MINDS. Mind your tongue! Don't let it speak hasty, cruel, unkind or wicked words. Mind your eyes! Don't permit them to look on wicked books, pictures or objects. Mind your ears! Don't suffer them to listen to wicked speeches, songs or words. Mind your hands! Don't let them steal or fight, or write any evil words. Mind your feet! Don't let them walk in the steps of the wicked. Mind your heart! Don't let the love of sin grow in it.

THE SLEEPY SONG. By Josephine Dodge Daskam. As soon as the fire burns red and low, And the house upstairs is still, She sings me a queer little sleepy song, Of sleep that go over the hill. The good little sheep run quick and soft. Their colors are gray and white; They follow their leader nose to tail, For they must be home by night.

REFLECTIONS OF A SMALL BOY. I wonder why a boy's "so bad" When he is only havin' fun. An' only good when he is sad, Because his ma won't let him run An' have a real good time like he. Just wants to do, 'cause it won't make him any worse to let him be. Like other fellers that you see.

THE TRAVELING DOLL. (By Emma F. Bush.) Helen sat gazing out of the window. Her little white hands were clasped listlessly in her lap, and there was a decided droop to her mouth. Out of doors the sun was shining, and a bed of pansies under the window nodded blithely to her in a morning greeting. Her little kitten raced up and down the walk, chasing the dead leaves as the breeze blew them about.

One morning Helen saw the doctor coming up the walk, and rushed to meet him and learn the latest news from her traveling child. "Ethel May," announced the doctor, "is home-sick, and I have come to take you to her." "It did not take Helen many minutes to get ready to go with the doctor to the city, and soon they were in the hospital ward where lay the little sick girl who had come there with Ethel May. They stopped before a bed by the window in which was the little patient the doctor had come to visit, and Ethel May. It did not take the little girl long to get acquainted, and the doctor left Helen with little Julia while he was busy elsewhere. One of the pleasant-faced nurses gave them a nice lunch, and then, under her care, Helen and Ethel May visited each child in the ward, and Helen was very sorry when the doctor came to take her home. "I think," she said, "Ethel May's clothes are getting shabby, and I had better take her home for mama and Aunt Mollie to make some new ones. The doctor can bring her back again when they are finished." So Ethel May went with her mama, but only for a visit, and then the doctor carried her to the hospital again. "That was several years ago, but Ethel May still travels from bed to bed in the hospital, coming home twice a year for a new wardrobe, and a new wig (given by the doctor); and she has grown so accustomed to traveling that Helen says she knows just as long as she holds together Ethel May will insist on seeing the world. S. S. Times.

THE GRIZZLY OF OLD DAYS. (From J. M. Gleeson's "The Grizzly Bear" in March St. Nicholas.) In the old days, before the deadly magazine rifle was invented, hunting the grizzly was a very difficult affair, and no animal on the American continent was more dreaded, his ferocity and vital force when wounded filling the most reckless of hunters with a wholesome dread. It was not at all unusual for a grizzly with a bullet through his heart to pursue and tear to pieces the hunter, whose long single-barreled muzzle-loading rifle, with its one round lead bullet, was altogether inadequate for such a contest. It is a strange thing, too, that while the grizzly bear is an omnivorous feeder, living on anything from roots and nuts to steer and buffalo meat, he has never been known to devour human flesh.

Driving the Grizzly West. (From J. M. Gleeson's "The Grizzly Bear" in March St. Nicholas.) In the days of Kit Carson the grizzly had not learned to look upon man as a foe to be shunned at any cost, but the quick firing magazine rifle has taught him that if he possibly can he must keep out of man's sight. He has now been driven back into the almost inaccessible solitudes of the northwestern Rocky Mountains, and the sportsman who wishes to add his pelt and dangling necklace of claws to his collection of hunting trophies must travel far and endure much hardship and labor for "old Ephraim," as he was called by the Western pioneers, is as cunning as he is fierce.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE BEATEN AGAIN. Mary Malcolm's Life Was Measured by Days and Hours. Dodd's Kidney Pills Had Her Able to be out in a Week. Another Remarkable Cure Brought Out by the Collingwood and Eglinton Cases.

Toronto, Feb. 15.—(Special).—The interest in medical circles here over the cures of Mrs. Adams, of Collingwood, and Mrs. Phillip, of Eglinton, of Bright's Disease, has been given fresh fuel by another and yet more startling cure of that same terrible ailment. This latest case is that of a young girl, Mary Malcolm, who lives with her parents at 189 Marlborough avenue, this city. DEATH SEEMED SURE. This cure is little short of miraculous. Miss Malcolm was in the clutches of Bright's Disease from May until September, and had sunk so low that her life was measured by days if not by hours. Hope had given place to a certainty of death, and her friends had turned to the sad task of preparing her grave clothes. These last ghastly garments are now in the house, but Mary Malcolm is a strong hearty maiden who can look on them without even a shudder of fear. Dodd's Kidney Pills effected the change. Here is the story as told by the girl's mother, Mrs. W. Malcolm: "My daughter, Mary, who is now fourteen years old, was taken suddenly ill with Bright's Disease in May, 1902. We had the doctor and continued with him till September, 1902, when he said he could do nothing more for her. She was so swollen with Dropsy as to be almost unrecognizable. CURE WAS QUICK. "From a book dropped in at the door, we learned of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and as a last resort determined to try them. They gave her relief from the very beginning, so much so that in one week we were able to take her out to Munro Park for an afternoon. "After taking four boxes she was entirely cured and she has never had the slightest relapse. We can never say too much for Dodd's Kidney Pills, as they certainly saved my daughter's life. "And Mary, the daughter on whom Bright's Disease had pronounced the sentence of death, now a picture of healthy girlhood, smiled a cheerful assent to her mother's statement and chimed in: "If I am ever sick again I will take nothing but Dodd's Kidney Pills." It is hardly necessary to add that proof piled on proof has convinced the public that Bright's Disease is curable and that Dodd's Kidney Pills are the cure; that if the disease is of the Kidneys or from the Kidneys the one infallible remedy is Dodd's Kidney Pills.

The Rheumatic Wonder of the Age BENEDICTINE SALVE

This Salve Cures Rheumatism, Felons or Blood Poisoning. It is a Sure Remedy for Any of These Diseases.

A FEW TESTIMONIALS

Toronto, Sept. 18, 1904. John O'Connor, Toronto: DEAR SIR—I wish to testify to the merits of Benedictine Salve as a cure for rheumatism. I had been a sufferer from rheumatism for some time and after having used Benedictine Salve for a few days was completely cured. 188 King street East, Toronto, Nov. 21, 1903. John O'Connor, Esq., Toronto: DEAR SIR—I am deeply grateful to the friend that suggested to me, when I was a cripple from Rheumatism, Benedictine Salve. I have at intervals during the last ten years been afflicted with muscular rheumatism, I have experimented with every available remedy and have consulted 5 might say, every physician of repute, without perceivable benefit. When I was advised to use your Benedictine Salve, I was a helpless cripple. In less than 48 hours I was in a position to resume my work, that of a tinsmith. A work that requires a certain amount of bodily activity. I am thankful to my friend who advised me and I am more than gratified to be able to furnish you with this testimonial as to the efficacy of Benedictine Salve. Yours truly, GEO. FOGG, Tremont House, Yonge street, Nov. 1, 1904. John O'Connor, Esq., Toronto: DEAR SIR—it is with pleasure that I write this unsolicited testimonial, and in doing so I can say that your Benedictine Salve has done more for me in one week than anything I have done for the last five years. My ailment was muscular rheumatism. I applied the salve as directed, and I got speedy relief. I can assure you that at the present time I am free of pain. I can recommend any person afflicted with Rheumatism to give it a trial. I am, Yours truly, (Signed) S. JOHNSON, 288 Victoria Street, Toronto, Oct. 31, 1902. John O'Connor, Esq., Nealon House, City: DEAR SIR—I cannot speak too highly of your Benedictine Salve. It has done for me in three days what doctors and medicines have been trying to do for years. When I first used it I had been confined to my bed with a spell of rheumatism and sciatica for nine weeks; a friend recommended your salve. I tried it and it completely knocked rheumatism right out of my system. I can cheerfully recommend it as the best medicine on the market for rheumatic. I believe it has no equal. Yours sincerely, JOHN MCGROGAN, 478 Gerrard Street East Toronto, Ont., Sept. 18, 1902. John O'Connor, Esq., Nealon House, Toronto Ont.: DEAR SIR—I have great pleasure in recommending the Benedictine Salve as a sure cure for lumbago. When I was taken down with it I called in my doctor, and he told me it would be a long time before I would be around again. My husband bought a box of the Benedictine Salve, and applied it according to directions. In three hours I got relief, and in four days was able to do my work. I would be pleased to recommend it to any one suffering from Lumbago. I am, your truly, (MRS.) JAS. COGGROVE, 7 Laurier Avenue, Toronto, December 18, 1901. John O'Connor, Esq., Toronto, Ont.: DEAR SIR—After suffering for over ten years with both forms of Piles, I was asked to try Benedictine Salve. From the first application I got instant relief, and before using one box was thoroughly cured. I can strongly recommend Benedictine Salve to any one suffering with piles. Yours sincerely, JOS. WESTMAN, 12 Bright Street, Toronto, Jan. 18, 1903. John O'Connor, Esq., Toronto: DEAR SIR—it is with pleasure I write this word of testimony to the marvellous merits of Benedictine Salve as a certain cure for Rheumatism. There is such a multitude of alleged Rheumatic cures advertised that one is inclined to be skeptical of the merits of any new preparation, I was induced to give Benedictine Salve a trial and must say that after suffering for eight years from Rheumatism it has, I believe, effected an absolute and permanent cure. It is perhaps needless to say that in the last eight years I have consulted a number of doctors and have tried a large number of other medicines advertised, without receiving any benefit. Yours respectfully, MRS. SIMPSON, 68 Carlton Street, Toronto, Feb. 1, 1902. John O'Connor, Esq., 189 King Street East: I was a sufferer for four months from acute rheumatism in my left arm; my physician called regularly and prescribed for it, but gave me no relief. My brother, who appeared to have faith in your Benedictine Salve, gave enough of it to apply twice to my arm. I used it first on a Thursday night, and applied it again on Friday night. This was in the latter part of November. Since then (over two months) I have not had a trace of rheumatism. I feel that you are entitled to this testimonial as to the efficacy of Benedictine Salve in removing rheumatic pains. Yours sincerely, M. A. COWAN, Toronto, Dec. 6th, 1902. John O'Connor, Esq., Toronto: DEAR SIR—it is with pleasure I write this unsolicited testimonial, and in doing so I can say to the world that your Benedictine Salve thoroughly cured me of Bleeding Piles. I suffered for nine months. I consulted a physician, one of the best, and he gave me a box of salve and said that if that did not cure me, I would have to go under an operation. It failed, but a friend of mine learned by chance that I was suffering from Bleeding Piles. He told me he could get me a cure and he was true to his word. He got me a box of Benedictine Salve and it gave me relief at once and cured me in a few days. I am now completely cured. It is worth its weight in gold. I cannot but feel proud after suffering so long. It has given me thorough cure and I am sure it will never return. I can strongly recommend it to anyone afflicted as I was. It will cure without fail. I can be called on for living proof. I am, Yours, etc., ALLAN J. ARTINGDALE, with the Boston Laundry, 25 1/2 King Street East, Toronto, December 18, 1902. John O'Connor, Esq., Toronto: DEAR SIR—After trying several doctors and spending forty-five days at the General Hospital, without any benefit, I was induced to try your Benedictine Salve, and sincerely believe that this is the greatest remedy in the world for rheumatism. When I left the hospital I was just able to stand for a few seconds, but after using your Benedictine Salve for three days, I went out on the street again and now, after using it just over a week, I am able to go to work again. If anyone should doubt these facts, send him to me and I will prove it to him. Yours forever thankful, PETER AUSTINA, Toronto, April 16, 1902. Mr. John O'Connor: DEAR SIR—I do heartily recommend your Benedictine Salve as a sure cure for rheumatism, as I was sorely afflicted with that sad disease in my arm, and it was so bad that I could not dress myself. When I heard about your salve, I got a box of it, and to my surprise I found great relief, and I used what I got and now can attend to my daily household duties, and I heartily recommend it to anyone that is troubled with the same disease. You have this from me with hearty thanks and do with it as you please for the benefit of the afflicted. Yours truly, MRS. JAMES FLEMING, 14 Spruce street, Toronto, Toronto, April 16th, 1902. J. O'Connor, Esq., City: DEAR SIR—it gives me the greatest pleasure to be able to testify to the curative powers of your Benedictine Salve. For a month back my hand was so badly swollen that I was unable to work, and the pain was so intense as to be almost unbearable. Three days after using your Salve as directed, I am able to go to work, and I cannot thank you enough. Respectfully yours, J. J. CLAREN, 72 Wolseley street, Address C. R. JOHN O'CONNOR, 189 KING ST. E. FOR SALE BY WM. J. NICHOL, Druggist, 17 King St. E. J. A. JOHNSON & CO., 171 King St. E. Price, 25 per box.

THE LENTEN SEASON.

Yesterday the Lenten season opened. The instructions issued to the faithful in the various dioceses of Ontario are marked by no changes from past years.

PRINCIPAL LOUDON AND THE IRISH.

That was a rough thrust President Loudon gave the exiled Irish at Mr. William Butler Yeats' lecture, when he said they have forgotten both the saints and the fairies.

The Register congratulates Manager McCabe. WAR AND CIVILIZATION. When Japanese official representatives in the United States and England ask that sympathy and friendship be shown their country for the sake of civilization, it becomes time to enquire how long Japan has been the seminary of civilization?

It may be that the Irish in Canada are too often urged to forget they are Irish and remember only that they are Canadians. But we observe that the very persons who are most persistent monitors of a common Canadian nationality are also the most patriotic souls among the Sons of Scotland, the Sons of England and the Liederkranz.

WANDERING PRAYERS.

A priest in an outlying parish sends us the copy of a written "Prayer to St. Joseph" which appears to have received circulation through the well-worn "chain" plan. He writes: "It is strange how some people will so readily take to these "fake" prayers and devotions, whereas it may be hard to get them to take interest in the genuine." Catholics at all events can have no excuse on the score of lacking proper instruction with regard to prayer.

WAR NEWS.

The underground cables from the sunken battleships at Port Arthur and other vantage points adjacent to the seat of war are being kept red-hot with hair-raising stories of blood and field that thrill our supposedly blood-thirsty hearts in these Lenten days.

It would, of course, be in the highest degree unpatriotic to imagine that the newspapers are at all wicked or capable of bringing about the realization of some of their--for the present at least--imaginary horrors.

The first movement of the coming expansion is announced this week in the opening of a west-end branch, at the corner of Queen and Hackney streets, under the management of a trusted and well-known employe of the company, Mr. James W. McCabe.

Civilization has little to expect from either, should victory bring in its train the almost limitless possibilities of dominion over a unified low race.
