UNITED FARMERS FAVOR SUPPORT U.N.B.

Board of Directors Recommend That Provincial Government Increase Annual Grant to $50,000 and Provide $10,000 for Library and $25,000 for War Memorial Building.

The board of directors of the United Farmers' Association met at their head office in Woodstock on Saturday to consider further matters of organization and social betterment. T. W. Caldwell, M. P., the president, presided at the meeting. The board gave careful consideration to plans looking toward a greatly increased membership of the farmers' organization.

The most important resolution of the day was brought before the meeting by C. Gordon Sharpe, the general secretary, who said that it accorded with the broad educational policy of the organization and strongly urged its adoption. It was further supported by Mr. Caldwell and Rennie Tracey, M. P. The resolution, which was adopted, follows:

Whereas, the problems which have arisen out of the great war and during the period of reconstruction have served to accentuate the need of a broader and more comprehensive program of higher education; and

Whereas, the full development of our province is contingent upon the educational facilities afforded to all classes in order that we may successfully take our place alongside of the other rapidly developing provinces of the dominion; and

Whereas, the University of New Brunswick--the keystone of the educational system of the province--has long and faithfully contributed to the building up of the social, economic, political, educational, religious and commercial life of the province and of the dominion; and

Whereas, the present situation absolutely calls for expansion if the university is to fulfill its obligation;

Therefore be it resolved, that we request:

First--That the legislative assembly of the province increase the annual provincial grant to the University of New Brunswick to $50,000.

Secondly--That in view of the action taken by other provinces of the dominion the legislative assembly of the province provide $10,000 for a public extension library with books on practical agriculture, on social, economic and labor questions of the day.

Thirdly--That in view of the magnificent response and unselfish sacrifices made by the people of our province during the late war, and in order that the war records and trophies of the province may be preserved to future generations, the legislative assembly of the province of New Brunswick make a special grant of $25,000 to assist in the erection of a proper and fitting memorial building at the University of New Brunswick.

Rev. Dr. Sharp, of Regina (Sask.), in presenting the matter to the board, explained the resolution and gave valuable information and submitted statistics from other provinces in the dominion as to what is being done by the various provincial governments in furthering higher education. His statement showed this province to be far in the rear. After a very careful consideration the resolution was unanimously endorsed.

DEATH OF MRS. J. W. DOUGETTE

On March 16, Mary, wife of J. Walter Dougette of Knowlesville, died in the city hospital at St. John's, N.B., after seven weeks' illness of cancer of the liver. She was 73 years of age and for many years held a position with a large manufacturing firm in West Upton, Mass., retiring only at the time of her last illness. The remains were brought here by train on Saturday and conveyed to her girlhood home at Knowlesville, where on Sunday afternoon the funeral service was held, Rev. C. A. Bell preaching the sermon.

Mrs. Dougette was a daughter of the late Maurice Hobbs and a sister of the late "Gentle" Hobbs, well known at Knowlesville. She was exceptionally bright and energetic woman and held in high esteem by all who knew her. About 20 years ago she was married to J. Walter Dougette, then of Hartland, and for a time they lived here.

MRS. CHARLES CHASE

A telegram was received today announcing the death in St. John's of Mrs. Charles Chase, aged 78 years. The remains will be brought here and the funeral held at Upper Brighton on Saturday.

Mrs. Chase was born at Hartland, the daughter of William Meyers, and lived nearly the whole of her life here and at Upper Brighton. Her husband died 20 years ago. Of a large family of children there are among the living, George in Lowell and Allison in Ontario, and three daughters, Mrs. Judd McGee of Lower Brighton, Mrs. Alma Routlock and Miss Alforetta of St. John. The late Reed Chase of Hartland was a son.

MAN KILLS WIFE NEAR FOUR FALLS

After Firing Mordacious Shot James Emerson Shoots Himself

Fort Fairfield, Me., March 13--James Emerson, about fifty-eight years of age, a farmer, shot and killed his wife, Victoria, at the home of her son, Cecil Flannery, about five miles out on the East Limestone road, Saturday morning. Death was instantaneous. There were no witnesses of the shooting. Emerson then walked to Goodrich, about two miles, and was found there by Deputy Sheriff L. H. Porter with a self-inflicted bullet wound in his head. He was brought to the hospital and died Saturday night.

Mrs. Emerson was the widow of John Flannery and had two daughters and five sons when she married Emerson four years ago.

The neighbors say that for some time Emerson and his wife had frequent quarrels and had separated at times, but became reconciled as often. It is learned that Emerson bought a revolver about three weeks ago and it is alleged that he had threatened on several occasions to shoot his wife. Emerson outside of his marital troubles, had the reputation of being a hard worker and a quiet and peaceable man.

NEWMAN CLARK HAS NEW TRIAL

The Supreme Court of Canada handed down judgment in the case of the King against Newman Clark, allowing the appeal, setting aside the conviction and ordering a new trial. This case was tried at Andover last December, the defense being insanity, a conviction for murder was made and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The trial judge charged the jury that the burden was upon the accused to establish the fact of insanity to their satisfaction "beyond a reasonable doubt." In so charging he followed the decision of the appeal court of New Brunswick.

Hon. W. P. Jones, K. C., for the accused applied to Mr. Justice Chandler for a reserved case. The trial judge refused to grant this and an appeal was made from his decision to the Supreme Court of the province, which also refused a case. An appeal was then taken to the Supreme Court of Canada. This appeal has been successful.

VICTORIA COUNTY RESIDENTS ROUSED

Are Determined to Fight Grand Falls Power Promoters' for Delay

Grand Falls, N. B., March 14--"You residents of Victoria County should be unanimous in your opposition to any further extension before commencing the development of that great natural water power lying in the bosom of this town and measured by the attendance and enthusiasm present this evening. I feel sure that you endorse the opinion of immediate development." Mr. McMonagle referred briefly to the past manipulations with reference to the power, and said that since all parties were represented on the platform, it would eliminate any suspicion that politics were being indulged in. The patience of the community has been exhausted and today all were united in opposing any further concessions to a foreign corporation having but little or, in fact, no interest in the Province of New Brunswick, and since the progress and prosperity of the County of Victoria depends in no small measure upon harnessing of this tremendous water fall, it was a vital fact in the commercial advancement of the town and people. It was useless for any company to state that they would not develop until sufficient customers were secured to justify a return on the initial outlay. It was like advancing the argument that a man should obtain his customers before opening his store. The speaker was applauded at intervals during the course of his remarks and after further dealings with the question, resumed his seat amid enthusiastic applause.

MRS. ROBERT STEWART

Mrs. Stewart, widow of Robert Stewart, died at the home of her son at Upper Kent on Thursday morning. She was eighty years old on New Year's day and is survived by a son, Thomas Stewart, of Upper Kent, and a daughter, Mrs. Fred Grant, of Washburn, also one step-son, James Stewart, of Kilduff, and a step-daughter, Mrs. Brown of Wapke. Mrs. Stewart came to New Brunswick with Scotch colonists in 1874 and with her husband and family settled on a farm at Linville where she lived for years. She was a practical nurse and was well known about Carleton and Victoria counties.

The funeral was held on Saturday, Rev. Gordon Pringle conducting the services. The pall bearers were Wallace Miller, Joseph Davidson, William Miller and Charles Inman. Interment was made in the Kincardine cemetery.

MRS. MARGARET ROBERTSON

Mrs. Margaret Robertson died at the Fisher Memorial hospital at Woodstock last Monday. Mrs. Robertson with her daughter came from Scotland last summer and on their arrival Miss Robertson was married to Alexander Drumm, of Kincardine. Mrs. Robertson since then has made her home with her daughter. She became ill several weeks ago and was taken to the hospital where it was found an operation was necessary. The operation was successful but she became worse later. Besides her daughter, Mrs. Drumm, she is survived by one brother, Robert Brown, and one sister, Mrs. Banchoy, Woodstock. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Gordon Pringle conducting the service. Interment was made in the Kincardine cemetery.

GOLD WAITING FOR LUCKY FINDER

Quartz Picked Up by George Giberson
Said To Be Better Than Anything Found in the West

(St. John Standard)
New Brunswick has not been without its stories of gold deposits and perhaps the best known of these is the "Giberson Gold," for which several attempts at location have been made since the story first was told. The Standard is indebted to Mr. H. Craig for the following account of the first discovery, and the probable location of the deposit.

Mr. Craig says:
"I am inclined to the belief that the people of New Brunswick, and in fact, many other parts of the continent, would be interested in a true description of the Giberson Gold which was discovered on the Tobique by George Giberson about the year 1846. Many have tried in vain to find the spot, and it is said that men claimed to have found it within the past quarter-century, never went back to it, but the excitement which followed the finding of it resulted in mental derangement and that their days were ended in the Provincial Asylum."

I have the story as related to me by Mr. Andrew Doherty, at Little Falls, Minnesota, in the year 1891, and will here give to the public just as Mr. Doherty gave it to me, and as he said to me then, "if it does not do you any good it may be a benefit to somebody else." Mr. Andrew Doherty for many years lived on a farm at the mouth of Quaker Brook, on the Tobique, about 4 1/2 miles from Perth, and in about the year 1885 moved with his family to Little Falls, Minnesota. In 1891, I also moved to Minnesota, and took a position with the office of the Surveyor General, and it was while located at Little Falls I met Mr. Doherty.

This is his story: "George Giberson had a camp up Armstrong Brook about three quarters of a mile from its mouth. Armstrong Brook empties into River de Chute. He landed his logs at the mouth of Armstrong Brook, at which place he started his drive in the spring of 1846.

When the drive was started it was found that the water fell away and the logs jammed on the first ledge place down the stream which meant that the drive was hung up.
George Giberson then broke camp and with his brother and a man by the name of John Essington of Fredericton, started down the stream in a canoe, and when they arrived at the place where the logs had jammed they pulled the canoe around the jam, and instructed Essington to take the canoe down stream, and they were to meet at the Boat Landing, which is at the mouth of River de Chute. George Giberson and his brother were to walk across the country. If Essington reached the Boat Landing first he was to 'hold the kettle,' and if Giberson reached there first they would have a fire kindled ready for the boiling of the kettle. Essington, however, reached the Boat Landing ahead of the Gibersons, and the Gibersons came along, George threw a piece of

TOO ILL TO GO TO SCHOOL

Mother Tells how Daughter was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Cobourg, Ont.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me for my daughter. She had trouble every month, and was in a weak and nervous condition with weak back and pain in her right side. She had these troubles for three years and frequently was unable to attend school. She has become regular and feels much better since she began taking the Vegetable Compound, and attends school regularly. She is gaining steadily and I have no hesitancy in recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Purifier." Mrs. J. T. Tass, Ball St., Cobourg, Ont.
Standing all day, or sitting in cramped positions, young girls contract deranged conditions, and develop headaches, backache, irregularities, nervousness and bearing-down pains, all of which are symptoms of woman's ill. Every mother who has a daughter suffering from such symptoms should give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

quartz in the canoe, and Essington said: "Where did you get that?" Giberson replied: "Oh, I found it back there under the roots of a cedar tree." They then paddled through to Andover. Giberson then lived on or near the very spot where Police Magistrate N. A. Hansen now resides in Andover. Giberson proceeded by steamboat to St. John to procure money and from his supplies to pay off his men, and was taken down with typhoid fever and died before reaching home.

When George Giberson came down the Tobique bringing the piece of quartz to the attention of his wife, she asked him where he found it, and he replied: "Oh, you would not know if I would tell you," but she insisted on getting some information, which led to search being made some years later. About the year 1860, some parties who had been engaged in mining in Colorado, visited the Giberson home in Andover, and saw the piece of quartz being kicked about the house by the children, made some inquiries about it, and after examining the piece stated that it was better than anything seen in the West. This revelation of the value of the quartz was brought to the attention of Mr. George W. Murphy, late proprietor of the Murphy Hotel in Andover, and Mr. Henry Turner, another prominent resident of Andover at that time, and from that information they could get from Mrs. Giberson as to the location of the find, and their knowledge of the location of the Giberson camp in 1846 set out to find the spot, all the time keeping secret their movements, and being careful to not divulge any of the particulars concerning the information obtained from Mrs. Giberson. They made a diligent search, as they thought, at two or three different times, at intervals of a few months, and each time they failed to become connected with the proper point for investigation, and putting it as Mr. Trueman described it to Mr. Doherty in 1886, they got lost, and when I do so with all respect to both of them, for they were both good woodmen, and must not be forgotten that about 14 or 15 years had elapsed before they made an attempt to search for the gold, and then again in those days the forest of the Tobique was dense and had been little explored.

Mr. Murphy and Mr. Turner finally abandoned their attempt towards further discovery, but kept silent, as to anything they may have discovered which might lead others to make investigation, and all the information remained with them until about 1886 when Mr. Turner left Andover and took up his residence in Little Falls, Minnesota, where he met his old friend and neighbor, Andrew Doherty to whom he imparted what knowledge he had of the location of the Giberson Gold, and in turn Mr. Doherty imparted the information to me in 1891, as before stated.

I may point out that I am a little acquainted with some of the points mentioned. Armstrong Brook as it was known in 1846 to 1860, is now known as Lindsey Brook, and empties into the River de Chute near the intersection of the North and South branches of that stream.

The Boat Landing referred to is about two miles up the main Wapakehegan river from the mouth of Owen Rock Brook, and right at the mouth of Owen Rock Brook a few rods below the mouth of River de Chute and Wapakehegan rivers, on the north side of the stream and is still very plain on the ground.

It is about five miles from Boat Landing to a point on the right-hand side of River de Chute, going up the stream to a place known as Boat Landing, which is also on the right-hand side of the stream going up. This is by the route of the old tote road, which has not been changed, much since the Giberson if me. After getting to Boat Landing, it is about two to two and a half miles to a point on Armstrong Brook, three-quarters of a mile up stream to the point where George Giberson had his camp in 1846. It is thought that the Gibersons took a course straight across country, traversing a hardwood ridge, on their way, because they mentioned crossing a hardwood ridge until they came to the tote road. It is thought, too, that in all probability, George Giberson must have picked up the piece of gold quartz very shortly after leaving Essington at the log jam, because he said that he had found the quartz in a point of rock under the roots of a cedar tree. This point of rock must have belonged to the same ledge which cropped out into the stream and caused the logs to jam.

As the years have gone by, quite a considerable search has been made for this Giberson gold, but the search has been only on the surface. If such a find had been made in the Klondike, California, or some other far off place, the earth would have been torn up in heaps and holes to locate it; but there has never been any real prospecting on the Tobique. The Shaw brothers came here from Snohomish, Wash., a few years ago and located a prospecting camp a few miles up the Wapakehegan, where they remained for a year or two, but it is evident they were not anywhere in the right place.

It may be noted that there is a mountain lying between Armstrong Brook and the head waters of the north branch of the Owen Rock Brook, and I may say that to my mind it looks quite feasible that the Gibersons operated on a tote road, following up the Owen Rock Brook, rather than the roundabout way of the River de Chute, and that in their journey across country they passed to the right of the mountain and to the head waters of Owen Rock on their way to meet Essington at the log jam. All these things must now be taken into consideration in any search which may hereafter be made for the Noted Giberson Gold.

What came near being a serious accident happened Friday afternoon when two boys belonging to Frank Titus and Neil McKinnon were crossing the river on the ice. When little more than half way across the ice broke and young McKinnon went into the water, which at that place was about ten feet deep. With rare presence of mind, Titus caught him and held him until a rope was thrown from the bridge and the two were brought safely to shore. Owing to the continued mild weather the ice is very treacherous and this should be and probably will be a warning for people to keep off and do their travelling by road.

The boys and girls of the Andover-Perth Junior Basket Ball team went to Plaster Rock Friday to play the Plaster Rock team. The games were won by the latter with a score of 7-1 in favor of the girls and 37-10 in favor of the boys. The young folk were accompanied by Miss Helen Scott and Miss Beth Rogers.

THE OBSERVER

HARTLAND, N. B., MARCH 17, 1921

A WORD TO SUBSCRIBERS

Commencing last August the subscription price of The Observer was forced up to $2.00 a year by the high cost of paper and printers. Since then we have, however, continued to accept $1.50 from subscribers who paid strictly in advance, and very many have taken advantage of the opportunity to save half a dollar. This week notices have been sent to every subscriber whose subscription is due, and the $1.50 rate is extended to every one until the end of this month. All who fail to remit before the end of the month must pay $2.00 a year. It will be cheaper and far more satisfactory all round if the subscription is paid before March 31. Please do not mislay your notice and forget about it. It will be useless to come later with the one-fifty if you have received one of the notices sent out this week.

Of course United States subscribers must pay 50 cents a year more than Canadian subscribers as the postage makes the difference. It is imperative that all United States subscribers pay up at once as commencing at the end of the month all such not paid in advance will be removed from the list and all accounts owing will be placed for collection.

A large number of new subscribers have remitted $2.00 for a year's subscription. All such have been credited 16 months.

WINDSOR

Just now the missionary and farmers' meetings are the principal events of Windsor, with an occasional "sing" thrown in.

On March 9, in spite of the rain, almost thirty made their way to C. P. Wasson's to attend the missionary meeting which began at 7.30 p.m. Each member responded to the roll call by repeating a verse of scripture. Our President, Mrs. P. E. Dickinson read the scripture lesson which was followed by a season of prayer. Mrs. Henry Smith presided at the organ. The duet sung by her and Murray London, accompanied by organ and violin, was truly beautiful, as was also the piece sung by Nettie and Cora Smith and Marion Tedford. The readings by Mrs. H. L. Dickinson and Mrs. C. P. Wasson on missionary work were good, but better still was the dialogue by Mrs. P. E. Dickinson and Mrs. Wm. Forrest. Our collection reached the sum of $8. After the usual refreshments we had some old time music. The London Bros., Murray, Ivan and Arnie, each brought their violins and all played. Everybody joined in the singing with a hearty good will. We hope to have many more meetings just as good if not better. Hope to arouse a real missionary spirit both for home and abroad. What would the world have been had there never been a missionary Who can answer? The next meeting will be at H. L. Dickinson's, April 13. Don't forget the date.

The Hamilton Bros. of Esdrasdon are sawing wood for Geo. and Robert Faulkner. They have finished sawing for Bartlett Wasson, Arthur Orser, David McKenzie and Wm. Forrest.

Mrs. S. R. Hatfield and Eva Wasson spent a few days last week with their sisters, Mrs. Earl Dow and Mrs. Elmer Brown in Houlton.

Mrs. Robert Faulkner went to see the eye specialist at Hartland while he was there.

MRS. JOSEPH MCCORMACK

Grand Falls, March 15—The many friends and relatives of Mrs. Joseph McCormack, of Limestone, Me., were greatly shocked to hear of her sudden death on Thursday morning. She was about her household duties as usual when she was taken ill, and died in less than two hours. Both Mr. and Mrs. McCormack formerly lived here, and have a large circle of friends who extend sincere sympathy to Mr. McCormack and family in their sudden bereavement. Mrs. McCormack was a daughter of the late Michael Mulherin, of Grand Falls Portage. She is survived by her husband and five children, her mother, Mrs. Susan Mulherin; one sister, Mrs. Charles McCormack, living here; and two brothers, Patrick and James of Grand Falls Portage. The funeral was held on Saturday morning at Limestone.

TURNING AMHERST

GIRLS ADRIFT

Amherst, March 15—A girl was arrested for walking the streets, but when she explained that she had been turned out of her parents' home because her father had no work and could not support her, quarters were provided for her for the night and later an officer accompanied her to her home to see that she was properly received back. The girl is twenty-four years of age and quite willing to work if she can find employment anywhere. This is only one of similar cases that are happening around town in the present period of hard times. Unable to support their families, parents are forced to turn them adrift.

PERTH

THE EMINENT TORONTO
EYE SPECIALIST

HE LOOKS INTO THE EYE

Headaches

Cases

Here for 11 Days, Commencing
Thurs. Mar. 31, ending Tues. April 12

We have engaged FREDERICK W. MAYOR, the Eminent Eye Specialist of Toronto to teach us the most advanced and positive system of Eye Testing known to science, the LUMINOSCOPY SHADOW TEST SYSTEM. Mr. Mayor is the originator of this distinctive system, whereby the interior of the eye is illuminated and the defect corrected by scientific internal eye measurement, and has proven to hundreds of eye sufferers in New Brunswick that his wonderful LUMINOSCOPY TEST succeeds where many others fail. The more complicated your eye trouble is the greater will be your comfort and satisfaction when tested by this system. Like many other originators he has many imitators, but we know by investigating that we are bringing to Perth the originator of the "Luminoscopy Test," in the person of Mr. Mayor. His students in the Province are the leaders of the profession. We especially ask all to come—those now wearing glasses, or those who suffer from or suspect any trouble. Make an appointment. Consultation, morning, afternoon or evening, by appointment. His success in Fredericton, Woodstock and Hartland proves his ability.

Remember—We are adopting Mr. Mayor's special Luminoscopy Test after careful consideration. It has been our policy to give an absolutely reliable service in optical work, and the addition of the latest model Photometer and the Luminoscopy Test makes our service to you second to none.

Eyes tested free. Guaranteed satisfaction. Glasses only advised when needed. Pious moderate. Children's eyes our specialty. Make this your opportunity. This system eliminates all guesswork and that tiresome trying on of glasses.

Please bear in mind that this is not a money-making scheme. It is purely of an educative nature, a link in the chain of demand for better Opticians from coast to coast. We will benefit by your patronage in the future.

Despite the keenest scrutiny of copy sent in for publication there once in a while get by, in the guise of news, items that should never appear in print. One of these came a few weeks ago from Greenfield. It was not written by a regular correspondent but by the victim of an alleged assault, who, from straight account, got no more than he deserved. Had he been as quick with his fists as he attempted to be with a pen—or his pen—he might not have fared so badly.

How Zam-Buk Saved My Leg!

"For years I could hardly walk," writes Mrs. Jeffrey, of 81, French St., Methuen, Mass. "I was treated by doctors for an ulceration which started in my ankle and extended to the knee. Though sceptical when I read of other legs being healed by Zam-Buk, I gave the balm a trial. Whilst Zam-Buk didn't put my leg right in a day or two, it did ease pain, and inflammation wonderfully. Persistence soon convinced me that, thanks to Zam-Buk, I was at last on the sure road to recovery, and in time the terrible sore thoroughly healed. For three years now, I've had no leg trouble."

In obstinate sores, old wounds and ulcerations where destruction of the tissues has occurred, Zam-Buk displays extraordinary healing power. Sufferers marvel at the way it soothes and stimulates the growth of new healthy tissue. Whereas ordinary ointments simply cover over surface trouble, Zam-Buk healing is permanent for it leaves no trace of disease to break out. Zam-Buk proves equally effective in eczema, ringworm, salt rheum, piles, poisoned sores, abscesses, burns, scalds, etc. All chemists and dealers 50c.

ST. PIERRE ON TRIAL FOR MURDER

Edmundston, N. B., March 8.—William St. Pierre, pale, haggard and nervous in the extreme, was brought before Judge Chandler, president of the circuit court of Madawaska county in session here today. He entered a plea of not guilty to an indictment returned by the grand jury late this afternoon, on the night of October 11. The jury was about one hour and a half arriving at its decision.

When court opened today it was found that four of the grand jurors had failed to put in an appearance, leaving only eight members of the panel present for duty. On motion of the attorney-general, four more men were ordered empanelled by Judge Chandler for the consideration of the case. After being charged by the presiding judge as to the importance of the matter under consideration and their duties pertaining, and when a brief outlining of some of the circumstances in connection with the case given the jury retired to their room. But five witnesses were called before them, it is said, and they returned with a true bill.

A. T. LeBlanc, who is associated with Max Cormier in the defence of the accused, immediately moved that the indictment be quashed. He made the motion on the ground that the jury was not legally constituted. He claimed that the eight men present were sufficient for the finding of a true bill and there had been no default of jurors. The defence argued that the presiding judge had no authority, under the Jury Act, to order four more men to the panel.

The attorney-general argued contra. He considered the order of Judge Chandler was perfectly proper, as there was certainly a default of four men in the law and requirements of the Jury Act in completing the panel of twelve.

Judge Chandler over-ruled the motion. Exception was taken by the defence, but was not allowed at the time by Judge Chandler. Sixty writs have been issued for talismen, from among whom it is expected to secure tomorrow a jury of twelve men without prejudice as to the guilt of innocence of the accused, who can listen to the evidence and return a verdict in accordance therewith.

William St. Pierre will face the jury tomorrow, accused of one of the most fiendish crimes that has ever occurred in this province. From the 12th day of October, when the bruised and mutilated body of Minnie Stevens was taken from the river in this town down to the present day a chain of circumstances has been formed which link the accused, it is alleged, with the case.

Twenty-eight witnesses have been summoned by the Crown and tomorrow they will begin their narrative of events. The attorney-general Byrne is being assisted by Robert Crawford, of St. John, provincial detective, who was employed in securing the evidence.

Edmundston, March 9.—No new facts were brought out here at the second day's trial of William St. Pierre charged with murdering Miss Minnie Stevens. The morning session was occupied with the forming of a jury and the opening of the case of the accused while in the afternoon Herman Savage, chief of police testified as to finding the body. Fred Sirols told of finding the hair switch and hair pins. Dr. Sormany related the condition of the body when found. Moses Mitchell told of finding blood marked pieces of terra cotta pipe and when adjournment was made Eddie Mich-and was on the stand.

Michaud was the man who drove to Iroquois with the prisoner the day of the tragedy. Practically the entire forenoon was taken up with the forming of the jury.

Counsel for the defence frequently conferred with the prisoner and also his father during the process of forming the jury.

Hon. J. P. Byrne opened for the Crown and outlined in a concise and lucid manner the case against the prisoner.

This occupied the balance of the morning session.

The first witness placed on the stand in the afternoon session was Herman J. Savage, chief of police, who recovered the body of the victim from the Madawaska river on October 12. Considerable time was taken in establishing the names of streets and localities that figure in the tragedy. At this stage A. T. LeBlanc of Campbellton, for the defence asked that all crown witnesses be excluded from the court and after argument by counsel the judge ruled that they be excluded.

On direct examination the chief testified much the same as at the preliminary trial. He told of seeing the blood spots at the scene of the tragedy and measures taken to recover the body.

On cross examination he was closely questioned as to how sharp the prongs of the rake used to recover the body were. He said they were blunt. When questioned as to how the body was caught by the rake he said it had caught in the legs but was not sure. He was closely questioned on this point.

He said St. Pierre was at the inquest and had made no resistance to being present.

Edmundston, N. B., March 10.—You told the court and jury that when you met St. Pierre sitting on the fence; he offered you rum and gave you a quarter. When he gave you the quarter did he say anything to you?

"He told me not to tell that he had rum, and not to tell anyone that he was there." Such was the question propounded by Attorney-General Byrne to Charlie McGoon, the stellar witness of the day in the trial of William St. Pierre, charged with the murder of Minnie Stevens on the night of October 11 last, and the answer given by the fourteen year old witness.

It came as a bombshell to the camp of the defense and was the centre around which the defence trained its batteries in an effort to destroy the chain of circumstances which the Crown is building up against the accused.

It was a disquieting day for the defense. Step by step the attorney-general unveiled his chain of evidence connecting the accused and the crime. The day was started with witnesses to prove the identity of clothing removed from the body taken from the river as the clothing worn by Minnie Stevens on the night of her death.

The tracing of the movements of St. Pierre and the murdered girl on that night, the testimony of witnesses who heard the screams, the establishment of the hour at which the screams were heard, the whole to the climax when Charlie McGoon, the little boy upon whom the Crown relies much to prove its case, was brought to the stand to tell his story.

Attorney LeBlanc worked with the might and skill of a keen legal mind to shake the testimony of the boy. The first witness he called was St. Pierre on the night of October 11, about 8.15 o'clock, near the York Drug store on Victoria street. He said that the accused was talking with Alphonse Herbert. He asked him to take a drink and the witness answered that he never drank.

St. Pierre then gave him a quarter and told him to say a good word for him to his sister. Charlie then said he went on to deliver some telegrams which he had. He called at the Windsor Hotel where he spent a few minutes. Coming out he went down Victoria street, along by the Temiscouata railway track to the iron bridge, crossed it and up Church street to a street leading to the office of the Fraser Company. He went up Church street to Emerson Avenue and proceeded out that to the house of a Mr. Belyea, where he delivered another telegram. Continuing out Emerson Avenue he reached a spot opposite the bars in a fence through which a patch leads to the street down to the Power house on Victoria street. As he got there someone said, "Hello McGoon." The witness answered, and crossing the street he passed under the bars of the fence and found St. Pierre sitting on the second section of the fence and under a tree.

He said the accused again offered him a drink, and on his refusing, the witness said St. Pierre pulled a roll of bills from his pocket and wanted him to take them. Charlie refused the offer, but did accept a quarter. It was with the giving of the quarter that St. Pierre told him not to tell of his being there.

It was at this spot where the young witness for the second time that even- ing saw St. Pierre that the Crown claims Minnie Stevens was first brutally attacked and where the first pool of blood and the false teeth were found. Charlie also testified that when he took the quarter he went back to the road to continue with the delivery of telegrams. Reaching the road he turned and looked back. He saw St. Pierre leave his seat on the fence and proceed down the bank to the river. The witness said he turned and went back to watch St. Pierre and saw him go down, look over the water, sit down a few seconds, get up and look over about opposite the school house.

By the testimony of Harry Delaney and a Mr. Fimmamore, employees of the C. N. R., it was shown that they left the York Drug store on Victoria street when McGoon first met the accused that evening at about 8.45 and proceeded up Victoria street. Fimmamore left the party on the east end of the concrete bridge, opposite the Delaney and St. Pierre continued on.

Delaney, who is a train despatcher,

MRS. ALICE GRESHAM DODD, mother of first American soldier killed in France, who gives entire credit for recovery of her health to the well-known medicine, Tanlac.

The following remarkable statement was made recently by Mrs. Alice Gresham Dodd, the mother of Corporal Jas. B. Gresham, who was the first American soldier killed in France. The statement was made at the Gresham Memorial Home, which was presented to her by the patriotic people of Indiana as an evidence of their appreciation of the services rendered to his country by her son.

The shock of her son's death resulted in a serious breakdown in Mrs. Dodd's health, but every one will learn with interest and pleasure that she is now in splendid health again. Mrs. Dodd gives the entire credit for her recovery to the celebrated medicine, Tanlac.

She said: "After my dear boy's death I had a general breakdown in health. At first it was just indigestion. My food would upset me and I had to diet myself very carefully. I also had rheumatism with severe pains in my shoulders, back and arms and at times I would become swollen and stiff. I was hardly able to do but very little about the house and at times could not even cook a meal. I became very nervous and restless and at night would lie awake for hours.

"A friend of mine advised me to try Tanlac. I am glad I did, for it proved to be the best medicine I have ever taken. It soon gave me a splendid appetite and relieved me entirely of indigestion. My rheumatism also disappeared and I am now able to do my house-work with the greatest ease. My nerves are steady and strong. I sleep well at night and my health is better than for years. I shall always be grateful for what Tanlac has done for me."

Tanlac is sold in Hartland by Estey & Curtis Co., Ltd., and by leading druggists everywhere.

said he continued with St. Pierre to the junction of St. Francis and Canada streets. He left him there to proceed out the first named street to his work, which was to start at nine o'clock. St. Pierre, he said, continued out Canada street, going in the direction of Emerson Avenue.

By the testimony of Miss Johnson, a chum of the murdered girl, it was shown they had been together from eight o'clock in the evening until a little before nine, when Miss Stevens left to go to her home.

A witness by the name of Fourtner testified to having seen Miss Stevens at the post office, going in the direction of Emerson Avenue, the street she always used in going to and from her rooming house. On coming out of the post office, he said, he saw Miss Stevens going down Canada street.

He followed down behind her. She went as far as the concrete bridge, turned and retraced her steps, passing him on her way back towards Emerson Avenue. He said he continued on down Victoria street as far as the Fraser store. He spent a few minutes there and then went back over the same course.

When near the Curzon restaurant, he said, he heard screams of a girl. This, he said, was about 9.15 o'clock. He heard only the one cry. Other witnesses, who heard the screams coming from the vicinity of the bars in the fence, where the pool of blood was found were Mr. Curzon, keeper of a restaurant; J. E. Aube, a merchant, and Mr. Burns, who lives in a house across from the bank. The time the screams were heard was placed by these witnesses in the vicinity of 9.15 o'clock. It was about fifteen minutes.

Cause of Early Old Age

The celebrated Dr. Michenoff, an authority on early old age, says that it is "caused by poison generated in the intestine."

When your stomach digests food properly it is absorbed without forming poisonous matter. Poisons bring on early old age and premature death. 15 to 30 drops of "Stomach Syrup" after meals makes your digestion sound.

ST. PIERRE ON

TRIAL FOR MURDER

After later that McGoon saw the accused in the vicinity where the crime is supposed to have been committed. Two mysterious strangers are being mixed into the case. The defense has hinted of the two strangers. One witness who picked up the hat and handkerchief identified as belonging to Miss Stevens on Emerson avenue about one hundred feet from the famous fence at 9:20 in the evening of October 11th, said she met two men hurrying along the road coming from the direction of the fence. The witness was on the sidewalk. The men were unknown to the witness. At the time of the murder much importance was attached to the presence in town that day and night of two men who got out of the place in the early morning following the tragedy. Being in town at the time and their hurried get-away, according to rumor is to play some part in the defense to be put up is taken for granted. Tomorrow the cross-examination of McGoon will be continued after which it is expected Dr. Herbert, to whom the accused made some statements, will take the stand. Nineteen of the twenty-eight witnesses for the crown have been heard.

Edmundston, N. B., March 11.—The fourth day of the trial of William St. Pierre of this town against whom an indictment has been returned charging him with the murder of Minnie Stevens on the night of October 11 last contained some sensations, legal battles and evidence corroborating the testimony of little Charlie McGoon who has proved one of the main witnesses for the crown. The accused appeared in court today as a regular Beau Brummel. He looked as though he had stepped out of a fashion book. He was attired in a swell grey suit of latest style that came in for much discussion before the day had ended.

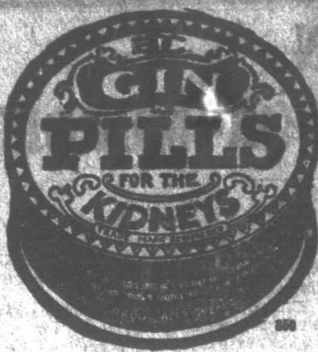

Mr. LeBlanc, who is conducting the examination of witnesses in behalf of the defense, continued his cross-examination of McGoon. He endeavored in every way to shake the story of the youthful witness but failed to make any material change in his story. The lad held steadily to his story of meeting St. Pierre at about 9:20 in the evening of Oct. 11th sitting on the fence where the crime is supposed to have had its beginning and afterwards watching the prisoner go down the river bank, look over the water and then proceed along a path coming out on Church street in the vicinity of the brick school house.

The defense endeavored to make much out of the admission of the witness that he had not told of the fence affair to Mr. Lawson of the crown's forces the first time he was interviewed by Mr. Lawson, but had told on the second interview of the meeting at the fence, of his receiving a quarter from St. Pierre with the request from the accused not to tell of his having run or "that he had seen him there."

Charles said he did not tell the first time because he had been given a quarter not to tell, but after having had a conversation with his father in consequence of the conversation he told the whole story to Mr. Lawson later.

The counsel for the accused endeavored to draw from Charlie an admission of having been informed that $200 awaited the person who could give the right kind of evidence against St. Pierre. He did not succeed. During his long examination of the witness the counsel became peeved at Charlie's replies and got more or less peeved at Detective Crawford and asked the court to stop Crawford from sneering at him. The court said he had not seen any sneering.

Dr. Frederick Herbert a close personal friend of the accused, was the man of the hour today. He keenly felt his position but told a story of conversation with the accused. His story was in part as follows: "Have known the accused all my life. On the night of the dance at the hall, the accused came in a little after 11 o'clock and the first thing he said to me was 'I had a fight in Green River with three or four fellows.' Then he told me he had been covered with blood. I looked at him but could not see any blood on his clothing or face, and told him so. He said he had been home and changed his clothing which had been covered with blood as well as his face.

"Later on he showed me what he said was a spot of blood on the left sleeve of his shirt. I did not pay much attention to it and took his word for it. I met him again on Tuesday night and Wednesday morning. Wednesday morning I went to the shop of the C. N. R. where he was employed. He passed the usual salutation and he immediately broke into the subject of Minnie Stevens' murder and said it was a terrible thing. I said yes, I felt kind of badly about it. He said: 'You do not feel as bad as I do.' I think I asked why. He said it was because his family felt so about it and it was nervous over his actions Monday night.

I asked him to hurry up and prove his actions of that night, or it would be taken up and he might be brought into court. I said, 'all you have to do is to get these fellows from Fort Kent you fought with that night.' He said he did not remember who they were. He said the only man who had been with him was a fellow from Fort Kent but he did not know where to get him. I then asked him what he would say if they questioned him, him to his story told at the dance but don't remember what he said.

I asked him if somebody else had seen him with blood on him as he had told me that he had blood on him. I said, 'if you do not know where you have been and cannot explain your actions what will you say about it?' I did not see any blood on you except on your shirt.' He then said that was not blood but a cigarette burn.

"He said, 'I guess I can fix it up somehow with the others.' I said: 'Do you think they will say it was not blood?' He said there was only one person and I am not sure whether she would say it was blood or not and that is my mother.' I told him we had better hurry up and find out where he had really been and get the matter cleaned up. He said: 'Do you really think they will suspect me of doing this thing?' I said 'I think they will.' He replied 'I might get twenty years or maybe hang.'

Later he came to my office and said: 'What we were talking about yesterday goes. I told him I could say to the truth as I knew it under oath. He said he had told some at the dance that there was blood on him, but that was only to fool his partner, Max Martin.

I said you should not have done that. The next day I met him and told him things were looking bad for him. I said, if you have done this act you had better own up to it and prevent others from perjury themselves; but he said: 'I did not do it.' His cross-examination comes tomorrow.

William Picard and Mrs. Bellmane, cousins, testified to having been walking that evening out Church street. When within twenty-five feet of the brick school house, several times referred to, they met the accused and spoke to him. Both witnesses testified to seeing the bloodstain on his left cheek and that it was quite large. They said it was about 9:25 or 9:30 in the evening. The time testified to by these witnesses corroborates the evidence of Charles McGoon that he saw the accused going along the river path towards the school house at about 9:20 or 9:25. At the time he was passed by the young couple he was wearing a blue suit.

About an hour later they testified to having seen the accused at the dance hall with the blood stains removed from his face and wearing a grey suit of clothes. At the dance hall Mrs. Bellmane said she danced with accused and she asked him about the blood stains on his face when she passed him on Church street. He told her it was the result of a fight he had with some men from Fort Kent.

On cross-examination of Mrs. Bellmane, Mr. LeBlanc put her through a hard course. He referred frequently to her deposition taken at the preliminary hearing, questioning some statements in variance with her testimony today in an effort to discredit her credibility. She clung to the story of today. It was brought out on re-direct examination that Attorney LeBlanc had called on the witness. She said that it was in his presence that the first suggestion was made that the stain on St. Pierre's face might have been iodine.

Mr. LeBlanc jumped to his feet in protest that he had suggested such a thing. The witness didn't claim he had suggested it, but that it had been suggested in his presence.

Mr. Johnson, manager of the dance hall and theatre, testified to the arrival of St. Pierre at the theatre of his wearing a grey suit and of his recital of having had a fight that night with three or four men from Fort Kent.

He asked Johnson if he looked all right to go to the dance. He pushed his hat back and enquired of Johnson if there were any scratches on his face. Johnson said the accused had been drinking and appeared nervous and worked up.

Leon Gagnon also testified to fight story as told to him by St. Pierre. The witness was asked to examine the grey suit the prisoner was wearing today. He did so and said it was similar to the suit St. Pierre wore at the dance only looked better pressed.

The Crown intimates the grey suit of today is a new suit, made of the same pattern of cloth as the suit worn on October 11.

Mr. Bourgoin, bank clerk, testified to having been at the home of W. C. Albert on the evening of October 11 when Charlie McGoon delivered a telegram there. It was 9:25 when Charlie called there. This evidence was to corroborate the time Charlie said he saw St. Pierre at the fence as it is only a short walk from the fence to the Albert home.

There are four more witnesses for the Crown who will probably finish tomorrow.

It is expected the defence will endeavor to set up an alibi and endeavor to account for St. Pierre's movements from 8:45 till 9:40 on the night of October 11.

Beware! Say "California" or you may not get the genuine "California Syrup of Figs" which doctors recommend for babies and children of all ages. Nothing else cleans the little bowels and regulates the child's stomach and liver so gently, so thoroughly. Directions on each bottle. But you must say "California." Don't be talked into an imitation fig syrup which hasn't the delicious, fruity taste or the perfect laxative physic action.

Financial Strength

THE principles upon which a Bank is founded, the number of years it has been in operation, and the policy followed during these years—these features, combined with its present standing, form the criterion of the strength of a Bank.

The Bank of Montreal began business in the year 1817, with a modest capital of $1,250,000, and for over a century it has followed a conservative-aggressive policy until its total assets are in excess of $560,000,000.

"Oh! What A Difference!"

That is what everyone says who comes to our store and hears the pure musical tone of Edison's Amberola Phonograph, after listening to shrill "talking machines" and the metallic sound of ordinary phonographs. That is what you will say when this revelation of pure melody greets your ears. No wonder Edison's Amberola has proved its marked superiority over ordinary phonographs in great public tests.

EDISON'S NEW DIAMOND AMBEROLA

is the world's greatest phonograph value—the "master product of Edison's master mind." Just consider its genuine Diamond Point Reproduction, which forever does away with the bother and expense of changing needles!

And Amberol Records are just as far superior to ordinary records. They are practically indestructible, and give years of enjoyment after ordinary records have broken and been thrown away.

When you consider that you can own Edison's Amberola on practically your own terms you must realize you owe it to yourself and your family to come to our store without delay and let us play the world's best music for you on this wonderful phonograph. Don't delay your visit—come today, tomorrow, as soon as possible—we will expect you. Bring all the family and your friends, too—they will all be welcome.

EAST FLORENCEVILLE

A number of signs of spring are in evidence here in addition to the usual early birds. A few autos have been on the move and the sugar makers are again attacking the maples. It is believed this will be a good sap year.

It is understood that considerable building is in prospect here for the coming summer.

The early decay of the river ice has about closed the crossing at Bristol, Bath and Connell and has had a rather marked effect on the bridge traffic at East Florenceville.

Rev. P. A. Wightman was unable to take his appointment at Bath on Sunday last on account of being unable to cross the river there. His services next Sunday will be at Summerfield, Wicklow and Florenceville.

MIDDLE SIMONDS

On March 10 Mrs. Millard Shaw was greatly surprised to see a number of her neighbors coming in in such a friendly way to spend the afternoon with her, not knowing that everything had been previously arranged before hand by her sister-in-law, Dr. Frank Shaw's wife, for a surprise party on her birthday, and also the birthday of her young son Joseph, for which a few of his school mates had been invited to help him celebrate. Mrs. Elsie Shaw, Mrs. Perry Shaw and little son from Hartland, Mrs. Edward Barnett of Somerville joined the party. Wash Day and Backache

WASH day is the least welcome day of the week in most homes, though sweeping day is not much better. Both days are most trying on the back.

The strain of washing, ironing and sweeping frequently deranges the kidneys. The system is poisoned and backaches, rheumatism, pains in the limbs result.

Kidney action must be aroused—the liver awakened to action and the bowels regulated by such treatment as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. This favorite prescription of the well-known Receipt Book author will not fail you in the hour of need.
