hool question were also of a pro ed character. Mr. Fielding's Past. cting on the authority and e direction of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Mr. elding was the Liberal leader in Nova otia in 1896, and his speech on the otia in 1896, and his speech on the hool question, delivered in Windsor March 6 of that year, was the abst deliverance of the campaign in pport of the Liberal policy. Mr. Born proceeded to quote extracts from r. Fielding's speech, "Why should we the believe that Manitoba will be reanable in this matter? The Manitobs are not African savages. The true terests of Manitoba will be better lyanced by the policy of conciliation an by the policy of coercion. I ask e people of Nova Scotia to stand by a principle of free schools in the se of Manitoba just as they would and by it in their own province. Nova Scotia know the value of a stem of free public schols. We are actically a unit in support of that stem. If the Dominion authorities fould attempt to interfere with our hool system, if they should attempt impose upon this province a system hich they are trying to force upon anitoba, we would expect to have the impathy of the friends of free schools sewhere, and we would expect the ople of the western provinces to give their sympathy and support in such condition. Let us to-day give them ir hearty sympathy and support in estruggle until we find that they are of amenable to reason."

Very Excellent Words, Sir. Father on, after giving credit to Sir harles Tupper for public schools in ova Scotia, Mr. Fielding continued: What can we say of the position of at gentleman to-day, who, instead of anding up as the champion of a free hool system and resisting those who tack it, scrambles into parliament ru the unfair interference of the Ro-an Catholic pulpits of the County of track it, scrambles into parliament by the unfair interference of the Rosan Catholic pulpits of the County of ape Breton, and is now devoting the cening of his life to the work of deroying the free school system of fanitoba and forcing upon that proince a system which he would not are attempt to force upon the Province in Nova Scotia? For 20 years the Rosan Catholic minority in Manitoba and the privilege of a separate school ystem. The result of that system roved exceedingly unsatisfactory to be people of Manitoba—ample evidence as been adduced to prove that the eparate schools were not efficient chools. I believe that the people of Ianitoba, if let alone, will settle the uestion for themselves. Why should be not believe this? We know from ur own experience that it has been ound possible to maintain a free school ystem and to administer it so as to make it acceptable to the people of very class and creed. I hear no complaint of the Nova Scotia schol law; he Manitoba schol system is substanially the same as that in Nova Scotia."

Sir Wilfrid Knew It.

Mr. Borden went on to say that his object in quoting this language was not to discuss or criticize it, but simply to show that Sir Wilfrid had full throwledge of the views of Mr. Fielding in regard to certain provisions of he autonomy bills. Yet upon the even of Mr. Fielding's return to Ottawa the prime minister introduced into parliament a bill which he implied had the inspent of every member of the administration. That was undoutbedly a grave departure from constitutional grave departure from constitutional it is that the prime minister introduced a bill for discussion in his cabinet, knowing the views of these two gentlemen, in their absence, and with a haste grave departure from constitutional isage.

"What." asked Mr. Borden, "was the overmastering reason which led him under these circumstances to introduce that bill to parliament without giving to the house and the country the information that two members of the cabinet, members who above all others should have been consulted with regard to the provisions of this measure, but who did not even have submitted to them, were not even cousulted with regard to it, had not even seen it or read it?"

Another question Mr. Borden would like to ask was this. Sir Wilfrid in introducing his bill referred to the aid which the government had received from members of the executive council of the Northwest. He would like to know whether the aducational clauses of the bill were submitted to them, were fully discussed with them and met with their approbation? (Hear, hear.) He would also like to ask how long Sir Wilfrid proposed to carry on the affairs of the country without filling the vacant portfolio of the interior? With a measure before the house, affecting the Northwest, the house should have the advice and experience of a minitser appointed to that portfolio, for the reason that he was well qualified to fill it.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier replied that there siven after a general election. But had

Sir Wilfrid Replies.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier replied that there had been no undue delay in filling the portfolio of the interior, as it had only become vacant ten days ago. He hoped before long, however, to give Mr. Borden an opportunity of giving his assent to the appointment of a minister. With regard to the other two questions, he did not think he was warranted in giving any more information than he had already given. "And that is none," Mr. Borden ob-

"That is not much," replied the prime minister, "but I would submit that strictly speaking my hon, friend is en-titled to none at all. The conferences which took place between the government and the representatives of the Northwest government were carried on confidentially and I do not know whether I have any authority to support the support of the interest of the intere confidentially and I do not know whether I have any authority to give any information about them to the house. No record has been kept of them, the conferences have been absolutely confidential."

In regard to the other questions. Sir Mr. Foster declared that the speech made by the prime minister, introducing the autonomy bill, was not a lucid ex-Mr. Borden was haping his course carefully, that he knew now where to place his, batterles and was endeavoring to show a difference between the position occupied by the Liberal party in 1896 and its position to-day. But Sir Wilfrid did not admit there had been any departure whatever. In 1896 the position which the Liberals took was that it was not right for the federal parliation which the try to impose on the Province. ent to try to impose on the Province separate schools were superior to public Manitoba a system of schools which free schools or secular schools. THE "GEORGE BROWN LIBERAL"

The copy of a letter which appeared The copy of a letter which appeared in The World on Wednesday morning last as having been sent to a gentleman in St. Thomas, was written originally to W. H. Orr of Toronto, who was one of Hon. George Brown's editorial staff in 1865-6, and was well acquainted with his views relative to the separate school question at the birth of confederation. Mr. Orr promtly replied to the premier's letter, and now that Sir Wilfrid's copy has been given to the public, it is only proper that the reply should also appear, which was as follows:

the trouble you have taken in replying to my letter relative to the critical to my letter relative to the critical position of matters touching the establishment of autonomy in the new northwest of our Dominion. I notice you ask me a question relative to the views that would have been entertained by the fare Hon. George Brown if the proposed new provinces had been taken into confederation in 1867 instead of 1905.

proposed new provinces had been taken into confederation in 1867 instead of 1905.

"My great chieftain's view on that point can only be learned from his life time '(while in Canada) of devotion to the interests of freedom on the part of the people of this country, and from what he did consent to do in relation to the Maritime Provinces at that time—leaving them their entire liberty on this question, the same as old Canada had enjoyed.

"Mr. Brown was thoroly devoted to the principle of each separate province having perfect liberty to do as it pleased with the question of education. That is what he and myself and scores of other editors fought for in our respective papers during the whole time that the subject of separate schools was being discussed and being forced upon Upper Canada by the dominent religiously-united power of Quiebec, while the two provinces were linked to gether in a united government.

"You know, of course, that George Brown's great hobby was representation by population, for the sake of which he joined with Sir John A. Macdonald in bringing about confederation; but I am sure he would far sooner have Brown's great hobby was representation by population. for the sake of which he joined with Sir John A. Macdonald in bringing about confederation; but I am sure he would far sooner have parted with his great strong, manly right arm than to have consented to any sort of constitution for that great central section of the North American continent that would fixe arbitrarily for all time, any system whatever of education to be followed by the separate provinces that might grow up therein many years after he was dead and gone. The assumption that he would have thus followed his principles is what I protest against.

"The Czar of Russia while he is alive may control the destinies of that great land, but no man in this land of freedom should have the power to fasten on all future peoples of this Dominion any such regulations about the educational system it might desire to adopt for the good of its people as are found in the new bill.

"Let me say in conclusion that the question is not one of whether the schools now existing in the Northwest are practically public schools, tho called separate schools, or not. The question is simply nothing whatever more or less than this, that the Province of Quebec is attempting, in this case, to make laws to suit itself that it hopes will be binding upon the great new Northwest from now until Doomsday, whereas the English speaking peoples of the whole of the rest of the Dominion think they have some rights in such a matter, and that the Province of Quebec ought to leave the sons of Great Britain, who people these lands, to frame their educational laws Just as freely and fully as the old united provinces of Upper and Lower Canada framed their educational laws before ever confederation was formed. Why not? Who is forcing you to make any

Fon troubles such as Palpitation of the Heart, Sleeplessness, Nervousness, Faint or Dizzy Spells, Shortness of Breath, Starting in the Sleep; Cold, Clammy Hands or Feet, Brain Fag, etc., we would strongly advise the early use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, as this remedy, taken in time, has been the means of saving many a life, and restoring strength to those who were weak, nervous, health-shattered invalids.

Mrs. E. Kilmer, Humberstone, Ont., writes:—"Allow me to tell you of the great results I have derived from Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. Exchange of Land

Pick out your plantation tract to day, while you still have a choice Read our prospectus as to quality of land, fertility, etc., but rememwhen you see it for any reason, we will cheerfully exchange it for an other tract which will be satisfactory. We want everybody satisfied with land allotted. It is also to our interest to give every applicant the very best land on our estate. It means a direct advertisement by the recommendation of their friends and puts great value on our other property.

EVERY OFFICER of this company is active. There are no figure heads, no "dummies" and no duones connected with the organization. There isn't room for them. Therefore we will see that every promise made it carried out to the very letter.

Land values in Cuba are just beginning to boom, still there have been phenomenal increases in values. Land has increased 1200 per cent, in five years in the neighborhood of the American settlements.

Capt. L. D. Baker and his associates in the Cuba Fruit Company bought thousands of acres at $8 to $10 per acre four years age in Santiago Province They refuse $100 per acre for their unimproved tracts to-day. One thousand per cent. increase: You have the chance to do the same thing—make your money out of fruit-growing and land.

Extracts from Expert Reports from One of the Best Fruit Growers of Guba.

I rode over this property and made several investigations of the that would even to the slightest degree change my opinion regarding the suitability of the land for the successful cultivation and growing of all kinds of citrus fruits. I found the duplication of the Florida soil, on which the best groves in the world are raised, not only in the general appearance of the fand, or top soil, but also in the subsoils, except in no case did I find any hard pan or even any evidence of hard pan.

The land and the subsoil underlying it is in every way perfectly adapted to profitable growing of Oranges.

The soil as you know, is a sandy, loose earth, easy to cultivate and in this respect much more desirable than any other land to be found in Cuba, because, while it is ecomomical to cultivate, it is the best land in the world for oranges.

Our estimate: 250 crates per acre; profit, $1 per crate; total profit,

THE ADVANTAGES over California and Florida may be enumerated

IN CALIFORNIA the profits of the orange growers are diminished by:

Expensive artificial irrigation.
Expensive methods of frost protection. Frequent losses of fruit and trees from frost. Expensive fertilizers to enrich the soil, Heavy freight rates (by rail) to eastern markets. Fourteen days' haul to New York IN CUBA the orange grower enjoys.
Copious but not excessive rainfall.
Rains well distributed throughout the year.

Naturally fertile soil. Freight rates forty-eight cents less per box than California.
Four days by steamer to New York.

Every Information Freely Given

This company is the owner of 70,000 acres of very rich, fertile land in the Province of Pinar del Rio, Cuba. This land is suitable to the growth of the finest quality of tobacco, oranges, lemons, pineapples and other citrous fruits.

One acre produced last year $2700 in tobacco. The revenue-producing powers of this estate will not be reduced by sale of lands, as the cultivated portion will be increased by additional plantation. The lands offered for sale can be made as productive within a short period as those at present cultivated. The estate is abundantly watered by numerous streams and fresh water springs.

The temperature is even, so that catarrh is unheard of. This company is now offering land in blocks of ten acres or more at $10.00 per acre. Stock at par, or scrip entitling the owner to an option to take land at $10.00, or stock at par, for a limited period.

Only 10,000 acres will be offered at $10.00 per acre, of which 7000 acres are already sold. The second 10,000 acres will be sold at $20.00 per acre or over within a few months. The balance of the estate to be disposed of—30,000 acres—will be raised to $50.00 per acre or over. As the price of land is raised, the price of stock will also advance.

Terms-25 per cent. cash; 25 per cent. 30 days; 25 per cent. 60 days; 25 per cent. 90 days; or terms can be arranged.

Bee Keeping

An American settler near Candelaria, Pinar del Rio Province, Cuba, started with 33 colonies of bees in April, 1900. Just two years later, or in April, 1902, he had actually sold 7200 gallons of strained honey at 29 cents per gallon, and 150 nuclei of bees at $1.50 each, and had 600 colonies working. He had realized $2,078 from his honey and $225 from his nucell, or a total of $2303, and had increased the size of his "plant" wer 1800 per cent. This "side line" yielded an income of nearly $1200

HARD TIMES, sickness and old age may come, but he who owns his home is certain, at least, of a port in which to ride out the gale or end his days peacefully in this sailors' "snug harbor."

FORTUNATE, indeed, is the man, or woman, whose ownership of land includes both a home and a living, or means of support. Such landownership carries with it not only a place of abode, but also food, raiment and the comforts of life. As a heritage for one's family it is better than life insurance or a bank account. In short it does what a farm should do.

Call and see Originals.

Your letter of the 7th of January to hand. I will gladly give you any assistance I can. I have not visited the tract of land you mention, but I am told that it is very good land. It is hard to find land in Cuba that is not good for something. Provided the company is solid, you have an opportunity of a lifetime in buying this land at $10 per acre in small lots. Large tracts of 2000 or more acres are still for sale at this figure, but it is almost impossible to buy small lots. The land you think of buying is good for oranges and some of it for tobacco, and all of it for pineapples.

I purchased my land from the Davenport Company of Cuba, an American company, with offices at 23 William-street, New York. It is a very wealthy company, and they have spent an enormous sum of money here. They started two and a half years ago selling land at $10 per acre. I bought six months ago at $50 per acre, and on the first of February it goes up to $60 per acre. Nearly all this company's land is now sold, and they are trying to buy more. About 3000 acres are planted with oranges and planting is still proceeding rapidly.

I know of no land on this terrestrial sphere so blessed by Providence in all that goes to make up natural wealth and productive possibilities, sunshine, moisture, immensely fertile soil and a delightful climate, and then consider the close proximity to the best market in the world for its produce. It is only four days from New York, while California is twelve for freight.

I am so convinced of the merits of the proposition of the Canada Cuba Company that I have invested a goodly sum in it I made thorough inquiries before doing so, and came at the proposition from several sides, and always with the same results, an increased confidence in the ultimate profitable result of the investment.

We have not given vegetable raising prominence enough. There is a fortune in it here now; we have the very best land for it. Strawberries, 75 cents per box; common potatoes; 3 cents per bound; tomatoes, 3 cents per pound and everything in proportion.

The location of your property is excellent—high, dry, free from rock or stone and first-class sandy loam soil.

This piano was again in quest on Thursday evening in the very successful song recital of Herr August Wilhelmj, in St. George's Hall, where an overflow audience greeted this famous artist. The critics agree that his program was most carefully chosen and contained selections of the best masters. The audience comprised many of Toronto's leading citizens and was in every way an emphatic society as well as musical success. Ayer's Hair Vigor is a hair-food. It feeds the hair and the hair grows. That's all there is to it And it is a splendid tonic to the hair, giving the hair follicles tone and strength. This is why it checks falling hair so promptly.

Boys' Association was made the occasion of a happy reunion at the Walker House last night, where business and pleasure were combined. A banquet was served in the best style, the manager of the hotel, T. M. Bayne, himself one of the old boys, outdoing himself in his attentions to about two hundred guests. The chair was occupied by A. T. Malone, who, after honoring the King, proposed "Canada." Prof. Cahoe of Mc-Master University replied, and Thomas Gibson toasted "Our Guests." on whose behalf M. T. Buchanan responded. "Our Old Home" was presented by J. F. MacKay, and Dr. T. Millman replied, while F. S. Beddow, B.A. of St. Andrew's College, spoke for the ladies. The election of officers resulted: Hon. president, A. T. Malone; president, W. S. W. McLay, M.A.; first vice-president, Dr. Uren; second vice-president, H. L. Kerr, B.A.; secretary-treasurer, W. O. HER RACE WITH DEATH.

Tragic Dilemma of Wife Who Wanted Light for Dying Husband.

London, March 9.—With the dwindling light from a penny-in-the-slot gas metre casting its last flickers on her fast dying husband. Mrs. Tranter, a starving woman with four young children, living in Clerkson-street. Canning Town, made the tragic discovery that she had but two halfpennies left in the world.

A few moments later the light went out, and left the weeping wife in terror that she might never see her husband alive again.

There was but one alternative, which involved a desperate race with death. If Mrs. Tranter could change her two halfpennies for a penny quickly she might be in time to obtain more light while he still lived.

Mrs. Tranter seized the halfpennies from the mantelpiece of the humble bedroom, and, without hat or boots, rushed into the streets in the hope of finding some passer-by who could change the coins.

it was well past midnight, the roads were almost deserted.
The distracted woman had to run at least a quarter of a mile before she met a man. "For the love of God," she

LET US HAVE THE FACTS. Saturday Night: The News gives ol contributor who attempts to be affairs revealed by the commission of investigation now engaged in examining the charges made by Mr. Jamieson against the management of the University of Toronto, in the columns of Saturday Night. The law does not permit one to indulge in comment on the conclusions to be drawn from evidence submitted to a court, until the court has made its finding, and I therefore feel that The News would have been entitled to considerably more respect had it refrained from publishing this unkind, stupid and misleading letter at the present time. Publication of the letter is as flagrant a disregard of the regulations, compiled with by all respectable journals while any case is under judicial consideration, as The News could have invented. From time to time, while the investigation has been progressing. I have made free comment on the methods employed by the commission in conducting the investigation, but the Saturday Night is the paper most vitally interested in the case, I have not felt justified in publishing any statement that might cast unfair reflection on one of the parties to the dispute—yet, I think, any fair-minded person who has observed the proceedings will admit that opportunities for uncomplimentary reflection have not been wanting. If instead of assisting in ridiculing Mr. Jamieson for pursuing a policy which, he was well aware, could bring him, personally, nothing but discomfort—but which he pursued from urday Night. The law does not permi a policy which, he was well aware, could bring him, personally, nothing but discomfort—but which he pursued from a sense of duty—The News had followed the dictates of its own conscience and GIVEN PUBLICITY TO ITS KNOWLEDGE OF SOME OF THE UNHAPPY, CONDITIONS THAT EXIST AT THE UNIVERSITY, the public would have been pleaded under the content. IST AT THE UNIVERSITY, the public would have been placed under a greater debt of gratitude than even that under which certain members of a professional clique believe themselves to be placed because of the unhappy service The News has rendered some persons under a cloud by attacking a thoroly upright and fearless gentleman. The News is an unusually well-conducted and fair paper—and it is because it is such a paper that I deem its stupid sneer at Mr. Jamieson unworthy of it.

The petulance which Mme. Bernhardt recently displayed in Naples has aroused the ire of editors of prominent Italian papers. The great French actress left Naples in a fury because as she put it, the San Carlo Opera House was opened for the season on the evening of her first performance in Naples. She went on to say:" Rather than have disagreeable surprises at Rome I preferred to on to say:" Rather than have disagree-able surprises at Rome I preferred to wait until the education in politeness of the Italians had been completed!" One paper exclaims: "This is a little too much! Because the San Carlo did Because the San Carlo did Quebec, March 10.—The committee appointed by the local house to investigate on St. Stephen's day—Mme. Bernhardt wheel caused one of the baggage cars to leave the tracks at Davenport. The train was traveling at a fair speed when the detachment occurred, and it was not until it had reached the crossover switch at Parkdale that it was brought to a standstill.

The accident took place about 5.30 p.m. The baggage in the derailed car was then transferred, and the North Bay train pulled in an hour and a quarter behind time. The passengers lost patience over the delay, and with the exception of a couple of ladies, who kept their births in the sleeping car, deserted the coaches, and took the street cars at Parkdale.

The violent jarring of the derailment caused considerable injury to the rails, a number of sectionmen having to be especially detailed to repair the damage done. Engineer Lawrence was in charge of the North Bay train.

Eleven Thousand Yards of

Linoleum at About Half Price THE quantity is not as large, but the quality is better than we have ever offered at the price. The lot is classed as seconds by the manufacturer, but so small are the imperfections that our customers will have some difficulty in finding them. The flaws for the most part are caused by a slight slip of the printing roller and are so infrequent that three out of four customers will buy perfect goods. The cloth is thoroughly seasoned and will give absolutely satisfactory wear.

We could easily sell the entire lot at a much more satisfactory profit by holding it for a few weeks, but large shipments of regular goods are due, and we must clear our floors of this to make room for them. Hence the best Linoleum bargain in the history of the store, commencing Monday. We will fill mail orders as far as possible
