

THE SINN FEIN VIEWPOINT OF IRISH OUTRAGES

Content Civil War Exists and Deny Seriousness of Most Disorders Reported.

MANY ORDINARY CRIMINAL CASES

To Which No Political Significance Can be Attached.

By Carl W. Ackerman. Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Co. London, June 2.—I received today from Irish republican officials in Dublin an interesting analysis of the civil war in Ireland from the Sinn Fein viewpoint. I am calling the report verbatim, because it shows the attitude of the Irish revolutionary government toward "outrages" and because it substantiates the assertion to often made by Irishmen that they are at war with Great Britain.

This Sinn Fein analysis shows what a broad state of affairs exists in Ireland today. In the first twenty-six days of May there were 761 "outrages" an average of more than one an hour. "The English military government in Ireland," the report states, "revived on May 1 an old form of anti-Irish propaganda. The publication of a daily list of Irish outrages was begun on that date. The list from May 1 to May 26 have now been analyzed. This analysis shows that in those twenty-six days 761 outrages were placed to the credit of the Irish people. This total was made up as follows:

"Burning of empty police barracks and other strategic posts, which were being prepared for the use of the British army of occupation, of British tax collectors' papers and burning of military British military equipment, total 219.

"Cases of agrarian agitation arising from the land hunger in Ireland willfully created by British legislation (only sixteen of these cases were serious, total 133.

"Sending of threatening letters, which are posted anonymously and are popularly believed to have their origin mainly in the police, total 133.

"Ordinary cases of criminal offenses against the community, including twenty burglaries and thefts and sixty-four other offenses against the common law, total 332.

"Raiding of houses, in which no damage whatever has been done to property or to person and in which nothing was taken from the raided houses except firearms and ammunition, total 62.

"Raiding of mail cars and bags, in which nothing was taken except correspondence for the British police and military, total 21.

"Cases in which Irish republican police made arrests for offenses against the common law, including stolen property (these are not mentioned in these lists as outrages), total 18.

"Discharge of firearms at police in which no person was injured, total 16.

"Wounding of members of the police force which is armed with bombs, rifles, revolvers and other arms and for four years carried out against the people a merciless war of aggression, total 10.

"Outrages, including one murder and three cases of incendiarism, found subsequently to have been committed by the police, total 7.

"Grand total, 761.

Accompanied by No Injury.

In this analysis it is further shown that of the 761 outrages, 214, or 41 per cent, are acts of the Irish people taken to prevent an intensification of military rule, which acts were not accompanied by any injury to person, any loss of life or any destruction of private property. One hundred and thirty-nine, or 18 per cent, are ordinary criminal cases without any political significance whatever, the vast majority of them relatively trivial cases of small thefts, petty larcenies, etc. The total of crime is extraordinarily low when it is considered that there are no ordinary police in Ireland, the police being used solely to attack the national movement.

A total of 726, or 94 per cent, are other acts of defense by an oppressed people or acts of agrarian agitation, the natural outcome of the civil war, legislative acts of ordinary criminals left free by the employment of police for political aggression. The remaining 35, or 4 per cent, are made up of 18 cases of efforts by the Irish republican police to suppress the activity of criminals and of 18 cases of the wounding and killing of members of the police force which is driving the people to desperation by incessant aggression of the most violent kind.

FIELDING AMENDMENT TO BUDGET DEFEATED

By 120 Votes to 94 After an All Night Session—Cheers from Gov't Side Followed Announcement.

Ottawa, June 2.—By 120 votes to 94, the Fielding amendment to the Budget speech was defeated in the Commons at 6.30 this morning. The House had waited throughout the night and the early morning hours for the result of the vote and when the division bells rang there was a general flocking of members to the chamber. When the vote was announced, cheers arose from the Government benches. The Government majority on the vote was 26.

H. C. Wright, Battledore, and J. A. Campbell, Nelson, former government supporters, voted for the Fielding amendment.

W. A. Buchanan, Lethbridge, who had announced his intention of opposing the Government tariff proposals, was not in the chamber when the vote was taken, but was paired with Dr. J. W. Edwards, Frontenac.

Not only the members of the House but also many visitors, who came to the galleries early Tuesday evening to hear the debate, remained to get first hand information on the result of the division.

Nearly a score of ladies who had occupied seats in the members' gallery during the evening session, remained for the taking of the vote, and the galleries early Tuesday evening to hear the debate, remained to get first hand information on the result of the division.

During the long hours of the night and morning session, while speaker after speaker added his weight to the argument on one side or the other, the members of the House were not only and bewildered but, which somehow had gained entrance to the chamber, circled disquietingly over the heads of the members, and at times flew so low over the heads of the ladies in the galleries that papers and fans were waved to repel the unwelcome visitor.

While the division bells were ringing and while the members waited for the taking of the vote, songs arose from the benches on either side of the chamber.

PARLIAMENT ADJOURNS OVER THE HOLIDAY

WORKING HOURS OF PAGES DISCUSSED

Parliamentary Restaurant Has a Few Critics Who Think Better Meals Should be Served.

Ottawa, June 2.—The House today disposed of a quantity of more or less routine business and adjourned at 6.30 p. m. until Friday afternoon.

There was some considerable discussion on the question of reorganization of the staff of the House of Commons.

Mr. McManis, of Bruce, brought up the question of the working hours of the young boys employed as pages in the House. He rather stated members by declaring he understood that following the midnight session, some of the "little messengers" had not been 10 bed at all.

Speaker Rhodes replied that he was satisfied it was in the interests of the boys themselves. Employment in the House offered advantages. One former page was now employed by a corporation at twenty-five thousand dollars a year. Another had risen to be a Bishop. The question was one, however, for the House to decide and it might be well to employ pages on more mature years.

Fitzsimmons appeared at police headquarters this afternoon with his face battered black and blue, a fractured rib, and suffering from other injuries, and alleged that he had received his injuries at the hands of his next door neighbor, Joe Adams, his nephew by marriage, who used an axe handle on him in a fight that took place at Adams' home last Sunday.

After Adams' arrest this afternoon, Fitzsimmons told the police a story that led to the discovery of the illicit still and a large quantity of goods, stolen from the C. N. R. and being held by Adams home, Adams is being held with the charges of criminal assault, operating an illicit still and having stolen goods in his possession.

HIGH COST OF POLYGAMY PROHIBITS IT

Mrs. Turk Has Developed Expensive Modern Tastes So the Harem Must Go.

NOT MORALITY BUT ECONOMY Prices Everywhere Are Increased—Atheism and Indifference Have Taken the Place of Religion.

By Lydia K. Commander. London, June 1.—The high cost of polygamy is forcing the Turk to abandon his long-cherished harem habit.

While Europe is being swept by an epidemic of immorality and divorce which threatens to overthrow Morogony, the unapproachable Turk is adopting the one-wife idea, hitherto the hall-mark of Christianity and civilization.

It is not that the Turk is being swept with morality. Like the rest of the world, he is suffering from moral degeneration. But Mrs. Turk has developed expensive modern tastes, so the harem must go.

An intelligent Turk, Nuh Bey, whose father was formerly Turkish Ambassador to Rome, explained to me today conditions in his country. "We eat, drink, sleep and dress like anybody else in the world," he said.

"Business everywhere, unscrupulous commercialism, and the get-rich-quick mania are all that remains of the old Turkish traditions of a quiet, contented life. Our homes are furnished with cheap German furniture and best-wood chairs from Vienna.

"The most astonishing thing—more so indeed than unveiled women, Turkish children on roller-skates, and cars driven by Turkish chauffeurs—is the fantastic, unjustified, mad increase in prices.

"Turkish cigarettes can be bought at about half the Constantinople price. Recently, goods of Oriental origin, like carpets, china, brass, have an increase in price that often reaches 2,000 per cent, and European and American goods are at premium prices.

"The high prices and the extravagant new tastes of women, polygamy is a thing of the past. One wife is already forwarded to Sir George Foster. Before going out to take up his post, Governor Guggisberg approached the Canadian trade authorities in London with a view to Canada assisting in the development of the Gold Coast.

"The extension to the Gold Coast of the service of the Canadian Government's mercantile fleet would be both desirable and welcome."

General Guggisberg asks that a special Canadian trade commissioner be sent to the Gold Coast, whose visit might be extended to other West African colonies, facilities for trade which have now been provided by the establishment of a steamship sailing by the Elder Dempster company.

GOVT TAKES ACTION IN NEWSPRINT SUPPLY

Will Insist That Domestic Requirements be Cared for by the Manufacturers.

Ottawa, June 2.—The conference with the newsprint manufacturers announced in the House of Commons yesterday took place today in the Finance Minister's office.

Sir Henry Drayton told the manufacturers the Government was much disturbed to find that, owing to the agreements made last Fall, 25 per cent of the daily newspapers of Canada were facing the possibility of suspension owing to the inability to get newsprint paper, although willing to pay current contract prices for export to foreign countries.

The publishers are emphasizing the point that the great amount of newsprint necessary to the continued existence of 30 daily newspapers affected, represents less than two per cent of the exports of newsprint and that they ask for no favor regarding prices.

The publishers state that the great majority of the mills are keeping their Canadian customers supplied, and that the price rises have been caused by the attitude of a very small minority.

The Hearst newspapers also had a representative in Ottawa, today, interviewing the Government regarding newsprint supply. It is understood that the annual consumption of newsprint for the Hearst newspapers is 200,000 tons, a substantial portion of which is made in Canada.

The International Joint Commission. H. A. Powell of St. John Paper.

Purpose of Hearing. The international joint commission is coming to Montana especially to determine what traffic for a St. Lawrence deep channel this state would have to offer, both incoming and outgoing.

The Great Lake-St. Lawrence Tidewater association, composed of 14 states, whose commerce would naturally flow through the Great Lakes if the lakes were connected by a deep channel to the sea, is assisting the international joint commission in obtaining the data the two governments have asked it to collect.

In order to put the evidence before the commission in a logical manner, the evidence offered by the Tidewater association in favor of the St. Lawrence development is being offered in five parts or stories. These "stories" are: First, the story of the west; second, the story of the gateways; third, the story of shipping; fourth, the story of conservation; fifth, the story of the national summing up of all of the evidence for the project.

"We expect to show that great as the benefits of the lake system of communication have been to the country, its value will be doubled when the lakes become an arm of the ocean. We intend to show that the benefits of the improvements in the St. Lawrence will be as great as the benefits of the improvements at the Sault. The Sault canal paid for itself five times over in the season of 1918. It saved more than $180,000,000 in freight and cost for the canal and river channel was but $22,000,000.

The International Joint Commission

H. A. Powell of St. John Present at Hearing in Helena, Montana—Interesting Account Taken from Helena Paper.

H. A. Powell and Mrs. Powell of St. John are the Hotel Cassor, Helena, Montana, and the following article from the Helena Daily Independent is of interest to all Canadians. H. A. Powell is a member of the international joint commission on waterways:

"The international joint commission, the tribunal which under a treaty between the United States and Canada decides all boundary questions, will conduct a hearing in this city this afternoon. The hearing will take part in the hearing.

Purpose of Hearing. The international joint commission is coming to Montana especially to determine what traffic for a St. Lawrence deep channel this state would have to offer, both incoming and outgoing. Under instructions from the United States and Canadian governments it also will determine approximately what stimulus to the joining of the Great Lakes and the ocean would have upon the development of Montana's resources, commerce and industry. Those who appear before the commission will be asked to give information which will aid the commission in determining the answer to these two questions.

The late Governor R. B. Glenn, a member of the commission, who died in Winnipeg while en route to Montana, declared at the beginning of the St. Lawrence hearings that the project is the greatest movement for the development of the United States and Canada that has ever been undertaken.

The Great Lake-St. Lawrence Tidewater association, composed of 14 states, whose commerce would naturally flow through the Great Lakes if the lakes were connected by a deep channel to the sea, is assisting the international joint commission in obtaining the data the two governments have asked it to collect. Charles P. Craig, executive director of this association, is accompanying the commission on its tour.

Present in Five Parts. In order to put the evidence before the commission in a logical manner, the evidence offered by the Tidewater association in favor of the St. Lawrence development is being offered in five parts or stories. These "stories" are: First, the story of the west; second, the story of the gateways; third, the story of shipping; fourth, the national consequences in "white coal" power production; and fifth, the national summing up of all of the evidence for the project.

The story of the west and its needs for better, quicker, cheaper, more certain transportation for its exports will be brought out in the hearings in Montana, the Dakotas, Idaho, Colorado, Nebraska, Wyoming and Iowa. Mr. Craig says, "We expect to present here the broad picture of transportation shortage, undeveloped resources, retarded settlement and occupation, delayed credit settlements, hampered production, due to excessive costs of transportation, ill-adjusted rate structures, inability to compete in world markets, depression of local prices because of the handicap against the movement of surplus."

"We expect to show that great as the benefits of the lake system of communication have been to the country, its value will be doubled when the lakes become an arm of the ocean. We intend to show that the benefits of the improvements in the St. Lawrence will be as great as the benefits of the improvements at the Sault. The Sault canal paid for itself five times over in the season of 1918. It saved more than $30,000,000 in freight and the cost for the canal and river channel was but $32,000,000.

The Real Benefit. "The real benefit, however, is not what this waterway leaves, but what it makes. We have no way of measuring that. The nearest way we can come to measuring it is to guess what the loss would be if the Great Lakes system is blotted out.

"We shall show that an open sea-way will go a long way towards solving the national transportation problem. A quick way of getting some idea of how it will work is by imagining what would happen to the railroad system of the United States if the Great Lakes went out of business. The railroads would be crushed by the load just as they are broken down now by the load which falls upon them for want of the water connection between the lakes and the ocean.

"When practically all of the commerce of Montana eastward will end its rail journey at Duluth, there will be plenty of box cars coming back to Montana from Duluth to handle the Montana commerce, no matter how great its expansion."

RHINELAND STAFF RETURNING TO U. S.

Commissioner P. B. Noyes Has Been Ordered Home—Will Leave in About a Week.

(Copyright, 1920, by Public-Ledger Company.) Coblenz, June 2.—The American section of the Rhineland High Commission, with Pierrepont B. Noyes as chief is packing his baggage for return to America, under instructions from the State Department. The decision has caused surprise and some consternation among the Allies, particularly the British. For them it forebodes the return of all the American forces on the Rhine. Mr. Noyes, in answer to questions, said:

"It is true I am going home, and shall probably be gone within a week, but this depends on how long it takes to wind up the affairs of the American department of the Rhineland High Commission. There will be no one behind to take my place. I prefer to give no further statement until General Allen returns to Coblenz, for it will be up to him to establish such relations with the High Commission as are necessary in the interests of the American army zone."

The remainder of the story is that for some time past Mr. Noyes has been asking to be allowed to return to Washington, as he already has exceeded the time he proposed to remain here, but the sudden orders to close the commission came as a great surprise, as apparently no real reason was given.

The high commissioner declares there is no question of any disagreement with the French, but that America will recall the commission which with America still in a state of war with Germany, has been invaluable in keeping the State Department in touch with German affairs, in remarkable Mr. Noyes appears to be as mystified as those about him.

I tried all kinds of medicine without relief and thought I would never be able to walk again. ### No Opposition In By-Election

Supporters of Opposition Decide That Owing to Short Time Before General Election It is Hardly Worth While Opposing Dr. Roberts.

In response to a call for a Convention of supporters of the party opposed to the present Provincial Government, a large and representative gathering assembled in the Seaman's Institute last night to consider the question of putting up a candidate to oppose Dr. Roberts, the new Minister of Health in the by-election fixed for the 14th inst. The general feeling of the meeting was very apparent, that in view of the short time that must elapse before a general election becomes due, it would hardly be worth while to run a candidate on the present occasion. A motion to this effect was carried unanimously. Excellent speeches were delivered by Lt.-Col. Harrison, Major Bartram Smith, whose name had been suggested as a candidate and who was prepared to run. Dr. J. R. Campbell, M. L. A., and T. B. Carson, M. L. A., who endorsed the decision arrived at.

SOME JEWEL COLLECTOR.

Osting, N. Y., June 2.—"They say a good wife is a rare jewel. I have been a collector of jewels" writes C. E. Wilson, who is serving a term in Sing Sing for marrying seven wives. This admission is contained in an article which he wrote for the prison paper. The title is "How I came to marry seven wives and land in prison."

THE SINN FEIN VIEWPOINT OF IRISH OUTRAGES

(Continued from page 1.) "All information from Ireland suggests that the Bolshevik movement of the Irish Labor party will deal a mortal blow to the Sinn Fein. It is in the nature of every revolution that an extreme movement is devoured by one more extreme, as the Jacobins destroyed the Girondins. It was all very well to take land from the landlords. There was unanimity about that, but the farmers and their sons will show fight in earnest before they lose what they hold. The labor agitation in Ireland seems certain to lead by degrees to a great Nationalist split and to a revival of moderate influence outside Ulster.

"For the rest, the Irish police of late have shown a firm intention to hold their own. If the Government push on with their bill and stick to their new policy of suppressing outrages while in Ireland, but leaving unlimited impunity to meet the opinion, they will reap their reward."

TURK NATIONALISTS TO ATTACK CAPITAL

Force of 70,000 Men Reported Assembled for Offensive—Amnesty Refused.

Coprieh, 1920, by Public Ledger Company.) Geneva, June 2.—Turkish Nationalist forces are assembling to attack Constantinople, according to information from Italian sources. Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the Nationalist leader, has concentrated 70,000 men at Iserlohn, on the Asiatic side of the Sea of Marmora. It is stated he intends to launch an offensive shortly. He has refused the renewed offer of amnesty made him by the Constantinople government.

Why Castoria?

YEARS ago Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups were the remedies in common use for Infants and Children; Castor Oil so nauseating as to be almost impossible and the others all containing Opium in one form or another, but so disguised as to make them pleasant to the taste, yet really to stupefy the child and give the appearance of relief from pain.

It required years of research to find a purely vegetable combination that would take the place of these disagreeable, unpleasant and vicious remedies that from habit had become almost universal. This was the inception of, and the reason for, the introduction of Fletcher's Castoria, and for over 30 years it has proven its worth, received the praise of Physicians everywhere and become a household word among mothers.

A remedy ESPECIALLY prepared for Infants and Children and no mother would think of giving to her baby a remedy that she would use for herself without consulting a physician.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Have You Tried It? Everybody has read the above headline; how many believe it? Have you a little-one in the home, and has that dear little mite when its stomach was not just right felt the comforts that come with the use of Fletcher's Castoria? You have heard the cry of pain. Have you heard them cry for Fletcher's Castoria? Try it.

Just help baby out of its trouble tomorrow with a taste of Castoria. Watch the difference in the tone of the cry, the look in the eye, the wiggle in the tiny fingers. The transformation is complete from pain to pleasure. Try it.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM CURED BY B. B. B.

Rheumatism is a constitutional disease, caused by the uric acid in the blood. It manifests itself by pain and lameness attacking the muscles and joints of the body, which often swell and become hot and inflamed.

Anyone who has suffered month after month, and perhaps year after year, with rheumatism, and who has tried remedy after remedy in the hope of relief, and without success, should not give up hope.

Burdock Blood Bitters, by invigorating the digestive organs and eliminating the uric acid from the system, will give prompt and permanent relief.

Mrs. D. Barry, Parbrooks, Ont., writes: "I feel it my duty to let you know of the great benefit my husband derived from using your Burdock Blood Bitters. He had been suffering for the past two years with inflammatory Rheumatism. He tried many medicines, but got no better. A friend advised him to take B. B. B. He did so, and after taking five bottles he felt like a new man, and was able to go to work the same as ever."

TRUE STORY OF WILDE-WALLACE BOUT RETOLD

Decision of a Draw Would Have Been a Fair Verdict—Author of Fake News is Naïf.

World's Champion Flyweight Jimmy Wilde has sailed for home on the Adriatic, accompanied by his wife and faithful trainers. His visit to America marked an epoch in the history of the ring sport in this country. Wilde proved himself to be a different kind of a champion. He was not a mixer in the sense that a man to be a successful professional boxer must referee could have given would have been a draw. Despite the fact that the bout was advertised for the world's flyweight title, neither man was particularly well weighed. It was learned that Wallace scaled 137 pounds in his street clothes. Wilde did not get on the scales. The announcement was that both boxers were under 116 pounds, the required weight.

For diversion or distraction, if you choose to call it, he sought the golf course. He had no trouble enjoying the companionship in a match or four some of men whose names were linked with professional, industrial and commercial pursuits—men who help to make American history. Golf was the tool he used to take his mind off the businessness of training for his ring combats. It was this side of Wilde's nature which excited the condemnation of the rough ring followers. That never bothered Wilde. His services were constantly in demand. He had a fixed price, $7,000 for a six-round bout, $8,000 for eight rounds and $10,000 for ten-round contests. In several instances he shaded this price. Had he remained in this country he could have received a $15,000 guarantee for a return bout with Patsy Wallace, a star sumo box Sharkey and all kinds of money for a bout with World's Champion Pete Herman.

Wallace May Get the Chance. Unless some American flyweight can be induced to go to London and meet Wilde he will likely return to the United States after the summer months, and start to clean up all the men of his class. He is settled over the Wallace incident and maybe the latter will be invited to go to London and swap punches with the titleholder. Ted Lewis, who is Wilde's manager, has a number of tentative dates offered by Charles B. Cookman for the champion's services, the bouts to be decided at Olympia in London, during July and August.

British Flag in Philly. All reports that the Union Jack which Referee Mansh attempted to Toronto was winner of the bout in the following the decision is another garbled story. Doctor Cutch, manager of Wallace, brought the flag to Philadelphia. The writer advised Cutch to write a courteous letter to Mayor Church, of Toronto, and return the flag. That is the sportsmanlike way. The Mayor could hand it to Major Morrison, who had charge of the army veterans' carnival, or send it to the United States to whom it rightfully belongs following the referee's decision.

Truth of Wilde-Wallace Bout. The following is the first authorized published opinion of the recent Wilde-Wallace bout in Toronto last Monday night. A despicable fake story was sent out from the Ontario city on Tuesday last, signed by H. Benton, who writes over the name of plume of Rob Roy. He purported to have had an interview with the writer after the contest.

Did Not Even See Fakir. The writer did not see, nor have any conversation with Benton since the fight. In fact Benton sat behind the writer at the fight, and by constant handings tried to draw out some expression regarding the result of the bout as it progressed. The writer was before the Public Ledger and its clients and turned a deaf ear to all the men of the Benton stamp. After the show the writer hurried back to the city and wired his story, returned to the hotel, retired and was up early the next morning; transacted some personal business and left for Philadelphia by the afternoon train.

What Is Doing On Chatham Speedway. The dates for the Chatham racing meet are during the week commencing August 2nd and September 6th (Labor Day) and 13th. The programmes will be announced in the course of a few days.

He Switched His Opinion. Imagine her disgust when at Niagara Falls the next day she picked up a Buffalo paper and saw over Benton's signature that Wallace had won the bout. Wilde had several teeth knocked out and was lucky to escape a knockout. He proclaimed Wallace the new world's flyweight champion. Included in this report was the faked interview with the writer.

Some Real Good Stake Entries. Sir Barton and Billy Kelly for the Blue Bonnets—Events Commence on June 9 and Continue Seven Days.

Chatham Baseball. The extreme cold weather of the first weeks of May hampered the Chatham ball players considerably, but the summer heat of the past few days has worked a wonderful change. A number of the old-timers have come out and baseball promises to boom here this summer.

Elimination Trials on Today. Newport, R. I., June 2.—The sloops Resolute and Vanite, aspirants for the honor of defending the America's Cup against the Shamrock IV, will begin their series of elimination trials tomorrow. Both yachts were anchored tonight in Brenton's Cove.

Trapshooting Last Evening

Conditions Excellent at Glen Falls Traps—Sweepstake Shots Were Very Interesting—Some Regular Shoot Scores.

The numbers of the St. John Trap Shooting Association that missed last night's shoot certainly missed a treat. Conditions were everything that could be asked for. Some very interesting events were pulled off.

High right whips prevailed. R. McAvity shot at 25, broke 12. The next regular of the club will be held next Wednesday evening. After the shoot a business meeting of the club was held and it was decided by vote that action be immediately taken to finance the members of the club who have won places on the Olympic team. Other provinces and cities are supporting their Olympic prospects and St. John is not going to be left off if good energetic work on the part of the club counts for anything.

Holmes To Start In Olympic Trials

Grant Holmes the crack Dalhousie and Wanderer middle distance runner, announced that he will be a candidate for a place on the Canadian Olympic team, and that he will be a starter in the Nova Scotia and maritime trials. Holmes is one of the best runners Halifax has developed since the days of Billy Ross, who by the way is a first cousin of Holmes. He has a regular champion's stride, and his friends throughout the maritime provinces, predict that he will at the worst, be in the finals for the Canadian team.

Arthur B. ar, the star Halifax sprinter, is also getting in trim for the trials, and should be perform as he did last summer he will do well. Baker is only a boy, and is still in his teens. Roy W. C. "Billy" Ross, is planning a comeback and will be a favorite with the Halifax sports, to catch a place on the Canadian team should he show any of his old form.

June Weddings

Teed-Dickenson.

A wedding of much interest to a large circle of friends in this city and throughout the province, was solemnized yesterday afternoon in Queen Street Methodist Church, when Miss Edna Pauline Dickenson, youngest daughter of Mrs. C. W. Dickenson, Lansdowne House, 40 King Square, became the bride of George Clayton Teed, son of Mrs. G. A. Teed, 72 Queen Street. The church was artistically decorated with flowers and white streamers and many friends and relatives attended to witness the ceremony. Rev. George Morris officiated. The bride who was given away by her brother, looked lovely and charming in a wedding gown of white charmesse satin trimmed with silver lace and orange blossoms and carrying a shower bouquet of daisies and sweetheart roses tied with silver tulle and streamers. The bride's going away suit was navy blue tricot with hat to match and she wore a grey squirrel fur. They were unattended. Harry Dunlop played Mendelssohn's and Lohengrin's wedding marches. ## What Supports the Heart?

By N. COOK, M. D.

The heart is the hardest worked organ of the human body. It beats on an average of seventy times a minute—from the minute of birth to the minute of death. Every half minute or every thirty-second beat, the whole of the blood in the body is pumped through the heart, so that the dual heart moves about six tons of blood in each twenty-four hours. On the purity of the blood health depends. On the strength of the heart depends the strength of the body.

The question then is, how can we keep the heart strong? What is blood? Blood is only digested food. No man is stronger than his stomach, because physical strength is derived from food digested and assimilated. Deaths ascribed to weak heart and "heart failure," should be called weak stomach and "stomach failure."

It is this dependence of the heart upon the stomach which explains the relief from "heart trouble" effected by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This remedy in fact purifies the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It purifies the blood, eliminating from it the substances which corrupt and poison it. But Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery also acts directly upon the heart itself. It strengthens the heart's action.

This is the time of year when we need a reliable tonic. Toxin (poisons) pile up within the body after a "hard winter," and we feel tired out, blue and discouraged. If you want vim, vigor, vitality, try this Spring tonic of Doctor Pierce's.

Masculine Garments For Women Predicted

Miss Wilson of London Says by 1925 Overcoats and Trousers Shaped Like Flower Petals Will Be Worn.

By Lydia K. Commander.

London, June 2.—Trousers freedom for women, long-sought revolution launched by world-famous Dr. Mary Walker in the United States a generation ago, will at last come into its own if a fashion revolt being agitated here by Miss Marie Wilson, prominent designer, succeeds. Miss Wilson predicts woman's sartorial emancipation by 1925.

Already former war service women, farmettes, conductresses, elevator girls and other women whom the war forced into men's positions and who have continued their work into peacetime have permanently adopted masculine garments.

Several of the advanced spring models of the great fashion artists give evidence of the predicted revolution, displaying distinct trousers under their very brief skirts.

The revolution is presented in Miss Gertrude Jennings' new play at the Little Theatre, "Husbands for All," displaying women's garments of 1925, designed by Miss Wilson.

They are a compromise between the severity of masculine garments and

By Constance Drexel.

Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Co. Cherbourg, June 2.—"If any French or German women try to start a row so to speak, the League of Nations, America will come into the League of Nations, discuss knitting," was the advice given American suffragists en route to the meeting of the International Women's Suffrage Alliance at Geneva by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, who will be president of the congress.

SOME GOOD RECIPES

- Orange Souffle. Beat the yolks of three eggs until lemon colored and very thick. Add three tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar, the rind (grated) of half an orange, half a cup of grated cake crumbs that have been cooked in the strained juice of one orange, half a tablespoonful of lemon juice and a quarter of tablespoonful of salt. Stir the stiffly whipped egg whites and 1 1/2 tablespoonfuls of currants. Pour into a buttered soufflé dish and bake for 20 minutes in a moderate oven.
- Cheese Pudding. Grate or chop half a pound of soft American cheese. Toast and butter four slices of bread. In the bottom of a baking-dish, put two slices, and cover with half the cheese, dusting lightly with salt and pepper. Put the remaining cheese over the other two slices. Over all pour one pint of milk. Let it stand for five minutes and bake in a quick oven for twenty minutes. This will serve four people. Six slices of bread may be used instead of four, with the same amount of cheese, if you add an extra cup of milk.
- To Mold Cereal. A nice way to mold a cereal for frying is to pour it into well buttered baking powder cans. While the baking powder cans have a sharp edge and care must be used in washing them, they are better than coffee cans, for coffee cans have a little roll edge that prevents turning the molded cereal out to slice.

MORRIS PLAYS WITH COLORED PHOTOGRAPHY.

Gouverneur Morris, who is in California superintending the making of his new Goldwyn picture, "The Penalty," is much interested in photography. In addition to studying screen technique he is now experimenting with colored photography. Mr. Morris thinks the day is soon coming when writers will study screen methods at first hand and then adapt their own stories to the screen. When colored motion pictures especially written for the screen by skilled writers who help direct them have arrived the art of the silver sheet will be about as near perfection he thinks as it is possible for it to get. Meanwhile Mr. Morris has purchased a camera and is doing some experimenting with photography in colors. Ernest Miller camera man on the Goldwyn lot, is coaching him.

Washington, June 2.—In the office of leading Republican Senators at the Senate Building in Washington, the last hand is being driven in the key-note plank of the platform to be submitted to the Chicago convention. The master-computations are headed by Senator J. E. Watson, Indiana, who will probably be chairman of the convention committee on resolutions. His associate planners are Senators Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts; Senator Philander C. Knox, of Pennsylvania; Senator Frank B. Brandegee, of Connecticut; Senator Irvine L. Lenroot, of Wisconsin; Senator Frank B. Kellogg, of Minnesota; Senator Asa J. Gorman, of North Dakota; Representative Nicholas Longworth, of Ohio; Representative Frederick H. Gillette, of Massachusetts; Speaker of the House, and Representative Charles D. McNary, of Oregon, chairman of the National Committee on Politics and Platforms, also participating in the post-work.

Senator Boies Penrose is taking a hand by telephonic proxy. Early and late in the day the long-distance wire leading out of Senator Watson's office is buzzing with conversation with Philadelphia. The Ohio General Assembly's number in Spruce street, Philadelphia. Hardly a decision of importance, apparently, is taken without consultation with the stricken Pennsylvania G. O. P. leader.

Differences on Treaty.

How much can be stated with positiveness—the paramount plank that, with the League of Nations, has not yet been drawn and seen into formal shape. All shades of treaty opinion, it is claimed, are represented at the platform builders. The irreconcilable Johnson-Borah camp, not represented by these two principal members of the platform-building principalities, have two spokesmen in the conference in the person of Senators Knox and Brandegee. The treaty plank has been decided upon in principle, but not in philosophical detail. It will be the Indiana plank with reservations, modifications and interpretations. One of the things that the irreconcilables are insisting it shall include is an out-of-pocket tribute to the party they played in saving Mr. Wilson's treaty law.

Another plank already tacked upon, with more or less definiteness, is the one dealing with industrial relations. It does not recommend the repeal of legislation. It approves of collective bargaining. While admitting the right of a man in any branch of employment to cease working, the plank will deprecate "organized interruption" of public utilities or services of any kind that serve the general interest and convenience of the community. The plank will advocate the setting up of some form of impartial tribunal for settlement of labor disputes and conciliation of the community. Transportation act provides for.

Pressure for "ISMs."

It seems that the platform-builders are suffering incessant pressure from "interests" of all kinds. Every "ism" in the country wants to squeeze into the Republican magna charta. A deputation from the "national league of women voters" turned up today with several thousand words of recommendations on every conceivable phase of women's questions, recommending the title of more or less textually, in the Chicago platform.

The "National women's party" by the way, announces tonight that they are going to make their presence felt in their own militant way at Chicago. The refusal of the Republican Government of Vermont, Percival W. Clemen, to call a special session of his legislature to pass a suffrage act in time for Vermont women to go to the polls in November, has induced the women's party to clear for action. The announcement that the legislature of Delaware is going to adjourn on June 2nd, without having ratified the suffrage amendment is another reason why the militant women are putting on their war paint for Chicago. The "Amazons" who are going to give the national convention a taste of what Chairman Will H. Hays recently experienced in Washington will be led by Mrs. Abbie Scott Baker, of Washington, political chairman of the women's party. Her band of crusaders will include Mrs. Lawrence Lewis, of Philadelphia, ratification chairman; Mrs. J. M. Rector, of Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Lillian Ketter, of Colorado Springs, Colorado; Miss Elsie Hill, of Norwalk, Conn.; Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the women's party; and Miss Florence Bayard Hill, state chairman of Delaware. No hint could be obtained tonight as to what the women are going to do at and to the convention. But they are willing to have it inferred that it will be something designed to make delegates sit up and take notice.

HIS MOVE.

Birmingham, Ala., June 2.—Birmingham has just lost an opportunity for securing more concrete. A man, apparently a capable lobbyist, who had been in the City Hall and offered to pay the city $25 per week for the privilege of being on a certain street corner. The city official called a policeman and the "cops" suddenly forgot his ill-effects and retreated hastily. He did not leave his name.

Washington, June 2.—In the office of leading Republican Senators at the Senate Building in Washington, the best minds are being driven to the keystone plank of the platform to be submitted to the Chicago convention. The master-carpenters are headed by Senator Jas. E. Watson, of Indiana, who will probably be chairman of the convention committee on resolutions.

Very few down-trodden but brims are seen, unless the brim is transparent. Any number of costume hats have high-draped crowns, with a feather or wing swirling across one side.

She Was Afraid To Go Out Alone

Mrs. Allen Feared a Complete Collapse But Has Regained Her Health, Now.

"I feel so deeply grateful for the wonderful way Tanlac has overcome my nervous troubles, that I feel ought to tell of my experience for the benefit of others," said Mrs. Julia Allen who lives at 140 City Road, St. John, N. B., recently, when giving the Tanlac representative particulars of her case.

"Ever since I was a child I have been extremely nervous, and this condition became so much worse as I got older, that at last I had spells of such awful nervousness about every two weeks that they completely prostrated me. Then for hours afterwards I would have a dull throbbing pain in my head that nearly drove me out of my mind. The least bit of a noise would make me jump so that I felt all anything that I happened to have in my hand as the moment my fingers touched it. My heart would seem to be much worse at night and I would wake up with a start, and then get into such a nervous state I could hear my heart go thump, thump, and would break out into a cold sweat. At last I became so weak and thin that I was afraid to go out on the street by myself for fear I should collapse altogether.

"I started to take Tanlac last summer and the result was most gratifying. My nerves have so greatly improved that I have only had two slight spells of nervous trouble since, and these were nothing like as severe as the terrible attacks I used to have every other week. In fact I feel quite sure that in a short time I shall be entirely free of this trouble which has been like a nightmare to me for so many years. I have been entirely free of headaches ever since I started taking Tanlac, and never have any sleepless nights with my heart now. I sleep like a child all night, and can work every day for about just as well as any strong healthy person. I certainly believe Tanlac has relieved me of all my troubles and I am glad to add my name to the thousands who have told what a wonderful medicine Tanlac is."

GERMAN THEATRES FORCED TO CLOSE

Heavy Taxes Result in Shutting Down of Sixty First Class Houses.

Berlin, June 2.—(By the Associated Press).—Taxation amounting to something like 65 percent of gross revenue and heavy running expenses are responsible for the recent closing down of 60 first-class theatres in Germany. Many theatrical and operatic companies are said to be in more financial straits than ever before, and are unable to pay for the higher priced seats at the present increased rates, and the moving picture houses, with their popular prices, are reaping the benefit.

The manager of the Reinhardt concern which controls the three most important Berlin theatres states that the latest "Luxury" alone takes more than 20 percent of the box office receipts. Boxes and stalls are now rarely booked. The Kapp revolution, he said, caused the concern a loss of 750,000 marks.

CAESAR ON MARS.

Bucharest, June 2.—A wave of spiritualistic seances is sweeping over Rumania and some of the mediums claim to have received extraordinary "messages." One reported that an attempt to communicate with the spirit of Julius Caesar had failed because he was "commanding and governing in Mars and therefore out of reach."

The Successful Growing of Mangel

(Experimental Farm Note.) The growing of mangels has received a great impetus in many districts owing to the serious loss among farmers, caused by drought. The mangel is attacked by very few insects or diseases, and when successfully grown produces immense yields of excellent food, so necessary for live stock during the winter and spring months.

"I started to take Tanlac last summer and the result was most gratifying. My nerves have so greatly improved that I have only had two slight spells of nervous trouble since, and these were nothing like as severe as the terrible attacks I used to have every other week. In fact I feel quite sure that in a short time I shall be entirely free of this trouble which has been like a nightmare to me for so many years. ## STEADIER TONE IN EXCHANGE

London Quotations Rose About Five Cents—Marks Reacted.

New York, June 2.—The stock market was in a state of suspended animation during the greater part of today's session. The market reacted to the full session scarcely totalling 50,000 shares.

Price tendencies were mainly downward, although issues, except among selected issues, were partly relieved when the money market developed unexpected ease and the shorts found it expedient to cover.

All money opened at 8 per cent, a reflection of yesterday's sharp rise, but relaxed to six per cent in the last hour on a surplus of offerings, to which out of town banks made substantial contributions.

A steady tone prevailed in European exchanges, especially the London quotation which rose about 5 cents to the pound over yesterday's final price on heavy purchase of demand bills. The Paris rate, also received material improvement but mark reacted.

Advices dealing with industrial conditions were conflicting, the equipment companies reporting moderate buying while additional curtailment of operations was indicated in the Wood-Cotton and Levee industries. Larger deliveries of finished steel and iron products reduced further relief in the freight situation.

Aside from the relative firmness of low-priced rails and pressure against investment issues of that group, stocks showed no allocation from their recent hesitant tone. The moderate rally in the final trading made greater headway in speculative issues than among standard shares where net dealings ruled.

Fullness in stocks extended to the bond market with liberty issues experiencing further depreciation, in some instances yielding one per cent. Speculative or convertible railroad bonds were firm and foreign issues were featured by the strength of Anglo-French 5's. Total sales (par value) aggregated $124,000.

U. S. Bonds were unchanged on call.

UNION PACIFIC IN BIG OFFER

Will Place $40,000,000 in Certificates on the Market.

(F. B. McCURDY & CO.)

New York, June 2.—The Union Pacific Railway is offering $10,000,000 of four to fifteen year, seven per cent equipment trust certificates. Approximately $21,000,000 of St. Louis and St. Francisco Railway bonds are reported to have been purchased from the French Government by private bankers here to be placed with American investors. The railroad section of the market is gradually assuming more relative importance, as it is being realized that the steps taken to rehabilitate the credit and earning power of the roads are gradually taking form. The element of speculation in railroad prospects, which has been absent for so long, is rapidly being restored as the prospects for rate increases brighten, and increasing interest in railroad stocks is to be exhibited.

The rise in money rates to 10 per cent, yesterday was an unfavorable influence, but it remains to be seen whether or not this was only a temporary furor.

The market without this influence and that of the increase in discount rates quite well indeed, all things considered, and while trading promises to remain limited the prospect is not unduly discouraging.

ABITIBI LEAD THE PAPER STOCKS

Touched a New High But Dropped Back at Close of Day.

Montreal, June 2.—Paper stocks were again the feature of today's local stock market. Abitibi took the lead in activity on a turnover of 3,800 shares and rose to a new high of 89 1/4, but under heavy profit-taking the gain was lost and the stock closed unchanged at 78. Laurentide was another heavy item, totalling 4,404 shares, with a new high at 194 and a net gain of 2 3/4 points which it held at the close. Spanish River, with sales of 3,665 shares, showed little more strength than yesterday, rising to 87 1/2 and reacting to 95 3/4. The preferred was much stronger, the price rising to 136 3/4, a net gain of 3 3/4 points, which 1 1/2 were retained at the close at 134 1/2. Waysagmack recovered yesterday's loss and sold up to 110 1/2. Price Bros., on a small turnover, made a spectacular jump of 19 points to 324, with closing bid advanced to 327.

Breweries and Dominion Steel were both heavily dealt in, and each were inclined to sag. Cottons and allied stocks were all weak and down from yesterday. Brazilian was neglected, and sagged two points to 44 1/2.

Total trading: Listed, $5,283; bonds, $30,325.

OIL STOCKS IN SHARP RALLY

New York, June 2.—After an early selling dip had a sharp rally under the leadership of Pan American, which advanced two points over the low of the first half hour. Directors of Pan-American meet in Los Angeles this morning for dividend action. Because of difference in time it is unlikely that decision of directors will be known here before close of the market. A banker says that any development tending toward liquidation of commodities will help money situation in Wall Street. It is because of this, he said, that rates in discount rate could be regarded as bearish, liquidations of commodities will release money. New York is a great money center and drift of life funds will be in this direction, when interior banks have more money than they know what to do with they ship it to New York. Wall Street is thoroughly liquidated in brokers' loans so small, Wall Street is immune from panic.

MARKET CONTINUES DULL AND NARROW

Motor Stocks Picked up Considerable Before Close of Trade.

New York, June 2.—There was no departure from the extreme dullness and narrowness of the market in the early afternoon. Call money, however, eased off to six per cent and was offered fairly freely at that figure, which induced short covering towards the close on the part of those who had put out stocks yesterday on the 10 per cent money rate.

The Motor stocks, with the exception of General Motors, picked up considerably. General Motors continued heavy because of the expectation of the large new stock issue below the market price. The oil stocks, equipment and steel joined in the recovery so that the closing tone was distinctly strong.

COTTON REPORT NOT ENCOURAGING

Crop is Late and Weevil is Unusually Numerous This Season.

New York, June 2.—The government report issued at noon today, indicated a condition of 62.4 the lowest figure on record comparing with the previous low in 1917 when the condition was 68.5 and with a ten year average of 78.7.

The supplemental report, issued by the Bureau, states that the crop ranges from four to six weeks late; that the weevil is unusually numerous in the infested locality, but that there has been a decided increase in the use of fertilizer as compared with last season. The excess over a year ago ranging from 10 to 35 per cent. Uncertainty over outside or general business conditions were held responsible for the failure of the bullish crop figures to create a broader demand. Underlying sentiment seemed to be very bullish however and from many quarters it was predicted that prices would reach much higher levels owing to the unfavorable start of the crop.

MOTOR STOCKS UNDER PRESSURE

(Published by McDougal & Cowans.)

New York, June 2.—The motor stocks yielded to pressure in the early afternoon, but the issues recovered with the rest of the list towards the close. Call money fell back to 6 p. c., covering traders to cover short contracts put out in the morning, and the covering movement became more insistent in the last half hour of trading. Equipments made some substantial gains for the day, as did the rails. As a whole, today's trading was light, as might be expected so shortly before the beginning of the national political conventions.

The stock market paid only perfunctory attention to the Government report of the new cotton crop, which shows the lowest condition percentage for this time of year in the records of the Department of Agriculture.

Sales, 443,700.

Reid, the treasurer, reported a balance on hand in the general fund of $35. Mrs. Oddy then gave a report of her visit to the annual meeting, which took the members through the seasons of the "annual" in an interesting and comprehensive way. Miss L. M. (P. B. McCURDY & CO.)

Montreal, June 2.—Trading on the local market this forenoon was more active than in any single session for some time past. Total shares traded in excess of 21,000. Of these Abitibi contributed 6,250; Bronpton, 1,415; Laurentide, 2,459; Breweries, 7,331; Spanish, 3,350; Paper issues again held the stage and were strong all the way round, in the case of a few stocks which were prominent here, both by reason of number of shares and strength. The stock made a new high at 50.14.

There were new rumors in the market regarding the recovery of the iron and steel industry. The probability are that the selling was due to the somewhat disappointing annual report which appeared a few days before the decision. It can only be said that the street was not expecting large profits by steel corporation, having already been told that these profits would be away below those of recent years.

Cotton stocks showed little change but were practically below the recent high. Trading in them was not active.

Public Utilities issues were neither better nor sufficiently changed to occasion comment.

Seeds which went into the ground some time ago have not made a start yet, and many young planters are being scolded with the best. August has nothing on some of the hot days experienced during the past three weeks. With weather such as we have had recently, the levee that there is still ice to be found in the woods, and on Victoria Day a party of fishermen several miles from Gagetown and Upper Hamstead had placed outside their tent covered over with a layer of ice which had to be broken before the morning meal was prepared. Even then, the water poured out to their cups "skimmed over" before breakfast, was partly from this vacation spot, if better known, would be very popular during July and August.

People living near the woods are constantly on the alert for any signs of a forest fire nearby; for the woods are now dangerously dry. The fire which burned considerable pulpwood at Onabog Lake last week, after smouldering several days, broke out again on Tuesday of this week, and caused some alarm for several hours.

London, June 2.—Overalls have made the wife of Major J. R. Pretyman Newman, M. P., prouder of him "that ever." Major Pretyman Newman, who is chairman of the Middle Classes Union, has joined the overall protest movement.

"I think his overalls are extremely practical and most excellent," Mrs. Newman said today. "Moreover, they save money. If such a thing were possible I am prouder of him now than I was before for having the courage of his convictions. I like the overall, it has very little difference between them and an ordinary lounge suit."

"He is wearing them now," continued Mrs. Newman. "This afternoon, we shall certainly go out some where and whether it be to the West End or to his constituency, I shall not hesitate a moment about accompanying him."

"What about Sunday?" she was asked.
"Ah, well—that is a slightly different proposition. But then, everybody has to change for Sunday."

"THEM WAS THE DAYS"
Brookhaven, L. I., June 2.—Town Trustee Chas. J. Odell is taking no chances of the prohibition law being broken or even bent out of shape in Brookhaven. He has been delving in the town by-laws and discovered that on June 2, 1910, this order was adopted:

"If any one of ye trustees after notice given doth not appear at ye time and place appointed, he shall forfeit one pint of rum."

He promptly drew a resolution voting this old law, fearing the effect of the distribution of free rum upon the board. The other trustees supported him, though several are suspected of having murmured "Them was the days" as they regarded their votes.

MORE HARBOR REVENUE.
 The harbor revenue for May amounted to $14,600, as compared with $10,500 for the same month last year, an increase of $4,100. The increase in the number of sugar boats arriving and several schooner loads of salt assisted in making the increase. The harbor master said that six more sugar boats were expected in port in the near future.

FERRY RECEIPTS HIGHER.
 Although an increase in revenue for May is shown in the ferry superintendent's report, the increased cost of operation more than absorbs the margin. Commissioner Bullock said yesterday morning. LIQUOR INSPECTORS' SUCCESSFUL TRIP

Inspector McAlinh With Two Others Returned Yesterday from North Shore — Five Convictions Secured.

Liquor Inspector McAlinh returned to the city yesterday after an absence of nearly a week during which he was engaged on an inspection trip along the North Shore. The route pursued by the inspector may be learned from the convictions he secured, namely, Acadville, one, Pleasant Ridge, one, Chatham, one, Newcastle two. Two arrests were also made in Newcastle in which one citizen was deprived of five bottles of lemon extract and another of three.

Inspector Saunders of Fredericton, and inspectors James and Adam Dickinson of Newcastle accompanied Inspector McAlinh in his series of raids.

New Schedule Of Market Tolls

Are Anywhere from Fifty to Two Hundred and Fifty Per Cent. Greater Than the Toll at Present in Force.

Will the city fathers raise another obstacle to any possible reduction of the cost of living? City Hall is working. A new schedule of market tolls has been prepared; the new tolls are anywhere from fifty to two hundred and fifty per cent greater than the toll at present in force.

If Council Thornton puts the new schedule through the city council, the increases may very well become an excuse for a new increase in the cost of food stuffs, or at any rate an obstacle to prevent a reduction in the prices. "When the city raises the taxes by five dollars, the landlords generally raise rents about twenty-five dollars," said a city official yesterday. The proposed increases in market tolls are not large as individual items, but the people who use the city market would doubtless cite the increases as an excuse for putting up prices.

Why the proposal to increase the market tolls should be brought forward at this time is hard to understand. Last year, the receipts from the city market was $19,763, and the expenditures were $10,651. As the city was $9,000 to good on the operation of the market last year, the citizens will doubtless want an explanation of why it is proposed to levy market tolls which would probably double this revenue. It has for many years been the idea that the city market was maintained to keep down the cost of living, and that though the market should not be run at a loss, neither should it be treated with the object of showing a profit for the city at the expense of the citizens.

It looks as if the proposal to increase the market tolls will cause a fight in the city council, as well as opposition among the citizens.

Historic Building Changed Owners

Congregational Church on Union Street Now Owned by Knights of Pythias — Purchase Price Said to be $14,000.

The sale of a historic building was effected recently when the Congregational Church on Union street passed into the hands of the Knights of Pythias. It is understood that the purchase price was $14,000 and that the Knights will add a story to the structure and make extensive improvements. For many years this society have been in the Wygodsky building on Germain street but were obliged to look for a new home May 25 as that building was required by its owners. Since then the Knights have been occupying a hall in the Masonic Temple, Germain street.

The corner stone of the Congregational Church was laid in 1841 and it is this among the other churches in St. John. A historical sketch of this edifice will be published later written by one who has been intimately connected with the church for many years.

There has been for some time no pastor for the Church and services have not been held there. The Mission Band of the Church will still keep up their meetings.

Programme Last Night Was Enjoyed

An evening of interest and enjoyment was spent by those who last night attended the tableaux arranged by Miss Bessie Holt's pupils. Members of Miss Holt's class in Folk Dancing assisted with their talent and a programme of artistic merit was given by the young people before an appreciative audience which filled the St. John Art Club studio.

Several excellent dancing numbers were given, the Folk Dance being quaint, while the Butterfly and Minuet were graceful and pretty. Miss Waring is always admirable in folk dancing. Victor Regan sang sweetly two songs and Miss Ethel McGinley gave two readings which were cleverly rendered. The pictures reproduced by Miss Holt's pupils were true to the originals and very pretty. Miss Sinclair was accompanied by Miss Lillian Hazen, who was chairman in her opening remarks referred to the fact that last evening marked the close of the supplementary course and said the pupils deserved credit for their hard work in the preparation of the entertainment which was held for the benefit of the Art Club funds.

The programme was as follows:

Police Officer Case Postponed

Several Prisoners Were Remanded—Case Against Man and Woman Was Dismissed.

The only case to be dealt with in the police court yesterday afternoon was that of Richard Hogg, police constable, charged with selling liquor.

Mabel Bentley stated that she had secured a bottle of liquor from the defendant in March and another bottle at a later date. Inspector McAlinh came to the witness's house one day, and as he was going to search the place the witness gave him the bottle produced in evidence.

J. A. Barry, counsel for the defence, objected that as the bottle was not marked it could not be identified as identical with the bottle given the inspector.

The witness said she told the inspector she bought the bottle from Richard Hogg.

Witness and Hogg lived in the same house, the defendant upstairs, the witness downstairs. In consequence of the complaints of the accused, the witness and her husband received notice from the landlord to quit the premises. The witness further stated that the defendant kept her in a room which was the slumbers of the witness, as the accused would work until 12 at night making hen-coops, and his roosters began to crow at 3 o'clock, affording her opportunity for slumber. The case was postponed to Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Several prisoners were brought before the court and remanded.

In the morning three men pleaded guilty to drunkenness and were remanded.

A case against Jack Spellman and Kate Whittaker, charged with registering at the Asla Hotel as man and wife, was dismissed. P. S. Ritchie conducted the defence.

Today being a public holiday, no sitting of the police court will be held.

As the result of a raid on 27 Brunswick street by Policemen Dykeman and Inspector Morryfield, Tuesday evening, James and Kate Dobson were charged with keeping a disorderly house, William Lennox with being an inmate, and Charles Campbell, Florence Jordan and Margaret Thomas with being frequenters of the house. The two offenders testified, and the case was postponed till Saturday.

One drunk held over from Tuesday pleaded guilty and was sentenced $5 for being drunk and $8 for being out till 3:15 a. m.
