TENNIS AND QUOIT CLUB CONCERT

First Club Concert a Marked Success.—Novelty Program, Good Music, and Pretty Girls the Attractive Features

A program more entertaining than that presented on Wednesday evening last under the auspices of the Tennis Club has seldom been placed on the boards of the Bridgetown stage. Every number won well merited applause and numerous encores were responded to, and yet the audience were regretful when the end of the program was reached.

An overture by the Bridgetown Brass Band opened the program and their proficiency in this and following numbers not only delighted but surprised many of the audience who, aware of the brief months of the Band's existence and limited practice had expected less skilful rendering of their selections. Their aid gave the finishing touch to an otherwise excellent program.

Six dainty little maidens in white. Dorothy Bent, Muriel Troop, Hazel DeWitt, Theodora Lloyd, Ethel Daniels, Edith Giles, sang a funny little motion song, for which they were heartily encored and brought back to give another chorus which was equally enjoyed.

Miss Alice DeWitt's monologue was given with a finish and grace that was fully appreciated and her well-chosen selection was followed by an encore.

The Chinaman's Chorus, a motion picture by Sandy Cochran, Harry Armstrong, Gerald Hoyt and Jack Ruzgles in Chinese costumes, was given with such harmony and vim that they were also obliged to respond to an encore.

The Lilliputian Sisters, Misses Nan Hoyt and Florrie Cochran, looked like two dainty dolls, one in pink and white and one in blue and white and their motion song was given with excellent effect. The secret of their abbreviated size was a mystery to the uninitiated.

The youngest cornet soloist in the province—Master Jack Ruzgles—made his debut on this occasion and charmed his audience with his really excellent rendition of "The Lost Chord" and they regretted that he was unable to respond to a most hearty encore. Jack—who is the youngest son of Mayor Ruzgles—is but eight or nine years of age and has only been practicing a few months and his promising musical ability was much commented upon by his hearers.

The Sunflower Chorus was one of the most pleasing features of the program. A curtain was stretched across the stage on which was painted a row of sunflowers. Each sunflower had a vacant centre through which was thrust a girl's head and the scene as the curtain was raised revealing the row of nodding heads and pretty smiling girl faces evoked at once a murmur of admiration and interest. The local hits in their choruses were quite witty and fully appreciated. The young ladies participating were Misses Madge Morse, Katharine Piper, Florrie Cochran, Freda Giles, Marion Dearnness, Flossie Bishop, Beatrice Younz.

Bessie Crowe, and a dusky maiden who was personified by Hal Hoyt. One of the most appreciated features of the evening was a duet from The Toreador by Miss Marion Dearnness and Mr. Fred Beckwith with dance interlude. It was well sung and acted and they were obliged to respond to an encore.

Imitations of the famous song comedian, Harry Lauder, were given with telling effect by Mr. Chipman, of Middleton. Although few of the audience had heard the famous comedian they were well satisfied with Mr. Chipman's imitations.

The climax of the evening was the pantomime with descriptive reading of "The Bachelor's Dream." A dignified and portly representation of the bachelor was given by Mr. Oliver S. Miller. He was represented as enjoying a pipe dream in which the loves of former days appear before him. His "child sweet-heart" was represented by a bonnie little maiden with blue eyes and curly locks, little Lorna Condon. Hetty Troop represented his "school-girl chum." Miss Bess Hoyt as the "athletic girl" and Miss Bess Ruzgles as the "studious girl" held their respective charms. The "sweet summer girl" was Miss Winnie Hoyt, the "jolly winter girl" Miss Muriel Lockett. "Little Mignon" was represented by Miss Nan Hoyt and the "charming widow" by Miss May Phalen, followed by the "society girl," Miss Alice DeWitt. Each passed in visionary procession, their charms appealing no longer, when finally, preceded by Cupid, (Muriel Troop) the bride appeared in lace robe and veil, represented by Mrs. Edward Hicks, and the bachelor's heart was captured and his fate settled. Mr. Bustin gave the descriptive reading from behind the scenes in clear expressive tones.

During the evening Miss Madge Morse acted as the efficient accompanist. "God Save the King" closed the entertainment while the performers clustered on the stage which had been nicely decorated for the occasion.

The committee of arrangements Misses Alice DeWitt and Madge Morse and Messrs. F. R. Peckwith and B. Simpson, may feel amply repaid for their efforts and encouraged to repeat their undertaking for the benefit of the Club funds.

ARE YOU CARRYING SOME OF OURS?

Men have various ways of carrying money. Grocers, butchers and millers carry it in a wad. Bankers in clean bills, laid full length in a pocket-book. Brokers only fold the bill once, doubling the money as it were. The young business man carries it in his vest pocket. Farmers and drovers in their inside pockets, whether it be fifty dollars or fifteen cents. Printers usually carry their money in other people's pockets.

Against Export of Pulp Wood

Premier Gouin has definitely announced that the Quebec Government will impose regulations forbidding the export of pulp wood from the crown lands of the province. For several years he has been a strong agitator in Canada for an export duty not only on pulp wood but on pulp as well. The provincial authorities may not levy an export duty and thus regulate the sale of pulp wood from private owned lands, but they can dictate the terms under which the growth on crown lands may be removed. In Ontario, some years ago, regulations were enforced against the exportation of saw logs and the big mills in Michigan were closed and their industries re-established in Canada. With the great shortage of pulp wood in the United States it is felt that a prohibitory law against the exportation of pulp from the Dominion would force the United States paper mills to come to Canada and employment would thus be furnished for thousands of our own people. The action of the Quebec government is the first step taken in the direction of making Canada the great paper producing country of the world. Other provinces will follow in the wake and the Dominion government may be expected to place an export duty on pulp wood and pulp before many years will have elapsed. "What we have, we hold" will never be better applied than in the protection of our forest wealth.—Kings Co. Record.

New Tannery and Larrigan Factory Opened

The new Tannery and Larrigan Factory erected by Mr. George Lake which has been under construction for the last six weeks is now completed and was opened on Monday for business. This manufactory is a modern building in every particular. Its purpose is the tanning and manufacturing of larrigans. It is fire-proof with steel roofing and the walls are sheathed in steel. The design and workmanship reflect great credit upon the builder, Mr. Arthur Charlton, who has carried it to completion in a very short period of time. The plant and machinery are thoroughly up-to-date and in accord with the advanced views of the young owner, Mr. George Lake, who, as the citizens of Bridgetown recognize, is an enterprising and progressive young citizen meriting the confidence and good will of the community. We therefore wish him every success in his new enterprise.

Belle Isle

Mrs. Maria Allen, of Yarmouth, is the guest of her uncle, Mr. Charles Wade.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Goodwin are receiving congratulations on a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilkie, of Halifax, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Frances Gidney.

Mrs. Chapman, of Amherst, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Israel P. Parker.

Mrs. A. W. Inglis, of Tupperville, spent last week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Fletcher Parker.

Mr. Robie Parker, who has been studying Civil Engineering during the past year at Mt. Allison College, Sackville, is at home at present.

Miss Maudie Coleman, who has been visiting relatives at Halifax during the past two months, is at home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nelly, of the St. James Hotel, Bridgetown, spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Abner P. Nelly.

Dr. Augustus Robinson, of Annapolis Royal, assisted by Dr. L. G. de Blois, of Bridgetown, performed a very skilful surgical operation in this locality last week.

Without a doubt the Annapolis Valley is at present the most beautiful spot on the American Continent. It has been called, and most truthfully, the Garden of the Dominion. We do not marvel that our Acadian ancestors wandered back from exile to die in the home they loved.

Councillor Sylvester Bent has placed beside the last resting place of his parents a very beautiful monument in the cemetery of St. Mary that most beautiful home of the dead; also a pretty stone has been placed to the memory of the late Henry T. Luxton, at the same place.

Gradually Dying

Fredericton, N. B., June 15.—The report from the several pulp mills in the district tonight say that the forest fires are not nearly as severe and are gradually dying. In many cases there have been heavy rains, especially in the vicinity of the Miramichi and that part of the province, Fredericton and its vicinity has so far experienced no rain, but the atmosphere has considerably cleared, evidencing the fact that rain has predominated. No further spread of fires have come to hand and it looks as if the worst was over. The crops about this locality are badly in need of rain and there is every probability tonight that it is not far off.

DAMAGE IN MAINE

Houlton, Me., June 13.—From wood ed stretches of timber land aggregating several hundred square miles, and from a thriving township which had shown much improvement during its tenure of life to barren and desolate stretches of charred trees and a hamlet now composed of only the blackened buildings supports which were formerly the town of Hillman flourished was the transition of a single week in Aroostook County as a result of the forest fires. Necessity of maintaining the advantage gained in some places and a continued fight for homes and property in a few places admitted of no let-up by the fire fighters today.

Clementsport.

Mr. A. Coffin, of Lynn, Mass., is the guest of Mrs. L. Moore for a time.

Mr. Frank Corey, of the U. A. R., Kentville, is spending his vacation with his mother, Mrs. E. Corey.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Jones, of Digby, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Jones on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Ryder and family arrived here lately from New Haven to spend the summer at their cottage.

Mr. William "Roop" arrived from Boston lately to stop a short time with his mother, Mrs. A. D. Roop.

Miss Lillian Hicks, who has been attending one of the schools at Wolfville, is spending her vacation at her home.

Miss Maggie Roop, who has been stopping in St. John, for some months, is at her home here for a time.

We are glad to see the Rev. J. Lockwood out again after his late illness. He begins to look like his former self.

Mr. Justice Longley spent a day in our village last week visiting his friends. The Judge is looking hale and hearty.

Mr. Claude Vroom, from British Columbia, paid a flying visit to his old home here a few days ago. He is a son of William V. Vroom.

Mr. Percy Rawding, son of Capt. Joseph Rawding, came here from Boston last week. He is the guest of his brother, Mr. Thomas Rawding.

Mr. and Mrs. For's Tupper have gone to Caledonia Corner, Queens County, to spend a few days with the sister of Mrs. Tdpper, Mrs. (Rev.) Little.

Mr. Howard Mussells, who has been attending school at Wolfville the last year, is spending his vacation with his parents, Capt. and Mrs. Mussells.

A very enjoyable ice-cream social under the auspices of Old Colony Di. vision Sons of Temperance was held at the sample rooms of Mr. James H. Merritt on Saturday evening last. Needless to say it was a success.

Rev. G. W. Whitman, of the Granville Ferry Methodist Church, preached a very impressive sermon in the Methodist Church here on Sabbath last in the afternoon. He and the Rev. Mr. McNeil exchanged pulpits.

A quiet wedding took place in our village last week at the Episcopal Church. The contracting parties were Mr. Albert Morse, barrister, Bridgetown, and Miss Smith, of Windsor. They spent a few days at the Parker House here before going to Bridgetown, their future home.

Our quiet village was startled on Thursday morning of last week at the report of a daring act of store-breaking and theft being perpetrated the preceding night. Some person or persons unknown broke in the store of Mr. Horatio Potter and took a quantity of things, and also into the store of Capt. Samuel Potter with the same effect, with the addition of smashing up two or three money tills and injuring a very fine safe by scolding the combination, with other damages. The perpetrators are still at large at the time of this writing.

Fruit Prospects in England

The Acadian received this week a letter from Mr. David B. Adamson, who spent last winter in Wolfville, representing Frank Hamilton & Co., apple salesmen, of Liverpool. Mr. Adamson sends the subjoined clipping from the Standard, which will be interesting reading to fruit growers.

There seems every prospect that the coming fruit season will be a remarkable one as regards output. In Kent the apple, gooseberry, and strawberry prospects are exceedingly promising. The cherry trees are in full bloom, and the crop, though somewhat later than usual, will be enough to assure consumers all they wish at reasonable prices. In Sussex the fruit farms are looking equally fine.

In the west of England the Devonshire, Cornish, and Somerset fruit producers all claim that the coming season will be one of plenty. The dessert apple growers in Somerset say they will be able to increase the output of Blenheim Orange Pippins by five and twenty per cent.

Hampshire berry farmers agree that the yield will be the largest known. Herefordshire, Worcestershire, Cambridgeshire, Cheshire and Norfolk apple, plum and berry cultivators are all in good spirits. Plums will be abundant and cheap, and 1909 is expected to be one of the best soft fruit seasons ever experienced.

In the Midlands all the fruits named will be plentiful. Late apples are especially promising. The Scottish strawberry and raspberry farmers on the Deeside look for a very heavy crop.

Expect to market fifty per cent. more berries during the summer than they did last year, and Irish fruit farmers are equally satisfied.

Hothouse grown strawberries sold in Covent Garden, London, yesterday, at 1s. per pound wholesale—an unusually low price at this time of the year. Cherries grown in English hothouses realized 10s. 6d. a basket of about half a pound.

Builds Fine Home in Stamp of Tree

Seattle, Wash., June 13.—With seven children and a wife, John Seivert, lately from Iowa, is living in a stump in the northern part of this city.

Seivert came here several months ago. He had but little money and a large family. Because of the great boom here he was unable to find an empty house and resolved to build one of his own. He bought an unimproved lot in the north part of the city, in a district where logging operations ceased but a year ago, and on going out to plan his house he found half the lot occupied by a gigantic cedar stump thirty feet high and eighteen feet in diameter, ten feet above ground.

With an auger and saw Seivert cut out a seven foot section from the south end and walked into his stump. The walls were found to be fifteen inches thick, and the whole stump was a hollow shell. He cut out windows, laid a tight floor, and made a ceiling of planking and flooring.

With a ladder he cut another door twelve feet above ground, went inside and made the windows for the second story. The third story was constructed, and a tight roof of shiplap and shingles was made over the top.

Seivert peeled off the bark and painted the stump a light green and the window and door frames pure white. The whole makes a very pretty home at a cost of only $40, and the owner has refused $2,500 for his unique abode.

SPECIAL SESSION OF TOWN COUNCIL

Street Lights Ordered.—Water Rates to be Revised.—Action Taken Relative to Other Important Matters

Council met in the council room, June 14th, present: Mayor Ruzgles and Councillors Freeman, DeWitt, Longmire and Chute.

After some discussion relative to street lighting it was resolved that the Clerk be authorized to at once order four boulevard arc lights on approval from the Acorn Brass Mfg. Company.

Resolved, that the following bills be paid—A. D. Brown $1.00 for the registration of births, Beeler & Peters, $7.48, Thomas Foster, $1.50, and Laurie Mansfield, $5.50.

Resolved, that the matter of sprinkling the street be left with the Water Committee to look into and report at once.

Resolved, that the Mayor and Councillor Chute be a committee to make arrangements about the reception by the Town of the Halifax

Board of Trade, who are to visit the town on Thursday next.

Resolved, that Councillors Longmire and Freeman be a committee to make a contract to have the engine house painted.

Resolved, that the water committee be instructed to at once rearrange the water rates and make the same more equal.

Resolved, that the Clerk at once order one hundred feet of new fire hose for the firemen.

Resolved, that the Committee on Public Property be authorized to dispose of the old fire engine to the best advantage.

Resolved, that the Clerk at once notify the D. A. R. that they must at once repair the leak in their tank.

Resolved, that this Council make the compulsory attendance clause at school operative in this town.

Adjourned to first Monday in July.

Springhill Girl Killed By Auto in Boston

Boston, June 9.—Miss Catharine MacKey, aged 23, daughter of James MacKey, of Springhill, N. S., died today from the effects of being hit by an auto near Jamaica Pond, Boston Highlands, last night. James Savage, the proprietor of the auto instruction school who was in charge of the machine, was arrested today, charged with manslaughter. In Court he pleaded not guilty, and had case continued to June 22. He was released under $4,000 bonds. Miss MacKey was a housemaid at the home of William C. Appleton, Jamaica Plain. Last night while on the way from the home of her aunt, Mrs. James Murphy, to the Appleton domicile, when the auto rounded the corner suddenly without sounding a horn, struck and fatally injured her. Her cousin, Miss Anastasia Harney, was with her but was not hurt. The dead girl came from Springhill last September. She and Miss Harney were to leave on June 21st to spend their vacation in Springhill.

A F.v.-cent Test for Poor Soil

(Country Life in America.)

The state experiment stations are doing a great work for the farmers. The following incident shows how simple some of the tests are "when you know how." A station official was going over a farm with the owner when they came to a crawfishy piece of land just back of the barn, the very weeds in which looked yellow and unhealthy.

"I am inclined to think," remarked the agriculturist, "that this land is too acid for productivity."

Taking a blue piece of paper from his pocket, he stooped and dipped the paper into some of the soil water that was found standing in a cow track. To the owner's astonishment the blue paper changed to red as soon as it was wet.

"There," said the agriculturist, "we have our proof. This is just a piece of litmus paper. For five cents you can buy a similar piece at any drug store. Its change of color shows that the land is sour. Crops cannot thrive on sour land any more than children can thrive on sour milk."

English Farmer Prospering in Berwick

Mr. A. Grevatt, of Berwick, is conducting an industry which is assuming large proportions. His work in this county has so well exemplified persevering toil and excellent judgment that we made some reference to it this issue. About four years ago Mr. Grevatt landed in Berwick from Nottingham with only a few shillings capital but with confidence in his own ability to make a success in this province. He prospered and soon set for his family. Now he owns the fine Pickering farm with its large orchard and extensive green house. This season he has sold 14,000 heads of lettuce and has raised 40,000 tomato, 20,000 cabbage, 20,000 celery, besides a large quantity of other vegetables and flowering plants. He will plant himself 15,000 tomatoes and four acres of cucumbers. This is a record of success worthy of a true Englishman.—Kentville Advertiser.

Imperial Defence

The only summary we have seen of Lord Rosebery's speech at the press conference, which has been much commented on by the press, says the St. John Times, and which is described by one correspondent as one of the greatest speeches of his lordship's career is the following:—

"Lord Rosebery was particularly serious in his reference to the European situation, pointing out that whereas all the talk is of peace all the action is in preparation for war. He said he regarded the outlook as ominous, almost appalling. He had never seen the condition of things in Europe so remarkable and so menacing as at this moment. There were features of this general preparation for war, he declared, which must cause special anxiety to the friends of the British Empire. One was forced to wonder where it was going to stop, whether it would merely bring Europe back into a state of barbarism or whether it would cause a catastrophe in which the workmen of the world would say, 'We will have no more of this madness and this foolery, which is grinding us to powder.'"

Yesterday's despatches stated that Sir Edward Grey endorsed all that Lord Rosebery had said concerning the European situation.

It Reaches the People

(By David Lyall, in British Weekly.)
Mr. Courtney Pile alighted from the train at the small station of Littleton, March, his handsome face wearing a somewhat troubled expression. He passed through the hooking-office, and found an open trap of the type usually to be hired at village inns, awaiting his orders. He had wired for it because his visit was unexpected by those who might have seen that he had a more comfortable reception. It was a mild February day, with a suggestion of spring in the gentle air, soft clouds chasing one another across the dappled sky. The roads were soft and muddy, and Mr. Pile looked critically at the somewhat sorry old crock between the shafts of the village fly and ruefully shook his head.

'How much for the lot, Simon? and how long before we get hauled up to March Manor?'
'Matter o' arf an hour, sir,' replied Simon, without blinking an eye. 'There's more go in that there old crock than you think.'
Mr. Pile swung himself up beside the driver, threw the emaciated rug gingerly over his well-out trousers, and the old crock, laying his ears well back, set off in a weird amble that was half gallop and half trot. 'They be gittin' on, sir, up to the Manor,' said the driver, inclined for a little friendly talk. 'Every day the walls gits a little bit 'igher, so to speak. It'll look tip-top when it's done.'

'Is it approved in these parts then?' inquired Mr. Pile with some interest. 'Oh, yes, sir; they says there won't be anythink to touch the new 'ouse in this part o' the country.'
'That's good, Simon, and as it should be,' remarked Mr. Pile, and relapsed into silence as they began to ascend the road to the downs, which dipped again to the sheltered valley in which the new Manor House of March was being erected for an absentee.

They reached it under thirty minutes, and long before they turned in at the avenue gates the red pile of the new masonry was visible between the spaces of the leafless trees. 'You can let me down here, Simon, and go round the back way to the stables,' said Mr. Pile when they were well within the gates; and I require you to wait there for me. I want to get back to Littleton in time for the three-ten.'
'Right, sir.'
The trap stopped, Mr. Pile alighted and at once cut across the park in a slanting direction towards the house. Once only he stopped to draw a letter from his pocket and read it through. It was almost unnecessary, because he had already made himself master of the contents, which had angered him greatly.

'Confounded cheek on Wakelyn's part—confounded!' he repeated, drawing out the word with emphasis, 'but he's a blinking good servant and we can't afford to dismiss him at this point. It would create suspicion, which is what we must avoid.'
When he reached the new building, which was being erected on the site of the old one, consumed a few months before by one of the most disastrous fires of the century, all the signs of a big undertaking being carried merrily through to its legitimate finish met his eye. Cranes were at work to assist the bricklayers, great piles of dry mortar and stacks of bricks covered the short sward, seeming to destroy for a moment the fine old turf 'in the immediate vicinity; the air was filled with the din of labor being heartily pursued.

A man high up on the gable wall caught sight of Mr. Pile approaching, and immediately began to descend to the ground. He was a big, slow man, with a somewhat inscrutable face, careless of his dress, but never slovenly; a man whose suggestion and whole bearing suggested both power and determination. A brief greeting, rather curt on Pile's part, passed between the two men, and Wakelyn waited for his superior to speak further.

'I came on account of the somewhat unusual letter I received from you yesterday, Wakelyn. I started to answer it this morning, but found it difficult; where can we talk?'
'In the little office; it is empty at the present moment,' answered Wakelyn, imperturbably, and they turned together to the small wooden shanty that had been erected for the transaction of business which required attention on the spot. It was quite comfortable within, and warmed by a small stove which sent out a bright glow. Pile closed the door, and his face hardened as he looked straight at Wakelyn.

'You exceeded your privilege, I think this time, Wakelyn. I've stood, we've all stood, a good deal from you, but this is the limit. What have you to say for yourself?'
'Nothing more than I put in my letter, sir. I can't stop here and see the work through on the present lines. I don't profess to be a saint, but the stuff that's being put into this house is the limit, if I may borrow your expression. It's dishonest, and all the more so that Lord Trammer is not here himself to overlook it.'

'A fat lot of good he'd be if he were here. So it doesn't come up to specification?'
'No,' and you know it; when I complained the Garrods have as good as told me they're within their rights, according to the orders they've received from you and Mr. Gladwyn. I won't be a party to it, that's all, and I'm quite ready to leave at the end of the week, in fact, I've made up my mind.'
Mr. Courtney Pile's face reddened very deeply.

'So it's a very high hand you'll take, Wakelyn? Whence all this new-fangled delicacy of conscience? You've been in the building trade a good many years, and I suppose this isn't the first time you've seen things that fall short of specification. It's done every day; you know that.'
'I do know it, but as I said, I won't be a party to it,' replied Wakelyn, with the same quiet, imperturbable air which had the effect of raising Mr. Pile's anger almost to a white heat.

Eczema Lodges in the Skin

Not a Blood Disease—Cured by Oil of Wintergreen Compound

For many years eczema was supposed to be a blood disease and was erroneously treated as such, but now the best authorities agree that eczema is only a skin disease and must be cured through the skin. The eminent skin specialist, Dr. D. D. Dennis, first discovered the eczema germ, and his discovery was quickly taken up in both Germany and France.

To kill the eczema germ and at the same time heal the skin, Dr. Dennis compounded oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc. The remedy is a liquid, not a mere salve, hence it sinks right into the pores of the skin. Washing with this oil of wintergreen compound seems to take the itch away at once; soon the scales drop away and the disease disappears. The prescription has now been used so long as to have proven its absolute merit.

AN ACADIAN SPRING.

Across some mirrored lake
As evening falls,
I hear the night birds give
Their vesper calls.

The tinkling bells of kine
Float down the vale
And lose their melody
Along the trail.

Forth from the old mill-race
There comes the roar
Of waters falling as
They fell of yore;

While far in yonder gorge
A restless stream
Makes music to the night
Wind's gentle dream.

Across the marshland drifts
A silvery screen
Of fog; the late moon casts
Her mystic sheen.

Upon Tawopskik's hill;
The odorous Spring
And cool, dark Earth now move
The heart to sing.

As out of memory
Faint echoes rise
And quiet Acadian days
In dim disguise,

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY THE BEST ON THE MARKET.

'I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and find it to be the best on the market,' says E. W. Tardy, editor of The Sentinel, Gainsboro, Tenn. 'Our baby had several colds that winter and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always gave it relief at once and cured it in a short time. I always recommend it when opportunity presents itself.' For sale by W. A. WARREN, BRIDGETOWN; A. E. ATLEE, ANNAPOLIS ROYAL, and BEAR RIVER DRUG STORE.

WILL SEARCH FOR THE NORTH POLE.

Paris, June 6—Walter Wellman, who is about to undertake another expedition in search of the North Pole, and Melvin Vaniman, his engineer, have added considerable improvement to the dirigible balloon which is to be taken along with them. It has been equipped with an extra set of propellers capable of being shifted while in motion, so that the balloon may be forced up or down. They have also perfected an ingenious compass, upon the principle of the sundial, and have devised a theoretical system for Arctic navigation by means of curves. The party will leave Spitzbergen in about a fortnight and the start of the pole is expected to take place about August 1.

TO MAKE A MAN OF YOUR BOY.

A philosopher once said that true education of boys is to teach them what they ought to know when they become men.

(1) To be true and to be genuine. No education is worth anything that does not include this. A man had better not know now to read, and be true and genuine in action, rather than be learned in all sciences and in all languages, and be at the same time false in heart and counterfeit in life. Above all things, teach the boys that truth is more than riches, power or possessions.

(2) To be pure in thought, language, and life—pure in mind and in body.

(3) To be unselfish. To care for the feelings and comforts of others. To be generous, noble and manly. This will include a genuine reverence for the aged and things sacred.

(4) To be self-reliant and self-helpful, even from childhood. To be industrious always, and self-supporting at the earliest proper age. Teach them that all honest work is honorable; that an idle life of dependence on others is disgraceful.

SCRAPING THE STOMACH

Dangerous and Painful Operation Avoided by Taking "Fruit-a-tives."

Guelph, Ont., Aug. 6, 1908.
I suffered for many months with dreadful Stomach Trouble, with vomiting and constant pain, and I could retain practically nothing.
My doctor stated that I must go to the hospital and undergo an operation of scraping the stomach and be fed by the bowels for weeks. All the medicine the doctor gave me I vomited at once. I was dreadfully alarmed, but I dreaded an operation and had refused.

I had heard of "Fruit-a-tives" and the great success they were having in all Stomach Troubles, and I decided to try them. To my surprise, the "Fruit-a-tives" not only remained on the stomach, but they also checked the vomiting. I immediately began to improve, and in three days the pain was easier and I was decidedly better. I continued to take "Fruit-a-tives" and they completely cured me.

Mrs. Austin Hainstock.
"Fruit-a-tives" are 50c a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, trial box 25c. At dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

HUMAN LIFE IN FOREST FIRES.

New Brunswick Boy Burned to Death in Seeking to Save Cattle From Destruction.

St. John, June 9—News of the first loss of human life in the forest fires which are sweeping parts of this province comes today from Edmundston, at the head of the St. John river. The 15-year-old son of A. Fertier, trying to save the cattle from a fire that was raging, is supposed to have become bewildered and been burned to death. His father lost horses, cattle, buildings and farm machinery.

The forest fire along the Keswick stream is still raging, although during the day a change in the wind from the northwest to the north improved the situation so far as the settlements are concerned. The flames have spread to what is known as the nine thousand acre lot, owned by the Westwick Land company, and it seems to be doomed. It is mostly timber land and has not been lumbered over for years. A man who drove over the road from Keswick to Upper Hainesville today, says that the whole of the stretch of country from Burrill Lake to Bird settlement was in flames, and nothing could prevent it from being swept clean. He regards the fire as the worst ever experienced in that section of the country.

Don't wait till your ship comes in. But take what you have and give. Spare but a little of your joy. That a downcast soul may live; Laugh, and your mirth may chase A heart's dull gloom away; Sow but a tiny seed— It may grow if it's sown today.

Plea for the Sparrow

(Written for Our Dumb Animals.)

Are you the possessor of a pear tree or a rosebush? If so, listen with patience and gratitude to the noisy English sparrow.

He is your busiest and most faithful little helper that nature affords against the multitude of enemies of both.

For upwards of thirty years the writer has been a close observer of these birds and their industry, and is not now guessing.

The great pest of the pear tree is a white borer with pink head. His grub mother lays her eggs where the bark offers protection to them, and when the infant borer is hatched he works his way to the sweet inner sap, and eats out a sumptuous home, free from danger. When a limb dies toward the tree-top it is notice of lack of sap that the borer has stopped somewhere down in the trunk, erroneously called "sun-blight." The English sparrow is particularly fond of the fledgling borers, picks them out from under loose bark and saves the orchard from destruction.

The vermin that make wormy pears begin business in the bloom. Here is the sparrow's breakfast food without cooking. Did you ever see him pick these vermin out of blossoms, flitting from one to another, working not by the hour but by the job? He does it just the same. No eight-hour law or Union dictation clips his wings or shrivels his ambition. And where he is most assiduous there will be gathered the largest and fairest fruit in the fall. No man or set of men can perform for you this trick of the sparrow.

The worm that infests rose bushes does his worst from the under side of the leaf, difficult to reach with any manner of spraying. And the spray that destroys the worm is no help to the bush.

The sparrow hustles among and under the branches and captures these worms by the thousands. Though working for his living he incidentally saves the bush and gives us roses. What is his clatter and harmless clutter compared with a fresh-leaved bush, covered with bright and perfect roses?

If the sparrow does not attack caterpillars, neither does the robin, who is not reproached for the same neglect. And what of it? They each pursue the prey of their special liking, very much like "other folks," in this respect, is it not?

Last summer some species of worms attacked a large Norway maple in the writer's yard, and devoured the leaves over a space as large as a barn door, when, suddenly, the sparrows pounced upon the scene in a bunch. They cleaned up the worms, and in the fall no trace was left of the incident.

Brown-tail moths, when loaded with eggs, are another choice morsel of the English sparrow, whatever may be written to the contrary. Things seen we know exist. Such is the line of cleavage between theory and a condition.

But the latest and most astonishing discovery against the sparrow emanates from a moth exterminator in Essex County, Massachusetts. He says the English sparrow has driven away the woodpecker. Do you tell me! Of course he has never seen a "downy" tumble a sparrow end over end, which is not infrequent, and he forgets that he is cutting down every dead tree he can find, and is plugging every hole he sees in trees not dead. Where, then, can he suppose the woodpecker, whose home is in a hole in a tree, is going to live? Certainly, if such a home cannot be found in Essex County the woodpecker will seek some place where there are trees with holes in them, or dead trees in which he can peck holes for himself. It is contemptible officialdom that makes a business of depriving the woodpecker of a domicile and, with an air of authority, charges the English sparrow with it. Even Adam accused one of his size.

And let us hope official imbecility will not charge the Chelsea fire upon our little friend, who, apparently, has so few friends. Neither does observation find that the sparrow drives away any other birds, whatever. On the contrary, other birds abuse him. If any one has fruit trees, rose bushes or woodbine, he can make no better investment for their preservation than to entice the sparrows to stay with him by feeding them well during the winter, and by furnishing shelter for them also. To insure help, cultivate the source from which it is to come. Gratitude, alone, is weak recognition of salvation, however free. The popular clamor against the English sparrow is chiefly sentimental. His beneficial service is practical and cannot be over-estimated.

Steel Company Rushing Work to fill Orders

Sydney, N. S., June 9—The present will doubtless be a banner year in the history of the iron and steel trade in Canada. The improved conditions that commenced to appear early in the year continue to be even more marked than they were at the outset. At the Dominion Iron and Steel Company's plant every department is working to its full capacity and new records in production, both as to the quantity produced, and the reduced cost of production are being constantly made.

In the steel rail department orders continue to be abundant, and the prices realized continue to be satisfactory. The steel rod department so much so that the mill in its efforts to overtake orders is running double shift, to its full capacity. In the open hearth, Bessemer blast furnace, iron ore and lime stone departments greater economic results are being obtained as the result of the efficient organization developed from years of experience.

The difficulties with the Dominion Coal Company, both in respect to the balance of the damages claimed under the decision of the Privy Council and the readjustment of the price of coal in accordance with the terms of the contracts of 1903, are in a fair way of being settled satisfactorily. Altogether there is every indication that the Directors of the Steel Company will be in a position to submit to the shareholders at the annual meeting next week the very best statement from the stockholders point of view in the history of the Company.

HARLIN FULTON, Pleasant Bay, C. B.

THE DEADLY DUST. (From the New Westminster Columbian.)

According to a bulletin recently issued by the Bureau of Labor at Washington 22,000 men and women die every year in the United States through inhaling dust in the factories where they worked. If proper ventilation was insisted on, the death rate from tuberculosis would be reduced 33 1-3 per cent. Some statistics proving that a similar preventible death rate is not maintained in Canada would be satisfactory; but the presumption is that since Canadians work at the same trades as Americans, and under no better supervision from the standpoint of hygiene, they also are dying of consumption that has been contracted in the course of the year's work. The situation calls loudly for redress, and it is capable of redress at relatively small expense to the manufacturers who employ men at dusty trades.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES DISTEMPER.

TORN FROM HIS ARMS BY ANGRY WAVES.

Niagara Falls, June 6—After an hour's struggle in the swirling waters of Niagara River, between Second and Third Sisters Islands, 150 feet above the brink of the cataract, A. Cohen, of Buffalo, who had plunged into the water to prevent his young wife's attempt at self-destruction, was forced, from exhaustion, to loosen his grip on his wife's form while being dragged ashore to safety, and the young woman was swept to death. Her body was later recovered after a desperate struggle, lodged against a rock, just above the brink of the falls.

The Canadian Newspaper Directory for 1909

We have just received from the publishers, A. McKim, Limited, of Montreal and Toronto, a copy of the 1909 Edition of the Canadian Newspaper Directory.

This is the Sixth Edition of this valuable work, which fills a very real need in Canada, and deserves a place on the desk of every business man, whether he is an advertiser or not. The Canadian Newspaper Directory lists and described 1426 periodicals in Canada and Newfoundland. Of these 135 are daily, 1015 weekly or semi-weekly, 262 monthly or semi-monthly, and 14 are published less frequently. This is a considerable increase over the last edition.

In addition to this, the Directory supplies a comprehensive Gazetteer giving the population, the chief industries, the railway, telegraph and banking facilities and other interesting features of every newspaper city, town and village in Canada. This work contains over 430 pages. It is splendidly bound and is certainly a credit alike to the publishers and to Canadian newspapers generally.

A. McKim, Limited, are particularly well qualified to edit and publish this, the standard book of reference on Canadian publications. They are the pioneers in the Advertising Agency field in the Dominion, the McKim Agency having been founded in Montreal in January, 1889, twenty years ago, by Mr. Anson McKim, who is still at the head of the business.

During all this time they have been the acknowledged leaders in this line in Canada, and the Agency business has been developed from a very small beginning—then performing only the functions of the middle-man—to a very large producing enterprise which runs into the millions.

It goes without saying then that the McKim Agency is in closer touch with the publishers of the Dominion than any other firm, and are therefore able to get the most reliable information.

The price of the 1909 Directory is $2.00.

THOUSANDS OF ACRES OF VALUABLE TIMBER LANDS DESTROYED.

St. John, N. B., June 9—The forest fires in the central portion of the Province assumed ever more dangerous proportions today. At Coldbrook near Hartland, in Carleton County, a new fire that broke out yesterday is causing great destruction of timber lands and scattered farms. The latest report from the district states that if the wind should spring up the settlement will be totally destroyed.

The Maine fire is raging over the timber lands of Hon. J. K. Fleming unstayd, and will affect the lumber industry in this region.

On the South West Miramichi and the Nashawak head waters a conflagration exists unprecedented since the great fire of nearly a hundred years ago. Thousands of acres of valuable timber lands have been swept, and many fine sporting camps have gone. It is in the heart of the big game country. Reports from Keswick, Stone Ridge and Dorin Ridge in York County, say the fire continues unabated, and that everything is parched for the want of rain.

In Maine near the border of Charlotte County forest fires have burned over 1,600 acres in Baring, 3,000 in Calais and 1,000 in Robbinston, and is now entering the township of Charlotte. Yesterday before a high wind it swept over a thousand acres in about two hours. It has reached the lowland, where it will probably be checked.

PRESIDENT OF ACADIA RESIGNED.

Dr. W. B. Hutchinson, for two years president of Acadia University, has resigned and will re-enter the work of the active ministry of the Baptist church. The resignation was tendered to the board of governors. A committee of the board waited on Dr. Hutchinson, but he pressed his resignation to take effect at once and his wish has been acceded to. At the recent convocation proceedings at Wolfville, Dr. Hutchinson presided with dignity and his address was listened to with great pleasure. It was scholarly in style and impressively delivered.

MURDER TRIAL FOR HALIFAX.

Percy Wallace, a young man of 22, will have to stand trial on a charge of murdering Mrs. Samuel Harrison in Halifax on Friday. The assault was most brutal. Mrs. Harrison had been working in the upholstering department of the Nova Scotia Furnishing Company's factory, and as she was emerging from the door, Wallace came along, caught her round the throat and forced her back through the door, throwing her to the floor. Screams brought help and Wallace was put out but he got back, made a second attack on the woman, cutting her face and digging his fingers deep into her neck, the assault and excitement causing her death. Wallace was drunk and shortly before had tried to force an entrance into a nearby house. The woman was fifty years of age.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 16, 1909.

It is reported on good authority that Mr. Beckwith, Manager of the Bridgetown Electric Light, Heat and Power Co., has been approached by a private individual, a Yarmouth gentleman, in regard to the purchase of the light plant. We understand that the matter remains in abeyance for ten days. The town has yet time to consider whether it wishes to run its own light plant or to have its proprietary rights entrusted to the hands of strangers. The arguments pro and con should be carefully weighed.

Though we are not authorized to say so we venture to assert that $25,000 would purchase the plant for the town.

Whether it would be advisable for our town to assume the additional obligation is too grave a question to be hastily settled, but there will probably never be a more opportune time than the present.

In our opinion no other system of lighting can as satisfactorily replace the one which is now established.

—The "Apple Blossom Excursion" will make a brief stop at Bridgetown tomorrow on its return from Yarmouth, reaching here at 11.55 and leaving at 1.15. The name, we regret to say, is a misnomer as the fall of the blossoms has been going on rapidly for a week past. This will doubtless be a disappointment to many of the excursionists who may be seeing the Valley for the first time. Barring this lack, however, the Valley is wearing its choicest raiment the rain of yesterday freshening and vivifying its emerald tints.

Arrangements have been made by the members of the Town Council and the merchants to meet the train with private conveyances and drive with the visitors about the town. As the party numbers about one hundred and forty, a large number of rigs will be in requisition. The Bridgetown Band will also help to extend a welcome to the excursionists.

THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

(Toronto Globe.)

The eagerness with which crop prospects are discussed in the business community even before seeding is completed shows that Canada is essentially an agricultural country. It is on this basic industry that our industrial and commercial activity must depend, and it is highly gratifying to learn that the outlook is bright in the great wheat area of what we must learn to regard as the Middle West. The Canadian Northern Railway has issued a highly satisfactory crop report covering the area tributary to that road, and from other parts of the prairie country reports are equally favorable. No district has suffered materially from the lateness of spring, virtually all the wheat being in and coarse grain seeding being well advanced. A week of fair weather has afforded an opportunity which the farmers have been quick to improve, and the first stage of the season's work can be regarded as successfully passed. Reports from the various centres show that in some favored localities the wheat is already two inches above the ground, and in others it is just appearing. In the newer districts there is the usual increase in the acreage under cultivation.

Upper Granville

Mrs. Arthur G. Galnor, of Strathcona, Alberta, is expected to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Fash early in July.

Mr. Gilbert Ray, who has been one of the "shut ins" and a patient sufferer for years, is still critically ill with no possible hope of recovery.

Mr. Edmund Clarke has returned to his home at Mr. William Clarke's, after a few weeks sojourn with his daughter, Mrs. F. Balcom. Mr. Fritz Balcom, near Annapolis, accompanied him home.

Mr. and Mrs. David Phinney, with son Byron, leave shortly for Los Angeles, Cal., accompanying their daughter, Mrs. Arnold Goodwin, and husband, at whose home they will permanently reside. Their absence will be much regretted, being old and highly esteemed residents of Granville.

Two weeks of perfect weather has added to the charm of apple blossom season and should be a fresh reminder of the beauty of our Valley. Farmers are blessed in having ample time to complete seed sowing and, notwithstanding cold weather, everything looks favorable at present for growth of fruit and crops.

Mr. William Dargie is making extensive preparations for the barrel business this season.

Mr. Ramsey has finished his cut of logs at the Kent meadow. His next cut will be at Albany.

Mrs. Ebertrand Tupper and Miss Hetty Bishop, of Bridgetown, are the guests of Miss Fraser Tupper.

Mr. Bert Wagstaff had his hand very badly cut by the trimming saw in Mr. Ramsay's mill on Thursday last.

A large barn owned by Mr. S. A. Delaney was destroyed by fire on Friday last. The origin of the fire was unknown.

Miss Mildred Armstrong, who has been attending Mt. Allison College, Sackville, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Armstrong.

Miss Clara Spurr, who has been spending the past year in New York, is visiting her brother, Mr. A. T. Spurr.

It is with regret we chronicle the death of Mr. E. G. Anderson, which took place on Sunday a. m. Although Mr. Anderson had been in ill health for some time until the past week much hope had been entertained for his recovery. His many friends will be very sorry to hear of his death. Mr. Anderson has been a man very highly esteemed in this community and will be very much missed—a friend to all and one ever willing to lend a helping hand.

Granville Ferry.

Mrs. Burrell, of Lynn, is visiting her mother, Mrs. John P. Roney.

Mrs. Robert Bath, of Bridgetown, spent Sunday last with friends here.

Miss Lottie Greatorex, of Dartmouth, is visiting relatives here.

Rev. Boyd Parker, of Barrington, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist Church on Sunday evening last.

Mr. John Wagstaff returned home last week, having spent the winter in southern latitudes on board the schr. C. W. Mills.

Mr. William R. Rhodes, one of our enterprising merchants, has opened an ice-cream parlor in connection with his grocery business.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Bent and son, Gilbert, of Paradise, visited Mrs. Bent's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Mills, one day last week.

Several men, with Mr. Wilkie Rice of Bear River as foreman, are repairing the ferry slip and building a waiting room for the convenience of the travelling public.

Mr. James Edgett and little daughter Charlotte, of Fredericton, and Mr. Donald Edgett and Miss Abbie Evans, of St. John, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Caswell.

Mr. Arthur Amberman, of the Bank of Nova Scotia staff, Annapolis Royal, is off duty for his summer vacation. He has gone to Halifax and will visit St. John before returning home.

Mrs. D. S. Sutherland returned from Boston on Wednesday last accompanied by her daughter, Miss Lillian, who spent the winter at the School of Applied Design, New York, where she was the successful winner of a scholarship for the last term.

A fish packing business is likely to be established at Port Wade by a Halifax firm.

Serpt. Eggleshaw has instructions from the Town Council that the truant law is to be strictly enforced in future.

It is expected that the erection of the club house on the grounds of the Tennis and Quoit Club will be commenced this week.

The invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Emma V. Gates, of Melvern Square, Grove Cottage, N. S., to Mr. Ralph C. Plett, of Malden Mass.

The marriage of Mr. W. V. Jones, station agent of the D. A. R. of this town, and Miss Una Hall, of Lawrencetown, takes place on Wednesday next.

A concert will be given in the Court House on July 14th, under the auspices of Autumn Leaf Rebekah Lodge I. O. O. F. An excellent programme is being prepared.

The D. A. R. steamship service between Yarmouth and Boston have been increased to four trips a week, Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, beginning on Monday last.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Russell Longmire, of Lower Granville, to Mr. William Augustus Greaves is announced to take place on Wednesday, June 30th.

Four gasoline street lamps have been ordered by the Town Council to test their suitability for the lighting of the town. It will be about a month before they will be received and installed.

Burglars effected an entrance into the stores of Capt. Samuel Potter and Horatio Potter at Clementsport last week and besides carrying off goods damaged a fine safe by spoiling the combination.

The fine farm of David B. Phinney, Granville, was sold last Friday to Mr. Harry Miller of this town, for the sum of $4,000, which was an exceptional figure for so valuable a farm. The auction of stock and household furniture took place on Saturday afternoon and was largely attended.

The many friends of Mrs. Howard Bath are desirous to learn of her promotion to the position of Superintendent of St. Luke's Hospital, New York, which is one of the highest emoluments pertaining to her profession. Our Nova Scotia girls abroad continue to make good records for themselves.

A recent instance has come to our notice which emphasizes the value of the Monitor-Sentinel as an advertising medium especially in the sale of real estate. The owner of a certain property which was advertised and sold recently through $16 worth of advertising in the Monitor-Sentinel spent $60 in advertising in the provincial dailies without appreciable results. For profitable publicity try your home paper.

There will be a mammoth Farmer's Picnic from the Valley to the Agricultural Farm, Truro, on Saturday, June 26th. A special train will run, leaving Bridgetown at 6.50 a. m., Kingsport at 8.10, and Kentville at 9 a. m., returning leaves Truro at 5.15 o'clock. This gives an excellent opportunity to spend about 6 hours at the Agricultural Farm and visiting the Park and other attractions of Truro. The fare is a very low one being $1.50 for all stations from Bridgetown to Wolfville, including the C. V. R., and $1.45 for other stations, Wolfville to Clarksville.

One of our well-known professional gentlemen, Albert Morse, Esq., gave his friends somewhat of a surprise last week by returning home accompanied by his bride after a few days' absence at a summer resort in the western part of the county. Mrs. Morse is favorably known to many residents of our town as Miss Alice Gray Smith, having for several years been accustomed to spend some weeks in our town during the summer season. Many friends will unite with the Monitor-Sentinel in extending cordial congratulations and best wishes to the happy pair.

The Diocesan Synod of Nova Scotia meets in Halifax next week. The first session of the Synod proper will be on Tuesday morning and meetings will likely continue morning and afternoon until Friday, with services and missionary meetings in the evening. This year the whole will be pre- faced with a "Quiet Hour" for the clergy, in St. Stephen's Chapel, conducted by the Dean of Nova Scotia, on Monday evening. The lay-representatives of the parish of Bridgetown are Messrs. J. B. Whitman and A. Morse. Mrs. Underwood will accompany the Rector and visit in Dartmouth whilst he is in attendance at Synod.

LOCAL AND SPECIAL.

We are unfortunately compelled to hold over a lot of correspondence and other matter now in type.

John W. Hamilton, civil engineer of Amherst, passed through today on his way to Port Wade on the survey of deep water terminus of the H. & S. W. at that place.

Nova Scotia won the inter-maritime match, defeating Prince Edward Island by ten points and New Brunswick by forty-eight. The home team scored a total of 739.

Mr. White, the tanner in Mr. Lake's new tannery and larrigan factory, met with an unfortunate accident this morning by getting his left arm caught in the machinery and breaking it in two places.

Among our young people returning from the various schools and colleges this month are LeMoine Ruggles, Robert Roberts, Frank Johnson, Fred Kinney, Hetty Cropley, Marguerite Hicks, Florence Lee, Laura Graves, Blanche Bent.

The members of the Senior Mission Band will give a concert in the Baptist Church, Wednesday evening, the 23rd, at eight o'clock, program consisting of music, recitations, readings and dialogue. Silver collection will be taken.

The first match base-ball game of the season was played on Saturday afternoon, upon the grounds leased for the season in the rear of the Tennis Club grounds, between Bridgetown and Paradise, Bridgetown winning 7-4. At a former game played at Paradise the week previous the score was 16-6 in favor of Paradise.

DURLING-CROCKER.

Among the many pretty home weddings that have taken place in the Deering district, says a recent issue of Portland News, was that which occurred on May 27th, when Miss Elva Millicent Durling and Mr. Leland Winfield Crocker were married from the groom's home, 16 Richardson St.

The ceremony was performed at 3.30 o'clock by Rev. Henry F. Korman, rector of St. Stephen's church. The bride was charming in a gray broadcloth travelling suit. She carried white roses.

Only the intimate family and a few friends, were present. Both young people are well known in this city and the suburbs, where they have many friends who will wish them happiness.

Miss Durling comes from Canada, but has been for several years a resident of this city. She is a charming young lady and has hosts of friends.

Mr. Crocker is the son of Mrs. Nellie J. Crocker and has lived for the past ten years in the Deering district. He is a well known bookkeeper at the McDonald planing mill and is highly respected by all who know him.

There was a large number of presents, including many beautiful pieces of cut glass and silverware. After a honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Crocker will reside at 281 Brackett street.—Portland News.

(The bride is a niece of Mrs. Avar Anderson, of this town, and is favorably known here.—ED.)

Obituary.

EDWARD G. ANDERSON.

Annapolis County has lost one of its most prominent and progressive agriculturists in the death of Edward G. Anderson, of Round Hill, who has for some time been in failing health and a week ago suffered a stroke of paralysis which proved fatal on Sunday morning.

Mr. Anderson was sixty-six years of age and had been a life-long resident of the county and possessed one of the finest farms in the Valley. He was generally esteemed and favorably known throughout the county and numbered a host of personal friends who will sadly miss him.

Mr. Anderson married Miss Caroline Willett, of Granville, by whom he is survived. He leaves also one sister, Mrs. E. K. Spimney, of Yarmouth.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon from the Church of England, of which the deceased was a member.

NOTICE.

The excursion of the Halifax Board of Trade now taking a trip through the Valley will arrive here tomorrow at 11.55 a. m. and will take lunch here, remaining about one hour and twenty minutes. The Council have made arrangements to meet the delegation with the Band and the citizens are cordially requested to be on hand with teams in case the visitors should wish a drive about the town. If time will permit, about one hundred and forty make up the party.

H. RUGGLES, Mayor.

SUPREME COURT.

The June term of the Supreme Court opened here yesterday, Judge Longley presiding.

The first case on the docket was VanBuskirk vs. Salter, which was an assault case. The decision was reversed. J. J. Ritchie for plaintiff; O. T. Daniels for defendant.

The case Brown vs. Oyer and Coyle was settled. These were the only two jury cases on the docket, with the exception of the King vs. Dewitt which is being tried as we go to press.

A number of non-jury cases were continued over from yesterday.

The House Fly

In recent years the part the common house-fly plays in the economy of a community has been emphasized by the work of health officers in all parts of the world. Formerly, this insect was considered as merely a general nuisance—a dirty fellow fond of wallowing in slime, or a gay sipper fond of tickling; the skin of listless summer lollers; but now it must be looked upon as a dangerous enemy of man, on account of the fact that it is the agent of transmission of some of the worst infectious diseases. It has been proved beyond a doubt that the house-fly may, and does, spread the germ of tuberculosis (consumption) and the germ of typhoid fever, as well as those of the more common summer intestinal diseases, from one individual to another. Such being the case, it behooves us to guard against the enemy by taking such preventive measures as will reduce the liability to infection.
 First of all, let us get a glimpse into the life history of this great disease-carrier. The female house-fly lays its whitish, wheat-like eggs in clusters of about 120 in decaying animal and vegetable matter, preferably in horse manure. The eggs hatch in a few hours and bring forth maggots which continue feeding and growing in the decaying mass for about six days in warm weather before changing to pupae within brown, pupae-cases. After remaining about six days as inactive pupae the adult flies emerge to begin a new brood. It will be seen then that it requires 12 or 13 days in warm weather for a complete generation of the house-fly, the season's progeny of a single overwintered female may be incredibly large. For example, if on May 1st one female deposits 100 eggs, 60 of which are female, and 10 of these survive to maturity, then on May 15th there would be 10 females, and on the same calculation, on May 30th there would be 100 females, and on June 15th, 1,000 females; June 30th, 10,000 females; July 15th, 100,000 females; July 30th, 1,000,000 females; August 15th, 10,000,000 females; August 30th, 100,000,000 females; September 15th, 1,000,000,000 females, on the supposition, too, that half of the eggs are female and that only one-sixth of these would reach maturity and lay eggs. As a matter of fact the number will be limited only by breeding opportunities.
 Secondly, let us examine the relation of the house-fly to certain diseases. We notice that the maggots live and feed in manure piles and box privies, and in places of like character, and that the adult flies swarm from their breeding places to kitchens and dining rooms, where they are found on all kinds of foods. Germs gathered by the flies at refuse deposits are carried and left by them on their visits to the kitchen. In this way the disease spreads to healthy persons.
 Thirdly, when we come to the question of remedies, much can be done along the line of prevention by (1) the use of screens on all windows and doors to prevent the access of flies to the house; (2) the use of sticky, or under certain conditions, poison papers; (3) the proper disposal of horse manure and garbage every week to some dark place tightly screened, and the liberal use of air-slaked lime about the stalls and gutters; and (4) the adoption of the dry-earth closet, where there is no flush system.

PREMATURE BURIAL.

To the Editor of the Sunday Post:
 Sir,—I want to thank you for the article on premature burial that appeared in your paper recently. It has long been a subject of vital importance to me, for my mother, when young, narrowly escaped that fate; she always lived in fear, so we promised, in case of her death occurring first, to delay burial until decomposition set in, and am happy to think we were able to carry out her wish.
 There is a society in France where the supposed dead are placed in a room with clothing and restoratives near at hand. They are connected in some way to an office near by, where electric wires announce the least movement, and aid quickly arrives. It is said to be incredible how many have been thus saved.
 I have long wished a society of that kind might be started here, but it seems to me that it is a matter to be taken up by the community, not the individual.
 It would be too bad if only those who could afford to join a society would be benefited, whereas rich and poor alike should feel sure of such protection. It would remove half the terror from death, as it is a horrible fate to contemplate, especially as it is utterly impossible to know by any test when the spirit has left its earthly tenement.

SUGAR IS A DISINFECTANT.

In many parts of Europe it is customary among the people to burn sugar in sickrooms, a practice which is considered by physicians as an innocent superstition, neither beneficial nor harmful.
 Prof. Trillbert of the Pasteur institute at Paris has, however, demonstrated recently that burning sugar develops formic acetylene hydrogen, one of the most powerful antiseptic gases known. Five grams of sugar (77.16 grains) were burned under a glass bell holding ten quarts. After the vapor had cooled bacilli of typhus, tuberculosis, cholera, smallpox, etc., were placed in the bell in open glass tubes, and within half an hour all the microbes were dead.
 If the sugar is burned in a closed vessel containing putrefied meat or the contents of rotten eggs, the offensive odor disappears at once. The popular faith in the disinfecting qualities of burnt sugar appears therefore to be well founded.—Scientific American.

FLOODS AT FERNIE.

Fernie, B. C., June 4—Elk River is on the rampage. Small shacks, lumber trees and bridges are being washed away in and around here. The Elk Lumber Company and Fernie Lumber Company have lost much timber as a result. Residents in the river flats have lost a large amount of cattle, garden stuffs and buildings. The major portion of West Fernie is inundated, and families are moving out daily. Fernie annex is also suffering. A large boom of logs in the river above the city is expected to break away any moment.

A Contemptible Vice

(Houston Post.)
 Several years ago The Post called attention to the worthy work of a man who lives in Halifax, Nova Scotia. He is Mr. George Wright, who at his own expense has been conducting an intelligent and earnest warfare against profanity in public places. His work is not confined to his own country, but extends to all the cities of British North America and the United States. It can not be said that he has approximately succeeded in accomplishing the task he has undertaken, but he has enlisted the aid of many potent influences and the time must come when the unspeakable nuisance which he combats will practically disappear.
 Profanity is one of the most contemptible vices in the category and one that is well nigh universal. Certain forms of it are prevalent even among women who are educated and otherwise refined, but nobody can be surprised at this, when it is remembered that it is now impossible for a girl to grow up in an American city without hearing the vilest oaths almost every day of her life.
 Boys begin to swear almost as soon as they are able to crawl, and it becomes a habit that clings to them through life. It is impossible for women and children to walk the streets without hearing the loungers ripping out oaths of the most disgusting nature. Naturally, the time comes when such profanity fails to shock them.
 It seems impossible to enforce the laws against this most insidious vice. The only cure for it seems to be the systematic development of public sentiment that may ultimately banish it, and it is the creation of a healthy public sentiment for which Mr. Wright strives.
 There are a few communities where the police promptly arrest every person who swears audibly on the street, and where this policy has been pursued some improvement has resulted. Indeed, the results have been so encouraging that Mr. Wright is now endeavoring to induce police officials in many of the larger cities to arrest every person guilty of profanity in public places or on public thoroughfares.
 The Post regrets to say that Houston is not entirely free from the vice of profanity, however superior it is in most of the attributes of true christian civilization. It is not uncommon to hear on the principal streets oaths of such intensity that they almost scorch one's ear drums. Probably in time, either through the rigid enforcement of the law or the creation of a virile public sentiment, the evil may be corrected. It is to be hoped so.
 Sam Jones used to say that the cussor works for the devil without pay and boards himself, and that to catch a cussor, Satan never even went to the trouble to bait his hook. Anyway, public profanity is inexpressibly vulgar as well as sinful and whoever breaks himself of the habit, is something more of a gentleman than one who clings to the vice.

OF INTEREST TO FARMERS AND MECHANICS.

Farmers and mechanics frequently meet with slight accidents and injuries which cause them much annoyance and loss of time. A cut or bruise may be cured in about one-third the time usually required by applying Chamberlain's Liniment as soon as the injury is received. This liniment is also valuable for sprains, soreness of the muscles and rheumatic pains. There is no danger of blood poisoning resulting from an injury when Chamberlain's Liniment is applied before the parts become inflamed and swollen. For sale by W. A. WARREN, BRIDGETOWN; A. E. NEW METHOD OF KEEPING POTATOES.

The United States Consul-General at Frankfurt, Mr. Richard Guenther, reports that a German publication, the "Practical Advisor in Fruit Raising and Gardening," states that a new method for keeping potatoes and preventing sprouting consists of placing them on a layer of coke. Dr. Schiller, of Brunswick, who has published the method, is of the opinion that the improved ventilation by means of coke is not alone responsible for the result, but believes that it is due to the oxidation of the coke, which, however, is a very slow one. Coke always contains sulphur, and it is very possible that the minute quantities of oxides of carbon and sulphur which result from the oxidation mixing with the air and penetrating among the potatoes are sufficient to greatly retard sprouting. Potatoes so treated are said to keep in good condition until the following July.

WHAT THE BOY WROTE.

A young man once wrote to his father, saying, "I am well, only I don't feel like making any sort of physical exertion." Thousands of people feel exactly like that young man—and they are not lazy people, either. They are, generally, dyspeptics, with a first touch of indigestion; they need a short course of Mother Seigel's Syrup, to put their stomach, liver and bowels into healthy activity, so that their food will nourish and strengthen them. Mr. George J. Henry, of Shippigan P.O., Gloucester Co., N.B., who suffered for years from Dyspepsia, writes: "I became weak and almost unable to work. After trying many medicines without success I took several bottles of Mother Seigel's Syrup and it gave me relief at once. I recommend it as much superior to all other medicines for stomach troubles."—Price 60 cts. per bottle. Sold everywhere. A. J. White & Co., Ltd., Montreal.

MY LUCKY DAY

Mr. Thomas Wylie (Box 384), Calif., says:—"It was the luckiest day of my life when I struck PSYCHINE, for I truly believe I shouldn't be alive now but for that."
 "A neglected cold was the beginning of my trouble, and what so med to be a simple ailment, soon developed into a serious and dangerous condition. I got so low that it was scarcely possible for me to walk around, and I lost so much flesh that I looked like a skeleton. I was just about ready to 'hand in my checks,' although only 20 years of age. The medicine the doctor gave me made me worse and I got disgusted. Then I struck PSYCHINE."
 "PSYCHINE did miracles for me. The first bottle gave me new life and courage, and in less than no time I began to put on flesh rapidly, and I felt as on the high road to recovery. My appetite returned, and I 'ate like a hunter,' as the saying goes. My friends were surprised, and hardly knew me. In three months I was as strong and well as ever, and returned to work in the mill. I have not had a day's illness since. Nobody could wish for better health than I enjoy, and it is all owing to PSYCHINE. It should be in everybody's hands."

A SUPPOSABLE CASE.
 This story is being told on a Kansas lawyer. The lawyer was arguing a case before a judge, and desiring to illustrate by supposing a case, he did so, as follows: "We will suppose, your honor," he said, "that your honor were to steal a horse."
 "No, no, no," interrupted the judge "not at all, not at all, sir. 'Tain't a supposable case, sir."
 "Very well, begging your honor's pardon," said the eager lawyer, with more zeal than prudence, "very well, then, supposing that I should steal a horse."
 "Ah, yes, yes," said the judge, "that is a very different thing, very different, Mr. X. Proceed, sir."
NO LUCK.
 An old ducky wanted to join a fashionable city church, and the minister, knowing it was hardly the thing to do and not wanting to hurt his feelings, told him to go home and pray over it. In a few days the ducky came back. "Well, what do you think of it by this time?" asked the preacher. "Well, sah," replied the colored man, "ah prayed an' prayed an' de good Lawd, he says to me, 'Rstus, ah wouldn't bodder mah haid about dat no mo'. Ah've been trying to git into dat church mahse' for de las' twenty yeas an' ah ain't done had no luck.'"
A MODERN IMPROVEMENT.
 Three doctors were operating on a man for appendicitis. After the operation was completed one of the doctors missed a small sponge. The patient was reopened, the sponge found within, and the man sewed up again. Immediately the second doctor missed a needle. Again the patient was opened and closed. Then the third doctor missed a pair of scissors. "Gentlemen," said the victim, as they were about to open him up again, "for heaven's sake, if you're going to keep this up, put buttons on me."
 Angry patron—That's the third time you've given me the wrong number. You must have what they call the telephone ear.

HYGIENIC VALUE OF WORK.

(By Emily Tolman.)

An eminent physician, Dr. R. C. Cabot, in a paper read before the United States Social Science Association, bears emphatic testimony to the hygienic value of work. He says: "We think it is not sufficiently realized that work is a great, if not the greatest, factor in keeping well. Physicians sometimes tell a man to give up work, without realizing that they are compelling almost as serious a change as if they told him to give up eating. My convalescent patients sometimes say, 'I don't feel fit for work,' and the answer is, 'You will never be fit to work if you wait till you feel like it. The only thing that will make you feel better is the tonic and stimulus of getting to work.'" As an example of what work will do for a man, Dr. Cabot mentions the former Premier of England, Mr. Arthur Balfour, who was physically miserable until he was induced by a wise physician to enter upon his strenuous public career.

"It is quite a chore to learn to hang around," was the remark of an active business man who had been persuaded by his wife to take a vacation, and was trying to kill time at a certain summer resort. What he needed was some interesting avocation to substitute for the usual daily routine. In the midst of toil we may long for leisure; but when the leisure comes, most of us soon tire of it, and find ourselves ready to sing with Wordsworth in his "Ode to Duty," "Me this uncharted freedom tires."

I groan beneath the weight of chance desires." People with nothing to do fall easy victims to ennui, and to what a little girl called "nervous prosperity." "Properly regulated work," says a student of nervous disorders, "strengthens the nerves and protects against neurasthenia." No doubt Helen Gould working hours at her desk, managing her many charities, is a happier and healthier woman than the fashionable idler.

When the historian Parkman was debarr'd by ill-health from his chosen literary pursuits, he engaged in an other form of work. Sitting in a wheel chair, he cultivated his garden and became the authority of his time on rose culture.

A delicate young woman who had been without a housemaid for several weeks, smilingly said to the writer, "I am doing my own work now, and I am afraid it agrees with me."

A woman physician, believing in the hygienic value of work, established a summer sanitarium in the country, where she has had notable success with nervous invalids. Work and outdoor life are the principal factors in the treatment. Here ladies who have never done a useful thing in their lives engage in light household tasks, and do such gardening as their strength will permit. Wielding the trowel or the hoe, they learn to watch with interest the growing plants, and to eat with zest the fruits of their toil. In bad weather they are employed in weaving rugs or some other useful indoor occupation.

"Get work, get work. Be sure 'tis better than what you work to get," says Mrs. Browning. While this is true, the value of the product undoubtedly affects the value of the work. Hence exercise merely for the sake of exercise is less beneficial than that which produces a desirable result. A walk taken merely for a constitutional is more fatiguing and far less healthful than a walk which leads to the accomplishment of some worthy object, or one taken in the company of a friend, when the time is spent in agreeable conversation. "In valuable exercise," says Dr. Cabot, "there is no self-reference. Attention is turned away from self."

The convalescent woman is usually easier to deal with than the convalescent man, because there are so many light tasks in which she can employ herself and occupy her mind, while the man, unable to go to his office or engage in his regular business, is often at a loss for diversion. That was a wise young physician who, on recovering from a long siege, of typhoid fever, employed his convalescence in knitting, while his wife read aloud from some entertaining book.

Children are naturally fond of work. At least this is true when they see their elders at work, and should be taken advantage of in early years. It is often easier for the mother to do the work alone than to accept the eagerly proffered help of the child, but the child being more important than the work, it is better to have the work less well done, or to be hindered in its accomplishment, if thereby the child is trained in habits of industry and helpfulness.

Some congenial occupation is essential to the health of every human being. I even doubt if unceasing grinding, monotonous toil is worse or more wearisome than rapid, monotonous idleness.

ALLOW NO QUARRELS AT MEALS

In many families, especially at this season of the year, when every member from the head of the family down to the little six-year-old shaver feels hot and tired and cross, there seems to be a sort of unwritten law to the effect that all the unpleasantness of the day shall be aired and discussed at the table.

Things that have gone awry, unsettled grievances and disagreeable and gloomy subjects seem to be in order only when the whole family is seated at the table for the evening meal. In such an atmosphere the meals are hastily eaten and indigestion is the certain result.

With all the good things of the season on the table now, it does seem a shame to spoil an enjoyable dinner by wrangling and quarrelling. It kills hunger, breeds ill-will, results in dyspepsia and breaks up all semblance of home life. Too much conversation at the table is perhaps bad, but it can never equal the harm done by vindictive arguments or even a stubborn angry silence. Perhaps every member of the family sits down to the table with the avowed intention of preserving the peace—at least as far as his responsibility in the matter is concerned. A trivial thing often leads to a general family row.

Perhaps little Mary, down at the end of the table, has, in a moment of negligence, conveyed the last bit of preserves—Mamma, justly indignant, but a trifle too hasty, fairly withers Mary with her stern reproaches. Mary, also out of temper, answers back and the ball is started rolling. Mary is sent away from the table, even though tired Papa ventures an opinion that she might perhaps be given another chance. Then at this point big sister Sue gives a few suggestions as to how children should be trained. Mamma is angry, Sister Sue is determined to have her say, and the whole family goes up in the air. The entire meal is spoiled—and there you are.

The meal hour is surely the time when cheerfulness and pleasant subjects should be the watchword of the family. Each member of it should try to speak of the very pleasantest things that have happened to him during the day. Laughter and smiles should be in order. Let every one come to the table smiling and it will take a mighty disagreeable topic to turn all of those smiles into scowls and frowns. If the table manners of the children are not what they ought to be, do not nag them so persistently that they are half afraid to eat half a mouthful of food. Correct them quietly and firmly and attend to punishments and further instructions at some other time.

Do not bury your husband in a perfect avalanche of questions the moment he sits down to the table and, on the other hand, impress upon him that he must reserve the unpleasant financial affairs of the household for discussion with you at another time. Be cheerful yourself. Impress upon each member of the family the value of a smiling countenance, cheerful topics and the obligation resting upon him to do all in his power to make the meal a pleasant one. It will pay in many ways and the benefit is mutual.

HELPFUL HINTS.

Paint that sticks to glass can be removed with hot vinegar.

Squeeze a few drops of lemon in the water in which potatoes are boiled just before they are done and they will not turn black.

In a large family it is well to save time and labor by folding sheets and towels as soon as they are dry and running them through the wringer.

To prevent new clothespins from breaking pour boiling hot water over them and let them stand until the water is cold before using the pins.

If soda is mixed with flour in making ginger cookies with sour milk instead of being dissolved in milk, as is the usual way, they will be lighter.

A good way to make starch for dark dresses is to place lump starch in a pan and color a dark brown in the oven; then make in the usual way.

Do you think it a crime to yield to spring lassitude? When you feel as though you could no longer drag around, instead of resisting it, indulge in a nap.

Luncheon potatoes—Wash medium-sized potatoes and cut in two lengthwise. Salt and pepper them well and cover with grated cheese. Bake half an hour in a hot oven.

To clean plaster of paris ornaments cover them with a thick coating of corn starch, and allow this to become perfectly dry. Then it may be brushed off, and the dirt with it.

Big Paper Mills and Parisian Corset Company's Factory Destroyed

Quebec, June 9.—What threatened to be one of the disastrous conflagrations that periodically visit the Ancient Capital, declared itself shortly after noon today in the heart of the mill and lumber and wooden house district of St. Roch, almost lining the track of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and close to Prince Edward Street.

By one o'clock the lumber mills of Beland and Gignac, the biggest in the district, and several adjoining dwellings were in flames.

At two o'clock the fire seemed to be under control. The water supply was good and detachment of the R. C. G. A. from the Citadel was sent down in charge of Lieut. Tilmaine to assist the firemen. They did good work in scattering the lumber piles near the mill which had taken fire and which were burning fiercely.

The Corset Factory of the Parisian Corset Company was totally destroyed and so far twenty to thirty houses have gone up in smoke.

On Lallament Street all the houses have been burned from Dorchester Street as far as the Lion Leather Factory on Caron Street, and on both sides of the street. It looked for some time as though the fire would spread along Dorchester Street but here to was fortunately stopped.

The Gignac and Beland lumber mill, the lumber piles adjoining, and the Parisian Corset Factory, owned by Mr. Ernest Ross, are the largest losses, though many of the private dwellings on Prince Edward Street were valuable ones. The loss will run from $100,000 to $150,000. Only by the plentiful water supply and exertions of the firemen were the flames stemmed at all.

BEWARE OF OINTMENTS FOR CATARRH THAT CONTAIN MERCURY

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by J. C. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. Price 75c. per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

LOOKS FOR SUDDEN WAR.

Winnipeg, June 1.—War without a minute's notice is what the Earl of Clanwilliam expects. The Earl and Countess of Clanwilliam are spending a couple of days in the city on their way to the Pacific coast. Germany, the Earl says, only awaits a favorable opportunity to pick a quarrel with England, and they will let loose the dogs of war without notice of any kind. England is, however, awakening to the crisis and is prepared for eventualities. The Earl says England is grateful to all the colonies for their offers. He points out that a Dreadnought would be of no use in Canada, but would have to be near England to be of service. A couple of cruisers could, however, be kept in Canada and they would serve as training schools for a big naval reserve.

A BLACKING FOR THE KITCHEN STOVE.

Put a tablespoonful of molasses, a piece of soap the size of an egg, a quarter of a cake of patent stove polish and a cupful of black coffee into a tin can or any old metal dish. Set this upon the stove when it is lukewarm. Have handy a stick five inches long with a rag tied to the end to act as a swab. Slip your hand into a paper sack, and swab diligently. The rag should be woolen. The more it is used the brighter the stove. Keep adding coffee as the heat of the stove dries the swab. Rub hard and fast before the stove gets dry.

REMOVING SCORCH.

An old negro laundress is responsible for the following cure for bad scorched places caused by too hot irons: A half pint of vinegar is put on the stove in a porcelain-lined saucepan. To this is added the juice of a large onion and two ounces of Fuller's earth. The mixture is boiled for five minutes, strained, cooled and bottled.

In removing the scorch a little of the mixture is put on a clean white linen rag and rubbed over the scorched place until it disappears. Several applications may be necessary.

Hawking Machines.

Catarrh Sufferers Are Nothing But Hawking, Spitting and Blowing Machines; Says an Authority.

Is it possible that in these days when cleanliness and sanitary reform is being preached in the churches, schools and at public gatherings, that thousands of people will continue to suffer from catarrh when there is an absolutely certain remedy always on hand.

Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me) is a pleasant, medicated and antiseptic air. Breathe it in and it will cure catarrh. It will stop foul breath, watery eyes, and crusts in the nose in a few days.

Mrs. H. W. Wilson, of Johnson St., Wallaceburg, Ont., says: "Yes, we are great friends to Hyomei for the reason that Mr. Wilson has had catarrh for several years and tried several remedies and doctors, but nothing has relieved the trouble like Hyomei. His trouble is from pains across the eyes and a burning or huskiness in his throat. Sometimes much difficulty in breathing, the glands in his eyes and nose swollen and the disease made him literally sick all over. He cannot say enough in praise of Hyomei, and there is nothing that can give better relief to catarrh than this remedy, which we heartily recommend."

A complete Hyomei outfit, consisting of a strong, hard rubber pocket inhaler and a bottle of Hyomei, costs only $1.00, and extra bottles, if afterwards needed, cost only 50 cents each. S. N. Wearse sells it and guarantees it to do exactly as advertised.

Hyomei also cures Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and Infant's Croup.

STOMACH TROUBLES.

Many remarkable cures of stomach troubles have been effected by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One man who had spent over two thousand dollars for medicine and treatment was cured by a few boxes of these tablets. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at W. A. WARREN'S, BRIDGETOWN; A. E. ATLEE'S, ANNAPOLIS ROYAL; and BEAR RIVER'S DRUG STORE.

A new anesthetic is reported to be coming into use in London and to be received with high praise by the profession. It is called stovaine, and its special merit is that it can be used in the case of patients whose hearts are so weak as to preclude the use of either chloroform or ether. Stovaine is administered by spinal injection, and renders the patient insensible to pain, but not unconscious.

would not be so. We know one thing and that is the sacrifice of vegetable and animal life is required to sustain human beings. We consume millions of cattle, sheep, poultry and fish every year in addition to billions of bushels of wheat, grain, fruit and vegetables, and we will continue to devour these things in still larger quantities because our numbers are increasing and we cannot live without eating. In other words there can be no life without death, and as far as we can reason the matter out death must increase as life multiplies for more life means more food and more food means more death. In the light of this reasoning the Christian Science theory of life is not explainable, because the body is subject to death like all the rest of creation. When you come to the spiritual realm it is a different matter, but we will discuss that in another issue.
