

by his despatch of the 20th Sept. to surrender the very money which he withheld on the 4th January following. This statement like the preceding one is in fact, and is also scandalously so, lying on its own face, and is therefore altogether untrue. It is not necessary to say that the Governor is not the author of the despatch of the 20th Sept. nor is it necessary to say that the Governor is not the author of the despatch of the 4th January. It is sufficient to say that the Governor is not the author of either of these despatches, and that the despatches are the work of some other person.

on any individual, and I am confident that he will view with satisfaction the introduction of a price which will secure the interests of the Crown, and will relieve him from the necessity of relying on his own immediate judgment in fixing the ultimate price of Land and Timber. "Signed GLENELG."

We have already said that this despatch was given to Messrs. Crane and Wilton, and it is to be regretted that Lord Glenelg should have so often done the instructions for the sale of Land and Timber to which the Governor and Council are to comply. This despatch was dated in March 1857, so that at the time of the interview in question it was only fifteen months old, and having been looked up for the occasion, New Brunswick affairs occupying a good deal of the attention of the office, it is impossible that Sir George Grey should not have been intimately acquainted with Lord Ripon's plan in all its details. This consideration added to the fact, that no allusion to any such passage is to be found in the minute submitted to Lord Glenelg, must satisfy any one, that Sir George Grey did not, could not, have altered anything in the despatch, but that the despatch was as it stood, and that the despatch was as it stood, and that the despatch was as it stood.

Mr. Pierce, the Editor of the Miramichi Gleaner, has been nominated to be elected to the office of the New-Brunswick Assembly, for breach of privilege. This is a proceeding which no party will approve of, and though it is a matter of political opinion from Mr. Pierce, yet that circumstance cannot make us cease to regard the propriety of the Assembly in the present instance. We trust that the House of Assembly will be able to do justice to the merits of the case, and that they will not be misled by the insinuations of the Miramichi Gleaner.

Commodore Peyton and General Santander.—It is reported that as soon as Commodore Peyton arrived at Cartagena, General Santander visited him on board, and stated that he was authorized to treat for the settlement of the matter in dispute. "So an I replied the Commodore, but are you authorized to deliver up Russell?" "No I am not," said the General. "Then," continued the Commodore, "you are not authorized to receive the Commodore, and the Commodore will not land, this port and the whole coast of New Granada will be in a state of blockade; but stop! let us have a drink together before you go—it may be a long time before we have another. My orders are only to keep you coast in a state of strict blockade—but if you are a gun, I'll blow you overboard." The Commodore then took his drink and the General departed.—Janica's Paper.
