ST. LOUIS AT THE TOP AGAIN

Browns Win While Yankees Lose to White Sox

Williams Gets His 25th Home Run—Prominent Players and Some New Ones Figure in Deals Between New York and Boston Owners.

New York, July 31.—The pennant chasing St. Louis Browns, without the services of George Sisler and Hank Greenwald, but with able hurling by Wright and Kenneth Williams' twenty-fifth homer, have moved into first place again. Their fellow citizens, the Cardinals, noted a game from Robinson's Dodgers and gained a length on the Giants, who dropped their second straight contest to the Pirates.

The upward movement of the Browns was due to the defeat of the Yankees by the White Sox, 8 to 6, as well as their own four to one victory over the Red Sox. Hoyt was ineffective in six innings against the Chicago Club, who found his delivery for twelve hits.

Clebs had another good day at bat and so did his men, defeating the Athletics, 7 to 2.

Cleveland, with Ullie Hurling in form and his team mates in a batting mood, won from Washington 11 to 3. Pittsburgh's home runs again proved the undoing of the Giants. Max Carey, who drove for the decisive two on Saturday, duplicated his feat, and Russell, another Saturday home runner, added another to his string. Besides, Morrison was in better pitching form than Douglas.

In Brooklyn, the Cardinals took advantage of a couple of infield bobbles by the Yankees to win the game. Brooklyn's hold on fifth place, as the Pirates moved there.

Deaths in Players.

New York, July 31.—The baseball markets of Gotham and the Hub have closed a busy week.

First Harry Frasee of the Red Sox engaged in a game of barter with the owners of the Yankees, and besides the usual number of players exchanged, it was reported that Frasee got something "to boot." The Yankees got third baseman Joe Judge, considered as one of the best in the game. With him came Elmer Smith, heralded as a hitter of no mean ability, and a fielder of some accomplishment.

To the Red Sox went Wilson, a fast man, to be used as a third sacker; Mitchell, a young substitute shortstop, and Outfielder Elmer Smith, who was reported to be in the line-up of the Boston and New York got busy and Hugh McQuillan a young pitcher, with great promise sent to the Memphis Club by the Braves a "substantial sum" said to be in six figures; Fred Toney, a veteran with a great record; Larry Benton, a young pitcher sent to the Memphis Club by the Giants, and Walter Houlahan, a left handed pitcher from Middlebury College, in Vermont.

In order to engineer the deal the Giants sent Cecil Cassey, a relief pitcher, to the Indianapolis Club of the American Association, and ordered Pat Shea, who was sent to Annapolis on a military assignment to report to the Memphis Club. McQuillan and Toney were to report to their new clubs today.

PLUCKY GIRL SAVES BROTHER

Windsor, Ont., July 31.—Ethel Gardner, a ten-year-old Windsor girl, saved the life of her four-year-old brother when he fell into the Detroit river last evening. The dock was deserted at the time, and the little girl, who is a fair swimmer, plunged into the water and held her brother for the third time when his sister grasped him. Treading water and holding his senseless form in her arms, the girl shouted for help and her cries were heard by two men, who plunged in in time to save both children.

Y. M. C. I. SCOUTS AWAY TO CAMP

Boy Scouts of the Y. M. C. I. troops left this morning for their camp on the Bishop's grounds at Torriburn on a bit of rising ground overlooking the Kennebec river, a beautiful site. They were in charge of Scoutmasters W. E. Stirling and F. X. Jennings and Assistant Scoutmasters Thomas Killen and Frank Kiley. Camp equipment such as bedding, tents, and supplies were taken out in motor trucks. On arrival work was begun immediately to get the camp into shape and by noon things were pretty well under way for a stay of two weeks. They have a fine baseball field, good swimming accommodations and excellent drinking water at the camp and the fact that James McAndrews is in charge of the camp outfit assures satisfaction in that direction.

Guy L. Short, district commissioner; V. C. Timberly, district secretary, and Edward Jenner of St. Jude's church tower, returned this morning after attending the district conference at Steviacks, N. S. W. E. Stirling returned on Saturday from this camp to which reference has been made previously in the Times.

Jury Discharged; John Paris to be Tried Fifteen Time

Still Stood Ten to Two and Jurors Were Polled in Court—Some Suggestion of New Trial at Present Sitting but Final Decision for Next Month—Chief Justice McKeown Then to Preside.

The fourth trial of John Paris, mulatto, charged with the murder of twelve-year-old Sadie McAuley on August 4, 1921, came to a close this morning when the jury returned after more than forty-seven hours of deliberation to report that they had been unable to reach a verdict. This is the third time that a split jury vote has been reached in this case, but differs from the others in the numbers. Twice before Judge Barry Jones reported disagreements, both times with a count of seven for conviction and five for acquittal. This time the majority for conviction was five to two in favor of acquitting the prisoner. The count this morning was the same as when the jury were sent out at six o'clock on Saturday night.

This was the second trial before Judge Chandler. The former one resulted in a conviction and a sentence of hanging to be imposed on March 20, but an appeal led to a third trial and a split jury in that to a fourth, only to have the jury again disagree. When the decision of the jury that they could not reach a verdict was communicated to the court Hon. J. P. Byrne, the attorney-general, refused to move for the discharge of the prisoner and another trial, but he was not in a fit physical condition, himself, to appear immediately. The case was set over until September when Chief Justice H. A. McKeown will hold circuit court.

This is probably the longest murder case in the history of the country, extending over a period of last year when the first jury disagreed to September of this year when the fifth trial will be commenced.

A new departure in the case this morning was the polling of the jury in the court room at the request of the attorney-general. Two men, James P. Quinn and Allan Agar, voted not guilty and the rest of the jury "guilty." The fact that the jury were out from 10:40 o'clock on Saturday morning, when the first jury came out on Saturday they were instructed by His Honor not to take into account evidence given at previous trials. They stood 10 to 2 from their first report to the court.

The crowd on Saturday was nearly 1,500 strong and Germain street was packed for a full block. The jury was forced to sleep on the floor of the jury room and bedding was provided for Saturday and Sunday nights.

This Morning's Proceedings.

After more than forty-seven hours of deliberation the jury in the fourth trial of John Paris, charged with the murder of Sadie McAuley, filed into the court room again this morning at 10 o'clock sharp and reported a disagreement with the count ten for conviction and two for acquittal.

The court convened at nine o'clock and the prisoner, in company with the attorney-general and His Honor Judge Chandler were all in their places at that hour.

At ten o'clock the constable in charge of the jury entered and asked the judge if he would send for the jury. His Honor replied that they might come in at any time they were ready. Upon the constable left the room and re-appeared almost immediately followed by the jurymen, who filed to their seats slowly. Several of them showed signs of the long hours spent away from their usual abode.

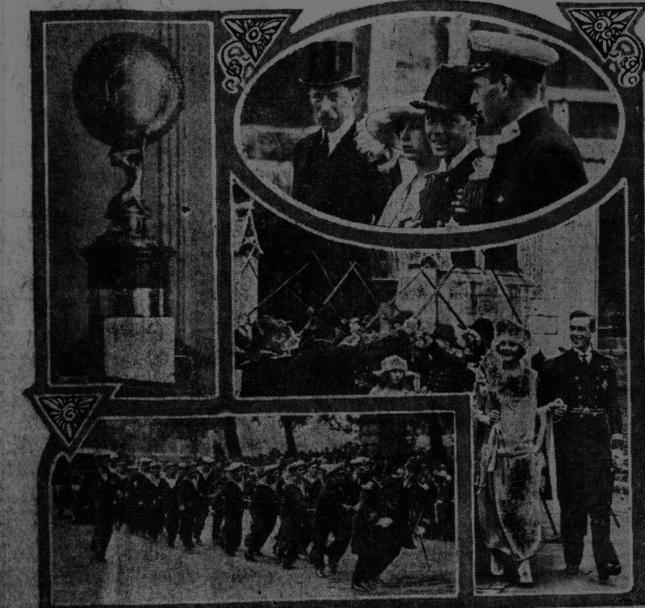

The judge asked if the jury had anything to say to the court and the foreman, A. W. Fraser, replied that they had been unable to reach a verdict and still stood ten for conviction and two for acquittal.

How Jurors Voted.

The attorney-general was asked by His Honor if he had anything to suggest and said that he would like to have the jury polled. This was granted and the names were called out by the clerk and responded to as follows: Clarence W. Colwell, "guilty." Walter S. Knowles, "guilty." G. S. Springer, "guilty." James P. Quinn, "not guilty." A. W. Fraser, "guilty." John S. Malcolm, "guilty." E. Allen Agar, "not guilty." J. E. Emery, "guilty." J. L. Heane, "guilty." Richard I. Carlous, "guilty." Harry Short, "guilty." Asked by His Honor if he had any suggestion, the attorney-general said that he could see no object in keeping the jury under the circumstances and thought that they might be discharged. His Honor said he had no objection to the discharge of the jury. The judge thanked the jurors for the time and attention they had given to the case. They were then discharged from further attendance upon the court, he said, and might leave immediately.

The attorney-general was asked by the court if he had anything to say relative to the matter. He said that His Honor, under the statutes, could place the evidence before another jury. At this point Judge Chandler broke in to ask him if he would move to discharge the prisoner, but Mr. Byrne replied that he did not believe the ends of justice would be met under the circumstances when the jury had been ten to two in favor of a conviction. His Honor then remanded the prisoner to jail. There was no further business before the court, he said, but he did not

BRITISH TROOPS OVER BOSPHORUS

Leave to Reinforce French West of Constantinople

Allied Military Staff Will not Permit a Greek Advance Upon the Turkish Capital, Nor Must Turks Violate Neutrality.

(Canadian Press Cable) Constantinople, July 31.—British troops today were being transferred across the Bosphorus from the Asiatic to the European side, crossing Constantinople on their way to the Tehtalja line, thirty miles west of the city, to reinforce the French troops. This evidence of the strengthening of the old defence line caused the city to awaken from its usual Sunday torpor.

The Allied military staff has categorically announced that under no circumstances will it permit a Greek advance upon Constantinople, being prepared to oppose by force any attempt at violation of the neutrality of the city, whether by Turks or Greeks.

The French have been especially active in setting the defence line ready to meet all eventualities. Advice reaching their headquarters is to the effect that four full Greek divisions are now concentrated in Thrace, with the Greek general staff at Chelres Keui, thirty miles west of the town of Tehtalja.

News of a proclamation issued at Smyrna, declaring the independence of the Greek occupied areas in Asia Minor is interpreted here as a prelude to the complete evacuation of the occupied territory by the Greeks, the military demonstration in Thrace being looked upon as merely diversionary.

Smyrna, July 31.—A special proclamation announcing the establishment of a regime of self government for the regions in Asia Minor occupied by the Greeks was issued today by M. Stergisidis, Greek high commissioner.

LOOKS BETTER IN STRIKE SITUATION

Harding's Plan to be Considered Tomorrow by Railroad Heads and Shopmen.

(Canadian Press.) Chicago, July 31.—Strike leaders were arriving from all parts of the U. S. today for President Harding's plan for a settlement of the railway shopmen's strike and hopes were expressed that the men could be back at work before the end of the week.

The position of the striking shopmen was expressed by A. G. Tharnton, labor member of the U. S. railroad labor board, who declared: "If either the railroad executives' meeting in New York, Tuesday, or the shopmen's policy committee meeting in Chicago should reject Mr. Harding's peace proposal, the group that rejects it would face full responsibility for continuation of the rail strike and all that might result therefrom."

A member of the labor board asserted that the general outlines of a settlement had been agreed to last week at conferences between President Harding and Mr. Cuyler and B. M. Jewell, head of the striking shopmen.

In railway circles it was asserted that any settlement would insist on a return to work by the men under the reduced wages put into effect by the labor board on July 1, pending a re-hearing. The question of national or regional adjustment boards, it was said, might be put before congress, while the roads would yield on the main grievance at issue by agreeing to the abolishment of outside contracting for shop work. Disorders in the strike showed a marked falling off yesterday.

Three men exchanged fifty shots with state guardsmen at Denison, Texas, in the most serious outbreak reported. No one was injured.

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 31.—A telephone message from Cartwright, a small mining village near Dunlap, Tenn., states that the drum and engine house of the mine had been destroyed by dynamite, and that more than fifty shots had been exchanged between guards and the attackers. So far as could be learned no one was injured.

Gempers Hopeful.

New York, July 31.—Samuel Gempers, president of the A. F. of L., declared yesterday that he viewed "with a great deal of pleasure" news that the mine and rail workers strikes are nearing "what would seem to be a mutually satisfactory settlement."

"From my knowledge," he added, "I am convinced that never in the history of organized labor and capital has there been such an effort on both sides to view things from a really human standpoint." Winnipeg, July 31.—There is no foundation to a statement made by T. Y. Geeke, local secretary, here last week, that Canadian maintenance of way men were contemplating secession from the International Union in favor of Canadian autonomy, so W. Aspinall, general chairman of the union, said here yesterday. Mr. Geeke's statement was also denied by E. F. Grable, international president, in Chicago last week.

HAIRLOOM BABY Carriages

So strong are the new wicker baby limousines, a whole army of which are shown in our three windows, that they should outlast a whole generation. So light and springy you never notice the hills. So ingenious in their adjustments any infant sleeps as though on air. So economical you'd never guess without seeing what luxury can cost so little.

So graceful the difficulty is not so much what is needed, but what to choose for individual beauty. Colors are frosted blue and pink, cream, grey and white.

Notice especially the gondola and pullman designs with the shell-like outline, that change over from a bed to a chair all in a twist of the wrist.

Quicker to light, takes less to make a fire, cheaper in price and can also be used for open fires and small heating stoves. Such a coal is Broad Cove soft coal. INSTITUTE OF POLITICS.

There was founded last year in the United States an Institute of Politics, designed in the interests of a better world understanding. This year's session opened on Saturday last, at Williams College, Massachusetts, and has close to three hundred men enrolled from twenty-six states as its students.

The Institute of Politics is a place of exchange—not of goods, but of ideas. Its members come from widely separated parts of the world to confer upon subjects of mutual interest, to seek wider knowledge and better understanding and by these to create a new wealth of ideas.

Dr. Garfield likens the Institute to the little groups in early American life who met at the village store to discuss all manner of subjects, each speaking his own mind, and he adds:

THE COAL SUPPLY.

The Toronto Globe would like to see the city council take some steps to ensure a supply of anthracite coal, of which the people use about a million tons each winter and have now only about one tenth of that amount in cellars or in dealers' yards.

That is a good resolution, but no guarantee goes with it. There is need for an anchor to windward. A few cargoes of hard coal from Wales landed on the waterfront at a price not materially different from that of Pennsylvania anthracite would aid our coal dealers materially in their efforts to secure supplies.

There is wisdom in having, as the Globe suggests, an anchor cast to windward. Perhaps its suggestion is worthy of consideration in St. John. If Welsh coal is available there should be no difficulty in landing it on our wharves.

Guelph Herald:—"Nature smiles today on a Canada that is fair indeed, with the brightest of prospects for a wonderful crop of everything that is essential to the comfort and sustenance of man."

The present week will no doubt bring some new developments in regard to the power situation in St. John. The contract for hydro is ready for completion and the question of distribution must be settled without delay.

HYDRO IN ONTARIO.

The new hydro rates put into effect in Ontario, making reductions in sixty-seven municipalities, will have a particularly beneficial effect in Toronto. The Globe tells of one manufacturing company using privately owned power whose rates under hydro will be reduced fifty per cent. Another taking current from the Toronto Power Company will have its rates cut fifty per cent. by hydro.

On Roncesvalles avenue a certain consumer's bill shows that his past bills have been 88 per cent. higher than they will be with similar consumption under hydro. A bank on Queen street west has been paying 82 per cent. more than it will pay under hydro. A Spadina avenue family will find its account reduced from the customary $26 to $12; it has been paying 106 per cent. higher rates than it will under hydro. An Avenue road residence has been paying about $7.80 and will pay $4.05 under hydro; it has been paying 93 per cent. more under private distribution than it will under hydro.

Some new hydro power users are affected, as follows: One company on Weston road has 899 horsepower connected with hydro and is using 73,200 k. w. h. Its bill is $881.83 per month. A contract with a company formerly taking Toronto power is a company that took 392 h. p., with a consumption of 46,000, as against the owner's 73,000, and its bill is $1,003.83. Another one, with 547 horsepower, to compare with that 392 horsepower, has a consumption of 65,000 k. w. h., and its bill is $894.90. Another striking example of the cheapness of hydro as compared with private power, is in the bill of a Hamilton company. Faced with a one-third increase in power rates from the private concern, it switched to hydro at some expense, and whereas its monthly power bill was formerly $140.80, its bill with the hydro under the same consumption would be only $54.17.

Referring to the general revision of rates in the province the Globe report says that in addition to the changes in rate schedules affecting the municipalities there is a reduction in domestic "follow-up rates," which, although it affects none of the cities with which hydro has contract, affects six towns, 40 villages and two townships—a total of 48 municipalities.

The "new follow-up rate," said Sir Adam Beck, "is intended to encourage the use of electrical appliances in the houses, to bring the cost down to a basis where washing machines, vacuum cleaners, and especially electrical ranges, may be used in smaller municipalities at an economical cost. The commission found that where in the smaller villages the follow-up rate was as high as 4 cents per k. w. h., the cost of cooking by electricity was excessive. The minimum of 2 cents has been fixed by the commission for this domestic service on all kinds of equipment, so that the two-cent follow-up rate, with discount of 10 per cent. for prompt payment, may prevail in all municipalities in the system."

The more we read about the results of hydro development in Ontario the more eager we should be to see the work go on in New Brunswick.

St. John still has the honor of being the home of the amateur single-scuttling champion of Canada. Hilton Belyea retained his title on Saturday in a sensational race in which he not only won but showed that he is not a safe man to jockey with. It has been declared by his friends that in some former races Belyea was hardly given a fair field, but on Saturday he was prepared to hold his own and did so with a coolness and determination that will win for him the wholesome respect of all competitors in future. When he was defeated by Hoover earlier in the season there were some who feared he might not be able to retain the Canadian championship, but he has done it with ease, and is eager to meet Hoover again. He is now in Philadelphia, to compete in races next Saturday, and the good wishes of all his fellow citizens go with him.

The New York stock market reflects public opinion that the strikes will soon be settled. This is shown by an advancing market for the last three days of last week. The New York Times says: "There is a prevalent conviction that the disputes are bound to be settled in the not very distant future. The pressure on employers to adjust the disputes, now that industry in general begins to be embarrassed, is evident. The pressure on the labor organizations, now that the fortunes of workers in other industries are threatened by prolongation of these strikes, is equally manifest."

On the Golden Grove road on Saturday night at about midnight Constable Crawford arrested a man for being under the influence of liquor while driving an automobile. This case will come before Magistrate Allingham probably on Tuesday.

FIFTEEN MINUTES OF RADIO EACH DAY

By Edward N. Davis

Formerly Technical Electrical Expert For U. S. Government

Lesson No. 65.

GROUNDING OF RADIO APPARATUS.

Marconi in his early experiments with the induction coil type of radio transmitters made use of a simple spark gap across the high voltage secondary of the coil with a metal plate attached to each terminal of the gap. He found that he could detect signals across the room when using this apparatus. He increased the size of the metal plates and found that the larger the plate is used the greater the distance he could cover with his transmitter. Marconi's system in its final form made use of a system of wires suspended in the air which takes the place of one of the metal plates and wire connected to a buried metal plate form the earth connection thus utilizing the infinite capacity of the earth as the substitute for the other metal plate.

The aerial wires suspended in the air serve as the plate of a condenser of large physical dimensions, the earth serving as the other plate with the air between as the dielectric. It is apparent that a connection to earth as nearly perfect as possible is just as essential as carefully made electrical connection in the aerial system.

Radio transmitters and receivers on shipboard are grounded on the nearest steel beam which forms part of the hull in steel vessels. Copper sheathing is placed on the hull of wooden vessels to give good electrical connection with the water.

Commercial radio stations in large cities where the equipment is often installed on the roof of a high steel frame office building are frequently grounded on the steel frame-work of the building.

Commercial ship to shore land stations are usually situated in outlying places along the shore where it is convenient to bury metal plates in permanently moist earth to secure an earth connection. Very dry soil, rocky soil or fresh water swamps generally present a difficult grounding problem to the radio engineer due to the poor current conducting qualities of these forms of ground. The counterpoise ground system which is used in such a locality will be described in a later article devoted exclusively to that system.

Amateur radio stations which are located in residences are grounded on the water pipe, gas pipe or steam pipe. Either of these or all will usually be found to serve as sufficient ground for the receiving apparatus. Amateur transmitters which are limited to a transmitting wave length of 200 meters should have as short a ground lead as possible in order to keep the wave length within the limits prescribed by law. It is found in many instances where water pipes, gas pipes or building frames are used for grounds that the actual or effective ground exists where the pipe goes into the ground and not where the wire connection is made to the pipe.

The method of driving a pipe into the ground to secure an earth connection is usually the poorest kind of a ground, especially for transmitting purposes, but the method is sometimes employed where no other means of securing a ground is obtainable.

PRESCRIBING BY WIRELESS.

In several cases of serious accident or illness on board vessels many miles at sea where the personal attention of physicians or surgeons was not available, it has been possible through radio communications for physicians on land to prescribe remedies which resulted in saving the life of the patient.

In one instance, at least, amputation has been performed by those unskilled in the art of surgery but who were so carefully directed by means of radio messages that they were able to accomplish a successful operation.

In a number of cases of ptomaine poisoning due to impure canned goods, the radio operator so carefully described to the physician on board the nature of the trouble, and the nature of the remedy, and a return message by radio gave instructions for the use of simple remedies so clearly that the patients were shortly relieved from a dangerous condition.

OLD AGE.

The seas are quiet when the winds give over; So calm are we when passions are no more; For then we know how vain it was to boast Of fleeting things so certain to be lost. Clouds of affection from our younger eyes Conceal that emptiness which age describes.

The soul's dark cottage, battered and decayed, Lets an old fire, through chinks that time hath made; Stronger by weakness, wiser men become As the heart draws near to their eternal home. Leaving the old, both worlds at once they view That stand upon the threshold of the new. —Edmund Waller (1606-1687).

LIGHTER VEIN.

When two egotists meet it's a case of an I for an I.

MISUNDERSTOOD.

A young woman boarded a train car and the conductor came round with his usual cry of "Fares, please!" The young woman, who had the child on her hip, tendered a half crown. The conductor, being short of change, politely asked her: "Is this the smallest you have?" "Oh, no; I've one three months old at home."—Spare Moments.

TECHNICAL EDUCATION

(Moncton Transcript) When Mr. F. J. Foster, premier of Nova Scotia, the beginnings of a system of industrial education were made in that province. Technical classes for coal miners were encouraged and the interest displayed in these classes was notable from the outset, though the mining industry in Nova Scotia in the early years of the Federal administration was not of great importance, being carried on by numerous small companies with rather inadequate capital and equipment. However, the importance of technical education, and the Murray government, as finances permitted, extended the scope of the technical courses, eventually erecting at Halifax a Technical College which would be a credit to a much larger community.

It is unfortunate New Brunswick did not make an earlier start with the development of a system of technical education. Since the Foster government largely laid down the technical education, Mr. Magee, took up the matter substantial progress has been made, but the province has much to do to make up in the way of development facilities and also in the way of making the people realize the importance of technical education. Now Nova Scotia is organizing technical courses for the men and boys employed in various branches of the fishing industry. In this it is following the example of European countries, Japan and some American states. At the last session of the N. B. Legislature, John Robichaud of Gloucester county, urged the need of developing the fisheries of this province, and advocated the sending of young men to Seattle, Washington, to take the courses and study the fishing methods there, and then return and become instructors of the fishermen of New Brunswick. There are some who are skeptical of the value of technical education as applied to the fishing industry. So have there been in every country persons who believed it was bad policy to attempt to educate the masses. But as a general principle it may be laid down that our troubles are due, not to education, but to insufficient education; and we may very well regret that New Brunswick is, by various necessities which cannot be overcome in a day, obliged to lag behind Nova Scotia in the development of facilities for technical education.

C. N. R. HARVEST EXCURSIONS SOON

RUM ROMANCE
AT GIRL'S TRIAL

Mrs. Edith Stevens, 19, Denies Helping Casse Smuggle Liquor from Bermuda.

New York, July 31.—A rum-running romance was revealed in the United States District Court in Brooklyn when Mrs. Edith Stevens, nineteen, was arraigned on an indictment charging conspiracy to smuggle liquor into New York from Bermuda.

The girl was indicted as an accomplice of Antonio Casse, millionaire tobacco merchant of Ozone Park, who is said to have financed a huge plot to land numerous boatloads of whiskey here. Two of the vessels have been seized and Casse is sought as a fugitive from justice following forfeiture of a bond of $5,000.

Casse was also the alleged owner of the yacht Edith, which was seized by the government with 1,800 cases of liquor aboard on March 26 at Bayville. The court was told yesterday that Casse, who is forty-five, had named the yacht Edith for Mrs. Stevens. The latter was said to have been separated from her husband.

Testimony brought out by the federal attorney at the trial of Capt. Charles Oman of the Edith was to the effect that a woman had directed the loading of the Edith at Bermuda with a cargo of liquor and had accompanied the vessel to New York, occupying the cabin with Casse. Neither was on the yacht when it was captured. Oman was convicted and sent to the federal penitentiary at Atlanta for a year and a day.

On the same day that Casse jumped the bond of $5,000, Mr. Brancato said, the tobacco merchant sent the trawler Ripple from Brooklyn to take on another cargo of liquor at Bermuda. The prosecutor said Casse and Mrs. Stevens went to the Columbia street dock to see the vessel sail. He alleges that they then left on a faster yacht and reached Bermuda before the Ripple. He charges they arranged for the cargo of liquor, helping put it aboard the trawler.

$30,000 Liquor Seized.

The Ripple anchored off Ambrose light on the return to New York and half of the cargo was transferred to smaller craft to smuggle ashore. Under cover of darkness the Ripple docked at the foot of Columbia street, and while the remainder of the load was being discharged to motor launches the vessel was raided and captured by federal agents. About $30,000 worth of liquor was confiscated.

Mrs. Stevens was unable to furnish the $20,000 bond which the court fixed upon the insistence of Assistant United States Attorney Peter J. Brancato. To keep the girl from remaining in jail, however, the court set the date of trial for today. She will be defended by Wallace E. J. Collins, former United States attorney and counsel for Casse. The alleged conspiracy of Casse, Mrs. Stevens and Joseph Barilla, chauffeur for Casse, to smuggle liquor into New York was revealed when a pilot bottle in the harbor recently between federal prohibition agents and the crew of the rum-running trawler Ripple resulted in the capture of the vessel and the disclosure that it was owned by the tobacco merchant.

Until the seizure of the Ripple, Casse had apparently intended to stand trial on the indictment in connection with the Edith. But when the ownership of the Ripple was also traced to him, despite the fact that he was a pilot, Casse made good his escape, taking a small fortune in cash, revealed by his bank withdrawals.

Mrs. Stevens denied that she was implicated in the rum-smuggling plot with Casse. She admitted she had made the trip to Bermuda on the Edith, but said she had no knowledge of the Ripple.

Perley G. Black was arrested here on Saturday on a warrant charging him with obtaining money under false pretences. Sheriff Foster of Woodstock took the prisoner to Woodstock on Saturday evening. It is alleged that Black, while in the employ of the Hartland Observer, appropriated to his own use the sum of $600.

MORE WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT AT CHAUTAUQUA

Messages of encouragement were delivered in the Chautauqua week-end programme by George H. Turner, who was the lecturer on Saturday afternoon and also spoke at the service in the tent last night. The Dunbar White Hussars, led by William Maupin members of a nine-piece brass band delighted the audience with concert entertainment on Saturday afternoon and evening and supplied the music at yesterday evening's services. On Saturday morning the superintendent, W. W. Schumaker, gave an address on woman and the new age.

At the session of the Junior Chautauqua on Saturday morning, preparations for the pageant were made and the leading parts assigned.

The title of Mr. Turner's address in the afternoon was "Toward the Goal," and in it he said that the goal of social justice was being approached. The Christian nations were not thinking of war now, he said, and this was a great step to the abolition of war. He thought the people of Canada were lucky not to be embroiled in the violent social upheaval going on in the United States. He reviewed the uplifting spirit of sacrifice brought about by the war and the slump back to the old selfish living afterwards. He thought the present generation were carrying their burden well, especially along the lines of religion. The American peoples were fortunate in being in dominion of a continent whose peoples understood each other and each other's language. There was never a time, he said, when the wealth of the world was so equally distributed and the working man received more. The goal was a social one, he concluded, but the work was individual, each having a part to do.

At the service last night, Rev. A. L. Tedford assisted the Chautauqua leaders in the devotional exercises. Mr. Turner preached a powerful sermon on the story of the feeding of the 5,000 with the few loaves and fishes, and said that it emphasized that the human life was spiritual and not physical.

Charlie Ross, aged nine, and Jim Lee, a Chinaman, aged twenty-five, were suffocated yesterday while attempting to escape from a burning building in Charlottetown. Other persons were rescued by firemen through upstairs windows.

RATHSKELLAR BAR
AT DAVIES PARTY

Everything But Rail, Brother-in-Law Says

Gin Limited to One Bottle—
Manager of Hearst's Film
Service Describes Function
Which Preceded the Hirsch Shooting.

(New York Times)
Hearings in the action for criminal libel brought by George B. Van Cleve, brother-in-law of Marion Davies, film star, of 331 Riverside Drive, against The New York Herald, Evening Telegram and The Daily News were begun yesterday before Magistrate George W. Simpson in the Tombs Court. By agreement of counsel the testimony adduced related to the alleged libelous article in The Daily News describing a party at the Freeport, Long Island,
home of Reine Davies at which her sister Marion was not present. It was recalled that following the party Mrs.
Oscar Hirsch was charged with having shot her husband, William Harmon Black, counsel for Van Cleve, said that objection was made to the characterization of the party in The News as a riotous one and the comparison to Hollywood affairs. Complaint was also made in the headline on the story—
"Complicated Shooting Brings Davies Girls Into Spotlight."
Van Cleve, an advertising writer, with homes in New York and Miami, Fla., said he had been general manager for the International Film Service, owned,
he testified, by William Randolph Hearst. Marion Davies, he said, "has been and is" a star identified with the International production. He would not agree to the suggestion that Reine Davies was a star nor even a prominent actress, but just one who had received a good salary.

Draws Line Between Star and Player.
There was as much difference as between lawyer and process server when one considered stars and just players, he added. Therefore, he reasoned in his testimony, the headline in The News was libelous in bringing Marion Davies into the spotlight. Asked by McDonald DeWitt, counsel for The News, to define spotlight, the witness replied:
"I should say, as used in the article,
it was what The News wished its readers to understand."
The "complicated shooting" didn't bring the Davies girl into the spotlight,
but The News' story did," interrupted
Mr. Black.
De Witt tried to get Van Cleve to agree that if every paper mentioned Marion Davies in connection with the Freeport party and the aftermath it proved that the Davies girls were in the limelight. The counsel also sought to gain an admission from the witness that every account he had read in the local papers mentioned the fact that Marion Davies was a sister of Reine.
As supporting the truth of The News' version of the party, De Witt offered in evidence the alleged libelous article appearing in The Evening Telegram, the headline of which read "Millionaire Strangely Wounded Following Party at Screen Star's Home." It was in this connection that De Witt tried to show that Reine was also a screen star.
Asks If List Was Not Censored.
Examining Van Cleve on events leading up to the party, De Witt established that Marion had been invited to attend under a group invitation for
"the whole family." Van Cleve explained that he had just returned from Europe with Mrs. Van Cleve, Mrs. Bernard Douras, wife of Magistrate Douras and mother of the Davies girls, and Ethel Davies. He was questioned closely as to the personnel of the guests at the Reine Davies home and asked why he had not included in a statement he issued following the shooting certain names which Mr. De Witt mentioned.
De Witt brought in the name of Sime Silverman, publisher of Variety, and asked if the name had not been left out of the list of guests made public intentionally because of unpleasant no-

"Don't you know that after spending the night at 'Lumber Inn and leaving at 8 o'clock in the morning, Silverman and Reine Davies had an accident on the way back to New York?" De Witt asked.

WAS FORERUNNER
OF OCEAN FLEET

800 Ton Brig Brought First
C. P. R. Cargo from Orient
35 Years Ago.
(Montreal Gazette)
Thirty-six years ago, on July 26, 1886,
the 800-ton brig, W. B. Flint, five weeks out from Yokohama, sailed into British Columbia waters. The last ship had but just been driven, linking, despite the formidable mountain barrier, the Atlantic and Pacific with hands of steel. The full cargo, consisting of 17,340 half chests of tea, carried across the western ocean by the small sailing ship was the first Oriental cargo handled at Port Moody, the Pacific terminus of the newly-completed Canadian Pacific. From that humble origin has grown in less than two years a magnificent world-wide traffic of the Canadian Pacific today,
with its great fleet of steamships.
In 1887 the first regular trans-Pacific service was established with three chartered vessels brought from the Atlantic—the Batavia, the Parthia and the Abyezinta. Three years later, in July, 1890, the Canadian Pacific concluded a contract with the British government providing for a mail subsidy of £200,000 a year for services of three twin-screw steamships between British Columbia, Japan and China, and the following year the first of the three Empresses reached Victoria, B. C., on her maiden voyage. From that date to this the Canadian Pacific has held the leadership in Orient traffic on the Pacific. The Empress of Japan, the last of the trio in service, ended her career
on the trans-Pacific run, with her arrival in Vancouver last week from the Orient, after having covered 2,600 miles in the service of the Canadian Pacific. The Montague recently concluded her splendid career on the Pacific Ocean. She was added to the Pacific fleet in 1906.
For thirty years the Empress of Japan has been in constant service without a single mishap to her record. Although in her day she was considered the finest of her type afloat, and for two decades was "Queen of the Pacific" she relinquished that honor only when the speedier and larger Empress of Russia and Empress of Asia, 16,850 tons each,
were added to the Canadian Pacific fleet
in 1913 for service between Vancouver and the Orient.
Within the past few weeks the two new liners, the Empress of Canada, 22-000 tons, and the Empress of Australia,
21,600 tons, have joined the Canadian Pacific fleet in the Orient service. The Empress of Canada, starting on her second voyage will leave Hong Kong today and the Empress of Australia, on her first trans-Pacific trip, is leaving Vancouver tonight for the Orient.
Today the successors of the little brig,
the W. B. Flint, carry the flag of the Canadian Pacific on the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, on the Mediterranean,
Caribbean, Adriatic and South China Seas, and along the coasts and on the inland waters of Canada. The brig's
800 tons have increased to over 465,000
tons, and that one service across the Pacific has grown into those numerous
and important routes which Canada is now linked with four continents and the greatest trans-Pacific system by water
and by land. In contrast to the passage made by the W. B. Flint across the Pacific in 35 days, the record for the inland waters of Canada. The brig's
800 tons have increased to over 465,000
tons, and that one service across the Pacific has grown into those numerous
and important routes which Canada is
now linked with four continents and the
greatest trans-Pacific system by water
and by land.

SHIFTING OF THE STRIKE ISSUE

(New York Times)
When the railway shophen voted to strike, they gave reasons of which they have since abandoned. They were to resist the cut in their wages ordered by the Railroad Labor Board. But now they say they accept it, in view of the promise of a re-hearing of their case should altered conditions warrant it.
They also struck against the contracting out of repair work by the railways. But this practice has been almost complet-ly given up, partly by voluntary action of the companies, partly by direction of the Railroad Labor Board.
The net result, therefore, is that the shophen are remaining out on an issue which did not exist when they originally struck. Apparently, they would go back to work if these rights were unequivocally restored to them. The difficulty is plainly of their own creating,
and some railway executives talk of "fighting to a finish," but neither side could really maintain that the facts, and the sole issue growing out of them, are important enough to justify a struggle to the last extremity. Both sides have in their hands good bargaining material—
some would say the railway material—and the inference from this is not that they should stand apart indefinitely in hostility, but that they should meet soon to make the desired bargain.

ROAD IN BAD CONDITION.

The Spruce Lake road leading from Fairville is seriously in need of repairs.
This road was in fine condition, but it badly injured when the new water main from Spruce Lake was put down, and has been left uneven and full of holes
which make driving most unpleasant.
Those who use the road are complaining bitterly about its roughness, and declare something should be done at once to put it in shape.
Commissioner Wigmore said last night
that the contractors crossed the Spruce Lake road in more than one place. They would be responsible, he said, for putting the road in as good shape as they found it. The pipe was laid alongside of the highway.

CLOGGED INTESTINES BREED POISONS
LIKE A SWAMP BREEDS MOSQUITOES

And these poisons are absorbed straight into the blood, says Alice Landies, Certified Nurse. Quickly lower the vitality and disease-resistance, rendering you easy prey to any ailment or disease.
Advices drinking alkaline medicinal water for quick results. Gives prescription for preparing it at home. How to flush the kidneys, gently stimulate the liver and thoroughly wash out the intestines.
Acids and poisons from the sour fermenting mass with which the intestines become fouled are absorbed straight into the blood as surely as though injected by a hypodermic needle.
Thousands of tiny intestinal parasites
which should be absorbing nourishment
commence to throw virulent poisons into
the blood stream.
The liver and kidneys are unable to take care of all these
rank bowel poisons,
and therefore soon become clogged and deranged. With the nervous system and vitality depressed, the body develops sufficient nourishment, and the disease-resistance reduced far below the danger point, any ailment, from a common cold to influenza or pneumonia is possible and even, protracted lung, bad breath, rheumatism, neuralgia, catarrh, dizziness,
headache, backache, skin disorders, bladder trouble and stomach complaints are only a few of the easily recognized symptoms of constipation and the various organic derangements it causes. To correct such conditions you need not take strong cathartic pills to irritate the liver or force violent convulsive action of the intestinal walls, nor need you irritate the bowels with strong salts or grease them with oil. These processes are all very weakening and mean harmful reactions afterwards. Instead, try washing out the intestines, flushing the kidneys and gently stimulating the liver with a mild and pleasant tasting, but astonishingly effective alkaline medicinal water such as you would think at one of the world's famous hot alkaline mineral springs. There is no need of traveling to the springs,
however, as you can get the same essential medicinal constituents and strength pounded in the form of refined Alkalia Saltrates, which any chemist can supply
at slight cost.

"FLU" NEARLY
KILLED HER

"I was so weak that I had lost interest in everything."
Because Mrs. McGregor let herself become run down, read what happened. "Like a great many other people who get pneumonia, my family didn't think I would live and I was in a weakened, run down condition. Nothing seemed to bring back my old strength and energy. I tried all the time. I had no appetite. I had dull pains all over my body. I suffered agony with headaches. I was despondent and took no interest in anything. I was nervous.
I was irritable and was always looking for slight. I was losing weight. I was in such a nervous, weakened, run down condition, that last spring, I got pneumonia. My family didn't think I would live and
the doctor told me afterwards that it was only because I had a strong heart that I managed to pull through.
By the time I was out of danger, I was so weak and tired that I had lost interest in everything. I tried several preparations to build me up but none of them did me any good. One day a friend who had been very ill called in to see me, looking the picture of health. I asked her what she had been doing with herself to look so well and fat.
She said that Carnol had done wonders for her and advised me to try
it. As the evidence of what Carnol had done for my friend could not be denied, I decided to follow her advice. Today I think Carnol is the most wonderful preparation in the world. It has made me a happy, healthy, contented woman."

PARENTS REUNITED
BY FINDING SON

Married at 16, Stewarts Separated when Child was Born Eleven Years Ago—Will Make a New Home.

New York, July 31.—Russell Stewart End, who was found abandoned in a furnished room in New Dorp, S. I., a month ago, has been claimed at the rooms of the Children's Society in Tompkinsville by his father and mother, Mrs. and Mrs. Donald Stewart, who had been separated since his birth. Finding of the boy after nearly four years search by the mother was attended by a re-union celebration and the announced determination of the parents to found a home in which their son might obtain parental care.

The fight of a young mother against starvation and her final decision to give the boy up for adoption, only to discover later when she did want to get her son back that the mother she had instructed him had disappeared, comes to light through the re-union of the Stewarts.

Agents of the Children's Society have learned that Donald Stewart and Marion Parker were married in 1908 when they were seventeen and sixteen years of age respectively. Religious differences caused them to separate on different occasions and led to a final break in 1911 when Russell was born. Mrs. Stewart then resumed her maiden name, calling herself Mrs. Parker, and did various kinds of domestic work which enabled her to keep her son with her. There came a time, however, when she found it necessary to put the child in a home, where he remained for eleven months, and eventually she decided to let somebody adopt her boy. That was in January, 1918. An advertisement offering the boy for adoption was inserted in a New York newspaper.

A man who described himself as Richard A. Field, a superintendent in the Bethlehem Steel Works, Bethlehem, Pa., called on Mrs. Stewart and asserted he and his wife were looking for just such a youngster. He showed Mrs. Stewart photographs of what he said was his home in Bethlehem and gave as references the names of the mayor, postmaster and other officials of that city. Mrs. Stewart was duly impressed and let "Mr. Field" have the boy on a probationary period of three months. She said that if she had not obtained work by that time the adoption would become permanent. Mr. Field was agreeable and took the boy away.

Mrs. Stewart obtained employment before the time was up and began looking for "Mr. Field" only to find he had disappeared. Then began the search for Russell which continued for four years. There were no clues until June 14, when the boy was taken from the furnished room house in New Dorp to the Children's Society. Mrs. Stewart read this in the newspapers and went to Staten Island immediately. She told her story to the authorities but they were incredulous because the boy did not recognize his mother. They insisted Mrs. Stewart produce her husband, whose whereabouts she did not know at the time. Through friends she succeeded, however, in learning where he was employed in Jersey City and he agreed to go to the rooms of the Children's Society with his wife. They brought their marriage certificate, the boy's birth certificate and photographs of Russell which had been taken before he was lost.

The Indoor-Outdoor Club of the Y. W. C. A. held its last outing with Miss C. Littlefield on Saturday afternoon. The girls went to the Imperial show in the afternoon, and later had supper at the recreational centre. In the evening a boat trip to Partridge Island was enjoyed, the girls being shown all the interesting features there. Miss Littlefield leaves this evening for Peterboro.

An automobile registered in the name of Ernest O. Arbo of Pleasant Point collided with a team yesterday afternoon in front of the public depot and threw James O'Connell, driver of the team, to the ground, cutting him about the head and face. His wounds were dressed at the General Public Hospital, after which he proceeded to his home.

The members of the Indoor-Outdoor club of the Y. W. C. A. on Friday evening presented to Miss C. Littlefield, physical instructor, who is leaving for Peterboro, Ont., a handsome traveling clock as a token of their regard. Miss Scott made the presentation. Mrs. John A. McAvity, Mrs. James F. Robertson, Mrs. A. E. Loggie and Mrs. E. C. Weyman, members of the board of directors, were present.

The members of the St. David's church C. G. I. T. camp returned to the city Saturday afternoon, passing on their way the business girls of the church, who were en route to the camp in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reid and Miss Helen MacMurray. The C. G. I. T. camp was in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hay and Miss Jean Somerville. Mrs. Steve Hanson, Miss Harriet MacMurray and Mrs. Pike. The camp was voted a great success by all the girls.

Robert Phillips of Eastmount was struck and knocked down last night about midnight by an automobile in the Marsh road. In some way the car veered towards and struck him, knocking him down. It started away again, but Mr. Phillips' calls attracted the attention of the driver, who turned about and took him to his home. Arrived there, it was decided to take him to the hospital, where, though no bones were found to be broken, it was seen that he was bruised in the back, legs, arm and hand. He will remain there for a few days.

HOW GAMBLING
LEADS TO CRIME

Women as Well as Men are Tempted—But Ontario Shares the Spoils.

Detroit, July 31.—Race-track losses are responsible for the troubles of Gladys Walker, former Ingersoll, Ontario, girl, now of Toronto, she told Judge Heston last week. She never would have been arrested for defrauding a hotel, she said, but for her weakness in yielding to temptation to play horses at Windsor. "I came here from Toronto and stayed at the Fort Shelby Hotel," she admitted. "I bet on the races, and I lost over and over."

"Then just as I reached the end of my money, I was taken sick. I did leave the hotel without settling. But it was circumstances, not any intention of my own, that drove me."

Judge Heston accepted Miss Walker's plea of not guilty and fixed bail at $400, pending a hearing. He is to have left a $20 bill at the Fort Shelby and another bill at the Statler.

Detroit, July 27.—Wesley Wing, thirty-two years old, who gambled on horses and lost, pleaded guilty to uttering and publishing two worthless checks today.

"He lost his job on account of persistent gambling, and pressure of the landlord for back rent and nervous insistence of his wife for money drove him to desperation," said the report of Judge Keldan by the probation officer.

"I played the handbooks in Detroit and lost," Wing told the court. "Then I gambled at the track in Windsor to recover, and lost again."

Judge Keldan, learning that Wing had obtained a job as a pressman, and believing that he would stay away from handbooks and race-tracks in the future, put him on probation again, this time for two years.

Windsor, July 27.—The gambling at Kenilworth Park yesterday was a progressive affair—the fastest crowd held nothing back; it bet more and more on each race.

By the time the bettors had played seven races on the theoretical pari-mutuel machines they had bet $95,607 and lost $84,052—or thirty-five per cent. of the money played.

Of the $95,607 bet, the track took $13,047 for the provincial government $21,005. The gamblers got back only $62,555.

(Toronto Globe.) The going is getting worse for the race-track gamblers around Windsor, and they seem to be awakening to that fact. On Tuesday the total raised at Kenilworth Park was only $88,691, says the Detroit News, whereas $100,000 used to be considered normal.

Out of the $88,691 which the gamblers paid into the pari-mutuel machines they never saw again $22,070, which went in "rake-offs" to the Jockey Club and the Ontario government. In addition to this "sweetening" of $12,070 the gamblers paid $31,109 for admission to the track, making a total loss of $60,149, which, says the Detroit News, "was just as certain before the races started as after."

To make matters still worse for the gamblers the favorable selection of horses on those that did win the odds were so short that the plungers failed to get back enough to recoup them for their losses on the other races.

Tuesday was the seventeenth racing day around Windsor, and in those seventeen days the gamblers lost $619,829 on the pari-mutuel machines alone without counting admission and other expenses. There are still twenty-five more racing days at Windsor this season. Will the gamblers quit, or are they going to stand a loss of over a million dollars?

MAINE SURVEY

Pres. Gulnac Outlines Broad Scope of Work to Determine Possibilities of Development.

(Bangor Commercial.) Broad indeed is the scope of the work laid out for the State Chamber of Commerce by the president, James Q. Gulnac, as outlined at a meeting called by him of the Maine Association of Commercial Secretaries held at the Falmouth hotel in Portland, Tuesday.

Pointing out the fact that Maine has resources as great as any state in the United States, and exceeding those of many states, President Gulnac called attention to the fact that while some of the cities in the state are gaining in population, Maine is losing as a whole. The remedy for this, he argued, as the development of Maine's wonderful resources, and in order to do this he said that it is the thing to do is to make a thorough survey of the state to obtain a true estimate of what Maine has to offer to the person who may be attracted by its farms, its industrial opportunities or its tourist resources.

The work of obtaining this survey will fall upon the secretaries of local Chambers of Commerce or Boards of Trade and in places where neither of these organizations exist, the help of public-spirited men and women will be called on to furnish this data, which will be of inestimable value. The work will require unity of effort and will establish a strong link between the state and local Chambers of Commerce and will serve to get the local Chambers themselves together on a project that will be of equal value to all. Mr. Gulnac said that if it could be shown that it is the desire to get more people into Maine, the state organization is ready to go ahead.

He told of the visit of Immigration Commissioner Husband, who recently came to Portland and assured Mr. Gulnac that he was willing to render all possible assistance in landing people there for the farms of Maine. The thrifty, intelligent people, who make agriculture their occupation and who will recultivate the neglected farms in the state and cause them to bring forth the products which will enrich the state and incidentally each locality, where they should settle.

The survey of Kennebec county and adjacent territory, which is not otherwise taken care of, will be made by the Waterville Chamber of Commerce working in conjunction with the Augusta Chamber of Commerce at the request of President Gulnac. At the close of the survey it is expected that full particulars regarding the agricultural, industrial and tourist resources of Kennebec county will be on file at the Chamber of

Now that I know how to use Rinso
— why it's just splendid.

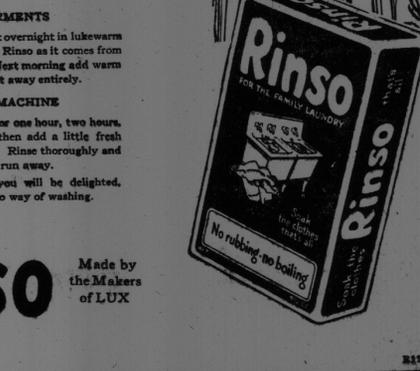

Knowing how to use Rinso correctly means finding workless wash days. It's well worth while. Let us ask—are you making the same mistake as Mrs. Carr?

WHAT WAS MRS. CARR'S MISTAKE?
She forgot that Rinso is not the same as ordinary soap, flakes or washing powders. She did not give Rinso an opportunity to show its wonderful power of washing clothes clean just by soaking. She used to put Rinso direct from the package into the tub without first making the famous Rinso liquid.

THE PROPER WAY TO USE RINSO
Now this is the proper way to use Rinso—for ordinary washing—For each tubful of clothes take half a package of Rinso put in a little cool water and stir until it is in a cream thoroughly dissolved. Add two quarts of boiling water and stir well. When the froth subsides there will be a clear amber coloured liquid. Partly fill your tub with cool or lukewarm water and add the Rinso liquid. Put the clothes in, so that each is covered and soak the things thoroughly overnight. Do not just dip them up and down.

In the morning rinse the clothes until the water runs clear. Only soiled collars and cuff edges may need a slight rubbing with your fingers. No need for washboard or boiler—just wring and dry.

From Mrs. Carr's letter:
I used to say that I had formed a poor opinion of Rinso, but it was all my own fault. I wasn't making the Rinso liquid properly, and I wasn't soaking my clothes enough. Now that I know how to use Rinso—why it's just splendid!

ANNIVERSARY OF YPRES BATTLE

Where 200,000 British Soldiers Died to Hold the Gate to Calais.

Paris, July 31.—(Canadian Press)—The anniversary of the opening of the third battle of Ypres was marked on Saturday by a pilgrimage to Ypres under the auspices of the Ypres League, in which Belgium, France and British delegates participated, says a Reuter despatch from Ypres. The British delegation included the Earl of Ypres (Field Marshal French), Lieut.-Gen. Sir Wm. Pulteney, Major-Gen. Sir John Headlam, and several British ex-soldiers who fought at Ypres.

Addressing the gathering, the Earl of Ypres recalled that the British army occupied Ypres more than four years ago and that 200,000 British soldiers were killed there while holding the gate to Calais and the channel ports.

FRANCE REFUSES

Germany is Given Ten Days in Which to Announce She Will Pay in Full.

Berlin, July 31.—France has rejected Germany's request for a reduction in the monthly payments on the debts contracted by German nationals with allied citizens, prior to the war. The French note gives the German government ten days in which to signify that full payments will be continued in accordance with the London agreement and the decision of the allied clearing house offices; otherwise certain fixed measures will be applied automatically.

A serious view of the French reply is taken here, especially as the note was dispatched on the eve of the conference of allied premiers in London. Germany had asked that the clearing house payments be reduced from two million pounds to five hundred thousand pounds monthly.

It's a Fact!

Somebody (his name was Dave Holtzman — his age 18).

Took a $1000 Endowment Policy for which he undertook to pay

$761.25—spread over a period of 35 years

But the profits, distributed annually, so reduced his premiums that he paid only

$515.24—in actual cash

So that Dave's net results at the age of 33 were—

35 years' protection and $197.67 for each $100. he paid the Company.

BELYEA RETAINS CHAMPIONSHIP

Outgenerals Former Champion Dibble and Makes Second Fastest Time in History of Canadian Henley.

St. Catharines, Ont., July 30.—Hilton Belyea, of St. John, (N. B.), who established his claim to the sculling championship of Canada at Philadelphia when he crossed the line a winner after he had been fouled by R. G. Dibble, of the Don Rowing Club, Toronto.

By a dash at the start and by expending a wonderful amount of energy gathered a lead of at least three lengths on Belyea. He directed his attention to Gilmore, of Philadelphia, and Johnny Durman, of Toronto, who had the two outside courses, and when they began to pull up on the Don oarsman he drew over directly in front of them.

At this point with the same calmness and lack of outward evidence of concern, Belyea's oars seemed to bite the water with some degree of savagery but his motion was unchanged.

Here the customer showed his knowledge of the game. Looking first over his right shoulder in the direction of the grandstand to make sure of his course and then glancing over his left to make sure of Dibble's position, he realized that if the two shells could be brought together on his course it would count as a foul against the former champion.

Instantly he put on a marvelous burst of speed and drove his bow towards Dibble's shell as a well directed torpedo would go after a slowly going vessel. He rammed Dibble's shell then swung his own boat back directly for the line without losing his position well ahead of the other four contestants.

moving picture. The yells of a frantic director robbed the watching crowd of all the thrills of realism. The performance was part of the work of making moving pictures of hold-ups in order to instruct policemen in the proper way to use their guns when chasing crooks.

Commissioner Enright wants the men of the department to get realistic pistol practice, so that when they go after a crook used to a gun the odds will be in favor of the patrolman rather than the crook. At present, it is felt, too many patrolmen miss and are themselves shot.

A RACE OF LIARS That's the Way a "White Paper" Designates the Natives of Togoland. London, July 12.—(Associated Press by Mail)—The natives of Togoland are a race of liars, says an official report on that British mandated sphere in Africa which was taken over from Germany. "The report has just been issued as a 'White Paper'." Togoland was at one time a German colonial possession in West Africa, and has a population of 800,000. "The natives have no letters, arts or sciences," says the report. "Concealment of design is the first element of safety, and this axiom has been consistently carried out for generations; the native character is strongly marked by duplicity. Even in matters of little moment it is rare for them to speak the truth. "They are unstable of purpose, dominated by impulse, unable to realize the

LONDON MAY BECOME A CITY WITHOUT SLUMS
London, July 12.—(A. P. by mail)—Twenty-two of the worst slum areas in London are to be wiped out by the London county council. The work is to be spread over the next ten or twelve years, and the government will assist in it. "When the scheme, which involves nothing less than the clearance of all the slum areas in London, is completed," says Colonel Lewis, chairman of the Housing Committee, "it will have entailed the displacement of some 45,000 people, and an expenditure of many millions of pounds. The main idea is to make London a slumless city. "Such work cannot, of course, be done on a strictly economic basis, but London will benefit greatly by the intensive campaign it is intended to pursue, for better housing all round will mean better health and therefore a happier people."

POWER CLUB ANNUAL SERVICE.
The annual service of the St. John Power Boat Club, which was held at Public Landing yesterday afternoon, was one of the most impressive and largely attended services ever held by the club. Nichols, rector of Westfield, and chaplain to the club.

future and restrain present desire, callously indifferent to suffering in others, but profuse in prostration of affection and good intention, afterwards wofully belied by actions. "The native is attracted irresistibly by noise and uproarious gaiety; he loves music, rhythmic sound and motion, and has a pronounced aversion to silence and solitude, an excessive excitability, and utter lack of reserve. "There are no specific grounds for divorce," continues the report. "The mere disinclination of one of the parties to continue the union being sufficient to warrant its being dissolved. Moral laxness is not unprevailing."

DEATH OF WM. J. BROPHY.
Friends of many years' standing will be sorry to know of the death of William J. Brophy, which occurred yesterday at his home in Glen Falls. When he first came to St. John from Bathurst, a good number of years ago, he was employed as a shipsmith and had to do with vessels well known. Afterwards he was for twenty-three years in charge of the Pugsley building, Canterbury and Princess streets, and enjoyed a widespread acquaintance. He was a man of kindly nature and of high principles and was much esteemed among a wide circle of friends. He is survived by one son, William V., of Glen Falls; one daughter, Mrs. Catherine Walsh, Newton, Mass.; one brother, Michael Brophy, Red Pine, N. B.; and two sisters, Mrs. D. H. Carrigan, Portland, Me., and Mrs. John Lutz, Waterville, Me., and seven grandchildren.

TEAMSTER REPORTED.
The cases of Joseph Arlind, James Bullock, Henry Stackhouse, Eldon Webb, Charles Carpenter and Thomas Short, teamsters, charged with destroying a sidewalk in Mill street, by driving a truck on July 28, was taken up in the police court this morning. Policemen Gibb, said that there was a piece of sidewalk in front of the C. P. R. freight office in Mill street which had been destroyed by teamsters driving over it when there was provision for teams to pass in and out of the railway yards without doing any damage. A piece wide enough for teams had been laid in granite but these men had driven over the edge of the concrete. Commissioner Frink, head of the department of public works, said that the passage for teams was about eight feet wide. A concrete flag about eight feet by six had been destroyed. The desire of the department was that people should keep to the passage provided and to bring this to their attention rather than to exact a fine. He thought six or eight dollars would repair the present damage. On their promise to respect the law in future those charged were allowed to go. William Best, charged with obstructing Prince Edward street by stopping a horse and carriage abreast of another team did not appear.

THE TRACKS IN QUEEN SQUARE

Matter Again Up at City Hall—Question of Coal Company's Use of Street Extension.

At a committee meeting of the common council this morning Commissioner Thornton brought up the matter of the street car tracks running through Queen Square in West St. John. He said the company were not using them, and action should be taken to have them removed. Mayor McLellan said that if the company were not using them they should be torn up. Commissioner Frink explained the attitude of residents in that section and said that if a motion was presented he would bring in a further report dealing with the matter. Commissioner Thornton made the motion, and it passed.

Mayor McLellan then asked the commissioner of public works by what right the Consumers' Coal Company were using Charlotte street extension for screening coal, etc. Commissioner Frink said they had no right to do so; they had authority to use the C. N. R. sidings for hauling and handling coal. He felt that the matter was a case of creating a nuisance and came under the department of the commissioner of public safety.

Commissioner Thornton told of numerous complaints received and of visiting the site. He said he found that citizens' property had been damaged by the company's actions. He had warned the company to desist and informed them that they should make good damage resulting. Commissioner Frink brought in a report from Road Engineer Hatfield regarding a retaining wall in front of the premises of J. H. McGuire at 500-503 Main street. He moved that the report be received and said that the city would not accept any responsibility in the matter. Commissioner Bullock moved that repairs be made to a trestle in front of No. 3 shed in Sand Point. He explained that it was in bad condition, and he did not think it would stand another season's activities. He recommended that the structure be removed at a cost not to exceed $3,000 for work and material, and that the sum be paid out of harbor revenue. The motion carried. A discussion regarding C. P. R. tracks in German street, West St. John, was introduced by Mayor McLellan, who spoke about the old contract expiring in 1918, and which had been extended on account of war activities. He instructed the common clerk to look into the matter and submit the desired information regarding the extension of time granted, etc. Commissioner Bullock presented two tax bills from the county, one for a school on a city lot for $846.44, and one for $2,177 for general purposes. The total increase of these bills over last year was $445.80. He said he had requested the county secretary to furnish details and submit them at an early date.

SPEAKS OF SECOND HYDRO PLEBISCITE

Mayor Says Likely Necessary to Go to People Again

Says Unable Yet to Present Report, Through No Fault of His Own—Commissioners Support Suggestion to Engage Expert in Electrical Matters.

Mayor H. R. McLellan announced at a committee meeting of the common council this morning that his report on hydro was not ready and he was not giving to say just when he would present it as it was unfair to the public and himself to have to announce further delays through no fault of his own. He said that he would hold back for at least forty-eight hours as he felt it was absolutely essential that the public receive an intelligent report. He reiterated his stand taken in the civic election that the N. B. Power Company were not going to get the power but said that he felt it would be necessary again to take the matter to the public and have them deal with the question through a plebiscite.

He presented to the commissioners and the press copies of the contract which is being presented to the city by the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission to read over and become familiar with. He said there were some things in the contract that he would not sign and that some insertions would have to be made for the protection of the city of St. John. He said it might be that the commission would be willing to insert them.

He asked for authority to secure the services of an electrical expert. He said he was doing this on the advice of the city solicitor, who warned him that a great deal of money might be saved or lost in the transactions. He said he had in mind a man who had been employed by the Imperial government, one whose word was above reproach and who was conceded to be of the best. He cited an instance where this engineer had been called in by a corporation, who were planning on a $4,000,000 contract to be completed in three years, and he warned that it would cost $9,000,000 and would take fifteen years to construct. To date $27,000,000 had been expended and twelve years have elapsed.

A motion authorizing the mayor to engage an expert was made by Commissioner Wigmore and was seconded by Commissioner Frink.

Commissioner Thornton asked regarding the cost of securing this expert and was informed by the mayor that it might or might not cost $5,000. He moved that a clause be inserted in the motion that the cost of bringing an expert here should not exceed $5,000. In answer to Commissioner Thornton who wanted to know whether or not the commissioners would be allowed to attend these conferences, the mayor said the expert was to be here to sit with them and render all possible assistance.

BUSTLING AT THE REFINERY WHARF

Eight Steamships There in Week on Sugar Business—Busy in the Harbor.

Unusual activity for the season has been presented around the water front during the last week. In fact, the harbor has been quite as busy as during winter port time, except as regards passenger vessels. The Atlantic sugar refinery is playing a very important part in this activity. Last week eight ships were hauled in to the refinery wharf to unload raw product or load full or part cargoes of the refined sugar for transport to all parts of Europe. Included in last week's list was a vessel which carried away the first shipment of sugar from the local refinery to Scandinavian ports.

Yesterday the Viborg was hauled in to discharge raw sugar. This morning the Britanna arrived with Cuban raw sugar, and the West Nooka, Eastern Leader and Enara arrived to take on part cargoes for England. The Malgache, now discharging fertilizer, will load sugar for Genoa.

In addition to this activity at the refinery there are several other steamers loading lumber, and there is also the usual number of schooners in port. The regular Manchester steamship is in and the West India liner Chaudiere is due tomorrow morning. So that it seems that this week will outstrip last in number of vessels.

Another feature of harbor affairs over the week-end was the arrival, yesterday morning, of the barkentine Maid of England from Turk's Island with a full cargo of salt. She made the run up in the very fast time of thirteen days. She is the first full rigged vessel to enter the port in some time and naturally is attracting much interest along the water front. She presented a beautiful appearance when she arrived off the island yesterday.
