THE CITY HALL OPENED

With Music and Harmony—A Grand Piano Assists a Grand Occasion.

Yesterday, after many years of expectation, the public of Toronto were enabled to view for the first time in their completed state the magnificent new buildings which the city will henceforth make its official home.

The thronging thousands admired the noble proportions and the beautiful interior of the pile which last night was ablaze with illuminations, beautified with foliage, and resonant with harmony.

It was happy thought that His Worship Mayor Shaw to dignify the inauguration of the City Hall with such a grand and imposing occasion was following the most classic traditions, and taking historical examples for his guide.

In the delightful singing of Miss Beverley Holmson, soprano, the most distinguished of Canadian prima donnas, who was never in better voice, and whose pure and powerful notes floated throughout the corridors, and in the superb voice of Mr. Harold Jarvis, ever a favorite of the highest degree, His Worship Mayor Shaw made an excellent selection. It is interesting to know that Toronto's most representative vocalists are those whose family names are intimately identified with the early history of the city.

The piano solos of Miss Ada Hart, the talented virtuoso, were a source of the keenest enjoyment. It was fitting that on this auspicious occasion a piano which has graced the many Toronto mansions, and which is a production of the city's highest musical genius and scientific skill should be selected. Once more the famous Heintzman & Co. piano was assisting in making the opening of Toronto's new City Hall a memorable among all those who heard its splendid strains. Throughout the long-drawn corridors and along the corridors, the notes of Toronto's and Canada's greatest piano evoked all the qualities of grand, majestic, and dynamic excellence, its soft singing notes, its sweet bell-like tones, its manly and virile to an historic event. On all great occasions, where the highest dignitaries of the land or the highest authorities of the city are gathered, the Heintzman & Co. piano will be found. It is first in its class by its merit. It is first in the hearts of the people. It differs in no respect from the concert hall or in the home with equal joyousness and glory.

Quilter is Missing. Friends of James Coultter called at the Agnes-street Station last night and asked the police to assist them in locating his whereabouts. THIS LOOKS LIKE A BODDER

Mrs. Blake of Smith's Falls Was Found Dead Under Suspicious Circumstances.

Body Bruised From Head to Foot.

Thomas Blake, Her Husband, Admitted Having Thrashed Her and Was Arrested.

Smith's Falls, Sept. 18.—Mrs. Anne Blake, wife of Thomas Blake of this town, was found dead in an upper room of her house this morning under circumstances that required investigation. The Chief of Police was notified, and took possession of the body, pending arrival of Coroner Dr. McCullum, who at once took steps to hold an inquest.

An adjournment was made until evening to enable the medical witnesses to hold a post-mortem examination. In the evening a further adjournment was made, as at 1 p.m. was made, owing to the absence of 230 jurors, and the case was adjourned until the following day.

The body, when discovered, was in nearly a nude state, and was covered with bruises and abrasions from head to foot, some of which were very severe. It appears that Blake and his wife, together with a man named Hyatt, were drinking together on Saturday evening, and Blake, becoming jealous, was removed to the jail, where they were made as comfortable as possible. It is claimed that McIlroy, who is a powerful man, simply defended himself, and that he also said he did not know what happened to Mrs. Blake, but that he had thrashed her with a stick. He was placed in the jail, and is still there.

First Wife Died Same Way. His first wife died under similar circumstances a few years ago. He is said to be subject to epilepsy and has been violent in his fits, and has frequently injured his wife, but she has never been injured as he has. He had several times of late applied to the coroner to work on Monday morning, saying that he would murder her, but nothing was done until too late.

WILLIE MARIE BARNHART. Liquidator Kent Gave More Figures Showing Discrepancies Between Two Statements.

PRESIDENT WM. WEIR'S ACCOUNT. He Was Responsible to the Bank for $154,570.13 on Notes or as an Endorser.

Montreal, Sept. 18.—(Special.)—In substance the evidence given this afternoon in the inquiry court by Mr. A. L. Kent, one of the liquidators of the failed bank, Willie Marie Barnhart, was that the loans to directors and firms of which they are partners were $170,750.08, as against $87,803.13 on the report to the Government; that the other loans not included in a former report were $3005, as against $24,702.23 in the said report; that the call loans were of the order of $25,000, as against $24,055.48; that as endorser he had $20,400.52 straight notes, $74,811 overdraws, $69,012.40, and so on.

Responsibility. The witness said in the evidence above that Mr. Weir was responsible to the bank for the failure. He said that he was an endorser, while the Montreal figures, which he said were $24,702.23, were the figures of the directors. The items as given were notes $24,055.48; as endorser $20,400.52; straight notes, $74,811 overdraws, $69,012.40, and so on.

Predictions Verified. Coming upon the particulars promised regarding certain persons referred to in the current issues of the last sitting, the witness said that his predictions were verified, as were those of the other witnesses, except two—L. H. Haig and Mrs. Weir—who were not mentioned in the report. The current loans to the John-Anderson estate were $300,000, totaling $37,777. The firm failed in 1898, and the real estate was bought for $15,000 as an asset.

Heighington's Lord Nelson, 35 minutes; C. W. Taylor's Miss Bowdler, 34 minutes; 54 sec.; F. Summers' Trillion, 34 minutes. Several others competed. The next race will be on Sept. 23 from Bowmanville.

"The Lights of London." One of the best-staged plays that Toronto has ever seen is presented this week, twice a day, at the Princess Theatre. It is a melodrama of the old-school, with a conventional villain and his accomplice, but from the first scene the play is a study in the hero and his wife come united and happy.

The scenery for the play is abundant and well fitted, and no little credit is due both to the artist and stage manager for their admirable work.

The hero of the play, Harold Armitage, is played by Mr. Eugene Fraser, who leaves nothing to be said. Mr. Ralph E. French, who plays the part of Seth French, one of the twin villains, and who is an artistic manner, winning recognition for his excellent proof of his versatility. Mr. Robert Cummings makes a decided hit as the cool schemer, Clifford Armitage.

Headache. It is often a warning that the liver is torpid or inactive. More serious troubles may follow. For a prompt relief take Hood's Pills and all liver troubles, take Hood's Pills.

Hood's Pills. While they rouse the liver, restore regular action of the bowels, they do not grip or pain, do not irritate or inflame the internal organs, but have a pure tonic effect. Hood's Pills at all druggists or by mail of C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

THE LITTLE MINISTER.

"The Little Minister" is a comedy in four acts, and is based on J. M. Barrie's entitled, "The Little Minister." The scene of the story is laid in the small and thoroughly typical Scottish village of Thrums, where Rev. Gavin Dimsart, a young and handsome Scotchman, is settled as minister of the village kirk. "Accidentally," Mr. Dimsart meets a young gypsy girl, and on first sight falls in love with "Babbie." The elder the kirk becomes suspicious and resent his attachment to a gypsy girl. Up to this time the elder, Sydney Hobart, Andrew Macfarlane and Silva Tress, had placed complete confidence in his minister, and the gypsy girl, who is the author of the comedy, at first failed to acknowledge its parentage, the laws of the Bay State being somewhat severe, and she the quiet one feared might turn out a crime. But "Mr. Smooth" made good in Boston, just as it did in New York, and the proud papa no longer conceals his position. Collier has fitted himself with the part, and the complications and fun of the piece grow out of an assumed identity.

The scene of the story is laid in the small and thoroughly typical Scottish village of Thrums, where Rev. Gavin Dimsart, a young and handsome Scotchman, is settled as minister of the village kirk. "Accidentally," Mr. Dimsart meets a young gypsy girl, and on first sight falls in love with "Babbie." The elder the kirk becomes suspicious and resent his attachment to a gypsy girl. Up to this time the elder, Sydney Hobart, Andrew Macfarlane and Silva Tress, had placed complete confidence in his minister, and the gypsy girl, who is the author of the comedy, at first failed to acknowledge its parentage, the laws of the Bay State being somewhat severe, and she the quiet one feared might turn out a crime. But "Mr. Smooth" made good in Boston, just as it did in New York, and the proud papa no longer conceals his position. Collier has fitted himself with the part, and the complications and fun of the piece grow out of an assumed identity.

The trespass was committed during the very early part of the morning, and the weather in July, and consisted of a repudiated visit to Mr. Hisey's well. The magistrate also fined him $2 and costs for disobeying the summons issued several weeks ago, and bound him over in $20 and two acres of land, to be sold to satisfy the order for having threatened to leave Hisey penniless. Winters showed signs when County Constable Barker and his son went to arrest him, but the two men got him down and handcuffed him. His neighbors think he is insane and are afraid of him. He wears his hair hanging over his shoulders.

TREMBLAY GOT BAIL. The Alleged Perjuror of Montreal Released on Sureties of $500—

Pleas Not Guilty. Montreal, Sept. 18.—(Special.)—Ex-Constable Aram Tremblay, who was arrested on Saturday on a warrant sworn out by Chief of Police Hughes, charging him with perjury, appeared before Magistrate Lafontaine in the Court of Pleas this morning, and answered "Not guilty" when the complaint was read to him.

Additional Contracts. The expenditure on the works covered by their dismissal, has been $322,291.63, making the total cost of the new City Hall $1,161,149.80.

More Money Voted. In 1886 a bylaw was passed by the Council for $200,000, and in 1887 by the people an additional sum of $750,000.

Nothing Exceptional. That this building has cost more than contemplated is a repetition of a very general experience in erecting large buildings.

How the Account Stands. The expenditure on the 31st December, 1893, has amounted to:

Public accounts, page 349 .. $1,200,017.37 Original plans .. 17,879.74 Furnishings, etc., page 351 .. 162,730.60

An Inevitable Conclusion. The above sum shows that buildings which were originally estimated to cost $500,000, and the cost of which was limited by statute to $750,000, have, before completion, at once exceeded the original estimate.

Full Value for the Money. I believe we have received value for the money spent. Where others will not do so, we have done so.

Aginaldo Will Let Them Go. London, Sept. 18.—(Special.)—The Telegram Company from Hong Kong says Aginaldo is willing to release all Chinese and Spanish prisoners, but it is added that Major-General Clive refuses to allow Spanish vessels to proceed to shipping ports to receive them.

Improving Their Roads. Mr. W. A. Campbell of the Good Roads Department returned from Smith's Falls yesterday, where he has been inspecting the municipality have received approximately $20,000 towards the building and improving of their roads.

Typhoid Fever Prevalent. In Lambton Village there are now eleven cases of typhoid fever, and the provincial board of health is considering the advisability of requesting the Provincial Board of Health to inspect the place and find out the cause of the epidemic.

Farmers' Institutes Flourishing. According to the annual report of the superintendent of Farmers' Institutes, which has so far for this year been issued, which shows that in 1900, there were 1,900 and perhaps reach 2,000 by 1905.

Executive and Court House Committee, who on the 29th of February, 1887, presented a joint report to the Council, recommending the erection of a combined building to house the Corporation and the Court House.

More Money Necessary. On opening the tenders, it was apparent that more money would be required, and the people were appealed to again.

Laying the Corner Stone. On the 21st of November, 1891, two years and four months from the signing of their contract, Messrs. Elliott & Neslon had the work sufficiently advanced to admit of the corner stone being laid.

evening full of mirth and festivity; the arrangements were carried out with the greatest order and the opening of the new City Hall will be an event that will long be remembered by the citizens of Toronto.

An Excellent Program. Besides the promenade concert, an excellent program of vocal and instrumental selections was rendered in each of the two court rooms alternately, both of which were crowded to the doors.

Nothing Exceptional. That this building has cost more than contemplated is a repetition of a very general experience in erecting large buildings.

How the Account Stands. The expenditure on the 31st December, 1893, has amounted to:

Public accounts, page 349 .. $1,200,017.37 Original plans .. 17,879.74 Furnishings, etc., page 351 .. 162,730.60

An Inevitable Conclusion. The above sum shows that buildings which were originally estimated to cost $500,000, and the cost of which was limited by statute to $750,000, have, before completion, at once exceeded the original estimate.

Full Value for the Money. I believe we have received value for the money spent. Where others will not do so, we have done so.

Aginaldo Will Let Them Go. London, Sept. 18.—(Special.)—The Telegram Company from Hong Kong says Aginaldo is willing to release all Chinese and Spanish prisoners, but it is added that Major-General Clive refuses to allow Spanish vessels to proceed to shipping ports to receive them.

Improving Their Roads. Mr. W. A. Campbell of the Good Roads Department returned from Smith's Falls yesterday, where he has been inspecting the municipality have received approximately $20,000 towards the building and improving of their roads.

Typhoid Fever Prevalent. In Lambton Village there are now eleven cases of typhoid fever, and the provincial board of health is considering the advisability of requesting the Provincial Board of Health to inspect the place and find out the cause of the epidemic.

Farmers' Institutes Flourishing. According to the annual report of the superintendent of Farmers' Institutes, which has so far for this year been issued, which shows that in 1900, there were 1,900 and perhaps reach 2,000 by 1905.
