The Judge Asked for Clemency.

A despatch from Pretoria to-day says the Executive Council is now in session, considering all the sentences is imposed by the court yesterday.

In passing judgment upon the prisoners yesterday, the judge said it was his painful duty to impose extreme sentence, but he hoped the Executive would exercise the same degree of clemency towards the prisoners that he had shown at the beginning of the year.

London, April 29.—The Daily Telegraph to-morrow will publish a despatch from Pretoria, dated April 28, saying that the accused Reform leaders without exception received their sentences with dignity. John Hammond, after being sentenced collapsed and was taken immediately to the jail, where he was placed under the care of a doctor and the chief jailer. The bitterest feeling exists among the prisoners, who consider that they were filly advised in pleading guilty. Fully forty prisoners avow that they could have proved their innocence except so far as joining in the movement at the last moment constituted guilt. Anumber of interviews have been had with English residents of Pretoria who were summoned as jurors, and all of them concur in the opinion that it would have been impossible for the function of fox terriers. Feeling in Johannesburg

The Former Belleville Man's Case Was One of Jealousy on the Part of the High Court at Pretoria yesterday, in condemning to death the leaders of the High Court at Pretoria yesterday, in condemning to death the leaders of the Johannesburg reform union, says:

"The awful sentence pronounced upon these men has created a painful sensation throughout the civilized world."

In Johannesburg the sentences shocked the entire town. The people were greatly excited and througed the streets discussing the event. An immense public meeting was held yesterday afternoon to protest against the severity of the court's judgment. The greatest sympathy is felt for those among the condemned reformers who did not take any active part in the movement. Most of the theatres the Johannesburg as well as a majority of the stores were closed last evening, and business was practically suspended. The town was quiet.

There Was No Agreement.

There Was No Agreement. Pretoria, April 29.—The State Attorney has officially denied the statement that any agreement had been made in accordance with which lighter penalties would be imposed upon the leaders in the Reform movement in consideration of their pleading guilty to the charges against them.

BRITISH PRESS OPINIONS.

The judgment of the court would be presented to the Executive in writing on April 30, when the matter would be promptly dealt with.

Mme.Tavary herself is an artist well wersed in stage experience, eminently graceful, and of fine presence. She sings with a voice of much sweethess, managing her notes with a method which is faultless. In the company are Mme. Thea Dorre, the prima donna mezzo-soprano, of whom so much has been heard in praise; Mme. Lichter, a late addition to the company, who is said to possess one of the most charming soprano voices now before the public. She is said to be as clever an actress as she is a singer. Another new member of the organization this year is Bella Tomlins, a contraito of rare ability. Others to be heard are Payne Clarke, Max Eugene, William Stephens and others. The chorus carried by this company is the largest and strongest ever known to assist in operatic productions in America, and is in keeping with the company's strength as regards its principals. The engagement should prove exceptionally prosperous, for grand opera is said to be rarely heard in so complete a manner as presented by this company. On the evening of Saturday, 18th, A. E. Crossin, an employe of A. & S. Nordheimer, was walking with a lady in Winchester-street, about o'clock in the evening. When opposite the gate at Riverdale Park, they were both seized by two men, who accused them of being there for improper mothives. The men stated that they were in charge of the park and vicinity, and had a duty to perform. They, however, mentioned that the matter could be squared for $10. Crossin gave them $2, promising the balance.

Yesterday morning Mr. Crossin received an anonymous letter couched in threatening language, asking him to meet the writer at a certain place and time. The advice of Inspector Stark was asked and Crossin was advised to keep the appointment. He did so, and in the background were Detectives Black and Duncan. The man was there, and as soon as Crossin identified him, the pre-arranged signal was given, and the arrest made. He gave his confederate away, and he was arrested later on.

At a meeting of the Century Road Club committee last night Messrs. Kelly, Ramblers; Walton, R.C.B.C., and Schulte, Torontos, were appointed a special committee to arrange a new constitution. They will report at a meeting next month, when all wheelmen in the city will be invited to attend to ratify the rules. It was decided that after May 15 next all centuries to be recorded must be done under 10 hours.

It is likely the Century Road Club will issue sanctions for all road trials and road races in Canada, and will appoint consuls for the different districts to look after the roads and report thereon.

The L.A.W. bulletin, issued yesterday by Châirman Gideon, contains the official announcement of the transfer of Otto Zeigler, ir., of San Jose, Cal., and E. C. Bald, of Buffalo, to the professional class.

WUGITIVE COWAN CAPTURED.

A Former Pennsylvanian Caught in Guatemala—Victims in Canada.

Pittsburg, April 29.—Intelligence has been received here of the capture in Guatemala of John L. Cowan of this city, who disappeared last February, leaving his friends, relatives, creditors and victims about $200,000 short.

Cowan was in the lumber business, and his victims are scattered over the lumber regions of Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, Michigan and Canada. Forgery, note-raising and other forms of swindling are charged against him. Cowan will be brought back to the United States at once. Former Pennsylvanian Caught in

EXTRAORDINARY VALUES.

The experience of the past and the aggressiveness of the present are combined in the management of this oldestablished and greatest of all carpet houses. Our particular business is the selling of Carpets, Curtains and Draperies. Years of experience and ample capital give us an advantage in these lines that, it is safe to say, is possessed by no other concern.

This much on general principles. Now for something specific. Our regular spring importations this season are the largest and choicest we have ever shown.

Exclusive and Newest Designs in Carpets

-always a feature with us-more than ever mark this season's stocks. Purchases were made in person by our Mr. Kay, who spent considerable time this year in the European markets. His presence there opened out opportunities for a number of special purchases of carpets that will give an advantage to buyers such as has not come to

Manufacturers have advanced prices of carpets in all lines; but our ready and abundant capital, and being on the ground personally, placed some surprising values in our way. Knowing what carpet values are, we can say confidently that the following special purchases have not been equalled by any house in Canada—nor can they be:

What is worth emphasizing is that in these goods we show a large variety of patterns. It is not our policy to select two or three catch lines. You get the choice of a very large stock. And these specials here are additional to our regular importations, all of which are marked for Matting, Rugs and Squares.

We easily show the best stock of Rugs and Squares in Canada. Nowhere else can a like assortment be obtained. Prices for the opening of the spring season are made unusually tempting:

So great a variety of Japan rugs of the best quality are not to be found gathered together in any one store, save here. There are Japanese rugs that are Japanese rugs, and some that are not. Our prices have been made special for the real Japanese rug.

Best in Linoleums and Cork Carpets.

The best Linoleums in the world are those bearing the name of Nairn, and we are sole agents. We quote the special price for Nairn's Linoleums of $1 net, and cork carpets, the best, $1 net.

Staines' hand-made inlaid linoleums are what is wanted for a place where there is much hard wear, $1.35 and

$1.50—in many new patterns. Into the heart of house-cleaning, no housekeeper should miss inspecting the stocks of this store.

Doual, France, April 29.—Raoul Trembile, who was convicted of the murder of Francois Farbos and sentenced to be guillotined, but was granted a new trial, has again been convicted of the crime and condemned to death. Trembile induced Farbos to go from France to Buenos Ayres, and after his arrival there murdered and robbed him. The body was decapitated and cut into 12 pieces, after which robbed him. The body was decapitated, and cut into 12 pieces, after which it was salted in a barrel. Trembile of had fied to France, but the authorities at Buenos Ayres, had in the meantime discovered the murder, and cabled for his arrest, and he was taken into cusant tody at Dunkirk May 23, 1894. He having murdered a French citizen, his trial took place in France.

ASSESSORS READY FOR WORK

Ward One Buly Mapped Out-Stringe Instructions - Mayor Stays His Hand for the Present.

On Friday morning the assessors will commence work on the assessment of No. One Ward. The Commissioner has divided the ward into twelve districts, one of which will be given each assessor in turn. The districts are so arranged that each assessor will make assessments in various portions of the assessor in turn. The districts are so arranged that each assessor will male assessments in various portions of the ward, the streets running east and west and north and south being placed in different districts. In some cases the two sides of a street will be given to different assessors. By this means the Commissioner hopes to secure a greater uniformity of assessment and more frequent consultation among the assessors. The assessors held a conference vesterday afternoon, at which the Mayor and Assessment Commissioner were present, and to-day they will again meet to receive their final instructions. They are only appointed on approbation, and the Mayor has intimated that if they cannot give good reasons for fixing the values at the figure they return, new appointments will be made.

The Prisoner Testifies.

Yesterday morning, when the case was resumed, Thompson gave evidence in his own behalf. He said that on the day of the shooting he called on his wife. He asked her to return to him as he was in a position to support her. She refused, and he accused her of preferring some one else. He took his revolver from his pocket for the purpose of frightening her, and held it by his side. She moved around behind him and threw one arm around his neck, and with the around behind him and threw one arm around his neck, and with the other tried to seize the gun. In the struggle it was discharged.

His Lordship's charge was against the prisoner.

The tariff protected Canadian industries while not destroying) foreign competition, and gave value to many home productions, which, under other circumstances, would be of little worth. As an instance, if the principle of protection as applying to beef were abandoned, mammoth establishments in Chicago would capture the market of Canada, and concerns supplying their products would be started in every town and city in Canada beside now fairly prosperous butchers, driving many of them out of business, and giving Canadians beef raised on American ranches instead of that raised by their own farmers.

New Industries Established.

After describing the ill effects of the adoption of a free trade policy, Mr. Kemp gave many examples of the benefits derived from the National Policy, one of the most recent being the establishment in Canada of large bicycle factories, which without a protective tariff would hardly have gained a foothold in this country. It could not be demonstrated that the Canadian consumer paid more for manufactured goods, to the extent of the duty imposed, than the consumer in countries where like industrial conditions prevailed, although labored arguments had been advanced to prove that such was the case.

Referring at length to the increased prosperity of Canada as evidenced by deposits in the banks, capital investic and industries, the output of industrial concerns, the number of other present policy was in the province over the water pipes of the City of Toronto, in the hardon of the corporation of t
