Every Effort Made to Defeat Premier Gouin in Montreal--The Latest Return From the Quebec Elections--Whitney's Majority in Ontario is 68.

Montreal, June 9.--The latest count in the Quebec elections gives the following standing: Government 53, Liberal-Independents 22, Conservatives 15, Nationalists 10, St. Hyacinthe, no result, 1, Elections to be held, 3.

With the close of the unusually lively fight in Montreal district and the tremendous excitement in St. James there has come a general lull, each side resting on its oars and figuring out where it stands.

It was stated today by Bourassa workers that in all probability the Nationalist leader gained a real majority of nearly 20 in St. James, but that expert manipulation by the government workers' booths cut this down to 41.

It has also been stated by many Liberals that great dissatisfaction exists throughout the Montreal district over the way in which the election proceedings were carried out.

THE METHODIST DISTRICT MEETING

Three Sessions Held Yesterday and Much Work Done.

The annual meeting of the St. John district of the New Brunswick and P.E.I. Methodist conference opened yesterday morning in the Portland Methodist church.

Rev. Jas. Crisp, the president of the conference, was in the chair. The first session was the ministerial gathering and about twenty were present.

Three candidates, T. Spencer, F. Crisp and E. Rowlands were subjected to the usual examination on doctrinal and church questions.

The afternoon session opened with Rev. James Crisp in the chair. Rev. Dr. Campbell and Dr. Rogers led the devotional exercises.

A resolution favoring the release of Rev. Dr. Campbell, in order for him to continue as secretary of the Canadian Bible Society was adopted.

On motion, the names of the superannuated ministers were placed on the supernumerary list.

Rev. J. Clark, Rev. F. H. W. Piddler, Dr. Robert Wilson, Rev. I. N. Parker, Daniel P. Bailey, John A. Duke, and Dr. Edward Evans.

The reports from a number of the churches were read and adopted.

The evening session was open to the public and was attended by a large number.

The work of God in the various fields in the district was reported upon and many helpful words were spoken.

Rev. N. McLaughlin, Rev. S. Howard, Rev. J. A. Duke, Rev. Dr. Rogers, Rev. Dr. Wilson, Rev. J. Heaney, Rev. C. W. Squires, Rev. H. S. Young and W. W. Kingston.

Rev. Mr. McLaughlin suggested the union of three of the churches for the purpose of holding revival meetings and bringing some noted evangelist to address the people.

Rev. Mr. Heaney favored individual work and told of good results. Rev. Mr. Howard was in favor of the simultaneous mission, a movement in which the churches held meetings at the same time and caused a great awakening.

The meetings will be continued today. Representatives to the conference will be elected and the reports finished.

Ottawa, June 9.--During the afternoon sitting of the house, Mr. Graham's Intercolonial estimates of $4,227,250 on capital account, an increase of $1,900,000 over 1907-8, were discussed.

MAUD ALLAN

The statement that Canada cannot touch the heart of old London is evidently no longer true. The complaint has frequently been made that the London people are so self-absorbed that the British citizen from overseas who visits the empire's metropolis finds himself unnoticed, and in a general way as lonely there as if he were in the heart of a Canadian, Australian or South African wilderness.

Maud Allan has changed all that. Maud Allan is a Canadian dancer, and she has gone straight to the heart of London. In the Standard of Empire of May 23rd appears this statement: "Miss Maud Allan, the Canadian dancer, whose performances at the Palace Theatre have made her quite the topic of the hour, has been honored by Royal patronage in the matter of giving a series of her classical dances before the King and Queen after their Majesties' dinner with the Earl and Countess of Dudley at 7, Carlton-gardens, on Thursday. It is long since any performer on the musical stage has captured London's favor and attention so thoroughly as Miss Allan has succeeded in doing."

So far so good. But the Standard of Empire of May 30th has two references to Miss Maud Allan, by two writers, who regard her from somewhat different standpoints, yet agree that she has certainly captured London. One of these writers attributes her wonderful success to her art, while the other appears to think it is due to her shape. For Maud is shapely and does not withhold knowledge of the fact, either from royalty or the gallery. Thus one of these writers remarks:

"During the past few weeks Londoners have been tumbling over one another to see Miss Maud Allan. The lady is a graceful and accomplished dancer, and some of her light fluttering poses are altogether delightful; but I am afraid that she would hardly draw so well but for the fact that in her 'Salome' dance she appears with practically no more clothing than Eve wore in the Garden of Eden. There is no harm about it, of course, for, after all, no great injury is done by seeing a beautiful woman much as nature made her. But my French friend, the Vicomte Hippolyte de Nulle-Terre, whom I took to see this chaste display, was a good deal astonished. 'Ma foi,' he gasped. 'Maud n'est pas une Anglaise—la pudique Anglaise!'"

ANOTHER PARIS MURDER MYSTERY

Richly Retired Banker Stabbed to Death in His Mansion. Paris, June 9.—With the mystery of the murder of Adolphe Steinheil and his mother-in-law, Mme. Japy, yet unsolved, the police have been confronted by a new mystery in the discovery of Auguste Hemy, a wealthy retired banker, seventy-seven years of age, stabbed to death with a desert knife in his mansion in the Rue de la Republique. The murder occurred some time Saturday night, and money and jewels of great value are missing. The finding of a carafe of wine and three glasses that had been used suggested that the three persons supposed to have been implicated in the Steinheil murder might be responsible for this crime.

MISSOURI WIT

A number of representatives were facetiously discussing the resources of the state of Missouri one afternoon, when Mr. Call, of Massachusetts, observed to Mr. Lloyd, of the first-named state: "Lloyd, I am told that Missouri stands at the head in raising mules."

"It seems to me," retorted Lloyd, "that is the only safe place to stand in the circumstances."—June Lippincott's.

ONE HE'D GLADLY FOOT. Mother—"My dear, I'm afraid your choice of William as a fiancee doesn't quite meet your father's approval." Daughter—"Well, ma, you know how dad objects to my Bills on principle."—Boston Transcript.

going on now for months, it is still difficult to obtain admission to them unless one's seats are reserved well in advance. Although Miss Allan's dresses are extremely abbreviated, so classic is her style that there is no trace of suggestion in it. Miss Allan has shown us a new art form—or, perhaps, a revival from the early world. She does not give us 'dances' in the ordinary sense, for they lack entirely the usual set motions and 'steps' and the conventional figures. They are really the translation of poetry and music to movement, inspired by an appreciation of the beauty which is in all art, and expressing varying emotions in terms of gesture, pose, and dancing, with an extraordinary vividness and grace. Miss Allan, clad in the most diaphanous of gauzes, with legs, feet and arms quite bare, avoids all suggestion save that of classic aloofness. Sensitive as are many of her movements, there is nothing of sensuality in them. She moves as though she were blown by the wind, so entirely absent is all trace of effort. The sinuous undulating movement of the arms from shoulder to finger tips has the likeness of the serpent. 'Salome,' the most sensational of Miss Allan's 'dances,' and the one which doubtless attracts most, is, artistically, the least successful of her efforts. Her interpretation of Mendelssohn's 'Spring Song,' Rubenstein's 'Valse Op. 34,' and Chopin's 'Marche Funerale,' are, each in its different way a sheer delight.

To the lay mind, this would appear to be the conclusion of the whole matter. There really does not seem to be anything more to be said—so far as London is concerned. But what shall we say of Manchester—which sends steamers to St. John in winter, and makes pretence to be a second metropolis of the Empire? Manchester, according to a cable of Sunday last, advertises its face and declines to look upon Miss Maud Allan. "The Watch Committee," says this cable, "refuses to allow Maud Allan to dance in Manchester." The idol of London, the pet of royalty, the despair of art, the crowning triumph of nature, and the joy of Canada, is the rejected of Manchester. In such an exigency there does not seem to be anything we can do to give adequate expression to our grief and indignation. But we might begin by lopping off the subsidy to the Manchester steamships, and urging Maud to come home by way of New York.

The announcement that Sir Hibbert will not run in Pictou county in the federal elections will keenly disappoint the Conservatives of Nova Scotia. Sir Hibbert's return to federal politics at this time was regarded as a source of strength, and his decision as announced today was quite unexpected.

PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY IN FAVOR OF CHURCH UNION. Winnipeg, June 9.—The Church Union debate occupied the greater part of the afternoon and evening. Principal Patrick said that the proposed union would affect congregational liberty but little and that the progress of similar negotiations in Korea, China, India, Africa and Australia. Dr. Campbell, Montreal, laid the opposition, deprecating the efforts towards organic union. He thought the people had not responded to the appeal for union, indicating an attitude of timidity and fear. Union would involve a compromise and departure from time-honored methods. Prof. McKay, Vancouver, who seconded the amendment, feared Principal Patrick's resolution would divide the church. A vote was taken late in the evening and Principal Patrick's resolution carried by a large majority.

ST. PETERS DEFEAT ST. ROSES BOYS

By Score of 11 to 3—Fairville Team Go in the Air—Big Crowd See the Game.

St. Peter's won their sixth straight game last evening, defeating the St. Roses who were looked upon as dangerous rivals for the league leadership. The Fairville team went up in the air, however, and the result stood 11 to 3 against them. Quigg started the game as pitcher for St. Peter's and was pounded all over the field and lowering him in the box in the third inning and finished the game quite respectably.

The first two innings were a runaway for St. Peter's and they started the third with nine runs to their credit. They added two in the third by heavy hitting.

St. Peter's made their scores in the last half of the third. Deberry opened by getting to first on a rummy. Quigg fled out to F. Mahoney, who made a nice catch. P. O'Toole got down to first in a hit-up, Callahan, the St. Peter's twirler was hurt. The game was waiting for a few pitches.

On resuming, Downing drove out a hit and Deberry scored. E. Mahoney missed McKinnon's grounder and O'Toole scored. Downing hit home again and scored. Deberry hit safely, but Kelly was caught at second. Quigg fanned, and P. O'Toole was put out at first.

In the fourth, Rogers was caught out by Deberry, and Callahan was out at first. Daley fouled to J. O'Toole.

St. Peter's made a good start but failed to score. Keenan was safe at first on an error by J. McCormick, and Kelly reached first on another error by E. Mahoney. Deberry hit safely, but Kelly was caught at second. Quigg fanned, and P. O'Toole was put out at first.

In the fifth, St. Peter's went out in one, two, three order. Downing made a pretty swing of it. McCormick drove and P. O'Toole batted down E. Mahoney's long fly. Keenan got J. Dever's high one.

St. Peter's had a chance for scoring but Keanan and Downing were a few pitches and took his base. O'Keefe sent to second and went to first, but Downing did not reach second. O'Keefe tried to steal and went to first, but Downing safely to first, and J. O'Toole sent one to centre field, which J. Dever failed to get. Keenan died out, leaving two on base. There were about 800 people in attendance at the game.

The league standing is:

Team	Won	Lost	Tied	P.C.
St. Peter's	6	0	0	100
St. John's	5	1	0	83.3

HARVARD AND YALE BOAT RACE

How the Crews Look for the Great Annual Struggle on the 25th—Crimson Strong and Elis Said to be Weak.

Boston, June 9.—The Harvard crew squads left Harvard for Red Top yesterday afternoon, where they will complete their training for the great annual race with Yale on June 25. In addition to the regular members of the "varsity eight," the following seven men were taken to constitute the four-oar boat and its substitutes: G. G. Bacon, '08; E. C. Cutler, '08; R. Ellis, '08; S. A. Fainstock, '08; R. S. Lovering, '08; C. Morgan, '08; P. Withington, '09, and coxswain M. A. King, '10. Managers Howe, Denny and Thayer will also accompany the squads. The freshman squad consists of the regular crew, Magnus Winsor and Iselin, and the six men selected from the two four-oars: Beane, Harding, Oveson, Reece, Richardson, Smith and Coxswain Everett. As Harding sprained his ankle yesterday he may not be able to go with the squad. Coach Wray left Saturday, and Assistant Coach Gill, 2nd, will accompany the crews.

Perhaps the greatest source of strength to the crew thus far is the fact that Coach Wray knew his material so well as to be able to settle on the order almost at the beginning of the year. The very first boat that went into the water, 2, contained seven of the eight men who now comprise the crew. Toward the end of October Sargent was tried out at stroke, and on October 26 five of the members of the crew, including the three stern men, occupied their present positions. Since then the only changes made are that Morgan has gone out of the boat. Severance has been shifted from the 2 to the 3 position, and the only other change made is that Morgan has gone out of the boat. Severance has been shifted from the 2 to the 3 position, and the only other change made is that Morgan has gone out of the boat.

The order of the crews is: Stroke, 7; Richardson; 6; Bacon; 5; Waide; 4; Lunt; 3; Severance; 2; Fish; bow; Faulkner; cox. Blagden.

Varsity crew—Stroke, Cutler; 7; Hooper; 6; Eaton; 5; Withington; 4; Waite; 3; Whitney; 2; Forster; bow; Shillito; cox; Fales.

ELIS SAID TO BE WEAK.

Gales Ferry, Conn., June 9.—Old boating men on the Thames are whispering to each other that the Yale crew this year is below par. They have had their eyes glued out for every practice the Elis has taken since they came here last week, and they think that Coach Kennedy is afraid to send the eight over the course under the watch for fear of exhibiting its weakness. Kennedy has refused to let the oarsmen take a try for ten days and it is doubtful if the eight will be sent over the course on time before the race.

Kennedy has discussed the situation. He said that nothing had been done since the crews came here except to try to settle the make-up of the "varsity four" and the freshman eight and to get the "varsity eight" into better physical condition.

"They were unable to do any rowing which amounted to anything," he said, "for two weeks before they came here, and they must be put back into condition gradually. I shall not send them over the course for another week, anyway."

Mr. Kennedy admitted that he expected to make no more changes in the "varsity eight" but he thinks the freshman eight is now settled and that the "varsity four" is pretty well picked. Capt. Livingston of the freshman eight has lost his seat to Frost, a substitute, and Frost will undoubtedly now stroke the 1911 shell. The "varsity four" as now selected is as follows: Stroke, Walls; No. 3, Miller; No. 2, Godley, and bow, Wodell.

A sharp contest for stroke oar has been had between Jack O'Brien and Jack Blackburn. F. Butler Walls of Boston and L. H. Robbins of Springfield, Walls is now practically certain of his seat. He stroked the Yale second crew which broke the world's record at the American Henley two weeks ago.

THE RING

JACK O'BRIEN AND BLACKBURN.

On Wednesday there will be a bout at Philadelphia which Manager Jack McGuigan confidently hopes will pack the spacious amphitheatre of the National A. C. of that city. That is the contest between Jack O'Brien and Jack Blackburn (colored). O'Brien has several advantages.

He will be O'Brien's return to grace since he was condemned for having tried to induce Tommy Burns to fake their second contest. O'Brien has had a good rest and will probably be better than ever before in his career. The promoters are watching this bout with interest for there is talk of O'Brien and Blackburn being matched in California.

Tommy Burns was to be matched some time ago with Sammy McVey for Saturday, but that has probably been canceled by the industrial Canadian. The scheduled bout between Jimmy Gardner and Jack Dougherty may not be held either.

BOUTS FOR THE WEEK.

TODAY.

Jack O'Brien vs. Jack Blackburn, at Philadelphia.

THURSDAY.

Dick Nelson vs. Jeff Dochow, at New York; Eddie Santry vs. Louie Long, at Taft, Mont.

FRIDAY.

Frank Carney vs. Kid Dalton, at Jeffries A. C., Carson, Cal.; Ambly McGarry vs. Dave Deahler, at New York.

SATURDAY.

Jack Goodman vs. Lew Sheppard, at New York.

MEMSIC IN A DRAW.

Boston, June 9.—At the end of a slow twelve round bout before the Armory Athletic Association tonight between George Memsic of Los Angeles, Cal., and young Donohue of this city, Referee Donnelly called it a draw. Memsic nearly knocked Donohue out in the first round with a left hook to the jaw but the latter came back strong and evened up matters toward the end by his clever work.

U. OF W. ENTERS CREW.

Seattle, June 9.—The University of Washington eight-oared crew, which now holds the Pacific Coast championship, has sent its entry for the intercollegiate regatta at Fougheuse on June 27.

ROUSE O'BRIEN BENEFIT.

Rouse O'Brien will have a benefit at the Columbia Theatre, Boston on June 22. Several well-known boxers and vaudeville performers have promised to participate.

RECTOR "NOT SO MUCH" AFTER ALL.

Says Bob Dunbar in the Boston Journal: "Well, where was Rector with his 923 seconds? The boy rowed well at Philadelphia Saturday and I do not want to detract one iota from his game showing, but Rector is just exactly what has been claimed in this column, a good, sound ten second man. Granted that he has set back a yard and gained two feet on Law."

FOUND FLOATING IN ST. JOHN RIVER

Body of Edward Currie Found Yesterday by Two Boys—He Has Been Missing Since Last September.

Fredericton, N. B., June 9.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Edward Currie, fish warden of Douglas, who has been missing since Sept. 29 last, was cleared up this afternoon by the discovery of his body grounded on a rock in the river at the lower side of the court house slip. The body was in an advanced stage of decomposition, but fish warden's papers found in the pocket left little doubt as to the man's identity.

Later a brother and several intimate friends of the missing man positively identified the body as that of Currie.

The gruesome find was made by two boys named Arthur Barry and Leo Boyd. They were out in a boat opposite the court house when they saw what appeared to be a bundle of clothing resting upon a rock. Upon closer investigation they saw that the supposed bundle was in reality the body of a man. Towing the body ashore, they notified Constable Hawthorne, who in turn notified Coroner Weaver of the find. After viewing the body the coroner had it removed to McAdams' undertaking establishment where it was seen and identified by relatives and friends. It was decided to hold an inquest and a jury composed of Howard Rogers, J. M. Lemont, J. D. Black, J. L. Neville, Wm. H. Walker, W. E. Seery and Jas. Fanjoy were empaneled and adjourned to meet tomorrow evening.

Currie's body was removed this evening to his former home at Douglas, where it will be interred tomorrow afternoon. As already stated, Currie disappeared September 29 of last year. He was last seen on Queen street, and was partially under the influence of liquor. It is supposed that he walked out Regent street believing that he was traveling towards the wharf. This theory was generally accepted at the time and although the river was dragged in the vicinity of the wharf and dynamite exploded in the water, it refused to give up its dead.

The supposition now is that when Currie fell into the water, his clothing caught in some projection from which he was a suspicion in some quarters that he had met with foul play.

This evening Dr. G. J. McNally, at the request of Coroner Weaver, made an examination of vital parts of the body and could find nothing to indicate that death had been due to any cause but drowning.

A brother of the deceased, who was present when the examination was made, told the Telegraph correspondent that he was thoroughly satisfied that death had been accidental.

Currie was forty-five years old and leaves a widow and four daughters, also five brothers. He carried $1,000 insurance in the Forsters, but in the absence of proof of death the widow has thus far been unable to collect the amount of the policy. Currie was a member of Court Keewick, and also an Orangeman.

A reward of $50 offered for the recovery of the body will be claimed by Barry and Boyd.

Hon. L. P. Farris, of Whites Cove, commissioner of the G.T.P. police in the province is at the Royal.

This evening Dr. G. J. McNally, at the request of Coroner Weaver, made an examination of vital parts of the body and could find nothing to indicate that death had been due to any cause but drowning.

A brother of the deceased, who was present when the examination was made, told the Telegraph correspondent that he was thoroughly satisfied that death had been accidental.

Currie was forty-five years old and leaves a widow and four daughters, also five brothers. He carried $1,000 insurance in the Forsters, but in the absence of proof of death the widow has thus far been unable to collect the amount of the policy. Currie was a member of Court Keewick, and also an Orangeman.

A reward of $50 offered for the recovery of the body will be claimed by Barry and Boyd.

Hon. L. P. Farris, of Whites Cove, commissioner of the G.T.P. police in the province is at the Royal.

FOUND FLOATING IN ST. JOHN RIVER

Body of Edward Currie Found Yesterday by Two Boys—He Has Been Missing Since Last September.

Fredericton, N. B., June 9.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Edward Currie, fish warden of Douglas, who has been missing since Sept. 29 last, was cleared up this afternoon by the discovery of his body grounded on a rock in the river at the lower side of the court house slip. The body was in an advanced stage of decomposition, but fish warden's papers found in the pocket left little doubt as to the man's identity.

Later a brother and several intimate friends of the missing man positively identified the body as that of Currie.

The gruesome find was made by two boys named Arthur Barry and Leo Boyd. They were out in a boat opposite the court house when they saw what appeared to be a bundle of clothing resting upon a rock. Upon closer investigation they saw that the supposed bundle was in reality the body of a man. Towing the body ashore, they notified Constable Hawthorne, who in turn notified Coroner Weaver of the find. After viewing the body the coroner had it removed to McAdams' undertaking establishment where it was seen and identified by relatives and friends. It was decided to hold an inquest and a jury composed of Howard Rogers, J. M. Lemont, J. D. Black, J. L. Neville, Wm. H. Walker, W. E. Seery and Jas. Fanjoy were empaneled and adjourned to meet tomorrow evening.

Currie's body was removed this evening to his former home at Douglas, where it will be interred tomorrow afternoon. As already stated, Currie disappeared September 29 of last year. He was last seen on Queen street, and was partially under the influence of liquor. It is supposed that he walked out Regent street believing that he was traveling towards the wharf. This theory was generally accepted at the time and although the river was dragged in the vicinity of the wharf and dynamite exploded in the water, it refused to give up its dead.

The supposition now is that when Currie fell into the water, his clothing caught in some projection from which he was a suspicion in some quarters that he had met with foul play.

This evening Dr. G. J. McNally, at the request of Coroner Weaver, made an examination of vital parts of the body and could find nothing to indicate that death had been due to any cause but drowning.

A brother of the deceased, who was present when the examination was made, told the Telegraph correspondent that he was thoroughly satisfied that death had been accidental.
