Those who discovered the car in the water thought Morrison was the only person in the car, but parties from Sydney who went to recover the body discovered Martin as well, pulled underneath the car.

Both bodies were brought into the city tonight and are at Beaton's undertaking rooms.

Quebec So "Dry" Patients Suffer

Doctors Declare Lives Endangered and Churches Can Get No Wine Either.

Quebec, May 5.—So strict has been the enforcement of the new provincial liquor law and so keen have the officials been to guard against any possible leak in this city while the old Scott Act is being replaced by the Taschereau law, that today hospitals and doctors formally protested that unless their wine could be supplied with alcohol for medicinal purposes their patients' lives might be endangered.

Supplementing this joint protest came a complaint from the religious institutions that their wine used for sacramental purposes, is running out.

It is understood that the Lieutenant-Governor will immediately sign an order-in-council to permit the opening of an emergency store, under government control, either tomorrow or Sunday.

POLISH LABOR OF SILESIA IS BEHIND REVOLT

Miners Send Protest Against Allied Actions to Lloyd George.

Warsaw, May 5.—Polish labor is playing an important part in the extraordinary movement in Upper Silesia.

Despatches indicate that approximately 100,000 miners have joined in the strike which began last Saturday as a sign of protest against the recommendation of the Inter-Allied Commission, giving Poland but two of the industrial districts.

It is estimated that there are 1,800,000 miners in Upper Silesia, 85 per cent of whom are Poles.

What's Labor Stands

The miners and mine workers, through a federation representing 300,000 workers, have telegraphed a protest to Mr. Lloyd George, declaring the members of the federation stand for the joining of the Upper Silesian industrial centre with Poland.

The miners and mine workers would rather see the mines and the various other plants go back to run than to continue under German rule.

All the labor parties of Upper Silesia, the despatches declare, are solidly back of Adalbert Korfanty, the former Polish plenipotentiary commission to the reparations commission.

This has resulted in the announcement that Minister of Labor Jankowski had resigned as a member of the Wittos cabinet.

Note to Allies

The council of ministers is preparing a note to the Allies concerning the Silesian situation and the new papers are speculating as to its contents. They assert it is probable the ministers will urge an immediate decision by the Supreme Council as it is contended this would have a tendency to relieve the suspension which has resulted in the insurgent movement throughout the industrial district.

Storm Developing on Atlantic Coast

New York, May 5.—Warning of another storm along the eastern coast from Boston to Atlantic City was received tonight by the local weather bureau, just as New York and adjacent seacoast towns were recovering from yesterday's heavy rain and wind which caused extensive property damage.

The 75-mile gale which swept the harbor last night, causing great inconvenience to shipping, dropped to eight to 22 miles an hour. Occasional heavy rains fell during the evening.

The weather bureau promised clear skies with rising temperature by Saturday.

STARTS PROVINCIAL GARAGE.

Fredricton, N. B., May 5.—The provincial government has taken a six months lease, from A. A. Collier, of the property in King street, near Northumberland street.

The lease is with a view to establish a provincial garage in Fredericton in which to house and repair all motor vehicles owned by the various provincial departments.

The garage in which the provincial cars were stored at St. John was closed on May 1, and will not be re-established.

GERMANS IN POLICE.

Berlin, May 5.—An Opposta dematch from a German source says that the Inter-Allied Commission has decided to incorporate 3,000 Germans, preferably Upper Silesians in the plebiscite police. The commission has sent a message to the German plenipotentiary at Webster for 500 men for that purpose.

NO PEACE FOR WORLD BEFORE FOE DISARMED

Lloyd George Says First Duty is to Strip Germany of Arms.

STILL A MENACE AGAINST FRANCE

Europe Cannot Settle Down to Peace While Germans Possess Equipment.

London, May 5.—The necessity of making Germany disarm was placed first in importance by Mr. Lloyd George in announcing in the House of Commons today the result of the Supreme Council's deliberations on the reparations and other questions at issue with Germany.

Germany's default in her disarmament obligations were placed first by the Premier, he said, because while there was any possibility of the re- appearance of great armaments there was no guarantee of the freedom and peace of Europe.

Basis of an Army

Although any sudden organization of a force powerful enough to attack France or Belgium was improbable, he said, yet while there existed regular military organizations in Germany which collectively might become the nucleus of a formidable army it was impossible for France to settle down. She must continue to arm and watch her eastern frontiers.

As regards reparation said the Prime Minister, the Allies were compelled to act, not merely because Germany had defaulted, but owing to Germany's general attitude, showing she had no intention of performing her obligations.

What Press Thinks.

Paris, May 5.—Discontent with the reparations declaration of the London conference, which the newspapers have been somewhat cautiously expressing, is finally summarized by the Temps and Journal Des Debats, in editorials taking a dark view of the immediate future.

The Journal Des Debats remarks: "The Supreme Council, achieved two victories—it reduced the reparations commission to subservience and it resigned the resignation of the Fehrenbach-Simons cabinet."

Both papers emphasize that Germany is required only to declare categorically her intention to meet the Allied demands, and the Temps adds, "which means in French to give promises." But if after May 12, she does not keep these promises, to what will she be exposed?" the paper asks.

Hurts German pride.

The Journal Des Debats says the declaration hurt German pride, but not her position and adds:

"The ministers of state will regain their freedom, when it becomes a question of passing from the resolution to material explanation. They keep on their guard so long as our class of 1919 is mobilized. As soon as the soldiers have returned to their homes the Germans will protest simultaneously their good will and their inability to pay cash and that no one is bound by the impossible.

"What will we do then? Must we mobilize every time it is a question of getting a new agreement on paper?"

KILLED "SPY" TO USE AS DECOY

Man Eighty Years Old Slight to Get Crown Forces into Irish Trap.

Dublin, May 5.—The killing of a sergeant and seven constables who were ambushed Wednesday night at Rathmore, County Kerry, it was officially stated today, was caused by a ruse employed by Sinn Fein who killed a man named Sullivan, eighty years of age, placed the body in the road and then telephoned to the police to recover it.

The police patrol sent to get the body was attacked by the Sinn Fein, the statement said. The body of Sullivan bore a label designating him as a spy and informant, which the authorities declared was untrue. Sullivan received a small war office pension for the loss of a son, killed in the war.

A PAGE OF NEWS ABOUT THE MARITIME

SAYS PROSSER HELPED BERRY REMOVE BODY

Sensational Contradiction in Evidence Offered at Forest Hill Murder Trial.

PRISONER WORRIED OVER THE PENALTY

Police Officer Swears He Asked What Would Be Result of Plea of Guilt.

Prosser and other witnesses all swore that the body of the man was lying on chairs in the house when they got there on the morning of the tragedy.

Dr. C. A. King, of Pettaudville, was called by the defence. He said: "I performed the post mortem on the body of the late Minnie Berry. The lobe of the right ear was dark colored and perceptibly swollen. I felt the lobe of each ear. There was very little difference in the thickness; the scratch on the jaw was very superficial and could have been done by a pin. The discoloration below the right ear was quite marked and there was a slight scratch on the right jaw and trochly fluid in the lungs and water in the stomach."

Condition of Body

The lungs were heavier than normal, red and swollen. I made an incision three or four inches long probably an inch thick, the body of the man came from the lung without pressing it. I made two such incisions. I considered I had found sufficient to satisfy me that the cause of death was drowning. I opened the heart and found a thin watery fluid, reddish in color. That was evidence of drowning. I opened the stomach. I found a watery fluid there, over a pint in quantity. It was water mostly, indicating drowning. I gave my evidence that I believed death was caused by drowning. The jury wanted to see the body. Some one asked me if the neck was broken. I said "No," and showed them it was not. I turned the body over and examined the marks on the back that were made by the corsets.

Based on Medical Facts

Cross examined by Mr. Rand: "I went to view the body of a woman who had been drowned and was found in the water by her husband. My evidence and opinion was based absolutely on the medical facts as I found them upon the examination of the body. I found marked evidence of drowning. I thought it was not necessary to make any further investigation to arrive at the decision that death was caused by drowning. I found the blood in the body as I expected to be, thicker, and because the blood was thin in the heart, I thought death was due to drowning."

Wound Under Jaw

"I examined the wound under the jaw. I did not attempt to satisfy myself as to the cause of the wound. The wound had a dry scab over it. If I had felt that she had been strangled I would have looked further. If I had seen other marks I would have tried to satisfy myself whether strangulation took place or not. The discoloration by the ear might be caused by the head lying on the ground. I did not know what caused the discoloration of the swelling. I am not in a position to contradict Dr. Abramson when he states that this swelling and discoloration was caused by force being applied to the outside. I am not prepared to say whether it was a case of homicide or suicide. Suicide in shallow water is not often recorded. Other witnesses called by the defence this afternoon were Geo. W. Colpitts, of Pleasantville; Robert L. Lane, of Musquoddy; John Siddons, Musquoddy; Frank W. Bishop, all jurors at the inquest, and Mrs. Isiah Bannister, sister of the accused."

Coroner's Jurors Called.

The evidence given by the jurors was to the effect that while they were making up the verdict after hearing the evidence, Constable William Steves said to them that the condition of Mrs. Berry's lungs was the same as he had seen in a calf which had been drowned. The jurors stated that the foot tracks leading from the Berry home to the culvert corresponded with the boots worn by the deceased. One of the witnesses at least gave it as his opinion that the culvert had run off the end of the culvert and fell into the pool, causing the injury to her ear and the scratch on her face. There was a swift current in the stream and this would carry the body down to the sharp spot where the body was alleged to have been found. Two or three of the witnesses said that the accused at the day of the inquest showed considerable grief and was crying while the enquiry was going on. Witnesses for the defence gave the accused a good reputation.

The accused will be on the stand tomorrow in his own defence, and it is expected that the case will go to the jury tomorrow evening.

EXPLOSION BURNED NOVA SCOTIA SHIP

Boston, May 5.—The loss of the schooner Bona H. of Parrsboro, N. S., near Havana on April 27, was said by Captain S. P. Knowlton, who has arrived here with the crew today, to have been due to an explosion undoubtedly caused by gas from a former cargo of gunpowder. The explosion in the hold, he said, blew off the hatches and started a fire. H. L. Jollymore and John Lambert, two of the crew were thrown against the forecastle partition, sustaining slight injuries. The fire spread rapidly and the men saved only a few of their belongings before they took to the boats. They were 14 hours in the open before they reached Havana. All were saved.

Big Liquor Take Near St. Leonards

Stock Valued at $25,000 Was Found Hidden Under Floor of a Barn.

Fredericton, N. B., May 5.—Liquor valued at $25,000 has been seized by prohibition inspectors at St. Leonards, where it had been secreted under the floor of a large barn. Chief Inspector Hawthorn got a "tip" on the presence of the liquor there a few days ago and Inspector Fraser Saunders, of this city, and Tom Barrett of St. John, were assigned for duty on the case with Inspector Allan McLaughlin, who is in charge of the upper St. John river district. After the seizure they at once arranged for re-shipment to the government warehouse here and the cargo is expected to arrive in Fredericton either tonight or tomorrow. It is said that the seized goods include 280 cases and 28 barrels of various brands of liquors, the cases being the large size which are made to contain imperial quarts of whiskey, brandy and gin.

DE VALERA AND ULLSTER LEADER IN CONFERENCE

Signs of Peace in Ireland Seen in the Meeting of Leaders.

In political quarters here, it was disclosed that the latest move of Sir James Craig required consideration. It was asserted that he has a critical situation to face, and that the elections in the North may provoke cross currents and differences from the extreme Protestants as well as from the nationalists and others in the hurry over constitutional reforms. Since assuming responsibility for the future of the Ulster Government, it was said, Sir James has realized the value of assistance in the South, and while determined to maintain separate rights of the North, he was anxious to secure an agreement for the management by the central council of matters common to all Ireland.

Where Parties Differ.

Political leaders asserted that the main difficulty between Sir James and De Valera was that Sir James favored starting with Home Rule and advancing afterwards to complete autonomy, while De Valera desired to start with a union, but was willing to accord the north of Ireland all necessary devolution. There is reason here for the belief that, on conditions on both sides of the controversy have been consulted. The attitude of the government appears to be in favor of any move for peace between the North and South of Ireland, and willing to make any modification in the Home Rule Act upon which the North and South can agree.

Warns Against Hopes.

Belfast, May 5.—The Ulsterist Northern Whig says that while considerable political importance attaches to the meeting between Sir James Craig and Eamon De Valera, "there is just a danger that some over-enthusiastic may exaggerate it."
In the opinion of the paper two points are clear, namely, that there cannot be an Irish Republic and Ulster's rights under the new act cannot be interfered with. The Whig suggests that Mr. De Valera's desire for an interview with the Ulster leader, "amounts to the admission by the Sinn Fein that they cannot get a republic."
See a Chance.

She was built at Brewer, Me., in 1915, and was 671 tons, owned by Crowell & Thurlow of Boston, and commanded by Captain U. L. Norton, of Brewer, Maine. Young Ryan was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ryan and leaves his wife at present in St. John, also several brothers and sisters. Other members of the crew well known here were Joseph Geppert, mate, a native of Nova Scotia; Christian Seery and B. Longbotham, both former residents of Nordin.

Fredericton, N. B., May 5.—Edmund W. McDonald, of Vanceboro, Me., failed to put in an appearance at the nisi' pruis sittings of the York circuit court this morning and a bench warrant was issued for his apprehension. ROBBERD THE ALMSHOUSE.

Chatham, May 5.—Thieves on Friday night last paid a visit to the County Home and stole about $100 worth of provisions, clothing, etc. They took all the clothes off the chestless, which included eight suits of underwear and a number of pairs of socks. The store room was broken into and a half barrel of pork, some molasses, beans and seed the keeper had for planting, were taken. A horse and wagon must have been brought along to carry the plunder away. No clue has, as yet, been found to the perpetrators.

Bishops Reply To Lloyd George's Note

Claim It Proves Contention That Irish Policy Has Inflamed World.

London, May 5.—Answering Premier Lloyd George's reply made on April 19, to a memorial sent him by nine Anglican bishops and the heads of the principal non-conformist churches in Great Britain, the Bishop of Chelmsford and other Anglican bishops and leaders of the various non-conformist churches, in a letter to Mr. Lloyd George, declare that they are impressed by what was to us "unpalatable evidence" that the policy of the government in Ireland has succeeded only in inflaming the world it was meant to heal.

They charge that refusal to hold a public inquiry into serious allegations by responsible persons against the conduct of the crown forces, and also in withholding the result of inquiries has deepened the grave disquiet felt by many minds, and is apt to leave a very painful impression at home and abroad. They refute the accusation that they condoned Sinn Fein "outrages" and express "intense desire to see a new beginning made to which at least all the better and more reasonable elements of the Irish people might rally." Regarding "secession" they say an independent Irish Republic is impracticable, but are agreed that a solution of the Irish question is not unattainable.

PEACE DUTY TO STATE AS GREAT AS WAR LABORS

So Declares Hon. N. W. Rowell at Closing of Dalhousie University.

MANY STUDENTS GET DIPLOMAS

Canada to be the Interpreter in All Anglo-American Relations.

Halifax, N. S., May 5.—The development of a truly Canadian National spirit as opposed to sectionalism, whether geographical, racial, religious or occupational; the development of a spirit of co-operation on a just and equitable basis between capital and labor; the recognition and maintenance of the equality of status of the self-governing nations of the British commonwealth and the preservation of the unity essential to the strength and security of the whole; the progressive development of our position as an interpreter and mediator in Anglo-American relations; that Anglo-Saxon nations may co-operate in promoting peace, justice and ordered liberty; co-operating to the measure of our ability in supporting the League of Nations as a most hopeful and practical experiment; these were the five national objectives presented by Hon. N. W. Rowell, of Toronto, for the consideration of the students at the sixty-seventh Dalhousie University spring convocation here this afternoon.

Duty to State

Mr. Rowell called the attention of the graduating classes to the "danger of forgetting that every citizen owes a duty to the state which he should discharge with the same fidelity in times of peace as of war" and commended these problems to their earnest attention. One hundred and sixteen young men and women received various degrees and were awarded diplomas during the special convocation proceedings. Dr. Ainslie Mackenzie, president of the university, delivered an address shot through with optimism and a strong faith in the future of Dalhousie. He referred to the success which attended her recent campaign for funds.

North Sydney, May 5.—Request came from the National Breweries, Montreal, for the return of a car of beer and liquor seized here. U. N. Freight Agent Tompkins to the agent here instructing him not to place the car, as the government railway did not admit the validity of the seizure. Proceedings are understood to have been taken under the Doherty Act. Trucks are being secured to move the wet goods.

PANIC CAUSED BY A SHOOTING IN THE STATION

Rug-Laden Syrian Salesman, Buffeted in Throng, Fancied Himself Insulted.

HIT POLISH SAILOR IN SIDE OF NECK

Alien Essayed Second Shot Before Disarmed—Victim Only Slightly Wounded.

New York, May 5.—Five hundred men and women on the platform at South Ferry connecting the east and west side elevated systems were thrown into a panic today when Eliam Kanan, a Syrian, of 4396 Sixth avenue, Brooklyn, shot Cachoowski, a Polish sailor, through the right side of the neck.

James Daly, a special officer, assigned on the station, had noticed the Syrian, who later described himself as an itinerant rug salesman, being buffeted about the platform which serves as the terminus for the steady stream of persons hurrying to their homes. Kanan had a bundle of rugs on his back and several women who seem to strike at men and women who brushed into him.

Would Stop Insults. Kachowski, who told the police he lived at 39 Oxford street, Newark, N. J., with several friends, had run down the platform toward the rear car of a Ninth avenue train. As he was about to step on the platform he was seized by the arm by the Syrian, who wheeled about and fired at the sailor's head with a .22 calibre pistol.

"I have been insulted too many times in the twenty years I have passed through this station," the Syrian declared a moment before he fired the shot, "and I have decided to put a stop to this thing for all time."

Mad Rush to Escape.

With the report of the pistol there was a mad rush by the crowd to escape from the Syrian's pistol. Daly and several of the other employees on the station jumped toward the man when they saw him draw the pistol from his coat pocket a few seconds before the shooting, but they were blocked by the surging mass that surrounded the rug salesman from reaching him in time to prevent the shooting. Cachoowski managed to turn his head before Kanan pulled the trigger and the bullet plowed through the back of his head and passed out through the left side of his right ear. When he did not fall the Syrian aimed at him again, but just then Daly and the other employees got through the crowd and disarmed him. The Syrian struggled with them for several minutes to retain possession of the pistol, but several blows from a cane carried by a spectator quieted him.

Dr. Herman, called from the Broad Street Hospital to attend to Cachoowski, said the sailor's wound was slight. The Syrian was locked up on a charge of felonious assault and violation of the Sullivan Law.

Wife Seeks Guardian For Her Gay Husband

Asks Court for Monitor to Keep Him from Other Woman.

Pittsburgh, May 5.—Not satisfied with an alimony of $4,000 a year, one of the largest ever granted in the Allegheny county courts, Mrs. Charles C. Whitehouse, in the legal battle with her husband, sought to have a guardian appointed for him "to keep him in check" and, incidentally, "to keep him away from a beautiful blonde," the alleged other woman in the triangle.

Mr. Whitehouse is a wealthy hotel proprietor and one of the best-known men in the city. Some time ago, his wife had him in court on a charge of misconduct. She refused to sue him for a divorce, and the case was heard by a special jury. The hearing was secret, and little was known of the proceedings until the court announced the $4,000 alimony.

Today it became known Mrs. Whitehouse had asked the court to appoint a guardian for her husband, on the ground that "he persists in wasting his property and to keep him away from the woman who had broken up her home."

She said her husband brought the other woman to his home before she obtained a separation.

Lost Wife and Two Children

Came to Montreal a Week Ago and Have Not Been Seen Since.

Montreal, May 5.—A sensational kidnapping of a mother and two children was reported to detective headquarters this morning when William Bailey, returned mailman and Moss Star holder, from La Vegas, Kan., made his appearance in the detective office and was furnished with a search warrant for the wife and children.

Mrs. Bailey, with her two children, 7 years, and her daughter, aged 5, left La Vegas on the 3 o'clock train, June 24th, for Montreal, arriving at the Moran street station of the O.N.R. at 10:15 the same evening. With her two children she left the station for the street and has not been seen since. She had with her at the time very little money and was to have visited friends on Champlain street. She never reached her destination and with the two children, her husband fears that she was kidnapped.

Relative Not Visited.

No trace of her whereabouts could be found by the husband who came to Montreal two days after her visit, to discover that her relations had not been visited. She is a woman 5 ft. 4 in. in height, 34 years of age and her name is Florence Maudie Bailey. She is of medium light complexion. The seven year old boy was wearing blue pants, a sweater and coat with a checked cap. The boy has medium brown hair. The girl was wearing an accordion pleated skirt, and coat and had a checked cap the same as the boy. Her hair is very fair and long.

Eggs Blamed For Suicide of Student

Least Taste of Egg Made Him Sick—Preyed on His Mind.

Cambridge, Mass., May 5.—Because of an edible which had eggs in it, a student here, Barton Fay, 18, a Harvard freshman, committed suicide in his home in Worcester early yesterday morning. The young man suffered from his malady until it preyed upon his mind so that he became mentally unbalanced.

His father, Albert E. Fay, a patent lawyer, was at Harvard collecting his son's belongings at his suite in Standish Hall.

"The lad could not eat candy, ice cream, cake or anything that contained eggs," he said. "You can understand how embarrassing such a situation was to the sensitive boy when I explain that once such substance touched his nose, he became nauseated and the effects often showed on his skin. He could not explain to his classmates why he was forced to leave the table so often, and that evidently burned in his mind."

"I kept the fact of his peculiar illness from his mother and had him treated by two specialists. Recently he seemed to be improving. "He was in excellent spirits early Sunday morning and made fun with his sister, which had come from a dance. Less than eight hours later we found him dead."

NO PLACE FOR CHILDREN.

Montreal, May 4.—Children will in future be forbidden to play on the streets or sidewalks of the city, according to a rigid order which has gone forth from the city council members. A by-law was passed by the city law makers yesterday which forbids, on the streets, lanes, crossings, sidewalks or public grounds of the city: "to play any games, to throw snowballs or other missiles and to skate or slide with sleighs toboggans or other vehicles."

In compliance with the by-law yesterday, Alderman Duberstein declared the lack of playgrounds in the city and thought that better provision should be made for the children. Mayor Martin remarked that the by-law was designed for the protection of the children and it was subsequently adopted.

GIRL OF TEN CAUSES A LOT OF EXCITEMENT

Takes Horse from Laundry Wagon and Goes for a Ride.

LATER TURNS STEED OVER TO A 'BIG BOY'

Helen Gorman to Admire Animals from Porch Not Steed's Back.

Philadelphia, May 5.—Pretty Helen Gorman, ten years old, loves horses and ponies more than dolls, candy or anything else, in fact. Ever since she learned her "A B C's" she has been reading stories about horses, and the play mimates other girls of her age give to sewing dolls' clothes. Helen gives to drawing pictures of horses. And in the evening, instead of seeking her father, Daniel Gorman, to tell her fairy stories, she asks about horse races.

Good Chance For Ride.

Helen gave these facts yesterday preliminary to explaining her adventure with a horse and wagon belonging to the Bureka Laundry Company, 2510 Broad street, which caused her mother, the owners of the laundry and a score who expected their laundry, and did not get it—considerable anxiety. The story follows:

Helen left her home on skates shortly before noon. She skated until she saw a "big boy" and asked him to help her down. Then she started on a trot home, but went in the wrong direction. Around 9 p.m. she found herself at Broad street and Allegheny avenue, and saw her grandfather. That was a surprise and relief to both.

Helen's parents didn't evince much enthusiasm over her adventure. In fact, wellingtons will not be permitted to leave the porch for the next fortnight. As for the horse, it was taken by a "big boy" to the Front and Westmoreland streets police station, where the owners of the Bureka Laundry called for it yesterday.

Jersey Pines Bear Has Giraffe Legs

Hunters' Dogs Drop Their Tails and Run When They See It.

Browns Mills, N. J., May 5.—There is a bear in the pines near Hanover that doesn't look like a bear, but those who have caught a glimpse of the animal say its legs are as long as its body. Its presence was first known when a pack of hounds belonging to Sam Pitman, a well known hunter, ran back to him with their tails between their legs. Pitman saw the creature as it ran swiftly across a road.

Pitman's experience was the subject of much joking until others had the same experience, including Delbert Bush and his wife. They were on the way home when their dog, named among the bushes, gave a yelp and came skimming to them for protection. It had not apparently been hurt, but just frightened.

Vancouver, B. C., May 3.—Joseph Guyon, 73, a pioneer of British Columbia and owner of the second largest ranch in the province embracing 48,000 acres, died here yesterday following a long illness.

Dramatic Scene in Restaurant

Thief Pursued Among Diners by Armed Detectives, Corralled in Cellar.

New York, May 5.—Patrons of the St. Regis restaurant, in Broadway near Forty-eighth street, were startled shortly after six o'clock this evening when a man dashed through the restaurant followed by three other men with drawn pistols, knocked down several chairs, and then disappeared in the kitchen. Several of the more venturesome men in the restaurant ran back to the kitchen in time to see the pursuers disappearing down a flight of stairs leading to the cellar, and while the excitement among the kitchen help was at its height the three men with the pistols returned with the first man firmly in their grasp.

Just then a woman, who later said she was Miss Margaret McQuade, a motion picture act, appeared and said: "That's the fellow. He stole $6,000 worth of jewellery from me." The "fellow" then was taken to the station, where, after he had declared he was Harry Victor, 38 years old, and that he lived at 1250 Washington ave., Brooklyn, Miss McQuade charged him with the theft of the jewellery and $150 on October 25, 1919. She said that on that evening, Victor, whom she had known for some time, approached her in the lobby of the Hotel De France, and told her he had just overheard a conversation among three "bad men," who were conspiring to rob her of her jewellery, three solitaire rings, two diamond dinner rings and a diamond studded gold watch.

She said he advised her to hide her jewellery and that, becoming frightened, she entrusted it to Victor, as she saw, at Seventh street and Erie avenue, a horse belonging to the Bureka Laundry, standing idly. That seemed to her a good chance to get a ride. So she asked a passagery to hitch the animal from the wagon. The man obligingly obeyed her wish, and then placed her on the horse and wished her a good ride.

Adventure Failed.

Late in the afternoon Helen, who is rather frail and in no sense suggests the daredevil, commenced to weary of her adventure. So she called to a "big boy" and asked him to help her down. Then she started on a trot home, but went in the wrong direction. Around 9 p.m. she found herself at Broad street and Allegheny avenue, and saw her grandfather. That was a surprise and relief to both.

HAD TO GIVE UP WORK

From the days of Job, and Eve, boils have been afflictions of the human race. All the poisons that are in our blood will not prove breaking out again.

Boils are simply caused by impure blood, and are not to be regarded as serious unless they break out again.

Spurned German $100,000,000 in Munitions

HUNS MADE BID EARLY STAGES

Also Refused $150,000 Offer of British Thwart Enemy E...

New York, May 5.—S.A. will probably go down in the largest ever offered individual, was spurred M. Schwab when he refused $100,000,000 for the armament to break his contract with the British Government, which the British troops stood in sore need to start the war. Likewise he refused a counter-offer of from the British Government to purchase outright of the Bethlehem Steel at five times the normal price as to prevent the Germaning control of them, and the crux of the munitions.

Turned Down Co...

"There is not enough money and Great Britain buy the Bethlehem Steel until it has exceeded the price of the British Government," Schwab said. "I was richest half of all time before his eyes."

The momentous decision by Mr. Schwab at a time when the world was trying to untangle the early in the war, was outlined by Derwin, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York, who worked hard for his own country, who worked hard for his own country, who worked hard for his own country.

The story of the German to bribe Mr. Schwab and his counter-proposal was told member of the University of Pennsylvania, who was present at that time.

When the shipbuilding and other munitions Bethlehem interests began their contracts for the war, the German Government came so apprehensive that Hornatorff, whether acting alone or on his own, never been disclosed, nullify by any means or Bethlehem contracts with German.

Count von Bernstorff, secretary of the German Legation in London, offered Schwab as a bribe to be a trustee. Schwab replied: "The Bethlehem Steel cannot be bought for their contract for the British Government."

As far as the German, the matter came to a head when Schwab refused to sell his plant to the British. The guers had been shadowed of the British secret services in finding out the proposal.

Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, ambassador at Washington, advised Mr. Schwab to refuse the offer. Schwab refused. Mr. Heppner came to New York and met Schwab. He told Schwab that the British would buy his plant for $150,000,000. Schwab refused. Heppner came to New York and met Schwab. He told Schwab that the British would buy his plant for $150,000,000. SCHWAB TURNED DOWN BIG OFFER FOR HIS PLANT

Spurned German Bribe of $100,000,000 to Break British Munitions Contract.

HUNS MADE BID IN EARLY STAGES OF WAR

Also Refused British Purchase Offer of $150,000,000 to Thwart Enemy Efforts.

New York, May 5.—A bribe which will probably go down in history as the largest offer of its kind to a private individual, was spurned by Charles M. Schwab when he refused an offer of $100,000,000 from the German Government to break his contracts with the British troops in France...

Turned Down Cold. "There is not enough money in Germany and Great Britain combined to buy the Bethlehem Steel Corporation until it has exceeded its obligations to the British Government," was the answer made by Mr. Schwab when the richest man of all time was dancing before his eyes.

The momentous decision made by Mr. Schwab at a time when German intrigue was trying to throw its tentacles around the earth, was briefly outlined by Darwin P. Kingsley, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York, at a reception tendered today to Mr. Schwab as a patriotic, loyal American who worked hard for winning the war against Germany.

When the shipping, ordnance and other munitions plants of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation to execute their contracts for the British Government, the German Government became so apprehensive that Count von Bernstorff, when acting on instructions from his own initiative, has never been disclosed, undertook to nullify by one means or another the Bethlehem contracts with the British.

Count von Bernstorff sent an emissary, who offered $100,000,000 to Mr. Schwab as a bribe to break his contracts. Schwab replied: "The Bethlehem Steel Corporation cannot be bought for any price until they have finished its contracts with the British Government."

As far as the Germans were concerned, the matter came to an end just where it had begun. But not so with the British. The German intriguers had been shadowed by members of the British secret service, who succeeded in finding out the nature of the proposal.

Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, then British ambassador at Washington, summoned a Baron Hepburn, financial adviser to the British Embassy at Washington. Upon his arrival he was commissioned to offer Mr. Schwab anything up to $150,000,000 to procure control of the Bethlehem plants.

Mr. Hepburn came back to New York and met Mr. Schwab. He launched into the matter with an offer which he finally increased to $150,000,000. The only thing that ever came of the attempt the British as well as the Germans to gain control of the Bethlehem Steel was the remark of Mr. Schwab to the effect that the weight of both Germany and Great Britain could not buy his plants because he had executed his obligations to the British Government.

The scratch of a lion's claw is almost as deadly as his bite, for he never cleans his nails, and he always carries under them rotting meat, that is rank with deadly germs. Fleas and water bugs do the same thing on a smaller scale; and: "Don't forget," says the U. S. Public Service, "that they never wipe their feet."

Boils So Bad HAD TO GIVE UP WORK.

From the days of Job, up to the present time, boils have been one of the afflictions of the human race. All the goodliest and bravest of us may do to prevent them from breaking out again.

Burdock Blood Bitters, which has been on the market for over forty years, is well known as the greatest blood medicine procurable. It purifies the blood by removing every particle of foul matter from the system, and when this is done the boils vanish, and you should never be troubled again.

Chicago Branded As Unclean By Churches

Plays Are Blamed—Stag Parties After Performances Said to Be Iniquitous.

Chicago, May 5.—Chicago's theatrical performances are "immoral, sensual and degrading," the city's moral tone has been lowered to such an extent that the things seen in salacious plays are being copied in everyday homes, and even motion pictures shown in Chicago cannot "get by" elsewhere.

The Chicago Church Federation is authority for the foregoing statements. In a communication to the churches it embraces in its organization the federation today announced the opening of a campaign against immoral theatrical exhibitions and for cleaner newspaper morals.

The communication is in the form of a full page editorial in the May issue of the Church Federation Bulletin. The writer, the Rev. H. A. Johnston, president of the federation, adds the startling information that following the appearance of certain stage presentations in Chicago there have been stag parties of an immoral character attended by men of reputation. The statement calls upon Chicago business and society leaders to band together against an "insidious leprosy" which is said to be making Chicago another Sodom.

"In recent weeks," says the statement, "there have been stag parties, often called 'Approbite parties,' supported and attended by men supposed to be decent citizens, where dancing women performed and then solicited the men present. Should the names of these men be published? Would it be to their discredit and to the embarrassment of some of their friends?

"We have the dates, places and names in our office. The worst of these stag performances is that they encouraged young men to attend, many of them men who were in service overseas. It is almost unbelievable, but it is true. If you want to know what would scarcely have been possible."

Many Tokyo Maru Survivors in Hospital

Master of Buford Got No S. O. S. Call—Fire Started in Coal Bunkers.

Seattle, Wash., May 5.—Forty-three of the sixty-five survivors of the Japanese freighter Tokyo Maru, which burned to the Tokyo edge yesterday, were in Seattle hospitals today, suffering from shock and exposures.

The remaining 22 survivors reported themselves already recovered from their experiences. Only one body of the eight dead has been recovered. The survivors arrived here late last night aboard the United States transport Buford. Officers of the transport and survivors told many dramatic stories today of the fire and their escape from the vessel.

The 22 survivors he reported themselves recovered were the only ones of the 65 who were able to get into the Tokyo Maru's lifeboats, according to Buford officers. The others are rescued from the sea by officers and seamen of the Buford in the transport's small boats.

Capt. Kerr, master of the Buford, declared his ship had not received an S. O. S. from the Tokyo Maru, but was attracted to the stricken vessel by sighting the column of smoke, which he had just been having boat drill," said Capt. Kerr, "when I saw the smoke in the distance. We were 15 miles distant then and 55 minutes later were on the scene.

"There were constant explosions and with every explosion the flames shot a hundred feet into the air, and bales of cotton were hurled 250 feet high.

Started in Bunkers. Capt. Ezuki, master of Tokyo Maru, said the fire started in the coal bunkers and was due, he believed, to spontaneous combustion. The ship carried 1,000 tons of coal, 700 tons of fuel oil and a big cargo of nitrates, lumber and cotton.

On the Old Farm in Springtime

I was out driving a three-horse team on the old farm, writes Mr. Edward Crane, of Kilmarnock, Ont., "when part of the harness broke. While fixing it, one of the horses kicked out and knocked my arm against the sharp edge of the harness. I was severely cut about the elbow and wrist.

"Not being able to leave work to get the wound dressed, dirt got into it, and my arm grew so stiff and painful that it looked as if I was in for a bad time. As soon as I could, I washed the wound and dressed it with Zam-Buk. Next day the arm was much less sore, and the stiffness less troublesome. I continued to use herbal Zam-Buk freely and in a few days it healed the injuries splendidly. Zam-Buk should be on every farm."

TECHNICALITIES OF "CRAP" GAME ARE ELUCIDATED

Negro Charged With Assault Explained "African Golf" and "Back Alley Tennis."

CLAIMED CROWD USED RAZOR ON HIM Quarrel Caused by "Fading" Opponent—Tells the Judge All About It.

New York, May 5.—Although Everett Loyne, a negro, of 238 West 61st street, has but one arm, he is a sure shot, with either a revolver or a pair of dice, he told Judge Alfred J. Talley in General Sessions today, when Loyne was arraigned for sentence. He was convicted Wednesday by a jury of assault in the second degree.

Assistant District Attorney Joseph Edelson prosecuted the case. Judge Talley sentenced him to the penitentiary and when he was being led away he broke into a run. When Court Officer James Breen asked him why he was in a hurry to get back to the bedroom and fired five shots at Gordon, who was disappearing up the stairs. One of these shots

Loyne was convicted of shooting Harry Gordon, of 231 West 62nd street, during a crap game on February 24 in Loyne's apartment. The one-eyed defendant told Judge Talley in response to questions that an argument started over "fading" during the game.

He said when the argument was at its height, after he had been shooting "naturals," seven in a row, he was seized by some of his guests and thrown into the penitentiary. He said somebody drew a razor and proceeded to slash his back. He produced a coat and vest which apparently had been slashed with a razor, but when he looked at the shirt was that he wore at the time, he was unable to say. His back showed no marks or wounds. He said he ran out of the bedroom and fired five shots at Gordon, who was disappearing up the stairs. One of these shots

Fewer Married Men Breaking into Jails

But Wisconsin Records Show Wedded Women Worse Than Single.

MEwaukee, Wis., May 5.—Single men get into more trouble than married men, but married women are more likely to run afoul of the law than single ones, according to the annual report of H. G. Monson, superintendent of the Milwaukee county detention.

Also, widowers and divorced husbands stand a good chance of looking out from behind the bars, and the much maligned divorcee is perfection, so far as law violators are concerned, according to the report.

There were 134 guests of Milwaukee county last year, the report shows, 555 men and fifty-one women. Of these, 590 were single men, 169 married, six widowers and eight divorced men. Of the women, twenty-eight were married, twenty-two single and one a widow, but not a divorcee.

The report indicates most of those caught in the law's net are between the ages of 20 and 30. The next most dangerous period is between 30 and 40.

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for infants and children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for babies. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of infants and children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance, because its age is its guarantee. ALLIES HAND ULTIMATUM TO GERMAN AMBASSADOR

Nation is Given Until May 12 to Decide to Accept Terms—Detailed List of All That Former Enemy Must Surrender in Payment of War Debts.

London, May 5.—Members of the supreme allied council, shortly after 10 o'clock this morning, signed an ultimatum to be despatched to Germany which embodied the definite reparations terms of the Entente, gave details of the guarantees to be exacted and demanded that Germany accept or reject the Allied terms before May 12th.

Dr. St. Hamer, German ambassador, here, was immediately summoned to Downing Street and, upon his arrival was handed a document containing the ultimatum to Germany. While the ultimatum and protocol signed by the council today were in the form of one document, only former was given the German representative.

Signed by Nations. The Allied reparations committee will, however, deliver the whole document to the German war burden commission in Paris tomorrow.

Premier Lloyd George and M. Jaser, Belgian foreign minister, signed the English and French texts of the ultimatum first and were followed by Premier Briand of France, Count Storace, Italian foreign minister, and Baron Sybani, Japanese ambassador to Great Britain.

Immediately after the signing of documents the Italian and French delegates left for Paris and Rome. The resignation of the Feinbach ministry at Berlin, on the eve of the signing of the ultimatum, has brought a new element into the situation.

Resignation Expected. Rumors that the government would tender its resignation to President Ebert had been heard with considerable credence for days and confirmatory despatches received last night caused little surprise.

Gustave Stresemann, leader of the people's party in Germany, was mentioned as being the probable successor of Feinbach as chancelier.

Dr. Stresemann was among the most bitter critics of the Feinbach ministry and his party was reported early in March as exerting considerable pressure upon the government to bring about a break with the Entente.

People's Party Demands. It was said at that time that the people's party was urging the German government to demand that the Allies withdraw their forces from newly occupied districts along the Rhine under the threat of breaking off diplomatic relations.

Premier Lloyd George planned to appear before the House of Commons later in the day and explain the arrangements made for collecting reparations from Germany.

Details of Demands. Details of the demands contained in the ultimatum to Germany, were made by the supreme allied council when it adjourned at 10.25 o'clock this morning.

The ultimatum issued by the council follows:— "The Allied powers have decided: "(a) To proceed from today with all necessary preparatory measures for the occupation of the Ruhr valley by Allied troops on the Rhine under conditions laid down.

"(b) In accordance with article 235 of the Versailles treaty to invite the Allied reparations commission to notify the German government without delay of the time and methods for the discharge by Germany of her debt, and to announce its decision on this point to the German government by May 6, at the latest.

Six Days Granted. "(c) To summon the German government to declare categorically within six days after receiving the above decision its determination.

"(d) To execute without condition or reservation its obligations as defined by the reparations committee. "(2) To accept and realize without reservation or condition in regard to its obligations the guarantee prescribed by the reparations commission.

"(3) To execute without reservation or delay measures concerning military, naval and air disarmament of the German Republic in accordance with the Allied nations in their note of Jan. 23; those measures of which they have so far failed to comply with by the date of completion of the reparations commission on a date still to be fixed.

"(4) To proceed without reservation or delay to the trial of war criminals and also with other parts of the Versailles treaty which have not as yet been fulfilled.

"(5) To proceed on May 12 with the occupation of the Ruhr valley and to undertake all other military and naval measures, if the German government fails to comply with foregoing conditions. This occupation will last as long as Germany continues her failure to fulfill the conditions laid down."

Were Considering The Kensit Report. The major and commissioners spent yesterday afternoon considering the Kensit report on the power situation and will meet again this morning at 10 o'clock when they will invite representatives of the Power Co. to attend. The major hopes in the near future to arrange for a public meeting with the citizens will be given an opportunity to pass judgment on the matter.

Cost of Producing Power. The Kensit report gives the cost of producing power from coal by the New Brunswick Power Co. as 2.03 and the cost of producing it at Manouaque as 1.88.

It may be pointed out, however, that the latter figure is more or less a guess work as the cost of the development is not yet known and may be much more than estimated by the government. It is understood the figure of 1.88 is based on a cost of $1,500,000 to bring the current to Fairville, but as the contracts for the work have not all been let and cost of operation is something that cannot be ascertained something has been in operation for some time, it is hard to see how the cost of the project figured out.

Another Item. Another item of cost to which the attention of The Standard has been called and which is a matter of conjecture, is the land damage. It has been stated that as yet no settlement has been made with the owners of the water privileges and these may easily be very large sums and being the amount to be spent on the development up to a much larger figure than estimated by the government when it issued the report.

On the face of the figures as given in the Kensit report, supposing them to be within the limit of cost, there would seem to be very little hope for such reduction, if any, in the cost of lighting but there may possibly be some reduction in the cost of industrial power.

BURNING SHIP ARRIVES. Falmouth, Eng., May 5.—The Harris Line steamer Ingama on fire steamed into Falmouth after a race of 300 miles to save the lives of her 85 passengers and her crew. The Ingama was bound from London to the West Indies. The fire was discovered 300 miles off Falmouth while the passengers were asleep. The captain of the vessel kept them in ignorance of their danger and having prepared the boats for launching, made for Falmouth under full steam.

Sherbrooke Man Tells of Wife's Wonderful Improvement Since Taking Tanlac.

"Tanlac has done my wife so much good that I feel it my duty to give a statement of the facts, so that others suffering like she did may know what to do for their troubles," said Napoleon Robichaud, 97B Gillespie street, Sherbrooke, P.Q., recently.

"At the time she began taking it she was in a terribly run-down condition, had no appetite, and at times even the smell of food cooking would nauseate her. Everything she ate hurt her, and after meals she bloated until she could hardly breathe. She complained of sharp pains across the small of her back, which were so bad at times she could hardly stand. I think she had indigestion as bad as a person can and live, for at times she had attacks when she just had to go and lie right down. She got so tired she could hardly walk across the room, and her nerves bothered her so much she couldn't sleep, and always felt so weak and miserable it was impossible for her to do any housework."

"But the way Tanlac has helped her certainly is a pleasant surprise to us. Her appetite is just fine now, and she is eating anything she wants without suffering afterward. She never complains of backache or dizziness, and her nerves are so steady she sleeps well every night and always feels strong and well. Tanlac is a wonderful medicine, and I believe it will help anyone suffering as she did."

Cases Dealt With In Police Court

Suspended Sentence for Geo. White and Man Who Stole Pies.

Andrew Breen, Britain street, was charged with having a bottle of liquor on his premises in the police court yesterday afternoon and pleaded not guilty. Inspectors Henderson and Thomson gave evidence and the case was postponed for further hearing.

Suspended Sentence. George L. White, a native of the State of Massachusetts, was given a suspended sentence of six years for obtaining money under false pretences. The man has been in jail over a month, and was released at the instigation of John T. Dunlop, manager of the Dufferin Hotel, who did not wish to press the charge.

A Pie Thief. Frank McDonald, who was arrested on a charge of being drunk and stealing three pies, a milk can and six quarts of milk from Mrs. Jennie Valentyne, was allowed to go on a suspended sentence of six months.

Mathew Ramsay was charged with having a bottle of alcohol in his beer shop in Main street. He was allowed out on a deposit.

A case against Tony Vasil for leaving his automobile in Prince William street Wednesday evening without securing it by applying the brakes, was postponed over in the police court yesterday as Tony failed to put in an appearance.

East and West Meet at Vancouver to Discuss Problems.

Vancouver, B. C., May 5.—East and West met in friendly discussion last night when Sir Charles Tupper, mayor R. H. Gale, of Vancouver, and other prominent Canadians joined with officials of the Chinese Nationalist League in launching a conference of Chinese in Canada. The occasion was a banquet which formally opened a 13 day conference of delegates of Chinese in Canada and the Western United States.

"Great Britain is our greatest benefactor," said E. Y. Chen, president of the league in Canada, in emphasizing the respect which Chinese Nationalists have for British people."

Hangman So Busy He Pays Income Tax

Arthur Ellis Made $12,500 Hanging Criminals During Past Year.

Montreal, Que., May 5.—Arthur Ellis, known from coast to coast as a hangman of peculiar merit, arrived in this city yesterday afternoon en route to Amherst, N. S.

It was ascertained that during the past year he made $12,500 by executing men for the government, and in consequence had to pay quite an income tax. "I had a big year of it," he stated, "and let me tell you that there was not a single hitch in anything I carried out. The significance of this announcement is obvious. Ellis is worried because on July 8, he has two large contracts, and unfortunately they are on opposite sides of the continent, one at Quebec and the other at Vancouver where five condemned men will mount the scaffold for the biggest hanging event in the history of the Dominion."

The U. S. Public Health Service estimates that at least 500 and possibly 1,000 lepers are at large in the United States, and that the number is increasing. The government did not start work on its Federal Home for Lepers a minute too soon.

WIFE'S VOTE STARTS FIGHT. Bryant then told her, according to the wife's cross-complaint filed yesterday in reply to a divorce suit by Bryant, that if she went to the polls she would return to find the house locked and her trunk on the front porch, but last November she announced she was going to vote as she pleased, and Mrs. Bryant avers.

Science Proves the Danger of Bleeding Gums

Medical science proves that unhealthy gums cause serious ailments. People suffering from Pyorrhoea (a disease of the gums) often suffer from other ills, such as rheumatism, anaemia, nervous disorders, or weakened vital organs. These ills have been traced in many cases to the Pyorrhoea germs which breed in pockets about the teeth.

Four out of five people over forty have Pyorrhoea. It begins with tender and bleeding gums. Then the gums recede, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the infecting Pyorrhoea germs.

Guard your health and your teeth. Keep Pyorrhoea away. Visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection, and make daily use of Forhan's For the Gums. Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhoea—or check its progress—if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's will keep the gums firm and healthy, the teeth white and clean. 35c and 60c tubes in Canada and U.S. If your druggist cannot supply you, send price to us direct and we will mail tube postpaid.

70,000 RATS IN PORTLAND. Portland Me., May 5.—L. L. Williams, Jr., of the U. S. Public Health Service, has made a partial survey of the rat situation in the city and believes that there are 70,000 roaming rodents in the city. That is the average of water front cities, one to each inhabitant. While he did not see rats in groups and clusters yesterday and today, he saw evidence that there are more than a few loose and ravaging according to the habits of the species.

IN SPRINGTIME.

Sing a song of days of spring.
Softly fall the showers,
Forty thousand raindrops bring
Half a million flowers,
Tins anodizing as you go;
Emerald plums a dancing,
Here and there a bird in air—
Isn't it entrancing!

Gaily springs the Morsom, up
Through the mold right bravely;
Plants the golden crocus cup,
The hyacinth stands gravely,
Every bud its message brings,
Peeping through the bowers,
Sing a song of days of spring,
Softly fall the showers.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR GIRL.

By HELEN ROWLAND
(Copyright, 1921, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

A man never realizes how hard the world is until he bumps into the right girl, falls in love, plunges into marriage—and then has to sell his automobile in order to pay for the upkeep of a baby-carriage.

Somehow, just as a man fancies he is riding the wheel of fortune at the speed limit, somebody punctures the tire.

The girl with the smile wins—it's a smile of indifference. Men are like pessimists—it takes a touch of "frost" to make them sweet.

When you see a man cleaning the mud of a girl's shoes, they are engaged; when you see the operation reversed, they are married.

There are books on how to "hat and grow thin," "Drink and Be Sobor," and "Live and Stay Young"—but the Millionaire will not arrive until somebody writes a treatise on how to "Marry and Remain a Bachelor."

That pretty, tender, solicitous manner with which a man waits on you before marriage is no more a sample of what his manners will be, after marriage, than the "demonstrating car" is of the machine the agent is trying to sell, dearie.

Marrying a rake in order to be his "ministering angel" usually means "ministering" to him, by putting ice on his head, mustard on his feet, and carrying up his breakfast.

At twenty, success in love appears to consist, not so much in getting the girl you want, as in getting the girl some other fellow wants.

Nowadays, the chief objection to the "gay divorcee" is that it takes so much of a girl's time and energy to help him deceive himself.

THE LATEST STYLES.

Atlantic City yarn shops report that tan, rust, gray and orchid are at present the most popular colors for sweaters, with many black and white ones.

Very smart for the younger girls are the new round-necked sweaters cut high so as to be worn with Peter Pan or Buster Brown collars and jaunty little bows finish off the collars.

Many black gowns are noted in New York, generally of taffeta with wide skirt untrimmed, and long bodice, loosely belted, worn with hats of bright colors.

To meet the hat demands of the growing number of devotees of the "bobbed hair" vogue, one New York firm has set aside a military section exclusively for their use, where 200 different styles of headgear specially designed for small head sizes are on view.

Repeating one of the most prominent color vagues of the winter, particularly the latter part, which featured black wraps trimmed with gray fur, New York notes the number of black divinity spring wraps lined with gray, or with gray stitching on collars or entire collars of this shade.

English Women For U. S. Colleges

Funds Being Raised to Send Students to America—Interest in Higher Education.

By MARY HENKE.
(Copyright, 1921, by Public Ledger.)

London, May 2.—More English women in the American universities is one of the aims of the British members of the International Association of University Women that has its head office in London.

A drive for funds will be opened here this summer, and it is hoped to match the sum recently raised by university women in the United States. This, however, will be difficult, for there are fewer university women in England than in America, and not so much money. The money obtained will be used to provide scholarships in Great Britain for foreign students, and the British students in America.

Many American women are entering the English universities and a number of applications are already in for next year. The majority of the Americans are enrolled at London University School of Economics for post-graduate work.

Prof. Caroline Spurgeon, of London University, who has been lecturing at Columbia University for the last year, is returning to England, and will attend the council meeting which will be held in London in July. University women from a number of countries will attend.

An increase in interest in university education among women is noted in all parts of the Continent, although the higher education of women is still not so fashionable abroad, even in England, as it is in the United States. The International Association now has twelve countries included in its membership.

Englishwomen are hampered in their efforts to obtain a university education by the fact that there is not room enough at the larger universities to accommodate the students.

University women in the various European countries are leaders in the political movements to obtain more equalized laws for women. In Norway and Sweden, where almost every demand for equality had already been granted, university women gave their attention to opening the Government posts to women, and in both countries have been successful.

DEFENCE GUNS ARRIVE.

Halifax, N. S., May 5.—Bringing three defence guns, which will replace three guns at one of the harbor forts, and several rowing shells for Halifax aquatic club, the Canadian liner Tsingma arrived in port this morning from London. She also brought several shells for Toronto, including an eight-foot crank for the Toronto University boat club. The steamer encountered some ice on the grand banks.

MacGregor Concert Greatly Enjoyed

Assisted by Miss Jean Thomson, Scotch Comedian Gave Fine Programme.

A concert which in point of merit deserved a much larger audience than that which was present, was given by Sandy MacGregor, the Scottish comedian, assisted by Miss Jean Thomson, an accomplished girl pianist and dancer, in the G.W.V.A. hall last evening. Both performers were assisted by D. Arnold Fox, who played their accompaniments.

Had Visited Hospitals.

"Sandy," who has been touring all the military hospitals in the Dominion and who during the week brought much pleasure to the boys at the Lancaster Military Hospital, and those at the County Hospital at East St. John, received much applause for his extensive repertoire, which included most of the popular lauder songs, and which he sang in Highland costume, as only a true Highlander can.

Clever Dancer.

Miss Thomson made her premier appearance in the hills, too, and gave a pleasing exhibition of the Highland flag. Her dancing of the Sailor's Hornpipe later in the evening was very clever, and quite out of the ordinary performance of this dance. Miss Thomson also gave a clever rendering of Irish jigs in the native costume and concluded her number by again playing the pipes. In addition to original and totally different from the usual type expected by Canadian audiences.

Address by Mayor.

Mayor Schofield spoke at the close of the evening and urged all present to return tonight and bring along a friend, so that the performers might be afforded an audience in keeping with the excellence of their programme. The concert, which is being given under the auspices of the Veterans, and in their hall, will be repeated this evening, and should not be missed by those who are fond of Scotch songs, music and dancing.

The Knee Crace.

Tempus fugit. Where a few years ago ankles were discussed either with a blush of modesty or an air of mid-night bravado, now the knees are the subject of conversation.

Representations of Books Shown

Regular Meeting of St. John High School Alumnae—Pleasing Programme.

Some very original and clever representations of books were shown at last night's regular meeting of the St. John High School Alumnae, which was held at the residence of Mrs. J. V. Mills, Princess street. "A Book Party," the evening was called, and Miss Jessie Lawson and Mrs. Lawrence, who were in charge of the programme had arranged a guessing contest in which names of various books were illustrated by the members. Miss M. L. Lingrey won the prize for guessing the books represented by members, naming twenty-two out of the thirty-four. For illustrating book titles Mrs. H. Brennan won the first prize and Miss Agnes Warner the second.

Linen Supply.

This is a good time to think about your supply of household linen. Look it all over, list it, mend it, launder it, and then buy new pieces to fill out the gaps in the list.

Begin at the top of the pile, with the finest and daintiest linen—that for the table. Mend all tablecloths and napkins carefully. Cut old cloths, that can no longer be mended, into breakfast and lunch napkins and then them as neatly as if they were new. The parts of the cloths, too worn for napkins can be neatly cut and hemmed for drying towels for glass and china. These linen drying cloths are also excellent for drying windows.

The necessary amount of table linen to keep on hand is, of course, decided by conditions. A plentiful supply of napkins should always be kept in the linen drawers. A large cloth, for festive meals, those on holidays and days when there are many guests, for instance, with napkins to match, should also be always ready for use. When this large cloth wears out, it can be cut down into a smaller cloth and napkins. Cloths for the family dinner three will do—with napkins to match, if possible, and some sort of breakfast and lunch linen—dollies or runners are easier to care for than cloths—should be provided for, too.

When buying table linen, remember that a heavy soft linen is likely to wear the longest. Stiff, heavily starched linen is generally of poor quality. A German linen, perhaps not so attractive in appearance as one of Scotch or Irish make, is nevertheless the cheapest and wears very well.

MORE BENIGN.

I do not think of him as one who stalks, a helpless enemy, who some day will blot out the sun, and lay relentless hands on me!

Nay, rather do I think of him as one who in all kindness waits at the road's end, when shadows dim, to draw me gently through his gates.

And lead me, like some kindly host that gives a long-expected guest The comfort that he craves the most—the hospitality of rest.

So shall I think of him each day, while the road shortens mile by mile, Guessing the word that he will say—almost familiar with his smile.

No foe with fury in his breast shall charge me from some ambush'd place.

For I shall make a friend of Death long, long before I see his face.

Dempsey's Novel Training Idea

Champion Added Equestrian Recreation to His Daily Routine at Long Hill.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Equestrian recreation was added today to the daily routine of Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, in his preparation for the fight with Freddie Weir at Long Hill, N. J. The champion still is engaged in light training preliminary to the arduous campaign which he will enter probably before the end of the week. A jaunt over nearby roads about Summit, N. J., in the morning, about an hour's gymnastic work in the early afternoon, and a session in the saddle comprised Dempsey's day.

The champion, after his morning road work, exercised in the gymnasium with the dumb bells, pulley weights, and indulged in some foot work and calisthenics. In addition, he let himself loose in a session of shadow boxing. Then Dempsey and Joe Benjamin, California lightweight, sparred several fast rounds, and the champion, after a cooling shower, went horseback riding with Benjamin.

Dempsey's camp routine, which now includes Benjamin and Jimmy Darcy, a Portland welterweight, will be increased by one tomorrow. Alex. Trombides, Portland middleweight, who is regarded as a likely successor to the champion by Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, will join the heavyweight champion and will assist in testing Dempsey in sparring matches.

Manager Kearns was in Atlantic City all day, ostensibly arranging for the champion's permanent training camp in the New Jersey resort city. It is planned to shift camps Friday. Promoter T. Richard spent a comparatively idle day today. All he did was open a batch of mail, which had attained a height of more than a foot, and carelessly care a shower of cheques which fell therefrom.

When the pastime became monotonous, Richard turned the mail over to his secretary, Frank Country, and that young man immediately set to work entering the applications and cheques received in alphabetical order in Richard's "little black book."

Golfers Coached For Ocean Voyage

D. Scott Chisholm, 13 Up on Father Neptune, Offers His Recipe Free.

D. Scott Chisholm, secretary of the Southern California Professional Golfers' Association and who conducts a "Nineteenth Hole" column in the Los Angeles Express, pays us the compliment of writing all the way across the continent to inquire how in our opinion "Dr. Paul Hunter" will stand the Old Country weather.

We are inclined to think that with an umbrella, a mackintosh, a sou'wester and a pair of rubber boots, not to mention a bottle of his own cough mixture, a sufficient supply of aspirin, four or five pairs of good rubber shoes, bottles of liniment, a pair of goggles to keep the wind and sand out of his eyes, and maybe a few other odds and ends, Dr. Paul should stand the rigors of the British climate as well as any.

But if, instead of being anxious about Hunter's weather-resisting qualities, Chisholm is trying to draw an opinion as to what are the California chances of winning the British championship, we venture to put ourselves on records. Paul by the looks of things has perhaps the biggest championship job of his career on his hands, with both the American and British stars hating his path to glory. And if, as has been reported, he is down in that hard half of the draw in which Evans, Gulmet and Jones also find themselves, his task, of course, becomes still more formidable.

Hunter this year has won the State and northern California championships and has twice lowered the Pasadena record, but while there is no doubt that, as Chisholm says, he is a greatly improved golfer from what he was in his early Chicago days, his chances of winning at Hoylake are about on a par with those of Fred Wright or J. Wood Platt.

ROTHEY CORPS TENTH.

The result of the Canada Rifle League match have been received by Lieut. Colonel A. B. Snow. They show that the team from Calgary High School leads the competition with an average of 86.6. Three other Calgary teams followed closely while Rotheay Collegiate School comes tenth, with an average of 61.45. Colonel Snow considers that the latter have done very well to have obtained such a high average.

The prehistoric monument of great upright stones at Stonehenge, England, is being excavated and evidence has been found of a still earlier series of monumental stones, which were removed by the prehistoric builders who erected the present stones. The purpose of these two successive monuments and the kind of people who erected them remain unknown. In the case of the more recent series evidence has been found that the stones which lie horizontally along the tops of the upright ones were fitted into mortises and lowered into place, implying that the primitive people who erected them possessed some equivalent for ropes and at least a rudimentary knowledge of engineering methods to permit the raising and lowering of stones weighing several tons.

"I understand," remarked Callahan to his friend Casey, "that the judge fined ye $10 for assaulting Coughlan the other day." "He did that," answered Mr. Casey, "and it was a proud moment, I'll tell ye, when I heard the judge say 'He's that!' " "I'm dafkint," continued Mr. Casey, "that it showed which one of us had the best of the fight."

CANADA NEEDS 158,000 HOUSES

EXPERT CLAIMS Many People Living in Dwellings Unfit for Habitation Now.

WINTER SHUTDOWN ADDS TO TROUBLES
Costs of Building So High That Little is Being Done at Present.
Ottawa, May 5.—Continuation of the National Joint Conference of the National Construction and Building Industries when the report of that special committee on that subject was introduced at this evening's meeting. The report was adopted. It also recommended that each group consider further development of its plan of joint industrial councils, and submitted a draft constitution to govern such councils.

House Situation Critical
J. M. Piggott, Hamilton (employers) reporting on conditions in the industry, dealt largely with the plan of joint industrial councils, and submitted a draft constitution to govern such councils.

Too Dear to Build
There was a determination on the part of the public to build under present prices. A lower level must be reached and costs must be stabilized at that lower level. There had been 1,117 dwellings built in the period 1920. In the same year there were 70,000 marriages. Immigrants numbered 117,336, of whom probably 60 per cent were married, making a further requirement of 300,000 houses. J. R. Ellis, said Mr. Piggott, had estimated Ontario's house shortage at 200,000. The total house shortage for 1920 alone was 78,000.

Needling 158,000 Houses
Canada could do with 158,000 new houses today. Many people were living in dwellings unfit for habitation; others were in sub-standard housing. They could and would afford comfortable homes if these houses were available. The condition has now become so serious that governments throughout the dominion should accept a greater share of the responsibility and seek a means of remedying them. They could also stimulate public works, including public works, which would be carried on during the slack periods in the industry, to keep the work going ahead.

Winter Shut Down
John Bruce, Toronto (Labor), said the committee had been unable to deal with the unemployment problem. This was enhanced by the shut-down of the building trades during the winter. If this one of the basic industries were kept working the unemployment problem would be in some measure relieved.

Deadlock on Wages
A deadlock on the question of declaring that a decrease in wages was needed in the building industry, came at tonight's meeting. As a result of that, and the debate which developed when labor and employers' groups brought in separate resolutions from committee, the conference was unable to conclude its work tonight.

Perley L. Smith Was Suspended

National Trotting Assn. Gives Him Hoist for Campaigning a Ringer Wedgewood.

FREDERICTON, N. B., May 5.—Perley L. Smith was suspended by the National Trotting Association as a result of the campaign a few years ago in Maine of Wedgewood, a ringer. Wedgewood won many races, being staked as a green pacer when in reality he had a fast mark. He was finally sold to parties in Aroostook county and campaigned by them but was generally started unfit for drivers of other horses.

His winnings, which were thus held up, amounted to a substantial sum and the Board of Review also ordered that before those who had campaigned him could get back into good standing all the winnings of the horse must be returned. The local men are some weeks ago T. V. Monahan, of this city, and driver William Sharen, now in charge of Harry G. Jewett's stable here, refused to relinquish their claims for returns of winnings in races in which Wedgewood had been started against Leila Burs 2:14 1/4, then owned by Mr. Monahan and campaigned in Sharen's stable, but since sold to Cape Breton parties. It was explained that other horsemen were being asked to take similar action because Smith, who had acted innocently in the matter, had been kept out of employment and had already suffered seriously. The local men acquiesced and evidently did too with the result that the reinstatement of Smith became possible.

Race Driver Who Is A Model Man

By T. E. "Pop" Myers.
Indianapolis, May 5.—One can hardly imagine a race driver being very religious, yet you have to look no farther than Ralph Mulford to get an example.

Mulford, who is entered in the 500-mile dash for glory and gold at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway on Monday, May 30th, does not smoke, chew, or drink. He says "I'll smoke in the hereafter" but if one is to judge from his clean, wholesome life that Ralph leads, it would suggest by comparison that a number of people we know will not only smoke, but burn, in the hereafter. Ralph does not swear either, not even the "finest" swear word ever passes his lips.

He would not think of working on his car on Sunday, not even if it were possible to complete the job for a race the following day.

His wife always attends the race meets in which he competes and whenever he is in the stands to give his dad all the encouragement he can and to hear him yell one would be lead to believe that his daddy hear him every time he comes down the straightaway.

Dempsey Adds Two Sparring Partners

Champion is Training at Freddie Welsh's Farm—Mattie Regarding the Referee.

SUMMIT, N. J., May 5.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, who is engaging in light training at Freddie Welsh's farm near here, for his bout July 2, with Georges Carpentier, has added two sparring partners to his camp. It was announced today.

The new arrivals are Alex. Trambidas, Portland, Ore., middleweight, and Steve Latzo, Scranton, Pa., middleweight. Dempsey has displayed great interest in Welsh's effort to come back into the ring and has referred the bouts of the last two nights in which the former lightweight title holder was victorious.

Reveille sounds for Dempsey at day-break and he has been doing road work with Joe Benjamin, Pacific Coast lightweight. It was reported today that Jack Trambidas and Latzo accompanied them on yesterday morning's jog. It was reported today that Jack Kearns, the champion's manager, has arranged details at the Dempsey camp in Atlantic City and that Dempsey would go there probably tomorrow.

Tex Rickard, promoter of the bout, when questioned yesterday regarding the referee said there are many good men available in New Jersey. Principals in the bout, under terms of the contract, must select the third man in the ring.

Another Victory For Tennis Star

London, May 5.—Baslerin, the British tennis star, who successfully defended the singles championship today won another court victory.

With W. Renshaw of the Manchester Club, he won his way to the semi-official of the open doubles inter-club competition. The British pair defeated C. S. Cutting and C. E. Leonard, the United States players in easy fashion, the score 6-3, 6-2.

BOSTON CAPTURED WRESTLING MATCH

Halifax, N. S., May 5.—Joe Boston, who has a belt emblematic of the featherweight championship of Great Britain, defeated Chalmers Bigney, the Imperoyal strong man, in an hour's wrestling in their match here last night, securing the only fall in 29 minutes.

Montreal, May 5.—Grand Trunk Railway earnings for the period ending April 30 were $2,241,516, an increase of $157,115 over the same period of 1920.

The referee said there are many good men available in New Jersey. Principals in the bout, under terms of the contract, must select the third man in the ring.

In the absence of news relating to a proposed Roridon flotation, for which the street has been waiting for some days, the only development in connection with Roridon shares was in the unlisted section of the Montreal Stock Exchange yesterday, where the new common was quite active and was bid up from 4 to 5 1/4.

The only other trading note was in Argonauld gold, which continued in demand at 28 to 29 1/2 cents. This is the high on the present movement.

A group of New York banks headed by the Guaranty Trust Co., the National City Bank and the Royal Bank of Canada have formed a syndicate to arrange a credit in the United States of $20,000,000 for loans against sugar in warehouses of Cuban planters who were customers of the collapsed National Bank of Cuba.

While admitting, in an address in Newark to the representatives of 11,000 employees of the New Jersey industries, that the oil industry is passing through a stage where there is insufficient demand for all refined oil products, with the exception of gasoline, Walter C. Teagle, president of the Standard Oil Co., of New Jersey, stated:

"We earnestly hope, and are disposed to believe, that the worst of the present business depression is past and that by mid-summer the tide will be back again operating at capacity."

Damage Reports in West Raise Prices

Wheat Offerings in Winnipeg Cash Market Were Much Smaller.

Wheat offerings were much lighter in the cash market, due to Wednesday's drop. An excellent demand existed. During the last few minutes of trading premiums broke on the top grades, closing at 12, 9 and 3 cents for the three high grades.

FIGHTS AGAINST WAGE REDUCTION

Railway Workers Declare Nothing Can be Accepted Until Extent of Cut Known.

Chicago, May 5.—Arguments against the wage reduction proposals submitted to the railway labor board by railway executives were summed up today by B. M. Jewell, president of the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor. He declared that for the board to order a wage reduction now would only bring the dispute over new national working agreements back before the board for determination. It is a controversy of redoubled bitterness, and we would have a condition of utter chaos in the transportation industry."

HON. MR. MELCHEN ON PROBLEMS OF THE DOMINIONS

Contributes Important Statement on Matters Affecting Empire.

CENTRALIZATION NOT FOUND PRACTICAL

Full Public Discussion and Support Necessary to Success of Conference.

London May 5.—Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, Premier of Canada, has an important pronouncement on the centralization problem in the special number today of the Manchester Guardian, celebrating its hundredth anniversary.

In his message Premier Meighen, after stressing the doctrine that the relations of the Dominions to the Mother Country must be based on the recognition of their complete freedom and equality of status of the daughter states, says that it is a common experience as to whether to have in fact arrived at such a status, or whether it has been generally accepted as an actual working basis in the conduct of imperial affairs.

Dominions Are Unique.

"In this controversy," says Mr. Meighen, "the Dominions must be regarded as unique, for no other occidental countries enjoy such spontaneous freedom as their constitutional position is fixed and taken for granted. The result in our political life is that there is much discussion, often on the exceedingly intricate, but on the other hand often unduly distracting, details arising from conduct of public affairs arising from this factor alone must be experienced to be fully appreciated. Much of it should be quite essential, but not one of the nations concerned can settle it alone under the problems involved much doubt must be left for solution upon the special constitutional conference contemplated by the Imperial War Conference of 1917, whenever it may be held. This much being agreed, it will be seen that the task of those who in the Imperial conference of this year should not be confined as primarily concerned with the execution of mechanism of government for the Empire. True, the idea of an improvement in the mechanics of government has not been an uncommon avenue of approach among British and Dominion statesmen, but its usefulness may be questioned.

Centralization Not Practical.

It suggests at once the idea of centralization, a conception which, if it can be said to have been seriously considered, is almost generally recognized to be outside the realm of practical things, and which indeed is directly counter to the principles, which the prospectus of the conference of our commonwealth has been based.

The people of the Empire have discussed no single subject more earnestly than the problem of the near future upon complicated inventions in such a field.

It is a practicable plan to use closer constitutions and to use such means not unlikely to be met, not so much by novel devices in state organization, as by clearly understood and definitely accepted declarations of principle, which shall obviate the uncertainties and distractions to which attention has been made with improvements in so much of the form and content of the mechanism may be found obsolete.

Public Discussion Necessary.

"In any case full public discussion and support of the ideas suggested in the special number of the Manchester Guardian, and the success of any constitutional conference, and its immediate moral which suggests itself here should be directed primarily to the discovery of principles that may require formal agreement and declaration."

Mr. Meighen proceeds to say that the place of the Dominions in the Empire has doubtless gained significance from their increasing interest in foreign relations.

But here, too, Premier adds, the problem seems to be less one of mechanism than of actual substance of policy. The ties of sympathy and understanding recognized in the prospectus of the conference of our commonwealth, which he is in this connection that our independence upon the integrity of the Empire finds its real point.

One very general conclusion seems clear, and that is that any foreign policy to be successful must be conceived on broad and simple lines, intelligible to all the nations of the Empire.

It seems hardly necessary to add that a course of policy concerned primarily or predominantly with the complexities of our continent would be most that condition.

MORE MEN AT WORK.

QUILWA, Ont., May 5.—An increase of 3.57 or 14 per cent. of workers on the pay-roll was reported for the week ending April 9, by 6,139 firms in Canada, as compared with their pay rolls of the previous week. Pay rolls for the week ending April 9, showed a total employment of 282,477 men.

The favorable turn in employment was due to some extent to the re-opening of railway shops in Quebec after a shutdown.

REGISTERED MAIL STOLEN.

Port William, Ont., May 4.—One package of registered mail was stolen on Saturday night from the C.P.R. depot at Port Arthur. The value of the mail stolen has not yet been ascertained, the postal authorities saying that it would take a few days to check up the books. The mail was to have gone out on the 10:46 p.m. train.

Launched First Ship

A cable from Adelaide announces that the first steamer built by the Australian Government has just been launched with great ceremony. It is of 6,000 tons, and one of several ordered by the Federal Government. The Minister in charge of ship construction in a message said that unless there was industrial harmony the cost of building ships in Australia must be so advanced that it would prove impossible to continue the industry, which is now on trial.

Sailings Cancelled

Owing to the scarcity of bunker coal in Great Britain the Cunard-Berengaria will be unable to keep her scheduled sailing dates of May 21st from Southampton and June 2nd from New York, according to cable received by the Robert Balfour Company yesterday. Two dates have already been cancelled, those of April 16th westward and April 29th eastward, and the liner has now been laid at Southampton since her arrival there on March 29th. The Berengaria formerly the ex-German liner Imperator, which was purchased recently by the Cunard Line and re-named, is the world's largest ship now in commission, and each day she is held up, therefore, means a heavy financial loss to her owners.

New York Chartering

Advices from New York say that a moderate amount of chartering was reported during last week, consisting principally of train carriers to Europe and coal boats to the Mediterranean, the Atlantic Islands and South American ports. The rates paid were about the same as previously and were sufficient tonnage offered to cover all orders. For additional boats for similar business the demand continues moderate, and there are a few scattered orders for boats for cotton, sugar, lumber and other cargo. The supply of available tonnage is ample for requirements and no material change in rates is anticipated. The sailing vessel market was quiet, but there is an increased demand for tonnage for coastwise trading for coal and lumber cargoes. Progress in the long voyage, trans-Atlantic and South American trades are scarce, and the requirements of the West Indian shippers are, as yet limited. Rates continue low and unsatisfactory, but as the supply of tonnage is abundant no material improvement is anticipated in the near future.

MOVING PICTURE.

FULL OF ACTION

A number of by-standers got an ideal moving picture, full of action, pathos and humor, and so very moving on King street last evening. An Ethiopian engaged in the local movie business was moving a drag load of furniture down the city's main thoroughfare, and was about opposite the Royal Bank, when his reckoned stage suddenly slipped on the smooth pavement, registered emotion, sat down. The cart knew its business, if the horse didn't and kept moving. The driver was non-plussed for his moment, then he turned the horse's head towards a near-by fire hydrant. The "pig" slid for the pig, and the moving picture became a tableaux, as the hydrant effectively checked further progress.

AROUND THE CITY

High Time for Organization of Women to Act. That Girls be Protected.

A prominent member of the Women's Council in this city, commenting on Justice Crocker's remarks in reference to the resolution of the council on the Margaret Long case, which the learned Justice characterized as a move aimed at the interference with the carrying out of justice, said the presiding judge at the trial was probably correct in his view from a legal standpoint, but not from a humanitarian standpoint. She informs the Standard that the Women's Council was out to aid a girl who was alone and friendless, more sinned against than sinning.

Women Have a Duty

Continuing, she said: "It is high time that all organizations of women do less talking and more acting for the girls of every community. There are those beasts in men's salient waiting on every corner to ensnare a girl. Women, if they will but act, can save many a girl from disgrace and degradation."

"In the United States last year 65,000 young girls disappeared from their homes. Many of them have never been traced. No one knows how many have disappeared from Canadian homes, but probably several thousand. Our societies of women must carry on a campaign against loose morals, suggestive dress and all the evil influences which tend to turn a young girl's head. For every unwholesome thing that is taken away, a clean interest must be supplied."

Give Proper Fun

"Young lives will not be left a vacuum. There must be plenty to do that is good fun, and yet is clean and safe, plenty of youthful association under kindly and understanding chaperonage. Youthful spirits cannot be quenched; it can only be guided. This is the work for our association and councils."

Centenary School Had Successful Year

Annual Meeting Reports Show Enrollment of 451—Officers Were Elected.

A successful year in all departments was reported at the annual meeting of the Centenary church Sunday school held last evening. Rev. H. A. Goodwin presided.

Reports Received

The secretary's report showed an enrollment of 451. The work of grading, which has been in force for a year, has proved of great benefit. The treasurer, Harry Lyman, stated that there has been an increase in giving, and that the amount raised for missions was very creditable. Detailed reports of the different departments were given, showing much interest taken in the Sunday school by officers and scholars. Appreciation was expressed of the work of the teachers and officials, especially of the faithful service given by James E. Arthur, who was re-elected as superintendent, and thus begins his ninth year in this office.

Held Conference At The Hospital

Possible Income to be Derived from Proposed Extension Discussed by Commissioners

The Board of Hospital Commissioners, and Doctors Roby, Caron and Skinner, a sub-committee of the hospital staff, held an informal conference at the hospital yesterday afternoon to discuss the possible income to be derived from the proposed extension of the hospital and the expenditure the erection of a new wing would entail. The estimated revenue from the proposed wing was largely speculative, as the income may only be ascertained by actual experience, but at the same time the doctors were able to furnish the board with a certain amount of information to submit to the finance committee of the municipal council who they are to meet at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the office of the county treasurer.

Fewer Words, More Action Necessary

Continuing, she said: "It is high time that all organizations of women do less talking and more acting for the girls of every community. There are those beasts in men's salient waiting on every corner to ensnare a girl. Women, if they will but act, can save many a girl from disgrace and degradation."

Robert Anderson Was 95 Years Old

Funeral of Retired Government Railway Employee at River Glade.

The death of Robertson Anderson occurred at his home River Glade on Tuesday last. He was the age of about ninety-five years, leaving a widow, William H. Anderson, 4 Summer street this city. The funeral took place yesterday from the late home, the services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Mason, of Petticoe, and internment was in the Church of England burying grounds at River Glade.

Long Service Man.

The late Mr. Anderson is well known in the city, especially by the older men employed on the Government railway, as he was presented with a long service medal for the long period in which he was employed on the railway. When the Intercolonial railway was under construction Mr. Anderson was a conductor on a ballast train on the section between St. John and Moncton. He was afterwards a baggage master at St. John and a station agent at Sussex and Salisbury, besides holding other positions up to the time of his retirement.

"VERY MUCH MARRIED"

Rothesay to have Fire Equipment

Residents Gather in Mass Meeting Decide to Purchase Motor Chemical Equipment

Aroused to action by losses sustained in recent fires, the residents of Rothesay had a meeting last night to talk over ways and means of providing the district with fire-fighting equipment to better safeguard the property interests of this prosperous residential section.

There was a large gathering of the citizens to talk over the important question, and all seemed to be of one mind—fire apparatus is very much needed. J. M. Robinson presided.

Rich Valuation

The property valuation of the district interested in the project, from Riverside Station to Fair Vale Station, is placed at $355,000. In this district are many beautiful and attractive residences, and several have been destroyed by fires which might have been prevented had there been any fire-fighting equipment at hand. This was all pointed out at last night's meeting. All present were in favor of securing fire-fighting equipment. It was the consensus of opinion that the district should secure a small motor chemical truck and the accessories that go with it. It was believed this would be sufficient for the present, and with prompt and proper handling should prevent any serious fire destruction.

Voluntary Funds

It was decided to raise the funds necessary by voluntary subscription. The enthusiasm behind the project on the part of the residents gives assurance that the necessary amount will be quickly raised and an energetic committee was appointed to handle the collection.

It is expected Rothesay will have its motor chemical in a very few weeks and the people will rest feeding of the fiery fiend.

Salmon Hatchery May Still Remain

Fishermen Came to Agreement With Inspector Walker Last Night.

It is now believed that the Salmon Hatchery will be removed from these waters, and that the order to have it removed and resealed; this was the word given out after a meeting of the fishermen held last evening. Inspector Walker satisfied.

Inspector S. J. Walker, of the Fishery Department, Ottawa, who has been in the city for the past week trying to secure the fishermen to decide to have the hatchery, was to have left the city yesterday afternoon; on request of some of the fishermen decided to remain over for the night and once more meet the said owners, and not without favorable results.

The session was attended by the principal well-owners of the city and the matter regarding the hatchery and the delivering of salmon was thoroughly discussed.

Prices for Salmon

The fishermen arranged with Mr. Walker to deliver salmon at the Government Hatchery for five dollars and twenty-five cents a fish, and they further decided to make arrangements with George B. Wilson to gather the fish from the weirs in pontoon and deliver at five dollars per fish, leaving the weirs owners $3.25 per fish. This agreement was apparently satisfactory to Inspector Walker, and last night he sent a telegram to the Fishery Department at Ottawa asking that the Salmon pond be not removed a-kim St. John this season. Inspector Walker, after a couple of previous meetings with the fishermen, which were not satisfactory, had recommended to the department that the local hatchery be removed, but now it is expected that within a few days the fishermen will learn that inspector Walker's request as sent by wire last night will be granted.

Automobile Owners Receive A Warning

Five Car Owners Fined for Speeding—Must Dim Lights or be Prosecuted.

Six automobile owners were before Magistrate Allingham who held court at his residence last evening. In all cases the charge was for speeding on Lancaster Avenue last Sunday, the reports having been made by Norman Downing who is assisting Inspector Robert Crawford. The case against car No. 7746 was withdrawn, while fines of five dollars were struck against cars 2753, 1647, 2298 and truck 827. A fine of two dollars was struck against car No. 2169.

Must Dim Lights

Speaking to The Standard last night Inspector Crawford said that he gives warning that car owners who exceed the speed limit will be prosecuted as he is engaged on the Loch Lomond Road and Rothesay Avenue, while his assistants are looking after the traffic on the Westfield and other roads on the West Side. Another warning given out by the inspector regarding the dimming of head lights. He said that every car owner he caught in the future who failed to dim the lights when approaching and passing another car will be halted into court and prosecuted, as he claims that the practice is dangerous continuously and is very dangerous.

Natural Silk Pongee

The Silk of a Thousand Uses.

What Silk or fabric can we mention that is more adapted to general uses than this famous Oriental product. Fortunately for you that our Dress Goods Buyer exhibited foresight. He anticipated a scarcity of this Silk and placed a big order, and the first shipment, although greatly delayed, is at hand. Splendid rich lustre without any dressing comes fully 34 inches and is excellent value at $1 per yard. But we want to warn you the Silk will go like hot cakes. Out-of-town customers, send your orders at once with postal order enclosed. Money refunded if not satisfied. That's our policy always. Pair, last 17—Dyde, man's, St. John's Silk House, Charlotte street.
