assessment of $2,000 for a term of ten years. The committee agreed that this be granted.

Mr. Frank suggested that the Water Commissioners be instructed to construct a water main on Gordon street, as there was at present no civic water there. His suggestion was incorporated in the report.

Ald. Spence wanted to know if the Gordon street dispute was settled. Ald. Ryerson said he understood that the matter was all cleared up. The property purchased apparently cleared it up.

Ald. Spence said he heard from a reliable source that the owner of the property on Gordon street refused to sign any agreement. He advised that the city be careful.

Ald. Suddaby said he had received a solemn promise from Mr. Vanvey that he would sign the agreement with the City Solicitor.

Ald. McFarland said that Mr. Vanvey agreed to sign, providing Edward street was extended so that he could sell some lots, he had.

The recommendation of the committee at the suggestion of Mayor Hartman was made conditional upon the handing over to the city of the deed of Gordon street. When that ensues the water main will be laid.

Local Improvement Argument.

Ald. Suddaby introduced a by-law proposals, including concrete walks, curbs, sanitary and storm sewers. The improvements had been duly petitioned for. A high grade when Ald. Spence objected to starting any more big local improvements under the auspices of the City Engineer's department. The Rawdon street sewer had cost too much money. If tenders were asked for the city engineer could submit his figures.

Ald. Suddaby explained that all the jobs in the by-law were small ones. He admitted that the Rawdon street sewer job was a different matter. As for general work in a small way, Ald. Suddaby thought the city was fortunate.

Ald. Spence did not contend, he said, that sidewalks were badly constructed. He did venture to say that the City Engineer's department did not know what the Rawdon street sewer cost.

Ald. Charlton wanted to know what the work outlined in the by-law would cost but Ald. Suddaby pointed out that in the advertised by-law the figures would be given for each job.

Ald. Minshall said he was in favor of municipal ownership and construction.

Ald. Spence came back with the declaration that he didn't intend to act as a rubber stamp for the engineer's department. He believed in municipal ownership but not in doing things in a haphazard way. He wanted records kept of the work done.

Ald. Minshall made a suggestion to increase Ald. Spence's wisdom.

Ald. Spence accepted the suggestion, but would have welcomed it more had it come from some one a little more wise than Ald. Minshall. One year ago Ald. Minshall was chairman of the board of works, and he ventured to assert that he did not know whether city engineer's department ever kept within an estimate on any job the entire year.

Ald. Minshall: "We built a $55,000 bridge for $24,000. More than you'll ever do as chairman of finance."

Ald. Spence: "You did no such thing."

Ald. Minshall: "What I meant by that—"

Ald. Spence: "Oh what you meant."

Ald. Minshall: "Well, we made other companies contribute to the cost of Victoria bridge."

Ald. Spence: "You mean the City Solicitor did."

After considerable more cross fire, Ald. McFarland was applauded when he remarked that the objections raised were against the extravagant system of public works construction in Brantford.

Ald. Suddaby vigorously asserted that the Brantford system was the best in Ontario, and there were no better gangs.

Ald. Spence insisted that the Brantford system was not the best in the Province. The men were the very best, that was true, but the fault was with the men higher up. In the past the time had been only taken a couple of times a week.

Ald. Suddaby: "That's not right."

Ald. Spence: "It is right. You might be getting the time of the men every day now, but you weren't until recently."

Ald. Pitcher was about to speak when the chairman proceeded to read.

Asked if he wished to make any remarks, Ald. Pitcher said he was tired endeavoring to make himself heard, Ald. Suddaby apparently had the floor all the time.

Ald. Broadbent, chairman, then proceeded with the remaining clauses of the by-law.

The by-law was finally adopted.

New Machinery.

Ald. Suddaby was also sponsor of a by-law to purchase road-making machinery and appliances to cost $8,000. Ald. McEwen was selected as chairman of the committee of the whole.

The city will raise $1,877 yearly for five years to pay the amount.

Ald. Spence inquired if any machinery were to be acquired to clean up local pavements.

Ald. Suddaby stated that it was intended to purchase a steam shovel and a traction engine. The latter would be used in some ways as a road roller. Both shovel and engine were to be used for general purposes. At the present time an engine was being rented at $5 per day.

Ald. Spence said at present $245,000 was invested in pavements, and there were no appliances to take care of that investment. He thought something should be done to conserve what was still left of the pavements.

Ald. Suddaby said a sweeper had to be purchased for the pavements, and promised Ald. Spence that one would be.

The by-law was carried. Ald. Pitcher and Woolams only opposing it.

Hot Shots at Council Forum

An audience of three listened to the aldermen's proceedings.

Residents of Chatham street wanted the thoroughfare sprinkled to point 80 feet east of Brock street.

Ald. McFarland wants to stop fire works in the city. How can he, with the City Council remaining in existence.

A. L. Wood asked permission to remove a house from Marlboro street. It was referred to the Board of Works.

There was little objection to the reports of the various committees. It would be most unusual if no questions were asked.

A by-law for the appointment of a representative of the City Council on the Collegiate Institute Board was introduced by Ald. Spence. The appointment was rendered necessary by the death of Mr. J. P. Pitcher.

Ald. Spence moved that Mr. William B. Seace receive the appointment. The by-law was carried.

The automobile season has a tendency to shorten council proceedings. More power to the buzz carts.

Although Hydro-Electric expenditure to the amount of $791 was ordered paid, Ald. McFarland did not have to answer a charge of extravagance.

The quorum present was as follows:—Mayor Hartman, Ald. Gillingwater, Broadbent, Quinlan, Pitcher, Sutch, Woolams, Suddaby, Minshall, Charlton, Spence, McFarland, Ryerson.

Although he has been a civic servant for 20 years, Mr. F. W. Frank was present last night for the first time while council was in session. He was City Clerk pro. tem last night.

What happened to Ald. Ward? He was absent last night and the reporters had it easy. Ald. George was fighting the empire's battles at Niagara-on-the-Lake, a naval engagement.

Ald. Pitcher objected to the anti-fire cracker clause in the fire and light report. There were bright prospects of several more Conservative victories in the four Brants, and real celebrations were wanted.

Ald. Spence asked Ald. McEwen if any steps had been taken to remove dead trees throughout the city. Ald. McEwen said there certainly had been neglect in the last three years and promised a clean-up.

Ald. Woolams says he believes in doing civic business in committee and therefore when committee reports are adopted there is little to be said at the quorum. Other council members might take a leaf out of his book.

The Brantford Gas Company wants $4000 as damages in the event of the Mary street foot bridge being erected. What do you know about that for nerve? This stupendous document was referred to the city solicitor.

Chief Stemin said that three convictions involving the Grand Trunk crossing had been established and the police department was working overtime in an endeavor to stop the complaints which however keep pouring in.

The United States Sporting Goods Company which will manufacture base balls, footballs, etc., in Eagle Place received a fixed assessment of $2000 for ten years. Ald. Ryerson had the by-law put through. The Company agrees to employ not less than 25 hands and expect to employ 100. It also agreed to expend $25,000 in the city.

Ald. Broadbent moved, seconded by Ald. Minshall that the board of works take steps to oil the market square, and if it proves satisfactory, apply it to other streets. Old Broadbent, as pointed out in the council recently, strongly favored the experiment which would keep the dust down to a minimum.

Ald. Pitcher said the last oil experiment was a sad one. If the oil had been used on local streets, it would be unwise to adopt the plan.

Ald. Broadbent said if the wrong kind of oil was used before, why not get the right brand next time. It was worth investigating.

Ald. Ryerson thought Ald. Broadbent was proceeding in the right direction. He did not think however that some streets were in proper condition for oil treatment. He suggested trying half the market.

Mayor Hartman pointed out that money was already provided for the watering of the square by by-law, and it couldn't be changed off hand.

Ald. Suddaby said oil was offensive, both disagreeable and dirty for ladies.

Ald. Spence suggested that some of the aldermen take a trip to New York state and they wouldn't be dubious about oil.

Ald. Suddaby said Ald. Spence confused tar for oil.

Ald. Minshall, another autoist pointed out that oil was in popular use in many places, and the investigation was worth while.

Ald. Broadbent had his resolution adopted, after it was amended to conform to the by-law.

Although not an autoist, Ald. Charlton thought local pavements were terrible. In fact the city's masterly inactivity in regard to the paving companies was more terrible.

THEY PROVE GAME LOSERS

English Polo Team Defeat New York--Commodore on the Play.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
LONDON, June 11.—Viewed special correspondents of the Daily Telegraph's reports of the British team's defeat at polo. Americans yesterday, the challenge received considerable criticism. The Times this morning says "It is evident that the British wards failed to take advantage of opportunities. Even with this however, they would probably have held their own if they had been to withstand the onslaught of the American forwards in the first period. The Daily Telegraph's correspondent says: "The English team lacked brilliant game they put in at before the match. It was not on equestrian that was weak but the combined with the more aggressive tactics of the Meadowbrook as well; and the majority of the American goals were the result of when the English carried the ball to the American goal, poor work invariably spoiled good play."

"Englishmen will be amazed," according to The Daily correspondent that at the out American ponies were speedily the English, for it had been asserted that a better selection of mounts than those English team had never been together. The Americans were highly adept in riding their opponents. The whole team played a resourceful game, whereas the Englishmen seemed flurried and to hurry their shots with unfavourable results, up to the third period.

At the end of the fourth period, the English were again the right sort of playing men, been sent against them in the games. The Englishmen were against the vigorous tactics. Americans and made many predicted misses.

Although defeat in the first has cast a gloom over the entire here, there is still a very strong belief that the British four will even a victory on Saturday, and by extraordinary effort capture the ber."
