And at 4 a. m. the following morn

And as he left her, all he said,
Was just one measly plain goodbye.

CORRESPONDENCE

Editor The Outlook:

At a pleasing function held last week in the school hall the citizens of Middleton presented by an unanimous vote to continue for another year the prize system. A few observations regarding prize giving may, therefore be in order.

Objections are sometimes taken to prize giving, and I believe some education lists go so far as to condemn it altogether. Others believe it is possible to arrange the terms of the competition so that prize giving may be beneficial. At the same time to retain the beneficial influence of the prize upon the school.

The most common criticism of prize giving is I suppose, that only a few members of the class are benefited and these the ones least in need of being aroused to more activity. That the majority of the class are not influenced, or if influenced at all are discouraged by the contrast in mental gifts exhibited through the competition and that prizes offered on the basis of scholarship alone place too great a premium upon mental attainment to the exclusion of other qualities essential to the best citizenship.

With few exceptions the prizes offered last year were for scholarship alone and in the case of the high school grades were dependent upon the results of the Provincial Examinations. It might perhaps be said that this plan did emphasize what is already over-emphasized in our educational system—namely: the Provincial Examinations.

The prize for the best citizenship offered in last year's list was awarded, I believe, on a broader basis than scholarship. If the exact terms of this competition were published it might be helpful to some who purpose giving prizes this year.

In the conditions of the prizes offered in grade nine mechanic and household science an effort was made to recognize the all round nature of school education as a preparation for the best Canadian citizenship. Fifty per cent of the points were awarded on scholarship and the other fifty depended upon practical work in the bench and in the sewing and cooking room and upon courtesy and kindness on campus and in class room. The latter part of the award was made up partly by the teacher and inspector and partly by a vote of the class.

These few lines are written, Mr. Editor, in the hope of promoting thought upon the question of prize giving through which the generous gifts of our citizens toward this year's list may stimulate the largest possible number of students of the Macdonald School and stimulate them along the broadest educational lines.

Fred E. Cox.

SCHOOL PRIZES DISTRIBUTED

One of the most pleasing functions that has taken place in Macdonald School for some time, was the formal opening last Tuesday evening, when the prizes were distributed for 1924-25. Dr. F. S. Messenger, Chairman of the School Board, presided, and associated with him on the platform, were Rev. W. D. Wilson, Rev. Robt. Milles, and Rev. P. A. Walker. Mr. A. J. Morrison and A. Coldwell, represented the School Board.

The "salute to the flag," led by Jack Doucette, was followed by an invocation and the singing of "O Canada, Canada." Rev. W. D. Wilson spoke on "Co-operation" as between teacher and pupils, parents and children, and parents and teachers.

Rev. Robert M. gave an address on "Early School Training," which was followed by chorus from High School.

Rev. Mr. Walker spoke on "The Value of Prize Giving." Distribution of prizes was as follows:

- Grade I—Lillian Boin, Beverly Starr, Freeman Hatt, Ruth Pitney, Alex. McKenzie.
- Grade II—Lewis Hatt, Allan Boin.
- Grade III—Harold Whitman, Enid Kenney.
- Grade IV—Winifred North, Naomi Arts, Arthur Johnson.
- Grade V—M. Landers, Ula Green, Beatrice Phinney.
- Grade VI—Eunice North, Agatha Dodge, Sydenham Gates.
- Grade VII—George Vye, Constance Greenough, Arthur Cummings, Joy Cox.
- Grade VIII—Marion Shaffner, Una Howard, Margaret Vye.
- Grade IX—Winifred Landers (3), Wilfred Easton (2).
- Grade X—Edith Potter, Gladys Graham.
- Grade XI—Venita Coldwell (3), Dolores Bentley, Arden Cox.
- Grade XII—Adelbert Chipman (2), Bertha Howell (2), Annie Hockin, High School—Best English Essay—Adelbert Chipman; Best Citizenship—Mireva Baker.

Short addresses were given by Mrs. W. G. Parsons, the latter making a motion that prizes be given next year. This was seconded by Mrs. W. H. Starr.

Chorus, "Boon Canada," and the National Anthem closed the exercises. The prizes were remarkably beautiful. The Assembly Hall was filled with interested and delighted spectators.

GOOD PROSPECTS FOR APPLE EXPORTS

Less European Competition for North American Apples in European Markets.

One of the market specialists in the employ of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, thinks the market outlook in Europe for apples from North America in the present season exceedingly promising. The principal European markets are in England and Germany with important secondary markets in the Scandinavian countries. All these countries in normal years are largely supplied from other parts of Europe, but in the present year nearly all European sources of supply are pretty well dried up. Switzerland, one of the principal surplus apple countries of the continent, will not have over a 75 per cent crop, and the Italian Tyrol will not have over a tenth of the apple produced in 1924. Czechoslovakia, which usually supplies the German market, will also have a very light apple crop this year and in all the European countries which produce apples for export, there is almost a total failure this season. Shortage of pears and apples in European countries has, however, been fairly well offset by the expansion that has taken place in Australia's fruit industry. In the Australian season now about closed 2,153,115 boxes of apples from that source, and 200,000 of pears, have been exported to the United Kingdom. But, despite the volume of these exports, prices of Australian fruit have risen higher than usual. Moreover, Australian supplies will be all off the English markets by the time ours really begin to move and people in England will again be hungry for apples.

PAY-DAY

'Twas the night before pay-day
And all through my jeans
I was searching in vain
For the price of some beans.
But nothing was doing,
The milled edge had quit—
Not a copper was showing,
Not even a "fit."
Forward! Turn forward!
Oh time in your flight,
Make it tomorrow just for tonight!

INSURE THE BARN!

The time of the year is approaching when fire in one of its most lamentable forms threatens the farmer. Why barns filled with the season's expensively garnered produce and counting exceedingly valuable machinery should so frequently burn in the autumn is a question to which economists have not yet found a complete answer.

Lightning, natural combustion, smouldering sparks from harvesters' pipes finding vent at last, tank carelessness, are reckoned among occasional causes.

But certain it is that such fires spell ruin in many cases, terrible deprivation in others, national loss in every instance.

Nothing but the most rigid painstaking carelessness, coupled with foresight can guard against such catastrophic and in too many cases humanly finds itself unable to prevent ruinous fire.

But it is always possible for the careful farmer to distribute his possible losses so that their whole weight will not fall upon his own shoulders, by insurance against fire.

With sound companies, the cost of fire insurance for short periods is not heavy and at the sense of security a policy imparts discounts the price considerably.

The national loss remains unhappy, that cannot be guarded against, but the personal loss to the farmer is a danger against which he might well take precautions.

From every point of view fire insurance reveals the prudent man of business which every farmer ought to prove himself to be.—Ez.

COULD ENRICH EASTERN CANADA

In Eastern Canada, 150 million acres of soil are better adapted to tree crops than farm crops. No other region in the world is so accessible by water or rail. It is the opinion of foresters that this region, properly stocked, could supply the markets of the world and assure Eastern Canada of vastly increased prosperity.

NOVA SCOTIA EXHIBIT PLEASES THOUSANDS AT THE EXHIBITION

Exhibits at Toronto Exhibition give Visitors Idea Wonderful Resources and Products From the Province by the Sea.

(The Globe, Toronto)

Calculated to give visitors a more complete idea of the varied resources and extensive development of the "Province by the sea," a Nova Scotia exhibit, fostered by the Nova Scotia Government and embracing booths presented by several of that Province's leading business firms, has been arranged in the Government Building at the Exhibition grounds.

All but surrounded by the sea, and rich in historic lore which stretches back to the time of the Norse rovers, Nova Scotia can well proclaim itself a tourists' paradise. To those who travel by motor, its many fine highways, winding through tracts of scenery which rank with the most beautiful in the world, issue a special appeal. Modern gravel roads lead them to fishing villages of almost medieval quaintness, to seemingly boundless fishing and hunting grounds and to the fabled cultivated "land of Evangeline" in the Annapolis Valley, where a large proportion of Canada's apple crop is now produced. Again, there are all the attractions of the seaside summer resort—golf, tennis, canoeing, yachting, surf-bathing and deep-sea fishing.

Rich Natural Resources

In wealth of natural resources Nova Scotia has been especially favored. Besides a mineral wealth at least equalling that of Northern Ontario, it is nearly surrounded by a sea that abounds in fish. In the number engaged in it, fishing ranks first among the Province's industries, 25,000 people being employed in the business. Cod, lobster, mackerel, haddock, halibut, herring, hake, salmon, sword fish, pollock and smelt are the fish taken out of the Nova Scotia seas, listed in order of their value. The Province's lobster fisheries are the most valuable in the world and are the chief source of supply for Europe. The value of the fresh fish marketed annually by Nova Scotia runs into millions of dollars.

It is Nova Scotia's proud boast that no other Province in Canada nor any State in the United States equals this Province's annual per capita mineral production. Some years ago one-third of the total coal mined in Canada was Nova Scotian, and today only Alberta surpasses the Maritime Province in this regard. Coal is mined on the island of Cape Breton and in the counties of Pictou, Colchester and Cumberland, the number of men employed on the surface and underground in this industry reaching 14,000. The mines have in many instances spread under the sea, but scientists estimate that there are still sixteen billion tons untouched.

Immense Steel Mills

Iron is found at various points in the Province, but the largest steel mills draw mainly upon the Wabana Mines in Newfoundland, the closeness of the coal supply being their reason for locating in Nova Scotia. Gold is mined throughout the Province, and granite, fine specimens of which can be seen at the exhibit, are quarried in the Province, as well as gneiss, limestone and limestone. Nova Scotia attaches great possibilities to its mineral resources, a vast quantity of which have not yet been developed. During 1924 the value of minerals and mineral products mined was $44,034,360.

Good arable farm land abounds throughout the Province. Liberal assistance is given settlers by the Government, and improved land can be secured for as low as twenty-five dollars an acre. Dairying has forged ahead in wonderful fashion during the past few years, and, as to fruit farming, the Annapolis Valley is world-famous. Last year more than two million barrels of apples were grown there. Forestry too, has a place among the Province's industries, 60 per cent. of its area carrying forest growth. Power has been taken from a large number of water courses, and plans are now on foot to harness the tides of the Bay of Fundy. Almost every part of the Province is rich with such cover and natural resources close at hand. Nova Scotia feels itself an attractive place for the investment of capital.

Fish Exhibits Interesting

Visitors to the Government Building have displayed a great deal of interest in the three fish windows in connection with the Nova Scotia exhibit. More than 15 varieties of fish are shown by the Maritime Fish Corporation, and by means of a map, to which every species of fish exhibited is attached by a red string, the sight-seer can see where each is caught. Two huge 25-pound lobsters in the exhibit attract much attention.

The Leonard Fisheries show 30 kinds of deep-sea fish, among which are the very rare sea whiting and blue shark. A spotted leopard fish and a 30-pound sea wolf are highly interesting parts of the collection. The National Fish Company, Ltd., the third exhibitor, has arranged a striking variety of fresh frozen fish as they are caught and as they look when sliced. Sword fish, which is quite edible, but not generally eaten here, is among the fish shown, which include sea salmon and herring.

Many Attractive Exhibits

An especially attractive exhibit has been arranged by the Acadia Sugar Refining Company of Halifax, manufacturer of Royal Acadia Sugar, in its products to which the firm particularly directs the visitor's attention. The exhibit is a well-lighted room, which is claimed, prevents lumping. Stanfield, one of Nova Scotia's chief industries, and an underwear exhibit are the two of which are known over Canada from coast to coast, have their exhibit in "Manufacturers' Row," where many lines of the famous Stanfield unshrinkable underwear for men, women and children are being shown. Features of the Stanfield exhibit are the huge illuminated painting of the underwear mill, and the Guessing contest where visitors to the exhibit are invited to guess "How many pairs of little drawers are in the large glass box displayed in the booth." Those guessing the correct number will receive appropriate prizes.

The British Empire Steel Company has a booth in which it has arranged a number of its many iron and steel products.

O'Leary & Lee of Halifax, large lobster fishers, have a fine exhibit of their named lobsters, which are caught all along the Nova Scotia coast.

"Domolco" molasses is shown to good advantage in a prominent corner booth, decorated in orange and black which colors blend in perfect harmony with rows and rows of Domolco containers. Everybody who enters the building is attracted to this booth by the free distribution of molasses tins. Housewives are given free samples of gingerbread and ginger snaps, all cooked in the booth and given free in order to show the beautiful light color and the full smacking molasses flavor which can only be obtained by using "Domolco" molasses. Thousands of housewives are receiving free cook books which contain hundreds of tried and true recipes. A handsomely decorated booth with very fine water colors by MacAskill of Halifax depicts the beauty spots of the Province well arranged, and a moving section apparatus giving handsome view, including industrial plants, fishing villages and beauty spots, is continually in motion.

The whole exhibit, embracing a frontage of some 300 feet, displays conspicuously and in the past of the exhibitors, and the Department of Natural Resources and Development, under direction of the Hon. J. A. Walker, is to be congratulated on having one of the best collections exhibited at the Exhibition. A very large quantity of literature of a high class is being distributed at the several booths.

O. P. GOUCHER, M. P. SAYS NOVA SCOTIA EXHIBIT AT TORONTO FAIR IS EXCELLENT

"Nova Scotia is getting some very excellent publicity from our exhibit at the Toronto Exhibition," said O. P. Goucher, M. P. P., for Annapolis, to the Herald last evening, on his return here from Toronto, where he was one of the officials of the Manufacturers' Life Assurance Company, attending the formal opening of the magnificent new building of the company in that city.

"The Nova Scotia exhibit is a modest one but the products are well displayed and some real effective work is being accomplished," added Mr. Goucher. "I was much impressed with the display of fish in the exhibit. Mr. Goucher says the new building of the Manufacturers' Life Assurance Company is one of the finest of the kind on the continent. He was accompanied to Toronto by Mrs. J. Goucher and was later joined by his son, Harold, who is now located at Daytona, Florida. Harold motored from Daytona to Toronto and was accompanied as far as Kingston on the return, by Mr. and Mrs. Goucher. Halifax Herald, Sept. 9.

A MOONLIGHT NIGHT IN SOUTH FARMINGTON

A heavy car, making more noise than an ancient Ford, stopped last Saturday morning, about 3 a. m., between two houses in South Farmington. There descended from this chariot, three men and a lady (with reservations). The car waited, while some of the party went through a yard, across an orchard, and made much noise climbing a wire fence. The objective of the raiding party was a widow's hen house, but only four prisoners were bagged. The raiders returned to the car in great excitement, which was increased on finding the one who had been left in charge, was nowhere in sight. A voice was heard asking "Where in H— is he?" It was found that he had gone toward the mill bridge, where he was overtaken. It is hoped they are still travelling toward—

From Canada the fame of Baby's Own Tablets is spreading over the world. Mothers recommend them to other mothers and wherever they are tried nothing but words of praise are heard for these pleasant tasting little tablets that promptly relieve the minor ailments of young children.

"Baby's Own Tablets are one of the best remedies for children's ailments I have ever used," says Mrs. Arthur P. Allen, of Auburn, Me. "My little girl was nervous and could not sleep. I tried the tablets and she was relieved at once. She was also troubled with constipation and nothing seemed to help her. I had used the tablets but a short time before her bowels were regular. All mothers should keep Baby's Own Tablets in the house for they are a valuable remedy."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by all druggists or will be mailed on receipt of price, 25 cents per box, by The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont. A little booklet, "Care of the Baby in Health and Sickness" will be sent free to any mother on request.

Covers were laid for thirty the tables being decorated with cut flowers. At the close of the dinner Colonel Harris proposed the following toasts: "The King," responded to with the National Anthem; and "The Ladies," replied to by Major Gooday.

Colonel Harris extended a hearty welcome to the I.O.D.E. their representative, Mrs. T. H. Buckler, responding; also to the Women's Institute, Mrs. G. F. Freeman, President, and Mrs. W. G. Parsons Secretary, replying on behalf of their society.

"Padre" Carson then spoke most felicitously, after which the "Mess" was thrown open and a banquet was played, while the huge bonfire and corn boll that had been provided for the "private" drew a number of the guests to the scene of action.

The regiment marched out at 10:30 this morning.—Chronicle.

OBITUARY

Patrick Forrester

Mr. Patrick Forrester, at the age of 89 years, passed away at the home of his son, Mr. A. A. Forrester, in Lower Middleton, Saturday, September 9th, 1922.

He suffered a stroke about a fortnight previous to his death, and his departure to the Great Beyond, where pain and grief are no more.

Being well up in his years, the end was not all together unexpected. Through his illness, he bore up with all the patience and fortitude of a firm believer, and during the last hours gradually passed away into a peaceful and everlasting sleep.

Kind and genial, he possessed a great many friends, both old and young, who regret the demise of a man who always had a word of encouragement and pleasant greeting, and regarded every one as he would a brother.

Patrick Forrester was born in East Dalhousie, Kings Co., and was a careful tiller of the soil, which occupation he followed until some twenty years ago. Sixty-four years ago he was married to Miss Ellen Gann, five children were born to them. The surviving ones being: A. A. Forrester, Middleton; Mrs. Jas. Masters, Middleton; and Mrs. Fletcher Beale, Brooklyn.

Twenty five years ago they came to Middleton, and about seven years ago his wife passed away. For nearly fourteen years, deceased, was watchman at A. W. Allen & Son's store. During the last two years his home was with his son, Aloysius.

The funeral service was held at Kingston Roman Catholic Church on Monday, September 11th, with Father Johnstone of Morden, officiating; and interment made in the church cemetery there.

"Tired ah, yes! so tired dear, I shall soonly sleep tonight, With never a dream and never a fear, To wake in the morning light."

ON BEING A HOME-TOWN BOOSTER

Believe in Middleton and the town's future. Believe that Middleton is destined to be a much greater place than it is today. Believe that the great majority of people living in Middleton are an abiding faith in the town's future and in the Middleton of today. It is such faith that has made Middleton and it is this same faith that is going to continue to make Middleton a greater town.

Middleton is already a great place in which to live. If one were to look all around the world, none better could be found. When everything is considered none one honestly can say that any other town is a better place than Middleton.

For this reason, if you have any money to invest, invest it in Middleton. It is safer at home than in any place else. Keep out of the clutches of the city-bred stock salesman who comes a distance and wants your money to invest in an enterprise, the merit of which you know nothing save what is told you by the man or men seeking to "separate you from your coin."

If you have any money to invest, think it over—and then invest in Middleton. Every resident of Middleton ought to be a booster for Middleton and local enterprises. Owning Middleton property will go a long way toward making all citizens a booster for the home town. Build or buy a home—and grow with Middleton, and enjoy to the full the benefits of being a Middleton home owner.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE DOMINANT

At present three-quarter of all the world's letters and postal packets are addressed in English, more than half the newspapers of the world are printed in English, while their circulation is quite three times that of all the periodicals printed in other languages. It is said that the only living language besides English which is growing with any rapidity is Spanish.

WHO IS GOING TO SELL ROGERS' BATTERYLESS RADIO IN MIDDLETON.

A Canadian firm has effected the long awaited development in radio—the elimination of batteries and aerial in the operation of long distance sets. Everyone who has heard about the new Rogers' Batteryless Radio has admitted that it is a marvelous proposition—"if it works"—and IT DOES WORK. In the presence of the Toronto Star Radio reporter this new five-tube, tuned radio-frequency receiver, operating from an ordinary light socket and using no aerial or batteries, tuned in twenty-five stations in a short time.

One of the first factory sets to come through was used in an apartment in Toronto which has a high tension power line at the rear, trolley wires and telephone wires at the front, and electrical machinery in the basement—about every handicap to good operation. The Rogers set was placed beside a set which many regard as the finest set heretofore on the market. The Rogers' set, was simply plugged into an ordinary light socket, with no "A" Battery, with no "B" Battery, with no Aerial, whatever, and every station picked up on the other set was tuned in equally as well on the Rogers' set, and with less disturbance. As the evening wore on and the disturbance faded, even when using only four tubes, on a hot night in August, stations were tuned in all the way from New Orleans to Chicago without any aerial.

The Q. R. S. Music Company of Toronto, who are distributors for this product, are desirous of having it sold in Middleton by one of our better stores, and anyone interested in this might communicate with them. 14x

ROD AND GUN

In Rod and Gun in Canada for September, a new series of British Columbia sporting articles from the pen of A. Bryan Williams commences. This series is entitled "Droopy from the West," and the first part in the new issue promises a number of hunting and outdoor yarns of the first water. It is a more unusual nature for the magazine, Shuffpaw's "First Fishing" by H. R. Evans is a most graphic account of a young bear's first lone season.

In addition to the regular stacc articles covering all phases of hunting, fishing, shooting and outdoor life, September Rod and Gun contains a large number of very good stories adapted to the late summer.

Rod and Gun in Canada is published monthly by W. J. Taylor Limited, Woodstock, Ontario.

DICTATES OF COMMON SENSE

Buying away from home is a habit which usually does nobody any good but the mail order house. Buying at home is a habit which does a world of good to the buyer, the merchant and the home town. Why cultivate a bad habit when it is just as easy to acquire a good one and why continue a bad habit when there is a good habit which can easily be substituted?

Before town stores became so abundantly stocked there was some defense for the mail order concern with their diversified stocks. There was a time when the mail order houses were the only places where the resident of the small town and country could get all their needs supplied. But, today, your hometown stores can furnish all of man's needs and without delays, misunderstandings and uncertainty of satisfaction. Four essentials in buying are quantity, quality, favorable price and quick delivery. Your hometown merchants set the standard in all four of these essentials.

There are men and women who go to any city to buy all or part of their wants. They argue that they can save money and obtain better satisfaction, but brought down to the actual facts they usually admit that buying-out-of-town is only a habit, and an expensive habit at that. They lose the leisurely shopping, the personal service and the realization of responsibility which characterize the local stores.

Motor Cycle and other Peace Officers are instructed that where a violation of the Motor Vehicle Act occurs, they, exercising sound discretion, will proceed as follows:

- (1) Either forthwith arrest the offender and bring him before a Magistrate to answer to the charge or—
- (2) They will allow the offender to go free and then lay an information against him before a Magistrate and save him a summons or warrant, or—
- (3) They will inform the offender that he has the option of paying then and there Ten dollar ($10.00) which is to be forwarded by the Motor Cycle Board for its consideration as to whether or not it will be accepted under section 46, as full satisfaction, release and discharge of all penalties and imprisonment incurred by such offender for such violation.

- (1) Either seize the motor vehicle and arrest the offender and bring him before a Magistrate, or—

A Grateful Letter

FROM A LADY MADE WELL BY DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS

"I wish from my heart I could persuade every person who is run down in health to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial." Thus writes Mrs. Lottie Mitchell, Oak Point, Maine, who further says:—"About a year ago I was a weak woman, suffering from a run down system and impoverished blood. Any little exertion would cause my legs to tremble and my heart to throb violently. I could not sweep a room or walk fifty feet without being exhausted. Then I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and after taking only six boxes I am as well and strong as ever. I can walk and run without stopping every few seconds gasping for breath as previously. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will be my stand-by in the future if ever my blood needs building up again, and I shall always find pleasure in recommending them to anyone needing them."

There are many troubles due to weak, watery blood which can easily be overcome by a fair use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The sole mission of this medicine is to enrich and purify the blood and when that is done all the varied symptoms of anaemia disappear, and good health returns. You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cent a box by writing "The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont."

BOYS AND GIRLS THAT ARE GOING TO SCHOOL THIS YEAR ARE REQUESTED NOT TO READ THIS ARTICLE

When the writer was a boy he did not go to school and therefore did not need any such articles as scribbles, note books, pens, pencils, etc. of any of the numerous articles now in use in our schools and consequently it was not until later years that he had occasion to use these articles; and to discover that there is a great difference in the quality and quantity of articles of this kind that he was able to tell a good article from an inferior one. The writer was in town lately and happened to take a look at the school supplies on display at "The Outlook" and was greatly surprised at the quality of these articles. He was even more surprised, if possible, when he heard of the wonderful prices quoted on them and wondered how they could be sold so reasonable and make good on them. He was informed that the editor had taken advantage of a chance to obtain a real bargain in these goods by purchasing a large quantity of them and passing the bargain on to the school children. They have those unexcelled gold pens, which are famous for their easy and smooth writing qualities and they are selling them at 2c. each or 3 for 5c. They also have a splendid assortment of scribbles for pen or pencil, ruled or plain that cannot be beaten for the price. They are letting these go for 5c. each or 6 for 25c. Then they have those huge scribbles for soap canners in different sizes at 2, 3 and 5 cents which are a big bargain at 8c. and 10c. And talk about pencils! Say, you can find any design or special grade of lead you prefer in their assorted collection. Many of the brands I saw there are retailing for 3c. and 10c. but he has just the one price, 5c. each. They have also a great display of penholders, inks, etc., which would take too much time to explain about. You were told at the beginning of this article not to read this but if you are thinking you need it and you have become interested in the subject, I would earnestly advise you to call at "The Outlook" and see a few of these bargains for yourself and I feel quite sure that you will not be disappointed.

MUSIC IN THE AIR
And, with fall activities comes renewed interest in broadcasting. The radio set which may not have been in regular employment during summer now has secondary job by day, and have you ever recollected the number of times in the works of great poets which can be extracted as quotations, particularly applicable to wireless? For instance, Longfellow has the line:
"And the night shall be filled with music."
Wordsworth conveys a similar idea in the lines:
"An invisible thing, a voice, a mystery."
To Shakespeare, again, we are indebted for the following couplet:
"I do wander everywhere,
Swifter than treble moon's sphere."
And just one more from Keats and "Sit there and send abroad."
The recollection of these beautiful lines will no doubt stimulate listeners to take the fullest advantage of the beautiful music with which the air will be filled during the fall and winter periods.

There are lots of modern girls who must wonder how their noble mothers learned of the things they tell them to shun.

Have your printing done The Outlook way.

Mrs. Laura Brown, who spent a week at the home of her son, Mr. C. B. Brown, returned to her home in Brooklyn—Wolville Acadian, September 10th.
There is no time like the present to get after your fall and winter business. Good follow-up advertising in Halifax and western towns is a trick for you—so why not get busy?

The price for September cream is expected to bring a new high price, ranging between 40 and 45¢ per lb. butter fat. Speaking of price for cream, it might be interesting to our readers to learn that McKensie's Creamery, Middleton paid a higher average price for cream during the last seven months of the year than any other creamery in the province.
Mr. P. H. Reed is making some improvements in his store. The main store is being enlarged about one third. Painting and decorating is being done in the store. Mr. Reed enjoys a splendid patronage. He endeavors to give his patrons the very best possible service, with quality goods, prompt service and regular low-price advertising. The store when reworked will present a much more dignified appearance and will give better display, and permit of more efficient handling and serving of the stock.

Mr. Miller will have charge of the service. Mr. Walker will preach; Mr. Wilson will explain the objects of the service which are twofold. One end the most important is to emphasize the unity of the Christian church; the other is to afford a practical expression of the unity by an appeal for work and the churches have undertaken together, the building and maintenance of a Home for desolate children in the heart of the city. The churches of Middleton are asked to raise eighty dollars towards the furnishing of the Home and this sum will be enough to furnish the dining room. The clergy are appealing for this sum to be given in the offering. The Kingston Orchestra have kindly consented to lead the music. We hope that every resident of Middleton and surrounding country will express their sympathy and help by coming to this service and doing what they can to help this much needed Christian work, the care of destitute women in our province.
