Town and County Items.

STRAWBERRIES.—Mrs. Robinson has got a fresh supply of fine, large, ripe strawberries, which she is selling cheap.

HORTICULTURAL SHOW.—The Spring Exhibition, in connection with the Guelph Horticultural Society, will be held in the Drill Shed to-morrow.

PIC-NIC POSTPONED.—The Wesleyan Sabbath School Pic-nic has been postponed till the 22nd inst. The late wet weather is the cause of the postponement, the grounds where it is to be held being at present not dry enough for comfort.

INDEPENDENCE DAY.—Yesterday was the Fourth of July, but as it happened to be Sunday, our neighbours across the lines were unable to celebrate the anniversary of their independence. They are doing it to-day, however, and as the gentlemen who operate upon Wall-st. are "taking a hand in," we have no change in our gold quotations.

DRAMATIC READINGS.—It affords us much pleasure to give publicity to the fact, that Mr. Thomas Batty Conolly will favor our Townsfolk with some very choice Dramatic Readings in the Town Hall, on Wednesday evening next, 7th inst., under the auspices of the Mechanics' Institute. Judging from the selections on the programme, and Mr. C.'s ability to accord them every justice, an intellectual and pleasant evening may be fully anticipated. To give additional interest to the Readings, and impart variety to the entertainment, they will be interspersed with appropriate solos on the flute, by Mr. G. Bagley, who is pronounced on all sides to be a most finished performer. We hope to witness a large attendance.

European Armies.—In the April number of Blackwood, there appeared an article on the armies of Europe, from which it appears that the population of the United Kingdom is about 30,000,000, while the army consists of 92,000 men at home; 34,000 in the colonies; first army reserve for general service, 2,000; second army reserve for home service, pensioners, &c., 23,000; untrained Irish militia, 23,000; yeomanry, 14,000; volunteers, 170,000, besides 62,000 regulars in India; making an aggregate of 420,000 men of all classes. The population of France is 37,500,000. Her regular embodied army is 400,000 men; first reserve to regular army 100,000; second reserve to regular army 228,000; Gardes Nationales Mobiles, 30,000, making a total of 1,058,000 men.

Prussia has a population of about 40,000,000; regular army, 300,000; to the regular army, 350,000;wehr 370,000; making a total of 1,020,000.

Austria, with a population of 40,000,000, has the following armed forces: regular army embodied, 255,000; troops, 52,000; reserve to regulars, 545,000; Landwehr, 200,000; gendarmes, 100,000; making an aggregate of 1,052,000.

The following is the cost of those countries: England, $71,000,000; France $30,000,000; Prussia, $48,000,000; Austria, $60,000,000.

It will be seen from these figures that it is immensely more costly to the British army than those of other nations, when the men are far more efficient, and men for fighting purposes, than any other army in the world.

Hamilton Races.

The first race of the second day was for the trotting purse of $300, divided into three prizes of $200, $70, and $30, for horses that had never beaten 2:40; mile heats, 3 in 5. Entries, "Lady Comp," "Johnny Moore," "Maitland," and "Stayer Boy." Six heats were trotted before the match was decided. "Johnny" took the first, "Stayer" the second and third, "Johnny" the fourth, "Lady Comp" the fifth, and "Johnny" the sixth, winning the race. "Stayer Boy" had been the favorite, and a good deal of money was lost on him. The best time made was 2:43.

The next race was a steeple chase, 2 1/2 miles, six entries, viz., "Giant," "Mary Mansfield," "Barbours," "Chang," "Mrs. Baldy," and "Starlight." The first mentioned horse bolted at the first hurdle, "Chang" did likewise at the mile-and-half hurdle, "Mary Mansfield" fell and almost killed her rider, "Starlight" came in an easy first, "Baldy" second, and "Barbours" close behind her.

The last race was for the Linckepers' purse; first prize $150, second $50.—"Highland Maid," "Johnny Schumaker," "Nettie," and "Pretender" entered.—"Nettie" won with ease in two straight heats.

THE FENIANS IN NEW ZEALAND.—A Mr. McKay writes from New Zealand, that the Fenians have been stimulating insurrection among the native Haulaus. He reports: First of all, it was said that these persons were of a different nation from the English or Scotch, and were of the same people as shot the Queen's son in Australia; that if the Haulaus give them over the land, they would give £1 per man, a share of the proceeds, and would keep away all other Europeans, and assist the natives against the Government. While this was being stated to the natives, another man came up and gave the natives a flag, and that flag was sent on to the King's place at Tokangusutu by a native named Job.

The same party had certain books, with plates and engravings representing different things which had taken place at home, and in the Australian colonies within the last few years. This man was also sent in uniform and a oath, with the letters E. R. on it.

Termination of the Base Ball Tournament.

On Saturday night the first nine of the Guelph "Maple Leaf" Base Ball Club, and the friends who had stayed with them during the tournament at Woodstock, returned to town. They were met at the Great Western Station by Lawrence's Band, and had the fact proved to them that Guelph was proud of their achievements, even though they did not bring the first prize in the first class home with them. It would have been a feat of marvellous labor and endurance had they done so. On Friday, at 3 p.m., they were pitted against the "Young Canadians," of Woodstock, who on two former occasions had defeated them by a small number of runs. This match was undoubtedly looked upon as the match of the Tournament, and each club bent its energies to the task of defeating the other. At half-past six the game was finished, and the Guelph men were the victors. They had not won without work, and were far from feeling as fresh on Saturday morning as the Ingersoll Club, which had not played since Thursday, and with which they had now to contend for the first prize. The "Victorias" are no mean players, but for the first four innings the "Maple Leaf" men left them behind, but their exertions of the previous day began to tell on them, and the fresher Ingersoll men took the first prize of $100 in cash. The "Maple Leaf" Club brought home the second prize, a tea-set, consisting of four pieces, namely, coffee-pot, tea-pot, sugar bowl and cream jug. They will be on exhibition in a window in some of the stores—in which particular one has not yet been determined. Mr. John Goldie also received a gold scarf pin for the best fielding, and Mr. Kenneth McLean was second for throwing the ball. He threw it 109 yards, 5 inches, while the winner threw 111 feet.

The following are the names of the two men:

The World Over.

The arrival in Canada of Col. P. R. Ross, Adjutant-General of Militia, is noted in the Official Gazette.

On Thursday afternoon, a lad named Diener, fishing in the river at London, fell in and was drowned. His brother was at a short distance from him, and the first intimation he had of the accident was seeing a hat floating down the stream.

Mr. Wm. Gallinger, East Gwillimbury, went to bed in his usual health a few nights ago, and his wife hearing him make a peculiar noise shortly afterwards got up and found him dying. The cause is supposed to have been heart disease.

Mr. Thos. White, junr., our Commissioner in England, has recently been lecturing on emigration in Scotland. At the conclusion of one lecture, about 200 working men wanted to have an interview with him, and to obtain information about Canada.

Four boys belonging to the town of Perth were playing under a sand bank on Wednesday last, when the over-hanging sand gave way and buried three of them—two completely, the other up to his neck. When dug out, one of them, a lad named Stone, immediately expired. The others survived.

THE CHOPS ABOUT HAMILTON.—The Times says, that the continued heavy falls of rain are having a most injurious effect on the crops, everything running to stalks. The hay and grain have been badly "lodged," and will be liable to rot in large quantities. Vegetation, from its unusual luxuriance, gives the country an almost tropical appearance.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. Jas. Percival, conductor on the express train running between Sandpoint and Brockville, was on Sunday week on a visit to a friend of his named Yell, residing about two miles south of Arnprior, and while walking out through one of the fields, suddenly fell on his face as if dead, in consequence of a fit of apoplexy. On being taken up, he was found to be insensible, and died the following Tuesday.

CUBAN FILLIBUSTERS ARRESTED.—On Tuesday last, Mr. Pierrepont, the United States District Attorney for New York, acting under instructions from the American Government, ordered the seizure of three tug-boats, the McCoolle, May Bee and Chase, lying in Long Island Sound, with four hundred Cuban fillibusters on board, who were about to start for Cuba. The fillibusters were all arrested and handed over, for safe keeping, to Admiral Godon to await the directions of the President.

EXCISE REGULATIONS.—An order in Council has been passed authorizing the manufacture in Canada of benzine and light produce of petroleum which do not stand the prescribed fire test of one hundred and fifteen degrees Fahrenheit.

Also the following Order in Council respecting malt: That licensed maltsters and others engaged in that pursuit shall be, and are hereby permitted to kill any damaged grain of all kinds, without the payment of a duty of one per cent. thereon, on certain specified conditions.

THE ADMIRALTY AND THE DOCKYARD EMIGRANTS.—The Admiralty have revoked their expressed intention of not sending out any more emigrants to Canada. A letter from that body was recently read at a meeting of the Woolwich Relief Committee, in which it was stated that the Admiralty were prepared to send out a limited number of discharged dockyard emigrants who have been in government service for the space of one year, and who can pay either by themselves or the Relief Committee the sum of five shillings per adult. The Urgent was to leave Portsmouth for that purpose about the 24th of last month. It is said that the Relief Committee are in great want of funds, but that there is no want of intending emigrants.

A MAN RUNS AWAY WITH HIS MOTHER-IN-LAW.—The Beacon has the following: Stratford has during the past few days been made the objective point of an elderly man, whose wife had eloped with her son-in-law and of a woman mother of five children whose husband had run off with her mother. His name is Nelson. We saw his poor wife with her five helpless little children clinging to her, at the station on Tuesday. She had then come from Tavistock, where she had been vainly searching for the heartless scoundrel of a husband. Her father was here shortly before looking for her mother. They had lived in Southampton, but moved to Clinton, from whence the elopement took place. They had taken tickets from Clinton to Stratford, and it was supposed they had gone to Beachville. We hope they will be found, and speedily made to suffer the consequences of their guilty conduct. The wants of the unfortunate woman and children were relieved by Mr. H. King, and in the evening they returned to their desolate home in Clinton.

Despatches to the Evening Mercury

GREAT BRITAIN

LONDON, July 3.—The Times to-day says the debates in the House of Lords last evening have had the effect to render the Irish Church Bill more favorable to the Established Church, and more offensively partial in its provisions. Archbishop Cullen has addressed a letter to the officers of the Catholic College saying that if the Irish Church Bill is mutilated by the House of Peers, the nation must have a fuller measure of justice.

LONDON, July 4th.—The ocean match of the new Thames Yacht Club, took place on Saturday. The Cambria and the Amazon did not start owing to the death of the owner of the Amazon. The Druid took the first prize, and the Thought the second, and the Gloriana the third.

FROM FRANCE.

PARIS, July 4th.—M. Miral, and several other members of the majority of the Corps Legislatif propose to bring in a motion that greater development be given to the action and authority of the Corps Legislatif; That the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne be established; That the right and practice of interpellation be organized on a large scale; That the right to amend the projects of law be extended, and that the Chamber have the right to elect its own President. It is rumored that the Government will accept these reforms.

Later—M. Miral has withdrawn his motion for legislative reforms. The Opposition in the Corps Legislatif demand a responsible ministry and autonomy of the Corps Legislatif, in order that the country may govern the country. The negotiations between France and Belgium for a commercial treaty have closed with a satisfactory understanding on all points.

BREST, July 4th.—At noon on Saturday the Great Eastern had run 1,345 knots from Brest, and paid out 1,381 knots of cable. Everything was working well.

FROM SPAIN.

MADRID, July 4th.—Gen. Pezuela, the Isabelista, has been arrested on charges of military disobedience and conspiracy against the Government. A strong Republican manifesto has been published in Seville. Its appearance was simultaneous with the departure from the City of Aparts of a body of Republicans numbering 1,000. It is rumored that they have gone to Portugal, and will re-enter Spain through Estramadura. Troops have been sent in pursuit.

FROM PORTUGAL.

LISBON, July 3.—Vessels which have just arrived here from Fyral bring intelligence that serious disturbances had broken out in various parts of the Azores in consequence of the increase of taxation.

American Despatches

Havana, July 3rd.—Gen. Rodas is gaining general sympathy by his attempt to pacify all classes. He is now busily engaged in investigating the cases of prisoners confined in the Fort, who are the object of ordering the release of the innocent.

News from Caracas report that Gen. Pulgar had collected an army of six thousand men and was importing material of war, with the intention of resisting federal authority.

New York, July 4th.—The Steamer City of Paris from Liverpool has arrived.

Father Point, July 4th.—The Steamship Iberian passed inward at 11 a. m., with 33 cabin and 456 steerage passengers.

THE CUBAN REBELLION.—The New York Post's Washington correspondent sends the following bit of buncombe:—

The attitude of the British Legation plainly demonstrates that English officials think our present Cuban policy places the conduct of England towards the United States during the late war in a very awkward position. There seems no doubt that England would be rejoiced to see the United States pursue a similar neutral policy at the present time to the one which England followed during the recent civil war, and there is reason to believe that the interview which lately took place between Minister Thornton and Minister Roberts was in relation to this subject, and that the former endeavored, under instructions from the British Foreign Secretary, to induce the Spanish Minister to make no further calls on the United States authorities to enforce the neutrality laws. On the other hand the administration is well aware that if the laws be strictly adhered to and vigorously executed, England will soon be obliged to come to a just settlement of the Alabama claims.

EXAMINATION OF VOLUNTEER OFFICERS.—The Gazette has the following general orders:—

Board of Officers will assemble at London, Toronto, Kingston, Ottawa, Montreal, Quebec, St. John and Halifax, on Tuesday and Wednesday the 3rd and 4th of August next, for the examination in their respective districts of such Officers of the Volunteer Force throughout the Dominion as may desire to have their proficiency in drill and discipline tested and certified by such Board. The certificates which the Boards will be authorized to give will be of two classes: Class 1, for such officers as shall have proved to the Board their ability to handle a battalion at battalion drill; class 2, for such officers as shall have proved to the Board their ability to drill a company at company's drill, and to command a company at battalion drill. No charge for travelling expenses will be admitted. The Board will consist of the Deputy Adjutant-General and one Brigade Officer of each district, and a qualified Officer of the Volunteers, to be designated by this duty by the district staff. Officers desirous of appearing at the Boards, are requested to give notice of the same to the Brigadiers of their respective districts.

THE INDIAN QUESTION.

The question, What is to be done with the Indians? appears to be attracting the attention of some Canadian philanthropists, and evoking suggestions. They are in a tremor lest the aboriginal population of North America should be exterminated, a possibility which was hinted at, and not disapproved, by the London Times not long ago.

It is said that while the United States had used commendable patience towards the Indians of the West, its future policy must be to drive them out. Hereupon the tender-hearted remark, that the past policy of the American Government was supposed to be one of necessary severity, but has been abandoned for one of a more Christian description, that wild traders and hunters who neither feared God nor regarded man, had been the representatives of white men to the Indians, and that the retaliation of the latter has not been greater than their wrongs.

Further the fear is expressed that the red men of the States may be driven into Canada, where we are likely to have trouble enough with our own Indians, and that the country may be made by the retreating foe a base of operations against our neighbours, or perhaps ourselves. These possibilities are certainly sufficient to awaken the fears of the pusillanimous, and to induce zealous Christians to ask themselves and others if the Indians can be put to no better use than extermination.

Now, in an abstract point of view, there is one thing indisputable, that the rights of civilization are paramount to those of heathenism, and if the savage do not acknowledge his superior, there is nothing so terrible or iniquitous in the extinction of his race. For he obstructs the execution of an edict from Heaven, which made the earth to be tilled, and condemned fallen man to do the labour. He does not cultivate it, he is an anomaly in the human race, by no means hell-guiltless by the moral law on account of his ignorance, and possessing no right to retain as a cover for beasts of chase what the Caucasian will convert to its legitimate use.

We do not mean to say that the Indians should be exterminated on such short notice as the Moabites, Midianites and other enemies of Israel simply because they are heathens, but it looks very much as if such were the inevitable fate that awaits them, and we do not see that it calls for white men's tears. It is very pretty as a piece of sentiment to deplore the decay and extinction of a race, and an artist might make a fortune by limning the last Indian sitting on a log on the last camping ground that was left him, with "no delight but in days he had witnessed before;" but do these philanthropists regret the retreat and death of the red men before the advance of civilization—retreat and death which have given some of them opportunities of securing homes in a fertile country, and perhaps of amassing wealth. If they see nothing in this to deplore, then it is wretched logic to argue that others of their race who come after them have not as good a right to supplant the remaining Indians as they had their progenitors. Who ever thought of finding fault with Columbus for discovering America, because his bold venture was destructive of the claims of the aborigines? And does not the world now thank the Romans for carrying their conquering eagles over so many lands, or does it not believe that it would to-day have been better for India had Alexander's soldiers not mutinied on the western banks of the Indus, and compelled him to return to Macedonia?

"The Indians must be cared for; we believe they can be made good citizens," say the philanthropists. They will be cared for—if they choose; but looking at past efforts to transform them into good citizens, it seems a work of little less difficulty to civilize them thoroughly than to perfectly tame a hyena. Comparatively few have become fit for living in community with whites, and the inference is, that comparatively few ever will.—The Canadian Government deals fairly enough with the Indians located in various parts of the Provinces; their brethren of the North-West will probably receive like treatment, if they will only with proper grace accept the inevitable.

Teachers' Association.

The ninth annual Convention of the Ontario Teachers' Association will be held in the theatre of the Normal School Buildings, Toronto, on Tuesday, the 3rd of August next, at three o'clock p. m., and continue in session four days. Tickets of membership can be procured by communicating with the secretary. The annual fee is fifty cents to those who are members of Branch Associations, and one dollar to others. Ladies engaged in teaching, free.

The managers of the Grand Trunk and Great Western will grant return tickets for one fare at any of their stations, to those who present tickets of membership for the current year. Efforts will be made to secure accommodation on as favourable terms as possible for the members of the association while in Toronto. A person will be in attendance at the theatre of the Normal School Buildings, on the first day of the session, to give the necessary information. The opening address will be delivered by the President, Rev. S. S. Nelles, D. D., Principal of the Victoria University, Cobourg, at half past seven o'clock on Tuesday evening.

The Rev. W. M. Punshon, M. A., has kindly consented to give an address to the association, if his other engagements will allow.

The Stratford... readers will remember the exposure made in these columns some time ago by Mr. McGann, Principal of the Deaf and Dumb Institute, Hamilton, of the blasphemous pretensions of a fellow who gave his name as Oucida Castillo, pretending to have been miraculously restored to hearing and to speech, after having been twenty years deaf and dumb. The rascal subsequently visited Stratford, and called upon us and was permitted to take extracts from the published letter, having placed at his disposal our file for that purpose. He pretended that a gross wrong had been done him, and that he was about to seek redress, though the impression left by him on our mind was exactly similar to the idea formed of his character by Mr. McGann—that a more dangerous and unprincipled rascal could hardly be found. And so it turns out—the Spanish Castillo, for whose special benefit a miracle was wrought, now appears in a new role of villainy as Joseph Sterne, a converted Jew. In the course of his peregrinations he again honored Stratford with his presence, some time about the beginning of the year, and was introduced by a person whose acquaintance he had formed, to a respectable young lady of this town. Learning, doubtless, that the lady in question possessed considerable money, Joseph's cupidity was excited, he became more earnest in his devotions, and ended his career in this town by making the object of his attentions an offer of marriage, which culminated in his being shown the door. The next we heard of him was at Mitchell, where he played a prominent part at the so-called revival meetings. Here the hypocritical scoundrel became the guest of the respected pastor of the church, Mr. Mitchell, by whom he was treated with the greatest courtesy and attention. Of his exploits elsewhere we will let our cotemporary speak.

[Here follows the account of Joseph's doings in Kincardine, already published in the Mercury.] THE OLD STORY.—The Abyssinian war, it has now been ascertained, caused the enormous expenditure of $43,865,000, or $10,000,000 over the original rough estimate. A great part of this sum was absolutely wasted, and many scandalous transactions have been reported. Ships lay for months at so much demurrage a day, and their cargoes were at last sold for the benefit of the owners of the vessels, not being required for the army. Mules, in large numbers, were sold for a trifle, at Suez, having been bought at an enormous price in remote markets; and women were brought from Bombay, to grind corn, who never did any work at all. At an inquest held the other day respecting the death of a clerk in the employment of the Great Northern Railway Company, it was stated that the deceased had for the last two months been studying a book on diet, and, following the instructions given in the book, he fed himself upon less than a pint of gruel a day. The consequence was that from a robust man he became reduced to a mere skeleton, and one morning was found dead in his bed. The jury returned a verdict of "Death from congestion of the brain from the want of sufficient nourishment."

CHAPTER XXXV.—THE MURDERER'S WITNESS.

CHAPTER XXXV.—THE MURDERER'S WITNESS. GARY—AN UNEXPECTED REUNION—SOME AT LAST—CRUISING TIDINGS.

'Helm hard a-port, captain!' shouted a cheery voice from the rear of the carriage, as it drew up with a suddenness which nearly brought the horses on their haunches.

'Fort it is, Ben,' replied laughingly the man who drove.

'My eye, sir, but you do make this here land craft lie in a jiffy. If I had'n' held on by my mate here, I would have been pitched overboard.'

'Faith, but ye gied my guts an awful dunch, though,' remarked his companion, who sat beside him; 'but use no matter. Here we are at Shawhead at last, and by a' the world here is Maister Jobson himself.'

'Well, Jobson, how are you?' cried one of the gentlemen in front, as he leapt lightly to the ground and encountered the landlord as he approached to take charge of the horses.

Jobson stood still and stared at the speaker in silent inquiry.

'Don't you know me, man?' added the latter, with a merry laugh.

'And don't you know me?' exclaimed the driver, as he, too, leapt off and confronted the perplexed landlord. 'You saw me once at Annyrate, and they say a host never forgets a guest.'

'And dae ye no ken me, Maister Jobson?' exclaimed a third, as he jumped down from behind and took a vigorous grasp of the landlord's fat arm. 'Ye cannae have forgotten me—Watty Stewart o' the Holme.'

'Is this possible?' was the bewildered landlord's amazed ejaculation, as he stood staring from one to the other.

All this while Captain Mungall had been sauntering a few paces off, paying little heed to the new arrivals, but he, too, was suddenly thrown from his equilibrium in a way he did not expect.

The moment the travellers had descended from the carriage a huge dark object emerged from under one of the seats and ran to the ground. It was a large dog, and no sooner had he shaken himself and begun to look about him than, with a joyous bark, he made a bound towards the Captain, and sprang upon him with a vehemence which laid the gallant tar prostrate in the gutter.

'God bless me, what a dog!' what the dence do you mean?' shouted the amazed and enraged commander, as he lay sprawling on all fours, totally ignorant as yet of what had caused his overthrow.

Something cold was thrust against his mouth, and a tongue deliciously soft began licking his face.

'Shiver my timbers, it's a dog!' he ejaculated again—'a dog; and aged it, and I should know. He evidently knows me, too. Why, holy Moses, it's Bree!'

'Who on earth knows Bree in this quarter of the world?' called out a voice whose tones made the captain leap to his feet, when he grasped the speaker by both arms, and gazed, yes, gazed rather, into his face—the features of which were but barely discernible in the twilight.

The stranger gazed into the captain's face with equal interest, and both gave a great start at the same moment.

'Mr. Denman!'

'Captain Mungall!'

'Alive!' exclaimed the captain.

'You alive and here!' cried Denman.

'This is never Captain Mungall!' exclaimed another voice, as a third figure rushed forward.

'What! Mr. Douglas, too?' shouted Mungall.

'Why, it is the Captain!' cried Robert, becoming amazed in his turn.

'Of course, it's me. Oh, my head is in a whirl. Am I asleep or awake? Is this a dream, or—'

'Lord love you, Captain. You ain't your ghost, are you?' faltered Ben, who was hitherto afraid to come near.

'You too, Ben! Oh then, it's all right, and my passengers are not at Davy Jones' after all. Give me a hug, one and all of you, and suddenly, like one demitted, the Captain rushed to each in turn, and vigorously embraced him. They were as much overjoyed as he was, and never, probably, was such a scene enacted in the market place of Shawhead, as took place in that summer twilight. They looked like men bereft of their senses, so extravagant were their excited motions, gestures, and exclamations. And not the least demonstrative of the group was Bree, who leaped and capered and barked round and round them, till the empty market place echoed with his noise.

Mr. Bright and the House of Lords.

The following is Mr. Bright's letter addressed to the Secretary of the Birmingham Liberal Association, concerning which we have heard so much:

LONDON, June 9, 1899.

DEAR SIR,—I must ask my friends to excuse me if I am unable to accept their invitation to their meeting on Monday next.

The Lords are not very wise, but there is sometimes profit to the people in their wisdom. If they should delay the passage of the Irish Church Bill for three months, they will stimulate discussion on important questions, which, but for their instigation, might have slumbered for many years. It is possible that a good many people may ask what is the special value of a constitution which gives a majority of 100 in one House for a given policy, and a 100 in another House against it. It may be asked also why the Crown, through its Ministers in the House of Commons, should be found in harmony with the nation, whilst the Lords are in direct opposition to it.

Instead of doing a little childish tinkering about life peerages, it would be well if the Peers could bring themselves on a line with the opinions and necessities of our day. In harmony with the nation they may go on for a long time, but throwing themselves athwart its course, they may meet with accidents not pleasant for them to think of.

But there are not a few good and wise men among the Peers, and we hope their counsels may prevail.

I am sure you will forgive me if I cannot come to your meeting.

Believe me always, Very truly yours,

JOHN BRIGHT.

Mr. H. B. S. Thompson, Secy., Birmingham Lib. Assn.

TELEGRAPHIC.—The English Post Office have completed their arrangements, under the Telegraph Act, with the whole of the telegraph companies for the purchase of their undertakings, and have nearly settled their arrangements with the railways. The amount of purchase money required is now therefore so nearly ascertained that a reliable estimate may be arrived at of the probable financial result to the country. The money will be raised at from 3 1/2 to 4 per cent., and the revenue derived from the telegraph business shows a return of between 5 and 6 per cent. upon the total sum required, and therefore a large net gain to the national revenue. The basis of 20 years' purchase of the net receipts of the companies, as fixed by Parliament under the Act, includes the plant as well as the goodwill of the business. The Act of 1843 prescribed twenty-five years' purchase of the net profits and of the prospective profits of the railways, so that present arrangement is far more favorable to the country than existing precedents would have appeared to warrant.

THERE IS NO PLACE in the DOMINION WHERE DRY GOODS can be purchased on such favorable terms as in Guelph at WILLIAM STEWART'S. This fact is now universally admitted. Many families buy or order from Guelph, as they find Dry Goods of a superior class, and remarkable for cheapness. When such is the case, it is astonishing that any who can pay ready cash continue to buy from the surrounding villages an inferior class of goods at high prices, whereas by coming to Guelph they might have the best goods at the lowest price, therefore

WILLIAM STEWART,

Would respectfully invite any who are still unacquainted with his establishment to favor him with a call, being convinced that the superior quality of his goods, combined with the low price, cannot fail to give satisfaction.

GRAT SUCCESS.—It is needless to say that the success which Dr. Briggs has achieved in his profession as a surgeon chiropodist has been unparalleled in this place; many of our most estimable and worthy citizens, ladies as well as gentlemen, have been relieved from corns, bunions, club and inverted nails, without the slightest pain or uneasiness, and doubtless many more would, had they an adequate appreciation and knowledge of his ability. Few individuals are aware that the disease of the feet, if not fatal to one's life, are certainly as annoying as can be, and the remedy is simple and sure; the corn, bunion or inverted nail must be skillfully and carefully treated and the pain entirely ceases. The only way to obtain this relief is to apply to Dr. Briggs in person, and in a few minutes the trouble is over. Dr. Briggs can be consulted at No. 6 King Street, Toronto, where all diseases of the feet are treated in the most skillful manner. Dr. Briggs Modern Curative is sold by druggists and country merchants generally. For sale by E. Harvey & Co., Guelph.

IRON IN THE BLOOD.
The necessity of a due proportion of iron in the blood is well known to all medical men; when it becomes reduced from any cause whatever, the whole system suffers, the weakest point being first attacked, and a feeling of languor, lassitude and "all zozeness" pervades the system. Stimulants only afford temporary relief, and have the same effect as giving a tired horse the whip instead of oats. The true remedy is to supply the blood with the necessary quantity of iron. This can be done by using the
a protected solution of the protoxide of iron, which is so prepared that it assimilates with the blood, giving strength, vigor and new life to the whole system.
To take medicine to cure diseases originated by a deficiency of iron in the blood, without restoring to the system is like trying to repair a building when the foundation is gone.
The eminent divine says: "I have been using Peruvian Syrup for some time past—it gives vigor, buoyancy of spirits, elasticity of the system, and contains certificates of cures, and testimonials from some of the most eminent physicians and others, which will be sent on application."
