· THE BEST OF CEILDREN'S MAGA-ZINE'S'

The publishers of St. Nicholas, that famous oung folks' magazine, are offering to send; ample copy, free of charge, to any father of other who would like to consider the question to come.

Certainly if that question is up for discussion in any household St. Nicholas will be themagazine selected. From its first number, in 1873, the pens of the greatest writers of the English world, and the pencils of the most famous illustrators, have been at its service. Tenny son, Longfellow, Bryant, Thomas Hughes Whittier, Bret Harte, Bayard Taylor, Mrs. Burnett, Miss Alcott, Dohald G. Mitcheil, George Macdonald, Mrs. Oliphant, Professor Proctor are a few of the many great names which have been upon its list of contributors. Mrs. Mary Mapes Dodge is the editor.— Everything in it is illustrated.

there are to be serial stories by Brand

Stoddard, Charles E. Carry (the authr of Davy and the Goblin'), and Frances Courtenay Baylor. There will be short stories by Thomas Nelson Page, Mary E. Wilkins, Mary Hallcod Foote, Richard Malcolm Johnston, Octave Thanet, General O. O. Howard, and name of there will be short to the control of the courter with the courter of the court Octave Thanet, General O. O. Howard, and many others, with papers of travel and adventure by J. T. Trowbridge and Lieutenan Schwalka, and useful articles on 'How Columbus Reckoned,' 'William the Conqueror, 'Volcanoes and Earthquakes,' 'Straight Line and Circles,' etc. In 'Strange Corners of Ou Country,' the Great American Desert, the Clift Dwellings of Arizona, and other interestin places, will be described, and in 'Honors to the Flag and 'Boys and the National Guard the patriotism of the young readers will be aroused and stimulated. Julian Ralph is to describe 'The Making of a Great Newspiper, and the arc and incandescent electric lights are to be abord near the stimulates.
