NEWCASTLE GAINS 565 IN TEN YEARS

The Dominion Statistician announces, subject to correction, the population of certain Cities and Towns of the Maritime Provinces having a population of 2500 and over, as shown by the Census of 1921. The figures for 1911 are for similar areas.

It will be seen that of the eight towns of New Brunswick listed in the table below, Bathurst shows the greatest increase, gaining 2,351 people in ten years, which speaks well for that thriving town. Two of the towns, Chatham and Woodstock show a decrease, Chatham losing 177, and Woodstock 479. Out of twenty-one Towns in the undermentioned list, Newcastle has beaten out seventeen of them, coming fourth with a gain of 563.

NEWCASTLE CASE BEFORE MR JUSTICE CHANDLER

At Newcastle in the Supreme Court before Mr. Justice Chandler, without a jury in chambers, an action brought by James Rundle against the Miramichi Lumber Company was tried on the 11th and 12th instants. The two days were occupied in taking evidence. Previously evidence had been taken in New York under commission, which evidence was used on Wednesday evening the defendant's case closed and it was afterwards agreed that the argument be heard at a future time to be set down, convenient to the judge. A decision in the case will then be given.

James Friel, K. C., and Geo. McDade for plaintiff and M. G. Teed, K. C., and Peter Hughes for the defendant.

LORD BEAVERBROOK TO THE DEFENCE

LONDON, Oct. 18.—The Daily Mail for some time has been conducting a campaign against shopkeepers alleging that they are guilty of profiteering. Lord Beaverbrook's paper, the London Express, has taken exactly the opposite view. Lord Beaverbrook addressing the Traders' Federation, declared that the first object ought to be the restoration of home trade, a lower bank rate to cheapen money, extension of credit and lower income sugar and tea taxes. These factors have been ignored he stated, in the making of loose charges against the retailers.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE THOMAS VYE TOZER

The funeral of the late Thomas Vye Tozer was held Tuesday afternoon after the arrival of the Local express at Newcastle to the Baptist Church there and was largely attended, railway men from Moncton to Campbellton attending as well as many people from up river sections, Newcastle and Chatham.

The pastor, Rev. F. E. Bishop conducted the service, the choir leading in the singing of hymns appropriate to the occasion. The casket and pulpit platform were covered with beautiful floral tributes from sorrowing comrades, friends and relatives and at the close of the service the cortege wended its way to Miramichi cemetery where interment took place.

Rev. Mr. Bishop also conducting the service at the grave. The pallbearers were Dr. Bell Wm. Smallwood, Charles Dickson, Dr. McMillan, H. D. Atkinson and Howard Williston. The late Mr. Tozer, who was 51 years of age, had been 34 years in the railway service starting at the age of 17 under the late Mr. Fleming at the Newcastle station. He was the first station agent at Millerton; having been appointed when that station was erected about 1890 as a result of the starting of the Miller Tanning Extract Co's work and the growing importance of that community. Another item of interest in his railway career is that on the first day he became a train despatcher and the first train he handled was the Royal train containing the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York afterwards King and Queen of England on the occasion of their tour through Canada. So well did the young despatcher handle this train with its precious passengers that Mr. Tozer received a personal letter of congratulations from the superintendent of the road, a souvenir which he valued very highly and carefully preserved.

Mr. Tozer was a most popular railway official and had hosts of friends in and out of the service who extend their deepest sympathy to his widow and relatives in their bereavement.

The late Mr. Tozer was Chief Despatcher at Newcastle for a number of years and about one year ago was removed to Moncton on the abolition of the despatching office in Newcastle. Deceased leaves to mourn his wife, Isabelle Case, formerly of St. John, N. B., two brothers, Dr. Fred W., Portland, Maine, and Stanley at home, and two sisters Blanche, Mrs. A. J. Russell, Wolfville, and Jennie, Orange New Jersey U. S. A. The deceased's father was the late Jared Tozer, a highly respected resident of Miramichi and his grandfather was one of the Loyalists and among the first residents who numbered on the Miramichi.

Among the many beautiful floral tributes were the following.

- Pedestal—Campbellton Despatchers and Superintendent.
- Wreath—General Superintendent, Moncton.
- Wreath—From Moncton District C. N. R.
- Cross—Moncton Despatchers.
- Wreath—Truro Despatchers.
- Wreath—O. R. T. of which Mr. Tozer was a member.

Previous to the removal of the body from the deceased's residence in Moncton service was conducted at the house by Rev. Bowley Green of the First Baptist church, and the remains were taken to the local express and brought to Newcastle. The private

WOMEN MAY GO TO GREAT BRITAIN ON SAILING CRAFT

The Norwegian five-masted schooner "Hjeltenaes", now loading at Ritchie's wharf, Newcastle, for H. R. Goodday & Co., F. E. Neale, agent, and which made the long passage of fifty days from Preston (Eng.) met with bad weather on the voyage across and had considerable damage done to spars, balls and hull. The Norwegian consul appointed Captain Robert Walls, harbor master, Capt. J. Bullick and M. A. Goggin, port warden to hold a survey on the vessel. They have recommended that the necessary repairs be made. The vessel is being caulked where the seams have opened, and a new topmast and booms have been brought from St. John, large enough sticks not being procurable here.

This vessel is probably the largest sailer that has been in this port. This is the vessel that Mrs. Col. Brett and her daughter crossed on from St. John, and it is probable that Mrs. and Miss Perkins, of Chatham, may make the trip to the old country this voyage.

A vote for Meighen means a strong never falling home market.

MAGIC BAKING POWDER

Magic Baking Powder has been on the market for a long period. Because of the fact that it is superior to any other baking powder on the market, its sales have increased by leaps and bounds.

Sales for year 1920 show an increase of 2362% over sales in year 1905. During the past 24 years it has never failed to meet the exacting requirements of Canadian housewives. Its well earned reputation for purity, quality and economy justifies its being referred to as Canada's perfect baking powder, and it is constantly referred to in that way.

NEWCASTLE BOY CAPTAIN OF ST. FRANCIS XAVIER

Antigonish, Oct. 18—Charlie "Chubb" Morris, of Newcastle (N. B.), has been elected captain of St. Francis Xavier's 1921 rugby team. It was thought at the opening of college that Morris would not be back this year; but he put in an appearance unexpectedly, and was warmly welcomed by St. Francis Xavier's warriors. He was just the man that the blue and white needed to lead its fifteen in the intercollegiate league.

Morris performed at quarter in 1919-20, when he proved one of the best men at his position in the inter-collegiate league. This season he will play on the half-line.

He has a big contract on hand. On returning to St. F. X. he found only the remnants of last year's fifteen. The material was for the most part inexperienced. At first the prospects were discouraging in fact, almost hopeless. But it is doubtful if St. F. X. ever had men more anxious to learn the game and to turn out a formidable aggregation. This has had more than a little to do with altering the situation. It cannot be said yet that the blue and white team can rank with last season's—it was one of the strongest teams in the league. But there is no gain saying the fact that St. Francis Xavier's has more reason for optimism than we believed possible when college opened.

Rev. R. K. McIntyre, who has coached Xavier's sons for several years, is on the job again this year. He and Morris are succeeding, and are receiving the fullest co-operation from the candidates.

The Xavierians will probably engage in one or two exhibition games before meeting Dalhousie here next month.

Some of the new men are proving surprises, and the few former players are all showing their true form, but there has been no real test yet; in fact, there cannot be a game until the machine is assembled. Of the new men, Dalton, of St. John, is showing up especially well on the forward line.

But the fact remains, that St. F. X. will be represented in the inter-collegiate league and other battle fields by a "dark horse" team.

C.N.R. MEN TO BE RE-EMPLOYED AT ONCE

Toronto, Oct. 18—A move to relieve unemployment was made today by the Canadian National Railways sending out instructions to the general managers to re-employ the men laid off in the past six months, according to an official announcement made by the management here. In addition to the work to be undertaken in the shops of the Canadian National Railways, contracts for repair work will be carried on in the car building plants of the various Canadian equipment companies located at Fort William, Hamilton, Ont., Montreal, Amherst and New Glasgow, N. S. The announcement states that the work will be begun at once.

THE SEALING INDUSTRY

The seal pack in the Northern Pacific waters is considered to be the most valuable herd of wild animals in the world, its value being placed at $75,000,000, and yearly increasing.

After a conference in 1911 between the United States, Russia, Japan and Canada, all of whom are interested naturally of gratifying proportions, and will be more so in the future. It has been computed roughly that one million seal skins are marketed every year, and to this aggregate the largest single collection is contributed by the sealers of Newfoundland operating on their own coast and off 700,000 seals have been slaughtered by the entire Newfoundland fleet in a single season.

A novel method of hunting seals, under the auspices of the Government of Newfoundland, is to be introduced in the spring by two Nova Scotia aviators which, if successful, may revolutionize the entire industry. The party of three men, with two aeroplanes and dirigibles of the type used so successfully during the war to "spot" submarines, will leave Montreal to join the Newfoundland sealers at St. John's, the augmented party of thirty-five or forty, leaving for the Labrador ice fields.

Hitherto the locating of seal herds has been done by men in the rigging of ships whose range is naturally limited. This work it is intended to do with planes, "spotting" being possible by this means within a radius of fifty miles. The method, then, is as follows: The aeroplanes, which

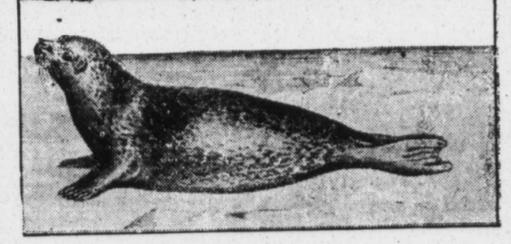

The Fur Seal.

In sealing in these waters, a close season was established for fifteen years, and pelagic sealing forbidden. According to the treaty signed at the same time, Canada receives fifteen per cent. of the catch of these waters. The Dominion's credit has been allowed to accumulate, and when a settlement is made which will probably be done at the end of the present year, it is expected that Canada will receive some $1,000,000 as her share of the catch since the opening of the season. With the beneficial effect of the protection of the herd has had and is still experiencing, it is predicted that in a few years Canada's revenue from this source will be in the neighborhood of $1,000,000 per year.

All the year round hair seals, which are great roamers, have been in the habit of infesting the Fraser River and the Gulf of Georgia, inhabiting inaccessible flats, and by consuming large quantities of fish already taken in nets, have constituted themselves a general nuisance. Various methods of combatting this pest have been tried unsuccessfully, and experimentation is continuing, in the belief that a successful method of trapping will not only terminate the mischief these animals are doing, but result in the creation of a new and important industry on the Pacific Coast.

The hair seal is valued partly for its hide, which is used in making various kinds of leather, for oil which is extracted from the carcass, and on the Pacific Coast, for use in the manufacture of fertilizer. The hair seal is a particularly valuable animal at the present time, his hide selling for as high as $175. A recent development in the seal industry is the utilization of the skins of old males, a hitherto unprofitable section, which considerably enhances the value of the seal catch to any country. Canada draws revenue from seal fishery on both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, and the amounts accruing from these are, at the present time, the shores of Labrador. In the year 1919, Newfoundland's share of the seal fishery accounted for $1,293,000, with a market value of $278,000. The industry on the island accounts for the employment of 1,685 men and numerous vessels take part in the often hazardous undertaking.

The seal industry originated in Newfoundland in 1763, and for some years after that the annual catch did not exceed three or four thousand skins per season. With the increasing demand for oil and skins, however, the industry grew, and more men and vessels came to engage exclusively in it. By the beginning of the nineteenth century, the annual catch exceeded 60,000 skins, and larger and larger vessels were built for the pursuit, till later these were superseded by fast steamers. At the present time, though there are some sailing vessels still engaged, the steamer is the big unit in the activity and accounts for five-sixths of the catch.

Of late years the seal catch of Newfoundland has fallen off somewhat due to the heavy toll and indiscriminate killing which is now regularized by legislation. The 1908 catch, for instance, numbered 213,863 seals and that of the following year 269,320 animals. A single vessel has been known to bring in to St. John's a catch of 42,000 and a total of nearly carries five men besides the pilot and mechanic, descends to the ice where the animals are despatched by bullets from pump guns. The skins are then packed in bundles about the base of poles to which a flag is attached. This kind of hunting continues to the end of the season when the ice breaks up, the hunters proceeding from place to place transported by plane, as new herds are "spotted". At the close of the season the vessels visit the ice breaks and pick up the bundles, being materially assisted by the planes in locating and signalling.

Close upon the announcement of the projected activities of these aviators there arrived in St. John's two "blimps" or war airships, a present to Newfoundland from the Imperial Government. These it is intended to use in the seal fisheries in the same manner, the cost of operation, estimated at $60,000, being borne jointly by the Newfoundland Government and the owners of the sealing vessels assisted in their catch.

The co-operation of the government in this new venture would augur a belief in the practicability and success of the novel, enterprise, and doubtless their success, which is highly probable, will have a marked effect upon sealing on both coasts, and tend to bring about a revolution in hunting methods.

Success in Retailing

An essential factor in achieving success in a retail business is ADVERTISING—telling the buyers of your community what you have for them.

One doesn't need to be exceptionally clever or a genius to be a success, but one must have an aim, and pursue it resolutely and intelligently.

The businesses that are prospering and expanding are those that purposefully seek out new customers and place before both old and new customers the news of their service, in the form of Newspaper Advertising.

FACTS OF IMPORTANCE TO THE VOTERS

OTTAWA, Oct. 19.—(By Canadian Press)—The coming general election will be the first in Canada which has been held since the abolition of the office of the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery. Provision was made, in recently amending the Dominion Elections Act, for abolition of that office, and the appointment instead of Col. O. M. Biggar, of Ottawa, as Chief Electoral Officer, as set forth in the Act, are:

(a) Throughout every election to properly direct all returning officers, and, in case of incompetency or neglect of duty on the part of any of them, recommend his removal and the appointment of another in his stead.

(b) Exercise general direction and jurisdiction over the administrative conduct of elections with a view to ensuring the fairness and impartiality of all election officers and compliance with the provisions of this Act.

The Chief Electoral Officer holds office "on the same tenure, is removable only for cause and in the same manner, and is from time to time paid the same salary and superannuation allowance as a puisne judge of the Supreme Court of Canada." He shall rank as a deputy head of a department, shall communicate with the Governor General through the Secretary of State of Canada, the Act states, and in addition to taking charge of the administration of elections he is required to act as counsel for the crown or the attorney general and make such enquiries as the governor general may direct.

Outside of his assistant and two stenographers, "all of whom shall be appointed by the Governor-in Council," the Chief Electoral Officer is not given any permanent staff attached to his department. Provision is made, however, for him to appoint such temporary help as may be necessary from time to time for carrying out his duties in connection with the holding of elections. The Chief Electoral Officer is, of course, in charge of all other election officers.

It is not generally known that provision is made in the Dominion Elections Act for the penalizing of any election officer "who is guilty of any misfeasance or any wilful act or omission in violation of this act." The act provides that such election officer shall "forfeit to any person thereby aggrieved a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars in addition to the amount of all actual damage to such person thereby occasioned.

"Every election officer who refuses or neglects to perform any of the obligations or formalities required of him, by this Act, shall, for each such refusal or neglect, forfeit the sum of two hundred dollars to any person who sues therefore," the section continues.

Every election officer who, without assistance is not debarred from voting, is required to make oath in the prescribed form of his incapacity, and the deputy returning officer may then assist the voter by marking his ballot in the manner directed by such voter, in the presence of the sworn agents of the candidates or of the sworn electors, representing the candidates in the polling station, and of no other person, and place such ballot in the ballot box. The deputy returning officer is required by law to indicate in the poll book where such votes have been marked by him.

In the case of a voter applying for a ballot, when the deputy returning officer does not understand the language spoken by the applicant, he is required to swear an interpreter, "who shall be the means of communication between him and the voter with reference to all matters required to enable such voter to vote, and in case no interpreter is found, such voter is not to be allowed to vote."

Voters are required to vote without undue delay, and as soon as they have voted the law requires them to leave the polling station. Provision is made that in each polling station there must be separate rooms, or parts of the room curtained off into which the voter may retire for the purpose of making his ballot, and these must be fitted out with a table and a pencil.

A section of the Act governing court procedures under the Act provides that "no person may be required to state for whom he voted" in any proceedings which may arise.

Penalties are provided in the act for persons guilty of illegal or corrupt practices at elections. Sections 86 of the Act provides that: "Any person who during an election commits a corrupt practice or an illegal practice shall ipso facto become disqualified from voting and incompetent to vote at such election. He shall also in addition to any other punishment for such offence by this or any other Act prescribed, forfeit to any person who in any competent court shall therefore sue:

(a) For every corrupt practice committed the sum of two hundred dollars and costs; and

(b) For every illegal practice committed the sum of one hundred dollars and costs."

LIBERAL LEADER IS HEARD IN CHATHAM

The electors of Chatham received a surprise Tuesday when it became whispered around that the Liberal leader would appeal there and address a meeting in the Palace Theatre in the afternoon. Mr. King was on his way to Campbellton where he addressed the electors of Restigouche in the evening. He stopped off at Newcastle and motored to Chatham, addressing a crowded house in the Palace Theatre for an hour, motoring to Newcastle and catching the Ocean Limited for the north. At short notice the Palace was packed to the doors and the crowd spread into the street.

Sheriff W. F. Cassidy occupied the chair. Among those on the platform were Hon. John Morrissy and W. B. Snowball. When the sheriff introduced Mr. King he was received with cheering. With only an hour at his disposal Mr. King did not deal with the different questions at length. Mr. King's address was practically the same as that at St. John on Saturday.

He left Chatham immediately after the meeting for Newcastle to make connections with the Limited.

The Vital Issue

"What we have to decide is this—Are we going to continue the protective system of this country or are we not? That is the question and that is the whole question. And the great, big, necessary thing is that every voter in this country from the Yukon to Halifax knows that this is the question he or she is deciding when he or she votes in this great contest."

—ARTHUR MEIGHEN

THE vital issue in the coming election—in fact, the only issue—is the Tariff, and to every clear thinking Canadian it should be readily apparent that a Protective Fiscal Policy is absolutely essential to stability, progress and development.

Every important country in the world upholds Protection as an essential economic principle. Even Great Britain—so long the stronghold of Free Trade—has now adopted laws that constitute Protection of the most effective kind. In fact, the present policy among most nations is towards raising their tariff walls, not lowering them. In the face of these facts it would be suicidal for Canada to do exactly the reverse and discard the fiscal system which has been responsible for its progress during the past forty-three years.

Free Trade would mean death to Canadian industry. It would also result in the immediate closing down of Canadian plants of foreign firms, with consequent additional unemployment. There are to-day 650 American factories alone in Canada. Similar proposed ventures would be abandoned. New capital would refuse to come to a Country lacking adequate protection and present industrial enterprise would be promptly strangled by foreign competition.

The preservation of the home market by a Reasonable Protective Tariff is vital to both city dweller and agrarian alike—now as never before. More capital is urgently needed for the development of Canada's enormous resources, which will result in a lessening of unemployment and an increased population. More work and more workers will produce an enlarged home market for products of both city and farm, and the exodus of Canadian men and women—and the dollars they earn—will be precluded.

The United States has slammed her trade door in the face of Canadian farmers by adopting the Fordney Bill, and the farmer is consequently now even more dependent upon the home market than in the past.

Yet Crerar asks you to destroy that home market by voting for Free Trade.

King's policy—if he has one—will result in the destruction of the Tariff.

Meighen stands four square for Reasonable Protection—Protection for all the people—and asks for an overwhelming mandate to give both industry and agriculture that assurance which will spell prosperity for all. Individual prosperity depends upon National prosperity. Your personal interests and Canada's very existence hang upon your vote.

Annual Convention of Sunday School Ass.

Several Sections of County Represented at Annual Convention of Northumberland County Sunday School Association Held in St. Luke's Hall, Chatham, Thursday 13th inst.—Election of Officers.

The annual convention of the Northumberland County Sunday School Association was held in St. Luke's Hall, Chatham, on Thursday, the 13th inst. W. M. Matthews, the president for the past year, occupied the chair at afternoon and evening sessions. The attendance was fairly representative of the several sections of the county. The programme was calculated to combine in good proportions the educational, inspirational and practical.

The afternoon session opened with devotional service conducted by Rev. F. H. Littlejohns. Miss Alice Logie, secretary-treasurer, submitted the report of the Executive. Committees on nomination, resolutions and credentials were appointed with Rev. F. W. Thompson, F. H. Littlejohns and W. H. Forsythe conveners respectively. Rev. F. E. Bishop gave a thoughtful and suggestive and helpful address on Evangelism in the Sunday School in which he set forth the attitudes of the different branches of the Christian Church towards the child and emphasized the essential value of early religious training. An interesting discussion followed.

Miss Alice Harrison, visiting representative of the Maritime Religious Education Council, gave a comprehensive address on Sunday School work in the elementary classes. With the blackboard she outlined in a helpful way the different characteristics and ways of approach to children of different ages. The conference which followed revealed the practical interest of the teachers present and had led to many suggestions for improvement.

Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, making use of map and blackboard, presented a picture of the New Testament World, the world in which the Master and His Apostles lived and did their work. He discussed the subject from the point of view of its geography, government, social life, culture, morals and religion.

The evening devotional service was led by Rev. J. B. Champion. The president, Rev. W. M. Matthews, addressed the Convention on "The Co-operation of Parents with the Sunday School have the same end in view, the cultivation of Christian character in the growing child. The home determines very largely the habits of industry in the child, its conceptions of God and duty, emotional reactions, habits of speech, habits of cleanliness and neatness, obedience, accuracy, promptness, habits of study and standards of conduct. The Sunday School could give much assistance to parents in the training of their children in such ways as holding meetings for parents for the helpful discussion of their common problems, by sharing in child welfare activities and providing needed literature along these lines.

Rev. Mr. Anderson, in the second Bible study of the Convention, discussed the work of the Apostle Paul, discovering in his unique religious experience the key to his great missionary career as the "apostle to the Gentiles." He followed him through his career of evangelism showing his methods, the permanence of his work, his resourcefulness in dealing with different situations and problems, and withal his service to Christianity in saving it from becoming a mere sect of Judaism and helping to make it what its Founder designed, a great world religion.

Miss Harrison's evening address was of a very high order, setting forth the challenge of the children to this generation, demanding the best in training and equipment for the task of life, from the home, the church and the community.

The election of officers for the ensuing year following the report of the nominating committee resulted as follows:—

President—Rev. F. E. Bishop
Vice-Presidents—Mrs. F. Fowle, Mrs. Robert Loggie (Loggieville)
Sec'y-treas.—Miss Alice Logie
Additional members of the executive, Rev. F. H. Littlejohns, Herbert Edwards, Mrs. F. D. Swim, together with representatives to be named by the respective denominations.

Rev. W. M. Matthews was elected County Delegate to the Maritime Convention of the Religious Education Council to be held in St. John, Oct. 13—20, with Rev. F. E. Bishop, alternate.

The report of the resolutions committee was adopted emphasizing Evangelism in the Sunday School work of the year, adopting the new name of the Religious Education Council of Northumberland County, and thanking the officebearers of St. Luke's Hall for the use of same, and the people of Chatham for hospitality, and to Miss Alice Harrison, visiting representative of the N. R. E. C. for her helpful services.

Mr. Forsythe reported for the credentials committee showing in detail the attendance and the place and work they respectively represented. The Convention was regarded by all as one of real value and helpfulness.

The Mackenzie King Levis Bomb Only a Little Flare of Political Fireworks.

St. Thomas, Ont. Oct. 22—Speaking to a large gathering of West Elgin voters in the Star Theatre to-night, Premier Meighen answered a series of questions put to him by Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King, Liberal leader, relative to a shipment of high explosive shells which Mr. King saw unloading at Levis, Quebec. The Premier's answer was positive to a degree. "There hasn't been one dollar spent for munitions since the end of the war," he told his audience. "Let me hasten to assure Mr. King that he is not in the least danger from these explosives. They are for use in the active militia, and, as far as I know, he is not in it."

The Premier's explanation of the fact a shipment of shells was unloading from the Canadian Government Merchant Marine vessel "Canadian Runner" when Mr. King passed through Levis was that the explosives were allotted to Canada by the British war office. During the progress of the war, the war office had taken charge of the distribution of arms and equipment and when the Armistice came and demobilization was decided on, equipment and ammunition in possession of the Canadian troops had been turned into army ordnance depots. Requirements of the Canadian active militia were met by the War Office on demand from the militia department at Ottawa and the shipment referred to by Mr. King had been sent in response to these demands.

More Anxious to Get Letter in the Press

"Mr. King got off for a little constitutional at Levis," remarked Mr. Meighen, "and he found conditions so terrible in regard to these explosives that he deemed it his duty to pen me a public letter which I have not yet received. He was apparently more anxious to get the letter to the newspapers than to get it to me. I'm not the head of the Militia Department. It is well managed by Hon. Hugh Guthrie. One might have thought that Mr. King would have recovered sufficiently from the shock he received at Levis, by the time he reached Ottawa, to make his inquiries at the Militia Department. But no, he had to ask me as that he wanted to spread rumors all over this country that the Government was spending the people's money on high explosive shells."

Explanation of the Shipment
The Premier then read a lengthy telegram from General MacBrien, chief of the general staff of the Canadian Militia, in explanation of the shipment of shells. It was as follows:

Referring to the press article regarding shipments of ammunition from England to Canada, there has been no ammunition nor any war equipment of any sort purchased by Canada since the termination of the war. When war broke out, all available guns and ammunition in Canada were shipped to England as soon as possible and handed over to the War Office for which Canada received credit. When the Armistice came and demobilization of the Canadian forces overseas was decided on, an agreement was entered into with the War Office under which practically all the equipment and ammunition in possession of the Canadian troops was turned into army ordnance depots. The Canadian Government obtained credit, for same. Demands were submitted to the War Office for requirements of the active militia and the shipment referred to by Mr. King constituted part of these demands. These demands were based upon the number of rounds of ammunition required for each gun returned to Canada in accordance with the standard scale.
"About July, 1920, a financial settlement was made with the War Office whereby the Canadian Government was given a credit for the balance of equipment which was needed and for which no demands were submitted. In order that some of the equipment and ammunition, which is subject to deterioration should not be out of date, a shipment was arranged so as to correspond as nearly as possible to the time it would be required. This explains why some ammunition is arriving now. Clearly, therefore, no present expenditure is involved in this arrangement.
"Regarding demobilization appropriation, it may be said that the charges which have been going through on this vote represent no fresh commitments, but payment of war accounts delayed in adjustment."

The Premier's Reply to Mr. King's Letter

Stratford, Ont., Oct. 23—The following letter in answer to Hon. R. L. MacKenzie King's published Saturday morning was given out yesterday by Premier Meighen:
"Dear Mr. King, I see by the morning press that you have written me a letter dated Ottawa, October 21, making a long series of inquiries as to munitions supplies which you discovered at Levis. This letter has not yet reached me, its publication being evidently deemed more important to you than its communication to myself.

"You ask for an immediate and explicit reply to the various questions set out. This you shall have. The matter concerns the Department of Militia and defence and I am disposed to think you could have obtained the information by inquiry of that department. However I have no objection to making the inquiries myself and as soon as the facts are in my possession I will give them to you without delay, and will hope that in future you will be equally explicit in making replies to questions I have put to you. Please accept my assurance that no time shall be lost in removing from the public mind the wholly erroneous impression which your letter is designed to convey.

Yours faithfully,
(Sgd.) ARTHUR MEIGHEN

Hon. Mr. Guthrie to Hon. Mr. King

Guelph, Ont., Oct. 22—No munitions, said Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Minister of Militia, at one o'clock this morning, have been purchased since the war except a few spare parts to put in shape such material as we have in Canada. At the end of the war the British government handed over to Canada a tremendous amount of equipment to replace the equipment which Canada had taken over to England and France during the war. It has been coming to Canada from time to time since the war. It is quite possible that some of that handed over during the war may have recently arrived in Canada. The House of Commons was informed last session and the session before that the British government was sending this equipment.

This statement was called for by Mr. King's letter to the premier, issued at Ottawa last night.

FIRST SIGNS OF WINTER

With the equinox passed, and the rattle of the coal in the chute disturbing the quiet of the fortunate who are able to afford it, the first portents of the coming winter appear. These are the prognosticators, ever sure of attention, even surer of them selves, ever sure of their prognostications. "What kind of a winter will we have?" Already the answers are beginning to come. Here are three of them:

"Trappers in Canada predict an exceptionally severe winter. Furs are thicker. So is bark on the trees. Squirrels are laying in larger stores of nuts than usual." Unfailing signs—we're in for it.

But before rushing out and ordering 10 tons more of coal, we read on:

New Bedford sages point to an unusually cool August. This means, they say, "a very warm and very mild winter." Countermand the order for coal. New Bedford is nearer us than Canada. We stick by New Bedford. Now for the third, which ought to determine the majority:

Gus Leonard, sage of Tauton (still nearer home) has looked at the corn husks; he has examined his greatest source of information in former years, the pin-feathers of chickens. "This will be a 50-50 winter," says he, "not as warm as last, not as cold as the one before last."

Who will gainsay the prophets? Who can, with this list of predictions? For the coming winter will be either:

"Exceptionally severe."
"Warm and mild."

REBUILDING THE CARAQUET RAILWAY

Bathurst, Oct. 21—The Caraque railway is at length showing considerable improvement. During the season now coming to a close no less than fifteen miles of the road have been fully ballasted. This work has been done on a section of the Gulf Shore branch and on a section of the Caraque branch, in places where ballasting was required the most. All the bridges en route have been overhauled and strengthened to such a point that all of them can accommodate the new one hundred ton engine that are operating on the line.

The former small rail has been taken up over considerable stretches and the heavy eighty pound rail put in its place. It is stated on authority that this important piece of reconstruction covers a length of twenty miles. Gangs of men have been engaged on this and other railway work during the entire season, and very welcome work it proved in view of the slump in economic conditions. Another feature of the reconstruction work is the excellent ditching that has been done all along the line.

DO ALL MY HOUSE WORK

Before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I could hardly get about.

Cobourg, Ont.—"For many years I have had trouble with my nerves and have been in a general run down condition for some time. I could not do my work half of the time because of the trouble with my monthly sickness. I was told of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by friends and advised to try it. It has done me good, and I strongly recommend it. Since I have taken it I have been able to do all my own work, and I also know friends who have found it good. You can use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. ELLEN FLATTERS, Box 761, Cobourg, Ont.

Why will women continue to suffer so long if more than we can understand, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For forty years this good old fashioned root and herb remedy, which contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham's Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

"New Party Ideals"

The main respect in which the extreme Farmer movement differs from a similar movement in the United States is that while the Progressives in this country are all for Free Trade the Farmers in the American West are all for protection against the products of their Canadian brethren. In both cases the motive is selfish and dictated by "class" consciousness. If the principle in either case is sound for either country it ought to be for both countries. Yet Mr. Crerar with a voice that could be heard from Vancouver to Halifax declared that "the same selfish game is being played by the same selfish interest which are seeking to preserve Canada for their own exploitation." The difference between the farmers and those who seek protection for industry is that in one case it is "all for the farmers" and in the other case it is for all classes—the man who invests his money in business, the working man who gets employment, the merchant and other agencies who distribute these goods, and the community as a whole which increases in wealth as the result of industry.

Mr. Crerar while he rails at tariffs in Canada finds no fault apparently with protection on the other side of the line which is of the same kidney in politics as themselves, because he assures us that the tariff against Canadian agricultural products was not dictated in quite the same sense of hostility. If not, it was pure selfishness on the part of the Farmers as a class.

Mr. Crerar complains of the burden of high taxation. Whatever they amount to, it is very certain that the burden is falling on the farming community, which constitutes considerably over 50% of the population of Canada. In the year 1920-21, the following, in brief, is a statement just issued by the Department of Finance respecting direct taxes collected and it must be borne in mind that Mr. Crerar favors direct taxation as the only sound way of collecting revenue.

Individual Farmers	16,568	Total of Individuals	190,361
Amount Paid	$562,507		$29,491,198
Taxes from Corporation
No. of Farm Corporation	54		3,096
Amount Paid	460,139		12,795,743
Unclassified In-corporations			4,094,864
Business Profits Tax			40,841,491
Grand Total Farmers	$611,736	All of Canada	$87,223,207

Taking off the duty on everything the farmers use means that the farmer who are in a majority in interest and property in Canada would pay the one-thousandth part of the cost of running the country and still he dares to talk of the "selfish interests" which must bear the greater part of the necessary taxation. Mr. Crerar wants greater and stricter economy. It means, however, that he is going to be economical with other people's money. That is not usually the way things work out. It is not in Ontario at least.

Mr. Crerar speaks of the enormous public debt incurred by the Railways. He was a strong supporter of the Laurier Government which was responsible for that debt. He was for three years a member of the Union Government that was taking over these Railways and he must have known the inevitable result. There can be no other policy of dealing with that than that which has been adopted. That is, by consolidating them and operating them under an independent Board of Management. Sir Joseph Flavelle, Chairman of the Grand Trunk Commission, one of the ablest financiers in Canada who harbors no illusions about wizarding in finance, has made it very clear that when we have sinned as a Nation we must suffer and bear the penalty. There is only one alternative to public ownership of Railways that has been forced on the country, and that is throwing these Railways to the "financial wolves" of the world, while Canada goes on staggering under a huge guarantee and the interest on the huge amount added to public debt on account of the Railways. Sir Henry Drayton has done what Mr. Crerar must advise, the writing off of the huge amount of money from assets declared to be on account of the Railways and added to the debt, which is dealing with finance honestly and above board—Mr. Crerar disclaims no thought of class politics, which he says he abhors and detests. Originally he must, therefore, have disliked himself, as he admits the movements started as a class organization with this attitude, but is absolutely at variance with the brains of his own party—Mr. Wood, of Alberta and Mr. Morrison, of Ontario. The leader of the Progressives has been compelled to make this disclaimer on account of the impression which the class movement has made on the minds of the rest of Canada. And especially on account of the letters written by his Chief Lieutenant, Dr. Michael Clark, who has repudiated a party whose policy he declared is that of farming for farmers.

UNITED STATES IS AT PEACE WITH THE GERMANS

Washington, Oct. 18—Formal peace with Germany is at last established. The Senate voted tonight 66 to 20 to ratify the treaty negotiated by the present administration and substitute it for the Treaty of Versailles. The treaty declares peace to exist between the United States and Germany, guaranteeing certain rights granted to the United States under the Treaty of Versailles and attempts to safeguard the claims of American citizens against Germany. The Senate also ratified the Peace treaties with Austria and Hungary which are virtually the same as the German pact.

Old and New Mc Gill.

E. W. BEATTY, McGill's New Chancellor

JAMES MCGILL, Founder of McGill University

Although the centenary celebrations at Montreal indicate that McGill University is already a hundred years old, the roots of that great educational institution reach still further into the past. In the fascinating volume "McGill and Its Story" just published, Cyrus MacMillan, the author, states that the British settlers in Lower Canada, after the conquest of Quebec were aware that their children should have at least an elementary education. It was felt, too, that in the unrest and the uncertainty of the period immediately following the American Revolution it was not advisable to send students in search of higher professional training to the universities of the United States, which in the days of their British allegiance had attracted Canadian students in large numbers.

Efforts were accordingly made to establish a system of free schools with the hope that later a university might be founded. As a result of the agitation for the providing of educational opportunities in Lower Canada, The Royal Institute for the Advancement of Learning was established under this Act, the King gave directions for the establishment of a competent number of Free Schools for the instruction of children in the first rudiments of useful learning; and also as occasion should require for foundations of a more comprehensive nature. Accordingly, elementary free schools were soon erected in different parts of the Province, one-room buildings of cedar logs. Indeed, they were mere log-huts, but they provided the first free English Education in Lower Canada, and laid the foundation for a Canadian nationality. The Secretary's salary was always many months in arrears, and he frequently complained, with unfortunately little satisfaction, that not only had he given his time for some years without remuneration, but that he had expended even his own fuel and candles. It was not unusual for him to be censured "for not keeping school at all," or for giving too many holidays, or for tardiness in opening school in the morning and eagerness in closing it in the afternoon. At least one teacher was warned that his arrears in salary would not be paid and that he would be instantly dismissed "if he did not treat his wife with greater kindness."

The Royal Institute for the Advancement of Learning sanctioned the establishment of McGill College and directed it in its affairs for under the Act of 1801 all property and money given for educational purposes in the Province of Lower Canada was placed under its control. James McGill is described by his contemporaries as of "a frank and social temperament"; in figure, "tall and commanding, handsome in youth, and becoming somewhat corpulent in his old age," and in his leisure "much given to reading." James McGill died in 1813 and in his will bequeathed to the Royal Institution for the Advancement of Learning, in trust, the sum of £10,000 and his Burnside Estate of forty-six acres, together with the dwelling house and other buildings for the erection of a University or College.

The first Principal of McGill was the Reverend George Jehoshaphat Mountain, who was appointed Principal in 1824 while the university was only a name. The official opening did not take place till June 24th, 1829, and was attended by what the contemporary press called a gathering of "numerous and respectable individuals." In the early history of McGill, due to lack of funds and quarrels between the Board of the Royal Institution and the Governors of the College, in November, 1845, the Governors had only the sum of £54 at their disposal. They divided it between the Bursar and the two Lecturers in proportion to the amount of salary received by him during the year; but he still, says the author, had his cow and his garden!

Dr. D. C. Maccaul wrote an account of medical student life about this time. "A large proportion of the students," he said, "were men verging on, or who had passed, middle age. Indeed, several of them were married men and the heads of families. There was sufficient of the youthful, however, to keep things lively. 'Footing Suppers,' practical jokes, and special country excursions to secure material for practical anatomy were of frequent occurrence. The last, involving as it did a certain amount of danger, commended itself particularly to the daring spirits of the class, who were always ready to organize and lead an excursion having that object in view. These excursions were not at all infrequently dangerous, and the participants in them were sometimes thwarted in their attempts and had to beat a precipitate retreat to save themselves from serious threatened injury.

The first real progress was made when the late Sir William Dawson became Principal. "When I accepted the principalship of McGill," he said in his reminiscences, "I had not seen in Montreal, and knew the college and the men connected with it only by reputation. I first saw it in October, 1855. Materially it was

FISH MARKET RATHER SLACK

The price of fish is lower now than at this time last year, and business is rather slack at present. The price of salt fish has dropped and is $1.00 per hundred less than last season. Salt gaspereaux are scarce but are about $3.00 per barrel less than last October. Fresh fish, which were very plentiful last season, are very scarce now. This fact to a certain extent is attributed to the storms and high winds which have been prevailing along the seaboard this fall.

British Columbia stock which consists of frozen halibut and salmon is also lower in price than last fall.

Tanlac is sold by all leading druggists everywhere.

LOOK ON THIS PICTURE

Wherever thinking men congregate in these days, the consensus of opinion is that Mr. Meighen is a wonderful platform speaker and debater, and that he is putting up an excellent and brilliant fight. His speeches are models of clear explanation, logical reasoning, powerful unassailable argument and trenchant criticism. He does not attempt to orate in spread-eagle fashion, as so many public men do. He approaches his subjects in the most business-like fashion, and handles them with a skill which arouses the enthusiastic admiration of his friends. "A bonnie fechter" is he, and a consistent one too. The message he delivers does not vary one jot or little no matter where he may be speaking. The sincerity of the man has also made a strong appeal to his auditors and the country. Truly he is in deadly earnest. Fully seized of the tremendous difficulties facing the country and the awful gravity of world's conditions, he is straining every nerve to ensure stability of Government and policy, which alone can pull us through. Determinedly and with fine native courage he has set his face sternly against class and group Government. He does not stoop to pander to his opponents. He recognises the danger of class division and strikes out from the shoulder against it.

And On This

Reading the reports of Mackenzie King's speeches, one is struck with the poverty of constructive ideas and with the plenitude of political platitudes which have done service on the hustings almost from time immemorial. He does not seem to be able to realize the gravity of the national situation, and the consequent necessity for public men, grappling with national problems in bold resolute fashion. He is apparently content to play the old-fashioned political game of picturing his opponents as political devils incarnate and himself and his friends as political angels. The people are sick and tired of that sort of flummery. They know that both parties being composed of human beings are a mixture of good and bad. The public—if we judge them aright—have reached the point where exaggerations, general denunciation and general charges cut no figure with them. They are looking for a way out of the national troubles; they are looking for real leading. They want to know where public men stand on the important questions of the day, and they resent being trifled with as they have been by Mr. King, whose real policy and convictions—if he has any—nobody in Canada can tell from his platform or other utterances.

WHAT YOUR BOY NEEDS AT HOME

Parents occasionally forget that there are certain things which cost hardly anything, some of them nothing, which are most powerful of all in making home an attractive place for the boys. The first is good-natured treatment. In this the father is perhaps essentially potent. He is tired when evening comes, the dinner hour is not much better, nor the hurried early morning. Now, is father always as good-natured to his family as he should be? He lives for his family and is perhaps shortening his life in hard work for their benefit, and he thinks the children appreciate this, so as to overlook a little crossness. But they do not even know it. How should they? What children do know and feel is evenings at home most unattractive to them. With them, as with wives as with all human beings kindness is the most drawing power in the world.

Next to crossness the thing which chiefly makes a boy lose interest in his home is the apparent lack of welcome. This idea is surprising, perhaps, but it actually creeps into many homes. Father is tired, mother is tired, and the evening is the only time in which they have to rest. Who can blame them if they feel more comfortable if the boys are out or in a room by themselves. Along with the habit of enjoying quietness better than the company of the boys in the evening, grows up the habit of monopolizing whatever accommodation the living room may have. The space around the fire, the lounge, the better chairs are all occupied, and unintentionally they are crowded out.

It is not luxuries they are suffering for, but necessities, a tolerably undisturbed spot to sit in and to read or work out some boyish scheme, a little library, and what is to them perhaps sweeter than all, a real companionship with father and mother, and a welcome to his visiting friends.

Smiling, sunny kindness gives the

FOREST PHONE LINE NOW TO HOLMES LAKE
The Department of Lauds and Mines of New Brunswick has announced the completion of the construction of five miles of return circuit telephone line from the end of the present New Brunswick Telephone Company's line above Red Bank, Northumberland County to Dennis' on the Little Southwest Miramichi. This line connects with a thirty-six mile tree-line extending to Holmes Lake on the headwaters of the Little Southwest. Arrangements have been made with the owners of this tree-line for its use during the fire season. This will make possible the establishment of a lookout station at Martin's Bluff at the head of the Little Southwest from which a large area of Crown timber lands can be seen.

This telephone line already has been put to use, The Sinclair Lumber Company having installed a telephone in its depot camp above Dennis'.

A DESIRE TO EAT WHAT YOU WANT

Stomachs Can be Restored to a Healthy Condition

Not to be limited in diet, but to eat whatever he pleases is the dream of every dyspeptic. No one can honestly promise to restore any stomach to this happy condition, because all people cannot eat the same things with equally satisfactory results. But it is possible to so tone up the digestive organs that a pleasing diet may be selected from articles of food that cause no discomfort.

When the stomach lacks tone there is no quicker way to restore it than to build up the blood. Good digestion without rich, red blood is impossible, and Dr. Williams Pink Pills offer the best way to enrich the blood. For this reason these pills are especially good in stomach trouble attended by thin blood, and in attacks of nervous dyspepsia. Proof of the value of Dr. Williams Pink Pills in cases of indigestion is given by Mr. John A. McDonald, Tarbot, N. S., who says: "Every sufferer from indigestion has my heartfelt sympathy, as I was once myself a bond slave to it. Eating at all became a trial, and as time went on I became a mere skeleton of my former self. I took all sorts of recommended medicines, doctors' and nurses' prescriptions, but to no avail. Then a friend said to try Dr. Williams Pink Pills. I got a box and I thought before they were done I could feel a change. Then I got six boxes more, and by the time they were used I was eating my meals with regularity and enjoyment. My general health is now good, and it is no wonder that I am an enthusiastic advocate of Dr. Williams Pink Pills."

KING CANNOT USE HIS YACHT NEXT YEAR

London, Oct. 20—The King regrets very much that owing to the great need of economy he cannot afford to fit out the Britannia next year. This is great disappointment to His Majesty, as there is no other sport the king enjoys more. This announcement was made at a meeting of a Yacht Racing Association.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Tonic and Blood Purifier, and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.
