BILL.

[No. 83.

An Act to Incorporate the "Quebec and St. Francis Mining and Exploring Company."

WHEREAS the several persons hereinafter named, have, by their Petition, represented that they have associated themselves together, with divers others, for the purpose of exploring for working Metals, Mines of Copper and other ores, and of smelting the same in this Province, and possess a large quantity of land in the District of Quebec and have raised by subscription, the capital necessary effectually to begin their operations, but that they experience great difficulties in carrying out the objects for which they are associated, without an Act incorporating them with the powers hereinafter mentioned, and have prayed that such an Act be passed: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of, and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled "An Act to reunite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada," and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that Andrew Stuart, Charles Frémont, Lewis Sleeper, William Bignell, George Hall and Philip Peebles, and their successors, and such and so many other persons or parties as have become or shall become Shareholders in the Capital Stock hereinafter mentioned, shall be, and they are hereby constituted a Body Politic and Corporate, in fact and in name, by the name of the "Quebec and St. Francis Mining and Exploring Company," and by that name shall and may sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, answer and be answered unto, in all Courts of Law or Equity whatsoever, and shall have uninterrupted succession with a Common Seal, which may by them be changed or varied at their pleasure.

Preamble.

Certain persons incorporated as The Quebec & St. Francis Mining and Exploring Company.

II. No Shareholder in the said Corporation shall be in any manner whatsoever, liable for or charged with the payment of any debt or demand due by the said Corporation, beyond the amount of his, her or their subscribed share or shares in the Capital Stock of the said Corporation.

Shareholders not liable beyond the amount of their Stock.

III. The Capital Stock of the said Company shall be, and the same is hereby declared to be, thirty-six thousand pounds, divided into thirty-six thousand shares: Provided always, that the said Capital may be increased to seventy-two thousand pounds, as hereinafter provided.

Capital £36,000.

IV. The calls to be hereafter made on the holders of the said Stock, shall be paid by instalments, when and in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Directors hereinafter named: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall exonerate, diminish or relieve any party from existing liability to the said Company, whether the said liability relates to contributions due or to fall due upon the Stock already issued or otherwise, but on the contrary, all such liability and contributions shall and may be enforced in the same way, and the said Corporation shall have the same remedy to enforce the payment of calls already made, and all other calls and sums now due or called for, as is hereinafter prescribed with respect to future calls and liabilities.

Estate of Association vested in Corporation hereby established.

V. All and every the estate and property, real or personal, belonging to the Association at the time of the passing of this Act, or which may subsequently be acquired by them, and all debts or claims due or to be possessed by the said Association, shall be and are hereby transferred to and vested in the Corporation hereby established, which shall in like manner be liable to and for all debts due by or claims upon the said Corporation; and the Trustees of the said Association, at the time of the passing of this Act, shall be Directors of the said Corporation, as if elected under this Act, until their successors shall be elected as hereinafter provided.

Corporation may hold lands, &c.

VI. It shall be lawful for the said Corporation to have and hold such lands and immoveable or real property as may be necessary for carrying on the business of the said Corporation, provided the sum invested in real property purchased from private individuals do not at any one time exceed twenty-five thousand pounds; and it shall be lawful for the said Corporation to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of, the said property and estate as they may see fit.

They may carry on Mining, &c.

VII. It shall be lawful for the said Corporation to engage in and follow on such lands and property as they now hold or may hereafter acquire as their property, or which they shall obtain permission from any proprietor so to do, the occupation and business of carrying on exploration for and of finding and getting copper and other ores, metals and minerals, and of manufacturing and disposing of the same for the benefit of the said Corporation, and to do all things necessary for the purpose aforesaid, not inconsistent with the rights of any other parties, or with the conditions of any grant or other title under which the said Corporation may hold the lands in which such things are to be done: Provided always, that nothing in this Act shall be construed to give the said Company the right to enter upon, or to take or use in any way the lands of any person, except with the consent of such person.

Proviso.

If Capital not sufficient, it may be increased.

VIII. If the said sum of thirty-six thousand pounds be found insufficient for the purposes of this Act, then and in such case it shall be lawful for the members of the said Corporation, by a vote of not less than two-thirds in number of the shareholders, representing not less than one-half of the shares, at any General Meeting to be expressly called for that purpose, to increase the Capital Stock of the said Corporation, either by the admission of new members as subscribers to the said undertaking, or otherwise, to a sum not exceeding in all the sum of seventy-two thousand pounds currency, including the said sum of thirty-six thousand pounds currency, hereinbefore authorized to be raised, in such manner and upon such terms and conditions, and under such regulations as shall be approved of and agreed on; and the Capital so to be raised by the creation of new shares, or otherwise, shall be in all respects part of the Capital Stock of the said Corporation, and every shareholder of such new stock shall be a member of the said Corporation, and be entitled to all and every the same powers, privileges and rights as the persons who are now shareholders, in proportion to the interest or number of shares which he may acquire and to the amount of calls paid thereon, and shall also be liable and subject to the same obligations and stand interested in all the profits and losses of the said undertaking in proportion to the sum that he shall subscribe and pay thereto, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes whatsoever, as if such other or further sum had been originally raised as a part of the said first sum of thirty-six thousand pounds; anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

IX. It shall be lawful for the said Corporation from time to time to borrow either in this Province, or elsewhere, all such sum or sums of money, not exceeding in all, at any one time, twenty thousand pounds currency, as they may find expedient, and to make the bonds, debentures, or other securities they shall grant for the sums so borrowed, payable either in currency or in sterling with interest, and at such place or places within or without this Province as they may deem advisable, and such bonds, debentures or other securities may be made payable to bearer, or transferable by simple endorsement or otherwise, and may be in such form as the Directors for the time being may see fit; and the said Directors may hypothecate, mortgage or pledge the lands, revenues and other property of the said Corporation, for the due payment of the said sums and the interest thereon: Provided always, that such Corporation shall not be allowed to borrow any part of the said sum of twenty thousand pounds, until at least one-half of the said capital stock of the said Corporation hereinbefore authorized be paid up and available for the use of the Corporation; and provided also, that no such bonds or debentures shall be issued by such Corporation for any amount less than one hundred pounds currency.
