

ITALY WELCOMED INTO THE WAR; GREECE MUST FULFIL HER TREATY

Bulgarians are Concentrating Troops to Ward off a Threatening Roumanian Invasion.

New York, Oct. 20.—A news agency dispatch from Geneva, Switzerland, published here to-day says: "The Serbians have repulsed the Austro-Germans north of Shabatiz it was reported to-day from Bucharest, the capital of Roumania."

Berlin, Oct. 20.—(By wireless to Sayville)—Capture by the Bulgarians of 2,000 prisoners and 12 cannon in Serbia is announced to-day by the German war office.

Rome, via Paris, Oct. 20.—Italy's declaration of war against Bulgaria is welcomed by the newspapers as cutting short the rumors abroad that Italy intended to pursue an independent policy as far as the Balkans were concerned.

London, Oct. 20.—The Daily News says this morning: "It is understood that the government has made strong representations to Greece that the declaration is also considered by the newspapers to show that the Balkan expedition is being taken seriously by the allies and that Italy would not have declared war against Bulgaria unless she had received a satisfactory explanation as to their strategic plans."

Paris, Oct. 20.—The Saloniki correspondent of the Havas Agency sends the following despatch under Tuesday's date: "French troops have received orders not to pass the Bulgarian frontier, Strumitza has not been occupied by the allies. "The Bulgarian troops are concentrating troops in haste to Dobrudja, supposedly because Roumania appears to be leaning more towards the entente. At the same time three divisions of Bulgarian troops are being concentrated on the Greek frontier."

London, Oct. 20.—It is reported from Frankfurt that the Central powers have decided to undertake still another campaign, this time against Montenegro. According to this report forwarded from Amsterdam by a correspondent of the Central News, 20,000 Austrian and German infantrymen with artillery, have arrived from Galicia at Sarajevo, in Bosnia, about 40 miles north of the Montenegrin border.

London, Oct. 20.—A despatch from the Petrograd correspondent of Reuters Telegram Company, says: "The Official Messenger will tomorrow publish a long communication from the Russian Government concerning the role played by King Ferdinand, who remained a German prince although reigning in Bulgaria. The communication terminates thus: "During almost thirty years the Prince of Coburg has stood between Russia and Bulgaria. Throughout this period Russia never ceased to hope that his ties would at last open their eyes, and now when Bulgaria sacrifices itself to German perfidy Russia still has not abandoned the hope that the Bulgarians, faithful to their historic traditions, will not lift their hands against the sons of the Russian warriors who died for Bulgaria."

Russia Declares War Officially on Bulgars

Issues Imperial Manifesto, Under Date of October 18, Reviewing the Friendly Services of Russia for Bulgaria in the Past and Scoring Ferdinand.

Petrograd, Oct. 20.—(Noon)—Via London.—An imperial manifesto declaring war against Bulgaria appeared to-day under date of October 18. It was accompanied by a communication reviewing the friendly services of Russia for Bulgaria in the past and pointing out the "treacherous" declaration of King Ferdinand. This communication says: "When Turkey and Bulgaria were threatened with war on account of financial relations, the Russian Government intervened in the Turkish debt, whereby the latter on advantageous conditions, was freed of all obligations to Turkey."

London, Oct. 2.—Cabinet ministers again were bombarded with war questions in the House of Commons to-day, but for the most part they managed to escape an intended frontal attack. In the course of the replies, it developed that the officer who commanded the landing of British troops at Sulva Bay, on the Gallipoli peninsula, has been shelved and that he holds no command in the army at present, but Harold J. Tennant, parliamentary under secretary for war, declined to give further information on the ground that it would be against public interest.

London, Oct. 20.—A committee of the cabinet known as the war committee met Tuesday afternoon and was joined by Alexandre Millerand, French minister of war, Paul Cambon, French ambassador to Great Britain, and M. Millerand's secretary. The committee sat for an hour and a half after which another cabinet council was held at the House of Commons. Nothing was made public regarding the circumstances calling for two cabinet meetings in the same day, as well as the conference of the war committee with the French war minister, but it may be assumed that they had to do with the development of the military situation in the Near East.

Paris, Oct. 20, 4.30 p.m.—One hundred persons were killed or injured in an explosion in a factory in Rue de Tolbiac this afternoon, according to a report at the prefecture of police.

ASQUITH'S ILLNESS CALMS POLITICS; CABINET TOO LARGE, THINKS LONDON

BRANTFORD WOUNDED The following names appeared in the casualty list to-day of Brantford men:

A. ALBERT PEARSON, R. R. No. 4, Brantford. WM. H. EDMONDSON, 466 Colborne St. GERALD VATH, 9 Dundas Street.

Russian Minister Very Ill. Amsterdam, via London, Oct. 20.—A despatch from Sofia says the illness of A. Savinsky, the Russian minister at Sofia, has become considerably aggravated, and that Premier Radoslavoff has sent his secretary to the legation to express his sympathy. M. Savinsky was recently operated on for appendicitis.

Rev. D. M. Higbee and his son, of Shedd, are both students at Albany College, Oregon, this year.

Considerable Comment on Sir Edward Carson's Resignation—Times Advocates Smaller Cabinet.

LONDON, Oct. 20, 3.30 p.m.—Sir Edward Carson announced in the House of Commons to-day that his resignation from the Attorney-Generalship was due to divergence of views in regard to near-Eastern affairs.

The prime minister passed a satisfactory night. His condition improved. He will be confined to his room all day.

London, Oct. 20.—Premier Asquith's illness has had the effect of producing a greater air of calm in political circles than would otherwise have attended the resignation of Sir Edward Carson from the attorney-generalship, and from present appearances there will be no more resignations from the cabinet.

It is quite likely that Premier Asquith's absence will be extended to nine and ten days, and this enforced cessation of political activity is expected to give time for the reconciliation of the differences. It seems that Sir Edward Carson had intended to make a statement yesterday, but the premier's illness resulted in Sir Edward deciding to postpone it until Mr. Asquith's return to the House of Commons.

REASON NOT KNOWN There are many conflicting statements current concerning the real reason for Sir Edward's resignation. The Daily Mail affirms that it is nothing to do with the question of compulsory service. The Chronicle is firmly convinced, it says, that it was because of the cabinet's needless delay in arriving at a decision in favor of compulsory service. The Times says that his resignation was more directly concerned with the eastern war than with recruiting, and adds: "Sir Edward Carson always held strong views on the need for energy and forethought in meeting the German menace in the Balkans; if he goes alone it is probably due to the fact that there is room for the fiercest and difference as to the actual course to be followed in the immediate future. When Sir Edward Carson comes to define his position in public, it will probably be found that his main objection to remaining in the cabinet is the profound conviction that the present machinery of government is incapable of waging war successfully. With the best intentions in the world, a cabinet of twenty-two members meeting irregularly for discussion is virtually "debarred" from rapid judgment and energetic action."

CABINET TOO LARGE This complaint regarding the unwieldiness of the cabinet for war purposes is echoed by the Morning Post which says editorially: "The whole thing is rotten, and the best men in the country should unite to make an end of it."

The Post declares that the coalition cabinet failed because it was formed not on a national, but on party lines, the men being chosen not for their qualities, but on the basis of so many men representing one party and so many another. The Post advocates a small and efficient cabinet, including such men as David Lloyd George, Sir Edward Carson and Earl Kitchener "for the purpose of fighting Germany and the purpose of keeping two inefficient political parties in a state of suspended animation."

Many other papers advocate a smaller cabinet, and it is said that when the successor to Sir Edward Carson is appointed he probably will no longer hold cabinet rank. The consensus making the attorney-general a member of the cabinet was only made when Lord Reading was appointed to the position. Before that time the attorney-general was not in the cabinet.

It is generally believed, though not actually settled, that Sir Frederick Smith, solicitor-general, will succeed Sir Edward Carson, George Cave, Unionist member of parliament, succeeding Sir Frederick as solicitor-general. The Daily Express says it regards these appointments as certain, and asserts that the crisis is ended.

TOO MUCH DARDANELLES The uncertainty regarding the Dardanelles operations has been increased by the explanation by Harold J. Tennant, parliamentary under secretary for war in parliament yesterday that the recently announced figures showing nearly 50,000 casualties at the Dardanelles, did not include the sick. This, he explained, was because the number of sick varied from day to day, and could not be counted. With the example of the Dardanelles expedition, many members of parliament expressed anxiety about the success of the Serbian expedition, fearing that a similar mistake would be made. In this connection the Daily News prints a rumor that General Sir Ian Hamilton, recently relieved as commander of the British land forces at the Dardanelles, already has arrived in England.

The newspapers continue to laud the appointment of Major-General Sir Charles Carmichael Munro as successor.

Constantinople, Oct. 19, via London Oct. 20.—The following official statement was issued by the Turkish War Office to-night: "On the Dardanelles front our reconnoitering parties attacked the enemy on Sunday and threw them back to their main trenches, causing heavy losses."

"Local artillery and bomb engagements occurred at Ari Burnu and Sedul Bahr. There was nothing of importance elsewhere."

MAYOR SPENCE ISSUES AN APPEAL TO SUPPORT THE RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

Brantford Hitherto Has Met Nobly Many Demands Made Upon Her Citizens in This Mighty War—Aid Given to the British Red Cross Reaches All the Soldiers and Sailors of the Empire.

The following letter from Mayor Spence, addressed to the citizens of Brantford, making a special appeal for the British Red Cross, needs no further introduction. Brantford will not deny the call.

Brantford, Oct. 20th, 1915. To the Citizens of Brantford: Brantford has nobly met the many demands made upon her citizens, in this mighty struggle for freedom and liberty in which our great Empire is engaged.

As Mayor of your city, I am asked by His Honour, the Lieutenant-Governor, Sir John MacKay, to make at this particular time an appeal for funds for the British Red Cross Society, which is urgently in need of money to carry on its splendid work among the tens of thousands of sick and wounded sailors and soldiers who fill our hospitals. While the present call comes direct from the headquarters of the Red Cross of the British Empire, the aid given by the British Red Cross Society of course reaches all the soldiers and sailors of the Empire, as well as those of our brave Allies among the former are our own gallant Canadian soldiers. That you will be liberal in your gifts to this great Imperial cry of help from the Motherland there is no doubt, and that we as citizens can subscribe something to alleviate the sufferings of our gallant men at the front is our greatest pride.

The call to arms has met with a ready response by hundreds of our young men, and the appeal for Patriotic funds has had a most generous answer from our citizens.

I wish to extend civic appreciation and gratitude to the Ladies' Committee, Boy Scouts, and other organizations who have cheerfully given assistance whenever required.

Trusting that the response of Brantford to the Red Cross appeal on this momentous occasion will be equal to your former generosity. J. H. Spence, Mayor.

PLANNING FINANCIAL MATTERS

In Petrograd, Government and Banks Getting Together.

London, Oct. 20.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Times sends the following: "A conference has been held between Pierre L. Bark, Russian minister of finance, and representatives of the principal Petrograd and Moscow banks, to consider credit operations and the position of the Russian exchange. They decided against any lottery and in favor of a short term loan, the details of which will be settled by the finance committee to-day."

BRANTFORD MAY WELL HAVE PRIDE

Lieut. Geo. Cockshutt Pays High Tribute to Local Men on Service.

Extracts from a letter received from Lieut. George T. Cockshutt by Mr. Hilton MacKay, written from Belgium under date of September 27: "The line around here is very quiet at the present moment but you never know when the shells, bombs and bullets will start falling from the clear sky. Life in the trenches is not so bad when it is dry, and we are quite comfortable as these trenches are wonderfully constructed. The major (Bery) and Captain had a very narrow escape the other day, and I had one casualty in my platoon (slightly wounded). We are now back in billets for six days, washing, resting, getting some clean clothes and a change of air. You know that there is a big move on just now, and we expect to move up again to-morrow night instead of next Sunday, so if we get into this 'big scrap' we are bound to have a lot of casualties. I hope that we can keep them going, and I know that they will never come through again unless it is over our dead bodies. I have the finest possible bunch of men and consider it a great honor to be able to lead them into battle. If I should go under in this big action, remember that I died fighting and gave the best that was in me. Percy Jones, Fred Miller, Col. Colquhoun, Towers and Scott. I see several other officers of the 4th came over to see us yesterday, and they were all well. Big scrap we are proud of the boys whom she has sent to the front."

JACK SIMMONS WRITES HOME FROM TRENCHES

Interesting Letter Received From Him by His Parents.

The following interesting letter has been received from their son at the front by Mr. and Mrs. F. Simmons, 114 Clarence street: Somewhere in France, September 26, 1915. Dear Mother and Father—Just discovered that to-day was Sunday, 4 o'clock in the afternoon. They don't believe in "six days shalt thou labor," etc., over here. I have been in the fighting line all week and am getting quite used to it. Yesterday was a big day all along the British and Canadian line, as you will have read about long before you get this letter. Some scrap. Action started at 5 o'clock in the morning, and soon after we all took to the dug-outs, on account of the German shell fire. Our headquarters is in a house just below a hill, so they can't reach it with their Jack Johnsons etc., on account of the sharp angle down from the crest of our protecting ridge. We have all very comfortable sleeping places and safe for the present. You know yesterday we advanced, taking the German trenches along the whole line, and in some places breaking right through. I candidly believe that the Germans will be retreating before long from what I know of things and information, which I cannot give you. It won't be long before we have them on the run. We put over twenty shells to every one that they send in answer. Well, so much for the war. I'd rather talk about something else for a change. Have quite enough to do with that subject. I like the climate of France much better than England. It has been delightful weather for the last week except for one night, and much warmer than on the other side of the Channel. It really has been hotter the last few days than it was in England all summer. We are getting plenty to eat, but of course no luxuries, except salt and

London Standard Says "We are in a Hole"

Latest Reports From Near East Indicate Serbia in Great Danger—Railroad Cut Between Saloniki and Nish—No News of Allied Army.

London, Oct. 20.—"We are in a hole," says the military correspondent of the Evening Standard, commenting on the present situation. "It is not the first time we have been in a hole, for it was touched and go at Cambrai and Landreies on August 26, 1914, and again in Flanders a year ago, but we did not know it then. This time we do know it. "We have lost faith in the ability of our statesmen and in the strategic conduct of the war, in the willingness of the people to support the war, three or four very serious questions, now exercise the minds of politicians, and public alike and threaten to wreck the government; in France the best known minister has resigned in disgust, public opinion is badly shaken."

Four great powers are full of goodwill for one another, but each is a law unto itself. On the enemy's side we have unity of purpose, singleness of control and constant willingness to sacrifice everything and to take all risks. The Germans have been held up here and repulsed there, but they can claim that whereas they have never been badly beaten anywhere, the battle of the Marne, they have added Poland to their conquests and threaten to over-run Serbia."

SERBIA OVERUN. London, Oct. 20.—Latest reports from the Near East indicate that Serbia is in deadly danger of being overwhelmed by the armies of her neighbor. No less than eight Bulgarian forces have crossed into Serbian territory.

Audience Which Overflowed Wellington Street Church
 Last Night Listened to Famous Western Canada
 Speaker Outline Progress of Legislation on Prairies.

Wellington St. Methodist church was filled to overflowing last night, all seats on the main floor and in the galleries being filled early in the evening and many late comers had to stand in the aisles and doorways. When Mrs. Mc Chung, who is well known throughout the Canadian West, Mrs. Mc Chung's reputation as a speaker on this subject which is causing so much agitation in this fair land of ours at the present time, was well known before hand, as was evidenced by the enthusiastic multitude of citizens who assembled to greet her and hear from the lips of one who is devoting her whole time and energy to the great work, details of the famous campaign now being carried on in Western Canada.

Strict attention prevailed while Mrs. Mc Chung, in tones that carried conviction, outlined a number of points in favor of provincial prohibition. Mrs. Mc Chung told how much depended on the co-operation of the whole of Canada on this vital question, and how the event of its being carried in one province, adjoining provinces would not be able to sell or smuggle it across their borders to their neighbors and into and hand to the whole of Canada. She leaves that we are on the eve of a great upheaval of public sentiment; people were gradually waking up to the amount of misery and degradation of poverty caused by the liquor traffic. "Thy Will Be Done" is a battle cry—a call to arms and we should be always up and doing. The present great war with its horrors and atrocities is one of the things which cannot be helped, but let us not sit down with folded hands; let us rise ourselves and by honest effort accomplish the great aim, the abolition of the liquor which causes so much of the poverty and suffering right in our midst. Ontario, said Mrs. Mc Chung, is regarded by the people of Western Canada, as the home of education, religion and refinement. You have sent preachers, professors and many of your boys, and although she believed they were near to prohibition there than here, she did not think it was because they were any more moral or religious, but because they were stirring themselves, and not heeding the liquor men who were continually bringing forth arguments, saying prohibition would be more bottle business and people would be breaking the laws in running blind pigs, etc. The liquor men also say (as if they dug down into their own pockets for it), see the amount of revenue that the country would be losing, if the liquor business is not a paying proposition in the way of its intoxicating liquors, when with their brains befuddled they commit acts of violence. Mrs. Mc Chung, to show that the liquor business is not a paying proposition in the way of its intoxicating liquors, when with their brains befuddled they commit acts of violence. London, Oct. 20.—Lord Derby, whom the Government has entrusted with the task of solving the recruiting problem, in addressing a mass meeting at the Mansion House yesterday gave the gist of the plan with which he hopes to meet the situation. "I suggest," he said "that every man of recognized ability in the States should be called on to call on his services for her protection should enlist at once. All those found physically fit and wishing to join the colors at once could do so, and the remainder continue at their usual vocations, subject to call when needed." Unmarried and married men, Lord Derby explained, would be put into separate groups, and the bachelors called first. Married men would be called later, according to age. By such a system, he pointed out, there would be no sudden, unmanageable number of recruits, but a steady supply as needed by Earl Kitchener. "Someone had asked the speaker, he said, why recruiting was an urgent necessity, to which he replied: "Look at Lord Derby said that a fortnight would be allowed men who were called to adjust their private affairs. He hoped that with a proper response it would be unnecessary to call the older married men in any event, these older men would so far as practicable be placed in the medical and transport units. "This is an honest attempt," declared Lord Derby, "to give every man a chance to do his duty—a last effort in behalf of voluntary service. I believe yet that the voluntary system can be made an unequalled success, but there is no time to lose."

which clutched its throat at the beginning of the war that they might be better fitted to cope with the enemy. So let us co-operate and untangle the iron fingers of strong drink which is carrying the country down. Germany said to Belgium 'let us march over our land; we wish you no harm; it is the countries beyond we wish to get at. Belgians answer you all know. She said what we have written down we will write with our own blood if necessary. The liquor traffic puts up the same appeal; let us march over you; let things go. It is up to us to show whether we will submit or not. Belgium pointed out that the weak have rights, if they are not able to enforce them. Let us try and do something at home. Mrs. Mc Chung had once been asked which was the greatest temptation the battle at the bar or the bottle in the cellar, some contending that this would drive drinking to the home, to which she replied that while women were powerless to take the bottle out of the bar, they would look after it in the cellar.

Mrs. Mc Chung has a pleasing personality, gives a dramatic touch to her utterances, and is somewhat of a mimic. Altogether she is a most forceful speaker. Rev. Mr. Woodside acted as chairman and on the platform with him were Mr. Fred Mann, president of the Brant County Temperance alliance and Rev. Dr. Henderson, the pastor of the church. Miss Hilda Hurley rendered a pleasing solo. Mrs. Woodside announced that the collection, after necessary expenses were deducted, would be given to the Red Cross work. The response was a liberal one.

LAST CALL OF
 OF RECRUITING

Lord Derby Explains How
 He Hopes to Raise Enough Men.

London, Oct. 20.—Lord Derby, whom the Government has entrusted with the task of solving the recruiting problem, in addressing a mass meeting at the Mansion House yesterday gave the gist of the plan with which he hopes to meet the situation. "I suggest," he said "that every man of recognized ability in the States should be called on to call on his services for her protection should enlist at once. All those found physically fit and wishing to join the colors at once could do so, and the remainder continue at their usual vocations, subject to call when needed." Unmarried and married men, Lord Derby explained, would be put into separate groups, and the bachelors called first. Married men would be called later, according to age. By such a system, he pointed out, there would be no sudden, unmanageable number of recruits, but a steady supply as needed by Earl Kitchener. "Someone had asked the speaker, he said, why recruiting was an urgent necessity, to which he replied: "Look at Lord Derby said that a fortnight would be allowed men who were called to adjust their private affairs. He hoped that with a proper response it would be unnecessary to call the older married men in any event, these older men would so far as practicable be placed in the medical and transport units. "This is an honest attempt," declared Lord Derby, "to give every man a chance to do his duty—a last effort in behalf of voluntary service. I believe yet that the voluntary system can be made an unequalled success, but there is no time to lose."

Women's Institute

The monthly meeting of the Brant Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. David Derby, on the beautiful afternoon of Sept. 23. The president being absent, Mrs. Emmert Campbell, very capably presided. The meeting opened by singing the opening ode, followed by roll call. Miss Eva Campbell pleased all present with a piano solo, after which Mrs. Wilson Campbell gave a most interesting paper on "The Other Women." The young ladies favored us with a chorus, after which the singing of God Save the King brought the meeting to a close, and the hostess served dainty refreshments. Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Russell Hartley with the program in the hands of Mrs. Peter McIntyre and Mrs. M. Hayes. Any donations in the line of food or clothing will be gladly received to continue charity work which has been undertaken.

DRAGGED TO DEATH IN A RUNAWAY

Miss Nettie Anderson of South Dumfries met with a shocking death just before noon yesterday. Miss Anderson, together with other sisters, had driven into Paris, when one took the train for London. When about two miles from Paris, on the West River Road, on their return, the horse they were driving stumbled, and in pulling him up the bit broke, causing the animal to run into the ditch, throwing the occupants out. Miss Anderson was caught in the gearing and dragged for about a mile to their home, and when found life was extinct. Her sister, who was with her, escaped unhurt. She leaves one brother and four sisters, all on the homestead. The funeral will take place on Friday afternoon.

The Soldiers' Saint
 Always in Trenches

Rifleman S. O'Neill, 1st Royal Irish Rifles, tells in a letter to a friend of the gallantry of the chaplain, who has accompanied the regiment to the trenches. "Our chaplain," he says, "is not an Army chaplain, but a volunteer who came from Winchester, in England, with us, and a regular saint. His name is the Rev. S. S. Knapp, and he is always in the trenches with the regiment. "He has faced death at least forty times since we came out. "No other clergymen have I seen in the front trenches but himself—hearing confessions, and bullets in showers like hailstones passing over the heads of the penitents and confessor. "This is what makes soldiers fight well and die calm. When they have the loads of their conscience, their minds are easy and they don't fear death."

A Famous Phrase Was Not Original

The well-known phrase "government of the people, by the people, for the people" occurred in Abraham Lincoln's speech at the dedication of the National Cemetery, in November, 1863. But as a correspondent of the Church Family Newspaper recalls, it was used by Robespierre during the discussion on the rights of man when he said: "We must remember that governments, such as they are, are established by the people, and for the people. That those who govern, and consequently the kings themselves, are only proxies and delegates of the people. We must remember that the functions of all political powers, and consequently of royalty, are public duties and not personal rights." Robespierre died in 1794. Lincoln himself was born in 1809, and it is suggested as likely that the "incarnation of the people and of modern democracy" had made a careful study of Robespierre's speeches.

NEW COMMANDER HAS NEPHEWS IN CITY OF TORONTO

Maj.-Gen. Munro is Thinker and Strategist, Not Dashing Field Officer.

Toronto, Oct. 20.—Major-General C. Munro, who is to take the place of Sir Ian Hamilton in command of the forces at the Dardanelles, has two nephews in Toronto. These are Mr. E. Wylie Grier, the artist, and Mr. A. Munro Grier, barrister. While these two gentlemen are naturally proud of their maternal uncle, they are rather sensitive in saying much about the matter.

Mr. Wylie Grier speaks modestly of his connection with the eminent soldier. "Of course it is nice to feel that you belong to good stock," said Mr. Grier, "I will say one thing about my uncle's appointment; he is not a dashing field officer like Sir Ian Hamilton. The Turks will have a thinker and a strategist to deal with."

General Munro has served in Belgium and France throughout the present war, and has taken part in many of the big engagements, including the retreat from Mons. He was presented with the Legion of Honor and received the K. C. B. since the war. Before the war he stood high in the military world, having commanded the "Red" army in the great peace manoeuvres on Salisbury plain against General Kitchener, who commanded the "Blues." He also served as D. A. G. to Sir Kelly Kenny in the South African war.

FIGHTERS AND SCHOLARS.

The Munro family has been a rather remarkable one, having produced both fighters and scholars. One of the earliest of them, John Munro, lost an arm in a clan fight with the Mackintoshes on the north shore of Cromarty Firth, Scotland. The seat of the family was at Auchinbowie. Three successive Alexander Munros held the chair of anatomy at the University of Edinburgh. One of these was also an artist, another was the discoverer of the canal in the human brain called "the foramen of Munro," and he died while engaged upon experiments which led to the discovery of the present method of dealing with appendicitis.

General Munro's father owned and conducted one of the largest ranches in Australia, and his maternal ancestors with the natives. He died from the effects of an old spear thrust. The present General is also cousin of the late David Binning Munro of Oriel College, Oxford.

their liquid securities into cash, and in this turn into war supplies, they essayed to use the crisis in the cotton and made heavy purchases of cotton. Anticipating early reduction of British sea supremacy, thereby opening the way for their Southern cotton, they held too long, and in the end sustained heavy losses on their purchases.

After the reopening of the Stock Exchange and before the real upward swing in prices, German interests sold American securities heavily on advances and again sustained large losses because they sold too soon.

In both these fields of enterprise, the speculation in war cotton and the speculation in American stocks, the private fortune of the German Emperor was to some extent interested.

His representatives are said to have "bought too high and sold too low," with the result that part of the shrinkage in the Kaiser's personal fortune, traceable to operations for him on the New York Stock Exchange.

The Situation.

The illness of Premier Asquith is reported to have had a quieting effect upon much of an undoubtedly seething nature in connection with matters regarding the war. When anything is not exactly to his liking, your average Britisher always makes himself heard, and he is doing so now.

The Balkans, now the chief centre of interest, the Allies are rapidly taking steps to meet the new situation. French and British troops are there in goodly numbers, Italy has decided to lend her aid, and Russia also is stated to be prepared to take a hand in.

Red Cross Work. In connection with the appeal throughout Canada for help to the British Red Cross Society, it is well to again call attention to what this splendid organization has accomplished.

Germany After the War: An American Opinion. (New York Journal of Commerce.) When the European war closes Germany will find it necessary to resume relations with other countries.

Voluntary System Versus Conscription. It is said that Lord Carson is likely to follow the example of Sir Edward Carson and resign from the Coalition Ministry.

NEWS NOTES. Kansas state stenographers get 30 points for personal appearance in the civil service exams.

NEWS NOTES. Cleveland bailiffs are accused of joy riding in autos put in their custody on attachments.

NEWS NOTES. An original Viridellus de Spira, a book 400 years old, has got to the University of Chicago.

ed to join a rifle club. It is this preparation which has enabled both lands to turn out first-class troops in such short order.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The people of Brantford and Brant County never yet failed to handsomely respond to a worthy appeal, and they will keep up their splendid record in connection with the Red Cross call.

It is announced that the Kaiserites boast that they will be in Constantinople by December 1st. In this regard it is worth while to remember that the Paris and Calais dates have not yet been filed according to schedule.

The British subs in the Baltic continue to take their toll each day, while the German variety has suddenly gone out of business.

The Vossische Zeitung of Berlin made this statement in a recent article: "The Canadian Government has not yet dared to send a second contingent of troops to Europe."

The Kaiser's troops know better since they have been up against the second contingent, and they will know still more when it comes to the third and fourth and as many more as may be necessary.

PURE RICH BLOOD PREVENTS DISEASE

Bad blood,—that is, blood that is impure or impoverished, thin and pale,—is responsible for more ailments than anything else. It affects every organ and function. In some cases it causes catarrh; in others, dyspepsia; in others, rheumatism; and in still others, weak, tired, languid feelings and worse troubles.

It is responsible for run-down conditions, and is the most common cause of disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the greatest purifier and enricher of the blood the world has ever known. It has been wonderfully successful in removing venereal and other humors, increasing the red-blood corpuscles, and building up the whole system. Get it today.

Russ Peasants Welcome Rain as From God

Place Great Faith in Defensive Merits of Wet Season, Especially in Marshy Sections. Petrograd, Oct. 2.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) The early and persistent rainy season over the greater part of the fighting front is taken by the Russian peasants as a sign that the text inscribed on the regimental standards, "God is on our side," is not misplaced.

The local peasantry alone is familiar with the shifts and tricks of the marshlands, especially in the treacherous Pinsk district for there the bog varies with the seasons and according to the rainfall. A case has already been reported from this district in which a German column was cunningly surrounded by a small force of guerrillas, who crept by secret ways across the swamps and raised an alarm on all sides at once.

It is still somewhat early for the appearance of the guerrillas whose best opportunity will come when the snow obliterates the landscape for all save the native born.

Old Masters Often Never Signed Name

Great Paintings Come Down to Posterity Whose Only Identity is Quality of Work. It appears that many of the works of old masters are not signed. Experts rarely rely on signatures alone in determining the authenticity of an old work, but trust rather to their knowledge of the painter's technique, says the Philadelphia Record.

False signatures can be easily detected. Spirits of wine or turpentine will usually remove a name of later date than the painting. In the course of time signatures often become very difficult to find. Painted originally in a shade slightly lighter than the ground, perhaps, they sink in, darken and merge into the ground color, or they are almost rubbed away by successive cleanings.

OFFICERS ELECTED

At a meeting of the Y. M. C. A. directors held last evening, Mr. E. Sweet was elected President, Mr. T. Ryerson, vice-president, Mr. C. Cook, Treasurer, and Mr. C. M. Thompson recording secretary.

TEMPERANCE LEAGION

The regular meeting of the Loyal Temperance Legion was held on Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 19th, with a fair attendance. Mrs. Shultis spoke and Miss Violet Clement gave a reading. Miss Leila Patterson favored the meeting with a solo.

JUMBLE SALE

A very successful Jumble Sale was held yesterday afternoon and evening by the Ladies' Guild of St. Luke's church in the basement of the church. The proceeds were to be devoted to paying for new seats in the church. The affair was well patronized throughout and a handsome sum was realized. There was a very large and varied display of the commodities offered.

INCREASED COSTS

The listing of the sewers for the city is being carried out and much work is planned. The cost of storm and sanitary sewers is being increased where settlement is made at once from $1.00 to $1.12 1/2. Formerly when immediate settlement was not made the cost per foot per year for a term of 40 years was charged. The time has been cut in two, and now 10 cents is charged for a term of 20 years.

A PRESENTATION

A happy presentation took place on Saturday at Slingsby Mill No. 2, when Mr. Samuel Carson, an employee there for 26 years was presented with a wrist watch by his fellow employees and a handsome bracelet from his manager, Mr. Burch. The occasion was the fact that Mr. Carson had enlisted with the 3rd Battery. Mr. Carson served three years in a battery at Kingston during the South African war. He has living in the city his sister and his mother, Mrs. John Dougherty.

ELECTRICAL PERMITS

17 electrical permits have been issued so far this week.

NOT SETTLED YET

A rumor was about town this morning that, following last night's address by Mrs. McClung, the executive of the Brant County Temperance Society met and decided on the matter of a local opinion campaign. A member of the executive told the Courier this morning that he knew nothing of any party meeting, but that the matter would likely be decided this week.

MISSIONARY EVENING

On Monday evening the Colborne St. Epworth League held its monthly missionary evening, and Miss Best of the Y. W. C. A. gave the address. In military terms the speaker made a plea for more rapid enlistment in the army of the King of Kings, and for more strenuous fighting for the noblest of all causes. The many serious thoughts which were brought out, must surely have created in the Colborne street battalion renewed zeal for Christian warfare.

BOYS' Y.M. CAMPAIGN

This is the first year the Boys' department have been permitted to handle their own membership campaign, and is resulting in unbounded enthusiasm. The totals to date compare favorably with those of last year and it is felt the boys will respond to the new scheme and bring in more of their chums than have been members in previous years.

To-morrow will be the last day of the boys' campaign, which has been divided into two divisions, "The Hard Boiled Eggs"—they can't be beat; and "The Nutmegs"—they're greater. The winning division dines on ham at the big Friday night banquet while the losers will have to content themselves with weenies. At the present time the Nutmegs are leading by a good margin. George Verity is leading boy with 705 points; Harvey Standing, second with 590; L. Smith, third, with 535 and N. Silverthorne fourth with 495 points. The standing of the teams to-day is Nutmegs, 3822; Hardboileds 2665. All boys getting over 500 points are being presented with the Y. M. C. A. honor crest, and their are individual prizes for the highest score and greatest number of new members.

BOY SCOUTS

The Boy Scouts of the city, about 100 strong, together with the Church Lads Brigade, paraded to St. Luke's Church last Sunday afternoon, where a short bright service was held. Commissioner Rev. C. V. Lester delivered the address. A collection was taken up in aid of the Red Cross. The following troops were represented: Sixth Brant (Trinity), Bell View, St. John's, Grace Church and St. Luke's Scoutmasters Rev. S. E. McKegney, H. Todd, C. Nicholls, Assistant Scoutmaster R. Ritchey and Patrol Leaders Gerald McIntyre and Reggie Brown commanded their respective units. Grace Church Lads Brigade were under the command of Capt. Rev. C. Paterson-Smyth. The Sixth Brant troop, with their Union Jack streaming to the breeze, led the parade, and the good work of Drummer Edie enlightened the march. The quiet orderliness of the parade and the steady marching of the boys evoked much praise from the onlookers. It is reported by the Dominion Boy Scout Council that there are from 600 to 650 Scouts at the front, and that nearly all of these have received promotion. This speaks volumes for the benefits of the Boy Scout movement and its value to the country. The Boy Scouts of this district will collect for the Red Cross next Saturday. Tass will be given out from their headquarters, 267 Colborne St.

BREAD UPON THE WATERS

A Few Kindly Services to a Wounded Soldier Brought Thousands.

London, Oct. 20.—A legacy of $50,000 has just come to Mrs. John Wargham, of Golcar, Yorkshire, as a sequel to her kindness to a wounded Australian soldier, Robert McClure. McClure, who was a ranchman from New South Wales, was seriously wounded during the Turks' attempt to cross the Suez Canal. He was sent to England and lodged at a hospital not far from Mrs. Wargham's home. Mrs. Wargham, whose husband is serving in the army, paid frequent visits to the hospital and did several small services for the wounded McClure, who died about a month after reaching England. He made Mrs. Wargham his sole heir.

SOLDIERS MADE FIT BY MINOR OPERATIONS

Often by Going Into Surgeon's Hands, in a Few Days Can Pass Test.

Quite a number of Canadian recruits who present themselves, while otherwise fit, require only some slight operation before being able to pass the doctor. If such men already belong to a city regiment, they are paid while undergoing treatment. But if they do not, they, although they receive no pay, the city defrays the cost of their maintenance in the hospital. The majority of such men go to the city hospitals during the month of July last there were a hundred and fifty recruits operated on at the Toronto General Hospital alone. The operations are usually slight in themselves, though highly necessary, and in practically every case they are successful in enabling the recruit to undergo that ordeal known as "passing the doctor" with success. In fact, at one hospital, they had not the time to operate where the operation had not proved effective for the purpose. The vast majority of soldier cases in hospitals are surgical cases. But there are a few medical ones—cases of pneumonia, abscess on the lung, and heart trouble. At the Toronto General Hospital there were fifteen of such cases left over from the Exhibition Camp still in hospital, by the first of last July. The slight operations necessary among recruits are usually for varicose veins, that is, veins abnormally dilated or contorted, or for varicocele. Quite frequently, too, a recruit is afflicted with hammer-toe or persistent flexion of a toe, usually of the second toe, due to contraction of the tendons. Many of the necessary operations for these troubles have been performed under merely local anaesthetics. The operation of such a nature in fact, what makes the operation necessary in the case of a would-be soldier—is that they cause those troubled with them to tire easily and to suffer from swelling and much discomfort in the legs. The men make great patients. They impress all who come in contact with them with their extreme enthusiasm for soldiering—if they were not enthusiastic they would scarcely go to the length of an operation, however comparatively trifling—and by their tremendous keenness to get well and be fit for active service. A great number of the patients are Old Countrymen. And they are nearly all quite young men of the ages of 18, 20 and 22, or thereabouts. Almost without exception they are men of excellent physique—and their high spirits and their eagerness to do, or undergo, anything in order to get to war, strike all who see them most forcibly. They are remarkably popular patients, and

The experience of every wearer of glasses is that the old "hole and screw" method of mounting lenses is a nuisance, to state it mildly. It is positively irritating to have glasses that constantly work loose and get out of adjustment.

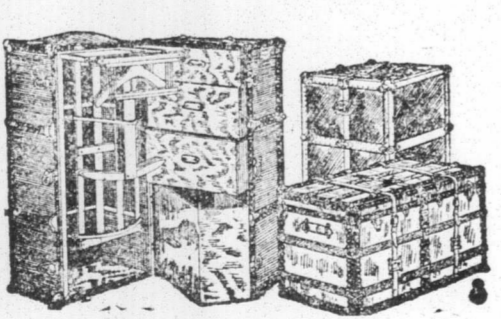

To You I Say—Give me a few minutes of your time to explain and demonstrate the "EVER-LOCT" System of mounting lenses without holes or screws, yet joining the lenses to the mounting to produce a solid, rigid unit, as if the entire eye-glasses or spectacles were made of one piece.

You'll not be urged to purchase. I merely want you to know that now, and of me, can such an improved mounting be obtained.

BIRTH OF A NATION

Great Production Which is Coming to Brantford.

There are lots of friends to visit them every visiting day. It takes a man about two weeks to get well after the average operation.

The "Birth of a Nation" the marvellous moving picture film which took Toronto by storm is having a like experience in Hamilton, where it is all week. The Herald, in referring to it, says—

"Big crowds witnessed yesterday's presentation and were well pleased, and the management of the Grand can congratulate itself upon putting over one of the big features of the season in securing this picture for a week.

The Birth of a Nation has been talked about for many months. In Toronto the picture showing it was crowded at every performance, and the picture was held for three weeks. In Montreal the theatre about to show it was burned down—supposedly because it was going to show it. Naturally, Hamilton people have awaited with impatience the day it would arrive here, and full houses for the week are sure to be the rule.

There are some things about the picture that surprise one. People who went expecting to see the most wonderful picture of their lives were not disappointed, but it was quite a surprise to them even, it was so big and yet so easy to follow and appreciate.

Another big feature is that throughout the length of the many thousand feet of film used in its presentation the human note is predominant. It is hard to imagine a love story in a truthful and comprehensive history of the launching of such a nation as the United States, but there is a love story. The appeal in the picture lies largely in this and the capable way in which character after character, of apparently little importance is introduced and lives and leaves the stage in logical completion of its mission.

The photography, the setting of the various scenes, the staging of war scenes and the stories of heart interest are all of the best. The picture is the greatest that the United States has produced. To attempt to describe the story would be to write a history, but it can be safely said that satisfaction will be the lot of all who see it.

A special augmented orchestra of twenty pieces played appropriate music throughout the presentation, and the good music and the rapidity of the scene changes, and the thrills of the story banished that tired feeling that some times goes with a long picture."

RURAL DEANERY OF COUNTY MET YESTERDAY

Good Attendances All-Day, and Several Fine Addresses Delivered.

The Rural Deanery of Brant County met yesterday, the clergy convening in the morning at Holy Trinity Church at 8 o'clock. They were then entertained at breakfast by Mrs. Julius Waterous, following which they re-assembled at 10.45 for the morning session in the vestry.

A very interesting and instructive paper was read on "The Influence of the War on the Reunion of Christendom," by Rev. H. C. Light, St. Pauls, and it was discussed by several of the members present. The paper was much appreciated and commended for its careful preparation.

At 2.30 in the afternoon there was a meeting of the ladies. The women's auxiliary of the Deanery presented their yearly report which was received and adjudged satisfactory.

The features of the afternoon session were two fine addresses by visiting ladies from Toronto. Miss Strickland of St. Anne Church of that city, gave a talk on Social Work, going fully into detailed account of the number and nature of the organizations there.

There was also an address by a Sister of the Community of St. John the Divine, on "Parish Visiting," and several good items of advice were given for the benefit of social workers.

A meeting for men was held in the evening, Rev. S. E. McKegney delivered a fine address on Men's Work in the Parish. A discussion, led by Rev. Mr. Saunders of Paris, followed the address.

Very good attendances marked all the meetings.

ONTARIO CURLERS PREPARE FOR SPORT

Annual Meeting Shows 112 Clubs
Are Members—President
Turnbull Now.

Toronto, Oct. 20.—At the annual meeting of the Ontario Curling Association held yesterday morning at the Granite Club, the grouping and playing arrangements for the Ontario Tankard and District Cup competitions during the approaching winter were finally decided on. President J. A. McFadden was in the chair and Secretary G. S. Peary at his post as usual. The other officers and representatives in attendance were: Agincourt Heather, Geo. Elliott, Brampton, Thos. Thauburn; Colborne, G. R. Hargratt; Collingwood, G. B. Westcott; Fergus, T. J. Hamilton; Galt, Granite, C. Turnbull; Galtford, J. H. Dickenson; Grand Rapids, Mich., G. S. Peary; Guelph Royal City, R. Mahoney; Kingston, T. M. Asseline; Meaford, R. B. Rice; Nanawau, Dr. R. L. Leonard; Peterboro, R. M. Waddell; Richmond Hill, Wm. Pratt; Toronto, C. Swabey; Toronto Granite, G. R. Hargratt; Toronto High Park, R. B. Storey; Toronto Lakewood, T. M. Robertson; Toronto Queen City, R. B. Rice; West Toronto, R. C. Jennings; Windsor, Jas. Anderson; Woodstock, Peter Smith; Riverdale, Dr. T. E. Forfar. Past Presidents D. Carlyle, Toronto; C. W. Cartwright, Hamilton; Dr. Russell, Hamilton, First Vice-President C. Turnbull, Galt; Second Vice-President T. Thauburn, Brampton; Executive, C. Swabey, G. R. Hargratt, Toronto; A. M. Cunningham, Hamilton; T. J. Hamilton, Fergus; A. D. B. Vanzand, Detroit; Chaplain, Rev. T. D. McCullough, Port Hope. Annual Committee, Rev. J. W. Pedley, Toronto.

THE ASSOCIATION BUSINESS.
Following the reports on the competitions of last winter the auditors reported a balance on hand of $559, after a season in which the receipts reached $1,694.
The Executive Committee reported applications for membership from the Riverdale, Bracebridge, Elmvale, Embro, Markham and Picton clubs, which were admitted. Scarborough Maple Leaf, Weston, Alliston, Gravenhurst and Prescott have withdrawn, leaving 112 clubs on the roll. The registered membership is 4,753, a decrease of seven. The Detroit Club with a membership of 197 heads the club list. With the addition of the Toronto Granite and Queen City there are now six ladies clubs affiliated.

It is proposed to prepare an honor roll of members at the front or in training with overseas contingents, and the committee recommended that all these be carried as members without fees until their return.
Expression of regret was made over the death of two Past Presidents of the association, Mr. John Harvey of Hamilton, and Mr. Thos. Woodruff of Brantford.

MEAGRE SUPPORT OF PATRIOTIC FUND.
At the last annual meeting a resolution was adopted requesting the affiliated clubs to contribute to the Canadian Patriotic Fund, but the result was one, President MacFadden said, of which the association could not feel proud. The report on the operation of the resolution said that only $866.75 had been collected, and it was urged that this should be brought up to $1000 immediately.

Contributions were received from two officers, Messrs C. Turnbull of Galt, and A. D. B. Vanzand, of Detroit, and from the following clubs: Aberdeen, Brampton, Fergus, High Park, Granite, Lakeview, Lindsay, Milton, Richmond Hill and Toronto. That was only ten clubs out of 112 in membership, and five of the ten were in the city of Toronto.

The Executive Committee report said, in reference to the same matter, that circular letters were sent out by both the president and secretary, but met with a very unsatisfactory response. Forty-six clubs replied that they were already subscribing through local channels, 38 clubs failed to take any action, and 10 clubs responded with contributions. These ten were in the same position as the 46, but they still held it their duty to subscribe to the association fund.

A VALUED OFFICER RETIRES.
After a service of 23 years as chairman of the committee on the Annual, during which he did so much to make it the interesting volume it is, Mr. James Hedley has withdrawn from office. The association by formal resolution expressed its gratitude to Mr. Hedley, and its regret at his decision to retire from the office, and made him an honorary life member of the Ontario Curling Association.

THE NEW OFFICERS.
Patron—The Governor-General.
Honorary President—The Lieutenant-Governor.
President—C. Turnbull, Galt Granite.

First Vice-President—T. Thauburn, Brampton.
Second Vice-President—G. R. Hargratt, Toronto Granite.
Chaplain—Rev. J. D. Fitzpatrick, Hamilton.
Secretary-Treasurer—G. S. Peary, Toronto.
Executive Committee—Thos. Renie, Toronto Granite, C. Swabey, Toronto; A. M. Cunningham, Hamilton; Victoria; T. M. Asselstine, Kingston; W. A. Boys, Barrie; T. J. Hamilton, Fergus.
Committee on Annual—Rev. J. W. Pedley, C. Swabey and Secretary Peary.
Auditors—G. T. Eakins, W. H. Burns.

The thanks of the meeting were tendered to retiring President MacFadden, who reviewed the marked progress of the association, with which he had held official connection of various kinds for fifty years continuously. The Granite Club, the umpires in the O.C.A. competitions and the newspapers were also thanked for services rendered the association and the sport.

The presentation of the Ontario Tankard and banner was made by President MacFadden, and the trophies were received for the club by President E. H. Walsh of the Toronto and by Mr. Swabey for the individual players. The shields for the group winners were distributed by Past President C. W. Cartwright.
Representing the Detroit club, which played the greatest number of friendly games last season, Mr. A. D. B. Vanzand received the J. S. Russell Loving Cup.

MORAN BEATS COFFEY IN THE THIRD ROUND

Irish Giant Literally Knocked Out
Standing Up—Winner
Meets Willard.

New York, Oct. 20.—With a swinging right hand smash to the celebrated "glass" jaw, that followed fast on top of a left hand jab to an already badly damaged eye, Frank Moran knocked Jim Coffey, the Irish giant, groveling on his face in the resin dust of the ring at Madison Square Garden last night.

About a minute and thirty-eight seconds of the third round had passed when the blonde Pittsburger connected. He had been craftily fiddling for some time to get that wallop across. He had taken poke after poke in the face from Coffey's left, but closing in and smothering Coffey's right and always watchfully waiting with that one big punch.

BEGINNING OF THE END.
He got it through in the second round and had Coffey on the ropes, but the Irishman recovered. In the third, with ten thousand people all apparently yelling for Coffey, the Pittsburger man again connected. Down went Coffey. He staggered to his feet as Referee Brown counted three and clung to the ropes. Moran rushed upon him and started a swing, but Brown pulled him away and pushed the dazed Coffey to his corner. He was out, standing up.
Volatile and angry, Bill Gibson, Coffey's manager rushed about the ring denouncing the action of the referee.

"Whoever heard of a man being declared out when he is on his feet?" he demanded. "Brown didn't give us a count."
REFEREE'S GOOD JUDGMENT.
Another punch would surely have knocked Coffey cold. There was no reason for Brown permitting it to be delivered. That crushing smash to the jaw ended the bout to all intents and purposes. And Moran began working toward the end in the second round.

He knew too much for the big Irish lad. Veteran of many a long, hard battle, the Pennsylvanian had no difficulty in working Coffey around to just where he wanted him. Moran does not give any particular impression of grace or effectiveness at first, but he soon developed the latter.

APPROVE DECISION.
Gibson claims Coffey was not in distress. He says if his corner had thought so a towel would have gone in, but to the spectators it seemed that the Irishman was far enough "out" to justify the action of Brown. Jim might have recovered—but not Tuesday night. He made a game fight and he lost, that's all there is to it.
By his victory Moran earned the right to meet Jess Willard, the present world's champion. It was announced before the bout that Willard would meet the victor.

Victory for Coffey Would Have Sued

New York, Oct. 20.—Frank Moran earned the chance last night for a bout with Jess Willard by knocking out Jim Coffey in the third round. While a Coffey victory might have been more popular, Moran left the ring cheered to the echo. The men were evenly matched, both in size and weight.

Moran made a cool, calculating battle. Coffey's rushes and hard swings did not rattle him in the opening round.

Moran evidently had figured out that by allowing Coffey to fight himself out he could come from behind, as they say on the race course, and finish the man from Roscommon.

AWKWARD SITUATION IN THE INTERNATIONAL

Prospects in the Barrow Circuit
Are Not Any Too Encouraging.

With the season of Hot Stove League baseball under way the fans are devoting a good deal of attention to the future of the international league, all hands are unanimous in giving President Barrow credit for pulling his league through in a somewhat unexpected successful manner.

If the outlook was not bright when the 1915 season opened what are the prospects for 1916? The strain in which the league finds itself are indicated by the efforts already being made to locate two of the teams in Hartford and Springfield, Mass., respectively. The league finds itself in a position to fight the invasion of its ground by the International. The population of Springfield is 88,000, is less than either Hamilton or Ottawa in the Canadian League. Hartford's population for 1915 is given at 98,000. In the event of these cities being given place in the league the aggregate population of the circuit upon which the classification is based, will lower said aggregate to a point dangerously near the Class A limit instead of the double "A" classification, which is now enjoyed. There are privileges and advantages accruing to the double "A" classification which the one next in order does not enjoy.

It would appear that the International is going on the assumption that the Federal League will occupy Baltimore and Newark again. The best years in the history of the Barrow circuit were witnessed with these cities as members. It would be an admission of weakness to go back to them after being forced out even should they be abandoned by the Federals. Independents will invade New York before the opening of the 1916 season, and Kansas City will be the club to locate there. The Missouri town is in an isolated a position to suit the Federals. The latter will again have the advantage of the Ward millions notwithstanding the death of Robert B. Ward. His baseball plans will be carried out by his brother and sons.

SEASON'S AVERAGES AND WORLD'S FIGURES

A Comparison of the Work of the Players of Boston and Philadelphia Teams.

Six members of the Red Sox batted better than .300 in the world's series, and none of the six was a man who is rated as a .300 hitter in the American league. Duffy Lewis, with a season's average of .296, led the regulars in the five games, with an average of .444. Harry Hooper, who doesn't hit better than .250 in his regular job, went at a .350 clip, but Speaker, a .232 man in the American League, had to be content with a world's average of .294.

Fred Luderus, the National League second best hitter, was Philadelphia's best in the big series. Bancroft excelled his season's record, but the other regulars failed utterly to keep up the batting pace, they had set in the National League races. League averages.

M'GRAW OF NEW YORK SELLS THE CUBS AND RECEIVES COMMISSION

New York, Oct. 20.—It was learned last night that the Chicago National League baseball team was sold yesterday in Canada by Charles F. T. H. who owned nearly all the stock. The names of the purchasers were not disclosed or was the purchase price.

John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, is said to have "put over" the deal for Taft, and is to receive five per cent of the purchase price for his work.

Mrs. Tommy Burns is Found in a Hospital

New Orleans, Oct. 20.—A fashionably dressed young woman, whose identity had puzzled police and authorities at a hospital here, to which she was admitted yesterday in a deplorable condition, was identified last night by Tommy Burns (Noah Burns), formerly heavyweight champion of the world, as his wife.

Burns said she had not recovered from the shock of a recent serious illness. Mrs. Burns disappeared from her home Monday night.

Late Mr. Ward's Plans Carried to Completion

New York, Oct. 20.—James A. Gilmore, President of the Federal League, stated yesterday that the death of Robert B. Ward, vice-president of the league, and President and chief owner of the Brooklyn team, would not have any effect upon the league.
"The Federal league has lost one of its staunchest supporters," said Gilmore, "but the future plans and policies of the organization were so completely formulated during his life that they will be carried to completion. The entire league mourns his loss and extends heartfelt sympathy to the Ward family."

The offices of the Federal League will be closed till Friday. Mr. Ward's funeral will be held Thursday afternoon from his estate, Homewood, New Rochelle, and all the club owners of Federal League teams plan to attend.
The baseball interests of the late Mr. Ward will be carried on by his brother and two sons, who will continue to operate the Brooklyn franchise.

COLLEGIATE RUGBY TEAM PRACTICE

Preparing for Game in Guelph on Saturday—Will Present a Changed Line-up.

The Collegiate Rugby team held another hard practice last night in preparation for their game on Saturday when they journey to Guelph to play a league fixture.
The team is still in a somewhat crippled condition, but by Saturday it is expected that the regulars will all be in fighting togs. Kew, who was injured in the Galt game was out last night and although his ankle is still sore, put in some hard work. The team will be somewhat changed from that which played the first two games. Captain Kelly will play on the back division along with Wood, Kew and Buckborough; Hurley will hold down the quarterback position. The line will be practically the same.

As Guelph and Galt are tied, the locals have a chance to make it a three-cornered tie by winning their next two games, but they will have to work hard to do it. At any rate they will have a say in deciding the championship. If they lose to Guelph and then beat Galt when Galt plays here it will give Guelph the championship, but to enable Galt to stay in the running they must beat Brantford on their own grounds, but they will hardly do that, so it looks as if Guelph has the edge.
The locals will line up in an exhibition game with St. Jerome's College of Berlin to-day.

WHO STANDS FORTH?

Forward they rode from shore and shire,
Choicest of England's fighting sons;
From loom and desk and mine and fire
Splendidly gone to face the guns!
They were pioneers and they fought for the breach,
They carved a way where the track ran red,
That the rest might go where they could not reach,
With One Flag lording it overhead!
Who stands forth from those left behind?
Who is for liberty? Who for life?
The victor bugles are on the wind!
The dead are calling from lands of strife!
And never a canon booms, but you
Must stir in your case; and never a roar
Of regiments thundering the battle through
But you know they are calling—who went before!
Who stands forth? And was India aflame!
Melbourne and Ottawa rose with a shout!
Shoulder to shoulder, lo! how they came!
Who stands forth? And the Empire's out!
Who is for victory? Who for right?
The Grey Mother's calling from east and from north!
The sea winds bear it, the stars in the night
Cry, "no is for liberty? Who stands forth?"
—Constance Smitu in London Daily Mail.

CHAMPLAIN VISITED MEXICO AND PANAMA

Founder of Old Quebec Was a Distinguished Faunal Naturalist in His Day.

Here, in what is now the northern and eastern section of Simcoe County, embracing the peninsula formed by the Nottawasaga and Matchedash Bays, the River Severn, and Lake Simcoe, were the fishing and hunting grounds of the Wyandots or Hurons, supporting a population, according to Champlain of twenty or thirty thousand—a confederacy of four distinct tribes, in time increased to five by the incorporation of the Petuns or Tionontates. Perhaps of all the races of redmen, the Hurons, "living like brute beasts," as Sagard tells us, "without law, without religion, without God," were the least inclined to be attracted to the self-denial of a Christian life. Father Le Caron, bound by his vow to a life of poverty, was, however, received hospitably by them. A wigwam was built for his accommodation and food furnished him.

When, nine days after his arrival among the Hurons, Champlain and his men greeted the Francis, and the mass was celebrated.

MORE WAR STORIES

Tales of Gallantry Told in a Few Words

The finest series of short stories of the war was issued officially in the London Gazette last Wednesday night. They are the narratives of deeds that have won D.S.O.'s and other honors for officers and men. The following wonderful narratives are selected as typical of the gallantry of our men.

Perhaps the most graphic is the account attached to the name of Lance Corp. F. W. Harvey and Corp. R. E. Knight of the Fifteenth Gloucester Territorials. They were in a patrol committing a suspected listening post. This they encountered. Knight at once shot one of the enemy and with Harvey rushed the post, shooting two others. Assistance arriving, the enemy fled. Harvey pursued, falling one of the retreating Germans with a bludgeon. He seized him, but finding his revolver empty and the enemy having opened fire he was called back by Knight and the prisoner escaped. Three Germans were killed; the patrol had no loss. This was at Hebuterne, southwest of Arras, on August 3-4 last.

This is the second thrilling adventure of Second-Lieut. Harry Hogg Yuill, One Hundred and Seventieth Mining Company, R.E. When one of the leads to a charge in a mine broke close to the charge, he at once untamped the top of the charge and crawled into the mine to mend the break, although Germans were working so near that he could hear them speak. Another night the enemy were working within a few feet of our gallery, and it became a race who would fire the mine first. The situation was critical, but owing to his splendid example and energy two of our shafts were sunk in time and the explosions must have blown in the German gallery and all the men in it.

TWO COOL SUBS.

Two second-lieutenants of the Cambridge Territorials—Kenneth Carlyle Gill, of the First battalion, and Eric Humphrey Hopkinson, of the Second battalion, were sent right up to the German trenches and remained on the German parapet for an hour and a half, securing most valuable information.

There is a curious coincidence about the gallantry of Pte. R. Allen and Pte. H. Butterworth, of the Sixteenth Lancashire Fusilier Territorials. Noticing movements in the scrub at Krittia, he went boldly into it and found a Turkish machine gun with an officer. He took the revolver from the officer and brought in the machine gun. This is the official account applied to each of the above men.

Pte. R. Casey, and Pte. W. Downton, of the same regiment, but the Seventh battalion, "under an officer charged and captured a small Turkish redoubt and continued to hold it after the officer was killed, using the Turkish rifles and ammunition when their own was exhausted."

NOBLE SELF-SACRIFICE

Among some noble instances of self-sacrifice is that of Bandsman W. Blakley, of the 17th West Riding Territorials. He dug practically unaided for two hours under a heavy shell fire to free a wounded man buried in a parapet. He was successful and late the same night attended the wounded with the utmost devotion, although suffering from sickness, while all the other stretcher bearers were incapacitated. Similarly Pte. G. R. Carter of the 14th Manchester Territorials, dug a shelter under very heavy fire for a dangerously wounded officer and then rejoined the firing line. So too, Gunners G. G. Finlay and A. McKinley of the First Australian field artillery. When they found one of the wounded left in a trench, they volunteered to bring him in and gallantly succeeded.

Prepared by J. W. Dodds, 23 THE PRINCE STREET, BRANTFORD, ONT.

himself dragged the officer towards our lines. Reaching the wire with the help of another man, he placed the officer in a shell hole, cut a way through the wire, and then carried him to safety all the time under the heaviest rifle fire.

Perhaps the best record of a wounded man is that of Pte. T. Carriy, Ninth Argyll and Sutherland Territorials. Wounded in the head in March, he commanded his party till his task was finished. Wounded in the neck in April he had the wound dressed and immediately rejoined for duty in the trenches. Wounded in May he concealed the fact to maintain a coolness among his party, and refused to go back for a dressing because an attack was expected. Severely wounded eight days later he refused to be carried back till all the other wounded had been attended to.

Sergt. C. Gibbons and Sergt. Major C. Kent, of the Second Durham Light Infantry, staved off an untimely withdrawal at Hooge on August 10. They rallied and led back some men under shell fire in a vacated trench. Later, with an officer, Gibbons ran across exposed ground to head off men who had begun to withdraw. A similar act was that of Lance-Corp. T. P. McDowell of the Third K.R.R.C. who at Ypres saw a party of another regiment retreating in disorder. He ran across the open for half a mile under heavy machine gun fire, rallied the men, turned them back, rejoined his patrol, and stopped all further chance of disorder. He is now a lieutenant in the Sixth battalion of his regiment.—London Mail.
