GERMAN CORRESPONDENT SUGGESTS EARLY COLLAPSE

Hints at Russian Advance to Constantinople; Roumanians Said to Have Forced Way into Transylvania; Allies Win in Intense Fighting in Macedonia

London, Aug. 30.—(New York Times cable).—The Daily Telegraph correspondent at Rotterdam sends the following:

"The possibility of startling developments following Roumania's entry into the war, is foreboded by the Berlin correspondent of the T. in a despatch which must have passed through the German censorship, he suggests the early collapse of the war by reason of a Russian advance through the Balkans to Constantinople, and the complete isolation of the Central Powers."

ROUMANIANS STRIKE QUICKLY

Paris, Aug. 30.—The Petit Parisien publishes a report that the Roumanians having forced their way into Transylvania, have occupied two important cities beyond the mountains.

London, Aug. 30.—"It is persistently predicted here," writes the Central News correspondent at Zurich, Switzerland, "that Roumanian cavalry has crossed the Rotherodan Pass, and is approaching Hermannstadt, Hungary."

SEVERE FIGHTING

Paris, Aug. 30.—Severe fighting is in progress in Macedonia, the war office reported officially today. The statement says the French gained ground west of the Vardar River. Bulgarian attacks west of Lake Ostrovo were repulsed by the Serbians.

The Entente Allies bombarded Bulgarian positions on the Struma front and near Lake Doiran.

BRITISH SILENCE BULGAR GUNS

London, Aug. 30.—Bulgarian batteries were silenced by the British after an artillery engagement on Monday and Tuesday, announced the war office today. "On the Struma front," the announcement says, "British artillery silenced the Koprivna bridge, on Monday night, and the following morning. Our artillery retaliated and succeeded in silencing the enemy batteries. Yesterday our aeroplanes bombarded Drama station and troops and transports at Poma, apparently with successful results. On the Doiran front, near Doidelid, our batteries dispersed an enemy working party."

BULGARS AND GREEKS FIGHT

Paris, Aug. 30.—The city of Drama, in northeastern Greece, has been seized by Bulgarian troops with a view to the capture of the city. The British correspondent at the scene reports that the Bulgarians captured three forts and took prisoner the Greek garrison of 120 men, and that some soldiers were killed in the fighting. This news is confirmed, the correspondent adds, by refugees who have reached Athens. It was announced in Athens last week, that Germany and Bulgaria had given a written undertaking to Greece that their troops would not enter Kavala, Drama or Serres.

New York, Aug. 30.—A cable to the Herald from London is as follows: "The employment of three army corps of Turkish troops for active operations against the Roumanians is stated to be the purpose of the Central Empires, according to dispatches from Bucharest. This is declared to be the solution proposed by the Prussian general staff."

It is asserted that the Prussians have decided that no Roumanians can be spared for the Roumanian front.

Col. Taylor, a Swiss military expert, doubts if Turkey can provide 120,000 men for an outside expedition, but he says this outside participation by Turkey would be a logical move.

JAMES L. HEANS AND MISS BERTHA BROWN WED

A wedding of much interest was solemnized this afternoon at four o'clock at the residence of Charles F. Brown, 88 High street, when his daughter, Miss Bertha Brown, was united in marriage to James Leonard Heans, son of Mrs. James Heans of 78 Paradise row. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Neil McLaughlin, pastor of the Portland Methodist church.

The bride was attired in a charming gown of white with a train of orange blossoms and carried a bridal bouquet of roses. The house was nicely decorated for the occasion and the ceremony was performed under a floral arch.

Mr. and Mrs. Heans left on a yachting trip on the river and on their return will reside in the city. They received handsome presents, including cut glass.

CONGRATULATIONS TO HON. CHARLES DALTON

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Aug. 30.—Hon. Charles Dalton has received an address of felicitation from the Catholic congregation of Digby, his native village, on the honor conferred upon him by the Pope, that of being made Knight Commander of the order of St. Gregory the Great.

HERE ARE THE FIRST FRUITS

Enemy Abandons Part of Transylvania To the Roumanians

Berlin, Aug. 30.—(Via London).—The abandonment of part of Transylvania to the Roumanians is forecasted in dispatches from newspaper correspondents at the Austrian army headquarters.

The correspondents intimate that the Central Powers will not attempt to defend the entire Roumanian border line, owing to its crookedness, and to the large number of troops which would be required for the adequate protection of a front half as long as the Russian battle line.

On that account, and inasmuch as Russia and Roumania are operating as a single unit, the dispatches say, it will be advisable to shorten the front by abandonment of certain parts of Transylvania.

STURDY WORDS OF PRINCE OF STRICKEN SERBIA

Country a Desert But Nation Will Live

Every Able Bodied Man in Army—Allies Believe Serbia Destined to be Strong Balkan State—Bulgaria Must Suffer

Salonica, Aug. 29.—(By Prince Alexander of Serbia, in the Toronto Mail and Empire).—I fear that when I return to my country I shall find a desert. All able-bodied men are here in my army. There is nothing but ruins in Serbia. The enemy has stolen everything reasonable and destroyed the rest, tortured and massacred the inhabitants, executing to the minutest detail his atrocious programme of annihilating the Serbian people.

But the Serbian people will never die, though it may take a long time to reconstruct our country. I firmly believe that the peace treaty will deliver our unhappy brothers from Austrian slavery, including the Serbs belonging to the Banat of Temesvar.

The Entente statesmen believe that Serbia is destined for a strong Balkan state, providing the satisfaction of the Central Empire's greed for the domination of the east. "This is necessary for the peace of Europe. Every ally's power reflects the suggestion of a separate peace with Bulgaria, leaving her unopposed. Bulgaria will suffer severely for her treachery. She will be defeated whether the Roumanians attack her or not."

Feverish Activity In Anticipation of Strike

All Prussian Guard Now Ranged Against British

Kaiser Withdraws Regiments From All Other Fronts; Huns Taunted by Allied Soldiers on Entry of Roumania Into War

With the British Army in the Field, Aug. 30.—(By Frederick Palmer).—According to universal reports of prisoners taken recently, all divisions of the famous Prussian Guard have been drawn from other fronts and concentrated entirely in front of the British, along with a number of the Kaiser's favorite Brandenburg regiments.

There was comparatively little infantry action in the last few days, except for the British bombing their way forward to more advantageous positions around Thiepval, on the left flank, and around Guillemont and Ginchy, on the right flank, while the guns continue their unrelenting bombardment of these villages.

Yesterday up and down the western front, both the British and French soldiers put signs on the parapets of their trenches, announcing Roumania's entry into the war and adding whatever gibes occurred to the mind. The Germans followed the usual custom pursued in such cases, the shooting of the signs to pieces by bursts of machine gunfire or fusillades of rifle bullets.

The management of the New York Central will consider this question today, upon the return of President A. H. Smith, from Washington. The railroad executives have expressed the opinion that if a strike were called they could run enough food trains to keep the city from starvation. The city's milk supply, they promised, would be the first to receive consideration. The big milk companies have been organizing to meet the situation ever since the strike became imminent. The milk companies have arranged to obtain hundreds of motor trucks, which would be used to collect milk from the territory surrounding New York, if the regular milk train service fails.

The police department, it was announced today, is prepared, if needed, to assume the control of the food and fuel supply.

The strike situation. Washington, Aug. 30.—President Wilson, laying the railway strike situation before Congress yesterday, with recommendations for legislation, advanced the crisis to a stage where the next development depends upon two points. They are—whether the legislation he proposes can be passed; if enacted, will it be effective to prevent a strike already called for September 4 at 7 a. m.

The brotherhood heads themselves, announcing their intention to fight certain portions of the president's program, are at loggerheads over whether their endorsement would prevent the strike. The railway president, favorably to President Wilson's plan, in the main, thinks it would make it difficult for the strike to be called. Meanwhile, although negotiations between the employers and the men were broken off by the rejection of the railway president's latest proposal, arbitration, President Wilson is continuing his efforts to bring the two sides together in some form of agreement. He confided to advisers last night his earnest hope that the brotherhood, recognizing the fairness with which he has treated them, would yield to his request. He refused flatly, saying they had not the power. President Wilson takes the position that in view of his recommendations to Congress, the brotherhoods have nothing to gain and much to lose if they carry out their strike order, because he believes, under such circumstances, public opinion will stand against them.

Two auxiliary engines, eight horse power each, were removed from the packet, as well as other parts and she will be abandoned for the time being, at least. Captain Longmire said that the hull is apparently in good condition.

British Steamer Blown Up. London, Aug. 30.—A despatch to the Daily Mail from Copenhagen says that the British steamer Manchuria blew up and sank in Xypre harbor, in the Gulf of Bothnia, as she was preparing to depart.

Railroad Traffic Rush To and From New York

A FREIGHT EMBARGO

Question of Food Supply Agitating the People and Companies—Police May Assume Control of Necessaries—Does Not Look Like Settlement

New York, Aug. 30.—Railroad traffic both to and from New York City, showed feverish activity today in anticipation of a general strike. It is estimated that before September 4, the threatened date of the strike, this city will rid itself of a floating population of nearly 800,000 and receive home about the same number of residents, who have been on vacation. Passenger traffic just before Labor Day, is always heavy, even under normal circumstances.

Unless the situation changes radically, it is expected that the other Eastern railroads will follow the example of the New York, New Haven & Hartford, and declare a freight embargo to take effect September 4.

The management of the New York Central will consider this question today, upon the return of President A. H. Smith, from Washington. The railroad executives have expressed the opinion that if a strike were called they could run enough food trains to keep the city from starvation. APPARITION IN SKY OVER DUBLIN

City Agitated by Story and Crowds Assemble Each Night to Watch

The Dublin correspondent of a London paper of July 29 says: The story that apparitions have been seen in the sky has been responsible for some remarkable scenes in Dublin for the last few nights after dark.

From about ten o'clock until after midnight crowds assemble in the streets in various parts of the city watching the night sky for a return of the phenomenon.

Rumors of the apparitions first began to be circulated in the city on Monday. So far there are only three points in the city where the statement is made that the apparitions were seen on successive nights by scores of people.

On the north side of the city, in the vicinity of Broadstone railway station and in the Donnelly street area, it is also emphatically declared that the vision was seen on Tuesday night, between half past ten and half past eleven.

Stories differ as to the actual form of the apparitions; in some cases, it is stated, the appearance was that of the Blessed Virgin, and in others that of a child. It was an angel only. Whatever the origin of the story, it has made an extraordinary impression.

The majority of the people are inclined to scoff at the whole thing, but in the popular mind it is treated with a great deal of solemnity.

Sober-minded citizens are suggesting that an airship or aeroplane has been sent to a great height over the city, thus giving rise to the whole story by aid of the fevered imagination of a few people.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

IMPERIAL HAS A SUBMARINE SERIAL

Commences Next Friday and Continues For 15 Weeks—'The Secret of the Submarine,' a Consistent Fiction With New Stars

One of the Imperial's leading attractions for the fall and winter season is to be the serial story, 'The Secret of the Submarine,' as produced on the Mutual programme by the American Film Co.

Martyrdom of Edith Cavell, Whom Brutal Germans Put to Death

tempts to steal the plans and specifications. After thrilling, and from the standpoint of picture-making, truly marvelous experiments are made in a real submarine, the scientist discovered dead and his working model, which has been destroyed by unfriendly spies, cannot be rebuilt. He leaves the secret somewhere among his belongings and it is for this reason the great struggle ensues.

Handsome Thomas Chatterton and winsome Juanita Hansen play the leading roles, while William Tedmarsh, well-known as Quabba in 'The Diamond From the Sky,' and George C. Coney, also George Webb, with other noted stars, will appear throughout the story, which was written by I. Alexander Powell of the New York World, famous as a war correspondent and at present a continuous contributor on the great war in Europe.

The striking novelty of the story, its timeliness as to submarine warfare, faultless photography and most capable playpeople, will make it very well come serial. Unless a continued story is consistent and contains the merits of literary value, an intelligent public soon become terribly bored with it. The Imperial promises that 'The Secret of the Submarine' will avoid all these mistakes.

The opening chapter tells how a humbled, though learned old doctor discovers a method of extracting oxygen from water and thus disclosing the long-sought secret of continuous fresh air for submarines. The American government seeks to buy the secret and makes exhaustive experiments through Lieutenant Hope, hero of the story. The old scientist's daughter is the heroine and spies and secret agents of European and Oriental nations make strenuous attempts to steal the plans and specifications. After thrilling, and from the standpoint of picture-making, truly marvelous experiments are made in a real submarine, the scientist discovered dead and his working model, which has been destroyed by unfriendly spies, cannot be rebuilt. He leaves the secret somewhere among his belongings and it is for this reason the great struggle ensues.

THE WAR NEWS

From pro-German sources yesterday came the boast that Roumania would be crushed like Serbia by a swift and terrible stroke. It was alleged that Roumania has only a few weeks' supply of ammunition. In short, the reading of the German side of the story almost causes one to shiver over the prospect. It is not at all probable, however, that the Central Powers can spare the men and munitions required to crush Roumania or that the latter has failed in these months of waiting to gather a large supply of war materials.

That Greece will follow Roumania seems now a foregone conclusion. The people are growing more excited and more bitter against Bulgaria, which is seeking to seize Greek territory to bargain with, and the petition sent to the Greek king, ending with an open threat, shows that the very throne is tottering, and that momentous events are about to transpire.

THESE ARE ST. JOHN PROBLEMS

If Supt. Leonard, of the Ohio State Reformatory, were a citizen of St. John, he would be an advocate of converting the old penitentiary property into an industrial farm. He said so, after looking over the property yesterday. He would remove the granite cells and convert the main building, a massive stone structure, into workshops, for use in the winter season. In summer he would have farming, reclaiming land and making it more valuable, gardening and some raising of live stock and poultry. He does not believe in keeping any man idle in prison. It is bad for the man and bad for the state. While he is the father of the suspended sentence for first offenders in Ohio, he recognizes that such an institution as an industrial farm is still necessary, but there should be as few guards as possible, and if the right atmosphere is created few are needed.

home, or religious, or educational, or community influences are not what they should be, the state in its clumsy way tries to repair the damage, and it must not do its work in a vengeful spirit or with a desire to punish for punishment's sake. The industrial farm may be made a great reforming agency, but idleness in the jail has the opposite effect. We are gradually learning that lesson.

Dr. Leonard, in addressing the Rotary Club yesterday, touched upon another matter of vital interest. He had been at the police court and listened to the evidence and argument in two pitiful cases involving the future welfare of little children whose fathers have forgotten or repudiated their responsibility and the mothers have also failed to save the situation. In contrast, Dr. Leonard told of a home he had learned of in this city where a young couple with a little child of their own had adopted a little orphan and made it also as their own.

The late Mr. R. G. Murray took an active interest in many things relating to the progress of the city and province, and his early death is regretted by his fellow-citizens.

With Hon. B. Frank Smith and Mr. Daggett as persecuted saints and Mr. Carvell as the evil genius, the Standard goes bravely on with its work of political regeneration. A breathless "spineless" waits. Is the country safer?

There is too much speeding of automobiles, and there are too many accidents. Strenuous regulations should be vigorously enforced. It is apparently necessary to protect some people from themselves.

The municipal council yesterday very wisely decided to begin the work of improving the public hospital plant, and will first construct a separate power house with laundry. This is an essential part of the needed work of extension and improvement. Due care that the contract price is not excessive, and that the city gets value for every dollar expended, will be the next consideration.

Hon. William Pugsley describes the elevator site and proposition of Mr. Gutelius as a temporary expedient and a makeshift. He has brought the matter to the attention of Hon. Dr. Reid, and suggests that the citizens bring it to the attention of his colleague, Hon. H. Hasen, who does not yet appear to have learned what his constituents, outside of a few, are thinking and saying. St. John must now wait another winter in any case, and this whole question should be considered in its relation to St. John as a national port which ought to develop trade enough, not for a half-million bushel elevator, but for a group of large elevators serving berths in Courtney Bay as well as the present harbor.

WM. A. BRADY HURT IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Plainfield, N. J., Aug. 30.—William A. Brady, theatrical producer of Manhattan; Jules Eckert Goodman, author of "The Man Who Came Back"; and John Turk, business manager for Mr. Brady, were badly injured in an automobile accident near Danellen. The rear axle of Mr. Brady's car broke and a wheel came off, causing the car to skid to one side of the road. The three men, riding in the rear seat of the motor, were thrown into a ditch.

Hot Stuff A boy placed a big apple on the front steps, and went across the street to see who would take it. A gentleman who observed the action said: "You shouldn't do that, my son. Some poor boy may be tempted to steal it." "That's what I'm fishing for, sir. I've hollowed out the inside and filled it with mustard."

New Power Plant For The Hospital

County Council Authorizes Expenditure up to $46,000; Building Will Contain Laundry Also Authority for the creation of a separate building to contain the power plant and laundry for the General Public Hospital was given at a special meeting of the municipal council yesterday afternoon.

A sketch of the proposed undertaking was submitted by F. Neil Brodie and, after members of the hospital commission had been heard, the architect was instructed to complete the plan and a committee was appointed to confer with him regarding internal details.

The cost is not to exceed $46,000, and the money will be advanced by the council until a bond issue is made. The building will be erected on a property in White street, adjoining the hospital grounds, which the commissioners hold under option at $8,120.

A committee was appointed also to consider the installation of improvements in the county hospital at a cost of $800 or $700 for the purpose of saving operating expenses.

A bye-law relating to business licenses was read, and a bill was presented, informally, relating to the storage of explosives in the county, but both were referred to the next regular meeting of the council in October. A complaint from the St. Martin's Telephone Company that it was over-assessed, was also taken over. It was stated in the complaint that the line was assessed at $5,000 whereas it should be $50, according to them.

THE MILK QUESTION IS PART OF A BIGGER ONE

St. John, West, 25th Aug., 1916.

Editor Times:

Sir—I notice by the different articles recently published in your paper that the public mind is being considerably exercised over the contemplated raise in the price of milk. I do not see in any of the articles any solution of the question offered. I see by the latest governmental figures that the highest cost of the production of milk in the province is ninety-two cents per cwt. It was also intimated that a gallon of milk weighs ten pounds, so that the farmer gets for a little over nine cents per gallon. Four quarts to the gallon allows the producer over thirty cents for putting a gallon of milk on the market. Now I would like to ask the milk producers, who are largely farmers, if they expect the same margin of profit on their lines of production? That is a question that answers itself automatically. Everyone who has taken the trouble to figure the matter out can readily see that neither the producer or the middleman have much chance to get into the quick rich scheme. For the simple reason that there are so many middlemen making a living by retailing milk that unless they have enormous profits they would have to go out of the business, as the number of middlemen are largely out of proportion to the quantity of the commodity, and in passing let me say that as in the milk business, so it is in the meat and grocery business.

Now, Mr. Editor, I should like to ask you this question: If you had six days' work for one man, would you be willing to pay six men for six days? I think not. You would naturally expect the one man to do the work in the six days. Now the consumers of milk, meat, groceries, flour, vegetables, dry goods and wet goods are in the position they would be if you were paying six men instead of one, and that should not be.

It has been said that competition is the life of trade, but the days when that was true are passed. Men have a mistaken idea in these days of the principle of "living and let live." As soon as a man with a little money or credit and not necessarily any brains, enters into any trade, he at once becomes a boon companion of the whole fraternity. The only difference it makes to them is that they have to raise their percentage of profits to meet the decrease of business.

Now I would suggest the wending out of a large number of middlemen in all branches of trade, so that those left would have more profit by their increase of trade and could sell at a smaller margin. The consumers are ninety per cent of the laboring men and women who are living in rented houses (by the way, this is another avenue of extortion), and if they are sick for a week or month their wages are so small that they are just that much behind in their rent or grocery bill. But show me a man that has been in business for four years, or holding down a government job for two, who has not their automobile and their month's vacation, and I will show you hundreds who have.

The Grocers' Guilds have succeeded in controlling the wholesalers. The meat dealers are agitating some system of inspection that will give them the control of the production of meat. I think the time has arrived when it stands the consumers in hand to control the whole fraternity. Let them form consumers protective association. Let them group themselves together in convenient numbers and put it up to the middlemen to sell at standard prices which might be profitable, or form a guild of their own. I could enumerate the men and women by the hundred who have broken away from combines and made a financial success of their business. But it is only necessary to mention the names of T. Eaton & Co., Simpson Hattie Green, and hosts of others. What they in their own interest could do, surely all the host of consumers could do out of a community of interests.

Now, Mr. Editor, I have not said all that could be said. There are other weighty arguments that could be put forth, but space is valuable and time is fleeting, and the dealer does us to the grave.

Some other time I may have more to say, or write, but for the present I remain yours truly,

ONE WHO KNOWS.

THE WAR NEWS IN LAST NIGHT'S CABLES

To meet the exigencies created by Roumania's entrance into the war on the side of the Entente Allies, King Ferdinand has ordered a general mobilization of his forces and is reported to have

NERVOUS?

Do You Brood? Have Morbid Fears? Toss In Your Sleep?

Your Condition Below Par You Must Be Built Up—Let Ferronze Do It

All the vital activities of the body are quickened into new vigor by Ferronze, which contains all the constituents necessary to make nerve strength.

Its first action is upon digestion. It stimulates the secretion of gastric juice, ensures perfect digestion and prepares the food so as to be easily assimilated.

Thus everything you eat is converted into nourishment that enriches the blood and lends new strength to the nerves.

By Ferronze the mind is relieved of those brooding tendencies, of morbid natural fears, of unwillingness to concentrate attention on things that should be done.

Don't you try Ferronze? Won't you give it a chance to win you back to health? It will do it, just as it did for Mrs. Creighton Zinck of Palm street, Lunenburg, N. S., who says: "I want to give my experience with Ferronze because I believe it will be of assistance to thousands of women who need it badly. I was very thin, my nerves were all broken, my head aching, my appetite and my weight came up so fast that I simply didn't need to use it any longer. Eight boxes cured me."

Why Won't you use Ferronze also, it certainly will do you good in many ways—sold by all druggists in 50c. boxes.

ceded to the front personally to take command of his army.

Unofficial advice from the Roumanian front is to the effect that the Roumanians are making furious efforts to capture passes in the eastern Carpathians leading into Hungary, and already they are declared to be fighting shoulder to shoulder with Russian troops coming from Bukovina.

While Berlin says that Roumania's attempts to pierce the pass leading to the former Premier Venelios in any strong Roumanian force? Austrian advanced detachments have been forced to withdraw.

What Greece's attitude will be as a result of Roumania's joining the Entente Allies is still problematical, but unofficial advice in London expresses the belief that the Hellenic Kingdom will shortly throw in its lot with the Entente.

A pro-Entente demonstration in Athens passed a resolution saying that if the people were not heard in their demands that Greece join the Entente Powers "we must take counsel as to what is to be done to minimize the ruin which would befall our country if the Bulgarians of Kavala is declared to have intensified the feelings of the Greeks, who are said to be willing to follow former Premier Venelios in any action he may advise. Venelios is strongly pro-Entente.

Field Marshal Von Hindenburg, who recently was given the command of all the German forces on the Russian front, work has not been assigned to him of the general staff, in succession to General Von Falkenhayn, who has been dismissed by the emperor.

MOST HOPEFUL OUTLOOK YET AS PARLIAMENT ADJOURNED

The War, Food Supplies, the Allies' Pressure on the Hun, the Balkans and Votes For Women

London, Aug. 28.—Not since the outbreak of the war has parliament adjourned upon a situation such as the present, and which was described by David Lloyd George, minister of war, and other ministers in debates during recent days, as giving so little cause for anxiety or so hopeful an outlook for the future. The debates, which covered all aspects of the war, reflected a feeling of confidence although expressing the realization that heavy tasks are still ahead, and that there is no prospect for hostilities coming to a speedy end.

It is the general belief that before parliament reassembles a further important stage of the Entente defensive will have developed in the Near East, which may have the weightiest influence on the whole field of operations.

There was considerable discussion concerning food supplies here, although high prices are due to scarcity of supplies, the costliness of freightage, and, as Captain E. G. Prettiman, parliamentary secretary to the House of Commons, explained in the House of Commons, to the abnormal consumption of food by the millions of men in the field. Captain Prettiman said he estimated that the men in the field eat half as much again as they did in civilian life. What the question of food supplies is pressing heavily on the civilian population, the government thus far has seen no reason to take any new or drastic steps in the direction of administrative control of either the price or consumption of food.

In the debates the cabinet ministers also expressed the greatest confidence in the constantly growing economic pressure which is being exercised against the Central Powers.

The different questions of suffrage and registration reform have been shelved temporarily, but as a precautionary measure the House of Lords inserted in its bill extending the life of parliament an amendment, which the House of Commons accepted, providing that any new parliament elected upon the existing register should endure only for two years. This is an emergency which is unlikely to arise, however, as a large majority of the country is opposed to holding elections during the war. It seems almost certain that the next parliament will be elected upon a basis of adult suffrage, with women voting, although there are many opinions that the country ought to be consulted upon the important question of admitting women to suffrage, by means of a general election.

A DARING FEAT

Adventure With a Submarine Mine-Layer Told Of

A special representative of the Press Association writes: A distressed German submarine was a spectacle to meet the eyes of a commander of one of His Majesty's destroyers in April last, and a dash closer up to the distressed one unmasked it as an intruder. The rubber complex-looking bag, which dropped crestfallen from the telescopic mast, and which, in the distance and haze appeared not unlike the Union Jack, took on a sinister aspect and became a German naval ensign, and then there remained scarcely time to appreciate the quaintness of the encounter, for after the crew of the submarine jumped into the sea and swam for dear life from the vessel there followed a series of explosions in the interior of the vessel. The last of the explosions was the heaviest. A lot of hammocks came flying out of the conning-tower, and went up forty feet into the air.

The fact that the conning tower was left open undoubtedly saved the ship from destruction, for the force of the explosion was partially expended in the air. As it was, two holes were blown in the bottom of the submarine and a lot of rivets started, with the result that she made water pretty quickly. The interior of the vessel was full of thick black smoke and nothing could be seen. There was about two feet of water there, but it was impossible to estimate the damage.

A Game of Hazard A young officer's examination under such precarious conditions seemed to point to the conclusion that the submarine had not laid her mines. So far as he could see they were still undischarged, but subsequent examination by an admiralty mine expert disclosed a state of affairs which made the task of the boarding officer an even more hazardous undertaking than it had appeared to be at the time. Ten of the twelve mines carried by the submarine were in position, but the two carried in the after tube had become dislodged by the force of the explosions when the attempt was made to blow up the vessel. They had fallen out of the tube, but not free of the hull of the vessel, and were bumping about beneath the outside shell in a manner that threatened to send the whole contrivance skywards at any moment.

A mine is now almost a familiar sight to the multitude. For the benefit of the uninitiated it may be explained roughly that it consists of a metal sphere of something under a yard in diameter, from which protrude a few thin, often comparatively slight pressure detonate the mine, the charge of which is sufficient to sink a battleship should it strike a vulnerable part of her, and but for the luckiest series of chances imaginable, which kept the horns in this case from contact with the outside of the vessel, there would have been no submarine side show on the Thames embankment. The public owes its opportunity to in-

How to Lose Your Tan, Freckles or Wrinkles

A day's motoring, an afternoon on the beach or golf links, a sunbath on the terrace or exposure to a sea trip, often brings on a deep tan or vivid crimson or many pernicious skin troubles. A very necessary thing then is introduced was, however, the use of Freckles or Wrinkles. It literally melts away the tan, and the freckles or wrinkles, so that there is no hurt or injury. A skin cream of this kind, which has a very delicate perfume, and which has no trace of the treatment is shown. Get your treatment at your druggist's and use this night as you would cold cream, meaning it off morning. In a week or you will have an entirely new skin, beautifully clear, fresh, and of a most delicate whiteness. Freckles, so apt to form at this time, may be easily and quickly removed by bathing the face in a solution of powdered Freckles or Wrinkles, dissolved in which has a pint. This is not only a valuable skin cream, but has a beneficial tonic effect.

DON'T USE DANGEROUS ANTISEPTIC TABLETS

It is an unnecessary risk. Use the safe antiseptic and germicide, Absorbine, Jr.—It kills germs quickly and surely without any possibility of harmful results; made of pure herbs, non-poisonous, and there is no danger whatever if the child gets hold of the bottle. It retains its germicidal powers even when diluted one part Absorbine, Jr., to 100 parts of water—and its antiseptic powers one part Absorbine, Jr., to 500 parts water. The germicidal properties of Absorbine, Jr., have been tested and proven both in laboratory and actual practice. Detailed laboratory reports mailed upon request.

Absorbine, Jr., $1.00 and $2.00 per bottle at druggists or postpaid for 10c. A liberal trial bottle postpaid for 10c in stamps. W. F. Young, P. F. D. 317, Lyman Bldg, Montreal, Can.

pect a real German U boat to the extraordinary fecklessness of the officer who went down as a diver to inspect the mines at the bottom of the ship, detached the detonators, and rendered them safe as he could preparatory to the attempt to save the captured vessel. This work occupied seventeen days. The U boat was ultimately lifted and brought into port. She lies now in an east coast harbor, the Union Jack flying proudly at her masthead above the German ensign. A coat of grey paint and "U.C." in large white letters on her side make her externally, at any rate, quite the ship she was before her adventure. Inside she still bears the marks of the rough handling she received from the explosions.

"Seems to have laid about him with a hatchet," said a naval officer, who guided me into the entrails of the boat, when with other newspaper men, I paid the little boat a visit under Admiralty surveillance. The periscope lenses, compasses, and delicate pieces of interior mechanism had been destroyed with a firm hand. What could not be done in the confined space with an axe had been performed as efficiently and with less effort by the simple procedure of firing a revolver at the thing to be destroyed. The explosive charges had blasted a hole in the bulkhead amidships, and the six mine tubes which pierce the ship from all the space in the front half of the ship. There appeared to be just enough room for a man to sit beside a mine point, and life in such a craft with long periods of submergence must become practically intolerable.

Coated with rust and a sediment left by muddy water, the interior of U C 5 is not now an inspiring spectacle. The lot of her crew before their capture has only to be imagined to inspire sympathy. It is impossible to stand erect at any point, and life in such a craft with long periods of submergence must become practically intolerable. U C 5 is one of the U boats which were conveyed in sections by land across Belgium and assembled at the coast, the sections of her four sections being now clearly visible. We are told that she has done twenty journeys to our waters presumably from Zebrugga, and has probably dropped 240 mines. It is pleasing to know that she has suffered the fate of the proverbial pitcher, and that her ensign as a legitimate trophy of war now adorns the mast of the gallant little ship which in the hours of time gathered her in so beautifully.

HUNGARY ALARMED OVER ROUMANIA

The Hungarian newspapers are being flooded with the most pessimistic information concerning Rumania and that country's possible action is absorbing the press and public, according to a Budapest dispatch to the Morning Post. The dispatch to the Morning Post, says the dispatch, that the liberty they enjoy at the hands of the censor is designed to prepare the people for the worst.

The military expert of the Post-News-people says: "The entry of Rumania into the war will not at first affect the military situation in the Balkans for the Rumanians will have to adhere to the united strategic plan of the Allies and will not be permitted to go straight for Transylvania, Dobruja and Bulgaria." The Rumanian army are not the chief factors for the consideration of the Central Powers, but rather the problems presented by the new territory which the Russians will be allowed to use freely in the invasion of Hungary.

Meanwhile the anxious hours of waiting are not being spent in idleness in Transylvania, where every able-bodied man suspected of Rumanian sympathies is being shifted to other parts of the country. The Rumanian newspapers in Transylvania are under the strictest control and Rumanian petitions and all along the Rumanian frontier the military forces have been reinforced, defenses strengthened, and every precaution taken against Rumanian intervention.

According to unofficial despatches, the Russians are pushing ahead with the greatest energy in Bukovina close to the Rumanian frontier and already have gained "a very brilliant success." The Daily News in an editorial sums up the Balkan situation as follows: "The imminent general offensive against Bulgaria is of great importance. One of the certain results of a successful offensive by General Sarrail would be a complete rupture of Germany's communications with the east and the isolation and capitulation of Turkey. This is a plain geographical fact.

"There are also other issues, upon which it is worth to reflect than to enlarge. These affect the fortunes of the two neutrals, Greece and Rumania, as well as the oceanic belligerents. "The situation in Greece where Greek troops already actually are engaged in hard fighting with their traditional enemies, the Bulgars, is rich in possibilities. As to the intentions of Rumania, we may be content to draw upon the German press which is authority for the statement that Rumania definitely has joined hands with the Entente and is preparing to give Russian troops passage through her territory. It is difficult to conceive what motive the Germans could have for circulating such a statement other than the belief that it is true."

NEWS OF THE SOLDIERS

There are at present about 125,000 soldiers in Canada who are trained and about ready to sail for England. Lieutenant D. B. Weldon, formerly of the 11th Battalion, a Moncton boy who made many friends in St. John during the time that the 11th was quartered here, has been transferred to the 4th British Columbia battalion and is now in France. The advance party of the 4th Pioneer battalion arrived in the city last evening and are ready to start for the front in N.S. It is not known just when the main body of the battalion will take up its new quarters.

Asks for Legislation

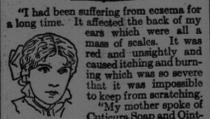

President Wilson laid the railway strike situation before congress yesterday afternoon in an address to both houses assembled in joint session. He asked congress to enact specific legislation to deal with the situation now and in the future. He also asked them to empower him to draft into the service of the United States the very managers and men who have been unable to adjust their difficulties, so that the government may operate the railroads in case of military necessity.

Cat's Paw

The best judge of the merits of Cat's Paw Rubber Heels is the man or woman who has worn other makes of rubber heels.

All rubber heels make walking lighter and easier than leather heels. But Cat's Paw Heels are far superior to others as the ordinary rubber heel is to leather heels.

As the best rubber heel on the market costs you no more than the ordinary heel, you should insist on getting Cat's Paw. Instead of saving money, you'll save your feet.

Wear Longer Prevent Slipping

The high quality of the rubber used makes Cat's Paw unusually resilient and long wearing. The Canova Friction Plug is attached to their long wear. Also prevents slipping on wet sidewalks, icy surfaces and polished floors. And it gives enough sound to every step to do away with the "stealthy" feeling which usually accompanies the wearing of ordinary rubber heels.

For Men and Women

Cat's Paw Rubber Heels are made in all sizes in both tan and black. First class dealers furnish them attached at 50c per pair. Don't deprive yourself of their benefits even one more day. The Walpole Rubber Co. of Canada, Limited, Montreal.

LOST IN SALT MINE TWELVE LONG DAYS

Workman Delirious and Almost Unconscious After Ordeal—Loses 60 Pounds Weight

Rochester, N.Y., Aug. 29.—After wandering about the interior of the Retsof salt mines, west of Geneva, for twelve nights and twelve days, Benny Niedgowy, a Pole, 21 years old, was brought alive at 10 o'clock at night, and able to tell of his adventure. His body was black and emaciated, and, although for three days he had been too weak to walk, he was able to give a faint yell when he heard a recruiting party approach him.

With ninety other men he went down the shaft two weeks ago. Somehow he became separated from his companions, the others left the mine, and all the lights were turned out as he was making his way toward the shaft. He followed the track until he came to a switch, when he took a track that led into an old abandoned passage. He was without matches. He wandered around the mine, trying to find his way, until he sank exhausted to the ground, and in that condition he remained until rescued. He was twelve days without food.

When he was first missed an investigation was begun which included the interrogation of the boss of the gang of which Benny was a member. The boss said the man had come up from the mine. As it is part of the boss' duty to see that the men are safely out, that explanation was accepted, but when it could not be ascertained that anyone had been turned out outside the mine, fears began to be felt that he must still be in its depths. A searching party was organized under an order from District Attorney William H. Wheeler.

Besides being half dead from starvation, Niedgowy was in a state approaching nervous prostration from the frightful experience. During the last three days his mind had become partly unbalanced, it is thought, for he said that he had been lying in one place for the last three days without moving. Dr. Page does not credit his assertion that he went without water for that length of time. The young Pole's tongue was not cracked or swollen as would seem to have been the case in an atmosphere of salt, smoke and kerosene fumes, Benny speaks English fairly well.

"I had been working one day and one night without sleep," he said, "and my eyes got very heavy while I worked."

HOW MRS. BEAN MET THE CRISIS

Carried Safely Through Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Nashville, Tenn.—"When I was going through the Change of Life I had a tumor as large as a child's head. The doctor said it was three years coming and gave me medicine for it until I went to him there, as from the city for some time. Of course I could not go to him there, as my sister-in-law told me that she thought I took the Pinkham ranunculid until the tumor was gone, the doctor said, and I have not felt it since. I tell every one how I was cured. If this letter will help others you are welcome to use it."

—Mrs. E. H. Bean, 235 Joseph Avenue, Nashville, Tenn. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a pure remedy containing the extractive properties of good old fashioned roots and herbs, meets the needs of woman's system at this critical period of her life. Try it. If there is any symptom in your case which puzzles you, write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

SAYS OLD PENITENTIARY GOOD SITE FOR INDUSTRIAL FARM

That St. John should have an industrial farm and that there is a fine beginning in the old penitentiary building in connection with the municipal farm is the opinion of Dr. J. A. Leonard, superintendent of the State Reformatory at Mansfield, Ohio. Dr. Leonard addressed the Rotary Club at luncheon yesterday, after which, through the courtesy of F. H. Quirt, manager of the Canadian Oil Company, he, in company with Hon. R. J. Ritchie, Rev. W. R. Robinson and A. M. Beidling, went in Mr. Quirt's car to the old penitentiary property and was shown over it and the Boys' Industrial Home by Superintendent McDonald. Dr. Leonard pointed out that the granite interior of the old building, which formed the cells, could be removed and the building converted into admirable workshops. Regarding the farm he said there was land which could be made extremely productive for intensive farming or gardening while other portions could be reclaimed and general farming work carried on very successfully.

Private Edgecombe enlisted at Regina, Sask., with the 46th Saskatchewan Battalion. He went to England with that unit, but has been at the front about two months. He has one brother in khaki, Sergt. Clarence Edgecombe, of the 80th Howitzer Battery, now at Petawawa.

PRESENTATION LAST EVENING

At a gathering of young people at 11 Richmond street last evening a purse of money was presented to Burton Earle, who is to leave St. John soon for Boston for the benefit of his health. E. Garnet made the presentation and afterwards games and music were enjoyed. Miss Emery Young acting as scopist.

The Man In The Street

A much noticed but not popular salutation of the day "Hi, chook!"

With Roumanians ranged with the Allies against her, Germany, no doubt, more than ever runs the mania that led her to start the war.

Another of the Balkans declines to submit to German dictates—in fact just balks.

With the half holiday season about over, the schools open and the daylight line soon to end, we soon shall be hearing the injunction to "Do your Christmas shopping early."

The chap who took his holidays in the early part of August this year is in a fine position to give his fellow citizens the merry ha-ha.

If the close of the season is going to be as wet as the beginning, we are going to take out some marine insurance on our lives.

With one major league team in the lead and the other in second place, Boston is taking only a cursory interest in the European war these days.

We hereby serve notice on whom it may concern that if any provincial cabinet, we will not wait to make denials; we will go after our defamer with a gun.

In this attitude we are pleased to announce that we have the earnest support of Messrs. J. K. Fleming, B. F. Smith and J. B. Daggett, who are similarly sensitive regarding any reference to their standing in church circles.

A Hint For Motorists

Complaints regarding the condition of the Marsh road are entirely unjustifiable; it is quite possible to enjoy a smooth, comfortable ride on this road by using an aeroplane.

It is rumored that the water works employes who are canvassing the city to learn the reason for the excessive use of water are paying considerable attention to the dairies.

By the way, does any one in St. John remember what milk used to look and taste like before cream separators were invented?

The Reason Why

For the benefit of the commissioner of public safety, the man in the street wishes to recall the tradition that the rule that horses and vehicular traffic should pass to the left originated in the nimble desire of horseback riders to have their sword arm handy to an approaching rider; similarly, the rule that pedestrians should pass to the right arose from an early safety-first idea that it was a wise precaution to have the shield, carried on the left arm, between the traveller and a chance acquaintance on the road. These reasons having disappeared, the commissioner is at liberty to shift the rules of the road to suit motors and other modern conveniences and nuisances.

His Little Trouble

The man in the street was wearing a disconsolate air.

"What's the trouble?" we solicitously inquired.

"Chief trouble at present," he said, "is the cross ignorance of all my friends. I have thought up a perfectly good pun on the name of the Roumanian leader and for several days I have been trying to find a chance to spring it; but every time I lead the conversation around that way the other party ducks; I don't believe there is a soul in St. John who knows how to pronounce 'Take Jenesuc', so I haven't had a single chance."

Here's hoping that the Roumanians take the bulge out of the Bulgars.

A pocket flash-light is a fine substitute for matches—except when your pipe goes out.

The government has called for tenders for the erection of a new grain elevator at this port; don't get excited, though; the provincial government called for tenders for new roads some time ago and the elevator may not be placed in Water street any earlier than the new good roads are built.

A Paraphrase

An anonymous contributor submits the following. We do not know whether he is guilty of originating it, but here it is:

"This is my auto; I shall not want (another). It maketh me lie down beneath it. It roareth my soul; it leadeth me into the paths of ridicule for its name sake. Yes, though I ride through the valleys I am towed up the hills and I fear much evil. Its rocks and its engine discomfote me. I prepare for blowouts in the presence of mine enemies. It smotherth my face with oil; its tank runneth over. Surely if this thing followeth me all the days of my life, I shall dwell in the bus-house forever."

A new "stage" in the situation in Greece has been reached. The Bulgars have seized the city of Drama.

GOOD POST FOR FORMER SAINT JOHN MAN

Capt. John McManus Superintendent of Boys' Refuge in Liverpool; Has Fine War Record

The Liverpool, Eng., Catholic Times has the following item of interest in St. John:

"The appointment of Captain J. McManus as superintendent of the Boys' Refuge, St. Anne street, gives the late Mgr. Nugent's well known institution as its head an officer who has rendered the country valuable service since the outbreak of the war, and who has, by his daring and resourcefulness, won for himself considerable renown. A member of the Mercantile Marine Service Association, Captain McManus, has already had much experience in the training of boys as chief officer of the training ship 'Indefatigable'."

"More recently he has been in command of an Admiralty transport, and for many years prior to that was a chief officer of the service of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. He enjoys the distinction of having been the commander of the last English vessel to leave Ostend before the entry of the Germans into the city. Bound for Ostend with cargo, he arrived at Nisport to find no pilots available. Though told the Germans were at the gate of the city, he took the vessel in himself. No business houses were open, so he embarked 400 wounded Belgian soldiers and some hundreds of refugees, carried them over to Folkestone. His bravery and humanity evoked the warm thanks of the Belgian minister, and brought him testimonials from many sources."

"Captain McManus' connection with the Boys' Refuge shows him being attached to that institution, where it is proposed to form a sea-training class to replace the teaching of printing, which has been a feature of the Refuge. Such a class should be extremely valuable in a seaport city in connection with the Catholic industrial, as distinct from the reformatory, schools of the archdiocese."

The news will be read with interest by many friends of Captain McManus in St. John, where he has frequently been in the past in the merchant marine service; in fact in one year he spent several months here. Relatives live in St. John.

CAPT. LEGER AND MISS MARGARET KENNEDY WED

Interesting Ceremony Performed in the Cathedral This Morning

A wedding of much local interest was celebrated this morning in the Cathedral when, with nuptial mass, Rev. H. L. Belliveau united in marriage Miss Margaret Mary Kennedy of this city, and Captain Arthur Leger of Richmoud. The bride, who is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Kennedy, was given away by her father. She was very becomingly attired in a traveling suit of blue with hat to match, and was accompanied by her bridesmaid, who was unattended. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents in Richmond street.

The wedding had a military atmosphere, owing to the fact that the groom was one of the soldierly officers of the "Fighting 28th," and is at present second in command of a company in the 160th French Arcadian Battalion. Both Captain and Mrs. Leger have many friends in the city and elsewhere, and the numerous and costly gifts received were expressive of their popularity. The bride was kindly remembered by the Bank of Nova Scotia, to which staff she was formerly attached.

Capt. and Mrs. Leger left this morning on a short honeymoon trip to upper Canadian cities, previous to their joining his battalion at Valcartier. It is the intention of Mrs. Leger to proceed overseas with her husband.

MUST HAVE SEATS FOR FEMALE EMPLOYEES

First St. John Case Under Recent Legislation

Thomas L. Phillips was in the police court this morning on report for not complying with the recent law passed by the legislature demanding that all stores supply suitable seats for the use of their female employes when they are not completely engaged. The complaint was made by Factory Inspector John Kenney.

Inspector Kenney said that he visited the store on several occasions and interviewed Mr. Phillips on the question and he promised to comply with the new regulation.

On last Monday, he said, he again called at the store in Union street and found that the seats for the female help were usable.

The defendant called William O'Brien, the manager of the shop. The witness said that there were seats in the store provided for the help, explaining that there was one in front of the fruit counter and one behind the soda fountain which, at the time the inspector called, was removed to allow some cleaning to take place. He also intimated that Mr. Phillips allowed the girls use of the fifty or sixty seats that were scattered throughout the store. The case was postponed until Friday. S. B. Bustin appeared in the interests of the inspector.

MONCTON PERSONALS

Mrs. Lloyd Wood, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. M. Trider, left for her home in Edmonton, Alberta.

Miss Mary McKeith, who has been spending her vacation in Moncton, left for Calgary to resume her duties in the teaching profession.

Miss Alice Oulton left for New Westminster, B. C., where she has accepted the position of lady principal in Columbia College.

Mrs. R. C. Colpitts and daughter, Margery, left for Vermont, where they will spend some time.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

The engagement of Ruby Frederica, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Carvell, to Howard Lindsay, is announced. The wedding will take place September 13, in the Methodist church, Lakeville, Carleton county.
