CLING TO ROCK OVER 30 HOURS

Hestia Ran Ashore Early Monday Morning — Three Bodies and Two Boats Recovered.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Oct. 27.—(Special.)—That the Donaldson liner Hestia was wrecked off Seal Cove, Grand Manan Island, at one o'clock Monday morning, was not twenty-four hours later as previously supposed, was declared today by Third Mate Stewart, and the other five survivors. These half dozen men, who had been unable to find places in the small boats remained lashed to the rigging for thirty-eight hours without food or water, before they were taken off by the life savers.

One of their number, seaman Keene, was in a serious condition to-night, but as can be ascertained to-night, those on board the Hestia comprised Captain Newman, a crew of thirty-five three gentlemen, and two boys. It is believed that the marine authorities will take charge of the steamer as far as possible, and prevent the loading of the craft by wreckers, especially as her general cargo includes a big consignment of Scotch whiskey.

Mate Stewart's Story.

A staff correspondent of the World reached the scene of the wreck this morning and talked with the survivors. When the steamer struck, Third Officer Stewart was below and so is unable to account for the cause of the wreck. He says, "As soon as I felt the shock I rushed on deck and assisted in getting the boats ready. There were four large boats and one small one. The boats were swung out on davits about half an hour after the vessel struck, and lowered to the rail, ready for immediate use."

"It was very dark at the time, and a high wind and sea made it a perilous undertaking to start out in an open boat. The two boats on the port side were carried away by the big seas that broke over her. In one of these boats, a man in charge of the horses aboard had taken his place and he was swept over in an instant.

"The third boat, in command of the second officer, contained eleven men, but they were not destined to leave the ship in that way, for in some manner, the forward tackle was let go and the boat was thrown into the sea. Those who were thrown overboard were thrown over to the men, but owing to the darkness, it was largely guesswork as to what happened. Some were saved, however, Morgan and McVicker.

Stayed by Choice.

"The captain was last leaving and he went in the big life boat, in which there was at least twenty-five men, and possibly more, if any were picked up from the wreck of the ship. Those remaining on steamer did so from choice, and we were fortunate in doing so. Rockets and bombs were sent out every ten minutes, but the steamer struck until the boats left, about five o'clock, but also they could see Gannet Rock light, about five miles from the ship, there was no reply from either these or Whitehead, about four miles distant. We then built a big bonfire on the forward deck, using a number of the beds on the steamer. The captain instructed men in charge of boats to shape their course for Three Islands, but apparently they were not seen. All the men wore life-belts, but if the boat capsized they would soon perish with cold."

Twin Brothers Victims.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 27.—(Special.)—The bodies of two young men, who were two of those who went down in the wreck of the steamer Hestia off the New Brunswick coast Monday, were recovered today by the Virginia coast guard, and were taken to the home of their father, Mr. J. H. Galloway, now in Cuttler, Va., who arrived in America two years ago.

They were twins and 17 years old. Their father is a business man of Glasgow, who was anxious that all his sons should be established on farms in Virginia. To this end, he had bought and bought one estate and was preparing to buy others for the young boys, his purpose being to come over himself after they had become settled, and spend his declining days in this state.

Three Bodies Drifted Ashore in Two Lifeboats.

HALIFAX, N.S., Oct. 27.—(Special.)—A pathetic incident in the loss of the steamer Hestia was observed today when two lifeboats from the wrecked liner came drifting across the Atlantic to the Nova Scotia coast, seventy miles from the scene of the wreck at Grand Manan.

Fourteen persons left the ill-fated steamer in two lifeboats shortly after the Hestia struck. This morning, one of the boats with two dead men, and another with but a single corpse drifted on to the southwest coast of Nova Scotia, the first at Penobscot, near Yarmouth, the other at the Salmon River, at Digby. On the latter boat was the man "Cassandra," another of the Donaldson line, now on a voyage from Glasgow to Montreal. Some of her boats had probably been placed on the Hestia. This corpse also wore a number of life belts.

N. Y. C. To Spend $135,000,000

Huge Sum to Go for New Equipment, Tracks, Better Grades and Great Terminal.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—President W. C. Brown of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad, announced today that the management had entered upon a campaign of extraordinary expenditures to meet extraordinary traffic demands.

The company had placed contracts in the last few days, he said, for $25,000,000 worth of new locomotives, passenger and freight cars, and intends to spend, at one o'clock Monday morning, $9,000,000 more—$35,000,000 in all—in reducing grades, straightening curves, and laying new rails, exclusive of $50,000,000 terminal improvements in New York City.

"These expenditures," he said, "are absolutely necessary to meet the demands of business. The traffic records for the months of September and October to date are said to have exceeded anything in the company's history. The previous high water mark was for the first three-quarters of 1907, just before the panic. We could have ten per cent greater business to-day if we had the equipment to handle it."

WOMAN'S TRAGIC CRIME REWARDED BY PAROLE

Lured and Shot Admirer at Behest of Her Husband, Who Was Jealous, But Goes Free.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 27.—(Special.)—Judge Patlock of Toledo, Ohio, today paroled Mrs. May Smith, aged 23, after a seven year prison sentence, after she had confessed that she ambushed and shot her lover, Noble Ault, a political power in the little village of St. Charlesville.

The shooting followed a "third degree" love test imposed by her husband, Scott Smith, superintendent of the Belmont Coal Mines. When Ault was found dying of the bullet wound, search of his pockets disclosed a blood-stained note on which he had scribbled what he thought were his last words. They branded Smith himself as the assassin. Before Smith could be arraigned, his wife assumed the courtship of Ault.

One night last March, Smith and his wife held a conference. The husband, torn between love for her and proof that she admired Ault, and hated for the other man put his wife thru a remarkable test. He roused her at midnight, had her dress herself and come with him. Thru winding country roads, they groped their way in the chilly air. Ahead was an abandoned coal shaft into the pit went husband and wife in utter darkness. In this cavern Smith, mercilessly broached his wife's love for Ault, and she, in a fit of death, for he knew that he was dying when he wrote the words that were shielding her.

KERCHIEF SALUTE UNHEALTHY

And W.C.T.U. Abolish It—Resolution on Suffrage.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 27.—The establishment of Feb. 11, the anniversary of the death of Miss Frances Willard, as a special day, when contributions to the Frances Willard Memorial Fund are to be made, was the most notable work of the National W.C.T.U. today.

It has also been decided to establish a printing plant, where the organization may do its own printing; to make an annual census of the members; to contribute to the Frances Willard Memorial Fund and to abolish the "Chauteaua salute," the waving of handkerchiefs, for sanitary reasons.

AUSTRALIA'S FLEET

Sailors and Ships Will Be Interchangeable With Royal Navy.

MELBOURNE, Australia, Oct. 27.—(C.A.P.)—Referring to a cable that the Canadian Government had proposed that the Dominion's warships should be interchangeable with British warships, Premier Deakin said to-day that the Australian naval proposals included a provision for interchanging ships' crews with those of the imperial fleet, and cruisers would be sent when it was thought desirable, not only for attachment to other units, but also to sections of the imperial fleet itself, they being replaced in the meantime by imperial cruisers. The interchangeability of crews between the eastern waters of the Dominion and the western waters of the Empire, but if it was necessary or desirable, Australian cruisers could be commissioned to more distant waters.

IT'S VISIT TO CANADA

Assassinated Statesman is Remembered by Ottawa Officials.

OTTAWA, Oct. 27.—Sir Richard W. Scott, former secretary of state, said to-day regarding the visit of the assassinated Prince Ito to Ottawa:

"I have a pleasant recollection of taking part in entertaining him about ten years ago. The late Sir Henri Joly gave a dinner in his honor at the Hotel Victoria, Aymer, at which the Hon. Mr. Patterson and myself were also guests. We were much impressed by his familiarity with western subjects and his cosmopolitan opinions. Sir Henri Joly expressed the marquis on his Canadian tour."

CALGARY'S PAYING VENTURE

Municipal Street Car System Requires Extension Already.

CALGARY, Oct. 27.—The city commissioners are considering the advisability of insuring street railway employees against accident, but apparently are of the opinion that instead of placing policies or risks in the hands of an insurance company, it would be better to charge the employees the same rates as asked by companies, and thus establish a city fund for the purpose.

Also only operating for three months, the street railway management find it will be necessary to extend the present system. A bill allowing forty thousand dollars appropriation was passed by Calgary electors yesterday.

This will be at once available for the extension of Calgary's municipally-owned street railway.

TRAIN ENGLISH BOYS AS CANADIAN FARMERS

NELSON, B.C., Oct. 27.—The C.P.R. Line to Sandon is now reopened and trains are running into the city for the first time since the washout caused by the floods last spring.

3 JUDGES URGENT NEED

Supreme Court Dignitaries Make the Suggestion Formally to the Attorney-General.

As a result of the continued state of congestion which has taken possession of the legal list met at Osceola Hall, Hon. J. J. Foy, attorney-general, has received a communication from Sir Chas. Moss, president of the supreme court of judicature for Ontario, containing copies of two resolutions which the judges have passed:

1. That it is the opinion of the judges that in the public interest and for the due and proper despatch of business, there is an urgent need of an increase in the number of judges in the supreme court of judicature.

2. And the judges recommend that provision be made for the appointment of three additional judges.

In his letter Sir Charles Moss points out that it has been apparent for some time past that the work of the court could not be efficiently, speedily and satisfactorily disposed of while the number of judges remained as at present. There has been a great increase in the business of the courts in consequence of the general expansion of the business of the province, particularly the development of New Ontario, and of the number of railway, electric power, mining, timber and other enterprises which have sprung up.

There are now seventeen judges of the supreme court, of which five form the court of appeal. At times it is difficult to secure a full court, as in the case of sickness or absence of any of the judges it is not always convenient for the high court to supply an ad hoc judge. This necessitates the frequent adjournment of cases, and consequent inconvenience to litigants.

If the government adopts the recommendation of the judges, it will mean three fat appointments for the lawyers, as the judges now receive $7000 per year from the Dominion Government, with the addition of $1000 from the province.

In many quarters the request of the judges is considered reasonable, but the appointment of three additional judges would mean an increase of the cost of last session, and it is not unlikely that certain amendments may be introduced.

TORONTO LEADS THEM ALL IN THE POSTAL BUSINESS

Gross Revenue Totaled $1,500,000 With Montreal $600,000 Behind—Fewer P.O. Bank Depositors.

OTTAWA, Oct. 27.—(Special.)—Toronto is the banner Canadian city in the matter of gross postal revenue, the total for the year being $1,513,310. Montreal was a bad second with receipts of $836,729. Winnipeg takes third place with a gross income of $380,335. Vancouver was fourth with $205,335 and Ottawa fifth with $199,894.

Figures for other Canadian cities were: Quebec, $152,334; Hamilton, $134,740; London, $141,985; Port Arthur, $21,850; Port William, $24,779; Halifax, $113,555; St. John, $109,990; Brandon, $48,307; Portage La Prairie, $18,257; Moose Jaw, $25,601; Regina, $71,662; Saskatoon, $25,344; Calgary, $99,075; Edmonton, $67,713; Victoria, $38,895; New Westminster, $22,995; Nelson, $24,129; Cranbrook, $10,117.

The postal department figures show for the period 1900-1909 a steady increase in the use of money orders and postal notes. In 1900 only $17,499,945 were transacted in this way. Since then there has been a steady increase year by year, the money transactions for the year ending June 30, 1909, totaling no less a sum than $17,642,422.

During the year there was an increase in the number of postoffice savings banks. There was, however, a falling away of $796 in the amount of deposits, which totaled $46,190,484.

The total number of letters posted during the year was 41,990,422. Of these, 91,108 were sent to the dead-letter office. The proportion of unpaid letters sent to the dead-letter office is steadily decreasing.

LAND SALE DENIED

MONTREAL, Oct. 27.—(Special.)—This evening D. McNeill, vice-president of the C. P. R., said that he knew nothing of the story which originated in Wall-street to the effect that the company had made a huge land sale in Alberta to an American syndicate.

The directors also declare that they are unaware of any such transaction.

The story was to the effect that 965,000 acres of trigrated lands had been sold to the syndicate, which had also an option on 2,000,000 acres more.

P. O. INSPECTOR BAIN DEAD

WOMAN MAKES A FLIGHT IN U.S. GOVT. AEROPLANE

COLLEGE PARK, Md., Oct. 27.—With her skirts tied tightly about her ankles to keep them from fluttering in the breeze, Mrs. Van Deman, wife of Capt. Ralph Van Deman, Twenty-first United States Infantry, occupied the passenger's seat beside Wilbur Wright when he ascended in the government's aeroplane here to-day.

For four minutes she experienced the sensation of soaring in the air, sometimes as high as 80 feet from the ground. (This was the first time a woman had made an ascension in a heavier than air machine in the United States, the Wright brothers having resisted a multitude of feminine importunities for aerial excursions.)

"Oh," exclaimed Mrs. Van Deman when she returned to the ground, "now I know what makes the birds sing."

Secretary Loeb Initiates a New Policy in the Customs Department at New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—It takes a grayer to catch a grayer in the United States custom service, says Wm. Loeb, collector of the port of New York, in an official statement issued to-night, and Federal Judge Holt's opinion to the contrary notwithstanding, the four grayers who confessed and gave evidence at the trial of Philip Musca and his aged father, Antonio, charged with smuggling, were comprehended to-day, are to hold their jobs along with honest men.

Judge Holt of the United States Circuit Court before disposing of the case to-day, which resulted in the grayer's acquittal and the son's incarceration in the Tombs for sentence, denounced the retention of the four grayers as a discredit to the government and an injustice to the honest men in the service.

Mr. Loeb said in reply: "The views of such a distinguished judge are entitled to the highest respect, and it is not my purpose to make them the subject of controversy, but it seems to me that Judge Holt can have hardly intended the situation which the Loeb administration had to deal with."

"It was deemed imperative to break into this combination to get the truth from somebody on the inside who knew, to get in an order to get rid of and break down this system. It was decided then to secure the testimony of several grayers by promising them immunity and retention in the service."

It was not a question of choice between having all honest men in the government service and keeping four men admittedly dishonest in the service, but the choice was between keeping four dishonest men in the service where they could be easily watched, or allowing a great many dishonest men to remain in the service and have them and all the corrupt merchants who had bribed them escape punishment at the hands of the criminal law. The administration decided on the former course, and its decision was based upon the highest motives."

SIX MONTHS AND $1000 FINE

Penalty Imposed on Prominent Brantford Citizen for Indecent Assault.

BRANTFORD, Oct. 27.—(Special.)—Joseph Bowes, a resident of this city for 32 years, and who is in his 73rd year, was found guilty to-day before Judge Hardy in the county court, of indecent assault, and was sentenced to six months in prison. In addition, he was fined $1000.

The charge was laid by Albert Osborne, father of a 7-year-old girl, and arose out of a drive to the outskirts of the city which Bowes took with the girl on July 8 last.

Bowes had held several offices of public trust and was chairman of the board of health when arrested.

The argument will be heard before the court of appeal within a week. In the meantime, he was allowed to work on $5000 bail. His counsel claimed that there was lack of sufficient corroboration of the child's story to find a conviction.

Bowes is a man of considerable means.

STEVE OFF GUILTY OF SLAUGHTER

Jury, After Nearly Two Hours' Deliberation, Finds Evidence Sufficient, and Sentence of Death Will Be Passed To-day.

Pavali Steffoff is guilty of the murder of Van Simoff, and at seven o'clock this morning will be brought before Justice Riddell in the criminal assize court to receive the death sentence. The verdict was returned at five o'clock yesterday afternoon, after an hour and forty minutes' deliberation upon the evidence. Fifteen minutes before their final return the jury filed into the court to hear read that portion of the evidence as to the statement made by Steffoff to the police as to his actions on the day of his arrest.

The scene in the courtroom was dramatic indeed. As the jury seated themselves the prisoner's eyes scanned the faces of the men who were to soon to decree his fate. As their finding was translated to him he shook his head in a dazed way, and murmured a barely audible "No."

J. M. Godfrey, who has conducted his defence immediately rose and asked that the jury be polled, and fifteen minutes later returned the verdict. Twelve men, six of whom had sat on the jury which had come in for such sharp criticism for what was termed the disgracefully weak verdict as to manslaughter in the Mabel Turner case, and four of whom had reduced Walter Blythe's crime from murder to manslaughter, stood up and one by one answered to their names with the one word "guilty." Some of them spoke clearly, and with firmness, while others were barely heard.

Moves for Sentence.

G. T. Blackstock, K.C., crown prosecutor, immediately moved for sentence upon the accused, and one by one stood up to stand up. The charge and convictions were read:

"Pavali Steffoff, the jury has found that you did on the 2nd of April, 1909, in the City of Toronto, murder Van Simoff. Have you anything to say why the sentence of the court should not be passed upon you?"

As this was again translated to him the man again shook his head and said that he would sooner speak thru his lawyer, and he was remanded till this morning for sentence.

Story of the Crime.

"The crime of which Steffoff has been found guilty was committed on the 2nd of April, 1909, and the first to notify anyone of the tragedy was Steffoff himself. When discovered by the police the head of the victim was almost chopped to pieces, the woman having been inflicted with a hatchet. From the blood stains on Steffoff's clothing, and from his answers he gave to the police of his answers to the affair, suspicion at once rested on the prisoner, and he was arrested. The motive for the crime is believed to have been the accused's desire for money, which Simoff is believed to have had at the time of the murder.

In charging the jury Justice Riddell told them he was before them to interpret for them the law, and it was for them to judge the facts of the case. Their responsibility was as great as his, and in explaining to them what was meant by a reasonable doubt, which the prisoner should always receive the benefit of, he said that doubt was not a weak-kneed one which weakened basswood jurors could smother up their consciences with. His lordship related in detail the chain of evidence against the prisoner.

Mr. Blackstock made a strong address to the jury, and Mr. Godfrey made an excellent plea on behalf of the prisoner.

Jury Thanked.

In discharging the jury Justice Riddell said to them:

"Gentlemen of the jury I want to thank you for the careful way in which you have given your attention to the evidence. I am satisfied that an honest verdict and I believe that it is the right one. Again I want to thank you."

PERSIAN LAMB.

Persian lamb is probably the most generally worn of any fur put upon the market, and a noticeable feature of it is that the Persian fauna is domestic, while most every other pelts used for the making of garments come from a wild or untamed species. The Persian lamb is fed easily to the slaughter, while traps and all nature of cunning devices are employed in the gathering of other furs. It is upon the steppes of Southern Russia, and in the province of Khabarovsk and Turkistan in Asia, that these sheep are bred. They are what you would call mountain bred, and though their coats are naturally rich and curly black, it needs the dyer's art to bring these features to perfection. Dineen has just received a second large shipment from Leliste, a collection of beautiful garments in this excellent fur is now being displayed in the show-rooms. It is worth a call.

RUGBY NEWS AND GOSSIP

Senior School Defeats Senior Arts in Mulock Cup Series 28 to 8.

Argonauts had a rattling good practice last night in preparation for their game with Ottawa here Saturday at Rosedale and to-night will up their work for the week with a practice against the intermediates.

Victoria go to Ottawa Saturday, where they play Friday at Varsity between the Colleges will be strengthened by Frank Higginson on the wing line, the latter having returned from the west a few days ago.

It would be a sad blow to Ottawa if Argonauts defeated them here Saturday at Rosedale and, judging by last Saturday's game with Varsity at Ottawa Saturday, do the trick, and what's more the team say they will win.

Kennedy of the McGill team is out of the game for the season, owing to injuries received in the Queen's game.

Before lining up to-night for practice the Argonauts will have a good half hour at the tackling dummy.

Hamilton and Montreal have agreed upon George Ballard and Jimmy Craig as officials for their game Saturday at Montreal.

The relative merits of Hamilton and Varsity are being freely discussed just now, as these two teams look to be the opponents in the final for the Dominion championship.

The High School League finals are to be played in Jesse Ketchum Park to-night and first and second teams of Parkdale and Jarvis, the Juniors starting at 7:45 and the Americans were old college men.

Every member of the Capitals' Juvenile Rugby team is requested to be out in uniform to-night at 7:15 sharp at Jesse Ketchum Park.

BIG FIGHTS SINCERE

Jeffries and Johnson Create Impression They Will Soon Make Match.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Jack Johnson will arrive to-morrow from Chicago prepared to talk business with James J. Jeffries in a personal interview without further delay.

Johnson from his statement made in Chicago to-day will be ready to meet Jeffries at a public conference, if agreeable to the bolshunakar and will try to agree upon terms for the fight as speedily as possible.

Jeffries and Johnson have created the impression that they are sincere in their desire to settle the question of supremacy. Johnson has just quoted as saying that Jeffries can name his own terms, and the bolshunakar, when he arrived here from Europe last week, stated that a 75 and 25 per cent division of the purse would be fair to both.

Which Style Will Prevail? Those who have been watching closely the styles of play used by Parkdale and T.A.C. teams of the O.R.F.U. senior championship are unanimously of the opinion that the decisive battle of next Saturday at Diamond Park will be one in which perfect team play will be pitted against individual superiority.

What is "Oakwood"? "Oakwood" is the new residential subdivision in Toronto. It covers a 40-minute walk of it. We cannot tell here all the beauty of the place. You'll have to go out there and see for yourself if you want to appreciate that or the possibilities of the property. It stands on that hill which skirts the northern boundaries of Toronto, and overlooks the city and the lake. There is good air in "Oakwood" and all the comforts of city life will shortly be available because the Toronto school board have contracted for a modern high school to be erected on the northern end of "Oakwood."

Exhibition Track Has About Best Harness Races of the Season.

The matinee given by the Toronto Driving Club at the Exhibition grounds yesterday furnished some good sport, and the small crowd that turned out to see the trotters and pacers perform went away convinced that it was about the best racing of the season.

Special mention must be made of the trotting event, which went the limit. The field that scored away for the word comprised four of the best performers we have in the matinee game, and the drivers up doing the teaming were all good mechanics.

In the second heat, Belle Mason and Trickett had a battle royal all the way, the former outdusting Trickett thru the stretch in the fastest heat of the race.

In the pacing classes, Billy Robinson, who has the driving for Mr. R. J. Patterson's stable of fast ones, had Pansy and Violet in fine form, and this pair of roadmaster mares were in front.

TRYING TO SIDETRACK THE VIADUCT.

The public are asking why this sudden activity in the city council to send a by-law to the ratepayers authorizing the spending of a first half million dollars on improving Ashbridge's Bay, the total outlay to be in the neighborhood of three or four millions? Nobody heard of this scheme until it emerged as a full-fledged by-law, forthwith rushed through the council.

In the meantime we notice no mention was made of submitting a by-law for the Bloor-Danforth viaduct. Yet this improvement, if it cost a million dollars—the interest on this would be only $40,000 per year—would be a money-maker from the start, inasmuch as the taxes on the district thus opened up will double, and triple almost immediately. And not only will the Bloor-Danforth viaduct, be a money-maker for the city, but it will enable the people of East Toronto to come into the city for one fare, where they now have to pay two fares, one over the Kingston road, and one over the city lines. What is Aid McMillin doing for the people of East Toronto in this respect?

Speaking of East Toronto, there was an article in The Globe yesterday telling the people of that thriving end of the city that it was practically blighted by the removal of the Grand Trunk yards. As a matter of fact, this is not the case; East Toronto depended very little on the Grand Trunk, its to-day one of the busiest and most thriving parts of Toronto, and is growing as fast as any other part. It is high and dry, is well drained, and has the best building lands in Toronto. All it wants is a single fare on the city cars, instead of the two that it now has to pay. East Toronto is all right, and its whole east side of the town is all right. But the district is entitled to the Bloor and Danforth viaduct, and a continuous street on Bloor and Danforth-avenue from East Toronto to the Humber. This will become the greatest thoroughfare in Toronto outside of Yonge-street and Queen-street. Add the city will then be more balanced in its growth.

ASSESSMENTS AND THE TAX RATE.

East, north, west and centre Toronto furnish but one opinion about the action of the assessment department this year. Representatives from all quarters of the city declare that the assessment is too high. In that case all is well. All have been created alike. No injustice has been done. The striking is for next year, and in assessing the tax rate next year's council can easily knock off a few mills, and citizens will have no heavier burden than before. Mr. W. F. Ardagh of the court of revision pointed this out the other day, but the complaining citizen immediately concerned did not appear to have the confidence in the city council that might have been expected. The citizens have the election of a thrifty mayor and council in their own hands. A high assessment and a low tax rate are the best recommendation the city can have for outsiders. There is no special sanctity about 15-12 mills that the council should refrain from changing it. Sixteen and a half would doubtless induce a hollower frame of mind in the taxpayer.

CONCERNING HIGHER CRITICISM.

Higher or historical criticism is the most active agent in the chemistry of theological thought to-day. While not of supreme value in itself, it affords a supreme test for the various creeds, sects, cults and bodies of opinion with which it is brought in contact. Their relation to it indicates the true metal. Evidence of this occurs daily. In the Baptist Convention at Hamilton Chancellor McKay of McMaster University called attention to the public statement authorized in June by the senate:

McMaster University stands for freedom, for progress, for investigation. It must welcome truth from whatever quarter, and never be guilty of binding the spirit of free enquiry. As a Christian school of learning under Baptist auspices, it stands for the fullest and freest investigation, not only in the scientific realm, but in the realm of Biblical scholarship. Holding fast their historic position on the personal freedom and responsibility of the individual, refusing to bind or be bound by any human creed, rejecting the authority of tradition and taking their stand on the word of God alone as the supreme and all-sufficient rule of faith and practice, the Baptists have ever been ready to accord to all students of the sacred Scriptures the largest possible measure of freedom consistent with loyalty to the fundamentals of the Christian faith."

Archdeacon Cody, approaching the question from another point of view elsewhere the same evening, tho in exactly the same spirit which inspires the McMaster utterance, gave voice to a conception of the question which, while quite in harmony with the other, by over-emphasis on each side, has come to be regarded by many as incompatible with it. "No doubt the venerable archdeacon could subscribe to every word of the McMaster statement, and yet he is able also to perceive the

Now that the good man has won his case, three friends are again busy, or rather Barrie himself appears to be busy, among them, endeavoring to get them to intervene and effect a reconciliation with the woman he divorced. So Mr. Barrie is presented to the public in the double aspect of crying with his friends both before and after the separation. Mr. Barrie was free to select the cross that he would shoulder, and having so selected it he should have borne it unflinchingly, especially as he is known not only to be a man of sentiment, but to possess a judicious amount of Scotch thrift.

Now, however, he presents himself as in a psychological mood, instead of with the clear vision that would be expected, and instead of cheerfully bearing the cross, he appears before the public as a weeping Jimmie.
S.S. SERVICE TO FRANCE

OTTAWA, Oct. 27.—The Franco-Canadian steamship service of the Allan Line is likely to be greatly improved in consequence of the improvement in trade which is expected to follow the French treaty becoming effective. French Tariff Reductions.

PARIS, Oct. 27.—In the course of the tariff debate in the chamber of deputies to-day, M. Jaures, leader of the Socialists, demanded that the government at once begin pourparlers with foreign governments, with a view of securing a general reduction in the tariffs. Foreign Minister Pichon replied that such a project would be impossible until France had completed the revision of her own rates.

Hutchinson v. Rogers—A. B. Morine, K.C., for defendant, appeal from judgment of Neil McLean, an official referee, dated 28th September, 1908. E. E. A. Du Verne, K.C., and W. E. Milliken, for plaintiff, opposed defendant's appeal and cross appealed from same judgment. Judgment: The action was brought by a contractor to establish and enforce his lien under the Mechanics' and Wage Earners' Lien Act. The amount which the plaintiff sought to recover in respect of the two contracts in writing, and in respect of additional work, was $527.10. The appellant denied that the work was authorized in writing or properly done, or done in the time specified and claimed $500 as liquidated damages for each week of delay. The referee did not give effect to any of the objections to plaintiff's right to recover, awarded him $325.00, and disallowed defendant's claim for damages. McMaster University stands for freedom, for progress, for investigation. It must welcome truth from whatever quarter, and never be guilty of binding the spirit of free enquiry. As a Christian school of learning under Baptist auspices, it stands for the fullest and freest investigation, not only in the scientific realm, but in the realm of Biblical scholarship. Holding fast their historic position on the personal freedom and responsibility of the individual, refusing to bind or be bound by any human creed, rejecting the authority of tradition and taking their stand on the word of God alone as the supreme and all-sufficient rule of faith and practice, the Baptists have ever been ready to accord to all students of the sacred Scriptures the largest possible measure of freedom consistent with loyalty to the fundamentals of the Christian faith."

Archdeacon Cody, approaching the question from another point of view elsewhere the same evening, tho in exactly the same spirit which inspires the McMaster utterance, gave voice to a conception of the question which, while quite in harmony with the other, by over-emphasis on each side, has come to be regarded by many as incompatible with it. "No doubt the venerable archdeacon could subscribe to every word of the McMaster statement, and yet he is able also to perceive the

ALDERMEN HAD HOLIDAY SAW PETERBORO SIGHTS

Were Guests of Canadian General Electric Company and Enjoyed Civic Welcome.

The cultivation of cordial relations between the city council and Canadian General Electric Company, which is an advanced order step yesterday afternoon, the mayor, controller and aldermen met at the Peterboro Hotel to view the workings of the huge electrical enterprises.

While the object of the company is to further the brotherhood of man or to give the civic rulers an industrial education so much as to secure trial education, the circumstances did not detract from the enjoyment of the day. The electrical company was a generous host, and its hospitality was appreciated in no small measure.

The inspection of the plant, which occupied more than two hours, was a revelation to many in the civic party as to the magnitude of the enterprise, and the wide range of its production of electrical supplies had been little realized.

It was found that the seventy-five acres occupied contained a dozen large buildings each devoted to a separate branch of the industry. There were 500 employees at work, or about half full strength.

Who Were There. There were about forty in the party which left by C. P. R. special at 10 a.m. The delegation included Mayor O'Brien, Controller Hocken, Harrison and Ward, and a majority of the aldermen and civic officials, while the company's officers were Geo. W. Watts, manager of works, John A. Brimmer, controller, Phos. Hilliard, Wm. Orl, R. E. Layford, A. W. Roberts, B. G. McBurney, Geo. Hunt, and Wm. A. Buckle.

On arrival at Peterboro, they were welcomed by Mayor Rust, Hon. R. Stratton and others. After visiting the famous $500,000 lift lock, dinner was served at the Oriental Hotel, with Mayor Rust doing the honors. Inspection of the works was followed by an informal gathering at the Peterboro Club, where the visitors expressed thanks for the hospitality extended.

WIFE SUES FOR DIVORCE. Alleges That Rev. Walter DuMoulin Has Neglected Her. DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 27.—(Special.)—A special from St. Francis to tonight says: In a sensational complaint, Mrs. Jennie G. Dumoulin, wife of Rev. Walter G. Dumoulin, to-day filed suit for divorce, alleging desertion, failure to provide and cruelty. The pastor, who formerly was in charge of St. James' and St. Stephen's Churches, San Francisco, met his wife at the former church, where she sang in the choir. They were married in 1902. According to the complaint, he devoted more of his time to his lady parishioners than his ministerial duties called for. His wife alleges that at Port Douglas, Col., Highland, Mich., several places in North Dakota, and in the Hawaiian Islands, her husband consorted with other women, and neglected her. She alleges that he brought her a photograph of a woman in the nude, and asked that she pose similarly. It is charged that one time he tied his baby to a table when out in charge of the child, and went out with a lady friend.

He is the son of the Anglican bishop of the Niagara Diocese in Canada, and his brother is dean of the cathedral at Cleveland. His wife was popular in society in San Francisco, and her singing earned great reputation for herself and St. James' Church.

MAY BE MODERN BLUEBEARD

Gebhardt Suspected of Killing Two Previous Wives. NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Frederick Gebhardt, alias Mueller, the self-convicted 11 p. m. murderer, may have a better claim on the title of "bluebeard" than the one murder would warrant, according to a statement made tonight by Capt. Coughlin of the Brooklyn detective force. Two other mysterious murders of women are to be investigated before the prisoner is put on trial for his life, and in view of his uncertain matrimonial career, the police believe that two, and possibly three, additional cases where women mysteriously disappeared will be cleared up.

It was reported to-day that the prisoner had confessed to the coroner that he had killed two other women, but this could not be confirmed.

At the regular meeting of the union last night in the Labor Temple, it was decided to hold a large representative meeting in Toronto during the second week of November, and notices will be sent to the various locals in the province, requesting them to send delegates for the purpose of discussing the ways and means of bettering the conditions of the organization, as well as the proper enforcement of the license law. The contention of the union is that the government should see that every steam engineer produce his credentials. President F. W. Barron presided.

North Toronto, Oct. 27.—(Special.)—While engaged in pulling roots on the farm of Mr. Hepperson yesterday one of the men employed in the work received terrible injuries, his right hand being caught in the knives and three of the fingers amputated. He was hurried to the hospital and after his wounds were dressed and after he proceeded to his own home north of the city.

Everything points to the fact that Friday night's meeting called by Mayor Brown for the nomination of candidates for the council will be an interesting one. Mr. Brown is absent from town on a business trip arranged prior to his acceptance of the nomination, but his friends and supporters will not allow his temporary absence to in any way interfere with the campaign. While only Mr. Brown and Mr. Coblin last night arrested one elector, rumor connects the names of two or three other prominent citizens. However, we shall see what we shall see.

The Davisville Methodist Church choir gave an enjoyable concert at the home of Mrs. J. M. Wainey yesterday. Under the leadership of Mr. Flavell the choir gave a number of fine selections. J. M. Anniversary Services and Fowl Supper Were Alike Successful. WOODBRIDGE, Oct. 27.—(Special.)—The anniversary services conducted in the Presbyterian Church here by Rev. W. H. Andrews, M.A., of Queen-street Presbyterian Church, Toronto, were eloquent discourses and listened to by large congregations.

On Monday evening a fowl supper was given by the ladies of the congregation. The Rev. D. Strachan of Toronto delighted the large gathering with a humorous and instructive address. The choir, under the leadership of Miss Kaiser, was ably assisted by the choir of Woodbridge, and Mr. C. E. Weeds of Woodville, every number receiving an encore. Rev. Mr. Rogers, Woodbridge; Rev. E. Macdonald, P.E.I., and Rev. J. M. Send for our Handsome Booklet on "Heating the Home"—Interesting—Instructive—FREE. That's the first water section in a Gurney-Oxford Boiler. It is situated immediately above the fire. Look at those funnel-shaped openings—sloping walls, to be sure. Back of those self-same sloping walls you have the water that eventually finds its way to the radiators. If those openings were straight up and down instead of funnel-shaped, would the heat be so surely effective? Certainly not. A goodly part of the fire's intensity would shoot through the straight opening, and naturally go towards heating the smoke pipe—wasteful extravagance. That is not possible in the Gurney-Oxford Boiler. Those funnel-shaped openings simply stagger the heat, certainly in its greatest intensity, and even when the fire is low the water is always kept warm. That's but one reason why the Gurney-Oxford Boiler is truly economical—and there's more you ought to know. The best heating results are certain when you install a Gurney-Oxford Boiler and Radiators.

LAURIER ON CONSTITUTION

"Happy England," Premier Says, in Making Comparisons. MONTREAL, Oct. 27.—(Special.)—Wilfrid Laurier, speaking before the Women's Canadian Club this afternoon, after luncheon in the Royal Victoria College, outlined the leading principles of the British and American constitutions, presenting a comparison between the two. The great difference between the British monarchy and that of other European powers, past and present, was that the British King was only supposed to represent the will of the people, and when he did not do so, the people heroically and successfully opposed the usurpation. "The system of resistance decreased in France," said Sir Wilfrid, towards the close of his comparison between England and former European powers. "Whereas in England it increased until the people's rights were undoubtedly obtained."

CAUGHT IN NICK OF TIME

Two New Yorkers, Charged With Fraud, Captured in Montreal. MONTREAL, Oct. 27.—(Special.)—Charged with defrauding the New York State Bank out of $240, two Americans, who sought refuge in Montreal, have been arrested, awaiting extradition proceedings. Morris Zornstein and Samuel Heiman were manufacturers of cloaks and skirts in New York City. On April 27, it is said, they made out false statements and went to the New York State Bank branch No. 279 Grand-avenue and obtained $240 on their promissory note. When the note became due they had sold their business and disappeared.

The two men were arrested this morning. They declared that they had intended to sail away by the end of the week. Inquest on Lizzie Worling. An inquest will be opened to-night on Lizzie Worling, who died Tuesday night under peculiar circumstances at Charles Smith's boarding house at 302 East Queen-street. There were uncertainly no signs of violence on her person, and the coroner's jury returned a verdict of natural causes.

Bargain Day Means Richer Harvests for Limited Means

EVERYBODY'S income more than equalled the expenditure required of it, Bargain Day would not be the useful institution it is.

On that day we strenuously strive to beat the market prices, even as set in this store, in every department of merchandise that we carry. Special buying and regular stocks reduced in quantities by a week's active selling, and put at prices to finish it up "clean and quick," provide weekly opportunities of saving such as thrifty people very wisely make a point to accept. We print the lists for to-morrow without the display of big type or illustrations, but the contrasting figures enliven the descriptions and give interest to thorough reading.

Store Opens 8 a.m. Closes 5:30 p.m.

The success of the Toronto Symphony Concert on Thanksgiving night has increased the interest in our daily orchestral concerts, under the direction of Mr. Roland Roberts. Two new players have joined the orchestra:
