SCHOOL BOOKS.—The public schools open to-morrow. Mr. J. Anderson requests us to call attention to his advertisement at school books.

ENGLISH MAGAZINES.—Mr. T. J. Day has sent us Good Words, Sunday Magazine and the Family Herald for August—all good numbers. For sale at Day's Bookstore.

ROBBERIES.—We are glad to see that the Police Magistrate has intimated that these boys found guilty of stealing apples or other fruit from orchards render themselves liable to serve a term in the Provincial Penitentiary. Complaints are of daily occurrence throughout the town of these mean robberies, and we are informed of a case near the Great Western Station where boys and even men, were impudent and bold enough to come in broad daylight with bags and fill them with apples. We hope that the Police Magistrate's intimation will have the desired effect on all orchard thieves.

EAST WARD ELECTION.—The election for Councillor for the East Ward, in room of the late John Stewart, took place to-day (Thursday) at nine o'clock in the Town Hall, Mr. G. M. Todd, Returning Officer. On motion of Mr. D. Kribbs, seconded by Mr. Geo. Hood, Mr. Denis Coffee was nominated. At the lapse of an hour, no other nomination being made, Mr. Coffee was therefore declared elected to fill the office for the unexpired term. Mr. Coffee briefly thanked the electors for the honor they had done him, and promised to do all he can to further the interests of the Ward, and of the Town generally. The meeting broke up with three cheers for the newly elected member.

RETURNING HOME.—After his reception in New York, William Johnston, Esq., of Ballykilbeg, M. P. for Belfast, will arrive in Montreal on Thursday on his way home. An address will be presented to him from the Black Preceptory.

NORTH WESTERN RAILWAY.—Engineer Haskins and party reached Cookstown on Tuesday evening with the survey of the North-western Railway, forty-three miles from Georgetown; having also surveyed twenty-two miles of trial lines, pushing out to Barrie other fourteen miles.

STEAMER ASHORE.—The Steamer Magnet, bound down the lake, ran ashore on Wednesday morning about twenty miles out from Kingston, at what is called "The Ducks." A tug has gone to her assistance. No serious damage has been sustained.

ADMITTED TO BAIL.—Mr. D. B. Read, Q. C., has obtained an order from Judge Gore, in Toronto, admitting Alexander Morell, now charged with the murder of Rebecca Moses Giles on the 12th of March last, to bail himself in the sum of $1,000 and two sureties of $500 each. Morell will therefore, on the arrival of the papers, be discharged from the custody of Hamilton Jail.

THE OLDEST ELECTOR.—The oldest elector in Canada was present at the nomination in Guelph. His name is Jones, and he is now 108 years of age. Jones is an old sailor, and served in the navy under Nelson. He uses two walking sticks in getting around, but otherwise is apparently healthy and strong. A couple of years ago he married a young widow of sixty, who, however, in a couple of months died, leaving him a gay deceiver of eighty years.

COMING HOME.—We are informed that a number of young Canadians who left Canada a few years ago to seek their fortunes in the big cities of the United States, are about to return home. Quite a large party of them will leave New York this fall. They find Gotham a place where young unmarried men of sober, industrious habits can make money, but a bad place to live in. They are coming home to settle in their native cities, satisfied that there's no place like Canada after all.

SAD AFFAIR.—The Hamilton Times announces the sad death of a young clergyman, of that city, who was widely esteemed and respected by all who knew him. Some days since, Rev. A. N. Macnab, for some time curate of Christ's Church, but who has been ill, left the city for Europe, in order that a change of air might benefit his malady. His name was among the list of passengers for England by the Scandinavian, which sailed last Saturday. In Montreal he became so ill that his brother was telegraphed for, and he left, we understand, yesterday morning. We are informed to-day that the young clergyman has since died, having under pressure of mental depression, drowned himself.

FATAL FRICAS.—Ancaster, Aug. 14.—On the night of the 12th, about 8 o'clock, a man named George Hartley met with his death under painful circumstances. He was quarrelling with his family, when Arthur Crooks, who was passing by the house, tried to ally the dispute. Hartley used foul language towards Crooks, and was struck by Crooks in the face. He died in about an hour afterwards. A coroner's inquest was held on Tuesday morning before Dr. Orton; and a post mortem examination was made by Dr. Richardson. The verdict of the Jury was, that Hartley came to his death in consequence of the blow given by Crooks, whereupon Crooks was committed to take his trial upon a charge of manslaughter. Hartley was a violent and drunken man, and, as shown in the evidence, his family were often in danger through his abuse.

Tom Sayers, son of the late celebrated pugilist and champion of England, is on an engagement at one of the London music halls, singing comic songs, and receiving enthusiastic applause by illustrating the feats of his father during some of his more notable encounters.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES

Difference between the Pope and Cardinal Antonelli.

Yellow Fever.

Heavy Failure and Forgery.

London, Aug. 15.—The Daily News has received a special from Florence stating that Cardinal Antonelli has quarrelled with the Pope and threatens to resign should the latter persevere in his policy of hostility to the Italian Government, and also that Antonelli requested the Clerical Journal to refrain from publishing the speeches of the Holy Father.

New York, Aug. 15.—The North German brig John Friedrich, from Savana Mar for Settin, put in here in distress, having lost six men by yellow fever.

The British ship Cathedral, from Penascola for Liverpool, put in here, because she was leaking badly, there being nine feet of water in her hold. She will be repaired here.

Louisville, Aug. 15.—There was a great sensation here yesterday over the business failure of Robert Atwood, a leading insurance agent and member of a pork packing firm. He is said to be involved to the extent of a quarter to half a million dollars. He was arrested yesterday at Seymour and charged that he had obtained large amounts from the banks on fraudulent drafts, having forged the name of his father-in-law and other prominent citizens and business men.

Edward Gallagher and John Beck were charged by Chief Constable Kelly with disorderly conduct by fighting in the Bay Horse Hotel on Wednesday, the 15th inst. Fined $1 each and costs.

John Hoekin was charged by Mary Ann Healy with assault and battery. Dismissed with costs.

Francis Newton and Dennis Flaherty were charged by John Thomas Cunningham with stealing apples from his orchard. Fined $1 each and costs. The next offence on conviction will render them liable to be sent to the Penitentiary.

We regret to say that the Hamilton elections have gone against the Reformers; a correspondent writing to the Globe from Hamilton accounts for the defeat as follows:—"The lavish use of secret service money has, contrary to expectation, had the desired effect of buying sufficient votes to put Sir John A.'s supporters in the House. Report says that Sir John, when here last Monday, expressed himself as bound to carry Hamilton in spite of all opposition, and in accordance with these expressions several thousand dollars were ordered to be spent; and it is known for a fact that men who had given their word to support the Reform candidates, when called upon this morning to give their votes they refused to do so, saying that there was not enough money; at the same time indicating that they had been paid not to vote for Messrs. Irving and Magill. These, together with other actions of the most contemptible nature, were reported to."

The following are the returns at the close of the poll in the different Wards:

Table with 4 columns: Ward, Reform, Magill, Hamilton, Wilson. Rows include St. Andrew's Ward, St. Mary's, St. George's, St. Patrick's, St. Lawrence.

Base Ball Notes. INTERNATIONAL MATCH. By telegraph received late on Wednesday night, we learn that the Guelph Club played the Athletics of Philadelphia, on that day, when the latter made a score of 35, the Guelph players scoring 8.

A game of Base Ball was played at Listowel on Wednesday between the Shoe Files, of Wroxteter, and the Red Stockings, of that place. At the end of the third innings the score stood Shoe Files 18, Red Stockings 41, when a dispute arose from the unfair manner in which the Shoe Files' umpire gave his decision.

The 5th game between the Mutuals and the Red Stockings came off on Tuesday on the Union Grounds. The Red Stockings beat their opponents by the following score:—

Score table: Boston—0 0 0 0 1 1 1—4; Mutuals—0 0 0 0 2 0 0—2; The Eckfords played the Baltimore in Baltimore on Tuesday. At the conclusion of the game the score stood:—

Score table: Baltimore—0 0 1 2 2 0 0—5; Eckford—0 0 1 0 0 0 0—1

The above are reported to be two of the finest games of the season. We have been requested to state that the Unions, at a meeting held last evening, had decided not to accept the challenge of the Independents for the present, as they have other matches on hand.

La Minerve says Sir Hugh Allan has purchased property in Halifax for half a million dollars with a view to making a wharf for his line of steamers calling at that port.

Interesting Letter from Parry Sound.

We have pleasure in publishing the following interesting letter from Mr. Francis B. Beattie, son of Mr. Robert Beattie, Padulink, who is this summer engaged in mission work for the Canada Presbyterian Church, in the Parry Sound District:

HAGERMAN, July 20th, 1872. Parry Sound is quite a village about seventy-five miles north of Collingwood, on the northern shore of the Georgian Bay. It is situated upon a commodious and well sheltered harbour at the mouth of the Seguin River. The village itself contains some three or four hundred inhabitants, and the whole Parry Sound District is estimated to contain about two thousand inhabitants. There are two large saw mills in the village which add much to its prosperity. One formerly belonged to Mr. Beattie but is now in the hands of the Dodge Lumbering Company. This mill employs a large number of hands, as it is kept running night and day. The other mill was only built this spring and will very soon be in operation. It is owned by Mr. Beattie. There is also a planing mill in connection with the latter mill. These mills are supplied with logs from the surrounding forest, where they are cut during the winter and run down the streams with the spring flood.

The land in the immediate vicinity of the village is very uninviting to the agriculturist, and almost enough to frighten the settler from proceeding any further into the country. Here granite bluffs, which bid defiance to the winter storms, rise high up so naked and bare as to forbid even the blades of grass to grow upon their summits. Down by the river, however, there is soil enough for good gardens. On the whole the first impression that almost anyone would have of Parry Sound is anything but favourable.

The Parry Sound District, known as the Parry Sound District, extends, taking the village itself as a centre, a considerable distance north and east, and comprises forty townships. Through this district the Government has opened up several colonization roads. The Parry Sound Road runs through the southern part of it. The North Road runs about north-east to the Magnetawan River, a distance of over thirty miles. From this road there are three branches. The first strikes off to the east, nine miles, and passes by the lower end of Lake Manatwaba, on to Rossan. Six miles farther up the second road strikes off to the east also, to intersect the Nipissing line. Twelve miles up above this, or twenty-seven miles from the Sound, the third road branches off to Ourek Lake. The remarks here made apply chiefly to the section of country traversed by this North Road and its branches.

Going up this road from Parry Sound for the first eight or nine miles the country is very rocky and poor, only here and there a good piece of land to be seen. At the junction of the first branch road the land is smoother, though light and sandy. There is some very good land on this branch road near what is called the dam, and around Lake Manatwaba. From this point north the country improves along the road it is quite well settled. Fifteen miles from Parry Sound is McKellar Falls. This will, no doubt, be the centre of trade for this district for a considerable time at least. Here there is a saw mill, two stores, post office, church, Orange lodge, and several other buildings but three years ago the wilderness was unbroken. Here the second branch road strikes off. On this line there is good land and quite a number of settlers. Proceeding north for about two miles above the falls the land is very good. Then we have to pass a distance of about five miles more into the Township of Hagerman before we see much more good land. From this point the land is much better and all quite fit for settlement to the Magnetawan River and Ourek Lake. This whole north shore is traversed by ridges of granite rock, forming part of the old Laurentian range, which extends along the north shore of Lakes Huron and Superior. The rock only comes to the surface in places, and never rises as high as in the Muskoka District. The soil varies from a light sand to a clay loam, and is very productive. Although this season was very backward, it is really astonishing to see how rapidly vegetation has advanced. When the snow melts the ground soon dries up, and spring and summer frosts are almost unknown here. This is no doubt owing to a great measure to the great number of lakes which are dotted over the whole country. These lakes add very much to the beauty of the country; and some views upon them are surpassingly beautiful and picturesque.

The hay crop is excellent here this season, and farmers are busy securing it. I saw the other day a stalk of timothy which measured five feet three inches in length. This was taken from a field which was nearly all alike. There is not much fall wheat sown here yet, but what is sown looks splendid. Spring crops and potatoes look very well, although much needed now. Spring wheat does very well here. I heard a man say that he sowed one bushel last year and reaped seventeen. Oats, hay and potatoes are the principal crops grown here. For them there is a good home market. The lumbermen will purchase all the settlers can raise for years to come, and pay a high price for them too, as it costs a great deal to bring them in from outside. This home market will continue for many years to come, as the pine forests to the north are almost inexhaustible.

The timber here is of various kinds. Pine, of course, is the most valuable, and in most places quite plentiful. The settlers located previously to last autumn reaped their pine, but the timber on the land of others and on all unlocated land has been sold in what are called "timber limits" to the lumbermen. Some of the settlers having good pine got from $200 to $400 for what is upon a lot of two or three acres. Next to pine birch is perhaps the most plentiful, and grows to a great size. Good white oak grows in some localities, but it is not generally distributed. Beech is scarce, maple more plentiful, and a good deal of basswood grows in some places. Balsam, tamarack, spruce and cedar are also found in plenty, and are very useful for building and fencing purposes.

The lakes and streams abound in many kinds of fish such as pike, lake and brook trout, bass, pickerel, and also herring from Lake Huron. Trout and pickerel are often taken from two to twelve lbs. weight. Deer is also very plentiful. Every season the white and Indian hunters kill several hundreds, and the settlers for several months can have all the venison they desire. Wolves are often proving about. Bears are not very numerous. Fur-bearing animals from the beaver down to the muskrat are found in plenty. Altogether this is an excellent place for the sportsman.

This northern country is very healthy. The clear, bracing atmosphere would almost make a sick man feel well. The winter is perhaps two or three weeks longer than in the County of Wellington, and more snow falls. The summer is pleasant, only the mosquitoes and black flies for five or six weeks very troublesome. They are all gone now, so that one can have comfort in working or walking about.

The land here is all "free grant," and costs the settler nothing. All that is required is that the settler does "settlement duty," which is to clear fifteen acres and erect a dwelling house 16x10ft. Five years is the period allowed to do this, and at the end of that time if the settler has complied with the requirements he receives his title deed. Each married man is entitled to two hundred acres, and unmarried men over 18 years of age to 100 acres. Unmarried females over 18 are also entitled to 100 acres. Very few persons, therefore, are without their farms, and none need be.

If asked what the prospects of this country, I would say, good. But let no one suppose that this is or is capable of becoming a country equal to the older frontier counties. The country is more broken up with lakes and rocks. There are, perhaps, very few hundred acres together without some rocks upon them. There is one good thing, however, there are no rolling stones amongst the soil. Where it is rock it is all rock. The settler coming in here may expect to encounter difficulties such as are always connected with the settlement of new countries, but if the country advances as fast in the future as it has in the past a very few years will suffice to make it quite a flourishing settlement. If a man is willing to work he can come here and in a few years he can have a home of his own. If he has a large family he can get land for all over 18 years of age. For the man of capital there are openings for business. Schools are being organized and meeting houses erected, and the country generally is very flourishing.

Politics are all the rage here now. The candidates are Mr. Percy Boulton and Mr. A. T. Cockburn. Mr. C. has good prospects, although up in this section Mr. B. will receive a large support. We hear, however, that Mr. C. carries Muskoka with him. Yours, &c., F. R. B.

John A.'s Double Dealings.

If we wanted a forcible illustration of Macdonald's usual policy, or want of policy worthy of the name, we could not find a stronger one than the course he has adopted with regard to the Nova Scotia subsidy. Instead of dealing with the question in the constitutional way open to him under the terms of the Union Act, and conducting his negotiations openly and above board with the respective Local Governments, he preferred to rely upon the ready vote of his servile majority in Parliament, and to buy up poor old Howe, whose disappointed vanity at seeing other men in the Cabinet made him only too willing to be the first whisper of his tempter. The result has been to sow the seeds of the same discontent in Ontario which was planted in this Province by the unconstitutional manner in which we were dragged into Confederation, and on our side to deprive us of an inconsiderable portion of the relief we were justly entitled to.

Macdonald now finds himself in a difficult position in Ontario on this question, and observe the characteristic way in which he is endeavoring to crawl out of it! He has not the manliness to state the truth even of his own position in 1869. He declares that the Opposition opposed the subsidy on the ground that it was excessive; and finding that there is a strong feeling in Ontario on the subject, he endeavors to divert it against Mr. Mackenzie by alleging that the leader of the Centre Riding Election.

We have received the following from Mr. John Beattie, Returning Officer, as the correct majorities of the polling in this Riding. The Globe's figures are a little different and give Ross one majority less. We will, however, be able to give the complete returns in a few days. Mr. Ross's majority, it will be seen, is larger than announced yesterday:—

Table with 3 columns: Name, Ross, Orton. Rows include Pilkington, Elora, Nichol, W. Garafraxa, Peel, Orangeville, E. Garafraxa, Fergus, and Majority for Ross.

Halton Election.

The nomination for this County takes place on the 15th, and the polling on the 22nd. We learn that Mr. White is vigorously pursuing his canvass, and meeting with great success. We trust our Reform friends will not fail to do their duty at this election. Mr. White may not be the man of their choice, no more than he is the man of our choice, but we believe him still to be a Reformer, and infinitely preferable to Sheriff McKindsey, who is the defendant and apologist of every act of the Government, who is thoroughly Conservative in all his leanings, and who, besides, is guilty of a great outrage in seeking to obtain Parliamentary honors while holding his office of Sheriff of the County. Let the Reformers, then, turn out and work with a will, and send him back a disgraced office holder.

Elegant English.

The Herald feels very sore over Dr. Orton's defeat in the Centre Riding, and vents its wrath in the following choice and elegant language: "The re-election of Mr. Ross over a politician of the well-known ability and sterling qualities of Dr. Orton, is a blot upon the escutcheon of our County, whose fair fame is blasted by sending a man of the mediocre calibre of James Ross to represent her suffrages in the House of Commons—a man of no strength of character, a furore as a debater, a stoutheaded brawler upon the floor of the House, and a servile tool of the Party of Obstruction, whose only ambition appears to be the securing of power, and whose only aim is the opposing of all measures introduced by the Union Party, regardless of the benefits it seeks to confer upon the Dominion."

All we have to add to the above is, that it is a fair sample of the speeches delivered by the assistant editor in the Centre Riding, while stumping it for Dr. Orton. It is no wonder that after listening to such stuff, the electors would neither swallow Fahey's coarse Billingsgate, nor support the man who had the misfortune to have such a wild and reckless talker as an advocate.

ELECTION NEWS.

The Sheriff has issued his proclamation for the South Bruce election. The nomination takes place on the 22nd, and the polling on the 29th. The writ for South Oxford has been received; the nomination is to take place at Ingersoll on the 24th, and the polling on the 31st. Friday, the 16th inst., is the day appointed for the nomination of candidates to represent the North Riding of Brant. The contest in East Northumberland is very warm, but Mr. Biggar is gaining ground every day, and will redeem the county by a large majority on the 27th. His meetings have been well attended and almost unanimous in his favor, while Mr. Keeler, who only a short time ago began to hold public meetings, has found a difficult path.

Hon. Mr. Mackenzie had a splendid meeting at Arkona, in his County, on Wednesday night. He was accompanied by a number of friends, and the 27th Battalion, and there was a most enthusiastic demonstration in favor of the leader of the Opposition. At the close of Mr. Mackenzie's speech, his course in Parliament received the unanimous approval of the meeting. M. Benoit, Ministerial, has been re-elected for Chambly by a majority of 190. Lantier, Opposition, is elected by 215 for Soulanges. The returns are not all in from Barlevoix, but the probabilities are that Mr. Tremblay is elected by a considerable majority. This is another gain for the Opposition, as the late representative, Mr. Cimon, was a follower of Sir George Cartier. North Grey is the only constituency to be polled to-day.

Mr. Gibson's majority over Mr. Ross, in Dundas, is one hundred and two. Mr. William Caldwell, of Lanark, has been selected by the Reformers as their candidate for the representation of North Lanark in the Ontario Legislature. He is a well educated and popular man.

Latest from Fort Garry. FORT GARRY, Aug. 12. The Indians at Portage LaPrairie have refused receiving their annuities as provided by the treaty last year. They want better terms, and declare if they are not granted that they will stop the surveys. Not much election stir yet. W. J. Macaulay, lumber merchant, is spoken of in opposition to Donald A. Smith in Selkirk. Hon. John Norquay has accepted a requisition to run for Marquette. Both Biel and Attorney-General Clarke are mentioned for Provenccher. Commissioner Simpson has received word from one of the Indian bands at Portage LaPrairie that refused to receive annuities, that they have repented their action. One band still holds back. Indications of the grasshoppers leaving before the egg-depositing season are not unfavorable.

TO ADVERTISERS.

Hereafter parties who have contracted advertisements in the WEEKLY MERCURY must bring in their fresh advertisements, or give us notice of the same, on Saturday, before the first side of the next week's paper is printed. We are obliged to make this rule in order to prevent the duplicating of advertisements which is sometimes the case now, and which we cannot do in future on account of our crowded space.

PEEL ELECTION.—The Official returns for the election in this County give Smith a majority of 16 over Cameron.

Mr. Boulbee, at the Toronto nomination, sneered at Mr. Wilkes, the Reform candidate, on the ground that he was a Methodist. Kosuth declines, in a letter to the electors, the position of a representative in the Hungarian diet. The nomination of a candidate for North Riding of Middlesex takes place at Ailsa Craig on Friday 23rd at noon, and the polling on Friday 30th inst.

ANLEY.—In Guelph, on the 15th inst., Mr. Thos. Ainley, aged 84 years. The funeral will take place on Saturday, from his late residence, Nottingham Street, at 4 p.m., precisely. CHAPTER XIII.

FURTHER REVELATIONS—A MARRIAGE-DAY

FIXED—THE EVENTS OF EIGHTEEN YEARS.

"George," she murmured, through her flowing tears; "dear George you are my brother still."

"Yes, dear Carrey, yes," he replied,

"this revelation cannot change our hearts.

It brings strange and extraordinary truths to our knowledge; it sets our life in new aspects and under new light; but it cannot disturb our souls' affections.

Your parents are not my parents according to the flesh, it seems, but this makes them more my parents than ever. God bless them, Carrey. God for ever bless them for what they did for the poor helpless orphan. But for them I must have been cast upon the parish, and reared in the lowest sphere of life. They saved me from that, and the loss of my parents was made up by them, so that I never knew it. Well, Harry," he cheerfully exclaimed, "what do you think of all this?"

"I think Kenneth Bruce the noblest soul that has lived in Scotland during this century," cried Harry, with great emphasis, yet in a strangely husky tone.

"Right, my friend. He was; and we never knew of his genius, for I hold that the artist who could paint such a picture as that had genius."

"He had more than genius," said Harry. "He had the highest of Christian virtues—the virtue of self-sacrifice. And to think how he was despised, neglected, wronged," added Harry, with a burst of indignation.

"Despised—wronged," repeated George inquiringly.

"I mean in regard to his professional ability," continued Harry, correcting himself.

"Fate was against him in that," said

George. "His resentment, followed by his own personal affliction, and voluntarily hiding himself from the world, explains and excuses that; misfortune overtook and crushed him, but he maintained his nobility of soul through it all.

"Harry," said Caroline suddenly, "did you know my mother's family?"

"Your—mother's—family?" he slowly repeated, and the darkness hid from them the startled expression of his countenance.

"Yes; I think you said you had heard in the North of Kenneth Bruce and the shipwreck. The paper says it was their cousin's dead body which they found,

and he had come home to take possession of an estate. His name was George Morrar, and my mother's name seems to have been Lucy Morrar; and if he was my mother's cousin she must have belonged to a good family.

"A—little," answered Harry. "I heard something about it when—when I was young."

"Was it a large property?"

"Considerable; it is called Ardgowan.

The little property which belonged to Kenneth Bruce adjoined it."

"Ah, the property which he had to sell to support us all!" said George. "It's name was—was—"

"Mossgrove," said Harry.

"Why did my mother's family give them no assistance?" asked Caroline.

"Well, dear," exclaimed Harry, with sudden impetuosity, "that was the wrong

I alluded to. They were displeased at the marriage. They wished her to wed the owner of a large estate near; but, like a true woman, she was true to her love, and married Kenneth Bruce."

"And for this they cut her off?"

"They did—Heaven forgive them—
