Miss Ellen Chalmers died at the residence of her brother-in-law, Mr. Alexander Morrison, Springfield, Chatham, early Sunday morning. Miss Chalmers had been in ill health for some time. We earnestly ask our readers who are in arrears to remit the amount of their subscription at once, as it is extremely difficult to make the Advocate a success unless we have the co-operation of our readers in this respect. It was our intention to make a few improvements in the Advocate this fall, but the laxity of subscribers in remitting their small amounts has made it impossible to do so, and we have of necessity postponed the matter for a period. We hope that this slight reminder will be sufficient and that those in arrears will remit the amount of their indebtedness at once.

A stabbing affray took place in Dalhousie Friday that might have resulted differently had the blade reached the right spot. It appears that Bob, Wilson, of Oak Point, and well known in Campbellton, took occasion to correct Edward Bateman for using indecent language while he (Wilson) was in a lady's company. Later on in the evening, with a couple of pals, Bateman accosted Wilson and drew a knife on him, inflicting several wounds. Warrants are out for his arrest as well as another implicated, but both have left the town. Wilson is able to be around but is suffering from several gashes he received in the body and neck.

The election for members of the County Council is to be held in less than a month, and nothing is heard of preparations for it. The ratepayers don't seem at all interested. There may be some quiet canvassing going on in the country, but no echo of it reaches town. Who are going to run for this parish, and for the other parishes? It is time for aspirants and others to wake up and get to work. The interests confided to the County Council are large, its powers of taxation considerable, there are important questions—such as the making of a county valuation—to be considered, and the people should interest themselves in the work of securing good men as Councillors.—World.

Mr. W. T. Chestnut returned on Wednesday from his big game hunt upon the Miramichi and he and his companion are the first from this locality to bring down a moose this season. Mr. Chestnut was accompanied by Mr. Fred D. Pe. Townsend, of Cooperstown, N. Y. They hunted in the McKim lake district. Upon the hunt the party saw seventeen moose, three deer and one caribou. As Mr. Townsend wanted a fine head they selected their moose and he was the first to kill. Mr. Chestnut shot a caribou. They got close up to three does with fawns, but would not shoot them, as Mr. Townsend has hunted game of all kinds all parts of the continent, and he and Mr. Chestnut shot alligators together in Florida several years ago.—Gleaner.

A GREAT NEWSPAPER'S SPOILS.—The phenomenal success of the Montreal Daily Star has largely to its superb news-gathering facilities. The Montreal Daily Star has far and away the best news service, having the complete telegraphic service at five hundred thousand points throughout the universe. In fact, the Star is the only paper in Canada that is away ahead of many of the great American daily papers. The Montreal paper that has a cable correspondent in London and Paris, and the Star's special cable service is a reliable indication of its great enterprise and ever growing circulation. Recently the Montreal Daily Star has become more and more popular, and its readers are increasing rapidly. The Star is the only paper in Canada that gets the latest news direct. No wonder the Star is going ahead by leaps and bounds. It is a pleasure to record its widening success.

A party including Col. W. P. Anderson, chief engineer of the Marine and Fisheries department, Ottawa, Mr. F. J. Harding, St. John, Sheriff Call and Mr. E. Hutchison went down river Saturday in the Sarcolla. When opposite Grand Downs the party noticed about a dozen fishermen belonging to Carleton Place, who were fishing out of season? asked Mr. Hutchison. "Mr. Hatchey, he says all right, go fish, replied the go fish replied the fishermen, whose presence is about as dignified as a fish on a table. The party then returned to the Sarcolla and proceeded to the Grand Downs. The party then returned to the Sarcolla and proceeded to the Grand Downs. The party then returned to the Sarcolla and proceeded to the Grand Downs.

Mr. Hatchey, he no fish, he will be fish oyster, we fish," said the frenchman as he buttoned up his coat and folded his arms ready to resist any interference. Anderson was then introduced as the collector of marine and fisheries for Canada. The colored who speaks Canadian French with fluency told them that as they were ignorant of the law he would let them fish this time but that they must not fish out of season again. The Sarcolla party after partaking of two baskets of oysters were on their way leaving the frenchmen vowing vengeance on Mr. Hatchey.

BEFORE YOU BEGIN to paint anything, a hitching post or a house, a barn door or a parlor floor, see that you have the right paint for that particular purpose. The Sherwin-Williams paint has ever been made equally good for painting everything—buildings and houses and furniture. The greatest triumph of modern painting is the making of a different paint that looks best and wears best for each class of painting. It has taken years to find out just what ingredients and what proportions are needed for each. Each must be ground and mixed by special machinery with the utmost skill and accuracy. If you go by the labels on the cans of you are sure of getting the best that can be made for your purpose. They have a reputation of 30 years' success, and every one is fully guaranteed. Our little book on painting will help you—it is free.

RHEUMATISM

Miscellaneous.

Be glad, my friend and cease reproach.
A preacher said to one distressed;
Somewhere, you know, the sun is shining
Take what is given as the best.

Although the clouds hang dark above you Remember that they'll pass away,
And you will find some one to love you
And make you smile again, some day.

When, later on, the preacher, moaning,
Within an ocean liner lay,
His friend said: "Brother, cease your groaning;
Somewhere the sea is calm to-day."

The good man raised himself, half-choking,
And cried: "Begone! Why taunt me so?"
This is no time for foolish joking—
And kept on pouring out his woes.

GENTLEMEN.—While driving

J. B. A. BEAUCHEMIN, Sherbrooke.

A local paper published a long obituary of a man who had died in the community, closing with the statement that "a long procession of people followed the remains to their last resting place."
The family read the notice and discovered the supposed error and asked the editor to make a correction in the next issue. He said he could not do so until seven years' back subscription had been paid.
