MURDER? ANOTHER GREAT BATTLE BEGINNING NEAR MUKDEN

Man Killed in a Row at Havelock

Slayer's Arrest Ordered by the Attorney General—No Particulars Received.

Attorney General Pugsley received a telegram this morning informing him of the killing of a man in a row at Havelock, Kings county.

The telegram stated that in a fight at that place yesterday afternoon one man had been beaten over the head by heavy instrument in the hands of another, and had received injuries from which he died this morning. The assailant was still at large. No names were given.

The attorney general wired at once to J. M. McIntyre, crown solicitor at Sussex, to have the assailant arrested and lodged in Sussex jail. He also asked for further particulars, but none have arrived up to the hour of going to press.

The Star's correspondent at Sussex can furnish no particulars of the murder, and as the telephone wires between here and Sussex are not working today no communication can be had direct with Havelock.

LATER.
PETTICODIAC, Sept. 17.—It is reported here that in a row at Havelock, last night, William C. McKnight, of that place was killed by Oscar J. Wright. No particulars are now obtainable.

LATEST.

FREE BAPTIST CONFERENCE

Report Shows Falling Off in Membership and Baptisms but Contributions Were Increased.

TRACY, Sept. 16.—At this afternoon's session of the Free Baptist conference Rev. Dr. McLeod, corresponding secretary, presented his annual report to the meeting on the state of the denomination.

The report was not as complete as he had desired but was as full and accurate as it could be made from the data furnished by the churches and ministers. This year one hundred and ten churches sent reports to the district meetings. Out of the one hundred and ten churches, fourteen having reported since the district meeting.

The churches were grouped in 28 pastorate, having from one to six churches each. One hundred of the reported churches had more or less pastoral care, the others, occasional preaching only. The membership of the reported church was 9,056. The additions in the year had been 234, the net gain being 47. There had been revivals in 34 churches. The number baptized in the year was 156.

During the year four new churches had been built and two parsonages. The financial showing of the churches was better than last year, but a large number of the churches appeared to wholly neglect many of the interests which appealed to them for support. The churches that had contributed nothing this year to home missions were 103; to foreign missions 88; to students' fund, 50; to W. M. Society, 88.

Some of the differences between the reports of last year and this year were as follows:

	1903.	1904.
Churches reported	112	124
Members of reported churches	9,113	9,056
Revivals	29	34
Baptisms	256	156
Net increase	113	47
Money reported, 1903, $29,725.44; 1904, $30,854.38.

Japanese Approaching Russians From Three Directions—Outposts Are Already Fighting

Attack on Port Arthur Increases

MUKDEN, Sept. 17.—The Japanese are reported to be advancing on both flanks from the east, southeast and southwest. The outposts are closely engaged twenty miles southeastward, there being almost constant skirmishing. Indications point to another great battle in the vicinity of Mukden. Russian troops occupy all the surrounding villages. Refugees are flocking into the city. Chinese among them complain of severity on the part of the Japanese.

GENERAL KUROKI'S HEADQUARTERS IN THE FIELD. Sept. 14, via Fusan, Korea, Sept. 17.—The Japanese front is now moving north of Liao Yang almost half way to Mukden and confronting General Kuropatkin's outposts.

LYING IN WAIT FOR BALISTIC FLEET.
NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—A special cable despatch to the Sun from Aberdeen, Scotland, dated Sept. 16, says: "A passenger who arrived today on board the coasting steamship Hogarth, reports that two Japanese officers and nine sailors came on board the vessel from London. As soon as they arrived at Aberdeen they jumped into a small boat and proceeded at once to a mysterious, low-lying craft in the offing, evidently a torpedo boat, which, according to the man steamed seaward, it is believed here that the intention is for the Japanese to lie in wait for the British fleet."

ATTACK ON PORT ARTHUR INCREASING.
ONE FOE, Sept. 17.—A p. m.—A Japanese who arrived here today reports that the citizens of Dairen, on Sept. 15, saw the general attack upon Port Arthur would be renewed upon the following day. He has reliable information to the effect that the Japanese are working at Hihungshan and Kikwanshan were completed on Sept. 15. Both Chinese and Japanese recent reports agree that the bombardment of Port Arthur became terrific at dawn of Sept. 15 and continued until the evening of Sept. 16. The shells fell with great frequency in the Chinese new town. Five hundred cavalrymen who attempted to drive the Japanese from Falingshan have not returned and it is believed that the fortress there has been captured.

SAN FRANCISCO. Sept. 17.—The Chronicle today says: From a reliable source it has been learned that the Zeon was not alone in her wanderings in the eastern Pacific Ocean, and it is stated, with authority, that somewhere east of a line drawn from the Hawaiian Islands to Unalaska, in the Aleutian chain, at least two of the czar's cruisers are roaming the seas and are at any time to seek the safe haven found by the Lena by Sunday.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH.
ST. STEPHEN, N. B., Sept. 17.—At nine o'clock Officer Pierce was called out to King street to take charge of a man who was tottering about houses that neighborhood. On the way to the lock-up the man seemed feeble, but gave no explanation of his condition. About half past twelve officers Pierce visited the lock-up and found the man dead. Coroner Lawson will hold an inquest this afternoon. The man was a stranger, but cards found on him indicate that the body is that of Samuel Dennison, aged thirty-nine, member of Union Thirty-three of Boston, of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, and also of Atlantic Coast Seaman's Union of Boston. He wore a blue shirt, black pants, coat and vest of mixed goods and a blue cap.

LIQUOR LAW VIOLATIONS.
Attorney General Says He Knows Nothing of Complaint Against Inspector Jones.

The report gained currency this morning that Inspector John B. Jones, was to be called before an investigating commission by the government to answer charges of dereliction of duty in failing to report a city hotel for violating the liquor law. The inspector is said to have entered the bar of the hotel after hours and to have discovered a number of men freely indulging in the choice beverages of the place. No action has been taken by the inspector and hence the rumor that he was to be preferred against them. Attorney General Pugsley was said to have the matter in hand.

The attorney general who has seen this morning disavowed any knowledge whatever of the affair. He said that there was no foundation at all for the rumor that he was conducting an investigation.

Inspector Jones when questioned about the matter, would have nothing to say, save that the matter was out of his hands.

JOHN JOHNSON RUNS AMUCK

F. G. Spencer has worked hard to secure special attractions for the exhibition and considered it a master stroke when he got a contract signed by the great Spanish lion tamer last night for a number. Mr. Spencer was under the impression that one of the lions had got loose on King street east, but in this he was mistaken as it was only one John Johnson who does business on Water street, who had cut loose and was smashing things right and left. Johnson undertook to run things about King street east, about eleven o'clock. He first started in to beat P. S. Walker and while chasing that gentleman met Mr. Spencer and without warning struck him. He attacked several others and then Officer Crawford took a hand. No one wanted to prosecute and so the policeman put Johnson in bed. It was not long however, before the officer was again called to the house. Johnson had assaulted his wife, blackening one eye and cutting her nose. She asked the officer to lock her husband up and after a hard tussle Crawford placed his man behind the bars. Mrs. Johnson did not appear in court this morning, which, of course, meant that she was not prosecuted and Mr. Johnson was released.

Mary Jane Toner was the only occupant of the bench and she pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness but pleaded that as she had not been arrested for some years that she be allowed to go. Her request was granted.

ABOUT THOSE PICTURES.
Tourist Association and Mr. Cohen Cannot Find Each Other.

The officials of the Board of Trade and Tourist Association are surprised at the statements made by Meyer Cohen, of the Vitagraph Picture Co., that they have not exhibited any desire to assist him in the taking of pictures of local scenes for exhibition throughout the United States. The secretary of the Tourist Association showed the Star this morning the copy of a letter written in July last telling Mr. Cohen that they would be pleased to co-operate with him and asking when a meeting could be arranged. A copy of Mr. Cohen's letter in reply was also shown the reporter. Mr. Cohen fixed a date when he would be in the city and promised to call at the office of the association.

Learning that Mr. Cohen was in the city the secretary of the Tourist Association has endeavored to make an appointment with Mr. Cohen but up to noon had been unsuccessful.

AT THE EXHIBITION.
All the booths are well under way. Many present a more attractive appearance and are of a more substantial kind than have been seen at previous exhibitions. The booth of Dunlop, Cook & Co., furriers, occupies the most prominent position in the main building, and is undoubtedly the finest ever seen at a maritime exhibition. The dome-shaped roof, brilliantly illuminated with hundreds of lights, makes a splendid effect, while the sides are all of plate glass, with plaques of white and gold in relief. The space occupied is 20 by 40 feet.

John Shoen, who arranged the firm's Winnipeg exhibit, which, according to Winnipeg papers and maritime practice visitors, outclasses all the other fur exhibits from Quebec and Toronto, arrived today and will be present during the exhibition. W. T. Wallace, who will be in charge of the firm's St. John business, is also here. This exhibit will undoubtedly be one of the big attractions of the exhibition. A fine display of the firm's is always interesting, especially to the ladies.

A TIP FOR HALIFAX.
The Halifax Echo a few days ago published the following: Conductor "Pete" Lefebvre, of the C. P. R., who runs between St. John and Megantic, and who has been doing the exhibition here, is a hammer thrower and caber tosser of some note. Conductor Lefebvre was surprised that there were no games at the fair, as he thinks properly arranged they could be made a great feature. He suggested a set of Scottish games for next year's programme with such events as would bring out the best Nova Scotia athletes against those from other places.

MORE LIBERAL DISCORD.
H. A. McKeown and a number of the Liberal ward chairmen had a little confidential chat upon the political situation at the ex-solicitor general's office last evening. This proceeding on the part of Mr. McKeown does not, it appears, meet with the unqualified approval of the Liberal executive, who think that Mr. McKeown should keep quiet until he is selected as a standard bearer.

TOO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION.
LOST—On Sept. 9th, between Carleton and Board of Health office, one gold cuff-link. Finder will please leave at this office.

THIBET TREATY IS SIGNED.

Important Commissions in Favor of Britain.

Country Must be Opened for Trade and Tibetans Must Pay $2,500,000 Indemnity.

LONDON, Sept. 17.—The Times correspondent gives at great length the text of the draft of the treaty between Tibet and Great Britain, which has been sent to Pekin by Amban (the Chinese representative) Ihsau, and which the correspondent believes to be practically identical with the treaty actually signed which China is almost certain to ratify. It contains a preamble and ten articles, the most important of which bind the Tibetans to establish three ports for mutual trading between British and Tibetan merchants and to allow traffic along existing routes and others which may be opened in future between India and Tibet. Tibet is to pay an indemnity of $2,500,000 in yearly instalments. It is stipulated as security for the performance of the conditions of the treaty that British troops shall occupy the Chumtai Valley for three years and until the indemnity is paid. One article provides that without Great Britain's consent no Tibetan territory shall be sold or leased to any foreign power and no foreign power shall be permitted to concern itself with the affairs of Tibet or to construct roads, railways or telegraphs, or open mines in the country.

ANOTHER WOOD ALCOHOL VICTIM

James Ashton of Sussex Was Killed Yesterday by Drinking the Poisonous Stuff.

SUSSEX, N. B., Sept. 16.—At noon today as Samuel Fress was in Walper's blacksmith shop, he heard groans proceeding from the upper floor used as a work room by James Ashton, painter.

On investigation, Ashton was found in a comatose condition, and Dr. L. R. Murray, on arrival, pronounced him suffering from the effects of drinking wood alcohol.

All efforts at resuscitation proved useless and the unfortunate man died at three o'clock.

He was forty-four years of age, and has resided here during the greater part of his life. He was unmarried.

ADGIE AND HER LIONS.

Senorita Costello, who is better known as Adgie, the famous woman lion tamer and trainer, arrived this morning from Montreal with her troupe of lions. At the train she was met by F. G. Spencer.

Speaking to a Star reporter, she said that practically from her girlhood she has been with lions. She has taken her life in her hands many a time, but her knowledge of the moods and caprices of the big brutes has always helped her from dangerous situations. Numerous times she has been bruised and scratched, but one who plays with such clumsy and dangerous companions must put up with a certain amount of rough treatment.

Adgie has five lions altogether, two of them being at the Chicago "Zoo." Two of the animals she brings with her are lionesses, and these are beautiful brutes. "Prince," the lion, looks a veritable king of beasts.

After Adgie's engagement here is concluded, she will go to New York, whence she begins an American tour. Adgie speaks perfect English and is a most entertaining conversationalist. She is accompanied by a keeper.

EXHIBITIONS IN ST. JOHN

HALF A CENTURY AGO.

The First Show Was Held In 1851 In Mechanics Institute—Great Development Since.

Fifty-three years ago the first exhibition ever held in this city took place. Needless to say, it was not on such a large scale as the fair that is to be opened today, but it nevertheless meant as much to the people of this community as does the present International Exhibition. When the exhibition of 1851 was opened, there was not the demand, then, as at present, for entertainment. The public were well pleased to see a display of manufactures of the province without asking for high driven and lion taming. Gradually the condition of affairs has changed, so that today it is the amusement of the enterprise that draws the people and not the exhibit of the stock breeder. This is something that the management of exhibitions of today may not care to admit, but that they realize it is shown by the large expenditure made to secure attractive side shows.

St. John's first exhibition was suggested by the big exhibition held in London, England, the buildings for which were designed by a famous architect named Parsons. A few members of the directorate of the Mechanics Institute conceived the idea and in the face of much criticism held a mechanical and industrial fair. The main building was the present York Theatre, then the Mechanics Institute, and but a few years old. In addition a large building was erected that crossed the street and covered a large portion of the lot on which now stands the Calvin Presbyterian church. This building, which has a glass roof, was erected under the direction and from plans made by an architect named Scott.

When the plans were first made they were submitted to a number of gentlemen who met in the office of the gentleman who was later chief justice of Canada. With Mr. Ritchie at that time was associated W. P. Dole, who on that occasion made a run that to this day he is proud of. Mr. Dole asked the question why it was that St. John had not had an exhibition of the kind to get the man that designed the plans for the London exhibition to make the plans for the St. John building. The answer was because St. John had a better man in St. John.

At this first show all the various New Brunswick manufacturers made good exhibits. There was no display of live stock and no amusements such as we have at the present time. It was purely an industrial fair and the Mechanics Institute people were given great credit for having achieved. To erect the building referred to was found necessary to close up the street. The site on which stands the present church was at that time a centre for

SMITH UNSEATED.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Sept. 16.—The trial of the petition against the election of C. N. Smith, the liberal member of the Ontario legislature, in progress here since Tuesday, closed tonight. Chancellor Boyd declared the seat vacant and costs to be paid by respondent. The main charge which led to this decision was the celebrated trip of the steamer Jimmie M. to Michipicoten with a party of persons.

The cross petition against Campbell, conservative candidate, was dismissed without costs.

REMARKABLE DISCOVERIES.

(London Chronicle.)
A German traveller claims to have discovered in the forests of Borneo a people who still wear the tail of our primitive ancestors. He does not write from hearsay, he has seen the tail. It belonged to a child about six years old, sprung from the tribe of Pongas. As nobody could speak the Pongas tongue the youngster could not be questioned, but there was his tail sure enough, and about the thickness of one's little finger. The Pongas are reported to be a very honest folk, with a childlike system of barter. They deposit in public places the goods they wish to exchange, and a few days later they find there the equivalents they desire. Nobody dreams of stealing. This is almost as remarkable as the vestige of the ancestral tail.

FREDERICTON NEWS.

FREDERICTON, Sept. 16.—A telegram this morning brought the sad news of the death of Chas. W. Buzell, which occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Reeves, Bradford, Me. Mr. Buzell's death was not unexpected, as it was well known that he had been in a precarious state of health for some time past, and a few days ago the intelligence reached the city that the doctors had abandoned all hopes of recovery. The deceased, who was about seventy years of age, came to Fredericton some years ago and established a dye works business, in which line he was most successful. He was a prominent member of several secret societies, including the Masons, Odd-fellows and Orangemen. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Atwood Reeves of Bradford and Mrs. T. H. Fowler of this city. The remains will be interred at Bradford, beside those of the late Mrs. Buzell.

THE USUAL WAY.

A visitor to the city yesterday from Halifax related a funny incident in connection with the big fire which occurred in that city on Thursday last. He said he was standing opposite a building in which he saw a gentleman busy collecting some of his goods to be removed from his apartments. Finally the man, who was very much excited, packed some dishes in a box and down stairs went to a window, broke out the glass, yelling to the crowd "Look out there, there the whole thing to the sidewalk. The bystanders laughed.

APPROVAL FROM PORTLAND.

Another warm supporter of the Canadian government's action in permitting the purchase of the Canada Atlantic by the Grand Trunk is the Portland Press, published at Portland, Me. In the eyes of this intelligent and patriotic journal, the Grand Trunk Pacific policy has naturally found favor since its inception and many and forcible have been its condemnations of any Conservative attempts to have Canadian traffic diverted from its natural place of export, Portland, Me. This latest evidence of liberal friendliness for its native city moves the Press again to sneer at the "wild dreams," as it calls them, of those foolish Tories who "don't care a fig for dividends or distance, but for vainglory, falsely called patriotism," assert that Canadian traffic should run through Canadian instead of through American channels and be exported from a Canadian instead of an American port.

"Now," says the Press, referring to the Canada Atlantic, "there is no doubt that the purchase—the deal has already been made by Manager Hays and will be ratified by the bondholders at the coming meeting—means much to Portland. It is a well built and equipped line, running from opposite Montreal by easy grades and a straight line 468 miles to Depot Harbor on Georgian Bay. It is the shortest line between Montreal to the great upper lakes, but it has no deep-sea terminals and has to depend on connecting roads for trunk line traffic. It does a large grain hauling business from Depot Harbor, where it has elevators and wharves, and also does an immense lumber traffic. In fact that was one of the primary purposes of extending the line from Ottawa up into the region of the great northern woods. One of the chief owners of the Canada Atlantic, and the agent of the sale to the Grand Trunk, is the Canadian lumber king, J. R. Booth, the greatest owner of standing white pine in the world. These facts show the importance of adding this great feeder to the Grand Trunk system, and the natural conjecture is that eventually it will become a link in the Grand Trunk Pacific."

The Press fits the only opponents of this sensible scheme come from a party "which is bitterly hostile to the Grand Trunk" and which is possessed with some insane plan for the building of a government road from ocean to ocean to actually be run in the interests of the whole Canadian people instead of the Grand Trunk Railway, and for the benefit of St. John, Halifax and other Canadian ports instead of Portland, Me. "It is possible," the Press loftily concedes, "that a majority of the electorate will be captivated by these wild dreams, but we will wait to see it before believing. Provincial pride and envy may go to great lengths, but business is business. Popular governments are not so well fitted to run railroads as private corporations are. Nor will any amount of dislike of the Yankee bring St. John and Halifax a mile nearer Montreal, overcome the natural advantages of Portland or alter the fact that the straight line is the shortest distance between two points. Commerce seeks its natural channels, and unless Canada does incredibly foolish things a large part of the winter trade of Canada must continue to seek its natural outlet at Portland."

If the coming elections were to be decided by the vote of Portland, Me., it is very evident that any opponents of the present government would stand a poor show indeed.

THE RIGHT TONE.

An agreeable relief from the perpetual appeals of the Laurier organs of Quebec to the race feeling is the language of La Patrie of Montreal. Mr. Tarte's paper points out that in former times certain Ontario Tories spoke severely and unjustly of the French-Canadians, and that at other times the leading Ontario liberals were still more intolerant. "No popery, no French nomination" was the programme of Mr. Brown, who was for a long time the directing mind of the Ontario liberals. Mr. Tarte refers to these old controversies and observes: "Mr. Laurier cannot legitimately be held responsible for the past of Mr. Brown, although he has walked all his life in the liberal ranks." "Mr. Brown should not be held responsible for the acts of men who have gone to the tomb, or who no longer play an active role on the political scene."

"French-Canadians have no interest in raising these race questions. They have everything to lose by the adoption of such tactics." "We will be more and more a minority in the land. Let us do nothing which will stir up bitterness against our fellow-citizens of an origin different from ours. Let us firmly defend our rights. Let us stop at that. Let us not provoke any one."

"The policy and personality of Sir Wilfrid Laurier should be defended by their intrinsic value, without the necessity of having recourse to appeals to prejudice."

"For our own part, we are happy to declare strongly that at this moment we have not in the ranks of either party any group or even any individual public men who are animated with hostile intentions toward our province or our race."—Sun.

THE EXHIBITION.

The Exhibition Association and Manager Hubbard and his assistants have done their part toward making the exhibition a success and they have done it unprecedently well. Never was the work so far advanced before the opening day, never was there a better list of exhibits and never a more attractive and cleaner list of amusements. And the whole show has been well advertised. It should, with this preparation, be a great success and undoubtedly, if the weather man is not too unpropitious and if the citizens of St. John themselves are not neglectful, it will be.

But if St. John people treat the fair with indifference no amount of increased attendance, from outside or home, can compensate. So, you people, who have any care for your town's credit, boom the show. It's a good show. Talk it up, write about it to your friends and, above all, go yourself, go every day and help swell the receipts and the number of admissions to figures that will make all other records look like the Grit majority after the election last February. If you don't the city, and you as a citizen, will suffer.

The Gazette impressively assures the Star that "neither the attorney general nor his friends have any desire or intention that he should take Mr. Emmerson's place." That is quite possible. But all of us who know and appreciate the noble nature of the attorney general feel sure that should his beloved party—the Liberal party—present—should he be a member of the cabinet of federal office, he will not allow the desires or intentions of himself or his friends to stand in the way of his manifest duty.

Speaking of Mr. Emmerson, the St. John Gazette says: "That gentleman, since he has become minister of railways, has so satisfactorily performed the duties of his position that he has greatly strengthened himself with the people of this province." Considering the result of the recent test of Mr. Emmerson's growing strength in this constituency, the remark quoted above is either ironical—which, under the circumstances is cruel—or it is foolish.

QUALIFIED.

I love to see my friend succeed; I love to praise him; yes, indeed! And so, no doubt, do you. But will you tell me why it is I praise him? Is it because he is so often gone away, and ends by running in the rut of "if," "except" or "but?"

"Boys is a clever chap. His trade is doubling yearly, as he's a 'but.' A fortune all right, but —" "Sharp is elected. Well, I say! He'll hit a right mark yet, some day. If —" (there one eye is shut).

"Such acting! why, I laughed and wept!" "Fob's act is great — except."

"Miss Haughton has such queenly grace. And then her figure and all I could! And she never said a 'but.' I would that some would value me. And never hint that I would be 'if.' But why can't I? Tut, eternal justice still is kept. And Heaven is just — except!" —Edmund Vance Cooke.

A LITTLE FIRE.

A slight fire which caused a lot of excitement occurred between three and four o'clock yesterday afternoon. It seems that a spark from the pile driver landed on the sill of an upper window in the building at the end of North wharf, owned by the Dominion Coal Co., and occupied as a warehouse by the St. John Mercantile Co., and as offices by J. A. Likely and others. The flames got into the side of the sack and spread rapidly. A still alarm was sent in, and a few minutes later Chief Kerr pulled the hook on box 8. The department responded promptly, and very soon the fire was out. The wind blowing briskly at the time and a large crowd gathered in expectation of a much larger fire. The tug Lord Roberts assisted the firemen in their work. The damage was slight, that to the stock being covered by policies with the London Assurance Corporation.

How was laid down North wharf and over it several heavy teams were driven. The fire wagons had no protectors with them, as it is alleged that these pieces of equipment are too heavy to be carried about. The names of several teamsters who drove over the hose were taken, but it is not probable that any further steps will be taken.

Mrs. Hix — Did I understand you to say that Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Homer were bosom friends?

Mrs. Dix — Mercy, no! I said they were next door neighbors.

WANT TO CALL A MEETING.

Ministers Think Some Notice Should be Taken of the Peace Congress.

Several of the city clergymen met yesterday in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. to discuss the question of holding a public meeting in this city for the purpose of endorsing the peace conference which will shortly be held in Boston. Rev. W. C. Gaylor occupied the chair and there were present Rev. G. M. Young, Rev. A. B. Cohoe, Rev. Percy J. Stackhouse, Rev. Dr. Fotheringham, Rev. Mr. Appel and Rev. Mr. Nicholson.

Rev. Mr. Appel was elected secretary. Mr. Walker said that he was in favor of such a meeting being held. He would suggest that the meeting be held in the York Theatre, say the last Sunday afternoon of this month. There were a large number of people in this city who were so active and busy that they felt they had no time to bother with this question, but those were the people who services he wished to see, and simply because they were active. He recommended that a memorial be drawn up setting forth the views of the people and sympathizing with the Boston peace congress.

Rev. Dr. Fotheringham moved, seconded by Rev. A. B. Cohoe, that a committee be appointed to wait on the mayor asking him to call a public meeting.

Rev. Mr. Appel, Rev. Mr. Walker and Father Gaylor are the members of the committee.

Considerable discussion took place as to the time when and the place where the proposed meeting should take place. Some of the ministers were strongly in favor of holding it on Sunday afternoon after the Sunday school, but this plan met with some opposition.

DALHOUSIE CONVOCATION.

Seven Graduates Have Obtained Good Positions.

The autumn convocation of Dalhousie College was held Wednesday. In his opening remarks President Forrest referred in feeling terms to the sad death, since the spring convocation, of James Malcolm and W. D. Ross, former Dalhousie students.

The principal gave a list of honors that have been won by graduates of Dalhousie during the last summer. The following seven Dalhousians have been appointed to professorships or instructorships:

Dr. T. C. McKay, instructor in physics in the University of California; Dr. James Barnes, instructor in physics in Johns Hopkins University; Dr. E. H. Archibald, assistant professor of chemistry in the University of Syracuse.

Stewart McDonald, professor of philosophy in the University of New Brunswick.

The Mr. Ross whose death is referred to above was a P. E. Island boy and was drowned in Vancouver last spring.

WILL BE NO CHURCH PARADE.

Many militiamen regret that there will be no church parade this year. They feel that it is an event which should not be neglected, and the parade taken in it is a much more lively nature than is generally supposed. Not for over twenty years has the annual Sunday parade been missed, but this season is now too far advanced for the turnout. Before the Sussex camp some of the officers suggested that the parade be held then, but to this others would not agree, preferring to hold it later when camp was on at Port Dufferin. But when this time came there were others who were not ready, and as no order was issued the matter was allowed to drop. Now the uniforms have about all been returned to stores and the parade will not likely be held at all.

Many of the men who want it to take place on the Sunday following exhibition.

HARVEST EXCURSION TODAY.

A harvest excursion will leave this evening on the regular Montreal express for Winnipeg and the wheat fields. The purpose of this excursion is to take prospective settlers to the wheat fields and let them see the land, the crops and the general physical features of the country. In this way many people are induced to take up land and move west. The price of the tickets is $30 to Winnipeg and return. They are good for two months.

THE FIRST MOOSE.

Frank Bunker of Tracey, a hunter of some note, has landed the first moose of the season. He shot him on the bank of the Gromoto about ten o'clock yesterday morning. The moose is an unusually large animal, weighing when dressed over 600 pounds. The conference delegates at Tracey surveyed him with longing eyes last evening as he lay on the station platform waiting to be shipped to Thomas Dean, St. John.

MR. RUSSELL THANKED.

The quarterly board of Centenary church met last evening. The report of the stewards for the last quarter was received, and the board passed the estimates for the coming year. The board expressed their appreciation of David Russell's generosity in sending such a large quantity of flour to St. John and a resolution was passed thanking Mr. Russell for his kindness.

THE LAP OF LUXURY.

How It Is Made Soft to the Favored Few.—By RENE BACHE.
(On Saturday Evening Post.)

Luxury grows by what it feeds upon. Its appetite is insatiable, and in these modern days, when fortunes are becoming so enormous that the owners find it difficult to spend their incomes, many people make a handsome living by inventing new methods of spending money. Whether it be in the way of dress, of equipage, of household decoration, of supplies for the table, or what not, the urgent requirement is for something novel and expensive. Cost is not considered, except as an enhancement of whatever may seem desirable. Indeed, the more costly a thing is, the better. If only for the reason that an extravagant price puts it out of reach of the ordinary, whose possession of it would render it commonplace, if not vulgar.

The stranger in New York gazes with much interest and not a little awe upon one or more huge hostleries which are on a scale that seems to touch the topmost point of imaginable gorgeousness. Ordinary adjectives are not adequate to describe them, and to call them palatial would be to use a grossly insufficient term. In respect to luxury, nothing conceivable appears to be omitted, and at all hours their lobbies, reception-rooms and banquet-halls are thronged by well-dressed and well-bred people, who must have plenty of money to pay the prices charged.

WHEN RENT DAY COMES AROUND.

In point of luxuriosity these new hotels are as far ahead of the great caravansaries (which half a dozen years ago, represented the "top notch") as the latter were beyond anything that preceded them. On a comparatively small scale, with accommodations for only two hundred or three hundred guests, their prices are such as might appal anybody of moderate purse. In fact, they seek the patronage only of the very rich—of people, that is to say, who have a great deal of money to spend and are willing to spend it.

Now at the point of completion, on an uptown corner, is a hostelry which, for the moment, touches the high-water mark, so to speak, of elegance and expensiveness. It is not an apartment house, mind you, but an inn, with three hundred rooms. It contains furniture that cost a million and a half of dollars and its capacity is reckoned by its proprietors at only two hundred guests—exclusively adults. Under no circumstances will a child be admitted to its spacious and expensively-decorated precincts.

The principal reason for the rule excluding children, is that they are a menace to the expensive furnishings. A small and thoughtless boy might do thousands of dollars worth of damage in a few minutes—a possibility easy to realize when walls are covered with satin damask in lieu of paper, at $17.50 a yard, and when the sofas, chairs and tables in a single room represent an expenditure of $4,000 to $5,000.

A man and his wife, a near-by apartment house on Fifth Avenue, pay $16,000 a year for nine rooms, and (having a long lease) recently spent $6,000 in decorating the walls and ceilings. This, he it understood, is without a stick of furniture, and with no provision for meals. You can rent one of the best three-room suites in the same establishment, unfurnished, for $4,000 per annum.

Fifteen thousand dollars a year is today about the maximum rental for an unfurnished apartment in New York, but furnished rooms run much higher. At the new child-excluding hotel, already spoken of, $12,500 is the price for a sitting-room, two bedrooms and two baths. For a suite of five rooms, with two baths, you must pay from $100 to $150 a day, but by the year you may get it for $20,000 to $25,000. $700 a week is a pretty reasonable transient rate for such an apartment—not, of course, to include meals.

Now, if there be wonder how such sums as these, while no mention is made of the cost of the furniture and china, could be spent on the furnishing of an apartment, let it be realized that the wall-covering for a moderate-sized room, of silk or brocade satin at $17.50 a yard, may easily cost $400 or $500. Add to this $300 a window for curtains, with $200 a door for portiers, and you have only a beginning. A furniture set of Circassian walnut will come to $2,000, uncarved, and will touch $4,000 when finished with fabric to correspond to the walls. It is absolutely necessary that the sofas and chairs shall match the wall-covers, and, if the latter happen to be handloom silk tapestry, at $40 a yard, the outfit is liable to run up to $10,000.

This is for one room, mark you. Occasionally the walls are covered with hand-embroidered silk or satin, made in Paris, which may cost $90 or more a yard, and the same material must adorn the furniture, which, for a reception-room, may comprise a "canape," two "marquise" chairs, a couple of "duchess" chairs, a pair of light gilt chairs, a table, an overstuffed sofa, and three or four other articles. The canape is something like a sofa, and yet not quite the same. Relatively to the purpose for which it is intended, the distinction between a sofa and a canape is the difference between the thing that isn't the thing and the thing that is. Does the writer make himself perfectly clear? As for the "duchess" and "marquise" chairs, they are simply arm-chairs of fashionable patterns, nearly broad enough for two.

One rather striking fact relating to the subject here discussed is that whereas, a dozen years ago, an allowance of one servant to every three persons entertained at a first-class hotel was considered adequate, today the ratio is inverted, and the servants for each patron are deemed requisite. The new inn uptown, already spoken of, which expects to accommodate only two hundred people, will have seventy-five cooks and assistants in its kitchen, not counting waiters. Each male guest will command the services of a valet, who will press his clothes, help him to dress, and assist him at the bath. For the women similar duties will be performed by neat and competent maids.

In the up-to-date hotel or apartment house the problems incidental to ordinary homes disappear. There is no servant question. The table supplies itself, and meals are served in the rooms if desired. Food costs from $10 to $30 a day for each person, excluding wines, but, with the admirable service

FREE BAPTISTS

Approve of the Amended Basis of Union.

Ministerial Session Adopted Resolution Favoring It, by Vote of 29 to 7.

TRACY'S, Sept. 16.—The ministerial session of the Free Baptist conference opened this morning at nine o'clock with a full attendance. After preliminaries, Rev. David Long of St. John, was elected moderator of the conference, with Rev. B. N. Nobles of Sussex, assistant moderator. Rev. F. C. Hartley, secretary, having resigned on account of leaving the province, Rev. A. J. Prosser, the new pastor of Waterloo street church, was elected secretary.

A resolution was submitted to the effect that the amended basis of Baptist union is acceptable. This drew forth a lengthy discussion. During the earlier part of the day it seemed as though the union movement would be defeated, as many of the older men were opposed to it. But after the matter had been most clearly explained some of these overcame their objections and on the vote being taken the motion was carried, 29 to 7.

Rev. J. C. Wilson of Gibson, preached this evening at seven o'clock. The Sunday appointments for St. John are:

Victoria street, Rev. D. Long. Waterloo street, Rev. Mr. Ferguson, of Maryville.

LONDON, Ont., Sept. 16.—Borden arrived here at noon today from St. Thomas, and was met at the station by a large number of leading citizens of London, headed by Mayor Garthshore of the board of directors of the London exhibition, Sir John Carling, ex-mayor Beck and Senator Carling. has captured the approval of the people. The dealers of Berwick are delighted with the reports received from their customers and say that never before have they heard more general approval of a flour. This is what some of the Berwick people think of it.

MRS. F. ANDREWS says:

"Royal Household" is just about as good as any flour could be; it requires less kneading than other Manitoba flour, and is therefore easier to work.

MRS. JOHN E. WOODWORTH says:

"I recently tried 'Royal Household' flour for pastry with most excellent results. As a bread maker I find it requires much less kneading than other Manitoba flour."

MRS. S. CREIGHTON says:

We have had three barrels of "Royal Household" flour and have found that it makes excellent bread. It is the easiest flour to work with and in my opinion the best Manitoba flour we have used.

MRS. WILLIAM HIBBERT says:

"I can unhesitatingly recommend 'Royal Household' flour as a bread maker and for other baking purposes."

GUY C. DUNN

Appointed District Engineer

For G. T. P. in New Brunswick.

OTTAWA, Sept. 16.—Guy C. Dunn, C. E., was today appointed by the national transcontinental railway commission acting district engineer for district "A," which covers the province of New Brunswick from Moncton to the Quebec boundary line. He will leave on Monday for New Brunswick. The engineers in charge, transmission, levelers, roadmen and chainmen of the ten parties he will control in New Brunswick, have all been selected, and they will proceed to their different sections and commence work as soon as their supplies and outfits can be got there, which will probably be the latter part of next week.

The surveys made will be preliminary lines and the commission will thereby investigate the relative merits of the two routes from Grand Falls to Chipman, namely one via the St. John River Valley and the other across country, via Plaster Rock and Boiestown, in order that the best selection of route may be made.

COOKE-BLACKLEY CASE.

Montreal People Indignant at Recent Turn of the Affair.

MONTREAL, Sept. 16.—Much indignation has been aroused in commercial circles by the announcement that Judges Curran and Laverne have been appointed to review the evidence in the Cooke-Blackley case. It will be remembered that Blackley, who resides in Toronto, made the accusation that justice in the province of Quebec could be bought and sold, at the same time intimating that the person responsible for this position of affairs was Crown Prosecutor Cooke. Cooke was ordered by the attorney general to sue Blackley for libel, and the case came up for trial at the spring term, court of King's bench. The evidence was all in, and Judge Wurtelle was preparing to deliver the charge when he was taken ill, dying a few days later. Since then Blackley's friends have been agitating to get the trial taken up again, and a few days ago succeeded in having it fixed for the last case of the present term. Now that it has been referred to the judges it will be removed from list. People are of the opinion that the attorney general should have allowed the law to run its normal course.

NO CAUSE FOR ALARM (Chicago News). "According to the statements in this paper," said the Cheerful Idiot, "there is no occasion to worry about race suicide." "What does the paper say?" queried the scanty-haired bachelor. "It says that the stock can go 500 miles an hour and keep it up for six weeks."

In manufacturing Woodstock has made great strides in the last decade, and is still increasing its population at a rapid rate. The harnessing of the great water power afforded by the Medunnekanne is the light of the future. The dam is in course of construction and in short distance up that river is completed there will be a large electric plant capable of supplying power for all the electric energy Woodstock can demand for hours of the day. The coming of the Medunnekanne, near its mouth, H. A. Cornell has built dams and is retaining water for the purpose of irrigating the land. He has also managed saw mill and other works. This enterprise was the subject of dispute between the promoters of the canal and the Medunnekanne, which was at first ventilated in the courts, but later submitted to arbitration. The company of Mr. Cornell might make any award the arbitrator might make. EARLY UPPER ST. JOHN INDIAN

No consideration of the early history of Woodstock and its vicinity would be complete without some reference to the aboriginal inhabitants of the country. The Indians of the upper St. John are Maliseets. As a rule the Indians were fine specimens of their race; good hunters, brave warriors, fairly industrious, and, till debased by the white man's civilization, honest in their dealings and virtuous in their habits. They were, however, very numerous in the St. John nearly to its outlet, the hunting grounds extending northward as far as Riviere du Loup and westward to the Penobscot. Rev. Dr. W.

MEISTER SINGERS.

The Meister glee singers are recognized as the best of their kind in Great Britain—the home of the art. The quartet which was formed some twelve years ago, has gained a fame in England never attained by any other musical organization, and its continued career of success is a speaking evidence of its artistic excellence. So much in demand have been their services at home that the present tour is the first opportunity they have been able to secure of crossing the Atlantic. They will give two concerts at the exhibition on Monday, 19th September, and two on Tuesday, 20th September.

ALL READY FOR TONIGHT'S START.

Visitors Will Find Everything Full Blast

Indications Are That the Fair Will be the Most Successful Ever Held Here.

When the exhibition gates are thrown open at six o'clock this evening the public will find the big show bristling with readiness. All yesterday and today the buildings and the grounds were a scene of bustling activity. Workmen and decorators are putting forth a final effort this afternoon to complete the principal details in the arrangement of the main buildings.

The visitor to the exhibition this year is going to be treated to many interesting and novel features of entertainment. If this is his first visit to a St. John exhibition everything he sees will excite his interest and curiosity; if he has visited a former St. John exhibition his pleasure will be none the less in visiting this, as he will be presented with a show superior to anything held here before, and up-to-date in all its details and features.

In the main buildings many changes in the allotment and arrangement of booths will be noticed. Every inch of available space from the machinery hall to the galleries is taken. So pressed were the management for space that they found it necessary to raise the bandstand and devote the space beneath it to exhibiting purposes. Music will be furnished from the top of this raised bandstand, to which access is obtained by a flight of stairs. In the gallery overlooking the bandstand a rectangular space has been partitioned off and fitted up with a double row of chairs, possibly about three hundred for the accommodation of patrons. This is very desirable and thoughtful convenience.

The exhibits in arrangement show originality and painstaking care. They are meant for the most part to be descriptive of the object or use of the particular commodities or articles exhibited. The exhibits in the machinery hall are especially fine. The galleries, always an allurement to visitors in past exhibitions, will have this time an endless array of both small and large exhibits.

The lower portion of the agricultural building is given up as usual to the exhibit of farm products and implements of husbandry. Here will take place daily a butter-making competition, following the most approved method which will be witnessed, especially by city folk, with keen interest. The fastest butter-makers, whose butter must be the best, will be awarded commemorative prizes. The fruits of the maritime harvest, just closed, Provincial abundances, will be exhaustively displayed in the exhibits now in course of preparation. The agricultural building will be more than ever a gratifying point for farmers' and exhibitors' alike. The exhibits in the upper portion of the agricultural building will be devoted entirely to the amusements on account of their exceptionally high order, are being amply noticed by the press and the public. The value of the exhibits will be taken into account. As a matter of fact, it is the exhibition which has made it possible to bring such amusements here.

Already the sound of cattle is heard on the grounds. The live stock exhibit promises to excel that of previous exhibitions. The list of entries is complete so that all available space will be taken up. The whole live stock section has been subjected to a thorough cleaning and its appearance is fresh and inviting.

The bird and poultry department will be, as usual, one of the most interesting features of the exhibition. There will be exhibits from all parts and it is said that the competition between classes will be most keen and consequently the judging interesting. The wagon and carriage exhibits this time will be unusually attractive. It is the first time since the last exhibition many new and improved designs in vehicles have been placed upon the market. A good carriage is more than ever a combination of durability, comfort and lightness, and it might not be an improper suggestion to make, that prospective purchasers should defer their investment until they have had the opportunity of seeing the magnificent exhibits at the exhibition.

On the "Pike" of St. John's fair, or the leading from the upper part of the main building to the trotting course are already erected numerous tents, the shade of untimely mysteries. More are to follow, and the person who is interested in this kind of amusement will find here a day's pastime. Intermingled will be the stands of a few mild fakirs, who seem to be an inseparable concomitant of any successful fair.

At six o'clock the exhibition gates will open, when everything will be in full swing. The opening programme will be held in the amusement hall commencing at eight o'clock. The programme is as follows:

1. 62nd Fusiliers' Band.
2. Address—President Emerson.
3. Address—Lieut. Gov. Snowball.
4. Quartette—Messrs. Kelly and Ritchie, Messrs. Munro and Chebren.
5. Address—Hon. Wm. Pugsley.
6. 62nd Band.
7. Address—Mayor White.
8. Quartette.
9. God Save the King.

AT AMUSEMENT HALL.

It will be well for all prospective exhibition patrons to understand just where they are to see Adgie's Lions and the other fine amusement hall features as there are two halls and one can readily make mistakes. The lions, dogs, Japs, monkeys, the loop monkey, educated geese and several other features will be seen in the big amusement hall, which is entered at the two exits to the left of the Agricultural building. The Vitagraph pictures are in the smaller hall to the right of the same building. The vaudeville show in the big hall, including Adgie's Lions will be given daily at 3.45 and 8.30 p. m. The tickets have been placed at a very low price, and for a little extra reserved seats may be procured in the front of the hall.

THE PRICE OF BREAD

Has Not Yet Increased, But All Biscuits Have Gone Up.

The local bakers and biscuit manufacturers have advanced the price of all biscuits one half a cent a pound. All the manufacturers in the maritime provinces have joined in the movement and it is expected that upper Canadian manufacturers will also increase the price.

As far as the price of bread is concerned it remains the same, seven cents a loaf to the consumer. Just when an increase in the price will be made, if one is decided on, is not known. There is an impression that the price would be advanced one cent on Monday, but as no agreement had been signed up to one o'clock today it is hardly likely that it will take place till later in the week. That there will be an advance is generally believed by manufacturers and dealers.
