AUSTRIA SURRENDERS!

AN ARMISTICE BETWEEN AUSTRIA AND ITALY EFFECTIVE AT 3 A. M.

What Was Formerly the Dual Monarchy, Last of Germany's Props, Has Gone Out of War, Italians Landing on Austrian Soil—Forty Thousand Austrian Troops Abandon Germans in France, Compelling Latter to Retreat—Austrians Evacuating Serbia and Italy—Karl Sovereign of But Little Territory Now.

London, Nov. 4.—(By The Associated Press)—An armistice between Austria and the Italian forces came into operation at three o'clock this (Monday) morning, according to an official announcement.

London, Nov. 3.—An armistice with Austria was signed this afternoon by General Diaz, the Italian commander in chief, according to an official announcement made here this evening. The text of the statement reads:

"A telephone message has been received from the prime minister in Paris saying that news has just come that Austria-Hungary, the last of Germany's props, has gone out of the war.

"The armistice was signed by General Diaz this afternoon and will come into operation tomorrow morning at three o'clock. The terms will be published Tuesday."

Troops Abandon Germany.

Paris, Nov. 3.—(4.50 p.m., by the Associated Press)—Official announcement of the signing of the Austrian armistice reached the premiers while they were in session at the apartment of Colonel House, President Wilson's special representative, this afternoon, and gave the greatest satisfaction. It was arranged that the conditions of the armistice would be made public promptly.

Copenhagen, Sunday.—Austro-Hungarian troops are being withdrawn from the western front, and the Germans, fearing the Allies will march through Austria, are digging trenches and erecting fortifications along the Bavarian frontier, according to a Vienna despatch to the Politikon.

London, Nov. 3.—Late despatches from the battle area above Verdun report that 40,000 Austrians have been driven from the Meuse-Melle front on their way home. The German retreat on the American front is ascribed to the defection of the Austrians.

Vienna, Nov. 3.—Via London—"In the Italian theatre of the war our troops have ceased hostilities on the basis of an armistice which has been concluded," says the war communication issued today.

"The conditions of the armistice will be announced in a later communication." (Continued on page 8)

A FRENCH SWEEP.

Paris, Nov. 3.—The Argonne region has been cleared of the enemy by the French and American forces, the war office announces tonight. Numerous villages and important positions were captured in Sunday's fighting.

French troops continue to make progress on the River Aisne front. In the course of last night the French captured the villages of Givry and La Croix-Au-Bois.

The statement says: "The prolonged battle fought in the Argonne by our Fourth Army in conjunction with the American army has terminated in complete success for our arms. The enemy, who had stubbornly defended the passages of the Aisne, then clung desperately to the wooded heights where he found excellent natural defence, has seen his resistance give way under our victorious efforts.

"With admirable ease our troops have occupied after a severe struggle the villages of Toges, Delleville, Quatre-Champs, Noirlas, Les Alloux and Chilly-Sur-Bar. Pushing beyond in a northerly direction they have completely occupied the Voncq and Chesno Woods, the northern outskirts of which they hold.

The enemy's rearwards have been everywhere overthrown. The liberation of the Argonne is an accomplished fact. The prisoners and supplies taken have not yet been counted."

THE ALLIED ARMIES WILL OCCUPY BAKU

London, Nov. 2.—An additional clause in the terms of armistice granted by the Allied powers to Turkey, which has just been received says: "Allied control officers are to be placed on all railways, including such portions of the trans-Caucasian railways as are now under Turkish control; these must be placed at the free and complete disposal of the Allied authorities, due consideration being given to the needs of the population.

This clause is to include the Allied occupation of Baku. Turkey will raise no objection to the occupation of Baku by the Allies." Baku is a great oil centre.

KAISER SENDS BAGGAGE TO SWITZERLAND

All Absorbing Topic in Germany Concerns His Probable Abdication.

WILY PLOT OF THE EMPEROR FAILS

In Address William Speaks of Trials of Empire and "Gloom of Present."

Geneva, Nov. 3.—(By The Associated Press)—Dozens of trunks bearing the royal Hohenzollern monogram have been arriving in the past week at the luxurious chateau named "Buonas" on the Lake of Zug. The chateau, which is flying the German flag, is the property of Baron Von Kietel, a German.

Copenhagen, Nov. 3.—According to the Tageblatt, the Kaiser's appearance at military headquarters is much regretted by political circles. The Tageblatt declares that the Emperor's act is calculated to inspire all kinds of conjectures.

Paris, Nov. 3.—In Berlin political circles, it is reported that the Kaiser has failed in an effort to subordinate the civilian authorities to the military party in an effort to save his crown by establishing a military dictatorship.

The Kaiser, it is reported, took the head of a military cabinet, says a despatch from Zurich to the Journal, but the government was too solidly established.

An plot which aims at the establishment of a military dictatorship is doomed, it is declared, although the Kaiser, stubbornly clinging to the throne, is apparently refusing to notice any act by the government.

The Kaiser's Address.

Amsterdam, Nov. 3.—(By The Associated Press)—On the occasion of the constitutional amendment coming into force, says an official telegram from Berlin, Emperor William addressed to Prince Maximilian of Baden, the German imperial chancellor, a decree endorsing the decisions of the Reichstag and avowing his firm determination to co-operate in their full development.

"Your grand dual highness—I return herewith for immediate publication the bill to amend the imperial constitution and the law of March 17, 1873, relative to the representation of the imperial chancellor, which has been laid before me for signature.

"On the occasion of this step, which is so momentous for the future history of the German people, I have a desire to give expression to my feelings. Prepared for by a series of government acts a new order comes into force which transfers the fundamental rights of the Kaiser's person to the people."

The Italians and Allies Take 100,000 Prisoners

Complete Collapse of Austria Internally and Militarily—Germans Weakened in France and in Retreat—A Great Serbian Victory.

(By Arthur S. Draper). Special cable to the New York Tribune and St. John Standard.

London, Nov. 3.—With the arrival within the Italian lines of an Austrian officer bearing a white flag the humiliation of the erstwhile dual monarchy is complete. If anything is necessary to show the complete collapse of the enemy it is found in the figures supplied by the Italian communiques which reports the capture of 100,000 prisoners and more than 2,300 guns.

Within a week the Austrian armies have been as badly routed as the Russians in the summer of 1917 following the failure of Brusiloff's attack. The Italians have landed at Trieste.

In the west first class operations are being conducted, the Germans retreating on a wide front. Their divisions are undisciplined and their batteries under-gunned. In Flanders the British, French and American units have made a deep advance to the line of the Scheldt, but here the enemy withdrew voluntarily, offering little resistance beyond that supplied by machine gunners and long range guns.

Germans Retreating.

The situation is similar on the other flank where the Americans have advanced three miles west of the Meuse without meeting much opposition. Apparently the German command is ready to retire the wings to avoid heavy losses. This is not the case, however, around Valenciennes and east of Ypres. Although three British corps attacked north and south of Valenciennes they were unable to capture the town without hard fighting, the Canadians having the honor of taking Valenciennes. Four thousand prisoners were obtained in this six mile attack.

Gouraud's army has met just as stubborn resistance east of Arras. The 100,000 and the guns captured more than 2,000.

GERMAN DISASTER IN FRANCE

(By The Associated Press.)

Austro-Hungary is out of the war. Deserted by her last ally, Germany fights alone a battle which means ultimate defeat or abject surrender.

After days of pleading an armistice has been granted Austria-Hungary, whose badly defeated armies in the Italian theatre are staggering toward, under the violence of the blows of the Entente troops.

Trent, in Austrian Tyrol, which the British, French, Americans and Belgians have captured by them. Austria's principal seaport on the Adriatic, over which there has been such bitter fighting, now flies the Italian flag and Belgrade, capital of Serbia, has been occupied by the Serbians. In France and Belgium the German forces are being sorely harassed by the British, French, Americans and Belgians, and there are indications that a debacle is about to occur.

The Culminating Blow.

The advance of the Americans and the French on the southern part of the battlefield, taken in conjunction with the operations of Field Marshal Haig and the Belgians in the north threatens to prove the culminating blow to Germany.

LOAN FIGURES.

Toronto, Nov. 3.—With the first week of the Victory loan campaign over, the grand total of the figures for the whole Dominion, as far as reported to headquarters here stands at $142,410,800. To this total the province of Ontario contributed $80,120,300, but whereas Ontario's figures are up to date, the returns of the other provinces have not all been turned in.

Returns so far as received from the other provinces are:

British Columbia (5 days), $8,443,350; Alberta (5 days), $4,324,500; Saskatchewan (4 days), $2,691,700; Manitoba (4 days), $2,070,900; Nova Scotia (4 days), $1,241,900; Prince Edward Island (5 days), $120,300; New Brunswick (2 days), $2,070,900; Quebec (4 days), $31,103,550.

EXPECT GERMANY WILL SURRENDER

Versailles Conference Has Prepared Drastic Terms of Proposed Armistice—Germany May Surrender Fleet, Including Submarines, and Heligoland, Army to Retire Thirty Miles Behind the Rhine.

(By Arthur S. Draper). Special cable to New York Tribune and St. John Standard.

London, Nov. 3.—Unofficial reports are current that the Versailles conference will adjourn soon. Momentous news is expected hourly. There is no reason to modify the forecast of an early cessation of hostilities. Germany has been prepared for stiff terms and will accept them according to those best qualified to judge.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Complete and unconditional surrender by Germany is what diplomatic circles here forecast will be virtually laid down in the armistice, which the Allies will announce tomorrow or Tuesday.

Terms Drawn Up.

The supreme war council at Versailles has practically completed the terms which are to be offered the Central Powers for a cessation of hostilities, and diplomatic channels feel that no armistice will be granted until Germany submits completely.

The council, it has become known, has completed its consideration of the naval problems involved. The surrender into the hands of the associated Entente belligerents of the entire German navy, with all its submarines and the naval base at Heligoland, will be demanded, it is confidently asserted.

The question of insisting upon the retirement of the German armies, without their military supplies and without their loot from France and Belgium, to a zone thirty miles beyond the Rhine, is now being considered by the council, it is reported.

This would put the border stronghold cities in the hands of General Foch and return the German military machine home with its power gone. According to this information the terms will be so drastic that some of the military experts doubt that the Germans will accept them at once.

A Sunday Session.

Paris, Nov. 3.—A meeting of premiers and military and naval representatives at the apartments of Colonel House today was a continuation of the sessions previously held. While the discussion was largely informal it covered the whole range of subjects.

The representatives were in full accord on practically all the points treated.

The seasons will continue, as the moment has not yet arrived for the taking of a final decision on some of the most important questions involved. Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain and Premier Clemenceau of France left the conference together. They exchanged friendly greetings on the prompt signing of the Austrian armistice and showed in their manner the keen satisfaction they felt regarding the progress of events.

SERBIANS TAKE BELGRADE CITY

Their Old Capital on the Danube and Practically All of Serbia Now in Their Hands.

Paris, Nov. 3.—The Serbian army has re-occupied Belgrade, the Serbian capital, the war office announces in its statement on operations in the eastern theatre.

The statement says: "After the capture of Belgrade, the Germans and Austrians, beaten, retired to the north bank of the Danube. The second Serbian army has reached the Bosnian frontier. Serbia has almost in its entirety been freed from the enemy.

"The battles which decided this great victory began on September 15 from the 24th the line of communication on the Vardar was cut. Uskub was captured on the 29th. The dislocation of the Bulgarian forces was followed by capitulation and on the 30th hostilities came to an end.

"Fighting was continued by the defeated Austro-German forces."

BRITISH VICTORY!

London, Nov. 3.—The Germans are retreating to the east and southeast of Valenciennes, Field Marshal Haig reports from headquarters tonight.

The British are following the enemy up and have taken prisoners. The statement says:

"Following the severe defeat inflicted upon his forces on the Valenciennes front in the past two days, the enemy has today withdrawn from his positions to the east and southeast of Valenciennes.

"The movement was at once observed and we have pressed the enemy closely during the day, maintaining constant touch with the German rearguards and taking a number of prisoners."

HUNGARY A REPUBLIC.

Berne, Nov. 3.—Count Karolyi, after obtaining a release from his oath of fealty to the emperor, proclaimed a republic in Hungary, according to a despatch to the Bund from Vienna, quoting the Viennese newspaper Die Zeitung.

BELGIANS WIN.

Brussels, Nov. 3.—Marked progress by the Belgian army is indicated by the latest report from Belgian headquarters. The Belgians have reached the west bank of the canal, which runs between Ghent and Neusen in a northerly direction, and thereby have secured a further large section of their country. The statement says:

"Notwithstanding difficulties caused by destroyed crossings, we have pushed our front to a line marked by De Katte (just south of the Dutch border); east of Ertevelde, west of Cluysen along the western bank of the Ghent-Neusen Canal opposite Laagerbrugge and have conquered the approaches to Ghent toward Aalst."

CHARLOTTETOWN DOES WELL.

Charlottetown, Nov. 3.—Of her victory loan objective of six hundred thousand, Charlottetown has now $376,000 practically subscribed.

FIELD DAY AT ROCKWOOD PARK

About One Hundred Y. M. C. A. Boys Enjoyed a Mock Battle—The Whites Proved Victorious Over the Reds.

The Field Day held by the Y. M. C. A. at Rockwood Park on Saturday afternoon was in every way a great success.

The Whites, commanded by Capt. Horace H. Westmore, left the "building at 2.10 p. m. and went directly to the park where they took up their position on "Hill 70."

It was fully 3 o'clock before the scouting parties of the Reds could be seen spying out the enemy's lines. They had divided their men into two sections. One advanced on the Hill from the left side of the hill.

At 5 o'clock reinforcements were sent from Headquarters and shortly after this the Reds in massed formation made a most desperate attack on the Whites.

Both sides showed that they had good plans. The strategy of the Reds in capturing the hill was to bring the Whites and in taking their lag, also in bringing on the surprise attack from two different quarters.

He lived at the family homestead at 60 Court street, both his parents being dead, and Thursday night, although his housekeeper, Mrs. Lambert, had supper ready at the usual hour he did not come until nine o'clock.

Both sides showed that they had good plans. The strategy of the Reds in capturing the hill was to bring the Whites and in taking their lag, also in bringing on the surprise attack from two different quarters.

At the same time Director General Schwab of the Emergency Fleet Corporation declared: "We are no longer meeting an emergency now, as the emergency period is past. What we are striving for now is economy and permanency of production. Economic permanency should now be the slogan."

Mr. Hurley added that in the process of elimination of certain of the shipbuilding projects those shipyard contracts for fifty 2,500-ton wooden barges and a like number of tug boats to haul them.

Washington, Oct. 29.—A general revision of the shipbuilding programme, affecting the output of steel as well as wood vessels, appears at hand. How far this will go no one here would say tonight, but Chairman Hurley of the shipping board is quoted as saying in Philadelphia that the time is beginning up on construction has come.

At the same time Director General Schwab of the Emergency Fleet Corporation declared: "We are no longer meeting an emergency now, as the emergency period is past. What we are striving for now is economy and permanency of production. Economic permanency should now be the slogan."

Taken in connection with the important conference last week, which it is now known had to do not only with the curtailment of wooden ship building but also concerned re-adjustment of the steel programme, these utterances are regarded as significant.

"The time has come," Mr. Hurley stated, "when we must begin to ease up. This easing up process must be applied to steel ships as well as to wooden ones, but as the number of wooden ships already completed added to the number contracted for and which he constructed, these shipyard contracts for fifty 2,500-ton wooden barges and a like number of tug boats to haul them.

SECOND DEATH IN FEW DAYS OCCURS IN TWO FAMILIES

Heroic Newcastle Priest Who Aided Sick, Now Has Pneumonia.

Special to The Standard.

Fredericton, Nov. 3.—The second death in a week in the family of Edward Fenwick of Newmarket, took place this morning when his daughter, Kathleen, aged eleven years, passed away from pneumonia. She is survived by her parents, four brothers and two sisters, all residing at Newmarket. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of her father, Mr. Fenwick, at Newmarket. Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Hay of Millville have lost their infant daughter, Shirley Agnes Hay, aged two years, from pneumonia. She passed away today. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at Millville. Mrs. Louise Clowater, eighty-three years old, died suddenly this morning at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Sutherland. She was about the house yesterday in apparent good health. Heart trouble was the cause of death. The body will be sent to Ludlow tomorrow for interment. Joseph Foreman died yesterday at his home, Fox Falls, York county. The cause is a sad one as his wife died only four days ago. They leave ten children, the eldest fifteen years and the youngest only six weeks.

No More House Parties.

Special to The Standard.

Chatham, Nov. 3.—Two houses were released from quarantine today and there now remain only eight under placard. There were no new cases Saturday or today. A regulation will be posted tomorrow forbidding persons to hold parties or private gatherings in their houses.

The death of Mrs. John Holland is reported today from Waldfield, five or six miles from Chatham. Deceased had influenza and the remains will be brought here for burial.

Better in Sackville.

Sackville, Nov. 3.—The weather has favored the influenza today and there is a slight improvement in the town. At first people who contracted the disease did not realize their danger, and after staying in the house for a day or two, came out again and in many cases had a relapse; in fact nearly all the deaths and real serious cases have been due to carelessness. An official estimate places the number of cases in Sackville town and parish at 400. This is probably not an over-estimate, as the disease has spread very rapidly, and no attempt was made to quarantine. There are perhaps not more than 150 cases at present and many of these are light, but there are still many serious cases, especially outside the town. The general situation in the town shows a decided improvement.

REVEAL GERMAN SPIES' NAMES

Striking Suggestion Which Has Been Made By Writer in Libre Parole.

Special cable to The N. Y. Tribune and St. John Standard.

Paris, Nov. 3.—The striking suggestion which has been made by a writer in the Libre Parole, and warmly taken up by Leon Daudet and other publicists here, is well worth serious consideration of all the Allied countries which have suffered from the treacherous operations of the German spy system. It is, that Germany by a special clause in the treaty of peace shall be compelled to deliver to the Allies a complete detailed list of names of her agents in France, England, America, Italy and Russia, accompanied by full particulars of sums which have been paid to them. Much is already known by the various allied governments to render extremely suspicious hundreds of men and women who are still walking about free, and posing as patriotically devoted to their respective countries. Access to the details of what the German government alone can supply would enable the allies to mete out punishment justly deserved by these yet unexposed traitors. The fact that the German government cannot know the extent of the knowledge already possessed by the Allies, would act as a check to prevent the Boche authorities from avoiding a complete disclosure. The mere suggestion that the Allies may adopt this course will probably prove immediately useful in clearing up some of the obscurities in various investigations proceeding at this moment, especially in America and France.

HER FIVE CHILDREN Had Whooping Cough

Whoooping cough is one of the most dangerous diseases of children, especially to those under five years of age.

It first starts with a fever and cough, sneezing, watering of the eyes and an irritation of the throat. Later the coughing increases, the child becomes livid in the face, the eyes appear as if they would burst from their sockets and suffocation seems imminent. Relief is brought by the "whoop." On the first sign of whooping cough we would advise the use of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. This famous remedy will clear the bronchial tubes of the collected mucus and phlegm, and in this way ease the racking cough, and in a short time make it disappear entirely.

Mrs. Walter McLaughy, North Battleford, Sask., writes: "I have five children, the eldest thirteen and the baby two years old. They all had the whooping cough at the same time. I tried two or three cough remedies, but none gave the same satisfaction as Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. A home where there are young children should never be without it. I will highly recommend it to those who want a quick cure."

There are many imitations of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so be sure you get the genuine by insisting that the package is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25c and 50c, and manufactured by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

GERMANY LIKELY TO GET THE TERMS OF ARMISTICE TODAY

Momentous Events Are Occurring in European Centres Just Now.

PEACE TERMS WILL BE TAKEN UP LATER ON

Agreement By Germany to Armistice Terms Would Be a Surrender.

By CARTER FIELD.

Special to The Standard.

Washington, Nov. 2.—The terms for the armistice will be submitted to Germany probably not later than Monday, and there will be no reference to the peace terms in the message to the Allies. Germany must wait for the peace terms until negotiations ensue after she has consented to the armistice.

This was learned today on unimpeachable authority based on direct cables telling of the progress of the Versailles conference.

There was the keenest interest here today concerning whether this submission of armistice terms with no reference to peace conditions will find the Allies determined to give to Germany not less than the fourteen peace conditions of President Wilson, which have been mentioned in every note so far exchanged on the armistice.

Stick to the Point.

Questions as to the point in Allied diplomatic circles were waived aside, the clear attitude of the diplomats being that peace conditions are not the subject of immediate interest.

The view seems to be held that all of the peace conditions will be discussed at the peace table, and will not be reached at this time. Germany consents to an armistice which, as one diplomatic put it, "amounts to what you Americans call unconditional surrender."

The very clear idea of this important official is that the agreement of Germany to the armistice is equal to unconditional surrender in that the only question put to Germany now is whether she is willing to submit now, binding herself in advance by the terms of the armistice to accept whatever peace conditions may be extended, or whether she prefers to fight on until her armies have been absolutely routed and the peace terms are dictated by the triumphant Allies on German soil.

As he views the situation the peace terms are dictated in either event.

Another Form.

If this view of the situation is a correct interpretation of the view taken at Versailles, and there is most excellent authority that it is at least the Allied view, the granting of armistice terms is regarded at Versailles merely as another form of unconditional surrender, a surrender in advance as when the expert chess player sees that no matter how he directs his moves he cannot possibly prevent checkmate in a given number of moves, and therefore concedes the game without going through the formality of making the moves.

Much light was thrown today also on the share of the neutral nations in the peace negotiations. It was said that their representatives would be admitted just before the close of the discussion when those subjects relating to future peace and to the change in world politics, by which it would be accomplished, were reached.

League of Nations.

Incidentally it was said on excellent authority today that the French people are heartily in favor of the proposal for a league of nations.

The belief that the German army is almost at the point of unconditional surrender was expressed by a high official who pointed to the trouble Germany has had in manning her of the peace conditions on which the French will insist, following the destruction of the French coal mines by the retreating Germans. It will be two years it was said before the mines will produce a pound of coal, and ten years before the normal pre-war production is reached. During that period, it was urged, France should be supplied with sufficient coal from Germany, without charge, to make up the deficit.

As to the measure of cost of reconstruction in northern France it was pointed out that to rebuild the houses which have been destroyed would alone require the labor of 100,000 men for twenty years. The French people, it was said, would be much better content in the long run if, instead of carrying fire and sword into Germany with a view to reprisals, Germany should be compelled to repair the damage she has done.

Munition Factories.

One of the terms of the armistice, therefore, it was said, would certainly be the Allied supervision in some manner of the German munition factories.

ST. JOHN, N. B., MONDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1918.

"We are fighting for a worthy purpose, and we shall not lay down our arms until that purpose has been fully achieved."—H. M. The King.
TO THE PEOPLE OF THE EMPIRE—Every fighting unit we can send to the front means one step nearer peace.

THE END AT HAND.

Austria has accepted the terms offered by Italy for an armistice, and hostilities have ceased on the Austrian fronts, while Austrian soldiers have also been removed from the German lines in France. The Italians have taken possession of the Austrian city of Trieste, and the Italian flag now flies over the official residence there. The Serbian army has retaken a part of Belgrade, Serbia's original capital, which the Austrians captured during the first few weeks of the war.

The conditions decided upon by the Versailles council upon which Germany can obtain an armistice, have been completed and will be forwarded to Berlin today or Tuesday. They include the withdrawal of the German forces to a point thirty miles beyond the Rhine, the surrender of the naval base of Heligoland, as well as the entire German fleet, including all submarines, and it is the opinion of London, Paris and Washington that Germany can do nothing but accept it. It is assumed that the country to the Rhine will be at once occupied by the Allied troops and that the naval base at Heligoland and the German fleet will be held by the Allies as hostages for Germany's good faith.

Out course of the armistice agreement but preliminary measures looking to a cessation of hostilities. The actual peace terms will be settled later, and assuredly they will be severe, as they should be, for Germany must pay a heavy penalty for the grievous wrongs inflicted upon the world since August 1914.

Momentous developments are expected within the next few days, but the consensus of opinion of reviewers and officials well qualified to judge is that the end of the war is at hand, no matter how Berlin may feel on the matter of accepting the Allied terms, the collapse of Austria renders the strategic position of Germany intolerable.

This was admitted several days ago by the Berlin Vorwaerts and the Frankfort Zeitung which, anticipating Austria's withdrawal, said Germany would be crippled by it. The Vorwaerts said: "The world war will probably be over in a few days. There are many indications that, with the capitulation of Austria, she would present to the Allies a new front against Germany, in the case of the Bavarian, Saxon and Silesian fronts, as well as the cities of Munich, Dresden and Breslau would be no longer safe. Austrian capitulation means the cutting off of important raw material with which prolonged warfare is no longer possible for Germany. It means that not only our last ally leaves us, and enters the role of a neutral, but the country is made a war instrument in the hands of our opponents. Let us admit freely that it means the end of resistance."

The fact that a German newspaper waers the influence of the Vorwaerts would dare to publish the facts as plainly as quoted, is a most significant indication of the situation in the Kaiser's dominions. Last night's cables brought the news confirming Austria's worst fears. Austria has collapsed and withdrawn from the war. Germany cannot continue alone. Berlin must now accept whatever terms the Allies see fit to impose, or a revolution in Germany will complete the wreck. The war is about over.

A GERMAN FAILURE.

According to the London Morning Post the ninth German war loan which was announced early in September is a flat failure. From the announcement of the issue up to the present time the amount of money subscribed is $477,000,000 and an extension of time has been decided upon in the hope that the subscription will be increased. The record of the ninth loan, compared with that of its predecessors, shows that the German people realize that they are fighting a lost cause. In March last, when the Kaiser's armies were marching on Paris, the eighth loan was organized, and the subscriptions to it reached the sum of $2,750,000,000, while all other loans averaged from $2,500,000,000 to $4,000,000,000. The ninth loan did not realize more than Canada will raise in the present Victory Loan campaign. Germany is practically bankrupt, ruined by four and one quarter years of war. It is stated that frightened depositors are making runs on German banks, that great firms have gone to pieces in the stock exchanges, and that private citizens are hoarding wealth in every form against the approaching day of collapse. It is estimated that the war debt of Germany is in round numbers, about thirty billions, and that the interest requirements upon such a sum are more than the total pre-war revenue of the German government. The raising of $600,000,000 of added war revenue last year exhausted the resources of taxation, and no more money can be obtained in that way. At the same time Germany's productive power to apply to industry has diminished almost to the vanishing point. The losses in men have been enormous, the foreign markets are gone, there is a shortage of raw materials in spite of the huge quantities stolen from France and Russia and Belgium. Germany mortgaged everything on the success of the war, and now that it is established that the war is lost, there is no available source from which additional funds can be procured. A beaten bankrupt, the "home front" has crumbled, even as the military fronts are being beaten down. For the great masses of the German people the worst is yet to come.

JOIN THE VICTORY LOANERS.

Every grown-up person in this country is supposed to be the bearer of a certificate showing him to be duly registered for the national purposes of Canada. Each should desire to hold another certificate, one showing that he has helped to forward the national purposes of Canada either as a defender or lender. For those who help by lending, the Victory Loan is the proper testimonial. Every person should aim to qualify to become a holder of this national scrip. If the where-withal to buy one is not in hand, there are few cases in which arrangements for getting it cannot yet be made.

In these times of high wages an industrial man might save the price of a $50 bond in the time that remains before the subscription lists are closed. Employees can in many cases have their payments looked after by their employers, who, if the subscriber finds the first 10 per cent. of the amount, will agree to carry the loan upon the employer's undertaking to apply 5 per cent. out of his pay every week until it is cleared off. Banks will accommodate their customers by finding 90 per cent. of the money and giving time to pay off the rest in monthly instalments, the rate of interest for the first year being the same as that for the bond. A Victory Bond is a document that every patriotic Canadian ought to have, no matter what social class has to be practiced in order to save money for buying one.

Reports have reached this newspaper of the need existing for a temporary liquor vendor in the Parish of Lancaster, and we are told that on Friday it was necessary to send to the city to secure a small quantity of brandy for which a physician had written a prescription. If a vendor in Fairville would assist in the fight against Spanish influenza in that locality, there appears to be no good reason why the Chief Inspector should not make the appointment at once.

A report comes from Winnipeg that the advent of colder weather has caused a reduction in the number of cases of Spanish influenza. If cold weather will cause the epidemic to abate in this province, then all should hope for a drop in the mercury. It is easier to buy coal than pay funeral expenses.

Mayor Hayes has requested that citizens should fly their flags today to celebrate the withdrawal of Austria-Hungary from the war. That is all right as far as it goes, but why not make the celebration a real one, with a half holiday and a display of old-time patriotism? A second "Lads' Smith" might not be a bad idea.

Many trunks marked with the imperial crest of the Hohenzollerns are said to have arrived at Geneva, Switzerland. Perhaps the Kaiser is preparing to flee from the wrath to come.

THE VICTORY LOAN CAMPAIGN STARTS ON ITS SECOND WEEK TODAY.

It should be the aim of every citizen to make this week a record one.

A BIT OF VERSE

THE APPLE BARREL.
It stood in the cellar low and dim,
Where the cobwebs swept and swayed
Holding the store from bough and limb
At the feet of autumn laid.
And oft, when the days were short
And drear,
And the north wind shrieked and roared,
We children sought in the corner here
And drew on the toothsome board.
For thus through the long, long winter time,
It answered our every call,
With wine of the summer's golden prime,
Sealed by the hand of fall.
The best there was of the earth and air,
Of rain and sun, and breeze,
Changed to a pippin, sweet and rare
By the art of the faithful trees.

A wonderful barrel was this, had we
His message but rightly heard—
Filled with tales of wind and bee,
Of cricket, and moth, and bird,
Rife with the bliss of the fragrant June,
When the roses were soft and blue,
Throned with the dreams of a harvest moon,
O'er fields drenched deep with dew.
A homely barrel! I'd fain essay
Your marvellous skill again,
Take me back to the past, I pray,
As willingly now as then—
Back to the time when the dew and eyes,
The noontide warm and still,
The fleecy clouds and the spangled leaves
Of the orchard over the hill.

GEN. GRANT'S COURAGE.

His Message to American People in Battle Field.
(William E. Lambert, of the Congregationalist.)
It was a very recent night which I spent in the company of the great civil war general, who died as I happen to remember, on July 23, 1885, for that was the day on which at high noon I was married. I never met the general while he lived; but I have just been following him on several of his battlefields, and I had an interesting interview with him at one of them where I was able to identify the precise spot where he stood; and I understood quite well what he said to me.

Fort Henry is now overgrown with trees half a century old, but the well-drawn plan of its earthen walls is still cleared to be traced. I follow its salients and approved its plan of construction, with one or two exceptions, made plain to me in the light of what happened at the time of the battle. Forts Henry and Donelson were well located. They were 12 miles apart, one on the Tennessee and the other on the Cumberland, and they backed up to each other, so that either fort could have sent reinforcements to the other without crossing a river. They were well planned by Confederate officers who were West Point graduates, and there is not much to criticize, except the minor matters which I note.

The first of these is that the strong fort was built on the less important stream Fort Donelson, on the Cumberland, was erected to withstand a strong attack by land or river; Fort Henry on the Tennessee was built near the state line, while Kentucky was holding her tight rope balance of armed neutrality, and had respect rather to the skin than to the stomach of the enemy. It was a strategic position. One of the things the war did was to obliterate state lines more or less and the gunboats did not notice the line when they sailed over it.

And now notice this, that while Fort Henry was built almost wholly with reference to resisting attacks by water, it fell before the gunboats, and while Fort Donelson was built more largely with reference to the possibility of land attacks, the gunboats did it hardly any harm, and were greatly damaged by its fires, and it capitulated to an attack in which the whole effective fighting was done by land.

had my visit with him. The old oak stump was still standing when I was there before, but a tornado uprooted it some long ago, and the spot is marked now by three cannon standing upright, and marked with a tablet containing a quotation from his "Memoirs."
As I stood there in the mild April night with the long white rows of little stones around me, and the lights of the steamboat streaking the river with long cones of undulating light that alternated with deepening shadows, the night grew blacker above me; the stars disappeared; the heavy clouds dropped rain in pitiless torrents; the steamboat gave place to gunboats, and the comfortable brick lodge of the superintendent became a log house transformed into a hospital.
During the long night the rain and the general and me inside for brief shelter, but what we saw there was harder to face than the storm, and we went back again and stood under the tree.
The general could not keep his cigar lighted by reason of the rain and his leg was aching him where his horse had fallen on him. His army was lying about him in the mud; their tents were in the hands of the Confederates; thousands of his soldiers were huddled under the shelter of the river, from which Buell proposed to drive them by fire from the gunboats to inspire them with courage to fight again next morning.
I had re-read Gen. Grant's own story of the battle before I left home, and on the boat I read Gen. Cox's history of the campaign and out of the general's own writings, as I recalled them, and the field as it lay around me. I heard Gen. Grant talking to me in short, sharp sentences between the gusts of rain. This is what he said:
"We are pretty badly beaten thus far, but the battle is not over. In every severe battle there comes a time when both sides realize the extent of their losses. That is the moment when victory belongs to the side that has the stouter heart. We shall begin to fight as soon as daylight comes and we shall whip them. Strategists will say that my army was on the wrong side of the river. So it was for defense, but it is on the right side of the river for attack and my policy is attack. Buell came up this afternoon from the rear and saw those poor scared fellows who never had been under fire below, and he cursed them and threatened to have the gunboats open fire on them. I know there are just as badly scared men in the Confederate rear as in our rear. Whenever I get scared I remember that the other man is scared too, and I use my fear as a measure for the fear I know he has. A cup of hot coffee tomorrow morning will put more fight into those men of ours than can be inspired by fear of the fire of the gunboats. Tomorrow morning we begin to fight anew and we shall press the battle to victory."
"Lew Wallace failed me today, but he shall not fail me tomorrow. Buell thinks I am defeated and he shall have a chance to show how well his men can fight. Halleck hates me and is probably on his way to the minute to resign of my command, but the battle will be won before he gets here. Victory belongs to the side that in the hour of discouragement keeps the stouter heart."
That is what I heard Gen. Grant say as we stood together in the rain under the old oak tree. He was drenched to the skin, his leg was swelling and hurting him more every minute; he was thinking uncomplimentary thoughts of Lew Wallace and Buell and Halleck, but he utilized every suggestion of discouragement by remembering that the other side was just as badly frightened as his own, and he determined to fight it out.
I have never met Gen. Grant in the

MANY BELIEVE THE KAISER WILL ABDICATE WITHIN SHORT TIME

Delbruck, Chief of German Civil Cabinet, Has Prepared Abdication Document Which William is Expected to Sign at General Headquarters—Reported That Tremendous Revolution is Due to Occur in Central Europe Now That Germany's Allies Are Out of the War.

(By Arthur S. Draper.)
Special cable to the N. Y. Tribune and St. John Standard.

London, Nov. 2.—The next 48 hours may bring news of the abdication of the Kaiser. Delbruck, chief of the German civil cabinet has prepared the abdication document which the Kaiser will sign at general headquarters. The Bosnian National Council has proclaimed the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina to Serbia. The Versailles conference is hearing the representatives of the Balkan states.

A Revolution.

Out of the swelter of rumors and reports comes the following that the war will end in a tremendous revolution in central Europe. Whether the more stolid German will follow the example of the Russian and Hungarian and resort to bloodshed as a means to an end is impossible to forecast. The "Vossische Zeitung" admits that the Hohenzollerns are numbered, and it is plain that the Kaiser is finished. Another significant fact is that the new German government is permitting the press to publish accounts of a revolutionary movement in the dual monarchy, the Berliner Tageblatt predicting that Austria will be a republic without the Hapsburgs within a few days.

Even the Vossische Zeitung tells of an uprising in Budapest, where the mob stormed the military prison and released the soldiers and civilians, the former cheering the new republic. Archduke Joseph's attempt to establish a military dictatorship proved an object failure.

To Oust Kaiser.

The German independent Socialists have begun a wholesale agitation for the immediate abdication of the Kaiser, the dismissal of Hindenburg, the withdrawal of the Crown Prince and Rupprecht of Bavaria. Perhaps the German government will agree with the armistice terms demanding the disarmament of the soldiers and the occupation of Germany by allied soldiers. This would insure the government against attacks by the people themselves who may very easily become serious foes to the German leaders.

That Germany will lose no time in accepting the Allies' terms is now the general opinion. Central Europe is moving toward chaos rapidly. All their own bands of discipline and organization which held the enemy peoples together through four long years of war are breaking and disorder is increasing. Europe is frightfully short of food and the sooner Germany surrenders the sooner the world will be able to tackle the problems second only to the war itself.

Assassination of Tisza.

The assassination of Tisza removes one of the most striking personalities among the enemy's statesmen. Back in 1912, when president of the chambers, an attack was made upon him by a deputy. Thenceforth Tisza introduced an armed guard for the chamber to maintain order. The fathers of Tisza and Andrássy were political rivals. Young Tisza became the bulwark of the Magyar cause and though Andrássy is Germanophile by family tradition he is hardly so reactionary. Tisza was the leader of the Hungarian federal agrarian class, responsible as much as any statesman for the world war. His sinister ultimatum to Serbia set the world afire. His speech last June announcing the extension of a dual alliance, showed he had grown even more reactionary during the war. Whereas Karolyi, who is now the idol of the Hungarian populace, is anxious to establish a republic the always Anglophilic Tisza remained loyal to Berlin to the last. The soldiers were responsible for their present plight, and because he was the embodiment of the Prussian Junkers and the Magyar feudal agrarians.

It is the irony of fate that on the day on which Tisza was killed the Serbian soldiers were practically on Hungarian soil. Even the most cautious critics of the English press now state frankly "we are at the beginning of the end." They accept the last news of the despair and demoralization of the enemy as true, and their chief concern is whether the statesmen will be able to arrange terms which will cripple the enemy decades to come.

MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS.

Act as a stimulant to the sluggish liver, clean the furred tongue, sweeten the foul, obnoxious breath, and clear away all the poisonous accumulations from the system by causing the bowels to move regularly and naturally every day, thus preventing as well as curing constipation, sick headaches, bilious headaches, water brash, heartburn, and all diseases arising from a lazy, slow or torpid liver.

They are purely vegetable, small and easy to take, and there is nothing of the griping, weakening, and sickening effects of the old-fashioned purgatives. Mrs. John Kadey, Chipman, N. B., writes: "I have been using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills for some time and can recommend them to anyone suffering from heartburn and liver trouble. I tried other remedies, but they only relieved me for a short time. I always recommend Laxa-Liver Pills to all sufferers, as I think they are a real and reliable remedy." WHEAT CANADIANS GIVEN HEAD NOTHING APPEARS TO STOP THEM

Interesting Letter from Lieut. A. W. Thorne — Churches Centre of Attraction for German Shells—German Names Placed on French Streets—Huns Flee from the British —High Tribute to Late Col. MacKenzie.

That the German army is rapidly retreating, losing men and guns, that the Canadian soldier boys are always at the very front and fighting stronger than ever and that the Huns are still at their game of destroying churches, are the few of some interesting things that Lieut. A. W. Thorne, one of The Standard staff who is in France, has to say in a very interesting letter to the ministry which was received yesterday.

Lieut. Thorne went overseas with the 13th Battalion in France, and was transferred into another unit. He was wounded once and gassed twice but on each occasion was patched up in England and sent back to the firing line where he at present and his many friends will be pleased to learn that "Sandy" is going strong and is among the other brave Canadians who are simply not to be stopped. They seem to be making better than anything in front and even the renowned Prussian Guards go down just like the others. During the last few days of August our fellows struck ground that the Hun had held since 1914 and ran into a part of the famous Hindenburg line. But this famous series of defenses were not much of a hold-up. The men certainly took advantage of fighting in the open.

The country was in beautiful condition, high ground and generally dry, and the little villages dotted about were hardly touched by shells but the Huns made elaborate plans for defence but failed to rain long enough to fight. His chief aim seemed to be made prisoner as early in the game as possible. At several places he remained at machine guns too long for he was still there when our fellows passed but his guns were helping the advance. Machine gun bullets were the chief means of checking the British advance during the last day or two the artillery was quite intense.

A week after the advance the villages looked quite different for Fritz had contrived his artillery for their destruction and his work was quite complete. The prominent houses and the churches were the centres of attraction for his shells. The Boche seems to have a special dislike for churches and his ideas seem to be the same now as at the beginning of the war. Some of the villages had every thing was in first-class shape. The roads were as smooth as King street was supposed to have been. We found railroads, both narrow and standard gauge, which will be of use to us. It was pleasant looking over captu-ed villages and dumps but there is always that other note, which comes when we think of those who paid the price for these advantages. The graves by the roadsides and in the new cemeteries make one think of the grimmer side of war. The burial of the dead is quite a problem after an extended advance. The ground is searched inch by inch and the bodies of those who have made the great sacrifice are collected and given burial. Parties are organized before the battle is ended and rolled off to certain sections. When possible a central cemetery is arranged, but in every case the location of each grave is recorded. Sometimes the graves are solitary but each is carefully marked and as soon as possible each is fitted with a wooden cross. One often comes across these solitary graves and it is remarkable how our men regard them. When any graves are near troops one is always finding some of the men fixing up the mounds and gathering grass and flowers to place on them.

Sometimes we see crosses on which are marked "In Memory of an Unknown Canadian Soldier, Who Died on Duty." Bullets in these are the exception. Of course such a grave means that one of the people at home are still in doubt as to the fate of a loved one, but war causes these and we cannot change it now.

The chivalry of old time warfare has gone and we'll never get back to the good old days when knights were bold and were more courteous to their enemies than friends.

Some day this war will end. Bulgaria has had enough, and Turkey will be satisfied. The Germans too will be compelled to see their troops defeated and then we can go back to our civilian homes and once more enjoy many of the comforts that have been lacking these last few years.

Lieut. Col. MacKenzie paid the great price for Canada and civilization. He had a great name over here as a soldier and a man. The 26th Battalion has lost a fine commanding officer and New Brunswick a good citizen. I have not heard about any other members of the 26th lately, but you can be sure that they are carrying ahead the name of New Brunswick. Compulsory service has helped us over here and has been the means of giving us men to fill the gaps that must occur. The draftees make good soldiers too, and we never think of there being any difference between them and the older men. All are willing to learn and do their best. Of course they lack experience but their spirit is excellent.

A good wild moose steak with the fixings would go good now but I suppose I'll have to wait. Remember me to the friends and we'll soon be back looking for jobs. Yours, SANDY.

The Story of Carnation Milk

"from CONTENTED COWS"

HAVE YOU read the story? Have you tried Carnation Milk? Do you know why Carnation Milk has replaced ordinary milk in so many homes? You must be interested. If you are particular—or anxious, as many are—about the milk you use, the story of Carnation Milk is of vital importance to you.

HOW convenient it is to have milk in this form! You keep it on the pantry shelves—always ready—yet always fresh. Carnation Milk undiluted is cream for coffee, tea, cereals, fruit. Diluted, it is a rich—and safe—milk for the children to drink. It is so rich that it improves most dishes which call for milk. In creaming vegetables, soup, gravies—there is no need of adding butter when you use Carnation Milk. If your recipe calls for skimmed milk—add more water to Carnation Milk. And you have none of the waste of perishable milk that must be used within a few hours.

This is only a PART of the Story

THE milk question is so important that we want every one to know about Carnation Milk and our methods of maintaining its uniform richness and purity. Let us tell you how we make it safe for you. Let us tell you how to prepare delicious dishes with Carnation Milk. We will send you free of charge "The Story of Carnation Milk" (including 100 recipes). Please mention this paper.

Your Grocer—The Carnation Milkman

Try Carnation Milk. Your grocer has it. Order a few cans (all size). Compare it with ordinary milk. Learn the satisfaction of serving milk that is uniformly sweet, pure and safe to drink.

Carnation Milk is evaporated to the consistency of cream, but only water is taken away from it. Nothing is added. No sweetening or preservatives. It keeps its freshness because it is sealed tight while still fresh—and because it is sterilized.

So, when you add an equal quantity of pure water to Carnation Milk you "bring back" the original milk. Not an artificially sweetened milk with a few uses only, but a fresh, rich milk that may be used as you use ordinary milk.

"Over The Top" To Victory!

The word has been passed down the line, "Stand ready to go 'over the top.'" But not as our soldiers do—to face gunfire and bayonets. We, here in Canada, do not have to go over the top with bayonet or bomb. Our campaign is a campaign of SUPPORT. Money must be forthcoming for the support of our men at the front, for the thousands of needs of the war which is being fought for freedom and for us.

While we await the word to advance, we consider our actual needs, we figure just how much we can spare as a loan to our country, and when WE go over the top it is with our open pocket-books in our hands, to loan on the best security in the world, the money that will help to bring Victory, and after Victory, Peace!

St. John has been asked for $5,000,000. When that amount has been subscribed we shall have earned our Honor Flag, when twenty-five per cent. more than that has been subscribed, we shall have earned the right to place one Honor Crown on our Flag, and an additional crown may be added for each twenty-five per cent. subscribed over our quota.

How Many Crowns Shall We Have?

It is up to each one of us individually and to all of us collectively. We have to get that Honor Flag and get it quickly. First let us wear the Victory Loan Button, and have our names on the Honor Roll in our place of business.

The Honor Flag will fly with more than two crowns on it if we all do our part and go

GRADUATE NURSES WORKING OVERTIME

Association Meeting Not Held Owing to Health Ban—Trained Nurses Have Been in Constant Demand During Epidemic.

Owing to the epidemic conditions the October meeting of the New Brunswick Association of Graduate Nurses was not held, consequently all business in connection with the association has been obliged to stand over to the November meeting which will be held if the ban should be lifted before then.

The nurses belonging to this association have all been rushed with work and have given splendid service. A case is known where one trained nurse who had suffered from a slight weakness of the throat, tried to persuade her physician to allow her to volunteer but was strongly advised that it would be absolutely worthless for a nurse influenza patient. Another nurse has just come from a very hard case and is going right back to duty again.

The presence of a trained nurse in the home gives confidence and reassurance not only to the patient but to the anxious members of the household also. In many places she is a tower of strength and remains a faithful friend of the family for all time. In spite of both her efforts and that of the doctor the battle with disease ends in defeat the nurse is remembered as the one who was able to give some comfort to the sufferer and her sympathy with the bereaved ones is not soon forgotten.

A reproach sometimes made about trained nurses is that they require so much waiting upon that it makes extra care in a home already disorganized through illness. There may be such nurses but it is certainly a fact that there are the exception and it is also true that more is sometimes required of a nurse than any one human being could accomplish. Truly the ministering angels among the profession are in the majority and there are few who have known the comfort of their presence who will deny this.

Men of the Maritimes Carry on!

In France our soldier lads fight on. The fact that they have the enemy on the run, far from causing them to slacken, inspires them to redoubled effort.

Canada must maintain at home a similar determination to carry on, until the enemy is beaten to his knees.

Steel, of which we produced a million tons last year in Nova Scotia alone, is still needed in large quantities for our munition factories and our ships. Timber, of which last year the lumbermen of the Maritimes produced immense quantities, is still required for our shipyards. Freight boats, which our Atlantic coast yards are producing on a scale and at a speed never before attempted here, are still a pressing need of our allies.

To keep up the production of these and the other war supplies so vital to Victory, Canada must have an uninterrupted flow of money.

Loans from the Canadian people have financed the huge industrial undertakings which have made Canada an important factor in supplying war material for our fighting men.

And the men of the Maritimes have been generous in their loaning as they have been courageous in their fighting and diligent in their working.

That the splendid traditions of the Maritimes may be maintained—

Around the City

FAIR AND MILD

A DANDY LION. A lady writes The Standard from Prince of Wales in the effect that she found a spring dandelion at that place last week. Prince of Wales is now certainly on the map.

IS ALIVE AND WELL. The many friends of Arthur St. George Tucker will be glad to learn that the report of his death which reached the city a few days ago was unfounded, and he is alive and well.

CITIZENS COMPLAINING. Citizens residing in Champlain Street in West St. John are complaining about the vandalism of a crowd of boys in that section, who are going around tearing down fences and generally destroying property.

FLY YOUR FLAGS. Mayor Hayes requests that all citizens fly their flags today in celebration of Austria's quitting, and that at 12 o'clock (noon) all factories and steamers blow their whistles. He has arranged for the Depot Battalion to march up King street at 10 o'clock and play a programme of patriotic selections on King square.

POWER COMPANY VALUATION. S. H. Midrom, who is making the physical valuation of the New Brunswick Power Company plant, was asked by The Standard last night what progress was being made in completing the inventory. He said the work was coming along fine, and he hoped to finish the job sometime during the present week. The report would then be handed over to Hon. J. A. Sullivan, counsel for the city, and when he had gone over it the commission would likely resume its sessions in this city.

VITAL STATISTICS. The Board of Health report fifty-seven deaths due to the following: Pneumonia 23, Influenza 9, Broncho pneumonia 9, Pulmonary Tuberculosis 3, Senility 3, Insanility 2, Malnutrition 2, Anoxia 1, Meningitis 1, Carcinoma 1, Hemorrhage 1, Cancer of Breast 1, Mitral insufficiency 1, Chronic Bright's Disease 1, Carcinoma of rectum 1. Total 107. Registrar J. B. Jones reports five marriages and sixteen births, seven being males.

NOT YET OPENED. Theatrical managers in Halifax were greatly disappointed when it was learned that they were not to be allowed to open their houses today. So sure were the theatre men that they would be able to throw open the doors that films were ordered from St. John exchanges. These films have already been shipped. Theatre men in Halifax have had several conferences with the Board of health and have expressed themselves as feeling that the ban on the opening of the theatres has been unduly prolonged.

SERVICES HELD

IN THE OPEN AIR

Interesting Addresses to Congregations on Grounds of St. Luke's and St. Mary's Churches Yesterday Morning and Afternoon.

Two of the city churches held open air services yesterday and private services were also held in some of the others and in the Y. M. C. A. A short morning service was held on St. Luke's rectory grounds at which Holy Communion was celebrated. The morning was rather chilly, but about 50 people were in attendance. The pastor Rev. R. F. McKim conducted the service and delivered a short address, taking as his text the 24th chapter of Luke. At St. Mary's church grounds both a morning and afternoon service were held, both of which were well attended. The pastor Rev. R. Taylor McKim conducted the morning service, in his short discourse he spoke on the 51st Psalm, taking as his central thought "God's ableness to deliver His children from pestilence if they have but faith in Him." The afternoon service was held at 3 o'clock and was ably conducted by Rev. F. H. Wentworth, who spoke briefly on the 11th chapter of John. A private service was held in Trinity church yesterday morning by Rev. R. A. Armstrong, and the staff of the Y. M. C. A. held a short divine service in the morning at the association building.

WICKHAM NOW ENTITLED TO AN HONOR FLAG

Went Over the Top on Saturday—Loggieville After a Fourth Crown—St. John City and County Makes Half Its Allotment.

Hats off to Loggieville, a town of 400 in Northumberland County, which has oversubscribed its Victory Loan quota seventy-five per cent., and is entitled to an honor flag with three crowns, and not satisfied with this achievement is out for a fourth crown. The objective of Loggieville was $100,000 and they have reported to date $184,000 and say they will make it $200,000 before the campaign is over.

Saturday added a new flag winner. A report was received at headquarters that the Parish of Wickham, Queens County, had gone over the top and won a flag. This is the fourth flag to be won in the province and the St. John central committee are anxious that this district shall go over the top early this week and not be one of the last to bring home a flag.

St. John City and County made half its allotment in the first week of the campaign, there being $2,800,000 in sight at the close of the day Saturday. For the province reports received up to Saturday night showed that at least $2,000,000 had been secured in the first week and possibly considerably more as the returns were very incomplete. S. E. Elkin, chairman of the central committee for St. John, urges the importance of displaying the small honor cards in the windows of each home which has subscribed to the loan, and asks every person who has bought a bond to wear the button. He announced last night that early this week a thorough canvass would be made of all portions of the county and requests that as far as possible an answer be given the salesman on the first call. A determined effort is to be made to reach the objective early this week and then go after the crowns, and if New Brunswick was to make its quota he pointed out that St. John must win some crowns, for in some portions of the province the influenza had practically put an end to any canvassing in Victoria County, for instance, there was only one canvasser at work all week and he went up from the city. Many of the people would not let him in because they had the disease in the home and others would not for fear of contracting it and the same was true of other sections.

Open Air Meeting. On Saturday night the open air meeting in front of the Imperial was largely attended and the sales were the largest yet, $8,800 of bonds finding purchasers. The speakers were Rev. S. S. Poole, F. L. Potts, M. L. A., and R. E. Armstrong; the Depot Battalion Band and an Edison Re-Creation furnished music; a number of Victory Loan pictures were shown and Steve Matthews acted as announcer-in-chief. His witty speeches and original poetry caught the crowd and were instrumental in drawing many into the lobby where the bonds were for sale. F. A. Dykeman presided and introduced the various speakers.

ON ROUTE AGAIN.

A couple of weeks ago the steamers D J. Purdy and Premier collided on the river, with the result that the Premier was out through on the port side, and had to be beached to keep her from sinking. After considerable trouble the disabled steamer was floated with lighters and brought to the Market Slip, where temporary repairs were made, enabling her to be taken to Hillyard's blocks. On Saturday the Premier went on the route again, and left Indiantown for Chipman, and was unable to carry all the freight, waiting for her, and quite a quantity had to be left in the warehouse for the next trip up river.

WILLIAM HOOPER KILLED BY HORSE

Unfortunate Man Tangled in Reins Was Dragged in and Out of Woods Off Bull's Lake Road.

While walking up Bull's Lake road late Saturday night two men, named Appleby and Len Magee, of East St. John, came across a horse and wagon beside the road and looking closer they were horrified to see the body of a dead man entangled in the reins. The man, who was afterwards identified as William Hooper, of West Beach, had been badly mauled by the horse trampling on him and there was evidence of him being dragged by the horse into the woods and out again. The two men immediately telephoned to the central police station and an investigation was started but it was stated at the station last night that there was no evidence of foul play.

While driving Mr. Hooper evidently in some manner fell out of the wagon and in so doing got his feet entangled in the reins and it is thought that the horse took fright and bolted, dragging the unfortunate man over the rough ground before he had a chance to rein his feet. Mr. Hooper was a man of about sixty years of age. The body was brought into the city yesterday and conveyed to Brennan's undertaking rooms. Dr. F. L. Kenney stated last night that he had not decided as yet whether an inquest would be necessary.

SMALLPOX CASE IS DISCOVERED

Man Found With Disease Yesterday and Conveyed to Isolation Hospital—Second Within Few Weeks.

There was reported to the health authorities yesterday a case of smallpox, the second within about three weeks, and both apparently had their origin in the neighboring province of Nova Scotia.

The man who was discovered yesterday to be suffering from this disease was immediately taken to the isolation hospital and all the necessary precautions taken to prevent its spreading. About three weeks ago a case was discovered and in this instance the man had brought it from Halifax. In the present instance the man had as far as could be ascertained brought the disease from a Nova Scotia town. When the first case was brought to light the health authorities in the sister province were notified and a similar course will be followed in the present instance. These are the first cases to be reported here since the outbreak of last spring and the local authorities are taking all precautions to prevent its obtaining a hold at the present time.

THE MILK SUPPLY IS VERY SHORT

Few Dealers Had Enough Last Week to Supply Customers—Citizens Receive Only Portion of Regular Order.

There was a decided shortage in the milk supply in St. John last week and this was particularly noticeable on Saturday, when very few of the dealers had enough to supply their customers. Many of them had to divide up and give each one a portion of the usual quantity in order to provide that all got some. The dealers stated that this shortage was due in a large measure to the quantity of sour milk which reached the city last week, one dealer receiving as high as thirty cans of sour milk in one shipment. They ascribed this condition to the fact that many of the farmers at this season of the year did not ice as heavily as in the summer months, and the weather had soured the milk. It is hoped that the change to fine cool weather will mean that the supply will reach the city in good condition. One of the largest dealers who conducts a number of dairies reports that on Saturday night their stores were actually mobbed by those anxious to buy milk and they had to cut each order in half and in some instances in four, and then they had not nearly enough to supply the demand.

Total of 985 Cases Listed to Date Since October 3—Health Officials Believe Epidemic is on the Wane.

Thirty-six new cases of influenza were reported to the board of health on Saturday and listed yesterday, while ten houses were released from quarantine. Yesterday very few cases were reported to the board and Hon. Dr. Roberts in speaking to The Standard said that he was convinced the disease was now on the wane and with the return of fine, clear weather it would decline rapidly.

Table with columns: Date, Cases. Lists daily case counts from October 3 to November 3, showing a general downward trend.

Vaccine Injections. A supply of 20,000 Spanish influenza vaccine injections arrived in the city on Saturday to help in the fight against the epidemic in the province. Dr. H. L. Abramson, provincial chief of laboratories stated to The Standard last night that the 20,000 injections would be sent all over the province wherever needed, and the doctors were requested to make no charge for the vaccine itself. This vaccine is used only as a preventative and physicians are getting more calls daily for it.

Work Keeps Up.

A total of 160 families was under the care of the V. A. D. diet kitchen yesterday. These families average six members in each. Today 130 will have meals prepared for them. Those in charge of the diet kitchen wish to state that it is only through the continued kindness and generosity of the citizens of the V. A. D. are able to keep up this helpful work. Gifts of soap and any kind of invalid cookery from housewives will be gratefully received. Many women who are good cooks could find a use for their talents in this line of work and they may be assured their offerings will be appreciated.

Outside Reports.

Hon. Dr. Roberts yesterday received a report from Duncan Shipp, who has been appointed special representative of the health department at Hantsport, that a hospital had been prepared and the Indians suffering from the "flu" placed in it yesterday afternoon, and everything possible was being done for them. From Edmundston he received a report that the situation was improving rapidly. Dr. Melvin reports as follows: Northumberland county, for the past week, 491 cases, 23 deaths; 51 pneumonia; these cases principally in the rural districts, in the towns and villages epidemic dying out. Restigouche county, exclusive of Campbellton, 679 cases, 7 deaths, 6 severe pneumonia. Parish of St. Patrick, Charlotte county, 6 cases all doing well. Chatham, 1 new case, 2 deaths. Dr. Melvin leaves this morning for Grand Falls.

HOUSE BURNED AT RENFORTH

Late Saturday Night Fire Totally Destroyed Summer Residence and Contents Owned by G. R. Wetmore.

The summer residence owned by George R. Wetmore at Renforth was totally destroyed by fire along with its contents late on Saturday night. It is said that some of the family were at the house during the afternoon but left the place in the evening and there was no person in the house when the fire was discovered. The first that was known of the building being on fire was when the flames burst through the windows and the roof and there was little or no time to save much if any of the furnishings. There is some insurance but not enough to cover the loss.
