CHRISTMAS GIFT TO SHACKLETON

Enable Him to
at 87 Degrees

When Sir Ernest was explorer, starts for sleds and boats in the deadly cold regions, it will be his genius and persistence that will be the members of a Aero Research Committee. Robb has perfected an ether engine which permits starting of motor engines at 70 degrees below zero. The preparation, together with the best of his, have been cabled to Sir Ernest Shackleton, who is now on his way south to the antarctic ice fields.

Describing the discovery of the successful formula, Col. E. W. Stedman, school director of the Canadian Air Force, said that Canada was the only country supporting modern air force facilities where such an experiment had been brought to successful conclusion. Engine experts in other countries were hindered in developing less along this line by climatic conditions. When the necessity for starting propeller engines in intense cold became apparent, air board officials turned the problem over to Professor Robb of the University of Alberta, who after two years of experiment has crowned his efforts with success. Professor Robb's method and the exact formula have not been made public, but Colonel Stedman has been brought to successful conclusion in the experiments being sufficiently so that it was left out doors all night. Professor Robb's efforts to start it being directed to the early hours of the morning.

The possibility of Canadian Air Board being compelled to land through the trouble in the northern wastes, in fact anywhere in Canada, during winter months first brought home necessity of just such a preparation that discovered by Professor Robb. When an airplane was compelled to land away from their bases in winter as was practically impossible to again start the engines. Now, however, with as well as civil aviation engines in operation or other work for the department will be in operation in winter without fear of the consequences.

Commercial Visions.
The application of this preparation to rotary motor engines, automobiles and trucks is considered only a matter of time and will be the means of overcoming one of the chief difficulties of winter travelling. With the advent of power start engines at thirty-seven degrees below zero, motorists who now have to find a great deal of time warming their engines at the expense of their electric batteries will not only enjoy far greater freedom but will be under a great deal of expense. The importance of the preparation to business men operating trucks on a large scale has hardly been estimated.

CHRISTMAS CAROLS IN ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

The carol service in St. John's (Stone) church last night was a rare musical treat that was the source of pleasure and light to an audience that filled the tin body of the church and overflowed to the large gallery. The carols, to high age familiarity has given them beauty and dignity, were rendered with an evident sympathy that enhanced their appeal. It was the first time that the choir of the church had presented a special programme under the leadership of E. MacDonald Miller, who was re-appointed as organist of the church and conductor of the choir. The choir was warmly congratulated on its splendid manner in which the programme was given. The selection of the carols was a happy one. The choir well balanced and gave abundant evidence of excellent training. The soloists excelled in their admirable renderings.

The organist, Rev. A. L. Fleming, conducted the opening devotions and pronounced the benediction at the close of the service. Mr. Miller was at the organ while the offertory was taken and played Leachure-Wiley's "Grand Offertoire" in a brilliant manner. For the singing of the carols Mrs. Hevener was the organist.

Your Old Overcoat is Worth $5.00

At Gilmour's All This Week

A Week's Event to Serve the Community

No matter what price coat you select—$25 to $60. Ready-to-wear—we allow you $5 for your old coat—bring it with you, no matter how old. There are many men that need them.

The situation is this—charitable institutions have many requests for overcoats. Few to be had. The coldest, longest part of the winter is to come. What greater service can we perform to the community than to make it worth while for men who are in dire need of them. Bring in that old coat—buy a new one—and we'll see that the old one goes where it is needed.

As the originator of this idea says: "The idea is not copyrighted—every clothier ought to adopt it at once." We do not hesitate to do so.

SACRED CONCERT BY ST. PETER'S CHOIR

A sacred concert by St. Peter's male choir, assisted by the City Cornet Band and several women singers and accompanists attracted a large and appreciative audience to St. Vincent's auditorium (No. 107) last evening.

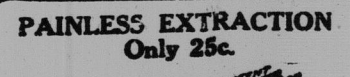

All the numbers on the programme were pleasingly given, and all the soloists responded to encores. The programme opened with selection by the band, which was followed by solos by Miss Florence Kiernan and Brother Bede, C.S.S.R. The Kyrie and Gloria, from Coleman's mass, by the choir, followed by a solo by Mrs. Alice Harris, completed the first part of the programme.

A selection by the band opened the second part of the programme. Miss T. Maxwell and Harry Richard sang solos. The next number, the Pastoral, by the choir, which opened with a solo by Master James McCauley, the choir soloist, was perhaps the best number of the evening. Two selections by the choir completed the programme.

St. Peter's male choir is composed of R. L. Butler, M. T. Howard, Edward Lynch, E. O'Hara, Wm. Howard, D. Higgins, F. Howard, P. McGarrigle, A. Colohan, E. Casey, Charles O'Regan, James McCauley, P. The accompanists were: Mrs. M. A.

GET THE REGISTRATION.

The Rotary Club took a practical step yesterday which it should not be necessary for that organization to take. There is no good ground for the objection at City Hall to a Dominion employment office, costing on the mayor's estimate $6,000, but of which the city would only be called on to pay $1,500.

WHAT GOVERNMENTS MIGHT DO

Canadian Finance, reviewing a bulletin on unemployment by the Citizens' Research Institute of Canada, pays a tribute to the work of the employment service of Canada through its offices in so many centres, these being of special benefit in normal times, but points out that the faulty distribution of work is an evil hard to overcome at the best of times.

THE FRENCH ATTITUDE

The attitude France has taken with regard to submarines is deplorable. That country has nothing to fear from Great Britain, and yet adopts a policy which is a distinct menace to Great Britain. Professing a desire for permanent peace, she insists upon a great armament of the most deadly and indefensible character.

THE MERCHANTS' BANK

The Toronto Globe calls for vigorous action at Ottawa as a result of the Merchants' Bank affair. The reserve of this bank had been impaired to the extent of $8,000,000, and the directors negotiated with other banks, finally recommending to the shareholders the office of the Bank of Montreal to absorb the institution.

LONELINESS.

(Rev. George Scott.) If it were mine to truly say The spot of earth where I would dwell, Though none could give for answer nay, What I should choose I cannot tell.

So many times I've seen the sun Rise from the sea with sovereign grace, And watch until his course was run, And ached to see a human face.

I've wandered in the shady woods, When birds were singing sweet refrain, Till loneliness possessed my moods, And galled me like a fether chain.

And when the skies were soft and clear I've passed the margin of a lake, And in the silence longed to hear A human voice its echoes wake.

And I have heard beside the sea The surf break on the solid lands, And fled the stern immensities For the warm clasp of friendly hands.

I would not choose to dwell apart In some remote and lonely place, Lest selfishness conceal my heart, And turn my sympathies to stone.

Nav, rather, let me live and strive Amid the hum of passing feet, With toilers in our human life, Where there is love and rest is sweet.

For I would know the grip of things Are handled by the sons of men, And I would feel the breath that brings To poverty and grinding pain.

And I would speak their common speech, And I would think their common thoughts, And I would ever strive to reach To cannizz work their hands have wrought.

Yet sometimes in the city's ways, Deleagued by its wild unrest, I feel the burden of its weary days Falls like a load upon my breast.

And then I love to steal apart Into some kindly wilderness, And feel the throbs of God's great heart Soothe all my aching loneliness.

The Practical Waiter. A certain Barber county man was in Topleks several years ago and when dinner was served at one of the hotels resting cars he had been in the vicinity of corn in this style and he ordered some. The corn was fine, he said, but the waiter, he remarked, "What do you think of that kind of a dinner?" "Well, s'bout, this year is the highest priced hotel in Kansas—don't you think you'd better get out of here?"—Medicine Lodge Index.

TALK PLANS FOR WORK BUREAU. At a special luncheon, held yesterday to discuss the question of unemployment, the Rotary Club decided to pay the rent, light, and heat of a vacant store in Main street, offered by George P. Hamm, for one month to be used as an employment office, if the Salvation Army would provide the staff, as it had undertaken to do when the opening of such an office was proposed by representatives of the Evangelical Alliance and other bodies.

MEANT TO KILL, SAYS SLAYER OF JEWELER

Took a Gambler's Chance to Rehabilitate Fortune, and Lost, Westling Asserts—No Defence, He Says.

(New York Times.) Alrie J. Westling, who killed Carl Miller, an elderly jeweler, and shot his wife in the latter's home at 1888 Nelson avenue, the Bronx, in an attempt to rob them of $8,000 worth of jewelry Saturday morning, gave the police more information yesterday that corroborated the character he had given to himself right after the murder.

Returned From London. At the time of the revolution, Westling said, he was in London preparing to sign the contract with Russian agents. He came back to this country. That was the beginning of his hard luck. He had been spending $7,000 a year, had lived at the Hotel Manhattan for two years, and was well known about Broadway as "Jack" Westling. His taste of high life had so engendered him that when he recently found himself making less and less money in attempting to sell stocks and bonds on a commission, he determined on robbery.

"I took a gambler's chance and lost," he told the police. "I asked him why he was a gambler and he said he had been a great poker player when he had the money. He usually won, he said. He has what is called a 'poker face.'"

He had no sympathy for Mr. and Mrs. Miller. "So the first thing I did was to get them out of the house," he said. "I went there to kill them," he replied. "No, you didn't," he said. "You went there to commit robbery."

Westling said that he had been borrowing money heavily to meet the demands of his way of living, and was living at the Hotel Manhattan, and his brother, Walter, Westling, in Worcester, Mass., but said he didn't expect any money from him.

Westling was held without bail by Magistrate Charles E. Sims in the Morrisania court yesterday for examination on Wednesday. He was arraigned on a charge of murder in the second degree, charged with the killing of Carl Miller, a jeweler, and his wife, at their home at 1888 Nelson avenue, the Bronx, on Saturday morning.

Montreal, Dec. 29.—Falling monetary help by the provincial government the City of Montreal is faced with the alternative of raising the realty tax from $1.25 to $1.50 per $100 or carrying on the administration without any improvement and by letting pavements, street cleaning, police and fire departments slide.

WANTED SHELTER IN JAIL, AND GETS SOME YEARS OF IT. Galician Smashes 21 Panes of Plate Glass—Extraordinary Sentence, Says the Attorney General.

Parry Sound, Ont., Dec. 29.—Hungry and cold and out of a job, Stephen Zowenski, a Galician, decided to smash a few windows in order to earn a term in a nice warm jail for the winter. That was his explanation of his attack on store fronts with an iron bar early on last Wednesday morning, when he smashed twenty-one plate glass panes before the eyes of the federal officers. The men all of his trusty weapon.

Police Magistrate George Moore sentenced him to four years in the penitentiary on each of ten charges, the sentence to run concurrently. Toronto, Dec. 29.—Hon. W. E. R. Attorney General of Ontario, said the length of the sentence for offence as window smashing appears extraordinary. It was his intention have his department investigate.

MAN BISHOP
FIXES BLAME FOR SHORT SKIRTS

Identity of Men
or Dress Im-
ys Rev. Alma

(York Times.)
For short skirts, gray
low-necked and sleeveless
fixed last night by Bishop ate, head of the Pillar of tion, in an address last night ables conversation at the Pillar of church, 129 Sterling Place, Brook-
a. Bishop White, one of the few women to hold such an office, spoke on
"The Modern Woman—Who is to Blame?" Her answer to the query was
"man."
"The old device of the serpent would be to say that woman is to blame, when the fact is that man is the culprit behind the screen," said Bishop White. "It is he who for selfish and mercenary purposes has forced woman out half clad before the public gaze to become the object of unkind remarks and criticism."
"Why is not the public informed that woman is the victim of fashions which have been carefully planned and designed by men to enhance the interests of big business? Woman is not consulted as to the length of her skirt or as to the amount of material that shall be used in the making of her gowns. It is not a matter for her to decide whether her neck shall be bare or her sleeves short or long. These things are decided by men, so as to conserve their monetary interests."
"The furriers play an important part in finding a steady market for their goods both winter and summer by influencing the fashion makers to decrease that woman's chest and arm half to bare, so that, if there is to be any protection from the cold, it is had in the wearing of high-necked furs. Modern woman's neck and chest must be bare,
so that the commercial tricksters may have increased demand for their ornaments and jewelry. The neck and chest are conspicuous places on which to display them. Could man's demand for more apparent than in this disregard for woman's health and modesty?"
"Gause history has been made with a few to saving material. Women have heretofore been exposed to the gaze of strangers and subjected to shameless grances and insults for which they,
so often, have had to bear the blame."
Bishop White closed with an appeal to the chivalry of man to protect woman
by the use of more and thicker fabric in er clothing.

SIX NURSES
GET DIPLOMAS

Six nurses, who had just graduated from the training school of the General Public Hospital, received their diplomas
at a public gathering in the nurses' home
yesterday, and while it might be expected that to them the day was one always to be remembered for everyone present,
and for the hospital itself the graduation exercises were making history. The nurses who graduated in previous years had received their diplomas without ceremony and had passed on to a larger sphere outside the hospital with little or no public acclaim or congratulation. Yesterday about 600 people were in the reception rooms of the nurses' home to applaud and congratulate the graduates and the programme, arranged under the con-sponership of Mrs. J. Verner McLellan and Col. A. McMillan, the commissioners appointed for that task, was an excellent one well carried out.
M. E. Agar, president of the board of commissioners, was in the chair and was supported by Commissioner Hon. Dr. W.
F. Roberts and Mrs. McLellan. Addresses were given by Mr. Agar, who presented the diplomas; Dr. Roberts, Dr.
Thomas Walker, a former president of the board, and Mayor Schofield, and Miss Frances W. Stanley was valedictorian. Musical numbers were given by Mrs. L. M. Curran, Mrs. MacMichael
and Mrs. L. LeLachour. An orchestra was in attendance, and when refreshments were served, it discoursed a pleasing programme. Fifteen of the undergraduate nurses assisted with the refreshments, which were served from the sitting-room of the superintendent's apartment. There will be a funeral mass at 10 o'clock on Friday in the church of St. John the Baptist, St. John's, at which the late Miss Keenan, who was the youngest daughter of the late Dr. D.
B. Sharpe, M. A. B. D., general superintendent of the convention of Baptist churches in Saskatchewan, in which he expresses the hearty appreciation of the graduates and former students of the university now residing in that province of the visit of Dr. C. C. Jones, chancellor of the university, to western Canada.
He says that Dr. Jones' visit, in the opinion of western graduates, will do a great deal in reawakening interest and strengthening the ties between those in the west and the university.

LOVER'S PHONE CALLS

Damper Is Put on Early Morning
Conversations.
(Special Cable to the New York Times and Montreal Gazette.)
Paris, December 26.—A decision given in a civil court here today has put a damper on early morning telephone conversations between lovers.
The case resulted from the nightly
habit of a young woman, the result either of devotion or suspicion, of telephoning her sweetheart two or three times between the hours of 1 a. m. and 4 a. m. As the man's telephone is on the same home system, each call awakened the concierge and necessitated
her arising and making the connection.
After several months the janitress wear-ed of the nightly interruption of her slumber and complained to the landlord,
who had the owl telephone, the tenant insisted that as she had rented the apartment with the telephone, she had the right to use it when she pleased.
The landlord demurred, the judge
what he would do if all of his tenants did likewise. The judge threw the case out, ordering the lover to pay the costs.

LOCAL NEWS

The Canadian Pacific liner Pretorian
sailed last evening, about 10.30, for Glasgow with fifty cabins and eighty-five passengers. While the majority of the passengers are from the west,
the list shows Mr. D. E. Balf and infant from Halifax. There are no other passengers from the maritime provinces on the steamer this trip.

In the bankruptcy court yesterday
the matter of the assignment of Peter McIntyre was heard before Chief Justice McKeown. The matter came upon a petition for a compromise of twenty-five per cent. The court authorized the registrar, Francis Kerr, to take the evidence of Allan McIntyre and adjournment was made to a later date in January. There is opposition to the compromise by some of the creditors.

An automobile, in which Commissioner Bollock was a passenger, and a street car which was coming down King street were in collision at the corner of King and Germain street last evening about eight o'clock. The automobile, which had come up Germain street, had turned into King when the collision occurred. The running board of the automobile was damaged but it was able to proceed under its own power.

St. Luke's Sunday school held their White Christmas service last evening.
The service was held in the gymnasium,
superintendent of the school, Rev. B.
P. McKim opened the service. It was attended by about eighty children. The entertainment was given, and the proceeds were for the benefit of the school.
The service was a most successful one and the children were very happy.

Harbor pilots are at work again this year along the waterfront on the west side, according to the manager of one of the steamship agencies. On last Friday night his company lost a bale of cotton prints valued at about $400.
This bale was stolen from No. 8 sloop,
St. Dun Point, and was lowered into a boat, which soon disappeared. He believed that many persons and some stores
around the city were buying the stuff.
The shipping companies and the police are of the opinion that it is the work of an organized gang of harbor pirates.
The pilfering includes almost all the lines of smaller goods shipped. Some of the other steamship agencies have not been troubled as yet, but all the managers agreed yesterday that if the pilfering
were not stopped it would give the port a bad reputation, and all expressed the hope that the gang would soon be rounded up and dealt with.

MEXICO'S PROGRESS

Less Money for Army and More for Schools.
Mexico City, December 9.—(By Mail)
—Less will be spent by the Mexican Government in 1922 for the army and more for schools than ever before. The army budget for 1922 calls for $124-$83,859, or more than $30,000,000 less than the 1921 budget. The estimate is based on a standing army of 60,000 men, to which strength the various units are now being rapidly reduced. The 1922 budget includes an appropriation of $1-000,000 for the development of aviation.
The appropriation for schools is $50-000,000.

$1,000 ON HEN THIEF'S HEAD.
Blue Ribbon Plymouth Rocks Stolen
From Walter Jennings.
Cold Springs Harbor, L. I., Dec. 29.— Determined to bring about the arrest of the thieves who stole some of his prize
white Plymouth Rocks hens on Friday night, Walter Jennings of the Standard Oil Company, whose country estate here is known as Burrows, offered a reward of $1,000 for information that would lead to the capture of the marauders.
The blue ribbon hens, winners at shows on Long Island and in New York,
were pets of their millionaire owner,
who employed two watchmen and kept a police dog to guard them.

NEWSBOYS ENTERTAINED.
There were about 110 newsboys of the city present at the annual entertainment given by the Y. M. C. A. last night.
Four reels of moving pictures opened the entertainment. The boys then played several games on the gymnasium floor which were followed by a swim in the pool. A lunch was served by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. and each boy received a bag of candy.

MEANS WORK FOR TWENTY THOUSAND

Plan for Conversion of Great-est of Plants Used for War Material.

Paris, Dec. 29.—The Allied council of ambassadors has decided to place in the hands of Gen. Nollet, head of the disarmament commission, the task of converting the Deutsche Werke, the greatest of the plants used during the war, into workshops for the manufacture of industrial machinery.

The plans will call for the employment of 20,000 workers who were employed at war material. The plants are at Munich, Cassel, Amberg, Dachen, Spandau, Hanau, Ingolstadt, Lipstadt and the former naval torpedo yards at Friedrichshafen, in the harbor of Kiel.

ST. JOSEPH'S V. M. C. I. AND SHARKS EACH WIN ONE GAME

The Junior basketball team from St. Joseph's college, which is the same team which won the Junior city championship last year, defeated the Y. M. C. I. Juniors, 22 to 9, on the Y. M. C. I. floor in the first game of three played at the institute last evening.

In the second encounter the Y. M. C. I. Intermediate City League team had little difficulty in taking into camp the Wallstooks, a Mount Allison college quintette, by the score of 40 to 16.

The most keenly contested game of the three was that in which the Y. M. C. I. Outlaws, of the City League, were defeated by the Sharks, a High School team, by a score of 31 to 24. The score team or another went into the lead. The first half ended with a 16 to 13 tally in favor of the Outlaws but the Sharks overhauled their opponents in the second period and came out at the end with a seven-point margin.

CLAIMS TO BE JOHN THE BAPTIST: ASKS MEAL TICKET

Victoria, B. C., Dec. 29.—Dennis Kelly, claiming to be John the Baptist, resurrected, visited the city hall yesterday and asked for a meal ticket.

"I am being persecuted by secret societies and religious organizations, yet I am saving the British Empire," he told the aldermen. He added that he was an expert varnish maker, but he had been hounded out of every city in Canada.

"They treated me brutally in the States," he said. "President Harding chased me out of the White House. I alone know the truth. There has been no one like me before. There shall be no one like me again."

NEW INDUSTRY FOR CHINA.

To Make Electrical Apparatus Under the Siemens Patent.

The manufacture of electric apparatus in China is overshadowed by the purchase in Soochow of seventy-five acres of land by the Electrical Appliance Manufacturing Company. This concern has also made arrangements with the Siemens Company in Germany, through which the Chinese company will be enabled to use the Siemens patents on a basis providing for the payment of a certain percentage of the profits. The Siemens Company will furnish the Chinese concern with a corps of experts to install and assist in the operation of the plant, according to Commercial Attache Julian Arnold, who is stationed at Peking. The company chose to locate its plant in Soochow because land can be purchased there at less than one-tenth of the price asked in Shanghai. The location is only eighty miles west by water, and fifty-five miles by rail from that city. Labor costs are also lower at Soochow than at Shanghai. S. T. See, a brother of the Chinese minister to Washington, is manager of the new concern. It will manufacture motors and electrical appliances suitable for the Chinese market. The initial capitalization is equivalent to about $800,000 gold.

FADING OF HAIR COLOR

Blondes Are Least Sufferers From Passing Years.

The color of our hair is due to the secretion of a varying amount of pigment or coloring matter, which, in turn, depends largely upon the percentage of various chemical constituents in our system. For example, a person with a large amount of iron in his blood usually manifests this by dark hair and eyes, while there are characteristics of blondes, brunettes and red-headed persons which have been worked out to a varying degree of precision by students of human nature. As we grow older, this pigment loses some of its intensity. The highly-colored checks of childhood and youth are replaced by the sallow, ashen complexion of advancing age, and the hair reflects a silvery white. Prolonged worry, or lack of sufficient light also have a marked effect upon the pigment cells which supply the hair. On account of the fact that hair needs a large supply of pigment, brunettes turn grey much sooner than blondes, while persons with extremely light hair frequently go through life without any alteration in color, though usually their hair loses most of its life and lustre.

MOUND BUILDERS.

Until very recently the prehistoric race of Indians known as Mound Builders were commonly supposed to have congregated more definitely in the regions of the Ohio Valley, where evidences of their work are chiefly found in the mysterious mounds of that valley which have given to these almost mythical people their name. Some historians affirmed that their operations extended as far north as Lake Superior, on the northern shores of which copper mining had been carried on by a people more civilized than any discovered race of people since the dawn of American history, and therefore attributed only to the Mound Builders. And now comes a recent discovery clearly setting forth the same fact. Mr. McLaren, formerly of Fort William, farming on the banks of the Kaministiquia, is the discoverer of the site of an ancient city of some unknown race of people, whose civilization, from the discoveries made, is analogous to that of the Mound Builders. Out from the dim mists of antiquity a manufacturing city stands forth, possibly the centre of a large district. Remains of numerous arrowheads of tempered copper. Pieces of pottery of a dark brown clay, unglazed, but ornamented, have been dug up, as well as arrow-heads, beautifully decorated and carved, proving their art to have been much less crude and amorphous than that of the Indians of the times of the early discoverers. A vein of the finest flint which the arrows were made runs through this hill-top farm. A stone, very black, with a hole through the centre, has also been found, which adds weight to the theory that this ancient city was a Mound Builders' city, for it was by revolving such a stone on a stick that the Mound Builders' obtained fire by friction. Further valuable discoveries are likely to be made which will reveal more of a civilization "behind the curtain of the years."

SUBMARINE DEMAND AIMED AT BRITAIN?

French Undersea Fleet Could Menace Communications With India—Informal Discussions.

(Special to the Montreal Gazette.)

Washington, Dec. 28.—The whole course of France in the Washington conference has tended to focus the attention of the various delegations and of the world on the subject of French armaments.

A strong feeling exists in British circles that the development of a large submarine fleet by the French can only be regarded as aimed at the United Kingdom. Considering the geographical relations of France and the British Isles and the fact that British communications with India and the Orient run through the basin of the Mediterranean, it is difficult for the British to regard the proposed expansion of the French submarine fleet as being wholly defensive, and as not inimical to British interests, even if not aimed by the present French government against Great Britain.

The French delegates have insisted that it is not the wish of their government to utilize the proposed large submarine fleet for purposes of offense and aggression, that they are actuated wholly by considerations of national defence and safety. They say they want ample submarine strength to protect France against the submarines of others, and, aside from defence of their mainland, to protect the movement of transports with soldiers from the French colonies to the continent in the event of another European war.

The French representatives here profess to be vitally interested in the maintenance of future peace on the continent of Europe. They do not feel that this can be achieved in the absence of an international agreement giving guarantees for the safety of France against any possible unprovoked attack by Germany and seeking to insure peace and stability in Europe and the Near East. It is intimated in quarters close to the French government that the whole situation with respect to French armaments might be considered in different light.

There was an unofficial intimation today that if France is to waive its demands for a larger submarine tonnage—80,000 tons has been suggested by Admiral de Bon—she must consent to a treaty similar to the four-power pact relating to the Pacific Ocean, which might provide that the signatories should respect their rights in the Atlantic region, and in Europe. It is learned from French circles that its delegation has no advice to that effect, and it is not known by the delegation that the Paris government contemplates making any such proposal.

The writer is assured that no such proposal has been made by the French and that nothing has been done in the direction of such a proposal by any delegation in the conference. But there has been considerable informal discussion of this particular phase of the matter, and there can be no doubt that the French would be greatly pleased if there can be some sort of international understanding reached dealing with the general political situation in Europe. In such a contingency French spokesmen think it would be easier to make arrangements for reduction of both land and naval

WHEN HAIR THINS, FADES OR FALLS, USE "DANDERINE"

35 cents buys a bottle of "Danderine". Within ten minutes after the first application you can find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair.

Girls! Girls! Don't let your hair stay lifeless, colorless, and frizzy. A single application of delightful Danderine will double the beauty and radiance of your hair and make it look twice as abundant.

There will be a conference in January at Cannes, probably an international economic conference on the European situation and, during the year, consideration will be given to other European problems, including the Turkish-Greek situation and the Russian problem. In view of these prospective conferences, and the character of the European problems to be considered, it is the expectation of the French that nothing can be done in the Washington conference with respect to the European situation, and that nothing in the direction of land armament reduction in Europe can be considered until there has been improvement in European political relations.

Widespread comment has been caused in conference circles by Mr. Balfour's utterances on Saturday, in which he stated that the danger to the world for the failure of the Washington conference to deal definitely with the subject of land armaments and credited to a submarine expansion programme which was difficult to understand from the mere viewpoint of defence.

Mr. Balfour stated that the conference had been given to understand on the "very highest authority"—Premier Briand—that the danger to the world was one that came from the land side. "We were told in terms of unforgettable eloquence," said Mr. Balfour, referring to Premier Briand's declaration that it was "quite impossible" for France to permit any reduction of land forces, "that a most serious effect on the development of the work of a conference called together to place an end to the European armaments race, and the conference found itself confined to naval disarmament alone, France having put an end to all chances of even discussing disarmament by land, proceeds to develop her sea policy, and her sea policy embraces the creation of a vast submarine fleet."

Mr. Balfour, after pointing out that it is France, in the crisis contemplated by Premier Briand, is going to call on her former allies in her hour of need, contended that it was upon Britain, and not upon France, that the danger of the French submarine fleet could be aimed against anyone other than England.

"How is that consistent?" Mr. Balfour asked, "with the building of this huge mass of submarines, which anybody who looked at the matter from a strictly strategic and tactical point of view would certainly say, from the very geographical situation, was built against Great Britain. I know, and, of course, accept the eloquent words that M. Sarraute has said, 'But an expression of good-will, however sincere, on the part of the future. We must take account of facts. When we try and combine the military policy announced by M. UNITE TO FIGHT RURAL SNOBBERY

Levelling Movement May be Important Factor in British Life.

The Need is Emphasized—In Some Villages Class Hatred Has Become Greater Since the Close of the War.

London, December 29.—(By Mail)—Rural snobbery in this country is to be squelched if an organization campaign against it is as successful as is hoped for by nearly 400 villages which have joined the Village Clubs' Association to do the squelching.

The Village Clubs' Association originated at a meeting of the Agricultural Club in 1918, at the suggestion of Sir Henry Rew, the president of the Agricultural Club. Sir Henry has occupied many important offices on agricultural boards and committees and has been prominently connected with a number of other public services.

It has been found that games and sports best encourage the communal spirit and obliterate the distinction of class and occupation. Another letter to the association contains the following: "I cannot imagine a man who has bowled out the village blacksmith, or been bowled out by him, not having a fellow-feeling toward him afterwards."

Four divinity students. Four students from the senior class of Acadia Collegiate Academy were present at the regular weekly prayer meeting of the congregation in the Fairville Baptist church. The four, all of whom are studying for the ministry, are S. Bonney, of Vancouver; C. Allaby and H. Spinye, of this city, and Wallace Forge, of Fairville. Mr. Allaby delivered an instructive address during the meeting.

OFFICIALS DENY BAN ON WINE

Washington, Dec. 29.—The prohibition unit of the Internal Revenue Bureau has not the slightest idea of attempting to bar the use of wine for sacramental purposes in churches and ordering the substitution of unfermented fruit juices. Heads of the Federal Prohibition Bureau here were surprised to read New York dispatches stating that Ralph A. Day, Federal Prohibition Director for New York, has said this plan was under consideration.

Rickard had faith in his judgment, however, and had the satisfaction of seeing it vindicated in the shape of a crowd numbering close to 80,000 and a total gate receipts amounting to $1,552,422.

The bout itself was short but not lacking in thrills. In the second round Carpenter, second choice in the betting which was 3 to 1 against him, landed on Dempsey's jaw and for a few seconds the champion was tottering. Before and after this one flash by the challenger Dempsey held sway and he finally delivered the knockout punch in the fourth round.

The failure of Mile. Suzanne Lenglen, the temperamental French miss who was regarded as queen of the tennis world, provided the real drama of the year. With a nation rendering her homage and much of it pulling for her success against the American champion, Mile. Lenglen proved a dismal failure. She withdrew from the court during a match with Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory when the latter was literally playing the French woman off her feet.

Mile. Lenglen previously had defeated the American champion in Europe and it was generally expected that her visit here would be one success after another. However, many close followers of tennis who looked on during that August afternoon at Forest Hills inclined to the belief that the tennis of Mrs. Mallory at that particular time was unbeatable. Mile. Lenglen declared herself physically unfit for play and later was ordered by her physician to rest.

The default, or resignation, created a sensation throughout this country also in the sport realms of Europe. There was much sympathy showered on the visiting player and arguments for or against her action were numerous. Later she attempted to play again, but again left the court and finally gave up all idea of continuing the tour that had been planned. No foreign sport celebrity ever drew such honors on arriving here as did Mile. Lenglen and none proved to be a greater disappointment.

A world's series that was a city series as well—the first affair of its kind ever played entirely within one ball park—marked the close of a big year in baseball where interest always is greatest among sport followers of the United States. The combination added to the interest in the series which was reflected in the presence of far more newspaper men from other cities than had attended any previous series.

A total of 270,000 fans paid more than 800,000 to see the eight games, both figures being record makers for a world's series. The series resulted in a victory

International competition featured two nations was the Dempsey-Carpenter fight, and the same nations were mainly concerned in the ill-fated expedition of Mile. Lenglen to win tennis honors in this country. Then there was the golfers both here and abroad, with the winning of the British open by Jock Hutchison, an American. Tennis also had its share of international competition. A British soccer team toured this country, as did foreign golfers, and billiardists. British track and field stars visited these shores, also a famous team from England. From the standpoint of international events the year was one of the greatest in sport history.

CITY UNDER WAY ON WORK PROGRAMME

Filling Under the Newman Brook Bridge Authorized.

Will Employ 30 Men—Suggestions to Build a Trunk Sewer Through Mill Pond—New Fire Station is Mentioned—Bureau in the Red Cross Quarters.

The city council, at a committee meeting this morning, got under way its first plan towards the relief of the unemployment situation when it authorized the commissioner of public works to proceed with the filling of the space under Newman brook bridge, which will allow for the removal of the bridge next year. A special meeting of the council will be held on Saturday morning to pass on the renewal of water mains in Carmarthen street and King street east. A suggestion that a trunk sewer might be laid through the west side mill pond was made and a report will be presented at the next meeting. The Newman brook work will take about thirty men. Commissioner Frink submitted a report of the road engineer regarding the proposed filling at the Newman Brook bridge. He said it would be necessary to excavate about 6,000 cubic yards of stone for the work. This material could be obtained from the stone quarry at the Shamrock Grounds from Millville avenue. The engineer estimated that the cost would be about $3 a cubic yard under the present conditions. Mr. Bullock was of the opinion as this was permanent work the cost should be taken care of by bond issue.

Regarding the matter of blasting at the quarry, Commissioner Frink said that it could be done without danger to the residents in the vicinity.

On recommendation of Commissioner Frink, the report was ordered received and the work will be proceeded with at once, the cost to be paid for at the present time out of the street repairs, the men to be paid $2.50 a day and to be employed week about except in the case of skilled workmen. He said he would bring in a resolution regarding the final method of payment at the next meeting of the council. He moved that double teams be paid $4 a day and single teams $4 a day on the job. Carried.

The mayor said there were many men applying to his office for work today. He said that a list of men would be available at his office on Tuesday morning, if the new bureau was not able to do furnish the men.

Dr. Frink remarked that wage payments were made every fortnight at city hall. The mayor said it might be arranged to have wages paid every week.

The road engineer said that thirty men might be employed on the job.

Dr. Frink said that some of the rock in Somerset street might be removed and the material dumped in the bridge area.

The engineer said that some of the shutters on the rock side of that street objected to the removal of the rock as it would leave their entrances too high. To the mayor said he planned to have that some stone could be broken up ready for the crusher when it started operations.

Prospect Street Offer.

Commissioner Frink said a man in Prospect street offered some rock on his property to the city for street work and also offered to pay the city for having it removed. The commissioner said he would report on the matter.

It was decided to hold a special meeting on Saturday morning to take up the matter of a proposed renewal of water mains in Carmarthen and King street east.

Mill Pond Sewer.

The mayor suggested that the proposed trunk sewer through the mill pond on the west side might supply some work on the west side and dispose of a question that has been talked of for years.

New Fire Station.

Mr. Thornton said if the public works department would remove the stables from the corner of Carmarthen and King streets, he would bring along a project of a new central fire station.

The mayor said he planned including a sum in the 1922 appropriations to provide for emergency expenditures to be controlled through the office, with the unanimous consent of the council to relieve unemployment by providing work.

Commissioner Frink said plans were being made to put in flood gates to more completely protect the property surrounding the mill pond.

Commissioner Jones said this morning that a survey of Millidgeville avenue had been completed and an estimate of the amount of rock to be excavated to bring it to its proper grade would be available at the next meeting of the city council. A plan of the work, however, could not be prepared by that time, but would be brought in at a subsequent session. Employment for a good number of men would be found on this work, he said.

Men Registering.

Up to this morning about fifty men had presented themselves to the mayor's clerk with tax bills or receipts for the last two years, and they were registered to go to work as soon as the operations commenced. The mayor said today that preference would be given to men who were the only wage earners in the family and the others taken in the order of the number of wage earners. Every effort will be made to deal with the most urgent cases first.

Registration and Unemployed.

As an illustration of the value of an employment office where men and women may register, a minister told the Times this morning of an inquiry he received from an outside point for female help in a hotel. He enquired of the Associated Charities and Red Cross, but neither had on their list a suitable person.

The same minister said he called on a storekeeper in one section of the city and asked how conditions were and was told that they were not bad at all. There was some unemployment, he said, but it was not serious. The minister went right across the street to find a woman with two children, she herself being in a delicate state of health, and the man out valy seeking for work, as he had

CIRCUIT COURT.

In the circuit court this morning the case of George V. Parker, charged with receiving stolen goods, knowing them to be stolen from the P. R. was taken up. William Ryan conducted the prosecution, and Daniel Mullin, K. C., appeared for the defence. The following jurors were chosen: Coles Parent, Arthur J. Nagle, Leggett Hanselbacher, William E. Earle, Ernest N. Logan, George A. MacLaughlin, Walter Bellie, Ralph G. Day, H. L. Codner, Fred McCusker, John Durbin and Alfred S. Merritt. The prosecution opened the case by calling Chester Arbo, now of Dorchester penitentiary, who was convicted of stealing boots from a C. P. R. car at Fredericton Junction. The next witness was A. H. Heenan, assistant C. P. agent at Fredericton Junction, and the last witness heard this morning was Thomas B. Wishart, shipper of the Hart Shoe Company at Fredericton. The evidence was about the same as that given at the preliminary hearing. It is expected that the case will be finished this afternoon.

MORRISSEY TO PENITENTIARY FOR TEN YEARS

Sentence Imposed in Police Court Today for Theft from the Mails.

Ten years in Dorchester was the sentence imposed upon Harry A. Morrissey this morning by Police Magistrate Ritchie in a crowded court room. Morrissey pleaded guilty to a charge of theft from His Majesty's mails while he was employed in the post office here, last week, and was sentenced over Christmas. He seemed to take the sentence quite hard, wiping his eyes several times while His Honor was giving his address and hurrying out of the court room immediately after he had been sentenced, apparently to get away from the eyes of the large number of spectators. The magistrate, in delivering judgment, stressed the importance of mail matter reaching its destination and the large penalty allowed by law for any interference with it in transit. Life imprisonment was the maximum sentence, he said. He had taken everything into consideration in favor of the prisoner, his plea of guilty, his conduct throughout the trial and his helping in the recovery of some of the stolen goods, but it was necessary to remember the law, and he would have to be bound by it. His Honor concluded by saying that he would sentence him to ten years' imprisonment in Dorchester penitentiary.

MILITARY NOTES.

The Saturday afternoon Badminton and tea at the army will be postponed until Monday, New Year's afternoon on account of the preparations being made for the dance on New Year's night. There will also be a reception in the officers' mess from 12 to 1 o'clock on the same day, in revival of an old custom.

Captain E. L. M. Burns, who left the post of works officer here last June to take a course in the School of Military Engineering at Chatham, England, returned on the S. S. Minnedosa. He left for Montreal for a short visit before taking up his duties at his new station, Halifax.

Major E. R. Vines, M.C., left for Woodstock on December 22 for a short holiday.

New German Currency.

Berlin, Dec. 28.—New currency to the amount of 4,500,000,000 marks was placed in circulation during the first week of December. It is shown by figures available today. The total currency issue is now 109,000,000,000 marks.

Major Burrows, in speaking to the Times today, said that there would be a member of the Salvation Army staff at the office through the day to take applications over the telephone. The names and addresses of all those who registered would be taken and the work given out according to the ability of the men to do it and the order in which the men were down on the list. Through this office, he said, it would be possible for citizens to get any kind of labor they were in need of and delay in finding the proper man for a piece of work would be lessened by the classification of the applications according to trade.
