BETTER OUTLOOK FOR LUMBERING

Local Operators Will Cut about the Same as Last Year

Among local lumber operators the prospect for the coming season has up to a recent date been rather uncertain, but of late things have been clearing up so that plans for restricted operations are now being pushed and camps are being organized. The Sayre concern will cut about three million, all under contract. Chute's have a contract with the Nashuaak people. The Juniper Company will cut from three to five million on their permits in the Miramichi territory. Adair Bros. will put in by the thousand, under contract with these people. Hill Bros. also have a few winter's operation under contract. Improvement in the freight situation and the adjustment of the wage problem with the American railway employees may have a tendency to a re-adjustment and improvement in the operating plans of the big lumber interests in New Brunswick.

BARACA CHORAL CLASS VISITS WOODSTOCK

Mrs. S. S. Miller and the following party attended a missionary meeting in St. Paul's Presbyterian church at Woodstock last evening. Miss Kathleen Kennedy accompanied Mrs. Miller and the members of the class who went were: Lorne Britton, Warren White, Raleigh Britton, R. C. Gulliver, G. W. Montgomery, Walter Nodding, Alex. Miller, Harold Bradley, Vincent Boyne, J. B. Adams, Wm. Hayward, Roy Smith, H. A. Sippell.

The majority of the above belong to the U. B. Baraca Choral Class to which Mrs. Miller has been giving a course of instruction during the past year. The class rendered two full choruses, one duet and chorus, and two male quartettes. After the meeting Mrs. J. K. Fleming invited the happy party to her home where a splendid luncheon was served.

"OLD HOME PAPER WEEK" IS NEXT WEEK

All the Weekly Papers of the Continent are Making an Appeal for Support During Next Week

All over Canada and the United States the weekly newspapers are advertising the week of Nov. 7-12 as "Old Home Paper Week" with the object of stimulating interest and loyalty to one of the greatest institutions of the age—the old home town newspapers. Everybody really loves their home paper and every one of the sons and daughters of Carleton-Victoria, especially those who have left to make their homes in distant lands, should read regularly one, at least, of the several papers published in the two counties. Most of them do; but all of them should be regular readers. The Observer claims the largest circulation among its contemporaries, but there are still those that should take it and do not. There are also very many who claim Carleton-Victoria as their birthplace, but who are now

In the above photograph may be seen the members of The Observer's party on their western tour last June. The picture was taken on the C. P. R. grounds at Banff station on June 13, just after the train had arrived from Lake Louise. The lady with the conspicuous beads, the one in furs, and the bareheaded chap at the right—upper row—are The Observer representatives.

CLOVERDALE LUMBER CASE

The October session of Carleton County Supreme Court is on its third week of continuous work and bids fair to set a high mark for this province by continuing on the coming week. The Orser-Furlong-Chute case went to the jury at a late hour Tuesday when, after short deliberation, a verdict was brought in favoring Orser and Furlong. This suit came out of a dispute over the sale of lumber in an operation in the season 1919-20 and resulted in a finding of $2,500 in a suit involving a claim for $2,500.

bridge. He saw that the car was approaching at a dangerous clip and made a desperate effort to evade the speeding machine, but a collision resulted. The driver was thrown and slightly stunned but managed to get control of the horse. The occupants of the car came to his assistance and made certain that nothing more serious than a scared horse and some what bruised driver and a wrecked wagon had resulted from the collision. The auto party readily adjusted the damages and went merrily on their way, while Mr. Rideout was left to nurse his bruises and to wonder why so many take it for granted that the mere fact of possessing an automobile, conveys a right to both sides of the road and the middle as well.

BRIDGE WORKMEN INJURED

On Saturday Jarvis Cook, working with the bridge crew, had his leg caught between a jam of logs and a pier and the limb was badly jammed. Some minutes elapsed before he could be rescued but he was finally brought to safety. He will be laid up for a time.

On the same day Jack Thistle, another workman, fell from the top of a distance of 18 feet to a board pile and had his leg painfully injured. He is getting around again.

MEN FOR THE WOODS

Labelle, P.Q., April 18th, 1921

"It is my duty to tell you and publish to all what your remedy 'Fruit-a-tives' has done for me."

I suffered with Rheumatism for ten months, could hardly move in bed; and was miserable all the time. I tried several physicians and took many remedies, but they left me at the same place, in bed and suffering, the Rheumatism was so bad.

I finally started in taking 'Fruit-a-tives' and continued the treatment regularly as I found myself getting better. After using eight boxes of 'Fruit-a-tives' (which cost only $4.) I am completely well without a trace of Rheumatism."

CHANGING THE RULE OF THE ROAD

On the first of January at 6 o'clock in the morning British Columbia will adopt the drive-to-the-right rule of the road, leaving the Maritime Provinces the only section of Canada following the old world plan of driving to the left. The change is made, as it should be made in New Brunswick, in the interest of public safety. Each succeeding season brings a number of accidents, the direct result of lack of knowledge or failure to remember that the rule of the road here is not the rule in the United States, in Quebec, in Ontario. That we follow a different rule made no difference until the ever-widening use of the automobile brought so many strangers on our roads that the danger menace has become to the limit the danger which might result from local failure to observe the new rule the British Columbia government has adopted a number of practical suggestions put forward by the Vancouver Automobile Club. The government will provide auto windshield stickers in the form of an arrow, with the words, "Keep to the Right." Signs with the same legend for the back of motors will also be provided and given every traffic officer, with authority to place these upon motors which lack them. In addition, the government is having new road signs made bearing the legend, "Keep to the Right," which will be put into place on all provincial highways between midnight and six a.m. January 1. Large banners bearing the same caution will be strung across the principal streets of the cities and towns, and street cars will carry both front and rear signs to the same effect. As a further precaution, the Automobile Club will notify all its members of the change. The Maritime Provinces should follow the British Columbia example and inaugurate the keep-to-the-right plan for street traffic as a measure of public safety, made practically imperative because of the increasing number of foreign cars which come here, and because the general run of cars are equipped for that plan of street traffic. The separation of the two drivers by the full width of their cars constitutes a measure of danger.—Globe.

POTATO SHIPMENTS FROM ST. JOHN

Approximately Three Hundred and Sixty Thousand Barrels Leaving St. John this Season

That approximately three hundred and sixty thousand barrels of potatoes will be shipped through St. John during the present season was the statement made by Guy G. Porter, of Porter, Hatfield, Gallagher Co., to a representative of The Standard on Saturday. This organization was formed some months ago and its business is that of packing, barrelling and shipping potatoes from the Guy G. Porter Co., Ltd., of Perth, Hatfield & Co., Ltd., of Hartland, and C. E. Gallagher Co., of Bath. The proposed shipment of potatoes will comprise the largest exportation in one season through St. John of that product in the history of this port, and will afford continuous employment until the middle of June for at least fifty and possibly seventy-five local men.

Previous to last season shipments had been made individually by the three concerns for a period of ten years through the United Fruit Co. from Boston. Chiefly because of the shorter rail haul, the reduction of the risk caused by frost during the cold weather, the proximity to home of this Port and the increased railway rate due to the necessity of payment in American money of sixty per cent of the charges, all exportation of potatoes to Cuba are now going through St. John.

Forty-five thousand barrels have already been forwarded from this port to Havana, and a further cargo of 12,000 barrels is now being loaded on the S. S. Ute at shed No. 5. Since the middle of September last six steamers have carried cargoes of potatoes to Cuba, and it is estimated that the total number of boats chartered by the Porter, Hatfield, Gallagher Co., during the season will range from twenty-five to thirty.

The expectations are that about 12,000 barrels will leave this port every ten days. Shipments are also being made from Halifax to San Diego de Cuba, Bermuda, Trinidad and Demerara but this exportation is comparatively small as compared with the shipments through St. John to Cuba. The potato sheds on the West Side have been leased from the city, and over $15,000 is being expended by this company for the purpose of creating frost-proof buildings in which to house this product while awaiting exportation. A very modern heating system, new flooring, trestle and other repairs have been installed so as to make the buildings tenable for such purpose during the cold weather; and on Saturday the team was turned on for the first time and found entirely satisfactory. Any surplus remaining after the S. S. Ute has cleared will be transferred from shed No. 5 to the potato sheds, from which place all future shipments will be made.

It is felt that more than double the quantity shipped last season will be exported during the present one. Last year shipments to Cuba did not start until the middle of February from this port, while six boats have already left St. John since the opening of the present one in September last.

Warehouses are erected in numerous parts of the counties of Madawaska, Carleton and York; and, roughly speaking, about one-third of the potato yield in this Province is forwarded to Cuba and the United States. The prices obtained on the Cuban market vary considerably, and sometimes as high as $35 per barrel is received. On the other hand there are times during a recession with a fluctuation on the downward trend when potatoes are sold as low as freight.

The only competition which has been encountered so far this season is a very strong one from American concerns. Exporters from Copenhagen, Ireland, England, Scotland and Denmark are now booking sales to Cuba for early in January, and these shipments from the Old Country, chiefly Denmark and Holland, will tend to increase competition. The rivalry for a market from European countries, however, is not near as keen or steady as that from the United States, who receive the advantage of a preferential tariff.

The British preferential tariff now obtained for Canadian goods in exporting to Bermuda, Trinidad and Demerara and is a decided help to the farmers of New Brunswick in the exportation of all their farm products.—St. John Standard.

If you want a barrel of Fameuse apples see Hatfield & Co. before they are all gone.

In this efficient way Peps destroys all disease germs. Soreness and inflammation are instantly allayed, the air-passages are soothed and repaired, obstructions of phlegm are cleared away, and the breathing becomes easy.

A recent automobile trip in New Brunswick along the St. John river from Perth to Woodstock, and returning by the way of Jacksonville and Bridgewater, reveals the fact that farmers in that section plow into the ditches, thus preventing all drainage, the same as they do this side of the line. Filling the ditches, giving no opportunity for water to drain, will spoil the best road ever made, if persisted in for a few years.—The Aroostook Republican.

HOW WOMEN AVOID SURGICAL OPERATIONS

Some Are Extremely Necessary, Others May Not Be

Every Woman Should Give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a Trial First

Chicago, Ill.—"I was in bed with a female trouble and inflammation and had four doctors but none of them did me any good. They all said I would have to have an operation. A druggist's wife told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took 22 bottles, never missing a dose and at the end of that time I was perfectly well. I have never had occasion to take it again as I have been so well. I have a six room flat and do all my work. My two sisters are taking the Compound upon my recommendation and you may publish my letter. It is the gospel truth and I will write to any one who wants a personal letter."—Mrs. E. H. HAYDOCK, 6824 St. Lawrence Ave., Chicago, Ill.

A Vermont woman adds her testimony to the long line of those fortunate women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after it had been decided an operation was necessary:

Burlington, Vt.—"I suffered with female trouble, and had a number of doctors who said that I would never be any better until I had an operation. I was so bad I could hardly walk across the floor and could not do a thing. My sister-in-law induced me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it certainly has helped me wonderfully. I keep house and do my work and have a small child. I have recommended Vegetable Compound to a number of my friends and you may publish my testimonial."—Mrs. H. R. SEARON, Apple Tree Point Farm, Burlington, Vt.

In hospitals are many women who are there for surgical operations, and there is nothing a woman dreads more than the thought of an operation, and the long weary months of recovery and restoration to strength if it is successful.

It is very true that female troubles may through neglect reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but most of the commoner ailments of women are not the surgical ones; they are not caused by serious displacements, tumors or growths, although the symptoms may appear the same. When disturbing ailments first appear take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve the present distress and prevent more serious troubles. In fact, many letters have been received from women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after operations have been advised by attending physicians.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

The Totems At Alert Bay

A pleasant run on the Alaska Route, a summer holiday by water from Vancouver brings one to Alert Bay at the north end of Vancouver Island.

At Alert Bay are to be seen the Totem Poles and Indian Communities. Houses and the remains of the curious tree-burials, popular till recently with the Sitkashas.

The Totems here have long since come to be regarded as one of the wonders of the world as inscrutable in their way as Pyramid and Sphinx. And so it is little wonder that not a week goes by, in summer, but groups of visitors from every corner of the Globe may be seen landing here from both North and South-bound boats to view at close hand these "Sphinxes of America."

The world has always had wood-carvers. But never anywhere at any time "carvings" like unto these Pacific Coast Totems.

The outstanding "points" of the totem, which strike the visitor ashore for a few hours, are overwhelming.

One question:

Who carved them?

Who conceived the idea?

How old are they?

We know it was not till very lately that the Coastal Indians possessed any steel tools. How then was it possible so long ago for them to cut so deep and clean a line as here gives decision to the totem-fact?

All of these questions, and hundreds of others of like nature, after all these years since first the Totem was discovered by the white man, still remain without a definite answer. It is more than half the charm of the Sphinx that she has never spoken. Indeed, half the charm and spell woven of the Totem lies in the stories that every visitor, beholding them, is free to weave to fancy, aided and guided by Tradition.

For though the written word may be wholly lacking "Tradition" has never anywhere woven prettier stories, clinging like graceful draperies trailing off in to these Northern climes, than about these wooden figures of the wonderful Totems, that wind around the shore-roads at Alert Bay.

Here is that marvellous figure, the Thunder Bird, with its eagle-eyes and hinged beak that drops open through which entrance was made to the feast-hall in times of Potlatch.

Tradition has been very busy with the Thunder-Bird. Something about it makes it "the king of the Totems."

The story of the Thunder-Bird that lets most light on the Indian character of other days is a gruesome tale of treachery on the part of the Bear Totem Pole.

Alerts toward their ancient foe the tribes of the Nimpkish.

The Nimpkish folk were invited to a "Potlatch" and burying the hatchet, they came. Only to be murdered and at a time as they wriggled through the Thunder Bird's beak to the feast-hall. The entrance was so narrow and the blow from within so swift and unexpected that not even a sound escaped to warn the men waiting outside. Thus, tradition says "Was done to death every Nimpkish who came to the feast."

Next in importance to the Thunder-Bird comes The Bear, frank-eyed and sporty, carrying between powerful paws the "copper" symbol of Chieftaincy among the Indians to this day.

The chief whom the Bear symbolizes was evidently a hunter—pre-eminently of bears. As a clever hunter he hunted and study a ruin's that in time he himself carved something of the nature of an animal he hunted. The whole set-up of "The Bear" bespeaks geniality and good-humour. No one could think of him giving The Potlatch that annihilated the Nimpkish.

As a true sport, every visitor to Alert Bay will acknowledge that "The Whale" runs "The Bear" a close second.

And as you look at the harpoon-shaped of the archaic striding figure, whatever may have been the faults of this action of the house of Sitkash, "The Whale" was not one of them. Of all the breeds of fancy or ambition can one be imagined that supplies more sport for the money than "The Whale" over an open course? Yet your Coastal Indian of these parts was evidently not afraid to ride.

Eloquent indeed is the simple whale design which spars as wholly unnecessary the written word, mounts guard over the time-worn mound in the graveyard.

To discover the remaining interesting Totems in the Alert Bay gallery is desirable that you make the trip. Otherwise to you is experienced by the visitor to these parts of piecing together the various "designs" shown in the Totems and making them into the living chapters of the life that at one time had its being here in this part of our Canada.

DESIRABLE CANADIANS

English children who recently came to Canada on board the "Empress of France." Their names are: Thomas Marshall Howard, Sydney Ashton, John Kincaid, Lawrence King, Edwin Coleman and Billy Coleman.

The Child Immigrant

A group of pretty children aboard a C.P.R. Liner on the way to Canada.

The flow of child immigrants into Canada has started again, after its complete cessation during the war. The recent arrival of several hundred boys from the Barnardo Homes of London, draws attention anew to this important and desirable stream of juvenile immigration.

Few realize that a total of 75,000 child immigrants have entered the Dominion since the first shipload came years ago. It steadily grew in volume until two thousand a year entered the country, the number reaching high water mark in one year with 3,286.

Who are these Child Immigrants? They come from eleven British institutions of a philanthropic character such as the Barnardo, the Quarrier, the Macpherson and the National Children's Homes, in which are orphans or semi-orphans, they are rescued, cared for and trained for their adult life. Only the best—physically, mentally and morally—are sent to Canada and then only after as thorough preparation as can be given to young boys and girls. The fact that seventy-five per cent of those who come to Canada follow agricultural pursuits and that over ninety per cent of the total arrivals make good in their new home, makes them a highly desirable addition to the population. They are not only under close supervision in these Old Country Homes, but the selected parties for overseas are accompanied by trained workers. On landing, they are first taken to one of the more or more Receiving and Distributing Homes, to be found in the chief cities. This means that the placing of the child immigrants in foster homes is conducted with

THE HOME TOWN PAPER

First of all, it can bring to you the news of your own home town. Week after week, it prints in detail the happenings of the community. Faithfully it sets forth the goings and comings of its people, giving careful attention to the homely little items that are ignored in the overcrowded dailies of the big cities.

It can furnish you with more interesting information about people you know, or used to know, than could a dozen correspondents. The one who writes to you may know only a few of your friends at home—but your Home Town Paper knows them all. It tells you about people you are interested in.

Finally, in a good, hard business sense, your Home Town Paper is of value to you. It keeps you posted as to the industrial and commercial growth of a community which familiarity may have caused you to neglect. It often reveals that keen people see, right in your home town, a mine of golden opportunity. The moral is obvious.

THE STORY OF HOME TOWN PAPER WEEK

By M. V. Atwood

Once upon a time a country editor had a great idea. This is not the first great idea which has been evolved in a country print-shop, but most of these ideas in the past have been of benefit to some one other than the editor. But the idea was to benefit editor as well as the whole community and nation.

This was the idea: Why not have a "home paper week?" We have every kind of a "week" from soap to electric cleaners.

Taken together, argued the editor, the country newspapers are quite the most important on the continent, even if judged by numbers: the ten or fifteen thousand of them make the four hundred big city papers and magazines seem inconsiderable, indeed.

The reason most folks do not realize the importance of the country newspaper is because they think of them individually instead of collectively: even the Atlantic ocean doesn't look very impressive when you view it merely as a cupful of water scooped up at the beach.

So this country editor began to talk about the idea and to write letters to any one who he thought might be interested. But like all great ideas it took a long time for it to grow.

Finally a company which has done much to teach country publishers the value of system and of knowledge of costs took it up; as did also the Newspapers Association; then the colleges of agriculture saw its possibilities because of the effect on community life; another great concern which furnishes thousands of country papers with syndicate news and features became interested; and, of course, the publishers' trade journals fell into line.

Thus a great chain of interest in "Subscribe for Your Home Town Paper Week" has been stretched across the country, each of the thousands of country papers, of which this paper is one, a link in the chain.

November 7th to 12th are the dates set for "Subscribe for Your Home Paper Week," and all who believe in the home town paper, in its possibilities for helpfulness, for creating community solidarity, for the cherishing of the homely and sacred things of the country, are being asked to help to help, not because the country editor needs charity, but because the country newspaper is a great service agency, dignified, stable, worthy of every cent which the community invests to make it possible.

So you are asked to help make "Subscribe for Your Home Town Paper Week" the big success it is going to be. If you do not take your home paper, don't delay subscribing later than the week of November 7-12.

DR. CHASE

Has Taught the People How to Keep Well

The Dr. Chase Plan of Health

TIME was when the family physician was the most prominent character in the community.

A man of intelligence and ability, he commanded confidence and respect, and sacrificed his time, strength and pleasure for those who needed his care and skill.

These were the conditions when, after graduating from the University of Michigan, at Ann Arbor, Dr. A. W. Chase settled down to practice his profession in that well-known college town.

To reach patients at a distance, the doctor had his most successful prescriptions put up in handy form for mailing. In time the demand became so great that the doctor decided to give these great medicines to the public, and arranged for their sale through the drug trade throughout Canada and the United States.

In this way Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, Nerve Food, Ointment, Linseed and Turpentine, Catarrh Powder, and other medicines found their way into general use, until now one or more of them is found in almost every home in the land.

Home Medicines

But the doctor soon got the idea that people should know how to look after their own common life, and set about in a large way to supply them with the necessary information.

By means of his Receipt Book, the circulation of which has since run into millions, and his well-known Almanac and booklets of many kinds, Dr. Chase has spread throughout the civilized world the gospel of "Every Man His Own Physician."

This plan enabled the doctor to devote his attention to more serious cases and he soon became known far and wide as a specialist in the treatment of diseases of the kidneys, the liver, the heart and other vital organs of the human system.

Confidence in Dr. Chase

Founded on His Integrity of Character and the Unusual Merits of His Medicines.

If there was ever a physician who commanded the confidence of his patients that physician was DR. CHASE.

No one could meet him and converse with him without realizing that he was a man of skill, who was in love with his profession and only anxious to relieve the suffering and disease of his fellowmen.

You cannot read the famous Dr. Chase's Receipt Book without appreciating the untiring zeal of its author in searching out the best receipts and prescriptions which were known to the medical profession.

When his attention was turned to selecting medicines to be placed on the market for public sale it was with whole-souled effort that he hunted out the prescriptions which he considered most suitable for this purpose.

And so it is that the integrity of character which marked the efforts of DR. CHASE are indelibly stamped on every medicine which bears his portrait and signature, and people have learned to have the utmost confidence in them because of the splendid results which they have accomplished.

Free Samples

After long experience with Dr. Chase's Medicines, we have found that people who try them are soon convinced of their exceptional merits.

Canadian Rockies Abound In Legendary Lore

The countless peaks that cover the Canadian Rockies are wrapped in Indian legends as well as clouds of snow. Many of these are locally familiar, some are widely known, but a rich field awaits the delver into the Indian lore concerning this region. Perhaps another Canadian woman with a strain of Indian blood in her veins will do for the Canadian Rockies what Pauline Johnston did for Vancouver by collecting the Siwash legends.

Band and its environs are particularly rich in legendary atmosphere. It is safe to say that ninety per cent of the thousands who stop at Banff annually enjoy a boat ride across Lake Minnewanka, a "band" of water sheeted in by forbidding mountains. The Indians regularly. At the southern end a stop is made to allow passengers to inspect the scenic marvels, one of which is a gigantic "Hoodoo," which rises like a monument from the back of a rushing torrent, and bears a balanced rock upon its apex. Nearby is an excellent camping site and another is on the north shore opposite the entrance to Aymer's Canyon, from which it is comparatively easy to reach 10,365 foot Mt. Aymer.

Lake trout of great size inhabit Minnewanka and prove a magnet sufficient to counter-balance the fears of any superstitious fishermen, as attested by the numbers who stop at the Chalet beside the lake.
