Town and County News
We remind our readers of the concert on Tuesday evening, to be given by the Vescelus sisters. A rare musical treat may be anticipated.

FAT CATTLE SHOW.—The annual Fat Cattle Show under the auspices of the S.
Wellington Agricultural Society, will be held in Guelph on Wednesday the 10th December, when handsome premiums will be offered for the best cattle, sheep, pigs, turkeys, geese and fowls, particularly of which will be found in the bills.
Entries can be made at the Queen's Hotel on the morning of the show.

AU REVUE.—Referring to the recent retirement of Mr. Buckingham from the Stratford Beacon, Grip gets off the following:—
He lit the brave old Beacon-light That threw full glory on a rainy night, Kept vigil in the cause of right,
And showed up every sham.
So, finishing his course so bright, Clear Grits and Tories thus unite, To pay a tribute to his might—
"So much for BUCKINGHAM!"

TAKE THE RIGHT SIDE.—One excellent regulation in cities is that people passing always take the right side, and thus confusion is avoided, one stream being on the outside of the sidewalk and the other on the inside. On Saturday nights here especially there is a great deal of confusion, and many are the awkward contrivances as people go huddling against each other, now crowding to this side and now huddling on that. By all means let our pedestrians adopt a uniform rule, and always take the right.

ACCIDENT.—A young man named John Wyers, son of Wm. Wyers, of Mount Forest, met with a painful accident on Wednesday last. He with several others were engaged scoring timber in Egremont, when one of his companions working behind struck him accidentally with his axe, cutting deeply into one of Wyers-heels, severing several of the tendons of the foot and inflicting a serious wound.
It will be some time before the patient regains the use of the limb, if, indeed, lasting injury is not inflicted.

CURVILINEAR.—A graceful curve is said to be the true line of beauty. There were a good many lines of beauty to be seen to-day whilst the resonant clang of the town hall bell was telling that the joyful hour of dinner had arrived. For a few minutes unrestrained boyhood held carnival among the newly fallen snow.
Curves parabolic and curves elliptical, curves with flat trajectory and curves with round trajectory, curves lofty-searing and curves earth-skimming, were described by the well-impeccable snowballs shot from the hands of scores of archers.
When one of these lines of beauty terminated abruptly on the ear of some luck-less individual, he thought them "hard lines" and wisheth for a moment that the sleeping time which has now come was a time for the slaying of small boys; then he repenteth him of the savagery of the wish, and goeth his way, with the curve of a forced smile on his mouth, to study the curves of the meaty potato and the currant spotted pudding.

It is said that the poet Moore, while stopping one day at an inn in Scotland, was continually troubled by the landlady with the request that he should write her epitaph. Therefore at night he gave an impromptu as follows:
"Good Susan Blake, in angel state, Arrived at last at heaven's gate—and stopped, promising to finish it in the morning. The good lady was in a transpirent at this inscription, and treated Mr.
Moore with every possible attention. In the morning he had about leaving, when the landlady reminded him that he had not finished the epitaph. "That is so," said he, and immediately added, "But Peter met her with a club, And knocked her back to Beelzebub." It is said Mr. Moore's horses were in motion before he had finished the last line.
Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, while passing by the Mersey on a voyage to Liverpool, observed the muddy character of the river, and remarked to a friend standing at her side: "The quality of Mersey is not strained."

The Premier.

The Hamilton Times of Saturday says: —This morning, at 8:45, the Honorable Alexander Mackenzie, Premier of the Dominion, arrived here from Toronto, en route for Barrie, to attend the nomination there on Tuesday next. He was met at the depot by a large number of political friends, leading gentlemen belonging to Hamilton. The official car of the Great Western Railway was placed at the disposal of the Premier, who a few minutes later left for the West. With Mr. Mackenzie, were Hon. T. B. Pardee, M.P.P., Provincial Secretary; Thomas Oliver, M.P., North Oxford, and Mr. Mas-Mahon, of London. Col. McGeivrin, John Proctor, Esq., Ald. McKenzie and J. G.
Buchanan, of The Times, accompanied them as far as Paris. The Hamilton gentlemen had an interview with the members respecting several important matters, which was entirely satisfactory.
The Premier looked exceedingly well and happy.

London, Nov. 22.
The Hon. Alex. Mackenzie passed through this city at noon today. He was welcomed at the G. W. R. Station by a large gathering of the leading Reform citizens, who, after presenting their congratulations to the new Premier, escorted him to the Teemesh House, where a splendid luncheon had been prepared.

In a brief speech, Mr. Mackenzie said he was pleased to say that the Reform party had been enabled to broaden their platform so as to embrace the liberal sentiments of the several Provinces, and that the utmost cordiality existed amongst the adherents of the new Administration.

Sarria, Nov. 22.
The Hon. Alex. Mackenzie arrived here at the 4:15 train this afternoon. The station grounds here, and the street adjoining, was filled with all classes of the community, and amongst them a large number of ladies. On stepping from the cars to the platform, he was cordially welcomed by many personal and political friends, amid the cheers of the assembly.
The band then struck up a lively air, and led the way to the street, where a carriage was in waiting, when, accompanied by Hon. Mr. Pardee, the Mayor, and members of the Reception Committee, he was driven to the Belchambers House, following the assemblage, the band leading the procession. There were fully a thousand people, and flags were hoisted on all the vessels in the harbour, and on many of the private and public buildings of the town. The scene was one of the most animating description. On arrival at the hotel Mr. Mackenzie was escorted to the balcony, where a suitable address was read and presented to him by the Mayor.

To this address Mr. Mackenzie made an appropriate reply. He expressed the very great pleasure it afforded him of receiving so enthusiastic a welcome on his return home from the late political battle field. He regarded the demonstration, not so much as a personal tribute to himself, as an endorsement of the principles for which he had contended, and an approval of the Administration which he had succeeded in forming. He said that he would not detain the audience with any lengthy remarks on this occasion, as he would have an opportunity of addressing them at more length at the nomination on Tuesday, and at the banquet on the evening of 11th day.

Three hearty cheers were then given for the Premier, three for the Queen, and the proceedings were closed by Mr. Mackenzie being escorted to his own residence.

There is no sign as yet of opposition to Mr. Mackenzie's election.

At Wyomung, Strathroy, Watford, and Ingersoll, on his way to Barrie, the Premier was welcomed at the stations by gatherings of his friends and the public; the train stopping a few minutes at each place to allow of this being done.

Local and Other Items

Wolves are at work again in Egremont, and many sheep have recently been wounded. Amongst others Mr. Colin Rae, of the sixth concession, had two killed on Thursday night, last week. Mr. Rae also lost twenty-five last summer.

The Toronto correspondent of the Hamilton Times says that public opinion there is with the Globe in the matter of publicity being given to the proceedings at the meetings of the Board of Water Works Commissioners.

In Montreal on Friday afternoon a little boy jumped upon a sleigh loaded with hay, when the driver, a French Canadian, seized a pitchfork and stabbed him in the head, inflicting two serious wounds. The detectives are after the cowardly rascal.

A BRUTAL HUSBAND.—A storeman named George Franklin, living in Montreal, is under arrest on a charge of having murdered his wife. Both he and his wife were once considered respectable, but latterly were hard drinkers and quarrelled continually. Yesterday he came to the police station and reported that she was dead. She was found lying upon a sofa half dressed and much disfigured, with numerous cuts and bruises. To all appearances she had been dragged down the stairs and then laid on the sofa, the blood from her wounds being hurriedly washed off. An inquest is being held, and it is shown conclusively that her husband had abused her in such a dreadful manner that, to avoid him, she had slept in a neighboring wood-shed. There is some probability that on Thursday evening, in a drunken fit, he had pitched her down stairs, she dying where she fell.
The jury returned a verdict of wilful murder.

Mount Forest Fair.
IMPORTANT MEETING.
Condensed from the Examiner.
A meeting was held at Neagle's hotel, Mount Forest, on Wednesday afternoon last, for the purpose of considering the advisability of making arrangements for a central fair in Mount Forest next fall.
Upwards of one hundred gentlemen were present, including the leading farmers from all the neighboring townships. Mr.
Nicol McIntyre, Reeve of Egremont, acted as chairman, and Mr. Wm. Balfour, of Mount Forest, as secretary. Remarks were made by Messrs. Thomas Brown, of Egremont, W. Horsburgh, of Minto, Sidney Smith, Daniel Livingston and James Harper, of Arthur, and others, all of whom warmly concurred in the proposed scheme. The speakers believed that the united action of the district proposed would make the central fair a success. It was then unanimously resolved that the meeting be organized into an agricultural association to be known as the Mount Forest Union Agricultural Society, to comprise the townships of Egremont, Nagmanby, Proton, Luther, Arthur and Minto, with the village of Mount Forest.
A committee was named to solicit subscriptions, prepare a code of regulations, etc., such committee to be composed of one person from each municipality to report at a future meeting. The following gentlemen were appointed:—W. H. Hara-berg, Minto; Sidney Smith, Arthur; Alex. Hunter, Luther; Thos. Brown, Egremont; John Robertson, Normanby; Alex. Gillies, Proton, and John Kennedy, Mount Forest. The committee meets at Neagle's hotel on Friday, 6th December.
As one of these was then tendered to the chairman, after which the meeting adjourned, to meet again at the same place on the December monthly fair day, to receive the committee's report and for the transaction of other general business.
This broke up one of the most harmonious gatherings ever held in Mount Forest.

The London Advertiser charges Mr.
John Carling with having "either bungled or betrayed an undertaking of great importance to that city,"—namely, the London, Huron and Bruce Railway. It will be remembered that there was a split on the Board of Directors of this undertaking a short time since, and some of the Directors left the Board. One of the reasons they gave was their remaining colleagues, amongst whom were Mr. Carling, had practically divested the gentlemen seconding of all control of the undertaking. Mr.
Carling assured these retiring Directors that the Great Western Railway had signed, sealed and duly delivered an agreement to equip and run the road, float the bonds, &c. The Advertiser goes on to say:— "What could have been Mr. Carling's motives for making such a statement?
Mr. Thomas Dakin, at the late Great Western shareholders' meeting in England, practically denied Mr. Carling's assertions, and a cablegram received quite recently is to the same effect. Mr.
Carling made a promise to the outgoing Directors that the first soul of the L. H.
& B. would be turned by the first of September. Why has that promise been broken? Mr. Carling, in his own name and that of Mr. John Birrell, holds ostensibly for the Great Western, a contrasting share of the stock. We would be glad to have some proof that the Great Western ever made such a condition. Mr. Dakin's speech on behalf of the G. W. R., repudiating all connection with the L. H. & B., and Mr. Carling's demand, ostensibly in behalf of the G. W. R., for a controlling share of the L. H. & B. stock, do not agree. Somebody has been feeding the public on fictions instead of facts.
The situation to which Mr. Carling's bungling and scheming has brought us is anything but satisfactory. Our $100, 000 bonus, prematurely handed over, lies against us at 6 per cent interest. Mr.
Carling appoints himself trustee to see that Mr. Carling the Director does his duty. Hamilton rules the roast in the north. Mr. Carling, pretending to act for the G. W. R., managed to kill off the L. H. & B. as an independent project, offering us a Great Western agreement instead. That alleged agreement is now repudiated. What is to be done about it?"

The Virginus Embroglio.
The War Cloud Diminishing.
Disraeli at Glasgow.
Demonstration in Ireland.
London, Nov. 24.—The Times to-day says, a demand for the surrender of the Virginus could not with justice be maintained, but the other demands reported to have been made on Spain by the United States are such as England might well join in.
A special dispatch to the Times reports that the plot for the surrender of Cathagen proved a complete failure.
Contreras has since been arrested by the Insurgents on suspicion of connivance with the conspirators.
London, Nov. 23.—A special despatch from Madrid to the London morning journals agree in representing that the late interview between Minister Sicles and the Spanish legation were of a stormy character. Sicles barely escaped being mobbled by the crowd which congregated in front of his residence. In consequence of these demonstrations he determined to leave Madrid, but the Government having dispersed the mob and since maintained peace, he has resolved to remain in the city.
Madrid, Nov. 23, evening.—The reports that violence had been offered by the Madrid population to General Sicles, the American Minister, are pronounced false. President Castelar had a long conference to-day with Leyard, the British Minister, and the result of the interview is favorable to the continuance of good relations. The idea of submitting the case of the Virginus to arbitration is much talked of. Should this course be agreed to, the German Emperor is indicated as the probable arbitrator.
Washington, Nov. 22.—The Spanish question is everywhere discussed with more calmness than it was last week, and the impression seems to prevail to a greater extent than heretofore that there will be no war between the United States and Spain.
London, Nov. 23.—Disraeli made a political speech at Glasgow last evening.
He severely criticised the Government, and predicted a great struggle in Europe between the spiritual and temporal powers. He feared the conflict might result in anarchy, and declared that the partisans of Home Rule in Ireland would unmask, and show Great Britain their real designs.
Dublin, Nov. 23.—An immense demonstration in favour of Home Rule took place in this city to-day. It is estimated that 60,000 persons took part in the procession, and at a mass meeting which followed speeches were made by Messrs.
Butte, Martin and others. No disturbance occurred.
Mr. Miall has announced his intention of vacating his seat for the borough of Bradford, England, on the dissolution of Parliament, on account of ill-health.
Mr. Miall is best known and will be long remembered as the author of the annual motion for the disestablishment of the English Church.
New York, Nov. 24.—A special to the World from San Francisco says the fire at Oakland to-day completely destroyed the handsome bridge of the Central Pacific R. R. at that place. The bridge was over three miles long, and was one of the strongest and best built in the States.
New York, Nov. 23.—This evening Peter Steffans, an employee of Delmoni-co's, stabbed Peter Gorbet in a saloon on Broome-st. Gorbet died a few moments after; Steffans has been arrested.

The Mail in Court—Criminal Charge of Libel.
T. C. Patteson, managing editor of the Mail, and C. Belford, another Mail editor were brought up before the Toronto police magistrate on Saturday, in answer to a criminal charge of libel referred against them by Mr. Cresney John Whellams, of London, England. It will be remembered that Whellams was associated with the Rev. Mr. Cooks in immigration matters on behalf of the Ontario Government in Great Britain, and that in order to make a point against Hon. Mr. McKellar, the Tory press abused and libelled these two men unmercifully. Whellams has now appealed to the law to vindicate his character.
The article on which the charge was based appeared in the Weekly Mail of 11th April last. Amongst other charges made there against Whellams, it was stated that he embezzled money and deserted from the 13th U. S. artillery; that he "lived on his wits" for some time; that he was dismissed from the employment of a Liverpool firm on account of the unsatisfactory state of his books; that he was concerned in scuttling a ship; that he swindled a Liverpool watchmaker out of a dozen watches; that he swindled Major Anderson out of $25; that he was tried at the Old Bailey for another swindle; and that he was concerned in several other cheating transactions.
Whellams gave evidence denying these assertions in toto, and offered to put in documents in support of his evidence, which were refused.
After a statement from Mr. Patteson that Mr. Belford did not have anything to do with the article, Mr. McKenzie agreed to withdraw the charge against that gentleman. The Police Magistrate then committed Mr. Patteson for trial at the next Assizes, but accepted his own bail to the amount of $1,000 for his appearance.

JOHN HORSMAN'S.

Guelph, Nov. 3rd, 1873.

Guelph Evening Mercury

MONDAY EVENING, NOV. 24, 1873.

On Saturday, at 1 o'clock, the nominations for Lennox county came off at Napanee. The occasion was one of considerable interest, owing to the determined attempts which are being made in the County to at least reduce Mr. Cartwright's majority considerably, if not defeat him altogether—an unlikely result, the last. The interest was heightened by the presence of Sir John A. Macdonald. The gathering of voters was unprecedentedly large; they had come from all parts of the County, some from a distance of thirty miles; and it is estimated that about 3,000 were present. The proceedings were therefore held out doors. Although the day was bitterly cold, with occasionally falling snow, the political enthusiasm of these Lennox men kept most of them at the meeting until its close at six o'clock. The reporters had hard times of it. Speeches were delivered by Hon. Mr. Cartwright, Mr. Edmund Hooper, the Opposition candidate, Mr. A. M. De Roche, M. P. P., and Sir John Macdonald. Sir John's speech, "was continued until long after the shades of night, and frozen fingers precluded the possibility of his utterances being recorded." Mr. Cartwright and Mr. Hooper were nominated. At the close of the proceedings John A. and Mr. Hooper were serenaded by a brass band. The assemblage throughout the day was good humored and attentive, and was manifestly largely in favor of Mr. Cartwright.

The Mail's London correspondent says that at a meeting in the City Hotel, London, on Saturday, a memorial was carried asking Mr. Glass to resign his seat; that it was presented; and Mr. Glass said he would consider and reply. The Globe's correspondent says that "a meeting called in the Court House was entirely abandoned for want of sufficient attendance to make a half decent beginning. It would therefore appear that the great Lib.-Con. party had to content themselves with a caucus in the private room of a hotel instead of the red-hot demonstration of popular indignation which was to have melted Mr. Glass into political debris. The long-winded knot of Tories deserve some credit for sticking to their text so persistently. The Globe adds:—
"The situation was warmly discussed in hotel bar-rooms by farmers who usually through the city on market day, and the general opinion was that Mr. Glass would be very foolish to take any notice of the paltry petitions presented to him."

"Boss Tweed," the most notorious rascal of the Tammany ring, has at last felt the heavy hand of the law. We announced a few days that he had been found guilty by a New York jury—a fact in itself which afforded matter for congratulation. On Saturday he was sentenced to twelve years in the county prison, and to pay a fine of $12,700—a heavy punishment, but not a whit heavier than this prince of swindlers deserves. The telegram says:— Judge Davis sentenced the prisoner on every four counts in the entire 204 counts in the indictment. One year was inflicted for every four of the first 62, or twelve years' imprisonment in the county gaol in Ludlow Street. He was sentenced to a fine of $250 on every four counts on the entire number of 204, on which he was convicted. The entire fine amounts in the aggregate to $12,700, and the prisoner stands committed until it is paid. Tweed received his sentence calmly, and was removed in custody. Tweed is now 66 years of age, he will therefore be 78 years at the expiration of his punishment.
The people of New York deserve praise for the efforts they have made to clear out the nest of robbers who were making public honesty a by-word,—a thing to be laughed at as an amiable weakness only indulged in by milkops who lacked practical shrewdness and worldly knowledge. The stern lesson of Judge Davis' sentence will teach these gentry a different lesson.

The St. John, N.B., Freeman gives an insight to the cause of Tilley's wanderings in search of some one to swear him into office as Lieut.-Governor. It says: "It was really too bad to ask Judge Fisher to swear Mr. Tilley in Lieut.-Governor of the Province, and it is not to be wondered at that he fled from Fredericton to avoid a task so humiliating and so painful. It is known that the Judge was led to expect that he would himself be appointed in the office, and for some months past he has been openly making preparations for its assumption, which was talked of all over Fredericton."

The St. Catharines News announces the removal of Mr. J. C. Rykert from the office of solicitor for the Welland Canal, a position he secured about a month since by Sir John's dismissal of the old incumbent without reason or warning. Hon. Mr. Currie takes Rykert's place. Says the London Advertiser:—"The change affects little Charlie's pocket to the extent of $1,500 a year, but then it gives him another item for his scrap book."

A large and influential meeting of the electors of the County of Russell was held in the village of Russell on the 19th instant, at which a resolution condemning the conduct of Dr. Grant in Parliament was carried. Requisitions were signed calling on him to resign.

 CHAPTER IX.
 FLIGHT OF FLORA—A SCRAWNY MOTHER—OVERTAKEN BY LIZ.
 "See that you attend to what I say," again exclaimed Cameron, striding from the room as he spoke, and closing the door behind him.
 Then, with a low moan of despair, the poor girl fell forward from her seat upon the floor, and sobbed bitterly. It is hard to have our dearest and most ardent hopes crushed—blasted; and doubly intensified is the bitter misery when we have to bear up alone against the despair—with no one to lean on—no one to give a cheering look or speak a cheering word. How in such hours does the soul yearn for deliverance—the peaceful rest of death! It is only the brave and the strong who are not afraid to battle and buffet with the trials and adversities of life, who cast at such times withstand the strong temptation to Tread the gulf between A dreaded life and still more dread unseen.
 But Flora Macgregor was brave, and not until every avenue of escape were shut up would she welcome death, not to save her from trial and suffering, but from dishonor. Dishonored she would never be while death offered her a refuge. But as she arose to her feet after having lightened her sorrow-burdened heart by the flood of tears, she felt that her surroundings were at this moment so dismal and dark that she could see no other way by which to escape from the trying position in which she found herself. For a moment a gleam of hope shot into her soul as she reflected that the marriage could not be concluded without the services of a clergyman, and that an appeal to him might induce him to refuse to unite them under the circumstances and to rebuke Cameron and Ian for their heartless conduct. But this was dispelled as she remembered that the Rev. Mr. Fender was almost to a certainty the man who would be asked by her uncle to perform the ceremony, and him she knew to be a weak tool of Cameron's—indeed, of almost anyone who chose to ply him with drink. And so the morning was advancing, and she was still in a state of painful excitement and suspense, tinged with a strong feeling of despair. The interval was very short before the dread hour should arrive, and this caused her so much agitation that she could scarcely bring her scattered senses to think coherently upon the matter. She felt dull, and heavy too, and walking across the room to a couch, she laid her head upon it. Weighed and fatigued as she was, she did not mean to sleep; but by-and-bye her griefs and trials became mere flitting shadows. For a brief moment slumber soothed her troubled bosom, and perchance the loving angels who are said to hover around us poured some of the healing balm of love into her bruised soul—instilling with it patience and courage, together with trust in the loving Father of her spirit, whose great work is the raising up and strengthening of those who are bowed down, and the overthrowing and discomfiting of the wicked.
 When she awoke the afternoon had far advanced, and hearing the sound of clattering roofs below, she approached a window which looked to the front of the Castle, and to her horror, though not to her surprise, she saw Ian McKenzie ride up to the entrance and dismount—a look of selfish triumph lighting up his face. This recalled her to her true position, and her mind, now invigorated and refreshed, was bent upon the one great question—one of mighty moment to her—How was she to escape?
 This was the question she set herself to answer. All questions as to the result if she failed, or if she were too late, or what was to be gained if she succeeded—all questions whatsoever were banished from her as only tending to weaken and dissipate her energies, and to this one purpose was her whole mind directed. She must escape! And how was it to be done? Suppose she got clear away from the house, whither was she to go? To whom could she appeal for help or sympathy? A thought struck her, and for an instant her cheek glowed with the mighty wave of hope which surged through her being. But a sad look followed.
 "Ah, I could not," she muttered; "it is fifty miles off, and is the very road they would suspect I had taken."
 "And the old footpath through the mountains—I think I could find my way along it. Surely they would never think of following me there; nor would they be able with horses, which they will be almost sure to use in the pursuit. I will attempt it, let the consequences be what they may. I will fly to Castle M'Leod and tell my story, ask protection for myself, and tell the father of my Hector the misfortune that has befallen his son."
 She was interrupted for a moment by the entrance of a servant with some food. When she had retired Flora went forward and partook of a hearty repast—the eatables before her being a piece of venison, a fowl, and some brown bread. When she had concluded, she cut several substantial slices off the venison, and cutting up the fowl, took a piece of it and some bread, and rolled them carefully up a handkerchief which she secreted in a corner of the room.

IMPROVE NUTRITION.—The central idea in the treatment of all Chronic and Wasting Diseases, resulting in Nervous Prostration and General Debility, is to improve the Digestion and Assimilation of Food, and the Formation of Healthy Blood. Dr. Wheeler's Compound Extract of Phosphates and Calissaya contains the only agents known that act directly as excitants of nutrition by impregnating the Stomach, Liver and Pancreas, the great tripod that prepares nourishment for building up the organs and tissues of the body. The action of this remarkable preparation is extraordinary in strength and vitalizing the constitution, whether impaired by age, exhausted by excesses, bad habits, or run down by old complaints. It has resisted all ordinary methods of treatment. Being a delicious cordial to take, and perfectly harmless under all circumstances, it is eminently adapted to prostrate anemic women and delicate children.

BOOK FOR EVERY MAN.—The "SCIENCE OF LIFE, OR SELF-PRESERVATION," a Medical Treatise on the Cause and Cure of Premature Vitality, Premature Decline in Man, Nervous and Physical Debility, Hypochondria, Impotency, Spermatorrhoea, Genital Weakness, and all other diseases arising from the errors of youth or the indiscretions or excesses of mature years. This is indeed the best medical work ever published, and the only one on this class of ills worth reading. 190th edition, revised, much enlarged, illustrated, bound in beautiful French cloth. Price $1. Sent by mail, post-paid, on receipt of price. Address: FRANKLYN MEDICAL INSTITUTE, No. 4, Rutland Street, Boston, Mass., or Dr. W. H.
