THE HOME FOR THE AGED.

At their First Meeting, 18th July, 1860.

I.—That this Committee shall consist of twelve ladies, called the Visiting Committee of the Home for the Aged, and shall have power to add to their number, should circumstances render it necessary.

II.—That these ladies shall have a general superintendence of the spiritual affairs of the Institution, each taking a week in rotation, for visiting the inmates, either separately in their rooms, or collected, for the purpose of reading, prayer, &c.

III.—That this Committee hold meetings on the same day of meeting of the Executive or General Committee, either before or after, having one of their number presiding, to report what may be deemed worthy of notice.

IV.—That this Committee shall do all in their power to supply the Institution with religious instruction through books, tracts, &c., approved of and subject to the supervision of all the members. They shall also converse with the inmates on their spiritual concerns, in a wise and tender way.

V.—The visitor for the week shall make it her business to obtain the service of a minister or some person acting in that capacity, for any old person more than usually indisposed, and entirely confined to the house; such person to be approved of by the Church to which the aged inmate professes to belong. Should the invalid wish to receive Holy Communion occasionally, and the same be approved of by her minister, the visitor shall attend to the gratification of her wishes.

VI.—Should any of the inmates be deprived by illness of the privileges and benefit of public ordinances, it is considered desirable to obtain the services of theological students from any evangelical denomination, to read or deliver an address as often as practicable on the Lord's Day, or other convenient season—said student must first be named and approved at a meeting of the Committee. The services of an ordained minister in connection with one of the orthodox denominations, to be preferred, whenever they can be obtained.

VII.—This Committee shall make it their duty to see that family worship is regularly maintained. They shall visit alternately, entering the day and hour of each visit in a book kept for the purpose in the public room. The visitor for the week shall see that the Sabbath service be supplied.

VI.—No person will be admitted into the "Home" except they hold the scripture doctrines of the Divinity of Christ, the Deity and personality of the Holy Spirit, the total depravity of man, salvation through the atonement of Christ, the necessity of Divine influence, the obligation resting on all men to repent and believe the gospel, the necessity of practical holiness as the evidence of union to the Saviour, the eternity of future rewards and punishments, and the Divine and perpetual obligations of the Christian Sabbath.

It shall be the duty of the Committee of Admission to enquire particularly into the moral character and disposition of all who are to be admitted into the Home, and to require that all inmates attend the religious services in the Home unless prevented by illness.

VII.—Any person shall have the option of leaving the Home on giving a quarter's notice and the payment of all dues. If any are discontented or unhappy, or refuse to submit to the rules and regulations of the Home, they are at liberty to leave at a month's notice.

VIII.—Whenever any doubts shall arise respecting the individual to be admitted, reference shall be made to the General Committee of the "Home."

REPORT.

THE Committee of the "Home for the Aged," in presenting their Twelfth Annual Report, are glad to be able to state that the Institution continues to fulfil in a satisfactory manner the purpose for which it was established. They desire to record with gratitude the goodness of Providence in the degree of success that has hitherto attended its operations, and to renew the expression of their thanks to the christian public for the liberality by which it has been sustained during the past year.

The Committee have pleasure in bearing testimony to the fidelity, diligence, and economy, with which the household management of the Home has been conducted by the Matron, Mrs. Horne, during another year.

The number of inmates at date of last report was twenty-two. Since then there have been two deaths and one admission, making the number at present in the Home twenty-one, one less than last year.

The Committee regret to announce the resignation and removal from the Province, owing to ill health, of their esteemed Secretary, Miss Forrester, to whose indefatigable labors since its foundation, the Institution owes so much of its past efficiency and prosperity. They hope, however, to have the gratification of seeing her back among them ere long in renewed health and strength, to resume her valuable services in connection with the work in which she took so deep and active an interest. In the absence of Miss Forrester the duties of the Secretary have been discharged by Mrs. J. Scott Hutton.

It affords the Committee much satisfaction to report the receipt of a legacy of $40 from the late Robert Noble, Esq. The Committee while expressing their most grateful sense of the assistance thus rendered, would respectfully commend this example to the imitation of others who may have it in their power, in the same way, to promote the interests of christian benevolence.

The Home is not yet free from the embarrassment of debt, and the fencing round the premises requires to be renewed, which will involve considerable outlay. The Committee would therefore appeal to the friends of the cause, not only to continue but to increase their liberality during the coming year, so that they may be enabled to clear off the mortgage resting on the property, and make such repairs as are urgently required.

The Treasurer's account will be found appended, together with the list of subscriptions for the year. As usual, the names of persons contributing to the payment of board for the inmates of the Institution, are not mentioned.

In conclusion, the thanks of the Committee are due to Dr. Forrest for his gratuitous medical attentions, and also to those clergymen and other friends who have kindly conducted religious services at the Home on Sabbath afternoons.
