ITALY IS READY AND EAGER FOR INSTANT ACTION

Gen. Cadorna and Staff Have Arrived Near Austrian Border.

WAR ARDOR INFECTIOUS

All Factions Have United — Von Buelow Makes Final Preparations.

PARIS, May 19, 4:55 p.m.—Lieut. Gen. Count Cadorna, Italian chief of staff, has arrived with his staff at Vicenza, near the Austrian frontier.

A despatch from Amsterdam says: "The Cologne Gazette says it learns from Berns that the Austrian and German consul-generals left Rome yesterday with their staffs."

A despatch from Geneva says that several sergeants, having in charge heavy baggage bearing the monogram of Prince Von Buelow, German ambassador at Rome, arrived at Chiasso, Switzerland, yesterday. Freight traffic between Italy and Germany by way of Switzerland has been stopped. Cheering crowds carried British and French flags thru the streets of Milan yesterday.

The Copenhagen correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Co. sends the following: "German newspapers tonight state that Prince von Buelow (German ambassador to Italy) will be accompanied by Bavarian representatives at Rome, not today to make final preparations for the departure of the German and Austrian troops, but to discuss the Italian situation."

Italy Solidly United

ROME, May 19, via Paris.—The statement of the imperial German chancellor, before the reichstag yesterday, shows that Germany is still hoping against hope, that Italy may not join in the war against Austria. At the same time, the overwhelming evidence here is that the whole country is united and calling for war on its traditional foe.

Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg's announcement of the actual concessions offered by Austria has not tended to improve the situation, as no mention was made of either Gorizia or the Dalmatian islands, promising allusions to which were made in the semi-official statements published from time to time in the newspapers and presumed to come from Prince von Buelow, the German ambassador. The days of Italy's regeneration are recalled by the events of the present. Apparently there are no factions in Italy now, all differences having been laid aside for the time being.

All Parties United. Those who have been advocating intervention in the war, and those who have been working in the interest of peace have ceased to express their views, and are awaiting the action of the government. Seemingly there exist no longer Monarchists or Republicans, Clericals or Radicals, Socialists or Conservatives, but only Italians, determined to fight to the last man if that should be necessary to maintain and enlarge the European world position won by their forefathers.

The Republicans have published a manifesto declaring their readiness to go to the front "to fight for the glory of the country and the rights of nations." From all the provinces come offers from volunteers desiring to enlist and willing to make all sacrifices, as some express it, "to free our Italian brothers, who have so long suffered under a foreign yoke."

King Loudly Acclaimed. King Victor Emmanuel, visited the barracks today without an escort. He was recognized and acclaimed with the same enthusiasm and fervor as his grandfather on the eve of those eventful campaigns of 1859 and 1866. Queen Helena and the Duchess of Aosta, on leaving the Quirinal were the object of a public demonstration, in which the people shouted for victory for Italy, for Montenegro and Serbia.

Colonel Giuseppe Garibaldi visited the minister of war and asked his permission to organize a body of volunteers, who have so long suffered under a foreign yoke.

Large numbers of students gathered at the university and proceeded to the ministry of public instruction, where the minister, Signor Grippo, addressed them and thanked them in the name of the country, saying that much was expected of them. They hurried and several three deputies have already declared their intention immediately upon the adjournment of the chamber to go to the front, in case of war to serve their country.

Great Events and Greater History Being Made! How many of us ever thought a year ago that we would live to see the most stupendous days in the history of mankind? There never were such momentous days as these very ones of this week for so many, many men and women.

Continents, countries, races, governments, political organizations are all convulsed by this war. One of the old historians begins a chapter by saying: "There was a kinship among the Hellenic peoples at this time." By kinship he meant a movement, a boiling, a ferment; something illustrated by the modern idea of kinetic energy; an innumerable quantity of atoms in restless motion.

Europe is in this restless condition, and Italy now the most excited of the lot. For fifty years and more the Italian people have been getting ready for some great race manifestation and they are in the opening throes of it. It will be one of the surprising race manifestations of history. It is coming out of their body and out of their souls.

Just as the throbs that shake the German peoples come out of their minds or out of their savage instincts, Germany is consumed with a lust for power, for rule, toward some aim of the race to be attained by blood, by the destruction of other peoples and races.

The British peoples of all races and kinds—are also affected and in a mysterious way are animated by a common spirit of solid resistance to the German assertion. Unity of spirit and aim seems to govern the opposing elements. We thought Armageddon was a myth; we know it now to be a huge reality. It is greater and worse than anything we could imagine; the whole of Europe and more countries. Civilized warfare in part, but savage warfare in greater part—and no knowing to what limits it may go. The civilization of fifty centuries threatened with extinction.

And we sit and live in the midst of it or near it. The mother country is in the very centre of it. Britain was never so perturbed. So France, and Britain and France are spiritualized by the situation. The trials of these days, Germany is brutalized. That's the great difference. It's a fight of savagery against civilization.

And look at all the other peoples that are equally and suddenly animated: Russians, Poles, Hungarians, Bulgarians, Greeks, Jews, Turks, Japs, Chinese. The people of the great American republic find themselves highly un-roused and yet without any clear compass. "What is Hebeba to him, or he to Hebeba," and what is liberty to them and this giant empire to their political conception and birth? They are only groping so far. President Wilson has not grasped it.

All mankind suddenly devoted to the question of slaughter, one nation of another. What it all means we do not know, but we're in it, and we see it, and it is happening in these very days and all around us.

In other days men have disturbed sections of the world, of peoples more or less a few; but all civilization has been suddenly convulsed—perhaps by the Kaiser, perhaps by some more powerful force or stimulus. Whatever it is it is making history on a stupendous scale.

Look at the panoramic spectacle of this week's battlefronts in Belgium and France, in Austria and Russia, on the Dardanelles and adjacent lands, the marshaling of men and armies in Holland, in Italy, in Japan, in southeastern Europe. Red Cross organizations on a gigantic scale.

Look at the political events in Britain at the moment, at the tension suddenly developed between the United States and Germany; Austrian, Turkish and German diplomats leaving Italy; half of the work-shops and workmen of the world making munitions of war.

And yet the clouds may begin to settle and the portents to vanish.

TURKISH FORTS AT KILID BAHR NOW SILENCED

Fall of Nagara on Asiatic Side is Believed Imminent.

BIG BATTLE AT KRITHIA

Smyrna Heavily Bombarded —German Leader is Reported Killed.

LONDON, May 19, 7 p.m.—A message from Mitivene, forwarded from Athens to the Exchange Telegraph Co., says that the allies have silenced the Turkish fortifications at Kilid Bahr, on the European side of the Dardanelles, at the end of the narrow nearest Constantinople. The fall of Nagara, on the Asiatic side, across from Kilid Bahr, is said to be imminent.

The Turks are sending reinforcements to their positions along the Gulf of Smyrna. A telegram from Saloniki says the Germans have lost 45 officers and 600 men in fighting at the Dardanelles during the last six days. In the vicinity of Constantinople trains have been stopped owing to the shortage of coal. No food supplies are reaching the city and distress is increasing.

A despatch from Smyrna via Athens, says that a searchlight station at Smyrna was destroyed by British and French war ships on Monday. Hot Fighting at Krithia. A fierce conflict has been in progress at Krithia since Saturday. On Sunday the bombardment of the Turkish fort on the Dardanelles by indirect fire from the Gulf of Saros, destroying several battalions on the Asiatic side. The entire Anglo-French fleet is now reported to be taking part in the Dardanelles operations. More Turkish trenches have been carried. It is reported the allies disembarked fresh troops Monday night near Kum Kale, on the Asiatic coast of the Dardanelles. It has also been learned there that the Turks on the Gallipoli

KAISER DESIRES ITALY TO FIGHT?

Austria-Hungary Might Then Make Separate Peace With Russia.

COULD ABANDON ALLY

Italy's Intervention Only Matter of Hours, Belief at Hague.

THE HAGUE, May 19, via London. Interested members of the diplomatic corps at The Hague claim to be convinced that war between Italy and Austria-Hungary is only a question of hours. Hints have been dropped in several quarters that Germany is even anxious for Italy to enter into hostilities, as by this means the possibility might arise for Austria-Hungary to conclude a separate peace with Russia, which would enable Germany to withdraw many of her troops from the long eastern front for service elsewhere.

Germany, some diplomatists say, is not likely to be very active against Italy, and would rather utilize the services of many of her officers, now employed in Galicia, on the western front, where they were greatly needed. It is also argued by foreign diplomats that Italy's entry into the war would not immediately involve Roumania.

STRONG FORCES OF RUSSIANS ON WAY TO GALICIA

BIG ATTACKS KEEP UP

Germans and Austrians Endeavor to Force Passage of San River.

LONDON, May 19.—A telegram from Innsbruck states that a strong new Russian army coming from Bessarabia is flinging back the Austro-Hungarian forces in Bukovina, and is marching toward central Galicia, with the object of joining the principal Russian army in Galicia.

The Austrian army in Galicia, in conjunction with those of Germany, continue the making of massed attacks against the Russians, who are attempting to form a new line behind the River San, both to the north and south of Peremyshl, and to the west of the Vistula River, in southern Poland. These attacks according to the Austrian and German reports, have met with their greatest success north of Peremyshl, where the Germanic allies have succeeded in crossing the river, and have occupied Sienawa, on the eastern bank.

They are said to have captured some positions to the southeast of the former Austrian fortress, while their heavy guns are keeping up a bombardment from the west. In southern Poland their progress is so far marked, the Russians having had strong forces concentrated at Ivanograd, which they were able to bring into the field and check the advance.

Big Force on Offensive. It is stated from Petrograd that the Germans and Austrians are using between 30 and 40 army corps on the 200-mile front from Opatow to Kolomea, in eastern Galicia. East of the latter city, in Bukovina, the LONDON, May 19.—7:20 p.m.—Replying to a demand from several members that compulsory military service should be adopted Harold J. Tennant, under-secretary of state for war, said in the house of commons this evening that the British Government was fully alive to the necessity of mobilizing all resources for the successful conduct of the war.

There were a number of persons, he added, who did not realize the gravity of the situation, but the house should weigh well all considerations before it made any attempt to embark on a system of compulsory service. It would only be with reluctance that the government would embark upon such a policy.

FORTY YEARS AGE LIMIT FOR RECRUITS IN BRITAIN Minimum Standard Height for Infantrymen Lowered —Announcement Made by British War Office.

LONDON, May 19. (8 p.m.)—An official announcement by the British War Office in connection with the appeal of Lord Kitchener, secretary of war, for more men for the army, states that it has been decided that recruits enlisting into the regular army for the duration of the war shall be accepted up to the age of 40 years, and that the minimum standard height for a recruit shall be 5 feet 2 inches for the infantry. This decision applies also to enlistments into the territorial forces.

LACK OF MEN MAY MEAN FAILURE OF GERMAN PLAN

Entire Campaign Against Russia Threatened With Collapse, Because of Inability To Put Fresh Troops in the Field.

Special Cable to The Toronto World. PETROGRAD, May 19, via London. May 20.—Germany's chief difficulty is lack of men, and this now threatens failure of the entire campaign against Russia. She has no reserves to support Eichenhorn's army in the extreme north and it has been steadily driven back, until now the Russians are fighting near the frontier station of Wirballen. Matters are even worse in the extreme south, near Bukovina, where an Austrian attempt to outflank the Russians and approach Lemberg from the north has been itself outflanked. The Russians are pursuing the enemy, which is making a disorderly retreat, across the woods of the lower Carpathians into the flat land of eastern Hungary. Moreover, the Russian army, which successfully holds the west bank of the San from Peremyshl southward to the woody mountains of Dnieper and has Germany's army in the rear, has enabled Ivanoff to extend his line unbroken from Opatow, south Poland, to Kolomea, east Galicia. Over this 200 miles of line the enemy has probably 25 corps, of which 15 are German. Operating here in frontal attack, they failed and lost large numbers on the San. While attempting to establish themselves on the right bank they brought heavy artillery by motor traction against the western sector guns of Peremyshl.

FEARS TARIFF REFORM FROM NEW COALITION

Philip Snowden, M.P., Apprehensive of Change in Fiscal Policy, While Sir Gilbert Parker Says Non-Partisan Combination Inevitable—Best Brains Needed.

Special Cable to The Toronto World. LONDON, May 19.—In the discussions concerning the advisability of forming a coalition government in Great Britain, two schools of thought are exemplified by two interviews given today, one by Sir Gilbert Parker, Union M.P., and the other by Philip Snowden, Labor M.P.

Sir Gilbert Parker said: "Coalition was inevitable. No matter how able and competent a government might be, the pressure is so great in time of war that it needs help. It is not a question of whether or not we should co-operate, but of whether or not we should co-operate in such circumstances that the views of their originators. Therefore the opposition co-operating in such circumstances gets blamed with the government with whom it works by the general public, and confidence is shaken all around. If there be a coalition, however, criticism will be freer than it has been since the war began. Liberal men can be criticizing a ministry composed of both parties without fear of the whip or a reproach, say, as Hamlet says, the readiness is all."

Philip Snowden said: "The inclusion of a labor member in the coalition cabinet is in direct violation of the principle of non-partisanship. Even if I were to favor it—and I do not—it would still mean labor responsibility for the cabinet's actions. Without any corresponding labor influence in the cabinet, the whole arrangement is unworkable. It must lead quickly and inevitably to the formation of numbers of coteries and cliques in the house of commons in place of the old recognized parties, and thereby cause the influence of the house to sink to a minimum. How can we hold diametrically opposed views on practically every question of administration, even of the best methods for the direction and efficiency of national production, work harmoniously together for five minutes?"

Parliament adjourned tonight until June 2. Before its next meeting a new cabinet will be formed, and the first act of the cabinet will be to challenge a vote of confidence from the house of commons to wider statements. The rapid pressure of events both abroad and at home has driven the government to a change of heart and brought together the "old" statesmen to deal with the situation. The events abroad have been alleged to have been the Russian armies, which may be followed by more German opposition to the allies in France and Belgium, and the impotence of the public with the progress of the operations against the

The events at home have been the alleged friction between Winston Spencer Churchill and Lord Fisher in the admiralty, which one writer describes as the nerve centre of the situation, and the attacks upon both the war office and the workmen for their alleged failure to supply the army with increased supplies of ammunition.

TOO MUCH WORK TO DO

No Soldier Can Solve the Handling of the Democracy.

LONDON, May 20.—(12.27 a.m.)—In a free discussion by the newspapers of the ministers' abilities, even Lord Kitchener has not escaped criticism. The first public criticism of the work of the secretary for war came from The Times today, which said: "Against much wise advice he (Earl Kitchener) insisted upon keeping in his own hands the control of questions with which the war office is far too preoccupied to deal. He could not raise industrial organizations and direct the former imperial minister for the colonies will quietly efface himself, pack steamer back to continental Europe, he will be 'overlooked' by the British."

It is not regarded as likely that a request presented to the British Government asking that Dr. Dernburg be permitted to return unmolested to Germany would be acceded to. It is said, however, that tacit understanding may be reached that if the former imperial minister for the colonies will quietly efface himself, pack steamer back to continental Europe, he will be "overlooked" by the British.

But He Could Not Help Me, and Endorsed the Use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Mr. William Parker, 165 Cayuga street, Brampton, Ont., tells in the following letter of his remarkable experience with Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills: "My doctor treated me for some time for Sciatica, Rheumatism, Lumbago, but to no purpose. I had to go to bed, and he called for me and advised the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, stating that he had been cured of the same trouble by their use. I asked the druggist about them and he recommended them highly. Not being satisfied with this, I went back to my doctor and when he said they were good I began their use. The promptness with which they relieved the action of the kidneys and bowels was wonderful, and it was not long before I was rid of all my trouble. "I was so bad that I could only walk by hanging on to a chair or the wall. My wife had to lace my shoes. Only those who have had this ailment can realize the way I suffered. I am writing this letter to let people who have my trouble know of these pills. You are at liberty to use this letter, and if anyone is interested will call or write to me I will give every detail." Write to Mr. Parker, enclosing $1.00 to pay for the pills. He will verify this statement. He called to the office of the gratitude he feels for his cure, because he realizes how difficult it is to obtain the cure of these dreadfully painful ailments. There are so many treatments recommended for rheumatism that you name them all. Here is an opportunity for you to verify the cure and put this great medicine to the test. It is very necessary when disciplining a child to be sure that one teaches just what one intends to teach. Any punishment that does not aim to teach the child some definite thing is wrong.

The faults of a child are so closely associated with his virtues that one requires great caution in dealing with them. Often mothers fall completely to teach a lesson by punishment, because they confuse children until the reason for the punishment is lost sight of.

SOME ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Sometimes it seems hard to decide just what is the best thing to do regarding the voluminous correspondence that this department is growing accustomed to. True, queries must be answered, but sometimes it goes much against the grain to say the same thing over again and again. I suppose it must be that other people's troubles never appeal to our gardeners until those who are troubled become their own.

At any rate unusual inquiries do occur that must be answered at once. And here is one, the answer to which should afford help to more than the single one inquiring: Sweet William: The new leaves of your begonia are turning yellow and dying, you say. Several things may be the reason for this untoward occurrence: a draught; standing the plant in the sun immediately after watering it, especially if the sun comes thru the window pane; or your soil may have dried up without your noticing it; or the plant needs re-potting. Re-pot the whole plant in fresh soil, and after taking away the dead and dying leaves, re-plant in a cool dark place, preferably in the cellar for some two or three weeks, and then re-pot in a new place, which will require all two or three weeks, keep the plant for a month or more in a half-shady spot, and expect blossom stalks about September again. Write me again on this matter.

Regarding your primula. Re-pot in fresh earth, taking away old leaves and flower stems. And treat almost the same way I have advised for the begonia.

Honey suckles will be treated in a special article soon. But don't prune away the new shoots. Just now, because these are getting ready to send out blossoms as soon as ever they can. After you have re-potted them in clean soil and fresh earth, and put away in a cool dry place until fall, when you will plant them in freshly prepared beds.

L.O.M. Jessica, Rockbottom, and "In Spite of All": Well here are four peonies in the same trouble, and so all answers together. Why, "In Spite of All"? Tack on to your pseudonym "Cheer Up," or perhaps you don't need to.

Most buds are better taken up after the blossom season is over, and kept away in a cool dark place until early in September, when they should be re-planted in freshly prepared beds. Those that are classed among the very early flowering buds should be left in the ground for several years. These are the snowdrops, scillas, chionodoxae, winter aconite, glory-of-the-snow, and a few other of the smaller varieties. Other bulbs, tulips, hyacinths and the like die out or degenerate in a few years and need to be replaced. Conditions in this country are not conducive to good bulb growing, as in Holland and Belgium where most of our bulbs are grown.

Certainly take your wallflower out of the hot bed, and put it in a half-shady spot. Blossoms should come soon.

WHILE HOLIDAYING FINGERS WILL WORK

Patriotic Women Do Not Intend to Be Idle During Summer.

ONE CIRCLE FORMED

Stony Lake Auxiliary Already Organized for Season's Activities.

That enthusiasm in all patriotic channels has only been strengthened by the realization of the appalling "Y" characteristic determination, is evidenced in the attitude of women workers at this the approach of the summer.

When the call first came last autumn to Canadian women, they responded eagerly with energy that none thought could last, and now, after months of truly hard labor to those so unaccustomed to this over-tax of strength, enthusiasm runs just as high, and determination is just as deep.

The following were elected on the committee: Hon. president, Mrs. R. A. Falconer; president, Mrs. Wilton Eddis; Toronto; vice-president, Mrs. Nell, Peterboro; secretary, Miss Edna Knox; Toronto; treasurer, Miss Evelyn Robertson; secretary-treasurer, Peterboro branch, Mrs. John Knapman; committee, Mrs. Richard Russell, Mrs. A. E. Varson, Miss Dorothy Eddis and Miss Denise.

Work will commence at the lake the first week of July, and a large circle is anticipated, as encouraging reports have already been received from the Peterboro branch.

Much Real Estate and Stocks Not Included in Senator's Will.

The object of the commission is to determine the amount on which succession duties shall fall.

PRESS TURKS BACK BUT COST SEVERE

Position of Allies in Dardanelles is Growing Better Daily.

FOE'S GUNS CONCEALED

Australians Suffered Greatly in Attack on Heights of Krithia.

LONDON, May 19.—The following review of recent operations at the Dardanelles was given today by the official information bureau...

"Gen. Cox's brigade repulsed with heavy loss an attack on his position made on May 12. The following day a double company of Ghuskas advanced over half a mile. The ground there was consolidated during the night in spite of very strong counter-attacks."

"On May 16 the Lancashire Territorial division made considerable progress during the night, and on the following night advanced further. The same day our howitzer batteries, with the aid of aeroplanes, blew up the ammunition wagons of the Turkish heavy howitzers, and later made a direct hit on one of the guns in front of the Australian and New Zealand army corps. The enemy trenches and a new gun emplacement were demolished by howitzer fire."

"Every day sees improvement in the Anglo-French position. The enemy are reported as having lost very heavily. Turkish attacks upon the allied expeditionary forces at the Dardanelles have been repulsed with heavy losses."

"In summarizing the results of the three days' fighting by combined land and naval forces, the correspondent says: 'Everywhere the allies had gained some ground but the main object of their attack was not achieved.'"

"Terrific Bombardment. Describing the third day's fighting, the correspondent says: 'The enemy's positions were suddenly opened from every ship and battery ashore the most stupendous bombardment ever witnessed. Fifteen-inch and twelve-inch shells, charged with lyddite, caused the most terrific explosions, apparently consuming entire hills. Smaller shells, both lyddite and shrapnel, searched every yard of the slopes and crevices of the hills, and the air was filled with the sound of the shells and the firing line has been injured by shrapnel.'"

"The whole region did not have the appearance of being shelled, but it seemed rather as if it had suddenly been set afire. It was covered with a solid bank of yellow, green and blue smoke, whence numberless volleys burst into eruption, and the air was filled with the sound of the shells and the firing line has been injured by shrapnel."

"In spite of all this artillery preparation, however, the enemy was waiting and ready. No sooner had our men emerged from cover than a storm of rifle and machine gun fire was opened on them. But our troops never hesitated. The New Zealanders and Australians, particularly, charged with bayonets straight into the Turkish line. The manner in which these dominion troops went forward never will be forgotten by witnesses who saw them melt away under the dreadful fusillade only to be moved again as reserves and supports forward to replace the fallen."

"At length a point was reached from which no further advance was possible. Each man lay down and dug himself in. It became obvious that the attack had spent its force. Only a handful of Turkish troops by direct assault had been abandoned."

VON BERNSTORF IS UNDER CLOSE GUARD. WASHINGTON, May 19.—The German embassy guard was increased today. No reason was given. Embassy officials denied it was asked for. Died in Philadelphia. Archibald Wade, a former settler resident of Cornwall, died at his home in Philadelphia, Pa., yesterday. The remains are being brought to Cornwall for interment, and the funeral will take place from the home of his sister, Mrs. Cameron, on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, for Trinity Church and Woodlawn Cemetery.

BIG LONDON GATHERING GIVES CANADA PRAISE

"Abiding Gratitude for Unparalleled Service" is Set on Record.

Canadian Associated Press Cable. LONDON, May 19.—A great gathering held at the Guildhall today addressed by Prime Minister Asquith, Bonar Law and others and set on record of abiding gratitude for the unparalleled services rendered by the overseas dominions in the struggle to maintain the ideal liberty and justice which is the common and sacred cause of the allies.

Sir George Perley said: "We have in Canada and other dominions complete autonomy within our own borders, but we naturally look forward to the day when we shall have a voice in all matters of common interest to the whole empire. The announcement that the dominions will be consulted before the terms of peace are arranged produced a splendid impression in Canada. Our people would no doubt be disappointed if such a course were not followed."

Canada Has Spoken. "Canada spoke for herself at Ypres. After all our hopes and fears we know Canadians acted as the whole dominion expected, and proved themselves worthy of the two great pioneer races from which they sprang. We in Canada also realize and applaud the magnificent bravery of our brethren from other dominions, as well as from India and the crown colonies."

MADDENED CANADIANS "FOUGHT LIKE DEVILS" Canadian Associated Press Cable. With such noble origin it is scarcely any wonder that this venerated symbol has become a part of the life of the Dominion. G. T. SOMERSET, President. A. H. WALKER, General Manager.

AUDITOR'S REPORT. This statement has been duly vouched for by comparing all entries with the books at the Chief Office and certified Returns from the Branches, and, in my opinion, is properly drawn up, so as to exhibit a correct view of the condition of the Bank.

I have obtained all the information and explanations required, and am of opinion that the transactions of the Bank which have come under my notice have been conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Bank Act, and in conformity with the resolutions of the Board of Directors. In moving the adoption of the report the President said: "When we met at this time last year we looked forward with every confidence for a substantial increase in our general business, and during the first three months of the year the result warranted that confidence."

At the beginning of August the declaration of war took place. It is not my intention to discuss this other than in so far as it affects our business. Our business for the time. The prompt action of the Minister of Finance at this critical period had an immediate and steady effect, so that we were able to adjust our business to the new conditions.

We, nevertheless, felt that we might consider ourselves fortunate were we able to continue our business in the ordinary way. Our cash assets are considerably higher, being equal to 25.1 per cent of our liabilities to the public, and when the other readily available assets are added, it makes a sum of $2,622,558.42 equivalent to 45.6 per cent of the above liabilities, a strong and satisfactory position during such times as these. Our total assets have now reached the sum of $9,306,343.85, the ability to meet our obligations in value of securities held by the Bank is $4,000,000.00, and the sum of $5,306,343.85 is returned to us through the eventual improvement in value of the securities which we hold, in which case this amount will find its way into our reserve fund.

Turning to the General Statement, you will see that our notes in circulation stand at $877,046, and have averaged for the year 1,038,590. This is an excellent indication of the sound ways our business has had steadily without any great fluctuation, and shows that in as far as our note issue is concerned we have made full use of it during the year.

I do not think any of you wish to hear a series of figures and statistics on outside matters and I will merely say that, while the general business of the country may not be up to the average, I feel that our business will be greatly better than average. It is to the farmer, the grower of our agricultural products, that we have been requested and encouraged to reduce their activities. As the majority of our business is in the rural districts, we have always given special consideration to the needs of our farming clients, and we clearly realize that the prosperity of this country is largely due to its agricultural production, and the specially important part which the farmer plays in our national life. This year, however, we have every possible assistance should be continued to enable him to expand and increase his operations.

It is safe to say that there is no readier method of producing wealth than from the soil, or from which the general benefit to the community is more lasting, and more certain, than from any other source. It is to the farmer, the grower of our agricultural products, that we have been requested and encouraged to reduce their activities. As the majority of our business is in the rural districts, we have always given special consideration to the needs of our farming clients, and we clearly realize that the prosperity of this country is largely due to its agricultural production, and the specially important part which the farmer plays in our national life. This year, however, we have every possible assistance should be continued to enable him to expand and increase his operations.

Since last Saturday the American embassy has received reports showing that twelve vessels carrying cargoes from American ports have had their cases settled in the Dovercourt Backyard Garden prize courts, others having their cargoes purchased by the British Government, and still others being permitted to proceed to their destinations. THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 20.

A Cheerful Outlook

Lord Kitchener was expected by most people to ask for at least another million of men. When he says that he only wants 300,000, the impression left is that things must be going rather better than some critics fancied after the Germans did their dirty gas trick. There was a tendency then to think that Germany was having rather the best of it. This ground then gained by the Kaiser's troops has been practically recovered, and the loss to the Germans has been, on the whole, far more deadly than to the allies.

The Germans now know that they cannot defeat the allies in fair fight, and demoralization quickly sets in when men are reduced to fighting foul. The Germans have also done something which will prove to be almost fatal to themselves in adopting the gas method. Lord Kitchener says that the troops of the allies cannot be allowed to be left at a disadvantage in this respect, and that gas will be placed at their disposal also.

We feel sure that if gas be used it will be in a more humane form than the Germans adopted. There are many kinds of gas which would act quite effectively without torturing its victims, and probably some other gas than chlorine will be chosen. If the Germans find themselves overcome with carbon dioxide, or smothered with ether, they will know who began it, and who introduced the new element into the war game. We feel sure that if Germany gives guarantees not to resort to gas again the allies will gladly acquiesce. Germany's pride and self-esteem will probably prevent her admitting her fault. It is to be hoped that the evil influence which led to such malign innovation will not carry the Kaiser farther in the same direction. But whatever he does the handwriting on the wall becomes clearer and clearer.

Only 300,000 men are asked for by Lord Kitchener. This will mean no more than reserves to replace the wastage of the troops already in the field or in training. It supports the view held on the continent that the struggle cannot be prolonged beyond the present year. The French generals especially are optimistic, and they speak of some thing to be expected in the north which will change the aspect of affairs. At the same time, Holland is arranging to get a million men in training. Should anything occur to bring Holland into the fight on the side of the allies, Germany would be stricken at the heart. Her French and Belgian forces would be flanked and withdrawn to her own territory would become immediately necessary.

There is another element which is not the same doubt about it that Dutch participation in the war possesses. Italy is ready to strike her blow just as soon as the allies are ready for it. Roumania is also ready. When these two powers come into the conflict it means that the critical moment of the war has arrived. It would probably have come before this but for the supreme effort made by Germany in anticipation of these new foes.

A blow on the west and then a blow on the east, but not two blows at the same time, was all that Germany could manage. The western blow has come to nothing, and already preparations are being made for the withdrawal of the German troops to a line considerably in the rear of the present one, with Zebrugga and Courtrai at the extremities, and Lille at the centre. The Russians are not nearly so badly off as German reports would have us believe. The Russian line is pivoting on Peremyel and appears to be in excellent shape, while the German attack has about spent its strength without getting any decisive result. As Germany is attacking, if results are not decisive the action is equal to a defeat. Russia by holding on long enough can turn her temporary set-back into victory.

Another element of success for the allies is to be found in the forcing of the Dardanelles. This work is going steadily forward, and a large part of the peninsula has already been occupied. The Turkish troops are fighting splendidly, it is said, but they are caught in a trap, and the end is certain. The opening of the straits and the downfall of Constantinople will be almost simultaneous, and it is to be expected that the entry of Italy and Roumania, if not already accomplished, will take place then.

All this may take longer than some of the authorities believe it will, but the outlook is certainly not as gloomy as some of the prophets of the Jerusalem class describe. One clerical gentleman, with an enormous audience all over this continent, declares that the war will be an indecisive one; and others say that it will be a drawn battle, and that Germany will dictate, practically, the terms of peace. We do not believe that any peace will be made by the allies, the terms of which are not dictated to Germany by the allies in Berlin.

A war that ended at the Rhine would be equal to a defeat for France, Russia and Britain. Russia, especially, is not going to weary of the plow, now that she has put her hand to it, until the long furrow is turned to the end. Britain will never yield until the evil thing that threatens civilization and human freedom is destroyed. Canada will stand by that resolution to the last man.

A Coalition Government.

Also the British people have no liking for coalition governments, the unprecedented character of the situation may unite them in support of the proposal that has now been made. There will not be entire unity, for already opposition has been announced from the leaders of the extremists in both political parties. But while public opinion in the United Kingdom objects, as a rule, to coalition, it invites compromises, and in this may be found the solution of the troubles that have attended the Asquith cabinet, confronted, as it has been and is, with the stern realities of war.

The Asquith administration was one dependent on the preservation of international peace. It has carried three large schemes, having as their object the readjustment of the government on more democratic lines and the establishment of social reforms making for the betterment of the working classes. In this it has had the sympathetic support of the dominions overseas, that has provided for the more adventurous spirits of the motherland an opening denied them by the conditions arising from older and more rigid conventions.

A coalition cabinet at this time means greater efficiency obtained through voluntary agreement. It will not be imposed from without, as has been the case in Germany, but from within, by the subordination of party to the higher interests of the state. It means that all parties will unite in subordinating their individual claims to the common purpose of freeing Europe from the bondage of militarism, and securing, once and for all, the right of every state, however small, to live its own life and develop according to its own ideals.

If a coalition government is arranged it will come into existence on the basis of efficiency. That, we think, is apparent from the forecasts that have been published of its composition: There will be no square men in round holes, no sacrifice of individual ability to political opportunism. From all parties in the British Parliament will be drawn a cabinet which will represent the unity of the nation and the spirit of a united people. These were emphasized when Mr. Asquith intimated in the house of commons that the posts of prime minister and foreign secretary would be undisturbed. That of itself means agreement, and it also publishes to the world the fact that whatever the differences about particular acts, the whole nation is a unit in the struggle for national freedom, and the supremacy of international law.

Many telephone services were discontinued yesterday for non-payment in advance of the quarterly bill. We do not believe the management of the company realizes how inaccessible the office in West Adelaide street is for most citizens. We renew the suggestion that the Bell Company arrange with the banks to accept payment of accounts during the first month in which they are due. The company relies on the public sending a cheque, but all telephone customers have not bank accounts. As one of them remarked, how could we have a telephone and a bank account at the same time?

Bravo Canadians!

London, Eng. Navy and Army. "Hail! Who goes there?" yapped the sentry. "What the hell's that got to do with you?" was the retort from the darkness, as the Canadian lumbered forward. Episodes of this character were related to be frequent during the training of the men from the other side. The wisecrack, as usual, shook his old head ruefully over this absence of amenity to discipline, and prognosticated disaster when the Boys of the Maple Leaf got to the front. But the Canadian is fully aware of the necessity for discipline, especially when up against it. He is possessed of certain sterling qualities—they are common to all colonialists—which do not demand forced cultivation by discipline, but which are second nature. They are due to the conditions of the country in which these men move, live, and have their being. They have a tremendous feeling of self-reliance, possess initiative, are quick in thought, quicker to act, can take a sudden blow without reeling, and are able to let fly with an effective counter thrust.

They are drilled in the school of Nature, who is the sternest of instructors. The value of this schooling has been vividly brought home to us by the gallantry and bravery of the Canadians in the recent latest German attempt to break thru the khaki line at St. Julien. The Canadians were forced into a tight corner, and lost four of their guns. But they never lost their heads. In a flash they saw an opening, and made a spirited dash forward. The guns were retrieved, the Germans were hurled back, and the link in the allied line, which threatened to break, was reformed and strengthened. The Canadians saved the situation," runs the official report, and no one will temporize with the well and firmly stood, and we can associate ourselves with the Canadian battle-cry, "The Maple Leaf Forever."

SEVERAL LICENSES GO BY THE BOARD

Two Hamilton Hotels Given Three Months to Wind Up Business.

STRONG APPEAL FAILS

In Spite of Charges Against Metropole, the License Stays.

The Ontario License Board has given two Hamilton hotels three months in which to conclude their business, as the fate of a third is now hanging in question. The Florida, managed by Maurice Reardon, and the Imperial, managed by William Hunter, have received notice of their short time limit, and the Athletic has also been granted three months, although its future is now under consideration. In addition, the same treatment is accorded three London hotels, the Queen's Park, Brunswick and Windsor, and the Bank, which was cancelled by the local board, goes out also. In all these cases action is taken on information received as to the character of the places. Five go at one sweep in the Windsor district. The Waverly, Country Club, Abar House, Paris House and Gangleer Tavern are given three months to close.

In spite of the charges brought against Richard Baird of the Metropole Hotel in Hamilton, the board decided to let the license stand. The case throught an extended hearing promised to develop some serious features, and much evidence of a very personal nature was given. One incident was the calling of License Inspector Sturdy before the board in camera to explain his endorsement of a note in settlement of a threatened court action for alienation of a wife's affections.

Engaged as Housekeeper.

At the outset Chairman Flavell explained that Mr. Baird had been charged with keeping the wife of the former proprietor, Henry James, in his establishment for several years, and that during that period he had settled out of court with a sum of money a charge brought against him by Henry Scott. W. S. McBrain appeared as counsel for Mr. James, and C. W. Bell represented Mr. Baird, who was present.

In the questioning of his own counsel Mr. Baird stated that Mrs. James was working in the hotel as housekeeper at the rate of $15 per week, and had been since he took the place over. In regard to the charge that he had alienated the affections of Mrs. Scott, he stated that he had settled the action out of court to avoid scandal to her relatives and to his own. His relationship to both women had always been above reproach.

He stated that when James had sold the hotel his wife was destitute, and had come seeking a position so that she could support her child and her mother. He had given her work until the present. He acknowledged that he understood Mr. James had the idea of his wife staying in that house with her mother and daughter, but he had never allowed James to enter the premises.

"I know all about it," was the reply. "Did you propose to marry her?" he was asked. "I would have married her," he said.

Had Made Mistake.

After evidence had closed Inspector Sturdy acknowledged frankly that he had backed a Baird note, but stated that he had made a mistake in doing so.

The chairman stated afterwards that he had done right in freely admitting his mistake, and also that it was a blunder if it was not as bad as the matter had been reversed. He had known Baird since boyhood, and his action was a friendly misinterpretation. The chairman was convinced that nothing lay behind the charges. George Lynch-Staunton, K.C., had a conference with the board as to the renewal of the Athletic Hotel license, but decision was reserved.

MILLION FOREIGNERS NOW IN SWITZERLAND

Protection Will Be Accorded Americans and Subjects of Allied Governments.

GENEVA, Switzerland, May 19.—(Via Paris, 4.20 p.m.)—There are nearly 1,000,000 Americans, Englishmen, Frenchmen, Russians, Italians and Serbians now in Switzerland who will receive protection from the Swiss federal government in the event of Italy's entrance into the war. From a military standpoint all four Alpine Swiss borders will be closed. Also the government has received formal guarantees that Swiss neutrality will not be violated, it has taken stringent measures to safeguard the frontiers.

There is no thought, however, of a general Swiss mobilization. The most important question concerns the food supply for more than 5,000,000 persons, who soon may be surrounded by a wall of bayonets. Hope is expressed that the belligerent governments will give their aid.

The Blue Cross Field Ambulance Matinee

The Blue Cross Field Ambulance, for use among the Canadian soldiers, will be composed of four heavy horses for transport and ambulance work, with sixteen saddle horses for scout work. After a battle many horses are wounded, some so badly that they lie down, others wander around and the saddle horses are to scout for these. When a horse is not able to walk in he is loaded in the ambulance and brought to camp. Those able to walk are brought in, and in this way many horses are saved that would otherwise be lost. In the different hospitals of Canada at a recent meeting made a move to try and raise the necessary amount. Each individual association will give stated amounts and they have asked the Dufferin Driving Club to put on a patriotic matinee as their share. The officers and members have taken a very keen interest in no worthy cause and will put on the big matinee tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at Dufferin Park, first race to be called at 2:30. This will give plenty of time to finish the three races before 5 o'clock. As the conditions are that each race will start on three heats. The entries, as published yesterday, will be the horses to start, except that there may be additions or withdrawals. The admission has been made very small and the club hopes for a generous response.

NEW YORK, May 19.—In its salient features today's stock-market was another repetition of the previous session.

London's markets reflected the conditions in this country and Germany over-riding all other developments.

The local bond market was steady, aside from weakness in Wabash 4's which fell 3/4 points on heavy offering.

United States coupon and registered 5's advanced 1/4 and 1/2 per cent, respectively, on call.

CHICAGO, May 19.—Soaking rains that promised to do much to stop damage from Hessian fly west and southwest and to carry the 1915 crop safely thru the harvest, resulted today in lower prices for wheat.

Except for early upward, due to covering by shorts, the wheat market displayed bearishness throughout the day.

LAURENTIDE WAS ONLY FEATURE AT MONTREAL

Other Stocks Were Almost Entirely Neglected—Bonds Fairly Active.

MONTREAL, May 19.—A little trading in Laurentides was about the only feature in stocks here today.

Other stocks did little more than mark time and the final range of quotations showed no important changes.

There was no further change in the condition of the market for cattle, but the feeling is very firm at the recent advance in prices noted on account of the fact that the receipts of cattle are not sufficient to satisfy the requirements of the trade, and the prospects more freely soon, values will go still higher.
