Man And Woman Dead In City Hotel; Carbohc Acid Used

Each One Leaves a Note; His Assumes The Blame

Herbert MacIntosh of Newburyport and Miss A. Findlay Who Has Sister in Haverhill—Here Few Days and Fail to Pass Immigration Inspectors When Seeking to Return

Herbert MacIntosh of Newburyport, Mass., is dead and a young woman named A. Findlay, who is thought to belong to Haverhill, Mass., is lying in a critical condition in the hospital as the result of drinking carbohc acid in a room in the Park Hotel sometime last night or early this morning.

That it was a case of double suicide was evident from information on an envelope which was pinned on the side of the bed.

On the other side of the envelope was a note written by the woman as follows:

"Give my pin to Gladys Thompson, my sister's daughter, A. Findlay."

The man and woman arrived in St. John last week on the Eastern Steamship line and started back to the States on the Boston train on Sunday night.

They endeavored to secure leave after noon, but from statements made to immigration officials and returned to St. John.

When they were held up at Vancouver on Sunday night they met two other passengers who had also been denied admission into the States.

After supper I returned to the hotel light in our room was burning, but she was not in it. I then went to a moving picture show and upon returning found the light turned out altogether.

When asked if she knew the woman she said she never met her before in her life until they met in Vancouver.

"At that time she did not appear to have much money and I asked her to room with me when we got to St. John. She did not say anything to me about her past and I think she was a stranger in this part of the country."

When asked about Mr. MacIntosh, she said he was a man about thirty or thirty-three years of age of medium height and slim. When he would become excited, she said, his eyes would keep moving continuously under his glasses.

She said the four of them were talking in her room on Sunday night about being turned back by the authorities and the other three seemed despondent.

Mr. MacIntosh, she said, was quite ill and decided to return to his home. Last night he left for Moncton en route to Prince Edward Island. She said she did not know anything about the suicide until she returned to the hotel this morning after breakfast. It was then British Headquarters in France and Belgium, Oct. 2.—A German airman has dropped bombs on two hospitals behind the British lines. Three British nurses and some wounded soldiers were killed.

London, Oct. 2.—Londoners, despite the repeated German attempts to drop bombs upon the city, are standing the test well. Last night, when two squadrons succeeded in getting close to London and some over the city there was no panic.

The people in the streets scurried for cover. Within five minutes the streets were deserted virtually.

At dusk many of the poorer classes, particularly the women and children, had gathered at the tube stations and other places of refuge.

The defences. While a terrific barrage was kept up with the bursting of shrapnel furnishing one of the greatest pyrotechnical displays London ever saw, a thrilling battle in the air took place between enemy aircraft and British aviators in the northern district, according to special constables who said they witnessed it.

Early editions of the morning newspapers call attention to Germany's "lying claims" regarding "bombs dropped on military buildings in inner London during the raid."

The newspapers publish accounts of the thrills given London in the last week, and comment on the fine behavior of the populace.

Five Attacks On The British Fail

Germans Driven Off Time and Again—French Also Repulse Desperate Enemy

London, Oct. 2.—Five attacks by the Germans along the Ypres-Menin road and at the northeast corner of Polygon Wood have ended in complete failure, the war office so announces.

Paris, Oct. 2.—The German cities of Frankfurt-on-the-Main, Stuttgart, Treves and Coblenz were bombed last night by French aviators in retaliation for German aerial attacks on French cities.

The following official announcement was given out:— "The Germans last night made a new attack on the town of Dunkirk. The bombardment was very violent, causing serious material damage. It is reported there were numerous victims among the civilian population."

"In reprisal for the bombardments carried out by the Germans against Bar Le Duc and Dunkirk, our aviators last night threw down bombs on the towns of Frankfurt-on-the-Main, Coblenz, Treves and Stuttgart."

"Our bombing airplanes made numerous expeditions, in the course of which 2120 kilograms (4664 pounds), of explosives were thrown on military buildings in Roulers and 6000 kilograms (13200 pounds) on the railway stations at Metz, Zur Mully and Thionville, the airfield at Chambray, encampments at Spincourt and Tilly and munition depots at the Longue Farm, where a violent explosion was observed."

"Two German airplanes were brought down yesterday by our pilots and four others were compelled to land in a disabled condition."

Montreal, Oct. 2.—Reporting a meeting of Liberal leaders here yesterday in connection with the general election campaign, the Star says:

"It was learned that among the questions discussed was that of the western Liberals' attitude as regards the orders that have been made Sir Robert Borden to enter a union government."

"It was said that Sir Wilfrid will address meetings in Halifax, St. John, Quebec, Montreal, Toronto, Hamilton, London and Windsor, and may visit Winnipeg, but this question was left in abeyance."

Montreal, Oct. 2.—The following communication has been received by the general officer commanding Canadian corps:

"I would like if you would convey to the gunners under your command my sincere appreciation of their splendid work in our recent and most successful operations."

"The assaulting infantry maintain that the artillery preparation has never been more complete, that the support has never been better, and that the liaison between the infantry and the artillery has never been so nearly perfect."

"I am assured by them that S. O. S. calls were repeatedly answered within thirty seconds. This indicates a discipline and vigilance most commendable."

"I also learn that on occasions when the batteries were being heavily gassed, gunners discarded their masks in order better to serve their guns, for whose health the infantry were signalling. This indicates especially close operation on the very highest quality. F. O. O's signaller and runners did extremely well."

"Success must ever be ours when the co-operation between all services is so marked and when the devotion to duty is so outstanding. I desire most cordially to congratulate all concerned."

MATTERS BEFORE THE MUNICIPAL COUNCIL

The most important matter to come before the quarterly meeting of the municipal council this afternoon is the recommendation that authority be given for the erection of a wing at the county hospital for the use of tubercular soldiers.

The joint committee of the county council and the hospital board reached an agreement with the military hospitals board on the erection and maintenance of the wing and have recommended the plans to the council. All that is needed is their approval to permit the work to proceed.

Another matter which will come up and which may cause some discussion is a recommendation of the finance committee that $3,000, the balance of the patriotic grant, be used for sending Christmas presents to the soldiers at the front.

An amendment to the law prohibiting cattle from running at large on the roads will be introduced. At present the law does not apply to certain sections, but the exemptions have been so vague as to cause confusion. The amendment provides that no such exemption shall be granted in any part of the county, except on the petition of at least ten ratepayers, the recommendation of the parish councillors and the majority vote of the council.

FOUR CLASSES IN THE DRAFT; WHAT THEY REPRESENT

From now on all men who go before medical boards in connection with the applying of the military service act will, after being tested, be classified as A, B, C, and E. All A men will be men that are fit for general service at the front, no matter what their service may be. The B men will be men fit for general service at the front, but would be good for the Army Service Corps or a forestry unit. Men with flat feet, a finger off, etc., would come in this class. Then come category 'C.' This class will consist of men who are not physically fit to cross to England, but would be very liable to be given some light duties in connection with home defence. Category 'E' will consist of men who are unfit for military service at all. These men will be exempted.

LOCAL NEWS. It was learned this morning that if only 25,000 men are called up the military authorities will not have to go out of category 'A,' as it is felt that there are at least 25,000 single men from the ages of twenty to thirty-five who will be in this class throughout Canada.

TO THE PUBLIC WE WANT YOU TO KNOW

Why we have been delayed in our repair work at the head of King Street. WE THOUGHT IT WOULD TAKE BUT THREE DAYS. But, on inspection, we found an entirely new concrete foundation would have to be installed. We had not figured on having to do this. The heaviest traffic in the system passes over this section. It has meant extra labor, extra material, extra time and extra expense, and with a little extra fine weather we confidently expect to have the service resumed by Wednesday.

HIGHER LIVING COST CHIEF EFFECT OF WAR IN HIS COUNTRY

N. B. Laing of Colonial Government Staff, British Guiana, in City Today. 'The chief effect of the war, which is noticed in British Guiana, is the increased cost of living,' said Malcolm B. Laing of the colonial government staff, who arrived in St. John today on his way to Toronto in the interests of his health. 'As the war has also resulted in increasing the price paid for sugar, the chief staple product of the colony,' he said, 'the increased cost of living is about balanced.'

Middlemen Put Living Cost Up

A Co-operative Scheme is Suggested by James Fairhead. To reduce the cost of living is a problem in every household, and for this reason the suggestions made by James Fairhead, Toronto, have a present interest. He thinks something between a buying and selling company and a co-operative scheme pure and simple would be a solution. Talking to The Globe he pointed out that the high cost of food necessaries was caused wholly by the middlemen. 'Take eggs and poultry,' he insisted. 'Before they go to the city consumer for goods, where they are bartered country stores, where they are bartered in the cellar for a few days, dropping in value before they are sent to the city commission man. Only from here do the eggs and poultry get to the grocer and from there, with many delays, to the consumer. All this takes time and the goods deteriorate in value.'

MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE AT ROTARY CLUB

Presents Case For the Farmers to City Audience - The Department's Plans for Increased Production

Hon. J. F. Tweeddale, minister of agriculture and conservation, was the speaker last night at Bond's before a combined meeting of the Board of Trade and Rotary Club.

The potato problem is the most serious problem with which the farmers in every section of the province are confronted," said Hon. J. F. Tweeddale.

"We are told the controller is talking of fixing a price on potatoes that will set the farmers in New Brunswick after transportation and expenses for handling are deducted, about $1.60 per barrel."

The minister proceeded to say that he believed a food controller should have been appointed at the outbreak of war, so that an inventory of the foodstuffs in the country could be taken and prices fixed to regulate the supply and demand, encourage production and prevent speculation.

The minister reported that the wheat crop was good, better than the two years previous put together. He himself raised enough to provide the household for two years.

The raising of cattle and sheep, especially sheep, he said, was decreasing at an alarming rate.

During October a series of meetings will be conducted in Albert, Westmorland and Kent to place before the farmers the advantage of co-operation in the manufacture of butter.

First of Series of Official War Pictures - Ethel Barrymore and Hunting Scenes in New Brunswick

Imperial Theatre treated its friends to a high-class bill of pictorial entertainment yesterday. What with the introductory instalment of the "Retreat of the Germans from Arras," the Ethel Barrymore drama and New Brunswick sporting scenes and pictures.

The war pictures were perhaps most thought of by the average patron. In spite of the monotony of the great struggle and although grim evidence of the war are coming home to everybody continually, these British war office official records of General Haig's notable victory at Arras are subsequently held in people's spellbound.

The first of six different sets of film which are to be shown in tri-weekly instalments for a fortnight. Modern battles do not present much opportunity for hand-to-hand combat but bursting of shells in uncomfortable proximity to the camera, the rushing up of fresh troops, lightning speed of the gun crews, the stolid advance of tanks and big ordnance, all told plainly how the Huns were driven forward.

Ethel Barrymore in a Yukon-New York operatic story "The White Raven" was as good a Metro film as has ever been shown in St. John, which is saying a good deal.

The third and strikingly novel picture was Hunting in New Brunswick. This is the second of the Imperial's new Educational Series and shows feathered and big game guests in the wilds of our own little province. The pictures were taken by New York cameramen and the scenes with the animals showed some of our best known guides.

There will be another of these hunting reels next week. Tomorrow the King square house is to have another batch of the British war office pictures and a splendid Triangle story entitled "An Even Break" featuring Olive Thomas, a noted star from The Follies aggregation, while the O. Henry story is to be "A Service of Love."

Celestial Politeness. A delightful story was told to me by a friend who has just returned from Japan (says a writer in the Daily Express). He had been waiting at a country railway station for his train, and was admiring a sunset when a goods train slowly steamed in and shut off his view.

The station-master came towards him and inquired, with the politest of bows, if he had liked the sunset. He said that he had, but he recognized that the goods train had a business title to obscure the view. "No," said the station-master, "having deeply observed the view, I would be allowed to obstruct the honorable traveler's aesthetic enjoyment. I will cause it to withdraw."

THE WAR SITUATION

Surely the time has come when Britain should serve notice on Germany that if she does not stop dropping bombs on hospitals and undefended cities, towns and villages, a relentless policy of reprisals will be carried out.

The Germans are making desperate efforts to prevent the British from rolling up their right flank and advancing along the Belgian coast upon their submarine bases. That they are able to strike hard is shown by the laconic sentence in last night's cables: "The Germans attacked again north of Ypres and succeeded in capturing a British advanced post."

It is very satisfactory to note that what news comes from Russia is encouraging, and that the Germans have again been forced to give ground at one point on the Riga front. The Italians also have resisted heavy Austrian attacks with success, and increased the number of prisoners taken.

Washington is interested in the report that Germany is using agents who pose as neutrals to go on board American merchant ships and betray them to the submarines. Another story tells of a group of Egyptian plotters, financed by German gold, who operated in the Levant, Paris and Switzerland.

Emphasis is laid in Allied countries upon the absolute necessity of conserving food and providing more tonnage for the transport of food and fighting men, especially from this side of the Atlantic. Official Germany is still strong for a continuance of the war, in the hope of gaining favorable peace terms, and the Allies must face the conditions and see to it that neither ships nor food nor men are lacking, however long the struggle may continue.

FOOD AND CONSERVATION

Addresses of exceptional interest and value were those delivered before members of the Board of Trade and Rotary Club last evening by Hon. J. F. Tweeddale and Dr. Keirstead. The one dealt with food production and the other with food conservation.

Hon. Mr. Tweeddale set out very clearly the change in methods of agriculture, making it necessary for the agriculturist to be a student and not a student of the past.

The high tides have been undulating to some extent the excellent work done this year by Hon. Mr. Veniot's department on Westmorland county roads. That is a difficulty the department is powerless to overcome. The loss to the farmers is also heavy.

The Conservatives of South Wellington have decided not to oppose Mr. Hugh Guthrie. The Liberals will probably have that pleasure, as Mr. Guthrie is mentioned as one of the members of the reorganized party government.

Ottawa now hears that the elections will not take place before January. The government has a lot of fences to mend, and its friends the proficients will not object to an extension of time. They do not expect another chance.

Despite the poison shells and high explosives poured out from the Standard office the average Liberal will see no immediate necessity for retiring to a dugout.

The interesting report is current that General McLean is the choice of certain Conservatives as their candidate in the constituency of Kings-Queens.

THE ONLY MEDICINE THAT HELPED HER

"Fruit-a-lives" Again Proves Its Extraordinary Powers

ROCHON, Que., March 4, 1916. "I have received the most wonderful benefit from taking 'Fruit-a-lives'. I suffered for years from Rheumatism and change of life, and I took every remedy obtainable without result. I tried 'Fruit-a-lives' and it was the only medicine that really did me good. Now I am entirely well—the Rheumatism has disappeared, and the terrible pains 'Fruit-a-lives' has all gone. I hope that others, who suffer from such distressing diseases, will try 'Fruit-a-lives'."

LIGHTER VEIN.

Far Enough. One day, when a well known public man was a college student, he was called on to read Virgil in class. He started out bravely—"Three times I strove to cast my arms around my neck, and—"

Stiffing. Railway travelers who like "to keep themselves to themselves," will appreciate this story. A passenger by train wanted to read, but a passenger opposite would persist in trying to talk. After several brief replies, the reader became irritated.

Funeral. In the days, when Rossini, the composer of "William Tell," was at the height of his fame, an unknown young composer brought him a manuscript to look over.

"What is it?" asked the great man. "It is a funeral march in memory of Weber," stammered the young aspirant.

"Gooseberry Fool!" When a certain clergyman named Berry was a young preacher, he once gave a lecture. Wishing to be witty, he announced to his audience that he was a gooseberry.

"No, indeed, Mrs.," replied the humorist. "You are not a gooseberry, but a very green one at that. Go on with the lecture."

Answered. There are some persons who are forever asking questions about absurdly obvious things.

John Kendrick Bangs was moving his goods and chattels from his home near New York. It was a rainy day, and before the house stood three large vans and the lawn was covered with furniture.

Mr. Bangs stood in the downpour expediting the movers, when a lady, neighbor with whom he was acquainted, passed, and smilingly asked: "Oh, are you moving, Mr. Bangs?"

"No, indeed, Mrs.," replied the humorist. "It is such a beautiful day that I thought I would get all the furniture out of my home and take it for an airing."

The Land of the Buffalo. The largest herd of buffalo in the world is now owned by Canada. They form a picturesque group as they roam over the new national reserve set apart for them near Wainwright, Saskatchewan.

The very serious questions of venereal diseases, to which the association devoted special attention, were described by Major Lauterman of Montreal, with the cordial approval of the whole association, as "the greatest menace of the civilized world today, bar none."

But leadership in the department of public health, like leadership in the department of public education, is to be a help and not a hindrance, must be up to date, aggressive, almost revolutionary.

There is a vast deal of spade work and clearing to be done. Public opinion can be informed and organized and made effective, if only the experts in medicine and in politics will give a strong lead.

This is a problem for all the people, but wise guidance is required.

IN A FOOL'S PARADISE (From the Regina Leader) Sir Robert Borden and his Big Interests Government are living in a fool's paradise if they imagine that all they have to do is to shout "Conscription" and wave the flag in order to lead the electorate of Canada to give them a new lease of power.

There is a vast deal of spade work and clearing to be done. Public opinion can be informed and organized and made effective, if only the experts in medicine and in politics will give a strong lead.

This is a problem for all the people, but wise guidance is required.

Health has not done its share in bearing the burdens of the war in Canada. As a matter of fact the great men of wealth have not sacrificed anything; on the contrary, they have waxed richer and richer because of the war and the interests of the nation.

The financial interests of Canada have been altogether too leniently dealt with. It is idle to

A FEDERAL MINISTER OF HEALTH

Why Not One, is Asked—Some Statements in Support of Proposal (Toronto Globe.)

And why not a dominion minister of public health? Surely the problems of public health are large enough, and complicated enough, to command the services of the very ablest, the most competent, and the most progressive man of the medical profession in Canada.

Surely the people of this country have suffered enough from defects in legislation affecting public health, and from the inadequate enforcement of competent legislation. To mention roller towels and common drinking-cups on railway trains is but to raise a question which every health officer knows, but which has not yet been solved.

The pollution of international and interprovincial waters is another problem requiring federal control and solution. Then, too, the question of drugs and patent medicines demands national attention.

Legislation is needed that will apply in all parts of the country, legislation that is scientifically sound and socially just.

A dominion minister with adequate authority to match the scientific knowledge and the scope of their authority is often so narrow that the larger problems involved in the health of the nation never can be given adequate treatment.

The very serious questions of venereal diseases, to which the association devoted special attention, were described by Major Lauterman of Montreal, with the cordial approval of the whole association, as "the greatest menace of the civilized world today, bar none."

But leadership in the department of public health, like leadership in the department of public education, is to be a help and not a hindrance, must be up to date, aggressive, almost revolutionary.

There is a vast deal of spade work and clearing to be done. Public opinion can be informed and organized and made effective, if only the experts in medicine and in politics will give a strong lead.

This is a problem for all the people, but wise guidance is required.

TRY TO "FADE" WELL It's Easy if You Are Kind, Broadminded and Tranquil

A child who heard her grandmother say that she had chosen a certain up-holding material because it would "fade well" wondered at the phrase, and thought it must be one of those mysterious remarks that grown persons were always making.

How could anything fade well? Fading could be nothing but ugliness—sere hangings, grass dry and dead, flowers hanging withered on the stalk. * * * But maturity teaches us that things do fade ill or well, and some of those whose early promise is the prettiest are while others gain with years a grace and harmony akin to beauty.

Teeth Insurance. Writing on the subject of bad teeth, a doctor, in the London Daily Express, thinks the only effective method of preventing the teeth is to institute a system of teeth insurance on the model of the national health insurance scheme.

Under this system, he says, the child would come under the care of the dentist soon after birth. The dentist would, in the first months of the child's life detect any deformities such as too high a palate, too small or irregularly shaped jaws, and while the parts were easy to mould he could correct the faults. The scheme would probably not cost more than a penny or two pence per child per week—far less than is spent on excels at present—and it would almost completely put an end to toothache, prevent the greater part of the indigestion we suffer from, and vastly increase the fitness and efficiency of our all.

HOW'S THIS? We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Hall's Catarrh Cure has been known by catarrh sufferers for the past thirty-five years, and has become known as the most reliable remedy for Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts through the Blood on the Mucous surfaces, expelling the poison from the blood and healing the diseased portions.

After you have taken Hall's Catarrh Cure for a short time you will see a great improvement in your general health. Start taking Hall's Catarrh Cure at once and get rid of catarrh. Sold by all druggists, free.

MRS. McAVITY'S PAINTINGS
(Hallifax Echo.)
Mrs. E. Dorothy McAvity, who has recently been winning a place for herself in the artists world, has three of her portraits on exhibition, at Holland & Kuhn's, Granville street. Mrs. McAvity makes a specialty of portrait painting and has done some very clever work in this line.

The three pictures on exhibition are of her father, a splendid piece of work, one of her small daughter with her pet dog, a very pleasant portrait, and one of herself, painted by means of a mirror. The last mentioned is perhaps the best of the three on exhibition, and is causing much comment.

Another picture of Mrs. McAvity's that has been very favorably commented upon, is "Her Cross," a beautiful study of a mother presented with the Cross and at the same time the news of the death of her son at the front. This picture was shown at the provincial exhibition two years ago, and was also on special exhibition at the Academy. It is now at the Charlotte-town fair. Mrs. McAvity also painted the portrait of Hon. H. M. Goudge, now in the legislative council chamber, provincial building.

Mrs. McAvity, the public will be glad to hear, intends starting classes in portrait painting.

Again Heads Local Red Cross Society—Annual Meeting Held Yesterday

At the third annual meeting of the local Red Cross held yesterday afternoon in Stone church school room, in addition to the president and members of the executive there were present Mayor Hayes, president of the provincial branch, and Lady Tilly, organizing secretary for the province of New Brunswick. The local branch is composed of about 200 circles and societies and representatives from a majority of these were present and responded to the roll call read by the president. Captain the Rev. G. A. Kuhring made the opening prayer.

The programme included an address from the president, Mrs. John McAvity, and reports from the secretary, Miss Alice K. Walker; the treasurer, A. C. Sieton; and the convener of the following departments: Needlework, Mrs. F. S. White; yarn and socks, Mrs. Heber Vroom; packing and shipping, Miss Frances Stetson; campaign fund, Miss Edith Skinner; conservation, Miss Stetson; Canadian War Contingent Association, Mrs. George K. MacLeod; surgical, Mrs. F. J. Harding; St. John Ambulance Association, Miss Lilian Hazen; prisoners of war, Mrs. Lawrence; Red Cross boxes, Witanstede Red Cross Circle.

Mrs. McAvity in her address spoke of the necessity of continuing the work along vigorous lines and reviewed what had been accomplished in the past year. During the meeting the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. John A. McAvity; vice-presidents, Mrs. Geo. F. Smith, Mrs. James F. Robertson, Mrs. Harold Lawrence, Mrs. F. Stetson; secretary, Miss Alice K. Walker; treasurer, Mrs. Richard O'Brien, Mrs. Coughlan, Mrs. Stewart Skinner, Mrs. R. J. Hooper, Mrs. E. T. Sturdee, Mrs. J. R. Campbell, Mrs. A. W. Adams and Mrs. A. C. Sieton.

It was reported that there was a balance in the bank for the year of 1916, ending this October, of $61,388.85, and that the total receipts for this year were $21,875.64, thus making a grand total of $28,008.49; while the total expenditures were $25,648.58, thus leaving a balance on hand of $2,360.91.

The atmosphere is a gaseous covering over the earth, which makes life possible. It extends at least 500 miles, and presses on the grown man with a weight of 14 tons. In its ordinary condition it contains about 80 per cent. of nitrogen, 20 per cent. oxygen, and minute quantities of argon, carbon dioxide, ozone, aqueous vapor, ozone, nitric acid, and ammonia.

SPECIALTIES STRONG

OPENING FEATURES IN WALL STREET

New York, Oct. 2—Wall street—Specialties were the strong features at the opening of today's trading in stocks. Such issues as American Can, Baldwin Locomotive, Distillers, Matting, Mexican Petroleum, Royal Dutch and Marine preferred gained one to one and a half points. Rails were again heavy under the adverse influence created by new low records for St. Paul common and preferred, which fell to 51 1/2 and 98 1/2 respectively. Steels were fractionally higher, but coppers moved irregularly, the general list reacting later. Liberty bonds were active at 99 1/4 to par.

MONTREAL CONSIDERING HAVING A CURFEW LAW

Montreal, Oct. 2—A proposed by-law to secure a curfew law to make children go home at 9:30 at night, introduced in the city council yesterday afternoon met considerable opposition, and it was finally decided to have the opinion of the city law department as to whether the city has the legal right to pass such a by-law.

The Tower of Babel was somewhere in Babylon. The word has nothing to do with "confusion" of tongues, but means "the gate of God."

GERMAN PEOPLE CALLING FOR PEACE

Forty to Fifty Thousand at Meeting in Frankfurt-on-the-Main

Copenhagen, Oct. 2—A monster demonstration in favor of a peace without annexations was held on Sunday at Frankfurt-on-the-Main. Leaders in the clerical, radical and socialist parties sponsored the demonstration. The crowd numbered 40,000 or 50,000 and addresses were made from six platforms simultaneously.

London, Oct. 1—(via Reuter's Ottawa Agency)—Reuter's correspondent at British headquarters in France telegraphed today as follows:—

"At dawn this morning the Germans developed a heavy counter-attack on our positions in the neighborhood of Tower Hamlet. A bombardment of great intensity preceded the attack. Our guns responded in considerably greater violence."

"The first infantry attack was launched at 6:15 a. m. astride the Meun road on a wide front. The first and second waves were so badly battered by the artillery that they never reached our positions. The third wave got into contact with our infantry, but met with such a steady and devastating volume of rifle and machine gun fire that it broke and fell back. Simultaneously a body of our men, cheering, broke forward in pursuit, and established themselves 100 yards in advance of their previous line."

"The second attack was delivered at 8:30, and although repulsed nearly everywhere, at one point the enemy succeeded in pressing back our posts slightly. The fighting continues."

"The operations have been terribly costly to the Germans."

POLITICS IN ONTARIO.

Hamilton, Ont., Oct. 2—The Hamilton branch of the Win-the-War party, organized last evening and decided to place candidates in the field in both east and west Hamilton. It is hoped to have the backing of Liberals, Conservatives and Independents.

Dunnville, Ont., Oct. 2—F. R. Lalor, M. P. for Haldimand, in a telegram to Dr. Michael Clark, of Red Deer, Alberta, has offered to withdraw as a candidate and recommend his nomination to a winter-war convention in Haldimand county.

A beggar posted himself at the door of the Chancery Court, and kept saying: "A penny, please, sir? Only one penny, sir—before you go in?" "And why, my man?" inquired a court gentleman. "Because, sir, the chances are you will not have one when you come out."

PEACE MISSION FROM RUSSIA

Representative to Interview French Premier

Riga Defeat Due to Treason—Military Leaders on That Front Are Being Tried by Court-Martial

Christiania, Oct. 2.—A Russian professor, Rumbornich Sorbomov, is at present in Bergen on his way to Paris. An interview in the Bergen Aftenblad contains interesting statements as to the latest events in Russia—partly differing from the statements in the allied and neutral press. Describing the general situation as extremely difficult, the professor, who personally took part in the Moscow conference as a delegate of the executive committee of the Peasant Party, thinks that all Russian parties will agree to resist the restoration of reaction. He confirmed the assertion that the Russian defeat at Riga was due to treason on the part of Russian generals. The soldiers were fighting stubbornly, but orders were issued to retire, and a catastrophe was inevitable. A special commission of Workmen's and Soldiers' Council has now instituted action for high treason against the military leaders on this front. Any idea of a separate peace with Germany is excluded, even the Maximalists being unwilling. The Lenin group, however, had been bribed by Germany. The Maximalists' intriguing leader escaped in time. He is sure to be hanged if he returns. The same fate is awaiting Robert Grimm. Describing himself as a friend of a great democratic peace of nations, the professor said the mistake of the allies' governments was in refusing passports to the so-called Stockholm conference, although "after the disclosure of the Swedish telegrams scandal a conference was impossible at Stockholm. The place was too open to German intrigues. In my opinion Christiania is the right place for the conference. Norway proved sufficiently plucky to overhaul German intrigues closely." The professor stated that the greatest task before the Russian Social-Democracy is to weld the nation and army to unity of purpose, excluding further risings of the Korniloff fashion. An editorial in the Bergen Aftenblad states that it has reason to believe the professor, who left Russia three weeks ago, is on a special peace mission, from Kerensky to Ribot. The proposals are now to be submitted to Painleve.

MESSAGE IS EXPECTED FROM STEFANSSON

Ottawa, Oct. 2.—The Naval Service Department is expecting a wireless message from Vidjimir Stefansson, the explorer, at any time. Stefansson is supposed to be on his way from the Arctic. He planned to start for civilization in August, but whether he will come by way of Nome, Alaska, or Battle Harbor, Labrador, is not known. As he went northward by the Pacific it is thought he may return by way of the Atlantic. Stefansson has been in the Far North since 1914. In June of that year he sailed from Victoria, B. C. He lost one of his vessels, the Karluk, in an ice jam. Later, eight members of his expedition perished. He has explored Beaufort Sea, has collected many valuable and has discovered some hitherto unknown territory. As his expedition was financed by the Canadian government, he will come to Ottawa on his return to civilization to make a report. Avernus was a small lake in Italy, occupying the crater of an extinct volcano. The vapors from it were so fatal to birds, and its sides so steep and darkened with forest, that it became the classical entrance to the lower world, where Hecate had a grove.

LABOR FOR PERMANENT ROAD WORK SCARCE

Burton M. Hill, Engineer in Charge, Speaks of Past, Present and Future

Not more than $100,000 of the half-million dollars available for the construction of permanent roads in the province has been spent for that purpose this year. Burton M. Hill, engineer in charge of the road work for the province, said yesterday. In addition, the province has paid about $100,000 for machinery and equipment contracted for by the former administration. The reason that more money has not been spent, Mr. Hill said, was the lack of labor and teams. Until this last month he found it almost impossible to secure horses, but when the farm work neared an end this difficulty was removed and considerable valuable work was accomplished. The lack of men was placed a limit on the amount of work which could be done. In spite of these conditions, the department has some excellent road work in building permanent roads, Mr. Hill said that he did not consider it essential that the province should spend too much money during the period of the war, but that he would like to see a large fund available for use when the war is over in order to aid in bridging over the period of depression when work will be given both parties by a doctor. This resolution was considered necessary owing to the great increase in the social menace and cases of feeble-mindedness. The provincial union memorialize the dominion government to amend the marriage act, so that no marriage license could be issued except through a special official of the government. The adultery is made a punishable offence under the criminal code was another demand of the convention. The marriage resolution was carried unanimously. The convention by resolution approved of the principle of conscription, but was of opinion that it should include the conscription of the men, women and wealth of Ontario, while protests were made against the encroachment on the Sabbath by holding knitting teas and other presumably patriotic work by manual labor, also against the manufacture, importation and sale of cigarettes.

SAYS PAN-GERMANS HATE CHRISTIANITY

Adam Roder Accuses Heartless Bullies of Trying to Set up "Made-in-Germany" Religion

New York, Oct. 2.—Writing in the Sueddeutsche Konservativ Korrespondenz of Karlsruhe, of which he is publisher and editor-in-chief, Adam Roder, a well-known German publisher, voices the opinion that the ultimate object of the propaganda carried on by the pan-Germans is the wiping out of Christianity in Germany and the establishing of a peculiar, "made-in-Germany" religion. After accusing the pan-German unscrupulous of bitter hatred of "sentimental Christianity," and quoting liberally from their writings to prove his contention, Herr Roder arrives at the following conclusion: "The pan-German view of the world is conscientiously aimed at the rotting out of the Christian religion and the system of ethics derived from it. A German religion is to arise, linked to the belief in Wotan of our ancestors, which in turn is to be refined by the results of the modern theory of races and the teachings of the Darwinian theory of evolution that what remains will be the Athenian frame in high sounding phrases. The German people, as the noblest and most favored of all races, as the highest manifestation of humanity, will have become its own God. Christianity will be done away with according to the ideas of Nietzsche as the great weakening and enervating influence. The only great person is he who has power and uses it. Sin, redemption, repentance, the greatest and most precious things that human thought tries to fathom, do not exist for this company of heartless bullies, whose members, with monacles in their left eyes and rattling sabres in their right hands, challenge the world in order to place the German heel upon its neck in ancient Roman fashion."

MARRIAGE LICENSE ONLY TO HEALTHY

W.C.T.U. Asks That Blood Test be Required of Both Parties

Cornwall, Oct. 1.—In presenting her report on "the plan of work" at the closing session of the Provincial W. C. T. U. convention here, Mrs. Pugsley of Toronto moved a resolution asking that it be made an indictable offence should any marriage license be issued without a blood test and a clean bill of health being given by both parties to a doctor. This resolution was considered necessary owing to the great increase in the social menace and cases of feeble-mindedness. The provincial union memorialize the dominion government to amend the marriage act, so that no marriage license could be issued except through a special official of the government. The adultery is made a punishable offence under the criminal code was another demand of the convention. The marriage resolution was carried unanimously. The convention by resolution approved of the principle of conscription, but was of opinion that it should include the conscription of the men, women and wealth of Ontario, while protests were made against the encroachment on the Sabbath by holding knitting teas and other presumably patriotic work by manual labor, also against the manufacture, importation and sale of cigarettes.

GERMAN PRISONERS URGING A REPUBLIC

Tell Their Comrades in Trenches to Spread Truth and Want U.S. Airmen to Help

New York, Oct. 2.—Some of the Germans who have been captured in France or surrendered to the allied forces, are conducting an active campaign to spread among the Kaiser's forces a propaganda in favor of a German republic, according to the "Friends of the German Republic" at the office of this organization, 32 Union Square. It was said that an appeal would be received from S. C. Fried Balder, leader of the German republic works in France, for a printing press and supplies of paper to aid in the scattering of thousands of pamphlets over the German lines. On the front page of one of the pamphlets written by Balder and dropped by thousands on the German front, is this inscription: "To the comrades on the western front: We have succeeded in having the following order issued in the French army: 'He who surrenders as a prisoner and enters the password "Republic" is no longer treated as an enemy prisoner. If he chooses he may work with us, his like minded countrymen, in the reconstruction of Germany. To our people at home: Spread the truth. Spread this literature. Agitate for the German Republic.'"

Refer To Them As "Drafted Men"

Official Designation for New Army to be Raised Under Military Service Act

Camp Borden, Oct. 2.—To avoid any misunderstanding as to the conditions under which the members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force may visit the United States definite instructions have been issued setting these forth at length. Non-commissioned officers and militiamen are granted permission to wear uniform, without arms, while on pass or furlough in the United States, subject in each case to the approval of the A. G. of Military District No. 2, to whose office passes will in all cases be sent for approval before issue. The passes will be endorsed "with permission to wear uniform without arms," and will show the place or places to be visited, and the dates when the pass begins and ends. Without special reference to militia headquarters officers of the C. E. F., whether on duty or on leave will not be granted permission to wear uniform while visiting the United States. In view of the attempted burglary of the Bell Telephone building a couple of nights ago the strength of the main guard has been increased by three men. Men selected and drafted under the Military Service Act will be distinguished from men who have volunteered for service. All communications referring to the men so obtained, an order issued today says, must contain a reference to them as "drafted men."

CANADA HAS SENT FEWEST

Suffered Least of All Parts of Empire For Her Numbers

Mr. Rowell's Address—Much More We Might Do if Less of Politics—Draft Necessary

Vancouver, Oct. 1.—N. W. Rowell, leader of the opposition in the Ontario legislature, before the Vancouver Canadian Club recently, spoke on the position of Canada in the war. His audience was one of the largest ever assembled by the club. "We cannot carry on this struggle," said Mr. Rowell, "on the principle of limited liability. Germany will not permit us to do so. Canada has staked her whole future on the issue, and we have gone too far to withdraw from the fight now."

Mr. Rowell expressed the opinion that the efforts Canadians had put forth might have accomplished more had Canada been better organized for the conduct of the war. "There is much more we might have done," he added, "by the efforts we have put forth, if there had been less of politics in connection with this matter."

"Canada," said Mr. Rowell, "is the largest and wealthiest and most influential of all the dominions of the Empire, and in proportion to her population she has provided the fewest men and suffered less than any other portion of the Empire. I say this not with a view to minimizing the magnificent effort we have put forth, but in order to show what others have accomplished, and to show the further work we are still able to do."

The speaker declared that the smallest responsibility that Canada can undertake for the future is to maintain in unimpaired strength our present four divisions, and he was convinced that these could not be maintained except "by some form of compulsion, such as selective draft." He advocated the taking of surplus profits for the purpose of the state.

RECKLESS SPEEDING THAT IS ENDANGERING LIVES; A WARNING IS GIVEN

Fairville, N. B., Sept. 30th, '17. The Editor of the Times—Sir—Kindly allow me to bring before the public, through your popular medium, the question of excessive speed at which automobiles and teams travel on the public roads in the thickly settled districts outside of the city, particularly in this practice common through Main street, Fairville, and Manawagomis road during week ends and evenings. At times it is absolutely impossible to walk across either the above road or street without endangering life or limb. Accidents are frequent; children have had narrow escapes; one has been struck. As many as fifty cars have passed a given point, coming and going in half an hour, which, in the case of annual racing makes cycling out of the question, and cyclists have to revert to the sidewalks, producing another danger and inconvenience. One poor lad had his bicycle torn and cycle smashed trying to enjoy himself. It is a common sight to see a motor car overtake on the road and all its occupants thrown out. The situation becoming serious. It is a grave public menace and calls for drastic action. The public has been repeatedly called to the attention of our councillors, but the preventing of a serious accident or the saving of a child's life, seems to be too trifling a matter for these gentlemen to bother about. Would it not be possible, proper and profitable to place a plain clothes man on such roads at times? Are we not being taxed for such protection? And is it not reasonable that we should demand such action to guard our children? One such man has been repeatedly called to the attention of our councillors, but the preventing of a serious accident or the saving of a child's life, seems to be too trifling a matter for these gentlemen to bother about. Speed is intended for railroads, not public highways. Good roads are all right and most people want to enjoy themselves in a becoming manner, but is it becoming to ignore every other means of locomotion? Thanking anyone in authority who may interest themselves in this matter and feeling that I am perfectly justified in my complaint on this subject, as I reside in one of these thoroughfares and have three children whose lives are continually endangered by others' thoughtlessness and a few who purposely run a wild race of reckless devilry. GLENDON H. ALLAN.

DETECTIVES GET FIVE YEARS

Sent to Atlanta for Kidnapping Sailors to Collect Reward

Judge William B. Shepherd, in the United States District Court, New York, Saturday sentenced Harry A. Reed and James B. Eaton, employees of a private detective agency, to five years and five days each in the Atlanta penitentiary for impersonating officers of the United States navy with intent to defraud. Reed and Eaton were charged with kidnapping soldiers and sailors in order to collect the $50 reward offered for deserters. Kenneth M. King, who says he was claimed to the radiator in the agency office, was one of the victims. The arrests were made on the information of Captain S. M. Brewster of the United States Marine Corps.

German People Referred to as "Fellow Workers"—Chicago Paper Gets Look at Copy of Indictment—Only Small Part Uncovered

Chicago, Oct. 2.—(Montreal Gazette despatch.)—The ramifications of the nation-wide plot of industrialists, hamper military operations, obstruct conscription and lose the war for America, as charged against 166 I.W.W. workers indicted in the United States district court in Chicago, are disclosed for the first time by the Chicago Herald, that paper having come into possession of a copy of the indictment.

William D. Haywood of Chicago and Frank H. Little, who were lynched in Montana, are charged with being two of the ringleaders. Letters, telegrams, pamphlets, books and so-called newspapers circulated by the I.W.W. form most of the net of evidence. One letter from James Rowan, sent from Seattle, Wash., on Aug. 2, 1917, to Haywood, follows:

"Fellow workers. There has been considerable agitation in Seattle among the lumber mills, ship yards and other industries, and the old bugaboo of patriotism is being preached on all sides. The government has been asked to interfere, and it is reported that government agents here are active.

"We have the good will of the German people here, and we feel that they do not call them Germans, however, but refer to them the same as others, 'the fellow workers.' We are going to carry our points if we have to stop every industry on the Pacific Coast. We did not declare war, and we did not consent to the working man giving up his liberty and being drafted."

STATEMENT BY VISCOUNT GREY

Germany Cannot Get Peace Except on Terms Considered Essential by United States

London, Oct. 2.—In discussing the entry of the United States into the war, Viscount Grey, former foreign secretary, in a preface to a collection of war statements by President Wilson, published in a pamphlet here, declares it is now clear that the military and naval success of German arms in Europe could not secure a German peace. Viscount Grey's remarks are printed by the Daily News.

"Germany," he says, "cannot get peace except on conditions that the United States might consider essential to its own interests and to the future peace and freedom of the world. It is impossible to get around this fact and it is not surprising that Germany dare not face it and turns her back upon it that she may not face it, for that is what the organized silence and contempt in Germany of the result of the United States really mean."

Expelled From Columbia Because of Dissemination of Disloyal Doctrines

New York, Oct. 2.—Two members of Columbia University's faculty, Professor James McKen Lyttell of the department of psychology and Assistant Professor H. W. L. Dana of the department of English and comparative literature, were expelled from the university at a meeting of the trustees yesterday on charges that they had disseminated doctrines tending to encourage a spirit of disloyalty to the government of the United States.

FATHER WRITES OF SON'S DEATH

Edwin Thomas Went to Visit Son's Battalion Light-Hearted and Gay

THEN HEARD THE SADDEST OF NEWS

"Be of Good Cheer," His Message to Wife, for Son Followed Path of Duty and Had Clean and Honorable Record—Company Commander Sends Condolences.

The Telegraph has received a touching letter that Private Edwin Thomas has written to his wife of the particulars surrounding the death of his eighteen-year-old son, Private Frank Thomas, who was reported some time ago as killed in action.

The letter sends comfort home from across the seas to a grief-stricken mother residing at 241 Brussels street. A father tells in his letter of securing a pass and with light heart started off to see his son, whom he did not know was killed. Arriving at the headquarters of the regiment with which he thought to find his son, he was told the sad news of his death in action. The letter follows:

France, Tuesday, Sept. 11, 1917. My dearly beloved Wife: I now take the opportunity of writing you a few lines to let you know that I got your letter of August 11, 1917, last evening, saying you got a field card from our son Frank. Also that you had written a couple of letters to me but you found out that you addressed them wrongly. Sorry, but they will likely find me in time. Since I last wrote to you many things have transpired and I am glad for a time a gleam and sorrow over our home and as I know you have been notified by the department at Ottawa of our beloved son's death, I must tell you the full particulars of how he was killed, omitting the name of place, also omitting the name of place he now lies sleeping his last sleep until the resurrection morn, when you and I and our son will see one another again, we hope in the glory of the spirit which directed the actions and deeds of his physical body while here on earth. He died that others might live to worship God and to have the freedom from the oppressive militarism called Kaiserism. On Saturday evening, September 8, the O. C. of my company gave me a pass to go to see my son which I can assure you I most eagerly accepted. I certainly left that camp light-hearted and gay and in the night I arrived at the trenches of —. But there I found out that the division he is in was in a rest camp some miles behind the lines and I immediately left for there and got to his battalion rest camp 9 o'clock Sunday morning. It was then I got the news and full particulars from his officer and also from Foster Brown. The officers and the company sergeant-major of his company told me that I never need to feel ashamed of my son's record of being a soldier for he was one that could be trusted to carry out all missions of importance that were given him to perform faithfully, without a murmur. Also, that he never knew the taste of liquor of any kind. The officer said that he had come in played out, cold, wet, tired, and had refused liquor and in the one year and eight months he was never known to have anything against his conduct sheet. His pass to England had been made out to go to England on leave September 1. Also they had tried to locate me so as to give Frank a pass to come and see me but as you know it is harder to locate me on account of my battalion being scattered all over than it would be to find a full division of men all together. He was reported missing on August 15 and found August 16, killed. Death was caused by concussion. He did not have a mark of any kind on him and his death was instantaneous. He was buried with full military honors by his battalion in another place called —, which I know and the O. C. is going to give me another pass to go and see as his last resting place. I will be better able to tell you more when we meet. All things taken from him you will get in time, and all money due him will come to you. I also saw many of the St. John boys of the

No Other Leader But Sir Wilfrid

Cabinet Changes May be Announced This Week—General Elections Not Until January?

Sir Wilfrid Laurier returned to Ottawa last night after a conference in Montreal with leaders of the Liberal party, presumably with reference to the coming elections. In Montreal it was said that there was no thought of any other leader for the party than Sir Wilfrid.

Sir Robert Borden attended the first meeting of the cabinet council at Ottawa since his return, yesterday. He afterwards said that there was nothing of interest to announce. It is understood that it will be Wednesday or Thursday before any announcement of cabinet changes may be expected.

It is now believed that it will be impossible to hold the general elections before January, owing to the time required for preparations.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the South Wellington Liberal-Conservative Association the resignation of Lieut-Col. Kelly Evans as standard-bearer for the riding, was accepted. Col. Kelly Evans expressed his pleasure at the attitude of Hugh Guthrie, M. P., on the questions of the day, stating that he could not oppose the Liberal member.

KILLED BY AUTO HORN HONK

An elderly man stepped toward a rapidly moving automobile at 123th street and Morningside avenue, New York, the other day. The motorist sounded his signal horn and the pedestrian tottered and fell to the street. An ambulance was called from Knickerbocker Hospital, and Dr. Haas said the man was dead and that death was due to apoplexy caused by fright.

The deceased was identified as Dr. Samuel Monash, sixty-five years old, a dentist, of 886 West 123th street. Benjamin Horowitz, the owner and driver of the car, was emphatic in his declaration that his machine did not strike Dr. Monash. In his efforts to avoid striking him he ran the automobile up on the curb and smashed a wheel. The police did not make any charge.

The Horse Chestnut

It is popularly supposed, says a writer in the London Daily News and Leader, that the horse-chestnut is so-called because it is served as a diet for horses. The designation arose, however, from the curious stamp of a horse's shoe, which may be discovered by stripping off one of the large leaves. On the end of the twig is a perfect facsimile of a horse's shoe, even to the seven nail-marks, which are perfectly distinct.

EXEMPT.

They have said you needn't go to the front to face the foe; They have left you with your women and your children safe at home; They have spared you from the crash of the murderous gas that flash and the death across the foam. But it's your right, just the same, and your country still must claim the splendor of your manhood, and the best that you can do; In a thousand different ways through the dark and troubled days. You must stand behind the nation that has been so good to you.

You're exempt from shot and shell, from the havoc and the hell, That have robbed the world of gladness, for you have missed the sterner fate Of the brave young men and fine, that are falling into line. You must stay among your children that are swinging on the gate. But you're not exempt from love of the flag that flies above; You've a greater obligation to your country to be true; You must work from day to day in a bigger, better way than you.

For the glory of the nation that has been so good to you. You are not exempt from trial; from long days of self-denial, From devotion to your homeland and from courage in the same; You are not exempt from giving to your country's needs, and living As a citizen and soldier—an example to the boys who're fighting for you. You must match their splendid courage and devotion through and through.

You must prove by fine endeavor, and by standing constant ever, That you're worthy of the country that has been so good to you. —Edgar A. Guest, in the Montreal Herald.

STOP HEADACHES BEFOREHAND

You never had a headache when you were well. To keep well is to keep clean, inside.

To relieve headache, and to prevent it, keep the liver active and industrious and the bowels as regular as a clock.

Two generations of healthy, vigorous people have done this by taking one pill at bedtime, regularly—a large dose when nature gives the warning.

4,000 CATHOLICS AGREE TO BOYCOTT BISHOP FALLON

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 2.—Following their threats last week, four thousand persons from the surrounding districts met yesterday and decided to "boycott" Bishop Fallon. Resolutions passed announced the decision not to allow his lordship to confirm their children nor attend any services where Bishop Fallon was.

Severin Deharme, M.P.P., told a meeting that he would do all within his power to assure the withdrawal of Bishop Fallon from the London diocese. The meeting ended with a resolution condemning Bishop Fallon which will be sent to Rome.

JURY FINDS GIRL CAME TO DEATH FROM POISONING

No Doctors at Sydney Willing to Perform Autopsy and Open Verdict is Entere.

Sydney, N. S., Oct. 1.—The inquest into the cause of the death of Miss Tryphena Seymour was concluded today before Coroner Forbes. The only witness examined was Mrs. Besaw, sister of the deceased, whose evidence did not add anything new to the testimony taken at the opening session of the inquest on Sept. 22.

Although the jury ordered an autopsy on the body of Miss Seymour, no doctor could be found in North Sydney or Sydney Mines to undertake the task, and the only evidence that the jury had as to the nature of the poison from which Miss Seymour died was that given on Sept. 22 by Dr. J. W. McLean and Dr. M. T. McLean, who expressed the opinion that it was arsenic. The verdict brought in was that "she deceased came to her death from poisoning at the hands of some person or persons unknown."

REGINA EXCITED OVER VAGUE STORY OF GERMAN PLOT

Regina, Sask., Oct. 1.—A supposed plot to blow up the parliament building was discovered today when the police received a telephone message from the superintendent of the General Hospital asking for an investigation.

Detective Sergeant Hays was sent and was told that yesterday one of the patients had overheard the plot discussed by the woman in the bed next to her with three or four persons who had come to see her.

The woman who overheard the plot speaks German and the other woman is believed to be of Serbian extraction. Listening to the woman from the trend of the conversation, understood that a plot was on foot to blow up a large building in Regina. She did not obtain sufficient information as to just what building was threatened, only a large building of gray stone construction. As soon as possible she communicated what she had heard to the hospital authorities.

WHITE SOX SAY THAT SHINE BALL IS ONLY A MYTH
Imagination of Superstitious Batsmen Brings Cicotte Undeserving Credit; Pitcher Only Cleans Ball

The famous "shine ball" with which pitcher Eddie Cicotte of the White Sox has been fooling the best batsmen of the hard-hitting American League this season and which now looms up as a bugaboo to the Giants in the coming world's series, turns out to be nothing more or less than a variation of Cicotte's knuckle ball, which he has been using for the last ten years. The close scrutiny of the umpires of the American League and of President Ban Johnson has proved that Cicotte uses no foreign substance on the ball, as has been charged by many batsmen. Whenever Cicotte struck out this, that or the other batsman the embarrassed hitters walked back to the bench with the complaint that they had been victims of the "shine ball."

The "shine ball" is a myth, and the trajectory it "pursues" in the flight of the batsman is the self-same trajectory that it has always taken, and is much the same as that of the moist ball. The ball spins up in the air, and it spins so rapidly that the spinning ceases, and the ball takes a tantalizing little hop which is never the same twice. Cicotte does this by throwing the ball off the knuckles of his first two fingers instead of off the ends of his fingers, as all other pitchers do. The only other pitcher who was ever able to throw his knuckle ball with any degree of success was Eddie Summers, the old Detroit pitcher, and as Cicotte started his baseball career on the sand lots of Detroit, it is very likely that he learned the trick from Summers.

The ball got its name from the fact that before he threw the ball, Cicotte rubs a part of the ball on his uniform to make it clean and dry. If the ball is dry, this makes a small white spot on the ball, against which Cicotte rests his knuckles when he throws it. Early in the season when Cicotte pitched the ball in such a way that the white spot was a little whiter than usual, because the other parts of the ball happened to be wetter, the white spot evolved into an act of optical illusion, the white spot using a flicker as the ball spun toward a batter.

When the news of this flicker of the all spread among the ball players, or nurse their superstitions began to work, all players, like sailors, are the most superstitious folks in the world, and their imaginations accepted the "shine ball."

Throughout the American League the eyes confidently believed that Cicotte was using wax or vaseline to effect a sw variation of the moist ball. No one thought of Cicotte being an old stager the art of balling batsmen with his knuckle ball. He has been at the thing game so long that he knows the flings and virtues of every batter in a league. When he was accused of using a foreign substance on the ball, he denied it and allowed the players' imaginations to go the whole hog. As a matter of fact, if the umpires insisted on using clean, white balls all the time, there would be no chance for Cicotte to rub one part of the ball so as to make the mythical flicker which makes myers maintain makes the ball jump a grasshopper when it floats up in the air. There is nothing in the rule which prevents a pitcher from rubbing clean place on a dirt-covered ball; in fact, the practice is not so objectionable as the moist ball, which will probably be legislated out of the game before another season.

The Chicago players have had little to say about the so-called "shine ball" since received such a reputation, but it is in the players of the White Sox that the explanation comes. As a matter of fact, Cicotte doesn't rub a clean spot on the ball to create an optical illusion; he cleans a place on the ball for knuckles to rest against.

GIANT CHANCES BETTER WITH CAPT. HERZOG
Fiery Second Baseman Will Make Infield Intact for Clash With White Sox

The chances of the Giants in the coming world's series with the Chicago White Sox became considerably brighter when the New York club announced that the suspension of Captain Charley Herzog had been lifted and that the second baseman would join the Giants when they start the final series of the season in Philadelphia next Tuesday.

Hourless, which Mr. Belmont has declared to be the greatest race ever owned, barring Tracery, a horse for which he turned down an offer of $200,000, was not rated a formidable rival of Omar Khayyam's until he met the English colt in the Lawrence Realization and ran him to a nose. He is a product of Mr. Belmont's French stud and a representative of the male line of St. Simon. He is a colt of robust physique and rare comeliness, although a bit flashy in gait and carriage, and his speed is of the whirlwind order. That he can carry this speed over a great distance of ground he proved, first in the Belmont, a race of one mile and three furlongs, and later in the Lawrence Realization.

Both Omar Khayyam and Hourless should be in fine fettle when they meet at Laurel Park in the race that is to settle the question of the three-year-old championship for 1917. Both came out of the realization in tip-top condition, and neither has so much as wheezed since, or done anything else except show, morning after morning, that he could run and wanted his head. The crowd that will witness this race will be Pan American in character. No sportsman of the United States or Canada who can get to Laurel will fail to be there.

to the White Sox to play the first two games of the coming series at Comiskey Park, the Giants have experienced no advantage by playing the opening game of their past few world's series at the Polo Grounds. They opened the series of 1911, 1912 and 1913 at the Polo Grounds and lost all of them. Opening away from home may keep them up to the proper spirit this year and work to their advantage instead of being a handicap.

American League Leads
During the last twelve world's series which have been played under the jurisdiction of the National Commission the American League has had the edge. The American League has won seven series and the National League five. The National League is about due. The American League has won thirty-three games to the National League's thirty-one. Ban Johnson circuit has scored 228 runs in these series to the older league's 222. There have been only two tie games.

It is certain that Risberg, the Coast shortstop, will not be in the game and that Weaver will play short for Chicago, with McMullin at third. This McMullin's first year at the position, and in technical ability he is not the match of Heinie Zimmerman. No player in the major leagues this season has played the game that Zimmerman has shown at third base for the Giants. The oldtimes at the Polo Grounds day after day compared his playing with that of Jimmy Collins, Bill Bradley, Arthur Devlin and many of the best third sackers, and admitted him to be as great as the best of them. His fielding this season has been phenomenal. His scooping up of bunts and infield bouncers has been hardly short of remarkable.

from Herzog's home in Ridgeley, Md., that his physical condition has been greatly improved and that the rest has done him a world of good. Upon Herzog's physical condition in the coming series more depends than appears on the surface. Unlike Eddie Collins, the White Sox field leader and second baseman, Herzog is a wild, daredevil ball player. No man in the game has saved himself as Collins has, while, on the other hand, Herzog goes into often plays at the risk of injury. Several instances of this were seen before Herzog took leave of the Giants a couple of weeks ago.

We weren't getting enough Local Business
Far away from home we were cleaning up. In fact business was great with the salesmen on the road. But at home where it was easy for us to handle a big volume, our business amounted to next to nothing. And there was no reason why our product shouldn't be as saleable right in our own town as in any other. I found out the reason. We weren't going after it. We expected it to come in unsolicited. So I concluded that what we needed were some live wire city salesmen. But where were we to get them? Ah! A clever hunch! A wand ad in the Times-Star will find them. So we put in an ad, which cost only a trifling amount. It worked fine. I had many applicants. -and the next week three hustlers were flying in with Orders

AGAIN HIGH
The tide was again very high today. Some of the wharves were washed by it.

FORMERLY TEACHER HERE
Lieutenant Stewart Henry of Salisbury, who recently returned from the front, is in the city today. Prior to going overseas he was on the teaching staff of the St. John High School.

REVIVAL MEETING
Much interest was manifested in the revival in Coburg street Christian church last night. A large chorus led the song service. Miss Mabel Porter sang a beautiful solo before the address by the revivalist, Rev. S. B. Culp, on Love.

POLICE COURT
The sheet read "bill" in the police court this morning. No arrests were made last night. The case of La Serra, an Italian, charged with assaulting a man named Maxwell at the McAvity plant, was allowed to stand over again and the prisoner was released.

A GENEROUS CONTRIBUTION
The Women's Canadian Club of St. Andrews recently held a self-denial day, when the sum of $225 was realized. This morning a check for the amount was received by R. E. Armstrong, secretary of the British Sailors' Relief Fund, who has forwarded it to the Sailors' Fund, Canadian Navy League, Montreal. This is the second contribution for this worthy purpose that the ladies of St. Andrews have forwarded. Their example is worthy of emulation.

REMEMBERED THE CHILDREN
The late Lieut. George Morrisay was greatly devoted to work among boys. He had a special interest for some years in a boys' club in connection with Stone church, and was always eager to do anything in his power to promote child welfare. Nor were the young people absent from his mind when he went overseas to enter the struggle in which he gave up his own life. Among other bequests he remembered them, and in accordance with his wish his mother has forwarded a check for $25 to the Children's Aid Society.

A "JACK THE PEPPER"
Several young ladies in a Fairville family were very much frightened last night when about to retire on finding a Jack the Pepper perched on a fence just outside their room window. On search being made the miscreant could not be found as evidently he had made his escape on hearing the young ladies' outcry. Last fall about this time, the same thing happened in Fairville on several occasions. Judging by the remarks made by men who heard of last night's affair the pepper would receive very little consideration if caught.

FRATERNAL VISIT
Portland Lodge, No. 246, Sons of England, gave the members of New Brunswick Lodge, Waterloo street, a surprise last night when they paraded from their own lodge rooms to those of them a call. The members of New Brunswick Lodge were taken unawares but President Thomas, in a few well chosen words, extended to the visitors a hearty welcome. The evening was spent in jovial manner, all taking part in a programme. President Bonnell of Portland Lodge extended an invitation to the members of New Brunswick Lodge to visit them in the near future and his invitation was heartily accepted.

Moncton, N.B., Oct. 2.—By the employment of an enormous number of men the washout between Memramouc and Aulac on the I. C. R. have been bridged over. Between Sackville and Memramouc, traffic was restored last evening and the stalled train from Sackville reached Moncton. This morning traffic was resumed between Aulac and Sackville.

The stalled train en route to Moncton as specials and regular train service will be resumed this afternoon.

The tide here at midnight was not so high as at noon. The gale had subsided.

THESE BOYS OF GOOD CHARACTER

In the matter of the four boys brought before the magistrate yesterday morning for singing in Britain street, a fine only struck against the two arrested, and His Honor said that this would be returned if their reputation in the neighborhood was good. The boys say they were in no way gathered at the corner of Britain and Wentworth streets and that they had never stopped there before this summer, it just happening by chance that the night they did stop there should be the night during which the police were on the look-out. The boys have a good character at their places of work, and in the South End generally. Rev. H. A. Cody has addressed a letter to the Times vouching for their good character and steadiness, and it is felt that a mistake has been made in connecting them with rowdies concerning whom the complaints have been made to the police.

BUSINESS AT THE PORT OF BALTIMORE FALLS OFF

Baltimore, Oct. 2.—Against 103 arrivals of foreign steamers in August there were but eighty-eight in September. There has not been an arrival of a Dutch steamer since and but one Swedish in August. The ships were thirty-five British, two Norwegian, eight Italian and others scattered. American arrivals were thirty-nine steamers and two schooners from foreign ports.

REGINA POLICE THINK LITTLE OF PLOT STORY

Regina, Oct. 2.—A story gained circulation here yesterday regarding an alleged plot to blow up the parliament buildings. In the general hospital a patient was supposed to have overheard a conversation at a nearby bed. The police place no credence in the story.

STRIKERS BACK TO WORK

San Francisco, Oct. 2.—After having been on strike since Sept. 17 the 3,000 iron workers and other machinists returned to work yesterday in 200 shops in San Francisco and the bay cities, under a tentative agreement for an increase in wages ranging from ten to twelve per cent.

MORE TROUT FOR THE PARK LAKES

Supply Replenished From the Government Hatchery at Little River

Disciples of Walton will be pleased to learn that through the thoughtfulness of Hon. J. D. Hazen, minister of marine and fisheries, the trout supply in both Lily and the Fisher artificial lakes has been further replenished from the government hatchery at Little River. Yesterday there were carefully distributed in what was thought to be the most advantageous spots in those waters of the St. John Horticultural Association, fingerlings of small trout to the number of 2,000 of the celebrated rainbow and 400 of the speckled variety. These, though not large, are much more likely to survive than the ordinary smaller fry.

Upon the contents of the cans in which the supply was brought being emptied, one fingerling only was observed to be dead. This specimen, about three-quarters of an inch in length, was carefully preserved and sent as a souvenir to a friend of the Canadian Navy League, Montreal. This park, who has kindly loaned his automobile to facilitate the work of supervision.

Athletic Meeting Back of the Lines on Canadian Fighting Front

(By Stewart Lyon, special correspondent of the Canadian Press.)

Canadian Army Headquarters, Oct. 2.—The Canadian fall athletic meeting, managed by the Y. M. C. A., under amateur athletic association rules, was held yesterday and attracted a great crowd of spectators. Among the runners and jumpers and in the lacrosse, football and baseball teams, were many of the best known athletes of the dominion. The principal events and prize winners were as follows:

Dear Mary:— You ought to have seen how surprised and happy my husband was when he came home last night. Yesterday was his birthday. At breakfast he forgot all about it.

When he came home in the evening I was all toggled out in my loveliest. I met him in the hall, blindfolded him and led him into the living room where I sat him in a big, soft, "cumfy" new easy chair which I'd bought for his birthday present.

Try this on your husband.
