THIRTY-THREE HORSES LOST IN A BAD FIRE

Fire at Bow Park Farm Last Night Believed to Have Been Work of a Fire Fiend--Estimated Loss $50,000 -- Will Make Investigation.

Thirty-three horses and six head of cattle perished in a disastrous fire believed to be of incendiary origin, at Bow Park farm early this morning. The fire makes the second of its kind suffered by the management within a few months. The last one peculiarly happened on a Saturday morning a few months ago, and heavy loss was occasioned.

Besides the horses and cattle, valuable seeding and farm machinery, as well as a hay and stock, were destroyed, and the total loss is estimated to be around $50,000, according to Manager Otto Herrold's estimate. The fire was discovered at 3 o'clock this morning, when the entire farm seemed gone. The start and nothing could be done at that stage to stop it. In fact it was so far advanced that an attempt could not be made to remove any of the horses. There appeared to be danger of other buildings catching fire, and all the manager and his staff could do was nothing except direct their efforts to preventing further loss.

An investigation has been launched, the services of County Constable Kerr being called in this morning. The fire was complete, nothing being left of the building but charred ruins. The following are the insurance companies involved for various amounts, which total $124,000: Palatine, Yorkshire, Fidelity-Phoenix, Northern, Millers and Manufacturers Alliance, Scottish Union and National, North British, North America, L. L. and G. Queen, British America, General Sun, Canadian, Liverpool-Manitoba, British Crown, Employers Liability, Acadia, Economic, Queen City, British North Western, Phoenix of Hartford, Hand-in-Hand, St. Paul, Commercial Union.

MISSIONS WERE THE THEME OF ADDRESSES

Toronto Men Speak At Colborne St. Church Last Evening.

Extension of Work is Urgently Called for at Present Time.

But seldom are heard in this city such splendid appeals for the cause of missions as were made at the Brantford district annual missionary banquet held last evening in the parlors of Colborne St. Methodist Church. Rev. J. H. Arnup, B. S. Field Secretary of the Foreign Missionary Department, and Mr. J. Gandy, both of Toronto, were the speakers. These young men in their addresses, demonstrated a wonderful faith in the cause of missions. Their audience listened with intense interest. In the main the appeal was for the increasing of the contributions to missions. Of course, these young men were most zealous, but it was not intended to convey that the people were carried completely off their feet. This district already gives largely to the cause of missions.

The banquet, at which in the neighborhood of 275 sat down to a church, the Ladies Aid of the church, it proved to be no mean contribution to the cause of helping body and soul together. The decorations were of a splendid character. There was a profusion of carnations on each table. Stretching across the room were red and white streamers, and distributed tastefully were red bells. A banner bearing the words, "The world for Christ," was stretched across just at the rear of the table of honor.

Rev. Lavell, chairman of the district, presided. The program was opened by singing "Onward Christian Soldiers," followed by prayer led by Rev. Brandon. The chairman, in his opening remarks, said that the gathering together was for the purpose of emphasizing the fact that the world was for Christ. The Brantford district was only one district of one denomination. The Christianizing of the world would have to be done by the units working together. Last year the members of the Methodist

SCENES IN MAZATLAN, NOW THREATENED BY MEXICAN REBELS

MAZATLAN, THE HARBOR. CONSTITUTIONAL TROOPS ON WAY TO TAKE CULIACAN. CATHEDRAL IN MAZATLAN.

Latest reports say there is no confirmation as yet of reports from Mexico City that Guaymas has been evacuated and Mazatlan captured by federalists, but it is considered not improbable. Two constitutionalist columns have penetrated into the territory of Tepic, south of Mazatlan, and now threaten Guadalajara and other important points in Jalisco. It is not unreasonable to believe that the forces at Guaymas and Mazatlan have been ordered to concentrate farther south to oppose the constitutionalist advance, since no god is served by remaining longer in isolated sea ports which are closely beleaguered.

IMPORTATION OF ARMS IS NOW STRICTLY FORBIDDEN IN IRELAND

Only Effects of Proclamation, Say Ulsterites, Will be That There Will be More Fun Gun-running--Already 80,000 Serviceable Rifles and Millions of Rounds of Ammunition Are in the Province.

LONDON, Dec. 6.—An official proclamation prohibiting the importation of arms into Ireland was announced yesterday. It is intended to prevent the arming of Ulster volunteers, who have been organizing to fight an Irish government on the establishment of Parliament at Dublin. The universal comment among Ulsterites and other Unionists is the quotation of the proverb about locking the stable door after the horse is stolen. An official of the Orange headquarters in Belfast said: "There are already more than 80,000 serviceable rifles in Ulster, and millions of rounds of ammunition. We have even some pieces of artillery, not very powerful, but heavy enough to put up a good fight."

ULSTER ALL EXCITED NOW

Government's Action Rouses Up Strong Feeling in Province.

BELFAST, Ireland, Dec. 6.—The greatest excitement has been created among the rank and file of the Ulster Unionists by the Royal proclamation prohibiting the importation of arms and ammunition into Ireland. During the night large quantities of rifles, bayonets and unitions of war were moved from Belfast to country towns in automobiles, for fear the government authorities might put the Irish crimes act into force and seize the war stores already collected. The customs authorities made their first seizure under the terms of the proclamation this morning, when they detained 89 cases of ammunition and eight cases of rifles and bayonets.

WANNIPEG, Dec. 6.—Although three days have elapsed since the Bank of Montreal at Plum Coulee was robbed and Manager Arnold killed, the desperadoes who perpetrated the crime have not yet been apprehended. The belief persists that the men are hiding in Winnipeg or vicinity and the search for Jack Krafcenko, suspected by the police is kept up. Officers of the morality department turned out at two this morning and searched the resorts in Transcona, but found nothing. Krafcenko has many friends in the city who it is believed would conceal his presence. Another rumor is to the effect that two men answering to the description of the suspects were seen in Ste. Cloud.

HON. MR. HANNA MADE VERY FINE IMPRESSION

He Discussed Prison Reform Work in a Very Convincing Way--Splendid Event Under Auspices of Business Men's Club at Y. M. C. A.

The visit of Hon. Mr. Hanna, Provincial Secretary, to the city yesterday was an event of unequalled success. He delighted everyone and seemed to be most pleased with his reception. The occasion was of an entirely non-political nature, as he came here on the invitation of the Business Men's Club of the Y.M.C.A. to give an address at their opening luncheon.

Mr. Hanna arrived on the 4.35 Grand Trunk train from Toronto, and was met by Mr. W. S. Brewster, M.P.P. and others, and driven by Mr. A. Watts in his car on a visit to the Ontario School for the Blind, where Principal Gardiner received him, and thence to the Brant Sanitarium. In both instances he made an inspection. Afterwards he was taken through the factory district. At night he was given a great reception in the banquet hall of the new Y. M. C. A. There was a large attendance, made up of political adherents of both sides and quite representative of all classes in the city. Mr. C. Parker occupied the chair in a most acceptable manner, and at the head table he had to his right and left the guest of the evening, Mr. W. F. Cockshutt, M.P., Mr. W. S. Brewster, M.P.P., Rev. Mr. Rose, Mr. T. H. Preston, and Mr. R. D. Reville. The tables were prettily decorated, and after grace, pronounced by Rev. Mr. Rose, a splendid spread was daintily served.

The chairman called upon Mr. Hanna in most felicitous terms, and upon rising, the Provincial Secretary received an ovation. He announced that his subject would be "Prison Reform," and as he is a pioneer in that matter, and a very capable exponent of the subject, those two factors allied with an exceptional gift of oratory, led to an address most interesting and attractive alike. He commenced with a burst of humor. "It is usual," he said, as he arose, "to say how pleased I am to be present. That would not be right as I am feeling very uncomfortable. How can I be otherwise after such a meal. Anyhow, I may pass the discomfort on to you," he added amidst laughter. It was pleasant to be present at the Y. M. C. A. If he did not know many very well personally, he had often heard of Dr. Stanley. "He was a great friend of my grandfather's." He had come to say a few words about the penal institutes of the Dominion, and particularly about those of Ontario. It was in 1910 when the subject was first brought forward and discussed in the Ontario House.

A committee was formed for the purpose of putting itself in touch with the methods of outside penal institutions. A report was printed and so well was it circulated that it had run into the third edition of 5,000. Enquiries had come from Australia as the result of that report. The outcome was the foundation in 1909 of the prison farm at Guelph. Many acres were offered for the site of the farm and these were brought down to nine. Men of experience were consulted, and they advised a farm near Guelph, with an area of 800 acres or thereabouts. They had been asked what class of prisoners they had at Guelph. The only classification was with regard to sentence. In this regard, he might point out that prisoners of the Central prison were those sentenced from six months to two years and that the more desperate went to Kingston.

SLAYER STILL ESCAPES LAW

Man Who Killed Bank Manager Has Got Away.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 6.—Although three days have elapsed since the Bank of Montreal at Plum Coulee was robbed and Manager Arnold killed, the desperadoes who perpetrated the crime have not yet been apprehended. The belief persists that the men are hiding in Winnipeg or vicinity and the search for Jack Krafcenko, suspected by the police is kept up. Officers of the morality department turned out at two this morning and searched the resorts in Transcona, but found nothing. Krafcenko has many friends in the city who it is believed would conceal his presence. Another rumor is to the effect that two men answering to the description of the suspects were seen in Ste. Cloud.

Girl Had Heart On Wrong Side

LONDON, Dec. 6.—A puzzling problem of abnormality in a girl who insisted on doing everything backward, among other things writing from right to left, has been solved by Birmingham physicians. An examination by the X-rays has revealed the fact that her heart is on the right side and some of her other organs, including the brain, are also displaced. The case excited renewed interest in that of the boy who saw things upside down and wrote in that fashion. The latter came to light about two weeks ago.

Grand Valley Is Ordered Into Court At Once

The Grand Valley Railway appeals have all been placed on the peremptory list for Monday at Osgoode Hall. This is in consequence of the efforts made by counsel on behalf of the city to get the appeals heard and determined. Counsel for the Railway Company has been delaying matters and will be called upon Monday to show why he should not go on, or else have his appeals dismissed.

WOMEN ATTENDED

CALGARY, Dec. 6.—Five hundred women last night attended a meeting which was addressed by the candidates for aldermen. Every aspirant was subjected to vigorous heckling. Following the oratorical display, the women electors endorsed fifteen candidates. One of the big issues is the perpetuation and encouragement of a public market in which the women are to be interested.

First St. Nichol's Girl A Big Hearted Man

The St. Nicholas Girls' Club, launched by this paper, is certain to render valuable assistance to Santa Claus on Christmas Eve, and will make scores of poor kiddies happy, and make their own Christmas more joyous. Early yesterday morning Mr. John Richards, 115 Spring street, walked into the Courier office and threw down a bill, saying: "Give this to the Courier's St. Nicholas Girl." He was told that every member of the St. Nicholas Girls' Club will have the pleasure of personally making a gift to some poor child on Christmas Eve, and the money was refunded to him. He was enrolled as a member—the first member of the St. Nicholas Girls' Club. During the day many persons telephoned to this office to the effect that they desired to help in the good work and to have their names enrolled. All that is necessary to do to become a member of the club is to say "that you will put something in some poor child's stocking on Christmas Eve." As soon as you do this your name goes down on the Courier's honor roll. Little girls and boys who have toys that they are tired of can join and plan to make some other little girl or boy happy.

The Coming of Christmas

It is difficult to realize that Christmas' things will soon ring out again, as nearer and nearer they come to refresh and rejuvenate this old world again. November's grey, bleak days changed into the atmosphere and sunshine of the merry month of May. Have made time pass with astonishing rapidity, like the motto of the telegraph, "Quicker than the wings of lightning"; so much there is to make time fly. The whole world brought to our doors daily, illustrated in paper, in magazine, the earth girdled by the wonderful inventions of men. As we take up our daily paper, what an amount of work it means for the men at the helm, whose lives are an every-day grind; but as some one has said, "Are the daily recorders and interpreters of life." And life's high-way like a film, flashes the crowds again marching on to Christmas. The picture shows, the home-comers, the joys of the fireside, the presents heaped up, the toddler with the toys, the debutante radiant with joy, and the great artist has given us the picture, full of life and joy.

Rose Lorenz.

To distribute the catalogues at one of the big art galleries in New York, a bright-eyed, sweet voiced, small girl was engaged. To-day that catalogue girl is one of the important figures in the art world. She has had a part in the buying and selling of more art treasures probably than any other woman that ever lived. She is Rose Lorenz. Her career affords a remarkable example of what a woman, who earnestly applies herself to a subject can accomplish.

Art appealed to the little girl at the helm, whose lives are an every-day grind; but as some one has said, "Are the daily recorders and interpreters of life." And life's high-way like a film, flashes the crowds again marching on to Christmas. The picture shows, the home-comers, the joys of the fireside, the presents heaped up, the toddler with the toys, the debutante radiant with joy, and doesn't know her personally or by reputation. It is doubtful, however, if her name has appeared in print before this day.

Love yourself as you do your neighbor and see how far you'll get.

The more birthdays a woman has celebrated, the easier it is for her to forget in what year she was born.

Lord Hedley, who has become a Mohammedan, will be known as Sarfurahmen Rahmahillah Farook. This clearly proves the sincerity of his conversion.

There are more ways of spending money than there are of making it.

If a homely girl has plenty of money it's an easy matter to meet a wise man who will try to convince her she is a prize beauty.

Any man can make a woman talk, but only a diplomat can make her say what he wants her to say.

Mrs. W. L. Hughes is spending the week-end with her sister, Mrs. C. P. McGregor, Watford.

HON. MR. HANNA'S VISIT

No one who had the great privilege of hearing the address of Hon. Mr. Hanna in the Y.M.C.A. last night, on the subject of "Prison Reform," could for one instant doubt the deep earnestness of the man on behalf of this grand cause.

Mr. Hanna is a forceful speaker upon all public questions, but his enthusiasm with regard to this problem, which lies so very near his heart, is inspirational.

Hitherto prison methods have been largely to restrict the liberty of the unfortunate, to still further cause him to lose his self-respect, to repress and grind him down in every possible way, and by solitary, narrow cell accommodation to still further impress upon him, even at night, his degradation and slight hope of any future position in the world.

All this, of course, has had a tendency to still further intensify the bad qualities and to stifle the good ones, and at the expiry of sentence, in most instances, to turn loose upon the world a still more hardened character.

Mr. Hanna, with splendid vision, felt that this was not as it should be. That a prison should not help to make the base qualities still more confirmed, and to aid the good qualities to predominate. At any rate, he thought it well to make a try, and with the hearty co-operation of others, he launched the prison farm scheme at Guelph.

The story of what he had to tell is given in summarized form elsewhere in this issue. It was a marvellous and an uplifting relation—one which warmed the hearts and the aspirations of all present.

It was Burns who penned the immortal lines:

"Man's inhumanity to man Makes countless thousands mourn." But here was the narrative of man's humanity to man—and fallen man, at that—making countless thousands of the latter, and those depending on them, to rejoice. Without self-praise, or ostentation in any sense, Mr. Hanna went to the very heart of his subject, of which he proved himself to be a close student and pioneer master.

And right here let it be remarked that the Business Men's Club of the Y.M.C.A. deserves to be heartily congratulated upon extending an invitation to the Provincial Secretary. By all means let us have more such evenings with leading men of both sides, and others, to talk on non-political subjects. We don't all agree, in a party sense, but after a good hit-as-hard-as-you-can-above-the-belt contest is over, there is much, very much, common ground upon which all can meet to mutual advantage and profit. After all, life is very short, even to those who live the longest.

Meanwhile Canadians of all shades will wish Hon. Mr. Hanna a hearty God-speed in his noble efforts, which have already attracted the attention of Germany, and will most undoubtedly be emulated in other lands. Be it remembered, the plan is not to make wrong-doing easy, but to give the wrong-doer, if any chance remains, one more opportunity to achieve a useful and an honorable career.

If the writer remembers correctly, it was Sydney Smith who used to remark when he saw some delinquent going to punishment: "There goes Sydney Smith but for the grace of God." It is always well to remember that perhaps the other fellow has never really had a good chance.

THE DEVELOPMENT OF CANADA'S ATLANTIC PORTS

In carrying out his great policy of developing Canada's national ports, Hon. Robert Rogers, Minister of the Harbours, Inspected recently the harbours of St. John and Halifax. As a result important announcements were made, not only of interest to those ports, but to the whole of Canada, for the development of the national ports is a matter of Dominion-wide interest. The Government recognizes that it is of no value to develop the transportation systems of Canada and to deepen the waterways if the ports are not in a position to handle the traffic when it reaches the sea.

The development of these national ports was practically neglected by the old Government. Halifax, St. John, Quebec, Toronto, Vancouver, Victoria, etc., were given lots of promise, but no fulfillment. Under the new administration, and particularly since Hon. Robert Rogers became Minister of Public Works, a most vigorous policy has been launched.

The city of St. John recently lost the Empress steamers for the winter season, owing to lack of facilities. Mr. Rogers hit the nail on the head when he remarked: "After inspecting your harbor and piers, I am compelled to acknowledge that it is indeed what it ought to be, but it was the fault of the late Government. In the last two years the present Government has spent as much as the Liberals spent in fifteen long years."

Hon. J. D. Hazen, speaking at the big banquet given him in St. John, further emphasized this point, and further outlined the policy of the Government in the development of our national ports. He said:

"The foreign trade of Canada is increasing with enormous rapidity. Last year it amounted to over one billion dollars, and when the present Government came into power it found itself face to face with the necessity of providing adequate terminal facilities on the Atlantic and the Pacific, and on the Great Lakes, for the purpose of handling the commerce in and out of the country. To this task the Government has addressed itself, I think I may fairly claim, with energy, and the result is that large appropriations have been made for harbor facilities at St. John and Halifax, Quebec and Montreal, in the east; at Vancouver and Victoria on the Pacific; at Port Arthur, Fort William, Collingwood and other places on the Great Lakes.

"The complaint has been made that we have not the facilities at St. John for properly handling the great traffic that is coming to the Atlantic seaboard. This criticism is undoubtedly well-founded, but when critics of the present Government go further, and blame this Government for that state of affairs, their complaint and criticism is not well founded, and it may be fairly claimed is made for partisan purposes only.

"The responsibility of this state of affairs attaches to the Liberal Government, which, though in power for fifteen years, took no adequate steps for the purpose of relieving at the seaboard the congestion that was bound to come and of providing the facilities for the purpose of overcoming that congestion. That Government during the fifteen years it was in office was neglectful of Canada's interests in this regard. Its promises were large and its performances very small.

"The adequate equipment of the great national ports of this country has been a matter of especial concern and attention by the present Government since it assumed office. The great works which are now being carried out on both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts for this purpose are a sufficient evidence that the Government is not only inspired by good intentions, but that it has entered actively upon the project of affording facilities at all our great national ports which will enable them to compete on at least even terms with any ports on this continent."

ENQUIRY TODAY AN KINGSTON

Prisoners With Disease Used Same Cups as the Other Prisoners.

[Canadian Press Despatch] KINGSTON, Dec. 6.—The first witness at the penitentiary enquiry this morning was Robert Patterson, an ex-guard, who was questioned as to the "tubbing" of convicts by C. R. Webster, acting for H. C. Stewart. Patterson told about convicts in the insane ward being put in the tub. He said the convicts were stripped and put under water.

Witness stated that no matter what kind of disease a convict was suffering from he drank out of the same cups as other convicts did. Mr. Webster said there was a charge against the deputy warden of giving false evidence at the enquiry, and asked witness if he knew anything about it. Witness said "Yes," and stated that it had to do with the supply of gravel, but could give no date for the alleged offence. Witness served as a guard for a number of years, and was dismissed in October, 1912, as physically unfit, but had never had any serious illness during his term of service. "I was one of the most able men on the staff," said he. "Whenever there was a hard case to deal with in the isolation ward or the dungeon cell I was always asked to help with the prisoner."

To Mr. Whiting he stated he was away only ten days in a year, but Mr. Whiting read from the prison records to show that he had been away 39 days suffering from influenza and bronchitis, and another record showed he had been away 15 days.

Had Narrow Escape.

Last evening at the corner of Waterloo and William Sts., what might have been a serious accident took place. A front axle arm broke on an automobile driven by Miss Violet Herod, letting the wheel off and smashing the mud-guard. Luckily the car was going slowly, or there might have been serious results.

Sewer Started.

The building of a sewer on Bowes Avenue, between Chestnut and St. Pauls Avenue, was started this morning by the city, and on its completion a sewer will be put down on Burwell street from St Pauls Avenue to Morrell street. This sewer will be a quarter of a mile in length, and will be run at a low grade so that it will provide for the waterworks property lying between Morrell street and the river, and also for the low lying residential area on Dufferin Avenue between Morrell street and the dam.

DUKE OF CONNAUGHT ISSUES A WARNING

No Slum Conditions Are Wanted in Canada, H.R.H. Says.

[MONTREAL, Dec. 6.—A warning against a calamity which he said was threatening Canada at the present moment and which should be averted was given by His Royal Highness, the Duke of Connaught, in reply to an address which was made to him at the Salvation Army headquarters on University street yesterday, after he had inspected two of the Army's homes and other institutions for the homeless and destitute in Montreal. This, it is said, lay in ever increasing urban population and if this question was not speedily dealt with, slums would be formed and Canada would have a problem of the unemployed, similar to that of Europe.

At the Salvation Army Hotel for young women, the Duke entered and won an impromptu guessing competition. Little Myrtle Knight, the daughter of the warden, was introduced to his Royal Highness and a member of the governor-general's party guessed her age at 11. "I should say 14," said the Duke. "Your Royal Highness is right," said Miss Knight.

At the Salvation Army Metropole, the Duke after seeing the chef said: "Are you an old army man?" The chef replied that he was, with the remark, "I have served 23 years' highness."

Further questioning brought out the fact that he was John Hurley, gunner with the royal garrison artillery. He had seen service in China and had been stationed abroad for 11 years. "What rank?" he was asked. "I was bombardier once," he said, "but I was reduced for bad conduct."

The straightforward, honest reply pleased the Duke immensely and he once more shook the man by the hand. This morning his Royal Highness visited the art gallery and made a careful survey of the selection of pictures of the Royal Canadian Academy there. He engaged in a long conversation on Canadian art with Herbert Brymer, the president of the R. C. A. and members of the Montreal Art Association.

The exhibition contains several pictures by the Princess Patricia.

TUTELA WOMEN'S INSTITUTE MEET

The Tutela Women Institute held their December meeting at the home of Mrs. John Houlding, Tutela Heights. After the usual opening exercises, the minutes of the November meeting were read and adopted. Roll call was answered by Christmas gifts and candies, many dainty gifts being shown and delicious candies sampled. Mrs. R. Fleury and Mrs. M. Minter gave excellent reports of the convention held in Toronto, both bringing home some helpful thoughts to those were unable to be present at the convention.

Mrs. Minter's paper on the true spirit of Christmas giving, was well given, showing that the blessing was not in the gift but in the spirit of the giver, and that the greater blessing is in giving to the needy.

The instrumental music by Miss Lloyd-Jones, and Master R. Houlding, and the vocal by Mrs. N. Edmondson and Mrs. H. McIntyre were very much enjoyed by all present. The meeting closed by all joining in singing God Save the King, after which all enjoyed Mrs. Houlding's kind hospitality. The January meeting will be held the first Tuesday in January at the home of Mrs. Mitchell, Ox Bow Bend. Miss F. Tomlinson and Miss E. Chapin have charge of the program. All ladies invited.

HON. MR. HANNA AT THE Y. M. C. A.

1912, Woodrow Wilson, then governor of New Jersey, sent a committee of four to Guelph to look over the farm. They looked over it and although they did not say much, they liked it well. Nothing more was heard of the matter until ten weeks later when a deputation of seven from the same state visited the farm. The authorities were somewhat surprised, but made them welcome. They went over the farm and were highly pleased with everything. Asked why it had been necessary to send a second deputation they replied: "Why, we simply did not believe them. We had to come to see what sort of dope you gave them; and when we go back they will not believe us." A deputation named by the Kaiser spent a day at Guelph, and four of the brightest minds of Germany had pronounced the organization perfect from head to bottom.

Was there any wall around the farm? None at all. Any man with outside help could scale a 30 foot wall in a few seconds, and a one-legged man at that (laughter). Outside of the farm at Guelph, 600 acres had been bought at Whitby, and 100 men had been taken from the Central and located on it. That was in April, 1912, and since that date there had been only a escapee. This was extremely satisfactory. Seven miles from Port Arthur 4,000 acres had been secured. Thirty-six towns and not to work on the farm, and in June, 1912, forty-five men were sent on, and since that time 700 acres had been chopped and cleared and 200 acres were producing corn, wheat and oats. There was lots of work and hard work, too. The value of this farm had been raised from $5 to $100 an acre. Prisoners on a plant north of Toronto were turning out 20,000 bricks a day. The annual output was 5,000,000 bricks and these bricks were good. There was no better brick on the market. "We are in an absolutely safe position," said Mr. Hanna, "so long as we use the wards of the government to support themselves, and we use their products for the maintenance of state buildings, we are unassailable." "What is this doing for the prisoners?" asked the speaker. "If we are doing nothing for him we are not justified. We set a man out upon the world with a decent suit upon his back and a few dollars in his pocket. When we do this we have done very good service to that man and to the community. And we not only make the prisoners pay for their keep in work, but they are also able to have something for the folks at home." During his remarks the speaker paid a tribute to the services of Mr. T. H. Preston as a member of the parole board. When he resumed his seat he was accorded vociferous applause for his splendid effort. Mr. W. S. Brewster, M.P.P., in moving a vote of thanks, voiced the high estimation in which Mr. Hanna was held by his colleagues. His prison reform project had achieved results little short of marvellous. Mr. T. H. Preston said Mr. Hanna had been too modest, for he was in reality the foundation stone of the whole scheme, which he had made non-political. He told of some instances coming under the attention of the parole board. Mr. W. F. Cockshutt, M. P., paid eloquent tribute to the Provincial Secretary and his work. In the matter of the prison farm system he had built for himself a monument which would last forever. The motion was most heartily seconded.

SCOUTS PLEASANT AT VICTORY SECURED

Were Champion in Three Events of Difficult Nature.

The Headquarters Patrol have at last had a tangible opportunity to demonstrate their knowledge of Scouting in a manner worthy of a crack patrol. Last year, after being organized for only six weeks, the Scouts attached to this troop, entered the Ambulance and the Swimming and Life Saving competitions and were successful in both. Their watchword since then has been "First next year," and their earnest work during the past months has put them in a position to realize their desire, not only in ambulance and swimming and life-saving, but also in marksmanship. The members of the Troop took the news of their triple victory like true Scouts and although pleased with the result of the competitions, expressed regret that some of the other cities were not fortunate in at least one of the events. The Daughters of the Empire Rifle Club in the District championship, was used in the marksmanship competition with such splendid results that the Canadian Exhibition Cup was won by the local team which led by fifteen points. Some of the runners up in the competition were, 1st, Cookstown, 5th Toronto, 1st. Goderich; 7th Hamilton; 1st. Dundas; 1st. Guelph; 1st. Warton, and other Toronto troops. The Standard Silver trophy won for swimming and life-saving by the local Scouts, is a handsome trophy. The pattern required for this competition, included throwing the life line, towing a man by four different methods, applying artificial respiration and speed style swimming.

Mr. G. Mosley who conducted the swimming end of the competition, is very much pleased at the manner in which the local boys carried off the honors in the Hamilton Y. M. C. A. pool, two weeks ago, when swimming in the finals against Toronto and Hamilton, the finished style and speed of the local team completely outclassing the opposing troops.

COCKSHUTT UNITED HOLD FINE SUPPER

Presentations Made to Popular Members of the Club.

A most enjoyable time was spent last evening by the members of Cockshutt United Football Club and their wives and lady friends. About 60 sat down to a splendid banquet in the Tea Pot Inn. After the banquet had been done justice to, a short programme was put on, consisting of songs by Messrs. Hutchinson, R. Riley, W. Grimster and A. March. The songs were all given in fine voice and were heartily received. Ald. J. H. Spence, who was chairman, made a few suitable remarks. After the banquet, an adjournment was made to the Borden Club rooms where a dance was held. McDonald's orchestra supplied the music. During the evening fountain pens were presented to Messrs. B. Unacke, Secretary and D. Reese, one of the committee of the club. The presentation was made by Mr. Fred Eastman. A gold locket was presented by Mr. Alex. Match, on behalf of the players to Mr. W. Grimster, the efficient trainer of the team. Dancing continued until early this morning. Everyone was delighted with the affair, considering it a most delightful one.

PLEASING EVENT

The members of the Bible Study Club of the Congregational Church, gathered socially last evening at the home of Miss Hollinrake, Wellington street.

The evening was spent in games and the discussion of the class program for the coming winter, and from the enthusiasm shown a very successful year is assured for the class. A very pleasant feature of the evening was the presenting to the leader of the class, Mr. Ward Foster, of a gold-mounted fountain pen, as a slight expression of the appreciation of the class for his faithful and highly efficient services and the esteem in which he is held by it. It is the intention of the class to hold such social evenings at stated intervals throughout the coming winter.

COMMON NEEDLE IS FOUND IN THE THEATRE

Means by Which Bride Was Given a Subtle Poison.

NEWARK, N.J., Dec. 6.—A common darning needle found yesterday in the theatre box occupied Thursday night by Mrs. Marjorie H. Graff, bride of a week, is believed to be the instrument by means of which Mrs. Graff was innoculated with subtle poison, which caused her to fall insensible within a few minutes. This resulted in the arraignment of Armando Megaro, a student pharmacist, the other occupant of the box, on a charge of assault.

To determine the nature of the poison, the needle was submitted to a chemist. It was found near the spot where Mrs. Graff sat. Megaro stoutly asserted his innocence when confronted by Mrs. Graff on the witness stand.

She repeated her story that she had felt a sting on her hand as if she had been pricked by a pin or a needle, that her hand had quickly become numb and that the feeling spread to her arm. She left the box and went to her room. She found a waiting room where she fell unconscious but was soon revived. Megaro, who sat behind her, was arrested before leaving the theatre. He was held in $20,000 bail. The experience of Mrs. Graff and other recent cases of a like nature has started a number of anti-vice societies on an investigation to determine if there is a new peril to which unaccompanied women in public places are exposed.

W. H. A. HOLD DECEMBER MEETING

Auxiliary is in Very Satisfactory Condition of Affairs.

The December meeting of the W. H. A. was held on Friday morning at the Library. There was a large attendance of members present, and the proceedings were of interest throughout. The President, Mrs. Waterous, presided; the minutes were read and confirmed, and the financial report presented, which showed total receipts of Rummage Sale to be $469.72; also that bills to the amount of $2,187.25 for furnishings at the Nurses' Home had already been paid with some still outstanding. Mrs. Watt was empowered to settle all accounts still outstanding, and the wish was expressed that all merchants and others who have accounts against the W. H. A. would send them in at an early date in December. Some articles for the Nurses' Home were reported as ready to send up and furnished, with Mrs. Stentford's Thanksgiving donation. Fees were received from Miss Creaser, Holmedale, $-.75 and from Mrs. Tisdale, centre of city, $1.50. Mrs. Mair reported that she, in company with Mrs. Bachelor, had visited the hospital three times during the month of November. There were 37 patients on their first visit and 48 on their last. Flowers were given to each patient and fruits, jellies and reading matter were distributed. Reports were received from the Junior Hospital Aid and the Children's branch showed co-operation with the older auxiliary in their work and vigorous growth in their own part. The Children's Branch have undertaken to look after the children in both hospitals at Christmas, while their seniors will distribute gifts to all the patients who may be in the institution. Visitors appointed for December are Mrs. Colquhoun and Mrs. G. D. Watt.

The suggestion for next year that the annual rummage sale and bazaar in November be continued, but that Tag Day be dropped was well received and may be favored by next year's executive.

As this was the first meeting of the auxiliary since the very much regretted demise of Mr. Jos. Stratford, for so many years president of the hospital, and always the good friend of the W. H. A., the following motion was passed. Moved by Mrs. F. D. Reville and seconded by Mrs. Geo. Watt: "That a letter of condolence be written to Mrs. Stratford and family expressing the sympathy of the W. H. A. in their recent bereavement and loss."

It was resolved that the annual meeting be held on Friday afternoon, Jan. 16th, 1914, at 3 o'clock and that the nominating committee be Messdames R. S. Schell, convener; W. F. Cockshutt and E. Henwood. The president gave an interesting account of a hospital which she had visited while in Denver, Colo., and the meeting was then adjourned. Good Work Done. Yesterday on the sewer department, Geo. H. Hand, supervised the building of a concrete man-hole eleven feet deep in four hours, with four men.

Militants Go At It Again

(Canadian Press Despatch) LIVERPOOL, Eng., Dec. 6.—Militant suffragettes attempted to-day to destroy the exhibition buildings here, which have been only just closed for the winter months. The scenic railway, a big canvas-covered structure, was discovered in flames early this morning, and the firemen had the utmost difficulty in preventing the spread of the fire to other buildings. As it was, considerable damage was done. In the vicinity was found a letter addressed to Premier Asquith and a quantity of suffrage literature.

BURGLAR GOT SCANT RETURN

He Broke Into Mr. Charles Thomas' Home on Thursday.

Last Thursday morning the house of Charles Thomas, on the Mount Pleasant road, was visited by a burglar about 7 o'clock, during the absence of the family at the barn milking. A window in the front of the house was broken to gain entrance, but finding it difficult, the marauder went to a back bolted door and broke it in. Going upstairs, he ransacked bureau drawers, trunks and boxes, evidently searching only for money, as no clothing was taken. Fortunately, only one dollar in a pair of pants was found.

Was Knocked Down

Last evening at the corner of Dalhousie street, near the armories, a man was knocked down by an auto which was fortunately proceeding slowly. He was taken to the office of Dr. Stinson, who put several stitches in a nasty wound in his head. He was later taken to his home on Alouzo street. Mr. Reansbury was the name of the victim.

MAY CONDUCT SPECIAL ENQUIRY

Prison Reform Commission to Hold Sitting in Ottawa.

(Canadian Press Despatch) KINGSTON, Ont., Dec. 6.—The prison reform commission may hold a session in Ottawa for the hearing of some evidence of the penitentiary inspectors. According to the story of the convicts who were given an celebrated "tub treatment," Inspector Stewart, who was the acting warden when the penitentiary here for some months after the retirement of Dr. J. M. Platt, was the man who held the hose when this treatment was administered and the members of the commission are anxious to get his story and those of other inspectors. Inspector W. S. Hughes, who gave evidence at one time of the first sessions of the commission is to be recalled and his evidence and that of other inspectors is to be taken in Ottawa.

EMPLOYEES WON'T MEET THE TERMS

Great Western Railway is Tied Up in England By Strike.

LONDON, Dec. 6.—Many of the 1,200 employees of the Great Western Railway, who have been on strike since Wednesday refused to-day to comply with the terms of the agreement for the settlement of the dispute drawn up yesterday by the trade union leaders, yesterday at a conference with representatives of the Board of Trade. They point out that the conditions are too drastic. Besides providing that neither James, the locomotive engineer who started the strike by refusing to haul "tainted goods" which had been handled by strikebreakers in Dublin nor Reynolds, his comrade who left work in sympathy with him, shall be re-employed, the terms insist that all the men must express their regret and subscribe from 25 cents to 60 cents each to the Swindon hospital. The employers also refuse to pay them for the time they were on strike.

Lesson XI.—Fourth Quarter, For Dec. 14, 1913.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Josh. vii, 6-15. Memory Verse, 13.—Golden Text, Numbers xxiii, 23.—Commentary by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

Although our lesson is in chapter vii, we are asked to read to chapter xi, ending with the words, "So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the Lord said unto Moses." The section tells of the conquering and destruction of many cities after the taking of Jericho, but begins with the defeat at Ai and the reason of it.

Defeat seems strange, for the word of the Lord to Joshua, "There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life" (1-5), but the fulfillment of the Lord's promises sometimes depends upon conditions to be fulfilled on our part, as when He said, "If ye abide in Me and My words abide in you ye shall ask what ye will and it shall be done unto you" (John xv, 7).

We have seen that Israel had been forbidden to appropriate anything of the goods of Jericho, and unknown to Joshua he had been transgressing. There is no wonder that in his ignorance of this he had taken and that he and the elders of Israel put dust upon their heads and that he said, "O Lord, what shall I say when Israel turneth their backs before their enemies? What wilt Thou do unto Thy great name?" (Verses 6, 8).

We do well to consider whether our name or His name is most in our estimation. Joshua was jealous for the honor of Jehovah. The Lord explained the cause of the defeat by the sad announcement that Israel had sinned, had stolen and disseminated, and He said that He would not be with them any more until the sin was confessed and put away (verses 10-12). At this point the Lord said that the nation was guilty, "Israel hath sinned; they have transgressed; they have taken" (verse 11). Consider how the welfare of a family or a church may be affected by the wrongdoing of one person.

On the morrow Joshua began to search for the guilty one, and probably by lot, the guilt was found to be in the tribe of Judah. Then the family was found and then the household and finally the individual, and Achan began to realize that his sin had found him out (ch. ix, 18, and Golden Text). Joshua then urged Achan to make confession, which he did, and the stolen things being found in his tent, he and all his were stoned and buried and the sin put away (ch. x, 26).

The valley of Achor is therefore spoken of as a door of hope (Hos. ii, 15), for where there are confession and putting away of sin there will always be blessing. Achan's confession, "I saw, I coveted, I took" (verse 21), takes us back to Eden, where Eve saw and desired and took the forbidden fruit.

Our eyes affect our hearts for good or evil (Sam. iii, 5), and we are prone to follow our inclinations; therefore we need to pray, "Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity" (Ps. cxix, 37). When we behold the beauty of the Lord and follow Him fully, as Caleb and Joshua did and as Simon Peter was exhorted to do, all will be well (Ps. xxvii, 4; Num. xxiii, 12; John xxi, 22).

There was a secondary cause of Israel's defeat at Ai and that was underestimating the enemy and thinking that 2,000 or 3,000 men were sufficient to conquer such a city (verses 2-5). When the sin of Achan was put away and the Lord encouraged Joshua to go up and take Ai, saying, "I will be with thee but thou shalt be dismayed." He also said, "Take all the people of war with thee" (chapter viii, 1, 2).

This time the city was taken and destroyed, as fully recorded in viii, 3-29. Then Joshua offered burnt offerings and peace offerings unto the Lord, wrote a copy of the Law of Moses and read every word before all the congregation (viii, 30-35).

Chapter 9 tells of Joshua forgetting his instructions from the other captain to lose his shoe from off his foot (ix, 13-15), for he made a league with the lying Gibeonites without consulting his captain; he asked not counsel at the mouth of the Lord (ix, 14). We cannot expect that He will direct us if we fail to acknowledge Him (Prov. iii, 6).

In chapter x, 7-43, we learn that Gibeon continued to be Joshua's headquarters, from which he set forth and to which he returned. Gibeon was a great city, and because of her submission to Israel five kings made war with her (x, 1-9).

The Gibeonites appealed to Joshua, and he took all the people of war and all the mighty men of valor and went to their relief, for the Lord had said to him, "Fear them not." Not a man of them shall stand before thee" (x, 6-9). After an all night march the men of Israel came suddenly upon the armies of the five kings and slew them with a great slaughter, and the Lord cast down great stones from heaven upon them and slew more with hailstones than Israel slew with the sword (x, 9-11).

In some miraculous way the daylight was prolonged till the battle was fully won, for the Lord fought for Israel (x, 14-15). As the Lord commanded Moses and Moses Joshua, so did Joshua and left nothing undone (xi, 13, 14).

SATURDAY NIGHT SERMONS BY REV. SAMUEL W. PURVIS, D.D.

THE BUSINESS MAN.

Text. "Not slothful in business, serving the Lord" (Rom. vi, 12). He is supposed every one knows how to properly dress and clean a fowl. Few cooks thoroughly wash country fowl feathers are removed. This should be done with a soft brush and warm soapsuds, with abundance of clear, warm water to rinse. Care should be taken when drawing the fowl for if the entrails are broken an odor of the barnyard will be present to the nostrils. Cut the neck of close to the body, first pushing the skin well down to the body that the hole may be easily covered by it. Cut the skin at the back of the neck, an inch or so down, and with the forefinger loosen the crop all around, lifting it up a little, breaking it and at the same time drawing the windpipe.

Wings and legs should be trussed close to the body either with skewers or by means of a trussing needle and twine. The French have a method of tying a fowl in a piece of soft paper so that it will keep its shape and in this wrapper until twenty minutes of serving time, when the paper is removed and it is delicately browned. Many cooks use considerable heat for the first half hour in roasting a fowl, basting it very often; then after this initial searing of the surface they use a low, steady fire for thorough cooking. Twenty to twenty-five minutes to the pound is the rule for roasting turkey. Remove all twine used in trussing before sending the fowl to the table.

After the turkey has been washed and the turkey the dressing. If a chestnut dressing is required remove the shells from a pint of nuts, cook in slightly salted water until tender; then drain, skin and chop coarsely. Add a half loaf of stale bread put through the food chopper, one-quarter of a pound of butter, salt and pepper to taste and one egg. Mix all together, adding a little warm water if it seems too dry. Garnish with link sausage fried a light brown.

The Modern Colossus. It is considered clever to belittle one's day as given up to money making. Cold hearted commercialism is said to be destroying our finer selves. As a matter of fact, business is the most civilized occupation the race ever took up. It has ended slavery, lessened war, limited monopolies and helped the church toward a practical working basis. But business has in the end to play fair or it will ruin itself. Some day when we are better educated we will sell fair, divide profits and make common the interests of all and not the fortune of the few. As it is to be that that system that now rules the world, I bow my head in acknowledgment that the real colossus that presides over cabinets and sways fleets and armies is your profession. The great questions of the state in the world's diplomacy are determined by private capitalists. Kings, presidents, ministers and cabinets before they commence acts that will make history await the nod of a banker. The sun, moon and stars in the political sky make their bow to a ruler that sits not in a Capitol hill, but on Trade street. The time is coming when the cotton mill will be stronger than an arsenal and the man behind the counter than the man behind the gun.

Your Silent Partner. Who can understand your temptations? Some day you waken to find the ledger tells profits are small, collections slow, expenses large. You say: "Here goes! It's make or break. I'll borrow money and invest big. If I lose I won't be any worse off. A thousand from nothing, nothing remains." The boat that couldn't float in the little stream goes out in the breakers. The partners of right and wrong are easily confused. Health sacrificed is a great temptation. "Fifty per cent of the merchants I know have been wrecked physically," says America's greatest merchant. "One line a private, too, instead of a public, is the tendency of trade is to crumple a man. How rare to read anything but the newspaper! We read no books, hate music, make no visits, society is a bore. We know nothing of nature, only that the day is rainy, hot or cold. How about spiritual duties? No man has a right to be engaged in things purely secular as to have no time for God. You need a partner. His name need not be over your door. He need have no money invested. Simply the deciding factor in your business. Let him be your Silent Partner. After the last store has closed, the last bank bars its door, after your last account is closed, may you hear him say, "Well done!"

The Yuletide Turkey

CHRISTMAS ICES. Delicious Desserts With Which to Round Out the Feast. Iced desserts make delicious features of the Christmas dinner. They may be in the form of plain ice cream or one of the fancy names.

THE Christmas turkey is the piece de resistance at the Yuletide feast. After selecting it, it is supposed every one knows how to properly dress and clean a fowl. Few cooks thoroughly wash country fowl feathers are removed. This should be done with a soft brush and warm soapsuds, with abundance of clear, warm water to rinse. Care should be taken when drawing the fowl for if the entrails are broken an odor of the barnyard will be present to the nostrils. Cut the neck of close to the body, first pushing the skin well down to the body that the hole may be easily covered by it. Cut the skin at the back of the neck, an inch or so down, and with the forefinger loosen the crop all around, lifting it up a little, breaking it and at the same time drawing the windpipe.

Wings and legs should be trussed close to the body either with skewers or by means of a trussing needle and twine. Garnish with link sausage fried a light brown.

THE CHRISTMAS BREAKFAST. It Should Be Merely a Preparation For Dinner. The Christmas breakfast as well as the Christmas lunch or supper should be light, but none the less attractive in some families it is the custom to distribute Christmas gifts at the breakfast table, placing them at the plates of those for whom they are intended before they enter the room.

Now rub the turkey well with salt; spread breast, wings and legs with butter. Place in hot oven. When the four on the turkey browns reduce heat and add two cupsful of boiling water. For basting use one-half cupful of butter melted in one cupful of boiling water in which the giblets were cooked. Baste every thirty minutes until the turkey is cooked, which will be about three hours for a ten-pound turkey. While cooking turn frequently that it may brown evenly.

To prepare gravy remove the turkey from the pan, pour off the liquid, from which skin the fat; return the fat to the pan, add two tablespoonfuls of flour and stir until well browned. Pour on remaining liquor, to which the giblets finely chopped have been added. Cook five minutes.

HE SPOKE IN FRENCH

RT. HON. HERBERT SAMUEL IS A REAL BILINGUALIST.

British Postmaster-General During His Recent Trip Through the Dominion Rather Started the People of Rimouski by Using Their Own Tongue—He Is One of Three Jews in British Cabinet.

RT. Hon. Herbert Samuel, Postmaster-General of Great Britain, has spent considerably longer time in Canada than his colleague, Viscount Haldane. Samuel arrived in this country at the end of August, and reached home the other day. Perhaps the most interesting incident connected with Mr. Samuel's visit to Canada occurred at the very beginning of the trip. At Rimouski he was welcomed by French-Canadian, who, in the English language, offered him their best wishes and accorded him the freedom of the town. Much to their surprise, Samuel, in his reply, spoke in excellent French. "This proof of his interest in the French language and of his courtesy in using it, made a profound impression not only upon his immediate hearers, but on all the French-Canadians of Quebec when they heard of it. When the British Postmaster-General finally left Canada he carried with him not only the good wishes of the English and Jewish sections of the country, for Samuel is one of the three Jews in the British Cabinet, and in proof of the fact, but also, in a peculiar degree, the genuine friendship of the French-Canadians.

Ireland's "Petrel." The decision of William O'Brien, M.P., to cut his connection with the establishment in Westport, a delightful spot overlooking Lough Mask. He then vowed he was so fascinated with the simple peasantry of Mayo that he would spend the remainder of his life among them. His wife, too, who is a Russian lady, found the people and the surroundings generally quite congenial and became intimate with the most popular personalities in Connaught. But political differences came along. The people of Mayo found that they could no longer support the O'Brien's view of things, so "the stormy petrel of Irish politics" had to seek a fresh political habitation. Those who followed his lead were similarly treated. The people of Mayo refused to reciprocate his attitude towards John Redmond and the majority of the Irish Parliamentary Party. In return, William O'Brien could no longer see anything to claim his admiration in the Connaught constituency.

Prince Albert's Day. One-and-ninety-nine a day and a deductive three presence for the naval instructor is what Prince Albert, the second son of King George, who has just become a "mildly" on the Colingwood, will receive as pay. His Royal Highness will devote most of his time to receiving instruction in the practical part of the work of the navy, thus following the example set by his father. As a rule, seamanship, gunnery, torpedo, and engineering are taken in rotation, a week being given to each, under the various specialist officers of the ship, while instruction in theoretical subjects is given by the naval instructor.

Bombarded Passers-By. Holding up passers-by for two hours, a man named Laloo, who had evidently primed himself with liquor, created some commotion at Calcutta on a recent Sunday night. The man stood in front of a moving picture theatre, and rained a continuous shower of stones and soda water bottles at passers-by. The audience of the theatre was held up for a couple of hours. A police inspector with a number of constables, arrived on the scene and arrested the man after some difficulty.

Rose For Rental. This year the rose was presented by Mr. J. W. Oake, an "old boy," who is now Mayor of Bermondsey.

MISSIONS WERE THE THEMES

churches in this district residing in the city had contributed to missions an average of $2.70 per member, and those residing in the district had increased 12 per cent over the previous year. After telling the people what they had done, the chairman very soon called upon Mr. Gundy, who proceeded to further unlose the strings of the money bags.

Mr. Gundy Because of the fame of the district for giving to missions, it gave Mr. Gundy great pleasure to address the gathering. The district conference held by the Brantford district last spring had proved so great a success that the holding of 26 conferences this fall was the result. The speaker stated that he would present something of the viewpoint of the laymen.

A New Problem The problem of missions facing the present generation was an entirely new and different problem from that which faced any other generation. Never was there a generation before in which greater opportunities were given to carry out the instructions of the Master. The early missionaries had opened the field; it was the problem of this generation to face the obligation. In the early days China had been very adverse to the Christian faith, but this was changed now. There was a standing offer made by the government to provide the site in China on which to build a Y. M. C. A. and to pay $25,000, half the cost of erection, provided that the Christian people would give the other $25,000 necessary to erect the association. The young men of China were accepting the Christian faith in very large numbers. For the cause of Christ many of the Chinese had given up their lives.

China Not Only Problem The problem of to-day was not only of China, There was India, Japan, Africa, Siberia, Tibet, Arabia and other countries. Workers were needed who were willing to sacrifice and open up the untouched fields. If the young people would but take up the work, God could be depended upon to do His part.

Opium Traffic. The wiping out of the opium traffic in China had demonstrated what Christianity was doing.

A Plea. To do the work that should be done there, was need of increased contributions and as a means to accomplish that end the speaker urged the use of the duplex envelope system. As a means of arousing a deep interest in missions, the speaker suggested the holding of banquets, the meeting together in private residences in a mechanical way, but as the old fashioned class leader would. The speaker had inquired as to how the Missionary Society would come out financially this year. He had been told it was not known. Placing the society in this position, was considered by the speaker to be very unfair.

Joy in Giving. There was a joy in giving and to sacrifice to give was the essence of religion. Giving should come up to a standard and as a standard, the speaker directed the gathering to those words: "For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son."

Regret Expressed. Rev. Lavell at this juncture expressed regret at the absence of Mr. George Wedlake, who was to have been one of the speakers, but owing to the death of his father, could not fulfill the engagement. Speaking of Mr. Wedlake, Mr. Lavell said, "Mr. Wedlake has a heart and his interest in Missions is very great. We miss him to-night."

Miss Butler rendered a solo and afterwards Rev. Arnup was called upon to speak.

Rev. Arnup. Rev. Arnup desired his audience to feel that he was addressing them as a missionary. To some, the call comes to become actively engaged in missionary work. It was the Christians business to lead a missionary life, in all capacities of life.

Desired to Worship. It had been said that the heathen religions were of the devil, but the speaker would not say that. The desire of the heathens was to worship, but the Gods they worshipped, did not satisfy them.

Would Not Empowerish. Some had put up the cry that the sending of money to heathen lands for missionary purposes would impoverish the country. He pointed out that from 60 to 74 per cent, of the money given to missions was spent at home. It was pointed out quite clearly that the missionary field was ripe for harvest. It was obvious on all sides that the present means were made quite for the further advancing of the work. In his concluding remarks the speaker dwelt upon the individual efforts that should be made to assist the cause.

Rev. Holling. pastor of the church, and chairman of the missionary committee of the district, stated that it was his desire to raise $750,000, this year. This amount would ultimately be increased to a million. The slogan was "A Million for Missions, and the Millions for Missions."

During the evening, the Brant Avenue Male Quartette rendered a number very acceptably.

Local News

Nothing New. President Nelson of the Brantford club, when asked this morning for the latest developments concerning the appointment of a manager for the Red Sox, said that there was nothing new. President Nelson yesterday attended the annual meeting of the Canadian League.

Unusual Request. "I would thank you," writes H. Ollerhead, to City Clerk Leonard. "I know what the license fee would be to exhibit a big fish in your city for a week, that I had sent up from Newfoundland." This is the somewhat unusual request on the City Clerk's file to-day.

Dead This Morning. The death of one of Brantford's oldest residents occurred at the Widow's Home this morning in the death of Mary Kasson, widow of the late John Kasson in her 79th year. The funeral will take place from the Widow's Home on Monday morning to Greenwood cemetery. Rev. D. T. McClintock will conduct the services.

Chief Slemin has started his clean up of the city in real earnest, and as a result, two undesirable were this morning disposed of. They were John Roberts and Joe. Ricketts, characterized by the chief as "needle-do-walls." Roberts has to leave the town as a condition of his release, while Ricketts will enjoy a six months sojourn at the prison farm for his indolence.

Talent Tea. An enjoyable talent tea was held at the home of Mrs. Jno. Hasey, 15 Edgerton Street, yesterday afternoon by the Ladies Aid of Brant Avenue Methodist Church, which was largely attended. Fancy work, home-made cooking and candy was disposed of. Tea was served in the dining room and a substantial sum was realized. The ladies are delighted with the success which attended their efforts.

The Late Leslie Prime. The body of the late Leslie Prime, who was killed at Gladstone, Man. on the Canadian Northern Railway, last Sunday, arrived in this city last evening. Mr. A. G. Korten accompanied the remains. The funeral took place this morning from Mr. H. S. Pearce's undertaking parlors to Mt. Hope cemetery. The bearers were three brothers, Reginald, Eric and Lionel and Mr. A. G. Korten. Rev. Mr. G. Potts conducted impressive services.

Plans for the City. Mr. H. B. Dunnington, Grubb, landscape architect of Toronto, is in the city, further studying the problems of civic beautification. On this visit he has been looking over the suburbs. After a careful study he will suggest plans for the laying out of the suburban districts. The city hall and kindred questions and the development of the traffic and residential streets. At a meeting to be held Friday night in the Council chambers at the City Hall, the city hall question and the developing of the streets will be taken up.

This Will Help. The Board of Trade has received telegram from St. John Board of Trade: St. John, N. B., Dec. 5, 1913. The route of the English mail landed at West St. John for Montreal and the West by the Intercolonial Railway means nineteen hours delay over routing by the Canadian Pacific Railway. Please take this up with Ottawa representative and then postmaster general, and ask for Canadian Pacific routing which will save your people nineteen hours in getting your English mail. (Sgd. J. M. Robinson, President St. John Board of Trade.)

Bowlers at Toronto. A Toronto despatch says: The final meeting of the Canadian Lawn Bowling team of 1913 took place last night at the Grange Club. There was a large representation of the players from Brantford, Paris, Guelph, Hamilton and Ottawa. The report of C. S. Robertson, the treasurer, showed that after financing the tour at a small sum over and above actual travelling expenses, there was a good balance from the assessment levied against the members. On motion of R. B. Rice, seconded by Geo. Chapman of Guelph, the treasurer was instructed to pay over the surplus to the Hospital for Sick Children.

Real Estate Transfers. During the month of November there were only 41 transfers of property against 110 during the corre-

There are 20,000 sailors on the island waters of Canada. The new directory of the city of Calgary just issued shows that the population has grown to 90,324. The international labor movement in making encouraging headway in Quebec City, where a national purely Canadian unionism is rapidly gaining strength. It is estimated that close on a million bushels of wheat, went down with the big freighters that were lost in the recent storm on the great lakes.

The cost of living in Canada has increased 51 per cent, during the last eleven years, and the price of commodities is still going up. The citizens of Hosmer, B.C., have made arrangements for a big basket social and dance to raise funds to aid in procuring Christmas cheer for the children of the striking miners on Vancouver Island.

Linotype operators in Vancouver, B.C., working in newspaper offices, enjoy a wage scale of $30.00 per week and $33 for night work, with time and a half for overtime, and double time for holidays and Sundays; 7 hours is the standard on the "World," and 7-1/2 hours on the other papers.

Ten boot and shoe firms in Canada who manufacture men's shoes now run strictly union shops, and place the union stamp of the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union upon the output of their factories. Five firms who make ladies' shoes also use the union stamp.

Whether the alderman in Calgary shall be paid $1,000 a year for their services, and whether their term shall be extended to two years, are among other important questions to be submitted to the ratepayers, for decision on the occasion of the December municipal elections. Milk is selling for 11 cents per quart in Winnipeg, and an agitation is now on for the establishment of a municipal milk distribution enterprise. It is claimed that the two large companies controlling the distribution at present get their supplies at from 20 to 32 cents per gallon, and retail it at 44 cents.

The ladies' auxiliary of the Moncton, N.B., local of the International Association of Machinists, ran off a successful entertainment recently, clearing $20. The machinists have one of the strongest organizations in the Maritime Provinces and find the ladies' auxiliary of great assistance in their propaganda work.

Our Father in Heaven," to the tune of the Glory Song, was splendidly sung by the choir and congregation. This hymn is sung every evening. The services have been largely attended all week, which is most gratifying to both pastor and people.

How Cocash Saved London

A letter just received from London, Ont., backed up by newspaper clippings, credits Johnny Cocash with the big leaguers for a while, and one of the best known of all minor leaguers—with pulling something absolutely new during a game last season. When the London Club arrived at Peterboro, Ont., for one of the regular games of the Canadian League, it was found that heavy rains had saturated the outfield, and that center garden, a depressed territory, was at least two feet under water. It was up to Cocash to play centre for the London Club, and he emitted wild wails to Frank Bowerman, the old Giant catcher who manages the Londoners. "Fear not, little one," snorted Bowerman, "your life is saved." And he produced an enormous pair of rubber boots, reaching to Cocash's belt line. Thus equipped, Cocash entered his ocean, and put in a bushy afternoon, catching seven flies while the Peterboro center fielder, splashing and staggering pitifully in the shallower pools, let three or four get away for home.

In the sixth inning, London made a rally, and Cocash, going to bat, was so excited that he forgot to make a temporary shift of footwear. He rushed up with the boots on, and worked his way to first. Trout, the Peterboro catcher—any man with that name should have played in the outfield lakes that day—paid no attention to the booted runner, who suddenly tore away from first, and slid into second, boots and all. Thus did Mr. Cocash save his team by center fielding with his boots, and thus, as well, did he start the first base ever stolen by a booted man in baseball history.

Trouble with Teachers.
Resentment has been caused among the school managers and teachers in Herefordshire through the action of the Education Committee in advising the managers to terminate the tenancies of teachers who have been pressing for a scale of salaries and offered their resignations. Fortunately, fourteen specimens of radium, used for lecture purposes, were overlooked.

Later Stevens saw him again and pounced on him as he passed. A fierce struggle for the possession of the revolver ensued, and the accused kicked the officer. Whilst being searched at the police station Stevens dealt Detective Phipp a severe blow on the nose.

In consideration of his youth and good character Stevens was fined only 50s or a month, and was bound over on the usual charge.

Short Sermons
The question raised by the late Dean Hole as to the ideal length of a sermon is one on which different people, according perhaps to their religious proclivities, have diverse opinions; but if the preference of Royalty may be taken as a standard, the favorite time appears to be in the region of twenty minutes.
Queen Victoria's objection to long sermons may be understood by the fact that in 1867 she presented a pulpit glass to the Chapel Royal, Savoy, and it was timed for exactly eighteen minutes. The preacher who wished to find favor with Her Majesty, always took the hint and watched the glass carefully.
King Edward declared for even greater brevity. In the arrangements for his Coronation the sermon by the Bishop of London was allotted five minutes.
Napoleon III. strictly limited preachers before him to a quarter of an hour, and if they exceeded it an officer of the Imperial Household stepped to the pulpit and stopped the discourse.
Charles II. apparently enjoyed long sermons, and on one occasion slept so soundly under the ministrations of Kent, that, on awakening greatly refreshed, he exclaimed, "Spacious! splendid! This man must have a Bishopric," and gave him Bath and Wells when it fell vacant.
A grueling thirty-two mile race was run by two horses from Montreal to Terrebonne and return. The drivers were arrested.

Father to son, just home from college? Well, what did you learn. Son (proudly): Why, father, I was one of the best all-round athletes in my class. For instance, I can clear that four-foot tall fence. Watch me! Father: No. Save your strength. I'll let you clear that ten-acre lot tomorrow. It's chock full of weeds!

Every Morning

A Little Crystal of Thought for Every Day in the Week.

SUNDAY.
Home is a testing ground. If we are disagreeable there, nothing we can do outside will ever make up for it.

MONDAY.
Most of us need to do a good deal in the way of making the best of things as we go through life if we are to live it as we should.

TUESDAY.
Most of us expect good work from others. Perhaps the fact that when we do get it we don't appreciate it is one reason why we are so often disappointed.

WEDNESDAY.
"Oh, Lord, whatever comes, keep me from getting sour" prayed Mrs. Wiggs, the heroine of the "Cabbage Patch." Many of us would do well to echo the prayer.

THURSDAY.
There's a great art in accepting things as they are, and making the best of them. A pleasant way of talking unpleasant things will carry one successfully over many a hard place.

FRIDAY.
Everybody in this world means to be pretty good to other folks. When they ain't it ain't always their fault. And are more and more of us doing the same thing? The other folks—Mary Wilkins Freeman.

SATURDAY.
If a household is to run smoothly every member of it must try to be just to the others. Injustice rankles more than almost anything else.

Great Thoughts

If you find it difficult to get on with others, don't at once jump to the conclusion that the fault is in them. It may be that it is you who needs to amend your ways.

To be ourselves what we would have other people be is to prepare the way for many delightful surprises. The best that is in others will jump to meet the best that is in us.

When work goes badly it is sometimes because one's brains and hands aren't working together. Wool gathering wits have ruined many a job.

Don't be so busy getting ready for some vague future time when you are going to be happy that you have no time to be happy to-day. Happiness needs exercise if it is to keep in good going condition.

Just live thy life in full content. Do all thy best with what is meant, Thou but receivest what was meant—Just live thy life.

We weren't sent into this world to have a good time, though some of us seem to think we were, but rather to do the work and live the life that is God's gift to us.

Try to laugh at the things you have to put up with. A grievance that can be laughed at and smiled over has lost half its sting, and is on the road to becoming a blessing.

Neighborhood Or Jungleland

Life is either a neighborhood or a jungle—or the confused and uncertain middle ground between. The rule of the jungle is that "he shall take who has the power and he shall keep it." The law of the neighborhood is "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." Justice at its highest in the jungle is "An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth." "Avenge not thyself" is law in the neighborhood and whosoever would smite thee on one cheek, turn to him the other also.

Greatness in the jungle is in lordship over others; the maxim of the neighborhood is, "If any among you be great let him be your servant."

The neighborhood and the jungle, through the ages, sprang against each other in the never-ending struggle. All that is best in politics, all that is most enduring in trade, all that is most enduring in social progress and all that is most vital in religion, work together for the reclaiming of the jungle and bringing it in obedience to the law of the neighborhood.

Each individual can choose to live in the world as if it were a jungle or else as if it were a neighborhood. He can say, truly, that there is success in a jungle way, for tooth and claw, for greed and injustice and brute selfishness. He can be one of the jungle folk tiger or snake or hyena, if he chooses. But he can choose otherwise, and be a neighbor instead, refusing to follow jungle notions, keen on being human rather than bestial.

The jungle is there, waiting for its inhabitants; the neighborhood is there, waiting for its people, who shall make it a place of safety and of brotherhood and of progress. Which shall it be—jungle or neighborhood? The choice is our own, and we must make it for ourselves.

SUNDAY SERMON BY PASTOR RUSSELL

HOLY! HOLY! HOLY! LORD OF HOSTS

Knowledge of God's Character Shall Yet Fill the Earth.

A CLEARER LIGHT IS SHINING

The Pastor's Special Thanksgiving—
Holiness Not an Empty Title—He That Doeth Righteousness Is Righteous—He That Plans and Does Holy Things Is Holy—God Has Been Slandered—In Bible Language—Blasphemed—Evil Plans Attributed to Him—Satan, the Deceiver, to Blame—Doctrines of Devils Were Worked Into Our Creeds In the Dark Ages to Turn Us From God and the Bible—Clearer Light Shining.

New York, Nov. 30.—Pastor Russell spoke here twice to-day. We report one of his addresses. The text, "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of Hosts," is a whole book in itself. (Isaiah 6:3.) The spoke with our notes as usual. (Isaiah 6:3.) The spoke with our notes as usual. (Isaiah 6:3.)

Century the Christian Church has been gradually led into a total misconception of the Divine character as manifested in the Bible. Little by little heathenish doctrines respecting an eternity of torture for all except the saintly, favored few, were preached. Gradually men with fervent spirit enlarged upon the errors until to-day the most horrible descriptions of the Almighty God are printed in Christian publications, creeds, commentaries, etc. No heathen people have ever pictured God as so devilish as the light. Ugly, fierce, devilish, compare with the Satanic descriptions which Christians in the creeds of the God of all Grace and Father of Mercies.—1 Corinthians 1:3.

The noblest and best people in Christendom have abandoned the horrible teachings of the Bible and are now worshipping the God of Love, the Fountain of blessings. But the world still judges our God by our printed misrepresentations of Him. In heathen lands, the missionaries are more and more being despised. The reign of orthodoxy is more tightly drawn on them. No wonder they can make little impression on the heathen. They are so blinded that they could not worship so unjust and vicious a God as the missionaries present—a God who has already sentenced their forefathers to everlasting torment. The ignorant ignorance of Jesus, in whose name alone is salvation!

It appears to me, therefore, that to whatever extent any intelligent Christian today gives aid or support to these slanderous, blasphemous statements, of the creeds he is responsible. Nor does it seem to be sufficient that either a Christian or a congregation should privately disapprove these doctrines. Denominational names stand as representative of the doctrines which led to the formation of these heathenish creeds. The only honorable way of rectifying matters now is either as denunciations, publicly, openly and in round terms, to repudiate the slanders of the Devil; or, since this would be to do what would not each individual set himself straight by as public a withdrawal from such creeds as was his endorsement in joining. The latter surly is the surer and the difficulty. Moreover, it is the right method; for the Bible never authorized any one to organize various sects and parties. The Bible recognizes only the one Church of Christ—the Church of the First-born, written in Heaven. Every one who has accepted Christ as his Saviour and consecrated his life to a faithful following of Jesus—all such, begotten of the Holy Spirit, are members of the one true Church. Their names are written in the Lamb's Book of Life, and they have the promise that they will be granted abundant entrance into His Kingdom in the First Resurrection—if they abide faithful. "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life."

Let me not be misunderstood. I am not charging that these blasphemous doctrines were intentionally brought in to misrepresent God or to deceive the Church of the living and the dead. The Apostle Paul's explanation. He wrote prophetically, "I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtlety, so your mind should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ." (2 Corinthians 11:3.) This is exactly what has happened. The Church of Christ has been beguiled by the serpent, and the simplicity of Christ has been corrupted from the simplicity of the Truth into a mass of confusing and heathenish errors.

First came the beguiling of the bishops into thinking that they were successors to the Twelve Apostles and equally inspired authorities and trustees of Christ. Thus the doctrine of Apostolic Succession was gradually established. Jesus prophesied of these, describing them as false apostles, "which say they are apostles and are not," but do lie (Hebrews 1:22). As the bishops received credit as being living Apostles, the inspired words of Jesus and the Twelve Apostles whom He appointed took second place, and with the masses Bible study ceased as worthless and unnecessary.

Upon this foundation, the great Adversary built, item by item, the terrible doctrines of purgatory and eternal torture. When finally, by the Sixteenth Century, the Bible again began to be consulted, Satan so worked matters that some of our forefathers retained the Hell of indescribable torture for all except the elect few—penalizing because not Scriptural the only ameliorating feature—the purgatory theory.

Their eyes blinded with the errors of fourteen centuries, the Bible, worthy of everlasting life, for the Scriptures assure us that death is the penalty for sin, that the soul that sinneth must die, and that the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord, which will be given only to those wise enough and loyal enough to use it in accord with the great Creator's regulations and laws, framed for the benefit of His creatures and for the glory of His name.

Those whose eyes of understanding are gradually opening to see the real glory of Jehovah's character as reflected in His great Plan of the Ages may well have patience with others who see not as yet. The fact that our own eyes were so long in opening, the fact that we were so honest and sincere before as we are now, should lead us to assume that the same conditions apply to our brethren, professed people of God, everywhere. Moreover, we are not to be judges one of another. Proclaiming the Truth in as nearly as possible the Bible words, we are to be content to deliver our Message and to leave to the Lord the results.

It is ours to point out the horrible confusion into which the Lord's people got during the Dark Ages, and which justified the Lord in calling the nominal church Babylon. It is ours to point out the Message of the Lord, saying, "Babylon is fallen, is fallen (from Divine favor)! Come out of her, My people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues." Whoever sees that the entire nominal church; stem of all denominations is the Babylon referred to by the Lord has the responsibility of the Lord's Message without any urging on our part.

On the other hand, the Message of the Holy Name says that misrepresentation of the Divine Plan, making the world drunk with the wine of false doctrine, has been amongst the crimes of Babylon, as though the Lord, saying, "Babylon is fallen, is fallen (from Divine favor)! Come out of her, My people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues." Whoever sees that the entire nominal church; stem of all denominations is the Babylon referred to by the Lord has the responsibility of the Lord's Message without any urging on our part.

Whoever sees the big money of the Holy Name says that misrepresentation of the Divine Plan, making the world drunk with the wine of false doctrine, has been amongst the crimes of Babylon, as though the Lord, saying, "Babylon is fallen, is fallen (from Divine favor)! Come out of her, My people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues." Whoever sees that the entire nominal church; stem of all denominations is the Babylon referred to by the Lord has the responsibility of the Lord's Message without any urging on our part.

Whoever sees the real character of Babylon and the horrible work which Satan has deluded her into doing, still has sympathy with her and with her work, and with her blasphemous distortions of the Truth—such persons deserve to share in the confusion that is shortly to come to Babylon when she shall fall as a great millstone into the sea. "Light is shown for the righteous; Truth for the upright." (Isaiah 60:1.) Those who do not receive the Truth as meat in due season have reason to fear that they do not belong to the class described by the Prophet as the righteous and as the upright of heart. Honesty seems to be a quality which the Lord holds in very high esteem. The dishonest in word or conduct or in their thoughts are an abomination to Him, and should not expect to receive special favor or light or knowledge.

We may well imagine that the entire Millennium will be one grand Thanksgiving Day, in which the numbers who will praise God will be continually increasing as more and more they awaken from the tomb. As their eyes shall see and their ears shall hear of the grace and love of God, every tongue will confess, while every knee shall bow, not only to Jesus the Redeemer, but to the gracious Creator, who formed the Plan which the Millennium will execute.

The Master gives assurance that ultimately there will be no place where curses and blasphemies will be heard—no place where rebels against God and His goodness will remain. All such willful, intelligent sinners will finally be destroyed in the Second Death. "Then will come the grand anthem of the Universe: 'Every creature in Heaven, and on earth, heard I saying, Praise, glory, honor, dominion and might be unto Him that sitteth upon the Throne, and unto the Lamb, forever.'"

That will be the glorious Day, when our Master in His prayer, "Thy Kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth, as it is done in Heaven." And because God's will shall be as completely done on earth as in Heaven, therefore sin, sorrow, sickness, pain and death will no longer be conditions on earth, even as they are not conditions in Heaven. Thus will be fulfilled the Master's words, that there shall be no more dying, crying, sighing, for all the former things shall have passed away. He that sits upon the Throne shall have made all things new, and thus in His Messianic Kingdom God will have wiped away all tears from off all faces.

Thoughts From Balzac

Virtue's sentinel is work. Genius has big ears, even the inside. One cannot hold the same job with a calumny; one is above or below it.

If a law is vilified by the opposition even before it becomes a law, how can it ever be universally obeyed? Every force that man believes in invents simply a loan from the universal movement, and is instantly repaid.

Excessive civilization is close to barbarism, as steel is close to rusting. A moment's forgetfulness, and the thing happens.

The law cannot be the wish of a city, for it must oppose custom in order to serve as a barrier or counterpoise. The law proceeds from an intelligence above the level of society, that is represented by the great number. It can never be the wish of all.

The wayward young man, broken in health, was sent to the southern States to recuperate. He was in jail in Arizona for stealing a hindquarter of beef. He wrote home: "Dear Father—I've picked up some fresh skin I came here, but am still confined to my room. Please send me $100."—Argonaut.

Virtue's sentinel is work. Genius has big ears, even the inside. One cannot hold the same job with a calumny; one is above or below it.

If a law is vilified by the opposition even before it becomes a law, how can it ever be universally obeyed? Every force that man believes in invents simply a loan from the universal movement, and is instantly repaid.

Excessive civilization is close to barbarism, as steel is close to rusting. A moment's forgetfulness, and the thing happens.

The law cannot be the wish of a city, for it must oppose custom in order to serve as a barrier or counterpoise. The law proceeds from an intelligence above the level of society, that is represented by the great number. It can never be the wish of all.

The wayward young man, broken in health, was sent to the southern States to recuperate. He was in jail in Arizona for stealing a hindquarter of beef. He wrote home: "Dear Father—I've picked up some fresh skin I came here, but am still confined to my room. Please send me $100."—Argonaut.

A Budget of News For Those Interested in Labor

By G. A. M.

Gleaned From the Exchanges and Other Sources

The Workmen's Compensation Act

The workers of the Province are vitally interested in the passage of a fair and equitable compensation act modelled on the lines as recommended by the Government's own Commissioner, Sir William Meredith, and this subject is now forming a very interesting topic both in organized and unorganized labor circles, for the same law will apply to all classes of workers, union or otherwise.

While the proposed act does not concede all that the workers believe they are justly entitled to, it will be accepted by them as an evidence of good faith on the part of the Government if it is passed in the form as recommended by the commissioner. If the act is mutilated and shorn of its protective features at the behest of the manufacturing interests who have openly, it is alleged, voiced their opposition to the measure, it will not be acceptable to the workers of the province.

For years the need of an equitable measure has been keenly felt, and the said need has been acknowledged by politicians and employers alike. There is no question that the present existing act is worse than useless and must be superseded by a better one. In selecting Sir William Meredith to investigate the entire question and bring in recommendations upon which to model a fair and workable scheme the Government made no mistake.

Sir William Meredith is a man in whom the people of Ontario have the greatest confidence. As Chief Justice of Ontario, he has earned the reputation of being one of the fairest and most impartial individuals that have ever sat upon the bench, and there will be a general disposition on the part of the laboring classes to believe that in making the recommendations to the Government that appear in his final report, he has been actuated by honesty of purpose and a desire to do his duty to the various interests that will be affected by the recommendations he has seen fit to submit.

In arriving at a conclusion the Commissioner has made a most exhaustive research; he has taken evidence in the industrial centres of the Dominion and heard the views expressed by workers and manufacturers alike. He has visited the United States and different countries in Europe, and become conversant with the legislation that the various governments have enacted dealing with the question at issue, and the results that have accrued therefrom. He has taken some three years in this investigation, and he is in a better position to make recommendations to the Government than are the manufacturers who are directly interested in the matter, inasmuch as it may interfere with a few dollars per year out of their already large and constantly growing profits or dividends.

Sir William Meredith is neither the representative of the workers or the manufacturers; he is the agent of the Government appointed to secure information and make recommendations as a natural result of the knowledge that he has gained by careful personal investigation and research. The recommendations that he has submitted, coming as they do from such a source, must necessarily carry great weight with Sir James Whitney and his Cabinet. To refuse to give them the consideration that their importance warrants would stamp the Government in the eyes of the workingman, as vacillating and insincere, and inasmuch as Sir James has given his word that he proposes to be guided by the experience and recommendations of the Commissioner and will not be influenced by the efforts of the manufacturers to mutilate the proposed act, organized labor, and the workers of the province confidently look to him and his advisers to see that the pledges given will now be redeemed.

The workers of Ontario are only desirous of a fair and equitable measure that shall be just to employer and employe alike, and in the act as proposed by the government's own commissioner, they believe they will receive no more than what they have a right to expect.

Are Making Headway

John P. Merrigan, of Montreal, third vice-president of the International Brotherhood of Boilermakers, Iron Shipbuilders and Helpers of America who has been in Toronto during the past few days, speaks encouragingly of the progress of the organization in Canada at the present time. Recently a new local was planted in Hamilton, Ont., which bids fair to blossom into a lusty youngster. The recent agreement secured in the Quebec section of the Canadian Northern was a most satisfactory one, both boiler-makers and helpers securing an increase of wages of three cents per hour. It was also the first agreement that the corporation has ever signed with the Brotherhood, and in addition to the higher rate of wages, working conditions were materially improved. The bogey of national unionism no longer bothers the international movement in the Dominion, it has clearly petered out. It is probably stronger in Toronto than anywhere else. A number of national charters have been returned, and their members have come over to the international fold. The organization was never in better shape than now. During the past year the membership had increased 1,214, and the need of organization was being more fully recognized than ever before. The union had long since passed the experimental stage.

The local organization in this city while not overly strong, is in good shape and is capably managed by intelligent and pains-taking officers.

According to a report just issued by the United States Department of Labor, the cost of living in the west has increased 50 per cent. in the past ten years, while the wages of skilled workmen have advanced only 26 per cent. So far as the wages of the unskilled and unorganized workers are concerned there has been but little change.

Announcement Of Prize Winners

We are sorry that the decisions could not be made sooner, but the fact that the number of replies received was so large and they were all of such high quality, has rendered the work of judging more difficult than we expected.

However, a full announcement of the prizes will be made on that date and also of the time and place of presentation of these prizes.

What Will the Churches Do?

There never was a time in the history of the Province of Ontario when the church has had such a splendid opportunity to demonstrate its interest in the cause of the working masses as at the present moment.

The question of an equitable workmen's compensation for injuries act is, above all, a moral and, if you will, a religious question—a question that is of immense import to the wage-earning population of the Province, and moreover, one that the church cannot afford to sidetrack or ignore. It is an act designed to protect the home and the family when the breadwinner has been taken by death while in the discharge of his duty or incapacitated by accident from earning a livelihood for those dependent upon him.

It means provision for the widow in her hour of need and in her battle to maintain her home and protect her little ones from the grim spectre of want and destitution.

If this is not a religious question that affects the moral and material welfare of the working class whom the church teaches that "Jesus died to save," then there has never been a real religious question since the creation of the universe.

How society shuddered in horror at the recent catastrophe on the Great Lakes, with its toll of less than three hundred lives, and hastened to make provision for those who had been bereaved of husband and father. What of that infinitely vaster army, that infinitely greater tragedy, the hundreds sacrificed yearly upon the altar of industry in this great province for which no provision has been made, and whose needs are just as real and worthy of relief?

Will the church at the present moment take advantage of the splendid opportunity that presents itself and raise its voice in defence of the widow and the fatherless and for the protection and sanctity of the home? Will the thousand pulpits throughout Ontario speak out and demand justice for the workers of the land? If they do, there can be no question as to the ultimate result, if they fail, then perforce the workers must fight the battle alone, as they have so often done before.

Never before was the church so on trial, in the eyes of the laboring classes, as at the present moment. What is the verdict to be? Will it speak out and take a stand in the battle for the home or remain silent and allow the golden opportunity to go by?

London To Have Labor Temple

At last it seems as though London Ont., is to have a real Labor Temple, and after years of patient waiting the initial steps have been taken to acquire a home where the various organizations may meet and feel it is their own. It is hoped that enough progress will be made to have the building open for occupancy by next spring.

The plans provide for a two-story building, with a basement. In the basement, plans provide for a banquet hall 29 x 39 and a kitchen, 29 x 10, cloak rooms and all other conveniences. On the ground floor there will be an assembly hall 32 x 36, this will have a stage. On the first floor the meeting rooms, the plans call for two. The proposed building will cost about six thousand dollars and will be especially built to allow of additions to be made that will harmonize with and add to the symmetry of the edifice. Work has also been received that the site for the proposed building has been acquired. It is situated in a most central locality.

At the present time there is a serious dearth of suitable meeting halls in the Forest City for labor and fraternal organizations, and the place once completed, it would mean that additions would have to be constantly made; this would bring in added revenue, and within a very short period of time an imposing edifice will have been erected that will stand as a monument to the local labor movement.

The price of shares has been placed at ten dollars each, and there is no reason why every local union in the Forest City should not be enlisted in the work and aid in carrying it on to successful completion.

What are the Brantford Labor Unions doing towards securing a new Labor Temple in this city? There was a proposition mooted at one time to secure the old post office, but it is quite a while now since anything has been heard of this matter. It seems to be high time for organized labor to wake up in this city in this regard, and provide themselves with a hall that will not only be useful to themselves, but an ornament to the city.

Are They Opposed?

According to the "Industrial Banner," from which we quote the following, "one thing the workers of Ontario may now rest assured, and that is that if the Canadian Manufacturers' Association can have its way the proposed new workmen's compensation for injuries act will not be modelled on the lines recommended by Sir William Meredith, the Government's special commissioner.

This fact does not redound to either the honor or credit of the employers' organization, for it was expected, and the impression had been created, that on this occasion at least the manufacturers would be actuated by a broader spirit and would honestly unite to secure the passage of an act that would provide ample protection to the workers who might be killed or maimed in their factories while engaged in advancing the interests of their employer.

In fact, up to the time that Sir William Meredith submitted his preliminary report and recommendations last year it was believed that both the representatives of the manufacturers agreed upon the provisions of the proposed bill to be introduced into the House.

The person whom the manufacturers association had secured to present their case before the commissioner, practically acknowledged that the stand taken by the Labor representatives was the proper one. They agreed that any measure to be of any practical value must entirely eliminate the possibility of law suits, that in the past have largely eaten up any benefits that may have accrued to the injured through the operation of the present, obsolete compensation act.

It was, therefore, a matter for both surprise and regret that after Sir William had presented his first draft of recommendations that the employers should change ground and use every effort in their power to occasion delay and though the evident intent of the commission to secure the passage of an equitable measure that would be fair and acceptable to both employer and employe alike.

Mr. F. W. Wegenast, the representative of the manufacturers association, who has had charge of their side of the case, now intimates most unmistakably that he proposes to fight the proposition, and is opposed to the most important provisions contained in the commissioner's report, as noted the following, which has appeared in all the large local daily papers.

"According to Mr. Wegenast, there has been a great deal of misapprehension about the proposed law. Farmers, he said, are included, and domestic servants, retail merchants, barbers, doctors, preachers, lawyers, hotelkeepers, and the like. He points out that these industries are not included in the insurance system, and therefore come under the common law liability. At the same time, Sir William Meredith proposes to take away from these employers their three common law defences—namely contributory negligence, common employment, and assumed risk. When sued for damages the employer will not be able to plead any of these defences, and in the event of a judgment will have to pay the damage directly himself.

The above arguments of Mr. Wegenast are too shallow to deceive anyone who is at all conversant with the real facts of the case. It is not intended that farmers, doctors, etc., shall come under the provisions of the legislation proposed, and the agent of the manufacturers is well aware of that fact, and is arguing for effect from a mistaken premises to it possible, work up opposition to the proposed new measure.

Labor will insist upon an act that will entirely abolish the defence of contributory negligence and assumed risk, if the manufacturers want law suits the workers do not. The cat is now already out of the bag. Mr. Wegenast has apparently spoken without due consideration and given the case of the manufacturers clearly away. What the latter apparently desire is not justice for the workers, but negative law suits to make the proposed new act like the present one—of non-effect."

Our Wants

Every man is as big as his wants, are little. If he can get along without other people, other people cannot get along without him! If he can find ample amusement within his own skull, he will discover entertainment in everything and everywhere!

If one big book, like the Bible, like Shakespeare, is a library for him, he will be able to extract profit from all books. If any tree furnishes for him a beautiful picture, he will walk in a prepetual art-gallery. It is not what we lack that makes us unhappy, it is what we think we need. Contentment is the richest possession, and self-reliance is the fundamental power.

This is because the kingdom of God is within us and not outside us, and so our most precious goods and our strongest resources are there. Happy is the man that understands these things, and is not led away by the temptations of exterior.

According to a report of the National Civic Federation, in seventeen department stores in New York City 1,000 women and girls earn less than $8 per week; 2,063 get less than $5.

Carpenters Will Unite

The intelligence that the referendum vote submitted to the memberships of the Amalgamated Society and United Brotherhoods of Carpenters and Joiners had been carried in favor of both organizations, will be welcomed by the entire labor movement. It means the building up of one powerful carpenters' organization in the Western Hemisphere, a union of hands, a union of hearts, and a union of high endeavor not only will it strengthen the carpenters as a craft, but it will be an incentive for other dual organizations to follow the example thus set before them.

Now that the carpenters have come together, there is no reason why the International Association of Machinists should not do likewise. In the solidification of labor lies its strength for both offence and defence. It is too late in the day for craft divisions and dissensions. The vote of these two big organizations will be far reaching in its effect. One craft, one union, is a good motto, and its necessity becomes more apparent every day.

Already in our own city, it is understood, that joint meetings of the two organizations have been held, and that eventually one solid front will be presented in the future.

Labor Notes

The North Dakota Educational Association has declared in favor of women's suffrage and teachers' pensions. The Minneapolis horseshoers union has secured the nine-hour day and an increase in wages averaging thirty per cent.

In Alabama and the Carolinas 10 per cent. of all employees in the great cotton mills are children under sixteen years of age.

Through the efforts of the local union of barbers in Niagara Falls, N. Y., the barber shops in that city will hereafter be closed on Sundays.

The International Longshoremen and Transport Workers organized 28 new local unions last year, and it did not loose a single strike it entered upon.

The granite workers had 38 strikes on their hands during the past year, and won every one of them. It is needless to add they are solidly organized.

Sixty-five thousand workers in the factories of St. Petersburg and throughout Northern Russia laid down their tools on Nov. 19th in protest against the trial of the Buchar workers on a charge of illegally quitting their employment. If the workers are convicted a strike will be called all over the empire.

A board of arbitration has awarded the Detroit Street Railway employes an increase of wages of two cents per hour, bringing the scale up to thirty-two cents per hour.

The threat of a general strike by the French miners has brought the government to time. On Nov. 10th in order to avert a walk-out, assurances were given to representatives of the union that the question of an eight-hour day would be taken up by the Chamber of Deputies immediately. Consequently only a few men came out, as it was realized that the strike would be premature. There are over 200,000 members of the miners' organization. If action is delayed, however, every mine will be shut down.

John F. Sheenan had the trades unionists solidly behind him in his fight for election as a Massachusetts State Senator, and won by a plurality of over 2,000. As is well known, Governor Foss, thrice elected as governor, was turned down by the same vote which formerly was responsible for his elevation. It does not pay to run up against organized labor in this little state; the politician who does so is sure to know what it means the morning following election day.

The board of school trustees of South Vancouver recently awarded contracts aggregating over $100,000 for the erection of additions to three of the school buildings. In the specifications for these buildings was inserted a clause which requires that union conditions, in so far as wages and hours, existing in the building trades at the time of the contracts, shall prevail through the construction of the additions. This result was attributable to a measure from the fact that the secretary of the local typographical union is a member of the board of having been elected last spring member of the board by the men of South Vancouver.

The October number of the morning Journal of Agriculture, that the establishment of markets in many towns of the province has not only brought down the price of living, but has at the same time increased the farmers' profits. Los Angeles alone has seven of these markets in successful operation, and are planned. It is claimed that the farmer saves as high as fifty per cent on the goods he buys by means of the municipal system, which eliminates the middleman.

At the half-yearly meeting of Earlscourt Central Methodist Own Brotherhood, Toronto, the church on evening of Nov. 20th a resolution was passed that all aures pertaining to the work of the Brotherhood should bear the Printing trades union label. The resolution is a live organization, discusses the live questions of the day, and has pronounced in favor of the union because it believes in the principle of a living wage. Good for the Brotherhood. Organizations in Britain might follow this example.
