WOLFVILLE BRANCH OF THE V. O. N.

Annual Reports for 1924—Officers and Executive for 1925

Nurse's Report for 1924
 Total number of patients nursed in 1924—116.
 42 medical 3 pneumonia
 36 surgical 1 communicable
 1 gynaecological 2 tuberculosis
 2 miscarriage 9 chronic
 2 prenatal 6 prenatal confinements
 14 babies of mat. 16 confinements
 19 operations 1 miscarriage
 9 deaths—8 adults and 1 baby.
 The total number of nursing visits for 1924 was 1955; 1081 of these were to adults and the balance to babies. There were 327 free nursing visits and 627 other free visits, giving a total of 954 free visits. This is, nearly half of the total number of visits were free. The nursing visits there were 54 prenatal and 37 post partu, 137 infant welfare, 177 social service, 69 school visits, 174 Home school visits, 20 instructive visits, 69 telephone calls and 51 night calls.

The out of stove work during the past year consisted of 3 maternity cases, 3 operations and 3 medical cases.

Social Service
 January. A case was reported and found necessary that treatment be procured at the Sanatorium. Arrangements were made and patient was sent for three months.

February. Help given to a poor woman who was unable to attend her usual work, owing to sickness.

March. A boy from a poor family fractured his leg. Unable to get the care at home was taken to Hospital until his leg could be put in plaster.

April & May. Another patient who needed Sanatorium care was provided with dental treatment and outfit of clothes, then sent to Sanatorium for three months.

June. An emergency surgical case was reported. It was found necessary to operate immediately; the case was transferred to Westwood Hospital and was successful.

July. Four children were sent to Hospital and operated on for tonsils and adenoids. A little girl in care of the Children's Aid needed dental work. This was carried out and another child was supplied with glasses.

August. A maternity case where complications arose could not be treated at the children's Aid, two other occasions with female prisoners. Also assisted the Town Manager with poor relief work. Meetings of the Girl Guides, C.G.I.T., Women's Institutes of Port Williams and Canada were attended.

Child Welfare
 In the Child Welfare work there were sixteen of these at the Port Williams School. Seven cases were supplied with supplies from the cupboard.

SCHOOL WORK
 During the year Wolfville school, three schools at Port Williams and Lower Wolfville have been visited. The doctors and dentists of the town gave their services at the Port Williams school in addition to the Wolfville school. The report from the Wolfville school in the medical and dental examinations was as follows:
 4 suffering from mal nutrition.
 46 defective throats.
 25 defective vision.
 239 need dental work.
 In comparison with 1923 this shows that 30 children received throat treatment, 22 received the necessary eye corrections. The dentists report that they were very pleased with the condition of the teeth compared to the previous year. Four cases received free throat treatment. 13 children were excluded from school who were attending with minor contagious skin trouble. Several cases of chicken pox and whooping cough were reported. Four cases of Scarlet Fever. One room was excluded from school for one week. Efforts being made to help the backward children in the lower grades.

Port Williams
 Port Williams school was visited and a full report was sent to the Women's Institute, who are endeavouring to remedy the defects in the children and also the lighting system of their schools.
 105 children examined; 16 with bad condition of the throat; 21 condition of the throat needs watching; 90 need dental care; 25 defective vision (a number of these cases are due to the bad lighting of the school).

Lower Wolfville
 A visit was paid to Lower Wolfville school and four children were excluded for their sickness and help during the year to Dr. Elliott, Dr. deWitt, and Dr. Grant, who have given their services wherever required; to the Sewing Club, whose work has been most useful; the I.O.D.E. for help at all times; the dentists of the town; Miss Eugene Eaton, Miss Simms, Miss Moore, Mrs. Duffy, Mrs. McRae, Miss Chase, Mrs. deWitt, Mrs. Milner, Mrs. P. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Calkin, Mr. C. Wright, Mr. Fielding, and others who have been generous with gifts for the poor through the year and also the Christmas season. Many parcels of clothing have been received but no name attached.

NO INCREASE IN RAILWAY RATES ON APPLES

Board of Railway Commissioners Will Not Grant Application of Dominion Atlantic

OTTAWA, January 19.—There is to be no increase in the railway rates on green apples shipped on the Dominion Atlantic Railway from its various stations to Halifax for export.

W. E. Campbell, chief traffic officer of the Board of Railway Commissioners, has presented a report recommending "That no increase be allowed in these rates for the present," and Mr. Campbell's report is issued as the judgment of the Railway Board.

The proposed increase in the carload rates on green apples was approximately four cents per barrel and, under a tariff filed by the Dominion Atlantic Railway, was to be effective September 8 last. The Nova Scotia Fruit Growers Association applied for suspension of the proposed increased rates and the rates were suspended pending consideration by the Board.

As justification for the increase in rates, the Dominion Atlantic Railway claimed that during 1923 there had been a deficit in operating costs against the revenue of approximately $75,000; that during that year, it cost $123.53 to earn $100; and that during the half year ending June 30, 1924, it cost $149.7 to earn $100.

Following an analysis of operating costs and operating expenditures Mr. Campbell remarks:

"It will be observed that without any appreciable difference in the volume of traffic handled there was an increase of $247,542 in operating costs in 1923," and that abnormal increases were apparently shown under maintenance of way, and maintenance of equipment.

"Hard to believe, isn't it, that that team defeated Windsor in the league opener," somewhat hysterically observed the Journal of that town, in referring to the recent game. To our mind, in view of subsequent events, the declaration made by a member of the Windsor team that a number of their players were drunk seems fairly plausible.

THE PART OF THE WORLD WHICH WILL BE AFFECTED BY A PARTIAL ECLIPSE OF THE SUN ON JANUARY 24TH

Within the large oval is indicated the part of the world which will witness a partial eclipse of the sun, when the moon passes between the earth and the sun on January 24th. Most of Canada and the United States will be affected by the partial eclipse. The two small areas which extend from north of the British Isles across the Atlantic Ocean and part way across Canada, shows the area which will be affected by a total eclipse. This particular eclipse occurs once every eighteen years and ten days, each affecting a different part of the globe. In 1920 years from January 24th, part of this territory will again be affected by this same eclipse. The eclipse begins in the State of Minnesota and ends between the Orkney Islands and the coast of Scotland.

GIRL GUIDES HOLD ENJOYABLE BANQUET

Interesting Addresses Given by Guides—New Patrol Leaders Announced

The banquet given by the Guides in the Baptist church on Friday evening, held in honor of recruits, was a great success, as we find all Guide undertakings, due to the untiring efforts of Captain Haley and her faithful lieutenants.

The decorations were artistically carried out in the Guide colors of navy and light blue. Twelve blue candles in glass holders shed their little lights at intervals along the table, revealing the bright and happy faces surrounding it. As place cards, "Lolly Pops", in smart Guide uniforms, were placed on the table. As guests, besides the recruits, were Mrs. J. A. Ingraham, president of the Ladies' Council; Miss Helen Starr, and Mr. Charles A. Patquin, "the Guides' friend."

"The feast is o'er!" Now H2O. In crystal glass is seen to shine. Before each eager guest. And audience fills the crowded hall. As deep as when their Captain's call. Thrills in the Girl Guide's breast.

Patrol Leader, Virginia McLean, as toast mistress, proposed the king's health, and the National anthem rang out in hearty response.

Patrol Leader Mais deWitt proposed the toast to the Chief Scout and Chief Guide, Lord and Lady Baden-Powell, and Mrs. H. G. Warren, the head of the Canadian Girl Guide movement. Mr. Patquin replied, paying the Guide movement and their work many compliments.

The toast to the Guide movement was then proposed by Guide Jean Shaw and Captain Haley in reply told much of interest about the work, and especially interesting bits in connection with her camp life last summer at Foxlease, the home of Guiding in England.

Guide Camp-Life was then proposed by Patrol Leader Maxine Williams, who brought to mind many fond recollections, looking forward to a repetition of some next summer. This inspired the company to sing "Camp Days" with more enthusiasm than ever before.

Guide Margaret Fullerton, after words of welcome to all the new girls, proposed their health. This was so well responded to by Recruit Frances Patterson that she received hearty applause.

The sincere appreciation of the Guides for the work done and assistance given by their "body of mothers", known as the Ladies' Council, was expressed by Guide Dorothy Dakin. Mrs. Ingraham replying, told how glad the council was to assist the girls whenever they could. She spoke in words of praise of their energetic leaders, all true "Guiders".

Guide Flora Patquin proposed the health of the beloved "Guiders" of the first Wolfville Company; for which Lieut. tenant Parry found an appropriate response.

In closing Captain Haley announced that the Patrol Leaders, who had been voted for at the preceding meeting, were as follows:
 Patrol Leader Virginia McLean—Crows.
 Patrol Leader Edna Doyle—Blue-Birds.
 Patrol Leader Maxine Williams—Cardinals.
 Patrol Leader Gertrude Duncanson—Robins.

Cables From Cunards
 Whenever a Cunard liner comes to Halifax somebody on board is certain to send a cable via Louisbourg asking that a supply of Moirs Chocolates be placed on board, to be eaten in New York or London.

To get square with cabarets, which have no amusement tax to pay a London Theatre has "abolished" admission fees. Instead it sells boxes of chocolates. The size of the box you buy determines the position of your seat—from the stalls to the galleries.

If Moirs Chocolates are sold, it's a safe bet the audience will consider the show a success.

WOLFVILLE LOSES TO KENTVILLE

In Closely Contested Games Last Friday Night—Score 5 to 4

The local hockey team came out at the small end of the score in their league fixture with Kentville in Evaglene rink last Friday evening. The game which was closely contested throughout ended with the score 5 to 4, although the Wolfville boys claimed another goal which was not allowed. There was only a fair sized audience out all were most enthusiastic. The ice was in splendid condition and at times the play was real fast, but taken as a whole the game was only a fair exhibition of hockey.

The Wolfville boys put up a great fight against their more experienced opponents. The work of McKenna in goal was especially worthy of mention. Time after time the visiting forwards would elude the local defence, only to be stopped by him when a goal seemed certain. Dick, Bartheaux and Thompson also were hard workers. The Kennedy brothers as usual starred for Kentville.

The first period opened rather slowly, neither team getting well under way for some ten minutes. W. Kennedy made a sensational end to end rush, but McKenna was there with the goods and made a beautiful save. The play was kept near the Wolfville goal for some time and McKenna gave a great exhibition. Several local players received minor penalties, but the Kentville team were unable to take advantage of the weakened team of their opponents. Near the end of the period Bishop coming on to relieve Bartheaux, took the puck from the face-off and scored the first goal for Wolfville. Soon after W. Kennedy tied the score and just before the period ended the Kennedy brothers combined and Gordon made it 2 to 1 in Kentville's favor.

The locals started the second period with a rush and for a time completely outplayed the visitors. G. Kennedy was penalized and the play continued around the Kentville goal. The visitors, however, relieved the situation by carrying the puck into Wolfville territory where Fraser secured it and making one of his old time rushes tied the score, amid the cheers of the fans. This encouraged the locals made a nice combination play and Bartheaux put the team in the lead. Kentville then began to wake up and shots were made on the Wolfville goal until W. Kennedy tied the score on a shot from without the defence. The period ended with both teams trying hard to gain the lead.

The Kentville team returned to the ice with the determination to win, at any cost, and within a very few minutes the Kennedy brothers had each scored, giving their team a commanding lead which the locals tried hard to overcome and forced the pace. Bennett was penalized for tripping Dick. Thomson carried up the ice but shot wild. Shots were rained on the Kentville goal but Bartheaux, playing a fine game, stopped them all. McKenna was penalized and G. Kennedy received a cut on the arm from a skate, which caused a short delay. Bartheaux again scored and the interest became intense. Play was carried into Kentville territory and Barnaby was forced to lay at full length in front of the goal to prevent a score. Even then the locals claim they netted the puck but after some dispute the goal was not allowed and the game ended in Kentville's favor.

The teams were as follows:
 Kentville—Barnaby, goal; Corbin and Cox, defence; G. Kennedy, centre; W. Kennedy and Bennett, wings; Oyer, Parke, subs.
 Wolfville—McKenna, goal; Thompson and Fraser, defence; Andrews, centre; Bartheaux and Dick, wings; King, Bishop, subs.
 Referee—Charles Wigmore.

ANNUAL MEETING OF ST. JOHNS CHURCH

The annual parish meeting of St. John's church, Horton, was held in the Parish Hall on Monday. The Rector presided and opened the meeting with prayer and then read his annual address. The financial report for the past year was presented by the Secretary, Dr. J. A. M. Hemmeon, and passed. It shows a very satisfactory condition, with an expanding revenue and good prospects for the incoming year. Mr. G. A. Pratt read the financial report of the Parish Hall, which was satisfactory. The two wardens, Dr. Hemmeon and Mr. Liorel Pearson, were unanimously re-elected; by delegates, Messrs. E. Percy Brown and H. Troyte-Bullock; substitutes, Mr. Henry Brown and Professor Hill.

The grant of $50.00 to the Sunday School was renewed. Votes of thanks to Mr. Troyte-Bullock for his munificent contributions to the upkeep of the Parish Hall, to the wardens, the organist and choir, to Mr. A. Horne, sexton, for his faithful services with congratulations on his recovery from his late illness, and to Mr. Percy Brown and the teachers of the Sunday School were unanimously passed.

Mr. Brown read an interesting account of his work in connection with the Sunday School and the various activities connected therewith. The school is in an exceedingly prosperous condition and has had a very good year. Its financial condition is sound and it closes the year with a balance to the good. As the rector stated, in his opening address, it has proved itself a very valuable auxiliary to the work of the parish by encouraging the children to attend public worship and assisting by their contributions to its support.

ANNOUNCEMENT
 Mr. and Mrs. C. R. H. Starr announce the engagement of their youngest daughter, Helen Pippin, to George A. Boggs, of New York. Marriage to take place on Tuesday, February 3rd.

A political sensation has been occasioned by the resignation of Hon. D. A. Cameron as Provincial Secretary and Treasurer in the Nova Scotia government.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL DOINGS

Report of Proceedings Continued from Our Last Issue

At the morning session on Wednesday Coun. Bigelow, of Ward 1, reported for the committee appointed to look into the affairs of delinquent collectors, and stated that all taxes possible had been collected. In view of the fact that the Price, Waterhouse Co. had intimated a shortage of $14,000 due from collectors Councilors asked for information. The committee reported that $4,000 was yet outstanding and that it was believed that this had been paid in by the collectors. The report was adopted.

Warden Muoro reported for the committee which had in charge the adjustment of matters between the municipalities and towns. He stated that while there was nothing to show that the towns were liable for any proportion of the cost of right-of-way for North Mountain Railway the representatives of the towns had agreed to make no protest against this payment for the past nine years. Objection, however, had been taken to expenses in connection with public health, children's Aid work, etc. The whole question of joint service was discussed at some length and the advice of the county solicitor was asked for and given. Finally a motion was passed to the effect that the compromise recommended by the committee be made with the towns on the basis of a clean slate for the past years, the towns to pay the 1924 allotment for North Mountain Railway, a new arrangement to be made for the future.

A resolution was moved by Councillor Bigelow, seconded by Councillor Durno, protesting against any change in the law whereby the towns and cities were assessed for upkeep of highways outside of their own limits, the resolution claiming that 60 per cent. of all motor vehicles were owned in towns and cities. This resolution seemed to meet with the unanimous approval of the Council, and was passed at once.

Councillor Bill presented a resolution which was passed, asking the Provincial Government to change the time of issuing licenses for motor vehicles, dating them from May 1st, instead of January 1st, as at present.

The following were appointed as collectors of rates for the County: Ward 1, W. C. McKenna; 2, William Kinsman; 3, Howard Robinson; 4, George Porter; 5, H. B. Hilsley; 6, Fred L. Denison; 7, Charles Jordan; 8, B. E. Norman; 9, G. F. Huntly; 10, J. S. Galins; 11, N. Fancy; 12, E. J. McKenna; 13, D. L. Ratford; 14, M. E. Bryden.

Chief Fire Ranger Albert Corcoran presented his report, which showed that there had been no serious fires during the year. He had travelled 1000 miles and described in detail the work which he had done. The sum of $19.63 was to the credit of the County due to his efforts. The report was adopted and Mr. Corcoran was allowed $160 for expenses.

Report of the Overseers of the Poor gave a full statement of receipts and expenditures, as well as a list of the inmates of the County Home, numbering 65 at the present time. Live stock on the farm was valued at $848, and value of crop raised in 1924 was $1,830.20.

County Treasurer R. W. Kinsman's report of receipts and expenditures showed a credit balance of $11,926. The expenditure for the coming year was estimated at $106,411, with a revenue of $46,455, making necessary a tax rate of $1.30, which would be 40 cents lower than that of 1924. The County is now spending for education $26,000, and for human institutions nearly $50,000.

Dr. Chisholm, of the Provincial Health Board, addressed the Council in regard to the general health of the Province, and the County in particular. During the past three years the public health of Nova Scotia had improved, yet it was still much below the other provinces of the Dominion. Special stress was laid on the care of the tubercular poor and segregation of sexes in the County Home. The jail's suds net to be used as a lockup for the town, and certain improvements were needed.

The Warden thanked Dr. Chisholm for his address and explained that the Council had already assumed expense of patients at the Sanatorium, and further authorized such care, and that most of the improvements to the jail had already been authorized by the Council. In order that everything possible to conserve the public health might be done, he appointed Councillors F. L. Gertrige, Bishop and Durno to gather information and make recommendations to the Council in regard to improvements which might be effected in the public health.

The report of the trustees of school lands for Horton and Cornwallis was read and a motion and John Rand was appointed commissioner for Burgess road extension in place of George W. F. McLean.

A resolution asking for reduction in the motor license tax and that a small tax be placed on gasoline used in all automobiles was adopted.

The poverty on pears was raised to $8.00 as many sheep had been killed. The Jail Committee was appointed a committee to meet with Town of Kentville committee to ascertain if some way could be devised to provide employment for all persons confined in the jail.

The question of collecting a rate from the town of Berwick for electric line tax in Ward 10 was referred to the solicitor for advice and action.

The matter of a grant to the N. S. Publicity Bureau was tabled until the April session.

The various county officers were appointed, with few changes. Coun. Nichols was appointed to the executive board of the Berwick hospital; J. Frank Oubit was re-appointed county solicitor. Dr. Killam was re-appointed health officer; it was resolved that the matter of employing a chartered accountant to audit the books be left with the finance committee; that the Revisors receive the sum of $25 each per year; that the councillor for each ward hand in a list of officers for his ward.

CREATING APPETITE FOR FRUIT

SINCE the growing of apples in this section of Nova Scotia has assumed such a large place in the industrial activities of its people, it is a matter of wonder that a greater interest is not manifested in the direction of making more profitable the production and sale of the fruit. An example of what might be accomplished in increasing the sale of apples by means of wise advertising is given in the report of the first year of the "Eat More Fruit" campaign set in operation by the Fruit Trades Federation in Great Britain.

In the report it is stated that this movement constitutes the largest co-operative fruit advertising campaign ever launched in Great Britain, and during the past season the peculiar virtues of oranges, apples, lemons, pears and grapes have been brought home to more than 12,500,000 people daily and nearly 100,000,000 weekly by press advertising. The success of the campaign is testified by letters from brokers, shippers, wholesalers and retailers throughout the country, and by the fact that it has just been renewed on an even more extensive scale.

Meanwhile practically nothing is being done in the way of publicity to indicate to the world at large either the special advantages of this favored valley as a fruit growing section or the superiority of the fruit which is here produced. If properly advertised the consumption of apples in even the fruit growing sections might be tremendously increased. That we have attained the position which we occupy and that our people have been able to grow apples at even a measure of profit, is surprising when we take into consideration the reticence which has been displayed in the most important matter of advertising.

When the government of the province and the organizations which are supposed to exist for the promotion of the interests of the fruit-growing industry here, eventually undertake this most necessary and important work—and not until then—will the Annapolis Valley come to its own.

THE CIVIC ELECTION

REGARDLESS of the fact that Tuesday of next week will be nomination day one must keep his ear very close to the ground and listen hard in order to gain any intimation of the names of those who will be invited by citizens to occupy the vacant seats at the council board when the date of the holding of the civic elections has been passed. Mayor Chambers has definitely authorized THE ACADIAN to say that he will not be a candidate for re-election, and it is pretty generally understood that the retiring members of the Council have similarly expressed themselves. The time is short and the duty of the hour plain and imperative.

It is to be hoped that this dearth of information regarding an always important occasion in our community life may not indicate an absence of interest on the part of citizens. The welfare of the town demands that its administrative offices be filled by honest and reliable business men. It is the duty of every citizen to interest himself in this most important transaction and private as well as public interests will suffer if this responsibility is disregarded. It is not a healthy sign to find indifference to civic affairs on the part of the people of any community.

There are men in Wolfville who have not yet occupied important places in town government who are well qualified to give efficient service, and it is not their place to express their willingness until they are asked. As a general thing the man who wants such a position is not always the best person to place in an office which means much of work and little of praise or profit. Even with a town manager the position of mayor or councillor is not an easy one if its duties are conscientiously and faithfully performed, and those who give themselves to the work are deserving of the hearty support as well as the thanks of the public whom they serve.

It is to be hoped that, as in the past, civic interests may be so regarded that men may be found who are willing to do their duty in this regard.

PROUD AND LAZY

HAT pride and laziness on the part of the people of this province are responsible for the hard times so often complained of, is the statement made by the president of the Dairymen's Association at the annual meeting at Truro last week. "Our people," he said, "will not work for a fair wage and they buy many things which they do not need."

The indictment is a serious one and demands thoughtful consideration. Certainly the rank and file of Nova Scotians do not work as strenuously as those who reside in many other countries are obliged to. Take, for instance, that mecca to which so many of our people gravitate, the New England states, and where so many of them have made good and prospered. How do living and working conditions there compare with those in Nova Scotia? The ease and comfort experienced here by the great majority of working people is very different from that to which they are subjected when they go to make their living in "the land of the free." If you doubt the statement ask those who have had the experience.

We live in a country highly favored, and when our people generally learn to realize this fully they will be the better off. If those who remain at home were willing to submit to the same hardships and self-denial as do those who go away and make good, this country would "blossom like the rose." This valley has progressed wonderfully during the past twenty-five or thirty years, but the success which has been achieved is as nothing compared with what is possible when its people finally vision the possibilities that are in store.

NEWSPAPER INCOME

A NEWSPAPER'S income is principally from the sale of publicity (advertising). This is the only way an editor has of making a living. It costs somebody something for every line that goes into a newspaper. When an editor publishes something that helps a cause or a people, he is donating just so much of good, hard money. Had you ever thought of it in the way pointed out?

FORMERLY the expression "I'll tell the world" was regarded as merely a popular piece of slang with no particular justification. Since the broadcasting by radio has become such a commonplace the term has attached to itself a literal significance that cannot be questioned. Talking "to the world" is no longer a meaningless boast.

THE GOOD OLD GAME OF CRICKET

(By R. F. Dixon in The Montreal Daily Star.)

When I came to Canada in the early seventies, cricket was almost universally played in the English-speaking provinces from the Atlantic to the Great Lakes, and almost every small town and considerable village had its cricket club. The game, as I remember, was not organized into leagues. Those were easy-going days, and we had not been organized to death as we are today, and sports were carried on in the comparatively casual fashion characteristic of almost all other activities, whether of business or pleasure. However there were plenty of friendly matches and occasional "tournaments," as an examination of the files of any of the local weeklies and city journals of those times will reveal. All the colleges, boys' boarding schools and many of the larger business concerns also had their clubs. Annual Parliamentary cricket matches between the two Houses, the Press Gallery, the Government and Opposition were regularly played at Ottawa. The game had a wide vogue down here in the Maritime Provinces and Halifax, as late as the early nineties, was a great cricket centre. During the summer months, and while the navy was in the station hardly a week went by without cricket matches participated in by the sailors, soldiers and citizens. And in Newfoundland the game flourished in great vigor, and matches between the Halifax and St. John's (Nfld.) teams were being continually played.

Since then there has been a rapid and continuous decline in Canada, at all events east of the Great Lakes, in the popularity of cricket, and a whole generation of Canadians has grown up to whom the game is but the "name of a name." The majority of our young people, outside the larger cities, I imagine have never seen a game of cricket in their lives, and would be hard set to give anything but the vaguest description of it, and many, quite possibly, have never heard of it. During these years cricket, though not totally extinct in Canada, has been little more than an exotic, and a sickly one at that. Three years ago to my certain knowledge there was not a single cricket club in London, Ontario, where in the seventies and early eighties, I remember the game was universally played. Up until 1923 cricket was represented in Halifax, N.S., by the "West Indians," a club of colored gentlemen who managed to arrange at irregular intervals an occasional match with some "scratch" outside teams. So far as the general body of the citizens was concerned the game was dead and all but buried.

Throughout the three provinces cricket was little more than a dim memory of middle aged men. Between Yarmouth and Halifax, along the whole length of the Atlantic coast, on one side, and the Annapolis Valley, on the other, every club had long since passed out of existence and no a single game had been played within the present century. A similar state of things obtained in New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, and for a number of years the city of St. John, once the home of noted cricket teams, was without a club.

With in the last few years, however, I rejoice to say there has been a general revival of interest in the good old game through out Eastern Canada and, judging from a recent illustration in "Saturday Night," in the West as well. Down here in Nova Scotia, especially in the Annapolis Valley, cricket has had a gratifying "comeback." During the past four years cricket clubs have been started at the following towns: Windsor, Wolfville, Kentville, Bridgetown and Annapolis Royal. There are now three cricket clubs in Halifax, the Wanderers, the Garrison and the West Indians. St. John, N.B., I understand, has also fallen into line. In Cape Breton Island and other mining districts in Nova Scotia, which by a large English born population, cricket is again coming to the fore.

Game is Growing

I note from a report in the "Montreal Star" of the annual meeting of the Cricket Association of that city, that the game is steadily recovering its popularity in Toronto, where cricket during the thirteenth generation has, in common with the rest of Eastern Canada, experienced a marked decline, although kept going in a half dead half alive fashion there has been, since the war, a considerable renewal of interest. Clubs also, I understand, have been organized at Hamilton and London (and at several other cities). There has also, it is said, been a revival of cricket in the United States during the last four or five years, where the game, fairly general about forty or less years ago, has never wholly died out. Someone told me the other day that there are some ten cricket clubs in the city of Boston and cricket matches in Long Island, New York and Philadelphia and at other places are reported during the summer in the sporting columns of almost every issue of the "New York Sun" and "Times".

The general decline of cricket in this continent, and especially in Canada, I regard as deeply regrettable for more reasons than one. For cricket supplies something that is lacking in every other game of its kind. Now there are four games played by our Anglo-Saxon, or as I prefer to call it, or Anglo-Celtic race on both sides of the Atlantic, that possessing certain features in common, stand in a class by themselves. They are team games and they involve occasional risk—cricket, baseball, hockey and football. They are nerve and muscle games and where the players take their chance of hard knocks and even occasional bodily injury. All this is true of cricket, in which the batter has to stand up, slenderly defended, against the swift, hard and heavy cricket ball sharing the risk of a dislocated thumb or a knockout blow on possibly some vital part of his anatomy, while the wicket keeper, all this, as in the case of the other three games, test a man's pluck and nerve and differentiates them from all other outdoor games played in North America, with the exception of polo and lacrosse, which are beyond the reach of the great majority of our Canadian people.

Boys play with Men

But cricket has this about it peculiar to itself. It is the only game of its kind in which boys and men can play together on absolutely equal terms. After thirty, at the latest, no one can play baseball, much less hockey or football "seriously". Of course men of mature age can on occasion flourish a baseball bat or wield a hockey club, or kick a football about, but so far as any effective play goes, beyond an occasional stunt, they are hopelessly down and out of it. These games are too fast for the middle aged.

But how different with cricket. To give our own experience here: In our local neighborhood club at Kentville, N.S., during the last two or three years we have played, I suppose, at least a dozen matches, in which father and son, and in one case a father and two sons, played together. In our own team in this town, we have had players of all ages, ranging from seventeen or eighteen to sixty-four or five. One of our best players, a great run getter and most effective fielder, and a notable point catcher, was considerably over sixty and did all his own running when at bat. Where, I ask, will you get conditions in any other outdoor game, of the kind described? You will, to be sure, get it at golf, or bowls, or quoits, or curling, but these are not the games that try the souls of men, and test not only their skill but their manhood, nor are they team games. Here, then, is a game that is unique, wherein the young and middle aged, and sometimes, the old, stand on the same level. In one of our Valley teams we have, or had, one player, and a real player at that, of seventy-three years of age, who stood up without a tremor and creditably scored against some of our swiftest bowlers, of whom we have several, who could hold their own with any in the Dominion. Some of the practical advantages of a game like cricket are, first, it keeps a man "young" all his life. In too many cases when a man retires from baseball, hockey or football he degenerates into a "fan" and becomes a "rooter", and as I once heard it put, "plays games with his mouth" or at best subsides into a devotee of golf, becomes "pussy and puffy". HANTSPORT HAPPENINGS

Dr. Shankel is quite indisposed at his home here. His friends hope soon to see him out again.

The Rev. Z. L. Fash, pastor of the Baptist church, and Rev. Dr. Dickie, of the Presbyterian church, exchanged pulpits on Sunday morning.

The many friends of Mrs. A. E. Blois are pleased to learn that she is convalescing from a serious illness.

Capt. Asa Davison is on a business trip to Boston. His little daughter, Miss Marion, is a pupil at Edgemoor School for Girls, Windsor.

Mrs. Regina Marsters left on Friday via Yarmouth for the U.S.A., where she will be the guest of her son, Welton for the remainder of the winter.

Mrs. A. W. Pattison and daughter, Miss Beatrice, left last Thursday for Digby, where Mrs. Pattison will spend the winter. Miss Pattison proceeded to St. John to visit with friends.

Mr. Ervin Pattison, who has been associated in business with his father, the late A. W. Pattison, for the past six months, left on Thursday for Detroit, Michigan. He will be joined by Mrs. Pattison and child at a later date.

Miss Jean Burgess returned to Boston on Friday, after making an extended visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Burgess.

The sad intelligence received recently of the passing away of little Virginia Cochrane, the winsome four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Cochrane, of New York, and granddaughter of Mrs. Irene Cochrane of Hantsport, was learned with exceeding regret here. The little one was severely burned about two weeks ago, which resulted fatally. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of the entire community.

An enthusiastic and exciting game of hockey took place on the local rink on Saturday afternoon between the Grand Fre and the Hantsport teams, the score being 4-4.

Miss Pearl Porter, of Welsford, Kings county, is a student at the Hantsport High School.

Capt. Young, master of the Otis Wack, who has been enjoying a holiday at his home here, left on Wednesday of last week for Digby, where the tug is in its winter quarters. Capt. Young was accompanied by his family who will remain in Digby for the remainder of the winter.

The Sunday School of St. Andrew's Anglican church held their Christmas tree on Tuesday evening, Jan. 13th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Chesley. After the Christmas tree festivities a supper was partaken of. A most enjoyable evening was spent.

Miss Jean McLeod, of Islay, Alberta, who has been visiting her brother Dr. McLeod, of Upper Stewiacke, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Dickie. The many friends of Mrs. F. Lane, of Morden, Kings county, formerly of Hantsport, sincerely regret to learn of the very serious illness of her little daughter Florence (one of the twins), who is a patient at the Memorial Hospital, Berwick, and hope soon to learn of an improvement in her condition.

PRESBYTERIANS HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

The annual congregational supper and business meeting of the Presbyterian church was held on Tuesday evening, Jan. 13th. After partaking of a sumptuous repast, those assembled adjourned to the auditorium where the business of the church was transacted. Rev. Dr. Dickie acted as chairman. The minutes were read by the secretary, D. W. Murray. The treasurer, Dr. Annand, gave an excellent report showing that the previous year was a banner one for the church, over $800 being raised. At present there are about fifty members. All the officers were re-elected for the ensuing year. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Dickie, was invited to remain and accepted. Mrs. F. Hart, the efficient organist, was presented with a purse of money in appreciation of her services.

ANNUAL MEETING OF BAPTIST CONGREGATION

The annual congregational supper of the Hantsport United Baptist church was held in the vestry on Wednesday evening of last week, a large number attending. At 6 p.m. those assembled took their places at tables literally groaning with good things, to which all did ample justice.

Following the supper the pastor, Rev. Z. L. Fash, took the chair and presided over the business meeting. Encouraging reports for the year were given by the clerk, J. E. Borden, who read the minutes, and treasurer, J. H. Newcombe. Mrs. Graham, chairman, reported for the Finance Committee; Mrs. L. Pulsifer for the Sunday School; Lloyd Fleming for the Christian Endeavour Society; Harris Wellwood, the Mission Band; Mrs. J. Reid, the Sewing Circle; N. E. Colwell for the trustees; Mrs. J. E. Borden on Communion.

Two of the retiring trustees, J. E. Borden and A. Newcombe, were re-elected. Miss Hume was re-elected as superintendent for the Sunday School. The members of the Finance Committee were reappointed with the addition of two new members, C. Graham and G. Frizzle. Mr. Sarty's Sunday School class, consisting of fifteen young men, were appointed to take up the collection alternately.

A HANTSPORT HOCKEYIST

One of the best players on the Windsor hockey team, which is giving a good account of its life these days, is Manning Gertrige, who plays wing. Gertrige is a good skater and stick-wielder, and a clean player who can always be depended upon. It is a great pity that Hantsport has no rink of its own so that local players would have an opportunity to uphold the honor of their own home town.

HANTSPORTIANS IN CALIFORNIA

Editor Hantsport Acadian

Dear Sir,—I thought to begin the New Year right by giving you valuable paper one more subscriber. The few, or many, who find fault with their best friend, are generally, if not always, the poorest support of these friends, and papers. Some think all a newspaper has to do is advertise. If no subscribers, no advertisers. No one who can read can afford not to support their nearest newspaper, no more than they can afford to shun their best friends.

A few lines on our late arrivals from Bluenose land. The late comers are Stanley Taylor, wife (nee Minnie Marsters), son Jackie Taylor, Frederick Marsters, Glenn Marsters; Edwin Dorman and wife (nee Elta Riley). Elta was for many years in the Hantsport post-office, but her health failing, she accompanied Mrs. Flora Massteis to Arcata, where that lady became the wife of your correspondent. The second party coming to Arcata was Stanley Taylor, wife, son Jackie, and Frederick Marsters, Mrs. B. A. Frost's eldest son, and Minnie, her eldest daughter. Jackie, Mrs. Frost's only grand child, chaperoned by Wilma Marsters, now Mrs. H. O. Bishop, Miss Marsters being Mrs. Frost's youngest daughter, made a two month's visit with the Frost family, going back in June. At Chicago meeting Harry O. Bishop, the man of her choice, who was married in Chicago, going to some principal cities in U.S. then to Montreal and other cities in Canada; finally back to the land of her birth, Mr. and Mrs. Bishop settled down to housekeeping at Kentville, twelve miles north from Hantsport.

Mr. Taylor, Mr. Dorman, Frederick and Glenn Marsters went to work in this wonderful mill town, where the families of both men live. Glenn Marsters was employed in Salem in the plumbing trade previous to coming west.

STATE OPENING OF BRITISH PARLIAMENT—BEEF EATERS SEARCH THE VAULTS

A party of His Majesty's Bodyguard of Yeomen of the Guards on their way to the Parliament Buildings to make a thorough search of the vaults in the cellar of the House, as a precaution against explosive plots, before the King arrives to open Parliament. This photo shows "the Beefeaters" arriving at the Houses of Parliament.

Glenn made the trip across the continent with a friend, in one of Henry Ford's substantial cars. The trip consumed eighteen days from Salem to Burbank, which is near Los Angeles. Mr. John Clapper, who Glenn came across the continent with, here picked up an old friend and after two days' rest proceeded on to Humboldt county, taking three days for the trip. Glenn stopped here, Mr. Clapper and friend pursuing their way to Crater lake in Oregon, to spend a few weeks' vacation. Quite a trip from Salem to Humboldt too for a twenty year old boy to make. Glenn and Mr. Clapper said their two days trip across the Mojave Desert was the only unpleasant part of the trip. A woman died on the desert, a day before Mr. Clapper crossed. Most of the travelling on the desert is done by night when it is cooler.

The head man at the giant Korb Mill is also a Bluenose, starting his career at East River, N.S., at eleven years of age, having been at the head of the Korb Mill plant fifteen or twenty years. Joseph Tabor, Korb Mill, California, is his address. As well as superintendent of the Sunday School and is honored by all who meet and know him. A few days ago it froze enough to crack water pipes; though the grass is green the year around. Christmas dinner was served by Mrs. B. A. Frost. The colony from Korb Mill dined with us. New Year's dinner was served by Mrs. E. Dorman and Mrs. S. Taylor at Korb Mill, the Frost family going up. Santa came clear across the continent with many Christmas greetings, returning the same night to the land of Evangeline. The presents were nice and lots of them. If this is not too long, and you care for more California news, we will some day come again. Most respectfully,

B. A. FROST,
Arcata, California, Jan. 8, 1925.

CHRISTMAS TREES—AND OTHER PULPWOOD EXPORTS

(From the Financial Post)

Around Christmas time much was heard about the slaughter of our forests to provide Christmas trees to slip to the United States for a few cents apiece.

Do Canadians realize that every day in the year nearly 100,000 "Christmas trees" are shipped out of Canada to the United States, to be used as the raw material of pulp and paper mills employing only American workmen? Canada plays Santa Claus to the United States 365 days in the year. The tragedy of it is that these trees are not young seedlings, as are the trees we send American youngsters at Christmas time, but trees full-grown to pulpwood size, most of them evergreens, but some of other species. All of them are trees that should in process of manufacture into paper provide jobs for Canadian workmen; trees that should be a reserve of forest resources for Canadians in generations to come.

Opponents of the suggested embargo on pulpwood exports argue that the shipments from Canada are small and unimportant. Let us see how "unimportant" these shipments are:

Filled like cordwood, four feet high and four feet wide, the wood would form a pile 2,000 miles long. It would make a pile more than 80 times as large as the new Metropolitan Building in Toronto, which is the tallest structure in the British Empire and 55 times as large as the Insurance Exchange Building in Montreal, which is the largest office building in the British Empire.

The trees cut down each year for shipment to the United States are responsible for the slaughter of over 200,000 acres of forest land which is enough to cover with trees the entire cities of Toronto, Montreal, Winnipeg, Vancouver, Halifax, Victoria, Hamilton, Ottawa, St. John, Fredericton, Quebec, Saskatoon, Regina, Edmonton, Calgary and Moose Jaw and leave enough to cover a ranch of upwards of 25,000 acres.

The area cut down each year would form a ball 200 yards wide from Halifax to Vancouver.

Although the shipments are "small and unimportant" they comprise over one-fifth of all the pulpwood used to feed the great pulp and paper industry of the United States which manufactures over 7,000,000 tons of paper annually. If the same amount of pulpwood as is exported to the United States were manufactured into pulp or paper in Canada it would provide jobs for upwards of 12,500 Canadian workmen. When allowance is made for the families of these workmen, the total number of Canadians who would be supported is equal to one-half the total immigration into Canada in the year 1924 with out allowing for workers in allied plants and the tradesmen that would be supported. Including these the industry would support a city about the size of Ottawa or Hamilton.

SONG OF THE SEWING-MACHINE

Oh, the happiest worker of all am I,
When my wheel and my needle so merrily fly!

With a spool full of thread and a heart full of song,
I am ready and willing to work the day long.

Oh, faster and faster my glad wheel flies
When it catches the light in a young maid's eyes!

The dearest and tenderest girlhood dreams
I stitch into gossamer tams and seams.

But slower my wheel and softer my song
When fairy-like fragments are guided along.

I am stitching the dreams most sacred of all
Into queer little gowns and a wee silken shawl.

—Constance I. Davis.

THE PATH OF SUCCESS

A church prints on the back of its programme of services the following:

"I will not worry."
"I will not be afraid."
"I will not give way to anger."
"I will not yield to envy, jealousy or hatred."
"I will be kind to every man, woman and child with whom I come in contact."
"I will be cheerful and hopeful!"

THREE GATES

(From the Arabian author unknown)

If you are tempted to reveal
A tale some one to you has told
About another, make it pass,
Before you speak, three gates of gold.

These narrow gates: First, "Is it true?"
Then, "Is it needful?" In your mind
Give truthful answer. And the next
Is last and narrowest, "Is it kind?"

Did you ever notice that the greatest denouncers of "grafting" are the grafters who are out?

NEW LAMP BURNS 94 p.c. AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, J. M. Johnson, 246 Craig St. W., Montreal, is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

There are many in Wolfville who will recall his prowess with the stick and who will be interested to "listen in" to some of the swiftest hockey played in the Middle West both by civilians and University students.

THE RUSSIAN ARTISTS

The following sentences are samples of the universal chorus of praise concerning the work of the Russian Artists who are to be heard in Wolfville, Friday evening of this week, at 8.15.

With a musical programme, the best ever heard in the Lyceum Course, the Russian artists delighted the audience which completely filled the large auditorium.

Folk songs, instrumental numbers and solos all combined to make the program most enjoyable.

One of the numbers receiving most favourable comment was "The Song of Inna" arranged by Yasha Garoy. His voice is a tenor of wide range and magnificent quality.

Madam Sadovskaya, who was one of the leading dramatic sopranos in the Imperial Russian Opera, won the instant support and admiration of her audience. The violin numbers and the pianoforte solos were equally well received.

The public is thus guaranteed a remarkable musical treat. The tickets are placed at One Dollar and may be had at Rand's.

Remember also the APOLLO DUO, Saturday evening, February 7th. The course ticket for the two great recitals is placed at $1.50

In addition to being re-elected to the presidency of the Ladies' Ontario Hockey Association, Miss Janet Allen has been further honored by being appointed representative to the A.A.U. of C. Committee on Women's Athletics. Miss Allen is a member of the Aura Lee ladies' hockey team of Toronto.

ELIAS NICHOLS PAYZANT, M.D.

In the early hours of this morning there passed away at his home on Elm avenue, in the person of Elias Nichols Payzant, M.D., one who was probably Wolfville's oldest resident and who for very many years had been a useful and highly esteemed citizen of this town.

In his ninety-fifth year he retained his mental powers to a wonderful degree and took a keen interest in public affairs. For some months past his physical condition had been waning and of late he failed rapidly until the end came at 4 o'clock this morning and he passed to the great beyond.

The deceased was born at Wilmot, Annapolis county, a son of the late James M. Payzant. He began the study of medicine in the office of the late Dr. E. L. Brown and after completing his course abroad began his professional career at Hantsport. He also practised successfully at Lakeville and Port Williams before locating at Wolfville. He specialized in dentistry and practised with marked success in various parts of the province.

A close student he kept in full touch with all the advances made in the science of medicine and his advice was always regarded as valuable.

Always until the end well informed on world events, he was an interesting companion and even in late years a visit to his room was inspiring and helpful.

He married Miss Caroline Allison, who predeceased him some years ago, and left a large family of sons and daughters. He is survived by his oldest son, Dr. J. Austen Payzant, of Halifax; and two daughters, Mrs. E. Sidney Crawley, of this town, and Mrs. H. A. Pitt, of Hamilton, Bermuda.

The funeral will take place at 4.30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, and will be with Masonic honors, the deceased having been for years an honored member of St. George's Lodge.

THANKS FOR THE INFORMATION

To the Editor of THE ACADIAN Dear Editor.—In a former issue of THE ACADIAN I made a request for information regarding a seizure of intoxicants made some weeks before at Port Williams station. No response was made to my enquiry regarding the disposition made of the seizure, but I notice in the proceedings of the County Council last week that Inspector White stated that the liquor was shipped to the Board of Vendors, "as directed by law". Such a provision is certainly in the line of economy and should appeal to the frugal ratepayers. May I suggest that the proceeds from the "legal" sale of such illicit goods be used in future towards defraying the expenses of liquor prosecutions and the maintenance of those who elect to "take jail sentences". A business of this kind has become so remunerative as has this "legal" sale of liquor in Nova Scotia, where prohibition is supposed to exist, is capable of working wonders if wisely conducted.

I am pleased to the "Inspector" for the information which he imparts, and congratulate him upon his reappointment to office. By the way, I wonder who is responsible for the title; he certainly must have been a seer as well as a wag. Inspector is good. ONE WHO HAS A RIGHT TO KNOW.

NOTICE USE OF WATER

In view of the dry autumn and winter all users of water are earnestly requested to see that water is not wasted. The reservoirs are not full and a large consumption of water in the lower parts of the town results in poor service in the higher portions.

G. S. STAIRS, Town Manager.

The Hants Journal generously remarks that in the recent Windsor-Wolfville hockey game the Windsor players were actually not making an effort to score in the last period! How considerate.

The exceeding cold weather of the early part of the week caused numerous freeze-ups in water-pipes, etc. The town's electrical appliance has been in demand both in town and in outside sections, and has done most effective work.

The total precipitation for the year 1924 as shown at the Meteorological Station here was 34.84 inches, or a mean monthly precipitation of 2.78 inches. This was 24 per cent. less than in 1923, and 16 per cent. less than the average for the past 15 years.

On Friday last the leading pen in the egg laying contest at the Experimental Station, Kentville, was that belonging to Hillside Orchard Farm, Canning. The pen belonging to Mrs. W. S. Eagles, Gaspereau, was in third place, and that belonging to A. J. Peter, of Wolfville, was fifteenth.

Middleton suffered from a serious fire last Friday morning when the Morrison Block on Commercial street was destroyed. The loss in the building and contents is placed at $75,000. The losers besides A. J. Morrison, the owner of the building, are C. A. Mumford, druggist; M. C. Cummings, barber; C. F. Fisher, confectioner; Mrs. D. E. Dodge, milliner; and the Crawford Brush Company. The Morrison Block was rebuilt in 1911, following the big fire, which totally destroyed it, with about six other buildings.

HOCKEY NOTES

Two games were played in the Valley League series on Monday night. The Windsor team easily defeated the Wolfville players at Windsor by the score of 11 to 2, while Canning lost to Kentville in the latter's rink by the same score. Lack of space prevents us from giving a full account of these games.

On Tuesday night in the local rink the Acadia team lost to Kings College by the score of 5 to 4, in a closely contested and well played exhibition game. It was the first game of the season for both teams but an excellent brand of hockey was presented. Acadia led until the last two minutes when the visitors scored twice in quick succession. A full account of this game is also crowded out by other matter.

The game played between Wolfville and Kentville last Friday evening was protested by the local team and the matter was taken up at a meeting here last evening. Wolfville claimed that Kentville's first goal was scored on an off-side play, and that the locals scored a goal near the end of the game that was not allowed. Representatives of all the teams in the league were present at the meeting, and it was finally decided that the game be replayed on neutral ice. The standing of the teams therefore now is as follows:

BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL NOTES

The Philathea class of the Baptist Sunday School spent a very enjoyable evening, Jan. 19, at the Missionary Home. Mrs. Gullison invited the class in honor of Genevieve's birthday. A short business meeting of the class was held, after which games were played. The prizes for the different games were necklaces of camphor beads made by natives of India. Mrs. Gullison told several interesting stories about her work in India. Delicious refreshments were served.

"SHOWER" AT GRAND PRE

On Saturday evening last, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Woodman, Grand Pre, a "shower" was given in honor of Miss Phyllis Fuller, of Hortonville, whose marriage to Mr. Graham Harvey takes place this afternoon at the Lower Horton Methodist church. The popularity of the prospective bride who is one of the most charming and highly esteemed young ladies of this section, was evidenced by the numerous and lovely gifts of which she was the recipient. The heartiest of good wishes will follow her from a host of friends.

WANT MAYOR CHAMBERS OT CONTINUE

There appears to be a very general feeling among citizens that Mayor Chambers should, if possible, be persuaded to undertake the duties of that office for another term. During the past year he has given very general satisfaction and while he has perhaps not received as many bouquets as he deserved it is safe to say that his efforts to promote the weal of the town have been appreciated. The experience which has come to him as the result of past service makes him of special value in the conduct of civic affairs, and the leisure from business cares which he has earned during a busy life makes possible a more thorough oversight than most citizens would be able to give to the duties of the office of chief magistrate. THE ACADIAN has no hesitancy in saying that it knows of no one in town more qualified for the position than Mayor Chambers.

A SELF-MADE FAILURE

The big things to bear in mind about this production are as follows: The picture follows "Penrod and Sam" and "Boy of Mine", which were produced by J. K. McDonald and achieved tremendous success. Since Mr. McDonald is the producer of this picture also, it will be a good point to bring before your public the fact that "A Self-Made Failure" is from the studios of the man who made "Penrod and Sam" and "Boy of Mine", and stars Ben Alexander, who also appeared in these two attractions.

Play up the angle of Lloyd Hamilton and Ben Alexander appearing in one picture supported by a cast of players which promises to be one of the greatest ever chosen for a motion picture. Here is a similar situation as in Chapin's "The Kid", a grown-up and a youngster starring in a comedy. At the Orpheum Theatre Monday and Tuesday next.

AVONPORT

Miss Alice M. Fuller, of the Avonport General Store, is enjoying a well earned three weeks vacation, part of which she is spending at Martock with her sister Mrs. Levi Daniels.

Mrs. Doris Sharp, of Kentville, was the week end guest of her friend, Miss Bernice Nieforth.

Mr. Harry Armstrong left on Monday for his home in Edmonton, Alta., after spending a week at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. Brenton Borden.

Mr. L. E. Shaw, of the firm of L.E. Shaw, Ltd., is in Bridgewater and points on the South Shore on business for the firm.

Miss Isobell Daniels, of Martock, is the guest of her sister, Miss Madge Daniels.

Mrs. Henry Childers returned home on Saturday, after spending a week at Port Williams with her mother, Mrs. C. R.

CANNING AND VICINITY

Dr. Thomas W. Hodgson and Miss Margaret Hodgson returned Jan. 19th from New York...

Gerald Huston, who has been confined to the house by illness, is improving.

Mrs. E. M. Beckwith, who has been ill, has recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Leander Woodworth were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ellis last week.

Inspector Davidson visited the schools of Pearsau, Blomdon, White Waters, Arlington, Scotts Bay Road, Medford, Scotts Bay, Kingsport, Woodside and Canning...

Mr. Noble Pelton, who spent three weeks with his daughters, Mrs. Scott Blenkhorne and Mrs. Clarence Vickery, has returned to Boston.

Miss Isabel Magee left last week for the West, where she will spend the winter.

Caleb Hemmings has sold to A. C. Sheridan a property in Canning, Gordon Caldwell having purchased from Mr. Hemmings the North Mountain wood lot, and Mr. Hubbard the property at Habituat.

Dr. Thomas W. Hodgson delivered a fine discourse in Canning Methodist church Sabbath morning. Special music by the choir included a beautiful mixed trio, Mrs. (Dr.) F. F. Chute, violin; F. E. Bennett, soloist; Mrs. Charles Sinnett, piano. The service was largely attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Patriquin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Royal DeWolf, Dr. and Mrs. Wheelock, Wolfville, and F. E. Bennett, Somerset, attended the funeral of the late Mrs. John E. Bigelow.

Miss Ruth Sheffield is visiting friends in Somerset.

The Mission Circle, of Canning Methodist church, held a delightful surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnon Bigelow on Monday evening, Jan. 12, in honor of Miss Constance Adams, who leaves Jan. 24 for New York, where she will enter the Metropolitan Hospital for training. The circle met at the home of the superintendent, Mrs. E. W. North, and the gathering was a complete surprise to the guest of honor.

The girls presented Miss Adams with a beautiful French ivory brush and comb, to which she responded appreciatively. The evening, a very delightful one, was spent in music and games, which were followed by supper, Mrs. A. J. Bigelow, Miss Margaret Bigelow and Miss Winnie Adams assisting the members, who, while wishing Miss Adams every success in her new work, regret her departure. Miss Adams, who is very popular, will be greatly missed in church, social, and community life. She is a member of the teaching staff of Christ church.

FUNERAL OF MRS. JOHN E. BIGELOW

The funeral of the late Mrs. John E. Bigelow was held on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 18, from the residence of her son-in-law, N. W. Eaton, and largely attended. The service was conducted by Dr. Thomas W. Hodgson, pastor of Canning Methodist church.

As we gather to pay our last affectionate respects to this mother, said the speaker, our hearts go to our own beloved mothers, many of whom have gone before. So, silently and humbly, we offer our sympathy. Life is not all sunshine, cloudy days must come, we cannot always walk on the sunny side of the road. The hills of life are just as real as the joys. Sorrow is a real factor in human life, which at its longest is brief. We are in a world where our lights go out. All must take their places and surrender to God the life that He has given. What consolation have we under such circumstances? Our dear ones go and leave us with empty hearts. The religion of Jesus Christ is the true religion that gives us consolation. Christ heals our broken hearts and makes the rainbow of promise to shine in the sky.

Best for Coughs & Colds

Minard's gives quick relief for coughs and colds, grippe, influenza, etc. Madame J. Edmond Potras, of Pambourg St. Jean Ste., Quebec, is only one of hundreds who highly recommend it. She writes as follows:

"After having tried several syrups and rubbing lotions for cough I consider that Minard's alone gives satisfaction. I also value it for warts, which I have quickly removed with Minard's."

Minard's Liniment

He taught us the true meaning of suffering and death, and those who weep may go to Him and find peace. This comfort comes from the character of God, whose essential nature is love. He, who is all powerful, conducts all in love. When our friends pass, God is not an annihilator. Let not your heart be troubled, ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my father's house are many mansions. I go to prepare a place for you, that where I am there ye may be also. In the light of this humanity has dried its tears and been able to smile. Let us not mourn as those who have no hope. Let us now think that life ends in incompleteness. As do the tree and flower, so man attains to perfection. His power of soul expands and in another world his highest hopes are achieved, for when we shall see Him, we shall be like Him. Because of the doctrine of immortality we can smile through our tears. God loves and understands. He who gives completion to a flower will not deny it to his beloved child. Because of Jesus Christ death is but the portal to a nobler life with Him for evermore. He knows us all by name whose name is Jehovah. He takes the lambs in His arms and folds them in His bosom. This is a wonderful story of deathless love, of Jesus and His love. He lifts the burden for He is strong. He loves to pardon because He cares and so makes it possible for us to say "Thy will be done". God grant that we too may join the mothers who have gone before and be an unbroken family in God's kingdom.

Mr. Fred Bennett, of Somerset, sang very beautifully, Mrs. Charles Sinnett, accompanist. The pall bearers were Messrs Halle Bigelow, Erle Bigelow, Lorne Blenkhorne, N. W. Eaton. The remains were laid to rest at Habituat.

KINGSFORT

The annual meeting of the congregation of St. Thomas Anglican church, Kingsport, was held on Friday evening, Jan. 9th, the rector, Rev. Gordon C. Brown, presiding. The receipts were the highest in the history of the church. The rector's stipend had been paid in full and a substantial amount given to missions. After all accounts had been met there was a good balance on the proper side. An encouraging report was received from the Sunday school which, under the supervision of Mr. William Hiltz, is now entirely self supporting. Messrs. William Hiltz and A. B. Taylor were reappointed chapel wardens and Mr. A. B. Taylor was reappointed treasurer for the coming year. A splendid spirit of harmony and co-operation prevails among the members of this congregation.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Loomer entertained Kingsport Whist Club on Thursday, a delightful evening being spent. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. A. W. Dickie and the gentlemen's by Mr. William Hiltz.

Dr. Cecil Harris, Yarmouth, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Weaver, Kingsport, returned last week. Mr. Weaver is improving.

The Working Band of Kingsport Congregational church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bigelow on Tuesday, Jan. 13th.

Mrs. Isaac Cox, who has been ill, has recovered from an attack of La Grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Dickie entertained the Kingsport Bridge Club on Tuesday evening, Jan. 13th, the opening night of the season.

MEDFORD

Medford Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Owen Strong and was largely attended, president, Mrs. R. W. Kisman, presiding. The response to roll call was Home and School, many of the quotations being very fine. Miss Ruth Jackson gave an interesting reading on the School, and Mrs. Robert Palmer gave a very fine reading on the Home. Mrs. Owen Strong rendered vocal and instrumental solos, which were much appreciated. Medford Women's Institute decided in favor of joining with Canning in the School Exhibition.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Roscoe entertained the Pearsau Progressive Club on Tuesday, Jan. 13th, the evening being delightfully spent in progressive croquet.

Mrs. J. D. Bennett continues to improve after her recent operation.

CANARD

Canard Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. P. G. McDonald Friday afternoon, Jan. 16, president, Mrs. Lorna Rand, presiding. The business hour included the discussion of arrangements in regard to extending an invitation to Miss Rosamund Archibald to address us on the Better English drive, and it was also decided to co-operate with Canning in regard to the School Exhibition. Mrs. Stanley Eaton reported on the circulating magazine library which is to be held under the auspices of the Institute. We had on this occasion the pleasure of listening to a splendid address on junior Red Cross work, by Miss Liggett, of Halifax, who is visiting the schools. An expression of appreciation was extended to Miss Liggett for an hour of interest, which was followed by a social hour spent over the tea cups. Miss Liggett, who is visiting the schools in the interest of the Junior Red Cross, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. G. McDonald.

Rev. Mr. Campbell, Halifax, preached to a large and appreciative audience in the Upper Canard Presbyterian church Sunday, Jan. 18. Mr. Campbell was the guest of Mrs. Oscar Chase.

Mrs. Arthur Dickie, who is confined to her home by illness, is improving.

SHEFFIELD MILLS

Sheffield Mills Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. George Bosser Friday afternoon, a large number attending, president, Mrs. Frank Irving, presiding. After the business session was concluded a delightful musical program was enjoyed, consisting of vocal solos by Mrs. George Bosser, with Mrs. John Burgess, accompanist, and piano solos by Mrs. Burgess. A social hour was then spent over the tea cups.

Miss Grace Ross, New Ross, is visiting Mrs. David Ellis.

OUR NEW LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

A Brief Sketch of His Life and Attainments

James Robson Douglas was born at Amherst, N.S., on March 27th, 1876, the son of the late David W. Douglas, of Amherst, and Jane Lamy, of Amherst, sister of the late J. Robson Lamy for whom Mr. Douglas was named. He attended the public schools at Amherst, the Horton Collegiate School and St. Joseph's, Memramcook.

Mr. Douglas entered the office of Townshend, Dickie and Rogers at an early age and finding their large insurance business more interesting than the law decided to devote himself to it and eventually purchased it and opened an office of his own at Amherst. At the same time he became agent for the C.P.R. Subsequently he was appointed general agent of the Home Insurance Company of New York, and the National Insurance Company of Hartford, for the recent British elections, and the number of successful contestants. The above layout shows the British Houses of Parliament and three well known Canadians, who are members of the new Parliament. From left to right: Col. Hamilton Gault, Col. Grant Morden and Sir Hamar Greenwood.

local insurance business Mr. Douglas purchased the Nova Scotia Fire Insurance Company and the Atlantic Mutual, formed the firm of Douglas Brothers and opened an office in New York City. He subsequently visited Russia and other European centres and was instrumental in bringing large insurance interests to America. From then on Mr. Douglas has taken a leading position in business circles and became a recognized authority on fire insurance matters, not only on his side of the Atlantic but in England.

When he first Victory Loan campaign was started Mr. Douglas consented to take charge of Cumberland County and the success of the campaign and of subsequent ones was largely due to his untiring efforts.

At the time of the Halifax explosion Mr. Douglas was one of the first of the relief trains and had much to do with the basis settlement of explosion victims.

After the war when the American and Foreign Insurance Association, composed of a group of the largest insurance companies in the world, desired to enter the foreign field he visited European insurance centres and spent considerable time abroad in that connection.

Mr. Douglas has always associated himself with the industrial life of his native town and province. At an early age he was interested in, and a director of, the Rhodes, Curry Company, Limited, and in the formation of the Canada Car Company. A large section of Amherst, locally called "Douglstown", was built solely by him. He has been actively interested in various large mercantile, manufacturing, and financial institutions through Nova Scotia and elsewhere, and for some years was heavily interested in the lumbering interests of the Province. While always active in the industrial world and to the forefront in insurance circles, it is in financial matters that Mr. Douglas has perhaps become most prominent, and at the present time is very largely interested in the industrial and financial life of Nova Scotia.

From his youth Mr. Douglas has taken an active interest in outdoor sports and at one time was manager of and a player on the old Amherst hockey team. A prominent bicycle rider in his younger days he, with ex-Speaker Rhodes, assisted in carrying the message from the Governor of New Brunswick to the Governor of Nova Scotia.

He is a keen fisherman and sportsman and is particularly interested in fine horses. His stables at present hold some of the finest saddle horses in the country, among them being "Lloyd George", which, when ridden by his daughter, Miss Marion, captured the coveted blue ribbon at the New York Horse Show, as well as many ribbons at the prominent horse shows throughout Eastern America.

Mr. Douglas was married in 1902 to Miss Marion G. Stevens, of Houlton, Maine, and has four daughters, Marion, Grace, Eloise and Jane. Mr. George T. Douglas, formerly manager of the Canada Car Company at Amherst, and now president of Douglas, Rogers, Limited, is a brother.

Mr. Douglas is an adherent of the Episcopal church, and a Liberal.

That Canadians are taking a very prominent part in the world affairs in other countries than their own is evidenced by the number of Canadians by birth, or residence and association, who took part in the recent British elections, and the number of successful contestants. lose his nerve and forgets all the joy and inspiration of that manly comradeship peculiar to games which demand personal co-operation, pluck, and unselfish loyalty to one's fellows.

Sobering Effect
In the second place it has a steady and sobering effect on the boy and the hobbler. He insensibly imbibes the spirit of true sportsmanship.

Not Handicapped
The underhand bowler who delivered "grubs" and "twists" was not handicapped in this way, his balls shot in on the level. But the modern bowler, who delivers his ball clipping balls from the shoulder at three-quarters pitch, is, it seems to me, at a marked disadvantage as compared with the old time bowler to whom the wickets were a relatively easy mark.

Not Rivals
Baseball and cricket should not be rivals. As I have shown each has, or should have, its own clientele, and in many cases could be played side by side.

Answer to Last Week's Puzzle

er. This I think is worthy of serious consideration, especially in the matter of the height of the wicket. How often one sees on lumpy ground call after ball delivered "dead on", clear the wicket by apparently a hair's breadth.

I would like to see a certain linking up of baseball and cricket, or at all events a sort of entente cordiale between the two games. Baseball, I find, is a splendid school for the cricketers.

There is a pretty general objection, I find, that cricket is too slow a game, and consumes too much time, and I am free to admit that there is something in this. Most people, it is urged, find it impossible to spend half, or a whole day and sometimes even longer, watching a match between really expert teams.

PORT WILLIAMS AND VICINITY

Miss Mary Chase, Church Street, entertained three of her girl friends from Wolfville over the week end. They were the Misses Virginia MacLean, Maxine Williams and Helen Ingraham.

The open air rink is in full swing again under the management of Mr. Todd Thomson, who has worked under great difficulties in flooding it, as the water in the reservoir has been and is yet so low. They were warned not to use it for the rink, therefore he has had to bring the water from the brook near by in order to make ice and has succeeded in making a very fine sheet of ice.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Newcombe, Church Street, motored to Bridgetown on Tuesday last week with Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Newcombe, Belcher Street, returning the same day.

At the annual meeting of the "Loyal Workers" Sunday school class, held at the home of Miss Jessie Lockwood, the following officers for the current year were elected:

President—Miss Jessie Lockwood.
Secretary—Mrs. Ralph F. Newcombe.
Treasurer—Mrs. George A. Dodge.

We are glad to report that Mr. Grant MacDow, who has been suffering from blood poisoning in his hand, is able to be out again.

Miss Lucy A. Cogswell is spending a few days in Kentville, the guest of her cousin, Mrs. W. A. Hiltz.

The "Busy Men's Bible" class of the Port Williams United Baptist Sunday School held their annual banquet in the church vestry on Friday evening of last week. They were entertained by the "King's Daughters" Bible class.

There were about fifty present and a very enjoyable evening was spent. At the close each class had their regular business meeting, including election of officers, etc.

Mr. Geo. A. Dodge was re-elected president of the "Busy Men's" Bible class, while Mr. Ivan Lantz was appointed secretary-treasurer for the coming year. The officers of the "King's Daughters" were as follows: president, Mrs. S. L. Gates; secretary, Mrs. N. R. Eldridge; treasurer, Mrs. C. A. Campbell.

On Wednesday evening, Jan. 21st, the annual business meeting of the church was held in the vestry. Reports show that this year just past was the banner year for the church. Between $400 and $500 dollar were raised by the church at Sunday school. The "King's Daughters" alone earned over $272.00, while the "Loyal Workers" earned $214. The school is again under the efficient leadership of Mr. Tobin Lockwood, superintendent, and his staff of capable assistants, who are: Mr. Cameron Murphy, asst. supt; Mrs. F. L. Balcom, secretary; and Mr. Ralph F. Newcombe, treasurer.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. The yearly report of the Sunday school will appear in next week's issue.

Mr. Edward Rowe has returned home after spending a few weeks with his sister, Mrs. Tyres, of Sackville, Halifax county.

The farmers are all very busy cutting and hauling ice, which they say is the finest crop in years, owing to the severe, steady cold weather.

Word has been received by Mrs. David Sutton, Church Street, that her sister Miss Christine Dewar, who spent several months with her quite recently, is not expected to live. Miss Dewar has been ill for some time, but hopes had been held out for her recovery until last week. This news will be heard with regret by her many friends in and about Port Williams.

Miss Susie Chase, Church Street, motored to Annapolis on Tuesday, Jan. 20th, to attend the Fruit growers Association.

Mason Ellis has returned home after a three weeks' vacation in Queens and Yarmouth counties.

GREENWICH

Mrs. Emma Harvey received the sad news on Saturday, Jan. 10th, of the death of her son's (Fred) wife, at their home in Massachusetts, after a trying illness of over a year. Burial was on Monday, the 12th. The deceased lady and her daughter and son spent some time here at the home of Mrs. Emma Harvey about three years ago. Sympathy is expressed for the near relatives here.

Mr. John Andrew while at work cutting ice on Mr. Herbert Johnson's pond here, in some way met with a cold bath by falling into the pond up to his arms.

The street here at the so called Hancock Brook was in a very dangerous condition all last week, owing to icy conditions. Many automobiles and teams had narrow escapes from going over the bank. It was her that Mr. Herbert Stairs, of Wolfville, had his car badly demolished last Tuesday.

Mr. George L. Bishop attended the Conservative Association meeting at Kentville last Monday afternoon, Jan. 12th, and filled his office as President and was again unanimously re-elected. Congratulations! Mr. Bishop, who is also a Councillor, attended the County Council meetings in Kentville several days last week. We understand interesting sessions were held.

Mr. and Mrs. Ingram Banks, of Kingston, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Bishop last Tuesday and overnight.

Miss Isabelle Meek, of Upper Pereaux, arrived last Wednesday and is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Dexter Forsythe.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake Wellner and child, of Aylesford, visited at Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Forsythe's last Thursday, going home next day on the 10.15 train. They were former residents of this place.

There was a good attendance at the G.C.L. meeting last Friday evening. The Honorary President, Rev. Dr. Hegmeon, gave a very instructive lecture. There was also music on piano and viola by Messrs. Philip and Robert Bishop. This Friday evening is Dramatic night and "look out" for a good laugh, an interesting programme being prepared.

Mr. John Andrew, our sailor lad, again has turned to the sea for his wages. He left last Saturday for New York to join Captain Avar Forsythe on his ship. We wish John the best of health and success.

Misses Esther and Annie Pearson entertained a large number of young people on Saturday evening with a good old fashioned "candy pull". A most enjoyable evening was spent.

Our School Exhibition Committee and our teacher, Mr. Ward, attended a committee meeting at Port Williams last Saturday afternoon, also Monday afternoon and evening. Prize lists are being made ready. Good success to our school next fall!

A few from here went to Kentville last Wednesday evening to hear the humorous lecture of Canada's "great man", Stephen Leacock. He was enjoyed to the full. Also a few of the young people enjoyed the various hockey matches last week.

The severe cold wave the latter part of Sunday afternoon and all night, gave us the worst in severe frost experienced here for many years. All were glad no wind prevailed at the time.

ANNUAL MEETING OF N.S. POULTRY ASSOCIATION

Held at Truro—Local Men Elected Among Officers

TRURO, Jan. 15.—The annual meeting of the Nova Scotia Poultry Association was held yesterday at the College of Agriculture here. F. C. Griffin, of Port Williams, vice-president, presided in the absence of the president, Frank E. Jackson, of North Sydney.

The reports from the various local poultry associations throughout the province showed them to have had a fairly satisfactory year.

The chief subject under discussion was the Nova Scotia egg laying contest, the sixth of which is now under way at the College of Agriculture. Some members were of the opinion that the provincial rules under which the contest was conducted should be scrapped and the Dominion rules substituted, so that birds might qualify for registration with the federal department. There was considerable discussion on the matter, and it was finally decided to continue the contest for the remainder of the year under the present rules, and to allow the officers of the association to decide under what rules next year's contest would be run.

Officers were elected as follows: Honorary President, W. W. Osborne, New Glasgow; President, E. C. Griffin, Port Williams; Vice President, E. L. Fenerty, Halifax; Directors, John L. Pineo, Kentville; R. J. Gardner, North Sydney; George Thompson, Halifax; J. W. Williams, Wolfville; Charles McKean, Westville; Secretary-Treasurer, Prof. J. P. Landry, Truro.

Prascher (at the re-union meeting)—"I have only one regret—I miss so many of the old faces I used to shake hands with."

HOW TO SOLVE CROSSWORD PUZZLES
The method of solving crossword puzzles is very easily understood. The small numbers in the squares refer to the definition. Thus: No. 1 horizontal calls for a word that will answer the definition and at the same time fit into the number of white squares from No. 1 to the first black square at its right. No. 1 vertical calls for a word that will answer the definition and at the same time fit into the number of white squares from No. 1 downward to the first black square. When you have inserted the right words into all the white squares, the puzzle is solved. You will then find that all the words interlock.

CHICAGO CIVIC OPERA, AT BOSTON, JAN. 26 TO FEB. 7, 1925

The Boston-Chicago Opera Association announce a season of Grand Opera by the Chicago Civic Opera Company, at the Shubert-Boston Opera House, Boston, Mass., January 26th to February 7th, inclusive.

The cast is said to include the greatest galaxy of operatic talent ever assembled in Boston, among the noted performers being the famous Mary Garden. The repertoire includes Carmen, Faust, Madame Butterfly, Rigoletto, and many others.

The quickest and most direct route to Boston is via the Dominion Atlantic Railway to Yarmouth, thence Boston & Yarmouth S.S. Co. to Boston. Steamers leave Yarmouth on Tuesdays and Fridays at 6.30 p.m.

For Ticket information and Repertoire apply to D.A.R. Ticket Agent.

Mr. E. C. Griffin, Port Williams, had the misfortune recently to have stolen the pen of Rhode Island Reds which he had entered in the egg laying contest at the Agricultural College, Truro. Last year Mr. Griffin's birds finished in fifth place and he had hoped to do even better this year. His loss is therefore a double one.

Hardie power sprayers are now used wherever good fruit is grown. They are preferred by the largest and most successful growers, not only throughout United States of America and Canada, but in South Africa, and New Zealand, and in fact, they are found wherever there are all large orchards.

THEY ARE NOTED FOR THEIR

the accessibility of all working parts, and the absence of weak and complicated contrivances. Hardie Power Sprayers are made in a number of sizes and styles. In fact, no matter how large an orchard you have or how small, no matter what sprayer problem you are up against, there is a Hardie to fit your needs.

DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF HANTSPORT AND VICINITY

HANTSPORT HAPPENINGS

The XII's were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Kirkpatrick on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Churchill have for their guests Mr. and Mrs. F. Armstrong, of St. John.

Miss Mabel McConnell returned from the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax, last week, where she was a patient.

Mrs. A. E. Blois's many friends are pleased that she is convalescing from a serious illness.

Mrs. (Capt.) A. Lawrence was "at home" to a number of friends on Monday evening of last week.

The Hantsport High School enjoyed a sleigh drive to Wolfville on Thursday evening. They were accompanied by Principal Sarty.

Mrs. J. W. Churchill had for her guest last week Rev. Mr. Cumming, of Sydney.

Miss Queenie Stevens, of Wolfville, was home for the week end.

Mrs. Chas. Brown left last Thursday for Halifax, where she will visit relatives for a time.

Mr. "Dod" Burns was a passenger for Boston on Tuesday.

Capt. B. Davison, who has been spending several months holidays with his family here, left on Tuesday for Boston where he will rejoin the "Marjorie" of the United Fruit Co. fleet.

Mr. Innis, travelling auditor for the Maritime Telephone Co., was in town on Friday.

Mr. McFarlane, of Halifax, is spending a well earned vacation with his family here.

The Baptist choir was pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. E. A. Blackburn on Thursday evening.

Mr. Macomber, of New York, is home for a short vacation.

Mrs. R. Riley and son Earle were in Halifax for the week end.

Miss Grace Blackburn spent the week end with her sister, Miss Pamela Blackburn, who is in charge of the school at Burlington.

Mr. Geo. Swaine left on Monday for a business trip to St. John.

Monday of last week was by far the coldest experienced here for many years, the thermometer registering 23 below zero.

The lumbermen are taking advantage of the excellent sledding and our streets present a very busy appearance as huge loads of lumber are being hauled in to the Hantsport Fruit Basket Factory and H. V. Bishop's Mill.

Mr. F. Kennedy, of Kantville, spent the week end with his family here.

An exciting and enthusiastic game of hockey took place between the Avonport and Hantsport teams on Thursday afternoon on the local rink, the score resulting in a victory for the latter, 4-3.

The eclipse of the sun on Saturday caused a good deal of interest in Hantsport. A large number were viewing it through smoked glass, while others were out with their cameras photographing the wonderful phenomenon.

FORMER HANTSPORT MAN APPOINTED TO IMPORTANT POSITION

Capt. Asa F. Davison, formerly of Hantsport, but for many years associated with the United Fruit Co.'s steamship lines out of Boston and New York, has been appointed to the Vice-Presidency of the Fleet Corporation of the United States Shipping Board, and will be in charge of operations to take effect in February.

President Palmer of that board, has announced at Washington that Capt. Davison is to succeed Joseph O. E. Shedy, who retired from that position several months ago, to become Vice-President in charge of the Corporation's European affairs, with offices at London.

For the past twenty-six years, Capt. Davison has been in the United Fruit Co.'s services, and was Associate Manager during the building of most of its fleet. It is a man very widely known in shipping circles all along the Atlantic seaboard, as a capable executive and navigator. During the war Capt. Davison was connected with the Shipping Board of the United States, in an advisory capacity, and he is now a member of the Committee on Navigation and Maritime Legislation of the Maritime Association of the Boston Chamber of Commerce. For some months to come, although at present in the United States, Captain Davison will take an extended vacation, which he will spend at Hantsport, where Mrs. Davison and family now are.

POOR ACCOMMODATION

A tramp, footsore and hungry, approached a man ploughing in a field by the roadside. "Say, boss, it's getting dark, can I stay at your place all night?" "I dunno," was the cautious reply. "You'll have to ask the old woman. I can hardly stay here myself."

Lady Bountiful: "And did your old grandfather's face light up when he got his new pipe?"
Boy: "No, ma'am—only 'is beard an' we soon put that out!"

BOWMAN STRONG

Bowman Strong, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Strong, passed away at the home of his parents, Mt. Denson, on Sunday at 10 a.m. The deceased had been ill for some time and had been a patient at the Provincial Sanatorium for a number of months. Much sympathy is felt for parents, brothers and sisters, who removed from Hantsport to Mt. Denson about two years ago.

DIARY OF MARGARET D. MICHENER

June 16th, 1850. This is a lovely day. I have been writing a letter to John Michener, who is in Halifax. Mr. McKeen preaches here today for the last time until September. I must now go to Sunday school. I found my class all there; we have quite a good attendance, 74 scholars being present. They all seemed much pleased with their new books. Robert went with the wagon to meet Mr. McKeen, so we were pleased to see his smiling face. He preached a good sermon from the text: "Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us." I went up home after meeting. Mr. McKeen went to Capt. Whitman's, who came home on Thursday; he then called to bid us goodbye. We talked about going to the Exhibition on Thursday; he wished us to come. John Elder called and brother John, Ann and I went with him down to Mr. Huntly's. There were not many there but we had a good meeting.

19th. I looked forward with hope that a number of the sisters would come to our prayer meeting tonight and was not disappointed. Rhoda Davidson, Mrs. Nunn, Maria Curry, Abigail and Elmira Holmes and Mrs. Huntly came. It is when two or three meet in the name of God he has promised to be with them and to bless them. We realize the truth of the promise.

21st, Friday morning. I had looked forward all this week to Thursday, hoping it would be a fine day so we might attend the exercises at the College. I arose early and went up home. We started a little before seven o'clock—John, Robert, Ann and I. Robert called at Mr. Elder's for them. They soon came along, John, Rebecca, James, Jane and Nancy in another carriage. We had a lovely ride and got to Dr. Brown's at half past nine o'clock. Rebecca and Jane went to Mr. Forsyth's. John Elder stayed with us. We met the Doctor's sister, Julia, who keeps house for him, and Dr. Bordeen's wife. Rebecca and Jane then came along and we all walked up to the meeting house; the doors being open we went in and found a marriage ceremony being performed. We then went on to the College where the people were gathering. We stood a while gazing at the beautiful scenery around, then went in and found the room all decorated with festoons and garlands of flowers, vines of evergreens and wreaths. There were many ministers there, among the number we saw Rev. R. Rand, Dickie and Burpee. Mr. Rand is the missionary among the Micmac Indians; R. B. Dickie a relation, and one of our favorite ministers, and Mr. Burpee is our foreign missionary just returned from India. The programme began with singing followed by prayer by our venerable Father Harding.

Mr. Henry Johnston delivered his essay on the Ice World. His language was beautiful, he soared aloft to the summit of Mt. Blanc, and amid the frozen regions of the north he spoke of the tremendous ice bergs rolling onward towards each other until they met with an awful crash like thunder. Mr. Thomas Crawley received the B.A. degree and then spoke on the tendencies of the age to brotherhood, showing how society was advancing, new discoveries being made—and inventions, all calculated to bring the people of the world nearer together. Mr. David Freeman spoke on Instinct, Reason and Faith, showing how we all are fitted for our station; the animals having instinct to guide them, and we, being so much above them, have reason, reflection and faith united with reason, productive of happiness.

The exercises were varied by singing, the last piece being a national anthem. Professor Willard is a beautiful singer. He reminded me of our old singing master, Mr. Fitch, singing a high part so sweetly. Mr. Prior then went through the ceremony of giving the degrees. Mr. Crawley read an address from the students to Mr. Prior, after which he gave them an affectionate address in reply; it was quite affecting, he having been professor there for twenty years and is now having to reside in Boston.

We talked with some of our friends at leaving, and bid Mr. McKeen goodbye, who is to start for his home in Cape Breton today. He gave Rebecca and I an address for our Sabbath scholars. We took dinner with Dr. Brown, Mr. Huntingdon, member from Yarmouth, also was there; he kept us in good humor with his comical speeches. It was nearly six o'clock before we started for home. The day had been exceedingly warm but got cooler and clouds rolled up. Presently there came a great gust of wind which raised the dust so we had to close our eyes as we got to Brooklyn the rain was coming down smartly and there was quite a thunder shower. When we returned we found Mr. and Mrs. Dickie and Somerville had driven through. I stopped in to Mrs. James and received a letter from Maria and Ellen Dickie, which pleased me much. I then went to Mrs. Dorman's and stopped all night at her request. It thundered and lightened all night. Mr. and Mrs. Dickie, Somerville, Mercy Holmes and Ann Barke came and took dinner with me. In the afternoon they went home with Mercy. I stayed to write a letter to Maria, and then went also to Mercy's and stayed to tea. We all went over to Mother's for the night. I arose early and came home, then mother and Mrs. Dickie came and spent the day with me. Mrs. Nunn came and spent the afternoon. In the evening we all went to Mercy's for a "sing". So ends this week.

FIGURES IN HAMILTON SENSATION

Joe Baytoizae of Hamilton, who was murdered on July 31st in Hamilton, is here shown with his wife and two of his children. The two boys gave evidence, which incriminates their mother, at the inquest. Baytoizae, it was alleged, was felled with an iron poker in the hand of his wife because he had lost all his money at the races. The body was put in the cellar of his home and later carried away in an automobile, with the aid of several men who are also under arrest, and thrown over a cliff in a lonely section of the Hamilton mountain. The body was found by Boy Scouts on Nov. 8th who were on the lookout for another body, one Fred Genesee, a jitney driver, which was found a week later horribly mutilated. There is a theory that the same people responsible for the Baytoizae murder, know something of the other.

YOUR BUSINESS

"And what is your business?" remarked one of those present to the latest to join the group.

"Why, you might call me an Insurance Agent."

"Really," said Brown, "I'm an actuary with the Ajax. What's your company?"

"Well, you see," replied Mr. Newcomer, "I've a company of my own."

"Well, I am surprised. We seem to be entertaining a capitalist in our midst."

The passing of these remarks had more or less focussed the attention of the group on Newcomer. He, in turn, felt that an explanation was more or less necessary.

"Perhaps I'd better explain," he began. "You all carry insurance of many and various kinds. In fact, besides the regular fire, marine and life policies, with which we are familiar, it seems as if we could protect ourselves against any kind of loss. There has, however, been one field never touched by insurance. So I spend my time working out protection for that field, which ranks in importance with life and fire and as a matter of fact, it is sometimes more than either."

"Well, what is that? Enlighten us," spoke up one of the group.

"Markets!" replied Newcomer.

"What do you mean?"

"Simply that time and experience have proved that there is a policy which not only extends the field but actually protects against inroads on one's market."

"Well, I'd like to buy such protection," said Henry, the boot and shoe man; "what do you call this policy?"

"Regular payment continuous advertising!" replied Newcomer.

"Humph!" Brown ejaculated, "that's another angle to an old story!"

FALLACY OF BUYING BY MAIL

How would you like to journey to the nearest city for a pound of sugar, or a yard of muslin, or a spool of thread or a smoke? And how would you like to make the trip when you need a prescription filled in a hurry, while death rumsing you a race?

You would make some noise if forced to such an extremity—and then more noise.

You would say—and justly so—that a town in which you cannot buy a pound of sugar, or a yard of muslin, or a spool of thread, or a smoke or even get a prescription filled, is a mighty poor excuse for a town and not worth living in.

Yet our merchants can only afford to keep these things for your convenience as long as you buy other things from them.

It is not doing this town any good to buy the little things here and then chase off to a city or send to a catalogue house when you want something on which the merchant has a chance to make a dollar.

Neither is it doing you any good, for the prosperity of each citizen is dependent to a large extent upon the prosperity of the community as a whole. We are not telling you something you do not know.

We are simply refreshing your memory in hope the time may come when our people will conclude that a town that is worth living in is worth trading in.

TWO SIDES TO ALL QUESTIONS

Upon that point, be sure I'm right—
No doubt at all, can be,
For if opposed, we'll have to fight,
And then you're beat, you see;
I never fail to prove my case—
Mistakes don't enter in—
My word is all you have to face,
And ev'ry time, I win.

So spoke my friend of many years,
Quite sure of all he says,
Yet, oft I find a doubt appears,
Though positive his ways;
Too oft his wishes, words mak' clear—
He cannot bear a doubt—
Hot tempered too, without a fear,
He's wont to fight it out.

That sort of man we meet and chide—
Well meaning, to be sure—
But he forgets the other side
That fighting cannot cure;
Though arguments may not convince,
All men owe reflection,
And by that at last agree, since
Two sides has each question.

NEW LAMP BURNS 94 p.c. AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, J. M. Johnson, 246 Craig St. W., Montreal, is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

MARITIME TUXIS BOYS' PARLIAMENT

The Maritime Tuxis Boys held their second Parliament at Sackville, N. B., December 29th-January 1st, 1925, with twenty-eight boys present.

At an informal meeting on Monday night, December 29th, Robert McPher-son, of Bridgewater, was elected Premier and J. Lloyd Jess, Port Williams, Leader of the Opposition.

The Parliament was divided into two Parties, the Government or Construction Party and the Opposition or Reconstruction Party. The Parties were evenly divided, 13-13.

The first session was held Tuesday afternoon. Murray Sargent, of Fredericton, was elected Speaker. Dr. Truman, President of Mount Allison College, in the capacity of Lieutenant-Governor, read the Address from the Throne.

A bill to further enforce Prohibition Laws in the Maritime Provinces was given its first reading. The Premier announced his Cabinet: Minister of Finance, Robert Brown, New Glasgow; Minister of Intellectual Life, Robert Murray, Sussex; Minister of Physical Life, Charles LeBrun, Bridgewater; Minister of Devotional Life, Franklin Forbes, Moncton; Minister of Social Life, Fred Yeomans, St. John.

Tuesday evening, the bill for the enforcement of Prohibition Laws was presented for its second reading. This bill showed a disapproval of Government control and called for a Prohibition Navy to combat the rumrunning fleet, and imprisonment as the penalty for rumrunning and illegal vending.

The last session was Thursday evening. The different bills received their third reading. The Governor gave his assent to the bills and formally prorogued the Parliament.

The Parliament was a great success, exceeding all expectations. It was thought by leaders who were present that many men in the Parliaments could not surpass some of the addresses made by the boys, both as to substance and oratory.

In 1919 a similar Parliament was held in St. John but had been discontinued. It will now be a yearly event. These boys' Parliaments have been held this year in every province in Canada, except Quebec.

It is planned during the Christmas holidays in 1925, to hold a Dominion Boys' Parliament which will probably meet at Ottawa. Leith Crewe, of Summerside, P.E.I., was elected to represent the Maritime Province.

It is impossible to estimate the results that these Parliaments will have upon the boy life or even upon the future of Canada. These boys of today will be men of tomorrow and having been trained in these Parliaments for leadership based upon Christian principles and ideals, who can estimate the effect it will have upon the future welfare of our nation!

Two bills, "The Finance Bill" and "The Three C's, Program" Bill, were given their first reading. One of the Government's supporters had to leave at the close of this session thus giving the Opposition the majority.

On Wednesday evening the Finance Bill providing for the organization and promotion of a share selling campaign to raise funds for the promotion of C.S.E.T. work throughout the Maritime Provinces was discussed. This Campaign is to be held the first week in May. The price of shares is to be twenty-five cents and one dollar.

The Act respecting the three C's

Programme was introduced by the Leader of the Opposition. The three C's refer to clean speech, clean sports, clean habits.

The Thursday afternoon session was also one that caused much excitement. The Government's bill to legalize this organization and determining its organization and parliamentary procedure was discussed.

The Leader of the Opposition in a speech criticized the Government because of their inefficiency, thus making it necessary for the Opposition to introduce important amendments to their bills, also that their amendments had not passed and they therefore had not the will of the people; he moved a vote of non-confidence in the Government.

Several from both Parties spoke, the Premier and his Party defending their actions. One of the Opposition members in an able and humorous speech declared that he did not approve of the motion of his Party and would not support it but would remain independent.

Various resolutions were introduced by the committees and private members. The resolution of the Devotional Committee urged that Tuxis Boys all themselves with the church and take an active part in its services and activities.

The Socja, Committee recommended the holding of a Tuxis Boys week and that during this week the boys take charge of a church service, obtaining a speaker, preferably one of the boys, to speak on a theme adapted to the Tuxis Boys' programme.

The last session was Thursday evening. The different bills received their third reading. The Governor gave his assent to the bills and formally prorogued the Parliament.

BETTER HEALTH IN NOVA SCOTIA

The Slogan of the Red Cross for 1925

(Dr. S. I. Walker, Commissioner.) Towards the last of January the Annual Meeting of the Nova Scotia Division of the Canadian Red Cross will be held and the work for 1924 will be reviewed.

Perhaps, however, few realize the compulsory reason for this work, and this may be briefly stated. When it was found that the man-power of the Alhes was only about one half of what it might have been if all men between 18 and 45 years were physically fit, and that this great loss was on account of diseases or disabling conditions which could have been, and should have been detected and corrected in childhood, a conference of the world's greatest health authorities was held.

With 50 other nations Canada signed this Covenant. We are thus bound by the solemn obligations of one nation to another, and in Nova Scotia, as a part of this great Dominion, to carry on its health work through the Red Cross.

Perhaps the Nova Scotia division, more than in other provinces, has utilized existing organizations to carry out the obligations of this Covenant. What has been done? Since 1919 the Nova Scotia division has expended over $100,000 in actual public health work.

This has included traveling medical and dental clinics, scholarships for public health nurses, the salaries and expenses of county health nurses from 12 to 18 months in every county save one, district nursing for three years in one sparsely settled portion of the province, and aid to more than 1000 families of ex-soldiers.

The society has also been the agency for relief in several cases of great disaster. The gospel of health has been taken into the schools and over 7000 children are enrolled in the Junior Red Cross. Now the homes of the people are being reached and Home Nursing Classes are being established.

This is indeed a wonderful record, few people realize what this all means. It has one object, viz., to sell to the people of Nova Scotia that greatest of all blessings, health. Selling means paying, buying means progress unless we pay for it.

JANUARY 31 THE GRASS WITHERETH, THE FLOWER FADETH; BUT THE WORD OF OUR GOD SHALL STAND FOREVER.—Isaiah 40:8.

FEBRUARY 1 BLESSED ARE THE PURE IN HEART: FOR THEY SHALL SEE GOD.—Matt. 5:8.

FEBRUARY 2 HE THAT BY USURY AND UNJUST GAIN INCREASETH HIS SUBSTANCE, HE SHALL GATHER IT FOR HIM THAT WILL PITY THE POOR. A faithful man shall abound in blessings; but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent.—Proverbs 28:8, 20.

FEBRUARY 3 O LORD, THOU ART MY GOD: I WILL EXALT THEE. I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things. Thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat.—Isaiah 25: 1, 4.

FEBRUARY 4 THE WORK OF RIGHTEOUSNESS SHALL BE PEACE: AND THE EFFECT OF RIGHTEOUSNESS, QUIETNESS AND ASSURANCE FOR EVER. And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in quiet resting places.—Isaiah 32:17, 18.

FEBRUARY 5 BETTER IS A DRY MORSEL, AND QUIETNESS THEREWITH, THAN A HOUSE FULL OF SACRIFICES WITH STRIFE.—Proverbs 17:1.

Tell us not in mournful numbers that this town's on the bum; rouse up from your peaceful slumbers; get out and make things hum. If we go to work in earnest we can make things hit on high; "dust thou are, to dust returnest" is a song of and by. All the past is done forever—you can't call one moment back—and the future may come never, this is true, so help me Mack. Now 's the time to do your boosting, do not wait tomorrow's dawn, in the grave you may be roosting, all your boosting chances gone.

SMOKE INSTEAD OF LIGHT

A woman speaking in a mission meeting related with satisfaction how she had given some people, in the house where she lived, a piece of her mind because they had done something she considered wrong. When done, the mission superintendent commented, "It is a good thing to let your light shine—but don't turn up the wick!"

gets her age. The man who thinks the world owes him a living is the first to kick for shorter hours.

An average man is one who is neither a brilliant success as a money-maker nor a dismal failure as a spender. Nothing is so annoying to a man singing his own praise as to be drowned out by a fellow blowing his own horn.

IN JANUARY The sun is riding higher now. It's not so far to Spring. The time is coming soon when we shall hear the robins sing. The days are growing longer, though we must say with regret, The added sunshine isn't very Noticeable yet.

Of course, it still is Winter, and There's frost upon the pane, And there is ice to slip on, fit

To make a man profane; But gentle Spring is coming soon— There! That's the way to talk!— Now get out the snow shovel and Start cleaning off the walk!

MEDICAL BOOKS OF LATE DR. DEWITT GO TO ACADIA LIBRARY The Medical Library of the late Dr. George E. DeWitt by the wish of his widow, of his son, Dr. C. E. Avery deWitt, and of the other members of his family, has become part of the Library of Acadia University. The books will remain in a section set apart for them, that they may be a lasting memorial to one who was always a steadfast friend of Acadia. The late Dr. DeWitt read widely in the literature of his profession, and the volumes presented to the Library of the University will have permanent value for the student. There is among them a handsomely bound file of the British Medical Journal.

It's Uniform Quality is due to Infinite Care

YOU know how impossible it is to judge flour quality by a mere inspection. Different flours may cost the same and look the same, yet give entirely different results. Then, too, you will often-times find a good flour, that varies in quality—a success in one baking and a failure in the next.

Your only real safeguard in buying flour is to select one that has been tested and proven in advance—and is guaranteed uniform in quality. Maple Leaf Flour is made from the finest selected Canadian hard wheat, skillfully blended and milled. Exacting tests at every stage of its milling makes possible its sale under a definite "money back" guarantee of uniform quality and satisfaction. You can depend on Maple Leaf Flour for unvarying baking results—always.

Canada is to see the famous "All-Blacks" rugby team of New Zealand, and British Columbia will see them in action, the Canadian Pacific Railway announced when making public the fact that this galaxy of stars, on the conclusion of their tour of the British Isles and France, will return home. The team, landing at St. John, N.B., will visit Toronto, Niagara Falls, the Canadian Pacific experimental farm at Strathmore, Calgary, Banff, Vancouver and Victoria. At Banff they will see and probably take part in the Winter Sports Carnival, as they are interested in Canadian Winter Sports and have expressed a keen desire to see a good game of hockey. They are to play rugby at Vancouver on February 14 and possibly at Victoria on February 15. Next the team will proceed to San Francisco, where they will probably play another game, and on February 25 they sail for home aboard the Canadian-Australasian liner "Tahtiti."
