GREAT CONFERENCE SEPTEMBER TO RECONSTRUCT NATIONS' INDUSTRY

Labor, Provincial Premiers, Employers and Parliament Are To Work On Scheme For Co-operation Borden's To Reconstruct Cabinet After Short Vacation.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Ottawa, July 8.—During the first days of September Canadian industry will face a critical period, when there will be a gathering of provincial premiers and ministers to confer with the Federal Government over matters of wide importance. At the same time representative labor men and employers will be called together in a conference to work out, if possible, some scheme along lines suggested by the industrial relations commission, whereby greater co-operation and harmony may be secured in Canadian industry.

Labor's Internal War.
The fight now going on all over the country between the revolutionary element of labor and that section which is willing to co-operate on mutually advantageous lines with the employers, will be over by the time this conference meets, in that every trades and labor council and most of the unions, which will not give up the O. E. I. idea will not be allowed representation at the conference.

Many Will Return.
Through the efforts of Mr. R. A. Rigg it is expected that during the summer many will return to their old allegiance. When the congress is held there will be an opportunity to debate on any conclusions come to by the conference between employers and labor men in Ottawa. The congress lasts three days and the meeting will occur simultaneously with the industrial conference referred to. The desire of labor all over the country to have a say in such important meetings is expected to result in a large attendance. The provincial premiers will also collaborate with the Federal Government so that harmonious legislation will be passed all over Canada.

MINISTERS HOLIDAY.
Ottawa, July 8.—With the close of the session there will be a scattering of ministers. Sir Robert Borden, after clearing up some odds and ends of work, will leave the city for his holiday. Other members of the Government, too, are planning a respite after the long session of the session. It is said that on his return Sir Robert will take up cabinet reconstruction.

Resignation of Hon. T. A. Cregar.
The resignation of Hon. T. A. Cregar left a vacancy at the head of the department of agriculture which has not yet been filled, although, with the appointment of Hon. Hugh Guthrie to the office of Minister of the Interior, the cabinet remains unchanged.

Hon. C. J. Doherty, Minister of Justice, is expected in Ottawa tomorrow night from Paris.

Sifton.
Hon. Arthur Sifton, minister of customs, who, with Mr. Doherty, signed the peace treaty, is expected to return to Ottawa tomorrow night from Paris.

On the Opposition side preparations are under way for the national labor convention in August, when a policy will be laid down for permanent leader, in succession to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, will be chosen.

ALLIES TO AID FINNS IF LATTER DECIDE TO DRIVE ON PETROGRAD

Paris, July 8.—Approval of a plan for a concerted attack upon Petrograd by Finnish troops and the forces of the Kolchak Government at Omsk was given today by the council of five.

A joint note has been sent the military attaches of Great Britain, France, the United States and Italy at Helsinki, instructing them to support the Finnish Government if it decides to accede to the request of Admiral Kolchak to assist him in the campaign.

There is no intention that the allied and associated powers propose to go further at this time in helping Kolchak's plan, but they are supporting the Finns as regarded as equal to assurances that they will assist the Kolchak movement carried through.

REDS QUITTING CAPITAL

Washington, D. C., July 8.—Definite information that the Bolshevik authorities are planning to evacuate Petrograd has been received in official circles here. Decision to quit the capital was said to have been violently opposed by some elements of the Government.

GENERALS TO INQUIRE INTO FIUME'S CLASH

Paris, July 8.—A committee composed of four generals, representing Great Britain, France, Italy and the United States, has been appointed to investigate the recent incidents at Fiume.

The supreme council of the peace conference has also decided to appoint a committee of four members to inquire into Norway's claims to Spitzbergen.

CANADIANS URGED TO FINANCE EUROPE'S RECONSTRUCTION AND SPEED UP EXPORT TRADE

Do Away With Government Credits, Is Advice of Lloyd Harris.

Ottawa, July 8.—Canadian banks and financial interests should now undertake to finance those European countries which have heavy reconstruction problems, and the Canadian public should give whole-hearted support to this new enterprise. This is the message of Lloyd Harris, chairman of the Canadian mission in London, on his departure for England at the close of his six weeks' visit.

"I have had a strenuous time," he said in an interview, "during which I have been more and more convinced that the public requires educating in the tremendous powers of trade with Europe. I am not in favor of granting further Government credits, as these are things which Canada must do away with."

ITALY ADOPTS 'TREAT 'EM ROUGH' METHODS FOR THE PROFITEERS

Prison, Fine and Confiscation For Those Who Speculate In Foodstuffs and Necessities of Life.

London, July 8.—King Victor Emmanuel of Italy has issued a decree that profiteers will in future be fined 10,000 lire or sentenced to from three months to three years in prison, and will in addition suffer confiscation of the goods, according to a Rome dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company. Unauthorized middlemen dealing in food will suffer similar punishment, it is said.

The dispatch states that a general strike was declared in Naples on Monday. After a day of rioting in that city, the police were ordered to reach the centre of the place, but was prevented by the police, who were occupying the principal thoroughfares. At Palermo the police have arrested 400 former convicts, who are alleged to be responsible for many of the disorders on Sunday.

PRICE REDUCTION DECREED.
Florence, Sunday, July 6.—All the business houses of this city were overrun this morning by bargain hunters, who sought to take advantage of the price reduction decreed here. Many stores had completely sold out their stocks before noon. The correspondent visited thickly settled sections of the city today, and saw the violent eagerness of men, women and children seeking to secure eatables, clothing, dry-goods, shoes and chocolate. These articles were sold only on the presentation of a card from the prefect's office, so that only residents of Florence will be able to benefit from the price reduction.

FRANCE AFTER THEM, TOO.
Paris, July 8.—The French Government is considering the problem of the high cost of living, and the cabinet will take up the question at a meeting today.

According to the Echo de Paris the Government is considering the issuance of the decree opening the frontiers immediately for the importation of necessary raw materials. The Figaro says the Government is discussing the prohibition of the exportation of certain foodstuffs, such as butter, eggs and cheese. Other newspapers declare that the Government intends to propose a law inflicting very severe penalties on food speculators.

AGREEMENT TO TRY COUNT IN LONDON VERBAL, BUT BINDS ALL
One Section of British Press Is Opposed To Any Trial.

Paris, July 8.—The agreement reached by the allied council that the trial of Kaiser Wilhelm would be held in London, as announced by Premier Lloyd George in the House of Commons last week, was a fait accompli, learned late today that the agreement was regarded as binding.

What purports to be an authoritative account of the incident in the council upon which the British premier based his statement, has become available from a usually reliable source.

It is said that at a meeting of the council last week the British premier said to his fellow conferees something as follows:

"I suppose you have no objection to the trial of the Kaiser in London?"

The premier looked about the circle, the audience continued, and no one objected. Indeed it is said Premier Clemenceau gave his verbal approval.

The fact agreement was never recorded in writing, and Sir Maurice Hankey, the British secretary, did not include it in his regular report to the council.

SOME OPPOSITION.
Continued today in the British press against the project of trying the former German emperor in London, or trying him at all. Paris dispatches saying that America and Japan are opposed to the trial, and that Italy is lukewarm, appear to have had an effect on sentiment here.

Newspapers such as the Manchester Guardian, the Westminster Gazette and the Daily News, leading the way, taking the same view, that it would tend to make the Kaiser a martyr.

The Germans, prolong the passions of war, and upset the life of London. It is also said that the former emperor's arrival here might cause unpleasant incidents.

The newspapers print numerous discussions by legal experts on the question of the former emperor's extradition from Holland.

The trials of some minor offenders are expected to begin in August. These will include commanders guilty of violations of naval warfare by the operation of submarines, those who ordered the bombardment of open towns, and officers of prison camps who mistreated captives in their charge.

EMBASSIES, LEGATIONS OCCUPIED BY LENINE AT RUSSIAN CAPITAL

Helsingfors, Sunday, July 6.—It is reported that all foreign embassies, legations and consulates in Petrograd have been occupied by Bolshevik troops. The archives have been seized, it is said, and those in charge have been arrested. It is also said that the ordinary commission dealing with charges of espionage against the soviet government.

GREAT LOSS IN TIMBER BY FIRE NEAR CALGARY

Calgary, July 8.—The Porcupine Hills forest fire is now under control, but has destroyed between 15,000 and 18,000,000 feet of lumber. The Ghost River fire, 75 miles west of Calgary, is still spreading, heading east. The Bow River reserve fire is still a mile from the boundary of the Sarcee reserve, 15 miles west of the city. Firefighters are struggling to keep it back. The Clearwater fire is still raging.

BALLOON PILOT'S BODY PICKED UP IN ERIE

Toledo, July 8.—The body of Sergt. Joseph Marquette, pilot of the army observation balloon, which broke from its moorings during the Willard-Dempsey exhibition here last Friday, was washed ashore yesterday two miles from where the craft fell into Lake Erie.

TRANSFERS ON WAY.—Word has been received by the Soldiers' Information Bureau that the Germanis is due to arrive at Halifax on July 13 with 30 officers and 145 other ranks for the district, and that the Minnekada will reach the same port on July 12 with six officers.

HE KILLED THE CAT WHICH ATE CHICKENS
So Pays Fine of $1

Obadiah Cannon Used His Gun For the Slaughter.

This is the story of Obadiah Cannon, 62 East street, who killed the cat that ate the chickens that lived on vacant lots on East street. The cat was owned by Mrs. C. A. Tennant, and was named Tabby.

On July 2, Mrs. Tennant, telling the story to the police magistrate this morning, said she heard a shot. She ran to the door. Cannon was returning over the wall, and Tabby was being killed. Cannon was lying stark and ruffled and dead.

Charged with firing a gun within the city limits, Cannon said that Mrs. Tennant's Tabby killed three of his perfectly good hens, that lay eggs worth in the neighborhood of 40 cents a dozen, and which scratched a living in the vacant lots on the street. Then he got his gun and loaded it and shot the cat. He went on neutral territory to do the killing, the same morning, and was returning home from the East street and the Hamilton road.

Cannon said that he had destroyed her cat herself if Cannon had complained to her about it. Cannon said that he had no right to take the law into his own hands, the magistrate said. Cannon, "I'll fine you $1 and costs."

Bell Telephone Company Has Right To Increase Bills

Dominion Railway Board Granted Permission Some Time Ago.

As the Dominion Railway Board has granted the Bell Telephone Company the right to increase its rates ten per cent, City Clerk S. Baker thought that the increase, which appears on bills just issued by the company was legal, and that no matter how much the citizens might protest they would be compelled to pay it. Regarding a story which appeared in a local paper on Monday to the effect that the city clerk had informed the citizens that they would have to pay it, Mr. Baker said:

"Yesterday a gentleman called me on the telephone and said that his bill had been increased. I thought that an error had been made on it, and advised him to pay under protest, and endeavor to recover the difference afterwards. I don't think of the ten per cent increase at the time. It was on general principles and being the difference between what I advised him to pay and what he was actually paying. I have no objection to his coming here to see me regarding the matter."

He said that he had no objection to his coming here to see me regarding the matter.

SEVERAL MONTHS MORE FOR WAR DRY REGULATION

Order-in-Council Will Be in Force Until the Fall.

COMMONS PROROGUED
War Purchasing Commission Will Be Maintained Under Order-in-Council.

[Canadian Press Dispatch.]

OTTAWA, July 7.—Parliament prorogued at 3:30 this afternoon. There was the old-time formality. The customary triple knocks on the doors of the House, the summons to the chamber of the "honorable the Senate" and the formal closing of the session thereby by the governor-general. The last few hours were occupied chiefly in expressing the gratitude of the House to Canada's military and naval forces.

"For the unflinching courage, steadfastness and skill with which, throughout the war, they served the cause of their country and empire in circumstances of unexampled hardship and for their splendid contribution to the final victory of right and liberty." The resolution was moved by the prime minister, seconded by D. D. McKenzie, leader of the Opposition, and carried unanimously.

Several measures of importance either fell by the wayside or were not pressed by the government.

Prohibition Still in Effect.

Senate amendments to the prohibition bill, introduced by the Senate, and as steadily refused by the Commons, led to its abandonment for the present session.

The purpose of the bill was to continue the term of the prohibition order-in-council in effect for twelve months after the proclamation of peace. It also took into consideration the new situation which has arisen in Quebec as a result of the decision there to permit the sale of beer and light wines. The bill would have permitted the manufacture of beer and light wines in such provinces as permitted their sale. With the dropping of the bill, the status under the prohibition-in-council will be maintained.

Manufacture, manufacture and importation of alcoholic liquors remain forbidden until the order-in-council expires with the war measures act, from which it derives its authority, namely, on the proclamation of peace. The full session for ratification of the peace treaty will, however, be called before the act expires.

Premier's Statement.

In regard to prohibition, Sir Robert Borden said: "Under the circumstances the bill cannot become law during the present session, but another session will probably be held before the order-in-council ceases to be in force."

The full session will probably be called in September or early in October.

Among other bills which failed to pass were: The bill to establish divorce courts; the bill to continue the war purchasing commission in operation; the bill to disfranchise military service defaulters.

Sir Robert Borden, speaking of the bill to continue the war purchasing commission, said they could not be passed during the present session. The war purchasing commission would, however, be maintained until the order-in-council creating it, which would remain in force for the time being.

During the recess suggestions of judges in the various provinces would be obtained in regard to the measure.

Speech From Throne.

In his speech from the throne the governor-general, the Duke of Devonshire, said:

"Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate: Gentlemen of the House of Commons: The peace conference at Paris is approaching the conclusion of its labors, which have already resulted in the acceptance by Germany of the treaty signed at Versailles on the 28th of June last. Terms of peace have been presented to the plenipotentiaries of Austria, and are in course of preparation for presentation to the plenipotentiaries of the other nations with which we have been at war."

"The status of the British dominions at the peace conference was adequately recognized in the place accorded to their representatives in its proceedings. The peace conference was attended by the prime minister and other of my advisers; and the treaty of peace with Germany was signed by two Canadian plenipotentiaries, to whom, in accordance with recent developments in the relations, powers necessary for that purpose were issued by his majesty upon the recommendations of my advisers."

"The effects of the terrible and disastrous conflict in which the world has been involved during the past five years are manifest in the disturbance of normal conditions and the widespread unrest which have been so marked in many countries. While our own Dominion has not been wholly free from these tendencies, we are fortunate in finding them less serious than in many countries."

"It is hoped that the final conclusion of peace will do much to quiet unrest and to lead the people of the world once more into the path of orderly pursuits and peaceful purpose."

Will Hold Conference.

"Having regard to the necessity of avoiding industrial disturbances and with a view to insuring more stable relations and a better understanding between employers and employees, my advisers intend to summon in the early future a representative conference for friendly and intimate discussion of such questions and for the consideration of the report of the industrial relations commission and the proposals therein set forth."

"Almost the entire Canadian expeditionary force has now returned to our shores, and the task of demobilization has proceeded with much greater expedition than was at first believed to be possible. The work of assisting the returned men in vocational training and in settling upon the land has made rapid advance and it is believed that in this respect Canada stands second to no country in the world."

Legislation Is Important.

"The volume of legislation enacted at the present session has been both comprehensive and important. The measures respecting soldiers' settlement, pensional combines and monopolies, technical education, construction and improvement of highways and public health are especially noteworthy. Equally important are the bankruptcy act, the measure authorizing the establishment of a national board for the control of aeronautics and the act providing for dividing the operation of the Canadian National Railways. I trust that these and other important measures which you have considered and approved will be attended with marked advantage to the public interest."

"Gentlemen of the House of Commons: In the name of his majesty, I thank you for the liberal provision you have made for the needs of the public service and for demobilization and for necessary purposes connected with the war."

"Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate: From the terrible struggle in which our country has borne so notable part, Canada emerges with the proud consciousness that in fulfilling her duty to civilization and humanity she has taken a high place among the world's nations."

"The burdens imposed by her effort in the war are serious, but not overwhelming. Indeed, they are insignificant compared with her enormous and varied resources. Endowed with a vast heritage, we face the future with the confidence, firm in our determination to uphold within our borders a great and prosperous nation."

About the same time 30 anarchists were moved by the prime minister, seconded by D. D. McKenzie, leader of the Opposition, and carried unanimously.

The soldiers fired on the anarchists and seized several of them. The others fled.

SIR WM. BAPTIE SHOULD BE SHOT, DECLARES SMART

Quebec General and M. L. A. Repeats Charges and Scores White.

MONTREAL, July 7.—Speaking at Victoria Hall, Westmount, tonight, Brigadier-General C. A. Smart, M.L.A., reviewed the speeches of Sir Thomas White and General Newburn that had been made during the debate in the House of Commons at Ottawa on the Canadian overseas administration and reiterated the charges made by him before the Quebec Legislature last winter. He replied to what he called the "Mean insinuations" made in these speeches and at one point gave the lie direct to General Newburn. Speaking of Sir William Baptie, who had presided over the commission that had sat on the findings of the Bruce commission, General Smart stated that only the social position of Sir William Baptie, his political pull and his Victoria Cross had saved him from a court martial, and added that Sir William should have been shot.

Acting in Bad Faith. He claimed that Sir Thomas White must have been in bad faith in not touching on the British Government's blue book on the Mesopotamia report, since he must have access to it, in looking up Sir William Baptie's record. General Smart made strong attacks upon Sir George Perley, Sir William Turner, General Foster, Sir Edward Kemp and Premier Borden. He urged that a royal commission or an inquiry into the overseas administration be constituted at the earliest moment and reiterated his statement that Sir Arthur Currie had been intrigued against.

$700,000,000 VOTED TO GOVT. THIS SESSION

Senator Bostock Cites Huge Expenditures on Supply Vote.

POWER BILL IS KILLED

The Champions of Municipal Rights Must Go Unappealed.

OTTAWA, July 7.—A supply bill of $700,000,000 was voted by the Senate this morning. Commons' rejection of Senate amendments to the sexual offences bill was read and the Government bill respecting electric and power companies was ruled out of order. The effect of these actions is that the Government gets all the money it has asked Parliament for this session, which Senator Bostock said was over seven hundred millions.

Age Limit the Same. The age of consent remains at sixteen years. The Commons bill proposed to increase the age to eighteen in all cases where the girl had been previously virtuous and the man was over eighteen, and in the case of employer and employee to the age of 21. The amendment of the Senate, which was that where the man was not wholly or chiefly to blame for the offence, the judge might instruct the jury that a verdict to acquit could be found. The answer of the Commons to this amendment was that the question of "comparative culpability" of the persons concerned cannot be considered.

The non-concurrence of the Commons with the Senate on this point has the effect of killing the whole bill for this session and leaving the age of consent as fixed by the criminal code at sixteen years.

Power Bill Killed. The Reid power bill, by which it was designed to give legislative force to that clause of the consolidated railway act which was so amended by the Senate as to be unacceptable to the champions of municipal rights, was declared out of order by Speaker Borden. The bill passed the Commons last week and the Senate this morning. Mr. Speaker declared that the subject matter of the bill having been discussed and voted on during consideration of the railway act, it could not be brought up again during the present session. Speaker's ruling was not questioned by anyone, and so the bill is dead.

WHEN APPETITE FAILS AND HEALTH DECLINES FOLLOW THIS SUGGESTION

Requires Only a Couple of Small Tablets After Meals To Fix You Up Again.

A New Blood-Food Called Ferrozene Sure To Restore You Quickly. Every day comes the good news of a wonderful cure with Ferrozene. In Peterboro it worked marvels for Louis Meehan—put him right on his feet—made him entirely well. "About three years ago," says Mr. Meehan, "I had the grippe which left me in a very rundown condition that finally developed into Dyspepsia. I was unable to eat but a few things and had a craving for acid. I gave up treating with the doctors because they did not help me and on the advice of a friend used Ferrozene. It not only cured me of Dyspepsia and Biliousness, but has built up my strength to what it was before I had the Grippe. I can recommend Ferrozene as an ideal restorative."

Ferozene gives you force, energy, vim. It strengthens the stomach, cures indigestion, prevents headaches—guarantees good health. Thousands use Ferrozene—they all feel better; try it yourself—sold in 50c boxes, six for $2.50, at all dealers, or direct from The Catarrhazone Company, Kingston, Ont.

PERTH ALLIANCE CALLS HEARST'S ELECTION DODGE

Forestalls His Move To Slip In on the Prohibition Referendum.

ELGIN ELECTION SIGNS

Macdiarmid, Fearing Outcome, Starts In on Hand-Shaking Campaign.

[Special to The Advertiser.] STRATFORD, July 7.—Plans for the part which temperance workers of Perth County will take in the forthcoming temperance referendum were discussed at the annual meeting of the Perth Temperance Alliance here today. The attendance was large. T. L. Hamilton of Listowel presided.

The resolutions adopted were as follows: "In view of the fact that certain press reports have brought to our notice the possibility of a provincial political campaign being brought on the same time as the prohibition referendum, we, as the provincial alliance of Perth County, would earnestly urge on the government the importance of the prohibition vote being kept free from any political issue."

Appreciation of the action of the Government in extending the franchise to the women was expressed. The pastors of the various churches were urged to emphasize the importance of the referendum.

An emphatic protest was recorded at the action of the senate in "endeavoring to nullify legislation which expressed the desire of the people." The resolution called for a change in the constitution, making the Senate an elective body.

The financial report showed the association in a strong financial position. The officers elected were: President, T. L. Hamilton, Listowel; first vice-president, Dr. Coupland, St. Mary's; second vice-president, Mrs. Edgcombe, Stratford; third vice-president, Hugh Richmond, Elma; treasurer, S. L. Adolph, Listowel.

HAND-GRABBING DRIVE.

[Special to The Advertiser.] ST. THOMAS, July 7.—Judging by present indications the election campaign of the Tory party for the Provincial House has already opened, at least in the riding of West Elgin. Hon. F. C. Macdiarmid, M.P., for the west riding, since his arrival a few days ago, has spent most of his time—in fact almost all of it—in extending the "glad hand" to all those who were once his supporters. He has spent several hours since his visit here at the local golf course. Other spare moments he has been "investigating" conditions among the farmers in the west riding.

On Saturday he spent some time with the leading supporters of the Tory party here, and it is rumored tonight that he may be listed among the speakers for the Knights of Pythias' festivities tomorrow or Wednesday. The candidate for the Legislature who will lead the Liberals of the west riding of Elgin has not yet been chosen, but from reports received from various sources everything at the present time points to "rough going" for the Tory candidate. In East Elgin matters are much the same, but victory for the Liberal candidate, Wilson H. Mills, is doubly sure in that end of the county. Many East Elgin residents have during the past two years more questioned the Tory party. "Who is the Tory member for that riding?" His name is Andrew W. Brown, and he has been in the riding since he was elected. He is again to contest the riding. Judging by information received from this district there is little doubt as to the outcome.

FOUR WINNIPEG STRIKE LEADERS WILL COME HERE

Seeking Funds in Eastern Canada To Defend Their Trial.

TORONTO, July 7.—Four of the most prominent leaders in the recent Winnipeg strike arrived in Toronto at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. The party consisted of Aldermen Queen and A. A. Heaps, R. E. Bray and T. H. Duane, the latter two being returned soldiers. The four who are out on bail, say they will inaugurate a crusade on behalf of the five men now under arrest in Winnipeg, to secure for them a trial by jury. When interviewed immediately following their arrival, Alderman Heaps said: "We arrived from Winnipeg to put before the people of Toronto the true condition as they existed in Winnipeg during the strike and as they now exist. We are demanding for the men now held under the time-honored act a fair trial by jury. While here, we will solicit funds to carry on the defence of all the accused."

To Tour the East. Aid. Queen stated they would tour all Eastern Canada, the first point on their itinerary after Toronto being Hamilton, from whence they will proceed to London. "It is our intention," said Ald. Queen, "to circulate a monster petition on behalf of the five men now under arrest in Winnipeg, to secure for them a trial by jury. Conditions in Winnipeg and throughout the West," said R. E. Bray, "are very unsettled, and I may say that they will never settle down again. One of the chief causes of this is the bitter discrimination being manifested by the employers. There are at least fifty of us who are permanently blacklisted and cannot secure employment in Winnipeg for love or money. In fact it is doubtful if we could secure work anywhere once our name is mentioned. I don't think any of the West will ever settle down again to its former condition. In Calgary they had as even more exciting time than we did in Winnipeg, although theirs was of shorter duration. There were several clashes between the cowboys and the R. N. W. M. Police, in which the latter were roughly handled."

All four were immediately rushed from the station to the labor temple, where they were met by a meeting of the machinists which was in session at the time of their arrival. Arrangements are being made by H. L. Lewis, editor of the Ontario Labor News, to secure a permit to hold a mass meeting in Queen's Park tomorrow evening. In addition to any open air meeting that may be arranged, the visitors will be asked to speak at the various meetings at the labor temple. The reception committee which met the Winnipeg men consisted of R. C. Brown, John Munro, president of the machinists' union; H. Lewis, John Macdonald, Jan, organizer of the A. S. of E., James Lowe and W. Queen, a brother of the visiting alderman. The visitors said that they presence here had been permitted by special arrangement made with the authorities, who were not ready to proceed with the men's cases yet. Immediately the prosecution will have completed its case, the four men will be recalled to stand their trial.

Pool For Springbank Now Seems Reality

The utilities commission has taken up the idea of providing at least one public swimming pool for the city of London and at the next meeting General Manager E. V. Buchanan will have plans prepared for the inspection of the commissioners. These plans will provide for a large-sized pool at the Byron end of Springbank Park to be filled from the sulphur spring near the bridge across the Thames. It is probable that the commission will undertake the construction of the pool and the building required for dressing-rooms.

Mr. Buchanan is an enthusiast for the public swimming pool, and has in mind that the commission later on will provide a second pool at Thames Park. He also believes that the places should be constructed with the idea of making them attractive and, above all things, thoroughly sanitary. He believes that if a shack is provided it will not long remain in good repute, but that if proper equipment is provided the public will take a real interest in their natatorium and show a pride in assisting to render it attractive. Many American cities have gone in for public pools, notably St. Louis, and these places have been made self-sustaining and a substitute for the "old swimmin' hole" that saves the lives of youthful bathers, and makes swimmers of all the youngsters in a community.

Each year the River Thames claims a number of child lives and if only one life is saved, the work of placing pools about the city will be justified. Some day the playground movement in London may be liberally endowed by a wealthy citizen, and the utilities commission will win good opinion if its members give the movement an impetus. Most citizens are glad to see children enjoying themselves under safe supervision. Outdoor sport is the greatest factor in the development of high standards, mental and physical, and the construction of the bathing pavilion at Springbank should be appreciated by all classes.

Don't Worry Profiteers Essence of This Report

Must you have meat with your mustard?
Can't you sop it up with your bread?

So ran the topical song in the comic opera and the high cost of living commission has caught the refrain in its late burlesque and asked the people in effect why they dare buy the choicer cuts of meat when they might feed themselves on chuck roast, boiled beef's head and other delicacies that cost only what steaks and real delicacies cost in the good old days.

The consumer has been found guilty. The butcher, the baker, the candlestick maker and the men who build mills for the glory of Old Nick and the shareholders have been given not only a coat of kalsomine that makes them shine like alabaster sepulchres, but they have been provided with wings fresh from the laundry and handed the halo that is the V. C. among the profiteers. The motto on this decoration is said to be "You have done your country good." It is simple and poetic and full of truth. They have not only done their own country good, but their benefactions have been extended to the whole world.

The only thing that remains to be done is to order the consumer to appear in court on penalty of imprisonment and consider himself lucky if he is charged up with the investigation and made to pay expert witness fees to the ill-treated profiteers who were asked to reveal their philanthropy. Complaining consumers and all those who sniff or sneer should be accused of an indictable offence and given imprisonment, the jury to be chosen from among those who have been "investigated." Anyone who expressed mild indignation over the 50 per cent profits made in one year by a cold storage company with which Sir Robert Borden is connected should be accused of lese majeste and confined in the tower of the Parliament Buildings. Instead of being long-suffering and patient, the consumer is an irritable, cross-grained, unreasonable "grouser," and his theories that high profits had something to do with the high cost of living are Bolshevistic or closely akin to it. Like Nebuchadnezzar the consumer should be directed to go out into the fields and partake of the grass, which grows abundantly and is not yet in the hands of the combines.

Or he has one other alternative. Failing to find the fodder in the fields more than sufficient to feed the beef cattle for the packing companies, he can take such advice as the H. C. of L. commission gives in the following sentence:

"In the final analysis, the solution of the whole problem rests in a willingness on the part of all the Canadian people to seize and make use of the splendid opportunities before them."

This is the result, in a nutshell, of the weeks of toil and investigation into conditions surrounding the handling of staple articles and foodstuffs. The evidence of high profits ranging from 50 to 300 per cent, the fact that per pound profits were estimated after a liberal allowance had been made for many purposes, and the fact that foodstuffs were in the hands of a practical monopoly, these things have not weighed with the committee. Liberals there are on this committee who should register a minority report immediately or should hang their heads in shame, Liberals whose records of fair dealing will not stand the test of acquies-

PECCAVI

My head hangs low today, in shame,
To think that I'm the one to blame;
I did not know before that I
Had made the cost of living high.
But now there's no doubt in my mind
That I, and others of my kind,
In vulgar haste to spend our roll,
Have put the whole world in this hole.
We cannot hold the profiteers
Responsible for full five years
Of scant and costly food and clothes.
'Tis we who brought about these woes,
Because we did not buy the necks
Of beavers and sheep, which we might flex,
And render fit to masticate.
If we had boiled them, six to eight
Long hours, over high-priced grass,
And served them hot with chopped-up grass.
Oh! we consumers ought to blush,
And to the darkest corners rush.
Could we not plead we'd none to tell
That we were doing far from well.
And point to our debased condition:
Till Borden named his Big Commission.

THE OSTRICHETTE
By Will T. Ames.

"Honest to goodness, Edie, isn't she the funniest tramp you ever saw outside of vaudeville?"
"She's all of that, Mame. All the duds she's got on, counting them things on her feet, wouldn't bring a dudgeon time in a rummage sale. You'd better Benson dug her up. Bet he found her living in a tree somewhere."
"Hear! Hear! Don't hit her at all. She's an ostrichette."
The two girls behind the soda fountain counter at Benson's had given much of their first Monday morning to a critical inspection of back to the kitchen for the perfect parlor, who was also to help at the fountain.

"Bet you Benson hired her to break her in on Jeff's job!" And the girls giggled joyously. Jeff was the drug store roustabout, a negro, who Benson had hired Julia Weeks.
The reason was that long ago, before old John Weeks went to keeping for Island Lighthouse he and Benson had been friends, and when old John, in his last hours, wrote for the ice cream, asking him to give his daughter an ordinary chance to make good.

But Benson didn't usually explain things like that to his employees. The girl told nothing about herself. So it was only known that Julia Weeks was a big, brown-eyed Ralph Matthews, the chief dispenser. "An awful mess," her clothes might have been thrown to her out of somebody's second story. She knew nothing at all about doing her lady-colored hair. Her eyes were a pallid blue and her eyebrows scant. Apparently she had never heard of such a thing as a powder puff. Her color and skin showed the marks of the weather and too much sun.

Worse still, she was reaching up toward a shelf, walked with the stumbling gait of a workman, and dropped at least one dish out for every six she handled. She couldn't remember more than one order at a time and frequently got that one wrong.

She spoke Pumpkinville English, and Mame Kennedy declared she didn't know there had been a war. With all there was a queer deersiveness about her.

Matthews' first assistant, who stood the opposite trick as head dispenser in Ralph's old hours, was a fresh, slangy little fellow named Bartuso.
From Ralph, Julia accepted admonitions, rebukes, satire, actual scoldings with a submissiveness that was pathetic. From the girls she took the thoughtless cruelties of their kind with bovine indifference; from Bartuso she would stand nothing at all.

On the fourth day the assistant dispenser, finding Julia alone in the cream room, made some unkindly hounding remark. By way of rejoinder Julia punched him on the nose and smacked him five times across the face with the table cloth. After that she was let rather severely alone.
Slowly Julia lost much of her clumsiness, but it was nearly three months before she began to show that she possessed the primary feminine attribute. Then one day Ralph noticed her standing before one of the cream room mirrors trying to fluff out the hair over her ears with her fingers. Within the week Edie exclaimed under her smiling smile: "For Gawd sake, see what's got on silk socks and Louie Quince heels!"

It was even so. The curly ring of Julia had begun. In another month the very ugly duckling had become a crowning glory of startling design. Julia had most successfully standardized herself.

"What's the Lady Giant's game, Mame?" Edie wondered's game, remarked. "She's dolling something fierce. But when it comes to the men, she's something trapped and put away in the cooler—wouldn't give one of them a glad look on a bet!"
"Search me, kiddo. Nebie she's got the movie bug. Some of 'em are like that."

Now Ralph Matthews was not only big, but he was fresh colored and good looking and cool headed and capable and had a winning smile. A head dispenser like that, with a bunch of girls on the counter with him, is most unlikely to escape being the object of rivalry.

Mame Kennedy, however, acknowledged no rival. She named Ralph for her own. And with all her feminine perspicacity she never even thought of Julia as sharing her aspirations, for Julia never talked to Ralph except on business. Yet it was for Ralph, and Ralph only, that the savvy waitress was putting her transformation into a butterfly. She humbly, utterly adored the big dispenser.

It was just after the opening hour. Jeff hadn't showed up and two of the soda tanks in the basement needed to be replaced. Ralph had gone down to do it himself.

The girls were furnishing up the fountain, counter and tables. Suddenly the building trembled. A rending, metallic roar came from below. White-faced, the clerks and the few customers stammered at each other in momentary speechlessness while Edie screamed long and loud. There was a crash of dropped glasses as Mame Kennedy and Julia, with one thought, sprang for the door leading down stairs. Julia had three times her rival's distance to go. When she reached the foot of the stairs it was to find Mame, pale as a ghost, leaning against the door casing.

"Oh, oh!" she cried, as she turned back to the stairs from the imperfect tank had cut clean through the artery, and that whoever got that tourniquet working did so in the very nick of time.

When the tank exploded Ralph didn't lose consciousness at once. Not till after he heard Mame's ejaculation. Afterward Dr. Emery told him about the tourniquet. So when the dispenser returned after his recovery, he didn't receive Mame's effusive greeting as enthusiastically as she had anticipated. And soon something happened that set the store agog. It was on Ralph's shift day and Julia's afternoon off.

"What's that?" he demanded. Jimmy, the errand boy, of Mame Kennedy as he raced breathlessly into the store. "Mame's got a victrola. Heed going into the Imperial Picture Theatre together!"

"You're a liar!" angrily exclaimed Miss Kennedy.
"But Jimmy wasn't a liar—not that time, anyway."

He also must be thinking as he never thought before. Had he in his time of majesty saved and thought more and said less, the greatest upheaval in the world's history might have been avoided, and millions of other war victims been living contentedly today in their big and little spheres.

THERE WAS NO LOCAL TROUBLE.
[Vancouver Sun.]

It will be news to the people of Vancouver to learn that the strike here "is not of a sympathetic nature, but a stand to protect the principles of organized labor." But is this the announcement of one of the strike leaders, it is presumably intended to be taken at its face value. What principles of organized labor were threatened in this city? So far as the public has ever been informed, there was no local trouble of any kind. In its beginning the movement here was avowedly as a help to those who are out in Winnipeg, all this doesn't constitute a sympathetic strike, what does?

WHEN LAWYERS STRIKE.
[London Daily News.]

Lawyers, as well as policemen, have been known to strike. Some years ago the barristers practicing in Sierra Leone were so dissatisfied with the judge who was acting as substitute for the chief justice while the latter was on leave, that they unanimously elected to give up pleading before him. Legal business in the colony was, therefore, at a standstill until the chief justice returned. France, too, affords an instance of a legal strike. One of the judges at St. Armand accused the local lawyers of deliberately promoting disputes in order to fill their pockets with fees. Thereupon all the lawyers in court departed in a body, declaring that they would not return until this insulting statement had been withdrawn. Eventually the judge apologized, and the lawyers resumed practice.

LIGHTEN YOUR WASHDAY LABOR

Comfort and convenience count on washday, perhaps more than on any other day of the week. Anything that will lighten the work is doubly welcome then.

EDDY'S INDURATED FIBREWARE

are labor lighteners. They save time and strength. Incidentally they cost no more.

Eddy's Fibre wash-tubs are easy to lift and easy to carry. They keep the water hot a long time because they do not radiate heat as galvanized iron or tin will do. They cannot leak, because they are made in one piece, without joint or seam. And the cost is actually less because they will outlast several of the old-fashioned kinds of wash-tubs.

Eddy's Twin Beaver Washboards save time by the special crimp which loosens the dirt easily. A washing surface on each side gives them double the efficiency of the ordinary washboard.

When you buy matches look for the name "Eddy" on the box. A kind for every purpose.

TELL IT TO THE SOCIETY EDITOR.

Mrs. James Armstrong is among the London guests at the Hotel Sunset, Godwin, this week.

Mrs. H. W. Givins and three children of Regina, formerly of this city, are spending the summer holidays here.

Miss Matta Tuckey of Komoka is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. H. Smith, Harrington avenue, while attending the piano recital given by Miss E. J. Irvine, this city.

Col. and Mrs. W. G. Coles are now established in their beautiful new home, "The Beeches," London, South. No more opportune time could have been chosen to go there, as the beautiful old English gardens, replete with sweet william and climbing roses are at their best, and the zigzag beeches, circling the house, lead to the searing heat of the rest of the city.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place Saturday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. Cochran, 120 King street, to Miss Maud Storey, daughter of this city by Rev. Mr. Leichter. The bride was attended by Miss May Scott and Mr. Wansley, supported the groom.

After the ceremony, a luncheon was served at the home of the bride. The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts.

On Saturday evening a large party of relatives and friends assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Cochran, 120 King street, to bid good-bye to Mrs. M. Mann, who leaves shortly for an extended visit to England. Supper was served to the large number of guests present. An interesting part of the evening was the presentation to Mrs. Mann of a camera and pearl lavalier and a gold brooch. The present was handed to Mrs. Mann by George Cochran, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Cochran.

The bride was charming in a simple gown of white georgette. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her only attendant was Miss Charlotte Horne, who was dressed in pink net and tulle and wore a large Leghorn hat, trimmed with pink ostrich.

The bridegroom was attended by Ralph R. Barnard. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Humphries, 114 Hogarth avenue, where they will visit the parents of Mr. Humphries. Upon their return they will make their home at 143 Laxton avenue.

Among the guests at the wedding was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Charles Tilly of London, Ont.

SALEM W. I.
The Salem branch of the Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Roy Porteous, Mrs. W. D. Thompson and Mrs. Lyne acting as assisting hostesses. There were twenty-three members and a great many visitors present. Mrs. George Taylor gave a splendid report of the meeting of the W. C. T. U. hall on June 19th, and Mrs. Bell was responsible for an excellent paper. Mrs. Arthur Weaver and Mrs. George Taylor were appointed to visit the Children's Shelter and find out its needs, in order that the Salem branch may help with this work. The question of helping to supply the needs of the General and Marine Hospital was also discussed. A collection taken to buy flowers for the sick amounted to $2.06. The Institute in conjunction with Salem Epworth League and Sunday School will hold a picnic shortly, on a date to be chosen by the league, at the home of Mr. Edwin Abaza. A vote of thanks was given the committee that prepared the program for the year, and then a delicious tea was served on the lawn. Victrola music helped to enliven the proceedings and the meeting was a very helpful one.

CAYUGA W. I.
The members of the Women's Institute of Cayuga feel justly elated by the commendation they have received from the Government on their efforts to hold a clinic on July 8. They are to be supplied with a government nurse, who will take full charge and thus greatly relieve the members of responsibility. Five other nurses will be in attendance to assist the surgeon, Dr. Arroll, of Hamilton, and the assisting local practitioners.

A meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. E. Pissette to prepare surgical dressings, which work will be completed at the home of Mrs. E. S. Baxter on Monday evening, under the supervision of the government nurse, who will then be in attendance. At ready thirty-one applications for treatment have been received, seventeen of those being from Cayuga town.

BEEKEEPING SUITED TO WOMEN SPECIALLY

Economic Asset To Any Enterprising Person.

"Economy," said Sir Edmund Walker recently, "is a sort of the art. It is the difference between the savage who represents wastefulness and the cultivated man who should abhor all forms of waste." This is one cogent argument, at least for the keeping of bees—the mobilization of the thousands of tons of nectar going to waste all over the country each year, nectar that by the marvelous activity of the bee can be converted into honey. Bee-keeping is numbered among the outdoor activities that is peculiarly suited to women. It does not absorb one's whole time or attention. It can be started economically, and it grows steadily from small beginnings. That there are great opportunities in Canada for this meagrely-developed industry goes without saying. British imports of honey alone are valued at $200,000 a year, and the supplies come chiefly from the West Indies, Chile, Peru and the United States. Canadian exports of honey for the fiscal year ending March, 1918, amounted to $8,409 pounds, representing a monetary value of $23,012. The honey went chiefly to Italy and France.

Of New Importance.
During the period of sugar shortage in 1918, honey assumed new importance as a foodstuff, and it is altogether likely that it will be used more extensively in years to come as a result of its new-found popularity as a substitute for sugar. In the United States impetus has been given to the industry by the formation of two large co-operative societies for the better marketing of honey. Last year the revenue from bee-keeping in the States was about three times that of any year previous to the outbreak of the war. During the last half of the year alone, honey to the value of $2,000,000 was exported.

Recreation and Profit.
Colonies of bees in the orchard, garden or backyard afford great pleasure as well as profit. They are not only valuable as producers, but they offer recreation, and are most beneficial in cross-pollinating flowers and plants. No other industry requires as little care and attention as bee-keeping. Wherever fruit grows, bees thrive, and Ontario and British Columbia are singularly well endowed for the development of this industry. It is estimated that at present there are some 8,000 beekeepers in Ontario, and that about 2,000 tons of honey are produced annually. In 1918, 225 tons of honey were produced in British Columbia, an increase over the 1917 production of 65 tons—constituting the biggest yield in the history of the province. There are 12 colonies of bees at the largest apiary in British Columbia, and in 1918 they produced 3,000 pounds of honey, worth $2,250, while the total capital invested probably did not exceed $1,500.

Women Beekeepers.
There are at least 125 women beekeepers in the Pacific Provinces. In Ontario, Quebec and the other provinces women are also engaged in this industry, and it is well known that at least a dozen women in Ontario add from $300 to $400 a year to the family income by running between 50 and 70 colonies of bees.

Bee culture need not necessarily be a side line. In some instances an experienced beekeeper can make a good living by devoting his entire time and attention to the work. It is usually

THE SENSATION OF OHIO RACE MEETINGS

Milverton Man's Noted Pacer

Appears at Cleveland

This Week.

BY BERT B. PERRY.

The triumph progress of Trampquick, 2:07 1/2, the great list owner by Reeve W. H. Grosch of Milverton, through the Ohio circuit recalls the sensational work of The Eel with Dan McEwen, when the famous Grey Ghost carried all before him the first time he went down the Grand Circuit. In the past three weeks Trampquick has won three big stake events in Ohio, having to beat some of the best pacers in the States. In his recent victory of Youngstown, he went six heats before he finally captured the event, splendid proof of his gameness and staying powers. His other victories were at Marion and Akron.

W. H. Grosch, reeve of Milverton, Ont., and one of the leading horsemen in this part of the country.

Trampquick, Mr. Grosch has another likely looking pacer in Eldon Todd, Randall track in Cleveland, when the Grand Circuit opens there.

Mr. Grosch is one of the leading horsemen of Western Ontario. He has several other prospects that he has decided to lay over until next season, among them Eldon Todd, 2:12 1/2; Widower Peter, 2:14 1/2; and Gilbert Patch, 2:06 1/2.

Both Trampquick and Eldon Todd are entered in the $3,000 stakes at Springfield, Illinois, July 10, 11 and 12.

Hamline, Minn., and Milwaukee, Wis., will also start this week at the North Randall track in Cleveland, when the Grand Circuit opens there.

Nothing could be sounder than a business based on Canada's timber supply. When that business has over 40 years of prosperity behind it, expansion is doubly justified.

WALL STREET.

New York, July 8.—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—An uncertain tone attended the opening session of today's stock market. Several of the more prominent speculative issues reacted fractionally, strength in other quarters. Stutz of the investment group, which Motors rose 6 and reacted 3, but rally in the afternoon. Heavy buying of Pan-American Petroleum and Next Petroleum at 2 to 3 points gain strengthened the list before the end of the first hour.

1:30 p.m.—Reactions of 1 to 3 points, due mainly to the higher money rates, set in by noon, when the trading fell away considerably. The reversal was soon largely overcome, however, as vigorous rally in oils, steels, equipments and coppers, investment rails also hardening.

Can You Save Money?

The big majority of the continent's great railroad kings rose from obscurity. Name them—Hill, Strathcona, Shaughnessy, Van Horne, Mackenzie, Mann, etc. They knew how to save money—and did not count the amount too small to deposit. They most likely did not enjoy the advantages now offered you—but they could save money—and succeeded.

Can you save money? We offer you 3½% compound interest on deposits as small as one dollar. We also help you place your money in non-speculative investments.

Consult us, we want your account.

Answers to Health Questions

Q. C. Q.—What do you advise for piles?
A.—Apply a little of the following to the affected parts:
Sulphur loti 2½ drams
Balsam Peru ½ dram
Camphor ½ dram
Green soap 1 dram
Lanolin 1 ounce
Vaseline 1 ounce

MRS. P. Q.—What do you advise for a gout?
A.—There are various kinds of gout. Some require a very optimistic outlook as they require an operation which is the only cure. They are seldom inherited, and their cause is not known.

M. E. M. Q.—What do you think is best for relieving rheumatism?
A.—Bathe the feet in formalin—one-half teaspoonful to a pint of water. Bathe them each night in warm water, wear non-leather shoes and thin hose. Change the latter every morning.

To-morrow's HOROSCOPE

By Genevieve Kemble
WEDNESDAY, JULY 9.

The stellar testimonies for this day do not warrant a very optimistic outlook as the important planets wield an adverse influence. A powerful and menacing position of Uranus warns against movements, change or traveling, as all the stars are under the government of this ultra-physical planet. Now that the stars may prophesy of journeys to other worlds, it is a warning that perils via airplanes. Transits of Saturn in the realm of domestic or affectional matters, being particularly adverse. Physically, there is a possibility of headaches, congested kidneys, and other such ailments, and a threat of colds and coughs.

On Doctor's Advice.
Sir Almoth E. Wright, an English army surgeon, was the first to suggest this great value of citrate of soda and citrate of soda. He had extended the use of this salt, after he had learned of its value in the treatment of citrate of soda to soften the calcium and citric acid in cow's milk for infants and to settle.

"Why Madge Regretted Her 'Tilt' With Allen Drake.
"I decidedly. I raised my eyes to his and tried to get into them eager curiosity and interest.
"All right, I promise. Go ahead." The thin lips of Allen Drake smiled now, infusing eyes and voice.
"Does an exaggerated ego hurt one physically, or does one get used to it after a year from Allen Drake's as I could manage.
"But I was something with inward rage, a secret anger, a mental rebellion, and ability compelling my reluctant admiration was treating me in exactly the same manner as I was treating a schoolgirl. I wondered whether he had guessed that such treatment was the surest method of arousing my resentment, and hoped that he might be lazily amused by a display of temper on my part.
"His womanish lashes shadowed his eyes again as I spoke, and he looked out through the window at the vast, indolent apparition.
"I really must differ with you," he drawled. "You would not be so fair, fairly representative member of the profession, judging from the average pluckitude of our species."
An inquiry.
"I was determined not to betray any weakness, and I was determined to win by one other course open to me. I seized it with an inward sneer at myself.
"I am sorry not to measure up to the standard," I said, demurely dropping my eyes.
Mr. Drake leaned back in his chair and grinned sardonically.
"Now you're fishing," he said didactically, "and I'm not going even to nibble."
I leaned back in my own chair and put my finger-tips together judiciously.
"I have a question to ask you, a question truthfully," I asked with my most deferential manner.
"What is it?" he asked, but my face showed only eager interest.
"About my work?"
"Personal?" I fancied there was a hint of gratified vanity in his tone.

Stubborn.
Sammy Muskrat was perfectly disgusted, for he had to get back home and build his new dock.
"Petter trembled with fright, and the Snow Shoe Rabbits whispered to Sammy Muskrat, and all around the two big rabbits pounced on Petter and tried him a struggling and clawing to the little boat and away out to the reef so well, of course, he would swim back, and they all waited to see him and to praise him for his fine swimming.
But no one knew what Sammy Muskrat had to do with it or why he stopped building his dock and swam out to the reef.
Everybody could see little Petter shake his head many times. Jimmy Coon and Teddy Possum were worried for they wanted to see little Petter safe on shore before they went off after the other fresh eggs for Mr. Red Fox; for they knew Mr. Red Fox would wait very long for them.
One of the Snow Shoe Rabbits said: "Now, Petter, you must start to swim. We will go on each side of you and you will be perfectly safe." Petter only shook his head and trembled. Then the other Snow Shoe Rabbits tried to persuade him to swim and he again shook his head.

SOLDIER-PRISONERS WILL HAVE CITIZENS APPEAL FOR THEM
Deputation Will See Minister of Justice in Effort To Let Vets Out For Peace Day.

Representation both by letter and by Mayor C. R. Somerville and a deputation personally will be made to the minister of justice at Ottawa for the release of the returned soldiers in the local jail who wish to celebrate on July 19 the peace for which they endured wounds and months of hardship.

J. Bridgen, a returned soldier, who said that he did not belong to any organization, addressed the city council on the matter on Monday evening. He stated that he was instrumental in bringing about this decision. He suggested that the city solicitor be asked to act on the matter. However, as the council and a deputation are going to Ottawa on other business, it was thought that they could bring action quicker.

In addressing the council, Mr. Bridgen declared that the men were all serving for minor offences. As a result, he said, the city was almost brought to disgrace by the Toronto papers. The returned soldiers did not want to be Bolsheviks, but they thought that something should be done for these men who had fought and won victories.

MAJESTIC THEATRE
SHOWS SCREEN PLAY
"CITY OF COMRADES"
Tom Moore Filmed As Captain in Canadian Army Centered on Halifax Disaster.

A man may go very far down—but never completely out. This fact is vividly brought out with strong contrasts in life's ups and downs by Tom Moore as Frank Melbury in "The City of Comrades," shown yesterday, and continuing today at the Majestic Theatre.

Frank Melbury, derelict, has a valet in the devoted "Lovey," who follows him along the gutters until events change the lives of both and the "master" tramp finally ends at the top of the road a hero, who loves and is loved and an officer in the Canadian army.

On the upgrade, Tom Moore, as the hero, evades in the Canadian forces and is sent to Halifax, attended by the faithful valet, "Lovey." In the terrible disaster which cuts short Frank Melbury's plans, both are buried beneath the ruins of a wrecked building. The young officer proves his devotion in return for his valet's by rescuing "Lovey" at the risk of his own life. Incidental winning the love of a charming woman, whose part is taken by Seena Owen.

Harold Lloyd in a Keystone comedy adds fun to the program.

Joseph Martell last night sang two excellent numbers which were enthusiastically received. Prior to the appearance of the singer the Majestic orchestra played "Post and Peasant," which concluded a well-balanced program, artistic, amusing and intensely interesting.

"THE LION'S DEN"
DELIGHTFUL FEATURE
AT GRAND THEATRE
Films and Helen Marie Staples
Complete Most Pleasing Attraction.

Everywhere that it has been shown the Y. M. C. A. has endorsed "The Lion's Den" as a picture which every boy should see. And it truly justified its recommendation when it was seen last night at the Grand Theatre. Not only is it a picture full of rollicking fun, but it points to a moral that Christianity should not be reserved for Sundays, but rather make its evidence every day and in every phase of life such a way that it is truly convincing. Bert Loyal, who stars in this picture, is admirably fitted for the part, and it has said that it is his greatest production.

Written by Frederick Orin Bartlett, the story ran through the Saturday Evening Post some time ago, and is a great attention. The picture is shown on week days to carry on a grocery business, this winning money with man in town to his way of thinking, and also marrying his daughter.

An exceptionally fine singer, Helen Marie Staples, known as "The Prima," is also at the Grand Theatre. Her voice is moderately high and sweet. Her repertoire is full of songs. The repeated encores with which her numbers were met in themselves spoke for her. It is rumored that she is shortly to join the American Society of Singers, New York. Her numbers last night were "You've Got Me So," "Just a-Wearying Time," "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles" and "I'll Wait For You."

The same excellent program will be presented three times today and three times on Wednesday.

DUSTIN FARNUM IN "LIGHT OF WESTERN STARS" AT PATRICIA
Feature Film and Vaudeville
Showing Today and Tomorrow.

Dustin Farnum in "The Light of Western Stars," showing at the Patricia Theatre today and tomorrow, is unsurpassed in its work, and Zane Grey, the author of this "man's story," has provided a part which Farnum alone can play to advantage.

From the very start when Gene Stewart made a wild wager that he will marry the first girl that comes into the little western town, the action of the picture speeds with breathless swiftness through gripping situations and tense suspense, heightened by the fascinating development of the love story and reaching a startling climax in Majesty's wild hundred-mile ride to save Gene from a Mexican firing squad.

The picture strikes an intelligent as well as popular appeal and is sure to please all classes of patrons; a masterly production remarkable for its happy delineation of characters, its fine exterior and scenic effects and the high quality of its photography. The Great West has never been more impressively filmed.

In addition to the above feature film, Nellie's Naughty Boarder, a Lo Ko comedy film, is on the program, and a class vaudeville act, Grant and Sister, novelty entertainers, concludes this excellent bill at the Patricia today and tomorrow.

DO AWAY WITH INDIGESTION
How to Purify a Sour, Distressed Stomach in a Few Minutes.

Let us talk plain English; let us call a spade a spade.

Your food ferments and your stomach isn't strong enough to digest the food you put into it, so the food sours and forms poisonous gases, and when it does leave your stomach it has not furnished proper nourishment to the blood, and has left the stomach in a filthy condition.

Take M-t-o-n-a stomach tablets if you want to change your filthy stomach to a healthy, clean, purified one.

If M-t-o-n-a fails to relieve your indigestion, rid you of dizziness, biliousness and sick headache, your dealer will cheerfully refund your money.

If you want to make your stomach so strong that it will digest a hearty meal without distress, and you want to be without that drowsy, all tired out feeling, take M-t-o-n-a; it should give you prompt relief. For sale by all leading druggists.

Dustin Farnum in "The Light of Western Stars," showing at the Patricia Theatre today and tomorrow, is unsurpassed in its work, and Zane Grey, the author of this "man's story," has provided a part which Farnum alone can play to advantage.

From the very start when Gene Stewart made a wild wager that he will marry the first girl that comes into the little western town, the action of the picture speeds with breathless swiftness through gripping situations and tense suspense, heightened by the fascinating development of the love story and reaching a startling climax in Majesty's wild hundred-mile ride to save Gene from a Mexican firing squad.

The picture strikes an intelligent as well as popular appeal and is sure to please all classes of patrons; a masterly production remarkable for its happy delineation of characters, its fine exterior and scenic effects and the high quality of its photography. The Great West has never been more impressively filmed.

In addition to the above feature film, Nellie's Naughty Boarder, a Lo Ko comedy film, is on the program, and a class vaudeville act, Grant and Sister, novelty entertainers, concludes this excellent bill at the Patricia today and tomorrow.

DO AWAY WITH INDIGESTION
How to Purify a Sour, Distressed Stomach in a Few Minutes.

Let us talk plain English; let us call a spade a spade.

Your food ferments and your stomach isn't strong enough to digest the food you put into it, so the food sours and forms poisonous gases, and when it does leave your stomach it has not furnished proper nourishment to the blood, and has left the stomach in a filthy condition.

Take M-t-o-n-a stomach tablets if you want to change your filthy stomach to a healthy, clean, purified one.

If M-t-o-n-a fails to relieve your indigestion, rid you of dizziness, biliousness and sick headache, your dealer will cheerfully refund your money.

If you want to make your stomach so strong that it will digest a hearty meal without distress, and you want to be without that drowsy, all tired out feeling, take M-t-o-n-a; it should give you prompt relief. For sale by all leading druggists.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS
SESSIONS OF GRAND
ONTARIO LODGE OPEN
ST. THOMAS, July 7.—Early tomorrow morning Mayor Horton and other members of the city council will make the official presentation of the city's key to a monster gathering of Knights of Pythias, who are already arriving here tonight in large numbers to attend the sessions of the Grand Lodge of Ontario, which open here tomorrow. The affair is being conducted by Rathbone Lodge, No. 12, and a royal entertainment has been provided for the visiting grand lodge officers, who are expected from all parts of Canada and the United States.

Tomorrow morning the convention will open as soon as the civic ceremonies have been completed, and in the afternoon the visiting Pythians, with their local brothers, will make merry at Port Stanley, where a banquet is already in course of preparation for them. In the evening a special performance will be given at the Star Theatre.

On Wednesday at 12:30 a banquet will be tendered to Charles Davies, supreme chancellor, and Harry Wade, president of the insurance department, at the local Y. M. C. A. by the board of trade. Both are well known in the financial world, and the board of trade is anxious to have a good attendance of members.

Many of the visiting delegates are motoring here. The grand lodge officers arrived here this afternoon from Ottawa. Others from the Middle and Western provinces, including Colorado and Denver, are expected here tonight.

The convention is to be one of the biggest grand lodge in this city, and great preparations have been made for the event.

TROOPS DISPERSED AT EASTERN POINT ARRIVE IN LONDON
A party of 29 soldiers who crossed the Atlantic on the S. S. Mauretania and were dispersed at an eastern point, arrived in London last night at 9:03 o'clock, via the Grand Trunk. The party included seven Londoners and three soldiers with no address. Of the remaining members, two were St. Thomas men, seven were for Windsor, three for Caledonia, and seven were en route to Chicago.

The out-of-town soldiers of the party left for their respective homes last night, and as they were discharged before reaching London, the military authorities of this district did not deal with their demobilization on arrival here.
