NEW BRITISH GAINS IN PALESTINE TURKISH FORCES TO MAKE EFFORT TO PREVENT FALL OF JERUSALEM ITALIANS AND TEUTONS ARRAYED FOR GREAT BATTLE ON PIAVE RIVER COLLAPSE OF NEW RUSS REVOLT BELIEVED NEAR

BRITISH ADD TO TOLL OF PALESTINE GAINS

Advance Has Been Carried Thirty Miles North of Gaza—Confusion, Almost Panic, in Turk Lines.

British Headquarters in Egypt, Nov. 12.—(Via Reuters' Ottawa agency).—Each day adds to the magnitude and importance of our success at this front. Each hour adds to the toll of our captives, while our pursuit has already carried us nearly 30 miles north of Gaza. Indeed reports have been received showing that confusion and almost panic exists many miles in the rear of the present Turkish positions, but it would be unwise to speculate on these evidences of their insecurity.

The only place where the enemy showed stubbornness was at Herlish, north of Wadi Hesi, where they delivered six determined counter-attacks against the Scottish troops, who were driven back slightly on the left, but recovered their trenches shortly afterwards. The Imperial Service Cavalry also had a sharp brush. After driving the enemy back at Bethmann the latter made a desperate effort to get away a long naval gun, with crew and team, were shot down and the gun captured with 23 prisoners. The main body of the Turks retired due north, but smaller parties like a covey of partridges scattered in various directions. These are being gradually rounded up.

ITALIANS HOLD TEUTONS ALONG PIAVE RIVER LINE FOR GREAT BATTLE

Main Army Forces Are Now in Contact and Spirited Bombardments and Infantry Actions Are Reported.

By Associated Press. Italian Headquarters in Northern Italy, Nov. 12.—The Italians are holding the Austro-German advance on the Piave line.

Early reports from the front today were favorable. Heavy shelling is in progress all along the new front. The Italians are entrenched back of the west bank of the Piave River, and the Austro-German main force is now taking the place of the advanced guard on the east bank. The strip of water between the opposing lines is about half a mile, widening at some points to a mile.

An observer just back from a tour along the line, told the correspondent that the cannonade had become continuous. The Austrians are using five-inch guns, not yet having brought up many of their heaviest pieces. The enemy is turning his fire against the high campanile bell towers of small villages fringing the western bank to present the Italian artillery from using them as observation points. The Italian artillery reply is spirited from a considerable number of guns they succeeded in bringing back from the field.

The battle front has two main sections. The lower extends from Feltrino to the sea, and the upper from Feltrino westward. The Vidor Bridge, where the last Italian rear-guard crossed the Piave, is half way down the lower sector. Near Feltrino, the river turns into the mountains, via a valley and a railway on the west bank.

The enemy is on the west bank in this mountain region and may attempt to come down the valley and along the railway. The Italians have no advantage of a river defence at this point, but they have strongly entrenched themselves. The fight at Asiago was clearly a factor to test the strength of the Italian line. Snow is falling in the upper regions and a severe cold spell prevails.

INITIAL EXPERIENCE WITH HUN GAS SHELLS

Americans Forced to Wear Masks Under Prolonged Bombardment by German Artillery.

By Associated Press. With the American Army in France, Nov. 12.—The American infantrymen in the trenches and artillerymen in the gun pits have had their first real experience with gas shells. The Germans have let loose many during the past two days, making the use of gas masks necessary. Shrapnel has also been freely used by both sides.

RIVAL RUSS FORCES IN FIERCE BATTLES

Bloody Encounter is Reported at Gatchina—Clashes in Moscow, Petrograd and Other Cities Throughout Russia.

Stockholm, Nov. 12.—A bloody encounter has taken place near Gatchina, between soldiers from the front, headed by Premier Kerensky, and Bolshevik forces from Petrograd, according to advices which have reached Ira Nelson Morris, the American minister, from reliable sources. The result of the battle was not reported to Mr. Morris.

It is reported that M. Kerensky is still issuing proclamations as premier and that strong forces are rallying against the Bolsheviks. The reports also disclose, former hetman of the Cossacks, has announced his refusal to recognize the Lenins, and Maxim Gorky is issuing daily bulletins against them. The committee of public safety which was appointed by the mayor and the city duma, has secured the support of the Menshevik social revolutionists and the bourgeois parties generally and is also receiving support from the railway employees union and the central railway committee.

The committee of public safety sent an emissary to treat with the sailors of the fleet. He has reported that the sailors already are showing dissatisfaction, except the Bolsheviks. The committee has issued an appeal to the city population and to the city militia to abstain from violence against the Bolsheviks who have the support of the sailors and 50,000 soldiers of the Petrograd garrison, and to await a peaceful solution of the situation.

All the ministers of the provisional government who were arrested at the commencement of the revolt have been released, except the Minister of War, Tsvetkov, and one other. The banks in Petrograd are still closed, but the shops are open.

BOLSHEVIKI ABANDON OFFENSIVE ATTITUDE

Petrograd Railway Union Forces Revolutionists to Attempt Compromise With Other Democratic Parties.

London, Nov. 12.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph sends the following: "After heavy fighting at Moscow, in which there were 700 casualties, the factions came together on the basis of a socialistic government. The Petrograd railway union sent an ultimatum to the soldiers and workmen's delegates demanding that they effect conciliation by organizing all the democratic powers; otherwise the union would call a general strike. The Bolsheviks agreed to this, but the other democratic groups were unwilling to negotiate with the Bolsheviks until they voluntarily surrendered. Negotiations, however, were resumed and the railway union deferred the strike for 12 hours.

"The Bolsheviks have abandoned their offensive attitude and now consider themselves in the position of organizers of defence revolutionists against the armies of Kerensky, Kornilov and Kadetins. The Petrograd railway union has elected a special committee to guarantee the safety of the population. Army headquarters expressed themselves in favor of a combination of the democratic groups."

KERENSKY IS BACK TO RUSS CAPITAL

James Ramsay Macdonald Receives Message From Russian Premier.

London, Nov. 13.—James Ramsay Macdonald, Labor member of parliament, according to The Daily Chronicle, received, on Monday, through a third party, a message from Premier Kerensky of Russia, saying that Kerensky had arrived in Petrograd on Saturday and the authority of the provisional government had been re-established. The Chronicle points out a discrepancy between this message and a telegram from its Petrograd correspondent dated Monday, in which the chaotic condition of affairs is summarized as follows: "The provisional government has insufficient forces to exert authority."

The Irresistible, Fur-Trimmed Coat

Here Are Paris and New York Models, Vying With One Another in Grace of Design, Charm of Color and Alluring Becomingness of Fur.

CHERUIT, CHANEL, PAQUIN—these and other famous couturiers have contributed models to this superb collection of women's top coats, now on view on the Third Floor.

And such smart wraps as they are, New York and Paris uniting in a great fondness for fur trimmings. Beaver, Kolinsky, Hudson seal (seal rat), moulton and wolf are lavishly employed, in collars, cuffs and bands, making for immense becomingness and delicious warmth.

Just to describe a few of the models in the showing:

A New York model in dark brown "silvertone" has wide collar and deep cuffs of brown wolf, and is lined with black silk, with a green plaid stripe. A magnificent coat, priced $97.50.

In taupe velours, with cuffs and detachable scarf of taupe wolf, is another beautiful coat—priced, $150.00.

From Gabrielle Chanel of Paris comes a handsome coat of light taupe "pom-pom" with deep border, wide cuffs and cape collar of beaver. Price, $75.00.

Beaver is lavishly employed on another model of brown velours, with collar and front "crossing over" and fastening in surplice fashion. Price, $150.00.

Silk duvety in a luminous copper brown shade composes a perfect delight of a coat, which has Kolinsky fur for its collar and grey crepe de Chine for its lining—a model from Cheruit, specially priced at $75.00.

With natural coonskin collars are a number of coats in different belted styles, in green, brown and Burgundy velours. Price, $65.00.

In brown velours with a beaver collar is a model with side belts. Price, $65.00.

And in Pekin green velours, with deep cuffs and collar of Hudson seal (seal rat) is an alluring model with high-waisted belt. Price, $125.00.

Three New Novels

Cheerful Stories of Mystery or Adventure, Reviewed For Us by Katherine Hale.

YOU may be sending a book in your holiday box to that soldier in France who is all-important this Christmas.

If so, you will wish to choose a story that takes the mind far away from warfare and all its grim suggestion. Here is a little group of books, each one of which is diverting and interesting, having to do with a mystery, an adventure or a new idea.

"The Indian Drum" by William MacHarg and Edwin Balmer, is based on a legend that near the northern end of Lake Michigan a sound like the booming of an Indian drum is heard whenever the lake takes a life. But when the freighter "Miwaka" went down with twenty-five passengers on board the drum beat only twenty-four. Years afterwards the mystery of the missing man develops, and the story is full of exciting episodes, mostly set in Chicago.

"Extricate Obadiah" is a Cape Cod story told in the amusing style of Joseph C. Lincoln, a style as fascinating in its American fashion as is the whimsical humor of the English Jacobs. Cap'n Noah Newcombe and his former cabin boy, Obadiah Burgess, now a millionaire, are joyous creations, and there is a pretty love story involved.

"A King in Babylon" is the title of an American moving picture company, and the things that befall them as they film a great picture in the romantic setting of an Egyptian oasis. Warren Creel, the movie director, believes that, after all, poets may have original and dramatic ideas, and he works out a picture-play from Henry's well-known lines beginning—

"When I was a King in Babylon, And you were a Christian slave." (The three books on sale in the Book Department. Price, $1.25 each.)

Evening Frocks "Too Smart for Words"

New York Gowns For Dinners, Dances and Concerts—Models in Airy Tulle, Shimmering Satin and Dignified Velvet—Priced From $35.00 to $60.00.

INFORMAL DINNER PARTIES, patriotic dances, concerts large and small—such and sundry break into the social quietude, and the evening gown is, as ever, a prime necessity.

We hasten, therefore, to proclaim the charms of these models mentioned in the headline—a collection of New York productions, smart as clever makers know how to fashion them.

Bustles, panniers, tunics lend style to the skirts, while the simple surplice or basque effect prevails in the bodies, with tulle, flowers, silver tissue playing their dainty, sparkling part in the way of adornment.

Notice, too, the moderation of prices:

In chiffon taffeta, in a quaint Victorian shot effect of blue and lavender, is a charming gown with bustle drapery and "apron" of silver lace. Price, $40.00.

Likewise rejoicing in silver lace apron is a girlish model in white satin brocade. Price, $35.00.

A fascinating frock in the shade of pink you find in a cabbage rose is of faille taffeta, designed with bustle skirt and surplice bodice, the short sleeves of rose tulle. Price, $60.00.

Very lovely, too, is a gown of black velvet, with draped tunic over an underskirt of cloth silver, veiled in silver, the elbow sleeves of black net. Price, $60.00.

In black taffeta, a youthful model, showing cloth of silver on the bodice and little nosegays of flowers on the skirt. Price, $32.50.

Satin in a beautiful tint of sunset rose composes a delightful gown—with rose net banded with silver forming the sleeves and underskirt. Price, $47.50.

And representing the climax of evening frock loveliness, a model in Madonna blue tissue, shot with silver, the skirt made airy with flounces of blue silk net. Price, $60.00.

The Baby's Photograph

Featuring in the Studio "Artist's Proofs"—a New Photographic Treatment of Particular Charm.

IF YOU WISH to have a lasting impression of your baby's precious little smile, of some quaint expression or clever trick, bring him to the Photograph Studio some morning soon and have our photographer "take" his picture.

The simplicity of pose most desirable in a child's picture is the point emphasized by our photographer, who is particularly enthusiastic about juvenile customers. A specialty is made of photographs of small children, whether in natural groups or single poses. We advise a morning visit, because the kiddies are brighter and less restless than later in the day, assuring better results.

You may have the pictures finished as desired in sepia or grey, on large or small folders or mounts. Of interest to many will be the artist's proofs, of which there is now immense demand—quite the newest thing in our photo studio are these in a French grey finish. They may be had also in sepia.

Wednesday—Great Half-price Selling of Watches, Clocks and Silverware

One of the Most Remarkable Offerings Made For Years in the Silverware Department—and Most Opportunely Timed For the Selection of Christmas Gifts.

FOLLOWING are some of the items in the interesting list of articles in the notable selling:

- Gold Bracelet Watches, Silver Timing Watches, 18-k Gold Watches, Travelling Clocks, Enamel Candlesticks, French and Oriental Bells, Ear-rings, Silver Mesh Bags, Vanity Cases, Silver Bakers, Casseroles, Tea Sets, Flower Baskets, Meat Platters, Gravy Boats, Hot Water Kettles, Candelabras, Bread Trays, Fern Pots, Cake Baskets, Crumb Scrapers, Tea and Coffee Sets.

New Satin Striped Skirts for Women

Just Arrived From New York, the Price, $10.00.

QUITE a new idea, these effective skirts—by no means loud, scarcely even gay, despite the fact that the stripes are in two or three colors, and they'll make such a smart costume if worn with a blouse to tone. They are cut on the modish straight lines, gathered under a two-piece button-trimmed belt, and have two smart patch pockets in front. The silk of which they are made is soft—navy, black, dark green or taupe grounds, with variations in green, fawn, rose, wine and grey stripes. Sizes 23 to 30 waist. Price, $10.00.

Extra size all-wool serge skirts at $2.95 are exceedingly good value. They are made in a neat plain style, cut with panel front and yoke at the back over a slight fullness, which breaks the line of the front. In black and navy only. Waistbands 29 to 38. Price, $3.95.

Clearance of Misses' Suits

Many of Them Less Than Half Their Usual Price—Every Imported Suit in the Misses' Section Greatly Price-reduced on Wednesday at $34.50, $42.50 and $49.50.

ANSWERING FASHION'S DEMAND in smart suits for winter wear, they represent all that is new and modish. Every suit is marked at a figure many dollars under its usual pricing, making for a clearance which is little short of remarkable.

At $34.50 are suits of gabardine, broadcloth, serge and cheviot, in such popular shades as brown, green, wine, nigger, grey and navy. Principally they are plainly tailored, with skirts simply belted and pocketed, coats cut on long, straight lines, finished variously with buttons, braids, niggers, grey and navy. They make immensely smart costumes for street wear, being well cut and finished, the coats nicely lined with satins or silks. Sizes 14 to 20. Price-reduced to $34.50.

At $42.50 are charming suits for afternoon and street wear, fashioned of velours, broadcloths, silvertone, gabardine and tricotine. Coats are cut on long, graceful lines, many boasting a collar of such fur as squirrel, Kolinsky, beaver or Hudson seal (seal rat), or band and buttons of fur. Others have stitchings or braids of silk trimming them, and are belted or plainly flaring. An interesting color list makes selection a pleasant matter, there being balsam green, purple, Burgundy, Java brown, gold, navy and black. Price-reduced to $42.50.

$49.50—There are but a few suits at this figure, all having been enormously price-reduced, some to much less than half their usual marking. Velours and broadcloths are the materials, the majority trimmed with beaver, squirrel or Hudson seal (seal rat) on collar, cuffs and base of coat. Some are lavishly embroidered in a contrasting shade of silk, and adorned with smart buttons. Their long coats, cut on distinctive lines, are particularly suited to the slim girlish, are beautifully lined with flowered or plain silks and satins. Skirts are well tailored to match coats, being smartly belted, and pocketed. Colors taupe, green, brown, navy and wine. Price-reduced to $49.50.

Paris and New York Hats to Clear at Half Price

Every Imported Hat Remaining From Our First Shipment of Winter Models is Included in This Notable Clearance—Half Price, $7.50 to $45.00.

INCLUDED are models from such noted designers as Georgette, Talbot, Germaine, Louise, Maurice, Madeline, Saget and Hermance of Paris, and Gage, Rawak, Rosenblum and Bruck Weiss of New York. There are hats for every occasion, from the tailored turban to the afternoon picture hat.

Of special interest at this time are the many delightful models with fur trimming. Mole adorns a number on crown or brim; others boast a band or touch of skunk. In this group they are mostly for street wear, simply adorned and fashioned of silk or panne velvet, in quaint, small shapes, turban or flaring brim, sailors of large or small size, and in colors to blend with almost every shade of suit or coat, taupe, burgundy, purple and navy.

The graceful hat with its sweeping brim was, perhaps, never more attractive than designed of metallic lace. Of this particular material are many alluring models, some with brims of silver, metallic lace and browns of contrasting material, velvet or net, with touch of bright blue or rose.

Wednesday they are all reduced to precisely half price—$7.50 to $45.00.

R. J. WOODS UNDER ARREST FOR DISOBEYING TRIBUNAL

Conscientious Objector to Appear Before Magistrate Denison For Not Going Before Medical Board When So Ordered.

With the possibility over of having to receive claims for exemption and 25 cases per day instead of ten, the local tribunals in the majority of cases got down to a steady grind yesterday and went thru their lists with celerity.

The claimants were notified to be on hand at 10 a.m., the opening hour, if they wished to submit oral evidence, and for the waiting ones had been heard the written claims were promptly disposed of with the information the military representative had obtained thru personal investigation.

While it has been stated that a personal appearance is not necessary for the tribunal to decide on a case, it has been pointed out by some members that often in making written claims the most important ground or fact is so obvious to the claimant that it is slighted or not stated at all in the statement.

Applications of class A men are well considered, and it has to be a case of unusual merit that will pass the tribunals with the endorsement of the military representatives. It must not, however, be understood that military representatives are unfair in their claims, as in many cases it has been on the evidence of the army men that exemptions have been granted.

May Be Differences. Thirty tribunals cannot see eye to eye and make the same ruling on similar cases, so that where a man has been refused exemption on the same claim that other tribunals have granted absolutely and temporarily relief from military service, he may have the decision in his case reversed by going to appeal.

In one tribunal a captain in the Salvation Army claimed exemption on religious grounds. As no tenet of the army is against military service, and as hundreds are at the front, the claim was disallowed. On the other hand, a captain in the Salvation Army can perform the marriage ceremony, and might successfully claim to be a minister and not under the act.

Henry Pennington, 90 Mulock avenue, appeared before tribunal 323 and said he did not want to go to the front. In an interview with the military representative, he said he thought "I might as well go to the front as to go to the front."

Edward Meek, counsel for Gower, was told by Judge Winchester that he was not to appear before the tribunal. He withdrew and Mr. Phillips, a law agent, appeared on the scene and said that Gower's physical condition was not good, so he was so notified.

William F. Woods, 59 St. George street, a medical student in his third year, claimed exemption on the grounds of the importance of finishing his course. Exemption was refused.

Ernest Victor Fridell, 178 Major street (A2), claimed exemption because of financial and domestic conditions and also because of ill-health. He did not appear in person, and was refused exemption by default.

Chas. C. Brown, 17 Harbord street (A2), a fifth-year medical student, also refused exemption. He had already signed up with C.A.M.C. His claim was disallowed by default.

Roy G. Wilson, mechanic, 231 Borden street, asked exemption because of ill-health. As he had not been examined medically and did not appear before the tribunal, exemption was refused, although it was proven unofficially that he was deformed.

Luzh Allan Grant, 32 Division street, class A2, who has four brothers, was exempted until class 4 is called.

Fred J. Ward, 374 College street, was refused exemption, although his father, a retail butcher, claimed he could not spare him.

Dr. Gordon G. Copeland, 160 Spadina, medical specialist, was granted exemption until he ceases to be an official surgeon at the Western Hospital.

Geo. D. G. Halget, 1075A Bathurst street, class A, only support of his mother, was granted 12 months' exemption.

Stanley H. Marshall, 184 Avenue road, class A2, in claiming exemption from his doctor certified he had had appendicitis for 14 months. The armistice doctors had told him "everybody had appendicitis."

Harry L. Somers, 38 Avenue road, manager of Aemilium Jarvis & Co.'s bond department, and whose brother was in France, was exempted for two years.

Alexander Maclean, class B, exempted. James R. Gibb, class A, teamster, claimed he was sole support of mother. His two brothers overseas. Decision deferred.

Frank Curry, 347 Chilton street, aged 34 years, said he was the support of a widowed mother, but as he has a sister and a brother both living at home, his exemption was disallowed.

Edward Keating, 690 Crawford street, sole support of a widowed mother, was also given six months' exemption.

TUESDAY MORNING, NOV. 13.

Labor in the Government.

It was a useful and common sense compromise that the labor men achieved last Saturday when, after a discussion, they decided that during the war the Independent Labor Party would be guided by the same principle as that which is followed in Great Britain in regard to the acceptance of office in the government.

Several speakers voiced the fear that when a labor man gets into a party government he loses his labor principles, or if not quite that, he loses his identity as a labor representative. It is, as a matter of fact, a difficult thing for any man to preserve his political identity outside of his party. There is, perhaps, all the more need for support to be given to independent men who refuse to be shackled by party conventions. Mr. Allan Sturdivant has had a difficult time as labor representative to the provincial legislature from Hamilton on this account. But he has been independent and supported or opposed the government as he saw occasion required.

The whole question of the existence of a labor party, if there are to be parties at all, which is quite another question, depends on whether the best men of the labor party shall be drawn off from time to time to strengthen one of the other parties. If such weakening of the labor party continued, its leaders going into the cabinets of the other parties, the formation of a labor party would evidently be postponed.

The present situation, however, does not present this possibility. The government, for the time being, has repudiated the existence of party in order to carry on the war in a non-partisan spirit. Labor men could therefore unite with this government on a non-partisan basis without endangering their own principles or weakening their own party. They would even be affording a good example by holding office of what labor men can do when given the opportunity.

After the war the parties may return to their normal attitude, if it be found desirable to perpetuate the party system. Even in that decision a labor representative who had served the country in a non-partisan capacity would be better fitted, better equipped for future service than if he had withheld himself from the opportunities that non-partisan service offered.

After all, parties are made up of individuals, and the labor party cannot be an exception to that rule. The rank and file of the labor party must learn to trust its leaders, as other parties do. In the past, petty jealousies and suspicions have marred the prospects of labor in the political field, and only as these feelings are outgrown can real progress, real solidarity be achieved.

There are measures such as proportional representation and others upon which all parties are agreed in the abstract. Now is the time, as in the case of party patronage, to introduce them as concrete reforms, and a government in which labor was included, might be more willing to act for these purposes, than if labor held office.

Russia and Italy.

Affairs in Europe are already looking a little brighter. As we anticipated, the Trotskys are not having it all their own way. These pin-headed gentlemen, who are apparently scarcely capable of conducting the affairs of an ordinary family, appear to think that organizing and governing a nation is as easy as calling the turns in a dance hall. Their manoeuvres lend weight to the suggestion made from one quarter that only married men and women shall in future be allowed to participate in national affairs.

The whole Russian situation depends now on the knowledge which must come to the soldiers and the peasantry out of the turn of affairs in Petrograd. Nothing destroys the influence of folly so fast as the opportunity to show itself in authority. Only wise men can govern. Had Kerensky been wiser he might have saved his nation from all the evils of the last few months. But he is learning, as he seems willing to learn, and as he learns the people will learn. If he and Korniloff will get together, which seems to be a possibility thru Kaledines, order may soon be evolved from the chaos. Moscow is not as bad as the Trotsky people reported. Finland is still in the throes of folly. The army has not found its leader yet. But Russia is far from falling into the lap of Germany.

In Italy the latest reports at the time of writing were that the German report about breaking the Italian line on the Piave was false, and that Asago was still Italian. It means much to Italy that a stand should be made which would protect Venice. British artillery are in position, and French and British troops are being hurried up. Perhaps United States troops may get their first big chance on this field. They may be relied upon.

The Germans have staked more than most people imagine on this desperate venture. If they succeed it will be as brilliant a military coup as any in history. But it has in it the elements of tremendous disaster. The rapid co-ordination of the allied forces was probably not counted upon, or if considered was discounted. It is a German defect as well as a British one to underestimate the strength of the enemy. It is becoming more and more probable—even probable—with every hour that passes that Germany may meet with decisive defeat on the plains of Venetia.

The Citizen's Obligation.

A great many people are afraid that the Military Service Act will be unjustly administered, and they are inclined to blame the government with any errors of this kind that may occur. It is one of the unfortunate things about the democratic system of government that the people do not always understand that the people are the government, and the government is the people. No administration can carry out the work of government without the support and, if need be, the help of the people. It is for this purpose that on occasion special constables are sworn in, and this is merely extending the executive arm of government a little further than usual by means of the co-operation in more active measures than are customary of some more of those people who are the government in the aggregate.

The same principle is recognized in common law which makes any one with knowledge of a crime, guilty of the crime if he fails to give warning. Accessories to any crime against the state are criminals themselves, in the view of the state. So that if the laws are not kept, those who fail to see that they are kept, or who fail to report their violation, are guilty accessories. A great many people object to this view, because they think it requires them to assume the role of spy or informer. Probably not one of such objectors would refuse or neglect to report it if he observed a house on fire. Yet a great deal more injury might result to the state should he object to report the violation of some of the laws regarded as necessary in time of war.

Unquestionably there is a difference between the duty of a citizen in peace and in war. But the duty in wartime is a graver responsibility, a closer obligation in view of the great peril in which the whole state stands. The question has arisen whether citizens are justified in reporting cases of deception, false swearing, abstention from proper service, and other matters connected with the Military Service Act. So far as the state is concerned those who conceal these things by failing to report them are guilty as accessories to the crime. There are some people so constituted that it is harder for them to tell the truth than to tell a lie. The object of civilization is to make it easier for everybody to tell the truth. It requires moral courage, and this in turn begets physical courage. The men who evade the Military Service Act by a falsehood, do not understand what cowards they are. If they were brave enough to tell the truth they would not be afraid of the German Empire drawn up in battle array.

The government will do its duty in making the selective draft as fully as it is assisted to do so. Exemption officers in the tribunals, appeal judges, all those who are concerned with the carrying out of the act, are simply the people, and those who shirk or who know others who are shirking are simply some more of the people, some more of the government. All of us people in the Canadian nation, however we may dislike to think it, are members of one another, and the government is our government, and does what we make it do. If the people on the tribunals, or the people who attend the tribunals fail to do their duty, it is the people of Canada who suffer for it.

It is remarked by some critics of the Military Service Act that it is not administered with impartiality. It is difficult to obtain concrete objections under this head, but a general complaint is made that the well-to-do get off more easily than others. This does not appear to be the case at all. Sir Robert Borden points out in his manifesto that those who are well-to-do have a poorer chance of exemption on that very account, as no one is dependent upon them for a living. It is often forgotten by some of the objectors that the army allowances are frequently more generous than the sums provided by those who claim exemption on the ground of being "the sole support."

Most of the difficulty arises out of utter failure to grasp the significance of the war, and from ignorance of the intimate responsibility which every member of our western civilization has for every other member. We cannot evade this. As good citizens we should not wish to do so.

Another Canadian Contribution.

In the levy made upon the resources of the empire for the necessities of the war, Canada takes a prominent place on account of the abundance of her natural wealth. Her minerals of all kinds, particularly nickel, copper and iron, and the precious metals, have been of immense importance, and aluminium is also a valuable contribution. Our farm products have been indispensable in their degree, and will be even more relied upon every year.

The latest contribution comes from British Columbia, and is found in the spruce which is so plentiful there, and which is required in the manufacture of aeroplanes. The Imperial Munitions Board has arranged with the government, thru the commission of conservation, to secure "the necessary supplies of this vitally important material." The export of spruce timber has therefore been prohibited "to all destinations abroad other than the United Kingdom, British possessions and protectorates."

In the thousands and tens of thousands of aeroplanes which are now recognized as essential to a victorious result for our arms, the most suitable wood has been found for their manufacture in the sitka or silver spruce, which grows abundantly on the Pacific coast.

Somewhere.

(Julia C. Dorr).

How can I cease to pray for thee? Somewhere
 In God's great universe thou art today;
 Can He not reach thee with His tender care?
 Can He not hear me when for thee I pray?

What matters it to Him who holds within
 The hollow of His hand all worlds' all space,
 That thou art done with earthly pain and sin?
 Somewhere within His ken thou hast a place.

Somewhere thou livest and hast need of Him;
 Somewhere thy soul sees higher heights to climb,
 And somewhere still there may be valleys dim,
 That thou must pass to reach the hills sublime.

Then all the more, because thou canst not hear
 Poor, human words of blessing, will I pray,
 O true, brave heart, God bless thee whoso'er
 In His great universe thou art today.

The rattle of the rattlesnake is developed from the single conical scale or epidermal spine, which in most snakes forms the internal segment of the tail. The bone on which the root of the rattle rests consists of the last caudal vertebra and is covered with a skin which is the beginning of the rattle in young rattlesnakes.

River water is filtered, refrigerated, and sterilized, then circulated thru 12,000 feet of one-inch galvanized pipe to 35 sanitary drinking fountains in a manufacturing plant at Hannibal, Mo., by a supply system recently installed at an expense less than the value of the water.

Fresh-water eels are said to be very clean feeders; they are sometimes seen cropping the leaves of water-cress and other aquatic plants as they float about in the water; but they are immense devourers of spawn of all kinds of fish.

The jungle fowl, to be found in Australia, builds a nest in the form of a great mound, sometimes measuring 15 feet in height and 150 in circumference. These are said to be the largest and heaviest nests in the world. It has been found that oysters can only live in water that contains at least 37 parts of salt to every 1000 parts of water.

There is no independence that can be sure but a dependence upon one's self.

Great men do not play stage tricks with the doctrines of life and death; only little men do that.

WHAT THE GERMANS ARE SAYING.

German Socialists, and especially the strong Jewish element in German Socialism, feared and hated Imperial Russia, and it was probably by working on this fear that the leaders of Germany induced the Socialist party, at the outbreak of the war, to protest their loyalty and to vote the war credits. Otherwise all Germany was united in opposing the war, and the great obstacle which had to be overcome were Germany's world ambitions to be realized. But there were two schools of thought, united in their hope or enthusiasm for the British Empire, but divided in their opinions as to the method by which this might be most successfully accomplished. One school dreamed of the continental method, of striking towards the southeast, dominating the Balkans, Turkey and Mesopotamia, capturing the Suez Canal and Egypt, and thus on the one hand reaching out into Asia, on the other into Africa. The firmness of our hold on Egypt and Armenia and our splendid successes in Mesopotamia have for the time being paralyzed this school, and we hear from it only an occasional wail, as for instance that of the notorious Dr. Carl Peters, in the Leipziger Neueste Nachrichten, of Sept. 30. "There are only two ways of bringing England to her knees," he wrote, "namely, to starve out the inhabitants of the British Islands or to drive the British out of Egypt and away from the Suez Canal. It is neither of these aims is accomplished Germany's defeat and destruction are certain. I asserted last year that England had food for two years, notwithstanding all the arguments and wrangling of our statisticians. Nothing remains, therefore, but victory in the near east, with the help of Turkey."

The second school looks to the Atlantic. The German fleet, with the possession of the Belgian coast, and if possible part of the French coast and with Ireland, separated from England and under German influence, was to dominate the seas and to capture the commerce of the world. This school had its centre in Hamburg and Bremen, and the ruin of these ports and the gradual passing to the side of the allies of one great neutral after another are giving the members of this school "furiously" to think. Their thinking leads them to different conclusions.

A Hamburg merchant, writing to the Rheinisch-Westfälische Zeitung, of Oct. 1, comes back to the U-boats as the only hope. "The outcome of the Scheer-Horn-Eberharder recipe for peace," he says, "may be summed up in the words 'renunciation of victory.' What this would mean for our economic life is hardly understood. It means neither more nor less than that we are prepared practically to abandon the economic fight with our enemies, or, more properly speaking, with England, and to resign ourselves to England's remaining in possession of the immense advantages which she has gained throughout the world. We cannot close our eyes to the fact that England has, on the whole, realized her war aims, and our brilliant military position should not blind us to the fact that our economic world position is getting worse. Before the war our position as a world power was based on our world commerce, our colonies, and our shipping—our shipping and our world commerce. Before the war we were practically independent of the world's supply of raw materials. We built up our position again. During the last three years England has been able to maintain the success of her early attacks on our shipping and our colonies, and to saddle us with fresh enemies, to set herself up everywhere in our place, and to rob us of the foundation for rebuilding our foreign trade by the liquidation of thousands of German ships, the seizure of China and a large part of South America to the entente. There is no possibility of our overseas trade taking up its former activity after the conclusion of peace, and our relations with the world are practically no longer founded on the latter exist any longer, while the enemy has taken our place in some cases in such a way that he cannot be removed from it. The German merchant, who goes out into the world after peace will find everywhere ruins and a spirit of hostility." After expanding on the need of obtaining indemnity, he concludes as follows: "Thus, down with the peace of renunciation, which would be a disaster for the whole German people. We must hold out until our incomparable 'U-boats' have beaten England to her knees, and trust in the words of our glorious Hindenburg, who says: 'The U-boat war is effective; that is the principal thing.'"

Herr Ernst Hellmuth has also been thinking on the same subject, and in the Deutscher Volkstimmer of Oct. 2, he expresses his "sense of understanding" in a spirit that shows a truly German mixture of simplicity and raciality. He first explains that it is no use bothering about France and Italy; they will not make a peace of understanding, because they have nothing to bargain with. "Peace based on understanding can thus be concluded only by England and Germany, the two still absolutely unbroken, gigantic strong main combatants. England can cheerfully abandon her plan of destroying German competition while she is yet far from her own destruction, while reasonable Germany has never wanted anything more from England than the right to live, the liberty to be also in the world. A peace based on understanding would consequently be the conclusion of peace between England and Germany. The plan of a continental political constellation against England has failed and there is no prospect of its realization in the immediate future. The next best thing for Germany is obviously an understanding with England, which could be arrived at if England's special wishes were fully gratified. When this is done, it is desired that the world would mean that the Indian Ocean, Cape-Cairo-Suez, the fate of her allies and the questions of Alsace-Lorraine, Poland, Riga, Prussia, and Vienna would be a matter of indifference to her. In this case, moreover, the German Empire of West Africa and the establishment of a number of small states on the eastern front would be associated with Germany, such as Poland, Lithuania and Courland, and would be associated with the English program. Germany has failed, and the British Empire has triumphed. It is desired that the immediate future. And so England is to assert all her allies and turn them into permanent enemies, while Germany waits for that less immediate future when she will be able to accomplish her purpose by attacking a friendless British Empire. They are stupid racists, these Tories."

THE OPENING GUN

TO LIMIT PARCELS TO WAR CAPTIVES

Hundred Pounds of Food Monthly May Go to Officer Prisoners.

Ottawa, Nov. 12.—Announcement is made by the postoffice department that, in co-ordination with the new scheme instituted by the British Government all parcels from Canada to officer prisoners of war interned in Germany or Austria-Hungary containing foodstuffs, and after January 1, 1918, can only be accepted for postal transmission, by the postal service if they bear a "coupon" issued by the prisoners of war department, Canadian Red Cross Society, London (England), from whom such coupons can be obtained. Under the new arrangement the amount of foodstuffs which may be sent to an officer prisoner of war during four weeks must not exceed 100 pounds. Of this total the prisoners of war department of the Canadian Red Cross Society will send to each interned Canadian officer, including those attached to other than Canadian units, not less than six ten-pound parcels each four weeks. The remaining forty pounds of foodstuffs per four weeks may be sent personally by relatives in Canada, but each parcel must bear a "coupon."

The right to send food parcels to an officer prisoner of war rests with the next of kin, but may be transferred by the latter or by the prisoner of war himself to any person. Coupons are to be used on food parcels only, and no coupons can be issued for amounts under ten pounds. If, therefore, it is desired to despatch a parcel weighing less than ten pounds, an ordinary coupon must be used, and the parcel counts as one of the four permissible in four weeks.

Articles may not be sent to any society for enclosure in any parcel despatched under the Red Cross label.

Parcels for officers interned in Bulgaria and Turkey come under the same regulations, but owing to the difficulties of postal communication, it is

MUST IMPROVE CARS FOR HAULING POTATOES

Dominion Railway Commission Refuses to Enjoin Particular Type of Carrier.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 12.—The railway commission has given judgment on an application for an order requiring the Canadian Pacific Railway to furnish cars suitably equipped for carrying potatoes from points in New Brunswick to points in Quebec and Ontario. Complaint was made regarding alleged defects in the type of heated cars. It was set out in the application that the only suitable car for the shipment of potatoes during the winter season would be one similar to the Easterner heated car. As developed at the hearing, however, the question turned on suggested improvements to the cars already in use. The ruling states that the improvements planned should provide a reasonably satisfactory service, and the board does not feel justified in making the order asked for. This is without prejudice to any application which may be made in the event of the improvements not adequately meeting the situation.

FINANCE DEPARTMENT PREPARES FOR BIG RUSH

Staff of Two Hundred Clerks Will Handle Applications for Loan.

Ottawa, Nov. 12.—The rush of work at the finance department as a result of the Victory Loan has already started. Tomorrow's mail will see the first flood of applications. A staff of some 200 clerks has already been added, while all the officials of the department will devote their attention to the loan. In order to keep up with the work it is likely there will be a day and night staff.

In addition to the applications hundreds of letters are written direct to the department asking innumerable questions as to the issue. All these have to be carefully answered.

The department has no information as to the first day's canvass, other than telegrams from various parts of Canada that the loan has been launched with enthusiasm.

FORESTERS PRAISED BY PRINCE ARTHUR

Canadian Companies Do Service of Utmost Importance.

Ottawa, Nov. 12.—The valuable work which is being done by the Canadian Forestry Corps overseas is indicated by the following message of His Royal Highness Prince Arthur of Connaught to the officer commanding No. 6 district, Canadian Forestry Corps, on the occasion of Prince Arthur's inspection some months ago. "I was very glad to have had the opportunity of seeing the personnel of the Canadian forestry companies. I was deeply interested to see them at their work and to see how well they were carrying out, more especially as General de Mitry, commanding the district, was with me and expressed himself as deeply sensible of the excellence of the work done. "This forestry is of the utmost importance to the success of the allied cause, and their record is one which the Canadian Forestry Corps may well be proud of."

"I shall have great pleasure upon my return to the Canadian coast in submitting an excellent report of your work, which I was able to see for myself." (Signed) Arthur.

The militia department states that last August the total strength of the Canadian forestry forces in France was over 8000. At that time there were 233 officers and 8333 other ranks comprising the 44 companies in France. Sixteen Canadian and sixteen Scottish mills were in operation then, and eight more Canadian mills were under construction. Assistance was given to the United States in the construction of a large mill in the city of St. George Perley, who visited the forestry companies operating in the armies area, expressed his approval of the way in which the forestry work is being carried on.

HENDRICKS WORTH MUCH AS MANAGER

McGill Sets High Price on Him — St. Louis Deal is Off.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 12.—After opening preliminary negotiations with Jack Hendricks, manager of the pennant-winning Indianapolis Club of American Association, to succeed Miller Huggins as manager of the club, St. Louis suddenly withdrew his offer today. This development came as one of the surprises of the annual meeting of the National Association of Minor Leagues.

James C. McGill, president of the Indianapolis Club, was credited with having blocked the deal because his demands to be reimbursed for expenses incurred according to McGill, offered players in return for Hendricks' contract, which does not run two years.

"I do not want players—I can buy them any day," McGill explained, "but I would have to hunt a long time and spend money to find a manager as capable as Hendricks. If I owned a minor league club I would not take $100,000 for his contract."

Hendricks, it is reported, was offered a salary of $7000 and ten per cent. of the net earnings of the club. McGill, president of the club, he alleges McGill agreed to release him from his contract, and declared that he would accept a new manager to return to Indianapolis next season.

There was no session of disaffected club owners of the American Association, nor was a new attempt made to form a new league, as the annual meeting today of the American Association. After a stormy session, McGill, president of the Indianapolis Club, made the suggestion of a new league, the meeting adjourned until Wednesday to await action on registering of certain minor league territory expected to be taken by the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, which meets tomorrow.

President Hickey declared tonight that the action of Indianapolis, Toledo and Louisville Clubs to withdraw and rejoin the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, which meets tomorrow, is a serious matter.

There were reports, however, that McGill, Rogers, Bressan and O'Leary would carry their fight before the National Association. H. H. Sexton, president of the governing body of the minors, said he did not know what action could be taken on the subject, but he said, "I would not be surprised if it was probable, he said, that some new alignment would be made."

"It appears certain that some changes must be made to meet conditions caused by the war," he said, "and the league changes are made to meet conditions which will be able to open their 1918 seasons."

Looking Over Sixteen Baseball Leagues and Their Year's Records

The records of the 16 major league clubs during the past baseball season present some unusual and interesting features. While the statistics employed are not based upon the official league averages, they conform closely to the authentic percentages, and for the purposes of comparison are thoroughly reliable, being compiled in many cases from the official box scores.

The records show that the Chicago American League Club, winner of the world's championship series, led in both the number of games won and the total number of runs scored. In no other department did the White Sox hold the premier position, although the average of the team was very high. Boston played the greatest number of games during the season, due to five tie contests. Detroit finished fourth, led in hitting, while the Boston Red Sox held the opening totals to the lowest number of runs.

The figures also gave a clear insight into the losses of the Athletics, who finished in last place. The Mackmen secured next to the largest total of runs, being 33 behind the Chicago Club in this respect, and 23 hits short of the Detroit record, which enabled the Tigers to win first place in this department of the game. As an offset to this excellent offense, however, the Athletics showed the poorest defensive play of any club in the American League. The Athletics made the largest number of errors; had the greatest number of runners left on the bases, and their opponents scored more runs against the team than against any other club on the circuit.

In the National League the New York Giants, winners of the pennant and losers of the world's series, played the most games, completing their full schedule of 154 games, with four tie contests, bringing the total up to 158. As was the case with the Chicago White Sox, the pennant-winning combination of the National League also scored the most runs, the Giants' record in this respect being 636. Cincinnati, however, piled up the largest total of hits, while the Chicago Nationals perpetrated the greatest number of errors. The Boston Braves had the most runners stranded on the bases during the season of 1917, and Cincinnati proved the easiest to score against, as the other seven clubs collected a total of 611 runs from the Reds in the 157 games played.

The Brooklyn Club, winner of the 1916 pennant, aside from his feat in playing the largest number of games, failed to show the form of a year ago. The Superstuds made less runs than any team during the season, with the exception of Pittsburgh, which in total hits, made the third largest number of errors, and was about at the half-way mark in men left on the bases and in runs scored by opponents.

S.P.S. THE VICTORS

Defeat Trinity Handily at Varsity Stadium — Rugby News and Gossip.

School of Practical Science were easy victors over Trinity College in a Mulock Cup game at Varsity Stadium yesterday. The score was 24 to 4. School had struck the heavier line and tore holes thru their lighter opponents almost at will.

The game was late in starting and the last quarter was played in darkness. S. P. S. led at all times, 6 to 1. In the dying minutes of the game Trinity grabbed a pass in the dark and applied over for a try to bring their total up to 6.

McCollum Trophy
CHANGES OWNERS
By the scant margin of 26 pins, Bob Stewart's Glasgow, champion of the first series in Saunders' League, surprised the Brunswicks by winning the McCollum trophy awarded to the winner of the All-Stars have been monarchs of the local curling world, but they are not so fast as they have come along, and they expect to be beaten by the Brunswicks in the final game of the cup, which is supposed to carry with it the bowling championship of the Dominion, was originally won by the Brunswicks from the Strathcarrons of Montreal, two years ago. Under the conditions of the Dominion, was originally won by the Brunswicks' team, which caused the champions of their stride. They performed very badly in the first two games, losing down 101 pins entering the third session. Here the Brunswicks got busy, and punching many strikes, all but made up the deficiency. Hartman, Schlemmer and Gillis each reached the double-century mark, and only the good rolling of Stewart, who when his team-mates faltered, stuck nobly to his guns, saved the day. Stewart counted 224 in his last game and rolled 604 for the night. He was high by a good margin. Scores:

The $60 Victory War Loan Bond competition, which was held at the Toronto Bowling Club yesterday, when 25 contestants opened the 48-day five-table marathon for the big aggregate of pins to Christmas eve, when the contest closes. The leaders at the end of the first days' grind were Harry Hault 1423, Jimmy James 1364 and Bill Hayes 88.

TIGERS EXPECT TO BEAT CAPITALS NEXT SATURDAY AND CLINCH CHAMPIONSHIP

Hamilton, Nov. 12.—Toronto folks are buying up their spirits because the Caps handed Parkdale a worse drubbing than Tigers gave them, but that does not frighten Hamiltonians any. The local belief is that the interest in the game will fall to trim Caps on the 17th.

Tigers intend to take no chances now that they have the title practically tucked away in their vest pocket. They will practice harder this week than they have done all season, and it is expected that they will fall to trim Caps on the 17th. Next Saturday's game here simply has to be won.

The result of the Cape-Parade game is not bothering the Tiger can a little bit. They expect to win both of their remaining games and to go thru the season without a defeat.

The annual meeting of the Ontario branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada was held at 22 College street on Saturday night. Secretary Smith suggested that the different outdoor hockey leagues be brought together, with the object in view of organizing a governing body, who would supervise the status of the players and conduct championships. The suggestion was approved, and Messrs. Smith, Armstrong and F. C. Waghorn appointed to look into the matter.

OUTFIELDERS NEED FIELDING PRACTICE

Keen Enough on Batting, But Indifferent in Fielding Drill.

Practice makes perfect is an adage that seems to be unknown to a number of major league outfielders. It is surprising how many men who are holding down substantial posts in the big show and who work their defensive weaknesses are just able to get by and no more. Part of the manager's job is to persuade the outfielders to get a ball practice to take batting practice, but with fielding practice in the big show, they are in a position to grab a strike and take the ball out of the park before the pitcher has a chance to get around the base.

Two Weaknesses Are Common.
The most common weaknesses of outfielders are inability to back for a ball, and indifference to fielding practice. They sometimes manage to get back for a ball, but they do not seem to care for it. They get back to it without any enthusiasm. This plan however, means that they are not second base on a single.

HOME VISITATION IS SHOWING RESULTS

New Faces Seen in Many Churches Sunday as Result of Friday's Canvass. Large results are expected by all the churches and Sunday schools from the home visitation which was observed in Toronto and suburbs last Friday afternoon.

Large results are expected by all the churches and Sunday schools from the home visitation which was observed in Toronto and suburbs last Friday afternoon. Pastors and Sunday school superintendents report many new faces at their services Sunday, and the work of following up the results has not begun yet.

The plan was to classify the cards in the 32 districts into which the territory had been divided, and deliver them to the pastor or his representative from these districts, but the cards were received in such large numbers that very few could classify them Friday afternoon, so most of them have been sent to the general headquarters, suite 504, 329 West Queen street, where a large clerical force has been employed and is working on them day and night.

Dr. Clarence Hincks of the psychiatric clinic, General Hospital, gave an instructive address on mental deficiency of children. Two selections sung beautifully by Mrs. Millicent Leowe were the program. Tea was served by the girls of the household science department.

DICKENS FELLOWSHIP. Capt. R. A. Donald, recently returned from the front, gave the address at the November meeting of this society, and as a result the lower hall of the Conservatory of Music was crowded. Capt. Donald told something of the way our boys live in the trenches. Miss E. Withrow recited, Corp. Atkinson sang, and Master Bert Proctor (pupil of Mr. Weisman) played piano. The next meeting will be on the 14th of December, when Christmas scenes and stories will be presented, and the annual collection taken up to help bring Santa Claus to the poor children.

CEASES ACCEPTING FREIGHT. The Canadian Pacific Railway will cease accepting freight for railroads for St. Lawrence, Ontario points for St. Lawrence, Ontario, and intermediate points of call on Georgian Bay and Lake Huron, via Owen Sound and United States Transportation Company, on November 19, and to points Fort William, Port Arthur and beyond via Port McNicoll on Nov. 30.

SENTENCE ON SATURDAY. Gordon McCarthy was found guilty of an attempt to commit an unnatural offence, before Justice Riddell in the assizes yesterday. The jury made a recommendation in mercy on account of the prisoner's youth. He will be sentenced on Saturday.

TRUE BILL FOR CONSPIRACY. A true bill was returned against L. DeWolf, J. Cooperburg, Arthur Sherman and M. Rosenveig by the grand jury at the assizes yesterday on a charge of conspiracy.

SOCIETY CONDUCTED BY MRS. EDMUND PHILLIPS

The Hon. Sir Thomas and Lady White, Hon. Hugh and Mrs. Guthrie and Hon. G. and Mrs. Taylor, General, visited Brockville last week. Col. and Mrs. T. A. Duff are in Quebec at the Chateau Frontenac. Mrs. Temple Blackwood is spending a few weeks in town from Ottawa.

Prof. Wrong addressed the Women's Canadian Club yesterday afternoon in the hall of the Modigliani street, on "Fifty Years of Confederation." Mrs. George was in the chair, and she in the chair of the speaker, Mrs. Thompson proposed the vote of thanks and it was seconded by Mrs. Fitzgibbon.

POLITICAL NEWS

The union government convention for Lanark meets at Carleton Place today. The nominees will have some opposition, as G. A. Burgess, an independent, is in the field, and the old line Liberals have nominated Boyd A. C. Caldwell of Perth.

The Winnipeg Telegram more than intimates that the apple of discord has been thrown by some ambitious Liberals into the union government campaign in Manitoba.

Both parties must sacrifice their ambitions and prejudices. They must get together and work together with one object only in view. That object is to return a unionist in every constituency where it is possible to return one.

The Conservatives and Liberal unionists of Carleton County seem to be getting together in a joint convention for the nomination of a win-the-war candidate.

The Ottawa Evening Journal, a strong union government supporter.

the majority of them by acclamation. Indeed, it seems pretty clear that the Liberals cannot carry over a dozen seats west of Lake Superior.

Saturday the Laurier Liberals held a provincial convention at Edmonton. Hon. Frank Oliver was of course in the front, but speeches were also delivered by A. G. Maclean, M.L.A., "Nobby" White, M.P. for Port Saskatchewan.

The Alberta Liberals have vigorous press support in the Edmonton Bulletin and The Calgary News-Telegram, and while they may not carry many constituencies a warm campaign is anticipated.

W. A. Chilton, a Conservative Liberal and sitting member, may be the union government candidate in Norfolk.

An Ottawa despatch to The Toronto Daily News predicts that neither Hon. G. P. Graham, nor Hon. N. W. Rowell will be returned to the new parliament.

Both parties must keep faith. Both parties agreed to the division of seats therefore, both parties must carry out that agreement to the letter.

The Toronto Telegram says: West York evolved a brand new system of selecting a union candidate for the house of commons on Saturday.

In Saskatchewan, union government candidates will carry every seat, and Political Pot in South Wellington is Growing Warmer.

Special to The Toronto World. Guelph, Nov. 12.—The political pot in South Wellington is beginning to get pretty warm these days, and soon it will be at the boiling point.

At yesterday's meeting there was a suggestion made for fusion with the Social Democratic party, but there was nothing doing along this line, and the two parties held separate meetings.

The socialists held a meeting also, at which it was definitely decided to place a candidate in the field to oppose Mr. Guthrie.

There will be a lively meeting but no cowardly at the nominating convention of a unionist candidate for East York," said P. M. Baker, a member of the East York Liberal-Conservative Association.

Second Manifesto Shows That Full Social Justice Will Be Done.

Calgary, Nov. 12.—Premier Borden's second manifesto is welcome for the reason that it effectively meets the charge of Laurier and his following that the new union government is an aggregation of tools of the big interests and profiteering crowd.

Already the union government has given evidence that it purposes to carry out all its platform pledges.

Lord Shaughnessy Sends Out Message to Men on C.P.R. Payroll.

Montreal, Nov. 12.—Howard G. Kelley, president of the Grand Trunk Railway Company, had issued an appeal to all the officers and employees of the G. T. R. to subscribe to the Victory Loan.

More than 3000 Grand Trunk men, he states, are fighting with the Canadian forces overseas in view of the nature of their employment the majority of railway men, cannot, however, serve their country in the battle line.

President Kelley calls attention to the Victory bonds and urges that everyone connected with the G. T. R. subscribe to the full extent of his ability, and says:

"In order to accommodate the officers and employees of the company and to make the terms of payment offered by the government easier it has been decided to allow officers and employees over a period of ten months in equal payments of ten per cent. per month of the amount subscribed, or, for example, $5 per month on a $50 bond. The Grand Trunk Railway Company will undertake to see that the instalments, as required by the government, are paid, and will arrange to carry the balance due by subscribers on an interest basis of 5 1/2 per cent."

Further, President Kelley announces that the G. T. R. Company has undertaken the work of collection without any remuneration or commission.

Must Obey Service Act. Lord Shaughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, has sent out a message to the Canadian Pacific Railway employees asking that they obey the Military Service Act, as follows: "Under the Military Service Act it is illegal to engage or to continue in the company's service or any person within Class A, who has not, on or before Nov. 10, reported for military service or to be exempted therefrom, and the company is required forthwith to ascertain and report to the government the names and addresses and whereabouts of all employees within that class who have not reported for service or applied for exemption. Please take measures to secure observation of the law in these respects. This has been sent out as a '22' message, which takes precedence over all other messages, and is communicated to every employee of the C. P. R."

GALT VICTORY LOAN CAMPAIGN OPENED

Parade of School Children—Whistles Blow and Church Bells Ring.

Special to The Toronto World. Galt, Nov. 12.—The blowing of factory whistles and the ringing of the bells at 9 o'clock this morning announced the opening of the Victory Loan campaign in Galt. The chiming of Central Church spire, the whistles of the Galt and "Galt Britannia." A feature of the demonstration was a parade a mile in length of automobiles containing 2000 school children, each waving a flag. The parade traversed the principal streets of the city and then visited President Shaughnessy's residence. The first purchaser of a Victory bond here was a woman. Canvassers to bond here was a woman. Canvassers to bond here was a woman. Canvassers to bond here was a woman.

LOAN LAUNCHED AT BELLEVILLE

Special to The Toronto World. Belleville, Nov. 12.—The Victory War Loan was launched in this city today by the ringing of the church bells and whistles from factories. This evening a large meeting was held in the city hall when addresses were given by Sir M. B. Bell, Hon. Justice Minister, of Toronto, and other prominent speakers.

Warned This Captain That the Kidneys Were Responsible for His Pains and Aches—Freed of Pain and Suffering by a Well-Known Medicine.

Hereford, Que., Nov. 12.—Captain Peabody is well known all through this section, and his cure by use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills has aroused great interest in this great medicine.

The Captain had been suffering for long time, and could never get any treatment to afford lasting relief until he began using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Captain A. Peabody, Hereford, Que., writes:—"For years I suffered from indigestion, rheumatism and neuralgia. Lightninglike pains would shoot all through my body and I also had severe pains over my left kidney and through the hips. I doctored for years and tried all kinds of remedies, but the only result was money spent without relief. At last I read in Dr. Chase's Almanac of his Kidney-Liver Pills and decided to try them. One box made such a change that I sent for five more. Before I had finished them the pains in my kidneys and hips had disappeared, and I was clear of those sharp, shooting pains through the body. I still take these Pills occasionally to keep my bowels regular and would not be without them, as I have them to thank for my cure."

"I can also speak highly of Dr. Chase's Catarrh Powder and Linseed and Turpentine. The former cured me of catarrh of the head, which completely cured of this now, and breathes freely as when a boy. The Linseed and Turpentine proved of great benefit for a bad cough which bothered me continually for three winters. Last winter I took one bottle of the Linseed and Turpentine, and have not been bothered with a cough since."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Don't be talked into accepting anything said to be just as good. Imitations and substitutes only disappoint.

LENINE COULDN'T FORM MINISTRY FOR RUSSIA

Maximalists Cannot Make Up Cabinet—Scenes of Bloodshed in Russia and Finnish Cities.

London, Nov. 12.—A Reuter despatch from Stockholm says that travelers arriving on the frontier from Russia report that the attempt of Nikolai Lenin to form a cabinet in Petrograd failed; that the foreign office officials refused to accept Leon Trotsky as foreign minister, and that in Moscow another government has been proclaimed and it is feared there will be much bloodshed. In Finland, it is reported, the situation is desperate. Anarchy is widespread and acts of violence and murder committed on the streets by Maximalists are a frequent occurrence.

EX-FOREMAN ARRESTED FOR BIG EXPLOSIONS

United States Officials Charge Voltrath With Being German Spy.

Seattle, Wn., Nov. 12.—Gus Voltrath, a former foreman at the Olympic Steel Works, was arrested today, charged with causing two explosions at the Olympic plant and one in the Aurora Foundry Company's works here. Both plants have government contracts.

An acid, which government experts have not been able to identify, was a part of the explosive used, police said. Officials of the Olympic plant said they believed Voltrath also "doctored" the steel, as they had been unable to meet government requirements since he has been in their employ.

CANADIANS CRUSH COUNTER-ATTACKS

Cannon, Machine Guns, Small Arms Crumple Up German Waves.

By W. A. Wilson

Canadian Headquarters in France, via London, Nov. 12.—During an intense artillery fire last Saturday two counter-attacks were launched by the enemy against our line. The first was broken up by our artillery, which swept the assembly areas inflicting heavy casualties, while the second attack, the further advanced, was equally unsuccessful, the attacking forces being driven off with heavy losses by our artillery, machine gun and rifle fire. Since then the enemy has made no further infantry attempt against our lines.

The prisoners captured pay tribute to our artillery fire of Saturday, men of the third battalion, 194 Regiment, reporting that their battalion suffered tremendous losses and were withdrawn from the line after experiencing twelve hours' shelling.

Enemy aircraft have been unusually active, dropping bombs on our forward back areas, machine-gunning our troops in line and worrying carrying parties. Fights between our own and enemy machines have been frequent, and despite the strength of his air patrols, one of our machines, after six ineffectual attempts to cross the line in order to reconnoitre the enemy positions, succeeded, despite repeated attacks.

Increasing disorganization among the enemy forces is indicated in statements made by captured prisoners, while the decline in the morale of the officers is unquestioned. One officer states that when his battalion ran back to shelter, some 300 yards behind the front line, leaving the warrant officers, n.c.o.'s and men to carry on. In another instance no less than eleven officers were captured in one dugout during our advance. With such conduct from those commanding them, the British and men have very little confidence in their officers, and growing discontent is reported among the rank and file.

Many Voluntarily Surrender To Military Authorities

Victoria, Nov. 12.—A. C. Burdick, registrar at the Victoria exemption tribunals, states that a number of men who had failed to register have already voluntarily surrendered themselves to military authorities. These had been sent by him to the military.

Total registrations Saturday numbered 16 for service and 169 for exemption, making a grand total of 185. There were 16 service and 150 exemptions in this city.

RAID SUNDAY CRAP GAME

Special to The Toronto World. Woodstock, Ont., Nov. 12.—Fifteen local men appeared in court today to answer the charge of gambling on Sunday. The police made a raid on a crap game last Sunday, and the participants today paid into court over $400 in fines, made up of individual fines of from $10 to $40.

AUTO PARADE AT WOODSTOCK

Special to The Toronto World. Woodstock, Ont., Nov. 12.—The Victory Loan was ushered in here this morning at nine o'clock by the ringing of bells, blowing of factory whistles and the tooting of scores of auto horns. Following this, an auto parade toured the principal streets tonight. The canvassers and workers expressed themselves as delighted with the result of their first day's canvass.

LOAN PARADE AT VICTORIA

Victoria, Nov. 12.—Victoria launched the big Victory Loan drive with a parade this morning, a mile and a half long, the closing of the stores for an hour and a half enabling all to share in the proceedings.

Don't Say—"Call Again."

Yesterday an army of men started out to sell Victory Bonds.

For the next three weeks theirs will be a colossal task.

From Cape Breton to the Yukon, they will try to call at every city home, every farm home, and every office, factory, and business institution to ask people to buy Victory Bonds.

Conceive, if you can, the magnitude of their work; the hard labour it involves, and the high necessity for it.

Then, realizing all these things, do your utmost to make their task easier.

Decide now to buy. Decide the amount you will buy. Be ready to sign your application when the salesman calls.

You should and will buy Victory Bonds, but, don't—please don't—ask the salesman to call again.

The worker's time is limited. He has hundreds of calls to make; and although there is an army of workers, each one has a large field to cover.

Don't say you're going to hold your application for someone else, because each worker is limited to his own district.

The salesman will not accept money. The application blank includes a form of cheque, payable to the Minister of Finance, which you can draw upon your bank; or, if you have not a bank account, there is a form of undertaking which you can use.

Be Ready—Don't Say, "Call Again."

Issued by Canada's Victory Loan Committee in co-operation with the Minister of Finance of the Dominion of Canada.
