ORPHANS' HOME,

TORONTO

ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1879.

The Lady Managers of the Orphans' Home and Female Aid Society, in presenting this, their Twenty-eighth Annual Report, acknowledge with deep thankfulness the continued prosperity of the institution.

During the past year twenty-one children have been admitted, twelve girls and nine boys; twenty-eight have been removed from the Home; seven apprenticed, five boys and two girls; two girls adopted; nineteen taken away by their parents, ten of whom were boys and nine girls; one little girl of three years died some fifteen months after her admission, another was sent to the asylum for the insane, Hamilton, and a third, who was suffering from hip disease, was received at the Hospital for Sick Children; leaving at the present time one hundred and three children in the Home, the average number for the year being one hundred and six.

From time to time very gratifying accounts have been received from those apprenticed, and in many instances, when the term of apprenticeship had expired, proposals were made to retain the services of the orphans at good wages, which, in itself, was a recognition of their thoroughly satisfactory behaviour.

Owing to the kindness of the captains of the various steamers, the children have enjoyed several excursions to the Island, Mimico, and Victoria Park, at which last named place, through the generosity of several Orangemen, and the proprietors of the steamer "Maxwell," they were liberally provided with refreshments, and each little one remembered; Messrs. Kiely placing a car at their disposal to convey them to and from the wharf. Among other treats, in compliance with a kind invitation from Professor Cromwell to all the charitable institutions of the city, the children spent a very pleasant and entertaining afternoon at the Grand Opera House.

Through the combined efforts of three little girls, the Misses Hoskins, Manton and Routh, a magic-lantern was purchased, which afforded ample amusement for the children during the winter months.

In order to lessen the expenditure, the managers resolved to apply to the Board of School Trustees for a teacher, which application was favorably received, and since January the new system has been successfully tried and adopted.

In parting with their late governess, Miss Hubbard, the ladies have much pleasure in testifying to her efficiency and fidelity in the discharge of her duties.

In the month of February, the Board of Management solicited His Excellency the Marquis of Lorne and H. R. H. the Princess Louise, to become Patrons of the Home, to which request they graciously assented, and promised to visit the institution when in this city.

The Orangemen of Toronto and its vicinity have continued to give substantial evidence of their undiminished interest in the Home, although the L. O. L. District of Barrie has withdrawn its support, owing, it is supposed, to the unwillingness of the managers to break one of their most stringent rules, the non-reception of any children but those of married parents.

While thanking the public and their friends generally for their liberal support, the Lady Managers feel that they are justified in making a special appeal on behalf of the Orphans' Home, which is, with the exception of some twenty children, entirely maintained by outside benevolence. Some similar institutions in the City are almost self-sustaining, a large portion of their revenue being derived from the payments required for the support of each child.

As in preceding years, the ladies have to thank Dr. Ogden for his unceasing care and attention to the inmates of the Home, who, under the Divine blessing, have been singularly free from illness; Mr. Huson Murray, the Solicitor, to whom they are greatly indebted for the judicious management of legal matters; Mr. Clarke, editor of the "Sentinel," for his continued liberality in the matter of printing—and kind friends who have each Sunday given their efficient aid in the religious instruction of the children.

Thanks are also due to the Messrs. Knowlton, who generously enclosed their bill receipted, suggesting that the amount should be applied to the purchase of ornamental trees for the front of the building; and to the Misses Lawson, for proceeds from Cantata, which provided four iron bedsteads.

The Matron continues to fulfil her duties to the perfect satisfaction of the Managing Committee, and the domestic arrangements, devolving specially upon her, merit their highest commendation. From the proceeds of a concert, held in St. Andrews' Hall, mainly due to the indefatigable efforts of the matron, fifty counterpanes have been purchased for the dormitories, as well as several other necessities required in the establishment.

To the butchers, bakers, grocers, etc., of the City, the ladies gratefully tender their thanks for liberal donations to the Home. Owing to their kindness, as well as that of numerous other friends, the Toronto papers were enabled to publish the following paragraph amongst the notices of charitable institutions:—"At this charitable institution (Orphans' Home) the little people put in a very merry Christmas. There were just one hundred of them to enjoy the good things furnished for them by this worthy charity and its many friends. The schoolroom was handsomely decorated, and furnished with settees and tables for the serving of the excellent Christmas dinner provided, and the children, dressed in their best, looked as cheerful and happy as if they were in homes of their own. The Christmas-tree for the children, which promises to be a very handsome and attractive one, will be fitted up for the distribution of presents on Friday afternoon at four o'clock."--Let each one, then, continue to give liberally to such charities, as God has prospered him, thus lightening the burden of care which falls so heavily on many young hearts.

The Managers cannot close this report without expressing their sincere regret at the retirement from active participation in the work of the Home of Mrs. T. Ridout, who has been for many years a useful and zealous co-worker with them in the discharge of their manifold duties, and who has at different times filled the offices of Manager and Recording Secretary, displaying in both capacities, ability, zeal and sound judgment.

Annexed will be found the Treasurer's Report, containing a satisfactory statement of the financial management of the Home.

E. H. VANKOUGHNET,

First Directress.
